Bog nas vabi na gostijo

Evangelij nam danes spregovori v priliki o povabljenih na svatbo. Prvo berilo, vzeto iz knjige preroka Izaja o božji gostiji. V pismu Filipljanim pa Pavel spominja, da želi Bog potešiti vsako našo potrebo, v Jezusu Kristusu.

Božji načrt je za človeka zelo velikodušen načrt ljubezni in občestva, ki se izraža v podobi gostije. Gre za podobo, ki jo velikokrat srečamo v Svetem pismu.

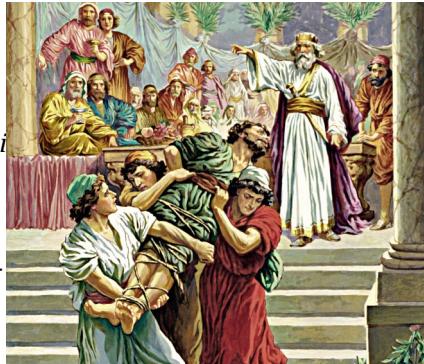

Izaja takole opisuje božji načrt: »Gospod nad vojskami bo na Sionski gori pripravil vsem ljudstvom gostijo s sočnimi jedmi.« Božje vabilo je namenjeno vsem ljudem, brez omejitev. Gre za »gostijo z žlahtnimi vini, s sočnimi in okusnimi jedmi, s prečiščenimi žlahtnimi vini«: ni si mogoče predstavljati nečesa, kar bi bilo še bolj čudovito.

Zatem prerok še na drugačen način predstavi čudoviti velikodušni Gospodov načrt. Bog želi postaviti mejo tudi žalosti in sramoti: »Na tej gori bo pretrgal zagrinalo, ki zagrinja vsa ljudstva, in pokrivalo, ki pokriva vse narode.« Bog vidi, kaj je v svetu slabega; želi, da bi vsi ljudje živeli srečno v ljubezni do njega in v medsebojnem občestvu; njegov načrt je torej dokončno odpraviti smrt, posušiti solze na vseh obrazih, poskrbeti za svoje ljudstvo, da izginejo vse sramotne stvari.

»Glejte, to je naš Bog, čakali smo ga in nas je odrešil. To je Gospod, ki smo ga čakali, radujmo in veselimo se, da nas je odrešil.«

Jezusova prilika govori tudi o odgovoru, ki so ga dali povabljeni - t.j. izraelsko ljudstvo. Božji načrt zajema predvsem to ljudstvo, ki ga je Bog izbral in mu želi ponuditi izobilje, srečo in občestvo.

A so povabljeni zavnili vabilo na gostijo. Kralj vztraja in pošlje še druge služabnike, katerim je naročil, naj še enkrat povabijo goste: »Glejte, pojedino sem pripravil. Moji voli in pitana teleta so zaklani in vse je pripravljeno; pridite na svatbo!« To božje vztrajanje kaže na njegovo velikodušnost. Povabljeni znova s prezirom od-klonijo vabilo.

Bog nam ponuja toliko darov, tolikšno veselje, mi pa pogosto preziramo njegove darove in se bolj posvečamo drugim stvarem. Vsak izmed nas odhaja na svojo njivo, k svojim poslom. Vsak išče svoje zadoščenje v stvareh, ki niso vredne človekovega srca. Njegovo srce je namreč narejeno za velike stvari in ga ni mogoče omejiti za sebične potrebe.

Kraljevo vabilo je deležno celo sovražnega nasprotnanja, nasilja, ki so ga povzročili povabljeni: »... ostali pa so zgrabili njegove služabnike, jih sramotili in pobili«. Tudi to je nekaj neverjetnega: velikodušno povabilo izzove nasilje! Povabljeni so razumeli to povabilo za obliko vdora v njihovo zasebno življenje.

Odziv gospodarja je tak, da pošlje svoje čete in ubijalce kaznuje. V priliki je rečeno, da so »njihovo mesto požgali«. Tu se srečamo s preroško opombo, ki se nanaša na porušitev Jeruzalema. Ker so zavrnili božje povabilo, jih je zadela strahotna usoda. V evangeliju Jezus večkrat pravi Jeruzalemu: »Kolikokrat sem hotel zbrati tvoje otroke kakor koklja svoja piščeta pod peruti, pa niste hoteli!« (Lk 13,34-35; prim. Mt 23,37).

