CLEVELAND, O., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4TH 1931 — SREDA, 4. MARCA 1931

VOL. VII. — LETNIK VII.

AMERIŠKO SLOVENSKE VESTI

Slovenski Narodni Dom v Clevelandu, O., bo v nedeljo 8. marca zopet svetišče lepe slovenske pesmi. Mnogokrat je že donela slovenska pesem v tem našem največjem narodnem hramu, odlični pevci so že nastopali na njegovem otru, v nedeljo 8. marca pa prvič nastopi s samostojnim koncertom nas domačin Mr. Louis Belle. Mnogi so ga že slišali v zboru "Zarja," v opernih prireditvah, v posameznih nastopih pri raznih prilikah, na radio in na gramofonskih ploščah, toda samostojnega koncerta nam dozad je še ni podal. Zato bodo nedvomno posetili njegov nedeljski koncert vsi, ki so ga že kdaj slišali in sploh vsi ljubitelji naše pesmi, katerim krajevne in druge prilike dopuščajo.

Mr. Belle je, kot pravimo, preve po božji volji, kaferemu je lepa pesem nad vse na svetu. In če še dostavimo, da ga bo na klavir spremljal naš ameriško-slovenski pesnik in skladatelj, Mr. Ivan Zorman, se vsak lahko nadaja prvorstnega duševnega užitka na nedeljskem koncertu. Bili smo in smo še naklonjeni glasnikom naša lepe pesmi, ki so prišli od drugod med nas, zato je naša dolžnost, da smo vsaj toliko naklonjeni tistim, ki so vedno med nami in ki s svojim talentom, vežbanjem in požrtvovalnostjo to zaščijo.

Koncert se bo vršil v avdito-ruji S. N. Doma na St. Clair Ave. in se bo pričel ob osmi uri zvečer.

V KONGRESU je bila sprejeti važna predloga, ki določa sistem delavskih posredovalnic za nezaposlene, pri katerem naj bi pomagala zvezna vlada in vlada posameznih držav.

OBE ZBORNICI kongresa sta sprejeli predlogo, ki naj bi odpravila takozzano zasedanje "hrromi rac." Te "hrromi raci" predstavljajo kongresniki, ki so pri jesenskih volitvah poraženi, toda, kljub temu obdržijo svoje mandate do 4. marca prihodnjega leta. Po novi postavi bi njih mandat potekel z 31. decembrom tistega leta, ko so bili pri volitvah poraženi. Zaradi nekega emendmenta nižje zbornice je moralu predloga na skupno konferenco obeh zbornic, in se ne ve, kakšna bo njena končna usoda.

PREDLOGA za delno vladno obravvanje vodnih sil znanega Muscle Shoals projekta je bila sprejeta v obeh zbornicah. Predsednik Hoover pa je spremeno predlogo vetriral.

NAJVIŠJE zvezno sodišče v Washingtonu je soglasno določilo, da je bil 18. amendment pravilno sprejet, ter je s tem ovrglo odločbo zveznega sodnika Clarka v Newarku, da je omenjeni amendment neustavni.

V senatu je bila sprejeta rezolucija, ki nalaga znani Wickershamovi komisiji, da mora senatu izročiti vse dokumente, ki se tičejo njene preiskave nevpoštovanja prohibicije in drugih postav. Dozdaj je senat dobil v pregled le del teh dokumentov.

VELIKI newyorški dnevnik The New York World, katerega je ustanovil Joseph Pulitzer pred 50 leti, je bil pretečen teden prodan Scripps-Howard časnikarskemu sindikatu. List je bil nato združen z dnevnikom New York Telegram, katerega je omenjeni sindikat že prej lastoval.

MED FRANCIJO in Italijo so se ponovna začela pogajanja za omejitev pomorskega oborovzvanja. Glasom poročil beležijo ta pogajanja dobre uspehe.

REPUBLIKA PERU ima v teku dobrih šestih mesecev že drugo revolucijo. Prva je str.

Viharni mesec marec

O mesecu sušcu ali marcu velja prislovica, da pridivja v deželo kakor lev, zapusti pa jo kot pohlevno jagnje. Za kraje s takozvanim zmernim podnebjem je to navadno resnično, vsaj v normalnih letih. Začetkom marca še kaj radi razgrajajo snežni viharji, proti koncu pa nas večkrat pozdravljajo že prve cvetke in nas obkrožajo žametno mehke sapice pomlad. V marcu se vrši boj za vlado med silami zime in pomlad. Boji so ostri in brezobzirni, ker drugače bi pač ne bili pravi boji. Enkrat zmaguje ena stran, drugič druga. Mrzla burja, sneg, dež, sodra in toča se meri z gorimi južnimi vetrovi in vedno močnejšimi solnčnimi žarki.

Ni lep ta boj v naravi, toda ni brez koristi. Viharji počnejo z dreves suhe veje, ki so samo v napotje, in z njimi marsikatero gnezdo škodljivega mrčesa, burno deževje pa odplavi to in mnogo druge zimske nesnage tja, kjer ne more povzročiti nobene ali vsaj ne znatne škode. In "ko Jug na Burjo mahne in Pomlad na zemljo dahne," kakor pravi pesnik, vstane narava krepka, zdrava, sveža in okinčana z božanskih čari k novemu, bogatuemu življenju.

Zakon narave je tak, da mlada, zdrava živiljenjska sila končno zmaga, naj so boji še tako hudi in dolgotrajni. Kaj: ni življenja zmožno, mora logično propasti.

Tudi v človeškem življenju so včasi viharji vrlo koristni, ker otresejo suho dračje in zalege mrčesa starinskih predskov, sebičnosti, nestrnosti in strasti. Taki viharji pripravljajo pot zmag zdravih mladih idej in nazorov. Pri tem je treba pomniti, da je lahko človek po letih mlad, po mišljenu pa starček, medtem ko je drugi poln zdravih mladih idej, dasi po letih morda ni več mlad. To vidimo tudi drugod v naravi. Koruza je dozorela in stara v enem letu, iepa najkasneje v dveh. Lipa in hrast pa ohranata dostikrat mladostno moč in silo stoletja, californijske sequoie pa celo tisočletja.

Ni vse dobro in hvalevredno, kar je mlado, in ni vse slabo in zrelo za v rototarnico, kar je staro. Napačno je vse novo sprejeti za dobro zato, ker je novo, a še bolj napačno je krčevito se držati vsega starega samo zato, ker je bilo dobro v dobi naših pradedov, ko sta bila leseni plug in samokolnica važna in vpoštovana "stroja." Vsekakor, dokler smo dostopni in vzprejemljivi za zdrave nove ideje, smo mladi, brez ozira na število let.

Tudi inštitucije, ki so dostopne novim idejam, kažejo mlađo, zdravo živiljenjsko moč in navadno dober napredok. Res je, da se vsaka nova ideja v praksi ne obnese, toda kdor ni poskušal, se ne bo nič naučil, in kdor nič ne riskira, ne more računati na posebne uspehe.

Naša J. S. K. Jednota je dostopna za nove ideje in je že marsikatero novost uspešno izvedla v praksi. To kaže, da je polna sveže živiljenjske sile, in to je v veliki meri odgovorno za njen lep napredok in vedno rastoči ugled.

Ako bi včasi pomisili, kako malenkostni se nam bodo čez eno leta ali čez pet let deli problemi, ki nas danes vznemirijo ali razburajo do zelenje, bili bi na boljsem za marsikatero urušpanja in za marsikatero mesec zdravja in življenja.

Če bi bili vsi v vseh ozirih enakih misti in če bi vsi hodili po istih potih, bila bi ponekod neznašna gneča, drugod pa strahovita puščava in osamelost.

Vrednost vsega se izpreminja z razmerami. Novi časi prinašajo nove ideje in nove ocene. Poštene, odkritosrčnost in pravo priateljstvo pa je kot zlato, ki obdrži svojo vrednost v vseh časih in pri vseh narodih.

VSAK PO SVOJE

(Nadaljevanje s prve strani) potoženo, včasi s katastrofalnimi posledicami, katere bom nošel vse življenje. Pa naj bo. Včasi pa je bilo samo norčevanje, in šalo imam rad. Nedavno, pri neki dobrodeleni prireditvi v S. N. Domu, me je Sreča poljubila vsa z marmelado namazana. Marmelada se po ameriško imenuje "jam," in priznati je treba, da me je res spravila v "jam." Vse se je smejalo in jaz tudi, čeprav mi je šlo nekoliko na jok. Saj sem pošteno plačal mojo vstopnico, in da zadostim zahtevi vratarja, sem uslužno nanjo napisal tudi svoje cenjeno ime, nikomur nisem nič hudega storil, nikomur nič slabega rekel, nobene hudomušne misli nisem imel v srcu, v plačilo za to me pa Usoda namaže s tremi steklenicami marmelade. In jaz naj zdaj s tremi steklenicami marmelada zvonim po slavnem St. Clair cesti? Ali naj se izpostavim nevarnosti, da se bo ta marmelada vlekla za meno skozi idilične Schade Avenue?

Saj je morda Sreča ali Usoda dobro mislila, češ, ta-le je jesiharski obraz potrebuje največ sladkosti, pa naj dobi marmelado. Ampak, če bi me Usoda videla zdaj ko vstanem, bi vedela, da tri steklenice ne za dostujejo!

Spolh pa jaz ne ljubim take vrste sladkarji. "Sladko vince piti to me veseli," in so še druge sladkosti, za katere sem navdušen, toda med tiste slad kosti ne spada marmelada!

K sreči so imele usmiljenje z menoj tri rojakinje, ki so bile voljne odneti vsaka po eno steklenico marmelade. Še so dobra srca na svetu! Kaj se storile z njo, ni moja stvar in briga, glavno je, da meni ni bilo treba v pozni noči cingljati domov s tremi steklenicami sladkosti tuje izbire. Velike skrbi in nadloge so me rešile, in naj bodo zagotovljene moje odkritosrčne hvaležnosti.

Saj je drugače vse prav, in konju, ki ga človek zastonj dobi, se ne gleda na zobe, toda, če se utaplja v marmeladi in ti nekdo ponudi rešilni pas, ga ne bo nikdar pozabil.

Naj se dotičnim rojakinjam v mojem imenu iskreho zahvaljujo in jih obiskuje s poljubi in rožnatimi sanjam vse božanske Gracie!

Sanchez Cerro je najprej podal izjavu, da umakne svojo kandidatu, nadaljni uspehi revolucionarjev pa so ga prisili, da je odstopil kot provizorični predsednik. Novim provizoričnim predsednikom republike je bil nato zaprišen Ricardo Leoncio Elias, dosedanjem načelnikom najvišjega sodišča.

AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

Current Thought.

COMMITTEE ON ATHLETICS

For the first time in the history of the South Slavonic Catholic Union a national championship lodge basketball team will be determined, the event to take place in Chicago, Ill., March 14 and 15. In the East, Pittsburgher Lodge (No. 196, SSCU) won the Eastern sectional title when it defeated the Ohio state champion, the George Washington Lodge (No. 180, SSCU). The Western sectional title will be determined March 14, when the Minnesota state champion Jubileers (No. 215, SSCU) meet Illinois state champion Indians (No. 220, SSCU).

Transportation expenses for visiting member teams, playing for sectional and national titles, are to be reimbursed by our Union, as provided for in the Rules and Regulations of our SSCU, printed and distributed last month. Individual and team prizes will also be awarded to the championship teams.

Members should take these factors into consideration and make plans for the future, so that as many lodges will participate in the sport movement as possible. All are entitled to the same privileges and each has a chance to engage in contests with other lodge teams.

It would be wise for each lodge to establish a committee on athletics to consist of both sexes. The duty of the committee would be to supervise the organizing of athletic teams, suggest what type of sports the lodge should indulge in, and see to it that the various lodge teams are properly coached and managed. In this way the regular monthly meeting would consist, in part, of the report of the committee, whose recommendations could be passed upon by the rest of the members. During the course of the lodge meeting a suggestion is brought up by some particular member that is worthy of serious consideration. Invariably such ideas cannot be passed upon immediately, and if postponed until the next regular monthly meeting will be forgotten, while the originator of the idea will become discouraged and thus the matter will be dropped.

On the other hand, if the committee on athletics ponders over the suggestion, and it may need modification, the particular point in question is brought before the members at the next meeting. Just suggesting an idea is not "worth a tinker's darn," but to carry that particular idea through to completion is worth considerable to the lodge.

All sports are not adaptable to all sections of the country. In certain localities like Ohio and Illinois, for example, ten-pin bowling is the rage. But not so in the state of Pennsylvania, where for some inexplicable reason duck-pin bowling predominates.

