Ameriške oblasti bodo v svojem delu Nemčije gledale predvsem na to, da se bodo Nemci tam kolikor mogoče sami preživljali.

PA NISMO VEDELI, DA SO SRNJAKI TAKO DOVZETNI ZA BRIVNICE

Vse čudovite stvari smo že slišali o srnjakih, da bi pa prišli v mesto in se podali naravnost v brivnico, nak, kaj takega pa še ne. Ne vemo, če je bral na brivnici napis: tukaj se brije, češ in striže, fakt pa je, da si je brivske prostore dobro ogledal in tudi raziral se je, vsaj poskusil je brivce, kot je pričala krvava sled za njim.

Včeraj je prišel namreč lep srnjak na Mayfield Rd. v Clevelandu in je sklenil, da si mesto nekoliko ogleda. Za taka podvzeta je treba pa "korajže", zato je butil najprej v okno goztilne na 3951 Mayfield Rd. Pa se mu tam ni dopadlo, zato se je podal preko ceste in butil skozi

TI NE BODO POSLANI NA PACIFIK

Tc velja za tiste, ki so bili v bojih po Evropi in Afriki.

Pariz, 12. maja. — General Eisenhower je odločil, da oni ameriški vojaki, ki so se udeležili bojev v Afriki in Evropi, ne bodo poslani na fronto na Pacifik. Tako naznanja sinoči glavni stan.

Gen. Eisenhower je obvestil svoje generale, da je treba gledati na to, da oni vojaki, ki so se udeležili obeh bojev, tako v Afriki kot v Evropi, ne bodo poslani v nadaljni boj proti Japoncem.

Tisti od teh vojakov, ki nimajo dovolj točk, da bi bili poslani v civil, naj ostanejo pa v Evropi za okupacijo, ker bi ne bilo pošteno, da se jih ponovno pošlje v boj. Tako je odredil Eisenhower.

Oni vojaki, ki imajo v dobro 85 točk ali več, bodo določeni za domov, drugi se pa bodo začeli trenirati za boj proti Japoncem. Postrežbene edinice, ki so določene za Pacifik gredo že proti francoskim pristaniščem, kjer bodo stopile na ladje za drugo bojno fronto. One čete pa, ki so določene za boj proti Japoncem, bodo odposlane v kakih šestih mesecih.

Ali veš?

Ali veš, da tvoja mati vedno misli še na te; da v spominu na ločitev vzdih izjavlja ji solze?

Ali veš, da njeno glavo, ki jo božal rad si ti, danes že so osivela leta dolga in skrb?

Ali veš, da njena usta, ki so te poljubljala, danes suha so, uvela, nič več živo rožnata?

Ali veš, da njena lica, nekdanj gladka, polna vsa, danes ležejo že v gube, blede in postarana?

Ali veš, da njene roke, ki so te objemale, so postale že slabotne, starost trese da jih že?

Ali veš, da nje očesa, ki so te gledala, živna, jasna vsa nekdanj, motna so, upadla, trudna; boš li vanje zrl še kdaj?

Ali veš za to spremembo tvoje drage matere? — Toda srce njeno zlato, bije isto še za te!

— Ivan Zupan.

BESEDA IZ NARODAMamici v spomin

Euclid, O. — Naj veljajo te vrstice v blag spomin moji pokojni in nikdar pozabljeni mamici, Tereziji Kržič, ki so umrli 13. maja 1895 — ob 50 letnici njene prerane smrti. Naj mirno počivaj v rojstni zemlji, na lepi Rakitniški planoti, ki leži med košatimi smrekami.

Ob Vaši zlati obletnici mi danes misli hitijo na Vaš grob, ljuba mati. V duhu sem na Vaši gomili, kjer Vam poklanjam šopek šmarnic, katere ste tako srčno ljubili.

Petdeset let že počivate, a Vaša materinska ljubezen me še vedno spremlja v tujini po vseh mojih potih. Tudi zdaj, v mojem jesenskem življenju, mislim vedno na Vas, ljuba nikdar pozabljena mamica. Na Materinski dan se bom v goreči molitvi spominjala Vas. Vedno slišim, kako žalostno so peli zvonovi ob Vašem pogrebu. Zdi se mi, kakor da bi bilo pred par leti, pa je že minilo 50 let, kar pokojno počivate v mrzli gomili.

Od vseh Vaših otrok sva, še dva med živimi. Danes zalujeva za Vami samo še jaz, Vaša Josefina Strnad v Euclid, O. in pa moj brat Frank Kržič v Gevea, Ohio.

Počivajte mirno in sladko, dokler se združimo zopet nad zvezdami. Vaš zalujoča hčerka

Mrs. Josephine Strnad,
967 E. 209. St.
Euclid, O.

Prisrčna hvala

Tem potom se najsrčneje zahvaljujem mojim dragim sorodnikom, znancem in prijateljem za obiske, cvetlice, darila in lepa voščila, katere sem prejela za časa bolezn, ko sem se nahajala v Painesville Memorial bolnišnici in potem na domu. Lepa hvala prijaznim sosedom za vso pomoč.

Bolezen pride mnogokrat nepričakovano in človek je otožen zaradi dolgega časa v bolniški postelji. Toda na neprijetnost se pozabi, ko dobi človek spodbudna voščila in obiske. V teh časih niso obiski dovoljeni po bolnišnicah po preteklih predpisih, toda ste vseeno prišli in bile v veliko tolažbo.

