JEDNOTE FILMSKE SLIKE

Naš sobrat Joe Zortz, vodja atletike, ima okrog tri tisoč čevljev različnih Jednotnih filmskih slik, deloma v navadni črni barvi, pa tudi nekaj naravno ali večbarvnih.

Najdaljša slika nam kaže veliko slavnost Jednote 45-letnice in otvoritve novega Jednotinega doma v Jolietu, potem so na razpolago slike naših kegljaških tekem v Milwaukee, Waukeganu, Clevelandu in Lorainu in številne druge slike.

Brat Zortz pošlje rad brezplačno na zahtevo te slike, samo stroj (projector) si morate sami omisliti in pa operatorja, ako hočete slike predstavljati, ekspresne stroške naj bi tudi društvo plačalo na obe strani.

Zdaj, ko bo kmalu nastopila jesen, za njo pa zima, bi lahko osobito naša večja društva po redni mesečni seji kazala te slike, kar bo članstvo gotovo zanimalo.

Pišite torej bratu Joe Zortzu, 1045 Wadsworth Ave., North Chicago, Ill., za nadaljne informacije.

Predsednik Roosevelt pro- glasil dan molitve

Hyde Park, N. Y., 8. avgusta.
—Ker je senator Guy M. Gillette iz Iowe dne 5. avgusta v senatski zbornici vložil resolucijo, v kateri se prosi predsednika Roosevelta, da naj določi dan splošne molitve v naši deželi, je predsednik danes izdal tozadevno proklamacijo in določil drugo nedeljo, 8. septembra (praznik Malega Šmarna) v ta namen. Predsednikov razglas se glasi sledeče:

"Kot velika družina med svetovnimi narodi, smo skušali vse, da bi odvrnili vojno in dvignili smo svoj glas proti mednarodni nepravilnosti. Kot Amerikanci in kot ljubitelji svobode, globoko sočustvujemo z onimi preko morja, ki danes trpe. Ko dobivamo zdaj dan za dnem poročila o trpljenju in grozotah preko morja, se zavedamo o moči Božanstva in vemo, da smo odvisni od vodstva božje milosti. Zato pa moramo v časih, kot so ti, moliti k Bogu Vsemogočnemu za njegov blagoslov naši deželi ter za ustvaritev pravičnega in trajnega miru med vsemi svetovnimi narodi.

"Zato jaz, Franklin D. Roosevelt, predsednik Združenih držav proglašam nedeljo, 8. septembra, 1940 kot dan molitve ter pozivljem narod Združenih držav, da na ta dan molijo v svojih cerkvah ali na svojih domovih, na visokih morjih ali kjerkoli bi bil ter prosijo Vodnika vesoljstva, da blagoslovi našo deželo ter da bomo hvaležni za to našo dediščino in odločni v nje obrambi, ter da podeli tej deželi in vsemu svetu trajen mir."

SV. MAŠA PO TELEVIZIJI

Los Angeles, Calif. — Letos, dne 13. oktobra bomo obhajali 100-letnico nadškofije v Kaliforniji in sicer s slovesno sv. mašo v tukajšnjem kolizeju, kjer bo imel slovesno pridigo Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, ravnatelj Katoliške univerze v Ameriki.

NAJDRŽAJA ZNAMKA NA SVETU PRODAVA

New York, N. Y. — Kakor filatelistom, ali nabiralcem poštinih znamk znano, je najdražja in edina znamka na svetu 1 centne znamka Britanske Gviljane iz leta 1856. Te dni je tukajšnja veletvrdka R. H. Macy & Co. to znamko kupnim potom pridobila od Mrs. Anna Hind Scala v Utici, N. Y. Kdo jo je kupil, se ne ve. Srečna lastnica je dobila za to dragoceno znamko nekaj nad $40,000. NEWBURŠKA CERKVENA SLAVNOST

V naši newburški naselbini so minulo nedeljo, 11. avgusta obhajali dvojno slavnost, prvič cerkveno žegnanje, v glavnem pa blagoslovljenje dozidane nove cerkve, kar je izvršil pomožni škof Most Rev. McFadden ob navzočnosti 22 duhovnikov. Vreme je bilo prekrasno in vsa naselbina je bila praznično razpoložena. Vsled pomankanja prostora v današnji izdaji, priobčimo bolj obširno poročilo o tej slavnosti prihodnjic.

