MAJSKE MISLI

Vsaka stvar na svetu ima svojo sončno in svojo senčno stran. Prav je, da vidimo obe. Življenje ni samo praznik in svetloba, pa tudi ni sama sužnost in sama tema. Neprijetne strani življenja občutimo brez posebnega prizadevanja enostavno zato, ker so nam neljube in ker bi jih radi izboljšali. Teh neljubih doživljajev je toliko, da vpričo njih dostikrat pozabimo na lepote in dobrote življenja. In to je napačno. Sončno razpoloženje in optimizem so tisti biseri, ki delajo življenje vredno življenja. Teh biserov pa je mnogo, samo če jih hočemo videti in tako rekoč pripoznati za svoje.

Ako smo zdravi mi in naše družine in ne trpimo faktičnega pomanjkanja, je že to samo na sebi neprecenljivo bogastvo in sreča. Če bi si to večkrat poklicali v spomin, bi se nam zdele razne vsakdanje neprijetnosti tako smešno malenkostne, da bi izginile kot jutranja megla pred sončnimi žarki.

Kdor nima nobenega dobrega in odkritosčnega prijatelja, je nesrečen in obžalovanja vreden človek. Takih nesrečev pa je malo. Vsak ima lahko prijatelje, če jih le hoče imeti, to se pravi, vsak si lahko pridobi in obdrži prijatelje, če je sam zmožen prijateljstva. Za prijateljstvo je vedno treba nekaj žrtvovati, toda tako žrtvovanje je prijetno. Le skrajno sebični in pretirano domisljavljaju, da si ne morejo prijateljev obdržati. Velika večina ljudi je dobra, postena in prijateljska in med to množico nam je lahko pridobiti in ohraniti prijatelje. Staro pravilo, katero je poudarjal že kitajski učenjak Konfucij pred tisočletji: "cesar ne želiš, da drugi tebi storijo, ne storil jutri tudi ti", velja še danes in nam še danes pridobiva in ohranja prijatelje.

Narava nam je včasih neprijazna, ali se nam vsaj zdi tako. Zimsko vreme nam je neprijetno in se mu po možnosti umikamo v varna zavetja. Toda, ko pomlad na zemljo dahnje, se zdi, da nas skuša narava tisočkrat odškodovati za vse zimske neprijetnosti. Kdor ne zna piti iz vrelca pomladanskih krasot, je revež, in kdor namenoma neće piti, je zakrnjen pustek. Morda je naše delo tako, da nimamo dovolj prilik za uživanje pomladnih lepot, toda proti samim sebi grešimo, če ne porabimo tistih priložnosti, ki se nam nudijo. Grešimo proti svojemu telesnemu zdravju in proti svojemu duševnemu razpoloženju. Kogar izprehod v mehkem pomladnem zraku, med milijardami cvetja in svežega zelenja ne razvedri in ne poživi, ni normalen človek.

Težko nam je, ko čitamo, da naši bratje, pa naj bodo pripadniki tega ali onega naroda v tem ali onem delu sveta, trijpo pomanjkanje in preganjanje ali da se morajo suženjsko zvijati pod biči raznih diktatorjev. Radi bi jim pomagali, če bi mogli, toda v večini primerov to ni mogoče. Lahko pa si poklicemo pri tem v spomin, kakšno velikansko bogastvo je naša osebna svoboda in ameriška toleranca. To bo pomnožilo našo srečo in vero v lepote življenja, obenem pa nas bo navdušilo, da to svobodo in toleranco po naših močeh čuvamo in širimo.

Ne glejmo vedno na same temne strani življenja, ampak iščimo in uživajmo tudi sončne žarke, ki prodirajo skozi megle raznih neizogibnih neprijetnosti. Pomnimo, da je naše življenje le toliko vredno, kolikor lepih in sončnih trenutkov nam je dalo, in pa, kolikor smo mi prispevali k sreči naših družin, naših prijateljev, naših sobratov, naših sodržavljanov in človeštva v splošnem. Ne pozabimo, da je velik, morda največji del naše sreče v tem, da osrečujemo ali vsaj skušamo osrečevati druge.

Na gotov način vršimo plemenito delo osrečevanja drugih tudi s tem, da smo dobri in agilni člani J. S. K. Jednote. Ako smo zdravi, pomagamo s prispevkami, ki jih plačujemo organizaciji, tistem sobratom in sosestram, katere je zadela bolezen ali nesreča. Ako pridobimo novega člana organizacije, nismo samo njej pomagali k rasti in napredku, ampak smo dotičnemu novemu članu tudi zasigurali pomoč za primer, da jo bo potreboval. Pomnimo, da se še nihče ni kesal, da je bil član naša Jednote, marsikater pa je že obžaloval, ker ni pravočasno pristopil. In morda je bilo tej zamudi vzrok dejstvo, da mu nihče ni pravočasno predstavil in priporočil naše organizacije.

