VOLUME XXIV. — LETO XXIV.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, SATURDAY (SOBOTA), DECEMBER 6, 1941.

ŠTEVILKA (NUMBER) 286

RUSI ZAVZELI NAD 200 KRAJEV IN 4,000 MILJ OZEMLJA

Nemški armadi na južni fronti proti popolno razsulo. — Rusi ustavili napade pred Mosko.

NA JUŽNI FRONTI JE BILO UBITIH IN RANJENIH 23,000 NEMCEV

KUJBIŠEV, Rusija, 5. decembra. — Ruske napadalne čete na južni fronti so v očiglednem napredovanju. Nemški vojski na južni fronti ubitih in ranjenih 23,000 Nemcev, zajetih pa 129 nemških tankov, 1,300 oklopnih avtov in stotine strojne topov. Pred Mosko je 180,000 Nemcev. Rusi priznavajo počasno nemško napredovanje na obeh koncih moskovske fronte, kjer so vrgli Nemci v boj 15 divizij ali približno 180,000 mož. Rusi pa so s protinapadi Nemce ustavili ali jih vrgli nazaj, s čimer se je znatno izboljšal nevarni položaj pri Tuli. Najhujši nemški napad na Mosko je bil odbit, pri čemer so pustili Nemci na bojišču nad 10,000 mrtičev.

V rusko oblast padajo zdaj kraji v ducatih. Rusi poročajo, da so zavzeli tostran Rostova 200 krajev in 4,000 kvadratnih milj ozemlja.

Oljne zaloge osišeča
bodo kmalu
izčrpane

Tako pravi ruski strokovnjak, ki izjavlja, da so Nemci na ruski fronti na nekaterih sektorjih že omejili napade zaradi pomanjkanja olja.

KUJBIŠEV, Rusija, 4. decembra. — Rezervne oljne zaloge nemških in italijanskih armad bodo izčrpane v dveh in pol ali v treh mesecih, nakar bo Hitler odvisen za olje na omejeno produkcijo v rajhu in okupiranih deželah, ki pa niti izdaleka ne zadostuje, zato bo prisiljen okrniti svoje mehanične in sračne aktivnosti.

Na nekaterih sektorjih ruske fronte so bili Nemci prisiljeni omejiti svoje mehanizirane napade zaradi pomanjkanja olja, in njihova mehanizirana oprema je zaradi skrajno slabe kvalitete in pomanjkanja mešanice abnormalno naklo kvari.

Tozadnje izjave je podal danes poročevalcu lista "New York Times" general Pjotr Kotljakov, eden izmed poveljnikov sovjetskih tankovskih zborov, ki je znan kot glavni strokovnjak za gorivo v sovjetski armadi.

Hitlerju je pričela zdaj rojiti Amerika po glavi

Kaj bo, kaj bo? — si misli Hitler. — Rusi mi jih nametavajo po zadnji plati, Angleži me šeskaajo v Libiji in mi mečejo v Nemčiji bombe na glavo, Srbi mi pa tleskajo zaušnice, da kar poka in da so se mi že vnela moja velika ušesa! Kakor da bi nesreče ne bilo dovolj, pa mi sedaj zdaj na tilnik še Amerika s svojimi bombniki in tanki, ki jih daje tem kanaljam, ki ne vedo, kdaj so tepene in kaj je dobro zanje! Himmeldonnerwetter, kaj bo, kam naj jo potegnem, ker me povsod sovražijo kot smrtni greh! ...

JAPONSKA IZBEGAVA IN NE VE NE KOD, NE KAM

V Washingtonu se vprašujejo, da-li pomeni njen odgovor pridobitev na času, ali se morda namerava ukloniti demokracijam.

JAPONSKA VE, DA STOJI PRED NAJVEČJO ODLOČITVIJO V SVOJI ZGODOVINI

WASHINGTON, 5. decembra. — Tukaj je danes splošna napetost nekoliko popustila, ko je Bela hiša objavila na splošno spravljiv odgovor japonske vlade. Kakor znano, je predsednik Roosevelt zahteval pojasnil, kaj pomenijo neprestana japonska vojaška ojačenja v Indo-Kini, nakar je zdaj japonska vlada odgovorila, da so ta ojačenja tam samo zaradi "pripravljenosti" in da niso tako številna, kakor poročajo pretirana poročila.