Nova maša v Newburgu

Cleveland (Newburg), O. — Priprave so v teku za slovesno sv. mašo v naši slovenski cerkvi sv. Lovrenca, katero bo obnovil 18. avgusta Rev. Gabriel Rus. Father Rus je bil posvečen lansko leto v Švici. Od tedaj naprej je nadaljeval svoje študije do maja meseca letos. Ko je bila ladja, na kateri je prihajal Father Rus nazaj v Ameriko, že na visokem morju, je bila skoraj torpedirana od nekih hajdukov. Končno je dospel srečno na ameriško obrežje in se podal v Dayton na duhovne vaje. Father Rus je namreč marianist in ti imajo svoj glavni stan v Dayton, O. Te dni je prišel v Cleveland, kjer živijo Rusovi na Rosewood Ave.

Rev. Gabriel Rus je bil rojen dne 8. januarja, 1910 na Bledu. Njegova mati Nežika, rojena Simončič, ga je še kot deteta vzela seboj v Cleveland, O., kamor ju je poklical oče Gabriel.

Mladi Gabriel je dovršil faro šolo sv. Lovrenca, potem pa Cathedral Latin višjo šolo in leta 1927 je vstopil v red marianistov v Dayton, O., ki so ga poslali na sloveči univerzo v Fribourg, Švica, študirat bogoslovje. V mašnika je bil ondi posvečen 25. julija, 1939 in dne 6. avgusta lanskega leta je pel novo mašo na Bledu ob navzočnosti ljubljanskega škofa dr. Gregorij Rožmana, številne duhovščine, svojih staršev in mnogih sorodnikov. Te nove maše se je udeležil tudi naš clevelandski rojak Mr. Frank Jakšič s svojo soprogo, tako tudi Mr. Mr. August Kollander in Mr. Leo Zakrajšek, slednji iz New Yorka. Novomašnik bod' pozdravljen!

SE ENA NOVA MAŠA NEWBURŠKEGA ROJAKA

V nedeljo, dne 28. julija, je bil v Fribourgu v Švici posvečen v mašnika Rev. Joseph Lekan, sin dobro poznane in spoštovane družine Lekanove iz 81. ceste v Newburgu. Škoda, da so sedanje težke razmere preprečile navzočnost katerih domačih pri posvečenju. Ker niso mogli iti tja čez, so se zbrali vsi domači, najprej v cerkvi, kjer se je darovala velika maša za družino, pri kateri so tudi vsi prejeli sv. obhajilo, potem pa so se podali na dom staršev, kjer so na tih pa lep način praznovali ta veliki in srečni dan.

Naše iskrene čestitke zlasti staršem. Če Bog da, čez eno leto, ko Father Lekan pride nazaj v Ameriko, bomo pa praznovali vsi skupaj; cela fara se bo odzvala in počastila svojega sina, ki pride kot mašnik nazaj.

Mobilizacija narod. garde

Washington, D. C., 8. avgusta. — Po vroči tridnevni debati je danes senatska zbornica z 71 glasovi proti 7 sprejela predlog, po kateri bo predsedniku Rooseveltu dana pravica mobilizirati narodno gardo in rezervno armado. Po tej postavi bo imel predsednik pravico vpoklicati za enoletno vojaško službo 360,000 mož. Ta predloga je bila takoj poslana v poslansko zbornico, ki jo bo najbrže tudi zelo naglo sprejela.

Predloga je bila sprejeta malo po 5. uri popoldne in s tem so doživeli občuten poraz oni narodni zastopniki, ki nasprotujejo obvezni vojaški službi in ki se zavzemajo za izolacijo Združenih držav.

Danes se bo v senatni zbornici pričela debata o obvezni vojaški službi za mladeniče v starosti od 21. do 31. leta.

Predno pa je bila mobilizacijska predloga sprejeta, je bil sprejet amandament, po katerem je dovoljeno onim narodnim gardistom in armadnim rezervistom, ki imajo družine, izstopiti iz vojaške službe.

S tem, da je senat sprejel mobilizacijsko predlogo, je predsednik dosegel veliko zmago, kajti sedaj bo imel pravico poslati vojaštvo v katerikoli del zapadne poloble, kjer imajo Združene države svoje posesti, ako bi se mu zdelo potrebno.

Kadar bo ta predloga sprejeta tudi v poslanski zbornici in bo postala postava, tedaj nameravajo vojaške oblasti takoj poklicati pod zastavo 59,400 mož narodne garde.

RADIKALCI IZKLJUČENI IZ UNIJ

New York. — Šest delavskih unij, spadajočih k A. F. of L. je zadnji čas sprejelo točko v svojo ustavo in pravila, da ne more biti noben komunist, nazijec ali fašist član te organizacije. Navedene unije, ki štejejo nekaj nad 20,000 članov so te dni že 18 radikalcev izključile.

