Kako naj ljubim sovražnika?

Ljubiti sovražnike ne pomeni odreči se drugim ljubeznim. Ljubezen do sovražnikov ne odpravlja pravičnosti, sodišč in zaporov. Če mi bo kdo hotel na silo vzeti kaj mojega, bom uporabil vsa dovoljena sredstva, da se ga otepem. Ko Jezus svetuje, naj ponudim še plašč tistemu, ki mi hoče vzeti suknjo, hoče reči, naj njegova krivica ne hromi moje dobrote in naj bo moja ljubezen močnejša od njegovega nasilja.

Ljubiti sovražnike tudi ne pomeni zapirati oči pred zlom. Jezus je odkrival in grajal zlaganost in hinavščino farizejev, zakrknjenega skušnjavca v puščavi pa je kratko malo pognal. Ker v nobenem človeku zlo ni utelešeno, moram vedno ohraniti upanje, da bo toplina moje ljubezni v njem stopila led zla. Več je ledu, močnejša mora biti ljubezen. Če je ni, bo led za vedno ostal led.

Za mnoge reči se prepiramo, ker jih gledamo preveč od blizu in samo s človeškimi očmi. Če bi jih gledali od daleč in z božjimi očmi, bi ugotovili, da so nevredne naših razprtij. Tako gleda nanje nebeški Oče, čigar sonce vse obseva in čigar dež vse namaka.

Zgled ljubezni do sovražnikov nam je dal Jezus. Črtili so ga, pa je zlo obrnil v odrešenje. Iz hudega je naredil dobro. Moč sovraštva je premagal z večjo močjo ljubezni.

Ljubezen do sovražnikov, ki se zgleduje po Jezusu, ni umikanje v nedejavnost in popuščanje zlu. Evangeljska ljubezen je dejavna in ustvarjalna. Gradi, kjer sovraštvo ruši; poraja, kjer sovraštvo uničuje; na videz umira, v resnici pa živi in prinaša življenje. Veruj, da je v sovražniku

Sunday's Readings

7th SUNDAY in Ordinary Time

First Reading Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18

God calls for the people to embrace holiness by showing love to everyone and avoiding the holding of grudges.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 3:16-23

St Paul points out that God's wisdom is different from the thinking prevalent in the world. Every person should be regarded as a temple of the Holy Spirit.

Gospel Matthew 5:38-48

Jesus tells his followers to take on the challenge of loving enemies as well as family and friends.

"But I say this to you: love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you."

The Dalai Lama, the Tibetan spiritual and political leader, is a hero to many people around the world as a man of peace; but who does he look up to? You might be surprised to learn that he has described as "my hero and my friend" an Irishman who was blinded by a rubber bullet fired during the Troubles in Northern Ireland. Richard Moore was only ten years old and on his way home from school in Derry in 1972 when he was shot at point-blank range in his face. "I was about ten feet away when a soldier fired the rubber bullet that struck me on the bridge of my nose," he recalls, "and all I remember is that everything went blank and that was the moment my life changed for ever."

He has travelled on an extraordinary journey since then, turning an event of potential human tragedy into a story of compassion and faith that has inspired others, including the Dalai Lama. In his twenties Moore launched a charity, Children in Crossfire, to support children internationally who are caught up in violence and poverty. More than that, he not only forgave the soldier who fired that rubber bullet, but has even befriended him. Now in his late forties, he gives talks regularly to young people about the importance of putting aside grudges and showing compassion towards enemies. The Dalai Lama feels Moore is so outstanding in his ability to put anger aside that he should be considered for the Nobel Peace Prize, which the Dalai Lama himself was awarded in 1989.

Gospel Teaching

Unfortunately, aggression is one of our instinctive reactions to difficult situations. However, Jesus' teaching in today's Gospel – part of the Sermon on the Mount – tells us that if we respond to aggression with more aggression we risk creating an endless cycle of violence. Violence harms our unity, setting one person against another and making cooperation impossible. Jesus teaches that God's love extends to everyone, and that includes people we might regard as our enemies, and people we have excluded from our circle of friends. The Quakers have an expression, "that of God in all of us", which picks up on a theme in all today's readings: God's Holy Spirit is in each person, and all are deserving of compassion and love.

Jesus left us with a code for life, a lifestyle that seems contrary to much of the thinking and action in mainstream society. It is a lifestyle he lived himself: where everybody is to be shown love and respect. This applies even to people who give abuse, take endlessly and give nothing in return, or make the lives of others a misery.

Application

It is not only in the spheres of the military, business and politics that aggression and confrontation rear their heads – it is also in the run of the mill of our daily life. Just think about how aggressive driving can lead to road rage, and how disputes with neighbours can escalate into battles unless we make a real effort to get on together. Retaliation or “payback” is a strong theme in the film world, and perhaps we are too tolerant of violence in the media. In how many of our homes do we allow violent video games to be played, despite evidence that regular playing risks creating insensitivity towards violence?

The Gospel calls us to reject the belief that aggression is often the best and easiest way to solve problems. Richard Moore may be blind but, as he says, “my sight has been taken away, but not my vision”. Efforts to build bridges with people we don’t like or who have harmed us might bring surprising results. If not, then we may take consolation that we are being faithful to the way of living that Jesus expects of his followers. And remember, God may be making something good out of our efforts in some way that we cannot see.

All this does not mean that God never takes sides. In Jesus, it is clear that God sides with those who are poor, marginalised and oppressed, regardless of the labels we place on them. We are urged to move outside our comfort zones to engage with people we usually ignore and respond to God’s call to be peacemakers.

SAVA - BRESLAV: PREŠERNOV DAN

V nedeljo, 13. februarja smo imeli v Kitchenerju pri slovenskem društvu Sava opoldne sveto mašo, pri kateri so brali otroci Slovenske šole »SAVA«.

Potem pa so pod vodstvom Magde Razpotnik pripravili kratko proslavo v počastitev slovenskega kuturnega praznika. S pesmijo, recitacijami in pripovedjo, so otroci pričarali nekaj lepih trenutkov vsem navzočim. Hvala vsem sodelujočim, še posebej ga. Magdi za ves trud pri pripravi programa in predsednici Mariji Pilesnik za organizacijo dneva.

CHILDREN'S AREA AT PARISH BAZAAR

We are always working at making a great children's area at our Parish Bazaar and this year is no different. In order to make it fun for kids of all ages, we are always looking for new or almost new items such as toys, teddy bears, books, games – all the things that kids like.

If you have anything like this, you can bring these items to church and we will have a box where they can be placed for our helpers to organize. Thanks for always giving the children of our parish such great support. See you at the Bazaar!

Če obhajate 25, 40, 50, 60 in več let poroke v letu 2011, potem ste povabljeni v našo katedralo na skupno sveto mašo vseh slavljencev, ki bo 15. maja 2011 ob 2:00 popoldne. PUSTOVANJE

Kot lahko vidite iz plakatov je letošnje pustovanje zelo pozno, šele 5. marca. Mislim, da večina že ve za ta pozen datum. Pust se ravna po Veliki noči, ki je vedno prvo nedeljkjo po prvi polni pomladanski luni. Od tega odštejemo štiridesetdnevni post in imamo datum pepelnice in pustovanja.

Naše pustovanje bo torej 5. marca zvečer ob 7:00 p.m., po sobotni večerni maši. Igral bo Branko Pouh. Vabljene tudi »MASKE«, da ohranjamo našo slovensko navado. Nagrade za maske. Vstopnina za odrasle je $10, Večerja za odrase je $10, za otroke do 12. leta $5. Maske imajo prost vstop!
