— PREGLED NAJVAŽNEJŠIH DOGODKOV —

Reagan presenetil z imenovanjem 41-letnega konservativca Douglasa H. Ginsburga za člana Vrhovnega sodišča — Zopet bo borba

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Včeraj je predsednik Reagan presenetil politike obeh strank in tudi politične analitike, ko je izbral za novega člana Vrhovnega sodišča komaj 41 let starega Douglasa H. Ginsburga. Ginsburg, ki je zadnje leto član apelacijskega sodišča v Washingtonu, je znan kot ideološki konservativec. Vendar njegovi pogledi na razna pereča družbena vprašanja niso podrobno znani, ker v primerjavi z Robertom Borkom, Ginsburg ni veliko pisal ali govoril o svojih stališčih. Objavil je sorazmerno malo člankov v pravnih revijah, ker je sodnik šele eno leto, tudi ni pisal dosti sodnijskih odločitev, v katerih bi izražal svoja gledanja. Ko ga je predstavil javnosti v Beli hiši, je Reagan dejal, da Ginsburg zagovarja delajo vlogo sodnikov, ki naj ne pišejo ali omejejo zakonov, ampak naj jih samo strogo in ozko interpretirajo. Reagan je rekel tudi, da Ginsburg močno zagovarja pravice tistih, ki so žrtve zločinov. S tem je Reagan mislil na to kritiko današnjega pravnega sistema, da večkrat zaradi majhnih tehničnih razlogov so izpuščeni pravi kriminalci.

Imenovanje Ginsburga, ki je v ideološkem oziru zelo podoben od senata zavrjnemu Borku, je pa skoro 20 let mlajši, bo gotovo zopet sprožil veliko debato v senatu. Liberalci že pravijo, da so pripravljene nasprotovati Ginsburgu, priznavajo pa, da zaenkrat o njem ne vedo veliko. Poleg Ginsburgovega konservativizma bodo gotovo v svojih argumentih poudarjali Ginsburgovo mladost — Ginsburg je namreč najmlajši predlagan kandidat za Vrhovno sodišče od 1. 1939, ko je Franklin Roosevelt imenoval takrat 40-letnega Williama Douglasa — in nezkušenost. Nekateri že dvomijo o Ginsburgovi pravni sposobnosti, kajti je zaradi dvomov o tem imel manjše težave, ko je predaval prvo na slovitih pravni fakulteti Harvardске univerze.

Politični analitiki vedo povedati, da je do Ginsburgove nominacije prišlo po hudi borbi znotraj Reaganove administracije med konservativno strujo, ki jo je vodil pravosodni sekretar Edwin Meese, in sredinsko, ki jo je vodil Howard Baker. Meese je močno zagovarjal Ginsburga, pridružili so se mu nekateri konservativni republikanski senatorji. Reagan se je odločil za Ginsburga, kar je najnovejši udarec Bakerju, o katerem nekateri poznavalci razmer v Beli hiši menijo, da utegne kmalu zapustiti administracijo zaradi tega in več prejšnjih porazov.

Douglas Ginsburg je poročen, njegova žena je zdravnica, v družini sta dva otroka.

Gorbačov pride na obisk baje že decembra letos? Zunanji minister Ševardnadze bo obvestil Reagana danes popoldne

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Sinoči je pripotoval v ZDA sovjetski zunanji minister Edvard Ševardnadze. Danes popoldne ga bo v Beli hiši sprejel predsednik Reagan. Ob prihodu je Ševardnadze potrdil, da bo Reaganu izročil osebno pismo od sovjetskega voditelja Mihaila Gorbačova. O možnem obisku Gorbačova v ZDA že letos, je Ševardnadze dejal le, da je to možno.

Opazovalci sovjetske politike niso enotnega mnenja, zakaj je Gorbačov prejšnji teden povedal državnemu sekretarju Georgeu Shultzju, da se še ni odločil glede obiska v ZDA, isti teden pa je Ševardnadze prosil, naj pride v ZDA s pomembnim sporočilom za Reagana, kar splošno razumejo v administraciji kot privolitev v obisk Gorbačova. Kakorkoli že, dobro obveščeni viri v Moskvi in v najvišjih krogih Reaganove vlade vedo povedati, da bodo Sovjeti predlagali, naj Gorbačov obišče ZDA prvi teden v decembru. V Beli hiši menijo, da bo do decembra končana pogodba med ZDA in ZSSR, po kateri se bosta obe velesili obvezali, da bosta uničili vse misile srednjega in kratkega dosega, ki lahko nosijo jedrske konice. Reagan in Gorbačov naj bi tako to pogodbo slovesno podpisala, ko bo Gorbačov v Washingtonu.

Komunistični atentatorji na Filipinih ubili tri Amerikance — Pravijo, da bodo ubili še sedem drugih — Pet Filipincih ubitih včeraj

MANILA, Fil. — Preteklo sredo so komunistični atentatorji v koordiniranih napadih ubili tri Amerikance in nekega Filipinca. Nekdo je poklical zahodno tiskovno agencijo in povedal, da so atentatorji pripadali neki komunistični »brigadi« in da nameravajo ubiti še sedem drugih Amerikancev. Kot vzrok je ta oseba navedla ameriško izročitev filipinski vojski pretekli teden deset oklopnih vozil.

Za vse ameriške vojake, nastanjene na Filipinih, so bili uvedeni strogi varnostni ukrepi. Atentati v sredo so bili blizu velikega letalskega oporišča Clark, 50 milj severno od Manile. Doslej so komunisti v svoji 18 let trajajoči vstaji ignorirali Amerikance, pred kratkim pa so grozili, da bodo začeli ameriške državljane napadati, ako bodo ZDA nadaljevale oziroma povečale obseg svoje vojaške podpore filipinski vojski. Sicer so v zadnjih mesecih na Filipinih komunistični atentatorji zelo aktivni. Včeraj je bilo ubitih 5 Filipincev, v zadnjih treh dneh s tremi Amerikanci vred pa je padlo pod streli komunističnih atentatorjev deset oseb.

— Kratke vesti —

Bejrut, Libanon — Včeraj so neznani atentatorji ubili dva francoska vojaka, tretjega pa ranili. Žrtve atentatorjev so bile člani francoske enote, ki straži francosko veleposlaništvo v Bejrutu. Identiteta morilcev ni znana in nobena skupina zaenkrat ni prevzela odgovornosti. Nekateri libanonski viri menijo, da je za atentat morda odgovorno tkim. Tajno vojsko za osvoboditev Armenije. Do atentata je namreč prišlo v četrti, v katerem živi veliko Armencev.

Kuvejt — Iranska sredstva obveščanja poročajo, da so iranska letala bombardirala vojaške in gospodarske objekte v bližini južnega iraškega mesta Tib. Napad naj bi bil maščevalnega značaja in sicer povračilo za iraško zračno bombardiranje naftnih objektov v Iranu v sredo, v katerem, tako trdi Iran, je bilo ubitih 18, ranjenih pa 70 civilistov.

Peking, Ki. — To nedeljo se bo končal kongres kitajske komunistične partije. Opazovalci pravijo, da bo kongres potrdil 69-letnega Žao Zijanga za naslednika za 83-letnega Denga Xiaopinga.

Houston, Texas — Preteklo sredo zvečer so se zbrali vsi aktivni republikanski predsedniški kandidati za javno debato o svojih stališčih do raznih vprašanj domače in zunanje politike. Vsi drugi kandidati so kritizirali Georgea Busha, vendar se je Bush po splošni oceni dobro branil. Baje je napredoval tudi bivši evangelist Pat Robertson.

Slovenske oddaje Glasa Amerike

Proračunske omejitve niso nič novega v Združenih državah in prav te dni so finančni razlogi izredne važnosti tako pri formuliranju novega zveznega proračuna, kot tudi pri očitavanju bodoče ameriške zunanje politike.

Načeloma naj bi vsi oddelki zvezne vlade, obenem z neodvisnimi agencijami, nosili pravično in enako breme novega proračuna, toda v praksi to ni vselej uresničljivo, niti ne v samih agencijah. Tak je tudi primer Glasa Amerike, ki je del Ameriške Agencije za Informacije. Ta odvisnost od odločitev »krovne« agencije, že sama po sebi postavlja »Glas« v težaven položaj, še veliko bolj pa njegove posamezne sekcije. Tu je največkrat uporabljena preprosta matematična formula: številčnejši kot je en narod, več časa dobi odmerjenega na sporedu oddaj Glasa Amerike. Jasno je, da smo v tem pogledu Slovenci nekje prav blizu dna prioritete lestvice.

