OB TEDNU...

Homer Martin, čigar izjav so bili v zadnjem času polni vsi časopisi, je zadnje dni utihnil. Po vsej priliki je izprevidel, da so ga njegove diktatorske metode v organizaciji avtih delavcev zapeljale v labirint, iz katerega ne ve izhoda. Toda naj ima v svojih namerah za bodočnost že karkoli v mislih, toliko je gotovo, da se od CIO organizacije ne namerava posloviti, razen če ga članstvo vrže iz nje.

Homer Martin, ki je pred nekaj tedni prerezal svoje vezi s CIO organizacijo in njenim predsednikom Lewisom, je izprevidel, da je storil s tem nepopravljivo napako. Videč, kakšno reakeijo so povzročile njegove absolutistične taktike med članstvom avtne unije, je izjavil, da je vse, kar zahteva, samo "avtomomna unija" v okrilju CIO organizacije, kjer ga pa več ne marajo. S to izjavjo je najbrže upal ovreči govorice, da se namerava s svojimi pristaši pridružiti Ameriški delavski federaciji, o kateri ve, da je večina avtih delavcev ne mara in ji ne zaupa.

Alfred Reeves, podpredsednik in generalni manager Automobile Manufacturers asociacije, napoveduje Martinov poraz. Reeves je izjavil: "Industrialeci vedo, da bi jim bila pogajanja z Martinom laža kot z drugimi voditelji, toda njim je za takojšnjo poravnavo spora, ne glede, če Martin podleže..."

Poročevalec švicarskega lista "Die Weltwoche" je imel razgovor z ruskim velikim knezom Dimitrijem Pavlovičem, 47-letnim Romanovcem, ki je svetovalec sedanjega pretendenta na ruski prestol, velikega kneza Vladimira Kiriloviča. Veliki knez Pavlovič, kateremu ne bo mogel niti največji reakcionar očitati "rdečkarstva" in "boljševizma," je izjavil časnikarju med drugim tudi sledeče:

Poznam naziranje onih, ki upajo na japonsko, nemško ali katerokoli tujo pomoč. Ti se vesele, če čujejo, da se je kako sovjetsko letalo ponesrečilo ali da rdeča armada niti za nič. Tega ne morem drugače označiti: to je izdajstvo narodne stvari."

Veliki knez je nato načel ukrajinsko vprašanje in dejal, da ruski domoljubi niti ne dovolijo razpravljalni o taki rešitvi, ki bi bila odvisna od vmešavanja kake tuje sile. Narodno čutečemu Rusu je nemogoče prisoditi, da bi pod pretvezo boja proti boljševikom dovolil, da pride večji ali manjši del ruske zemlje pod tujca kot placiло za pomoč pri rušenju sedanjega režima v Rusiji. Popolnoma nesmislen je nazor starejsih, da Rusije ni več in da je treba vse uničiti, kar je napravil novi režim. Mladina se noče sprijazniti z mislijo, da nima več domovine. Ljudje v Rusiji, ki delajo ali trpe, ki verujejo ali obupavajo, so ravno taki russki ljudje kakor mi v emigraciji. Med obojimi ni mogoče potegniti črte-ločnice.

"Cankarjeva ustanova" bo pričela kmalu z veliko kampanjo za pomnožitev naročnikov leposlovne revije "Cankarjevega glasnika." Da vrši "Cankarjev glasnik" med ameriškimi Slovenci resnično kulturno poslanstvo, kakšnega ni vršila pred njim še nobena naša publikacija, o tem ne bo podvomil nihče, ki je že prečital kakšno številko te krasne revije.

O kulturi obstaja več definicij, ki se pa vse stekajo k skupnemu iztočišču, da je kultura niz vseh lepot in dobrin, ki niso neobhodno potrebne za ohranitev golega življenja, kakor je na primer neobhodno potrebna hrana za človeško telo. Prvo mesto v kulturi pa zavzema leposlovna književnost, ki je duhu resnično kulturnega človeka takoj potrebna kakor hrana njegovemu telesu. V taki slovensko-ameriški književnosti pa zavzema "Cankarjev glasnik" neizpodbitno prvo mesto, zato bi moral biti v vsakem kulturnem slovenskem domu, in čitati bi ga moral vsak Slovenec, ki se smatra za resnično kulturnega člana svojega rodu.