For that reason the committee on athletics could feature sports that are "the rage" in that particular locality. Enthusiasm and spirit behind the lodge teams can easily be mustered, and thus the lodge receives the most benefit in the participation of sports.

The support of the members will be found in abundance with championship teams proudly wearing the banners of the local lodge.

Organize a committee on athletics in your group.

EXPORT MAJESTICS

Louis Belle Gives Concert

Export, Pa.—Our last regular meeting was held Feb. 19. It was not well attended. What happened to all the members? A fine of 50 cents must be paid by each member that does not attend at least once every three months.

Remember that this is our lodge and it shall be what we will make it. Why don't we get the co-operation of all the members? I have often wondered how large the Majestics could possibly grow within the next few years. Why can't we make up our minds to make the Majestics one of the leading branches of the SSCU? By getting busy and securing new members we can make this dream come true.

You, the members, know that there are a number of outsiders that would make excellent candidates for membership. Why not explain the policies of our SSCU to these young people and get them to join our lodge?

A pleasant evening of music entertainment is in store for the Slovenian music enthusiasts at the Slovenian National Home.

bership. There are many juveniles in our town that could be enrolled in the Majestics.

We were sorry to hear that Bro. John Moretta was hurt while at work in a mine. Our president, Louis Nagoda, was operated on for tumors. We wish both of them a speedy recovery, and sincerely hope that our president will be able to preside at our next meeting to be held March 19. Let us all attend and thus keep in close touch with the affairs of the lodge. Athletics are of great interest to the younger generation, and can be used to advantage in such cases.

Why not increase our Juvenile Department, which in turn will increase our adult mem-

Attention SSCU Lodges of Illinois

Sunday afternoon, March 15, will see the champion SSCU lodge of Illinois determined in bowling, and will take place at Schueneman's Bowling Alleys at 324 S. Ashland Boulevard, Chicago, Ill. All SSCU lodges of Illinois are invited to participate in the tournament.

The bowling tournament has been postponed from Feb. 22, and then from March 8, mostly due to the fact that the national SSCU basketball tournament will take place March 14 and 15. Basketball games will be played Saturday and Sunday evenings, while the bowling will take place in the afternoon.

Brothers William B. Laurich, Spolar of Chicago and Bro. J. L. Jevitz Jr. of Joliet, Ill., are making the necessary preparations. All SSCU lodges of Illinois maintaining bowling teams are entitled to participate in the state tournament, the winner of which will travel to Cleveland, O., to compete for the national championship.

Colorado Sunshine Athletics, Increase in Membership Discussed at Meeting

Denver, Colo. Hello, everybody! This is Colorado Sunshine Lodge, No. 201, SSCU. A number of readers wonder, perhaps, why the name "Colorado Sunshine" was ever adopted, and for this reason I will venture to offer words of explanation.

When the organizers of the Denver SSCU English-speaking group looked around for a name they were at a loss to pick one out that would connote brotherly and sisterly feeling, kindness and helpfulness, and one that would offer something more than just life insurance.

In short, a name that would immediately convey to the outsider that the local branch was organized for the younger group, and as such would offer social contact, entertainment, and take part in numerous lodge activities. And what is most important, impress the younger generation that the regular monthly meetings were a source of enjoyment to all those that attended.

Hence the name Colorado Sunshine Lodge. In the past members have tried hard to live up to all expectations, and are constantly holding up its name.

At our last meeting the general order of business was taken care of with the important issues receiving the major portion of discussion, chief of which was the organizing of a baseball team. Frank Smole was elected captain and organizer.

Girls will also be given serious consideration in athletics and can look for leadership from Helen Pozdnik, as she was elected captain. Progress made in athletics will be reported and published in the New Era in subsequent issues.

Other lodge activities, such as picnics, dramas, were up for discussion and are to be given immediate attention in the next month. Increase in membership was the closing topic of the meeting. When the year 1932 rolls around Colorado Sunshine Lodge will have 100 adult and 25 juvenile members enrolled. The word of the members can be relied upon.

BRIEFS

First national SSCU basketball tournament will be held in Chicago, Ill., March 14 and 15, in St. Philip's gymnasium at 3149 W. Jackson Blvd. Jubileers, No. 215, Minnesota champions; Indians, No. 220, Illinois champions, and Pittsburgher, No. 196, Eastern champions, will participate. Elaborate preparations are being made by William B. Laurich, member of SSCU Supreme Board of Trustees and president of the Chicago JSKJ Sport Club.

Illinois state SSCU bowling tournament will be held on Sunday afternoon, March 15, at Schueneman's Alleys, 324 S. Ashland Boulevard, Chicago, Ill. All SSCU lodges of Illinois are invited to participate.

Joe Malkovich, six-foot all-range back guard of Chisholm, Minn., high school basketball team, was threatened with an appendicitis operation on the eve of the district tournament.

Joe Vosmik, former Cleveland sandlotter, joined the Indians of the American League in their annual spring training for the coming season.

"Dynamite" is the first book written by Louis Adamic, who came to the United States in 1913. It has received nationwide attention and is on sale at all the book stores. The cause of the present unemployment situation is discussed very thoroughly.

Photographers' Association of America has conferred six consecutive honorable mention awards to Mr. Matt Beres of Cleveland, O., for his work in photography, which made him eligible to compete for the final loving cup last week.

Swetczar Banovic, Slovenian concert tenor of note, appeared in the final Jugoslav Slovene Club seminar held at the International Institute last week, and appeared instead of Anton Subelj.

SS. Peter and Paul Society, No. 66, SSCU, will hold its regular monthly meeting Saturday evening, March 14, instead of Sunday, March 15, and will take place in the usual quarters.

WHICH MAN ARE YOU?

The man who wastes mortgages his tomorrow; the man who saves redeems his today.

The man who wastes adds trouble; the man who saves multiplies both comfort and content.

The man who wastes loses his desire to save; the man who saves loses his desire to waste.

The man who wastes loses his usefulness; the man who saves fills his place to overflowing.

The man who wastes has an anxious, worried look; the man who saves sleeps sweetly o' nights.

The man who wastes chokes the life out of prosperity; the man who saves gets the first helping at her table.

The man who wastes is on the way to become a gloomy, hopeless, penniless pessimist; the man who saves is a joyful optimist.

National Star Has Good Season Record

Johnstown, Pa.—National Star took Johnstown basketball fans by storm in their victory over the Bethlehem Laboratory combine. The fast shooting of Phillips, Thomas and Govekar surprised the opponents, in fact so much that this trio broke through their entire defense. Lefty Bretz was the luminary for the losers.