Toda številčnost ni ali bi ne smela biti odločujoči dejavnik. Slovenske javnosti ni potrebno opozarjati na edinstveni razvoj v današnji Jugoslaviji: zahteve po večji svobodi in resnični demokratizaciji so zdaj vsenavzoče in Slovenci so v ospredju tega boja. Vzporedno s prizadevanji za demokratizacijo družbe, pa se bide druga, prav tako ostra bitka: za ohranitev slovenskega jezika samega, kar seveda pomeni — bitka za sam obstoj slovenskega naroda. Teh bitk pa ne bidejo karkšnekoli »kontrarevolucionarne sile«. Prapore nosijo mladi intelektualci, ki se — četudi so produkt marksistične šole — kljub temu zavedajo in vedo, da gre prvo mesto resničnim narodnim interesom.

Slovenske oddaje Glasa Amerike so na sporedu že 40 let, lahko pa rečemo, da niso bile nikdar bolj potrebne kot sedaj. Kakršna omejitev bi zato pomenila napačen signal slovenskim ljudem. Vsi jih gotovo ne poslušajo, vsem tudi najbrž niso všeč, toda dejstvo, da SO na sporedu vsak dan, jim daje nek občutek sigurnosti, da niso sami in da si gotovo vsaj njihova močna izseljenska skupnost v Ameriki prizadeva, da jih informira, obenem pa jim izraža svojo podporo in razumevanje.

Svoje čase je bilo čuti pritožbe, da so te oddaje enostranske. To ni bilo res takrat in tudi danes ni. Že pred nekaj leti je bila uvedena mesečna rubrika »Vesti iz slovenskih naselbin po Ameriki«. Ta rubrika je na sporedu tudi še danes in uporablja kot svoje vire poročila in zapiske iz obeh slovenskih časopisov v Združenih državah: Ameriške Domovine iz Clevelanda in Prosvete iz Chicaga.

Vsi slovenski predstavniki v Kongresu Združenih držav in vsi njegovi člani s področja Clevelanda, so bili obveščeni o sedanjem položaju teh oddaj. Vsi so tudi pokazali razumevanje in pripravljenost na pomoč. Pri tem jih je navdihoval naš senator Frank J. Lausche, ki vestno spremlja ves razvoj in pazi na kakršnokoli nevarnost. Kot rezultat teh prizadevanj je ohijski senator Metzenbaum pred dnevi predložil amandma zakonu o obrambnih nakazilih, s katerim bi bilo izrecno poskrbljeno za nadaljevanje teh oddaj na njho-

Štajersko in prekmursko Martinovanje!

CLEVELAND, O. — Štajerci in Prekmurci vabijo svoje člane, njih družine, rojake, znance in prijatelje »Štajerskega kluba« na veselo Martinovanje. Vsako leto ga slavimo v avditoriju pri Sv. Vidu na Glass Ave. Letos bomo martinovali v soboto, 7. novembra, s pričetkom ob 7. uri zvečer. Pridite in se veselite z nami! Srečali boste znance, katerih že dolgo niste videli. Večerja bo dobra, bara vam bo nudila pijače po vaši želji, sladkega bo tudi kaj. Prav za vsak okus bo nekaj zelo dobrega. Policija bo skrbela za varnost vaših avtomobilov, tako teh skrbi ne boste imeli. Priljubljeni »Veseli Slovenci« bodo igrali in peli. Verjemite mi torej, da se boste kar dobro počutili med nami!

Slavimo Sv. Martina,
Spremeni iz mošta vina,
Štajerci in Prekmurci vabijo,
Staro in mlado,
Na veselo zabavo.

Vabljeni ste vsi! Nasvidenje 7. novembra ob 7. zvečer pri Sv. Vidu!

STANE ŠUŠTERŠIČ — 65-letnik

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Te dni obhaja v Washingtonu, D.C. širom slovenske Amerike poznani dr. Stane Šušteršič svoj petinšestdeseti rojstni dan. V današnji Ameriki je 65 let starosti skoraj še mladost, kar prav gotovo velja za Staneta Šušteršiča. Vendar pa v njegovem primeru ta mladostna obletnica sovpada z veliko spremembo v njegovem življenju: z upokojitvijo se namreč poslavlja od Glasa Amerike, kjer je skoraj 28 let iznajdljivo in plodovito sodeloval pri dnevni slovenski radijski oddaji. Washingtonsko slavje v krogu prijateljev je z osebno prisotnostjo počastil tudi senator Frank J. Lausche.

Stane Šušteršič je bil rojen leta 1922 v Studencih pri Mariboru, kamor so se njegovi starši s Stanetovim starejšim bratom Francem — ki se je po drugi svetovni vojni kot begunec priselil v Cleveland, kjer je dolga leta delal kot stavec v tiskarni Ameriške Domovine, danes pa s svojo družino tu živi v pokoju — umaknili iz tedaj od Italijanov zasedene Postojne na slovenskem Notranjskem. Dve generaciji Šušteršičev ste v dveh svetovnih vojnah okusili trpkost političnega begunstva, ki pa sta ga obe spremenili v življenjski uspeh svojih članov. Stane Šušteršič je izrazit primer te slovenske uspešnosti navkljub nesrečni usodi, ki je zadela Slovenijo v obeh vojnah.

Bridkost begunstva je osebno okusil že aprila 1941, ko je kot študent v sedmem letu mariborske klasične gimnazije pribežal v Ljubljano pred tedanjim uničevalnim nacističnim preganjanjem v od Nemcev zasedeni slovenski Štajerski. Po uspešni maturi na ljubljanski klasični gimnaziji se je v jeseni 1942 vpisal na pravno fakulteto ljubljanske univerze, kjer je študiral do leta 1944, ko je pod nemško okupacijo tudi ljubljanska univerza bila zaprta. Istočasno je bil tudi študent na dramskem oddelku glasbene akademije.

Kot ponovni begunec, tokrat pred strahotami tedanje stalinistične diktature, je Stane Šušteršič od leta 1946 nadaljeval pravne študije na graški univerzi, kjer je doktoriral leta 1951. Po polletni zaposlitvi v Mohorjevi založbi v Celovcu vi sedanji vsakodnevni bazi. Amandma je bil označen kot odlična ideja in je bil sprejet brez nasprotovanja. Tako je senat Združenih držav drugič v ducatu let potrdil vrednost in važnost slovenskih oddaj.

Toda to še ni pomenilo, da je bitka dobljena. Že dan ali dva kasneje se je oglašil pomočnik zunanjega ministra za Latinsko Ameriko, g. Elliot Abrams, ki je v članku v časopisu The Washington Post, kritiziral senat, češ da je neprijazno razpoložen do State Departmenta ter pri tem napačno navedel amandma sen. Metzenbauma, kot da bi zahteval razširitev slovenskih oddaj, medtem, ko se amandma v resnici zavzema le za njihovo nadaljevanje. Pritožba g. Abramsa je torej neosnovana.

Kdor bi želel pomagati pri ohranitvi slovenskih oddaj Glasa Amerike, se torej lahko obrne na svojega predstavnika v zveznem kongresu ZDA in mu pove svoje mnenje.

TN

Ta članek je napisal rojak iz Washingtona, ki upravičeno želi ostati neimenovan, a je uredniku znan. Podpiram seveda njegov predlog, naj bi se zavzemali za ohranitev teh oddaj. Pripombo v članku imam samo radi omembe »obeh slovenskih časopisov« v ZDA in sicer A.D. in Prosvete. Imamo več drugih, kot sta pri časopisih npr. Glasilo KSKJ in Glas ADZ, pri mesečnikih pa Ave Maria in Zarja-Dawn. Pri pripavi svojih oddaj bi morali upoštevati poročila, ki so v teh publikacijah. Težko bi verjel, da bi organizacije, ki izdajajo le-te, ne bile pripravljene jih brezplačno pošiljati slovenski sekciji Glasa Amerike, ako bi bile formalno naprošene. Sicer bi menil, da večino teh publikacij že prejemale, pisec članka pa jih ni omenil zaradi smisla stavka, ki je bil poudariti objektivnost vsebine slovenskih oddaj.

Urednik A.D.

se je preselil v Cleveland, kjer je začel uporabljati svoje talente pri celi vrsti ameriških slovenskih dejavnosti, posebej še kot soustanovitelj (1954) slovenskega radijskega programa »Pesmi in melodije iz lepe Slovenije«, ki še danes oddaja.

V letih 1952-57 je bil predsednik novega slovenskega pevskega zbora Korotan. V začetku 1960 se je iz Clevelanda preselil v Washington, kjer se je pridružil sošolcu in prijatelju Konradu Mejaču in gospej Tinci Lapornik pri slovenski oddaji Glasa Amerike. Tam je med drugim 19 let pripravljaval filatelistični program kot posebno pobudo za povratno oglašanje poslušalcev iz Slovenije.

V razdobju sedemindvajsetletnega življenja v Washingtonu se je Stane Šušteršič udeleževal pri vseh tamkajšnjih slovenskih ustanovah in pobudah, posebno še pri pripravah za gradnjo slovenske kapele v amerškem narodnem svetišču. Za veliko slavje blagoslovitve te kapele avgusta 1971 je bil posebno dejaven pri kulturnem programu za tri tisoč udeležencev tega edinstvenega slovenskega slavja iz vse Amerike in kakih stopetdeset, ki so s posebnim letalom prileteli iz matične Slovenije.

Mnogo Slovencev iz cele Amerike in vseh kontinentov ga je osebno spoznalo kot edinstvenega gostitelja iz razkazovalca znamenitosti ameriške prestolnice. Ni pretirano reči, da je dr. Šušteršič v teku svojega washingtonskega življenja sprejel in razkazoval mesto stotinam slovenskih obiskovalcev. Med drugimi so si pod njegovim vodstvom ogledovali Washington poleg drugih odličnih Slovencev tudi štirje slovenski nadškofje in škofje.

Po ukopovitvi z Glasa Amerike številni prijatelji in znanci Staneta Šušteršiča, bližnji in daljnji — vsakemu izmed katerih bi on napravil več kot prijateljsko uslugo ob vsakem času, vremenu in okoliščinah — želijo, da bi nadaljeval svoje vzgledno življenje in pestro udejstvovanje še mnogo srečnih let.

Pevski zbor Jadran vabi na svoj koncert

CLEVELAND, O. - Prelepa jesen je tu z vsemi mogočimi barvami. Kulturne prireditve se vrstijo ena za drugo. Tako se tudi pevski zbor Jadran vneto pripravlja za koncert in — kot je navada zadnjih let — malo igrice. Naš nastop bo v soboto, 14. novembra, v Slovenskem delavskem domu na Waterloo Rd. Pričelo se bo z dobro večerjo, ki bo servirana v spodnji dvorani, nato bo koncertni nastop, lep slovenski večer pa se bo zaključil s plesom.

Večerjo bodo pričeli deliti ob 5.30 pop., koncertni nastop bo ob 7.30, ob 9h pa bo ples, za katerega bo igral Joey Tom-

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

742. MZA New York je praznovala

letno misijonsko prirediteljev 11. oktobra v dvorani slovenske župnije. Tajnica odseka gđ. Kristina Zajc leži v Grace Hospital v New Yorku resno bolna in jo priporočamo vsej MZA v molitev. Vsa leta je veliko žrtvovala za misijonsko sodelovanje med rojaki v New Yorku. Prav je, da jo rojaki v mestu obiskujejo, saj je to velika moralna opora bolnim, še posebej, če nimajo svoje družine.

Dolgeletni blagajnik odseka g. Vinko Burgar je tudi onemogel. Njegovo blagajniško mesto je prevzel njegov sin Vinko Burgar ml. Zelo smo mu hvaležni vsi, ki misijone ljubimo.

Predsednica ga. Helena Kleinova je razposlala vabila in srečke s spremnim pismom v slovenščini in angleščini. Čim dobimo poročilo o misijonski prireditvi, ga bomo objavili v MSIP.

Neimenovana rojakinja iz vzhoda ZD je spet poslala enoletno bogoslovsko vzdrževalnino v znesku $250. Tako nadaljuje z žrtvijo, ki je bila leta njen poseben dar za rast domače duhovščine v misijonskih deželah.

Predsednica ga. Anica Tushar iz Gilberta, Minnesota, je dala natisniti za $156.25 nove mašne kartice (Mass cards), ter jih je že poslala v Milwaukee in Cleveland obema odsekoma za uporabo. Sama je tudi sporočila vrsto sv. maš, ki bodo opravljene kmalu v misijonih, kot so vedno, če jih dobimo. So tudi lepa misijonska pomoč za misijonarja, ki mu vsega primanjkuje. MZA Gilbert ima svojo Misijonsko nedeljo zadnjo nedeljo v oktobru na Aurori, Minn. Tudi njih poročilo bo prišlo na vrsto, čim nas doseže.

Ker smo že pri Mass cards. V fari jih imam stalno pri rokah za rajne kot tudi za razne namene za žive: za zdravje, za rojstni dan ali god, za obletnice porok, za graduacije, v zahvalo in podobne namene. Navadno jih naročimo v večji količini, a vseeno so sedaj že kar drage. Najbolj pogosto jih ljudje želijo za rajne. Če dajo $5.00 za neoznanjeno sv. mašo, ostane fari vsaj pol dolarja manj, ker M.c. toliko stane.

G. Janez Dolšina v Mountain Iron, Minn., je operacijo lepo prestal. Molimo, da popolnoma okreva.

Blagajnik Štefan Marolt

je 4. oktobra sporočil tele darove: Ga. Marija Ribič z Richmond Hts. za bogoslovsko vzdrževalnino $300. Neimenovan iz Clevelanda $50; neimenovana iz Clevelanda $1000 za celo štiriletno bogoslovsko vzdrževalnino.

Začetku junija je isti poslal v pismu z dne 31. maja tele darove:

Družina Matija Grdadolnik (za najbolj potrebne) $25; ga. Stegu (za vse) $90; družina Jožeta in Zalke Likozar (za vse) $20; ga. Julka Zalar (za vse) $20; ga. Pavla Adamič (šopek majniških cvetic za naše misijonarje) $60.

Neimenovana iz Euclida je darovala $1050: v pomoč vzdrževanju domačega bogoslovca $500 (za dve leti), $500 za najbolj potrebne misijonarje(-ke) in $50 za sv. maše, ki so bile že opravljene v misijonih.

Nanovo je prevzela vzdrževanje domačega bogoslovca v Torontu naša sodelavka gđ. Julka Zarnikova. Iz naše fare v Scarboroughju, ga. Dolores Martin, članica Marijine Legije in Bernard Carrier, kandidat za diakonat v naši nadškofiji, v drugem letniku študijev, uslužben na kanadski carini.

Misijonska letna prireditev Baragovega misijonskega krožka v Torontu je lepo uspela, kot vsako leto. Skupina misijonskih pionirjev v tem krožku zasluži vse priznanje. Molimo zanje, da vztrajno nadaljujejo še mnogo let svoj misijonski apostolat.

V Burundiju je bil nedavno vržen iz vlade ministrski predsednik, ki je zadnje leto izgnal iz dežele nad 60% misijonarjev in misijonark. Novi predsednik obljublja, da bo dal Cerkvi in veri spet več svoboščin. Nad polovico prebivalstva v tej majhni državi je katoličanov.

V Slonokoščeni obali, kjer deluje vrsta naših misijonarjev in misijonark, imajo pravkar težke dneve in vladne pretrese. Molimo, da ostane delo naših pionirjev in pionirk nemoteno in njihovo življenje varno.

Iz Gane se je 24. septembra kratko zahvalil za pomoč v letih študija novomašnik Peter Ahenkan Fosu, ki ga je škof Owusu ordiniral 25. julija. Vzdrževali sta ga ga. Agnes Leskovec in njena sestra ga. Viktorija Pianeki. Tudi lepo novomašno podobico je priložil in jo bomo dobrotnicama poslali. Sicer upamo, da se je že kaj tudi njima oglasil.

Ga Dorothea Drinnan iz naše fare Brezmadežnega Marijinega Srca je darovala za C.M.A. misijone kanadskih $50 in učiteljica ga. Catherine Neagle v isti namen (za bencin pri rabi avta za prevoz pri misijonarjenju) kanadskih $100. Vsem dobrotnikom naj Bog obilno povrne!

Župnik Jože Snój iz Etiwande,

Kalifornije, je 15. oktobra poslal dragocene vrstice, ki jih objavljamo za vse naše sodelavce in pionirke po kontinentu. Takole piše: »Bo že kar leto dni, odkar sem Ti pisal in ne vem več, ali sem ostal zvest mojemu semeniščniku. Kakorkoli že, pošiljam Ti za enega bogoslovca, ki ga boš Ti izbral, $300, če je ta vsota še zadostna.

Drugih $500 pa pošlji dr.

Sonji Masletovi na Madagaskar, kamor je odšla pred par meseci. Veš, poznal sem jo še kot mlado dekle, ko sem bil pri Sv. Jakobu v Ljubljani med vojon. Ko sem bil letos poleti doma, sva se dvakrat videla in se veliko pogovorila o njenem zelo težkem življenju takoj po vojni in o poklicu, ki ga je negovala vsa ta leta v srcu — zgodba za celo veliko knjigo. Odšla je dan preje, ko sem jaz odšel nazaj v Ameriko, predno se je poslovila od nadškofa Šuštarja.

Iz Ameriške Domovine razvidim v MSIP, da imate njen naslov in da ste ji že poslali $500 za njen medicinski dispanzer. Pa lepo jo pozdravite! Čudovit zgled zvestoba Bogu in misijonskemu poklicu. Oprosti napakam, komaj še kaj vidim. Pozdrav in memento ad invicem!

Tvoj Jože.«

Bog povrni milijonkrat, gospod Jože! Da, bogoslovka vzdrževalnina je zaenkrat pri MZA $250 letno v ameriški valuti, kar je v kanadskih dolarjih malo več. Škofom pošiljamo čeke vedno v ZD valuti preko MZA Centrale v Clevelandu, Ohio.

G. Jože je praznoval letos zlati mašniški jubilej in smo ga z molitvijo spremljali tudi na obisk domovine ob proslavi zlate maše pomožnega škofa dr. Stankota Leniča, s katerim sta bila v bogoslovju sošolca. Hvalimo Boga za misijonski zgled tolikih naših duhovnikov in laikov v novi domovinah, ki ob mnogih skrbeh in težki odgovornosti pri delu, še vedno najdejo čas in denar, da misijonsko ljubezen v svojih dušah krepijo.

Takega pisma in daru je človek posebej vesel, ko ob Misijonski nedelji premišljujemo stanje v svetu. Tudi med našimi (dalje na str. 4)

Letošnje ohijske volitve:

Prihodnji tork so v Ohio volitve, katerih bi se morali vsi udeležiti

Prihodnji tork, 3. novembra, bodo v Ohio razne volitve, v glavnem na lokalni ravni, kajti senatorjev in kongresnikov kot tudi poslancev ohijske zakonodaje ali članov ohijskega vrhovnega sodišča ne bomo volili. Kljub temu so volitve pomembne; na volišča bi morali vsi odrasli.

Na ohijski ravni so trije predlogi. Predlog 1 določa, da mora biti čisti dohodek od državne loterije dodeljen ohiskim šolskim sistemom. Ta predlog se zdi odveč, ker je državna zakonodaja že odobrila zakon, ki določa isto. Utemeljen je torej sum, da so organizatorji volitev dali Predlog 1 na volivnico zato, da bodo volivci seveda glasovali »da«, s tem pa razpoloženi glasovati »da« tudi pri Predlogu 2 in Predlogu 3.

Predlog 2 daje državi Ohio pravico prodati zadolžnice v vrednosti 1,2 milijarde dolarjev za dobo 10 let. Denar, pridobljen oziroma izposojen na ta način, bi bil uporabljen za popraviljanje cest in mostov ter druge podobne »infrastrukture«. Cilj je seveda pameten — a vendar! Po ohijski ustavi mora biti dveletni državni proračun vedno v ravnotežju. Ker trošijo poslanci veliko denarja za svoje posebne projekte in druge namene, ne preostane dovolj denarja tudi za nujno »infrastrukturo«. Davkov si ne upajo več povišati. Tako so si izmislili prodajo zadolžnic. To pomeni, da se bo država — točneje povedano: državni davkoplačevalci oz. mi — zadolžila za dobo 10 let za 1,2 milijarde dolarjev. Denar bo moral biti investitorjem povrnjen z bogatimi obrestmi. Ta denar bo moral iz državne blagajne. Kar Ohio torej želi delati je isto, kar dela zvezna vlada in njen kongres na debelo — zadolžiti se, račune pa bodo morali poravnati bodoči rodovi.

Tisti, ki to želite, glasujte »da« za ta predlog. Osebnostem proti.

Predlog 3 želi odvzeti volivcem pravico, da neposredno volijo sodnike vrhovnega sodišča in apelacijskih sodišč. Ako bo predlog odobren, bodo ustanovljene takoimenovane nominacijske komisije, ki bodo izbrale kandidate tako za vrhovno sodišče kot za vseh 12 apelacijskih sodišč v Ohio. Člani teh nominacijskih komisij bi bili odvetniki in neodvetniki. Več kot polovica članov vsake komisije bi ne smela pripadati isti politični stranki. Komisije bi pregledovale možne kandidate za sodnijska mesta ter izbrale tri kandidate za vsako mesto. Od teh treh predlaganih kandidatov bi guverner države izbral enega.

Da bi volivci le ne bili povsem ignorirani, so predlagatelji te »reform« dodali, da bi v dveh ali štirih letih potem, ko že sedi na sodnijskem mestu, omenjeni sodnik moral pred volivce. Ti bi imeli pravico glasovati »da« ali »ne« o tem, ali mislijo, da je sodnik dober. Ako bi omenjeni sodnik ne dobil najmanj 55% vseh oddanih glasov, bi bil odstranjen in bi se nominacijski proces znova začel.

Predlagatelji trdijo, da bomo s takim sistemom dobili boljše sodnike, kajti člani komisije bodo temeljito pretehtali kvalifikacije vseh kandidatov in samo najboljše izbrali.

Morda je tako res. Vendar osebno menim, da v demokratičnem sistemu morajo čimveč glasovati volivci sami, brez raznih tudi dobronamernih posredovanj od zgoraj. Vsakdo naj seveda glasuje po svoji najboljši pameti, osebno sem proti temu predlogu.

Tisti, ki živijo v okraju Cuyahoga, bodo imeli priliko glasovati o dveh drugih predlogih in sicer o Predlogu 4 in Predlogu 5. Oba sta po mnenju tega pisca vredna podpore.

Predlog 4 določa manjše povišanje davka na nepremičnine za vzdrževanje sistema parkov v okraju. Povišanje bi stalo lastniku hiše, vredne $50,000, le $5.75 na leto. Redko zagovarjam povišanje katerega davka, to-le pa se zdi umesten.

Predlog 5 je obnova malega davka za dobo 5 let za potrebe clevelandskega pristanišča. Pristanišče je pomemben objekt in je nadaljnji ekonomski razvoj tako mesta kot okraja v mi rojaki, ki so šli z nami v svet, poljubljajo božjo roko, ki jih je rešila za boljše življenje kot ga imajo mnogi, ki so ostali doma. Po so mnogi kmalu pozabili, da je »vsak dober dar od Boga«. Mislim na plemenito ženo, ki je moža prosila, da bi prevzela vzdrževanje domačega bogoslovca. Otrok jima Bog ni dal! Bogoslovec bi jim lahko veliko pomenil. Oba delata, pa mož ni bil zato. Niti ji ni dovolil, da bi sama dajala iz zaslužka. Ubožec! Morda upa, da bo odnesel kaj s seboj v večnost, kjer denar nima nobene veljave. Sedaj ga obračajamo tudi v dobre namene, med katerimi je misijonski namen gotovo silno Bogu všeč...

določeni meri odvisen od sodobno opremljenega pristanišča. Poleg tega, da ne gre tu za novo obdajenje, marveč nadaljevanje, in da ta davek stane lastniku hiše, vredne $50,000, le 93 centov na leto, zasluži Predlog našo podporo.

V Clevelandu so volitve za člane šolskega odbora, za mesto »Clerk of Courts« in za več sodiščnih mest. Pri teh volitvah ne kandidirajo Slovenci.

V 1. vardi v Willowicku je pa kandidat Dominic Silvestro, ki ga dobro poznamo, ker dobrih dvajset let prihaja v tiskarno in pripravlja Glasilo KSKJ in Glas ADZ za pošiljanje po pošti. Zaposlen je sicer pri Plain Dealerju, kjer vodi eno od delavskih unij.

V drugih mestih bi poudaril le Euclid, kjer bodo volivci zopet izvolili župana Anthonyja Giunto (župan od l. 1979), ali pa njegovega 30 let starega tekmeca, odvetnika Davida Lyncha. Giunta je Slovincem dobro znan in je doslej dobil njih podporo. Nekateri so pa jezni sedaj zaradi stroškov, povezanih z novo mestno hišo. Kot kaže, ima Giunta še vedno prednost pred Lynchem, odločili pa bodo volivci.

Pri euclidskem mestnem svetu bi omenil, da kandidirata za mesto »Councilman At-large« dva Slovinci. Prvi je Edward Jerse, ki ga poznate po njegovem oglasu v našem listu, drugi pa Jerald Sustarsic, sin bivšega župana Tonyja Sustarsica. Euclidski sodnik Niccum nima nasprotnika in je tako že izvoljen.

V Euclidu zasluži podporo Predlog 17, ki določa sredstva za vzdrževanje in izboljšanje mestne kanalizacije.

O drugih volitvah nimamo pri roki dovolj podatkov. Vsekakor pa je vaša dolžnost, da greste ta tork volit.

Chicago Slovenian Day Set for Nov. 14

The 37th anniversary of the Slovenian Day in Chicago by the Slovenian American Radio Club will be held on November 14 at 7 p.m. in the St. Stephen Hall, 1835 W. 22 Place.

This year we have prepared a very attractive program featuring the folk dancing group "Triglav" from London, Ontario, Canada, under the direction of Magdalena Simrayh-Razpotnik. Magda is remembered for the many beautiful performances of her Chicago dancing group at our festivals.

Also performing will be the singing choir "Slovenska Pesem" under the direction of Fr. Dr. Vendelin Špendov with renditions of some very popular songs.

For your dancing pleasure "The Alpine Sextet," from Cleveland will be joining us with their musical genius.

As always there will be plenty of good food and good spirits. Come and invite your friends to a real Slovenian celebration.

Bernadette Simrayh
Miss Slovenia 1987

On the little green hill behind St. Mary's Seminary in Lemont stands an attractive house of a good Slovenian family. Stanley Simrayh and his wife, Michaela, born Arko, live here with their two sons, Herman and Stanley Jr., and youngest daughter Bernadette. The eldest daughter, Magdalene, lives with her husband, Joseph Razpotnik, and two children Monika and Joey Jr., in London, Ont.

Bernadette, a beautiful 19 year old girl, was chosen as the 1987 Miss Slovenia for the 37th anniversary of the Slovenian American Radio Club in Chicago.

After attending high school at Mount Assisi Academy in Lemont, she enrolled in the College of St. Francis where she is now studying Business Management and Marketing.

When not studying, she works in the business office of Willowbrook Ford.

Bernadette is very involved in the Slovenian cultural life in Chicago. If not reading at Sunday Mass at St. Stephen's church, she is singing in a clear soprano voice with the church choir, lifting the spirits of the worshipping crowd. On weekends, she teaches singing to the younger children of the Slovenian Slomšek School. On top of that, she is the recording secretary for the Slovenian American Radio Club and also teaches Slovenian folk dances to young children.

Her intense interest in Slovenian culture was instilled by her parents and the enthusiasm for working with children from her older sister, Magda, whom we like to remember for her tireless efforts in promoting the Slovenian course and the beautiful performances by the children of the Slovenian American Radio Club dancing group on many occasions. Bernadette is one of those children and is now an accomplished performer herself.

Congratulations, Bernadette, Miss Slovenia 1987. May you always remain the happy and lovely Slovenian girl you are.

Waterloo Pensioners trick or treat

The October meeting of the Waterloo Pensioners was attended by 189 members.

Our sunshine gal Dorothy Silc tells us Joe Matejka, Tom Zabjek and Mike Perme are on the sick list.

We welcomed three new members. They are Virginia Tomse, Sophie Japel and Rose Fogel. Stan Laurich was pleased with the members who stayed after the September meeting to play pinochle and urged more to join the games at the November meeting.

It was suggested we get a balinca team going. How about it?

The following members were voted to be in the Honorary Club: Louis and Mary Prebevsek, Millie Bradac and Rudy and Zora Urbanic. If you know of someone who would like to be a honorary member, please submit their name to the president.

Vice president Frank Slejko, a 50 year member of the Cleveland Philharmonic orchestra, was presented a plaque from all of us. Congratulations!

Celebrating anniversaries in October were:

Joe and Thelma Brodnick - 50 years

Joe and Joyce Plemel, 40 years

Serenading them on the violin were Frank Slejko and on the accordion Louis Prebevsek. We then celebrated the 50th wedding anniversary of Joe and Thelma Brodnick. Thelma was dressed as a bride with a veil and Joe had a carnation in his lapel. A wedding cake was baked by Mille Bradac. All the members joined in to sing, "Slovensko Dekle."

In November we will hold election of officers and sign up for the Christmas dinner on Tuesday, Dec. 8th. Tickets for the dinner is $2.00.

We then had our Halloween party and the following dressed for the occasion with winners Louis Jartz as George M. Cohan, Betty Jartz as a witch, Frank Slejko as a gypsy fiddler, Justine Girod as a grand lady of the 1800s, Ida Cesnik a chinese coolie, Mary Prebevsek a gypsy, and Dorothy Silc as a nurse. Others who came dressed in costume were Ann Kristoff, Helen Vukcevic, Tillie Vranekovic, Mary Zakely and Justine Pretnar. Refreshments were served thanks to Millie Bradac and her kitchen crew. We were entertained by Madame Jule and Dorothy Martony with a rock and roll number. Thanks to Ann Kristoff for the 21 door prizes she donated and also for the Halloween decorations of the hall.

The winner in the contest to guess the correct number of candies in the pumpkin was Mary Wolf.

Steve Shimits then showed us the slides of the Toronto trip taken in June.

Congratulations to Bob Dolgan

Editor:
 Congratulations to our own Bob Dolgan on winning the 1987 Pro Football Writers of America Award. Dolgan, who's prose daily offers Plain Dealer readers insightful comments into the 'wide world of sports,' was recognized by his colleagues and associates as the best sports columnist in the nation.

Bob's work evidences a special commitment to writing, complemented by talent and the ability to put situations into focus. His column is filled with the energy and journalistic integrity his readership has grown to expect and anticipate.

Our community continues to produce winners — disciplined individuals who find their way to the pinnacle of their professions. These individuals traditionally share their success with the community, and in turn help the community to progress.

We can be especially proud of those like Bob Dolgan, who give their best and consequently have become the best. May their success continue to reaffirm the pride inherent in our heritage.

Yours very truly,

 Euclid, Ohio 44123

Dear Mayor Giunta:

I am pleased to tell you that if at the November election I were a voter in the City of Euclid I would cast my ballot in your behalf for Mayor.

Under your management Euclid has been a clean city, politically and otherwise; it continues to be one of the great suburbs of Greater Cleveland and is a highly desirable place in which to live and work.

I wish you victory in the November election and continued success in keeping the present good name of Euclid at the high level of praise it now occupies.

Sincerely yours,

Protecting teeth from Halloween candy

Beneath the fangs of a Halloween vampire lurk the real teeth of a child; teeth that may encounter more sugar in one night than during the rest of the year. One way to protect the teeth of the trick-or-treaters who ring your doorbell is to not give out food. Offer balloons, stickers, small toys, or party favors instead. You might also hold out a bowl of small change to children over three. (Do not offer coins to toddlers because they might swallow them.) Unfortunately, the types of treats best for the teeth, such as fresh fruit or certain home-baked goods, are the ones that many parents warn their children not to accept for reasons of hygiene and safety. Prepackaged items, however, offer parents the assurance that their child's "treat" has not been tampered with. Avoid offering chewy candy that sticks to the teeth, such as toffee or caramel; hard candy that dissolves slowly and thus stays in the mouth longer, preserved fruits, such as raisins, and granola bars. Surprisingly, a plain chocolate bar may be the least harmful type of candy.

juice are a great idea. Most dentists agree that sweets need not be unilaterally forbidden, and that there is no harm in children eating candy on special occasions like Halloween, as long as they brush their teeth thoroughly afterwards. The frequency of sweets eaten is more important than the total amount of sugar consumed.

Therefore, when your children return home with their Halloween bounty, let them empty it out on the kitchen table and choose several treats. Allow them to eat as many items as you are comfortable with, as long as they brush their teeth when they are finished. It is much worse to let them eat little bits of candy all day long.

wishes to pack Halloween candy in his lunch and it is not possible for him to brush afterwards, pack an apple, too. Tell your child to eat the apple after the candy; while not as good as brushing, this will clean some of the sugar from his teeth. The best way to protect your children's teeth on Halloween is to encourage dental health all year long. Halloween and other holidays just require a little more attention. This article is a community service of Saint Alexis Hospital Medical Center, 5163 Broadway, Cleveland.

