Kruh in voda

Slavni preučevalec zgodovine religij, Mircea Eliade, je zapisal: »Kruh in voda v mnogih kulturnah in verskih sistemih nista nikoli le jed in pijača, ampak sta znamenji skupnosti; nikoli nista le telesna hrana, ampak tudi duhovna.« Dejansko tudi danes na gostijah drug druge mu izražamo npr. poročno veselje ljubezni ali začetka novega življenja, rojstva. Pri mnogih narodih od Skandinavije do arabskih dežel se pogrebni obred konča s pogostitvijo »žalovanja«. Z obedom se lahko okrepi prijateljstvo, se utrdijo delovne stiki, se obhajajo uradne ceremonije. Današnja liturgija se giblje prav v tem simboličnem ozračju.

Prvi glas je glas brezimnega preroka iz VI. stoletja pred Kristusom, čigar delo je prišlo v Izajievo knjigo. Zaradi tega so ga strokovnjaki po dogovoru imenovali Drugi Izaija. Njegov klic je oblikovan po klicih prodajalcev vode in potujočih trgovcev s poljščinami, pogosto navzočih na trgih na Vzhodu. Toda ton povabila se občutno spremeni zaradi vztrajnega prerokovega poudarjanja, da sta hrana in pijača zastonj.

Vode postanejo tako znamenje življenja, svobode in (Svetega) Duha, kar vse Gospod daje izgnancem, ki zopet najdejo v na novo zgrajenem jeruzalemskem templju vir žive vode.

Vino in mleko sta znamenji rodovitnosti obljudljene dežele, ki je vrnjena Izraelcem po babilonski sužnosti. Kruh je osnovna življenjska hrana, obilne jedi pa spominjajo na mesijansko pojedino, ki jo opeva prerok: »Gospod nad vojskami bo namreč na tej gori pripravil vsem ljudstvu gostijo s sočnimi jedmi, gostijo z žlahtnimi vini, s sočnimi in mozagatimi jedmi, s prečiščenimi žlahtnimi vini« (Iz 25, 6). Klic Drugega Izai- ja je torej povzemajoči znak življenja v novem in popolnem Jeruzalemu, ko bosta Bog in človek dosegla najvišjo stopnjo povezanosti. V Razodetju namreč piše: »Kdor je žejen, naj pride. Kdor hoče, naj zastonj zajame vodo življenja.«

Tema jedi se nadaljuje tudi v spevu z odpevom. Vsa bitja odpro svoje oči proti Bogu, polna pričakovanja, lakote, žeje, hrepenenja in ti, Gospod, jim daješ hrano, odpiraš svojo roko in nasištiš vsa bitja« (prim. Ps 144). Ta psalm je zadnji »sestavek« po abecednem redu in preko igre abecede poveličuje nežnost božjega srca, očeta in pastirja. V Psalmu 104 najdemo zelo lep izraz: »Vsa ta bitja čakajo nate, da jim daš hrano ob pravem času: daješ jim, pobirajo, odpreš svojo roko, nasičena so z dobrinami«. Hrana je torej znamenje očetovske ljubeče previdnosti, s katero Bog objema svoja ustvarjena bitja.

Največja simbolična vrednost jedi je v pripovedi o pomnožitvi kruha, o čemer smo brali v današnjem evangeliju. Pomembnost dogodka je podkrepljena tudi z dejstvom, da je zapisana v šestih verzijah (po dve pri Mateju in Marku, po ena pri Luku oziroma Janezu). V ozadju konkretno pripovedi o podarjenem kruhu so namigi na mano v puščavi, na mesijanski obed ter na samo evharistično slavje. Dejansko je pomnožitev kruha, ki jo je naredil Jezus, opisana upoštevaje sosledje dejanj zadnje večerje: »Povzdignil je oči k nebu, blagoslovil, kruh razlomil in (jim) ga dal.« V Matejevih očeh postane miza v puščavi predhodnica evharistične večerje. Sedaj sta Kristusovo telo v jedi (v kruhu) in njegova kri v pijači najvišje znamenje edinstva z lačnim in žejnim človeštvtom.