NEMCI OBSTRELJUJEJO ANGLEŠKO OBREŽJE

LONDON, Anglija, 14. avgusta. — Prava "bliskovit" vojna med Nemčijo in Anglijo se je šele sedaj pričela. Nemška letala že četrti dan mečejo bombe na istočno obrežje Anglije v razdalji 300 milj. Tega napada se dnevno udeleži do 400 nemških bombnikov, vstevši tudi nekaj italijanskih, bombardiranje traja noč in dan.

V najbližnji bližini s francoske strani v Rokavskem zalivu streljajo Nemci tudi s svojimi novimi velikimi "Bertami," kakor so to vršili v minuli svetovni vojni; ti topovi mečejo izstrelke do 60 kilometrov daljave.

Nemci skušajo poškovati pomorske baze letališča, pristanišča in obalne obrambe.

Tukajšnje časopise svari in poziva ljudstvo, naj bo pripravljeno na vse, kajti vojna z Anglijo se je sedaj pričela.

Angleži so takoj prvi dan izstrelili 65 nemških letal, svojih so pa izgubili 13.

V kratkem se pričakuje odločilne zmage.

KAJ SE BO VPRAŠALO OB REGISTRACIJI INOZEMCEV

Priobčeno po naročilu:
ALIEN REGISTRATION DIVISION
IMMIGRATION AND NATURALIZATION SERVICE
DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Earl G. Harrison, ravnatelj za registracijo inozemcev v justičnem departamentu, je objavil petnajstoro vprašanj, na katere bodo morali inozemci odgovoriti ob registraciji, ki se bo širom vse dežele začela 27. avgusta in končala 26. decembra 1940.

Vzorčne tiskovine, ki vsebujejo teh 15 vprašanj in navodila o registraciji, bodo na razpolago v vseh poštinih uradih en ali dva tedna pred dnem 27. avgusta, ko začne registracijski rok. Te vzorčne tiskovine niso one tiskovine, ki se bodo dejansko rabile ob registraciji, iz njih pa je razvidno, na kaka vprašanja bo moral inozemec odgovoriti, ko se registrira.

"Vsak inozemec," poudarja Mr. Harrison v svoji izjavi, "naj si priskrbi iztis te vzorčne tiskovine, da jo dobro prouči in izpolni doma. Izpolnjeno vzorčno tiskovino naj prinese s seboj, ko se v poštinem uradu prijavi za registracijo. To olajša in pospeši registracijo. Ako je inozemec že napisal svoje odgovore, bo mogel hitro dati poštarju zahtevane informacije, biti zaprišežen in prstotiskan."

"Naj se dobro pazi, da se na vsa vprašanja resnično odgovori," je Mr. Harrison tudi posvaril. "Ako nimate potrebnih informacij, vprašajte svoje sorodnike, prijatelje ali kako socialno agencijo oziroma vsako drugo zanesljivo poizvedovalnico, pa tudi prebrskajte po listinah ali zapisih, ki jih morda imate kje shranjene. Zakon o registraciji inozemcev določa stroge kazni za vsakega inozemca, ki ob registraciji pove nekaj, kar ve, da ni res. Tak inozemec utegne biti kaznovan z globo od $1,000, ali z šestmesečnim zaporom oziroma z obojim. Nadalje mora biti vsak inozemec, ki bi bil tak kaznovan tekom petih let po svojem vstopu v Združene države, deportiran."

"Naj se ne-državljeni ne bojijo registracije," nadaljuje Mr. Harrison. "Zavedati se morajo, da je stvar namenjena za varstvo dežele, ki je mnogim izmed njih dala zavetje pred zatiranjem; dežele, ki jim je dala fizično varnost in priliko do služke. In tudi upam, da bodo imeli vzrok vpoštevati razliko med duhom in načinom registracije tukaj, in onim, ki bi obveljal drugod. V nekaterih deželah, ako ste inozemec, bi se vam ukazalo, da se registrirate na policiji, ne pa v Združenih državah! V tej deželi se boste registrirali v poštinem uradu. Vlada potem svojih poštinih uradov vam bo šla na roko, kolikor more. Nikdo pa — razun ako nima še 14 let — ne more registrirati oziroma oddati prstni odtis za drugega. Niti ni treba plačati nikakoli osebni oziroma skupini, da vam pomaga ob registraciji. Registracija je povsem brezplačna."

