KEEP YOUR EYES OPEN

The House Ways and Means Committee recently held hearings on a bill which would provide hospital, surgical and nursing home treatment to people drawing Social Security pensions. And it is highly significant that one of the most forthright statements in opposition to his scheme came from Arthur S. Flemming, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare — the federal department which is vitally concerned with the well-being of older people as well as the rest of us.

Mr. Flemming said that the bill would commit the government to a course of action that would ultimately destroy voluntary health insurance plans. He pointed out that these plans, at the rate they are expanding, should provide insurance to about 70% of Social Security pensioners by 1965. He estimated the cost of the proposed bill for next year alone at $1.12 billion. And he urged that Congress wait for the results of a study which is now being made in an effort to determine the role government should play in developing old age health plans that are practicable and desirable.

Mr. Flemming was a compelling witness, and he was far from being alone. Medical experts testified that the bill, if passed, would result in poorer, not better, medical care for the people of this country. And it takes no seer to see that the bill is little more than an opening wedge for socialized medicine. For, if certain people are to become wards of the government so far as medical care is concerned, other groups will demand the same kind of benefits.

The bill in question will not, in all probability, be voted on this session. But it will be up again next year. And it's something for the American people to keep a sharp eye on.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

Often times confusion and despair harass our lives. In those moments of trial, we turn to God for a helping hand. There is no better way than a retreat to give one the grace and help to find his way thru the darkness.

A retreat is a unique experience. It's a wonderful, quiet "meditation week-end" with God, during which one can think out his problems. The DIOCESAN RETREAT HOUSE, 18425 Lake Shore Boulevard provides both the spiritual atmosphere of a church and the personal comforts of home.

Retreatants take part in daily Mass, at which their closeness to God is keenly felt. They pray the Rosary at the outside Grotto and say the Stations of the Cross daily. During free time, a retreatant may meditate with God, either in the Chapel, on the secluded grounds along the lake, or in the privacy of his comfortable room. The Retreat Master helps him find a practical approach to every day problems, both in his public conferences as well as in private talks upon the retreatant's request.

One's material needs are also well provided. Private and double room accommodations and excellent meals prepared by the Sisters of St. Joseph of St. Mark, make the week-end seem home-like. A library containing the best of meditative and spiritual reading matter is available to retreatants at all times.

This year the retreat for the men of ST. VITUS CHURCH will begin on Friday evening, Sept. 11 at 7 o'clock with dinner, and conclude on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13. In the event that you are unable to attend the entire retreat, at least try to attend on one day (Saturday or Sunday).

Reservations are being accepted at the St. Vitus Rectory Office any day during the week or call Michael Kolar UT 1-6587 in the evening. Please call early as this retreat will be well attended and we must make reservations by Wed., Sept. 2.

Please read the following list of OBJECTIONS TO MAKING A RETREAT and admit that one or the other will be exactly what you may have said to yourself at some time or other:

- 1. I don't have the time! Can't you give to God, who gives you every minute you have, a mere week-end? Everyone knows that if he wants to do something, he can always find the time to do it! 2. I spend my week - ends with my family — it is the only time I have with my members! You're a fine man, but aren't there 52 week-ends in the year? Your family will be more than willing to sacrifice your companionship for ONE week-end, if it is going to make you a better person for the other 51 week-ends! 3. Retreats are for pious Joes! I am just an average man! Is there a law against raising your batting average? Remember, Christ said, "Be ye Perfect as your Heavenly Father is Perfect." Aren't you a follower of Christ? Don't forget your batting average HERE is your average for all Eternity. There is no batting practice in heaven. NOW is the time for improvement and there is NOTHING that will improve your life more than a retreat. 4. I can't afford it! You can ill-afford to pass up this opportunity to make up to God for misspent time and money. 5. I don't go in for such church-going and praying and sermonizing that one gets in a Retreat? Perhaps you have never made a retreat. If you had, you would know that a retreat is NOT just a lot of sermons and praying. There are talks and you do pray — but that is just a small part of it. You have time to read, to rest, to think, etc. In a word, you have a great deal of free time — time to spend as you wish to spend it. 6. I don't know any of the men who are making the Retreat! It is better if you DON'T know the others who are making the retreat because the retreat is something between YOU and YOUR GOD. The less distraction, the better. St. Ignatius made his first retreat entirely alone! 7. They tell me you have to keep silence — I couldn't do that! You won't be the first to learn that the silence is the easiest as- (Continued on Page 6)

SHORTS on SPORTS

Rickey Heads Third Major League: Branch Rickey, 77-year old "father" of baseball's farm system, was named president of the Continental League, baseball's proposed third major league, at a salary of $50,000 per year. Rickey has spent 57 years in the game and said he is confident that the league will start operating in 1961 and possibly in 1960 but not probable. Rickey broke baseball's color line when he signed Jackie Robinson, the first Negro major leaguer, to a Brooklyn Dodger farm contract in 1945. Among other stars he either discovered or developed were Dizzy and Paul Dean, Stan Musial, Pepper Martin, Roger Hornsby, Marty Marion, Pee Wee Reese, Roy Campanella and Mort Cooper.

Dempsey Joins Rosensohn, Inc. Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., took an unexpected step last week toward clearing the path to a Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson rematch for the world heavyweight championship September 22 by naming Jack Dempsey promotional director and adviser. Dempsey's role corresponds to that of Harry Markson in relation to Madison Square Garden boxing promotions. Dempsey said he would fly to any part of the world if necessary with his new duties because he is "deeply interested in boxing and anxious to see the sport demand the respect and support of the public."

