AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

Current Thought

OUR PHOTOGRAVURE SECTION

Realizing the keen interest displayed by our members in the second juvenile convention, it was decided to publish the pictures of all delegates in session at Ely, Minnesota, in this issue of Nova Doba.

Eighty-six qualified delegates representing various SSCU lodges were elected; however, but eighty-one pictures are published, inasmuch as the remaining five delegates failed to submit a photograph of themselves to the office of Nova Doba.

Juvenile delegates attending the convention will do well to save this copy of Nova Doba for future reference, for the business sessions and the entertainment built around the convention proper will long linger in their memories. The pictures of delegates with whom they came in contact will prove invaluable in the future when they will recall the second juvenile convention.

Many juveniles will clip the pictures of delegates and paste them in their scrap book. When we consider that this is the first time that individual pictures of juvenile delegates were published in the Nova Doba—and further, when we consider that the SSCU is the first and only Yugoslav fraternal to sponsor a juvenile convention—then the value of the pages of pictures becomes apparent.

The SSCU is the first Yugoslav fraternal to have the courage to undertake a juvenile convention proper. It is also the first fraternal of its kind to offer within easy reach the possibility to attend a juvenile convention. Hence, the unusual response in the way of approximately 3,000 new members enrolled in three months.

Our Union followed its unique idea by being the first to publish pictures of elected juvenile delegates. And now, it has gone one step further, by being the first to carry the entire list of individual pictures of delegates in one issue.

Our SSCU does not believe in doing things half way. When it decides to go through with an idea, it does so wholeheartedly.

The juvenile delegates are impressed with the SSCU, judging by the various letters submitted for publication. The excellent support they received from lodge officers, parents, relatives and friends in turn will yield a rich harvest for the Organization.

The juvenile convention idea, in our estimation, is the beginning of a new era of endeavor by our juvenile members in the excellent work undertaken by our Union.

Female Reformer (visiting jail)—You say your love for books brought you here? Just how did that happen?
Prisoner—They were pocket-books, lady.

Sharp—Loan me a dime for carfare home.
Flat—Sorry, but all I have in the world is one 50-cent piece.
Sharp—That will be swell. I can take a taxi home.

To the Young Delegates...

You are the delegates of the second juvenile convention of SSCU who have gathered in the city where the SSCU was organized—that is the country of ten thousand lakes.

Just as the bud unfurls and in time blooms to maturity, so will you, in time, bloom and contribute further to the growth of SSCU.

You are young, healthy and full of youthful ambition. You have better opportunities and in many cases better chances to further the work of our SSCU than the conditions which prompted the organizers to go ahead with the work of starting the SSCU.

Therefore, it is necessary that you get fully acquainted with your Union, that you recognize the advantages offered by the SSCU in the way of insurance benefits, that you fully appreciate the feeling expressed towards you by your Union—you in turn will feel more closely attached to the SSCU and become its greatest boosters in the future.

It is with this thought in mind that your parents, your lodge officers—and in fact the entire membership of your lodge—sent you to the second juvenile convention. They all want you to have a good time, but at the same time they also entertain a wish that you will cultivate a strong feeling for our Union.

You are full of life, and spirit of Spring envelopes you. Our adult membership hopes that you shall enliven the SSCU at least during this period of exuberancy, when it extended to you the opportunity to vacation in the beautiful and fresh Minnesota.

As worthy sons and daughters of your parents, our SSCU considers you as its greatest assets, and hopes that in the future, as men and women, that you not only will be good members, but also that you will be the greatest exponents and the best advertisers of the SSCU.

Popular Joliet Girl To Become Bride

Joliet, Ill. — Such songs as "The Love Bug Will Bite You" and "Will You Be Mine" have been replaced by "Love Is Everywhere", "Sweetheart, Let's Grow Old Together" and "There's Going to Be a Wedding." The occurrence for such an occasion is the approaching of an important event. Mr. and Mrs. John J. Jevitz, 1403 North Center Street, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Celia M. Jevitz to Mr. Louis Skul, twin son of Mrs. Mary and the late Mr. Frank Skul, 212 Vine Street. The ceremony is to take place on Labor Day, September 6.

Only relatives have been selected by the bride-elect and the groom to constitute the wedding party. Miss Elizabeth Jevitz, sister of the bride-elect will act as maid of honor, while Miss Lucille J. Jevitz, cousin of the bride and Miss Frances Skul, sister of the bridegroom-elect, shall be the bridesmaids. Mr. Albert Skul, twin brother of the bridegroom to be, has been selected as best man, while Mr. Jos. Skul, youngest brother of the groom, and Mr. Frank J. Jevitz Jr. have been selected as ushers.

Many parties have been planned for Miss Jevitz. They shall commence with a crystal shower, given by Miss Lucille J. Jevitz, August 11 in her home, at 1218 Oakland avenue. A linen shower will be given on August 12 by Mrs. F. A. Russ, 1324 Kelly Avenue, while a personal shower will be given August 17 by Miss Frances Skul, Miss Elizabeth Jevitz and Miss Lucille J. Jevitz at the McCulloch tea room.

Miss Frances Skul, 212 Vine Street, will honor the bride-elect at a miscellaneous shower August 19, while a hosiery and handkerchief shower will be given August 25 by Miss Elizabeth Jevitz, 1403 North Center Street, and a kitchen shower will be given August 24 when Mrs. J. L. Jevitz will be hostess to the women of the SSCU club, of which Miss Jevitz is a member.

The series of parties will be climaxed August 29, when Miss Lucille J. Jevitz and Mr. Frank Jevitz, Jr. will be hostess and host to the wedding party and a few close friends of the couple.

Miss Jevitz is a most active member of the Joliet Ladies of SSCU. She is the first of the group to be united in marriage, since the founding of the club. Our heartiest congratulations are extended to both the bride and the groom. May their future lives be filled with the supremest of marital joys!

BRIEFS

The second biennial juvenile convention of our SSCU, in progress Friday and Saturday of this week, has the spacious Washington school auditorium for its setting. A large crowd of visitors are expected, and all juvenile members in Ely are invited to attend the proceedings as guests of the Union. Included in the program of entertainment for delegates is a mammoth picnic Sunday, August 8, at Sandy Point. The supreme officers in attendance for the semi-annual meeting also will be present during the juvenile convention.

Junior Slovene School of the Slovene National Home in Cleveland, O., will hold its annual picnic on Sunday, August 15 at Mocičnikar's farm.

Two visitors from Conemaugh, Pa., dropped in the Nova Doba office last week. Alice Tomec and Mary Tomec, both members of lodge No. 36, SSCU visited Cleveland where they also attended the Great Lakes Exposition on the lakefront.

Martin Regina, president of lodge No. 40, SSCU of Claridge, Pa., is spending about three weeks in northern part of New York state, around Lake Ontario.

The next issue of Nova Doba will appear on August 18th, since the August 11th edition will be omitted in order to give the editorial staff a one week's vacation.

Juvenile Convention

East Palestine, O. — The opportunity to attend the juvenile convention, soon to be in session, is a fitting reward for the youngsters who worked so faithfully to gain it. Proud should these youth be who won this distinction. The junior delegates have done a fine piece of work. Can anyone sincerely begrudge them this trip to the convention city? A trip very educational and entertaining.

It was the ambition of a previous generation, to build a strong fraternal organization into whose fold those seeking protection for themselves and their families, might enter. Grateful to the pioneers of the SSCU is the present generation, whose ambition and enthusiasm is steadily molding that same institution into a powerful influence in the world of fraternalism.

Joe Golicic

Lodge No. 198

Central City, Pa. — Lodge No. 198, SSCU will hold a picnic on Saturday, August 21 in the Polish Hall. Members, friends and acquaintances of Johnstown, Lloydell and other neighboring communities are cordially invited to attend. Excellent music has been secured for the occasion.

Vincent Maljevac, Sec'y

Young man—Sir, your charming daughter has invited me to dinner.

Her father—I'll do better than that. I'll invite you to breakfast. Then you can see how she looks in the morning without her make-up on.

Lodge 33 Changes Picnic Date To August 15th

Center, Pa. — As previously stated in the Nova Doba, the picnic which was to have been held on July 25, by lodge No. 33 has been cancelled. On Sunday, August 15, this lodge will hold its picnic for the purpose of celebrating its thirty-fifth anniversary. The celebration will take place at Klemencic's farm, a few miles from Center, near Renton.

An orchestra which will fulfill the desires of all has been secured. Refreshments will be served. Admission to the grounds will be free, although the admission charge to the dance floor will be 25 cents.

Remember everybody! If you want to have a good time on August 15, come to Klemencic's farm.

Because of the picnic, the regular meeting which is usually held on the third Sunday of every month, will be held on the second Sunday, August 8.

Ladies of SSCU Entertained

Joliet, Ill. — A charming hostess, indeed, was Miss Helen Kozlica, on July 21, when she entertained the Ladies of SSCU at her home.

Following the termination of the meeting, the girls were beckoned to the hostess' lawn where quartet tables were placed. Here, the evening was spent informally. Games were played and the winners were awarded prizes. The recipients of these lovely gifts were Mrs. F. E. Vranichar, Miss Lucille M. Jevitz, and Mrs. J. L. Jevitz.

After the winners had been determined, Miss Kozlica displayed most graciously her charm as a hostess. A delightful luncheon was served at a large table centered with the gorgeous bouquet of freshly cut flowers. The color scheme carried throughout was peach and blue. It was very novel and artistic, to say the least.

Having assured our hostess that we had a most enjoyable time, we departed for our abodes, to meet again on August 26, as guests of Miss Jeannette Kosick, 1124 Oakland Avenue.

Lodge No. 70

Chicago, Ill. — All members of lodge Zvon, No. 70, SSCU are hereby notified that I have changed my place of residence, which now is located at 3144 S. Ridgeway Ave., Chicago, Ill. All members are requested to be governed accordingly when paying assessments at my home, or when mailing in the assessments.

Andrew Bavetz, Sec'y

Ely, Minn. — While hundreds of the United States SSCU'ers throught anxiously await that post card from their son or daughter-delegate at Ely, Little Stan pounds the typewriter keys with enthusiasm in an effort to vividly portray some of the doings at Ely. Besides, Little Stan has that movie camera all tuned up, and has already taken some nice shots.

Wednesday is publishing day at the Nova Doba office. It is the day when Little Stan rushes thru his private work in order to get through in time to catch that bus for Duluth where, on the morrow he will meet the entire delegation. Next day, people will be receiving and reading the paper. Delegates will have arrived in Ely on that day, and will apparently be all eyes and ears to see what this little city of 7,000 population looks like.

Friday, when most people will have received this issue of the paper, brings us up to date, especially as far as the middle west in concerned. Today (Friday in Ely) the first session of the convention is opened. This afternoon, delegates will be at the Indian reservation. You can be sure that everyone is enjoying themselves very very much.

Little Stan wants to take time out for a moment to relate a very "funny" incident. One day last week, Wednesday to be exact, a day before the Ely Shopper went to press, a group of his friends sat around. Conversation turned to the juvenile convention which at that time was due the following week.

That camera came into the limelight. "Are you going to take it with you to Duluth?" asked Pal Doc Zgonc. Little Stan was undecided, but felt that he might.

"How are you going to get shots of the train coming in then?" Friend Zgonc asked again. Then the fun really started. Partner Mochnik offered several suggestions. "Ten to Ten" Tony offered a few more. To no avail.

Someone suggested that Stan ride on the train until he hits Robinson lake. From there he must leap off, and board a railroad handcar; then "pump" his way into Ely, a distance of only 8 miles, to come in ahead of the train! That wasn't so funny until Labernik, and Zgonc visioned Little Stan and his long legs, pumping furiously in a desperate effort to reach Ely ahead of the delegates. They also portrayed the train catching up to Little Stan, and they pictured the whistle screaming to get out of the way! The situation provoked so much laughter, that everyone laughed so hard they rolled around the floor with tears in their eyes!

But it all died down, and when it was over, Little Stan had yet to find some means to get that camera to Ely before the train came in. Maybe he will yet find a way. Heh! Heh!

Supreme Trustees are in the city busily engaged in completing the semi-annual audit of books and records of our Union. Monday the supreme board session began, as other officers arrived.

Where the hot sun is beating mercilessly in the cities, people whose loved one are attending the second Juvenile convention will be tickled to know that it is nice and cool in Ely. Days are nice and warm. Nights are cool and invigorating. So don't be surprised if your boy or girl returns home with an added luster to their cheeks, or perhaps a pound or two heavier.

Next week is vacation week for the Editor of Nova Doba and the staff. So, the week after next you will see a complete report of the Juvenile convention in the headlines!

The story will be detailed and complete. So watch for it! And have fun—just like you attended the entire affair yourself. So until the week after the vacation, Little Stan will say adieu! BUT HE WILL BE BACK!

Joany—Mother, if baby were to eat some tadpoles, would they give him a deep bass voice like big frogs have?

Mother—Gracious, no! They would kill him.

Joany—Well, they didn't.

Insurance Salesman—Rastus, you better let me write you an accident policy.

Rastus—No, sah! Ah ain't any too safe at home as it am.

Commencement Visitor—What's the building over there?
Sophomore—Oh, that's our new greenhouse.

Visitor—Since when did colleges start to give freshmen a dormitory all to themselves?