"Zdi se, da se nekateri inozemci bojijo, da bi se informacije, dane ob registraciji, utegnile uporabiti njim na škodo v gospodarskem pogledu. Hočem zopet zagotoviti inozemcem v tem pogledu. Zakon določa, da se vsi zapisi registracije morajo držati tajno in zaupno. Ta določba velja od trenutka, ko se podajo informacije ob registraciji v poštinem uradu. Nikdo ne sme imeti vpogleda v te zapise brez izrecnega dovoljenja generalnega pravdnika Združenih držav. V kolikor je mogoče, se bo registracija vršila v privatnih pisarnah poštne urada, mesto v javnih poštinih dvoranh. Poštarji bodo sprejemali registracijske informacije v najstrožji tajnosti, kakor to zakon veleval, in ne bodo izpraševali oziroma preiskovali one, ki se registrirajo."

MEETING NOTICE

Joliet, Ill. — The next meeting of St. John the Baptist Society, No. 143, will be held Monday, August 19, at 7:30 p. m. in the old school hall in stead of Sunday, Aug. 18, due to the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Holy Family society.

All members are asked to come to this meeting, and members who are in arrears are requested to pay their dues as soon as possible or be suspended according to the by-laws.

Holy Family Society, No. 1, is celebrating its 25th anniversary Sunday August 18, with a High Mass at 10 o'clock. All our members are asked to be present and pay respects to the Holy Family Society by attending in a body the parade at 9:15 a. m.

Frank Buchar, Sec'y.

CLASSY JERSEYS

Girard, O. — What do you think of our ball jerseys? They certainly look nifty, and the lettering — St. Pat's Booster with the KSKJ emblem — just can't be beat. Our mascot John Cigolle Jr. is up and around again after having his appendix removed.

PROTEST GAME

Received too late to be included in the last issue was a notice from Stephen Cerne, president of the Lorain Booster Club.

The communication stated that the St. Vitus - Lorain C. and M. game, played August 4 in Cleveland, has been protested by Lorain and details have been presented to the Arbitration Board.

GOVERNOR STASSEN, PREXY GERM TO HIGHLIGHT SPEAKERS PROGRAM AT EVELETH KAY JAY PICNIC

Eveleth, Minn. — Plans and preparations for the huge K. S. K. J. picnic, which will be held at the Eveleth lake park on Sunday, August 18, with Governor Harold E. Stassen as a featured speaker, are progressing rapidly and the event is expected to be an outstanding success. Peter Mourine has been named as the general arrangements chairman, while Lewis Intihar is the secretary and Edward Bayuk will act as the master of ceremonies.

Harold E. Stassen, Governor of Minnesota

Among the guests will be Supreme President John Germ, of Pueblo, Colo.; Supreme Officers Frank Gospodarich and Louis Zeleznikar of Joliet, Ill.; and Frank Lokar of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The parking committee consists of Frank Kausek, chairman, Pete Gregorich, Frank Peric, L. Strahan, Louis Lushene, A. Pugel, Geo. Krall.

HAYDU, GORENC HOMER BUT LORAIN TRIPS GIRARD IN CLOSE GAME

Girard, O. — The local St. Pats waited for the Lorain team last Sunday until after 3 p. m. and thought they finally won a game on forfeit, but alas Lorain showed up and with them they brought the most spirited and liked team ever to appear in Girard.

The game was a tough one for both teams. Lorain started the fifth inning with three runs, then two more in the sixth. Then the St. Pat's really put it on—seven runs in their half of the sixth—and were in the game to stay. No more games are to be given away by Girard.

Both teams showed splendid sportsmanship. They worked and worked all the way. There was no slacking by anyone. Both pitchers were in to win, and only one won—Ursic, a great fellow. A great deal of praise goes to E. Umeck who also worked and worked hard. Honors go to both Haydu and Gorenc who blasted the ball out of the park for home runs for Girard.

We want to thank the spectators for the fine backing they gave their teams. With that spirit, KSKJ will go on and on to a bigger and better organization with sportsmanship shown by one and all.

We also want to thank Mr. and Mrs. Gorenc for the very delicious refreshments they brought to two very thirsty teams.

and a variety of athletic events have been billed. The Junior ZAZ drill team will parade at the picnic grounds.

Mr. Bayuk has also been named as chairman of the reception committee which includes John Pouchnik, Joseph Intihar, Sr., Martin Shukle, Sr., and George Brince, while the refreshment committee, headed by Peter Krall and John Debelak as co-chairman, includes the following: Tony Udovich, Peter Krall, John Benchina, Matt Jerina, Jerry Bezlay, Frank Jaksa, and Anton Oswald.