Yugoslavia's Myriad of Problems Makes Outlook Bleak

This is the essence of the remarks about present-day Yugoslavia made by David Anderson, a career diplomat who served as U.S. Ambassador to Yugoslavia from 1981 to 1985, at a "Great Decisions Lecture" sponsored by the Cleveland Council on World Affairs on October 20.

Anderson, who first served in Yugoslavia in the early 1960's, was until his recent retirement one of the State Department's top European experts. He was a close adviser to Secretaries Henry Kissinger and Cyrus Vance and was serving as U.S. Minister in Berlin when President Reagan asked him to be Ambassador to Yugoslavia.

Approximately one hundred persons attended the lecture, which was held at the Cleveland Skating Club near Shaker Square. This writer and Dr. Vladimir Rus were present, as was Yugoslav Consul Ivo Vajgl. Several persons from the Serbian and Croatian communities attended, among them George Djelich, who has a Serbian radio program, and Prof. Joseph Bombelles, of John Carroll University, who is of Croatian descent.

Ambassador Anderson began his remarks by noting he was probably going to make some of his Yugoslav friends unhappy; he surely must have had Mr. Vajgl in mind.

Anderson gave a summary capsule description of the Yugoslav state and its history, something that clearly was necessary for much of the audience. At our table, for example, were an obviously well-educated attorney and his wife and Dr. Rus spent much of the evening explaining what and where Slovenia was and placing the Ambassador's remarks in fuller context.

Although describing himself as a friend of Yugoslavia, Anderson listed a litany of the problems confronting that country at the present time and could not provide a plausible framework of how these fundamental difficulties could be solved or even appreciably eased. He noted that former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger never really understood Yugoslavia and its complexity of different nationalities and was, it seemed, rather sarcastic toward former U.S. Ambassador to Yugoslavia Lawrence Eagleburger, who was and remains a close Kissinger associate — and is also involved in the U.S. company which is importing the Yugo automobile to the U.S. When Anderson was preparing to go to Belgrade, he asked Eagleburger what were the main problems he would be confronting. Eagleburger replied, according to Anderson, that there weren't any big problems at all. Anderson soon found out this was not the case.

The Ambassador described the huge economic difficulties

Yugoslavia is facing, with an inflation rate that is now up to 120-130 per cent annually. The economic tensions between the rather highly developed north (Slovenia and Croatia) and the less-developed southern areas have resulted in significant north-south political tensions as well, with the northern republics resenting the amount of capital they are required to send southward and also the squandering of much of that money on uneconomic projects. At the same time, the southern regions resent the relative economic prosperity and markedly higher living standards prevailing in Slovenia and much of Croatia.

With its six constituent republics and two autonomous provinces (Vojvodina and Kosovo — both within the Republic of Serbia) having to agree on all major new laws and reforms unanimously, Anderson continued, there is a marked diffusion of power with a relatively weak and, in his words, almost powerless central government. This has a paralyzing effect but, he admitted, the various republics would strongly resent efforts to make Yugoslavia a centralized state. Such a state, given the relative predominance of the Serbian element, would provoke great tensions among the other national groups.

At the same time, Anderson reflected the decades-long U.S. and State Department policy of supporting the concept of a single, unified Yugoslav state with a strong center in Belgrade. This is because of the U.S. fear of the kinds of complications which would arise in the event Yugoslavia disintegrated into its constituent parts. Thus Anderson, in responding to a question from the audience, voiced the opinion that Slovenia was too "small" to go it alone as an independent state, a view which is being increasingly challenged by democracy-oriented dissident elements in Slovenia. Of course, the idea that Slovenia absolutely has no future outside a Yugoslav framework is a standard tenet of official Yugoslav and Slovene government policy.

Among other points stressed by Anderson was the rapid rise in tension between Serbians and Albanians in the Kosovo province of southern Yugoslavia. Anderson quoted from remarks by the current Yugoslav Defense Minister stating in effect that radical steps would probably have to be taken to quell Albanian nationalism. He also quoted from the text of an article to appear soon in the New York Times Sunday Magazine and written by someone who has visited the area recently. The description was of a virtual state of civil war in the area between Serbs and Albanians, with terrible crimes being committed by both sides.

Those of us who read the current Slovene press (not just Rodna gruda and the new English-language and quite high quality magazine Slovenija) are aware that the problems in Kosovo are being extensively and quite openly described and discussed — and extracts of these reports have been reprinted in the Slovene section of this newspaper. Yet the quotes and information given by Anderson were even more pessimistic than this writer, at least, would have expected.

One point in this context which Ambassador Anderson stressed and which has not been picked up to any great extent by European and American observers of Yugoslav affairs — and also not in the Slovene press — has been the rapid rise in consciousness of the Moslem element in Yugoslavia. Mosques are being refurbished everywhere in the country where Moslems reside and some of them are quite lavish. Mosques are being built in other areas where Moslems have settled. Thus, for example, a mosque is being built even in Ljubljana. In this connection, Anderson continued, it is important to note that the Moslem revival in Yugoslavia is part of the world-wide revival signified by the revolution in Iran. He noted that many of the newly emerging leaders of the Moslem population in Yugoslavia have been trained in Cairo and reflect an increased sense of militance. This is a problem that, given the situation in Yugoslavia, can only exacerbate the country's difficulties over the longer term.

What was particularly noticeable in Anderson's presentation was his inability to see any way out of the increasingly adverse situation. He could only express the hope that the country could achieve some unity by having a moderate Serbian element come to the fore, an element that would not reflect Serbian nationalism and its concept of a kind of "Greater Serbia", but would instead figure out some way to assure the other national groups, principally the Slovenes and Croats, that their existence as viable peoples was not endangered.

Interestingly, Anderson did not see the Yugoslav military, which is heavily Serb-dominated, as an effective force for unity in the country. Many foreign observers have speculated, for example, that at some point the Yugoslav military would step into the deteriorating situation in an effort to restore order and stability — a Yugoslav version of the Jaruzelski coup in 1981 in Poland. Anderson provided no rationale for his view and it did not come up in the question and answer period after his lecture.

It is hard to imagine that Yugoslav Consul Vajgl enjoyed listening to Anderson's recitation, but clearly he must have sharply resented the Ambassador's very critical remarks on Yugoslavia's excessively cozy ties to certain terrorist groups, especially Arab. Anderson was very blunt here, again obviously reflecting State Department views.

If Yugoslavia wants to be regarded as a civilized member of the international community, Anderson said, it must take a stronger stand against international terrorism and not give succor to terrorists. Anderson had in mind Yugoslavia's role in facilitating the escape of the terrorist Abbas, who was among the Achille Lauro hijackers captured when U.S. warplanes forced an Egyptian aircraft to land in Sicily a couple of years ago. The Italian government caved in to terrorist pressure and allowed Abbas to leave the country. He went to Yugoslavia, and the Yugoslav government allowed him to pass through the country to freedom in the Middle East.

Anderson noted — and he should know — that Secretary of State George Schultz was particularly enraged by this Yugoslav action and almost surely has not forgotten it.

In short, Ambassador Anderson's lecture was much more interesting and informative than this writer had expected. However, the complexity of the issues involved in the Yugoslav situation must have eluded most of those in the audience, whose previous knowledge of Yugoslavia did not give them the context in which to appreciate properly Anderson's exposition. Adding to the appeal of his remarks was the often quite down-to-earth way in which he expressed his views.

PINEAPPLE SOUR CREAM PASTRIES

5 cups all-purpose flour
1 cake yeast
1 pound margarine
3 egg yolks, beaten
1/2 pint dairy sour cream
Confectioners sugar

Pineapple Filling:

2 cans (No. 2) crushed pineapple
2 cups sugar
4 heaping tablespoons cornstarch

Sift flour into a large mixing bowl. Rub in yeast. Cut in margarine as for pie dough. Make a well in center and add egg yolks, sour cream and vanilla. Mix well. Shape dough into balls slightly smaller than walnuts. Place balls on a platter, cover with waxed paper and chill thoroughly. On a floured surface, roll each ball out thin. Place 1/2 teaspoon filling in center and roll up like a miniature jelly roll. Place seam-side down on an ungreased cookie sheet and bake at 350 degrees until browned, about 20 minutes. Cool and sprinkle with confectioners sugar.

FILLING: in a large saucepan, combine crushed pineapple, with syrup, sugar and cornstarch. Cook and stir until thick and clear. Cool. (Note: filling should be cooked a day ahead.) Yield: about 200.

DATE-WALNUT BREAD

Prep time: 25 minutes plus standing. Baking time: 40 to 50 minutes.

1 package (10 oz.) pitted dates, coarsely chopped
2 teaspoons baking soda
1 1/2 cups boiling water
3 cups all-purpose flour
3/4 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
1 3/4 cups sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons vanilla
1/2 cup butter, melted and cooled
2 cups chopped walnuts

In bowl combine dates, baking soda and water. Let stand until cooled.

Preheat oven to 325°F. Grease five 5 3/4x3 1/4-inch foil loaf pans. In bowl combine flour and salt. In mixer bowl beat eggs, sugar and vanilla just until blended. Beat in butter. Beat in dry ingredients alternately with date mixture, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Fold in nuts. Spoon into prepared pans. Bake 40 to 50 minutes, until a toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Cool in pans on a wire rack. Makes 5 loaves, 8 slices per loaf, 155 calories per slice.

ALL-STAR WALDORF SALAD

The vegetables and fruit in this salad provide lots of soluble fiber.

Prep time: 15 minutes plus chilling.

3 cups diced, unpeeled red apples
1 cup diced celery
1/4 cup plain low-fat yogurt
1/4 cup reduced-calorie mayonnaise

3 tablespoons sunflower seeds

1/4 teaspoon nutmeg

In medium bowl combine all ingredients. Cover and refrigerate about 3 hours or until chilled. Makes 4 cups, 70 calories per 1/2 cup.

MICROWAVE

PORK TENDERLOIN WITH SESAME SAUCE

Prep time: 5 minutes
Microwave time: 10 min.

1 1/4 pounds pork tenderloin, trimmed

1 tablespoon browning and seasoning sauce

Salt and freshly ground pepper

1 tablespoon sesame seed

2 tablespoons brown sugar

1 tablespoon Oriental sesame oil

1 tablespoon cider vinegar

1 tablespoon Dijon mustard

1 tablespoon water

Rub pork with browning sauce. Place in a microwaveproof dish and cover loosely with plastic wrap. Microwave on High 5 minutes, rotating dish a quarter turn and turning pork over halfway through cooking. Microwave on Medium 5 minutes more, rotating dish and turning pork halfway through. Remove from oven and let stand 5 minutes. Season with salt and pepper.

Meanwhile, in small skillet toast sesame seed over high heat, stirring frequently. Remove from heat and stir in brown sugar, oil, vinegar, mustard and water. Return to heat and cook until slightly thickened, about 5 minutes. Makes 4 servings, 345 calories each.

GREEN-TOMATO RELISH

1/3 cup salad oil

3 large onions, diced

1 garlic clove, minced

8 large green tomatoes (about 4 pounds), cut into bite-sized chunks

4 medium-sized green peppers, cut into 1/4-inch-thick strips

4 medium-sized red peppers, cut into 1/4-inch-thick strips

3 cups cider vinegar

1 1/2 cups packed light-brown sugar

1 teaspoon ground cinnamon

1 teaspoon ground ginger

About 4 hours before serving or up to 1 week ahead:

1. In 8-quart Dutch oven or heavy saucepot over medium heat, in hot salad oil, cook onions, and garlic until tender, stirring occasionally. Add green tomatoes, remaining ingredients, and 2 teaspoons salt; over high heat, heat to boiling. Reduce heat to medium-low; cook, uncovered, 2 hours, stirring often, until mixture thickens.

2. Spoon relish into large bowl; cover and refrigerate at least 1 hour. Serve relish as accompaniment to barbecued or roasted poultry, meat, or fish. Makes about 8 cups of relish. About 80 calories per 1/4-cup serving.

Saint Vitus Calendar Fund 1988

Listed below are brief explanations for the St. Vitus Calendar Fund event. Please take a few minutes to read and consider this request. Thank you.

WHAT: The purpose of the calendar event is to raise funds for the future of St. Vitus parish. This includes the schools (English and Slovenian) and parish. This will be a six-year project to meet with the 100th year anniversary of St. Vitus in 1993.

WHY: Each parish is to share responsibility for planning its future. The calendar event is but one way we will share the future financial obligations for St. Vitus.

WHO: We anticipate each adult parishioner will purchase at least one calendar per year for the next six years. We are also forming an Alumni Association to contact those persons who have in one way or another benefited from St. Vitus. The cost for each calendar is only $30, less than 10 cents per day. This is also a tax-deductible donation.

HOW: Only 4,000 calendars will be sold in 1988. There will be a winning number each day. The drawing will be held each Monday. Approximately $24,700 in gifts will be given in 1988 in the following manner: 306 days $50; 53 days $100; 4 days $500; and 2 days $1,000. Only numbers 0000 through 3,999 will be valid numbers. A number will be assigned to you.

WHERE: You may complete the coupon below and return in the weekly collection plate or to: St. Vitus Calendar Fund, c/o St. Vitus Rectory, 6019 Glass Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44103. Contact Matt Nousak (391-6687) or Frank Kuhar (881-4327) for more information. Return ONLY with a check or official money order. Please DO NOT include cash for your own safety. We have included an envelope for your convenience with this leaflet.

Your return check/money order will be your receipt. The calendar(s) will be mailed to you in four to six weeks. You may purchase more than one calendar; and also consider purchasing a calendar as a birthday/holiday/etc. gift for someone.

Thank you for your time and continued support of St. Vitus.

Roast Beef Dinner at Shrine

The Knights of Our Lady of Lourdes Shrine will sponsor a Roast Beef Dinner on Sunday, Nov. 1 from 12 noon to 5:30 p.m. Dinner will be served in the St. Ann Dining Room on the shrine grounds, located off Chardon Rd., near Euclid Ave.

Tickets, at the door, are $5 for adults, $3.50 for children. Proceeds will be used for the upkeep of the shrine which most Slovenians use one time or another for their various occasions throughout the year. All are most welcome.

Great American Smokeout Nov. 19

To continue helping people quit smoking, the Cuyahoga County unit of The American Cancer Society is sponsoring the 11th annual Great American Smokeout on Thursday, Nov. 19.

The goal of the 1987 Great American Smokeout is having at least one out of every five smokers give up cigarettes from midnight to midnight on Thursday, Nov. 19. This is to be accomplished in an upbeat, good-natured effort to encourage smokers to give up cigarettes for 24 hours.

Cleveland, Oct. 30, 1987.

Looking at the sky on a sunny day, I see specks before my eyes. Should I be concerned?

In bright light, many people see black spots, lines, flies, spiders, hairs or specks of dust. These are called floaters.

Floaters are not imaginary. They are caused by real spots in the vitreous (jelly) of the eye. Most of the inside of the eye is filled with clear gel and little spots or opaque areas in the gel cast shadows on the retina. This produces the sensation of spots.

Floaters are more common in people over the age of 50, after injury or surgery to the eye, and in people who are near-sighted.

For most people, floaters are not a problem. Although the spots are always there, it is easier to see them under certain conditions. Floaters are most easily seen against solid colored, brightly-lit backgrounds, such as a clear sky on a sunny day or a well-lighted drafting table. At other times, in a dimly lighted room, for example, the floaters may not be evident.

Floaters that do not change over the years are nothing to be alarmed about. They are the result of a gradual deterioration and liquification of the vitreous collagen. The slow deterioration leads to condensation or thickening of the gel and casts shadows on the retina.

Floaters that have not been visible before, but appear as a sudden shower, are a significant symptom and should not be ignored. When there is a sudden shower of new floaters, people sometimes think there is dust on their glasses, or something on the windshield of their car, or they may reach for a fly in front of them and find that nothing is there. Serious floaters may appear as innumerable tiny dots, rather than as little strings, flies, spiders, and lines.

Floaters may be accompanied by little flickering or flashing lights called photopsia. Photopsia or new floaters may be serious. Either could mean that there is traction or pulling on the retina, and could be associated with retina holes or retina detachment.

Anyone who has a sudden onset of floaters, especially if they are accompanied by flickering lights, should have a very careful eye examination. Since holes can be detected only through a dilated pupil, it's important that the ophthalmologist examines the eye with the pupils fully dilated. Then, if there is vitreous detachment, pulling on the retina, or holes, these can be seen.