Japonska ne bo vodila Washingtona za nos. Bela hiša ni podala nobenega tozadnega komentarja, vendar pa je znano, da se čudoma odgovor samo pretvezo, da pri dobi Japonska na času, ali pa je morda pričela popuščati napram zahtevam Zedinjenih držav, ki so ji razločno dokazale, da se ji ne puste voditi za nos.

Japonska je v zagati. Iz vsega obnašanja Japonske pa je razvidno, da je zašla slednja v velike neprimike in zagate, ker ne ve zdaj ne kod ne kam. Vsa njena agresivna politika temelji na osišeču, zato je ob času nemških zmag Japonska sila bokakor poročajo pretirana poročila. Japonska ne bo vodila Washingtona za nos. Bela hiša ni podala nobenega tozadnega komentarja, vendar pa je znano, da se čudoma odgovor samo pretvezo, da pri dobi Japonska na času, ali pa je brez njene pomoči.

ŠESTNAJSTLETNA MLADENKA — BELA SUŽNJA

YOUNGSTOWN, 5. decembra. — Oblasti tukajšnjega mladinskega sodišča preiskujejo danes zgodbo neke 16 let stare mladenke, ki pravi, da je bila odvedena ter prisiljena v službo v neki javni hiši v bližnjem Campellu. Dekle je povedalo, da je bila uniformirana policija vsak dan v hiši, toda da se ni drznila pritožiti se, ker ji je bilo povedano, da je vsa stvar "pofiksana" s policijo.

Nato je dekle identificiralo fotografijo nekega policista, o katerem je rekla, da je bil dnevno v hiši med sedmo in osmo uro zvečer. Dekle so odvedli iz hiše šerif Ralph Elser in njegovi deputirji, ki so priredili v ponedeljek pogon na to hišo. Oblasti so aretirale še dve drugi mladenki v hiši ter Franka in Anno Fetch, ki sta "ronala" bizzis. Dalje je bil aretiran neki bivši kaznjeneec, ki je izvajal dekleta v hišo. Mladenka je izjavila, da je prišla z dežele v Youngstown za delom ter da se je v neki restavraciji sestala z omenjenim moškim, ki ji je rekel, da ji bo dobil hišno delo. On jo je odvedel v dotično hišo, kjer jo je oklofotal, ko je rekla, da hoče oditi, ko je spoznala, kaj se od nje zahteva. Dejala je, da je bila v hiši zadržana deset dni, v katerem času je "zaslužila" $150, od katerega denarja pa je dobila samo 75 centov in hrano.

LJUDJE POD OSOJNIKOM

Saj se mu nihče ni posmehoval. Svaja je ležala nad ljudmi kot hudourni oblak; ko je bilo kake konec, so se oddahnili. Jerneja so gledali skoraj s sočutjem in mu ponujali besedo. Čelo Krivec ga je zdaj iskal s pogledi. Mržnje in nezaupljivosti do sosedov se nikoli ni otrelo, vendar mu zblíževanje ni bilo v nadlego.

Nekoč je Ruporica izobežala Jernejo po plotu, Jernejec je cel drva na tñali. Tedaj se je Peter ustavil pred njima na bencu.

"Kaj pa Tončka?" je vprašal.

Liza je visela na hčerki z vso nebeznijo. Vprašanje ji je otalo mržnjo do sosedov.

"Uči se. Ni ji hudega; ona se prav pohvali."

"Pa ne bo ostala mojškra?"

"Kam pa misliš? Več ko človek zna, laže si pomaga. Saj jo do doma potrebovali. Če bi ne bilo, bi morali dati vse o-

Mislila je na Jerico in na Mirko. Ustnice ji je skrivil izraz nečestitosti, togota ji je pogledala iz oči. . . . Petru to ni ušlo, strnil je nasmeh.

Jernejec se je bil oslonil na steno.

"Če bomo sploh kaj imeli, da bomo se težka odhrkal."

"Zakaj pa ne?" se je zavzela.

"Dolg je hudič."

"Pa bi bil mene prosil," je vrgel Krivec.

"Ali bi bil dal?" je zategnil Jernejec in nezaupljivo pogledal sosedov.

"Bog pomagaj!" je Peter vrnil v zrak. "V sili si veni, ne bomo volkovi . . . Če Jerneja dobi ženina, kakor se bo vse prav."

Kakor da so vse izgovorili, ostali brez besede. Se vedno ostala neka senca med njimi, ki je motila. Krivec je odproti kozolecu.

Tedaj je najlepši čas za napanje kleti in za cementno delo.

V jeseni je zazvonilo Mirku. Le Jerica, ki je zadnje tedne noč in dan prebedela ob njegovi postelji, je vedela, kako težko je umiral. Ko je ležal na mrtvaškem odru, so se ljudje začudili njegovi voščeni barvi, štrlečim ličnim kostem in ostremu nosu.

"Moj Bog," so govorili, "saj je kakor smrt! Ko je bil še živ, se ni zdel tako slab."

Jerica je bila neutolažna. Bilo ji je, kakor da je sama ostala na svetu.

Bil je jasen dan, ko ulit iz zlata, ko so ga pokopali. Med pogrebi je bil tudi Peter. Strmel je v togo žalost na obrazih, sam je ni občutil. Življenje je kakor kolo, včasih je človek na vrhu, drugič spodaj. Zdaj ni bila še vrsta na njem. Tistega dne mu je bilo do smeha.

V veži ga je ustavil Ferjan in ga potegnil v kot.

"Pogodba je potekla."

"Saj jo bova podaljšala," je Krivca pomrznilo po telesu.

"Ne prodam ti, če hočeš."

"Prav," je Petra kar privzdignilo. "Koliko?"

Ferjan mu je povedal.

"Preveč. Na dražbi ste dobili ceneje."

"Ze. Pa veš, po čem je bila takrat pšenica? Koliko je bil vreden goldinar? Če nočeš, kar povej; drugače pa brez barantanja. Danes so tu možje, lahko udariva."

Krivec je pomislil. Ali gre mar Ferjanu trda za denar, da sili s prodajo? Bal se je, da mu kdo tiste zemlje ne pobere pred nosom.

"Ne vem, če bom imel, da bi vam plačal vse hkrati."

because human, is essentially al- so simple if approached by hu- man beings in terms of human beings. We cannot reach down to it from above. Not with mere manifestoes nor in theory. We can touch it horizontally only from the same level of common experience."

Congress will not set up an Office of European Reconstruc- tion tomorrow nor the day aft- er. But Europe will be recon- structed sooner if the problem is approached, as Mr. Adamic sug- gests, "in terms of human be- ings"—including American hu- man beings of European ances- try. It would be fine if every member of the America First group would read his book.

Danger of Coal Gas

There is no time of the year that is so fraught with danger to the householder as the be- ginning of the house-heating season. All too many fail to have their furnaces checked by competent men and believe that just a rough cleaning of the fire-box and flues is sufficient.

This is a great mistake and may result in serious, or even fatal, illness for the fumes of coal gas are deadly after even a brief exposure. Especially is this true to one suffering from any form of heart trouble. When the furnace is overhauled in the Spring, or Fall, care should be taken to look for loose piping connections, both in the heat- ing conductors and the smoke- pipe. The latter is also often, on close examination, to be found pitted from moisture. Some- times this is partially conceal- ed with black paint only to have these pours open up when the furnace fire has been started and running a week or two.

Coal gas is an insidious gas, and not always quickly detect- ed. It can overcome people at night, when the fires are banked and unless there are open win- dows in the bedroom have seri- ous consequences. No one should take this chance. If the furnace is an old one, don't take chances with it. Have an expert go over it. It is good insurance and well worth the investment. It is just another case of: Think first— and avoid that accident.

WHAT IS A COMMUNITY?

This happened at the meeting of a local cultural group. A suggestion was made that the club invite a non-Slovene to participate at one of the group's future events. Discussion followed. It brought out that while the younger members were favorable to the idea, the majority of the older members thought that "we did not work and build our cultural institutions for outsiders but for our own people." The matter was left undecided.

It is not hard to understand the stand taken by the older generation. Starting from the scratch, they have worked hard and long to give the community what it's got today: national homes, schools, churches and a great variety of cultural, fraternal and social groups that constitute a well-rounded pattern of community life. The natural result was a spirit of possessiveness, which finds expression in such instances of clannishness as cited above.

The attitude of the young American born Slovenes however shows that they view the matter in a different light. A community to them means all the people who live together regardless of nationality backgrounds. Naturally, this is the sound, American, view, which is growing stronger every day. VS

HERE, THERE & EVERYWHERE

At long last, Fascist Italy is beginning to acknowledge the painstakingly concealed fact that there are Slovenes and other Yugoslavs under Italian rule in the territory taken by her after World War I, which was supposed to have been inhabited exclusively by Italians.

The belated acknowledgment is coming in the form of news dispatches from Rome itself. The Cleveland Plain Dealer last Wednesday published such a dispatch, which reported at length about "Slovene and Yugoslav plotters" against Mussolini's rule in Trst (Trieste) and adjacent regions. Sixty such "plotters" are now being tried before a special tribunal for an alleged attempt on Il Duce's life and for acts of destruction and sabotage. The Fascists, taking a leaf from the Nazi propaganda book, are of course calling these liberty-loving Slovenes "Communists," who wanted to form "a Soviet state embracing Slavs in Italy..." No less revealing are reports in the daily press about growing rebellion of Yugoslavs against the Nazi rule. As you'll recall, last April the Germans claimed that Yugoslavia's armed forces were completely annihilated in less than two weeks. It is true that Yugoslavia as a state collapsed, but her people have never stopped fighting. This is particularly true of the Serbs. At a time when Hitler needs every man on the Russian front, he was forced to send three divisions to Yugoslavia, in an attempt to suppress the guerilla fighters who are waging a full-scale war against the Nazis... It is no exaggeration to say that it is the Slavs who are carrying the brunt of the battle against the Nazi barbarians.

The following boys from the Slovene community came home from Camp Shelby for a 10-day furlough with their folks: J. Novosel, 977 E. 77th St.; John Koman, 1029 E. 72nd Place, John Zagorec and John Lach... Stan Bencina of the Cleveland police force, who is a member of Spartan Lodge, made the highest score in two matches between the Cleveland police pistol team and police marksmen of Youngstown last Tuesday, his score being 272 in the first match and 279 in the second. Cleveland police hold the marksmanship championship in the Northern Ohio Police Pistol League since its inception three years ago... Mrs. Frank Zeleznik, well-known Slovene lodge worker and tavern-keeper on West Side, is opening his new place of business on Jennings Rd., just across the street from his old location, formal opening to be Dec. 9 and 10... Slovene School of the National Home on St. Clair Ave. will give its Christmas program on Sunday, Dec. 21. A play in Slovene, "School in Heaven," will be presented.

Mrs. Antoinette Simic will be the featured singer on tomorrow's Slovene Radio Hour, which is broadcast over Station WGAR. She will sing two Slovene songs, "Slepec" and "Na Gorenjskem je fletno," and Johannes Bram's "Lullaby"... Mrs. Anna Vadal, mother of the well-known Vadal musical family, lost her father, Jacob Kappus, who died in Detroit a few days ago... Many Slovene families will be affected by the temporary shutdown of the Fisher Body factory, and their Christmas will be a little less merry as a result. Work is to stop Dec. 12 and will be resumed on Dec. 29, according to company officials... Mr. and Mrs. James Slapnik Jr., who conduct a florist shop, became proud parents of a baby girl last Sunday, which means that their family is now comprised of three girls and a boy... The SDZ decided at the special convention held recently to discontinue its old-age pension fund, however, those members who wish to be insured in that fund in the future may retain this type of insurance by filing a special application and assenting to payment of dues according to a higher scale, as required

Good Old St. Nick in Norwood Branch Library Display

Believing firmly that the American way of life is a composite contribution of the fine things of nationality customs and backgrounds, Norwood Branch Library, 6405 Superior Avenue, is anxious to show the various contributions in a series of displays in its street exhibit windows. Customs, once popular and much enjoyed before the advent of organized commercialism, were quaint and need occasional recalling.

The first in a series of exhibits in this trend now in one of the windows shows St. Nicholas, with mitre and crozier distributing gifts to a boy and a girl. The chained devil and the angel with a basket of goodies stand by to do St. Nicholas' bidding. The exhibit hopes to recall for the old and the young, the method in which St. Nicholas (now Santa Claus) distributed presents to good boys and girls on December 5, the eve of his feastday.

What the next in the series will be is not known, but, it is hoped that the people of the community will be interested enough to come to the Branch and tell the staff so that future exhibits can be planned in sufficient time to coincide with dates or seasons.