V tem lepem letnem času je tudi priporočljivo in bratsko, da se včasih spomnimo tistih, katere je bolezen priklenila na posteljo, da ne morejo v oživljeno naravo, kjer "zlata vesna se v dobravi smeje, v tihem vetru šelestijo veje..." Obiščimo jih in prinesimo jim v bolniško sobo košček pomladi v obliki šopka svežih cvetlic. Morda imamo obilico cvetja doma na vrtu, kjer se ne bo nič pozhalo, če ga natrigamo šopek, morda ga dobimo pri sedu, morda ga lahko za mal denar kupimo. Sipati cvetje na gomile umrlih je lepa navada, toda veseliti se morejo cvetja le živi ljudje. Teh se v prvi vrsti spominjamajmo kot pravi prijatelji in bratje.

VSAK PO SVOJE

(Nadaljevanje s 1. strani)

super-kritikov. Samo ponijo se na prsi trkamo in prosimo dobre bogove, da bi ti kritiki le ne bili taki, kot so bili nekdanji samopostavljeni mehiški generali, ki jih je bilo sicer kot listja in trave, toda so bili reže brez armad.

Pravijo, da v tem lepem mesecu maju pametna deklica sama ponudi poljub fantu, ki je prepošten, da bi ga ukral, in preponosen, da bi prosil zanj. Prijatelj Cahej izvaja iz te kriatice, da je na svetu tako malo pametnih deklet ali pa jako malo poštenih in ponosnih fan-tov.

Iz imenika socialnega zavarovanja je razvidno, da je najpogosteši ameriški priimek Smith, ki pomeni kovač. Drugi najpogosteši ameriški priimek je v raznih niansah izvajan iz imena John, kar je po naše Janez, na tretjem mestu pa je Brown, kar pomeni toliko kot rjav ali rjavec. Iz tega lahko sklepamo marsikaj. Na primer, da je ta republika res trdnja in močna, ker jo je kovalo toliko kovačev. Dalje lahko sklepamo, da brez Janezov nikdar ni bilo in nikdar ne bo, pa vzemimo to reč kakor hočemo. In še naprej lahko sklepamo, da se imamo za hitri in silni gospodarski razvoj te-dežele v veliki meri zahvaliti junakom trdrega dela, ki so se pekli na soncu in postali rjavi. Že imena kažejo, da ta republika ni priplavala na kisli župi in da se ni razvjetela v senci židane marele.

Amerikanizem je tista božanska tonika, ki izredno uspešno uničuje bacile mednarodnega sovraštva. Tu živimo Slovenci, Hrvati, Srbi, Bolgari, Čehi, Slovenci, Rusi, Poljaki, Ukrainski, Grki, Italijani, Madžari, Nemci, Francozi, Angleži, Irki, Španci, Portugalci, Finci, Švedi, Norvežani, Danci, Litvini in pripadniki še mnogih drugih narodnosti, kolikor ali manj pomešani, pa nimamo med seboj nikakih sporoč zaradi narodnosti ali jezikov. Mnogokrat se razvijejo celo pravila prijateljstva med pripadniki različnih narodov, v splošnem pa se vsaj medsebojno spoštujemo in se smatramo za enakovredne. Nikomur ni treba tajiti njegove narodnosti, pa smo kljub temu lahko dobri prijatelji in dobri Američani. Našo bodočnost vidimo le v bodočnosti naše skupne domovine Amerike. Ali ne bi bilo lepo, če bi mogli nekaj tega amerikanizma v jugoslovanskem smislu vhrizgati v žile treh rodnih jugoslovenskih bratov: Srbov, Hrvatov in Slovencev, katerih skupna domovina je Jugoslavija!

Nestetočkrat smo čitali, da Hitler ne pije nič močnejšega kot mleko, zdaj smo pa izvedeli, da rad zvrne tudi čašo piva, ki vsebuje en percent alkohola. Saj se nam je zdelo, da je ta človek vedno pijan!

Spet smo srečno prikorakali v idilično dobo piknikov. Kaže se, da bodo letos prav tako obilno obrodiči kot prejšnja leta. Cvetajo že, in sicer v varnam zavetju našega časopisa, dozorevali pa bodo vsak po svoje: na gorkem soncu, v hladnih senehah ali v deževnih naliivih. Piknike imamo vsi radi: ljudje, mravlje, gosenice in komarji. Posebno komarji. Ti so že zarentali vse pikniške prostore, kjer brusijo svoje rilce in se vežbajo v brenčanju, da nas pričakajo dostopno pripravljeni in nas sprejmejo kot stare znane. Bratje komarji: here we come!

$625,950.00 of New Insurance

GOAL OF $1,000,000.00 LACKS $374,050.00

Supreme secretary Anton Zbasnik reports the following interesting results on the progress made in our membership campaign:

A total of 1,287 members have joined our Union between January 1 and April 30; that is, 900 juveniles and 387 adults, for a total of $625,950.00 worth of new insurance; $411,950.00 in the juvenile department and $214,000.00 in the adult department. The goal of $1,000,000.00 of new insurance set for this campaign lacks $374,050.00, and it is the hope of our SSCU that the million-dollar goal shall be reached by June 30, when the campaign closes officially.