Joseph Intihar, Sr., is the chairman of the grounds committee which consists of Louis J. Lessar, Joseph Kovach, Frank Gornick, Joseph Intihar, Jr., Rudolph Intihar, John Hobyan, and Frank Laurich, while Joseph Primozich is the chairman of the sports committee and is being assisted by John Poznik, Louis Perushek, Louis Urbiha, William Brank, and Frank Miroslavich.

The finance committee consists of John Hobyan, Sr., as chairman and Frank Intihar, Sr., while John Shukle and John Hegler, Jr., make up the publicity unit. Frank Kvaternik, chairman, John Oven, Carl Gornik and Anne Kvaternik are in charge of the tickets, while Louis Lushene is chairman of the pop and ice cream group, and John Primozich, chairman, Joe Postudensek, Matt Miller, Jr., Frank Peric, Frank Kochevar, and John Hobyan, Jr., make up the lunch committee.—J. FISH FRY Strabane, Pa. — All local KSKJ members and friends are invited to the Fish Fry to be given August 16 by St. Jerome's Lodge, No. 153, in the St. Jerome Home. Ocean pike will be on the menu. Refreshments will also be served.

JOLIET KEGLERS TO CONFAB FOR LEAGUE SET-UP

Joliet, Ill. — The Joliet KSKJ bowlers will meet Tuesday, August 20 at 8 p. m. in the KSKJ Bldg. to discuss plans for the coming bowling season.

According to present indications a ten team league will be formed to bowl at the Rivals' Club alleys on Thursday nights at 9 p. m.

All those interested in bowling are asked to be present at this meeting.

MAGIC CITY CADETS SEEK MEMBERS

Barberton, O. — St. Mary's Cadets, KSKJ No. 111, are campaigning for more new members. Any girl that is over 16 and a member of the lodge is eligible to join the team. Young married women are also eligible.

Girls who are interested may come to our monthly meeting which will be held on August 20 at the Domovina Hall, at 2 p. m.

The August meeting will be important so all our sister cadets are requested to attend.

Ann Otonicar.

ST. VITUS BOOSTERS SWAMP JOES, 15-6

Cleveland, O. — Last Sunday there were two undefeated softball teams in the Ohio K. S. K. J. League, and now there is one, St. Vitus Boosters triumphed over St. Joseph's of Collinwood by a score of 15 to 6.

The game progressed rapidly, due to the co-operation of both teams, especially the Joes. Tony Valencic pitched and hit a homer with two on in the first inning for the Boosters, and Mismas homered in the third.

The climax came in the sixth when the Boosters pushed across six runs. "Boogey" Dolenc starred for the losers, driving in five runs with a circuit swat and two singles. Hra-star of St. Joes made some really good catches in the field.

St. Vitus plays its next game Sunday, August 18, with Barberton at Gordon No. 6 at 2 o'clock. The following week, August 25, St. Vitus draws a bye. They play at Girard September 1 and finish up the season at Lorain on September 8.

CUKJATI TWIRLS ONE-HITTER AS MILWAUKEE JOES SWAMP OPPOSITION

Milwaukee, Wis. — After a two week vacation during which they won one game on a forfeit and postponed one game due to the Holy Name picnic, St. John's walloping aggregation of diamond stars easily defeated the chips A. C. in the "rubber game" of the three game series by a score of 9-0. The star of the fray was Joe (Smokeball) Cukjati who limited the opposition to one hit and fanned 14 enemy "sluggers" in seven innings.

From the Saints' point of view it was the best game of the season. The pitching and hitting were excellent and I'm sure that the fielding would have been just as good if Cukjati would have given the boys a chance. As it was, only 8 balls were hit past the catcher and Smokey fielded four of them himself. The lone hit was the only ball to leave the infield and that would have been prevented if the ball hadn't taken a bad hop.

Joe (Smokeball) Cukjati

Cukjati also hung up the unique record of striking out four men in one inning. The first man up in the fifth for the Chips missed a third strike and the ball got away from Schimenz, St. John catcher, letting the man reach first. Smokey then got hot and served up nine strikes to the next three batters.

The second brightest star was Lud Krosi, the reformed pitcher, who is now the team's star flyhawk. Lud drove in four runs with his triple and two singles and boosted his season average to an even .500 to tie for the team batting lead with John Schimenz. Joe Potochnik's .421 average comes next, followed by Al Mozina's .417. Frank Primozich, the other member of the big 5 is clipping the hose at a .367 clip.

This Sunday the boys are traveling to So. Chicago to avenge the defeat handed them earlier in the season by the Liberty Boosters.

THIS IS IT

The Glasilo KSKJ is primarily the official organ of the KSKJ, and as such it serves as a record of the proceedings of the Union. Its main function is to publish records and official notices.

