

OCTOBER HIGHLIGHTS

Communicable Disease:

This has been the worst polio year in the public health history of Cleveland...

Community-wide Planning Meeting for Diabetes Detection Week:

On October 13, 120 representing industry, labor, business, social, civic, fraternal and church groups...

unteer, Transportation and Business, Industry and Labor Committees were formed at this meeting...

Exhibit at Food Show:

The Sub-division of Food and Drug prepared an exhibit featuring its inspection services...

Cleveland — "Health Center of the World" For One Week:

More than 4,000 persons, representing 36 affiliated public health groups came from all parts of the country and the world October 20-24 to attend the 80th Annual Meeting of the American Public Health Association...

Staff Additions:

The position of Educational Director of Nurses has been filled by Miss Clara A. Traver. Miss Traver is well qualified for this position...

New Telephone Number:

The Bureau of Health Education now has two new extension numbers, 363 and 364, at TO-1-4600.

John J. Pokorny, Civil Defense Director for Cleveland emphasized the fact that these tags have tremendous peacetime value...

While the wearing of the tags is not compulsory "it is hoped all children will wear them constantly" said Pokorny.

The program which has the sanction of both public and parochial school officials was tried out last May in three schools as a pilot test.

Postering the project for Civil Defense is the Mayors Public Information Committee made up of local people in public relations, radio, newspaper and other media of advertising and promotion.

The first of the air raid shelter street signs have been erected by the Civil Defense office of Cleveland.

According to John J. Pokorny, Civil Defense Director this is a step nearer a complete Civil Defense program for Cleveland and the County.

"NO HELP WANTED"

COLUMBUS, Ohio—A foreshadowing of things to come in government circles was seen today as Ernest Cornell, Administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, hung out the "No Help Wanted" sign and said no new appointments would be made except where vitally necessary to maintain Bureau efficiency.

Cornell, who has adhered to an economy program since his appointment to his present post by Governor Lausche March 1, 1951, told assembled division and department heads that the new personnel policy was part of a general retrenchment program designed to lower still further the cost of operating the Bureau which now has some 2100 employees on the payroll.

Part II. For thin, medium and thick white sauce: Add 1 cup water to 1/4 cup mix, 1/2 cup mix by Governor Lausche March 1, 1951, told assembled division and department heads that the and herbs or spices.

UČIMO SE HRANITI (Hranimo denar)

S prvim decembrom, bodo prejeli vsi, ki so v tekočemu letu pripadali hranilnemu klubu za tedenske vloge, na svoj dom, ves ta shranjen denar. Kako prav jim bo prišel! Lahko si bodo zanj kupili božična darila, sebi ali za svoje, ali pa bodo dejali prihranjen denar kamorkoli jim drago.

KAKO LEPA ČEDNOST JE HRANITI DENAR! Nad vse nujno pa je to, da naučimo tudi naše otroke, katerim želimo dobro in boljše bodočnosti. Srečni starši in še srečnejši otroci, če se naučijo hraniti denar. Nimam dovolj besedi, s katerimi bi mogel dovolj jasno in vredno popisati dejstvo, ki se nanaša na hranjenje denarja, pri mladini v obče.

Iz dobe otroškega življenja se zida poznejša podlaga, od katere bo otrok odvisen vsa poznejša leta. Kako važno je to, ki se pa da v času mladosti izkoristiti staršem za njihovo in za otroče dobro, če se jih vadi hraniti, bilo to v eni ali drugi priliki, posebno pa v denarju, katerega otroci tako radi izdajajo za sladki cukereček, po katerem največkrat glavca boli.

Velikokrat sem premišljeval, ko sem videl razvado trošenja denarja, ki bi imel biti enkrat tako nujno potreben, če bi le kdo otroka poučil v njegovi nevednosti, da bo ta nikol ali ta desetica enkrat igral, oziroma igrala veliko vlogo.

Ni na tem, da se gre za ta nikol in desetico sedaj, več kot to, je PRINCIP, NAVADA HRANENJA. Sam po sebi računam. Hvalo pripisujem tem, ki so me učili na hranenje. Starši in takratna šolska oblast, je nas otroke učila na hranjenje enega krajčerja. Moja mama je rada rekla: Če ni krajčerja, ne bo goldinarja. Če ne bi imel takih naukov in učiteljev, ne bi nikoli bil mogel biti drugega, nego navadni trpin in delavec, kakoršnih je vse povsod, premalo pa takih, da bi lahko še kaj komu drugemu pomagali.

Vse to mi sedaj, ko se nahajam pri hranilni instituciji, prihaja pred oči. Potem pa vidim tudi mnoge slučaje, kjer bi bilo varčno gospodarstvo nujno potrebno, a ga ni, ker niso imele osebe prilike dobiti v zgodnjih letih naukov in vzgledov, se naučiti gospodarskega hranjenja. Le koliko je na tem zamujenega in zgubljenega, za kar mnogi trpijo sedaj na posledicah. Tudi ni na tem, da je treba hraniti preveč ali s silo. To niti ne bi bilo dobro in ne praktično. Hraniti je treba začeti z enim centom. Dobro volje in navade je treba. Vse to se doseže pri mlačkih z lahkoto, s prijazno besedo in dobro voljo, kakor da ste vsadili na vrto cvetko s koreninico, ki bo o prvemu solncu lepe prilike obrodilo cvet. Iz tega pa bo morda ta otrok postal imenitna trgovska osebnost. Začeti in poskusiti je treba, to pa že v otroških letih.

CAROLYN BUDAN IN CONCERT DEBUT

Miss Carolyn Budan, popular soprano with the Glasbena Matice local chorus and a soloist with the St. John's Cathedral Choir, will make her debut in a concert on Sunday, November 30th. The concert will be held in the auditorium of the Slovenian National Home, 6417 St. Clair Ave.

Miss Budan's repertoire will include traditional Slovenian folk songs, such as: "Pri zibelci," "Padale so cvetne sanje," "Poljska," "Oh, ljubi očka dragi," and others. Miss Budan's high soprano will do justice also to the classical and semi-classical compositions, which will be undoubtedly well received: "Ave Maria," "Indian Love Call," "Voices of Spring," aria from the opera "Tosca" and another from Puccini's opera "Lastavica," which will be presented for the first time along with other numbers.

A native of Cleveland, Miss Budan has been active with local singing and dramatic groups for a number of years. Her pleasing personality and willing cooperation at numerous civic, social and charitable affairs have gained her many well-wishing friends who will reward her tireless efforts in the cultural field by a record attendance that will make Miss Budan's debut a tremendous success.

The curtain will rise at 4 p. m. sharp. As an added attraction to the well selected program, Mrs. Vera Mlavec-Slejko, an accomplished pianist will present "Claire de Lune" and a waltz by Chopin. She will also accompany Miss Budan.

Mr. Anton Schubel, formerly with the Metropolitan Opera, and currently director of the majority Slovenian Choruses in Cleveland and its vicinity, is Miss Budan's voice teacher and director of her concert.

POSTMASTER'S SUGGESTIONS FOR PROMPT DELIVERY

The Post Office is again making every effort to encourage patrons to do their Christmas mailing early and to include the postal delivery zone number as part of the address on greeting cards and gift parcels. Mail matter on which the postal delivery zone number is omitted can only be distributed by highly trained post office employees, and the limited number of experienced employees available is unable to cope with the gigantic task of handling the Christmas mails without full cooperation of the mailing public.

As a public service without obligation, the post office will add the correct delivery zone numbers to patron's Greater Cleveland mailing lists. However, patrons are urged to submit their list for zoning not later than December 8. Each list must be identified with the patron's own name and address, set aside and underscored, to enable the letter carriers to return the completed lists.

Send holiday greetings as first-class mail to obtain the many advantages which this service affords. Such greetings prepaid at the first-class rate of only 3 cents per ounce may be sealed and contain written messages; they are dispatched and delivered first; forwarded, if necessary, without additional charge and, if undeliverable, returned at no further expense to the mailer provided the sender's return address is shown on the envelope.

Greeting cards bearing particles of glass, metal, mica, tinsel, and other similar substance for decorative purposes which are likely to rub off and injure postal employees or damage canceling machines, must be enclosed in tightly sealed envelopes and postage prepaid 3 cents per ounce, in order that such cards may be accepted for mailing.

To help speed delivery of Christmas greetings, patrons should make separate bundles of LOCAL and OUT-OF-TOWN cards. Arrange addresses faced up with stamps in the upper right corner and attach to the top of each bundle one of those distinctively designed, red and white, labels furnished by letter carriers. Use white label with red lettering for local (Greater Cleveland) cards, and red label with white lettering for out-of-town greetings. Mail so prepared has a tremendous advantage over letters dropped loose into mail boxes.

Many articles are damaged in the mails when they are not properly packed or wrapped to withstand the necessary handling. All gifts should be carefully cushioned and tightly packed in strong double-faced corrugated containers, wrapped in heavy paper, and tied with four separate pieces of extra strong cord, two lengthwise and two crosswise, knotted at crossings.

Early mailing is especially important, and the earlier the better. To assure delivery before Christmas Day, follow this condensed time-table:

GIFT PARCELS
Dec. 6 Out-of-State
Dec. 10 Ohio
Dec. 15 Greater Cleveland

GREETING CARDS
Dec. 8 Out-of-State
Dec. 13 Ohio
Dec. 15 Greater Cleveland

Early mailers are permitted to mark parcels "Do Not Open Until Christmas."

Save time by purchasing an adequate supply of postage stamps in advance of the rush period.

Package gift packages securely. Address mail correctly. Use delivery zone numbers. Bundle greeting cards. Mail early.

—Joseph F. Prosser,
Postmaster

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. John Barbre of 22620 Tracy Ave. announce the birth of their son William Michael, born on November 14th. This gives the Barbre family one daughter and two sons. The proud grandparents for the eighth time are Mr. and Mrs. Michael I. Lah, who until a few days ago lived at 18900 Kildeer Ave., and now at 25595 Chatworth Dr., Euclid.

A baby girl first-born was born November 21st to Pvt. and Mrs. Edward Ann Zeilinski. The baby girl was named Janice Ann. Proud grandparents for the second time are Mr. and Mrs. John Bacurin of 1040 E. 77 St., and for the first time Mr. and Mrs. B. Zeilinski of Wickliffe, O. The proud papa is serving Uncle Sam with the armed forces in Korea.

ADVENTURE SERIES

It has long been a question as to which is the real attraction, Capt. C. W. R. Knight who comes to Cleveland on December 3rd or his trained Golden Eagle, Mr. Jack Ramshaw, whom he brings along with him. The two are inseparable so perhaps it is a fifty-fifty break.

This is the eighth presentation of "Round the World Adventure Series at Masonic Auditorium. The all color film is "Scotland." Scotland ends the first part of the series. To be resumed after the holidays on January 7th with a film on Portugal.

Capt. Knight and Mr. Ramshaw—the most unusual and entertaining team to be found anywhere! Mr. Ramshaw is the most famous eagle in the world—Capt. Knight is a raconteur of excellence—"Scotland" a color film you will never forget!

An added thrill is the eagle's flight unleashed around the auditorium. Ramshaw is 23 years old with an eight foot wingspread, and has been Capt. Knight's constant companion for the past 22 years. It is one thing to see an eagle in a cage, another to see one in hotel lobbies, auditoriums, taxi cabs, even in manicure shops having his talons manicured! The eagle will be seen in the film of course which begins at Glasgow... then to Ben and Loch Lomond. A view of Inverary Castle... the wearing of the Kilt—how the Kilt originated. On to the Mull of Kintyre... a look at Northern Ireland. Great Glen Cattle Ranch, something new in Scotland. John O'Groats and Cape Wrath... heather at its best. Visit the moor in the Butts where King Edward shot annually, Grouse. Aberdeen, principal business... Dundee... Perth... Stirling Castle... Edinburgh... Firth of Forth and Fife... Krail... etc. Many unusual sequences as the audience roams Scotland with an eagle as guide.

The nationally famous Caledonia Pipe Band of Cleveland—in full kilt dress—will be on stage in person—as an introduction to the beautiful film of Scotland.

Tickets for "Scotland" and all future travelogues are now on sale at Burrows, 419 Euclid Avenue and at the Masonic Auditorium, 36th and Euclid.

BAZAAR NEXT SATURDAY

A big bazaar will be held on Saturday, December 6th, 1952 in Room No. 1 of the Slovenian National Home, St. Clair Ave., given by the Progressive Slovene Women of America, Circle No. 2. Do your Xmas shopping at the bazaar where you will be able to purchase beautiful hand-craft and hand-made articles for less than you would pay for ordinary goods elsewhere. We will have dozens of beautiful pillow cases, aprons, hankies, pot holders, etc., in addition to delicious home baked goods. This will be our 15th annual bazaar, and I can honestly say that our members are getting better and better with so many years of experience, so their products are really a work of art. So come one and all, Saturday, December 6, from 2—11 p. m.

COLLINWOOD JUVENILE CHORUS PRESENTS CONCERT IN SWH

The only Slovene Juvenile Chorus to survive for more than fifteen years will present its fall concert of the season on Sunday, November 30th in the auditorium of the Slovene Workmen's Home on 15335 Waterloo Rd.

Under the supervision of a group of conscientious men and women together with the management of the SWH and director Mr. Joseph Gregor, the youngsters, ranging in age from 6 years to 14 years, will delight the public with such pleasing folk songs as: "Marko skače," "Najlepša je mladost," "Ptički po zraku letajo," "Uspavanka," "Večerna," "Kolo" and "Kdo bo listje grabil," which will be sung by the chorus; Connie Kozel will render "Oj, večer je že," and "Vse mine," Karen Ogrin will sing "Kiss of Fire," while Mary Sustar will present "Ko ptičica sem pevala" and Richard Tomšic will give with "Kje je moj mili dom" and "Ko sem k njej prišel." The octet consisting of: Connie Kozel, Carol Kozel, Joyce Vauter, Corrine Gubance, Betty Brencic, Valeria Papes, Margaret Bucar and Julie Girod will sing "Zdravica" and "En sustar me je vprašal," which promises to be a hit. Carol Kozel and Richard Tomšic will sing a duet: "Bledi mesec" and "Tiha luna." Intermingled with the vocal numbers will be accordion solos by Anthony Trennel and Valeria Papes, while Tomšic-Pavli orchestra will also present several numbers. The concert will conclude with the chorus singing "Sinoči je pela," "Pastirc pa pase ovce tri" and a medley of lively Slovene melodies. Miss Eleanor Pavli is accompanist.

Following the program which will begin promptly at 3:30 p. m., supper will be served in the lower hall. For the evening social Tomšic-Pavli orchestra will furnish the dance music.

The committee in charge of this ambitious group of young singers extends a cordial invitation to the general public to fill the auditorium of SWH on Sunday to capacity and delight the youngsters and encourage them to continue in their cultural efforts.