The following delegates have qualified for the athletic conference: Joseph Kovach and Frank Tomsich, Jr., lodge 1, Ely, Minn.; William Kuznik, lodge 138, Export, Pa.; Joseph Milkovich, lodge 114, Ely, Minn.; and Stanley Progar, lodge 236, Strabane, Pa.

In the juvenile department, the following delegates have qualified for the juvenile convention: Matthew Banovetz, Rosalie Mantel and Rose Koprovnik, lodge 1, Ely, Minn.; Louis Rebol, Jr., lodge 2, Ely, Minn.; Louis Shray and Mary Ambrozich, lodge 21, Denver, Colo.; Amelia Korosec, lodge 120, Ely, Minn.; Irene Spehar, Anna Gornick and Dorothy Predovich, lodge 190, Butte, Mont.

Home office reports further that up to May 13th a total of 1,018 new juvenile members have been enrolled.

Sport Flashbacks

By Stan Progar

Strabane, Pa. — With the return of summer sports and with the Sentinels actively engaged in softball and horseshoe pitching, the sport flashbacker will occasionally enter the sports department and inform you all of the Sentinels' progress.

Just barely two months old, the Sentinels are proud to boast of a well balanced team that will command attention before the present season expires. A hard hitting team, full of pep and vigor promises to experience a successful season and one that will make the surrounding area more conscious of the SSCU. It's the lot of the Sentinels. But before we go on to report the season's inaugural, let's get acquainted with the boys that will carry the colors of the Sentinels.

At the hot corner we have another newcomer, "Scrappy" Subrich. Appropriately named for his pep, vim and vigor, Scrappy covers the hot corner with all at his command. But in contrast to his "Sticker," is Scrappy's nature for Scrappy would sooner have friends than anything. Off the field, Scrappy is quiet and more friendly with all.

Patrolling the roving position we again have a newcomer, Frank Richard is his name but just "Rich" to all his friends. Another clean-cut lad that can make friends easier than birds can fly. Rich has speed sureness on the field and a quick eye at the plate.

Yes — that's the date for our picnic. Music will be furnished by Tony Princ, Albert Poklar and Frank Doblekar, members of Sunny Ray's orchestra.

Dots and dashes — The outstanding event of the day will be a softball game between the Ilirska Vila team and one of the other Cleveland teams of the SSCU.

Speaking of Fashions — Why not come to that baseball game on June 4 and see our team dressed in their new suits. Man, oh man, are they attractive. What attractively beautiful colors — Navy blue and gold (really a bright yellow). Ilirska Vila is printed across the front and SSCU across the back. The caps contain the lodge number 173. Joseph Ulijan presented the uniform at the meeting for his fellow members to see.

Flash — This picnic is not only for Ilirska Vila members and their friends but for you, yes, everyone of the Union. It would be a nice trip in from Barberville, Lorain and the other neighboring lodges.

Listen! Sport Fans — This portion of the reporter's account will deal with sports. Though I know little about sports I want to give you the latest from Cleveland.

News cast one — There are five Cleveland teams playing softball this year. Namely: Bet-

Juvenile Delegate Repeats

MARY AMBROZICH

Another juvenile member repeats. Back in 1937, Mary Ambrozich, of lodge 21, Denver, Colo., was among the happy delegates to board the train for Ely, Minn., to attend the second juvenile convention. Memories of those happy days evidently lingered on, for Mary Ambrozich again will travel by rail next August, and again she will be seated with other juvenile delegates at the third juvenile convention. Mary is the tenth juvenile to qualify as delegate.

Ilirska Vila News

Cleveland, O. — Flash — Flash!! This is your SSCU reporter bringing you the latest in the lodge's news.

Flash — On Sunday May 14, the monthly meeting of Ilirska Vila took place. Many important topics were taken into consideration. The most important discussion was that of the coming picnic, June 4.

Attention — The following have been chosen as the committee for the affair: Milan Ulyan, Ludwig Prosen, Frank Iskra, Frank Segulin, Frank Beninger, Steve Meyak, Andy Poklar and John Hrvatin.

Exclusive — Mark that date June 4. Remember the place — Stusek's Farm, located between Route 85 and Euclid Ave., near Wickliffe, Ohio.

Yes — that's the date for our picnic. Music will be furnished by Tony Princ, Albert Poklar and Frank Doblekar, members of Sunny Ray's orchestra.

At the left field position, Frank Koklich watches with eagle eyes and can be depended upon at the plate. Frank is a quiet boy right off the field but will respond to any duty placed before him. Is well liked and enjoys good clean fun.

Completing the outer patrol and playing center field when not in the infield is John Tomasic. John is still of the shy nature as this is his first year in competition. But as the season wears on, you may find John as the life of the party. A swell friend to all and of the type that can make friends easy. A hard hitter and sure of himself regardless of where he plays.