Jezus, ki obhaja z nami evharistijo, nas zbira pri dnevni evharistiji, da bi nas naučil, kako naj delamo čudežev v njegovem imenu. Pripravnost, da delimo svoj čas, svoje talente, je edini pogoj. Lačni čakajo, da bo iz našega srca padla čudežno pomnožena dobrota, ki bo okreplila njihovo dobroto.

Prim. Oznanjevalec 2005)

18TH SUNDAY IN OT

Response: You open your hand to feed us, Lord, and satisfy our needs.

First Reading Isaiah 55:1-3

The Lord invites us to come to him and our soul will live.

Second Reading Romans 8:35. 37-39

Nothing can ever come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ.

Gospel Matthew 14:13-21

Jesus feeds all those who come to him abundantly.

“There is no need for them to go: give them something to eat yourselves.”

Illustration

Films often turn to meals as a means of communicating both human warmth and family divisions. Some are outrageous, for example the custard pie fight to end all pie fights in The Great Race. Pope Francis' favourite is Babette's Feast, a deceptively simple tale adapted in 1987 from a story by Karen Blixen. The setting is a severe Calvinistic isolated community on the coast of Denmark, presided over by its pastor with the help of his two spinster daughters. Any pleasure is frowned upon, but the daughters dutifully provide regular if plain meals for the community's sick and housebound people.

Into their midst comes a French refugee, Babette, fleeing the violence of Paris in the 1870 uprising. She is received with great caution and suspicion but happily takes over the responsibility of feeding those who are needy. After a long time among them she receives a letter, taking her away back to France, and the old people find themselves glumly back to the ministrations of the two daughters. However, Babette returns, laden down with food and drink for a very special feast to which all are invited. The people debate whether to come or not, but on hearing that the lord of the manor will be attending, they all eventually turn up. What happens then is a transformation that may be likened to the Eucharist. The meal transforms their surly differences into a discovery of joy in each other and a sense of community, and the film ends with the diners threading their way through the streets under a starlit sky, beatific smiles upon their faces.

Gospel Teaching

Jesus teaches and heals, but he also feeds those who come to him. The feeding is both metaphorical, in the sense that he feeds his listeners with the word of God, but he also feeds the crowds that come to him in a real way, providing them with more than enough food for their needs. Why does he do this? It is as though he is both looking back and looking forward. He looks back to the way God fed the people in the Old Testament, especially with the manna in the desert, when again there was more than enough for the people's needs. Jesus is taking over the role as the one who provides for us in abundance.

Looking forward, he is anticipating the time when he will no longer be with us in the flesh but will continue to feed us. The final act he performs with his disciples is to eat with them at the Last Supper and he leaves them with the instruction to repeat that action in memory of him. That action is not so much to remember the Last Supper. It is the bloodless way of remembering and making present the sacrifice that Jesus makes through his death on the cross. But that, too, is not the end of the story, for among his risen appearances to his disciples we find him revealing his presence through the breaking of the bread as he journeys with them to Emmaus and he also feeds them once again after a night of fruitless fishing. It is as though he wants to reinforce his message that he is the food of life and it is in coming to receive him that we are transformed from our sinfulness into other Christs.

Application

Sacraments affect our lives in two ways. Firstly they ask us to focus on an action and instruction of Jesus that helps us enter the mystery of his living presence among us. They go beyond words and lead us through their symbols into the divine life itself. However, sacraments also have the complementary effect of taking the ordinary events of our life they are based on into a different dimension. Not only do we appreciate the Eucharist as making Christ present within us, we appreciate how each time we gather to eat and drink with each other in our ordinary lives we express and open ourselves to that same presence. There is a flow from the earthly symbols, the bread and wine, the oils and water, into their sacred expression of Christ's presence, but then they flow back into their earthly realities, the bread and wine we share together on a daily basis and make them, too, moments of Christ's presence. The Church likes to speak of the whole world as a sacrament and then of Christ as the sacrament of the world. Hence the transformative effect of Babette's Feast.

Proščenje pri društvu Bled

V nedeljo, 26. julija 2020, na god svete Ane, smo se zopet zbrali - v glavnem člani društva Bled - najprej pri obhajanju svete maše, nato pa še pri družabnem praznovanju ob dobri postrežbi iz kuhinje in bara. Svetu mašo smo imeli malo pred eno uro popoldne, pod nadstreškom, ker je sonce kar pošteno grelo, pri kapelici pa zaenkrat ni kake naravne sence. Ana je njene pomočnice so poskrbele, da je bilo vse pripravljeno za sveto mašo, tudi kipa Marije je kot vedno imel posebno stojalo ob oltarju. Vsi so se držali pravil, ki so predpisana za Covid 19. Vmes pa smo zapeli in prisluhnili božji besedi. Ob koncu maše smo se ob pesmi Je angel Gospodov v procesiji podali do kapelice in tja prenesli tudi kip Marije.

Potem pa so vsi pohiteli do kuhinjskega okna, kjer so si kupili kosilo. Nekateri so se po maši in potem, ko so si preskrbeli svojo porcijsko, podali k svojim »vikendom« in tam nadaljevali popoldne, drugi pa so se usedli k mizam.

Tokrat ni bilo žive glasbe, je pa v ozadju le igrala slovenska glasba, obiskovalci pa so imeli priložnost, da so pokramljali. Otroci in mlajši pa so uživali v bazenu, ki je v bližini.

Hvala vodstvu društva Bled za organizacijo lepega popoldneva.

OBVESTILA - ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAROVI - DONATIONS

Na sestanku odbora slovenskega Društva sv. Jožefa so se zopet dogovorili, da darujejo $1000 za potrebe naše župnije. Iskrena hvala za njihov dar.

Za gradbeni sklad so darovali:

- $300 Štefan in Monika Gašpar namesto rož na grob Ivana Cimermančič.
- $100 Frank in Laura Pinter v spomin na pokojnega Martina Simončič.

Hvala za vaše darove. Bog vam bodi bogat plačnik.

PRVI PETEK

Ta teden je prvi petek v avgustu. Zvečer ob 6h bo priložnost za sveto spoved, molitev pred najsvetejšim ob 7h pa kot običajno, sveta maša.

SLOVENSKI PARK

Maša, 2. avgusta 2020 ob 1:00 popoldne. Če bo le vreme dopuščalo, se bomo zbrali pri kapelici v parku. Sveta maša se vedno daruje za vse pokojne člane društva Slovenski park. Tokrat se bomo še posebej spomnili pokojnega Ivana Cimermančiča, ki je tako na hitro odšel od nas. Kot veste je vse praznovanje na parku še vedno omejeno samo na člane parka.

Vse ostale informacije pa si poglejte na plakatih, ki so jih vam poslali tako ali drugače. Se vidimo v nedeljo v parku. Naj nam situacija v kateri smo, ne vzame veselja in zaupanja.

SV. BIRMA IN PRVO SV. OBHAJILO

Počitnice tečejo naprej, v precej spremenjeni obliki, glede na prejšnja leta. Letos je zaradi Covid-19 odpadla birma, ki bi morala biti konec marca. Čakamo, da nam škofija pošlje nov datum. Verjetno tam nekje jeseni, če se stvari ne bodo spremenile.

Prav tako je odpadlo prvo sveto obhajilo, ki je običajno zadnjo nedeljo v maju. Bomo počakali, da se začne septembra šolsko leto, potem pa bomo določili nedeljo za prvo obhajilo.

VRATA NA NAŠE PARKIRIŠČE

Železna vrata, ki zapirajo vhod na naše parkirišče iz Centennial Pkwy ceste so v zadnjem času postajala čedalje bolj zarjavela in niso dajala nič kaj lepo sliko od naši parceli. Zato smo jih letos očistili rje in na novo prebarvali. Mirku je vzelo kar nekaj dni, da so sedaj vrata zopet lepa in prenovljena.