Young Women's Club Dance Tonight

Tonight is the date of the Fall Dance sponsored by the Young Women's Club, Circle 6 of the Progressive Slovene Women of America, at the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Ave. Music by Johnny Pecon and his orchestra. The club extends an invitation to lovers of dancing and a good time is guaranteed to all.

Defense Bond

Q. Where I work there is no pay-roll allotment plan for the buying of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps. How can I get one started?

A. This depends on your position, and the kind of organization in which you are employed. Generally speaking, your immediate superior would be the proper person to receive your suggestion that you would like to have a voluntary pay-roll allotment plan introduced. The firm's bank can supply information about such a plan.

Q. What simple and satisfactory way is provided for all of us to express our gratitude for being Americans?

A. The means is the purchase of Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps—available to almost every man, woman, and child. Ownership of even a 10-cent Stamp carries the satisfaction of knowing you have helped the Nation to arm.

Q. What denominations of Defense Savings Stamps are on sale at retail stores?

A. Stores are concentrating on selling 10-cent and 25-cent Stamps, in order to get a maximum number of customers to participate in the Defense Savings Program. Many stores also carry 50-cent, $1, and $5 Stamps. Stamps of all denominations may be purchased at post offices.

Note: To buy Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office, bank, or savings and loan association; or write to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C. Also Stamps now are on sale at retail stores.

In Cleveland Debut Next Sunday

Ann Beniger

The main attraction at the memorial program to be given next Sunday, Dec. 14, at 3 p. m. by the Cankar Foundation in the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Ave. will be Miss Ann Beniger, young Slovene singer, a lyric soprano, who hails from Chicago. She will sing several selections at the program commemorating the 23rd anniversary of the death of Ivan Cankar, greatest of Slovene writers.

Miss Beniger was born in East Helena, Montana, and her talent was already recognized while a high school student there, for she was given principal parts in student musical productions, operettas, concerts and recitals. After finishing school she came to Chicago, where she is employed as a stenographer during the day and evenings she devotes to the advancement of vocal studies. She is a student at the Conservatory of Music, and a member of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra Chorus, and of the noted Russian Choral Society, which is directed by Mme. Slaviansky.

Not long ago she was heard by Zinka Milanov of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and was thrilled by the complimentary remarks her singing evoked from the famed Yugoslav opera star.

Traffic Safety

Cleveland is unique in accident experience in the fact that fatal traffic accidents are on the increase but that personal injury accidents have been considerably reduced. More people are being killed yet fewer people are being hurt. This paradox is brought about by our "speed-up" tempo of these hectic defense days. Drivers who work all day at high speed are inclined to carry this tension over to their driving activities and as a result they become involved in accidents which are more often fatal.

Speed in traffic should be governed by conditions surrounding the driver. 20 miles per hour may be a legal speed within a given zone and at the same time be a dangerous speed to persons on foot within the same area.

Motor vehicle operators should drive at a speed which will enable them to stop within the assured clear distance ahead. Day or night, don't overdrive your range of vision, make allowances for the sudden thoughtless actions of others. Cleveland values your life—Drive Carefully, Walk Sensibly.

WELFARE CLUB DANCE TONIGHT

There will be a good time in the old town Saturday night when the ladies of the Community Welfare Club hold their annual Dance and Supper (kraut and sausages) at the Slovene National Home at E. 65th and St. Clair Ave., (lower hall). Music will be by jolly Tony Vadnal and his orchestra.

The New York Times' Comment on "Two- Way Passage"

The New York Times Book Review for Nov. 23 published a long review of Louis Adamic's new book, "Two-Way Passage," from under the pen of R. L. Duffus. After discussing the Adamic's plan for a reconstruction of democracy in Europe with the aid of "transplanted Europeans," the reviewer continues:

It is perfectly easy to make fun of this fable—much easier than to make fun of what is happening just now on the Russian front or in Yugoslavia or in the North Atlantic Ocean. But if the glowing fancies are eliminated as not belonging in this bad world, something remains. The root of it all is not that we can stop the war and purify Europe by a few fine words but that we are a European people wonderfully mixed and inter-married and that we have a direct interest in what happens to Europe. It may be a hard doctrine for Anglo-Saxons that this country is no longer Anglo-Saxon, but it is the truth. The newer strains are just as American in every good sense and in some bad senses as the older strains. As Mr. Adamic abundantly demonstrates out of an intimate and far-reaching acquaintance with them, they have been terribly confused by the war. Europe's old and new hates have been revived in America by the far-away crimes of Herr Hitler. Nazi propagandists and secret agents have had fine sport with this situation. Americans of German descent, most of them far from sympathetic with nazism, have been and are being penalized and other Americans derived from other nations suffer in lesser degree.