Sharing the mound duty with Frank Koklich is the younger brother, Joe. Joe is the younger brother of the Sentinels' manager and can't help but fit into the SSCU because of his cheerful disposition. He will share the catching honors and as with the writer, will also take his turn on the mound and also in the outfield.

But it all makes a better team so work away boys. Soon us old timers will give away to youth and our activities will consist of boasting and boasting your plays. So go to it.

A True SSCU Booster

STAN PROGAR

No introduction is needed for Stan Progar of Strabane, Pa.; who is the fifth delegate to qualify for the athletic conference in Ely, Minn., next August 4, 5 and 6. A hard working SSCU member, a conscientious secretary of Strabane Sentinels, No. 236, the latest SSCU addition which he helped organize recently, Stan is better known to all the Nova Doba readers as the author of his two columns: Rambling Along and Sports Flashbacks. With the inception of the membership campaign last January, Stan Progar has never missed a week of writing for the Nova Doba. That he is gaining popularity is best attested by the request of several juvenile members that a picture of Stan Progar appear in the Nova Doba.

Stan Progar is a living symbol of a true fraternalist. Unselfish, he has encouraged candidates in their efforts to become delegates in his weekly write-ups. A champion of the SSCU, if ever there was one, he has continually pointed out the characteristics of our Union and urged the members, particularly the English-speaking, to talk and sell the SSCU to their friends and acquaintances. "The SSCU can't be beat," writes Stan Progar, and "show them point for point, then dare anyone to match them—if they can, they cannot. The SSCU stands alone—away out front of all Slovener fraternals. Show your prospects the true light of the SSCU and he is yours."

Stan formerly was president of Electrons Lodge, No. 228, SSCU of Cheswick, Pa. He will be remembered as the author of "Electrons—Sparks and Flashers" column. Toward the latter part of last year Stan moved to Strabane and immediately took a leading part in the SSCU movement through Lodge 149. Cheswick's loss is Strabane's gain.

Lodge 114

Ely, Minn. — Members of Lodge No. 114, SSCU are urged to attend their next regular meeting to be held at the Jugoslav National Home on May 21, Sunday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. There are important matters to be discussed.

Six Thrilling Weeks Remain In Gigantic Campaign; Candidates Going Over The Top To Qualify!

By Little Stan, Publicity Campaign Director

Ely, Minn.—That Lodge No. 21, Denver there came 40 JUVENILE APPLICATIONS QUALIFYING MARY AMBROZIC AS DELEGATE TO THE JUVENILE CONVENTION. Mary was a delegate in 1937 too, and is coming for the second time. The other delegate from Lodge No. 21 is Louis Shray, who by the way, had a nice article in the juvenile section last week. We will be looking for the Colorado delegation at the convention all right!

It was a matter of coincidence with Bro. Stan Progar of the newly organized Sentinels of Lodge No. 236, in Strabane. Bro. Zbasnik just finished stating that Bro. Progar needed but $250. more to qualify. No sooner said than done, and the letter and applications were opened and, sure enough, they were from Bro. Progar who was qualified with some to spare for Frank Mikec who is definitely set his goal—that, to come to the convention!

From Betsy Ross Lodge in Cleveland, Bro. Zbasnik is hoping that Bro. Al Jelercic will send in the $2,000 he needs to qualify. We're all hoping that, Al. So send 'em in!

Bro. Louis Smith of Butte needs only two more to qualify and Dolores Muhyich of Gilbert needs only one more!

So many others are so close to their goal. All it needs is that final "Go To Town Push" and the battle is won. For from then on, it means a nice vacation with all expenses paid to Ely, Minnesota, "Where the Wilderness Begins," and where men are men, and some still have to find it out.

Scanning the situation throughout the country it was noticed that the big towns—Pittsburgh and Cleveland—were not sending in the applications so rapidly. Holding out until the last minute? Or is it going to be a surprise???? — Notice four question marks after that one!

It shouldn't be hard to enroll juvenile members. A complete life insurance in the SSCU for only 15 cents! It's harder enrolling the adults, 'tis true! But the reward exceeds the work so much, that it is worth while going out to qualify as a delegate!

ONLY SIX MORE WEEKS TO GO! LET'S MOVE ALONG CLEVELAND, PITTSBURGH, AND ALL! LET'S GO TO TOWN!

IN FILLING OUT THE NAMES OF THE BENEFICIARIES IN THE POLICIES REMEMBER TO WRITE THE FULL NAMES OF THE PARENTS, WHO IN MOST CASES ARE THE BENEFICIARIES! The wrong way: (For example) Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Pechaver. THE RIGHT WAY (FOR EXAMPLE!!!) Stanley Pechaver and Mary Pechaver! Get the idea???

So keep right on moving along! Let's go to town! AND REMEMBER ONLY SIX MORE WEEKS IN WHICH TO QUALIFY!

