Zahvalni dan.

Jutri bo Zahvalni dan, tipični ameriški praznik, ki se bo širom Združenih držav praznoval deloma podobno in po starih običajih, pri tem pa vendar na milijone različnih načinov. Sredstva, prilike in okusi so pač zelo različni. To nič čudnega za deželo, ki je vsled svoje razsežnosti tako silno različna in ki je obljudena od naroda, ki je nastal iz priseljencev skoro vseh narodov starega sveta.

Zahvalni dan temelji na hvaležnosti, in vsak človek, ki živi v zmerno znosnih razmerah, ima vzrok biti hvaležen za to ali ono. Hvaležni smemo biti svojim prednikom, ki so živel tak, da nam niso zapustili dednih bolezni. Mnogi smemo biti hvaležni našim starišem, ki so v skromnih razmerah skrbeli, da kot otroci nismo trpeli pomanjkanja in ki so nam vceplili prve pojme poštenosti in človekoljubija. Hvaležni moremo biti našim učiteljem, ki so morda mnogo več storili za našo izobrazbo kot je bila njih plačana dolžnost. Hvaležni bi morali biti neštevilnim mislecem, ki so nam s svojimi izumi omogočili udobnosti, o katerih se naš prednik pred eno ali več generacijami niti sanjalo ni. Hvaležni bi morali biti onim, ki dostikrat brez prave materialne odškodnine posvetijo ves svoj prosti čas proučevanju, zatiranju ali preprečevanju bolezni in drugih šib človeštva. Hvaležni bi morali biti pisateljem, pesnikom, pevcom, glasbenikom, igralecem in drugim umetnikom, ki nam napravljajo življenje lepše in prijetnejše. Našteli bi lahko še mnogo drugih vzrokov za hvaležnost, toda naj navedene zadostuje.

Kdor trdi, da nima za kaj biti hvaležen, je neveden, lažnjivec ali pa čisto navaden nezadovoljnež. Tudi take vrste ljudje so na svetu, ki pa, žal, le malo pripomorejo k sreči človeštva. Omalovaževati vse in sejati nezadovoljnost ni umetnost, vprašanje pa je, kakšne koristi ima človeštvo od tega.

Nezadovoljnost z obstoječimi razmerami je do gotove meje sicer koristna in potrebna, ker brez nje ne bi bilo nikakega napredka. Ako bi se bili kmetovalci popolnoma zadovoljni z lesenim plugom, ne bi danes imeli traktorjev. Ako bi se bilo človeštvo zadovoljilo z lojevo svečo, ne bi danes imeli električnih žarnic. Ako bi bili naši predniki docela zadovoljni s samokolnicami in navadnim vozom kot z neprekosljivim prometnim sredstvom, ne bi danes imeli viakov, avtomobilov in aeroplakov.

Prava, konstruktivna nezadovoljnost ne prezira in ne omalovažuje doseženih udobnosti, ampak jih ceni, in prav vsled tega, ker jih ceni, skuša njih najboljša svojstva še izpopolniti in povečati. Konični nezadovoljnež nikdar ne gradi, ampak samo podira. Za ves napredek človeštva se imamo zahvaliti tistim, ki so znali primerno ceniti in vpoštevati dosežene uspehe in so na podlagi istih gradili dalje.

Ogromna večina nas je, ki o priliki Zahvalnega dne ne moremo biti usodi stoprocentno hvaležni za tisto, kar imamo. Ako pa hočemo biti pošteni, moramo priznati, da bi za marsikatero udobnost smeli biti hvaležni našim prednancem ali pa sodobnikom. To velja za človeštvo v splošnem, pa tudi za večje ali manjše skupine, katerim pripadamo.

Ena teh ožjih skupin je tudi naša J. S. K. Jednota. Za protekcijo, katero nam danes nudi ta mogočna podpora organizacija, so žrtvovali mnogo nesebičnega dela naši prednanci, in mnogo ga žrtvujejo še živeči člani. Tudi to delo zaslubi hvaležen spomin na Zahvalni dan. Najlepše pa bomo izrazili našo hvaležnost, če stopimo v vrste današnjih agilnih delavcev za J. S. K. Jednoto in ji po svojih močeh pomagamo k nadaljnemu rasti in napredku.

IZ URADA GLAVNE GA TAJNIKA

STANJE RAZREDA ZA $2.00
DNEVNE BOLNIŠKE POD-
PORE.

Več tajnikov nas vprašuje, kdaj bomo prenchali razpisovaní izredni asesment po $1.00 mesечно na člane, ki so zavarovani z $2.00 dnevne boliške podporre. Radi tega bo umestno, nekoliko pojasnila. Odkar imamo izredni asesment ge primanklaj pologoma znižuje. Do sedaj se je znižal nekako za polovicu, z dnem 1. novembra je znašal primanklaj $5,927.35... V letosnjem letu torej ne bo mogče opustiti izredni asesment. Letena seja glavnega odbora se bo vršila meseca januarja ter se bo brezvomno baščila tudi s tem vprašanjem, do tedaj pa ni za pričakovati, da bi zamogli opustiti izredni asesment. Če bi društva nekoliko bolj nadzorovala bolnike ter priporočala podporo samo onim članom in članicam, ki so resnici do iste površine upravičeni, bi bil primanklaj že daven pokrit, in imeli bi poleg tega še po pravih potrebnih rezervo. Priporočam, da se strogo po pravilih nadzoruje vse bolne člane in članice. Čim več dobrih obiskovalcev se pošilja tem boljše se nekateri člani in članice "zdravijo." Mognokrat prejmemo kako anonimno pismo v katerih se namiguje, da bi kak član ali članica lahko delal, oziroma, da opravlja kako delo, a članstvo se boji zamere, pa podporo enostavno odobri. Taki izgovori ne držijo. Dolžnost vsakega člana in članice je, poročati nepravilnosti na seji društva. Posebno članice prihaja več pritožb, da opravlja lahko kuhinjska dela, ter da so kar v naprej na bolniški podpori. To nikakor ni pravilno. Pravila morajo biti vse enaka in izpolniti se jih mora. Ako se bo opazilo, da kak bojniški obiskovalec ne vrši svoje dolžnosti pravilno, se ga (jo) bo v smislu pravil obtožio. Ako se bi članstvo v splošnem zavedalo, da je vsake član(ica) delni lastnik jednote ter da mora primanklaj, z drugimi vred pokrivati, bi kmalu začeli strožje postopati z dvomljivimi bolniki.

Current Thought.

WE SHOULD BE THANKFUL

The national day of thanksgiving has through long and consistently observed habit become one of the fixed institutions of this fair land of ours. There is a tendency of the roast turkey, the cranberry sauce, and the many other dainties to look forward to on Thanksgiving. Dinners were attended by members of a family scattered throughout the country and a reunion is held.

There are many things for which we have to be thankful. The uncertainty of life itself. Before we think we may be overcome by death. Poverty may come to us during a short space of time. Ill health may disable us and so incapacitate the individual as to render him worthless to humanity.

When Sick Benefits Are Most Appreciated
S. S. C. U. organizers took all of those unfortunate possibilities into consideration; their tendency was to eliminate poverty to the individual members as much as possible. Hence the sick benefits that are derived by members of the S. S. C. U. when one is afflicted by a malady of some sort it is deplorable to him; the presence of mind is taken almost entirely by the possibility of overcoming the ill effects. The expense incurred during this period is another cause for much thought by the afflicted one. Any outside assistance is greatly appreciated at a time. S. S. C. U. lends a helping hand to its members in such dire circumstances by means of its sick benefit fund.

This illustrates but one of the many ways in which a member of the S. S. C. U. is directly benefited. Unfortunate circumstances come to all of us sometime or other. They are inevitable and unforeseen in many instances. Consequently, it always best to be protected against any misfortunes. The interesting factor in the case of sick benefits is that the organization does not specify certain ailments for which they will reimburse the member according to the specifications of his monthly assessments. Such benefits are greatly appreciated by everyone who has had the misfortune to be afflicted.

IMPORTANT MEETING ON LODGE EXTENDS INVITATION TO ITS DANCE DEC. 8

Conebaugh, Pa. — St. Aloysius Lodge will hold a dance on Nov. 30. Good music adapted to the younger as well as the older folks has been secured for this event. Plenty of good eats and refreshments will be on hand, to be served to the guests. A good time is assured to all. Moreover, it will give the members of the S. S. C. U. and their friends an opportunity to acquaint themselves better. So, residents of Conebaugh and vicinity, avail yourself of this privileges by attending the dance.

On Nov. 16 Miss Angeline Skufca and Mr. Anthony Ralish were united in the bands of matrimony. Bride and the groom were very popular, and many congratulations were forthcoming. We all wish them the best of luck.

LADIES' CLUB HOLDS BUNCO PARTY

Aurora, Ill. — An interesting bunco party was held by the Slovenian Ladies' Union at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry B. Verbic, 215 Forest Ave. Prizes were awarded to Mary Weiler, Mrs. Anthony A. Verbic, William Dahm Sr. and August C. Verbic.

Harmonious decorations were very much in evidence. The room was draped in pink blue and white paper; a basket of autumn flowers completed the scenery. Luncheon was served late in the evening, which was followed by dancing. Mary R. Verbic Jr., No. 119, S. S. C. U.

HOW TO BE POPULAR

Forget Your Own Affairs

A large part of our attractiveness to our fellow creatures depends upon our desire to please them. If we want people to like us, we can make them like us. Of course, it flatters our vanity to think that we carry an irresistible line of fascination that everyone falls for us on sight.

Unfortunately, this is not true. When we meet strangers we make no particular dent upon their consciousness unless we put forth some special effort to win their interest or their favor. We are just Mr. Blank or Miss Blank, whom they have forgotten by the next day, if we have not immediately done something to please or amuse them.

The secret of popularity is hard work and self-denial. It consists in always being on the job, in always considering the pleasures and the tastes and the convenience of other people before your own. It is the reward of dancing with those who tramp on your feet, of playing cards with those who tramp your ace, of enthusing over other people's cars and radios and hobbies and letting others pick out the restaurants and theaters and the movies to which the crowd goes.

PERSONS BORN BETWEEN NOV. 22 AND DEC. 20

The sign Sagittarius (Jupiter) rules for the period including the latter half of November and the earlier half of December. It is a fiery-speaking sign, indicating a frank, energetic progressive nature, rich in hope and faith in one's fellowman.

These people are apt to be too frank in reminding others of shortcomings; and though often justified in their opinions, their impetuous, anarchical efforts to establish justice frequently end in defeat. They cannot await slow processes of ameliorating conditions; they demand that wrongs be righted at once; projects must be undertaken as quickly as conceived. At times quick tempered, they are surprised to find they have created bad feeling, since they harbor none.

They are honest and conscientious to a fault, but their impulsive efforts confuse others and they do not make good leaders. They are often extensive travelers.

They are heirs to good health, but the stars warn them to beware of falls from high places.

They love and make love with the same vehemence characteristic of their other impulses. Marriage is a sacred thing to the person born under Sagittarius, and they demand the same constancy which they themselves stand ready to give.

MONEY CLASS

Two hundred and ninety Americans paid taxes on incomes of $1,000,000 or more in 1927. That shows one aspect of prosperity, and one which is not altogether reassuring. We are developing a moneyed aristocracy in this country, and, what is more, we are developing a system to preserve it.

To put it briefly, American business is developing a peerage. Where England has her dukes, earls and baronets, we are keenly interested in this singer, as reserved seats are selling in advance.

BRIEFS

Rukavina, playing right end for the Chisholm High School team of Chisholm, Minn., was picked to represent the mythical All-Range football team. On the second team were: Malovich, center, and Pechonich (captain), right half.

Vera Erjen of Cleveland, O., is a vaudeville performer attracting wide attention. She appeared in a dancing and talking number in the Uptown Theater, one of the leading showhouses of Cleveland. Miss Erjen studied the dramatic arts under the tutelage of Mme. Danilova while she was in this country.

Captain Frank Kochevar, Steve Jagunich and Tom Pavich are the only letter-men that will again play for the Eveleth High basketball team of Eveleth, Minn., as Pavich, Usnik, Lenich and others have been lost by graduation.

A Slovenian opera, "Urh, grof Celjski," will be presented by "Zarja" of Cleveland, O., on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28. This is the second opera ventured by this organization in as many years.

FALLING STAR

A meteor when pertaining to science is a falling star, which means a transient luminous body in the sky. You and I are falling stars, we rise to a certain point, and not having a strong grip on whatever we are working on fall, and fall hard.

People take notice of us when we are on the top. Then we are considered a star in our line of work. But the minute you fail you will be pointed out as a bad example. Then they say: "Look at the star that fell."

The supernatural force in the sky fails to hold a bright star in heavens, and when we see it fall we call it a falling star. When we fall from the top we are a human falling star; it necessarily takes effort to get back again.

George Washingtons, take a lesson from the falling star. We have a good start now and people are taking notice of us as a lodger. Older lodges of the S. S. C. U. are keeping tab on our activities. It is very important that we keep on climbing to our destined goal of success. Once we have attained it, it is up to us to keep a firm grip and thus keep from being the falling star of society.

It is the spirit of co-operation that pushes us forward. As gravity keeps objects from falling off the earth, so the spirit keeps us from falling into oblivion.

Frank I. Jaklich (Lefty).

BANOVEC TO GIVE CONCERT

On Wednesday, Dec. 4, Svetozar Banovec, opera singer, will appear in the Slovenian National Home of Cleveland, O., on St. Clair Ave. and E. 65th St. Mr. Banovec is touring the Slovenian cities of the United States. This will be his initial appearance in Cleveland.

In various concerts that he has appeared in, all proved to be mighty successes. Undoubtedly the Slovenian people are keenly interested in this singer, as reserved seats are selling in advance.

CHARM CANNOT BE PURCHASED

When you consider the amount of money that is spent annually by women on beauty products, in beauty parlors, and on dress, you realize that everything that money can do is being done to promote feminine charm. The expenditure, as you know, has little class distinction in our country, whatever may be said of the advantages of the rich in other countries. For her income, the wage earner spends as freely on her beauty promotion as the woman of private means.

If money could do everything we should have a more nearly uniform standard of beauty. But the fact remains that women are still divided into groups of ultra-attractive, attractive, fair and ordinary. The large clothes allowance does not make the well-dressed woman, nor the weighty bank balance produce the well-groomed look.

What Is Charm?

Look at Mary. She has the good looks that result from good health, good physical care, and careful dressing. And she has poise, which the other one has not. She is more alive, mentally and physically. And she is sufficiently sure of herself to be unconscious of self. Clothes do not create a charming person. Massages, permanents, manicures do not create charm in themselves. Of course, dress and grooming details are not ignored by the truly charming person. It is the lack of self-consciousness of the well poised one that wins her the charm laurels.

FIRST LEGAL THANKSGIVING DAY

The first national Thanksgiving Day was proclaimed by the Continental Congress on Dec. 18, 1777. It did not become established as an annual Harvest Festival until about the time of the Civil War. In October, 1863, President Lincoln issued a proclamation asking the people of the United States, whether at home, on sea or in foreign lands, to set aside and observe the last Thursday of November as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. Since then each year the president proclaims Thanksgiving, while the state governor authorizes it.

Mary Kalcic, Secretary, George Washington.

DIAMONDS

When looking at diamonds we admire them and think of their high value. Diamonds are only pieces of coal that stuck to their jobs, but if they ever got tired as we do, you would have no diamonds.

Those who do not know the definition of the word fall and keep on hammering away, can assure themselves success is theirs. The making of a start means very little, but sticking it out to the end is the biggest asset.

If ever the time comes when you think you are beaten badly try and remember this: "Diamonds are chunks of coal and are of high value because they stuck to their jobs."

Frank Jaklich (Lefty), George Washington.

A woman can't make a fool out of a man unless she has cooperation.

SPORTING BITS

BETSY ROSS BOWLERS LEAD LEAGUE

League leadership in the Inter-Lodge League of Cleveland, O., goes to Betsy Ross team of the S. S. C. U. To date they have won six games and lost none, while other teams have lost one or more games. Collinwood Boosters are pretty close to the top, having won four games and lost but two. This standing includes games played to and including Nov. 17.

It is pretty early in the season to speak of league leadership, but the fact remains that one of the S. S. C. U. teams is on the top. Manager Kovitch of the Betsy Ross team feels duly proud of his warriors, and he has a perfect right to when one considers the splendid showing they have made.

We sincerely hope that one of the S. S. C. U. teams wins the championship of the Inter-Lodge League. Our teams have all the earmarks of developing into winning outfits.

INTER-LODGE LEAGUE RESULTS

COMRADES SET NEW RECORD

Make Team High With 2846 Points

Betsy Ross continued their winning streak by taking two games out of three from the Collinwood Boosters five in the Inter-Lodge League bowling games Sunday, Nov. 24. Both teams belong to the S. S. C. U. organization. Starmin of the Betsy Ross made a high score of 211, thereby contributing materially in keeping the Betsy Ross in the first place in the Inter-Lodge League of Cleveland, O. Collinwood Boosters, backed by the Collinwood Dry Cleaners, are not far from the top, and can be depended upon to give stiff opposition to any team.

George Washingtons dropped three games to the strong Clairwood team. Jim Stepic made six consecutive strikes to make a total of 231 pins for the Clairwoods, while Miheleic, better known as "Wieners," amused the spectators with his acrobatic stunts. Glavan starred for the losers with an average of 170 for three games.

COMRADES HAVE GOOD GAME AVERAGES

Comrades' cage squad consists of nine men, who will compete in the Mother of God Church League. This league is composed of four teams at the present time, namely: Comrades (S. S. C. U.) and three St. Joseph squads of the K. S. K. J.

TEAM HAS BACKER

Kozan Shoe Repair is backing the George Washington bowling team of Cleveland, O. Mr. Kozan is well known as a backer of various teams. He has proved himself to be a true lover of sports. Manager Drobnić has asked the members of the George Washington team to show their appreciation of Mr. Kozan's support; so when our shoes need "doctoring" let's bring them to the Kozan Shoe Repair Shop.

Bare Facts*Meaning of "Chautauqua"

This is the name given to a system of popular education by means of lectures, reading circles, etc. It received its name from the village and lake in New York of that name, where the system was started. In 1874 Bishop Vincent of the M. E. Church founded the Chautauqua Assembly at Chautauqua and in 1878 he established the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle. According to a popular story, the name of the lake is an Indian word meaning "bag tied in the middle," referring to the shape of the lake. But the Bureau of American Ethnology says it is from the Seneca word "T'kenchiata-kwen," meaning "one has taken out a fish there."

The custom of throwing rice at weddings is believed to be a survival of the ancient religious practices of the Hindus and Chinese. In the Orient, rice is the emblem of fecundity, and throwing it on a newly married people symbolized bestowing fertility on the bridal pair. The custom still retains some of its original significance in India. The bridegroom throws three handfuls of rice over the bride and the bride does the same over the bridegroom. In this country, rice throwing is little more than a joke by friends and neighbors of the bride and bridegroom. In more recent years it has become common on such occasions to use bonbons or confetti instead of rice or other grain. The Romans threw nuts at the wedded pair while Southern Europeans at the present time often use fruits, especially figs.

TWENTY MINUTES

It is said the Spanish war was won in 20 minutes. It took only that long to destroy the fleet. One thinks of that when he hears over-talking people trying to do business in a conference. So many of us are not content with stating our position, simply and firmly. We insist in elaborating, repeating, bringing in matter which does not belong in the discussion, wasting time and clouding the issue. So many questions can be perfectly answered by "yes" or "no." Most matters can be handled in a sentence—if we just had will power enough to stop talking.

EDUCATIONAL BISCUITS

One sees great possibilities in the proposal of bakers that cracker makers shall bring geometry and geography to the aid of their always interesting industry. The plan merits serious discussion wherever educators gather to talk shop.

The plan, in brief, is that crackers shall be made in the form of ellipses, hexagons and rhomboids and other geometric figures in order—aside from their advertising aspects—that humans of the cracker-eating age may familiarize themselves with those puzzling things which geometry teachers talk about. Similarly, crackers cut in the shape of the American state or the countries of Europe should pave one's way toward proficiency in the quizzical art of geography.

We have zoological crackers already—why not geometrical and geographical? The idea is clearly capable of expansion. Imagine the proper cracked golden-haired girl of the future lisping to her indulgent mama: "Please pass me a rhomboid."