Iskrena hvala za krasno cvetje, katerega prijetni vonj mi je napravil mnogo lepih momentov. Vaša prijaznost mi bo vedno v najlepšem spominu. Moje zdravje ni še popolnoma dobro in bo vzelo še nekaj časa predno bom okrevala. Sedaj moram biti večji del v Clevelandu, kjer sem pod zdravniško oskrbo. Nahajam se pri sorodnikih Mr. in Mrs. Leo Belaj, 13417 Eaglesmere Avenue.

Posebna hvala uredništvu za priobčitev naznanila o moji bolezn.

Vse skupaj hvaležno pozdravljam,

Mary Peterlin,

Na grobu najine mamice

Sedem let mamica že molčite, sedem let mirno v grobu spite; danes vas čujeva od nekod, danes, ko je vseh mamic god.

Skrivnostno kličete nama z višin vso srečo mladih dni v spomin; vprašujete naju, kako je zdaj — na licu solze ali smehljaj.

A vaš smehljaj, o mamica, v najini duši še živi, vaš smehljaj, ki bil je vedno vaših mladih dni.

Zato smehljaj vaš blagi sva skrila v dno srca; zato spomin vaš spremlja povsod naju, mamica.

Sedem let, mamica, že molčite, nocoj pa nama spet govorite; kot nekdanj vam v obličje zreva, poljub vaš čutiva in objem.

Raymond in Joseph Videmšek, sinova.

Na praznik vseh mater

Zopet se je približal lepi praznik — Materinski dan. Kot vsako leto, tudi letos dekleta Baragovega zbora vabijo na lepo predstavo, ki se bo vršila v počast vsem materam v nedeljo večer, 13. maja, v šolski dvorani sv. Vida. Pripeljte svoje matere in naj se vesele v tako lepi in veseli družbi, saj ta dekleta imajo vedno kaj lepega n programu in tako se nam tudi letos obeta prav lep večer.

Rezervirajte si mize. Za rezervacijo pokličite Miss E. Karlinger, HE 6481, ali EN 3534, da boste tako imeli gotovo pripravljen prostor. Može, sinovi in hčere, pokažite se ljubečim tisti, ki dan za dnem skrbijo za vas. Na svidenje.

Rad bi bil pravedansko poslal za teboj, nisem hotel, da bi ves sre del, kje da sem. Ker si tak zaresno grdo zarjul, sem nal, da jo bo medved ubral, se da, od tam. Z visoke sem dobro videl tje proti vniku, na drugo stran proti brovškemu hribu in čez tale proti Skalčni poti. Kamor pošast ubrala, bom videl njjo bova šla, sem mislil.

Ko se tako oziram okrog pa zmoti nekovo godmanje brundanje dol pod smreko. gledam skozi veje in če ti štajna šnofala okrog smreke sto milijonov kosmatih šnofega čuvaja imam zdaj pol boj, sem si mislil in nekaj začelo lezti po hrbtu, nekaj gor, nekaj časa pa dol, kot tam sprehajale miravje, meniševske gmajne, z zastavo na čelu.

Primaruha, Herblan, sem kel sam pri sebi, to se pa prav razvzljalo, če kaj Da bi me mrcina grda le vohala gori na smreki, ker sem slišal, da medved tudi za, če mu tako kaže. Saj stari očanci pripovedovali, se medved spravi na hrsto jih otrse.

"Miha, daj mi še malo flašo, me kar nekam se spomnim na tiste klenica se je v močnih novih rokah zelo spotila, dobil lepo barvo celo prav v ušesa. Zato je tudi bolj živo zastavljal, ko je ljeval:

"Kot sem že rekel, je šnofala in kihala doli po ko, kot bi bila tla z najhko priko poštopana. Komaj premagoval, da nisem doli zavpil: Bog pomagaj, se se vselej o pravem znil v jezik.

Prehlajen mora biti čeno ugotovil ko tako ha kot bi se vsekal."

"Saj ni kihal, vohal je jih stopinjah," ga poučijo "Nikar mi ne pravi sem pa sam to kmalu enkrat sem res opazil, obrnil svojo debelo tiko smreko, se stegnil na ce in začel potem šnofati blu.

"Hudič, me že ima, rad priznal bridko resno menda, ja ne bo rinil gor ne, ko nima prav nobene mena."

"Močno si se moral Herblan, da ti niso resno odpovedale," ga podraja "Saj menda ne misliš, se kaj bal, ali kaj takega?"

"Ej, ja, ti da bi se veda!" mu vneto prigovarja.

"Vidiš, to je beseda, čena po pravici. Ravno mi je bilo, kot bi sedel v medved bi bil pa zajec nje, jo, s katerim si sezdrav nje."

"K-hm. . ." zopet me kašljajo Kranje ata.

"Morda si požrl kurje ker krehas kot star koat štatira Herblan.

"Menda sem se prehlal kaj, pa bo že minilo, ko je bilo potem, no."

Bomo pa jutri postel prej, kako sta se gledala in medved iz oči v oči hoji, drugi pod njo.

SIN — MATERI

Ave Marija — zvonovi pojo, misli pa moje nazaj mi teko, ko bil sem otrok še in vam v oko gledal sem, mati, stiskal roko. Takrat sem mislil zakaj mati ti imaš ko poje zvon solzne oči, zdaj pa tud' meni solze priteko, ko mislim kak' sva skupaj molila lepo.

Stal sem pri vas, stiskal roko, vi pa imeli ste roso oko, kot da bi vedli, da prišlo bo to, da zvon bo še pel in mene ne bo.

Zvonovi pojejo Mariji na čast, tukaj kjer jaz sem kot peli so včas, a zemlja je tukaj in matere ni, edino le zvon mi tolažbo deli.

Takrat, ko zvon bo pa zadnjič zapel, takrat, o takrat bom zopet vesel, takrat, o mati, bom prišel v nebo, vam in Mariji bom gledal v oko.

Podružnica št. 25 SZZ

Naša podružnica št. 25 SZZ bo imela v ponedeljek 14. maja redno mesečno sejo v novi šoli sv. Vida. Vabim vas, da se gotovo udeležite te seje v velikem številu, ker se moramo še kaj več pogovoriti vse potrebno radi materinske proslave, katero priredimo naša podružnica v šolski dvorani sv. Vida 20. maja in ne 27. kakor sem poročala v Zarji. To pa iz razloga, ker je ta dan bolj prikladen še za Materinski dan.

Naš veselilni odbor se pridno pripravlja pod vodstvom Mrs. Margaret Tomažin, Domen Tomažin in Mrs. Frances Brancelj. No, sedaj pa že veste, da bomo imeli par ur dobre zabave. Na programu bosta dve igrici "Čašica kave" in "Dve bogati teti iz Amerike," deklamacijo materam in lepo petje. Bolj obširno o programu bo poročano prihodnji teden.

Vstopnice imamo že v prodaji in jih boste že lahko dobili v ponedeljek večer na seji. Pripravite na sejo tudi kaj novih, da bodo pristopile v našo zvezo. Sedaj se lahko zavarujete za večjo vsoto za mali assessment. Potrudimo se v pridobivanju novih članic vse, da ne bo naša podružnica zadnja. Našo gl. predsednico, Mrs. Marie Prislund bomo najbolj razveselile, če bomo pridobile čimvečje število novih članic v tem mesecu. Zato vpišite svoje hčerke v SZZ.

Mrs. Mary Marinko se je tudi že povrnila iz bolnišnice in jo prijateljice sedaj ahko obiščete na njenem domu. Še enkrat pa vas opozarjam in vabim, da pridete v ponedeljek v velikem številu na sejo.

Mary Otoničar.

Trta je pozebla

Hubbard Rd. — Dobro je če se farmar preskrbi s pridelkom še znanje. Povedal sem bil že, da je bil naš Eddie lanske leto pridelal toliko korusa, da jo bo kar za dve leti. Se reča, lani so bili potrgali in djali pod streho toliko kot se spodobi za eno sezono in vse to delo so storili prijazni Clevelandčani. Seveda vrhovni povejnik je bil naš Tone iz Norwood Rd., pomagali pri tem so mu pa tudi Čampatovi in drugi so prišli na pomoč pri tem ogromnem delu. Ker je bilo pa le preveč korusa, ji niso bili kos in je prej pritisnila zima. Tako jo je prezimilo več kot polovico v prosti naravi. Tista je čepela na njivi v kopicah in željno pričakovala pomladi in jo tudi tam pričakala.

pri taknem, ampak pogrešal pa bom v jeseni "check," ki ga ne bo v jeseni.

Toliko smo sedaj že sigurni, da prihodnjo zimo ne bomo pili ohajčana in tudi Clevelandčanom se ni treba zanašati nanj, ker ga ne bo. Preše bodo lepo v miru počivale in dosti nadležnega dela bo prihranjenega tistim, ki ga navadno doma stiskajo. Narod bo v jeseni prikrajsan na dosti rečeh, vina ne bo, da bi ga pili in se ob njem veselili, mesa pa tudi ne, da bi želodce polnili; najbrže, da bo primanjkovalo tudi jajec. V mesecu februarju so vse kokoške znesle 4,786,000,000 jajec ali za 12% manj kot leto poprej. Za naprej jih bo pa še manj, ker mesa ne bo, zato bodo ljudje jedli več jajec in zgodi se prav lahko, da jih bo jako težko dobiti. To pač ne bo najboljša stvar za mestne ljudi. Na farmah je vsaj toliko boljše, da vsaj stradati nam ne bo treba, če bo denar, da se bo lahko kupilo druge potrebščine, putke in pulske pa zredimo doma, da bo kaj v lonec djal.

Krompir je že v zemlji, fižol in sladka korusa tudi že kupajo iz zemlje. To s videli tudi Cimpermanovi in Znidaršičevi, ki so nas bili obiskali. Sladke korusa bom posadil toliko, da jo bom imel za pod zob vse poletje in se obdržal z njo lepo rejen, kajti če je za pujske redilna, bo tudi zame, da se ne bom preveč zmajčil v hudih in vročih poletnih dnevih.

Torej prihodnjo zimo ga ne bomo pili. Saj ravno tiste lepe navade nimam, da bi se kar nacejal z njim tudi če do njega pridem, se vedno držim nazaj in mi tudi ne nese, ker ni kje jemati, zato se pa bolj "kofeta" držim, saj je ta tudi redilen, če je prav napravljen. Zenske v mestu se sicer pritožujejo, da ne morejo narediti dobre kave, ker da je mleko "prešvih." Tisto prav rad verjamem, da mleko v mestu ni tako kot ga imamo mi na deželi, to pa zato, ker taki farmarji, ki prodajajo mleko imajo ali redijo krave take "sorte," ki imajo veliko mleka in ni take kakovosti kot naprimer, kjer imajo krave samo za doma.

Mestne gospodinje, če hočete napraviti zjutraj dobro kavo, tedaj zlijte zvečer mleko v posodo, v kateri ga navadno vrete in ga postavite bolj na toplo, seveda ne preveč na vroče, da se mleko ne zasiri, ampak da se bo na mleku nabrala smetana in tako ga zjutraj zavrejte. Pri tem pa pazite, da vam mleko ne skipi. Ko zavre, ga nalahko zmešajte in pridajte par zrnc soli ter nalite v kavo in boste videli, kakšna okusna bo kava. Tako jaz delam in pospravim zjutraj natešče po pet skodelic kave, seveda tudi kruha nadrobim notri, da žlica pokonci stoji, potem pa že gre in seveda brez sladkorja kava tudi ni dobra. Sprevidel sem, da je tudi kava redilna in kdor hoče biti bolj okrogeljša žvota, naj kar ta moj nasvet vpoštevata samo kaditi ne sme zraven, ker v to baki je nikotin, ki je tudi škodljiv zdravju in nese človeka dol, ter mu pomaga v prezgodnji grob. Zato pa, ker imam jaz vseh teh dobrih lastnosti na sebi, se že kar bojim, da bom morala še sodnemu dnevu trobit.

Tu imate nekaj nasvetov in če jih boste vpoštevati, vam prav gotovo ne bo žal. Za danes naj zadostuje, da bo še za drugič kaj. Pozdrav, Frank Leskovic.

POROČNIK INDIJSKE BRIGADE

ROMAN

Vickers je skoraj ves čas prebil na krovu, podnevi in ponoči. Na poveljniškem mostu se je spoznal s kapitanom in z nekaj častniki. Stari in izkušeni pomorščaki so bili to, ki so med najhujšo nevihto stali brez strahu mirno na svojem mestu. Geoffrey se jim je čudil. Tudi ti ljudje so izpolnjevali svojo dolžnost, a niso se pritoževali, niso tarnali, in so vsak dan morali biti pripravljeni na nove nevarnosti. Mesece in mesece dolgo so bili zdoma. Ko jih je Geoffrey gledal, je čutil, da ne dela prav, ko se upira svoji usodi.

Zatem pa je njegov mali oddelek na kopnem doživljal vsak dan nove pustolovščine in spopade z divjimi rodovi. Beduini so jih čakali v zasedah. Spominjal se je tistega poldneva, ko so jezdili po ne-so bile tiste noči v šotoru, ko je čutil, da je vsa odgovornost samo na njemu. Barclay in Randall sta bila sicer hrabra fanta, toda prav to je bila tudi njuna napaka, bila sta preveč hrabra. Takoj, ko je padel prvi strel, bi bila najrajši v napad, ne da bi kaj pomislila na sovražnikovo premoč in brezumnost takih korakov. Vickers ju je pogosto moral zadrževati s silo.

Spomnil se je, kako je s kupljenimi konji obšel sovražnika, ki je prežal na kameniti višini. Izpustil je nekaj konj, da so drveli mimo Arabcev, ki so začeli streljati za njimi in so mislili, da bodo šli Angleži po tej poti, Vickers pa je medtem odprl za njihovim hrbtom. Vsi njegovi ljudje so se dolgo govorili o tem, kako je Vickers ta dan rešil konje in najbrž ves svoj oddelek.

Sele zdaj, ko mu je pred očmi vstajalo pristanišče, je mogel zopet misliti na zaročenko. Sele zdaj je zopet postal samosvoji človek, ker je vso pot mislil samo na svojo nalogo.

Takoj ko izkrega ljudi, pojde do guvernerja. In morda bo še danes karavana krenila proti Chukotiji. Dan, dva, pa se bo zopet videl z njo. Med njegovo odsotnostjo nista nič slišala drug o drugem. Samo kapitan ladje, ki je prevzel arabske konje, jim je pravil, da se v Indiji kuha vojna. To je bila edina vest, ki jo je o Indiji imel on in njegovi. Toda Vickers je to vedel že od prej, le da podrobnosti ni mogel dognati.

Zdaj pa je bil že nestrpen in komaj je čakal, kdaj bo prišel v Kalkuto. Zakaj je Campbell odpeljal hčerko s seboj v Chukoti? Zakaj je ni rajši pustil v Kalkuti? No, zdaj ni imelo več smisla, da bi se mislil na to. Samo še pol ure, pa bo vedel vse.

Stal je na kljumu in gledal proti lukii, v kateri je že lahko s pogledom razbral jambore in parniške dimnike.

Randall je prišel k njemu in ga potrpeljal po rami: "Komaj čakate, da se vrnete, kajne?"

Vickers ga je pogledal začuden, kakor da ga ni razumel, potem se je nasmehnil:

"Rad bi, da bi bil že v Chukotiju. Surat-kan je zdaj že gotovo zbral svoje čete."

"Skrbi vas, kaj ne?"

"Da vam povem po pravici, res ne vem, zakaj so poslali ženske iz Kalkute."

"Slišal sem, da je polkovnik Campbell odpeljal tudi hčerko s seboj."