OTHER IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENTS WERE DESTINED IT SEEMED AS BRO. ZBASNIK KEPT OPENING THE ENVELOPES. For from (Continued on page 6)

Riding The Highways with Little Stan
And The Arrowhead Bowlers of Lodge 184

By Little Stan
(Continuation)

Monday night was supposed to go to Bedford to visit Mr. and Mrs. Louis Champa, Jr. But another engagement with Al Poklar and Tony Prime, Jr., had been set. Later learned that a unique reception had been planned for this elongated gentleman. The plan was that Little Stan would be jailed in Bedford on charges of driving through red lights. Things were all fixed with the Mayor of Bedford. But alas, Little Stan wasn't able to get there so the hoax didn't go through! What if it had! It would have been fun! At least just to see how it feels to be in jail a night! That would have been a story!

However, hopped into Al Poklar's machine and drove to Gordon Park where the Ilirska Vila softball team was practicing. Met the ball players, and they certainly have nice speed and zip. Later saw their new shirts and caps, very classy too! But dusk was coming on, and a warm breeze fanned our cheeks. Practice was concluded. What the boys are pointing for is a trip to Minnesota to play a game during the athletic conference. It would be swell all right!

Visited the Poklar home, waited for Al while he shined up a bit. Meantime had a pleasant chat with the family, even though Eddie Cantor was going to town via the radio. And the youngster crawled over to shut it off. And the young lady who hopes to be a juvenile delegate next time turned it on again. Away again to visit the Prime family and pick up Tony, who was ready and waiting. Said farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Prime, Sr., because felt that he wouldn't be able to see them before leaving.

Visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beniger, Sr., and young Frankie who was a delegate in 1937. Saw the softball equipment at his home. Light refreshments and then onward to the Zalar home where young Eddie, the guitar player, was recuperating from an appendicitis operation which nearly took him away from us. Eddie was at the 1937 juvenile convention, too, where he played with Poklar's band. Had a swell time turning over past incidents, and had a nice chat with Eddie's dad. It was a visit Little Stan would not want to have missed.

Eddie was feeling much better, expected to be out leading his dance band in a few days!

Later three young gentlemen felt a little hungry. The other two fellows suggested a chicken dinner. And sure enough a fine restaurant was located in jigt-time. Immediately upon entering saw a sign: "$10.00 fine if you are caught eating chicken with your knife and fork." Needed the ten-spot, so used fingers! Heh Heh. A drive down town, and back to Frank Oglar's apartment where the boys planned to say farewell to the ladies.

Arriving there, knocked and almost scared Mrs. Angela Grahak, who was alone, out of her wits. She opened the door, received the guests who found the apartment disheveled in every respect. A slip was hanging from the light, some knives and forks were rolled up in bed sheets and pillow cases, the mattress was turned upside down and under, and all the laces on the pretty shoes the girls wore were tied in many intricate knots.

Explanations were in order. It was disclosed that Louis Champa, Jr., had been in, waiting for everyone to come in.

Hungarian Opera

Cleveland, O. — Western Reserve University music students presented an American premiere production of "The Spinnery" (Szekely fono) on April 29. The folk opera, written by the noted Hungarian composer, Zoltan Kodaly, was given at Severance Hall, the home of the Cleveland Orchestra, Wade Park. The opera consisted of a cast of more than 100 under the direction of F. Karl Grossman. The ballet was directed by Eleanore Buckla.

The audience included several hundred music lovers of Cleveland's Hungarian nationality group, who have hailed the university's success in obtaining the opera for its premiere.

With the soft strains of the W. R. U. orchestra, the heavy curtains slowly folded themselves to present scenes from Transylvanian Village life.

The Housewife (Ilona Herman) and her Lover (Howard Feiten) sit dejected because the latter has been wrongly accused of a crime through the trickery of the Flea (Cyril Chinn). She sings to her lover about the emptiness of life when he will leave. He returns her song with comforting words. As they sing a Little Girl (Chloe Balliet) dashes into the room and warns the Lover of the approach of the Gendarme (Fred Fuller). The lover flees leaving a sad Housewife.

Scene III — As the housewife sits and sings a sad song, neighbor women try to cheer her, by spinning for her and singing gay songs. But to no avail, all their thoughtfulness and merriment can not make her forget until the Little Girl brings news of the Lover's safe escape. The women guided by the housewife play the game "Going to Market". Such gaiety, as the women dance merrily while the housewife walks along singing about a groat she has to spent. The women pretended they were pigs, turkeys, chickens, etc., wishing to be bought.

Scenes IV and V. — The housewife announces another game in which a Youth (William Rosenfield) and his mother, the Neighbor (Carolyn Gillette) test the love of the girl (Janet Burt) by singing that the Youth is dying. The mother sings to the Youth and he in turn sings about his heart that is weak. As he nears death six girls bring out a table and place candles on it. The Youth whose end is drawing near goes to the table which represents the bier and lies down. The girl proves her love for him when she runs to the bier and after singing of his death casts herself upon his funeral bier, a group of girls dance a funeral number. The sadness is changed to joy when the Youth rises and the girl sees that he is not dead but alive. A gay brothal game follows when other youths join the women.

Scene VI. — At this point, the Flea capers in to see how his plan is working out, and he causes much disturbance. When he is finally subdued the Lover is discovered standing fettered in the doorway. All spirit and gaiety is hushed for there is the Gendarme with him. When he sees the flea, he flings himself upon him and an old woman points out that the Flea is the real culprit. The Gendarme leads both the Flea and the Lover away. The chorus and dancers follow and leave a mourning Housewife alone on the stage.

Scene VII. — She sings a very dramatic song after which the chorus returns and tries to comfort her. Then amid much cheering the Lover returns, freed from his fetters. He and the Housewife are re-united, and the opera ends in a brilliant finale of songs and dances.

The undying applause brought the cast out again and again. Another great day of music for Cleveland has been completed. The music was superb, the scenery and costumes were all typical of the Transylvanian life. The lighting effects, costumes, songs, dances will be an affair the music lovers of Cleveland will long remember.

He had just left, and a parting gesture in fun was the 'upside down' condition."

and defeated the highly touted Schoenthals of Meadowlands. Joe Verosko pitched fine ball and should have won easily but for loose play on the part of his teammates. The Sentinels collected seventeen hits and seven runs to win by the score of seven to six. Joe allowed eight scattered hits that netted the losers six runs with the help of errors.

The Sentinels opened the first inning with a two-run attack but soon gave away the lead as the Schoenthals scored four runs at the expense of the Sentinels' first game nervousness. But in the third, the Sentinels again put on the pressure and took the lead by scoring three runs. They scored again in the fifth to make it six to four but the Schoenthals threw the game into a six-six deadlock in their half of the fifth. Opening the sixth, the Sentinels bunched their hits to score the run that proved to be the winning tally.

From the sixth on, both teams played heads-up ball but failed to add any runs but gave the fans many thrills for just one bad play would have changed the final standing of the game.

Subrich and Kolich led the winners with three bingles apiece and John Tomsic, Bill Smith, Joe Bostjancic and Progar collected two hits each. In the extra base hits, Berch connected for a triple and Bill Smith for two doubles. Tomsic, Richards and Subrich also had a double apiece.

The Sentinels are anxious to contact other SSCU teams for games on the home and home basis. Drop a line to this department or if you prefer, call Anthony Balsama at Canonsburg 983.

Horses - Horses

Not having the means nor the capital to sponsor a Kentucky Derby winner, the Sentinels are doing the next best thing. They are starting from the bottom and have decided to play the horse-shoe game. Any lodge that cares to match ringers with our ace tosser, John Tomsic may do so by dropping us a line. A fine court is at our disposal and games can be very easily arranged. Why not see just who is the SSCU champ in the horse-shoe department?

present plans work out, Strabane will have a series of competitive matches with all factions of the fraternal field in action. So far, the SSCU and the SNPJ are contemplating teams and before many days have passed, more teams will be organized and the series will get under way.

In the meantime, any out-of-town SSCU team interested in a series of games, drop this department a line. Start a team in your locality. It's fine clean fun for both the young and old. In the meantime, your correspondent will plan ways and means to assure all a swell time at the BIG VICTORY PICNIC, July First.

Members of lodge "Jugoslavski zvon," No. 70, SSCU, notified that the regular meeting will be held on Saturday, May 20. A turnout of members is anticipated.

Lodge 42

Pueblo, Colo. — Our local "Marija Pomagaj," No. 42, SSCU will hold its annual picnic on Sunday, June 25, in Pueblo, Colo. Members of our lodge requested to attend in full number the next meeting, on Saturday, May 21, where detailed discussions will take place on the picnic. Meeting will be held at the National home on E. Northern Ave., beginning at 9 a. m. Each member has the right to exercise his privilege at the meeting, to talk over all necessary details, and to abide by the decision of the majority.

Our mammoth members campaign in both departments is in full swing. Campaign clubs officially on June 30, and should contribute our share to make the campaign a great success. ## English Literature

By Elsie M. Desmond, No. 173, SSCU, Cleveland, Ohio

In 1066 during the time of the Norman Conquest of England, Latin was the language mainly spoken and Old English was coming to an end. French was being spoken by followers of William, Duke of Normandy, at the battle of Senlac, Old English being left.

The Old English did not immediately die out, but it was the strong influence of literature that was again refreshed by the Norman conquerors. English was enriched by the naturalization of a Roman vocabulary; these Norman methods and ideas were greatly expressed.

From the time of William the Conqueror to that of Henry VIII, a great number of chronicles, written in Latin, were composed during the reigns of the Normans and Angevin kings. These chronicles are usually historical and begin with the myths and legends concerning the founding of Britain, then carry on the story to the chronicler's own day.

Histories of the Kings of England have been translated by Sebastian Evans.

It deals in part with the kings who dwelt in Britain before the incarnation of Christ.

Picture social life in England in the twelfth century. This is in the book of "The Chronicle of Jocelin of Brakeloch" translated by L. C. June in 1922.

Originally existed in English and Latin versions was "Hun's Rule" or "The Anglo-Saxon Rulwe" (13th Century), translated by J. Morton in 1924. Richard Poore, bishop of Salisbury (1217-1229) has been believed to be the author.

DOPISI

Chisholm, Minn. — "Kako bi bil to gomilo, kjer blago tvo spise arce!" To so besede, ki jih zapisal naš pesnik Simon Green. In teh besed se spomini pri gomili prerano umrle Johna Moverna.

Bilo je meseč avgusta 1936 v Elyethu, Minn., ko so se deliti Američko-jugoslovansko zveze v Minnesota zbrali k svoji konvenciji. Bilo nas je mogo to številu in med namen bil tudi John kot glavni tajk. Vse je šlo po redu, razpravljalo se je o tem in onem, toda me je zbolelo, ko se je s solzami v očeh odpovedal.

V bolnišnici Adams se zdravi Frances Lovshin iz Chisholma. Prestala je srečno operacijo in zdaj se povoljno zdravi. Rojkinje jo lahko obišejo.

Tukaj smo danes, 10. maja dobili prvi dež te pomlad. Dosej smo imeli lepo, sončno in še pretoplo vreme. Črni gabri, jagneda in vrbe so že ocveteli. Slike, čršnje in španski bezeg (lilac) so pravi oznanjevalci polnili tu na našem severu. Še par gorkih dni, pa se bo narava ogrnila v belo obleko. Lahko pa je tudi, da nam severne sape prinesejo belo odejo snežink. Tu in posebno še v tem času, je vse močne.

Delavske razmere so tu z vsakim dнем slabše. Zadnjo jesen je bilo dosti pisanja, koliko bodo zaposlige vse mlade ljudi itd. Zmaga je bila triumfalna in sledila je brezposelnost. Na WPA je ostalo koma j 40 odstotkov ljudi; državne fonde so znali na 70 odstotkov ali še nižje. Torej, ne pozabimo: kriza ali takozvana renesanca kapitala se je spet začela in bo trajala do leta 1949, potem bo še pet let slabo, za naprej pa ne vem, ker po tistih letnicah ne mislim več trave tlačiti.

JSKJ, se bo vršila v soboto 20. maja ob 7. uri zvečer v navadnih prostorih. S tem se bo dalo članom priliko, da se v nedeljo 21. maja popoldne lahko udeležijo para, ki bo del programa SZZ.

Tukaj je umrl zaradi vnetja slepiča dolgoletni član našega društva, sobrat John Erchul. Društvo mu je poklonilo venec v zadnjem pozdrav in mu predloplj lep pogreb. Pokojnik je bil rojen v vasi Podgorica, pošta Videm pri Dobrem polju.

V Duluthu, v bolnišnici St. Mary, se nahaja dobro znani trgovec John Gornik iz Chisholma. Člani, ki pridejo v Duluth, naj bi ga obiskali.

Ely, Minn. — Člani društva Slovenec, št. 114 JSKJ, so vabjeni, da se gotova udeležijo prihodnje redne mesečne seje, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 21. maja. Seja se bo vršila v Jugoslovanskem narodnem domu in se bo pričela ob 4. uri popoldne. Na razpravo pridejo važne zadeve. Sharon, Pa. — V tukajšnji naselbini je umrl sobrat Michael Lenarčič, član društva Sloga, št. 174 JSKJ, in društva Slovenski dom, št. 31 SNPJ. Pokojni sobrat je bolehal nad dve leti za proletarsko bolezni jetiko. To bolezen si je nakopal, ko je delal v tovarni pri tako zvanih brusih. V Sharon je pokojnik prišel iz Coraopolis, Pa., in je bil v Nadanju vasi na Notranjskem, kjer zaposla pet sester. Pokojnik je bil na shansonem pokopališču dne 13. maja. Naj bo pokojniku ohrajen blag spomin, žalujočim ostalim pa naj bo od strani društva izraženo iskreno sožalje. — Za društvo št. 174 JSKJ:

Joseph Milkovich, tajnik.

Roundup, Mont. — Podpisana Apolonija Kosak se tem potom najlepše zahvalim vsem društvom, kar tudi posameznim članom in članicam JSKJ, ki so se odzvali moji prošnji z de-narnimi prispevki. Sedaj je skoro tri mesece, kar sem se pričela zdraviti, in se znatno bolje počutim.

Društva, ki so poslala svoje prispevke po 15. marcu, in katerih prispevki še niso bili objavljeni v Novi Dobi, so: društvo št. 33, Center, Pa., $4.00; št. 36, Conemaugh, Pa., $2.00; št. 50, Brooklyn, N. Y., $3.00; št. 133, Gilbert, Minn., $3.00; št. 198, Central City, Pa., $2.00; pri društvu št. 128 v New Duluthu, Minn., so prispevali po 25 centov vsak sledič: Frank Vesel, Mrs. Karich, Vladimir Braje, John Novak, Mary Spehar, Joe Jaksha, Mrs. K. Brula in Frances Kaplenk, skupaj $2.00.

Še enkrat najlepša hvala vsem sobratom in sestram, ki so mi pomagali v potrebi. Naj bi jih dobra usoda nagradila s srečo v trdnem zdravjem do konca njihovih dni. — Mrs. Apolonija Kosak.

Pripis. Tem potom se želimo tudi člani in članice društva št. 88 JSKJ najlepše zahvaliti bratskim društvom in posameznim članom in članicam JSKJ, ki so se na prošnjo naše sestre Apolonije Kosak odzvali s svojimi prispevki.

Meseca aprila so posetili to okolico gostje iz Minnesota. In sicer sta prišla iz Ely, Minn., v Klein, Montana, na obisk Mrs. Steve Banovetz, Sr., in Mrs. Steve Banovetz, Jr. Ta neprica-kovani obisk iz Minnesota nas je veselo iznenadil. Obiskovalca pa sta se tu zamudila le malo časa.

S kampanjo gre tu letos bolj po malem. Kampanja se nagiblje h koncu, toda dosedaj imam še bolj majhne uspehe. Bom vi dodel, kaj se bo dalo napraviti cembra leta 1936. Zato nič kaj pred koncem junija. Sestrski preveč, če vsaki dve leti pride-

pozdrav! — Za društvo št. 88 JSKJ:

Katherine Penica, tajnica.

Pueblo, Colo. — Naše društvo Marija Pomagaj, št. 42 JSKJ, priredi letni društveni piknik v nedeljo 25. julija v Rye, Colo. Člani in članice našega društva so torej prošeni, da se polnostilno udeležijo prihodnje seje, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 21. maja, da se o prireditvi piknika bolj v podrobnosti pogovorimo. Seja se bo vršila v Narodnem domu na E. Northern Avenue in se bo pričela ob 9. uri popoldne.

Na seji ima vsak član oziroma članica priliko povedati svoje mnenje, da se vse ukrene tako, kot je v zadovoljstvu večini, da potem ni vzroka za kritiziranje. Člane in članice tudi pozivam, da naj ne pozabijo, da je zdaj v teku kampanja za pridobivanje novih članov v odrasli in mladinski oddelki JSKJ. Kampagna bo zaključena 30. junija, in zelite je, da tudi mi nekaj prispevamo k uspešnosti iste. Več članov ko se za kako reč zanima in zavzame, več je uspeha. Posebno velja to glede kampanje, ker več članov pozna več ljudi kot posameznik. Bratski pozdrav! — Za društvo št. 42 JSKJ:

Frank Rupar, tajnik.

Lorain, Ohio — Društvo Sv. Alojzija št. 6 JSKJ v Lorainu, Ohio, priredi v soboto zvečer, 27. maja, veliko veselico s plesom v Slovenskem domu. To bo nekaj posebnega. Mi starejši člani in članice bomo sami na razpolago, da bomo pomagamo pri delu. Obeta se nam, da bo to res prava in nadveč dobra prihodnje društvene seje, ki se bo vršila 1. julija. Piknik se bo vršil v Joe Glant's Grove v Exportu, Pa. Za godbo bo skrbel Louis DeFrances s svojim orkestrom. Druga društva v tej okolici so pravljena, da ne bi prirejala piknik na dotični dan, in v rojaki v tem okrožju so vabjeni, da si dan 1. julija že zdaj določijo za poset našega piknika.

Člane našega društva prosim, da se polnostilno udeležijo prihodnje društvene seje, ki se bo vršila 1. julija. Med drugimi zadevami bomo morali na omenjeni seji ukrepati o raznih podrobnostih glede piknika. Torej, na svidenje! — Za društvo št. 6 JSKJ:

Chicago, Ill. — NA KONCERTU JSKJ V WAUKEGANU SE TOMAZ CUKALE PREDSTAVI VSOJEMU ROJSTNEMU KRAJU S PESMI IN DEKLAMACIJO. — Dne 21. maja letos priredi federacija illinoiških in wisconsinskih podpornih društev Jugoslovenske katoliške jednote v dvorani Slovenskega narodnega doma v Waukeganu ob dveh popoldne tistega dne velik koncert s plesom in protesto zabavo, pri čemer obojem bo igrali unijski orkester Rudolfa Deitchmana iz Jolietja.

Prijazna waukeganska slovenska naselbina ali "Američka Vrhnik," če že hočete, je človeku tudi brez vsakršne prireditve privlačna, zlasti pa še v tem času, ko se spidoma vsa kar kopljje v razkošnem dehtenu cvetočega drevo ter raduje pomladnega življenja srednje zelenja. Zato sem dočela uverjen, da se bo tamkaj kar trlo naših ljudi na dan 21. maja.

Kakovost se zatrjeno od ljudi, ki so bili društva št. 112 KSKJ:

Hvala pogrebcom, ki so bili od društva št. 1 JSKJ trije ustanovitelji, namreč Joseph Skala, Frank Zgonc, Sr., in Jos. J. Pešel, ob društva št. 112 KSKJ:
