LETO XLVIII—VOL. XLVIII

OB TEDNU Posebna komisija bo imela kontrolo nad atomsko silo

Vlada računa in najbrže ima da bo 8. vladno posojilo predpisano kvoto za manj 10 bilijonov dolarjev. Ta je določena za 11 bilijonov dolarjev.

V tem so se sporazumeli veliki trije v Moskvi, ki so tudi določili posebno komisijo za upravo Japonske. Tajnost atomske sile ostane pa še vedno v rokah Amerike, Kanade in Anglije. Ameriški tajnik Byrnes je na potu domov.

Washington. — Eden glavnih sporazumov, ki so ga do- segli ministri v Moskvi je načrt, da se atomsko silo izvzame kot bojno orožje. Drug važen zaključek je pa bil, da se ustvari posebna komisija, ki bo upravljala Japonsko.

Stroj za valenje se je razletel, ubil 3

Medina, O. — Na posestvu družine Presley se je razletel stroj za valenje piščet in eksplo- zija je ubila hišno gospodinj- ter njena dva sinova, 26 let sta- rega Richarda in 8 letnega Ed- varda.

Richard je zgorel na licu me- sta, mater in sina Edvarda so pa od- peljali v bolnišnico v Lodi, kjer sta kmalu zatem umrla.

Vsi trije so se ob času eksplo- zije nahajali v valilnici, v kate- ri je bilo 1.500 izvaljenih račk. Okrajni šerif sodi, da so nalili v pečico gazolin namesto petro- leja.

Bombe pokajo v Jeruza- lemu, po mestu krožijo oklepni vozovi

Jeruzalem. — Včeraj je v središču Jeruzalema eksploziralo 7 bomb in o dveh razstrelbah se poroča tudi iz mesta Tel Aviv. V Jeruzalemu je razstrelba po- škodovala poslopje, kjer je urad za kriminalne preiskave. Med razvalinami je ostalo mnogo oseb.

Del poslopja se je porušil. Ves promet v mestu je ustavljen. Po mestu patrolirajo čete v oklep- nih vozilih. Prišlo je tudi do strejanja.

S TAKSIJEM OD ZAPADNE OBALE DO PITTSBURGHA

Pittsburgh, Pa. — T/Sgt. Jo- seph Ward je v sredo skočil iz taksija pred svojo domačo hišo. Samo za en dan je zamudil bo- žične praznike. On in 5 njego- vih tovarišev, marinov, se je pri- peljalo od zapadne obale kar s taksijem.

Iz San Diego, Kalifornija, so se od- peljali v soboto ob 1. zju- traj. Z voznikom taksijsa so se menjavali pri vožnji. V Tucson, Arizona, so stali 28 ur, da so po- pravili avto. Vsak je plačal za vožnjo $80 in kar je bilo popra- vila za taksijs.

Razne vesti od naših borcev v službi Strica Sama

Včeraj je odšel v službo Stri- ca Sama Richard J. Gerbec, sin Mr. in Mrs. John Gerbec iz 983 Addison Rd. Richard je star 18 let in je graduiral iz benediktin- ske višje šole. Vpisal se je za dve leti k marinom. Pred odho- dom pozdravlja vse prijatelje in znance, od katerih se ni mogel osebno posloviti. Želimo mu vs- srečo in pa zdrav povratek do- mov.

Pfc. F. C. Peter Semich, sin Mr. in Mrs. Albert Semich iz 117 North 5th St., Beech Grove, Indiana, je dospel domov iz Fil- lipinov s častnim odpustom iz armade. Zdaj bo živel pri svojih starših na gornjem naslovu. Slu- žil je 32 mesecev na Južnem Pa- cifiku, vsega skupaj je pa bil v armadi tri leta in pol.

Kako se nam vendar ta Anglija smili!

London. — Angleški časopis "Manchester Guardian" v uredniškem članku razpravlja o vzroku, zakaj postaja med Angličji in Amerikanci vedno večji pre- pad. Časopis pravi med drugim: "Mi smo ohranili svojo svobodo za gotovo ce- no, Amerikanci so si jo pa ohranili z dobičkom!" (Po našem bi se pa reklo druga- če, namreč, da je svoboda Angležem kupila Amerika v obliki svetovnih vojn in to za zelo visoko ceno!)

VODJA POSLANCEV JE NAPADEL TITOVO VLADO

Boston, Mass. — Poslanec John W. McCormack, vodja demokratske večine v poslanski zbornici, je izjavil, da se preganjanje vere ne more nadaljevati v Jugoslaviji, če naj obstojajo dobri odnošaji med Jugoslavijo in Zed. državami.

Poslanec McCormack je dal v javnost brzojavko, ki jo je po- slal na izvršnega državnega taj- nika Achesona, ki se glasi:

"Včeraj sem opazil v časopi- sih vaše naznanilo, da naša vla- da priznava režim maršala Tita v Jugoslaviji in da je državni oddelek tozadevno obvestil naše- ga poslanika v Belgradu, Rich- arda Pattersona.

"Opozarjam vas na preganja- nje vere v Jugoslaviji pod Ti- tom, s smrtjo in izgnanjem mnogih duhovnikov in duhovnih voditeljev.

"Take razmere se ne morejo nadaljevati v Jugoslaviji, pa da bi istočasno obstojali prijateljski odnošaji med tema dvema vladama in tema dvema narodo- ma.

"Zahtevam, da vzame državni oddelek te razmere v poštev ter jih takoj preišče in da naša vla- da uporabi ves svoj vpliv, da se preganjanje ustavi, da dobi Ju- goslavija zopet svobodo vere in svobodo verskega izražanja."

Kdor ne plača kazni, je izbrisan iz unije in ne bo dobil dela, kadar bo stavka končana, svari- jo unijski uradniki. Kazni pa ne bo treba plačati, dokler ne začno delavci delati.

Vlada bo omejila ceno smetani, da jo bo šlo več za sirovo maslo

Washington. — Urad za kon- trolo cen namerava postaviti maksimalno ceno za smetano, da tako odpomore pomanjkanju si- rovega masla, ki je zelo akutno po vsej deželi.

Kakor so cene sedaj izdelovalci sladoleda, sira in smetane za v steklenice lahko nudijo več za smetano kot pa morejo produ- centi sirovega masla. Posledica tega je, da gre smetana za to iz- delke, kjer so boljše cene in pro- dukcija sirovega masla trpi.

Poljedelski urad je celo za to, da bi se dvignilo cene sirovenmu maslu za 5 ali 6 centov pri fun- tu, ali pa da se plača vladno od- škodnino izdelovalcem.

Novo življenje

POVEST

Spisal JOSIP KOSTANJEVEČ

Skoro se je bil tako zasanjal da ni slišal trde stopinje, ki se je oglašila v veži. Prišel je Jakob od nekod ter hotel v svojo sobo. Ko je zagledal v hiši tuje osebo, se je nehote stresel.

"Kdo si in kaj iščeš v moji hiši?" je vprašal počasi in skoro plašno.

"Prav, da prihajaš," je odgovoril oni. "Jaz sem rance Lokvar in s iogledujem tvojo hišo, ki bo menda v kratkem moja. Videl sem že vse, sedaj bi pa rad pogledal še drugo posestvo. Pelji me okoli, ako hočeš."

Jakoba niso te besede prav nič presenetile in iznenadile. — Niti ganil ni s trepalnicami.

"Pojdij z menoj!" je dejal in stopil iz veže.

In vodil ga je od kosa do kosa ter mu razkazoval, kakor da bi ne bilo njegovega prav nič več. Videlo se je, kakor bi mu ne bilo prav nič hudo pri tem opravilu. Stopal je leno, komaj se je zavedal, kaj se godi okoli njega, čemu je prišel nekoliko k njemu, ki ga ni videl nikoli prej in ki hoče sedaj vzeti to, kar bi lahko bilo njegovo.

"Moj oče hoče te dni vložiti tožbo, ako ne plačaš vsega zneška in obresti." je dejal Franc, ko sta stopala gori v vinograd.

Jakob ni odgovoril ničesar. A tedaj se je oglašil iz za zidu krepak glas:

"Jakob, kaj sem ti pravil včeraj? Ali so ti že odsekali roki? Dvigni jih, začutil boš v njih še toplo kri in takšno, kot je bila nekdanj, ko je še sonce sijalo na tvoj vinograd in na tvojo hišo. Skloni se kvišku in dvigni glavo! Videl boš, da se rode drevesa, da je še napolnjeno trsje z grozdomi, da se vabi mati zemlja raz tvojih njiv in travnikov ter ti obljublja pomoči in podpore. Jakob, ozivi zopet k novemu življenju, in lepše bo kot pa je bilo nekdanj!"

KAJ SE JE GODILO V AJDOVCU POD PARTIZANSKIM TERORIZMOM

(Nadaljevanje z 2 strani)

Ji partizani ob sedmih zjutraj na domačem pragu na Brezovici ubili moža. Njen mož Stefan je bil od leta 1936 župan v Ajdovcu. Pri umoru je sodeloval tudi njegov bratranec Valentin Mirtič, ki se je že prej izdajal za komunisto. Ko je ležal ranjki na mrtvaškem odru, so partizani v bližnjem gozdu igrali na harmoniko in plesali. Ko so jim ljudje očitali umor, so rekli, da so ubili izdajalca, čeprav nihče ne ve, kaj bi mogel izdati. Ubili so ga zato, ker je bil proti komunistom. 18. oktobra je bil na Selih njegov pogreb.

Nekaj dni po tem umoru se je v novo zgrajenem prosvetnem domu, imenovanem "Gnidovčev dom" naselil oddelek vaše straže iz Žužemberka. Bližnje vasi so se oddahnile. V oddaljenejši pa so partizani še vedno hodili ropat.

V oddelku te straže je bilo sedem domačih fantov. Hodili pa so prenočevati v dom tudi drugi, ker doma niso bili več varni. V vaše straže niso mogli biti sprejeti, ker ni bilo orožja. Vse se je nekoliko pomirilo. Tudi župnik se je vrnil za stalno v Ajdovec.

● Ta novoletni dan bo najsrečnejši v štirih letih za naše vojake. Tisti, ki so še v službi, bodo hoteli deliti svoje svetle upe za 1946 z domačimi tam doma s klicem na daljavo.

Vi lahko pomagate vojaku začeti novo leto prav s tem, da mu očistite pot za klic domov. Prosimo, da napravite svoje voščilne klice pred ali po novoletnem dnevu ter bodite kar najbolj kratki na vseh klicih tekom praznične sezone. Kateri izmed vojakov se vam bo zahvalil za vaše sodelovanje.

THE OHIO BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Bilo je enajstega decembra, ko so partizani po noči z veliko močjo obkrožili Ajdovec. Poveljeval jim je že imenovani učitelj Ambrožič. Člani vaše straže so se umikali proti prosvetnemu domu, ki je stal na vzhodni strani cerkve. Partizanov je bilo do 500, fantje pa so imeli 27 pušk. V domu je bilo še kakih 40 drugih moških toda brez orožja. Ko partizani niso mogli udreti v dom, so začeli streljati na župnišče. Župnik se je umaknil v klet z bratom, sestro in služkinjo. Z njim je bil tudi župnik Pavlič. Tu je župnik videl, da gori župna cerkev. Hotel je hitro ven, da reši svetlo Rešnje telo, toda ustavili so ga partizani, ki so že pridrveli v klet. Župnik se je hotel iztrgati, da gre v cerkev reševati, pa so ga s silo zadržali. Vlekli so ga pred hlev in med tem, ko je cerkev gorela izpraševali o belogardistih. Zahtevali so od župnika tudi, naj ukaže fantom, da nehajo z odporom v domu. Samo tako, da si fantje rešijo življenje. Domači župnik je to odklonil. Šel je potem tja župnik Pavlič. Ko je prišel k domu, so komunisti hoteli udreti vrata, pa je priletela iz doma ročna granata in jih odgnala. Tudi župnika Pavliča je oprasnila. Domačemu župniku pa so šli sporočati partizani, da je Pavlič ubit od belogardistov, kar seveda ni bilo res.

Brata domačega župnika Malija so hoteli partizani zažgati. Polili so spodnjo sobo v župnišču z bencinom (gazolinom) in jo zažgali. Njega pa so zgrabili, da ga vržejo v ogenj. Ta pa se je iztrgal in zbežal. Za njim so streljali in ga tudi pre-cej ranili, vendar se je privlekel na Vinkov vrh, odkoder so ga spravili v Žužemberk in v bolnišnico. Služkinja je morala celo noč stati bosa na mrazu. Niso ji pustili, da bi šla po čevlje.

Predno so župnišče zažgali, so vse izropali, kar je imelo zanje kakšno vrednost. Zgorela je vsa boljša bogoslužna oprava, vse cerkvene posode, ves arhiv, vse matične knjige, sploh vse, kar je ostalo v župnišču.

V župni cerkvi je zgorelo vse, kar je lesenega. Veliki oltar z Najsvetejšim, stranska oltarja, prižnica, orgle, klopi itd. Tudi zvonovi so popadali iz zvonika. Bronasti veliki zvon se je raztopil.

Okoli treh ponoči se je partizanom posrečilo zažgati tudi prosvetni dom. Fantje so naredili izpad. Ob tej priliki je padlo enajst župljanov: dva moža in devet fantov. Dva sta v domu zgorela. V domu je zgorela vsa zapaščina ranjkega škofa Gnidovca kot mitra, škofovska oblačila, knjige itd. Tako Ajdovec nima nobenega spomina več na svojega velikega rojaka.

Popoldne 12. decembra so partizani zažgali še šolo. Zaman so jih ljudje prosili, naj se ne znašajo nad nedolžnim poslopjem. Divjaštvo partizanov pod vodstvom učitelja ni poznalo nobene meje. Žival v človeku je prišla do polne veljave. Ko so ljudje jokali ob pogledu na razdejano poslopja in zlasti ne cerkev, je partizan-ka z imenom Mara iz Mirne peči dejala: "Kar srce mi je igralo, ko sem videla da gori sveta Trojica" (Cerkev je bila namreč posvečena sveti Trojici.)

Nato je zvil pergament, iz-tegnil roko pred uklonjena množice ter v goreči molitvi izganjal iz nje zle duhove.

Potem sta meniha stopila k potoku ter povabila velmože k svetemu obredu. Starešini so si slekli jopiče, odložili kučme ter stopili v potok. Prvi je bil na vrsti Budigoj. Menih ga je prišel za rame, zajel prgišče vode pa oblipl pogonu belo glavo; medtem je pogledal v nebo ter slovesno izgovarjal obred-ne besede. Potem mu je napra-vil znak križa na čelo — in Budigoj kristjan se je zamajal iz vode. Nato so se pomikali starešinci duhovnikoma v objem.
Bratstva so strmela na bre-gu in bila tihotna. Bele pene je neslo valovje, snežno bele, v valovju je trepetal sveti križ, zrcalil se v svetlem soncu. Beli starčki so stopali povešenih glav iz potoka pa se stiskali v bližino župana. Zdaj so prišli na vrsto rodovinci. Sami grmavihi, toda zlomljeni; krotki pod znakom križa. Potem so se vrstile rodovinke, žene, sna-he, matere, hčerke, spodobno vdane. Za temi mladinci, pla-he devojke. Naposled otroci.

Ti so ječali, bali so se konj in vojnikov, bali so vode in pa ne-znanih duhovnov. Vendar se ni nikomur nič hudega pripetilo.

Ko je bil obred v kraju, je brjanski menih razvil zope-koženico pa čital množici:

"Eže bi ded naš ne segrešil te v veliki jemu be žiti, starosti ne prijemljoči, nikoližeže pe-čali ne imy ni slzna telesne i-moči.

"Možete po tomu, sinci, viditi i sami razumeti, eže beše pr-ve človeci v lica tacijsi. . .

"Oni bo lačna na trovelo,
žejna napojaho, besa obujaho, mrzna segreaho. . .

"Temi, temiti se deli Bogu približaše. Tako, sinci, i nam se modliti tomuje vrhnemu ot-cu gospodi — eže jest ugotov-ljeno iskoni dekoni izvoljeni-kom božjem. . .

"Da po tomu, sinci, božje rabe prizvaše, tere jim grehi vaše počtete i jim ispovedni bodete grehov vaših."

Nato je še spodbujal bratst-va, naj se varujejo tega dne obiskanja, naj hodijo za Kri-stusom in naj žive po krščanski veri, kajti zdaj so postali izvo-ljenci božji in se jim ni več ba-ti črne noči.

Zatem se je knez poslovil od velmož ter si vzel za spremlstvo nekaj najboljših prvencev, ki naj ga vodijo skozi nevarne gošče. Potem so zahrullili rogovi — in vojska je krenila v osojno smer, proti županiji žuborski.

Bratstva so se razhajala molče, se razgubljala v nase-lja. Ljudje so klonili glave in bili čudno prevzeti. Da se je kdaj Bog učlovečil pa prišel na zemjo? Ne marajo razmišlja-ti, to razodetje je zanje pretežko. Tudi ne marajo dvomiti, ali tako neizrečeno čudno jim je, kakor bi jim kdo nekaj na dvoje razlomil.

ANOTHER PARTY

With joy and gladness everywhere, we made merriment scatter around the alleys Sunday. Cheer and happiness was written on ever face present, especially, when the cigars and candy were passed out.

Were we surprised to see certain ones smoking cigars. Even our President enjoyed himself, but his was a R. G. Dun. Don't jump to conclusions, it was presented to him by Louis Piz-moht.

Again, Whitey Kopore was the butt of the joke. His cigar exploded right in his face and did the kid jump. To us, it seemed as though he had some uncharitable thoughts. It wasn't a "rat" that played the joke; Whitey;
rather it was your friends.

Bill Trobentar sought a match to insert into his cigar. Going classy, or what?

"That's Slovenian on the ball, alright," say Joe Muzic, "but why not put some English on the blasted ball."

A score of 267 caused Bill Koss to collect $10.00 from the Bowling Proprietors Association. Easy money you're collecting, Bill!

Why, it was small to be the worst bowler Sunday, for Max Kobel collected $2.50 present by Gus Svetek to the man with lowest single. Congratulations, Max, but we do hope better luck in scoring next time.

Trust Christmas spirit was in the hearts of all. They tell us St. Mary's was one of the best leagues in as far as donations for the pin boys was occurred.

Father Celestnik was in his glory as he puffed away on the cigar given him. Father Vic was passing out the cigars to the men, but this doesn't mean he was giving them from his pocket. He was merely preventing a mad rush on the box.

Someone remarked, "Why don't the ladies who always come to watch us bowl receive a gift." Maybe, Santa Claus overlooked them.

Imagine, Hark Kersman had rooters from Detroit behind him Sunday.
We are sure you enjoyed the visit of your sister and brother-in-law.

Worrying most of the evening, Stan Zagore didn't do so badly. Stan was to be Santa Claus the next day.
Couldn't have chosen a better man, we think.

According to rumors, Frank Znidar won the "Shunka."

All being finished, the gang broke up slowly toward home, continuing to discuss the pleasant happenings of the evening.

In the name of St. Mary's Bowlers,
we say Happy New Year.

GREETINGS OF STAFF

On the first day of the year 1946,
and all following days of that year,
we say Happy New Year. We wish the joy and peace of a very prosperous year. May God's choicest blessings and graces descend upon each one of you. These are the wishes we extend to you all.

Weekly ReviewHOLY NAME OFFICERS
MEET SUNDAY AFTERNOON

All old members of the board as well as the newly elected and appointed members of the St. Vitus Holy Name Society are invited to a special board meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. in our Room 4. We must plan for our Communion and Breakfast on Sunday, January 13.

JUNIOR HOLY NAME

JUNIOR JOTTINGS

Remember me? Well, I'm the guy who suggested that you reserve Jan. 6th and 13th for the Variety Revue of 1946, which will unfold before your eyes in St. Vitus School Hall. You forgot? Oh, I know; Christmas shopping and all that, and you couldn't be bothered about the Variety Revue. That's true enough but the big holiday rush is over, so settle down and get your tickets.

Ed Avsec, member of the Benedictine Basketball team, has been a very busy man these days dividing his time between basketball practice and practice for the show. In between he studies—we hope. A real tough guy is Ed, in the show of course.

Carl and Don, the Hlabes cousins, are making their first try in a Junior Revue, and both are doing very well. Carl puts on a slight accent (Yiddish) and Don is a neat hoover.

Tom Jurina is versatile, and we don't mean maybe. A sign painter, an actor, a script writer, all rolled into one—that's the Tee Jay of the Juniors. Naturally his little friend "Ike" Ivancic is a member of the Revue Cast.

For a smooth bundle of talent wrapped up in a neat little package we put our money on Frankie Grdina. He'll try anything—dancing, singing, even magic—just so the show will be a success. And friends, it will be.

Wait till you see the boys by the sea, by the beautiful sea! Joe Hake, Ed Perpar, Ray Gobec, Stan Arko, and the Hlabes will present you with a novel version of fun and frolic at Coney Island.

We, the Junior Holy Namers, join in wishing you a very happy New Year; and as a bit of parting advice to you, we say, start the New Year right and see our Variety Revue.

Just what are you planning as a welcome to the bouncing boy who will become known as Mr. 1946? Nothing? We have the very thing for you in that case. The Orel's are again—according to tradition—holding their annual New Year's Eve Party in the St. Vitus School hall. There's something to set your mind on right away for a super duper evening of fun.

Sounds promising so far, eh? Wait'll you hear the rest. You can glide across the floor to your heart's content encouraged by the melodic strains of Rudy Medves and his orchestra.

A buffet style luncheon will be served in the waning minutes of 'O' Man '45. A treat is in store here—something to really make the old palate tingle with excitement. Of course, with eating comes drinking and no shortage of thirst-quenchers is in sight.

You'll be able to give "Junior" a rousing ushering-in greeting as all the paraphernalia needed—from silence-breakers to the very-nearly-latest in women's hats—are to be on hand in abundance.

Promises to be a lively evening of merry-making, and you can be there for the mere sum of two ($2) bucks a head. Eats included in the admission price. You can come stag, in couples, or otherwise.

A P. S. to all servicemen and ex-servicemen. Meet the old gang in the old haunt, your old buddies will be there. If you've been a stranger in the past make sure to join the circle and meet something new in faces.

For an evening overflowing with good times, it all adds up to: The Orel's Annual New Year's Eve Party in the school. The welcome mat is out to one and all.

LAKE SHORE POST NO. 273
AMERICAN LEGION NEWS
By JOHN WENZEL

Although the snow storm on December 13, 1945 was severe, those that braved our open house meeting, did not regret attending. Like a flash the hall was transformed into the Yule Tide spirit. Leave it to the ladies of the Auxiliary, they do not have to rehearse this act. The food could not be better nor the decorations prettier. It has been the custom with the Auxiliary for years, to have some kind of a pre-Christmas celebration and this year they chose to share presents with one another secretly. It was very interesting. Mrs. Frank Snyder we all missed you very much and are hoping that you will get well real soon.

This meeting was opened by Commander Joseph J. Cornick later then usual, also most of the routine had been waived in order to get acquainted with the World War II servicemen who were our guests for the evening.

The Post went on record with a contribution to the $15,000 fund sponsored by the American Legion of Cuyahoga County to our sick and wounded at Crile, Marine and Brecksville hospitals. A contribution was also made to the Christmas Seal fund sponsored by the Anti-Tuberculosis League.

At this meeting August Principio presented the necessary papers and we were glad to again sign them as we deem it an honor to sponsor the Boy Scout movement in this community. We also urge the parents to enroll their boys. Our Troop No. 250 Boy Scouts and Sea Scouts Ships Saratoga meet at the St. Clair Recreation Center. A. R. Gambero is chairman, Felix A. Danton scoutmaster, and Skipper Joe Legat and James Rescic the Post's committeemen.

In his talk to the World War II veterans, John L. Mihelich said that every one has his own right as to what organization one wants to belong, but he outlined that Lake Shore Post is a local organization and that recently our comrade, the Honorable Governor Frank J. Lausche, proclaimed Dec. 15 as American Legion Day in Ohio. He also stated that the American Legion is recognized as having potential power in public life and with the combining of the two would greatly increase the strength of leadership which the World War II veterans will assume. We also discussed the plans for our new club rooms.

In closing, best wishes for your happiness are extended. And may God bless you all in the New Year.

Don't Forget!

Saturday, December 29th, is the day of the dance being held by the Cleveland Maccabee Red Jackets at the Slovenian Auditorium, 6417 St. Clair Ave. Johnny Pecon and his orchestra will furnish the music.

Two men were walking along the street when they spied a sign in the window of a bookstore. It read, "Dickens' Works today for only $3.50." "The scab!" exclaimed one of the men.

Liza, the Negro cook in a certain Southern household, supported a shiftless, happy-go-lucky husband with a wholehearted genius for avoiding regular employment.

"Liza," protested her mistress, "how can you put up with such a lazy, shiftless, good-for-nothing man?" "Well, I'll tell you, ma'am," replied Liza, her eyes shining with a tender light, "it's like this, I makes de livin' and he makes de livin' worthwhile."

Two well-known gamblers were motoring back to town after a week-end spent in the country. On the back seat sat their two Negro butlers. As they approached a railroad crossing a freight train came into sight.

"Bet you ten dollars you can't beat that train to the crossing," said one of the gamblers.

"Bet you ten dollars I can," retorted the one who was driving.

"You're on," said the first.

By now the car was going so fast that the telephone poles on the road looked like a picket fence.

"Mose," quavered one of the colored butlers, "who do you think will win?"

Mose stared out the window, blinked his eyes at the rapidly disappearing scenery, and replied, "Sam, I don't care who wins, but I sho' hope to de Lawd it ain't no tie!"

During the war there were many soldiers who were placed in jobs for which they were not qualified. There was, for instance, the company of Cockneys who were put to work cutting down some trees. They had never cut a tree in England.

They were chipping away, tortuously gnawing into a tree with their inept axes, when the officer in command inquired, "Corporal, in which direction are you going to fell that tree?"

The little Cockney paused, wiped the sweat from his brow, and growled, "Ow the 'ell do I know? Do I look like a bloody prophet?"

AN IDEAL FOR PARENTS

Don Bosco received his fundamental training in education from his poor peasant mother. Although she was not educated herself, she certainly instilled the fundamental principles in her successful son. Each and every parent can learn something of the psychology of children and the training of them by reading about his method.

Vigilance is the first requisite in training of children. Don Bosco's success in education is largely the result of his method. First of all, he set out to forestall the child from doing wrong. A trained and affectionate companion never leaves the side of the child from morning till night—watchfulness is the keynote. The Salesian is a big brother there to protect, warn, encourage, lift up the boy. To smother evil at its source, to suppress the occasion, to prevent the fault rather than chastise it, has won for this system the name "preventive," as opposed to the "repressive," based on punishments.

"To make oneself loved in order to make God better loved," was Don Bosco's aim. Without affection there is no education.

"What do you want me to teach him?" asks Diderot. "He does not love me."

For Don Bosco the rod was not necessary; it tends to destroy the confidence without which education is impossible.

Did he win their confidence? Examples might be multiplied, but let the following suffice.

Don Bosco secured permission for a day's outing for five hundred young men who were confined to prison on various counts. Without guards they left the stuffy cells to enjoy a glorious outing and freedom. Under his care all returned to prison in the evening, full of generous resolutions, determined to atone for the past. Don Bosco's paternal heart had carried the day; their affection and gratitude prompted them to desire to lead better lives. No sacrifice was too great for him.

This Christian tenderness and affection for the boys thrives in an atmosphere of cheerfulness which Don Bosco required.

"Allow the children full liberty to jump, to run, to shout," he would say. "Be cheerful!" was a frequent expression on his lips.

On special occasions, extraordinary entertainments added to the joy of all important feasts of the Church calendar were solemnly observed in the Davids spirit, "Serve the Lord in joy and gladness." Walks, amateur dramatics, music, gymnastics—all were means to stimulate cheerfulness.

The discipline thus seemed very light, prayer and piety attractive; and Don Bosco inculcated a love and taste for study.

In this way did Don Bosco imitate the Divine Master—making himself little with the little ones to win their hearts. For when the teacher holds the heart of the pupil in his hands, when by mildness, patience, he has earned the powerful authority of love, he may easily lead him to the supernatural world. Then Jesus and Mary become his friends—frequent reception of the Sacraments, devotion to Mary, his Mother, to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament follow quite naturally. And as the years roll on, the soul is formed, the grace of God increases, the Christian young man develops into the stalwart citizen and backbone of society.

OH WHAT FUN
The children's Christmas party was simply grand. Following the community singing of Christmas Carols, the fourth and fifth graders presented a fine skit, "The First Christmas." Surprising what youngsters won't do with good supervision. The cast was directed by Sister Mary Irma O. S. U. You have done a wonderful job, Sister.

Sure enough, Santa was there and presented the gifts to our pastor, Mgr. Hribar and to the assistants, Fathers Celestin and Tome. Also our school guard, Miss Ruggles and our organist, Mr. Rakar, were remembered. None of the children were forgotten for each received his share of popcorn balls and Christmas candies. The Christmas spirit permeated the whole Slovenian hall that morning.

Thanks to all who took part in making this an enjoyable day for the kids. Mothers of children were there getting a kick out of all the fun.

Our basketball team, now fully equipped with jackets and new suits. Yes, sir, we were envied by many teams that saw us play our first game.

Blue and White are the colors of the jersey and pants that are very flashy. Our jackets, blue and red with a white emblem really caught everyone's eye. Of course, thanks for these uniforms are due to our generous interested backers: (1) Parishioners; (2) Catholic Order of Foresters No. 1840.

OUR FIRST VICTORY BALL
After practice Thursday, the basketball gang congregated in the Study Club room for a meeting. To their surprise, they partook in a hamburger meal. Wimpies and coffee were on the menu. This surprise was put up by our own beloved coach, Amie DeMarco. Thanks again, Amie.

You should have seen that "Bumstead sandwich" eaten by Bill Stokel. Are you still alive after that mixture, buddy? Lucky for all that you were going straight to bed that night, after eating all those onions.

Never knew John Pezdirtz could eat that many meat patties. How, under heaven, can you belt so many?

Coffee satisfies his thirst according to little Dave DeMarco. Lest you should forget, this boy is our mascot.

He does a very nice job.

Munching on a sandwich, Stan Urunker and Frank Medved tried to demonstrate a few steps, as they listened to Kocin's recordings. Not bad, fellows, you'll soon have the technique.

The "three Franks" Urunker, Klemenc, and Zrimsek, were exceptionally quiet. What for, boys?

Sorry to find that Joe Ferra and Chuck Karda couldn't make the party. Hope you will be able to make our next one!

We spied Frank Ferra and Bill Rosel talking shop in the corner of the room. That is the mark of geni, boys!

Our shy boys, Stan Pajek and Bill Trampus, proved themselves to be good comedians that night. Didn't think you had it in you!

