Kres, praznik zdravja.

O Kresu doseže solnce najvišo točko na nebesnem svodu, solnčni žarki so takrat najjači, dnevi najdaljši, rastlinska rast v naravi najbujnejša. Povprečen človek, ki ne mara podrobnejše razmišljevati o teh tipičnih znakih Kresa, bo dejal, da imajo pomen le za poljedelcev in pratikarje. To naziranje pa je napačno, kajti Kres na severni zemeljski polobli je velikanskega pomena za vsako živo bitje, tako seveda tudi za človeka.

Solnce je vir luči, gorkote, življenja in zdravja; kjer ni solnca, tam je tema, mraz, bolezen in smrt.

Dete se po navadi roditi zdravo in velika večina ljudi doseže takozzano srednjo starost, ne da bi okusila kakšno resnejšo bolezen. Zdravje se nam zdi kot nekaj samoumenega, podobno kot zrak. Kdo misli o potrebi in vrednosti zraka, vendar če nam je odvzet zrak le za nekaj minut, se zadušimo! Prav tako malokrat razmišljamo o vrednosti zdravja, dokler se ne oglasti bolezen.

Kadar človeka obiše bolezen, šele spozna, kakšno velikansko bogastvo je zdravje. Gore zlata in draguljev ne odtehtajo zdravja in ga tudi ne kupijo, kadar je prepozno.

Kljub temu včasi tako ravnamo z našim zdravjem kot svinja z mehom. Zapravljamo ta nenadomestljivi zaklad, kakor bi ga ne moglo nikdar zmanjkati. Telesu mnogokrat lahkomiselnod odrekamo prilike, da popravi in okrepi medleči in pešajoče zdravje.

Kolikokrat pozabimo, kako neobhodno potrebno je za trdno zdravje gibanje v svežem zraku, kako potrebeni so nam zdravilni solnčni žarki. Nekoliko leni smo morda, nekoliko nam je vroče, pa si ne upamo na solnce in zrak. To delamo pač zato, ker se povzročena škoda ne pokaže takoj. Pozabimo, da bo kazens za to prišla v obliki oslablosti in bolezni tako gotovo kot pride za dnevom noč.

Slovenci v tej deželi smo po ogromni večini zaposleni v zaprtih prostorih, v rovih, tovarnah, posamezniki tudi v trgovinah in uradih. Manjka nam gibanja v svežem zraku, manjka nam božanskih solnčnih žarkov. Naša telesa to tem hujše občutijo, ker smo se po večini priselili iz krajev, kjer nismo pogrešali solnca niti svežega zraka. Pozimi si dostikrat ne moremo pomagati, kajti dnevi so kratki in ko se vrнемo z dela, ni časa za izprehod. Poleg tega nam marsikateri prosti dan pokvari mrzlo ali mokro vreme. Tako smo prisiljeni tudi večino prostega časa preziveti v zaprtih prostorih. V tem času črpamo rezervo našega zdravja in moči. Čim manjša je ta rezerva, tem prej je izčrpana. Zato ni čudno, da konci zime in začetkom pomladni smrt tako mogočno mahta s svojo koso.

Največje važnosti je torej za naše zdravje, da si tekem pomladni, poletja in gorke jeseni nabremo kar največ rezervne moči za zimsko dobo. Z drugimi besedami rečeno: tem poletnih dñi si skušajmo utrditi svoje zdravje, da bo uspešno klubovalo uničujočam silam zime.

V dolgih kresnih dnevih, ko je moč solnca na višku, je najlepša prilika za to. Kdor ne more ven na deželo, naj gre vsaj v najbližji park, na jezersko ali morsko obrežje, sploh kamorkoli na prosto, kjer ga bodo obsevali solnčni žarki in kjer bo dihal vsaj kolikor toliko sveži zrak.

Pomnimo, da za vsak kubični čevelj svežega zraka, za vsako solnčnega sija, ki si ga odrečemo, bomo plačali nekoč s svojim zdravjem. In vse kesanje bo zaman, kadar bo prepozno.

Kres s svojimi tisočerimi naravnimi čari naj bo praznik našega zdravja. Napijmo se teh čarov, nasrakmo se svežega zraka in okopljimo se v zlatih solnčnih žarkih, kar bo našemu zdravju več koristilo kot vsa umetna zdravila in tonike.

Naša J. S. K. Jednota hoče imeti zdrave člane, kajti le oni so zanjo pravi kapital. Važno je, da ji pridobivamo nove člane, a še bolj važno je, da spravimo v njene vrste le zdrave rojake, katere z besedami ali dobrim vzgledom navajamo, da si ohranijo trdno zdravje do skrajnih mej. Zdravi člani pomenijo zdravo in trdno J. S. K. Jednoto. V dosegu tega pa je potrebno, da začnemo pri sebi in proklamiramo in izrabimo Kres in vse sledče solnčne dneve kot praznike zdravja.

KRESNA PESEM

Zažarel je gozd in loka,
praprot čarni cvet razvila,
solnce padlo je z oboka
ti v oči, devojka mila!

Tvoja usta plameneča
so v poljubu zadrhtela,
in ljubezni tiha sreča
je kot žamet me objela.

(Cvetko Golar.)

VSAK PO SVOJE (Nadaljevanje iz 1. strani)

solnčnimi žarki nenadoma vlija huda ploha, bliski so švigli kot ognjene kače in grmelo je kot zadnji dan manevra. Skočil sem pod protrešek neke trgovine, da malo povedrim. Kmalu sta pritekla pod streho še dva rojaka, ki ju nisem poznal. Eden je ocejal voda s klobuka in robantil, kakšnega zlomka da neki imajo gori v oblikah, da je tako grmenje, ihta in vihra.

"Oh," se oglasti pomirjevalno drugi, "nikar se ne jezi! Imajo že kakšno izredno konferenco, pa se gre za zaupnico ali nezaupnico."

V Clevelandu nam obljudujejo, da se bo še pred pasjimi dnevi voda podražila.

"Prava reč," se je namernil prijatelj, ki je čital to novico. "Bomo pa vino pil!"

Pričakuje se, da bo v prihodnji volilni kampanji prohibicija igrala veliko vlogo. V kampanjskih govorancih bo vsak dobil, kar mu gre. Mokri bodo označeni kot svarileni vzgled, suhi kot hipokriti, neutralni pa obobe.

V petek 13. junija sem bil deležen čestitka, pisemnih in osebnih. Izprva sem mislil, da je to samo norčevanje, ker je bil petek in še 13. po vrhu. Ko sem se iz Blaznikove prakte prepričal, da si tisti dan lasti Tone Padovanskemu, sem še vedel, da je vse skup pomota (kot sem tudi jaz na tem zveriženem svetu). Prijateljem se vseeno zahvaljujem za pozornost in čestitke in jih tem potom obvezbam, da jih bom djal na led (čestitke namreč), da se ohramijo do januarja. Mene so namreč pri rojstvu izročili v oskrbo Tonetu Puščavniku, ki je tradicionalni varuh prešičev, kozlov in druge živine. Priporavnim še, da me ni nihče vprašal za dovoljenje, zato si roke umijem in slovensko izjavljajam, da nisem sam krv, če sem prišel v tako družbo.

DRUŠTVENE IN DRUGE SLOVENSKE VESTI (Nadaljevanje iz 1. strani)

Učenci so se posebno dobro izkazali v čitanju, naglašanju in poudarjanju, kar je svedčilo o dobrem razumevanju štivil.

Slovenska šola S. N. Doma, ki uživa veliko naklonjenost clevelandskih Slovencev, z vsakim dnevom bolj jasno kaže, da isto v polni meri zaslubi.

To šolo obiskuje v svojem prostem času tudi lepo število mladinskih članov J. S. K. Jednote. Izkreno je želeti, da bi se v prihodnjem šolskem letu vpisali vsi člani mladinskega oddeleta JSKJ, ker to bo najboljše jamstvo, da bo vodstvo naših podpornih organizacij, naših Domov in drugih naših ustanov prišlo v prave roke, ko se starejši umaknemo s pozore.

Slovenski Narodni Čitalnici, ki ima svoje prostore v S. N. Domu na St. Clair Ave., je društvo Cleveland, št. 128 SNPJ, nakazalo častno članarino v znesku $10.00.

Poročila sta se v Clevelandu Miss Frances Lausche, najmlajša hčerka znane Lauschetove družine, in Mr. Aug. Urankar, ki študira zobozdravništvo. Mr. Urankar je brat Mrs. Mally, soproge slovenskega zobozdravnika dr. J. W. Mally-ja.

NEW ORLEANS v Louisiani spominja na prisotnost Francozov. Leta 1718 je bila tam ustanovljena postaja, da čuva vhod v dolino Mississippi. Francozi so imenovali naselbino Nouvelle Orleans v čast francoskega regentu, orleanskemu vojvodi. Čudno se zdi egiptovsko ime MEMPHIS, ki ga je dobito največje mesto v državi Tennessee. Ime je bilo izbrano radi sličnosti lege ob reki Mississippi z ono slavnega mesta ob reki Nilu v Egiptu.

Ime mesta PROVIDENCE v državi Rhode Island spominja, kakor mnoga druga mesta v Ameriki, na verske begunce.

(Nadaljevanje s prve strani) ogromno večino kot še nihče pred njim. Njegova večina nad najbližnjim protikandidatom znača nad 300,000 glasov. Izid primarnih volitev je toliko večjega pomena, ker je Morrow v kampanji javno nastopil proti 18. amendmentu in se je izjavil, da naj bi se pravica reguliranja opojnih piča vrnila posameznim državam. Zagovornike prohibicije je velika večina, s katero je Morrow zmagal v primarnih volitvah, silno poparila. Za dobro mero se je še predsednik izjavil, da bo Morrow podpiral o priliki volitev v jeseni.

MINNEAPOLIS v Minnesota je bila predložena resolucija kongresnika iz države Illinois, Alfreda Michælsona, ki naj bi amendirala 18. amendment v smislu državne regulacije piča. Države, katerih prebivalstvo je po večini "mokro," naj bi same kontrolirale prodajo opojnih piča, pretežno "suhe" države pa naj bi obdržale prohibicijo, če jim ugaja. Michaelson tudi priporoča, naj bi se izvršilo splošno glasovanje glede prohibicije, bodisi splošno za vso republiko ali za vsako državo posebej. Danes ima kakih 7,500 prebivalcev.

SEANTA FE (Sveta Vera) je po starosti drugo mesto v Združenih Državah. Bilo je ustanovljeno okolo leta 1605 na kraju zapuščeno indijanske vasi (pueblo). 25 let kasneje je imelo prebivalstvo 250 Špancev in 200 Indijancev. Danes ima kakih 7,500 prebivalcev.

NEW ERA SUPPLEMENT

Edited by Louis M. Kolar.

Current Thought.

S. S. C. U. IS WHAT YOU MAKE IT

When I attended high school the principal of the school would continually tell us pupils that our school was just what we made it. Somehow this thought has made an indelible impression on my mind for I had heard it almost every week at assembly.

"Character, spirit and the like," the principal would say, "are brought out the strongest by the students themselves, and the school is judged by the class of students attending it."

This popular axiom can be applied to any walk of life and is not necessarily confined to the schools. Your home, occupation—in fact life in general is closely molded after the pattern of the individuals.

Our S. S. C. U. is no exception to the rule. As a Union composed of members situated in different States of the U. S. is judged by its accomplishments, brought about by the members themselves.

Do we want to be known as a modern organization full of ideas, or do we want to be known as an organization that merely follows the ideas of some other group? It is up to you, dear member, to decide for yourself, and not depend on somebody else. When a lodge is active it creates a reputation that lives and stirs it to further action. One affair stimulates the members to bring about another affair etc. What is the result? Individual unity and greater cooperation is brought about and the certain goal. And that is one of the underlying foundations upon which all of our fraternal organizations rest upon. That brotherly love working towards the same end.

ALL ENGLISH-SPEAKING LODGES SHOULD BE ACTIVE IN SPORTS

Our S. S. C. U. has taken the right direction in the establishment of an athletic department and the sports fund to render financial assistance to lodges organizing teams. It goes to show that our organizers planned things for the future foretelling the necessity of maintaining a department entirely in interest of its youth.

But it is up to the younger element to show its appreciation by responding to their efforts. A number of lodges have availed themselves of the financial assistance rendered by the sports fund, and in return have organized teams that advertise the S. S. C. U. Of course, the primary object in undertaking is to induce outsiders to join the ranks of the S. C. U.

There is no wordly reason why all of our English-speaking lodges have not shown a desire to organize teams that would liven things in their community. Of course, extra effort required before a team is properly organized and equipped, the compensation received more than balances the efforts of those young people that have attended high schools or perhaps colleges, the spirit behind a game in which your school participates, is the important factor.

The same is true of lodge teams. When a contest takes place a number of loyal rooters are there whooping it up for their lodge, and the spirit behind these contests gladdens the hearts of the members in knowing that they are there fighting for a common cause.

It is sincerely hoped that some of the inactive English-speaking lodges of our Union will see their way clear towards establishing some sort of sport activities. If the members of these lodges would only realize what great things can happen if a team is organized they would begin to show action immediately. At least, it would be worth trying.

Lodge No. 66 Enrolls 46 New Members

Many Members Have You Enrolled?

Forty-six new members in six months is the record established by the SS. Peter and Paul Society, No. 66, S. S. C. of Joliet, Ill. Nine senior and thirty-seven juvenile members have been enrolled by this lodge during the months of May and June 1930.

An increase in membership is to be envied indeed and could serve as a stimulant to lodges of the S. S. C. U. Explain to the outsider the protection received as a result of being a member—death and sick benefits. Point out to them the advantages derived through social contact and the enjoyment experienced by attending an affair sponsored by a lodge.

These and a number of other points should serve as a criterion to all of the members of S. S. C. U. when inducing outsiders to join our ranks. So get busy.

Apologies for your lodge's inactivity does not pardon you for such negligence.

Sport Club to Meet

Representatives of all S. S. C. U. (J. S. K. J.) lodges of Chicago are requested to attend the regular meeting of the Sport Club to be held at the office of William B. Laurich, 1845 W. 22d St., Monday, June 30, at 8 p.m.

At this meeting final arrangements will be made for the soft ball game between Joliet, No. 66, and Illini Stars, No. 210, of Chicago, Ill., both of whom are members of the S. S. C. U. This game will be played at the Society Zvon, No. 70, S. S. C. U., picnic, which will be held on July 4 at Kegel Grove, Willo Springs, Ill. Game will start at 2 p.m.

Further arrangements will also be made to attend the J. S. K. J. No. 66 picnic on July 27, and make necessary plans for a bowling match to be held on that day. This picnic will be held at Joliet, Ill.

A bowling league, consisting of teams from Joliet, Waukegan and Chicago, will be considered, together with a local J. S. K. J. soft ball league.

It is the wish of the J. S. K. J. Sport Club that the ladies' society No. 170 would send representatives to this meeting and organize various units in the different lines of sports that will be undertaken in the future and help carry away some of the prizes.

Don't forget—June 30 at 8 p.m.

William B. Laurich, Pres., Chicago J. S. K. J. Sport Club.

Expression Of Gratitude

The members of Collinwood Boosters lodge, No. 188, S. S. C. U. wish to express their deep gratitude to the Supreme Executive Committee for granting financial assistance, and thereby enabling us to take a deeper interest in sports.

Our Indoor baseball team has just been equipped with jerseys and on them appear the name Collinwood Boosters on the front side and S. S. C. U. No. 188 on the back side. Sports are of such an advantage in inducing outsiders to join our lodge that we are going to maintain teams and really advertise the S. S. C. U.

The members also wish to give Louis M. Kolar a big hand for what he has done for the Boosters, and hope that he will continue to display this marked interest. We are behind him and hope to be of service to him at some time.

Mike Krall, President, Lodge No. 188, S. S. C. U.

An educated person is one who is learned not alone in books, but in courtesy and common sense.

Notice

Chicago, Ill.—Illini Stars Lodge, No. 211, S. S. C. U., is going to hold two dances during the coming season. Two tentative dates selected fall on Oct. 25, 1930, and Feb. 7, 1931. Should there be any lodges in Chicago that have already formed plans for dances to be held on the same dates, such lodges should notify the secretary of the Illini Stars Lodge at their earliest convenience.

Members of the Illini Stars are requested to pay their dues before the 25th of each month.

RAIN HALTS GAME

Gala Program Arranged For July 27.

ANTON ZBASNIK, supreme president of S. S. C. U., paid a visit to the New Era office Monday, June 23. Mr. Zbasnik is a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa., but Cleveland, O., holds an attraction for him as a city. During his brief stay in the office our supreme president discussed the younger element of our organization in connection with athletic activities.

LODGE NO. 214 is the latest one to be added to the roster of S. S. C. U. It is situated in Sudbury, Canada, and will constitute the third S. S. C. U. lodge organized in the Dominion of Canada. St. Rochus Lodge, No. 206, of East Windsor, and Karavane Lodge, No. 212, of Springhill, N. S., are the other two. No name has been selected as yet for this new lodge. There are fifteen charter members.

IT WAS REPORTED that Svetozar Banovec sang to a capacity audience Sunday, June 15, during the concert given by him in the Washington Auditorium of Ely, Minn. Mr. Banovec is the noted tenor from the Royal Opera of Ljubljana, Yugoslavia, who is making a tour of the country and is giving recitals throughout the United States.

MRS. JOSEPH ZORMAN of Cleveland, O., has left for New York City to pursue the study of social science and sociology. Mrs. Zorman will spend the summer at the New York School of Social Science, which is affiliated with the Columbia University of New York and is a highly specialized school of sociology.

ALTHOUGH BLIND since the age of 12, Alonzo Southard, 24, of Marysville, O., is an honor student in the sophomore class at Kirkesville (Mo.) College of Osteopathy and Surgery. He is also an accomplished musician and plays the piano, trombone and saxophone alternately in dance orchestras. Most of his money has been earned by tuning pianos to enable him to pay for his college education.

ST. VITUS JUNIOR NEWS, product of the efforts of grammar school children of St. Vitus' School of Cleveland, O., received a very high rating from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association when it was submitted for criticism. The junior paper is entirely worked up by the students themselves under the supervision of the instructors.

IN ERROR

In last week's issue an error was made when it was announced that Jimmy Dolan, member of National Star Lodge No. 213 of Conemaugh, Pa., was one of the two publicity agents elected by the members. Anthony Kreble is the publicity agent and together with Ella Pristow constitute the publicity agents of the National Star Lodge. Jimmy Dolan is a member of the standing committee.

Goozum: "So this is the finest apartment in the city." Agent: "There's no room for argument."

SPORTING BITS

COLL. BOOSTERS LOSE TO S. Y. M. C.

With Two Men Out, Zupancic Scores Winning Run On Error In Ninth Inning

Collinwood, O.—According to pre-season dope, the S. Y. M. C. Indoor team (S. D. Z.) was supposed to have an invincible team—one that would all but walk away with the opposition. And as a matter of fact, this combination is a fast one and hard one to beat.

However, the Collinwood Boosters team (S. S. C. U.) showed these champions that they too were a combination commanding respect, as shown by the game played last Wednesday, June 18th, at White City field where they lost by one run score being 7 to 6. At that the game should have been played into extra innings, but for wild throw made by Baraga, playing second base for the Boosters.

It all happened when Ernie Zupancic of the S. Y. M. C. made a clean hit into right field which Agnich of the Boosters picked up and threw to Baraga, who in turn threw the ball wildly in an effort to nip the runner on third. The throw went wild and the winning run was scored.

A fair sized crowd was on hand to witness the game in spite of a steady downpour of rain. The crowd was on its toes throughout the game as the score was tied in the sixth, eighth and ninth innings. Our Boosters were in the lead 5 to 3 in the fifth inning.

Mihelic pitched a good game for the Boosters forcing the batters to hit easy flies. Joe Kuhar playing short, picked up a number of fast bouncers to retire the players.

The Collinwood Booster lost two games by one-run margins. In the tussle with the Progressives, they lost by the same score of 7 to 6. In the game with the Pioneers the Boosters dropped the game by a score of 6 to 4.

But keep an eye on the Collinwood Boosters in the future.

George Washingtons Win From Orels

Make Four Hits Count for as Many Runs

George Washingtons (S. S. C. U.) indoor team made only four hits in the game played against the Orels, but made those hits count for four runs to win 4 to 2 in the Inter-Lodge League contest of Cleveland, O. Orels also made four hits, but only two runs. Game was played Friday, June 20, at Gordon Park.

Pitcher Joe Jarc of the Washingtons fanned twelve opposing batters. In the third inning, with three men on bases, Joe proceeded to strike out F. Marinko of the Orels. Incidentally, in that inning all of the Orels' outs were made via the strikeout route. Marinko proved a stonewall on defense for the Orels throughout the game.

Birch Kromar, playing third base for the G. W., hit a two-bagger in the fourth inning and stretched it into a home run on an error made by the center fielder. Jarc also stretched a single into a triple in the same inning, but failed to score.

Next Sunday the Comrades baseball team will travel to Somers, Wis., where they will meet the strong Dunneback nine. The tussle will take place at the Petrified Springs Park.

John Petrovic, S. S. C. No. 193.

Lodge Number Important

In submitting articles to the New Era Supplement the writer's name must appear, together with the number of the lodge that he or she belongs to. Sometimes a number of articles are received bearing only the signatures.

Since the New Era Supplement is devoted entirely in the interest of the S. S. C. U. members, the editor gives preference to articles submitted by the members. Articles submitted by non-members are considered if space is available.

Hence, be sure to put down the number of your lodge along with your signature when writing to the New Era Supplement, as this enables the writer to distinguish members from non-members.

Lose in Tenth Inning

Although the Napredeks Sports (S. S. C. U., No. 132) baseball team made 15 hits to the Wickliffe's 10, they lost the ten-inning game played Sunday, June 22, at the Euclid Central High grounds of Euclid, O. The score was 9 to 8, in favor of Wickliffe.

Napredeks were leading up to the seventh inning, when Wickliffe scored five runs to tie the score. In this inning Brunetti, playing right field for Wickliffe, knocked a home run with one man on.

Dragonetti, the smiling second sacker for Napredeks, made three hits in five times at bat to lead the hitting onslaught. Follet, John and Joe Posavad, Keeley and Boyle made two hits apiece. Errors contributed heavily in losing the game for Napredeks, as eight were made by them, to the opponents' four.

Big Water Hero

Tony Laurich playing center field for the Collinwood Boosters lodge, No. 188, S. S. C. U. proved to be a real hero recently. If all happened in this way.

Tony was fishing on the Maple Beach pier off Lake Erie when he suddenly heard somebody say "Pull in." Of course, Tony started to pull in the line, and to his dismay found fish entirely lacking at the end of the line.

Looking around he noticed a man sinking in the water; he stretched out his hand and pulled the unfortunate man out of the water. It so happened that this individual slipped on a rock while pulling in his line and fell into the water clothes and all.

After the incident had cooled down somewhat you could hear Mike Krall, president of the Boosters, passing along a bucketful of raspberries to Tony. For you see, Mike was taking a nap on the beach and awoke when he heard someone holler "Pull In." "Where's the fish?" Mike asked. But lo, there were no fish.

Junior Slovenian School Holds Final Meeting

Something like 150 members of the Junior Slovenian School of Cleveland, O., gathered last Saturday morning, June 21, in the Slovenian National Home for the final attendance of the 1929-1930 season.

Group singing and individual reading of Slovenian literature composed part of the program. One boy in particular impressed the audience with his almost perfect pronunciation of the Slovenian language. His name is Drobnič. A number of awards were given to the youthful students for their perfect attendance, exceptional good work, etc.

Dr. Kern, president of the school, and Mr. Ivan Zorman made an indelible impression on the audience with their speeches. The faculty of the school consists of Mrs. Ivanush and Mrs. Simcic, and, judging by the results of the students' accomplishments, the Junior Slovenian School is fortunate in having the services of these two.

A number of S. S. C. U. juvenile members were among the group enrolled in the class. And one young Miss in particular was on hand who received a first prize of $3 from the S. S. C. U. for a Slovenian article submitted to the Juvenile Department of the New Era recently. Her name is Mary Zajec.

The Senior Slovenian School adjourned a few weeks ago and will resume attendance in the fall. Mr. Janko Rogelj and Mr. Vatro J. Grill, editor of Equality, Slovenian daily, constitute the faculty of the senior school.

Come to the Picnic

July 6 Is the Date

Come one! Come all!

On Sunday, July 6, the St. Aloysius Lodge, No. 36, of Conemaugh, Pa., will hold its annual picnic at the Woodvale Heights grounds, and expects to see all S. S. C. U. members of Conemaugh and vicinity at this gala occasion.

All are cordially invited to attend, with an exceptionally good time assure to all that come out. So be sure to reserve July 6 for this picnic.

St. Aloysius Lodge, No. 36, has proved a great help to the National Star Lodge, No. 213. It has been kind enough to permit the National Star Lodge to use its hall, rent free, for its meetings and charging but a moderate rate for the use of the hall in other instances.

All of the members of the National Star Lodge should make it their special effort to be on hand at this picnic July 6 and show an appreciation of gratitude for what this lodge has done for us.

So, come one and all, and bring your friends to this picnic.

Frances Turk,
No. 213, S. S. C. U.

GET YOUR TRANSFER

Conemaugh, Pa.—National Star Lodge, No. 213, S. S. C. U., will hold its next regular monthly meeting Thursday, July 3, and will commence at 8:30 p. m. daylight saving time. All of our meetings are held on the first Thursday of each month.

A number of the younger members enrolled in the St. Aloysius Lodge, No. 36, have expressed a desire to be transferred to the National Star Lodge. All those that wish to make the transfer should get in touch with Mr. Joseph Turk, secretary; all dues must be paid up before a transfer is granted.

Unfortunately members of St. Aloysius Lodge must secure their transfers before they are permitted to attend the meetings of the National Star Lodge, as provided for in the by-laws of the S. S. C. U. Even though both lodges belong to the same organization members of one lodge are not at liberty to attend meetings of another group.

Out West

Pueblo, Colo.—Well, brothers and sisters of Conemaugh, Pa., it seems like a century since I left you back in the East. Nevertheless, I am thinking of you and wish you and your friends all the happiness and good luck.

I am sorry to say that I will be unable to attend the next meeting, to be held on July 3, as I will be in Colorado at that time.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank our supreme president, Mr. Anton Zbasnik, and John Balkovec, member of the Supreme Board of Trustees, for attending the last meeting of the National Star Lodge. Here in Pueblo I met Mr. Kocevar, an old friend of Mr. Zbasnik. Mr. Kocevar was agreeably surprised to make my acquaintance made possible through the supreme president.

The climate out here sure does agree with me. On Sunday, June 15, I attended a picnic held at Rye, at the foot of Baldy Mountains. Snow could be seen on top of these mountains.

Here I made the acquaintance of Mr. M. Gabryan, president of the Columbine Lodge (S. N. P. J.), as well as Miss Ann Horvath, secretary.

Well National Stars, how is the baseball team? I certainly hope that the team will be in trim soon, for the season is getting late. And you, the standing committee, how are the dances and picnics coming along?

I want you to know that I am having a good time out here. Also am gathering new ideas suggested by Mr. Kocevar in connection with our lodge.

Joseph Kopler, Pres.,
National Star, S. S. C. U.

THANK YOU

In behalf of the Alloys baseball team, playing under the banner of St. Aloysius Lodge, No. 6, S. S. C. U., of Lorain, O., I wish to thank the members of Napredok Lodge, No. 132, of Euclid, O., and Al Ulle in particular, for the wonderful time showed us during our stay in Euclid Sunday, June 15. The boys enjoyed themselves very much on that day.

Although the Alloys lost to the Napredoks in the ninth inning after two men were out still the boys feel a certain amount of satisfaction in knowing that they lost to a good sporting team.

John L. Zortz,
Manager, Alloys

Lucille. The entire trio is in smiles. Here's wishing them health and happiness.

Happy-Go-Lucky Lodge

Barberton, O.—It has been some time since anything has been heard from the Happy-Go-Lucky Lodge of Barberton, but I hope that from now on you will hear from us often.

Come on, members, it is time to wake up and take more interest in your lodge. There has been a large number absent from meetings. Surely everyone can attend once a month.

Just a few more weeks and our picnic day will be here. As it will be our first affair of this kind, we want to make it the biggest and best held so far by any lodge this year. Sunday, July 13, is the date set for the gala occasion and will be held at Hopocan Gardens. Admission is only 25 cents.

Don't forget the date of our next meeting, July 8.

VILEMIR

POVEST IZZA TURŠKIH BOJEV

(Nadalevanje)

III.

Svetla kraljica noči se je umikala za goro. Priroda se je bila ognila v molko-nemi plăšč. Drevje se ni genilo, trava ni šepetala, voda se je potajila. Nočne ptice in zveri so se poskrile po brlogih. Noben glas ni motil jutranjih sanj zemlje in neba. Potem je počila zora, nebo je zardelo od radosti. — Zdanile se je. —

Po gozdih okoli Brežic je oživel. Trde roke so odmikale rosne veje, težke noge so stopale trdno po mokrem mahu, plăšč pogled je hitel v dolino, ki je tiko ždela v jutranjem mraku. Počasi so se razločila izmed varnega zavetja drevcev belodeta ženska bitja. Pa to niso bile vile gozdarice, name njene zarajati jutranjico v slavo vstajajočega sonca. — Pod belo odoje plah so se skrivala bedna bitje, plašna srca žena mater.

Nežni otroci so dremali v njihovem naročju, in drobni glaski so prosili: "Mama domov—k atu! Mama kruha—lačen!"

Težko so svzdihnilo žene: "Uboga deca—kruhek je zgorel—doma ni! Ateka je vzel Turek!" Pritisnile so zdihovane otroke k sebi in se spustile vnuždol, proti bojnemu polju.

V vrbju onkraj Save se je zazabilo. Veje so pokale pod brezobzirno roko, peselek se je udaljal pod težkim koplitem natovornjen konj. Voda je zapljuškala. Na prelivajoči se zibelki valov se je zanikal čoln, začul se je udar vesla . . . Ozki nos čolna je rezal vodo proti levemu bregu. Glava pri glavi je sedela v lehkem lesu, roka pri roki je stiskala orožje, pa glasu ni bilo iz nemih ust. Čoln je priplul k bregu—in izkrala se je trudna četa nočnih stražnikov. Ustavila se je na bregu in čakala. Čoln se je vrnil, hitel—in zopet donesel nov tovor.

Globok glas je pretrgal molk,

"V mestu je še vse tiko . . . Pohiti, Vilemir, naznani gradu, da je okolica prosta. Tone, pojdi za mladeničem v grad Preskrbi tam Turkovega konja in plen. Može, hvala vam na hrabrosti! Zdaj ste prosti, plen vam razdeli gradnik o prilič nem času."

V rdečem žaru zarje se je zasvetila čelada tujega viteza. Pred njim se je poklonil vitki mladenič, skočil na konja in izginil med drevjem. Tone se je obotavljal pri konjih in opomnil boječe:

"Kam pa vi, gospod? Pazite—pazite! To-le drevje se mi zdi nevarno: lahko se skriva turški hlačar za njim . . . Z menoj bi jezdili v grad! Saj je zadost, da smo izgubili našega bubeča . . . Oh, kaj porečeo naša gospodinjica?!"

"Molči in pojdi, nekaj mož ti pomaga."

Vitez je zakrilo vrbje. Po produ je zaškrtalo, po pesku je zadrsalo. Z utripajočim srcem je šla večina za vodjo na polje poraza. Le par Hrvatov je ostalo pri konjih in motrilo s krvizeljnim pogledom na konja privezanega Turka. Nevoljen se je zadrl Tone:

"Kaj streljate z očmi vanj! Namesarili ste se nočoj . . . Hajd naprej!"

Zdajci je zabrel po zraku mil glas zvona. V gradu se je oglasil rog. Tone je srečaval množico, ki je hitela skozi odprtia mestna vrata. Speli so z raznih strani k istemu kraju.

Nad Brežicami se je dvigalo solnce. Zardele so gore, zapele ptice. Biserno so zablestele rosne kaplje, zažuboreli so potoki, glasneje je zašumela srebrna reka, lepa Sava. Vse je radošno pozdravljalo življenja sveti vir. Žal, obsvetilo je solnce tožne ostanke vasi, visoke kupe mrtvih, in vničene seteve na pomendranih poljih. Stotero solznih oči se je uprolo vanj:

"Zakaj nam si je tako žarko na dan nesreče? O solnce! Ni ti mar, da obsevaš naše mrtve nade . . . Skrij se za črne oblake, ker danes nas žali tvoji svetli soj!"

Pa solncu ni bilo man solznih oči. Prihajalo je oddaleč, na dolgi poti je videlo, da plače povsod cloveštvo. In više se je dvigalo vognjeni lepoti, zemlja se je kopala v zlatem žaru in razkrivala dragemu ženini lepoto svojih gora, gozdov in rek. V svežem zelenju so zablestele iz prozorne jutranje megle z gostim lesom pokrite visoke glave Uskokov, Bizejske gore in Ljubelja vinorodne glavice. Podolgo, ozko je vstajalo na strmem bregu Save zidano prastaro selo Brežice.

Močni pas notranjega zidu, ki je varoval mesto od kopne strani je še stal ponosno in trdno, zunanjih okopov pa so se držali le pretrgani kosi. Med razdejanimi kupi kamenja je ležal marsikater Turek — s preklano glavo. — Malo pred mestom sta se objemali šumeči sestri Krka in Sava in tekli skupno skozi lepo, z nizkimi griči okrašeno planjavo mimo šumečih gozdov in gajev. — Polje je bilo poteptano in opustošeno. Po vinogradih niso objemale več trte visokega kola. Z zlomljenih, ožganih vej dreves je gledalo črno tramvaje hramov in hiš. Po dvoriščih so ležali ostanki razvlečenih, vničenih stvari . . . Tožno je bilo vse to, in vendar lepo v biserinem svitu rose. Ponočna ploha je bila oprala zemljo vseh madežev in je izmila srage potu, krvi in poslednjo solzo z lic mrtvih junakov ob Savi. Čista so bila zdaj njih lica, čista in tako mirna! Zaprlo se je oko, roka je izpustila smrtno orožje. Mir, globok, neporušen mir je vel z veličastnimi perutimi nad tem poljem. Krščeni in nekrščeni so ležali v hladnem objemu Morane. . .

Prihiteli so nočni četniki, može in mladeniči, pogledali čista, mirna lica in pogledali sebe. Zažarele so grde lise krv. Rdele je na licu, na rokah, držala se v grdih pegah obleke, zmešana z možgani je lepela strjena na batu, na cepcu in kolu. . .

Seveda, saj so se bili? Ne, pobijali so.

Morečo željo maščevanja so ohladili v krvi. Sekali, tolkli so že mrtva trupa in vlačili oplenjena v Savo. Radost je bila takrat v srcu, velika divja radost — sladko je bilo maščevanje. A zdaj so se sramovali pred belim dnevom . . . Spustili so kravno orožje v travo, umili so lica z roso in se bližali mrtvim. Tačas so dospele tudi žene z otroki. Položile so otroke v travo in se vlekle s klecajočim kolonom, plašnega pogleda med mrtve . . . Začudeno so gledali otroci za njimi. Čemu spi toliko mož in konj v travi? Kje je atek, zakaj joče mama? . . .

DOPISI

(Nadalevanje iz četete strani) brat Janko N. Rogelj in sobrat John Perko. V sprejemni "deputaciji" je bil tudi urednik Nove Dobe, sobrat A. J. Terbovec. Omenjenega sem imel pri tej prilikli prvič čast videti in osebno spoznati. Moje mnenje je, da je prava sreča za J. S. K. Jednoto, da je v osebi sobrata Terbovec dobila tako dobrega, taktnega in nestrankarskega urednika za svoje glasilo. Urednik nam je pokazal tudi "uredništvo št. 2," kjer je vse kako čisto, domače in "hladično" urejeno, in tako nas je veselilo se seznaniti z izbornim "gradivom." (Pa se pride! Op. urednika.) Naj bo na tem mestu izrečena najlepša zahvala za vso naklonjenost sobratu Perduanu, Perkotu, Rogljiju in Terbovecu. Vsem bo ta obisk Clevelandu gotovo ostal v prijetnem spominu. — Pozdrav!

Jos. Sneler.

Chicago, Ill. Nekateri člani in članice društva Zvon, št. 70 JSKJ se bolj slabu udeležujejo društvenih sej, in tako ne vedo, kaj se na sejih sklepa in ukrepa. Po nezne drugi družega povprašujejo, kaj je bilo to ali ono sklenjeno. Vsi člani naj bi pomnili, da kar se na seji, ki je sklepna, ukrene, velja za vse člane, pa če so na seji navzoči ali ne. Kdor misli, da ima v eni ali drugi zadevi boljše ideje, naj redno prihaja na seje in jih tam predloži članstvu. Če bodo dobre, jih bo večina nedvomno rada vstopovala.

Pred več mesecu je bilo že sklenjeno, da društvo Zvon, št. 70 JSKJ priredi vrtno veselico ali piknik v prijaznem Willow Springsu, na prostoru rojaka Kegel (prej Vidmar). Vstopnine na vrt ni nobene, torej opozarijam v vabim člane, da se polnoštevilno udeležijo te pridelite, kakor tudi, da agitirajo med svojimi prijatelji in jih privedejo s seboj na piknik, da bo prostrani vrt napolnjen. Na dnevnem redu bo več šaljivih, tudi za mladino. Znano je, da je odbor društva Zvon pri vsaki priliki storil vse, kar je bilo v njegovih močeh, da je svoje goste v vseh ozirih postregel in zadovoljil. Tudi to pot bo skušal storiti vse najboljše, da se ne bo mogel nihče pritoževati. Dolžnost članov pa je, da privabijo na piknik kar največ občinstva. Treba je skupno delovati, če hočemo, da se naša društvena blagajna zopet nekaj oidebeli. Vsem je znano, da člani ne plačujejo nikakih društvenih naklad. Izdatke pa ima društvo vedno. Ako torej hočete, da ne bo društvenih naklad, skrbite, da bo udeležba, kar mogoče velika.

Tukajšnji župnik Rev. Bombach je sedaj v šolskih počitnicah zopet začel poučevati naše otroke v čitanju slovenščine. Dosti se piše in gorovi in svede, kako obrzati med nami našo mladino. Dost bo k temu pomagano, ako gledamo in preskrimo, da se naša mladina kolikor mogoče seznaní z našim jezikom. Osebno so mi nameč poznane osebe našega naroda, rojene tukaj, ki bi veliko bolj in hitreje napredovalo v njih poklicu, ako bi bile zmožne našega jezika, katerega sicer površno poznajo, niso ga pa zmožne v toliko, da bi jim mogoči služiti v vseh ozirih pri njih poslu.

Anton Okolish, tajnik dr. št. 44 JSKJ.

Homer City, Pa. Članom in članicam društva sv. Frančiška, št. 122 JSKJ našnjam, da je bilo na redni mesečni seji dne 8. junija sklenjeno, da bodo za dobo šestih mesecev morali plačevati vsi enakopravni člani po 15 centov društvene naklade. Neenakopravni člani bodo plačevali po osem centov, otroci pa po en cent. Ta društvena naklada se prične plačevati z mesecem julijem in ostane v veljavni šest mesecev. Naša blagajna je izčrpana, zato moramo priti zopet do nekoga denarja, da smo pripravljeni za slučaj kakšne nesreče. Veliko naklado v takem slučaju članstvo težko prenese, nekaj centov na mesec pa vsak lažje pogreši, če tudi se bolj slabu dela in zaslubi. Toliko v prijazno obvestilo vse vsem.

Z bratskim pozdravom,

Frank Farenchak, tajnik dr. št. 122 JSKJ.

Monessen, Pa. Na zadnji redni mesečni seji društva Isus Prijatelj Malenih, št. 68 JSKJ je bilo sklenjeno pozvati vse člane tega društva, da se udeležijo prihodnje mesečne seje, ki se bo vršila 13. julija. Kdor se omemnje seje ne udeleži, plača 25 centov v društveno blagajno. Izvzeti so le bolniki in tisti, ki morajo delati. Dalje je bilo sklenjeno, da prispeva vsak enakopravni član društveno naklado v znesku enega dolarja, in sicer se plača predsednik dr. Zvon, št. 70 J. S. K. J.

P. S. Članom Športnega kluba naznjam, da se vrši prihodnja seja 30. junija ob osmi uri zvečer pri sobratu W. B. Laurichu. Želim, da bi bili vsi člani navzoči, ker bo na dnevnem redu več važnih zadev. John Zvezich.

50 centov v juliju, 50 centov pa v avgustu. Neenakopravni člani pa plačajo 25 centov društvene naklade. Blagajna je skoro prazna, zato je potrebna ta društvena naklada. Toliko v obvestilo vsem.

Z bratskim pozdravom, Andro Matko, tajnik dr. št. 68 JSKJ.