No doubt 90-odd per cent of the European Americans would rather see a democracy than a dictatorship prevailing in their former homelands. A great many may be willing to see old scores paid off even at the expense of democracy. But if old scores could be forgotten, if a European union could be born in the United States and supported by the United States, something resembling Mr. Adamic's miracle is not inconceivable. The world may have reached a stage where something resembling a miracle is necessary if mankind is to survive as a human species and not sink back into the anthropoid stage.

Mr. Adamic disposes of the complacent theory that Europe's quarrels are no concern of ours. They are our concern not merely if they threaten our shores or our trade routes but if they stir up suspicions and resentments—as they do—among our own people. Mr. Adamic has a striking comment on the more formal proposals for reorganizing the earth. One mustn't forget, he declares, "that he is dealing with an endlessly intricate human condition, which,"

for an Appointment To-Day

The International Institute to Mark 25th Anniversary with Dinner, Dec. 10th

Mayor Lausche and Ethel Bird of New York Will Speak at Affair Wednesday Night

The International Institute, known by the immigrants of this city as their friend and assistant, celebrates 25 years of service in Cleveland on December 10, 1941. In commemoration of this occasion a dinner will be given at the University Club, 3813 Euclid Avenue. Guests will be the leaders of the various nationalities and prominent Americans, who frequently call upon the International Institute for information and assistance in regard to the foreign born of this city. There will also be present many people of many different nationalities who have found a solution for their problems through the help of the workers of the International Institute. Mayor Frank J. Lausche and Miss Ethel Bird of New York, who has for twenty years been connected with the national headquarters of the International Institutes, YWCA, will be the principal speakers. The dinner meeting will be followed by a dance program during which Ukrainian, Serbian, Lithuanian, Roumanian, Hungarian, and American dancers will entertain the guests with their folk dances in their traditional costumes. Later, the guests will be invited to join in the folk dancing. Mrs. George Voinovich is the chairman of the 25th Anniversary Committee.

Since the second World War and since the Alien Registration Act was passed, the International Institute is kept very busy helping deserving aliens who are in the United States illegally, or those who were admitted temporarily but are now able to return, in straightening out their difficult immigration problems.

In looking over the past twenty-five years of the work of the International Institute, it is apparent that the work of the organization has changed from time to time as the problems of immigrants and their children change together with the scene in which they live. Whatever the change, the purpose of the International Institute has remained steadfast, to help, protect, and advise the immigrants and their children in this city.

The Cleveland International Institute was established by the YWCA in 1916. At that time, "Americanization" was a word on everybody's lips. The War Work Council and other similar groups were concerned about the hundreds of immigrants who had come to the United States just before the World War and were not yet "Americanized."

To help in this process the International Institute's first job was organizing and teaching neighborhood English classes for women and girls. After the World War, when immigration was again bringing hundreds of women and girls from Europe, the International Institute added to its work of teaching English also the job of visiting the newly arrived immigrants and helping them in making their first adjustments to life in a new world. It also helped them to bring their relatives here, to find jobs and encouraged them to become citizens of the United States.

After the passage of the Immigration Acts of 1921, 1924, and 1927, the International Institute frequently found itself called upon to help in technical immigration problems in order to assist in uniting families whose members were partly here and partly in Europe.

By that time the English classes which the International Institute had organized, had become so large that the Board of Education agreed to take over the job of teaching them. This left the International Institute time for organizing clubs for young people of all nationalities who come together in its club rooms to learn something of their parents' cultural background through folk songs, folk dances, lectures, and through observing traditional holiday customs. There are 16 such clubs there now. They include 475 men and women of 18 different nationalities and ranging in years from 16 to middle age.

During the years of depression when jobs were hard to get and savings were lost, the International Institute was most busy with interpreting for those who could not speak English when they had to seek help from some American social agency. Since the Old Age Pension Law went into effect, the