Kralj se ne odreče svojemu načrtu zato pošlje svoje služabnike, naj povabijo druge ljudi, ki na začetku niso bili predvideni. Tu gre za napoved evangelskega oznanjevanja, ki je namenjeno tudi poganom.

Služabniki so zbrali vse, ki so jih našli, in slavnostna dvorana se je napolnila z gosti. Kralj vstopi, da bi se srečal z gosti pri mizi in opazi nekoga, ki nima svatovskega oblačila. Da bi mogli biti na poročni gostiji, moramo imeti primerno obleko. Seveda je dal kralj na voljo vsem povabljenim svatovsko oblačilo. Vendar ga je eden izmed povabljenih zavrnil, zato kralj ukaže služabnikom, da ga zvežejo in vržejo ven.

S to pripovedjo nas hoče Jezus opomniti, da je božje povabilo velikodušno in si ga nikakor ne zaslužimo. Zato moramo sprejeti tako vabilo kakor tudi milost, ki nas naredi vredne. Božja velikodušnost torej potrebuje naše sodelovanje. Bog ne more očistiti nekoga, ki zavrača milost. Bog potrebuje našo zvestobo in učljivost, da more potem napolniti naša srca. Da bi lahko sprejeli vso Gospodovo ljubezen, moramo biti v božji milosti.

Z odprtostjo in učljivostjo moramo samo sprejeti vse darove, ki nam jih ponuja Gospod.

(prim. Oznanjevalec 4, 2008)

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

R: I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long.

First Reading Isaiah 25:6-10

The prophet shares his vision of a heavenly banquet to which all are invited.

Second Reading Philip. 4:12-14. 19-20

The joys of heaven outweigh whatever hardships we may be suffering now.

Gospel Matthew 22:1-14

Not everyone chooses to accept God's invitation; indeed, some are not yet ready.

How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?

Illustration

Cheering crowds have long lined the procession route of British royal weddings. Yet only a privileged elite are admitted into the ceremony. Such occasions are now televised worldwide. In 2011, an audience of thirty-six million people watched Prince William and Catherine Middleton exchange their wedding vows in a live broadcast from Westminster Abbey. Indeed, those watching at home enjoyed a better view than many who were there. Among the invited guests were plenty of titled people and heads of state. After all, Prince William was the late Queen's grandson and second-in-line to the throne. But there were other celebrities, too, such as David Beckham and Elton John. Mingling with the glitterati were faces few recognised: the Middleton family butcher, for example, their grocer, and the village postman.

Surprisingly, some people turned the invitation down. For some, it was understandable. The Canadian Prime Minister was in the middle of an election campaign, and the King of Spain was recovering from surgery. Japan had just suffered a tsunami, so the Crown Prince could not go; and the Irish rugby union captain was due to play in an important cup semi-final the next day. One person, however, made the excuse that it was too near his birthday – perhaps he could not find the right outfit.

Gospel Teaching

Having “nothing to wear” was not always a problem. At the time of Jesus, it was customary for royal hosts to provide garments for their guests. In today’s Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about a king who did just that. As it happened, everyone he invited to his son’s wedding backed out at the last minute. They behaved violently towards the royal messengers who summoned them, which showed complete disrespect for the king. So the king abandoned his original guest list, and welcomed to the banquet only those who really wanted to be there.

Jesus told this parable at a politically volatile moment in Jewish history. The prophets had spoken of a Messiah who would one day come to establish God’s reign, and many believed that this day was fast approaching. Religious leaders were looking forward to their place at the princely table described by Isaiah in today’s first reading, laden with juicy food and rich wine. Yet when Jesus summoned these people to celebrate with him, most of them just sneered. By refusing to acknowledge Jesus as a messenger from God, they were insulting his heavenly Father. Jesus’ parable came as a solemn warning. If you are not willing to rejoice in my company, he was saying, then others will take your place. Notorious sinners were already to be seen eating and drinking with Jesus and his disciples, for Jesus was living in anticipation of that heaven on earth of which Isaiah spoke. Isaiah had described it as a banquet for all people. Jesus’ scandalous table fellowship was exactly that, and it gave a powerful message. Everyone is welcome to share Christ’s joy, both now and for eternity. What matters is how much you want it.

Application

Christ will indeed return to claim his bride, the Church. That day need not be a distant dream. Just as Jesus enjoyed God’s presence as a daily reality, so he taught his followers to live generously and joyously as though they were already in heaven. Each celebration of the Eucharist is a foretaste of that glorious marriage feast, a moment of deep communion with God and with one another. Of course, the rich spiritual nourishment of the Mass is not everyone’s idea of a banquet. Isaiah knew that to desire God’s presence, and feel comfortable with God’s family, people need to change. He used poetic words to describe that transformation: we need, the prophet said, to be wrapped in God’s own goodness. God offers to make us holy, or, to use Isaiah’s words, to give us a garment of righteousness. Imagine, said Jesus at the end of his parable, trying to get into the heavenly banquet without one.

Many of us pray the Lord’s Prayer, the prayer of Jesus, asking that God’s kingdom might come on earth “as it is in heaven”. Our heavenly Father longs to make it so, but we need to cooperate with that work of grace in allowing God to change us. We can start today by asking Jesus to adorn us with kindness, gentleness, patience and all the other fruits of his Spirit. After all, if we are going to be wearing that robe of righteousness for eternity, we’d better start trying it on for size.

DON BOSCO'S DREAM OF THE POWER OF THE ROSARY OVER THE DEVIL

By Fr. Steve Ryan, SDB

The devil is no match for a rope of Hail Mary's.

Don Bosco had frequent dreams and he would tell the boys at the oratory about them in his good-night talks. One dream about a snake and a rope made an impression on many young men who after hearing it prayed the Rosary for the rest of their lives.

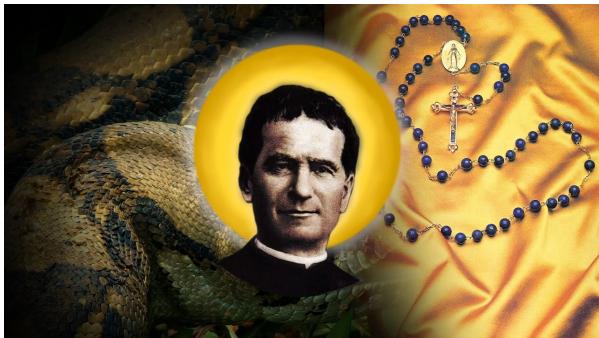

The dream occurred on the eve of the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Don Bosco recounted that in the dream...

A stranger came up to me and asked me to look at something on the ground. I went to go see what the man was talking about.

The stranger took me to a meadow alongside the playground and pointed to a huge ugly snake, over twenty feet long, coiled in the grass. Frightened, I wanted to run off, but the stranger held me back. "Get closer and take a good look," he said. "What?" I gasped. "Don't you realize that monster could spring on me and gobble me up in no time?" "Don't be afraid! Nothing of the sort will happen. Just trust me and do as I ask."

The stranger got a rope and asked St. John Bosco to slap the snake with the rope. He stretched the rope and then snapped it across the snake's back. The monster immediately sprang up and struck at the rope, but, as it did so, it ensnared itself as in a noose.

The snake began to struggle and quickly died. Then the stranger picked up the rope and put it in a box. What happened next was astonishing. When he opened the box, we both looked in and saw the rope shaped into the words Ave Maria.

"How did that happen?" I asked. "The snake," the man replied, "is a symbol of the devil, whereas the rope stands for Ave Maria, or rather, the Rosary, a succession of Hail Mary's which should be used to strike, conquer and destroy the demon."

St. John Bosco exhorted the young people of his time to pray the Rosary as a powerful weapon to strike down the devil.

He said, "Whenever we are tempted, devoutly say a Hail Mary and certainly try to pray the whole Rosary daily. You'll be sure to win."

Don Bosco told the kids – you must realize that Satan is greatly humiliated by the purity and simplicity of the Blessed Mother. He hates her and can't stand being near her. When we call on her fifty-three times in a Rosary, by praying the fifty-three Hail Mary's, the devil freaks out. He flies away as fast as he can whenever he hears her name.

