Spisal dr. Leopold Lenard

Del svojimi papirji sem imel sproti, sem se moral seveda največ pogovarjati ravno žnjim. Hotel sem mu pokazati, da imam znanje tudi z nekaterimi Rusi in sem mu omenil, da je bil letos pri nas grof Bo-brinski.

"Lahko pa da vi tukaj?"

Pogledam in zagledam svoje starega prijatelja in znanega uglednega duhovnika, ki se peča zelo intezivno z njim. Hotel sem mu pokazati, da imam znanje tudi z nekaterimi Rusi in sem mu omenil, da je bil letos pri nas grof Bo-brinski.

V posetih pri naših ljudeh

(Nadaljevanje z 2 strani)

Jakata pozna še iz mladih let in da je bil jako razposajen toda jako prijazen kot je še danes in da ga zato ženske tudi tako obrajtajo. Z njima pa sta bila Louis Rolih in njegova so-poga tudi iz Euclida. Louis je stavbinski mojster, ki vam površi hišo ali pa tudi napravi novo. To so jako prijazni ljudje in tudi naročniki Ameriške Domovine, kjer čitajo novice s Hubbard Rd. Zato pa so bili prišli pogledat moje cvetlice predno jih bo slanca pomorila. Ložje je doma iz Divače pri Št. Petru. Prav lepa hvala za obisk in še kaj se oglasite.

Obiskala pa sta nas tudi Anton Jereb in njegova soproga iz 69. ceste, kjer imata svoj dom. Tudi ti ljude so bili naši dobri odjemalci, ko smo bili še v Clevelandu. Tone je tudi izvrsten godbenik. Rekla sta, da se jima ti kraji silno dopadejo in da bo težko drugače šlo kot da se še ona dva pridružita k nam v ta kraj. Saj so pa ti kraji tudi zelo pripravnii za naše pridne ljudi, ker človek mora biti res delaven, če hoče delati tem ljudem v naših krajevih družbo in za to pa jaz po nobeni viži ne spadam v te kraje. No, saj je pa še nekaj posestev takoj naprodaj, samo tako je kot sem že povedal, da za lepši in boljši posestev je treba šteiti tudi precej denarja, kajti za najhen denar se tudi malo dobi. Zato pa je priporočljivo, da vsak dobro premisli, kadar kupuje posestvo in predno izda denar, da se ne bo potem kesal, ko bo prepozno. Obiskal nas je tudi Jože Satkovič s svojo soprogo in hčerkjo. Vsi prav dobrodošli in še kaj se oglasite.

Tako smo se pogovarjali med večerjo in dotedna uradna oseba je zraven delala svoje opazke, bila jako dobre volje in se očividno čutila popolnoma domača. Ura je tekla hitro in bilo je že daleč po polnoči, ko smo se pričeli razhajati. Naš gospodar nas je spremil do večnih vrat, odklenil vrata in voščil lahko noč.

Ko sem stal na ulici, pristopi meni dotedna visoka uradna oseba, ter me vpraša: "Na katero stran pa vi?" "Proti Marsalkovski."

"V takem slučaju imava nekaj časa skupno pot. Ali vas smem povabiti v svoj voz in se bova peljala skupaj do tramvaja?"

Jaz sem uljudno sprejel nje-govo ponudbo, ter sedel k njemu v voz. Moral sem sedeti na njegovi desni strani in izkazoval mi je vsemogoče uljudnosti. Tako me je pripeljal do postajišča tramvaja, velel vozniku ustaviti konje, zlezel sam z vozom in čakal z mano, dokler ni prišel prvi tramvaj. Pomogel mi je še vstopiti v voz, ter se je od mene prisrečno poslovil. Jaz sem se odpeljal dalje s tramvajem, on je pa sedel nazaj v svojo kočijo in se odpeljal v drugi smeri. Videla se nisva nikdar več.

Taki in podobni slučaji so mi dokazali, da je zasebno občevanje z ruskimi ljudmi jako lahko. Z gostoljubnostjo in uljudnostjo jih lahko pridobiš popolnoma. Jako pa razdražil Rusa, ako se sklicuješ pri njem na svoje pravice in na postavka dolgočila. To je upor, ki ga je treba zatreći, sodi on. Siroka ruska narava sploh težko prenaša ojnice raznih določil in predpisov. Celo pri sodniji bo veliko več opravil, ako se bo skliceval na dobrote in usmiljenost sodnika, kakor pa na dolnico paragrafov. Pravijo, da je nek sodnik, ko se je obtoženec skliceval na paragraf zakonika, vzel knjigo postav, ki je ležala pred njim na mizi, se nanj posredel in rekel:

"Mi se še nismo približali zmagi toliko, da bi mogli reči, da jo imamo tako tik pred seboj kot so jo imeli Nemci poleti 1940, ali pa Japonci takoj po Pearl Harborju," je dejal Mr. Byrnes.

Svaril je, da ne smemo računati na to, da se bo nemška moralna zrušila kot se je leta 1918. "Prepričanje, ki prevladuje, da se bodo sile osišča v bližnji bodočnosti predale na milost in nemilost, je popolnoma neopravilno," je nadaljeval Byrnes. "Pot v Berlin in Tokio je še vedno dolga, težka in krvava."

Glede civilnega prebivalstva, je dejal, da mu je na tem, da ne trošimo predmetov, ki so važni za vojaštvo, sicer pa, da je prepričan, da "nikdo ne bo hotel odvzemati vojnemu naporu delavskih sil ali materiala."

"Nikakor ne smemo pričakovati, da bo mogoče olajšati življenje civilnega prebivalstva na škodo vojaških potrebnosti," je opozarjal Byrnes. "Najvažnejše stvari moramo postaviti na prvo mesto." (OWI)

DEADLINE FOR ALL COPY WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Good Luck Bill!

Slowly but surely, the ranks of our Holy Name Society are dwindling, with Uncle Sam, the gainer. Our latest member to get into service was William Tomc, 1248 Norwood Rd., our former president and for many years a board member. Bill majored in Chemistry at John Carroll U. and was studying at Western Reserve in his spare time for a Master's Degree. He has been employed as a chemist for several years at the huge Sherwin Williams paint plant here.

Mr. Tomc received a commission from the Navy as Ensign. He left for training last Wednesday night. He will undoubtedly serve his country in the experimental field.

Bill, a married man with a young son, is a good Catholic lay-man, who was never too busy to spend some time in spreading Catholic Action.

Our loss is the Navy's gain! May God keep you and return you safely back home to your loved ones is the wish of the remaining Holy Name members!

YOUNG LADIES' SODALITY

The Young Ladies' Sodality held its social meeting this past Tuesday night.

Elections of new officers were held and here are the results:

President, Marion Moenik; Vice President, Josephine Cimperman; Secretary, Olga Turk; Treasurer, Sylvia Turk.

Chairladies of the various committees are:

Social Life, Mary Luznar; Our Ladies' and Eucharistic, Emily Branisel; Catholic Truth, Agnes Turk; Apostolic, Julia Turk; Publicity, Frances Pernach and Julia Turk.

Sergeant-at-arms is Ann Winter.

Lots of luck to these new officers—we're all sure that they will do a swell job.

Publicity Committee.

JUNIOR SODALITY NEWS

The committees appointed for the Halloween Party will meet in the sodality room Oct. 22, at 7:15 p.m.

Those girls who wish to participate in the preparations for the party are cordially invited to come down. Suggestions will also be welcome.

Bowling News

Bowling season is in full swing as the girls take over the alleys for another season.

In the past year we've had loads of fun together and this season brings keener competition among us. We've taken to bowling as a duck takes to water.

One team is as yet incomplete, so anyone who wishes to bowl steadily, get in touch with Amelia Hrastar, 779 E. 154 St., Potomac 3096.

The following teams will bowl this Sunday:

Thunders vs. Cadets.

Jerks vs. Bombers.

Come down to E. 152nd St. Recreation and join our fun.

ing on! ... Every Monday and Thursday the cast members of "Conquered" are rehearsing... Every Tuesday and Friday "Mrs. Hathaway's Christmas" is being perfected... Tony Lekan, Willie Grden and Ray Hrovat are the "interior decorators" who are making those remarkable changes in the church hall "club room". . .

'Tis rumored that this active group will soon be sporting "snappy sweaters" . . . This group misses the boys in khaki Bernie Lozar and Ludy Lekan and Seamen Harry Zakrajsek and Laddy Volcansek.

Military Notes:

S/Sgt. Frank Colnar of Camp Cooke, Calif., expects to move 180 miles north from Camp . . . Cpl. Tony Kastelic sends greetings to friends via V-Mail from Italy . . . Pfc. Ralph Bizjak still in Africa met a couple of Slovanes, who are now free after their internment by the Italians, and hopes to find a cousin in this group.

. . . Sally Urbancic, also, had contact with the Slovanes in the Sicilian invasion and after "sometime" they really understand each other. . . . Pvt. Willie Chesnok posts greetings from California . . . Pvt. Louis Patek is still in Scott Field, Ill.

. . . Cpl. "Red" Marincic is on his way to destinations unknown. . . . Laddie and Lou Tratter, Chuck Bobnar, Joey Bartol, Joey Habian, Larry Blatnik, Cy Traven and Eddie Perko are in town for brief home stays . . . It's always grand to see "our boys" back in our midst!

Notes for You

Mail your packages early! . . . Answer that letter today! And . . . notify the rector of your boy's latest address!

Final Note:

THE YOUNGER SET AT ST. CHRISTINE'S

Early in October we were still enjoying the dry hot weather which began away back in July. This weather tended to make us rather lax in our spare moments after our work is completed. It was hard to concentrate on writing long, interesting accounts of what's happening about us. At any rate, I hope this is a good alibi for my articles which do not appear regularly in the American Home.

Military Hi-Lites:

There isn't very much left to the old crowd is there, and so Harvey Mlachek leaves us to render his services to the Navy . . . Rudy Vidmar's choice was the Marines . . . visiting the old town again was Pvt. Edward Langa, as was Sgt. George Cranic, and Pvt. Joe Bergoch.

Pvt. Edward Inthar was also seen around as was Pvt. Tony Hegler . . . Harry Knaus S2/C is stationed at Key West, Florida . . . Joe Tomsic S2/C and Henry Walters of the same rank are both attending service schools at Great Lakes, Ill. . . . Bill Kern is expected home soon from the Navy . . . Dan Praznovsky S1/C is on his way for overseas duty and will receive all mail at Armed Guard Center, New Orleans, La., which is his home port address . . . Frank Spring S2/C of the Sea Bees is also serving his country while on overseas duty . . . Does their company really mean so much to you? If it does you certainly aren't very outward in showing your feelings.