Kampanja "Cankarjeve ustanove" bo nudila več ugodnosti tako novim naročnikom kakor tudi agitatorjem, o čemer bo naš list točno obveščal slovensko javnost.

V nedeljskem "Plain Dealerju" je na strani, kjer so objavljene religiozne zadeve in razprave, tudi trditev nekega duhovnika, češ, da je kljub vedno številnejšim napadom na cerkev "pričakovati boljših časov, ker se je hrovni oce?"

PAVEL IN JUDITA

ROMAN

NEUTESENE LJUBEZNI

V takih trenutkih bi bila dala vse za to, da bi mu bila mogla oči, močna, nikoli trpeča, odveziti tripljenje. Ce se je med šaljivim pogovorom vlekel za njo, se je skoraj sramovala svojih združil udov. Tako se je zgodilo, da Judita Platterjeva spoznala najstisje in največjo zemeljsko ljubezen — sočute.

Nikoli ni superior avguštinškega samostana prihajal tako pogosto pod Kraljevske stene, kakor ob dolgih dneh tega goče vročega poletja. In nikoli prej ga ni žena pod Kraljevskimi stenami takoj tuje sprejemala. Videlo se je, kakor bi jo bil hotel nadzorovati, prezati nanjo. Njen slednjo kretnjo, njen jednino pogled, če se je pogovarala s svojim mladim gostom. Kakor bi jo hotel zalotiti pri grehu, da bi jo potem poklicala. Kakor bi bila Juditha Platlerjeva ženska, ki bi mu bila pravico do tega! Ali pa v sploh kateremu drugemu človeku na svetu. Ona pa je šla namenila. In čeprav je bila to njena smrtna pot.

Cudno nenavadno pa je bilo nedobeno razmerje obec moških: duhovnika in mladega učenika, ki se je tudi proti prestatemu gospodu osteval, da pagan in da je nedosegljiv za preobrnjenje. Pater Pavel je z takrat veljali mlademu neslado obziren, skoraj mehak. Hotel se je trdo premogovati in nepraniti oblast nad seboj. Z njim ni maril izdati, kaj je v tem divjalo: razen žgoče ljubomnosti tudi besna zavist.

Tako mlad je bil tudi on, ta pol prekipevajočega veselja kar se ne sme povedati? In vendar mu dovoljuje, da prihaja zmeraj k vam?"

"Nočem mu braniti, da bi prihajal."

"Nočete?"

"Ne silite vame."

Tako bolestno je rekla te besede, da je mladenič v srce prestrašen umolknil. Potem pa začel paziti, prezati ...

Če sta bila oba moža pri Juditi, sta oba govorila o svojem bogu. Duhovnik je pridigal o trodinem Bogu, umetnik pa o enem in edinem: o božjem duhu umetnosti. Če je eden zmago-slavno klical: "Umetnost je služabnica cerkve!" — je drugi oznanal: "Nobenega oblastvu na svetu ne služi, ker je gospodovalka!" Za avguštinico je bila oblast cerkve najvišja; umetniku je bila najvišja oblast notranje snovanje in ustvarjanje lepot. Oba je zgrabila sila občutkov, da sta postala zgovorni in govorila, kakor bi ju bili razsvetlili ognjeni jeziki. Toda nista govorila drug drugemu, ampak samo Juditi. Ona pa ju je poslušala in obema molčala.

Umetnost in lepota; posvečenost umetnosti in božanstvo lepote —

Tako je mož, ki ga je rešila, odkril Juditi nov svet. In če je le stopila na prag tega svetišča, če je vsa plašna na pragu občutka, jo je obšla slutnja o obilju lepote, ki je éna najlepših lasti človeštva.

In ona, iščoča žena, ki je vsak dan iz vsega srca »coula k svojemu božanstvu s svojim vsakdanjem, neutrudnim delom, je vsa kakor v grozi éutila: tudi to je svetišče!