Avoid over-exercise, as it is injurious to your health; avoid over-exercising your lung at the meeting, as it only creates fatigue.

CANNED MUSIC

There is more warmth and sympathy of feeling in a program rendered by musicians in the flesh and heard in a concert hall than in a mechanical reproductions of the same performance. This is particularly true in motion-picture theaters.

But at the same time those who offer objections to "canned music" overlook the larger aspect of the case—namely, that many millions of people living in villages, towns and the smaller cities, who could never by any possibility get in to the great symphony concerts, can now hear far better music in their local picture houses than they could in the old days when the music for their movies was furnished by a young lady at a piano.

Some of the more celebrated theater critics of the time, feeling perhaps that their occupations may be soon gone, are accustomed to sneer at the talkies. As a matter of fact, they are the greatest advancement in dramatic art since the time of Shakespeare. They are spreading good speech. This is a democratic age, and in nothing it is so democratic as in its amusements and its arts.

DON'T SMOKE TOO MUCH

Among other causes for loss of sleep we find smoking too much or drinking too much coffee or other stimulant. Anything that is exciting and disturbing to the nervous system will break the sleep. Eye strain or reading too long by a bad light may develop such nervousness as to drive sleep from the eyelids. Discretion in these matters is of great importance.

A stuffy bed room, absolutely lacking in fresh air, may make you restless and sleepless. To be too warmly covered or to go to bed without cover enough will keep you awake. The bed and bed room have much to do with the comfort you have at night. Worry is a cause for every evil symptom. It will ruin the sleep of the strongest man. Debt, doubt and despair are dreadful factors of trouble.

To be bored with yourself and your surroundings will keep you awake. This symptom should be a warning to give yourself recreation or a change of surroundings.

PRINCESS SOLD OUT

How the might have fallen in Germany. Princess Victoria, 63-year-old sister of the exiled kaiser, has been reduced to a small pension and four little rooms at Mehlem-on-the-Rhine. Her historic palace at Bohn has been let to private tenants, and her household goods, including family heirlooms, have been sold at auction to raise funds to meet the debts of Alexander Subkoff, a young Russian waiter and dancing master, whom the princess married against the wishes of her family. The wayward husband created a debt of $250,000 before he left the princess, and all her effects, including many gifts from kings and queens, brought a comparatively small sum.

BORROWING

The book publishers are now launching a drive to break people of the habit of borrowing books. It hurts the poor authors and publishers and dealers, they say. It was over three centuries ago that a hack writer called Shakespeare advised "neither a borrower nor a lender be" because a "loan oft loses both itself and friend." But the world has gone right on borrowing and lending. A Washington woman complains that her neighbors have borrowed everything she has, from her cat clear down to her husband. We may have to pass a law to prohibit borrowing.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAMS BY TELEPHONE

Western Union telegrams may now be sent from a coin box telephone by simply calling "Western Union" or, if it is a dial coin box telephone, dialing "operator" and asking for "Western Union" and when the connection is completed dictating the telegram to the recorder. The charges for the telegram should not be deposited until requested to do so by the recorder.

But at the same time those who offer objections to "canned music" overlook the larger aspect of the case—namely, that many millions of people living in villages, towns and the smaller cities, who could never by any possibility get in to the great symphony concerts, can now hear far better music in their local picture houses than they could in the old days when the music for their movies was furnished by a young lady at a piano.

This arrangement virtually makes every telephone a Western Union Telegraph office. The quickest way to send a telegram is by telephoning it to a Western Union office. The message is placed upon the wire immediately and in many cases the reply is on its way in less time than it would take to make the trip to and from an office. It is surprising to know how telegrams speed up business and quickly dispose of those little worrisome problems that are delayed by writing.

The Western Union recently installed several thousand signs to designate the location of coin box telephones, and if you have a telegram to send, just look for the sign reading "Western Union Telegrams May Be Telephoned From Here."

YOUNG MEN STILL LEAD

The collegiate idea is not passing—it is merely shifting a little, going more conservative. One of the leading clothing shops is enlarging its college department. It finds the young men of college age, whether in or out of academic discipline, like to be catered to, and they set the pace. Oldsters first despise their fashions, then pity, then embrace. The young minded old boys take them on as soon as they dare. The bearably and the camel's hair coats were originally collegiates but they marched right through the banks and the office buildings.

The fall trend is conservative, and men's attire follows women's into brown. Men's clothing usually follows women's.

QUEEN HAD 17 CHILDREN

Queen Anne, who reigned over England from 1702 to 1714, gave birth to 17 children, not one of whom survived her. Several of them were stillborn. The queen's life has been described as a mournful series of childbirths, miscarriages and infant funerals. She, her husband and the 17 children are buried in a single tomb in Westminster Abbey. Anne was the second daughter of James II and Anne Hyde. In 1683 she was married to Prince George, son of Frederick III and brother of King Christian V of Denmark. Only one of the 17 children born of this union survived infancy. This was William, the Duke of Gloucester, who died in 1700 at the age of 11.

BEES IN HIVE

The number of bees in the average hive during the time of storing surplus honey is between 50,000 and 75,000. During the fall and early winter the colony decreases in number and by spring it is usually reduced to 10,000 or 15,000.

MAMMOTH PEARL FOUND

Pearl fishers in the Persian Gulf brought up a gem worth about $250,000, the largest and most valuable pearl found in that region for more than a century. When the money was distributed among the divers, the sums were so large that one of the divers went insane, never having seen that much money before.

Phunology

"Shall we sit out this dance?"
"Naw. I feel weak-willed. Let's dance."

Judge: My man, I've seen you here twice before and I find it my duty to send you up for a third term.

Prisoner: A third term, Yer Honor? Haven't you ever heard of the Washington precedent?

Harvard: Do you know what the three balls of a pawn-broker's shop stands for?
Yale: Why, no.
Harvard: Two to one that you won't get it back.

TRY TO GET IT!

A man went into Cohen's book store, and asked for a copy of "Who's Who and What's What," by Jerome K. Jerome.

"Haven't got dot book," said Cohen, "but ve haf 'Who's He and Vot's He Got,' by Brad street."

CUSTOMARY

The bride was very much concerned at seeing twin beds in their bridal suite.

"What's the matter, dearest?" asked the attentive groom.

"Why, I certainly thought we were going to get a room all to ourselves."

A BUSINESS AFFAIR

An Irish priest offered six-pence to the boy who could tell him who was the greatest man in history.

"Christopher Columbus," answered one boy.

"George Washington," answered another boy.

"St. Patrick," shouted a bright Jewish boy.

"The sixpence is yours," said the priest; "but why did you say St. Patrick?"

"Right down in my heart I knew it was Moses," said the Jewish boy, "but business is business."

SERENITY

The prisoner was not professionally represented. Before proceeding with the case, the judge said:

"This is a very serious offense you are charged with. If you are convicted, it means a long term of imprisonment. Have you no counsel to look after your defense?"

The prisoner, in the most confidential manner, leaned toward the judge and whispered:

"No, your Honor, I have no counsel, but that's all right, I have some very good friends on the jury."

POTRESNA POVEST

Spisal Franjo Maselj-Podlimbarski

(Nadalevanje)

"Ampak to vam povem, kaj se meni čudno zdi: meni se čudno zdi to, da je bila moja Micka za-en goldinar premlada, za deset jih pa ni." Od tistega dne se je župnik vselej razjezi nase, kadar se je spomnil Komarkine klopi. Uvidel je, da je Komar povedal pravo besedo, dasi po svoja zarobljen, da mu je, držeč se stare, od svojih prednikov sprejet navade, storil nekoliko krivice, ker mu klopi ni prepustil za prejemščino. Oni denar, kar ga dobi za klopi, potrebuje za cerkvene potrebe, no, on da cerkvi rajši iz svojega, nego pa da bi nalagal kmetom tsknja bremena, ki v njih vidijo krivico. Ugriznilo ga je na duši, kadar je videl Komarjeve, in mnogokrat je premišljeval, kako in kdaj poravnava ono zadevo.

Nocoj se mu je ponudila prilika. Na svojem potu preko vasi je prišel tudi h Komarjevem. Spozljivo so ga sprejeli. Z mnogimi vzdihmi so mu na dolgo in široko potožili svojo nesrečo. Dolgo je stal pri njih in tolažil, kolikor je mogel. Ko je zagledal za Komarjevimi stati Cijazovčevega Toneta, ga je pozdravil in pohvalil, da ga je najti povsed, kjer je treba hitre pomoči. Naposled je položil mlademu Komarju roko na ramo ter mu rekel: "Rad bi ti pomagal, priatelj, rad bi ti odprl svoje sobe, ali glej me—sam sem brez strehe. Potrpi do jutra, potem pregledamo vas in nadejam se, da pridevi vsi pod streho, četudi ne vsak pod svojo." Tiho pa je pristavljal: "Tistih deset goldinarjev za Mickino klop ti bom nazaj dal . . . saj veš . . . da se poravnava star madež." Ko je bil tako oblečal svojo vest, se je obrnil k Tonetu ter ga povabil s seboj po vasi, ker mu ima nekaj nujnega povedati. Šla sta po stezi na cesto.

Ko sta bila za hišo, je izpregovoril župnik: "Danes ste pa povsed hitro pri rokah. Tako je prav. Vi ste nesli Daničeve hčer izpod strehe?"

"Nesel, gospod župnik," je odgovoril mladenič. On bi raja prenašal ponesrečenje po strahih in lastvah in jim otimal življenje, nego govoril o takšnih stvareh. Župnik je pomolčal in Tonetu je prišlo na misel, da mu bo treba stvar vsekakor razjasniti, ker strogi čuvaj gabrovskih duš še ne more vedeti, kako se je pripetilo, da je bil s svojo pomočjo tako hitro pri rokah in ga nemara na tihem sumniči, da je sinoči po fantovski navadi oglarił pod Smoletovimi oknimi.

"Rešili ste morda obema edeklicama življenje in velika sreča je, da ste prišli o pravem času k njima v sobo," je izpregovoril župnik.