Pray the Rosary devoutly this month of October. If you do so you have a rope that smashes back the evil one. Mary Help of Christians, pray for us.

Slovenska šola

Koncem meseca septembra smo zopet začeli s slovensko šolo. Učita Sandy Ferletič in Lorie Mramor. Zadnjo soboto v mesecu imamo v kapeli tudi sveto mašo. Vsako soboto ob 12h pa do konca, se učimo z otroci slovenske pesmi in pripravljamo za dva večja nastopa. Prvi je za Miklavževanje, ki bo letos 3. decembra. Drugi nastop ja je Materinski dan, ki bo drugo leto 12. maja. Lepo je videti, da je letos šola zopet bolj številčna. Hvala staršem, ki to cenijo in pošiljajo otroke v šolo.

Zadnja leta imamo v sredo po zahvalni nedelji srečanje za starejše in bolnike. Zadnja leta jih je čedalje več. Dopoldne ob 11h smo se v cerkvi zbrali pri daritvi svete maše. Prav prijetno je bilo moliti in prepevati pri maši. Med mašo je bila tudi prilika, da je večina prejela tudi zakrament bolniškega maziljenja. Po maši smo se zbrali na hodniku in še malo skupaj poklepetali ob prgrizku, čaju, sadju in sladkih dobrotah. Hvala Majdi Lukežič, ki tokrat prevzela glavno delo v pripravi in Sonji Langenfus, ki ji je pomagala.

V sredo, 11. oktobra, smo se s predstavniki in predstavniki društev Niagarske koordinacije zbrali na jesenskem srečanju. Na kratko smo pogledali kako je bilo praznovanje Slovenskega dneva pri društvu Bled, potem smo je vsako društvo predstavilo razpored prireditev za leto 2024. Pogovarjali smo tudi o delovanju društev, raznih prireditev, kako so uspele, kaj smo se naučili za prihodnje leto. Prav tako pa smo se pogovorili o prihodnjem Slovenskem dnevu, ki ga bo drugo leto gostilo društvo Lipa park. Ta srečanja so zelo dobrodošla, da se več deluje skupaj in si izmenjamо tudi dobre izkušnje.

Hvala Olgi Glavač, ki je za zahvalno nedeljo zopet lepo okrasila našo cerkev.

SLOVENSKI MENDOŠKI OKTET

V soboto, 7. oktobra 2023, smo imeli v gosteh Slovenski Mendoški Oktet. Že med samo mašo so sodelovali z ljudskim petjem, potem pa so zapeli Oče naš, K tebi želim moj Bog, in Ko zarja zlati nam gore. Nadaljevali so pred oltarjem s svojim koncertom. Prvi del so bile slovenske pesmi, v drugem delu pa svetovne in argentinske. Vsekakor, zelo kvalitetno ubrano petje.

Prvi del koncerta:

Young Adults Nights

Fr. Mark Morley invites all young adults (ages 20s and early 30s) of our diocese to attend a night of Adoration, Fellowship and Praise Music. Arrival and Holy Hour (6:30pm-7:30pm), Social with Food (7:30pm-8:30pm), Praise Night and Vocation Testimony (8:00pm-9:00pm), and Compline (9:00pm) on Saturday October 7th at the Basilica of Our Lady Immaculate (28 Norfolk Street, Guelph), and on Saturday, November 4th at Saint Pius X Church (9 Waverly Street, Brantford). Sponsored by the Vocations Office of the Diocese of Hamilton. For more information, please contact: vocations@hamiltondiocese.com

Marriage Support

Your marriage doesn't have to feel like it is more trouble than joy, that it feels stagnant or disconnected and/or that it is causing you constant stress. The solution is Retrouvaille - a program for married couples facing difficult challenges in their relationship. Retrouvaille has one purpose: to help couples restore their marriage and rebuild a loving relationship. This is a practical program, where sharing is not required except between the couple themselves, designed to improve communication, build stronger marriages, and help couples reconnect. It also works well for couples who may be considering separation or divorce. The next Retrouvaille weekend is Oct. 20-22. For more information call 905-664-5212 or email teamrecine@gmail.com.
