KSKJ Awards $500 for Film Preservation Project in Lemont

Julie Schneller, KSKJ Youth / Adult Activities Director, announced that the KSKJ awarded a $500 Cultural Grant to the Slovenian Cultural Center in Lemont, IL. The grant is for an audio / video project being headed by Bill Trinko.

Bill (and before him his brother Mike) has been filming, recording and more recently, video taping various Slovenian events in Chicago and other places for almost 80 years. Many of the events center on St. Stephen Church in Chicago, but also include Lemont, Joliet, Toronto, Marquette, MI, and various other locations.

The project will transfer to videotape and DVD the old films and reel-to-reel sound recordings. The tapes and DVD will be available at the Slovenian Cultural Center library for viewing and listening. Copies will also be available for purchase.

Some of the earliest films include the offices of the Amerikanski Slovenec newspaper in the 1930s, the KSKJ Federation of KSKJ Lodges Chicago, Bishop Rozman's visit to Chicago and graduation classes from St. Stephen's School.

More recent films of Slovenska Pesem Chorus concerts, 1974 Bishop Baraga Days, Lojze Slak's 1985 Chicago performances, Slovenian American Radio Club Slovenian Days, Korotan concert, Kolina Dinners, Slovenian Christmas performance at the Museum of Science and Industry, Slovenian Sports Club softball tournament in Lemont, and the 100th anniversary of St. Stephen Church in Chicago. And there is much, much more that will become available.

This is a very important project to save the records of these Slovenian events for future generations. Both the KSKJ and Slovenian Cultural Center deserve congratulations for their support of Bill Trinko for engineering this important project.

Annual Slovenian Ski Trip - Vail 2005

by ANDREJ N. LAH

The group arrived in Denver on Saturday morning, April 2 for a week of skiing at Vail Resort. All but a few of the skiers had been on the trip to Banff in 2004, so it was as if a group of old friends were gathering for a week of good skiing and camaraderie.

While the conditions and the weather could not have been better, the true enjoyment came from the time spent with a group of nice people with the added bonus of having a common background. Moreover, it was great for me to be able to practice my Slovenian.

When we arrived at Vail Spa, a condominium complex located in Lions Head and a short walk from the gondola, we celebrated our arrival in typical Slovenian style, food and drink.

With the weather predictions being sunny and warm, sun screen was a critical necessity. Our first day of skiing on Sunday consisted of perfect snow conditions with sun and warm temperatures. We also experienced a sky so blue and mountains so defined that it was as if we were looking at a perfect painting. Most of the group gathered for lunch at the top of the gondola, where we shared a meal and spoke of the beautiful day we were given on that first day of skiing in Vail. That evening, we gathered to share another meal, this was shared during Mass and was the most important meal of the week.

Sunday evening Mass was said by Father Martin Cimerman. We all gathered in the same hospitality room as when we arrived, and again in a typical Slovenian manner, we praised God for the blessings bestowed upon us. It was a simple celebration, on a simple altar in a simple place and it reminded me of how many of our Slovenian ancestors must have remembered Christ's sacrifice when all they had was a small table, a cross, some bread and wine and a small room in which to gather.

The next day we skied at Beaver Creek, which is a short bus ride from Vail.

What made our day at Beaver Creek most enjoyable was our tour guide. Pavle Kosir took the group under his wing and brought us to all the good runs. He decided where we would ski and we gratefully followed. With Pavle as our guide, we were able to enjoy the mountain without worrying where we should go next.

Snow arrived Monday evening and brought with it powder skiing. In a few locations this skier got some waist deep snow. Due to the weather, however, many of our group took the day off.

Competitive spirits were at their peak on Wednesday for the races. As Slovenian music resounded over this portion of Vail mountain, the Slovenian skiers prepared for their two runs through the giant slalom course adjacent to the Avanti lift.

Mira Kosem exemplified the fearlessness of the Slovenian competitors as she flew through the gates with the intensity of an Olympic competitor. Despite the spirited competition, we cheered each other on in the true spirits of sportsmanship we all shared.

This camaraderie manifested itself at the awards dinner as we cheered for those who had won and for those who competed. We cheered for Stephan Bilicic because he was the 20th racer, making the entire race possible. While he may have been the slowest racer, we made sure that he knew how much we appreciated him for getting through those gates.

We cheered for our 12-year-old Alexander Cobb, for being the youngest racer and for Pavle Kosir as our oldest racer. The success of the race was the joy we shared in this friendly competition.

The results of the race for the men were that Gregor Sodja had the fastest run and for that he won the Gold Medal. Matej Branc came in second for the Silver, and Rudi Luzar was third for the Bronze.

In the men's masters competition (stari moski) Joze Skof won the Gold; Ivan Kamin won the silver, and Tone Kacicnik won the Bronze.

In the ladies competition, Mira Kosem was first for the Gold, and Mia Branc won the Silver. Next year we expect more ladies to join the group and participate in the race.

After the race we celebrated with food at one of the mountain restaurants.

The next two days were filled with more good skiing and fun. Our spirits were high knowing that we had enjoyed some of the best skiing conditions possible with wonderful spring temperatures. Although the fun came to an end for some members of the group, for a few, the week was not over yet.

There was no time to relax for some of us; a Saturday afternoon departure meant Saturday morning skiing. However, our friends from Canada could not enjoy this bonus because they departed on a 3:30 a.m. bus. Ouch.

While we said our goodbyes on Friday, I would like to take this opportunity to tell our Canadian friends again what a pleasure it was to ski with all of them. For me, I got in about three hours of skiing before boarding the bus for Denver and I had the opportunity on that last day to spend it skiing with our group leader, Ivan Kamin, Peter Jenko and my father, Jozef Lah. I still remember when I was 11 years-old with my leg in a full cast, Ivan carrying me onto the plane at Aspen airport and that was over 30 years ago.

Thank you Ivan Kamin for organizing such a wonderful trip. While the skiing alone would have made the trip memorable, the friendship made the trip unforgettable.

See you all next year.

Hey Ivan, Park City seems to be the place.

Favorites: Beans and Eggs

by RUDY FLIS

I find it interesting when my mind hop scotches around the world, and through time, like this past Saturday morning as I sat at the table sipping my morning coffee. My wife, Therese, asked, "How would you like scrambled eggs for breakfast?"

"Great, if you make pork and beans with them," I replied.

I think I have mentioned this before, but here goes again anyway. The first time I tasted this scrumptious dish was on a cold, snowy morning while on maneuvers at a place called Hoenfels, a large training area in Germany, close to Nurenburg and Regensburg. It was the year 1953 and the month of March, around my mom's birthday which was on March 6. She was 59. As I think of it now, my mom wasn't born too far from where I was on that day.

That morning, at reveille, as I stuck my nose out of my sleeping bag, I saw all was white. It had snowed during the night. It was cold, as I dressed quickly in the confines of my sleeping bag.

My son Mike and I love this meal. We are the only two in this family who enjoy it. How sad.

Pray for our troops and may God bless America.

Korotan Concert is Sojourn Fund-raiser

The Slovenian chorus Korotan, under the direction of John Sršen, is having its concert on Saturday, April 30 at the Slovenian National Home on St. Clair Avenue. Dinner will be served at 6 p.m.

Reservations can be made by calling Theresa Rihtar at 440-286-5421. Tickets for the concert only, to begin at 8 p.m. will be available at the door. Stan Mejac orchestra will play for your dancing and listening pleasure.

Members of Korotan are honored to have been invited to Slovenia this summer, for the commemoration of the 60th anniversary of Slovenians having to leave their homeland because of Communism. We will follow "the paths of martyrs," as the venues have been designated, for the events will honor the World War II and post-war victims. The events will also celebrate the accomplishments of the refugees, who have remained faithful to their Slovenian roots and have not forgotten the sacrifices of their countrymen.

Korotan will, for the first time in Slovenia, perform two original compositions by our former directors. We will sing "Naša pesem," by the late Francek Gorenšek, with lyrics by Marjan Jakopic. The members of the Ljubljana Philharmonic Orchestra will accompany the chorus for the cantata "Pozdravljeni zemlja," by Korotan's founding director, Dr. Metod Milac, and with Pavle Boršnik as lyricist. Both of these works are very suitable for the occasion, for they express all the emotions of the horrors of war, betrayal, martyrdom, and refugee status, but also the deep-rooted love and eternal hope anchored in Faith.

Those refugees who did not live to see the beginnings of a new Slovenia will surely rejoice and be proud of their children and grandchildren who, with some of the refugees, will comprise three generations of participants.

Korotan's dinner-concert is intended as a fund-raiser to help defray the costs of this extraordinary trip to Slovenia. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

100 WORDS MORE OR LESS

by John Mercina

"I DARE YOU TO TRY THIS" (Sent by a friend, author unknown)

- Enter Slovenia illegally. Never mind immigration laws, visas, international law, or any of that nonsense.
- Once there, demand that the local government provide free medical care for you and your entire family.
- Demand bilingual nurses and doctors.
- Demand free bilingual local government forms, bulletins, etc.
- Keep your American identity strong. Fly old glory from your rooftop, or proudly display it in your front window or on your car bumper.
- Speak only English at home and in public and insist that your children do likewise.
- Demand classes on American culture in the Slovenian school system.
- Demand a local Slovenian driver's license. This will afford other legal rights and will go far to legitimize your unauthorized, illegal, presence in Slovenia.
- Insist that local Slovenian law enforcement teach English to all its officers.
- Good luck! You'll be demanding for the rest of time, or soon be arrested. It will simply never happen in Slovenia, or Mexico or any other country...except right here...paid with your tax dollars. Land of the free and the naïve.

World War I

In 1917, it appeared that the Italians would finally break through the Austrian line. Austria begged Germany for help and Germany secretly sent 7 divisions under the command of general Otto von Velova. Together with the Austrians, they formed an army of 112 battalions, 1,761 cannons and 327 mine throwers – a huge force, but still smaller than the Italian side.

At 2 a.m. on October 24, 1917, the Austrian-German army attacked with all their might and broke through the Italian line. Italian commander Cadorna ordered a retreat. Hundreds of thousands of Italians were captured and taken prisoner by the Austrians.

The prisoners were taken back to Austria, which at that time still included Slovenia. Some of them were housed in a camp near our home village. Since the government had no food to give them, they were allowed to roam the countryside, looking for food. One day, our friend Mici Kokelj found an Italian prisoner near a hayrack outside our village. He was looking for food and since he didn't know Slovenian, he made hand signals to show that he was hungry. She motioned to him to stay put and tried to explain that she would get some food for him. She ran home, cut a large piece of bread and filled a bottle with milk. But when she returned with the food, he had disappeared. He must have thought she was going to get someone to take him back to the prison camp. She was sad that she couldn't help him. Her own brother was a prisoner in Italy. She was sure that, if she helped an Italian soldier, someone in Italy would treat her brother with equal kindness.

Later, we learned that her brother died of starvation in Italy. And we never found out what happened to the Italian that Mici tried to help.

Ata was in the heaviest battles for 13 months without a break and was only wounded once – he was hit in the nose by a rock from an explosion. They sent him to a hospital in Ljubljana for two weeks and then to the mountains to train him to be a soldier on skis. Somewhere in there he was allowed to visit us for a few days. He immediately went to work making shoes for our own family and for sale. He hoped he could get us some food, but he was not successful.

One day, when he was home making shoes, he suddenly heard a shot and came running out to see what happened. He saw a group of 5 young boys, including me (I was about 8 years old). One of us had found a small revolver, and another one had found a bullet that fit the revolver. But the revolver didn't have a spring to make the cock fire the bullet. So we were trying to push the cock down with our fingers, to get the gun to fire – and it finally fired. We were huddled close together around the gun, so it was an absolute miracle that the bullet missed us all. This incident, and finding a can of gunpowder in the house, caused our father to worry about us even more than when he first left for the war. But he had no choice – he had to return to the war.

I think it was in 1917 that the emperor decreed that fathers with 6 or more children no longer had to serve on the front line. Ata was assigned to police duty in an occupied area of Italy, where he soon learned perfect Italian. Later, he told us many interesting stories about that time.

Once they were checking on food supplies throughout the occupied area. The soldiers were hungry but the people didn't want to feed them. Ata inspected a parish rectory and found, above the ceiling, a hidden compartment with many sacks of wheat. Ata asked the pastor why he had so much wheat. The pastor said he needed it to make communion hosts. Ata knew the pastor was lying, but he congratulated him on having such a large congregation – and left without taking any action.

While Ata was away at war, our family was at first hungry, and then literally starving. When the war began, we had two sacks of flour, a small garden and a pig. Our aunt let us farm a field up on a hill, but it was very rocky and impossible to plow. During the first years of the war, we carried our wood ashes up there each year to fertilize the field, but it didn't usually produce much. One morning in 1917, we were planting potatoes in that field when a hailstorm suddenly destroyed what we had planted. We planted some more that afternoon, and that actually turned out well. In 1918, our aunt said we could no longer use that field since she was worried her own children would go hungry. Other people let us use part of their field during the second and third years of the war, but that one was too steep to plow and it was a half hour's walk from our house.

One lady, Blaz's mother, was particularly nice to us. At that time, it was the custom that, on the day before All Saints (Halloween to us now), peasant women would bake many small loaves of bread, which they would then give to children. These loaves were called "vahce" and the children would go from house to house asking for "vahce." Blaz's mother baked some just for us, but Mama did not allow us to go begging. So this lady sent word the next day that we could come get our "vahce." But by the time I arrived, the "vahce" were all gone. So she gave me a large piece of bread, which made me very happy.

The following year Mama changed her mind and allowed us to go out for "vahce." That year, winter came early. My ten-year-old brother Joze, my 7-year-old sister Julka, and I went visiting homes in the nearby hills. Our feet started sinking into snowdrifts that came up to our knees and the wind threw needles at our cheeks. My brother and I could still somehow plow through the snowdrifts, but Julka began to gasp for breath. We were far from home. What would we do if she couldn't make it back? We were worried that we might freeze in the snow if we stopped to rest. But we rested for a little bit, Julka caught her breath, and we made it back home safely.

Voinovich announces Ohio water projects in Senate bill

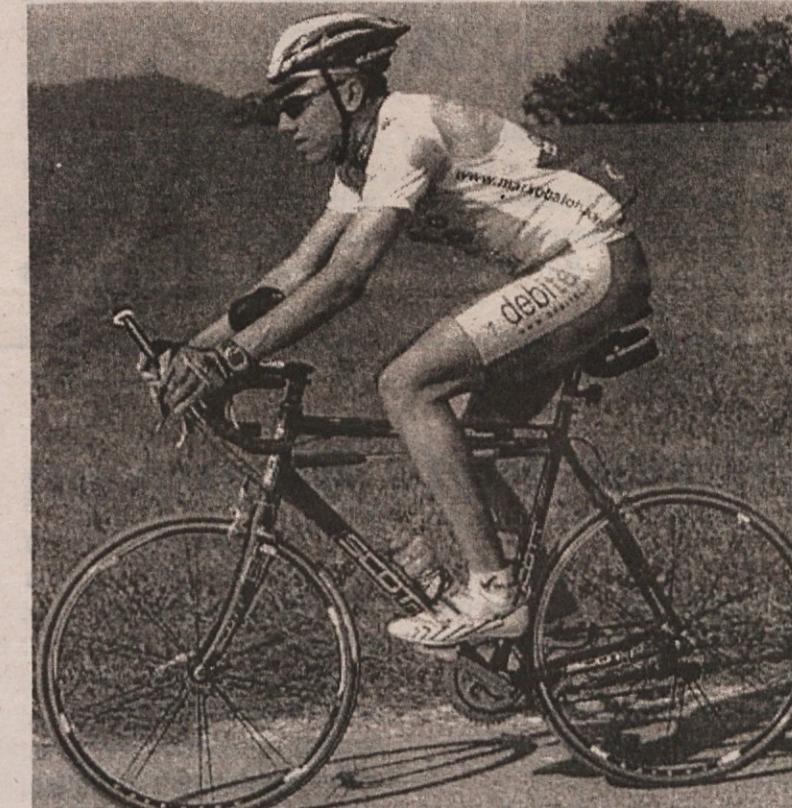

WASHINGTON. U.S. Senator George Voinovich (R-OH) announced several Ohio water projects have been authorized for funding through legislation approved by the Environment and Public Works (EPW) Committee.

The projects were included as part of the Water Resources Department Act of 2005 (WRDA), which Voinovich cosponsored and helped author as a member of the EPW Committee. The bill must pass Congress and be signed by the President, and then funds must still be appropriated in federal spending bills.

"This is a big step forward to help address the challenges we have in many of Ohio's communities with water quality. I have long been an advocate of the importance of having better water infrastructure – and cleaning up our lakes and streams is critical to improving our nation's water quality," said Voinovich. "I look forward to working with my colleagues in the Senate to get these projects funded through the appropriations process."

These projects include: Hocking River Basin Environmental Restoration, Toussaint River Oak Harbor, Middle Bass Island State Park Marina, Lower Grand Lake Dam, Ohio River Ecosystem Restoration Program, Asian Carp Barrier in the Chicago River, Great Lakes Fishery and Ecosystems Restoration Program, John Glenn Basin Program, Great Lakes Sediment Management Program, and Great Lakes Remedial Action Plans and Sediment Remediation Program.

Hey, the good weather is here, so let's get out and enjoy it. The snow, cold is only a memory. With the warm weather our heating gas bill should be lower and wish I could say the same for the gas we put in our cars. One would think that with all the money we spend in rebuilding the war-torn oil well countries, they would give us a break, but I guess that is just too much to hope for, but perhaps with a few extra prayers to St. Peter, he may come to the rescue again.

Well, this is the week all you housewives go back to school. Got your scissors handy. Although in my younger years aside from writing jokes for all the big stars, I was also making notes on good helpful hints. I know in the past when you observed the man of the house running around with his can of WD-40, perhaps in time you thought he was wrapped too tight. But you see I told him of the real uses of WD-40 some time back. For those not familiar with WD-40, it comes in a spray can, a blue and yellow can which can be bought at any hardware store. WD-40 is a must for every home and don't think it belongs in the garage above the old man's tool bench.

Keep a can under the sink, on your dresser right next to your channel No. 5. Since its uses are so numerous, I will only incorporate a few, for I want all of you fine young women to come back next week and if you use it on the things listed below, you can be rest assured you will not only be moved to the head of the class, but you will be the "apple of your mate's eye." The honeymoon will start all over again.

Shower room door. Try it; it's the first thing that has ever changed a spotty shower door, regardless if the door is plastic or glass. It's a miracle. Don't stop there, try it on your stove top. It's now shinier than the day you bought it.

To give you a little history; WD-40 was created back in 1953 by three technicians in San Diego Rocket Co. Its name comes from the project that was to find a "water displacement" compound. They were successful with the 40th formulation, hence the WD-40.

It has a carefully guarded recipe known only to four people. Only one of them is the brew master. There are an estimated 2.5 million gallons of the stuff manufactured each year. It gets its distinctive smell from a fragrance that is added to the brew. Ken East (one of the original founders) says there is nothing in WD-40 that will hurt you.

Okay, Ray, give us some more hints on where we can use it. Use it to protect silver from tarnishing. Cleans and lubricates guitar strings. (That's why the Lawrence Welk Band sounds so good.) Now here is the kicker. It gives floors that "just waxed" sheen without making it slippery. (Mr. Clean, eat your heart out.) Wait, we are not done yet. Keep flies off cows. Next time you are out in the country, give a cow a spray and do him a favor and he'll fill your jug with milk.

Hey, teachers, are you listening? It will restore all your chalk boards. You husbands out there, keep a can in your car and it can be used to remove lipstick stains. All you seamstresses, WD-40 will loosen all stubborn zippers. This is nifty for all men when they have to use the bathrooms to prevent them from pulling on a stuck zipper. Good for the bladder.

Ladies, it will untangle jewelry chains. It will also remove all stains from stainless steel sinks. Men, get this: it will remove all dirt and grime from barbecue grills. The one I like is that a spray of WD-40 on ceramic-terra cotta garden pots keeps them from oxidizing. When you slops are eating or cooking spaghetti sauce, it will remove all tomato stains from clothing.

Well, I have a lot more, but you will have to wait for next week's issue, for I don't want to cloud your brain all at one time. You might say, "Ray, where have you been all my life with your good hints." To tell the truth I have been in Sister Bernadette's class trying to keep her rosary beads shiny.

I know you won't be satisfied until I give you a couple of jokes for all work with a can of WD-40 makes for a dull day, so take a break. (Let this joke be a lesson to the young women about to say, "I do.")

The 70-year-old groom and the 25-year-old bride attracted raised eyebrow attention as they checked into the resort hotel. Next morning at eight sharp, the groom came into the dining room whistling a happy tune, sat down at the table and ordered Slovenian klobase and eggs. The smile on his face and the twinkle in his eye told everyone present that he was happy and confident.

Fifteen minutes later the young bride slowly trudged into the dining room and seated herself across from her 70-year-old husband. Her face was drawn and her voice weak as she ordered toast and coffee. The groom now finished, excused himself and strolled into the lobby for his morning cigar. As the waitress approached with the bride's toast and coffee, she said, "Honey, I don't understand it. Here you are a young bride with an old husband, looking like you encountered a buzz-saw." "That guy," said the bride, "double crossed me. He told me he had saved for 60 years, and I thought he was talking about money."

Well, now that you had your laugh, time to get back to your can of WD-40. Till next week, may the good Lord bless and watch over all of you and keep you in good health with a full can of WD-40 at your side at all times.

Movie Puts Blame on Slovenians

Editor,

Because the Italian war criminals were never put on trial, Italian neo-fascists consider themselves a normal political party and continue with their plans and activities.

Robert D. Paxton is author of the book, "The Anatomy of Fascism," editor A. Knoof, New York.

In this book the author analyzes how German Nazis and Italian Fascists were looking for their main enemy. For Nazis the main enemy were Jews and for Italian fascists, the Slovenians were, and still are, the main enemy.

There is, however, some differences between German nazism and Italian fascism.

First, the Italian fascism was founded first, and the German Nazis followed their ideas and objectives.

Second, German Nazis have been curtailed (partly because of the judgment in Nuremberg). On the contrary, Italian fascism continues to flourish.

It is also interesting that Germany (and Japan) apologized to the countries where nazis (and Japanese soldiers) committed atrocities. Italians did not apologize to any country.

Slovenians are particularly concerned about Italian fascism, because as was stated above, for the Italian fascism, enemy number one are the Slovenians, and their objective is to damage them as much as possible.

Good example of the attitude of Italian fascist is recently released in the Italian movie, "Heart in the abyss" about the events at the end of the Second World War.

The majority of the Italian victims were due to crimes committed by the Croatian communists. However, the movie puts all the blame on the Slovenians.

Back in 1920, Italian fascists burned Slovenian center in Trieste, because the Croats shot and killed an Italian officer in Split, Croatia.

Canada has a long tradition of fostering peace everywhere in the world. As a Canadian of Slovenian origin, I am particularly concerned with the peace on the Slovenian-Italian border.

I am writing with the following petition:

1) That Amnesty International should be concerned with the fascism and neo-fascism movement anywhere in the world.

2) Now at the 60th anniversary of the end of the Second World War, Amnesty International should suggest to the Italian government that it is high time to apologize for the war crimes committed during the occupation of the Slovenian littoral (1918-1943), and for the crimes in occupied Slovenia during 1941-1943. The Italian government should apologize also to other countries they occupied such as Greece, Croatia, etc.

Amnesty International has performed an extraordinary job in protecting political prisoners all over the world. Promoting good neighbor relations between European nations is a worthy cause for that noble association.

Russians Dance to Frankie Yankovic Tunes

by TOM McMANAMON

On Friday, March 18 I attended a "Polka Party" put on by SELREC South Euclid/Lyndhurst Rec Center) but the dance instructors were Russian and Ukraine. It was a Russian Polka party and they showed Russian/Ukraine Polka steps during the party.

As was reported in your last issue of American Home, I was invited to join a Russian Folk Dance Group (a separate and different thing) and invited to go to their next practice session the following Thursday at their dance studio, Art of Dance Studio in Mayfield Heights. So I did. I just sat and watched.

About 12-15 dancers assembled, all talking Russian, not one looked at me. They were there to practice for an on-stage performance April 16 at the eastern campus of Tri-C. So, I saw their whole performance 3 - 4 times since it was a rehearsal.

I expected Russian music.

I saw beautiful, lightning-speed Russian steps like I'd never seen before.

But to my bewilderment, the music they were doing it to was a Frankie Yankovic CD.

It was Russian folk dancing, Russian steps, Russian people, voicing their commands in Russian, a Russian Director and his beautiful Ukraine Director of Art of Dance School imbedded in the group. — All dancing the Russian-style polka to Frankie Yankovic. Their routine for the show finished with a beautiful Viennese Waltz as done by the Russian Folk Dance Group.

Toward the end, I heard Alina Feld, Director of Art of Dance, read a letter of thanks from (what sounded like - I was an observer off at a distance), the Cleveland Orchestra for their February performance while the orchestra played Tchaikovsky.

The credentials of the Director and his assistant of this local Russian Folk Dance Group are impressive and can be found at their (under construction) website www.luvdance.com. There is also a picture of the Dance Group on stage in Russian Dress. The director of the group, Arkady Tsirlin is in front of the photo.

I wonder if they are aware of they are in the middle of the Frankie Yankovic Cleveland-style polka territory and home of the Slovenian-Viennese waltz? And, I wonder if the Slovenian Community is aware of such a talented Russian group performing for the Cleveland Orchestra and elsewhere with Slovenian folk music.

Spending A Week in Paris

by PATRICIA COIL
Euclid Travel

Monday, Les Halles, Tuileries, Champs Elysee

My daughter and I were able to change trains by ourselves and so some shopping at Les Halles, which was Paris' central produce market for 800 years before it was replaced by a shopping center in the late 1970s. The mall has a rooftop park and it is within sight of St. Eustache, a large Gothic church. Outside the mall on a street corner, we saw some life-sized statues of former residents.

We bought wonderfully scented French soap for everyone for Christmas. At the department store we were able to find presents for all the granddaughters.

After returning to the apartment, we went out to lunch at one of the neighborhood bistros. The sidewalk tables were really small and made for two tiny people. If you had a drink you hardly had room for a sandwich on a plate, but we managed and enjoyed it.

While my husband walked back to the apartment, the rest of us went to the Tuileries, which adjoins the Louvre. When these gardens were originally created, they were outside the city walls and the aristocrats came there to enjoy royal festivities and fireworks.

The Tuileries were still filled with flowers even though it was October. The sun kept going behind clouds, but it was still pleasant to be outside. In addition to gardens and trees, there are statues, fountains, and a huge pond where in the summer children sail boats. There were many people just strolling through the gardens or sitting on benches.

The Tuileries end at the Place de la Concorde where the king, queen, and 2,780 people were beheaded during the French Revolution. An obelisk from Luxor, Egypt marks the spot. One of our tour books stated that it took three people to operate the guillotine: one managed the blade, one held the bucket, and one caught the head, raising it high for all to see.

On the other side of the Place de la Concorde is the famous Champs Elysee, which is filled with expensive stores like Louis Vuitton, Mont Blanc, Peugeot, Cartier, etc.

It was fun just walking the two miles down to the Arch de Triumph and looking in all the store windows and observing what the fashionable French women were wearing. Their shoes had the highest heels and thinnest heels that I had ever seen, made my feet hurt just to look at them.

For a fee we could have gone up to the top of the Arch de Triumph, but by that time we were too tired. We just looked up at all the people on the top and waved.

Since we had no past experience dining in Paris, we relied on Sondra Gustafson's "Cheap Eats Paris." Every year the author travels to Paris and writes about the places that she believes serves great food at reasonable prices. The book is arranged by endorsements, so it was easy to use.

The author recommended Le Bistrot, which specialized in baked potatoes with various toppings. All I remember about my dinner was that I had the best French Fries (frites) I have ever eaten in a restaurant. They were hot, crisp and delicious. For dessert we all had profiteroles, which are like small cream puffs - excellent.

French restaurants do not discriminate and a couple near us had their dog sitting in a chair and enjoying the meal with them. The dog seemed very well behaved. We had read about how everyone smokes in Paris and how there are no non-smoking areas in restaurants, but we were very lucky and never had any smokers near us while we were eating.

The metro was very crowded when we went out to dinner and when we got off, my son-in-law discovered he had been the victim of a pickpocket. His Carte Orange card had been removed from his pocket. Luckily all the rest of his

Barley Soup Dinner

3½ to 4 lbs. lean cottage ham
½ cup barley, well washed
1 cup roman beans, well washed
4 qts. water
2 cups carrots, diced
1 cup celery, diced
½ cup finely chopped onion
1 clove garlic, finely minced
1 cup canned or fresh tomatoes, chunked
1 spring each, bay leaf and mace
1 sprig fresh green parsley, chopped

Put ham, barley and beans with water in large deep kettle. Boil gently for 2 hours. Add rest of ingredients except parsley, and simmer slowly for another hour or until meat and vegetables are tender. Soup should be rather thick. Sprinkle chopped parsley over soup when serving. Will serve 6 to 8 generously.

Ham, sliced and served with a tossed green salad, plus pie or other hearty dessert, completes the Barley Soup Dinner.

Great Whole Grain Cereal

Breakfast each morning is a smart idea: Daily breakfast eaters are nearly half as likely to get heart disease or diabetes or to become obese, as those who skip the morning meal, according to research presented at an American Heart Association meeting last year.

This 10-year study examined not only the importance of breakfast, but previous trials by the same Harvard researchers suggest that you'll fare best when that breakfast includes a bowl of whole-grain cereal. Why? It fills you up so you eat less throughout the day, stabilizes blood sugar, and has a higher concentration of fiber than most other foods, says study author and nutritionist Linda Van Horn, Ph.D., of Northwestern University's Feinberg School of Medicine.

The soluble fiber in whole-grain cereals forms a gel-like material in intestines that prevents cholesterol and saturated fats from entering the bloodstream and also plays a beneficial role in metabolizing blood sugars.

Meanwhile, the insoluble fiber in whole grains keeps you regular, so excreted carcinogens pass more quickly through your intestines — which may prevent colorectal cancer.

And because these cereals are typically fortified, they also contain hefty amounts of iron and vitamins C and B6, as well as folic acid and various phytochemicals that protect against heart disease.

Slovenska Pristava and Senator Lausche

by Ed Gobetz
Slovenian Research Center of America, Inc.

Slovenska Pristava in Geneva / Harpersfield, Ohio, has frequently been referred to as "kos c ek Slovenije v Ameriki - a little piece of Slovenia in America." While easily reached by car from anywhere in the Greater Cleveland area, it lies outside in the country, surrounded by green meadows, majestic trees, farms and vineyards, reminiscent of the Slovenian countryside.

As we pass the caretaker's lovely Slovenian-style house, we are greeted, on the right side, by a roadside shrine, such as the Slovenians built in so many places some three or more centuries ago, in gratitude for having survived the plague.

On the left side there is the magnificent memorial cross, and somewhat further down a monument with the names of the massacre locations and mass graves. Both commemorate the victims of communist terror in Slovenia during and after the Second World War.

Then there is a lovely little chapel dedicated to Mary, Help of Christians - Marija Pomagaj, with a replica of the famous painting from the National Shrine at Brezje. This renowned basilica in the vicinity of world-famous Lake Bled, is being visited each year by tens of thousands of Slovenians and other pilgrims. Among them were our beloved Holy Father John Paul II, the American First Lady Laura Bush, and the Slovenian American astronaut Dr. Jerry Linenger.

Yes, the chapel at the Slovenska Pristava is dedicated to Marija Pomagaj, as is the church in Lemont, the foremost Slovenian pilgrimage place in America. A few seconds later, we reach the inviting picnic area, sports grounds, and carefully kept buildings, including a kitchen and a bar and the Hinko Lobe Hall named in honor of one of the leading Pristava founders.

A few hundred yards further down, there are two modern swimming pools, the irresistible attraction for the young and not so young during the hot summer months. And did I really forget to mention the ubiquitous flowers? Someday, I hope our capable Pristava leaders will organize also a Pristava Recognition Day, honoring all the wonderful people who have created - by their volunteer labor, exceptional skills and devotion, or by generous contributions - this wonderful place called Slovenska Pristava.

This "home away from home" has through the years hosted hundreds of public and family picnics, as well as religious, cultural, and educational programs. This "little paradise" is also the place to which the Slovenian community proudly invited many prominent guests, including Slovenia's prime minister Lojze Peterle, and Dr. Andrej Bajuk, the Archbishop France Rode, and Bishop Franc Kramberger and, yes, the former Mayor of Cleveland, five-term Governor of Ohio, and two-term U.S. Senator Frank J. Lausche.

Lausche, the foremost Slovenian statesman, has become widely known as Ohio's Lincoln. Among the numerous tributes he received was also a letter from President Ronald Reagan, written especially for inclusion in our book, Ohio's Lincoln Frank J. Lausche.

"You are aware, I am sure," wrote President Reagan, "that it has become customary to call you the Lincoln of Ohio. Anybody who gives the matter a moment's thought will understand why: people really see how much you resemble Lincoln in homespun good sense and rugged honesty. You are alike, too, in a love for this nation and in willingness to work with all who love it dearly regardless of political persuasion. Few political figures in our history can boast a brighter record of fidelity to principle than Frank Lausche. In my book, that makes you a statesman, and a great servant of our country."

Senator Lausche, in spite of his busy schedule, loved to visit the Slovenska Pristava and fell in love with this beautiful place and his Slovenian compatriots who so proudly welcomed him as one of their own. Raising his thundering voice, he spoke to us in his characteristic Slovenian Ribnica dialect that he had learned from his immigrant parents. He was aware of the great courage displayed by immigrants who left their homeland to build a new future for themselves and their children in America. Unfamiliar with its language and customs and often carrying all their possessions in a suitcase, they took any job they could get, worked hard and incredibly long hours, lived honestly and frugally, and ultimately succeeded.

Yet, the struggle of the refugees was undoubtedly hard, for they had experienced years of communist terror and often lost their relatives and friends during and after the war. These refugees spent several uncertain years in various camps in Austria or Italy, and finally came to America, the land of freedom and opportunity.

Here they again faced new challenges and difficulties: they had to learn a new language, new customs, new jobs - they had to compete with seasoned, established workers who could not always understand them. "And you have succeeded," Lausche assured the eagerly listening multitudes of refugees and their friends. "You have become valuable members of the Slovenian American community, and you are good honest American citizens, second to none. You have established this delightful place, the Slovenska Pristava, kos Slovenije v Ameriki - a piece of Slovenia in America. Continue to cultivate and enjoy it. Be strongly determined to preserve the Slovenian heritage! Be proud of it. And remain loyal and proud American citizens!"

We may have forgotten the dates and even the occasions when the good Senator spoke, but we will never forget his thundering voice and the jest of his encouraging words. He loved the Slovenian heritage, the Slovenian traditions and songs, his native parish of St. Vitus, the Slovenian national homes, and was always so close to the Slovenian American newspaper, Ameriška Domovina. He resolutely rejected communism and its leaders. He understood and deeply respected Slovenian immigrants and the Slovenian refugees. And, yes, he loved the Slovenska Pristava. "Kos c ek Slovenije v Ameriki" - this beautiful little piece of Slovenia in America."

Izrazili so tudi željo, da bi novoizvoljeni papež podobno kot njegov predhodnik papež Janez Pavel II. čim prej obiskal Slovenijo.

Vladna proslava bo v Ajdovščini 7. maja

Severnoprimske župani so se dogovorili, da bo proslava ob 60. obletnici ustanovitve slovenske narodne vlade v Ajdovščini v soboto, 7. maja, na Lavričevem trgu v Ajdovščini, kjer je bila pred 60 leti ustanovljena prva povojska slovenska vlada, ki je imela še posebej za Primorce poseben pomen. Slovenska vlada denarja za to proslavo ni namenila. Proslava naj bi sicer bila nepolitična, a bo na njej možno tudi kupiti partizanske kape – tkim titovke, ki jih bodo za to priložnost izdelali po originalnem kroju.

Državni zbor ponovno o zakonih o vojnih grobiščih, žrtvah vojnega nasilja

Pretekli četrtek je vlada na svoji redni seji po sicer skrajšanem postopku poslala v državni zbor novele zakonov o vojnih invalidih, o žrtvah vojnega nasilja in o vojnih grobiščih. Novele so že povzročale veliko razburjanje med nekdanjimi borci in njih simpatizerji, češ da gre za enačenje njih s tistimi, ki jih imajo za okupatorjeve sodelavce.

Z novelo zakona o vojnih grobiščih bo na primer prekop iz prikritih grobišč v družinske grobove odsej na stroške države. Na grobiščih bodo po novem trije različni napisi: Žrtvam revolucionarnega nasilja, Republika Slovenija; Padlim v vojni, Republika Slovenija in Žrtvam vojnega nasilja, Republika Slovenija (doslej enoten napis na prikritih grobiščih: Žrtvam vojne in povojnih usmrtnitev, Republika Slovenija). Pravico do vojaškega groba naj bi dobili "vsi pripadniki slovenskih oboroženih enot", kar dela nekdanje partizanske borce in njih osrednja organizacija ogorčene.

Razprava o noveli bo v državnem zboru gotovo huda, vendar naj bi imela vlada – če bodo koaličske stranke ostale enotne – dovolj glasov. O načinu vsaj dela prihajajoče razprave je pokazal razviti predsednik SNS Zmago Jelinčič: "Nesprejemljivo in žaljivo do ljudi, ki so Sloveniji priborili svobodo in nenazadnje samostojnost, je enačiti obe skupini – borce za svobodo z domobranci –, ali še več domače izdajalce – na strani uradno priznanega agresorja na slovenskih tleh, ki ga še danes obsoja ves svet – poveličevati in jih opravičevati pri zločinu nad slovenskim narodom."

Barbara Brezigar o "državnootožilstvu"

Ob tem poročanju še ni podatkov, ali je državni zbor danes res izvolil od vlade predlagane kandidatke za generalno državno tožilstvo. V postopku, ki je bil pred glasovanjem, je pa Brezigarjeva obljubila, da se bo trudila tožilstvu v Sloveniji sploh vrnilti v zadnjih letih precej zmanjšanega ugleda.

PEVSKI ZBOR KOROTAN

NE UMRI NAM PESEM

CLEVELAND, O. – Gornji naslov Jakopičeve poezije naj bo tudi prošnja pevcev zobra Korotana slovenski publiku za moralno in gmotno podporo za naše prizadevanje. Prisluhnite melodiji Frančka Gorenška, ki tako z občutkom glasbeno spopolnjuje besedilo Marjana Jakopiča. To pesem Vam bomo, med drugimi, zapeli s srcem in dušo – saj je naša. Tu je spočeta, delo teh dveh naših begunskih velikanov. Prav mi Korotanci smo ji dali življenja pod vodstvom Frančka Gorenška.

Vodstvo Korotana si je zbralo pester program domovinskih, poskočnih, krajevnih in nabožnih pesmi. Slišlai boste pesmi, ki jih bomo julija ponesli v domovino, ko bomo sodelovali pri proslavi za 60. obletnico begunstva v Ljubljani – v stolnici, Cankarjevem domu in še drugih krajih.

S povodnjem Janezom Sršenom smo sprejeli to poslanstvo z vso resnostjo. Hodili bomo po poti mučencev, kjer so pred 60 leti zvezani stopali naši očetje in bratje – naša domobranska vojska. Obiskali bomo množične grobove v Kočevskem rogu. Teharju in tudi sledili poti beguncev v Vetrinje.

Letos januarja smo dosti brali o 60-letnici osvoboditve koncentracijskega taborišča Auschwitz. Iz vsega sveta so se tam zbrali državniki in preživeli zaporniki. No, za nas je to Auschwitz, nekaj izredno pomembnega, globokega. Tam je pokopan cvet mladosti, ki je padal v jame za življenske vrednote – "Bog, narod, domovina".

Letos bo pevski program malo skrajšan, ker Vam bomo pred koncertom postregli z večerjo. Upamo na dober obisk, ker rabimo finančna sredstva za potovanje v Slovenijo. Mnogo naših pev-cev je upokojenih, z malimi dohodki, nekaj je šolarjev. Plačati bo treba tudi člane Ljubljanske filharmonije, ki nas bodo spremljali pri Milačevi kantati "Pozdravljeni Zemlja". V teku so tudi načrti za spominske DVD plošče o našem sodelovanju pri tem slovenskem dogodku. Potreba je torej velika!

Pridite! Zavzemimo se vsi, da bo še dolgo zvezela slovenska pesem "Ne umri nam pesem". Naj bo to naše skupno geslo.

Serviranje okusne večerje bo točno ob 6h, to v Slovenskem narodnem domu na St. Clair Ave. v soboto, 30. aprila. Večerji bo sledil bogat pevski nastop, po katerem bo zabava s plesom, za katerega bo igrala godba Staneta Mejača.

Vstopnice za banket in koncert bodo samo v predprodaji. Za rezervacije kličite preds. Cvetko Rihtar na tel. 440-286-5421, ali pa prijatelje, ki so člani Korotana. Vstopnice za koncert s sedeži na balkonu boste lahko dobili pri vhodu na večer koncerta.

Za vašo podporo smo Vam pevci že vnaprej hvaležni!

Pristavski upokojenci poročajo...

CLEVELAND, O. – Hvala Bogu, da je zima za naši. Pomlad, čeprav pozna, nas veseli s prvimi cvetlicami in ozelenelo travo. Tudi na naši Slovenski pristavi se pozna, da je pomlad tukaj, a na Pristavi je še veliko dela, da bo pripravljena za letošnjo sezono.

Zato vabimo vse člane našega kluba, da pridete v sredo, 27. aprila, že zgodaj na Pristavo, da bomo pograbili listje, počistili dvorano, pospravili odpadle in pozagane veje na Orlovem vrhu. Za vse, tudi za tiste, ki ne morejo več delati, bo pripravljena malica.

To bo naš prvi mesečni sestanek letos na Pristavi. Kdor ne more več voziti, pokličite prijatelja in vas bo z veseljem pripeljal. Lepo popoldne v prijetni družbi prijateljev nas bo kar poživilo.

Naš klub obstaja že skoro 18 let in v teh letih smo že veliko naredili za Pristavo z našim delom in v denarju, saj vsako leto dobikek od našega piknika darujemo ravno Pristavi.

Z dobičkom od naših Kolin pa podpiramo naše slovenske šole, fare in druge slovenske organizacije, tudi Slomškovo ustanovo v Sloveniji za revne študente.

Izpod zvona sv. Marije Vnebovzete

CLEVELAND, O. - Jutro cvetne nedelje je bilo oblačno. Iz preddverje župnijske dvorane, kjer je bilo zbirališče za narodne noše in mladino, ki je brala Pasijon, smo v procesiji odšli v cerkev. Po blagoslovu zelenja, palm, butar, ki je bilo zadaj za klopi, smo šli v procesiji na svoj prostor.

Sv. maša je bila zelo slovesna. Mladina je skrbno brala Pasijon. V polni cerkvi je lepo donela pesem, vse je bilo v veseljem pričakovanju. Hvala vsem za vso lepoto te cvetne nedelje, tako narodnim nošam kot mlađini.

V svetem tridnevju velikega tedna je bil lep obisk, tudi spovednica je bila lepo zasedena, saj še vsak skrbi za lepoto duše. Sobotni popoldan je bil dvakrat priča blagoslova hrane v različnih košarah. Zvečer sta bili dve osebi sprejeti v našo župnijsko skupnost, kar smo bili zelo veseli. Pozdravljena!

Lepo velikonočno jutro! Cerkev razsvetljena le s svečami, oltar in prezbiiterij vse v cvetu. Ker ima naš župnik problem z glasilkami, je organist zapel Alelujo, nato pa zbor. Luči so se pričgale, zvonovi so zapeli, zvonci pri oltarju, fantje so nesli Vstalega Zveličarja na okrašenem podstavku, razvila se je procesija po cerkvi in tudi malo zunaj.

To je dan, ki ga nadeli Gospod. Misliš si, kako bo šele v nebesih lepo, ko te že tukaj obdaja velika sreča.

Bilo je kar veliko narodnih noš, tudi otrok. Hvala vsem, polepšali ste lepoto dneva. Ko smo na beli nedelji čitali naše oznanilo, smo opazili, da se je tudi župnik zahvalil za tako lepo sodelovanje v velikonočnem času. Tudi župniku hvala za vso skrb.

Na beli nedelji smo po deseti maši ostali še pri litanijah Matere božje in prejeli blagoslov, saj to je bila nedelja Božjega usmiljenja. Bila je tudi prva nedelja v mesecu, ko smo bile zbrane pri deseti sv. maši članice Oltarnega društva in popoldne pri uru molitve, kar nas je bilo lepo število. Hvala vam.

V ponedeljek po beli nedelji smo v velikem številu prisostvovali sv. maši, ki je bila darovana za pok. sv. očeta Janeza Pavla II., ki je odšel po svoje plačilo k Nebeškemu Očetu, saj se je trudil, da bi dosegel čim več duš na svojih potovanjih in jih pripeljal v božje kraljestvo.

V nedeljo, 24. aprila, bo sestanek Zveze oltarnih društev pri sv. Vidu. Vse članice ste povabljeni, da se udeležite tega sestanka in molitev, ki bodo ob drugi uri v cerkvi. Sledil bo sestanek, ko bomo slišale poročila o delu društev.

V četrtek, 28. aprila, bo v naši cerkvi koncert zobra Tone Tomšič iz Ljubljane, nanj ste pač vabljeni. V soboto, 30. aprila, bo pa koncert Koroščana v SND na St. Clairju.

V nedeljo, 1. maja, ste zopet vabljene članice Ol-

Upokojenci Slovenske pristave poročajo

(NADALJEVANJE s str. 11)

Članov v našem klubu je 200; 60 jih je pa že umrlo. Kadar kak član kluba umrje, se v velikem številu poslovimo od njega z molitvijo rožnega venca v pogrebni zavodu in pri pogrebni sv. maši.

V zadnjih mesecih smo se poslovili od Mirkota Antloge in Janeza Prose.

Janez Prosen je več let z ženo Marijo skrbel za Orlov vrh na Pristavi, veliko časa je bil dopisnik za Ameriško Domovino in bil zvest zastopnik Mohorjevega društva v Celovcu. Pred 20. leti je potom Slomškovega krožka v Clevelandu organiziral poseben odbor pod predsedstvom Jožeta Želleta, da bi tukajšnji Slovenci nabrali denar za knjižnico v Modestovem domu v Celovcu. Knjižnica naj bi bila posvečena škofu dr. Gregoriju Rožmanu.

OSMRTNICA JANEZA PROSENA

Predno me On, cigar ime je sveto, odpokliče, si sam pišem osmrtnico – malo po svoje – nekaj pa povzeto iz katoliškega tednika Družina.

Za dopolnjenih srečno preživetih 90 let dolgega življenja se Bogu zahvaljujem, ponino prosim usmiljenja, naj spregleda moje grešne prestopke v tem zemeljskem življenju. Prosim tudi vse drage, s katerimi sem živel skupaj, naj oproste, če sem kdaj enega ali dru-gega kakorkoli žalil – oprostite, kakor tudi jaz vsem iz srca odpuščam.

Rojen sem bil 4. julija 1914, v župniji Krka pri Stični. Srečno sem živel na mali kmetiji do konca druge svetovne vojne. Pošten in delaven v vseh katoliških organizacijah, sem bil na listi nezaželenih, zato sem zapustil domovino in preživel štiri leta v begunstvu na Koroškem. Koroška je postala moja druga domovina. Leta 1949 sem prišel v Ameriko, se tukaj poročil z Marijo Sporar in z njo preživel lepih 40 let.

Brez navajanja imen – prav iz globine srca, se vsem prijateljem in dobrotnikom zahvaljujem za številne izkazane pomoči, vedno – še posebno v zadnjem obdobju bolezni – Bog povrni vsem, ki so me obiskali v pogrebnu zavodu, me spremili v cerkev in na božjo njivo, zame molili in darovali za dobre namene v moj spomin. Še enkrat, Bog vsem obilno povrni.

Oj, zbogom svet, veselja in žalosti,
Usmiljeni Bog bodi z menoj, Da kmalu nebesa sveta,
Bodo dom tudi moj.

Pripis ge. Lojzke Zabukovec, rojakinja, soseda in dobre prijateljice Janeza Prosena in njegove žene Micke, ki je skrbela za oba prav do njune smrti.

Čutim dolžnost, da se vsem lepo zahvalim v imenu Janezovih nečakov in nečakinj in v mojem imenu, ker sem tudi poskrbela za njegov pogreb.

Janez je bil zadnje mesece njegovega življenja v Slovenskem starostnem domu na Neff Road, kjer je tudi umrl 21. januarja 2005. Lepo so skrbeli zanj, za kar se vodstvu in osebju Slovenskega starostnega doma lepo zahvaljujemo.

Pogrebno sv. mašo je daroval č. gospod Janez Kumše s somaševanjem nečaka, č. gospoda Tonija Prosen.

Najlepša hvala č. gospodu J. Kumšetu za lepo opravljeno sv. mašo, kakor tudi za obiske v domu ostarelih in za molitev rožnega venca v pogrebnu zavodu skupno s člani društva Najsvetejšega imena. Lepo se zahvaljujemo organistu in pevcem pri Mariji Vnebovzeti za lepo petje, in tudi violinistu Joškotu Štepec, za ganljivo zaigrano "Ave Maria". Vsem naša topla zahvala, da ste ga prišli kropiti, darovali v njegov spomin, in za krasno cvetje.

Najlepše se zahvaljujemo članom Kluba upokojencev Slovenske pristave, ki ste prišli v tako lepem številu k molitvi rožnega venca v pogrebni zavod, in še posebno lepa hvala predsedniku kluba Ivanu Jakominu, za lep nagovor.

Topla hvala nosilcem krste. Sprejmite našo zahvalo vsemi, ki ste ga spremili prav do groba in mu tam zapeli v slovo pesem "V nebesih sem doma".

Iz srca se zahvaljujemo kuharici ge. Julki Zalar in njenim pomočnicam za tako okusno pripravljeno pogrebščino. Pogreb je vodil Želetov pogrebni zavod, za njihovo uslužnost, da je bil pogreb res lepo pripravljen, naša iskrena hvala.

Razposlali smo zahvalne kartice, v kolikor smo imeli naslove; če smo koga pomotoma izpustili, naj oprosti in sprejme to javno zahvalo kot njemu namenjeno.

Dragi Janez, stric, rojak, sosed in dober prijatelj, počivaj v miru in lahka naj Ti bo ameriška zemlja!

Janez zapušča: Nečake in nečakinje tu v Ameriki in številne prijatelje v Clevelandu, v Kanadi, Argentini, Afriki in Sloveniji.

Res se nam je posrečilo zbrati 28 tisoč dolarjev. Ta denar in še krasno sliko škofa Rožmana smo poslali v Modestov dom. Škoda pa, da je bil ta dom prodan, slika škofa Rožmana pa zdaj visi v Mohorjevi hiši.

Kar se je pa nabralo obresti od nabirke, smo poslali v Lemont, da so lepo obnovili grob škofa Rožmana.

Janez, vemo, da se z Micko veselita v nebesih in da ste tam poplačana za vse dobro, kar ste na tem svetu storila.

Naš piknik bo letos prvo nedeljo v avgustu. Takrat bomo skupno s Slovensko-ameriškim svetom obhajali 60-letnico begunstva. Ta dan se bomo posebno spomnili dr.

Valentina Meršola in nju v spomin blagoslovili spominsko ploščo v iskreno zahvalo, da je rešil tisoče slovenskih beguncev v Vetrinju, da niso bili poslani nazaj Titojem morilcem.

Vse člane še enkrat lepo vabimo, da pridete prihodnjo sredo na Pristavo; Bog nam daj lep dan!

Pogovor z ALBERTOM SVETINO, bivšim Oznovcem...

Mitja Ribičič je največji še živeči zločinec

METOD BERLEC

(Ur. AD: Intervju, ki sledi, je bil objavljen v tedniku Demokracija 17. marca (št. 11, leto X), ponatisnjeno bo v celoti, a v nadaljevanjih, ker je precej dolg. Albert Svetinovo knjigo imam, to po zaslugu dr. Edija Gobca, za kar se mu na tem mestu zahvaljujem. Gre v knjigi za osebne spomine in tako trditve niso podprtne z nobeno preverljivo dokumentacijo. Nihče pa, ki se zanima za to obdobje, ne bo mogel mimo nje.)

Gospod Svetina, v prostorih Svetovnega slovenskega kongresa so predstavili vašo knjigo Od osvobodilnega boja do banditizma. Vas je velik obisk ljudi presestil?

Na predstavitev sem bil bil zelo presenečen, saj sem mislil, da bo prišlo kakšnih deset, dvajset ljudi, na koncu pa sem videl množico ljudi, ki so morali tudi stati, kjer je bilo le mogoče. Presenečen sem, da ljudje s svojo navzočnostjo dajejo moji knjigi tak pomen.

Kaj vse vas je vodilo k temu, da ste se odločili napisati to knjigo?

Najprej sem si rekел, da jo napišem zato, da bo moj življenjepis ostal za zanamce. Ko pa sem videl, kako knjiga nastaja, sem se zavedel, da to ne bo samo življenjepis, ampak pomembno zgodovinsko pričevanje. Glede posameznih stvari pravzaprav edina sled, ki razkriva ozadje nekaterih dogodkov, ki sem jih doživel.

V Demokraciji smo o vaši knjigi že veliko pisali. Objavljali smo tudi odlomke iz prvega dela knjige. Tisti, ki so brali knjigo, so navdušeni predvsem nad drugim delom, kjer opisujete stvari, ki prej niso bile še nikjer zapisane in nikoli povedane. Ali lahko za naše bralce na kratko poveste, kako ste postali član Ozne?

Že leta 1941 sem se kot organizator vključil v Osvobodilno fronto in kmalu postal tudi član komunistične partije. Zaposlen sem bil v Vidmarjevi tovarni nogavic v Savljah in tam sem organiziral partijsko celico.

Lastnik tovarne Vidmar se je odselil, ker so mu tako svetovali Italijani. S svojo najmlajšo hčerkko se je naselil v bližini Rima. Tovarno je vodila njegova žena, ki je bila do delavcev zelo dobra, za vodenje tovarne pa tudi sposobna. Pripravili smo jo do tega, da je tudi denarno podpirala osvobodilno gibanje.

Kako konkretno pa ste prišli v Ozno?

Ocenili so mojo organizacijsko sposobnost. Ko so me imenovali za partijskega sekretarja v zunanjem ljubljanskem okrožju, sem se posvetil samo političnemu delu z odbori OF. Čeprav nisem več delal v tovarni, mi je Vidmarjeva žena dala potrdilo, kot da delam v njeni tovarni. Tako sem se lahko gibal po terenu.

Pri Jaršah je bil bunker, ki so ga uporabljali CK KPS in druge partijske organizacije, sam pa sem se med hajkami tja večkrat skril pred Italijani. V njem sem imel razne dopise in tja sem dobival tudi sporočila od Kardelja.

S Kardeljem sem imel samo pisne stike in najprej nisem niti vedel, kdo je, ker je uporabljal ilegalno ime Pepca. Denar, ki sem ga nabral od odborov OF, sem po

ALBERT SVETINA – Njegovo medvojno ilegalno ime je Erno. Rodil se je leta 1915 v Dolnjih Ležečah pri Divači, kjer se je že v rani mladosti navzel uporniških in protifašističnih nazorov. V knjigi Od osvobodilnega boja do banditizma skozi svoja življenska doživetja ozadje številnih dogodkov, ki so usodno zaznamovali polpreteklo zgodovino Slovencev v 20. stoletju. Iz njegove življenske izpovedi, ki se ob vsej osebni prizadetosti kaže za zelo verodostojno pričevanje, lahko zares razumemo bistvo medvojnega in povojnega dogajanja v Sloveniji.

O poti, ki jo je prehodil, zgovorno govori že v naslovu. Napredoval je od zagnanega člena OF do pomočnika načelnika Ozne za Slovenijo Ivana Mačka-Matije. Od blizu je videl tovariše in jih opisal, kako so se bojevali in kako so živeli. Ko so ga po vojni iz Ozne izključili, se je upiral, bežal in preživel, da bi nam lahko nazadnje vse skupaj izpričal. Nevidno, ilegalno in skrivnostno delo Ozne je, potem ko so ga zavrgli in izbrisali, razkril v objavljeni knjigi. Svetina pripoveduje, odstira in hkrati tudi obtožuje. Zločinsko organizacijo, ki ji je tudi sam pripadal, obtožuje za vsa hudo delstva, ki jih je storila nad slovenskim narodom.

Ker je njegovo pričevanje prepričljivo, njegove obtožbe pa argumentirane, se resni obravnavi obdobja, ki mu je bil priča, ne bo mogoče izogniti. Tudi zaradi njegove knjige Od osvobodilnega boja do banditizma, ob kateri ne moremo ostati ravnodušni, ne bomo več živeli v sleplju o poštenem osvobodilnem boju na Slovenskem, ali o dobroramernosti komunistične partije in njenih organov.

kurirju pošiljal v Ljubljano na ime Pepca.

Na Vodnikovi cesti v Dravljah je bil pek Pretnar, ki je bil naš človek. Pri njem je bila javka in tam so prejemali denar ter prenašali pošto.

Ko so odkrili bunker v Jaršah, sem bil kompromitiran, kajti v njem so našli moje dopise. Umaknil sem se v Dolomite, kjer so bili tedaj CK KPS, IOOF in GŠ.

Od tam so me pozneje poslali na Notranjsko za pomočnika k Francetu Popitu, ki je bil komandant notranjske cone. Po partijski liniji sem delal z aktivisti po okrožjih. Kot inštruktorja CK KPS so me nato poslali tudi v partijsko šolo CK KPS v Kočevski rog.

Iz partijske šole sem v začetku 1944 prišel na Stražnji vrh v Belo krajinu. Nisem vedel, kam so me poslali. Niti Boris Zherl, ki je bil vodja partijske šole, mi o tem ni ničesar povedal.

Ste se takrat prvič znašli v Mačkovi bližini?

Za Mačka sem vedel že prej, vendar z njim nisem imel nobenih stikov. Stike sem imel s Francem Leskoškom, ki je bil sekretar CK KPS. Od njega sem prejemale navodila.

Na Stražnjem vrhu me je sprejel Ivan Maček-Matija in mi dejal, da bom kot partijski sekretar njegov pomočnik. Bil sem presenečen, ker sem bil mlad in je bilo veliko starejših komunistov, ki bi jih lahko postavil na to mesto.

No, očitno se je Maček odločil zame, ker sem bil pred tem uspešen na terenu. Partijski sekretar sem bil potem samo na oznovski bazi. Na Stražnjem vrhu so bili štirje oddelki, iz katerih se je usmerjalo delo na terenu. Tudi iz Ljubljane so posiljali svoje podatke v oznovski center na Stražnji vrh.

V Ozni nisem bil samo partijski sekretar, ampak sem po Mačkovem pooblastilu v Ozno sprejemal tudi nove člane. Na javki blizu Črnomlja smo jih preverjali. Na Stražnji vrh so lahko prišli samo najbolj preverjeni in pomembni partijsko-oznovski kadri.

Maček mi je naročil, naj se z oznovskimi kandidati najprej malo pogovorim. Na podlagi pogovora s kandidatom sem napisal zapisnik in ga dal Mačku, ta pa je potem odločil o vstopu kandidata v Ozno.

Pri izbiri je bila pomembna odločnost kandidata, njegov partijski

Novela zakona o žrtvah vojnega nasilja

Zamolčani priznani kot žrtve

V Sloveniji ni šlo le za osvobodilni boj, temveč tudi za komunistično revolucijo

Ljubljana – Ministrstvo za delo, družino in socijalne zadeve je pripravilo predlog sprememb zakona o žrtvah vojnega nasilja. Po njih bi status žrtve pridobili tudi državljeni, ki so bili v vojni ali vojaški agresiji na Slovenijo kot civilne osebe izpostavljeni nasilnim dejanjem ali prisilnim ukreplom katere koli organizirane vojaške sile, skupine in enote, ki je od 6. aprila 1941 do 15. maja 1945 delovala na območju Slovenije. Pravico do rente bodo z novo zakona dobili tudi prisilni mobiliziranci v nemško ali madžarsko vojsko.

V veljavnem zakonu ima status žrtve vojnega nasilja državljan Slovenije, ki so ga nemške, italijanske ali madžarske okupacijske sile od 6. aprila 1941 do 15. maja 1945 iz političnih, nacionalnih, rasnih ali verskih razlogov prisilno izselile, poslale v taborišče, zapor, na prisilno delo ali internacijo oziroma je bil kot pripadnik bivše jugoslovanske vojske v vojni od 6. aprila 1941 do 17. aprila 1941 odpeljan v ujetništvo, in oseba, ki je pobegnila pred vojnim nasiljen ali je bila nasilno odvzeta staršem.

Žrtev vojnega nasilja je tudi oseba, ki je pobegnila pred prisilno izselitvijo, ali je bila od 6. aprila 1941 do 15. maja 1945 zaradi izvajanja povračilnih ukrepov okupatorja ali njegovih sodelavcev zoper družine partizanov, pobitih talcev ali zaradi sodelovanja z NOB nasilno pregnana z doma, zaradi česar se ni mogla vrniti na svoj dom ne pretrgano najmanj tri meseca.

Status žrteve vojnega nasilja ima tudi oseba, ki je bila rojena staršem v času, ko so trpeli kot žrtve vojnega nasilja.

Status žrteve vojnega nasilja je bil doslej priznan izključno osebam, ki so bile med vojno izpostavljene nasilnim dejanjem ali prisilnim ukreplom okupatorja, agresorja ali njunih sodelavcev. Tudi iz tega kroga so izločeni vsi politični ali drugi emigranti oziroma begunci, ki se niso vrnili v domovino najpozneje do 31. decembra 1945, čeprav so bili žrtve navedenih agresorjev.

Zato niso mogli dobiti statusa in pravic žrtev vojne številni državljeni, ki so bili med vojno izpostavljeni prisilnim ukreplom ali vojnim dejanjem partizanskih vojaških enot, zavezniškim bombardiranjem oziroma nasilnim ukreplom pripadnikov VOS, VDV, terencov in raznih paravojaških enot na strani, ki je nasprotovala okupatorskim vojaškim in civilnim oblastem.

V ta /sedaj veljavnem/ zakonu tudi niso vključeni otroci, katerih roditelj je bil med vojno ubit ali pogrešan zaradi vojaških akcij NOB, kot žrtev zavezniških bombardiranj ali kot žrtev revolucionarnega nasilja.

Kako popraviti sedaj veljavni zakon v prid enakosti pred zakonom

Ministrstvo sodi, da je navedena ureditev sporna s stališča pravice do enakosti pred zakonom, saj gre za civilne osebe, ki niso bile udeležene v vojnih akcijah in zato niso bile subjektivno odgovorne za posledice vojnih ukrefov.

V zakonu ni upoštevano dejstvo, da v Sloveniji ni šlo samo za boj proti nemškim, italijanskim ter madžarskim okupacijskim silam, temveč za komunistično revolucijo, ki je narod umetno razdelila na dve nasprotujoči si strani in spodbudila državljanovo vojno, ugotavlja ministrstvo.

Ministrstvo je že dobilo 600 zahtevkov otrok, katerih starše so pobili partizani. V teh primerih bi bili upravičeni do pavšalnih odškodnin v znesku 200.000 tolarjev (tj. ok. $1080 US po sedanjem tečaju, op. ur. AD), ki se izplačujejo iz sklada za poplačilo vojne škode. To število se bo v naslednjem letu bistveno povečalo.

Po podatkih ministrstva je bilo doslej vloženih in zavrnjenih 208 zahtevkov beguncov zaradi zavezniškega bombardiranja, ki bi bili upravičeni do rent.

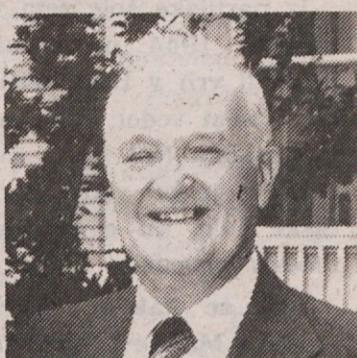

Največje finančne posledice bi imela uvedba pravice do mesečne rente za prisilne mobilizirance v nemško vojsko, ki jih je po dosedanjih podatkih 5500. Po ocenah bi letni odhodki za te upravičence dosegli nekaj manj kakor milijardo tolarjev.

Sprememba zakona bi tako v letu 2005 dodatno obremenila proračun za 400 milijonov tolarjev, v letu 2006, ko bi večina upravičencev že uveljavila pravice, bi se odhodki proračuna povečali za 1,1 milijarde tolarjev, staž in disciplina. Kandidat je moral ob vstopu v Ozno podpisati, da je pripravljen izpolnjevati naloge, ki jih Ozna od njega zahteva. In kdor se je Ozni enkrat zapisal, se ji je zapisal za vedno.

V kakšnem smislu pa je bila pomembna odločnost?

Odločnost v boju proti sovražniku in pri izvrševanju naloženih nalog.

Kakšen človek je bil Ivan Maček-Matija, za katerega nekateri menijo, da je bil največji slovenski zločinec?

Maček je bil zelo primitiven človek. Mislim, da je naredil samo štiri razrede osnovne šole. Politično pa je bil izobražen, saj je bil na partijskem izobraževanju v Moskvi. Bil je član CK KPS, kot osebnost pa je bil človek brez duše. Njegovo obnašanje do ljudi in njegovo govorjenje je bilo surovo.

Do mene pa čeprav sem bil partijski sekretar, se je vedel enako kakor do vajenca. Podobno se je obnašal tudi do komandanta Franca Rozmana-Staneta. Imel je ambicije, da vse vodi in ovsem odloča. Tudi v CK KPS si je izbojeval izredno veliko moč. Ne da bi se ga bali, so mu to nekako dopuščali.

Je on največji slovenski zločinec?

Seveda je. K njemu je spadala Ozna, ki njemu je spadal Knoj in to sta dve organizaciji, ki imata najhujše stvari na vesti.

Da bo stvar jasna, moram povedati, da je konec aprila 1944 odšel v Drvar, in ker so Nemci takrat napadli Titov štab, ga skoraj mesec dni ni bilo na Stražnjem vrhu. Ko se je vrnil, je sklical načelnike oznovskih oddelkov in mene kot partijskega sekretarja. Takrat je dejal, kakšna navodila je dobil in kako se mora Ozna organizirati.

Dejal je, da se v CK KPJ Ranković in Tito strinjata z mnenjem Ruskov (pri Titu je bila zelo v naslednjih letih pa bi se zmanjševali zaradi naravnega manjšanja števila upravičencev).

močna sovjetska misija), da se bliža konec vojne in da sodišč po osvoboditvi ne bo, ampak da bo treba politične nasprotnike samo likvidirati. In tako se je po vojni tudi zgodilo.

Maček je na našem sejstanku ukazal, da se začne sestavljati seznam ljudi, ki jih bo treba likvidirati. To evidentno je vodil Branko Ivanuša, njegov namestnik pa je bila "Tina", poznejša Maležičeva žena. Do začetka leta 1945 so pripravili seznam, na katerem je bilo sedemnajst tisoč ljudi. Na podlagi tega seznama je Ozna ob koncu vojne ljudi aretirala in likvidirala.

Kakšno mnenje pa imate o Mitji Ribičiča oziroma kako ocenjujete njegovo medvojno in povojsko vlogo?

Ribičiča prej nisem poznal, ker je bil na Korškem in na Štajerskem. Slišal sem, da je tam izvedel številne likvidacije.

V času vojne ga niste srečali?

Ne. Ob koncu vojne se je vrnil s šolanja v Sovjetski zvezni. Iz akademije Deržinski je prišel naravnost v osvobojeni Trst, kjer se je pred osvoboditvijo Ljubljane zbral ves oznovski štab. Maček ga je imel za nekakšnega pravnika, ker je dobrega pol leta hodil na pravno fakulteto.

Vse aretacije, povezane z oznovskim seznamom, je vodil Ribičič. Pri njem je v Slaviji ob Apihovi ženi delala tudi moja nekdanja žena, ki mi je pripovedovala vse te stvari. Ribičič je imel točen pregled, kdo je aretiran, kdo je zaprt v taboriščih in koga je treba likvidirati. To je bilo vse centralno vodenno.

V zadnjih tednih se v Sloveniji veliko govori o kraških breznih – sojibah zaradi filma Srce v breznu. Vam je glede na to, da ste se ob koncu vojne kratek čas mudili v Trstu, kaj znano, kdo vse je končal v teh breznih?

Tega ne vem. V Trst sem ob osvoboditvi prišel iz Gorice. Ozno v Gorici je vodil Marinko. Po zavzetju mesta je Ozna takoj začela z aretacijami.

Prvi pogovori SKS - NSKS: Sadovnik, Pipp, Kuchling, Vouk (z l.). F. SK

Prvo približevanje Sadovnik – Narodni svet

Celovec – Na povabilo predsednika Skupnosti koroških Slovencev (SKS) Bernarda Sadovnika je prišlo 4. aprila na sedežu SKS do pogovora z Narodnim svetom koroških Slovencev (NSKS). Za NSKS so bili na pogovoru podpredsednik Rudi Vouk, tajnik Marjan Pipp in Janko Kulmesch, ki sta jih sprejela predsednik SKS Bernard Sadovnik in podpredsednica Zalka Kuchling.

Bernard Sadovnik je dejal, da je zanj razveseljivo in spodbudno že samo dejstvo, da je do pogovora prišlo. Glavna tema je bila razširitev Koordinacijskega odbora, kjer pa še ni soglasja, ker NSKS ni za razširitev.

Obe strani pa sta si edina, da mora biti skupno zastopstvo neke vrste slovenski parlament, edina pot do cilja pa da so neposredne volitve.

Narodni svet je Skupnosti predlagal skupne neposredne volitve z NSKS. Za predlog pa se pri Skupnosti ne morejo ogreti, ker želijo javnopravno zastopstvo.

Soglasje pa so našli glede konference o konsenzu (29. aprila na Dunaju). Pred konferenco se bodo ponovno srečali in se usklajeno podali na Dunaj. Na ta pogovor pa bo vabil Narodni svet. sk

Dodatno o Slovenski izseljenski matici in o slovenski manjšini na Koroškem

Franc Pukšič je SIM-u zmanjšal predvideni proračun

O tej zadevi je bilo objavljeno poročilo iz Delo faxa, sedaj je pa na razpolago celoten tekst, ki vsebuje veliko več podrobnosti in je zato posredovan v celoti. Ur. ◇

Ljubljana – Parlamentarna komisija za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu je zaskrbljena nad stanjem na avstrijskem Koroškem, kjer upada število pripadnikov slovenske manjšine. Slovenska vlada naj zato avstrijsko ob 50. obletnici podpisa avstrijske državne pogodbe opozori na niz obveznosti, od postavitve dvojezičnih topografskih napisov, uveljavitev slovenske kot uradnega jezika do poslanskoga sedeža v koroškem deželnem zboru in financiranja slovenskega radia in časopisov. Povod za razpravo v tej komisiji so spori med organizacijami Slovencev na Koroškem, ki bi utegnili biti še posebno usodni pred sklicem konference konsenza konec tega meseca (30. aprila, op. ur. AD) na Dunaju o izvajanju odločbe avstrijskega ustavnega sodišča o dvojezičnih napisih.

Predsedniki vseh treh organizacij (tj. SKS, ZSO in NSKS) so 7. aprila sicer izražali pripravnost za dogovore, a niso bili najbolj prepričljivi. Drugače jim državni sekretar za Slovence po svetu Franc Pukšič ne bi zabičal, da se je treba, če se hoče nekaj doseči, pogovarjati tudi s samim hudičem, vendar morajo Slovenci nastopati enotno.

V drugem delu sestanka je komisija nadaljevala razpravo o finančnem stamu v Slovenski izseljenski matici in o občutno zmanjšani dotaciji od predvidene v državnem proračunu. Poslanci so sicer dobili zahtevano finančno poročilo Matice za lansko leto, tudi njen predsednik Sergij Peljhan se je posul s pepelom, da so se v Matici pred leti res obnašali, kot da so državna ustanova in ne društvo, in da so izgubo iz prejšnjih let vendarle znižali na devet milijonov tolarjev (ok. 49 tisoč U$S, ur. AD), toda državni sekretar Franc Pukšič je vztrajal po svojem, da bo letos še naprej Matici nakazoval samo po sedem milijonov (ok. 38 tisoč U$S, ur.) na mesec, prihodnja leta pa financiral le posamezne odobrene programe.

Še več, Pukšič je ljudi v Matici poleg negospodarnega ravnanja z državnim denarjem – previsoki telefonski stroški in podobno – obtožil tudi goljufije pri financiranju kulturne delavnice za mlade v BiH. Govoril je o dvojnih računih v višini 320 bosanskih mark oziroma 260 evrov za udeležence te delavnice, ki so bili menda v povprečju starejši od 65 let.

Pukšič je napovedal policijsko preiskavo, druge nepravilnosti, denimo dvojno prikazovanje stro-škov za pisarniški material bo bosta raziskala vladna notranja finančna kontrola in računsko sodišče.

Peljhan se je s tem strinjal in dodal, naj se, če se izkaže, da očitki držijo. Matici nakaže manj denarja, kot je predvideno v državnem proračunu.

Razočarano je dodal, naj državni sekretar Franc Pukšič naravnost pove, kako se je odločil, da Matici zadostuje sedem milijonov na mesec. Ne pa, da najprej govori o preveč zaposlenih. Ko se je ugotovilo, da so trije tudi na Svetovnem slovenskem kongresu in da so plače na Matici previ-soke, je bil razlog za manj nakazanega denarja, ker da ni bilo finančnih poročil. Zdaj, ko poročila so, pa trdi, je bil denar porabljen negospodarno.

Komisija se je razšla s sklepom Branka Grimsa iz SDS, ki sta ga podprla še dva člana, drugi pa niso nasprotovali, da bodo o denarju za izseljenske in zdomske organizacije v komisiji govorili, ko bo vlada poslala parlamentu rebalans proračuna za letošnje leto.

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1566. Slovanski papež Janez Pavel II, dobri in zvesti služabnik Kristusove Cerkve, je odšel "v veselje svojega Gospoda".

Na predvečer nedelje božjega usmiljenja (bele nedelje) je Gospodar življenja odpoklical svojega zvestega služabnika. Čeprav je izguba velika, verujemo Jezusu, da nas sirot ne bo zapustil. Za četrto stoletja je dal Cerkvi in svetu Karola: neizmerno smo mu hvaležni. A zahvala se že prepleta s prošnjo, naj nam spet pošlje papeža, apostola in misijonarja za naše čase, za vse ljudi.

Na pogrebni maši za papeža so na Trgu sv. Petra prebrali misel prvaka apostolov: "Slavljen Bog in Oče našega Gospoda Jezusa Kristusa! V svojem velikem usmiljenju nas je po vstajenju Jezusa Kristusa od mrtvih prerobil za živo upanje... Jezusa Kristusa ljubite, čeprav ga niste videli. Verujte vanj, čeprav ga zdaj ne vidite, veselite se v neizrekljivem in poveličanem veselju, ko dosegate namen svoje vere, namreč odrešitev duš." S to Pavlovo spodbudo vas iskreno pozdravljam." D. K. Ocvirk, narodni ravnatelj za misijone. (Misijonska obzorja)

"Gorje meni, če evangelija ne bo oznanjal!" Janez Pavel II. si je neutrudno prizadeval, da bi vse seznačil z Jezusom in v njihovih srca prižgal ljubezen do njega. Zato je hodil iz kraja v kraj, oznanjal z besedo in dejanji, se poglabljal v molitev in vanjo vse do zadnje ure vključeval svoje trpljenje... Zato je spisal misijonsko okrožnico o Odrešenikovem poslanstvu, iz katere navajam prvi odstavek:

"Odrešenikovo poslanstvo, ki je zaupano Cerkvi, je še zelo daleč od svoje uresničitve. Ob koncu drugega tisočletja po Odrešenikovem prihodu nam celovit pogled na človeštvo razodeva, da je to poslanstvo šele na začetku in da moramo z vsemi svojimi močmi delati za njegovo uresničevanje. Duh priganja k oznanjevanju velikih božjih del: 'Če namreč oznanjam evangelij, nimam pravice, da bi se ponašal, kar mi je naložena dolžnost. Zakaj gorje meni, če evangelija ne bi oznanjal' (1 Kor 9,16).

Neodložljivo dolžnost čutim, da v imenu vse Cerkve ponavljam ta krik sv. Pavla. Že na začetku svojega papeževanja sem se odločil za potovanja do skrajnih meja Zemlje, da bi pokazal misijonsko vnemo. In prav neposredni stik z ljudstvi, ki ne vedo za Kristusa, me je še bolj prepričal o nujnosti misijonarske dejavnosti, ki je posvečam to okrožnico.

Drugi vatikanski koncil je želel obnoviti življenje in dejavnost Cerkve skladno s potrebami sodobnega sveta. Poudaril je njeno misijonskost in jo dinamično utemeljil v poslanstvu Svetе Trojice same. Misijonski polet sodi torej k notranji naravi krščanskega življenja in navduhuje tudi ekumenizem: 'Da bodo vsi eno... Da bo svet veroval, da ni me Ti poslal' (Jn 17, 21).

Janez Pavel II"

jami in likvidacijami. Aretilari so predvsem veliko duhovnikov. Na goriškem gradu so jih zasliševali. Nekatere so odvažali v goriške zapore, druge pa neznano kam.

V Trstu je bilo podobno. Tam so bili Maček, Ribičič, Šilih, More in drugi. V Trst so prišli iz Bele krajine čez Gorski kotar. V Trst je prišel tudi Edvard Kardelj, prav tako Pepca Kardelj, ki je bila pred tem v Trstu že več mesecev.

V Trstu sem najprej poiskal Mačka in ta me je takoj vprašal, kako si upam po mestu v oznov-ski uniformi. Odgovoril sem mu: "Če me do sedaj niso ubili, me tudi zdaj ne bodo." In je rekel: "Boš videl, ti norec!"

Nato me je iz Trsta kmalu poslal v Postojno, kamor se je preselila oznovska komora s Stražnjega vrha. Naselila se je v Windischgraetzovo graščino. Maček mi je naročil, naj grem tja in organiziram vse za njeno preskrbo.

Za meno sta pozneje prišla tudi Ivan Maček in komandant Knoja Bojan Polak-Stjenka. Skupaj sta se napila skoraj do nezavesti. Medtem ko sem spal v drugi sobi, je domene prišla Mačkova tajnica Vida in me prosila, naj ji grem pomagat, ker Maček leži v banji in se bo utopil. Mačka sem nato zares potegnil iz banje. Maček drugače ni pil, ker naj bi imel čir na želodcu, ampak takrat si ga je pa privoščil.

Po tistem se je Maček s spremstvom in oznovskim arhivom ter kartoteko odpravil v Ljubljano, ki so jo Nemci in domobranci zapečali. Pri Vrhniku so Mačkovo spremstvo napadli domobranci. Maček in njegovi sodelavci so zbežali, pri tem pa pustili avto, v katerem je bil oznovski arhiv. Po vojaških akcijah na Gorjanskem se je isti avto skupaj z arhivom po nekaj dneh presenetljivo pojabil pred Slavijo nedotaknjen. Ozadje tega dogajanja mi je nejasno.

V knjigi ste precej pozornosti namenili tudi zaporom v Slaviji in na Poljanskem nasipu?

V Slaviji je imela Ozna tudi zapore. Ko je prišlo do velike eksplozije na ljubljanski železniški pos-taji, sem hitel iz Slavije gledat, kaj se dogaja. Misil sem, da bombardira. Pri vhodu v stavbo sem skozi zračne rešetke iz kletnih prostorov slišal vpitje ljudi.

Spoznal sem glas Jožeta Sluge-Lenarta, ki je bil prej namestnik Mira Perca-Maksa v Trebuši in nato načelnik Ozne za Primorsko v Ajdovščini, kjer je delal nemoralne stvari. Aretirali so ga in je izginil.

Na t. i. Pučnikovi komisiji za raziskave povojskih množičnih pobojev in drugih nepravilnosti so me vprašali, ali sem kaj slišal o tem. Kolikor vem, so večino tistih, ki so bili zaprti v kleti Slavije, likvidirali.

Te stvari je imel pod nadzorom Ribičič, ki je bil Mačkov zastopnik. Ribičič je dajal tudi predloge za obravnavo na sodiščih. Navzoč je bil tudi pri likvidacijah, na primer pri usmrtnosti Leona Rupnika, ko je tudi napisal, kaj je Rupnik izjavil pred ustrelitvijo.

Kaj pa je Rupnik takrat izjavil?

Da obžaluje, da je bil proti slovenskemu narodu in podobno.

ob 31. obletnici smrti našega ljubljenega očeta, starega ata in tasta

ki je dovršil svoje zemsko potovanje in se preselil v večno bivališče dne 25. aprila 1974

Kako smo srčno Te ljubili, prezgodaj smo Te izgubili; preljubi oče Ti, naj Ti večna luč gori.

Lepa nam je misel na Te, na prijazni Tvoj nasmeh, na besede ljubenive, ki imel si jih do vseh.

Sprejmi od nas, Gospod, molitve in darila, pokazi mil obraz, pokojni daj hladila.

Gospod, daruj ji mir, naj večna luč ji sveti; ker si dobrote vir, uživa raj naj sveti.