Tonetu je ugajala takšna hvala in odpela se mu je zatvorica mladeničke zgovornosti. Da bi izgadal vsak sum glede tiste pregrešne fantovske nerodnosti—tako je župnik v svojih propovedih bičal ponočeno oglarjenje—je s kratkimi besedami razložil, kako se je zgodilo, da je bil za časa največje nevarnosti že pri Smoletovi hiši. Tudi o tolarjih je pravil. Župnik se je posmejal, ko je slišal o Tonetočni vožnji; a precej se je spomnil govorje, ki jih je slišal po vseh krajinah vasi, in zmračile se mu je lice, pa je rekel: "Hvala Bogu, ki je poslal tako vrlega rešitelja; ali povedati vam moram, da je povzročil vaš pojav na vozu ljudem grozen strah. Po vsej vasi govore, da se je peljal antikrist in ne vem kdo še mimo Smoletove gostilne. Vsak ga je videl na svoje oči. Vsa moja zgovornost je skoraj bob ob steno: nekateri se ne dajo dopovedati, kako neosnovana in prazna je njih vera v podobne prikazni."

Tone si je grizel ustnice, ker žal mu je bil, da je prizadev sriomakom toliko nepotrebne strahu. Župnik ga je prosil, naj to noč kolikor mogoče z besedo nasprotuje tej praznovnosti, ker ob ljudski zmoti ne smemo molčati in se ji smejeti, ampak jo treba preganjati. Tone je rad oblubil, da stori vse kar bi ljudstvo pomirilo.

Župnik ga je prikel za roko in mu govoril: "Še nekaj vam moram povedati. Od treh bližnjih župnikov so mi došla sporočila, da imajo tudi oni potres kakor pri nas. In ona dva proti Ljubljani mi javljata hujšega nego oni na štajerski strani."

Za hip je umolknil, segel po sapo in nadaljeval v presled kih: "Bojim se, da nas je zadela v Ljubljani še večja nesreča nego tukaj, da je morda padlo priběžališče naše narodnosti. Če je padla Ljubljana, padli smo vsi. Zato bi rad vedel, kaj je z njo. Ali so ji prizanali jezni podzemski viharji, ali so ji ugasnilu luč prosvete, katero je poklicana izlivati po vsej slovenski zemlji? Verjemite mi, da to z moje strani ni prazna in puhla radoznanost. Do brzjavnegra urada imamo uro daleč in kdo ve, če je ob tem času mogoče dobiti točnih sporočil. Vsi imamo v Ljubljani znanec v prijatelje, ljudi, katerih usoda nam je pri srcu. Pri Smoletu imajo tam brata, strica in očeta, ki je moj prijatelj. Zato vas prosijo Smoletovi in tudi jaz vas prosim, da si daste napreči Smoletovega konja in se peljete v Ljubljano po profesorja Daniča. Smole sam ne more, ves zbegam je in treba je gospodarja pri domu, jaz tudi ne morem in moj hlapec je bolan. Če se v Ljubljani trese, misli Danič z vso silo svoje duš na Gabrovec. Morda ne more iz mesta, ljudje so tam med zidovjem še bolj preplašeni nego pri nas, in jedva čaka trenutka, da dobi tolažnega sporočila od nas. Idite torej, kakor sem vam naročil, najpoprej po vasi in povejte ljudem o tisti svoji vožnji; vam bodo prej verjeli nego drugim. Ko se začne daniti, pa zaprete in hitite in pripeljite nam iz Ljubljane profesorja in pa dobro novico, da iz polnega srca zapojemo zahvalno pesem Bogu; in če že mora biti . . . ako je božja roka udarila ves narod, prinesite mi žalostno novico, da molimo k Bogu, naj zopet dvigne narod, ki mu služi vekovkeve."

Župnik se je obrnil in si otrnil solzo. Bil je zelo dobrega srca in ves vnet za blagor svoje nesrečne domovine. Ta globoka skrb ob mogoči vsenarodni nesreči je silno ganila mladeniča. In ne samo ganila, vse njegovo dosedanje bitje je prevzela in napolnila ta skrb. Ta nežni čut, klijč Že poprej v njegovem mehkem slovenskem srcu, ga je osvojil sedaj popolnoma, tako da niti besede ni mogel govoriti, ko se je poslavil.

XIII.

Tone je precej začel izvješčevati župnikovo naročilo. Kjer je po vasi slišal govoriti babjeverne ljudi, je pristoplil in vne razglašal resnico. Ali težak posel si je naložil. Nekateri ljudje so bili tako zbegani, da si vere v satana nikakor niso dali vzeti. Že zmerjali in oštevali so Toneta kot nevernika. Posebno trdo korne so se kazali tisti, ki so mislili, da so na lastne oči videli peklenškega kralja. Niso si dali zlepia dopovedati, da je sedež na vozu in otepaval z rokama Cijazovčev študent. Gračo takib trdokornih mož in fantov, stojecih na cesti pred Smoletovo gostilno, je prepričal o neosnovanosti njih abotne vere s tem, da jim je pokazal in pripeljal s travnika voz, na katerem je hotel prenočiti, ter ga postavil zopet pod domači kozolec. No, ljudje, ki še niso pozabili najhujšega strahu, so si neradi dali izbiti visoko nad vse druge vasečane jih dvigajočo misel, da so videli nekaj čudovitega, kar se ne prikaže vsako leto in vsakemu zemljani. Pa res, kako imenitno bi se jim zdelo in kako prijetno bi jim bilo ob zimskih večernih veličati strah tiste noči in pripovedovati pri Smoletu ali pa doma kite pletičim ženskam, kako so videli na lastne oči hudirja, ki takrat—hvala Bogu!—še ni imel v žepu pisane pravice do človeškega rodu.