Druga košnja je bila opravljena in obilni blagoslov zelišč polne, lepo dehteče gorske trave je bil že suh in pospravljen. Nobena zločinska roka ni več zažigala lastnine kraljevske žene, da ji ni bilo treba več nobeno noč stražiti. Tudi na gorskem pašniku je bila velika lesena koliba polna sene, in tega se je gospodarica še prav posebno veselila. Zakaj doslej so služili ti prelepi pašniki samo divjim kozam; zdaj so pomagali prehranjevati črede in prinašali ljudem korist.

Jesenki travniki so se že iznova zavili v evjetje. Trate so bile vse višnjeve od malih svedrec v zlatu rozga jih je oblekla s svojim lesketom. V zlatu so se svetlikali mesečni, okoli njih pa so stale stolte orjaške jelke. Zgodaj zjutraj so bile cvetne poljane v pravljični krasoti. Vse so jih prepletale nežne pajčevine in na njih sta obvisela rosa in solnčni soj, da so se lesketale ka-

V dolgih vrstah so leteli žerjavci in divje gosi neslišno proti jugu. Tudi iz globin gozgov se je slišalo ljubezensko klicanje jelenov, ki je bilo hkratu tudi divje klicanje na boj.

Čedalje krajši so postajali dnevi, čedalje prijetnejši dolgi večeri. V ogromnih lončenih pečeh so gorele mogočne jelkove klade, kolovrati predic se so vrtili in gospodinja je pridno squala tkaški čolniček. Pri tem prazničnem opravlju se je zdela svojemu gostu najlepša in najljubnevnija ...

Gorsko živino je treba spraviti s hriba! Martin je poslal pošto, da primanjkuje sena in soli. Pomagati je treba, ker so tam gori zasneženi!

Z vsemi hlapci se je Judita odpravila na pot. Možje so neslišni razen krme tudi lopate in krampe. Saj je bilo treba izkopati hlev in kočo in napraviti pot za živino. Kar so ljudje pomnili, še ni bilo tako čudnega prirodenega pojava.

Barbaro je bil ves iz sebe. Hromi udje so mu branili, da bi se udeležil nevarnega pohoda. In Judita je šla zraven. Ni je bilo mogoče zadržati! Vendar je poskusil. Obupano je vzkliknil:

ST. CLAIR HOME OBSERVES 15TH YEAR OF DEDICATION

One of the most important events of the social season in the Cleveland Slovene neighborhood will be the observance tomorrow of the fifteenth anniversary of the opening of the Slovene National Home, St. Clair avenue. The event will be observed with a banquet in the lower hall at 7 p.m.

To mark this important event, the committee has planned an impressive banquet. Vatro J. Grill will be toastmaster. Banquet speakers will be Joseph Skuk, president of the association of the national home; Mayor Harold H. Burton; Judge Frank J. Lausche, Ettbin Kristan, foremost Slovene writer; Ivan Zorman; and representatives of Yugoslav organizations.

Entertainment during the program will be furnished by Louis Belle, Frank Plut, Mary Ivanusch, Josephine Milavec, Victoria Polsak, Antoinette Simcic, Mary Udoovic and Josephine Lausche-Welf. They will appear as soloists and in duets. Slavski Junior chorus, of some 150 voices, will appear in choral singing.

The Slovene National Home on St. Clair avenue, with its 15th anniversary can well be proud of the building and the idea behind it. The building has two large halls, with an audi-

Here and There

The newly formed "Lucky Hearts" Club of Collinwood consists of a group of young Slovenes who are interested in Slovene culture and the future of the Slovene Workmen's Home, so in order to get into full swing, they are holding a dance tonight at the Workmen's Home, Waterloo road with Tony Kristof's orchestra furnishing the music. To top it off, the dances will be held every Saturday with a new orchestra every week.

Do not forget the Slepko brothers' concert at the Slovene Workmen's Home, tomorrow afternoon. The start is scheduled for three o'clock.

No Need To Cover Them

Covering dishes of cooked or left-over foods for normal storage in the family refrigerator is a thing of the past for this attractive homemaker, who is proudly showing her guests her new "Cold Wall" type Frigidaire. This refrigerator is a new invention of General Motors in which cooling is accomplished by radiation and refrigerated walls. Using low temperatures and high atmospheric moisture, without the usual moisture-robbing air circulation, which is not necessary with this method of refrigeration, foods even in uncovered dishes are preserved fresh, full-colored and full-flavored for long periods. A special meat tender in this refrigerator provides just the right combination of cold temperature, moisture and air circulation to keep fresh meats in that condition.

You will see a complete display of Frigidaire refrigerators and ironers at the Norwood Appliance & Furniture Co., 6104 St. Clair avenue and 819 East 185 street in the La Salle Theatre Bldg.

LITHS LASH CFU PIONEERS

FOR BIG LEAD IN I-L RAC

The Lithuanians, hottest team in town last Wednesday night, coasted into undisputed first place in the Inter-Lodge League by handing the CFU Pioneers the worst beating that they have received in a long time. It was generally believed before game time that this would be the best game of the season, since both were rated tops in the I-L. However, the Liths quickly killed the belief by running rough shod over the unfortunate Pioneers from the very start. The final score was 41 to 23.

Bill Obratis set a new individual scoring record in the I-L by scoring 18 points, as he led the Brazis Bros. to the lopsided victory. The Liths were on and it was just the Croats' tough luck to have to meet them that night.

The opener featured a big upset as the Zumberaks spilled the Serbians by a 32 to 30 score. The gray clad lads trail-ed for three quarters of the St. Josephs game, then opened up in the final period to leave the Serbs behind. However a last minute brought the Serbs with one basket of tying the score. The final gun went off. Joe Dek was the big gun in Croatian line-up as he put the meshes for 15 points. Lalich led the Serbs with 12.

The Socas moved a step closer to getting into the semi-finals as they beat the St. Josephs 26-22 in a rough and tumble battle. Socas took lead, lost it, then regained several times until the period, when, with the score tied at 20 all, the Socas forged ahead to win. Boogey Dolce had eight for the Joes.

Slepko Bros. Give Recital Tomorrow

Young music lovers of Cleveland will have a special treat in store for them tomorrow afternoon when the Slepko brothers come into their own with a concert at the Workmen's Home, Waterloo Rd. It is scheduled for three o'clock. The three Slepko brothers have accomplished much in the musical line among lodges and clubs. Their recital tomorrow should attract all who have in one way or another enjoyed the Slepkos in the past.

Three musical brothers will give the recital—Frank, the young man-about-town, known to many if not, all Slovenes of Collinwood and St. Clair. Stanley, the tall, blond and handsome senior of Collinwood high school who slaps the bass for Collinwood High's swing sessions and who is known for his genial friendliness. Edward the baby of the Slepko family, the prize winner of the family and the treasurer of the increasingly popular "Statuettes" Club of the Workmen's Home. When these three brothers join their unquestionable talents, no one can say what will happen. The Statuettes Club will also participate in the program.

Admission is 40 cents, for which you will hear two hours of gay sad, new and old music, as well as participate in the dance which will be held in both halls after the concert. Kristof's orchestra will play in the upper hall and Vadnal's in the lower. — Edith Coff.

Slovene Dance at Teeno's

Do you enjoy the real Slovene polkas and waltzes, with all the zip and pep they swing into you? Then you cannot miss the series of two dances given tonight and next Saturday by Teeno Modic and Johnny Pecon at the Twi-Light Ballroom, 6025 St. Clair avenue. Johnny Pecon's ever popular orchestra will give you all the pep and rhythm you need. One of the best times you've enjoyed is being planned for you. Admission is 25 cents.

Yugoslav Broadcast Sunday

Yugoslavia will be the nation represented in the "Salute of the Nations" broadcast from Belgrade on Sunday, March 5 from 1:30 to 2 p.m. Prince Paul, the regent of Yugoslavia will speak. The broadcast is sponsored by the New York's World's Fair. It will be relayed to all stations of the National, Columbia and Mutual systems. The program will include selections by the Belgrade Philharmonic orchestra.

Sizzlers Dance

The Sizzlers Dance which was held on Saturday, February 25 proved to be a big success. Music was furnished by J. A.'s orchestra. All who attended received souvenirs. Can you imagine Bill Kozar being a floor walker? Also doing the polka with Margie? Andy Rodella, Albert Logar and the Hulina girls dancing until they could not dance anymore. All around, the groups had one good time, they will not forget so easily. There really is rumor going around that the love bug is haunting Euclid. — Frank Cecilia.

Third Anniversary Dance

Friday, February 17, Sunday Ray and his orchestra celebrated the third anniversary with a dance at the St. Clarence Avenue National Home. There are seven boys in the orchestra and they are all well known in the neighborhood for their excellent playing. The orchestra thanks Mrs. Mike Poklar for their help in the kitchen and to everyone else for all the help. Thank everyone who attended and they'll be seeing you again dancing to the music of Sunday Ray's orchestra. — Elsie Desmond.

Open New Home in Euclid

Mark Sunday, April 16 as a red letter day on your calendar. On that day, it will be your privilege and pleasure to attend the opening of the new club rooms of the Society Home, Recher avenue, Euclid, O. The opening, sponsored by the Slovene Society Club, will be held at the Society Home. From 2 p.m. until 7 p.m. there will be dancing to the snappy tunes of Eddie Seseck's orchestra. Admission to this part of the program will be free!

In the evening from 7 to 12, Committee.

All former Club Ljubljana mayors will be asked to attend the affair. Some girl in Euclid, O. will be honored as queen of Ljubljana. The honor will be given to the girl who sells the most tickets. The queen will also have the honor of opening the new Society Home. More on this will be published in this paper from time to time.

Committee.

Stanley Collins, 85 lb. Boy's Town councilman, from the E. 80th Superior Boy's Town Club, will meet Eugene Sera of Woodland Center. The councilman will be urged on to victory by the mayor, council members, judges, and other high officials of the miniature government and rightly so, for the East 80 Superior Boy's Town will get its share of the proceeds which are expected to be large enough not to necessitate the floating of a bond issue for equipment and supplies.

Other bouts: Matt Urbanic vs Mike Kobilas, Ted Phillips vs Bill Sabo, Bob McAuliffe vs Emil Spadd, Jack Becker vs Don Smith, Herbert Posnik vs Joe Reidor, and Wally Urbanic vs Bob Rebel. A boy's slugfest which always arouses keen interest and much laughter has also been arranged for. Listed are six of the eight or possibly ten paperweight scrapper. They are Bob Kotnik, Don Au-sec, Sam Carlisle, George Hallal, Charles Zupancic, and Dick McAuliffe. To make the evening a merry one, Ed Zaller's 6-piece orchestra will play snappy music before and during the fights—so come early.

Main Bout Best Ever

Featured in the main bout will be Joe Hace, St. Clair Center 147 pound slugger, who smashed his way through all opposition in the Golden Gloves and narrowly missed the title. In fact a majority of some 9000 fans, who witnessed the Golden Gloves fight at the Public Auditorium, were of the impression that Hace defeated Cohen. The stocky St. Clair warrior will engage King Free-man, colored scrapper, from the Hiram House. King is no slouch, recently having decisioned Lawler, last year's Golden Gloves champion. Fight experts predict a hot battle with the odds slightly favoring Hace's opponent.

Jim Hopkins and Anton Thomas will meet Elroy Perkins and Paul Hill, both from Central Recreation.

The scale of prices will be $1 to $6 and tickets will be avail-

FIST SHOW TUES HAS GOLDEN GLOVER JOE HACE IN MAIN GO

Ten great bouts packed with action, musical entertainment and a battle royal between 8 combatants—that's the menu which will be served patrons Tuesday, March 7 at Teeno's Twilight Ballroom, at the boxing show sponsored by the St. Clair Recreation Center. Believe it or not the total price is only 35 cents. Judging by the keen interest displayed by the fight fans from the two previous bouts, Teeno's should be packed to the rafters.

Councilman on Card

Stanley Collins, 85 lb. Boy's Town councilman, from the E. 80th Superior Boy's Town Club, will meet Eugene Sera of Woodland Center. The councilman will be urged on to victory by the mayor, council members, judges, and other high officials of the miniature government and rightly so, for the East 80 Superior Boy's Town will get its share of the proceeds which are expected to be large enough not to necessitate the floating of a bond issue for equipment and supplies.
