V ZVEZNEM SENATU sta senatorja La Follette in Costigan vložila skupno predlogo za direktno federalno pomoč brez posebnim. Senatni odsek, ki je predlogo študiral, jo je priporočil. Radi te predloge bo najbrže nastal hud boj v obeh zbornicah kongresa, ker administracija nasprotuje direktni federalni pomoči.

VELIKA rekonstrukcijska finančna korporacija, katero je priprao predsednik Hoover, je postala dejstvo. Obe zboranci kongresa sta tozadovno predlogo sprejeli in predsednik jo je takoj podpisal. Zvezna vlaga bo takoj podpisala 500 milijonov dolarjev kapitala. Skupna finančna sila korporacije bo predstavljala dva tisoč milijonov dolarjev.

Charles G. Dawes, višji predsednik Zedinjenih držav in poznejši poslanik v Angliji, je bil imenovan predsednikom te organizacije.

Namen korporacije je pomagati s posojili bankam, stavbinstvom in posojilnim društvom, farmerskim organizacijam in gotovim drugim korporacijam, ki takozvane "zmrzljene" imovine ne morejo spraviti v denar.

Pričakuje se, da bo pomoč rekonstrukcijske finančne korporacije omogočila varno poslovanje finančnih zavodov in da bo vzdignila zaupanje prebivalstva v iste.

Položni solidnih finančnih institucij bodo v bodoče preprečeni, kar bo po mnenju administracije kmalu odpravilo ali vsaj omiljeno sedano depresijo.

Rekonstrukcijska finančna korporacija bo imela dostop do vseh podatkov, ki jih ima na razpolago zvezna vlada, da bo na podlagi istih dovoljevala posojila le solidnim in poštenim finančnim institucijam.

V upravi korporacije ne bo smel biti zaposlena nobena oseba, ki bi bila direktno ali indirektno interesirana v kakih finančnih institucijah, katera prosi za posojilo.

GOVERNOR države Pensylvanije, Gifford Pinchot, je izjavil, da bi morala zvezna vlada prej poskrbeti za brezposelne delavce, ki trpijo pomanjkanje, predno je priskočila na pomoč bankirjem. Dejal je, da bi mu bilo ljubše, če tisoč milijonarjev izgubi svoje dividende, kot pa da le en delavec izgubi delo in zasluzek.

BANK FAILURES

During the reign of prosperity people, as a rule, tend to be careless with their hard earned money. Savings are deposited in banks with big window fronts, some of which are in continuous difficulties and only two steps from the state of bankruptcy.

In periods of depression, when the weaker institutions are forced to liquidate, the average layman scrutinizes closely the assets and liabilities of such firms, to be guided in the future. Unfortunately, some people, who are on the verge of losing their savings, learn the principles of banking through actual experience, as they wait hopefully for arrangements by which the assets and liabilities of their bank will be juggled, and what is left returned to them as depositors.

Recently a bank failed in Cleveland that affected about 2 percent of all the city depositors. The main office, situated in the heart of the town, had many railroad clerks for its depositors,asmuch as the bank had some connection with the local branches of the railroad fraternal brotherhood. Result is that funds deposited by both the clerks and their local branches are held up indefinitely.

According to comments by the local dailies, this bank had been under suspicion for some time. A few years ago the directors had taken over the original institution, changed its name to present one and proceeded to do business, in spite of the fact that a number of poor investments hung suspended in air even though forcing the firm into receivership.

The railroad clerks overlooked this matter entirely. A simple investigation would have yielded the truth and saved many hours of worry and scratching of the head. A common error is to suppose that office clerks, on the average, have a greater insight to general business than the factory worker, who has less time to spend in town and try to comprehend situations.

Many banks have failed during this world-wide crisis not because of improper management, but due to frozen assets. Those who already were existing by a mere thread needed a slight wind of adversity to bring them crashing from the pedestal.

Until now people of the middle class could always depend on the banks for safe deposit of savings. But the number of failures is beginning to shake their confidence somewhat, that may later be restored once conditions hit the normal stride.

However, there is one organization our people can safely consider to build their confidence, in times of prosperity or depression. And that is our SOUTH SLAVONIC CATHOLIC UNION. As long as our fraternal Union continues to have interested members working for mutual benefit, its success and safety is insured. There is no profit derived through all of the trans-ferred funds that strengthen the structure of our Union.

Pathfinders Play Important Part in Attracting Large Attendance

A good way to begin and we'll forgive him this time for winning the prize, because he is such a good president.

At our next meeting members are urged to be at the Slovane Hall promptly at 7:30 p.m., because after this meeting Bro. Martin Voncina promises to make up your mind.

How nice of Bro. Frank Rogel to invite us to his home for a little treat before going to the fights; it was certainly grand.

Another great night at our lodge bowling league was held last Wednesday. Now that the holiday season is over, the boys are all coming back. There is a bigger crowd every session.

But, don't get frightened, folks, as there is plenty of room for more. Will we see you there next Wednesday?

Joliet has been taking notice of their neighboring town to the south, Rockdale. But listen, you Rockdale members, now that we know about your progressive town, let's hear something about its people.

We make a motion that someone send a little news each week to the New Era. Many Joliet Slovanes would like to hear more about you. How about it, Rockdale?

Plans for the coming G. W.'s Valentine Eve dance, to take place Saturday, Feb. 13, at the Slovane National Home, will be made. All members are sincerely requested to attend and help formulate plans for the coming affair. Suggestions that would help out the committee are earnestly solicited; and the place to make them is at the meeting.

The entertainment committee will need the co-operation of each and every member to help put this dance over in grand style.

Charles F. Kikel, Sec'y.

NEWS OF JOLIET

Joliet, Ill.—Before we start on the late news, we will give you a bit of information that did not reach some of our lodge members. By that we mean the newly elected or re-elected officers to head our lodge for the ensuing year. All of last year's officers were re-elected with the exception of Bro. Joseph Korevec, who is the newly elected member of the Board of Trustees. Installation of officers took place on Jan. 17, with Bro. Louis Zaleznikar as master of ceremonies. Bro. Zaleznikar is supreme treasurer of the JSKJ.

There was also the usual appointment of our sports and social committee. It was decided to enlarge the committee to a five-man power instead of the usual three. Last year's committee of three was reappointed and is as follows: F. Ramutta, chairman, Henry Bluth and J. Kozlevcar Jr. The newly appointed members are Frank Rogel and "Fancy" Ivec.

At the committee's first meeting, held at the home of our president, a name was selected as follows: Louis Joliet Social and Auxiliary Committee, in commemoration of the great explorer. So when you hear of anything headed by the Louis Joliet Committee you will know it is our SS. Peter and Paul Lodge engaged in doing things.

Brothers Frank Rogel, John Kubinski, Frank Kobe, Henry Bluth, Frank Ramutta, Paul Golle, John Horwath, Michael Grigorash, Joseph Korevec and John Jevitz Jr., as the JSKJ No. 66 bowlers, attended the Community Relief Fund boxing show held at the Joliet Township High School gymnasium on Thursday, Jan. 21.

How nice of Bro. Frank Rogel to invite us to his home for a little treat before going to the fights; it was certainly grand.

"Old-Timers' Hard-Time Dance" will be given by the St. John the Baptist Lodge, No. 192, SSCU, Feb. 6, at Francel Hall, Gilbert, Minn. The affair commences at 8 p.m.

Jefferson Collegians are to hold a dance Saturday, Feb. 6, in the SNPJ Hall, Strabane, Pa. Sam Malena and his Black and White Orchestra will furnish the music.

Needy families in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, will be the beneficiaries from the proceeds of the special county 1-mill welfare levy. The sum of $1,500,000 has been ordered set aside by the Citizens' Committee for disbursement of the levy funds, concurred in by county commissioners.

"Has your son's college education proved of any real value?" "Oh, yes, it has completely cured his mother of bragging about him."

"Well, now, what do you think of advertising since you got your wife through a matrimonial magazine?" "I can't say advertising pays, but it certainly brings results."

How About Our Ownself?

East Palestine, O.—Some of us are continually finding fault with other people for not doing what they should and doing what they shouldn't. We become self-named commanders. We are constantly giving orders, and these are the limit of our accomplishments.

Why not ask ourselves if we are doing our share; if we are practicing what we preach? Simply tramp on our own toes for once. It's a good idea.

The lodge member who acts and then talks afterward accomplishes more than he who names the task, the methods by which it is to be done and yet does nothing toward completing it himself. You can talk about building a house for 20 years and not one brick will be laid, but a half minute of actual work will place one. Joe Golicic, No. 41, SSCU.

To the Members of the JSKJ Lodges

Ely, Minn.—The Rangers Club of Lodge No. 1 is off with the bang of the gun by putting on its pre-Lenten novelty dance, which will be loaded with fun and enjoyment of every sort for everyone.

Everyone is invited to attend and share in the fun! So don't you forget the date, time and place, which are: Feb. 6, 1932; 9 p.m., at the Jugoslav National Home.

The music will be furnished by the Rangers' Orchestra, which is plenty peppy and which will be heard oftener from now on.

Joseph Mantel Jr., Pres.

G. W.'s Must Attend Meeting

Cleveland, O.—Members of the George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, must take notice of the change in the meeting place for the next meeting, which is to be held Monday, Feb. 1, at 7:30 p.m., in Room 2, instead of the customary Room 1. This change is effected by special request of the Slovene National Home secretary, and holds good only for the February meeting.

Plans for the coming G. W.'s Valentine Eve dance, to take place Saturday, Feb. 13, at the Slovane National Home, will be made. All members are sincerely requested to attend and help formulate plans for the coming affair. Suggestions that would help out the committee are earnestly solicited; and the place to make them is at the meeting.

The entertainment committee will need the co-operation of each and every member to help put this dance over in grand style.

Charles F. Kikel, Sec'y.

Post and Postal Cards

According to the distinction made by the Post Office Department, cards which are bought from the post office and which contain stamps printed on them are properly called postal cards; unstamped cards which are bought from private firms and which usually contain a picture are properly called post cards.

Advertisers, who were instructed to take the necessary legal steps to place the money in the hands of fund relief agencies.

Basketball and Bowling Among Cleveland Lodges

Inter-Frat Basketball

Cleveland, O.—In their first win of the season, the Progressives romped over the George Washington lassies, 16 to 7. Zelle's 10 points on four baskets and two fouls was the bright spot for the Euclidites. Washingtons' 7 points were made by Hamilton and Gorenec, collecting 4 and 3, respectively.

Inter-Lodge Basketball

Podnar's 9 points led the Progressives to a 21 to 8 win over the Betsy Ross. Florjancic, the B. R.'s star, tallied 5 points. With Peck running wild, dropping in five field goals and a charity throw, the Clairwoods stopped the George Washingtons, 28 to 25. Kubilus scored 8 points for the G. W.'s.

Inter-Lodge Bowling

Hammering games of 234, 201 and 190, Pugs Opalek polished off a 625 series, and Ox Kramer clipping 611 on games of 203, 229 and 179, enabled the George Washingtons to smash the maples for 977, 953 and 918 for a mighty 2868 total to take all three stanzas from the Betsy Ross, as they totaled 2664 with 895, 908 and 861 games. Marzikar, midget kegler for the Flagmakers, continued his fast gait for his teammates, blasting 200, 195 and 201 for a 596 count.

The Collinwood Boosters lost two games to the league-leading Spartans, in spite of hitting the 900 mark in all three encounters, collecting 905, 958 and 911 for 2774 to the Spartans' 978, 894 and 1003 for a 2875 series. Four of the ten keglers hit 600 scores, with Yonas' 610 leading the quartet, Wysopal's 604, J. Laurich's 602 and Milavec's 600 were the other good totals.

Inter-Lodge "B" League

Clipping games of 772, 747 and 827, the Merchant Strugglers copped two fracases from the George Washingtons as they hit the lumber for counters of 708, 834 and 757. Nahrigal's 536 was the big noise for the winners. Guzik's 521 was the G. W.'s best effort. The Betsy Ross were idle this week, as the Svetek Strugglers postponed the series, as they were spending the weekend in Yukon, Pa.

INDIAN SHORTS

Indian Cagers Score Another Victory

Chicago, Ill.—Indian Lodge cage quintet kept up its winning streak by defeating the Harrison Evening High School in a fast and furious game, by a score of 19 to 13. The victory was the third successive one for the Redmen, who are playing in the Chicago Evening American tournament.

The Indians scored a basket and a free throw before the opposing team made a basket. Another basket by the Indians and the quarter ended. The second quarter showed how evenly matched the teams were. Each team scored two baskets. A ringer by Harrison started the second half, narrowing the lead for the Redmen to one point. A charity toss by Al Spolar made the score 10 to 8. The third quarter ended with the Indians in the lead by a 13 to 9 margin. In the final quarter the Harrison men found the hoop three times, equaling the Redskins. Captain Al Spolar and Bill Hellwig were responsible for all the scoring, while Manager Otto Spolar played a splendid game at guard. Lineup:

For the latest in drinks see Otto Spolar. Here is his latest concoction: Two teaspoonsfuls of granulated sugar, a little ice, one-half a lemon, one-half an orange, one cup of gingerale and one cup of real varnish remover. Shake well. Make out your will, and then drink.

A few members report that the Tuesday socials are not what they should be. True enough, but, has it ever occurred to you that back of it all you members alone are to blame. These socials are intended mostly for the members of the Indian Lodge, but if an outsider wishes to come in he is welcome. And 8 p. m. is the time scheduled for these socials to start, but, as I have noticed, very few of the members are there at that time.

Are you helping the lodge increase its membership and develop the popularity that is so desired? No, you are not. Why do I say this, you might ask. Because I know for a fact that there are only four or five members of the lodge who are really trying to make a success of its affairs and to better its membership, while the rest just sit back and think that it is up to those four or five to liven things up a bit. Remember this, that when the Indian Lodge runs an affair it means that the Indian Lodge is running it and not one or two individuals. Every good and loyal member should strive to make the Indian Lodge the best and most popular club in the neighborhood. Make up your mind now to be at our socials on time every Tuesday and help out in as many ways as possible.

A young lady named Christine Hrvat bids the Harrison Technical High School a fond farewell on Jan. 29, for that is the day of her graduation. As Christine leaves the school with a four-year commercial course to her credit, she immediately steps into a position which she says is very much to her liking. We hope that you have the same good luck throughout the coming years, Christine.

Perhaps it would be interesting to know who does most of the scoring on our basketball team. Well, here's the way

Cleveland Bathhouse Breaks All Attendance RecordsH. M. Antoncic, Superintendent

St. Clair Bathhouse, Cleveland, O., broke all attendance records during the year 1931. Approximately a half million enjoyed the bathhouse facilities. Figures given out are as follows: Bathing 229,965, swimming 110,124, gymnasium and athletics 58,308, social and civic clinic 53,173.

The bathhouse has been in existence for many years, serving the community. It is situated in the heart of the Slovene settlement, but its scope of activities includes all nationalities. Being a municipal facility, it serves the public.

But it took Mr. Heinie Martin Antoncic, its superintendent, to establish these records. Classes suited to men, women, boys and girls were organized under his special guidance. Today finds the populace in and around St. Clair Ave. participating. Boys and girls who might otherwise be occupied with unwholesome activities during their spare time drop into the bathhouse and indulge in wholesome exercises.

After all, the neighborhood center was not built purely to accommodate the adults. The special aim of any such institution should be to interest youth, and especially boys and girls reaching the age of puberty. Should this type fall into the hands of unscrupulous people, and boys and girls with a lot of time on their hands and nothing to do sometimes are that unfortunate, they may be influenced to do the wrong things. Many a boy and girl has been the victim of such circumstances, and in some extreme cases caused their future life to be a mess.

Coming back to the Slovene superintendent, one cannot help but notice his sincerity in conducting the affairs of the bathhouse. Nothing is too small nor too big for him. A veritable human power of dynamo in ideas and execution of duties makes "Heinie" an ideal man to serve the community.

A pleasant personality and the willingness to help out a friend, lodge, or some civic affair has earned him a host of friends. Slovenes of Cleveland are exceedingly proud of him and his accomplishments.

LEAP YEAR LETTER

Chicago, Ill.
Dear Sweetheart:
Since it is Leap Year and it is up to the girls to propose, I am asking you to be my husband. We shall be married in the mountains of St. Louis. You will wear the wedding suit which my great-great-grandfather wore, and I shall wear the dress my great-great-grandmother wore. Our honeymoon will be spent in Douglas Park in the lily pool where the roses grow. We will return to our home by the drainage canal. I have already furnished it with a stove without the lifters and no poker, a table with three legs, four chairs without seats, a bed without a mattress and no springs. Dear, we shall have a very happy life together.

Your intended wife,

Rado Murnik:

NAVIHANI INDIJANI

(Konec.)

Veliki Gad torej ni židane volje, niti sestra ne. Minka bi rada sedela ob oknu, da bi videla, kako se suče Vladimir v službi. Toda tamkajšnja prostora sta bila že zasedena. Oddaleč je zagledala rdečo službeno čepico, ali nosil jo je tuj uradnik. Vladimira pa ni bilo odnikoder na izpogled. Edinole teta Liza je bila zadovoljna. Veselilo jo je, da ima ljubljeno trojico zdravo pri sebi in doma vse v redu.

Tedaj pozvani tretjič, izprevodnik zatrobi, stroj zapiska, voz se pretresa, kolesa dřídrajo. Strme opaža Žiži te neznane pojave. Velikega Gada pa navdahne visoka misel. Rahlo privzdigne pokrovček in uščipne mačka, ki bliskoma skoči iz košare skozi odprto okno vunka.

"Moj muc! Križ božji, moj Žiži!" zastoka prstrašena teta. "Oh, če ga je povozilo! Da sem moral res v petek na pot!"

"Nič je ne bo izkupil, mama," jo je tolažil zajeten dedec z višnjevim nosom. "Hudoba ga goni! Maček ima devet hudičev v repu!"

Sopotniki so se spustili v glasan smeh. Minka je mislila, da ji je uiti od sramu, Veliki Gad pa bi jim bil rad v zobe vrge marsikatero grenko in jim zavozal jezike; želel si je najostrejših strel in tomahakov, da bi postreljal in poskalpiral grohotajoče se belokožce. Potem bi že videli, kaj se pravi nagajati! Vsi Jamnikovi pa so bili veseli, ko je zaklical izprevodnik ime njih postaje.

IX.

Rešitev

Teta Liza je do letovanja na Gorenjskem izgubila malone vse veselje. Napisel se je utolažila vendor vsaj nekoliko. Po vprašala je brzojavno po beguncu in prejela odgovor, da o belem mačku z rdečim trakom ni ne duha ne sluha. Vsa žalostna je povešala glavo, ki jo je dičil zopet skalp v star krasoti.

"Telegram, teta, telegram!" je s preletečim glasom zavpli ostrovitni Indijanec drugo jutro, ko je zagledal poštnega usluženca.

Cemerikava gospodična se je zgenila. Dala je brzojavko nečakinj, naj jo odpre . . .

"Žiži pride v nedeljo za vama," je brala Minka.

"Ju!" je vzkliknil Veliki Gad.

"Kaj?" se je razveselila teta. Moj Žiži še živi! Dober človek se ga je usmilj—kdo pa je podpisana?"

"Vladimir Bukovnik," je počasno izgovarjala mlada gospodična, in zagorevalo ji je v obrazu. Prvikrat je imenovala njega ime vpričo drugih.

V nedeljo zjutraj po maši sta sedeli teta in nečakinja sami v pritlični sobi in pletli. Minka je bila nekoliko bleda. V danu sreca je bila preverjena, da ga ni nešrečnejšega dekleta od nje. Zakaj kratkonikoli mu ne odpusti teta, da je videl "njene" lase na tleh! In vsega tega so krivi le Indijanci! Stvar je pravzaprav smešna. In vendor je potocila Minka že toliko gremkih solza . . .

Teta Liza je imela sicer kratek pogled, pa tenak nos. Skrivaj je bila motrila vedenje Minkino. Natanko je dognala, zakaj je nečakinja izza tiste indijanske veselice na vrtu igrala samo v mitem molu, pa še to prav redkokdaj, in vstajala od klavirja z vlažnimi, trudnimi očmi, polnimi pritajene žalosti. Spominjala se je svojega nezvestega Italijana. Zlate ure prve, ako tudi nesrečne ljubezni, so ji bile še vedno nekaj svetega . . . Enkrat samkrat bridko prevarjeno, se ji je zaprolo srce in živelno v tih kapelik notranjosti samo zase bogato duševno življenje. Prav nič ni bilo gospodični Lizi do predsodkov, ki jih imajo podli in plitvi značaji o starem dekletu, o zarjaveli devici. Ali takrat je bolelo, takrat . . . In te bolečine, včasi tako odločilne vse žive dni, naj bi bila obvarovana vsaj ljubljena nečakinja . . .

O tem je premisljala teta Liza, dobra kakor duša, se nasmehnila in si privočila za en nos tobaka. Tako pa je zopet nabrala drobni obrazek v resne gube. In ko jo je Minka v grenkosladkem nemiru plašno pogledala za trenutek od strani, je bila docela uverjena, da od užaljene tete ni pričakovati nobenih odpustkov.

V tem pridrara voz pred hišo, in nekdo potrka na vrata.

"Klanjam se," pozdravlja Vladimir, ki je prišel seveda brez Azorja, "in prosim, da mi oprostite, ker vas motim tako zgodaj. Pa Žiži si ne da miru v svoji leseni ječi." Obtem odkrije pokrovličnega zabočka, in pogrešani Žiži skoči ginjeni gospodični Lizi v naročje.

"O ti ubogi mucek ti!" je zapela teta. "Kako je to lepo, da se spet vidimo, zdravi in veseli! Kajne, to si se ustrašil, ko si se izgubil! Oh, če bi te bili pa povozili! Ti grdi mucek ti! Ti ubožec, no, no . . . ti siromaček, no, no . . . ti revček! Ali si kačen?"

Žiži, od mehkih glasov, svoje dobrotnice še sam ginjen, se je dragomilil okolo nje, sočutno skomuckal in predel na glas.

Vladimir in Minka pa sta se veselila, da se je teta bavila zgolj z najdenčkom, in sta si povedala v kratkem s pogledi več, nego more razložiti devet pisem. Gospodična Liza se je zdela Bukovniku odkonča že zmeraj precej za robom zavezana, vendor ni dolgo vihala nos.

"Oh," se je okrenila k njemu, "oprostite mi, gospod Bukovnik, čisto sem vam pozabila ponuditi stola! Hudo sem v zadregi, kako bi povedala, da sem vam neizrečeno hvaležna. Prosim vas, blagovolite pozabiti, kar je bilo neprijetnega . . . nesrečen slujčaj . . . saj me razumete?" In zdaj pa povejte, kako se vam je posrečilo oteti našega mucka!"

"Žiži se je zatekel v skladisču," je uslužno odgovarjal Vladimir. "Včeraj ga je zapazil tam delavec in mi ga pokazal. Spoznal sem ga seveda precej in . . . veseli me, da sem vam, milostiva, mogel biti na uslugo. Obenem vas prosim zamere!"

Rešitelj mačeta je moral ostati pri kosilu in obljuditi, da pride skoro zopet. Pridno sta ponavljala z drugošolcem matematike. Ivan je preizkušnjo dovršil prav dobro in imenoval Vladimira za moža-medicinca in častnega člena Deleverov. Tudi teti Lizi se je prikupil mladi uradnik čimdalje bolj. In ko je nekega dne prišel povprašati za Minko, je starka židane volje blagoslavljala presečno dvojico. Gospod Veliki Gad pa ni zini drugega nego "Ju—!"

Ivan Jamnik in njegovi tovariši so že zdavnaj zakopali bojno sekiro in se olili v pristne Evrope. Z mirnim smehljam se spominja ta ali oni romantičnih uric v vigtvamu in v pragozdu, zlasti kadar se plete pogovor o korenjaških Burih.

Le njih sovražnik, belokožec Žiži, ni izpremenil svojega nemajnega značaja. In ko je, od mučnega počivljanja truden, opešal in se naveličal vsega dobrega, je dala žalostna gospodična Liza prirediti njegove zemeljske ostanke v trajen spomin. Z žaganjem napačen, s steklenimi očmi in z lepo zavitim repom počiva na eni tetinah omar. Lahko mu bodi žaganje!

DOPISI

(Nadaljevanje iz 5. strani) Hodnji konvenciji bi bilo treba nekaj ukreniti, posebno za tiste, ki so že dolgo člani v organizaciji, pa zdaj težko zmagujejo asesmente.

Angleško poslujoče društvo St. John the Baptist, št. 192 JSKJ, je kljub slabim časom še dobro napredovalo. V preteklem letu je vpisalo 16 novih članov in članic. Zdaj šteje to novo in mlado društvo 49 članov v odraslem in 5 članov v mladinskem oddelku. Za to gre največ zahvala in priznanje društvenemu tajniku, sobratu J. Dresharju. Želim, da bi ta agilni tajnik imel v tekočem letu še več uspehov, kot jih je imel v preteklem. Društvo je organiziralo športni klub (baseball in basketball). Oba "team" sta nas stala precej denaria. Res smo bili dobili iz jednotinega športnega fonda $50, toda to ne zadostuje za stroške. Radi tega se je društvo odločilo, da priredi na večer 6. februarja plesno veselico, ki se bo imenovala "Oldtimers Hardtime Dance." Veselica se bo vrnila v prostorij Mrs. J. Francel, poleg Kukarjeve prodajalne, in se bo pričevali za strap, ki jim bo prejali slej uničil zdravje. Narave niso mogoče goljufati. Vsak greh proti njej je treba enkrat govoriti plačati s pokoru. Marsikje bi danes ne bilo potrebe in revščine, če bi v boljših časih ne bi bilo šlo toliko za munšajn; marsikdo ne bi še počival pod rušo in marsikdo ne bi vzdihoval v bolečinah na postelji, če bi bil rabil svojo pamet in pustil strupevno žganje butlegarjem, da ga sami popijejo. Pa tudi marsiktera podpora organizacija bi bila finančno dosti na boljšem, če bi se njeni člani ne zastrupili sami.

Chicago, Ill. — Društvo Jugosloven, št. 104 JSKJ je zopet obiskala smrt in svojo neizprosno roko ugrabiла iz naše srede dobro članico. Dne 2. januarja 1932 je namreč umrla sestra Frančiška Gartner. Pokojna sestra je bila najstarejša članica; umrla je v starosti 63 let. Pri društvu je bila 17 let. Lahka naj ji bo ameriška zemlja! Preostalim pa izrekam v imenu društva iskreno sožalje. Proti koncu leta 1931 je izgubilo naše društvo najmlajšo, v začetku leta 1932 pa najstarejšo članico; to je dokaz, da smrt nje ne izbira. Takšni slučaji bi bili lahko rahel opomin nekaterim članom, ki tako lahkomiselno zaradi kakih malenkosti puščajo društva in J. S. K. Jednote. Naj bo torej izrečena najlepša hvala uradnikom Zvezde, kateri tudi zastopnikom in zastopnicami. Vsemu članstvu JSKJ vočim mnogo sreča, uspehov in zadovoljstva v letu 1932.

Z bratskim pozdravom, je še dovolj časa. Tako sedaj moramo začeti redno hoditi na seje in tam povedati svoje misli glede pravil in drugih stvari, tikojočih se društvetv in Jednote. Le ako se bomo skrbno pričakujemo od nje uspehov in koristi, da nas ne bodo zopet presenetili različni slučaji, kot so nas mogoče od zadnje konvencije.

Kar se tiče asesmenta, posim članstvo, da naj plačujejo bolj redno; mislim, da je vsem znano, da iz društvene blagajne se ne zaklada, izvzemši za člana, ki sam pride in prosi na seji. Tajnik sam ne more ničesar storiti v tej stvari, da bi pa zakladal iz svojega, se mi zdi neumestno, ker mnogo je članov, ki ne plačajo 25. v mesecu, lahko pa takoj že črez dva ali tri dni, in to potem, ko je že prepozno. Iz tega je razvidno, da ni v zvoku, da ne moremo plačati, ampak da imamo neko čudno razvado, da je vseeno, kdaj plačamo. To pa seveda ni res, vsem mora biti gotovo znano, da asesment mora biti vsaki zadnji dan v mesecu že v glavnem uradu. Pri raznih prilikah radi poudarjam, da tajnik nima dosti dela z društvetvom, kar bi bilo tudi res, aki bi se vsi člani zavedali, da morajo plačevati redno asesment, čitati iz glasil v vsaj važna naznanila iz glavnega urada, in to ne v kolist tajnika, pač pa v svojo kistor. Žal, da nekateri vsega tega ne vpoštevajo, in ti dajo več dela tajniku, kot 100 dobrih članov, in tem naj v prvi vrsti veljajo te vrstice. Več kooperacije med tajnikom in člani društva, pa bo vse dobro!

Z bratskim pozdravom,

Anton Krapenc,

tajnik društva št. 104 JSKJ.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Podpisana članica društva Marije Vnebovzete, št. 182 JSKJ se tem potom najlepše zahvaljujem Zvezji JSKJ društvetv v Pensilvaniji, ki mi je iz svoje blagajne nakazala podporo v obliki dvamesečnega društvenega asesmenta. S tem so zastopniki pokazali, da se zavedajo pomena besede bratstvo. Na ta način so izvršili dvojno dobro delo: so obdržali članico v Jednoti, ko je bila v potrebi, in zvišali so ugled J. S. K. Jednote. Naj bo torej izrečena najlepša hvala uradnikom Zvezde, kakov tudi zastopnikom in zastopnicam. Vsemu članstvu JSKJ vočim mnogo sreča, uspehov in zadovoljstva v letu 1932.

Kate Maurin.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Pozivljam članice Marije Vnebovzete, št. 182 JSKJ, da se udeležijo prve, ki se bo vrnila 7. februarja v navadnih prostorih.

časih je posebno potrebno, da po možnosti vse članice prihajajo na seje, kajti blagajne so prazne in je težko zakladati za članice. Vsaka članica naj bi prišla na sejo in tam povedala, kako misli da bi bilo najboljše za društvo in Jednoto. Same uradnice ne morejo ničesar ukreniti.

Naj se omenim, da bo v soboto 30. januarja priredila Zvezja JSKJ za Pensilvanijo v Slovenskem domu v Pittsburghu zanimivo prireditev. V to svrhu se že pridno pripravljajo igralci iz Pittsburgha, Exporta in Canonsburga. Vršile se bodo namreč tri igre, vprizorjene od treh društvetv. Po zavrnjenih igrah bo ples in prosta zabava. Postrežba bo prvo vrstna. Oh, boy! da vidite naše kuharice! Da bi le tudi natkarili bili tako pripravljeni in postrežni! Vstopnina je samo 35 centov za odrasle, za otroke pa 15 centov. Dobrček prireditev je namenjen zvezni blagajni. Vse članice našega društva vabim, da se gotovo udeležijo te zanimive prireditev. Vabljeni pa so tudi vse ostale rojake in rojakinje iz Pittsburgha, da pridejo v Slovenski dom na 57. cesti na večer 30. januarja.

S sestrskim pozdravom,

Mary Čadonič,

tajnica dr. št. 182 JSKJ.