Beautiful Tony Ruttar, turned all colors of the rainbow, when he was called to give an "after dinner speech."

Those two fellows who were competing with Bill Stokel for the title of "biggest eater," were Jim Dobay and Ed Grosel. Truthfully, they ran a close second and third place.

In connection with this meeting, we wound up with a rally to increase our ticket sale to the movie "Life of Don Bosco." We are positive that each fellow will get rid of his quota of tickets. Keep up the spirit, gang!

BOWLERS REPORT
ACME DRY CLEANERS GO ON RECORD BREAKING SEREE
W. KOSS BLASTS 267 GAME

In subduing the Don Bosco Saints for two games the Acme Dry Cleaners shattered the league marks for individual high single game and team high single game. Hitting the maples for a 967 single, the Acme Dry Cleaners quint bettered the previous mark of 918 held by the Svetek Funeral Home. Included in the new mark was W. Koss's of the Acme Cleaners who slotted a beautiful 267 game thus setting a new individual high single game. Zlate Market crew and the Kocin Decorators crew net a friendly entanglement and the result was that the Decorators got the better part of the entanglement by winning two games. While the Zlates Market and Kocin Decorators quints were having their dispute, the Prince-Burke quint landed the Dave's Shoes a two game lacing. The two game victor enabled the Burke-Prince five to gain a tie for seventh place. The Svetek Funeral Home continued their upward march by downing the Nottingham Cleaners deeper into the cellar position in winning two out of three. The Funeralmen are now tied for fourth place with the Zlates Market and Don Bosco Saints.

RECORD BREAKERS
The big noises for the record breaking Acme Dry Cleaners quint were W. Koss with 501, J. Majce with 579 and C. Osolin with a 536. For the losers the Don Bosco Saints, F. Ferra with a 557 series was high. The two game sweep for the Cleaners enabled them to move within two games of first place.

TWO FOR DECORATORS
With E. Grosel back in stride the Kocin Decorators team downed the Zlates Market five for two games. Grosel led his charges with a 477 series, while J. Porenta with a 402 series enabled the Marketmen five to gain their lone victory.

UPSET SCORED
In dumping the Dave's Shoes quint for two games, the Prince-Burke quint demonstrated some real consistent bowling. The Prince-Burke quint were led by B. Osolin who hit games of 147, 191 and 152 for a 522 count.

SVETEK FUNERAL HOME

The Svetek Funeral Home added more grief to the luckless Nottingham Cleaners by downing them for two (Continued on page 5)

Final Assignment

A faded service flag at last reclines. Within a treasured box of souvenirs, today we took it down from where it hung.

While he was gone to war almost three years.

The star of blue becomes a memory. A memory of tears . . . of joy and pride;

A chapter that is new commences now . . .

The family once more standing side by side.

SPORTS

HOCKEY

It's now five in a row as the Cleveland Barons keep driving for the top of the American Hockey League.

Balked for more than two periods, Cleveland's crack shots found the range late in the game and lapped the Indianapolis Capitals, 3 to 0, Tuesday night at the Arena.

It was the second shutout of the season—and the second in the last five games—for John Kiszkan, the Barons' sensational 21-year-old rookie goaltender.

In a tussle that threatened to be a scoreless tie, fast little Leo Gasparini, downed the first Cleveland score at 7:22 of the third period. Earl Bartholomew drilled in another at 9:04 and Les Cunningham potted another at 11:03.

Kiszkan, acrobatic and alert as usual, fielded 41 shots, of which 17 came in the last period as the Capitals massed in Cleveland's zone.

6,580 Christmas Night Turnout
In the last 10 games, with Kiszkan looming as the American League's rookie of the season, the Barons have been beaten only twice. Their fifth straight victory last night, before 6,580 Christmas night fans, keeps them hot on the trail of first place in the league's western division.

Kiszkan's other shutout was against Buffalo here on Dec. 15 by a 2-0 score.

It was the Barons' 11th straight without defeat at the Arena, where they haven't lost since their opening game with Hershey.

BASKETBALL
Mike Medich, Benedictine High's one-man basketball team who clipped the district high school individual scoring record last week, smashed the state mark December 19.

Pouring in an amazing total of 47 field goals and five fouls, the six-foot-five-inch senior rolled up 59 points as the undefeated Bengals smothered West High, 75-29, for their fourth straight victory at Benedictine.

The Navy Bureau of Supplies and Accounts sank its second Big Four opponent of the week December 19, dumping John Carroll's cagers, 61-54, at the University Heights gym.