"Da."

Geoffrey je molčal in Randall je dobro razumel njegovo zaskrbljenost. Skušal ga je pomiriti.

"Sir Charles je gotovo mislil tudi na to. Tega ni naredil nalašč, ker bi bil Surat gotovo izvedel, Macefield pa noče pokazati, da ga usoda te trdnjave morda kaj skrbi. Toda zatrdno se je pobrigal, da bodo ženske in otroke ob nevarnosti poslali v Kalkuto."

"To tudi jaz upam..."

Barclay in Pearson sta bila pri vojaki, ki so se že zbirali na krovu, pripravljeni za izkrcanje.

Ladja je vozila počasneje. Jadra so bila speta, zdaj je delal samo parni stroj in iz dimnika se je vil gost dim.

Z daljnogledom je bilo mogoče videti veliko množico ljudi, ki so se zbirali na obali. Tam je stala tudi častna četa.

Randall je veselo vzkliknil: "Zdi se mi, da nam pripravljajo svečan sprejem!"

Vickers je zamahnil z roko: "Ne maram teh parad!"

Zdaj so zaslišali topovske strele. To je bilo na čast njim. V pristanišču je igrala godba.

Guverner Sir Charles Macefield je čakal častnike v svoji delovni sobi kakor ponavadi.

"Dobro jutro, gospodje! Ne morem vam povedati, kako sem ponosen na vas vse, ki ste tako hrabro izvršili nalogo, ki smo vam jo naložili!"

Zatem je guverner stopil k Vickersu:

"Čestitam vam, major Vickers..."

"Major? ... Hvala vam, sire..."

Zatem je stopil k poročniku Randallu:

"Čestitam vam, kapitan..."

"Hvala vam, sire!"

Potem se je guverner obrnil k Barclayu in Pearsonu:

"Vidva sta še mlada, zato morata malo potrpeti! Toda tudi na vas smo ponosni! Čestifam vama!"

Zatem jih je povabil naj se dejo.

"Gospoda, jutri pojedete v Chukoti! Danes se odpočijte, a jutri na pot!"

Guverner se je več kakor uro dolgo razgovarjal s častniki in na obrazu mu je bilo videti, kako je bil srečen, da se je ta odprava tako dobro končala. Ni govoril o neposredni nevarnosti, ki naj bi grozila Chukotiju, in to je Vickersa veselilo bolj, kakor pa dejstvo, da je tako nepričakovano napredoval.

Pri slovesu je guverner obdržal Vickersa pri vratih in mu dejal potihom:

Mary Hrovat of 5128 Stanley Heights, O., received a letter from France, written by her mother, who sends her a poem. This poem was by some GI Joe and it was in the Stars and Stripes. Mary thought it was very nice and meant every word of it, from the bottom of her heart.

MOTHER'S DAY

Today, I kneel and pray,
Thank the Lord, for you my mother,
Love and kindness fit no other.
Smile, but patience worn,
Dear, when now I say,
Sorry, 'till this day.
Spaced us far apart,
You're always in my heart,
Stay, you'll always be
My light, for me to see.

I've caused thee much pain and sorrow,
And if I could but kindness borrow,
I would kiss thee, Mother dear,
And thus dispel all your fear.

So again, this day has come,
Reminding me of all you've done,
There shall never be another,
God Bless you, my Dearest Mother.

SPORTS

Properly inspired by their first home run of the campaign, a lusty smash by Felix Mackiewicz, the Indians Tuesday turned loose on their tormentors, Chicago's White Sox, with a vengeance at Chicago.

Rewarding Red Embree's fine pitching with their initial display of hitting power, the Indians ended their three-game losing slump, 7 to 1.

It was their first triumph this year over the Sox, who had whipped them five times, and their fourth all told.

Embree, chalking up his first victory, was nicked for seven hits, but only once did he give more than one in an inning.

Three hurlers worked for Chicago and the damage was done while Orval Grove and Earl Caldwell, right-handers, were on the scene. Southpaw Frank Papish, a rookie, retired the tribe in order in the ninth. Grove and Caldwell were touched for six blows apiece and the former was the loser.

Leaders in the hit parade were Mickey Rocco and Lou Boudreau, with three apiece. It was after Mickey's triple in the sixth that Mackiewicz belted his four-matter, a drive high into the stands in left center.

Incidentally, the Indians were the last club in the major leagues to enter the home run column.

A bit of co-operation from the Boston Red Sox infield and a resounding pinch-single by Cleveland Paul O'Dea, all in the ninth inning, Wednesday enabled the Indians to post their second consecutive triumph.

With Allie Reynolds shading young Jim Wilson for pitching honors, the tribe inaugurated its home stay with a 2-1 decision at League Park before a slim assemblage of approximately 1,000 fans who braved 48-degree temperatures.

It was the first time this season the Indians had nailed two straight—they've won only five times—and they accomplished the feat despite the fact that they were outbait, 6 to 5.

Blanked for six frames by Wilson, tall right-hander who won 19 games for the Louisville Colonels last summer, the Indians tied the score at 1-all in the seventh.

Their winning rally in the final frame was sparked by Manager Lou Boudreau, who coaxed a pass from Wilson. Pat Seery, after missing two attempts to bunt, worked a 3-2 count and then smashed a hot grounder to Third Baseman Jack Tobin, who made a neat stop but threw wildly to second to save both runners.

Don Ross, making his Cleveland debut at third, laid down a neat sacrifice bunt his second in a row, to push Lou to third and Pat to second. Dutch Meyer, also making his second base debut here, was purposely passed to fill the bases.

That set the stage for O'Dea, summoned to bat for Catcher Jim McDonnell. Paul didn't wait, picking Wilson's first offering, a curve, for a sharp single over second that brought in Boudreau with the decisive tally.

His wife was visiting her mother. When he arrived home late at night, a note fastened to the telephone caught his eye. In the handwriting of the Polish maid, he read: "Mz Nx Kuldrop. Two GIs on a day off were strolling along a suburban road outside London when they saw on a hillside, a building which said over its archway, "Hall of Remembrance." The British phrase for crematorium. With usual GI curiosity one of them went in to see what it was.

A few moments later he came rushing out in such a hurry his friend thought someone was after him with a machine gun. To the other's question as to why the haste, the investigating GI said:

"Darned if I know. I walked in and there were a lot of people in black standing around a pit from which flames seemed to be coming. Some of them were crying. All I said before I got thrown out was:

"Hi, folks, what's cookin'?"

Little Mark had been inheriting his older brother's broken toys and cast-off clothes as long as he could remember, and was growing exceedingly weary of the practice.

One day when his mother handed him another second-hand pair of pants, with their inevitable patch, he plaintively inquired: "Maw, will I have to marry his widow when he dies?"

Down from Sand Mountain there came to the little town of Scottsboro, Alabama, a rawboned hill woman and her 10-year-old son. At the local drug store where they got their first glimpse of a soda fountain, the friendly proprietor, sensing the high adventure the pair were enjoying, offered to treat them to a couple of vanilla sodas.

The pair watched wonderingly, and not a little fearfully, while the man concocted the refreshment, whipped it up with a high froth, and set it before them on the counter. The woman regarded her glass a little doubtfully, but the boy, filled with the adventurous spirit of youth, dipped his spoon into the foam and cautiously sampled it.

Then he smiled blissfully and said reassuringly, "It's all right, ma, t ain't nothin' but sweet wind!"

V-E DAY IN CLEVELAND

The great news flashed over the radio Monday morning at 9:35. Some left their work but there wasn't too much excitement, because many didn't believe it until the official announcement came from President Truman at 9 a. m. Tuesday.

Then the factory whistles blew and the church bells rang. Most stores closed up, including all the liquor stores and saloons. There were services in all the churches to give thanks for the victory. With the exception of a few war plants, most people observed the request to work and pray. It was a sober celebration because most people sympathized with those whose loved ones made the supreme sacrifice, and because they realized that we are only half-way on the road to victory.

St. Mary's Weekly Flashes

MARY THE HELP OF CHRISTIANS:

During these troublesome days of war, many a Christian is suffering much, even death for his faith. Storms and dangers threaten the Church, also, at the present time. Let us, therefore, call upon Mary to aid us by Her powerful intercession that the period of our trials be shortened. We should not confine our petitions within the narrow limits of our personal needs, but unite our prayers to the prayer of all Christendom.

In our petitions we should ask Mary to aid the miserable, assist the despondent, strengthen the weak, pray for all the people, plead for the clergy, intercede for the devout.

Our best prayer to Her is the ROSARY. Say it devoutly and fervently each day of the month of May. With HER AID VICTORY will be ours.

Mary, Help of Christians, pray for us!

ETERNAL REST GIVE HIM, O LORD

Last Saturday, St. Mary's was the scene of the funeral services of one of our servicemen. Ensign Raymond Lauther, who a week previously was killed in an airplane crash, was the man for whom we mourned. His kind ways shall always be in our minds and we shall continue to pray for the repose of his soul.

VIDY HOME AGAIN

Not at all were we surprised last week, when John Vidmar was back in our midst. Puzzled we were, but glad, to have him with us after so short a departing from us.

Vidmar wished for a 72-hour leave, but luck was with him, and he received an 8-day furlough leave.

SODALITY NEWS

I am just a person, it doesn't make much difference who. I didn't know much about churches, Catholic churches in particular, and I had no conception of what a May Crowning could be. Then I received an invitation. I'm sure I know now!

I entered St. Mary's Church last Sunday reluctantly, because I had never been here before, but all the other people gathered around seemed most friendly so I walked in. The warmth of the welcome enveloped me—the altar was the most beautiful thing I had ever seen. There was the special altar for "Our Lady." The background was draped in blue and white chiffon, and all around the Blessed Virgin were flowers, lilies, roses, etc.; and there were candles arranged in such a manner that it radiated the glow in the Blessed Virgin's face. She seemed to welcome me, too, even though I was new.

Then all of a sudden the church was filled with music, organ music, the kind that makes you feel holy deep down inside. The tribute of the playing is bestowed upon Mr. Rakar.

The procession started—the Sodality, dressed in pale blue capes and carrying lighted candles marched into church. Everyone sang with the able assistance of the choir. The may queen, Betty Raddell, dressed in white, followed with her twelve attendants dressed in pastel formal.

They were Lillian Koprivnik, Marie Melocik, Josephine Kozner, Lillian Kozar, Jane Dolenc, D. D. Zagore, Lillian Karis, Angela Svigel, Florence Nachtgal, Mary Znidarsce, Alice Somrack, Lillian Lunder. It was like a breath of spring enhancing the solemnity of the occasion.

The simple crowning followed, the crowning of the may queen by the Chairman of the Our Lady's Committee, Mary Svigel. It seemed to represent a personification of goodness. As the scene was set, the attendants two at a time, walked up to the Blessed Virgin's special altar and recited their verse. In between each set of speakers, the choir and the Sodality blended their voices in "that kind" of music, the kind that sends shivers down your spine!

There is nothing like the prayer of a child in his own words. The church was deadened with stillness as little Eugene Kovogsek spoke to the Blessed Virgin and asked her to teach him how to pray, just as she had done for her own Son. And there were the little children, dressed in white, who accompanied Mary Svigel at the presentation of flowers to the servicemen and women of the parish—it kinda made me feel so humble, as if I wanted to offer up a little prayer too.

By this time I felt very much like a Catholic, and when Frances Tomazic, aided by two angels, Vera Humar and Vida Kozel, placed the medal, Her medal, around her neck, I knew that Mary must have been pleased.

Ave Maria, sung by Betty Raddell, was an unsurpassable prelude to the crowning of the Blessed Virgin. All heaven must have bowed in reverence as Betty sang, and each step closer to Her bound with the highest feeling of adoration, each inch closer as the crown was raised to Her head, signified the tribute from the souls of everyone. Our Lady was crowned!

The program was concluded with a sermon by Fr. Tomc and Benediction. Fr. Baraga, our guest from St. Vitus, assisted in the Benediction—he was most welcomed by all of his friends. I was welcomed too, in a special sort of way, and I shall always cherish the memory of this May Crowning.

SOCIAL AFTER THE MAY CROWNING

A four-star tribute goes to Millie Ruzich, Vida Kozel, Alice Somrack and Florence Nachtgal for the play written, produced and performed for the mothers in the Social following the May Crowning in the Study Club Room. I bet some of them are still laughing, the mothers I mean. I hope there will be more soon, at least I heard some of the mothers say they could listen and watch to this "professional" acting all night. Stannie Rudolf, Lillian Rudolph and Carolyn Pibrovac received a word of thanks too for their bit in the play.

Refreshments were served too, naturally, and all the mothers got a chance to gab about all of those things they find interesting. The gals kept the recorded going full blast and the rollers rolling on the piano. We had fun, didn't we?

A word of thanks is always in order, and they go to the following: Fr. Tomc for the help he gave us in giving us his judgment; the Sisters who decorated the church so very beautifully, and for their help with the children; Mr. Rakar and the choir for the music; Mary Svigel and her committee for their wonderful organization; Lillian Rudolph and her Social Life committee for the entertainment and the refreshments, the gals who helped clean the room up, and even the janitor who had to stay up late Sunday night because of the Social. Last, but not least, I think we all wish to thank Betty Raddell for her endless energy in making sure the program was a success. I think it's really a pleasure to work for someone who is so very appreciative of what you do for her. The May Crowning was a success because everyone cooperated beyond what was expected of them. Now we have the whole summer to look forward to—lots of picnics, hay rides, etc.—lots of fun.

PRAYER FOR VICTORY!

Msgr. B. J. Ponikvar appeals to the parishioners to attend the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Sunday from 10 a. m. until the afternoon May services, to offer thanks for our Victory.

Want Is Not Over

V-E Day hit Cleveland with "the impact of a feather." It is well that the people of this country have no illusions about the task ahead of them. Furthermore it is rather a remarkable circumstance when one considers the propaganda to which they have been subjected.

The United States still has a major war on its hands. It is a war that must be fought thousands of miles from our continental shores. In the fighting of it, this country will bear the brunt of the casualties and the expenditures. Great Britain will give us what help she is able to give. Our other major allies, with Germany disposed of, consider themselves at peace and it is wholly likely that at peace they will stay except as their own selfish interest dictates some other course.

It is well that recent pronouncements from Washington indicate some realization of the attitude of the American people and it seems to many that a large section of the press and radio would do well to follow the example.

MOTHER

Of all the love that has been known
Since time and earth began,
Of all the faith that has been shown
Since God created man,
Of all the noble, stirring deeds
That grace the written page,
A mother's boundless love and faith
Stand out through every age.

Her deeds have moved the sternest hearts
To wonder and to tears,
Her love has kindled faith and trust
Through all the changing years,
Her sacrifice, unselfishness,
Her trust through praise or blame
Have shined her in the hearts of all
And glorified her name.

For though the world may frown or sneer
Though failure may be ours,
Her love still folds, encircles us
A rosary of flowers,
A comforting, sustaining force,
A star that brightly gleams,
That softens every care and hurt,
And shares our hopes and dreams.

ST. VITUS HOLY NAME Weekly Review

Sodality News

The voice from the radio announced itself excitedly, rudely breaking into the program already in progress. Ruthlessly it swept before it all the soap-operas that usually go to make up our daily listening. Tension mounted as wave after wave of news flashed into thousands of Cleveland homes. It was the voice of Victory proclaiming triumph in Europe. Unconditional Surrender! Bitter words to our foe, sweet words to us here at home who had been anxiously waiting and praying for his return.

Catholics can especially be proud, for they have never failed to pause after every Mass for that little extra "Prayer for Peace." And now at last peace has come to the millions of innocent people of Europe, whose plight has never been equalled since the Dark Ages.