As for other activity, it is said that the main attraction is that of the news published in Our Page. This is evidence that the young people of the organization are active in their support of the Union. This news is available to readers because the Our Page has the good fortune of having dependable reporters who write in an interesting, informative, and sometimes in an entertaining style.

So, here's the formula for an interesting section: Activity, activity, and more activity, and have someone to report it. There should be other things to write about other than notifying members of a meeting and urging them to pay assessments.

TEACHING IN THE COLLEGE OF HARD-KNOCKS

"Sooner or later a man, if he is wise, discovers that business life is a mixture of good days and bad, victory and defeat, give and take," observes Wilfred A. Peterson, in the Washington Review.

"He learns that it doesn't pay to be a sensitive soul—that he should let some things go over his head like water off a duck's back. He learns that he who loses his temper usually loses out. He learns that all men have burnt toast for breakfast now and then and that he shouldn't take the other fellow's grouch too seriously . . .

"He learns that most of the other fellows are as ambitious as he is, that they have brains that are as good or better, and that hard work and not cleverness is the secret of success. . . . He learns to sympathize with the youngster coming into the business, because he remembers how bewildered he was when he first started out.

"He learns not to worry when he loses an order because experience has shown that if he always gives his best his average will break pretty well. He learns that no man ever got to first base alone and that it is only through co-operative effort that we move on to better things . . . He learns that the folks are not any harder to get along with in one place than another and that the 'getting along' depends about 98 per cent on his own behavior."

THANK YOU

St. Louis, Mo. — The annual picnic of Sacred Heart Society, No. 70, is now history, but pleasant memories of it linger on.

I hereby thank all members of our lodge who helped make it such a grand success.

Our next regular meeting will be held Sunday, August 18 at 2 p. m. The committee has promised us some good refreshments after the meeting so come one and all.

August Prebil, Pres.

It's a world of change. Everything is on the move. This means there is no such thing as getting set and staying set. The man who thinks so will be upset.

HEALTH'S ARISTOCRACY

Do your health manners include you among the aristocracy of health? Dr. J. Clarence Funk in Hygeia lists the following polite practices:

1. Breathe plenty of fresh air day and night.
2. Obtain sufficient rest in every twenty-four hours.
3. Eat food of all kinds in sufficient quantities—not too much or too little.
4. Stay clear of drugs always, unless a physician prescribes them.
5. Take adequate exercise daily.
6. Keep the alimentary system regular.
7. Drink plenty of water.
8. Avoid the excessive use of stimulants.
9. Eliminate all devitalizing habits.
10. Work and play, but never to the breaking point with either.
11. Obtain a physical examination by a reputable physician annually and make semi-annual visits to the dentist.
12. Don't worry needlessly.

CLEVELAND VISITORS

Cleveland, O.—Among the visitors here last week were Mr. and Mrs. August C. Verbie, daughters Virginia and Bernardine, and son Richard, of Aurora, Ill. The visitors motored and were enroute home after touring Canada, New York and Pennsylvania. Mr. Verbie is secretary of Lodge No. 11.

What Kind of Apostolate?

Having considered the ultimate and immediate goals of Catholic Action we now return to a more detailed examination of its definition. Since Catholic Action is above all an apostolate which means a 'mission,' it is supremely important for us to know who is sending us and what is our commission.

Any kind of apostolate in the church will of course be a "mission for the spiritual salvation of our neighbor." Hence it is peculiar to the apostolate to save the souls of others. In fact, he saves his own soul by saving the souls of others.

Furthermore—no apostolate is easy. To conquer souls for Christ means going after them, searching them out and working on them. The Catholic who confines himself to the business of his own souls has no more right to the title of "apostolate" than would the Twelve had they remained behind closed doors in the Upper Room after the descent of the Holy Ghost. So much for any apostolate. The apostolate must save the souls of others and he must labor and toil at that task.

Now we know that the twelve disciples and their successors, the popes and bishops, are the properly so-called and true apostles. They were commissioned directly by Christ to teach, govern, and sanctify all men. Hence if these tasks are undertaken by the laity it will always be as helpers or appointees of the Catholic bishops.

Such a lay apostolate has always existed in the Church. Side by side with the clergy and religious have labored the faithful and they continue to do so today. Any help of this kind has ever been approved, appreciated and praised by the hierarchy.

What is new about the modern apostolate is Catholic Action. Never before has the laity been organized and commissioned on such a universal scale to take its place beside the clergy and religious.