GLASOVI Z RODNE GRUDE

Ulica Vladimira Gortana v Nišu. Kakor poroča "Vreme" je meščanstvo v Nišu zaradi juštifikacije Vladimira Gortana sklical protestni zbor, na katerem je obsođilo postopanje fašističnih oblastev. Zbor je pri teh prilikah sklenil, da se mestna občina niška pozove, naj v večen spomin po nedolžnem obsojenega in ustreljenega jugoslovenskega nacionalistom Vladimira Gortona krsti novo ulico v Nišu na ime "Ulica Vladimira Gortana."

Preminul je v Bohinju Alfonz Mencinger, ki je bil kot lastnik hotela Markeš v Bohinju ne le znan svojim ožnjim rojakom, temveč širom Jugoslavijo so ga spoštovali kot strokovnjaka ne le v svoji obrti, ampak tudi na polju tujškega prometa.

Na Dolu pri Hrastniku je umrla gospa Marija Majcen, trgovska soprga. — V Spodnjih Lučah je ugrabila smrt gospoda Antonia Mlakarja, posestnika in lesnega trgovca. — V Ljubljani je preminul g. Julij Klemenc, mesar in veleposestnik. — Umrl je v svojem rojstnem kraju Zabukovje pri Sevnici g. Anton Ivnik, bivši posetnik in trgovec na Bučah pri Kozjem.

Na pobočju hriba sv. Gabrijela pri Gorici so imeli vojaški oddelki vajo. Neki vojak 9. alpinskega polka se je odstranil, odložil oružje in šel nabirat konstanj na posetovo Josipa Čeja iz Ravnice. Tržaški listi poročajo, da ga je kmet opazil, vzel bajonet in se mu približal ter grozec zahteval od njega odškodnino za natreseni konstanj. Neki korporat je baje videl, da hoče kmet napasti vojaka, in je naglo priskočil na pomoč. Kmeta so prijeli, vklepili in odpeljali v goriške zapore. "Piccolo" zahteva zaničenje po vzorcu iz Pulja.

Nastalo deževno vreme in jesen sta prinesla v Tržič s seboj vse vrste vratnih bolezni. Posebno se ljudje pritožujejo nad angino, ki se je lotila že prav mnogih, še posebno pa šolskega mladine in učiteljev. Pojavil se je med mladino celo primer davice. Nevarnosti za nadaljnja obolenja pa skoro ni, ker je združnik odredil vse potrebljne varnostne mere.

Sin očetu odsekal glavo. Po vseh iz Novega Sada se je v občini Klokočevi pri Apatinu odigrala te dni krvava rodinska drama. Kmetsa Petra Dumčića, ki je že 18 let preseljal po jehah, je s sekiro ubil njegov sin Luka. Stari Peter je bil strah in trepet vse občine. Nad krvave drame se je z vozom pripeljal iz sejma ter zavozil na dvorišče, kjer je začel razsajati. Zeno, ki ga je hotela pomiriti, je vrgel na tla, tako da je nezavestna obležala. Potem je stopil v hišo, kjer je svojega starejšega sina udaril s steklenico po glavi. Mlajši sin je bratu priskočil na pomoč in videc nevarnost, v kateri se je nahajal brat, zagrabil sekiro in udaril z njim očeta po glavi, z drugim zmahom pa mu je odsekal glavo.

Zagreb pred 100 leti. Po ljudskem štetju, ki ga je objavil stosvrhu v Ameriki veliko propagando pisarno, ki naj bi nudila po vugledu drugih držav vse potrebne informacije o Jugoslaviji. Ta pisarna naj bi seznanila ameriško javnost z bogastvom in lepoto Jugoslavije, kar bi ne ostalo brez vpliva. Končno je izrazil upanje, da bo mogel kmanu zopet posetiti Jugoslavijo in jo še boljše spoznati.

MOŽ-BESEDA

Vaša beseda bi morala biti dobra kot "bond." Je dobro podučiti mladega fantiča, da naj se umiva, naj bo vlijeden, naj se nauči svojih načal, toda noben poduk ni važnejši od poduka naj bo vedno mož-beseda. Kdor drži svojo besedo sme računati, da bo napredoval. Kitajec, Japonec in Indijanec, ki stori, kar je oblubil, je boljši kot beli človek, četudi je mili junak, ako ne drži dane besede.

Včasi razmere tako nanesejo, da dane besede ni mogiče držati. V takem slučaju se je treba oprostiti in navesti razloge.

Ako so vzroki dovolj veliki in važni, jih bo prizadeta stranka vpoštovala.

Bodite vedno počasni pri obljah, toda, kadar enkrat nekaj oblubite, naj bo vaša beseda kot "bond." Joseph Jaklich.

Ako imate kakšno številko Note Dobe odveč, dajte jo prečitati vašemu prijatelju. S tem ga boste seznanili z J. S. K. Jednoto in morda na ta način pridobitega člana za našo nepravljeno organizacijo!