President Truman has passed a law which very prophetically falls on another national holiday. He has declared May 13th to be observed as a day of prayer and thanksgiving. What is more fitting than for such a day to be observed on Mother's Day.

When we go to communion on that Sunday in a group with our mothers, each of us will indeed admit that this is truly Mother's Day.

Sodalists with their mothers will meet down in school not later than 6:45, at which time we will leave for church. Let's make this the best showing of the Sodality we have ever had.

We would like to have a few volunteers join us this evening for a bit of dusting up and table-setting in the Sodality hall in preparation for the Communion breakfast. Refreshments after the work are offered to all faithful members who appear for said services.

As mentioned before, our next meeting is on the 15th of May. It's another one of those friendly socials. There will be a surprise movie and something good to eat and drink. Come on down and be friendly.

Please bring in what you have for the tickets. You may also secure more if you are a super-salesman and want more to sell. How about those sales tax stamps that are scattered all over the house? Throw them in an empty cigar box and bring them down. Of course, if the box happens not to be empty, that, too, is OK. (Father's brand is La Palina.)

Say, did you see who was at the last meeting? None other than our greatly loved and so rarely seen young friend, Jeanie Per. Why so exclusive in the past, Jean? Not pulling a Mme. Sand on us, are you? (Heaven forbid.) Jeanie was also seen last Tuesday supping on Crosby's mezzanine. She seemed to be enjoying her meal, but from where we stood the fellow on her left seemed to be more interesting to her.

Well, so much for that. Remember: table-setting tonight, Mass tomorrow, and meeting Tuesday at 7 sharp.

"MARY, MY DEAREST MOTHER"

The month of May, and mother nature again brings forth her beauty, with a liveliness unsurpassed, for this is the month enraptured with blossoms and love, therefore no lovelier month could have been chosen in which to honor and pay tribute to our Heavenly Mother, as also our own mothers. Yes, the entire month is dedicated to Mary, so at the break of dawn, the lassies will join countless others at Mass, and in the company of their mothers, will receive Holy Communion, and thus thank Her, for numberless favors received, but especially for having given us our mothers, who have done so much for us, and we will ask Mary that she may give them health, and happiness, forever more. We will also recourse to Her, to ease the troubles of worry and suffering, and in this manner bring the world to a lasting and joyous peace.

In tribute to Mary, we raise our voices in prayer, "Salve Regina," a happy Mother's Day to our own mothers, and to the mothers who have long gained their eternal resting place, we humbly praise, by asking Mary to obtain for them a higher place in Heaven.

V-E DAY

Victory in Europe. And thus it was that on the eighth day of May, our victory in Europe had been announced. What one must always remember is that lasting and beautiful thought, that Mary heard our prayers and answered them, yes, in May, the month dedicated to our Lady.

Rehearsals Tuesday night, will no doubt linger on for years to come in the memory of the lassies who had attended this meeting. As we also joined together with hundreds, who at that moment entered into churches to partake in services in order that they give thanks.

The lassies however, held their own V-E Day service in the school auditorium. It was with a special solemnity that the lassies, led by our Director Eleanore, sang the ever beautiful Ave Maria, then recited the prayers for our servicemen, with the song "Mother help our valiant fighters," following. Prayers were then said, for all who had made this victory possible, for all who made the supreme sacrifice, and also for all the wounded and others who remained missing, as also for the men who are about to lead our boys in winning the remaining half of this war. "Mother at your feet is kneeling" was then sung, and lastly the lassies sang the closing hymn, "Holy God We Praise Thy Name."

The hall remained silent for a moment after, as each and every lassie thought of that certain loved one, be he brother, boy friend, or just a friend.

So, we again say, our prayers are for you, soldier, sailor, and marine, and to your speedy and safe return homeward. We know that Mary, will intercede for us and thus hasten your return homeward.

"THAT WONDERFUL MOTHER OF MINE"

As in other years the lassies will again honor all mothers, by presenting a Mother's Day Program, to be held tomorrow evening at 8:00 p. m. in the St. Vitus school auditorium. We therefore extend an invitation to all our friends, young and old, to make your mother's day all the happier, by spending the evening with us at the hall. Let mother partake in the beautiful songs and verses dedicated to her alone, and picture Mom, joining in with community sing and keeping rhythmic time to the polkas and waltzes to be played for dancing.

The lassies will again observe table seating, with the Junior Holy Name members serving on tables. If you haven't made your table reservation as yet, you can do so, by contacting any of the lassies. Come on, brother, sister, and Dad, let's give Mom a real treat, by bringing her to the hall, which features a style somewhat to the Alpine Village of the playhouse square in downtown Cleveland. Take note, somewhat to the style, "ampak mi smo po domace."

How true that is especially when the hall resounds with gay and hearty folk songs, the lads and lassies in Slovene costumes, the Slovenian dance and polkas and waltzes, not to exclude the refreshments.

If you joined us at our last affair, you may already recall events of the night, and if you have never attended a glee club affair, why not join us now? Again the lassies extend a Happy Mother's Day to all the mothers, and here's to our seeing each and every mother at the program tomorrow night. Na Svidenje.

BY THE WAY

The lassies wish to extend wishes for a speedy recovery to member Doris Mayer, who is convalescing at her home. Hurry up, Doris, and get well, we miss you at rehearsals.

Another lassie celebrated her birthday. This time it was member Ann Cimprman. The gals extend a "Happy Birthday to you, Cimpy."