All right, Catholic Action is a call to the laity. We must add that it is an invitation to ALL of the laity. Whatever other excuse Catholics may now advance for nonparticipation it surely can not be the ancient one that "No one has hired us." Pope Pius XI is very explicit when he writes to Cardinal Bertram "Catholic Action is a universal and harmonious action of all Catholics, without exception of age, sex, social condition, culture, or social or political tendencies."

However, "Many are called but few are chosen." Since "not all can take this saying," Catholic Action can not expect to number in its ranks the great mass of the faithful. Although never ceasing to increase, it will always remain a select group, a special battalion, a sort of spiritual aristocracy.

As we remarked above Catholic Action gets its right to be called an apostolate because it is auxiliary to the apostolate of the bishops. But what distinguishes Catholic Action from any other apostolate is the mandate of the bishop. It operates under orders from the bishop for the salvation of souls. In a word, it is the help that the bishops WANT, not merely the help that they GET. This makes Catholic Action an OFFICIAL apostolate different from and superior to every other form of apostolate. It is united to the hierarchy and forms with it one thing. For this reason it shares in the dignity and honor of the hierarchy whose glory it is to co-operate with God in the salvation of immortal souls. Hence, too, it can be rightfully said that Catholic Action constitutes a QUASI-PRIESTHOOD. Indeed this is insinuated in Pius XI's Ubi Arcano when he writes "Say to your faithful laity that when they, united to their priests and their bishops, share in works of apostolate and of individual and social redemption, then more than ever are they, the 'chosen race,' the 'royal priesthood,' the 'holy people,' the people of God extolled by St. Peter."

Questions for discussion:

1. What is an apostolate? Is it easy?
2. What are the two apostolates that have always been in the Church?
3. What is new about Catholic Action?
4. Are all Catholics invited? Will all accept? Therefore, what will Catholic Action remain?
5. What distinguishes Catholic Action from other apostolates of the laity?
6. Why does it share in the dignity and honor of the Hierarchy?

Ditchdigger's Cathedrals

Paschal Boland, O.S.B.

Even the most lowly of occupations can be the following of a call to higher things.

The Archbishop walked over to the site where the New Cathedral was in the process of construction. As he neared it he paused to speak to some men digging a ditch. To the first burly individual he put the question, "What are you doing?"

With a look of contempt on his face he growled, "A ditch. What'd you think? My grave?" Then he laughed boisterously at what he thought was clever repartee.

The Archbishop walked a few steps to the next man and asked, "And what are you doing?"

"Digging the ditch for the underground electric cables. Your Grace," came the courteous reply as he bent to his work again.

The third and last man seemed oblivious of the presence of the Archbishop and was startled at the voice of the Archbishop addressing him, "What are you doing?"

He paused a moment before answering, "I am building a Cathedral, Your Grace. It may look like ditch-digging, but it is really part of the Cathedral," and his eyes shone and his countenance flamed as with an inner light as he continued, "I consider myself highly privileged to do this work—to work on the Cathedral. The vision of the completed edifice is always before me. I see the crowds of people who will attend Mass and receive Our Lord in Holy Communion—the number of Holy Masses that will be offered here. All these thoughts fill my day and make my lowly job sublime. And I thank God that I am building a cathedral."

"God bless you, my son," smiled the Archbishop as he raised his hand in blessing and slowly walked away.

"Building a cathedral," murmured the Archbishop half aloud. "Yes, yes, we can each do that. No matter how menial the task, it becomes great by reason of its end—not a ditch but a cathedral. My routine duties seem small and unimportant in themselves—that of directing the work of the archdiocese, but it is really the salvation of souls, helping people to get to Heaven, making Saints. I never thought of that before. I'll offer my Mass for that ditchdigger tomorrow—that he persevere in building cathedrals."

That evening as the Archbishop read the Holy Scriptures as was his wont, he read the verse in the Epistles of St. Paul about man's body a living temple of the Holy Ghost. And again he meditated half aloud, "That thought that we are living temples of the Holy Ghost reminds me of that ditchdigger. I shall make it a point to see him again and find out if he has pondered this thought too. He will probably say that we are cathedrals of the Holy Ghost. Yes, I like 'cathedral' better than 'temple.' We are all cathedrals of the Holy Ghost. Each a spiritual Sancta Sophia greater than the one built by Constantine. A soul in grace is a cathedral of the Holy Ghost, a dwelling place for the Most Blessed Trinity. We can labor our whole life building, furnishing, decorating, ornamenting this cathedral of the soul, greater than any built with hands, this that was formed by the hand of God, created out of nothing, placed in this bit of clay at the moment of conception, carried for nine months next to the heart of our mothers."