The next game was against the Goose Goslings. At the first quarter they were leading by a score of 10 to 2, but the Stars tried harder in the second quarter and soon found the two teams tied, 15 to 15. From then on it was a march to victory for the Stars. Credit must be given to Kopler, Pengatore and Thomas. By the way, Thomas is center, and his 6 feet 2 inches of flesh is making the National Stars a formidable rival. Rudy Pristow, the bulky little forward, also made a nice showing.

If the National Star disposes of the Franklin combine the team has a chance to participate for the district championship.

To date our National Star has played 14 games, lost 7 and won 7. We have scored 364 points to our opponents' 355. Below are the game scores:

Pittsburgher 42, National Star 21. Pittsburgher 42, National Star 23. Sunnyside A. C. 6, National Star 21. Koontz Big Five 23, National Star 28. St. Anthony 49, National Star 39. Viering A. A. 31, National Star 29. Reighard Bros. 11, National Star 24. Mineral Point 13, National Star 25. Cooperdale A. C. 26, National Star 24. Cooperdale 25, National Star 25. Bethlehem Laboratories 25, National Star 37. Cover Hill Firemen 32, National Star 16. Goose Goslings 21, National Star 29. St. Marys 8, National Star 23. Joseph Kopler.

No. 66 To Enter Three Teams in Tourney

Joliet, Ill.—Bowling tournament to decide the champion SSCU lodge of Illinois state will be held March 15, at the Windy City Bowling Alleys. Originally the contest was scheduled to take place Feb. 22. Our SS. Peter and Paul Society is going to enter three teams that are very anxious to show their wares.

Thursday, Feb. 19, SSCU No. 66 second team won two games and lost one to the Unknowns, at the Alamo Alleys, and thus places them in a three-corner tie for third place. As usual Bluth was high man with scores of 174, 194 and 185. Kumfert of the opponents was star of the series with scores of 218, 177 and 208.

SPORTING BITS

NATIONAL BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD MARCH 14 AND 15 AT ST. PHILIP'S GYM OF CHICAGO, ILL.

PITTSBURGHER, EASTERN CHAMPS, JUBILEERS, MINNESOTA CHAMPS, AND INDIANS, ILLINOIS CHAMPS TO PARTICIPATE IN FIRST SSCU TOURNAMENT

The first SSCU Basketball Tournament will be held March 14 and 15, at Chicago, Ill., and will take place at St. Philip's Gymnasium of 3149 W. Jackson Blvd. Saturday evening, March 14, at 7 p. m. the Western section SSCU title will be decided when the Jubileers No. 215, SSCU, Minnesota state champions, will play the Illinois state champion Indians, No. 220, SSCU. Sunday evening, March 15, at 8 p. m. Pittsburgher, No. 196, SSCU, Eastern SSCU titleholder, will play the winner of the Western section for the NATIONAL SSCU BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

Elaborate preparations are being made by William B. Laurich of Chicago, member of Supreme Board of Trustees. A dance will be held at Hotel New Market Saturday night, March 14, following the game to determine the Western champion. On Sunday, March 15, a banquet will be given at the same place following the national championship game. Saturday morning, March 14, the guests will be taken on a sight-seeing trip through the prominent places of Chicago, and will include the stock yards. Arrangements are being made so that the visitors will have a splendid time during their stay in Chicago.

Jubileers, Minnesota representatives, will travel all the way from Chisholm, Minnesota to Chicago, to make the longest journey of all visiting teams. By virtue of their victories over all SSCU rivals in Minnesota makes them the state SSCU champions, and according to the local newspapers of Chisholm and vicinity, are considered the cream of the Mesaba Range basketball ball outfits. Not only have they been content to play SSCU lodge teams, but have taken all other opposition by storm. Recently the chisholm Jubileers won the Range basketball championship when they decisively trimmed Keewatin in the playoff finals, score being 26 to 17 after eliminating Marble 42 to 30 the evening before.

Pittsburgher quintet travels from Pittsburgh, Pa., their hometown. By defeating twice the National Star combine (No. 213, SSCU) of Conemaugh, Pa., Pittsburgher was declared the Pennsylvania state champion. On Feb. 21, George Washington basketball team, (No. 180, SSCU), Ohio state champions, met defeat at the hands of the Pittsburgher by an overwhelming score of 70 to 32, game played at Pittsburgh, Pa., which gave the Pittsburgher the Eastern SSCU basketball title. In the meantime the Eastern champs were not content to remain idle, but entered the Greater Pittsburgh League, where a creditable showing was made. Although the Pittsburgher is not perched on top of the league, still considering that other teams in the league have clicked for the past ten years, the smoky city boys have made a fair showing in the first year.

Illinois state champion Indians (No. 211, SSCU), like Chisholm Jubileers have yet to lose a basketball game either to the SSCU teams or outsiders. Indians lodge has been organized but recently under the leadership of Brother Spolar, well known in the Slovenian circle of Chicago. Jubileers or Indians will play the Pittsburgher for the national title.

Prizes for the sectional and national winners will be awarded at the banquet, Sunday, March 15. Pittsburgher team is to receive watch charms for taking the Eastern title, at the same time that prizes for the Western sectional winner and the national winner will be awarded.

A beautiful plaque in the form of a statue will be awarded to the national lodge basketball winner. It can be hung on a wall. On the upper part of the plaque is a victory symbol surrounded by the words: SOUTH SLAVONIC CATHOLIC UNION, and in the center are the words JSKJ. Immediately below is the phrase ORGANIZED IN 1898. A picture of a basketball player is on the lower section of the plaque, and below it are the words

Illini Stars Increase Lead to Five Victories

HOLD DANCE MARCH 28 AT BERGER'S HALL

Chicago, Ill.—Illini Stars (No. 211, SSCU) increased their winning streak to five games, the latest victim being the Comrades (No. 193, SSCU) of Waukegan. Game took place Feb. 22, 8:30 p.m., at the Mother of Good School gymnasium, with a capacity crowd on hand.

Illini Stars got the ball at the tip-off and were warming up with short passes when an unintentional pass put the ball into the hands of an opponent. Result was 2 to 0 in favor of the Comrades. A charity toss followed, increasing the lead to 3 to 0. A rally by the Illini Stars followed and by the end of the first quarter saw the Illini Stars at the long end of a 12 to 3 score. The Stars continued their scoring spree in the second quarter, while the Comrades hit their own basket for four goals, and at the end of the half score was 21 to 14 in our favor. Mraz and Pintar of the Stars and Beice of the Comrades were easily the outstanding performers.

The third quarter saw the Comrades reverse their tactics with clever passing, and before long earned four more baskets and one charity toss, thereby crawling within two points of the Stars, who in the meantime could account for only two baskets. But in the final quarter saw the Illini Stars masters of the situation and showed their superiority by holding the Comrades to one scoring point, while Mraz, Illini star forward, broke through for four baskets. Kimez was the Comrades' scoring threat in the second half. Final score was: Illini Stars 33, Comrades 24.

Illini Stars team wants to thank the Waukegan Comrades' secretary for the friendly co-operation given them before, during and after the game. Refreshments were served following the contest, and we want to thank the Comrades for all the accommodations. And especially the three young ladies, Marie, Mamie and Jean, who were kind enough to act as guides through Waukegan.

See you all at the Illini Stars dance to be held March 28 at Berger's Hall, 2653 S. Lawndale Ave. To miss this dance is to miss the merriest night of 1931. Notice, Indians and Comrades. How about a get-together at the Illini Stars' dance?

Miss Perdan Impresses At First Concert

Miss Jeanette Perdan sang herself into the hearts of Slovenian music lovers in her initial concert that took place March 1 at the Slovenian Workingmen's Home of Cleveland, O. Great was the applause given her for the excellent interpretation of "Air of Olympia," taken from Hoffmann's opera. The greater part of the evening was taken up with the singing of Slovenian songs. Miss Irma Kalan accompanied on the piano.

This was Miss Perdan's first appearance that will take her on a tour through Ohio, Pennsylvania and Illinois. The farewell concert will take place May 3 at the Slovenian National Home, after which Miss Perdan will embark for Europe to further her musical education.

National Star Has Winning Basketball Team

BUILDING TEAM FOR FUTURE CHAMPIONSHIP TILTS

Conemaugh, Pa.—Our National Star (No. 213, SSCU) basketball team has been playing in good form the last few weeks. In a hard fought game Feb. 17 the Stars defeated the fast Franklin Laboratory quintet by a close score of 37 to 33. At the end of the first half the score stood 18 to 18. All-around playing of Thomas and Phillips was the outstanding feature of the game.

Feb. 20 the Reighard Bros. proved to be the victims by a score of 24 to 13, the game being played on the Franklin floor. It was a close game, with stellar guard by Kopler and Pengatore.

Feb. 24 the Stars played the Goslin Juniors, a fast team that proved inferior to the fast work of Thomas, Govekar and Kopler. The Juniors had poor defense and the end of the game saw the score 29 to 20 in favor of the Stars.

Feb. 22 the National Stars played the Cover Hill Firemen on the latter's floor. It was a rough battle against a team that had the advantage of height. But the Stars did not lose hope and played like good sports. Carlisle, Firemen's forward, caged seven field goals in the game. Charity tosses made by the Stars ran short of their mark. Result was a score of 33 to 23 against the Stars. At the end of the first half the score was 20 to 17 in favor of the Stars.

Feb. 27 the St. Mary Juniors fell victims to the Stars. Both sides fought hard, but the first half saw our team ahead by a score of 10 to 5. "K.O." Kopler was floored in the fourth quarter, but was saved by the referee's whistle. Final score was 23 to 8 in favor of the National Star quint.

I. L. League Results

Collinwood Boosters (SSCU) bowling team lost two out of three games to the Arcadians Sunday, March 1, in the Inter-Lodge League contest. This is unusual to the otherwise strong Boosters' combine, and especially since the Arcadians are not considered to finish in the first division. However, the best regulated families have their off-days, and the same can be said of the Boosters. Laurich, Krall and Oberstar hit scores of 568, 576 and 549, respectively.

George Washington (SSCU) bowlers, contenders for the Inter-Lodge League championship, took two and lost one to the Utopians, supposedly weak sister of the league. The first two games were won by comfortable margins, but the last game caught the Presidents napping.

Betsy Ross (SSCU) lost all three games to the Comrades, although T. Kovitch hit 249 and C. Mandel 213. Alich of the Comrades proved to be the thorn, with scores of 214, 245 and 214.

Challenge Pittsburgher

Conemaugh, Pa.—In their first year of basketball the National Star basketball quintet (No. 213, SSCU) has made a creditable showing. Kopler, Pristow, Thomas and Pengatore played some fast basketball against a championship team like the Pittsburgher (No. 196, SSCU).

Though defeated twice, the National Stars wish to play the Pittsburgher combine again, for they have a number of new high school stars on the squad.

Hence we challenge the Pittsburgher quint for another game, to be played either March 21 or 28, the game to be played at Pittsburgh. The National Star is very anxious to present the 1931-1932 basketball team to Pittsburgh. Joseph Kopler, No. 213, SSCU.

National Radio Audition

Announcement of the fifth national radio audition by the Atwater Kent Foundation, offering cash awards of $25,000 and ten musical scholarships to the best young men and women singers in America, is of special interest to foreign-born music students, in view of the fact that in three of the four previous auditions singers of foreign birth or foreign-born parentage were among the national finalists. Raoul Nadeau, baritone, who won the first prize of $5,000 for men in last year's contest, was a French-Canadian by birth. In the first audition in 1927, second and third awards for women went to young singers of foreign birth or parentage—Emilia Da Prato, soprano, born in Italy, won second place and Marie Bronarzyk, Chicago soprano of foreign-born parents, won third place. Fifth place for men in 1927 went to Libero Micheletti, baritone, of Galveston, Tex., who was born in Italy. In 1928 two singers, Ernest Ferrata, of Italian parentage, and Carmen Roselli, of Cuban birth and parentage, both from New Orleans, were among the national finalists.

Accepted by ambitious singers as well as music workers throughout the country as the outstanding American vocal contest, the auditions in this, its fifth year, will follow substantially the lines of the previous competitions, which have been held annually since 1927. It is open to amateurs—young men and young women alike—between the ages of 18 and 25.

The awards will be:

Winners of first place (one boy and one girl), $5,000 each and two years tuition in an American conservatory or its equivalent.

Winners of second place, $3,000 each and one year's tuition.

Winners of third place, $2,000 each and one year's tuition.

Winners of fourth place, $1,500 each and one year's tuition.