American Hockey League Admits Quebec: Quebec City, with the influential backing of baseball magnate Lou Perini, owner of the Milwaukee Braves, has been granted a franchise in the American Hockey League for the 1959-60 season. The directors of the six AHL teams unanimously voted the Canadian city into the league after it had met the league demands for a $50,000 entry fee and a $750 minimum guarantee for visiting clubs.

Chicox Shift to Sarasota: The Chicago White Sox last week signed a contract to hold spring training in Sarasota, Fla., for the next five years. The Sox have trained in Tampa, Fla., since 1955. Vice President Comiskey said the move was being made because of lack of attendance at spring exhibition games in Tampa. The Sox will train at the camp previously used by the Boston Red Sox, who shifted to Scottsdale, Arizona, last Spring.

Exhibit Space Going Fast for Flower Show

With more than a hundred applications, representing 71 per cent of the total exhibit space, already in for the Cleveland Home and Flower Show, scheduled for March 5 to 13 at Cleveland Public Hall, an earlier sell-out than usual is indicated according to today's announcement by Ralph P. Stoddard, show manager.

The approaching 17th annual Cleveland Home and Flower Show will include many new features never before seen at this biggest exposition of its kind in the nation, states Stoddard. Again the main arena of Public Hall will be a breath-taking spectacle of floral gardens created by the members of the Florists Association of Greater Cleveland. The Decorators' Showcase will enable the top interior decorators of northern Ohio to display their handiwork.

The Show Committee of the Cleveland Chapter of the American Institute of Architects headed by Cleveland architect Robert C. Gaede, will very soon announce the member architect who will be chosen for the honor of designing the Show House which will be built by members of the Home Builders Association of Greater Cleveland.

Police Suggest Ways To Foil Burglars

The war against burglary is "two-fold" . . . the prevention of burglaries by the homeowner before they occur and the apprehension of burglars who commit the crime. Apprehension, of course, is the continuing job of the police department, but the primary responsibility for prevention must rest squarely upon the shoulders of the homeowner. Only with his full cooperation can this war against the ever-increasing burglary rate be successful.

To do your part in this battle of wits against the burglar, Chief H. S. Weaver, executive secretary and treasurer of OACBP, has recommended these simple precautions be taken by everyone when leaving their home or apartment:

- 1. Close and lock all windows and doors, including basement, porch and garage. Use pin tumbler cylinder locks on all outside doors. 2. Leave a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer to turn lights on and off regularly each evening. This makes the home look "lived-in" and is a good protective measure. 3. If you are going away for a week-end or for a vacation, notify local police officials as to the date you are leaving, and the date on which you will return. 4. Have the post office stop mail deliveries to your home while you are away and make certain that no store deliveries will arrive during your absence. 5. Cancel milk and newspaper deliveries. An accumulation of milk bottles and newspapers is a sure sign that you're not home. 6. If you are on vacation, have your lawn mowed and your sidewalk swept by a neighbor at least once a week. 7. Have your phone disconnected, if you're going away. Burglars will sometimes call to see if someone is home. 8. Tell one neighbor when you are leaving. Have him notify the police if he sees anyone prowling around. 9. Do not close shades or blinds completely. Leave them as you normally would when you are home. 10. Never advertise your departure with an item in the paper, or broadcast the news to your neighborhood at large. Burglars have big ears. 11. Never leave ladders and tools where outsiders can get at them. To do so is equivalent to giving a thief a key to your front door. 12. Close your garage doors. An empty garage with the door open is a good sign that no one's home. 13. Do not tell friends, neighbors or work associates of the valuable possessions you have around the house.

Marvelous "You don't mean to say you went to that expensive place to have your photograph taken?" "But, my dear, they take marvelous photographs. Molly went there and you couldn't recognize her!"

REAR VIEW—Inexhaustible curiosity proves the undoing of nine-year-old Clive Hall, who is half in and half out of a Hunter Mark I jet at Hove, England. A guard had to pull the adventurous youngster out of the exhaust vent into which he wriggled when the plane was displayed for public inspection during Air Week in the Sussex town.

New White Fleet

A little more than half a century ago President Theodore Roosevelt dispatched "The Great White Fleet" of 16 U. S. battleships on a world cruise.

The idea for this striking proposal first came from Commander Frank Manson, U. S. Navy, and he contributes an article to Life explaining it.

plaining it. After the last world war, he writes, he saw diseased and destitute peoples in far-flung parts of the world. He actually saw people die on the streets of starvation and disease, and the grim and powerful impression this made stayed with him.

There will never be a lack of emergencies with which the New White Fleet could deal, Commander Manson goes on, citing as an example that malaria is now rampant in Indonesia and dysentery is a merciless killer in India.

Life describes the possible make-up of the fleet. The hospital ship and aircraft carrier would be the backbone. But with them would be two navy transports. One would be stocked with staple foods to feed the hungry.

Response to the idea has been all that its sponsors could wish. It is known that President Eisenhower is keenly interested. A Life poll of Congress shows that Senate and Representatives are overwhelmingly in favor of it.

When Father Marvin F. Deutsch, M.M., of Minneapolis, Minn., saw a cobra slithering into his bedroom he grabbed a rifle, aimed carefully and killed it with one shot.

The 31 year-old Maryknoller was quite proud of his feat until an African took one look at the cobra and exclaimed:

"This cobra is only a baby, and since they are born 20 at a time, you only have 19 more to worry about!"

pect of the retreat and one of the most satisfying. You will find that keeping silence for a weekend is a pleasant experience, a wonderful way to make up for the times one has spoken out of turn and in a sinful way.