Nor was it to be wondered at that the Archbishop preached a soul-stirring sermon on the indwelling of the Holy Ghost in the souls of those in grace, those great cathedrals not built with hands, those secret basilicas, those mystic temples of the Holy Ghost on the day of the dedication of the new Cathedral. The story of the ditchdigger was told from the pulpit. And as the Archbishop said, "That all might know that even the most lowly of occupations can be the following of a call, of a vocation to higher things, and that it is good for man to keep his mind and heart on the end and not on the menial or petty thing of the moment. And thus it is seen that life is not a journey in a vale of tears but an ascent up the mountains of joy—the mountains of the Lord."

PROSPECT AFFECTED BY YOUR SINCERITY

Several years ago the leading salesman for a big electrical equipment firm decided to quit. He had made a record and could sell one line as good as another, or so he thought. He had risen to be one of the biggest producers in his line. In fact, so great had been his success that he was spoken of as one of the world's greatest salesmen.

His success as a salesman in his second line of endeavor was far from expectations. His third attempt was a further decided step-down. Why did this supposedly super-salesman slide down the ladder of success so rapidly?

A friend, very close to the salesman, diagnosed his difficulty. The friend observed that the turning point in his career from a mediocre salesman to the very top came after he had seen a factory employee carried out of a big plant dead. He had been electrocuted by an unprotected switch. Selling light switches became the salesman's mania. The incident so fired the salesman with true saving spirit and so thoroughly sold him upon what he was selling that his enthusiasm carried away all resistance. However, in his later connections of selling other articles he lacked that fire and that crusading spirit. He was not able to deliver.

Here is a thought about salesmanship and it may be that mysterious something that makes a sales talk click: "Never forget that a man buys something not so much because of what the salesman is able to make him believe but because of what he sees that the salesman himself believes."

By FRANCES JANCOR

La Salle, Ill.

The following recipes for pie were submitted by Miss Ann C. Kolar, 916 Summit St., Joliet, Ill. Many thanks, Ann.

Sweet Potato Pie

To 1½ cups mashed sweet potato add 3 tablespoons butter, 1¼ cups sugar, ½ teaspoon each salt and cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg. Mix well, and add 3 stiffly beaten egg yolks, 1½ cups milk and ½ cup cream. Fold in 3 stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into deep 9 inch custard pan, lined with flaky pastry. Bake in hot oven 10 minutes, lower heat, bake until custard is set, about ½ hour.

Sour Cream Pie

Mix 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, ½ teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon cloves and pinch of salt. Stir in ½ cup seeded raisins. Beat 3 egg yolks and add them to 1 cup sour cream or buttermilk; stir in the dry ingredients. Pour into unbaked crust and bake. Cover with an egg white meringue and brown.

Fruit Custard Pie

Mix ½ cup raisins, chopped, ½ cup chopped English walnuts, ½ cup sugar and 2 teaspoons cinnamon. Place in unbaked pie shell. Beat 1 egg, add 1 cup milk and 1 cup tart applesauce; mix thoroughly and pour over raisins. Bake, starting with hot oven and lowering heat to finish, until custard is set.

Following are some of Miss Kolar's prize cake recipes:

Sour Cream Cake

Beat 2 eggs well, add scant cup of sugar, then 1 cup sour cream with ½ teaspoon baking soda beaten in. Stir well; add 1½ cups pastry flour with 1 level teaspoon baking powder and pinch of salt. Add ¾ teaspoon vanilla and ¼ teaspoon lemon extract. Bake in a loaf pan.

Cocoa Loaf

Cream 1 cup butter, add gradually 2 cups brown sugar. Then add 4 egg yolks that have been beaten until light. Sift 2½ cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder and ½ cup cocoa with a pinch of salt. Add this alternately with 1 cup milk to first mixture. Lastly stir in 1 teaspoon vanilla. Bake in a loaf pan.

Banana Cake

Mix like any other butter cake the following ingredients: ¼ cup butter, 1½ cups sugar, 3 eggs, 1 cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 2 cups flour, rounded, 1 teaspoon baking powder. Cut 2 bananas into batter and beat well. Bake in layers, use any desired icing but not heavily flavored. ½ teaspoon lemon extract improves the flavor of the cake.

Applesauce Pudding

3 cups canned applesauce, ½ pint whipping cream, whipped, ¼ cup light brown sugar, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, ¼ teaspoon nutmeg, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

Fold in stiffly whipped cream into applesauce. Add brown sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg, and lemon juice. Mix thoroughly and place in refrigerator tray to freeze. Serve in sherbet glasses, garnished with whipped cream.