At an early stage, holes often can be treated with a laser. If the holes are not found right away, or if these symptoms are neglected, the patient may develop detachment of the retina. At that point, an operation is necessary to correct the condition.

Very rarely does a person with benign floaters require surgery. Vision generally remains good, although floaters can be annoying to people who have a lot of them. In fact, no treatment is recommended generally; people seem to get used to them and learn to adjust to them with time.

In summary, there are two types of floaters. Most are not a problem. Only those that appear suddenly, or are accompanied by flickering light, are serious and require immediate medical attention.

I've heard that cucumbers are good to eat if you have gout. Is this true? Also, what is the relationship between gout and arthritis?

One of the causes of arthritis, gout is an extremely painful condition that occurs when uric acid crystals are deposited in the joints producing inflammation and swelling. Although any joint may be affected—knee, wrist, knuckle, etc—the most common place is on the side of the big toe, a malady known as podagra.

Gout may result if the body's regulating mechanism controlling the amount of uric acid in the blood fails to work properly. Uric acid, which is produced by protein breaking down in the body, is generally excreted in the urine. Some medications, particularly drugs for high blood pressure, also may cause high uric acid levels.

But not everyone with elevated uric acid gets gout; indeed, most do not. Gout occurs primarily in patients with long-standing, significant elevations of uric acid. Thus, it tends to be a disease of middle and old age. It affects men more often than women. Each attack of gout typically begins suddenly, lasts for several days, then goes away. One episode doesn't necessarily indicate that others will follow.

Relatively few people experience recurrent episodes. Those who do often find that multiple joints are involved. For patients with recurrent episodes, new drugs are available to prevent the deformities of chronic arthritis associated with gout only a generation ago.

Anybody with an acute episode of gout should be treated. Many times, however, it is difficult to tell by looking at a joint whether a swelling is gout. Positive diagnosis is made by a physician who removes some of the fluid from the afflicted area and examines it under a polarizing microscope, looking for the long, thin crystals that are a unique characteristic of uric acid deposits.

Most people require medication during an acute episode of gout, but only a small number require long-term medication. Long-term medication may be prescribed to keep kidney stones from forming.

In treating gout, medication is far more effective than diet. Most people don't get better by radically altering their diet, although the foods they eat may affect their uric acid levels.

Some foods contain large amounts of purines, which, when broken down, produce uric acid in the body. These foods include herring, sardines, yeast, sweetbreads and smelts. Bacon, codfish, asparagus, chicken and pork contain fewer purines. Butter, caviar, sugar, nuts and cucumbers have almost none. Perhaps that is why some people believe that cucumbers are good for gout.

It was once thought that gout is a disease of rich people. The belief sprang up in the Middle Ages when many of the foods wealthy people ate had large amounts of uric acid. However, we know now that gout is not caused by the foods people eat, but by an inability of their body to regulate the level of uric acid in the blood. Heredity, not diet, determines whether a person is to gout.

To the Readers of the A.D.

Of the eight outstanding Council candidates on Mayor Giunta's team for election on this November 3rd, especially impressive are the qualifications of Councilman At-Large Jerald Sustarsic. This 37-year old, lifelong Euclid Democrat is married, with two children, and was raised in an environment of public service. His father, former Mayor Tony Sustarsic, was already a councilman when Jerry was a pre-schooler. Through the years Jerry was exposed to Euclid's problems when discussed by his father and other officials at the Sustarsic home - problems such as underpasses, flooded sewers, leaking water and gas mainlines. He observed his Dad and Tony Giunta riding the streets of Euclid in severe rain storms looking for solutions. He saw all those problems solved - and now he sees the new problems that Mayor Giunta and his fellow Councilpersons are anxious to challenge.

Jerry's boyhood idol was Mayor Kenneth Sims, who along with Tony Giunta and Jerry's father taught him honesty and devotion with unwavering dedication. He says that Euclid has spent over $40 million dollars on sewers and the waste water treatment plants since 1970. He has served on Euclid's Civil Service Commission for 7 years - and expresses pride in the excellent Civil Service job protection Euclid's City Employees have.

Jerry is an engineer, with a keen analytical approach to problems, who willingly gives his help, friendship, and advice. He says he is only as far away as your telephone when you need help.

Geraldine, his wife, is at present, and has been, an active elected Democratic Precinct Committeewoman for many years. Both have given of themselves to the Euclid Democratic Caucus as charter members.

Jerald Sustarsic truly has earned our votes.

Joseph Paik, Chairman
Euclid Democratic Party

Dan's Diary

It's a coincidence

by Dan J. Postotnik

Another of our old time Slovenians has attained a high plateau in a life span. She is the affable Mary Baznik, of 1163 E. 58th St., Cleveland, O., where she has resided for the past 47 years. We conversed in Slovenian, but she is also well versed in English.

Mrs. Mary Baznik (nee Kavcic), celebrated her 90th birthday on Sunday, Oct. 18 in the midst of her family at Sterle's Country House.

Our celebrant was born on Oct. 18, 1897 in Vas Orehovec, fara Kostanjevica, Dolenjsko, present day Slovenia, and emigrated to Cleveland in 1920. She married Anton Baznik on May 5, 1922 in St. Vitus Church, and Father B. J. Ponikvar tied the knot. Their marriage was blessed with two fine sons, Joe and Tony. Both are married with families. The wives are Jolan and Valerie. Mrs. Baznik is the proud grandmother of four.

Mrs. Baznik has been a widow since Aug. 21, 1961 when her husband, Anton, passed away. She had the opportunity to visit her native Slovenia in 1954, where her two brothers are still living today. For a 90 year old, she is still in fairly good health.

We congratulate Mrs. Mary Baznik on her 90th birthday and hope the Lord will grant her many more healthy and happy years!

Case Western Reserve University President Agnar Pytte recently announced the appointment of Richard E. Baznik to the new position of Vice President for Public Affairs, effective immediately. The action is one of three senior administrative appointments authorized last month by the Executive Committee of the University's Board of Trustees.

As Vice President for public affairs, Baznik will be responsible for directing and strengthening overall communications, marketing, and governmental and community relations programs for the University. He has devoted a portion of his time to these areas while serving as the principal staff member in the Office of the President, and since 1985, as liaison with the University's six professional schools. In his new position, he will focus on improving CWRU's position at the local, state, national, and international levels.

This appointment reflects the importance of both understanding and influencing developments in the larger society of which the University is a part, Pytte noted.

Baznik joined the University in 1968 as Director of Publications, and was named Director of University Communication in 1970. He has served as Special Assistant to the President since 1976. He is a graduate of John Carroll University, and has completed The Executive Program at the University of Virginia's College Darden Graduate School of Business.

Richard E. Baznik is the son of Ed and Mary Baznik of 86 Stanwell Dr., Highland Hts. O. 44143, and is a nephew of Msgr. Louis B. Baznik, former pastor of St. Vitus Church. It is a coincidence that I am writing about two people by the same surname. I would like to state that to my knowledge, they are not related.

Congratulations and best wishes are extended to Richard E. Baznik on his promotion, and may he attain even further successes along life's path. Best wishes are also extended to his family, parents, and relatives!

Here are a few special birthday observances:

- Jože Kozina, 70, 11/25
- Stan Hribar, 65, 11/28
- Stanley Kodrin, 60, 11/14

I thought this one would be good for a laugh:

A minister always placed his sermon on the pulpit before he began services. One day, a window was open, and a breeze blew away one of the pages. Preaching vigorously, the minister came to the words, "So Adam said to Eve..."

Turning the page, he was horrified to discover the last sheet gone. "So Adam said to Eve..." he intoned again desperately. Then in a low but audible tones, he said, "There seems to be a leaf missing."

We wish and pray for better health for all of our ailing, and those who are confined...

I see that former Clevelanders, Mr. and Mrs. Tino Modic of 1301 S.E. 32nd Terrace, Cape Coral, FL 33904 are celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary. Congratulations and best wishes to both of you. May you have many more years in good health!

By the way, what ever happened to our former shoe man on St. Clair, Stan (The Man) Majer?...

Have a trick-less Halloween, and a wonderful upcoming Thanksgiving Day. We used to go to grandma's house, but now our daughter invites us over to her place to partake of the "bird."...

Good Delivery

Editor: Thought you would like to know that for the past month, the paper has been delivered very promptly here in Lemont, Ill.

It's good to get news from home. I miss all the social activities but mostly St. Vitus. Theresa Vegh Ed: We miss you, too!