Winners of fifth place, $1,000 each and one year's tuition.

Winners of sixth place, $500 each and one year's tuition.

Winners of seventh place, $300 each and one year's tuition.

Conducted on the principle of elimination, the fifth national radio audition will progress through local, state and geographical district stages to national finals. The district, or semi-final auditions, of which there will be five, representing as many geographical divisions into which the country as a whole will be divided, will each qualify one boy and one girl (ten in all) who will sing in grand finals in New York over a coast to coast network of radio stations.

A SUGGESTION

By Anthony Flens, No. 211
SSCU

Cicero, Ill.—The benefits to be derived from an employment agency under the auspices of the South Slavonic Catholic Union for its members would be twofold: First, the lodges would undoubtedly increase their memberships because of the fatherly intent it would display in so doing and thereby become a larger, greater, and more powerful organization; and, second, an employment bureau would naturally tend to further the brotherly (and sisterly) feeling that exists between the members of each lodge, and the lodges themselves.

There are a great many fellows and girls that might join the SSCU if they only had the money to pay the dues. There are so many people without work at the present time that I am sure that they would just cling to anybody that shows a willingness to aid them. This type of member makes a very good member. They are the kind that are eager to do most anything to promote such a useful organization.

Mrs. Balkovec, Mr. Kompare and Dr. Arch acted as chauffeurs for the team. Dr. Arch shall not be forgotten by the George Washington basketball players.

F. J. Kress, son of Mrs. Kress, and chairman of the Athletic Conference, is responsible for the basketball team seeing part of Pittsburgh, also Dr. F. J. Arch, supreme medical examiner of the South Slavonic Catholic Union.

Dr. Arch promised Frank Faletic, one of the boys, that he would come to Cleveland on Feb. 29, 1931. Frank was delighted that he would meet the "Doctor" so soon. Is this Leap Year?

Maybe you would like to meet the boys again. Here they are: Sammy Richter, Frank Faletic, Frank Palcic, Rudy Medves, Joe Merhar, Joe Jane and Charles Kikel. Frank "Samson" Drobnić is their manager.

Here we are again, Pittsburgh, but not in person this time. The George Washington lodge No. 180 SSCU basketball team shall not forget its brief stay in your town. However, brief though it may have been, it shall linger in their memories. The boys wish to take this opportunity to express their appreciation for the hospitality extended to them by Mrs. Kress and family. Mrs. Kress certainly wanted the Cleveland boys to remember Pittsburgh, Pa. Banovac Sings at Final Seminar

The final Jugoslav Seminar, sponsored by the Jugoslav Slovenc Club, took place on Feb. 27, at the Y. W. C. A. International Institute. The public was invited.

The Jugoslav Slovenc Club was honored in being able to present Mr. Svetozar Banovac, the much reputed Slovenian tenor singer. He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Jeanette Perdan, well known Slovene pianist. Miss Perdan, dressed in a Jugoslav costume, interpreted the plot of each song which helped the audience enjoy the songs immensely. They add, too, generation on generation until the owner of the empty stomach is laid six feet under.

To help one another out in time of trouble (or as some say, distress) is most brotherly. This enterprise would cost the lodges nothing; hence if only one member of only one lodge obtained a position through this agency, it can truly be considered profitable. It can be carried on a large scale, where each lodge reports to the supreme secretary any openings that they may hear of, and he in turn will see that that information gets to the secretaries of each consecutive lodge of the Union; or, it can be carried on on a small scale, where each lodge would take care of its own unemployed. Such aid as the aforementioned would serve to be a very excellent inducement for new members to join the lodges.

Come on, folks. Let's co-operate and put this thing over big. If we do this, it will be one of the best accomplishments in the lodges since the birth of the S. S. C. U. People want to be taken care of while they are living besides being taken care of after they are dead. Therefore let's do all we can toward effecting this enterprise. Incidentally, this reminds me of a joke that I heard a while back. It goes something like this:

At a Democratic convention years ago the name of a Southern statesman was mentioned for the vice presidential nomination. A delegate leaned forward to inquire of another delegate: "Say, is it true what I hear?"

"What's that?"

"They say this Southern guy is a noctogenarian."

"Yes, he is."

The other gulped, but came up manfully. "Well," he said, "I never expected to vote for a nigger. But if my party puts him up, I'll support him."

Our lodges should put up the employment bureau question to its members and they should support it. Every loyal brother and sister should see that this is put over.

In the second quarter luck

Saying It With Comrades

Waukegan, Ill.—On Sunday, Feb. 22, at the local school gym the Illini Stars (SSCU) of Chicago drubbed the Comrades' basketball quintet to the tune of 33 to 24 in a somewhat rough and tumble contest; however, the visitors came through victorious by a comfortable margin. The Stars have a wonderful passing combination, in fact, it should be considered as a strong outfit. We cannot understand how in the world the Illini Stars were eliminated in the state tournament for SSCU honors. Oh, well, cheer up, boys, the best team does not always win. Take us, for instance.

Next week is going to be a great one for the SSCU. The national basketball championship will be decided over the week-end. Of course, the Pittsburgh combine will be crowned as the SSCU champions. And on Sunday, March 15, the Comrades' "crack" challenge bowling team will defend its title as the SSCU's best. About ten teams are expected to take the drives in the elimination tournament for state championship.

Among them will be the famous St. Rocus "Secret Five," also a local branch of the SSCU. Sh. sh, sh, the "Secret Five" has hopes, so has Joliet. Nevertheless, the Comrades' "crack" bowlers have purchased a large number of articles, the very latest in style, such as socks, garters, etc., for that trip to Cleveland. Oh, girls, act your age!

In the Mother of God Church League the Comrade Girls bowling team took two games from the St. Anns No. 3. Capt. Mary "Darling" Rode led the winners with games of 128, 133 and 133, for a splendid 394 series. Frances Petrovic was next with 389. E. Ogrin topped the losers with 362. Below are the scores:

VILEMIR

POVEST IZZA TURŠKIH BOJEV

(Nadalevanje)

Sedela je na divanu in stiskala Vilemirja k sebi. Ni kazala znamenja ospusti, slutila je že vse to. Globoka guba se je pokazala na čelu, ustnice so se stisnile. Globoko, modro okno mu je reklo: "Ti si kriv," usta so molčala. Še tisti dan je izginila Jelena, z njo sinček in zvesta služabnica. Velel jo je iskati, vendar mu je bila misel, da je umrla na begu, ljubša, kakor da bi jo videl v rokah drugega. Ali sina je želel najti, želel iz vse moči . . . Sina, hčer—da ne živi tako sam med tuji . . . Pustil bi Turke, se vrnil, a kam. Povsod ga čaka zaničevanje, revščina. Tukaj ima ugodno življenje, če se pokori despotični volji enega, vrlada lahko druge. Pa se je pokoril, in Mohamed je cenil njegovo vdanost. Ismail-paša je postal vnet Turak, goreč sovražnik vsega krščenega. Sledil je turških verskih obredom, pa v srcu se jim je posmehoval. Dokazal je sam sebi, da ni Boga, in zadušil s tem očitanje vesti . . . A če bi bil Bog? . . .

Ismail je ležal na obrazu. Temno mu je bilo v duši. Je Bog in on govoril: "Bodite sveti, kakor sem svet jaz, Gospod, vaš Bog?" In Ismail se je vprašal: Kam naj pobegnem pred oblijem tega Boga? Ogorza kazni, smrti, obupa ga je zagrnila. Iskal je nekaj izgubljenega v spominu. In zasvetilo se je tam daleč v davno izginolih letih detinstva. Mati je sklepalna ročice detetu, mu pravila o luči sveta. Divna luč—divna, presvetla podoba. Luč vseh časov, vseh narodov . . . Rad je hodil deček za njo—mož jo je izgubil v brodnjah življenja . . . Ismail je ležal na obrazu. Hotel se je dvigniti—poiskati luči . . . Pa trde so bile roke in noge, Ismail ni mogel vstati . . . Vzdih, moli te je privrela na usta, molitve, davno pozabljenia . . .

"Vstan! Hodi za menoj!" — Zdelo se mu je, da je slišal skrivnostven glas.

Dvignil se je na kolena in se drsal po njih v mukah . . . Tesna je bila steza v goro. Vila se je skozi trnje, po kamenju Pot, solze, kri so tekle raz čelo po licu, roke so se razpokale, ranile noge, strgala obleka . . . Pa moč je prihajala od tistega ki je stal na vrhu in klical: "Pridite k meni."

Vrh je žarel v zlatih oblakih, mnogi so dohajali gori in poljubovali noge Kristusu. Božanstven mir je seval raz lice na celu so lesketale besede:

"Jaz sem začetek in konec. V meni najde sleherna duš svoj mir."

Ismail se je pridrsal do oblakov. Resno, milo ga je pogledalo nebeško oko. Roka se je raztegnila, prsti se dotekniličela in rame klečečega.

"Izgubil si vitešto. Povrni ti ga jaz. Moj vitez si."

Ismail je trepetal. Ne od strahu—od radosti. Globoko, iz vdane duše je prišlo:

"Gospod, kaj naj storim?"

"Ce me ljubiš—pusti vse . . . Ce me ljubiš—umrješ za mene . . ."

Se enkrat ga je pogledalo veliko, resno oko . . . Oblaki so se vzdignili, na njih je odplovil Kristus. Zvezde so mu hitele pod noge, obleka se je širila po obnebju . . .

Se dolgo je klečal Ismail. Miren je bil v duši. Nosil bo novi vitez, kar mu je namenil Gospod. Ko je začarel svetli dan v prvem žaru solnce, je vstal. Gledal je prebujajoče se morje vode, prebujajoče se morje hiš. O Carigrad, iztočni biser, ali si bil kdaj tako lep, kakor v tisti jutranji ur, ko se je poslavljajal od tebe Ismail-paša? . . .

Amra je prišel do njega. Iskal ga je, da mu pove, kako se je izkazalo zadnje zravilno-sredstvo. Romana spi globoko, mirno. Zdravnik se je izjavil, da je—rešena.

"Kristus jo je obudil od smrti," je rekel hvaležno Ivo. Amra ga je pogledal začuden. Videl je izpremenjeno lice očetova. In oče ga je objel:

"Amra, ti resnice željna duša, raduj se z menoj. Našel sem, kar sem izgubil. Gospod sе je ozrl na mene . . . Amra hiti z menoj odtod!"

Amra je vklonil koleno pred očetom, mu poljubil roko in rekel burno: "Da, pustimo vse in pojdimo za resnico. Umrimo za njo."

Vilemirjeva plavolasta glava se je prikazala na strehi. Iskal je duška veselju, ker je bila rešena sestra.

Začuden je zastal. Ivo mu je stegnil roki naproti proseč: "Moj sin, odprsti očetu, ki te je navajal na kriva pota . . ."

Najtežje je bilo Ivtu prositi Radivoja odpuščanja. Pa prihjet je ta k njemu, objel ga srčno in prosil sam odpuščanja. Daleč so bile vse sence sovraštva, utonile in izginile so ob bolniški postelji Romane. Sel iz seraja, ki je prinesel pismo za Amra, ni motil globoke radosti naše družine. Amra ni poljubil lista močnega gospodarja; nasmehnil se je njegovi vsebini. Mohamed je pisal:

"Gospodar Evrope in Azije pozdravlja v svoji veliki milosti sorodnika in sužnja Amra, ago velikega sultana. Vem, da nisi bolan, Amra, pač pa si se najdel mrhovine v kristjanski deželi. Vem, da si se privedel kristjane s seboj, da kuješ zarote v moji palači, podeljeni—psu Ismailu. Prizanašam sem ti radi Fatime. Ako ljubiš življenje, pridi v Bruso, privedi tudi Ismaila in kristjane. Gospodar sveta ima odprte roke za vse."

Radivoj se je nasmehnil:

"To se pravi prinesite mi vaše glave. No le počakaj, Mo-hamed. S pismom ga zadržiš nekaj časa, Amra—med tem okreva Romana, za silo se pa znamo tudi še udariti, kaj junaki!"

"Saj bi se že rad enkrat udaril," je tožil Vilemir, "vidis turške vojake, pa se ne smeš poskusiti z njimi."

Po dolgem spanju se je prebudila Romana in pogledala okoli sebe. Videла se je v tujem kraju. Nad njo se je sklonil ko lilia bel obraz mlade deklice, odzunaj je slišala glas Vilemirjev . . . Domisila se je vsega. Domisila se je, da mora biti hudo očetu. V blodni bolezni jo je mučila senca njegovih strahov. Šepetal je proseč: "Oče!" Mira ga je poklicala. Rdeča ga je zaliivala. Pa tista, ki je slutila in razumela vse njegove dušne borbe, mu je stegnila suho ročico naproti in je poizkušila nasloniti glavico nanj. Prišli so po prstih za njim, da vidijo prebujoeno Romano. Čestitali so si, se naslanjali na Iva in na posteljo Romanino. Sreča je žarela v očeh vseh. (Dalje prihodnjic)

DOPISI

(Nadalevanje iz 5. strani) fovskega stanu, je Vilhar čutil s preprotim narodom in ga učil. Povedal mu je, da je enako dobrer kot njegovi zatiraci in bil radi tega od stare Avstrije preganjan in v ječo pahnjen. Sedaj počiva v grobu na tužnem Krasu, kjer so po zadnji vojni tuji odstranili njegov spomenik, na katerem so bile zapisane za čutegega Slovence neizbrisljive besede . . . "čujejo gore in bregovi, da sinovi Slave smo."

Sedaj, ob 60-letnici njegove smrti, bo Vilharju postavljen drug spomenik v Planini — na jugoslovanski zemlji v bližini meje. Po zadnjem izkazu sem prejel darove še od sledenih rojakov: Joe Land in Mike Baic po $1 ter Fr. Arko 50c, vsi v Chisholmu, Minn. Ker je v Ljubljani umrla soprona nadučitelja Jos. Benedeka, ki je podučeval v Planini 37 let, so njegovi bivši učenci v Minn. zbrali $10 in nemesto vence pokojnici jih darovali za Vilharjev spomenik. Ti so: N. N. $5; po $1 Joe Kolar, John Nemgar, Anton Kušlan, Jernej Magajna in J. Osbold. Rojak L. Sitingher je nabral v Somersetu, Colo., $9. Darovali so: Po $1 Luka Sitingher, John Dekleva, Tom žakelj, Tom Majnik in H. Mravlja; po 50c pa John Delost, M. Karmelj, Anton Kocjančič, Anton Justin, Anton Plut in Frank Erčul.

Skupaj je bilo nabranega med ameriškimi rojaki $811.45, katera vsota je bila poslana v Mestno hranilnico v Ljubljano. Z delom, ki ga vodi ondotni odber za Vilharjev spomenik, se je pridelo. Glavnih pokrovitelj je 84 letni nadučitelj v pokolu v Ljubljani, Jos. Benedek. V odporu je tudi Jos. Blažon iz Planine pri Rakelu in več drugih rodoljubov. Kdaj bo spomenik odprt, bo pravočasno poročano, da se bodo izletniki iz Amerike lahko udeležili slavnosti, ki slučajno obiščejo Evropo leta 1931.

Sedaj pa nekoliko o Vilharju. Ni je slovenske hiše, da bi nečula kaj o Vilharju. Njegove bajke in pesmi so v šolskih knjigah. Večinoma jih je uglasbil sam, po njegovi smrti pa njegov, sedaj že pokojni sin. Njegove skladbe slišimo povsod: v domovini in v Ameriki. Preprečata jih sedaj med nami tudi Šubelj in Banovce.

Pregledal sem koledar Vilharjeve založbe iz leta 1851, ki je dragocena knjiga. Poslana mi je bila posredno iz Vilharjeve zbirke iz Zagreba. Ima 71 strani in poleg komentarja o raznih svetovnih dogodkih je tudi mesečni koledar, katerega posebnost je to, da krasni vsaki mesec pesem. Poleg teh 12 je dalje še 14 pesmi s podpisom Miroslav. Iz vseh vseh narodni duh. Naj podam nekoliko pregleda:

Med omenjenimi pesmami je tudi "Prezgodnja smrt," kjer opisuje bol svojega narodnega srca in končuje:

"Jaz, mladenič, sem pri potoku stal in slišal rožico in iz tužnega očesa brisal grenko solzico!"

Proti koncu druge pesmi pod imenom "Slovenca up" ima kitico:

"Dokler Triglav rude skriva, vsak Slovenec junaško reče: Kdor za druge kri preliva, zase zna sukat meč!"

Dalje je pesem "Solza Slovenca," v kateri je kitica:

"Vstavi se na krajne meje, gleda ljub domači kraj in oko je solze lilo najnesrečnemu sedaj!"

V pesmi "Slava in Sokol" pravi med drugim:

"Oh sokol predragi! posodi mi moč, če ne bo objela ko slavca me noč!"

Sledi pesem "Bajka o pajku" in neke nagrobne pesmi, med katerimi je tudi "Pokopač," katero zadnja kitica se glasi:

"Bratje dragi mi vši! Jaz pravico dal Vam bom, saj enakopravnosti le pod zemljo je ljubi dom . . ."

V "Bajki o jančku" pravi:

"Slovenec! Slavjan bodi, al' pa pojdi rakom žvižgat!"

Pesem "Kokla in pišče" se končuje:

"Ce hočeš dolgo živeti, slušaj starše."

"Čebelico in čmrlj" zaključuje z rekom:

"Kdor ne počenko za danes preskrbi, jutri se s praznim trebuhom vrtil."

V "Bajki o volku in oslu" pravi:

"Osle je izvlekel volka iz prepada, kateri ga je v zahvalo raztrgal in požrl."

Pod to bajko pa je zapisano: Glej, komu pomagaš. Sledi "Bajka o levu" in zadnja pesem je "Slavec in papiga," kjer Vilhar pravi, da nekateri poslušajo jezicino papiga kot domačo govorno in jo primerja slavčkovemu petju, v katerega se je papiga "neizmerno zaljubila, da je svojščno izgubila."

Vilharjev koledar ima poleg tega še druge zanimivosti, naprimjer preročke k vremenu, o pričetku Carigrada, o iznajdbi zvonov pred 1451 leti in tiskarskega stroja pred 411 leti, o pričetku francoske revolucije pred 62 leti. Piše, da je bil Franc Jožef rojen pred 21 leti in da je pred dvajsetimi leti razsajala v Mestno hranilnico v Ljubljano. Z delom, ki ga vodi ondotni odber za Vilharjev spomenik, se je pridelo. Glavnih pokrovitelj je 84 letni nadučitelj v pokolu v Ljubljani, Jos. Benedek. V odporu je tudi Jos. Blažon iz Planine pri Rakelu in več drugih rodoljubov. Kdaj bo spomenik odprt, bo pravočasno poročano, da se bodo izletniki iz Amerike lahko udeležili slavnosti, ki slučajno obiščejo Evropo leta 1931.
