The musical score consists of six staves of Gregorian chant notation. Each staff uses a single-line staff with vertical stems and small diamond-shaped note heads. The music is in common time, indicated by a 'C' at the beginning of the first staff. The notes are mostly short, with occasional longer notes indicated by a dot above the stem. The lyrics are written below each staff, corresponding to the musical phrases. The text is in Latin, with some words like 'Hei' and 'Defecit' appearing multiple times. The notation is typical of early printed music, using a single-line staff per voice.

CANTVS

EPITAPHIVM IN OBITVM INVICTISS:
ET CHRISTIANISS: ROMANORVM
Imperatoris Diui Ferdinandi Archiducis Austriæ.

Ioannes de Cleue A 7

A large musical score is presented in four-line staff notation. The music consists of several staves of varying lengths, each containing a series of black note heads. The lyrics are written below the staves in a cursive Gothic script. The lyrics describe the virtues and legacy of the deceased Emperor Ferdinand II, mentioning Austria, Danube, Calliope, and various heroic figures.

The lyrics are as follows:
