STEV. LXIII — VOL. LXIII

Sukarno je omahoval

V boju za oblast v Indoneziji, ki so ga sprožili pretekli četrti levičarji, se predsednik Sukarno v prvem trenutku ni odločil na nobeno stran.

KUALA LUMPUR, Malez. — Ko je pretekli četrti, "30. septembra", začel polkovnik Untung predsednikove osebne straže s treni bataljoni te straže poskus prevzeti oblast v deželi in pomesti s protikomunističnimi generali, predsednik Sukarno ni nastopil proti temu. Tudi se menda ni uprl, ko so Untungovi ljudje na letalskem oporišču nedaleč od glavnega mesta prijetih protikomunističnih generalov neusmiljeno pomorili in zakopalili.

Obrambnemu ministru gen. Nasutionu in večini njegovih sodelavcev se je posrečilo rešiti pred Untungovimi ljudmi in pri ti do vojaških enot, ki so jim ostale zveste. Postavili so se na čelo teh enot in nastopili proti Untungu in njega podpirajočim oddelkom. Dva bataljona predsednikove straže sta se predala brez ostrejšega boja, tretji, ki je bil pod osebnim poveljstvom polk. Untunga, pa se je boril oddelčno. Vlade čete pod poveljstvom gen. Suharta so kmalu v petek bile že gospodar glavnega mesta Džakarte. Polk. Untung je z mestnega letališča pobegnil v notranost otoka Jave, kjer je polk Suharman še vedno držal položaj trdno v rokah, da bi od tam začel nov pohod na glavno mesto.

Generali so "rešili" Sukarna iz rok polkovnika Untunga, na kar se je ta umaknil v svoje letno bivališče v Bagor, kakih 40 milj od Džakarte. Tam je v turek sklical vladno sejo, katere so se udeležili tudi vodniki obojenih sil in poveljnik državne policije. Kaj je bilo na seji sklenjeno, ni bilo objavljeno, je pa očitno, da je hotel Sukarno doseči pomiritev med obema sovrainima taboroma, med komunisti in njihovimi levičarskimi podporniki ter med protikomunističnimi generali, nacionalističnimi in verskimi skupinami, ki zavračajo komunizem.

Vladne čete pod poveljstvom generalov so strle odpor v glavnem mestu, trdijo pa, da se jim še vedno uspešno upira del levičarskega vojaštva s podporo oboroženih mladih komunistov sredi otoka Jave. Tam naj bi bil del divizije Diponegoro pod poveljstvom polk. Suhermana, ki se je od začetka izjavil za polk. Untunga. Mesto Jogjakarta, kjer je bil glavni stan polk. Suhermana, naj bi bilo trikrat menjalo svojega gospodarja. Poveljnik te divizije gen. Surjo se je izjavil za armadno vodstvo in obsodil polk. Untunga.

Polk Untung in njegovi so poleg prijetih protikomunističnih generalov pomorili še veliko število drugih protikomunistov in članov njihovih družin. Dosele naj bi bilo odkritih vsaj 72 razsekanih trupel teh žrtev.

Na domu svoje hčerke Mary Koncar na 608 E. 200 St. je umrla po dolgi bolezni 74 let stara Angela Kosir, roj. Perusek v Sodražici na Dolenjskem, od kod je prišla v ZDA pred 17 leti. Mož Charles ji je umrl pred 9 leti. Bila je mati Mary Koncar (z možem lastnica Model Meat Market na E. 200 St.) in Sophie Falcone, 8-krat stara mati, sestra pok. H. Gregoryja Perusek, znanega slovenskega slikarja, pok. Mary Perusek, pok. Katherine Mlakar Conti in pok. Helene Petac. Bila je članica Oltarnega društva pri Sv. Vidu. Po-

Francozi naklonjenejši Zdrženim narodom

Zunanji minister je po povratku z zasedanja v New Yorku poročal vladi, da se ZN resno trudi, da bi spravili v red svoje finance.

PARIZ, Fr. — Francija v zadnjih letih ni kazala nobenega spoštovanja do Združenih narodov, ponovno se je ob nje hudo obregnila in zavračala odločno plačilo prispevka, ki ga je glavna skupščina odredila za njo kot njen delež stroškov za poseg ZN na Srednji vzhod in v Kongu. Francozi so bili nejevoljni na Združene narode še iz časa alžirskih vojn, ko so se ti ponovno obregnili ob Francijo, ki ni marala dati Alžiriji neodvisnosti.

Letos je že od začetka zasedanja izgledalo, da je francoska vlada svoj odnos do Združenih narodov spremenila. Na odprtje zasedanja glavne skupščine je prišel sam zunanji minister Maurice Couve de Murville, kar se že nekaj let ni zgodilo. Njegov govor je bil dosti umirjen in na splošno ugodno sprejet, čeprav Francoz ni nič omenil o kakem francoskem prispevku v blagajno ZN in je zavrnil vsako vojaško akcijo ZN, pa tudi vsake sankcije.

Pretekli torek se je Murville vrnil domov in je naslednji dan seji vlade pohvalil Združene narode, ki da so se odločili spraviti v red svoje finance in izdelati proračun s kritjem rednih izdatkov z rednimi prispevki držav članic.

Vsi v šole za gverilo

NEW DELHI, Ind. — V okoliščini Dalaj Lame, duhovnega in nekdanjega svetnega poglavarja Tibeta, imajo vesti, po katerih so rdeči Kitajci ukazali vsem telesno sposobnim Tibetancem od 18. do 45. leta obisk posebnih šol za gverilce.

Tam jih skušajo najprej pripraviti v komuniste, nato jih šele vežbati v uspešne gverilce.

greb bo v ponedeljek ob 8.15 iz Želetovega pogrebnega zavoda na St. Clair Avenue v cerkev sv. Vida ob devetih, nato na Kalvarijo. Na mrtvaški oder bo položena jutri zvečer ob sedmih.

PREDSEDNIK V BOLNICI, ZDRAVNIKI V OPERACIJI NE PRIČAKUJEJO TEŽAV

Predsednik Johnson je stopil sinoči ob 11.40 v mornariško bolnišnico v Bethesda, kjer ga danes zjutraj operirajo na žolčnem mehurju. Z njim sta žena in hčerka Lucy, pričakujejo pa skoro tudi drugo hčerko Lindo.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Sinoči komaj 20 minut pred polnočjo je predsednik L. B. Johnson v spremstvu svoje žene vstopil v mornariško bolnišnico v Bethesda, da mu izrežejo žolčni mehur, v katerem so se napravili kamni. Ti mu od preteklega meseca delajo težave in zdravniki so se odločili, da mu iz previdnosti, da mu ne bi ti kamni povzročali kasnejše hujših težav, žolčni mehur izrežejo. Operacija je bila določena na danes zjutraj ob nekako 7.30 in bo predvidoma trajala eno do dve uri. Zdravnik, ki ga bo operiral, je dejal, da bo danes popoldne predsednik že lahko za krajši čas vstal iz postelje, vsekakor pa jutri.

Predsednik bo ležal v tretjem nadstropju 18 nadstropij visokega bolnišničnega poslopja. Ob njegovi strani sta njegova žena in hčerka Lucy, prišla pa bo tudi starejša hčerka Linda. Prostor za nje so bili urejeni neposredno poleg predsednikovih prostorov. Zdravnik dr. G. A. Hallenbeck je dejal, da je predsednik na splošno pri odličnem zdravju in da zato ne pričakuje nobenih posebnih težav pri operaciji. Ta bo predvidoma trajala od ene do dveh ur. Predsednik se bo že danes popoldne lahko za kratek čas dvignil iz bolniške postelje, jutri pa še za dalj. V bolnišnici bo predvidoma ostal od 10 do 14 dni, posledice operacije pa bo čutil do šest tednov.

Pred svojim odhodom v bolnico je predsednik obiskal za člane Kongresa pripravljen večer v velikem avditoriju državnega tajništva. Večji del kongresnikov ni bil na večerji in zabavi, ker je Predstavniški dom pozno v noč razpravljal o zakonskem predlogu za lepoto pokrajine ob meddržavnih vecelestah. Predlog je bil srečno izglasovan, čeprav so nekateri napovedovali, da ne bo dobil večine in bo običal v Predstavnišem domu. Senat je podoben zakonski predlog odobril že prej.

VSAK PO SVOJE

Natakarica: Le zakaj dajejo revni ljudje vedno več napitnine kot bogati?

Natakar: Revni nočejo, da bi kdo vedel, da so revni, bogati pa ne marajo, da bi kdo vedel, da so bogati!

gajo med seboj in tako torpedirajo vsak poskus o mednarodnem sporazumevanju o trgovanju z orožjem. Pri tem jim pa nehoti delajo veliko uslugo ravno komunistične države, ki iz gole zavisti nočejo nobenega sporazuma z Ameriko, ker bi tak sporazum oviral njihovo politiko in odnosih do zaostalih držav v Aziji, Afriki in Latinski Ameriki.

Da bi narodna obramba posameznih malih, revnih in zaostalih držav kaj pridobila s takimi nakupi, v to ne veruje noben strokovnjak. To potrjuje tudi zgodba o vojskovanju med Indijo in Pakistanom. Zato tiči resnična škoda, ki jo delajo taki nakupi, ne na vojaškem, ampak na gospodarskem polju. To čuti posebno naša dežela. Ako bi bilo manj prometa z orožjem, bi bilo tudi manj prošelj za ameriške podpore in ravno tako manj zadrege med našimi diplomati.

To so glavni razlogi, zakaj naše federalno tajništvo za narodno obrambo tako nasprotuje kupčijam z orožjem, našim in tujim.

Zadušnica—

V nedeljo ob 11.30 bo v cerkvi sv. Lovrenca sv. maša za pok. Johna Kresevice ob 8. obletnici smrti.

Kdo bo vzdrževal veceste

Po zakonu, ki ga je sprejela letos generalna skupščina države Ohio, je država odgovorna za čiščenje in vzdrževanje meddržavnih cest. Tako bi bila država odgovorna za čiščenje snega na Lakeland in Inner Belt avtocesti. Glavni državni pravdnik Saxbe je izjavil, da zadevni zakon ne velja za že zgrajene ceste, tako naj bi odgovornost za vzdrževanje omenjenih cest na področju Clevelanda padla zopet na breme mesta. Inž. L. Drasler, načelnik mestnih servisov, je izjavil, da stane vzdrževanje omenjenih cest nekako $250,000 in napovedal, da bo celotno vprašanje proučil, da dožene, če je mogoče priziv proti odločitvi Saxbeja.

Sodišče potrdilo obsodbo—

Prizivno sodišče je potrdilo obsodbo treh črnih fantinov, ki

so poleti 1963 napadli v Sowinski parku 18 let starega belega fanta. T. Griffina ter pretepli in posilili njegovo spremljevalko, neko 15 let staro belo dekle. Odvetniki omenjenih so vložili priziv proti obsodbi teh na od 4 na 40 let poboljševalnice, češ da je policija kršila njihove ustavne pravice, ko jih je zasliševala.

Boljša razsvetljava mesta—

Župan R. S. Locher je objavil, da bodo namestili po cestah stanovanjskih predelov mesta močnejše "mercury" cestne "luči", da bo mesto "boljše razsvetljeno in varnejše". Prehod na nove, močnejše in modernejšje luči bo stal blizu 2 milijona dolarjev.

K molitvi—

Članice Oltarnega društva fare sv. Vida so vabljene v nedeljo ob treh popoldne v Želetovo pogrebni zavod na St. Clair Avenue k molitvi za pok. Angele Kosir, v ponedeljek pa k pogrebni maši.

Kdo je našel—

Včeraj zjutraj je bila izgubljena na St. Clair Avenue okoli E. 72 St. ženska zapetna zlata ura, drag spomin. Kdor jo je našel, je prošel, da jo proti nagradi vrne. Kliče naj HE 2-2041.

Popravek—

V "Spominu" za pok. Antonia Gradisar je bila včeraj navedena zgoraj pomotoma napačna letnica njene smrti. Biti bi morala 1953 in ne 1963. Naj prizadeti oprostite!

V državi Georgia še boj okoli šolske integracije

CRAWFORDVILLE, Ga. — Ko se je okoli 70 črncev vpisalo v doslej belo Taliaferro šolo, so se vsi beli učenci vpisali v bele šole izven tega šolskega okraja. Črnci so ostali sami in šola v Taliaferro je ostala zaprta. Beli šolarji se v šolskih avtobusih vozijo drugam v šole.

Črnci so skušali spraviti svoje otroke v te avtobuse in integrirati šole, v katere vozijo ti bele šolarje. Oblasti so ta način nasilne integracije preprečile kljub ponovnim demonstracijam črncev. V sredo je guverner C. Sanders govoril z vodniki črnskega gibanja za šolsko integracijo in z okrajnimi ter državnimi uradniki. Kot je izjavil po sestanku, se mu je posrečilo vse prizadete pridobiti za to, da bodo počakali na odločitev zveznega sodišča v Augusti prihodnjega torka. Pri tem sodišču so črnci vložili tožbo proti okrajnim uradnikom ki da skušajo ohraniti šolsko segregacijo.

Neutemeljene trditve Geritola prepovedane

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Zvezna komisija za trgovino (FTC) je ukazala izdelovalcem Geritola in njegovim oglaševalcem, da prenehajo javnosti napačno predstavljati učinkovitost Geritola "proti utrujenosti". Propagatorji Geritola trdijo, da je vzrok utrujenosti pomanjkanje železa v krvi. Tega je mogoče pomnožiti z uživanjem Geritola. Zvezna trgovinska komisija izjavlja, da je treba iskati vzrok utrujenosti redno kje drugje in ne v pomanjkanju železa v krvi. Geritolovo oglaševanje utegne ljudi zavesti k zanemarjanju resnih bolezni, zato ga je komisija prepovedala. Izdelovalci Geritola imajo možnost priziva na zvezno okrožno prizivno sodišče.

Papež Pavel VI. Združenim narodom

Govor sv. očeta Pavla VI. pred glavno skupščino ZN v ponedeljek, 4. oktobra 1965.

II.

Potem ko je omenil papež besede pokojnega Kennedyja "Človeštvo mora napraviti konec vojni ali pa bo vojna končala človeštvo", je dejal, da ni potreba veliko besedi v podporo temu pozivu, cilj Združenih narodov naj bi bila združitev v cilju in s prisrčno "Ne več vojne, nikdar več vojne! Mir, mir mora voditi usodo ljudstev in vsega človeštva." Zahvalil se je ZN za vse, kar so skozi 20 let storili za mir, dal jim priznanje za preprečevanje sporov ali njih končanje, posebno za zadevne napore v zadnjem času, čeprav se ti še niso izkazali za odločilne.

Sv. oče je dejal, da so Združeni narodi šola človeštva k miru. Vsakdo v njih je istočasno učenec in učitelj v umetnosti graditve miru. Mir po besedah papeža ne sloni samo na političnih sredstvih, na ravnotežju sil in koristi, zgrajen je v mišljenju, z idejami, ki delajo za mir. Združeni narodi so v svojih naporih za mir šele na začetku in vprašanje je, če bo človeštvo kdaj uspelo spremeniti svoje sebično in bojevito mišljenje, s katerim je prepletena človeška zgodovina, in našlo pot v mirno, res človečansko bodočnost, ki jo je Bog obljubil ljudem dobre volje. Mi moramo na to pot, je dejal papež, ta je dobro zaznamovana in prvo znamenje na njej je razorožitev.

"Če želite biti bratje, izpustite orožje iz svojih rok. Nihče ne more ljubiti z napadalnim orožjem v rokah," je dejal sv. oče in nato opozoril na strah pred strašnim orožjem, ki ga je ustvarila moderna znanost. Obrambno orožje je po njegovem potrebno, dokler je človek tako slab, spremenljiv in celo hudoben, toda ZN proučujejo pota za jamstvo v mednarodnem življenju brez uporabe orožja. To je najplemenitejši cilj, to ljudstva od njih pričakujejo, to mora biti doseženo!

"Naj soglasno zaupanje v to ustanovo raste, naj se njegova oblast poveča in ta cilj, mi verjamemo, bo zagotovljen," je dejal sv. oče.

Vsa ljudstva bodo hvaležna, kadar bo to doseženo, rešena bodo velikanskih stroškov, pa tudi strahu pred vojno. Papež je izrazil upanje, da bo del denarja, ki bi bil na ta način prihranjen, dan v pomoč razvoju in napredku ostalih držav.

Združeni narodi ne delajo samo za preprečevanje spopadov med državami, ampak jih tudi navajajo k sodelovanju, delajo za bratstvo med narodi. Sv. oče je ZN pohvalil za proglasitev osnovnih človečanskih pravic, dolžnosti človeka, časti in svobode človeške osebnosti, predvsem pa verske svobode.

"Združeni narodi imajo opravka predvsem s človeškim življenjem, življenje je sveto in nihče se mu ne sme drzniti škodovati. Spoštovanje življenja, tudi z ozirom na velik problem rojstev, mora najti tu, v vaši zbornici, svojo najvišjo potrditev in najmočnejšo obrambo," je izjavil papež Pavel VI. in nato poudaril, da morajo ZN stremeti k pomnožitvi kruha in ne gledati, da bodo z umetnim nadzorom nad rojstvi zmanjšali število gostov "na banketu življenja".

Dodal je, da ni dovolj nasititi lačne, treba je tudi vsakemu človeku zagotoviti njegovi časti primerno življenje. Priznal je, da Združeni narodi in njihove ustanove v tem pogledu že nekaj delajo, omenil je njihov boj proti nepismenosti, proti boleznim, za razširitev znanosti in tehničnega napredka, povedal, da namerava tudi sam razširiti delo katoliških dobroteljskih ustanov v boju proti lakoti in za zadovoljevanju svetovnih potreb. To je edini način graditve miru.

Sv. oče je nato prešel na duhovno stran češ, da stavba ZN ne stoji samo na materialnem, na zemeljskem temelju, ker v tem slučaju bi bila hiša zgrajena na pesku, — predvsem je zgrajena na naših lastnih vesteh. Prišla je ura našega "spreobrnjenja", našega prerojenja, naše notranje obnove. Naučiti se moramo misliti na nov način, gledati tudi na človekovo življenje na nov način, udarila je ura, ko moramo za trenutke obstati in premisliti znova o našem izvoru, o naši preteklosti, o naši skupni usodi.

Po teh besedah je papež poudaril, da je današnji čas, ki ga označuje izreden človeški napredek, prav posebno potreben poziva na človeško moralno zavest, kajti resnična nevarnost ne prihaja od napredka in znanosti, ta sta dejansko sposobna rešiti veliko težkih problemov, ki nadlegujejo človeštvo, če sta le prav uporabljena.

"Ne, stvarna nevarnost prihaja od človeka samega, ki razpolaga z vedno močnejšim orožjem. Tega lahko uporabi enako dobro za uničenje ali za vzvišena osvajanja. V eni besedi torej, zgradba moderne civilizacije mora biti postavljena na duhovna načela, ki jo ne bodo le vzdrževala, ampak jo tudi osvetljevala in ji dala dušo. Mi verujemo, kot veste, da morajo ta načela višje modrosti izhajati iz vere v Boga, onega neznanega Boga, o katerem je sv. Pavel govoril Atenčanom v Areopagu; neznanega njim, ki pa so ga iskali, ne da bi se zavedali, da ga iščejo, in on je bil blizu njih, kot se dogaja to tudi mnogim ljudem v naših časih. Nam v vsakem slučaju in vsem, ki so sprejeli neizrečeno razodetje, ki ga je Kristus dal nam o Njem, je On živi Bog, oče vseh ljudi.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

Prošnja za cerkev sv. Antona v Brezovici

CLEVELAND, O. — Iz mesta Ljubljane proti Notranjskem pelje še iz starih časov znamenita cesta, že tisti čas imenovana "rimska cesta". Ob tej cesti približno 9 km iz mesta je raztegnjena vas po imenu Brezovica. V tej vasi nekoliko vstran od ceste stoji velika cerkev, posvečena sv. Antonu. To cerkev obiskujejo še ljudje iz vasi: Vnanje Gorice, Log in Dragomer.

Pred nekaj dnevi je prispela prošnja župljanov z željo, če bi bivši župljani omogočili kupiti zvočne naprave za to cerkev. Prav posebno bi prišle v poštev te naprave sedaj, ko so vsi liturgični obredi v slovenskem jeziku. Mnogi v Združenih državah Amerike in Kanade se dobro spominjate, kako je velika ta cerkev in da brez takih zvočnih naprav ni možno slišati komentatorja in lektorja pri liturgičnem opravilu.

Župljani zelo dobro skrbijo za farno cerkev, toda v sedanjem času jim ni možno omisliti nakup teh naprav. Zato se obračajo na nas, ki smo bili krščeni pri tem krstnem kamnu, da bi nekaj prispevali. Vsak najmanjši dar bo s hvaležnostjo sprejet. Ko bo dovolj nabranega, bo poslano župniku č. g. Klunu Janezu, ki upravlja brezoviško župnijo. Pomagajmo in darujmo za to cerkev, ki nujno potrebuje te naprave, da bo slovenska liturgična beseda napolnila vernike z ljubeznijo!

Romanje

Cleveland, O. — Slovenski človek je vedno rad romal. V njem je bilo vedno iskreno hojenje iztresti in razložiti pred Bogom svoje križe in težave, pa tudi prošnje. To je zlasti rad delal na Marijinih božjih potih.

Ta želja po romanju je slovenskemu človeku ostala lastna tudi na tujem in kar je velikega pomena: romanje ostaja zunanje znamenje duhovne edinosti, kar je vedno tudi bilo.

Preteklo nedeljo je kot za ključek bridkih spominov pred dvajsetimi leti Društvo slovenskih protikomunističnih borcev v Clevelandu priredilo romanje k Žalostni Materi božji v Frank. Bilo je lepo romanje. Osnovna misel, ki jo je v pridigi med maso poudaril duhovnik dr. Franc Blatnik, je bila: Na žrtve komunističnega divjanja glejmo predvsem z duhovnimi očmi, s tistim pogledom na brezbrežno večnost, ki hrani v sebi vse odgovore in ne pušča nič nerešenega. Glejmo na mrtve kot na mučenice, ki so se v zadnji uri otresli vseh zemskih napak in odšli pred Boga s prošnjami za živje.

Cerkev je bila nedelja mrzla, je bilo na romanju preko dvesto ljudi, tudi mnogo mladine, ki je zlasti pri ljudskem petju, ki ga je vodil gospod Rigler, čudovito sodelovala. Orgla je gospod Knez. Procesija okrog postaj križevega pota v gozdiču je privabila celo tujce, prav tako pete litanije, ki so duhovnika pri božjepotni cerkvi naravnost očarale. Ko smo se mu zahvalili za prijaznost, je dejal: Dali ste nam čudovito lep zgled, pridite še.

Največje bridkosti, če jih potopimo v zlato zarjo večnosti, pozlate. Dokler ostanejo samo v naših rokah, so samo bridkosti, brez smisla, strašna zguba, ki je ni moč prenesti. Morda je krivda nas vseh, da smo večnost vedno gledali le izven našega življenja, ki ima za nas svojo ceno šele takrat, ko vanjo stopimo. Mislim, da so božje poti tisti kraji, kjer je večnost tako blizu, da moremo tudi časovne dogodke in križe, ki jih nosijo s seboj, gledati v pravi luči. Prav ta je najlepši most med dvomi in ubiganji.

Bilo je lepo romanje. Morda bi bilo prav, ko bi drugo leto spet šli.

CLEVELAND, O. — Pod tem naslovom je Amerikanski Slovenec 1. 1962 priobčeval izvirno povest o petju, katero je napisal Zdravko Novak. V boljše razumevanje naj omenim sledeče:

V neki podeželski fari je Bog poklical organista v večnost. Stari župnik fare je bil ves vnet za lepoto cerkvenega petja — pravi tip Rev. Jagra — skrbelo ga je, kdo bo vodil po smrti organista cerkveni pevski zbor. Odločil se je, da bo to nalogo prevzela hči pokojnega organista. Takoj naslednjo nedeljo je s prižnice ljudem tudi oznanil, obenem povabil vse, ki so pri volji pri petju sodelovati.

Pozivu se je poleg aktivnih članov pevskega zbora odzvalo veliko drugih fantov in deklet; tudi župnik se je prve pevske vaje udeležil ter predstavljal pevovodkinjo pod imenom Cilka.

Prišel se je prvi pouk v petju. Cilka je stopila k tabli, ki je bila vsa načrtana s črkami za note. S palico je pokazala na črte in vprašala navzgor, če kdo ve, kako se teh pet črt, na katere in med katere pišemo note, imenuje. Vse je bilo tiho. Cilka je opazila njih zadrego in je dejala: "No, nič zato, če ne veste, bom vam jaz pojasnila." Cilka je nadaljevala:

"Prvi črta je ime — ponižnost. Brez te, dragi moji pevci, si ne morem predstavljati dobre gaj pevca. Pevec je ponižen, kadar ga polomi, še bolj ponižen pa je, kadar lepo poje.

Druga se imenuje — ljubezen. Iz ljubezni do Boga se tudi mi kot bratje in sestre ljubimo med seboj, brez zavisti, kot pravi sv. Pavel o ljubezni — je ponižnost, se ne napihuje, ne išče sebe. Vse nas, dragi pevci, naj družijo ljubezen do petja.

Tretja črta se imenuje — vdanost. Bodimo vdani petju in zaradi boljšega uspeha, se prostovoljno podredimo temu cilju. Ni mogoče, da bi vsakdo uveljavljal svojo voljo, če hočemo, da bomo dosegli kaj uspeha.

Četrta črta se imenuje — dober namen. Z vsakim delom človek lahko služi Bogu, lepše mu pa ne more služiti, kot mu služi pevec, ki poje z namenom, da bi s svojim petjem Boga častil. Ne pojmujemo zato, da bi nas ljudje hvalili, ne zato, da bi v petju sami uživali, ampak zato, da damo Bogu čast.

Peta črta se imenuje — vztrajnost. Tudi brez te kreposti ni dobrega pevca. Vaja naredi mojstra, če to kje velja, velja to pri petju. Ni vedno tako prijetno peti, kot je lepo poslušati. Treba se je mnogo truditi. Če hočemo postati res dobri pevci, moramo vztrajati.

S tem je bila prva pevska vaja končana. Veseli in dobro raz-položeni so pevci in pevke odšli. "Veš, Cilka," je začel gospod župnik, ko sta ostala sama, "če prav razumem, potem bo šla vzgoja naših novih pevcev v treh smereh: Srčna izobrazba, teorija in petje." "Da, to je moj namen, gospod župnik," je dejala Cilka.

Zelo lahko delo bi imel in srečen bi bil organist, ki bi imel pri pevskem zboru vse take pevce, kot si jih je Cilka namenila vzgojiti. Saj lepo se čuje lepa in dobro naštudirana pesem, da se za vsakim lepim pevskim nastopom skriva bodoče trnje, to je pa občinstvu prikrito.

V čast mi je in neko posebno zadovoljstvo me navdaja, da ima naš zbor tudi eno tako pevko, ki jo dičijo vse pevske vrline — gđc. Mary Gornik.

Ob ustanovitvi našega pevskega zbora je med drugimi vnetimi pevkami krepko poprijela tudi naša Mary. Brhka in prikupna, kot prva pomladanska rožica, marljiva kot čebelica, sodeluje požrtovno že 40 let. Če je Mary Gornik odsotna pri pevski vaji, ali v nedeljo na koru, ve sleherni član našega zbora, da ima za to zelo tehten razlog. Naš zbor ima dragocen arhiv pesmi, pa niti ena teh pesmi ni Mary Gornik tuja. Taka pevska moč pri zboru nekaj šteje. V knjigi življenja so zaznamovane vse žrtve, ki si jih ti, Mary, doprinesla s petjem v božjo čast. Znani slovenski rek trdi: "Petje je dvojna molitev". Ti, marljiva Mary, si s petjem več premolila kot katero koli drugo žensko bitje v župniji Marije Vnebovzete. Dasi bo župnija prihodnje leto praznovala 60-letnico obstoja, rekord je in ga boš obdržala v tem oziru le ti.

Bog te živi, Mary, gotovo ti bo tudi plačnik!

Klub Ljubljana je praznoval 35-letnico obstoja

Euclid, O. — V nedeljo, 26. septembra, smo praznovali 35-letnico obstoja našega kluba. V ta namen smo priredili velik banket. Dvorana je bila polna, vendar smo pogrešali mnogo takih, ki so nas zapustili za vedno. Je pač naša usoda, da gremo drug za drugim.

Da pa je prireditev tako lepo uspela, se moramo v prvi vrsti zahvaliti odboru za tako lepo okrasitev dvorane in miz. Veliko je pripomogel k veselemu razpoloženju orkester Dobida, da smo se lahko zavrteli tudi mi 80-letniki. G. Jelačič nam je poslal brezplačno krasne nageljne za dekoracijo. In ker se je g. Drenik ravno nahajal tukaj, nam je za to priložnost tudi poslal sodeček piva. Posebna zahvala naši glavni kuharici, gospej Albin Merznik, in njenim pomočnicam, kakor tudi vsem tistim, ki so pomagale streči pri mizi. Rad bi jih naštel, pa ne vem vseh imen. Tudi točaji so bili zelo zaposleni in smo jim hvaležni za požrtovno delo. V veliko zadoščenje nam je bilo, da se je vabilu na banket odzvalo tako veliko število, ki so vsi pripomogli k lepemu uspehu.

G. predsednik Frank Derdič je na kratko raztolmačil zgodovino Kluba in se mu iz srca zahvalimo. Med gosti smo opazili tudi našega dobrega prijatelja iz Floride g. Lojzeta Rebola in gospo. Hvaležni smo mu, da se je odzval našemu vabilu. Torej, kakor vidite, je naš klub družaben in vesel in priporočam, da bi vstopili vanj. Imamo seje vsak zadnji torek v mesecu, po seji pa veselo zabavo in ples pod vodstvom Grabnarjevega Janeza. S pozdravom Frank Rupert, ljubljanski stric.

Srebrna poroka v Denverju

DENVER, Colo. — Preteklo nedeljo smo obhajali v cerkvi sv. Rožnega venca srebrno poroko glavnega predsednika Zaprane Slovenske Zveze Mika Popoviča in njegove žene Marte. Sv. maše, katero je daroval župnik John Canjar za to priliko, se je udeležilo nekaj sto sorodnikov, prijateljev in znancev ter članov Zaprane Slovenske Zveze.

Po prisrčni in ganljivi slovesnosti v cerkvi so se sorodniki in bližnji prijatelji ter sodelavci zbrali k zakuski v restavraciji "Pri zlatem volu". Med gosti sta bila tudi g. župnik John Canjar in njegova mati g. Mary Canjar. Gostje so bili povabljeni za popoldne od treh do osmih večer v obsežno dvorano "Pri zlatem volu". Lou Novak jim je postregel za boljši tek s pijačo. Pri tem poslu sta mu pomagala Mike Popovič, Jr. ter Dan Popovič; Anna Ratkovič in Mary Jelcnikar pa sta pripravili jedila v stilu samopostrežbe. Vse sta uredili s čudovitim okusom lepote in prikupnosti.

Praznično in veselo razpoloženje je doseglo svoj višek v predstavi "Z a b a v n e poroke" pod spretnim vodstvom Molly Drobnick. Očarljivo nevesto za ta prizor je predstavljala Patsy Ziemek, obotavljajočega ženina pa Joe Drobnick. Zaskrbljeno mater je igrala Mary Ann Popovič in za previdnega očeta, ki skrbno gleda na to, da se bo vse dobro izteklo, je bil Chet Ziemek. Za nosilca ogromnega prstana je bil mali Andy Kutes, Mike Popovič Jr. naj bi bil mala dražestna družica. Zabavne poroke uradni predstavnik je bil advokat Edward A. Jersin. Vsi gostje so soglašali, da so vsi nastopajoči odlično odigrali svoje vloge; režiser bi po pravici moral dobiti "Oskarja".

Za zabavno godbo je skrbel veliki harmonikaš in vnuk slavljenca Mike Popovič III. Slovesnosti tako v cerkvi kakor tudi v dvorani se je udeležilo mnogo gostov od drugod. Med drugimi smo opazili družino Jurjovec iz Canon City, Colo., in go. Milič iz Pueblo; zdravnik dr. Jabczynski in njegova žena sta prišla iz Chicaga, Ill., vnuk slavljenca John Popovič Jr. je prišel iz Boulderja, Colo., kjer študira zadnje leto na univerzi. Dve sestri slavljenca Mika Popoviča sta prihiteli iz Kanade, ena iz Indiane in ena pa naravnost iz Slovenije. To je bil prvi skupni družinski sestanek po 45 letih. Ostali sorodniki so prišli iz vseh predelov Amerike.

Med odličnimi gosti so bili župan mesta Denver Thomas G. Currian s svojo ženo, sodnik Mitchel B. Johns in Rev. Leopold Mihelich. Slavljenca sta bila poročena v cerkvi sv. Štefana v Chicagu 28. sept. 1940. To je bila za oba druga poroka, bila sta vdovec in vdova. Kmalu po poroki sta se preselila v Denver, Colo., ter začela na novem mestu kmalu posegati v javno življenje in sta oba povsod zelo priljubljena in spoštovana. Radostni slavljenec je glavni predsednik Zaprane Slovenske Zveze; na to mesto je bil izvoljen dvakrat. Obenem je tudi član K.S. K.J.

Na konvenciji Zaprane Slovenske Zveze, katera se je vršila pred enim mesecem v Denverju, je odklonil ponovno izvolitev za glavnega predsednika in so ga nato delegati za aklamacijo izvolili za stalnega častnega predsednika. Ko bo njegov službeni rok glavnega predsednika potekel s 1. januarjem 1966, mu bo sledil Anton Jersin, novizvoljeni glavni predsednik ZSZ. Slavljenec Mike Popovič se je že v mladih letih v Chicagu zelo živahno uveljavljal v javnem življenju, tako na kulturnem in političnem polju; prav pridno je delal tudi v cerkvenih organizacijah ter v bratskih podpornih društvih. Ni se ustrašil opazk lastnih narodnjakov drugačnega svetovnega nazora, ako so mu poskušali metati polena pod noge; vedno je bil pripravljen storiti dobro ali pomagati. To je rad storil za svoje rojake, pa naj so bili Slovenci, Hrvati ali Srbi. Ob priliki otvoritve Jugoslovanskega kulturnega vrta v Clevelandu mu je naš veliki rojak, žepokojni Anton Grdina, poslal zahvalno pismo v Chicagu z značilnim vzklikom: Zakaj ni več tako zavednih in navdušenih Jugoslovanov v Ameriki! Zato ni čudno, da so se za njegovo odhodnico iz Chicaga v Denver zbrali skoraj vsi narodno zavedni rojaki, zahvaljujoč ga za njegovo široko razpredeno javno delovanje in želeč mu trajnih uspehov v Denverju. Celot jugoslovanski poslanik in univerzitetni profesor dr. Pitamic je za to priliko prišel iz Washingtona, D.C., v Chicagu.

Njegova dobra in skrbna žena Marta ne nosi zastoj tega imena. Z velikim razumevanjem, toplo ljubeznijo in s požrtvovalnim delom je vedno znala stati ob strani svojemu možu ob njegovem javnem udejstvovanju in mu nuditi vedno pravo domačnost in srečo v hiši in družini. Obema slavljenecema želimo: Še mnogo srečnih let!

Sodni psiholog, katerega naloga je reševati zakone, ki so zašli v težave, je nedavno rekel: Prevelik poudarek na spolni vzgoji in nezadostno šolanje na ostalih področjih življenja je vzrok, da dekleta v Združenih državah niso sposobna za zakon.

"Vzgojene so tako, da mislijo, da je vse, kar potrebujejo, njihova ženskost, ki se čisto izkaže kot neoblogljenost, omahovanje in neodločnost," je dejal dr. I.A. Burch, direktor službe za posredovanje pri ločitvah zakona za okrožno sodišče v Illinoisu. "Mnogo ločitvam so vzrok žene, ki so bile vzgojene v prepričanju, da imajo pravico pričakovati od moža jamstvo za lahko življenje enostavno zato, ker so ženske," je razlagal dr. Burch.

Na vprašanje od kod to, je odgovoril: Preveč poudarka na spolni vzgoji in premalo na vzgojni osebnosti... Vse je le na spolni strani zakona. Dekleta niso navajena k lastnemu razvoju v nobeni drugi smeri. Ne uče jih, da bi same poskrbele za sebe, da bi sprejele odgovornost, se lotile reševanja vprašanj, ki jih stavlja pred nje življenje, namesto da bi le prodajale svojo ženskost! One mislijo, da je spolnost ljubezen. To je nesmisel. Glavni pogoj ljubezni je, da jo je nekdo vreden. To je mogoče doseči le na drugih področjih človekovega udejstvovanja. Odločilno vprašanje za dekleta je: Ali sem sposobna skrbeti za sebe in še koga drugega?

Prenekatera dekleta na to vprašanje ne morejo odgovoriti pritrilno, trdi dr. Burch, ker "so bile pripravljene le na zameno svoje ženskosti za posteljo, hrano in oskrbo". Le malo jih more reči upravičeno možu: "Pri tebi sem ne zaradi preskrbe z vsem, ampak zato, ker Te imam rada!"

Dr. Burch svetuje omejitve spolne vzgoje in polaganje večje važnosti na vzgojo osebnosti, na razvoj notranjih virov dekliške duše, na spoznavanje nje same, iz česar se nato rodi ljubezen do drugih!

ENRICA V. HANDEL - MAZZETTI:

Jese in Marija

I.

Žena je poslušna, barva je zopet zavrela v njeno lice; videl je in se favnsko smejal. "Samo na vas je, lepa mati, če hočete biti prikladna z menoj... nekoliko prijazna—" Žena se je odmaknila in se tresla od sramote in studa. "Kaj boste dejali—fff?" je sopihala slastno kiklop. V sosedni sobi je ropotal mož. — Mož, pridi že!

"Gospod se nesramno šali, kar se ne spodobi za škofskega uradnika," je izdala žena. Saj bi mu vrgla v obraz psovko, ki jo je zaslužil; pa ne sme, strahuje ji moža.

"Hej, Wartenberg!" je prostak pocmokal, "naj le nabira svojih starih svetih mož mrlške kosti, fructus sancti coelibatus. Meni so bolj všeč noge, ki se jih še meso drži—" je mahal z rokami po zraku, "tvoje, moja boginja!" Drzko jo je hotel objeti. Pa ga je ona pahnila kakor amaonka od sebe tako silno, da je padel z ropotom po tleh. Suhi pisar Griesmayer, ki je prebiral zunaj nad vrati napis G + M + B, ko je njegov gospodar odkrival notri svoje ljubezenske počutke, je planil v sobo in pomagal svojemu kolnočemu gospodu na noge. Žena pa je stekla v uradno sobo in prosila: "Leks, pridi. Leks, ta lump me hoče šlatati!"

"Bog nam pomagaj!" je dejal mož. Saj ga kar davi to, kar je čul, to ve; pa je vendar ponosen in se mu srce širi, da se mu žena ne pusti šlatati, tudi prvemu možu v komitatu ne. "Tu je denar," je stopil ropotaje v sobo. "Moja žena, naj gospod vejo, se ne pusti prijemat, ne zares ne v šali."

Weinmaister je zijal vanj, obenem predrzno in neumno; nekaj trenutkov je bil v zadregi, kaj naj reče. Pa le za trenotek.

"Vaša žena je Urša, ker ne razume nobene šale. Vi pa ste trap svoje vrste in brez olike, ki bi se je lahko naučil pri Veldendorffu, ki vas toliko obiskuje. — Žal mi je, da sem bil dober z vami!" je zaključil. "Kdor pusti jelene zastrupljati in zatajuje rogovje, ne zasluži, da bi mu spregledoval. Sto goldinarjev, kakor je po odredbi deželnega sodišča, plačate kazni za rogovje ali pa vas dam ukleniti. Vam bom že pokazal—"

Logar je odšel zopet v sobo, prinesel denar, ki ga je zahteval oderuh, in ga položil predenj, hripavo se smeje v svoje prgišče, 134 od 275, ostane 141 gol. precejšnja vsota. naukov načeta svojat naj vidi, kako je lepo, ko mogočnjaki tega sveta molijo.

Ko so se ljudje razšli v svoje hiše, je vstal, vtaknil v hlače žepno ruto, s katero je bil pokril tla, ko je pokleknil, si pogladil razbolelo sedalo. "Anton, pojdi, zapustiva to gnezdo sramote!" Pisarju ob strani hodeč proti Donavi, je modroval:

"Anton, to so ljudje neumni. Ta tepec misli, da prihaja vitez res zato v njegovo hišo, da bi poslušal njegove lovske zgodbe. Osel neumni! In ona, ta ledena devica, sveta Nepritikajseme! Ne enega poštenega poljuba coram publico, zato pa jih da lepemu Jeseju deset — in še kaj zraven."

"Kaj mislite, gospod," pokazala Griesmayer, "da ima logarica ljubčka? Baje je pobožna. Vrh tega pravijo v Starem Pechlarnu, da nič ne mara za Jeseja."

"Le ti veruj, da ne mara zanj. Pa še kako."

"Toda gospod Jese, to vendar ni mogoče. Pošten človek je in nečistovati z drugega ženo, to bi bilo strašno."

"Anton," je dejal slovesno Weinmaister. "Ne govori o nečistosti, to ni lepa beseda! Karel Veliki, ki je vendar svetnik, je imel Irmengardo in Fastrado, krivoverec Luter, sicer dokaj pameten mož, Katrico in Rozino, Abraham Rebeke in Lijo, zakaj ne bi imel Jese Ane in Marije? Saj je njegova punčka pač prešibka in premajhna za velikega, dolgega in krepkega mladeniča! Ta druga pa je Urša, a — prekletu lepa."

Med takim pogovorom sta prišla do znamenja ob vodi in Weinmaister je rekel: "Anton, pelji se domov in sporoči moji ženi, da sem šel k Svetemu Blažu molit za njen bolni vrat... in da me ne bo pred nočjo." In je krenil, še ko je videl pisar,

Making its first Cleveland appearance, the celebrated Royal Danish Ballet on its first major American tour since 1956, will give three performances in the Music Hall on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 9 and 10. The company of 100, accompanied by full symphony orchestra, features the international stars, Eric Bruhn, Kirsten Simone, Henning Kronstam, and Fredbjorn Bjornsson.

This oldest of court ballets will perform "Conservatory", "Miss

"Miss Julie", and Act Three of "Napoli" on Saturday evening, Oct. 9, at 8:30 p.m. and "Coppelia" and "Fanfare" on Sunday, October 10, at both the matinee at 2:30 and the evening performance at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets for this exciting European company are now on sale at Burrows, 419 Euclid Avenue, The Higbee Company, where they may be charged, and the Cleveland Opera Association at 2816 Euclid Avenue.

CONDENSED NEWS FROM OUR HOME FRONT

★ Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stefancic of 231 E. 200 St., celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary on Sunday, October 3rd with a Mass at Holy Cross church, after which the relatives gathered at their home. Congratulations and wishes for many more happy and healthy anniversaries!

★ Frank Gorenc, who formerly lived on Carl Ave., and is now living permanently in Smyrna Beach, Fla., celebrated his 75th birthday on Sunday, October 3rd. He sends greetings to all his friends. Congratulations and wishes for many more happy and healthy birthdays!

★ Corbin, Ky. — Visitors who drop in on Robert A. Blair during the summer get an unusual dessert — snowballs. Blair, an insurance executive, makes snowballs in the winter, when the makings are available, and stores them in the freezer. They're served with ice cream, whipped cream, and fruit to guests in his lodge.

★ London — A 300-ton sail schooner being built for the sail training association will be named "Sir Winston." Lady Churchill has agreed to the use of her late husband's name and has sent her good wishes. "There's no better way to perpetuate the memory of this great Englishman than by helping to provide the opportunity of adventure to the youth of our country," said Hugh Goodson, chairman of the association. Youths between 16 and 21 can ask to sail before the mast on the schooner which may be ready to sail by March, 1966.

★ Jacksonville, Fla. — Two brawlers told the judge they left their knives inside when they went out for a "friendly fight." However, the one who was losing grabbed a lead pipe and swatted his opponent over the head. The judge found both guilty.

★ New York, N.Y. — Doughnuts are 100 per cent American but they are so popular in communist Poland that the man on the street is not permitted to eat them. Two American merchants made this discovery recently at the American pavilion of the 32nd annual international fair in Poznan. They are Harry Winokur, chairman of the board of Mr. Donut, and David Slater, president of the firm which is based at Westwood, Mass. "Only personnel of the various pavilions were permitted to take our doughnuts to their homes," Winokur recalled in an interview. "We would hand out cards entitling the holder to a sack full of doughnuts but he had to go to a special stand to pick them up. The stand was located at the end of the American pavilion and to get there the card-holder had to go thru all the exhibits."

★ Montefalco, Italy — Ottone Marangon placed on exhibit here 13 copies of famous paintings that he made from 100,000 postage stamps. He is working on a copy of Leonardo Da Vinci's "Last Supper," which he says will take 120,000 stamps and two years of pasting.

★ Denver, Colo. — A Texas woman, Mrs. R. B. Goddard of Lubbock, held the only winning ticket on the twin double at Centennial track recently and collected $6,585.80. Mrs. Goddard, visiting a brother at suburban Littleton, picked the winners of the fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth races.

★ Clovis, N.M. — A Clovis furniture store advertising slashed prices opened its doors the next morning to find slashed furniture. Owners said vandals had broken into the store during the night and destroyed about $2,000 in new sofas and chairs, apparently with a razor blade.

★ Casper, Wyo. — Police Officer Dave Dovala investigated a minor collision at a Casper intersection involving cars driven by Donald Couture, 26, and Beverly Wolture, 25, both of Casper. The next day, Dovala investigated another minor accident. Sure enough, the cars involved were driven by Couture and Miss Wolture. There's nothing like having old friends bumping into each other.

★ Owensboro, Ky. — A crowd collects every time Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sharp Jr. park their auto on downtown streets. On one badly dented fender, Mrs. Sharp has painted "HIS" and on the other fender, as smooth as it was the day it left the factory, she has painted "HERS."

★ Philadelphia, Pa. — Is a bouquet of roses the kind of gift that would compromise a government employee's position? A supervisor of defense supply agency, which awards millions of dollars in contracts for the armed services, said a rose may be a rose but no matter how it smells it is a gratuity when sent by any firm doing business with the government. The ruling cost Mary E. Omelan, a 37-year-old clerk, 5 days' pay. She was suspended when she refused to take her flowers off her desk. Two other clerks, who also received roses last month from Gichner Mobile Systems, Inc., Beltsville, Md., for "courtesy and cooperation" donated them to charity. Miss Omelan can appeal.

★ Montreal, Can. — Pickpockets are on the rise in Montreal, says crown prosecutor Andre C. Chaloux, with about 8,000 pockets picked a day.

★ Fort Knox, Ky. — When Pvt. James Keyser stepped from the bus at Fort Knox, he began wondering what he had done. Waiting to greet him was the commanding general, who presented the Chicago soldier with a cake and a fancy picture album. Keyser was the 500,000th soldier to pass thru the reception center since its activation in October, 1956.

Dinner to Honor M. Rakar

A dinner honoring Martin E. Rakar on his 40th anniversary as organist at St. Mary's Church is planned for Sunday, October 24 at 5:00 p.m. in the school hall at 716 E. 156 St.

Heading the committee in charge of arrangements is the pastor at St. Mary's, Rev. M. A. Jager, assisted by Josephine Novak and Mary Tercek.

Tickets for the dinner are available from the members of the church choir as well as at the rectory. They can also be obtained at Ed's Delicatessen, 15601 Holmes Ave., Prime's Delicatessen, 15508 Holmes Ave., and Holmes Ave. Market, 15638 Holmes Ave.

Foresters Celebrate 50th Anniversary at St. Mary's

St. Mary's Court No. 1640, Catholic Order of Foresters celebrates its 50th anniversary Sunday, Oct. 10th. And what a celebration it's going to be!

Foresters from all over Ohio will convene at St. Mary's Church, 15519 Holmes Ave., for Mass at 12 noon. Rev. Father Eugene Best, STD, who is known for his reporting of the Ecumenical Council activities in Rome, will offer the Mass.

Following the spiritual opening, the Foresters will enjoy an authentic Slovenian anniversary feast at the Slovenian Home, 15810 Holmes Ave. Food will be served at 2 p.m. Johnny Pecon and Lou Trebar will play polka music for the dance that follows the dinner.

Guests scheduled to pay the Foresters a visit include: Senator Frank J. Lausche, Judge August Prytel and High Chief Ranger Richard T. Tobin of Chicago.

Four charter members of the 1915 Foresters will be feted on the Golden Jubilee Day. They are: B. J. Hribar, Anton Pierce, Sebastian Trampus and Joseph Starich.

Catholic Women Meet

Father Gilbert L. Sheldon, Diocesan Director for the Propagation of the Faith, will be the principal speaker at the Catholic Federation of Women's Clubs luncheon in the Higbee Auditorium on Thursday, October 14, at 12:00 Noon. Father Sheldon will share his experiences during his recent visit to the Cleveland Diocesan Mission in El Salvador, in his talk entitled, "Cleveland-by-the-Sea."

The business meeting will be opened by the President, Mrs. Lawrence J. Norris, at 10:15 a.m. in the Higbee Lounge, and will be followed immediately by the departmental meeting under the direction of Mrs. Harry Hollinger.

Mrs. Michael B. Kendra, Legislation Chairman, will present Mr. Richard L. Maher, Political Editor of the Cleveland Press, who will speak on current legislative matters.

Mrs. Thomas F. Smith, WICS Chairman, will present Mrs. August R. Hoffman, Cleveland Diocesan Council President, and Assistant Project Director of the Cleveland WICS (Women in Community Service). Mrs. Hoffman, who acts as liaison between the National Council of Catholic Women, the WICS and the Cleveland Job Corps Training Center, will speak on these new activities.

Mrs. Richard C. Williams will give a short talk on the pin which is the symbol of the National Council of Catholic Women.

Dodgers Cinch Pennant In In Difficult Manner

Los Angeles — Los Angeles Dodgers clinched the National League pennant in typical Dodger fashion Saturday, defeating Milwaukee 3-1 behind the four-hit pitching of Sandy Koufax and a two-run, fifth-inning rally built on one hit.

The victory, their 14th in the last 15 games, climaxed a 17-day comeback that brought the Dodgers from 4½ games behind San Francisco to their third pennant in 7 years and their seventh in the last 14.

The Dodgers, who rocketed to the top with a 13-game winning streak that ended Friday night, now face the American League champion Minnesota Twins in the World Series which started Wednesday at Minnesota.

Some Gloom in Twinland — Club Returns $4,750,000 in W.S. Orders Twin Cities, Minn. — A total of $4,750,000 in unfilled World Series orders has been returned to disappointed Twin fans, it was announced here, Sept. 28.

Charles Lavender, ticket manager for the American League champions, estimated that orders containing $6,000,000 were received at Metropolitan Stadium.

If the Series extends through 7 games, with the first, second, sixth and seventh games played here, the receipts will total $1,750,000.

Lavender estimated that it cost the Twins $12,000 in labor and postage to return the money to fans who did not receive the valuable pasteboards.

Thus, returning the money was a sad duty for the Twins — and sad news for disappointed Twins' fans.

Grand Earned Start of Series Twin Cities, Minn. — Jim (Mudcat) Grant earned the starting job in the first game of the World Series with his 20 victories for Minnesota.

He intends to parlay his best season also into double the salary he earned this season.

"I'm going to ask for $55,000," said Grant.

Jim won No. 20 with a one-hitter at Washington. It was his twenty-fourth career victory over Washington.

Burdette in '57 Last Mound Ace to Win 3 Series Games Bloomington, Minn. — With splendid pitching on both sides, one wonders whether the 1965 World Series, which may run through nine days, will produce the first three-game winner since Lou Burdette, pitching for Milwaukee, turned back the Yankees three times in 1957.

With the reavy clouting of recent years, three-game winners have become quite rare. Burdette and Harry Brecheen of the 1948 Cardinals are the only ones since the end of World War II.

Nobel Prize Exhibit At Library

A special pictorial exhibit tracing the 64 year history of the famed Nobel Prize, will be opened to the public October 15 with a program at 7:30 p.m. in the Cleveland Public Library Auditorium. The program honoring Alfred Nobel will include an introduction by the Swedish Consul of Cleveland, Mr. Elinar G. Carlson, and he will introduce Mr. G. B. Jarnstedt, Swedish Consul General from Chicago. This will be followed by Swedish Folk Dancing and Music.

Through the years, the United States has received more Nobel awards than any other country. The first U.S. Nobel prize in science was awarded to Professor Michelson in 1907. His first experiments to establish the speed of light began in 1887 when he was Professor of Physics at Case Institute of Technology. Dr. Frederick C. Robbins, Director of the Department of Pediatrics and Contagious diseases at Cleveland Metropolitan General Hospital, was honored with the 1954 award in the field of medicine and physiology.

In addition to the Nobel pictorial exhibit there will be a special exhibit of Swedish textiles by Brita Sjoman and jewelry and silver by Solve Hallqvist. There will be no charge for the program and exhibit and the public is cordially invited.

St. Christine Holy Namers Dinner Benefits Youth Projects

St. Christine's Holy Name Society will again shine in the school hall, 840 E. 222 St., Euclid, Ohio, on Sunday, October 10, 1965, as the chefs (all Holy Namers) will occupy the kitchen.

The annual Roast Beef dinner will be served from noon until 5 p.m. This is an event that hundreds of friends of the Holy Namers anxiously await. The dinners have gained such popularity (because of their deliciousness) that every year several hundred more are ordered. Many who cannot come to the hall for dinner, send for carry-out orders — and last year's was a complete sell-out, leaving some late comers disappointed.

Dinners are $1.75 per plate for adults and $1.00 per plate for children. Proceeds are used to sponsor and maintain youth activities in the parish throughout the year. The public is invited to join the crowd that will enjoy one of the best dinners served in a most congenial atmosphere.

Silver Wedding

Denver, Colorado. — WSA Supreme President and Mrs. Mike Popovich were honored last Sunday, on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. They renewed their nuptial vows in a Mass celebrated by the Rev. John A. Canjar in Holy Rosary Church at 11 a.m. The Mass was attended by several hundred relatives and friends of the couple. After the impressive church ceremony, the family gathered at the famous Golden Steer Restaurant for brunch. Guests included the Rev. John Canjar and his mother, Mrs. Mary Canjar.

In the afternoon guests were received from 3 to 8 in the spacious dining hall of the Golden Steer. Lou Novak did the honors with the aperitifs, with an occasional assist from Mike Popovich, Jr. and Dan Popovich; and his peerless Golden Steer hostesses, Arne Ratkovich and Mary Jelniker, laid out a table that was out of this world.

Highlight of the party was a mock wedding directed by the incomparable Molly Drobnick. The pretty bride was Patsy Ziemek; the reluctant groom was Joe Drobnick; the distraught mother was Mary Ann Popovich; and the wary father was Chet Ziemek. The little ring bearer was Big Andy Kutes, and the cute flower girl was Mike Popovich, Jr. The hilarious ceremony was performed by "Judge" Edward A. Jersin. All guests agreed that each of the performers and the director merited oscar, emmies, and all other awards reserved for great historians.

During the party music was provided by the great accordionist and grandson of the guests of honor, Mike Popovich III.

The elaborate affair was attended by many out-of-town guests. Among those recognized in the huge crowd were the Jurjovec's from Canon City, Mr. and Mrs. Milich from Pueblo, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Jabczynski from Chicago, Illinois, and grandson John Popovich, who came in from Boulder where he is a senior this year at the University of Colorado. Two of Mike Popovich's sisters came in from Canada for the occasion, a sister flew in from Novo Mesto, Slovenia, and another came in from Indiana. This was the first family reunion for them in forty-five years. There were other relatives from all over the country, as well as many congratulatory messages. Among the dignitaries in attendance were the Mayor of Denver and Mrs. Thomas G. Currian, District Judge and Mrs. Michael B. Johns, and Rev. Leopold Mihelich.

The jubilarians were married in St. Stephen's Church in Chicago on September 23, 1940. This was the second marriage for each. He was a widower and she a widow. Shortly after their marriage they moved to Denver where they settled and made their mark. They are highly esteemed in the community.

The genial jubilarian is the Supreme President of the Western Slavonic Association, which office he is holding for the second term. At the national convention of the WSA held last month in Denver, Brother Popovich declined to run for the presidency and was elected lifetime Supreme Honorary President of the WSA by acclamation. When his term of office expires on January 1, 1966 he will be succeeded by Brother Anthony Jersin, the newly elected president of the WSA. We wish to the jubilarians an abundance of blessings and happiness.

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER WEEK

If any American institution is entitled to sing its own praises — all questions of false modesty aside — it is the American newspaper. And National Newspaper Week, which is to be observed October 10 through 16, provides that opportunity.

There is nothing quite like the U.S. press. In many countries the newspapers are propaganda organs of government and willingly or unwillingly abide by the wishes and orders of those in political power. In others, a few papers of vast circulation blanket their countries, and there is little exchange of varying views. In others, corruption and venality have destroyed the public's faith in the worth and honor of its press.

Here, however, the newspaper, with few exceptions, has been faithful to its trust. It has stood for that in which it believes, regardless of the shifting winds of politics and of the pressures of power. It stands, however difficult it may be at times, for the freedom of the press and of the right to defend and advocate policies and philosophies it considers vital to the public interest.

We have, of course, newspapers of great circulation and international prestige. And we also have — of the utmost importance — thousands of smaller newspapers, weeklies and dailies, which serve their communities and their audience in a way nothing else can. There are, each in its own independent way, guardians of a free United States.

Metropolitan Opera National Company Comes To Cleveland

Presenting four new productions, the Metropolitan Opera National Company will open its gala Cleveland season in the Music Hall on Wednesday evening, October 13, and continue thru Saturday evening, October 16, offering five performances, four evening and a Saturday matinee.

Giacomo Puccini's loveable "MADAMA BUTTERFLY" in completely new stage settings and costume, will be the curtain riser on Wednesday evening, with Francesca Roberto in the leading role of Cio-Cio San. Miss Roberto has toured with the NBC Opera and the New England Opera Company and made her debut in Rome in the same role. Yoshio Aoyama, one of the Met's leading directors, directs the opera, with Samuel Krachmalnick on the podium. The opera is sung in Italian.

What has been termed by critics as the "Hello Dolly" of the opera stage, Gioacchino Rossini's "CINDERELLA" will be presented on Thursday evening with two of the Met's newest finds, Mary Beth Peil and Ellen Berse in the sister roles of "Clorinda" and "Thisbe". The title role of "Cinderella" is brilliantly portrayed by Sylvia Friderich, mezzo-soprano from Rochester, N.Y., who has appeared in opera houses in Germany and Italy. Directed by Gunther Rennert and conducted by Mr. Krachmalnick, this opera which is sung in English, has been rated by critics as one of the highlights of the National Company's repertoire.

On Friday evening, Carlisle Floyd's "SUSANNAH," which won the standing ovation from a capacity audience in Indianapolis when it was premiered, will be heard with the beautiful and talented Maralin Niska of San Pedro, California in the title role. This opera, sung in English, is directed by Jose Quintero, famed for his directing of Eugene O'Neill dramas, and conducted by Robert La Marchina.

"CINDERELLA" will be repeated on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. with Marilyn Zschau, mezzo-soprano from Raleigh, North Carolina, who has appeared in many Juilliard Opera Theatre performances, in the title role.

Saturday evening, for the finale, George Bizet's lively and colorful "CARMEN" will hold the stage. The title role will be sung by Dorothy Krebill, mezzo-soprano, who is familiar to Broadway audiences having appeared in Menotti's "The Saint of Bleeker Street", Bernstein's "Candide" and Thompson's "The Mother of Us All." The opera, sung in French, is directed by Louis Ducreux, with La Marchina conducting.

Miss Rise Stevens and Michael Manuel are the General Managers of the new National Company which is presented by the Metropolitan Opera Association and the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. It has been singing to capacity audiences during the first 16 performances in three cities before coming to Cleveland. "We have a new breed of opera singers, not one tantum, and how they work!" said Miss Stevens, who helped select the company's artists from over 3000 auditioned throughout the United States, Canada and Europe. "This company is young, with an average of 27 years, and in making our selections, Mr. Manuel and I insisted on good looks, youth, and acting ability in addition to vocal superiority."

Tickets for the five performances are now on sale at the Met's Box Office in the lobby of the Union Commerce Bank, E. 9th and Euclid Avenue. Prices range from $6.50 to $2.50. There is no tax.

Reporting from Washington

FRANCIS P. BOSTON — Congressman, 22nd District, Ohio

MEMORIAL HONORING THE LATE MARY McLEOD BETHUNE. Last week the President signed a Joint Resolution which I co-sponsored with Senator Anderson of New Mexico to extend for two years the existing authority for the erection of a memorial in the District of Columbia to the late Mary McLeod Bethune. The National Council of Negro Women is the sponsoring organization and the memorial is to be built at no expense to the Federal Government. It is to be located in Lincoln Park — on East Capitol Street in Washington. The original authorizing legislation was signed by President Eisenhower in 1960 and called for the statue to be built within five years, but the project fell behind schedule mainly due to the uncertainty of highway locations in the Lincoln Park area. Now, however, the statue is nearly completed and all plans have been approved by the National Park Service except those for an architectural base which will be submitted in the near future. The statue by Robert Berks, a New York sculptor, will stand 12 feet high. Mrs. Bethune will be depicted holding a copy of her legacy to a Negro boy and a Negro girl. Around the stone base of the monument will be seven sentences from the legacy which Mrs. Bethune dictated to a magazine writer shortly before her death in May, 1955.

Often called the "First Lady" of her race, Mrs. Bethune rose from childhood in a cotton picker's shack in South Carolina to become one of the world's foremost educators. She gained national prominence also as an advisor to Presidents and as the founder and first President of the National Council of Negro Women.

CONSUMERS ALL, 1965 YEAR-BOOK OF AGRICULTURE. How the U.S. Department of Agriculture's services are woven into the fabric of American life is reflected in Consumers All, the 1965 Yearbook of Agriculture which has just been published. Although a primary objective of the Department is service to farmers and ranchers this book points out that the consumer has a vital stake in agricultural productivity and abundance.

Consumers All is a one-volume how-to-do-it reference work for American households, covering almost everything that we buy, eat, wear, and do in our everyday lives. Its 496 pages include many illustrations, charts, and tables. Prepared in the Department of Agriculture, the Yearbook is published by the Government Printing Office as a Congressional document.

The Yearbook of Agriculture stems from the 1840's, when Federal agriculture work was under the Commissioner of Patents (the Department of Agriculture was founded in 1862). The Commissioner's annual report was issued in two parts, and Part II Agriculture was the forerunner of the present Yearbook. In 1895 Congress formally designated the Yearbook of Agriculture. The Yearbook "best seller" to date is Trees, issued in 1949. Besides 246,753 copies printed for Congressional distribution and Department use, over 100,000 have been sold by the Government Printing Office. Because of the very limited number of copies of Consumers All made available to me, I must restrict distribution to my constituents in the 22nd District. Write soon to get your copy as first come, first served!

When you have your copy, I would suggest you read it very thoughtfully. Weigh the statements and the words. It is a treatise that builds upon the principles of respect for the individual and his capacity to build and govern himself, or does it suggest that the Federal Government will do everything for him?

NEW RECORD SET ON HOUSE ROLL CALLS. Whatever else may be said about this first session of the 89th Congress, it has broken all known records for the number of roll calls in a single session. Through last week there had been 325. The previous record number was 307, set in the second session of the 81st Congress, which met from January 3, 1950 to January 2, 1951.

THERE'S NO LAWN LIKE A FALL LAWN

New York, N.Y. (ED) — Strange as it may seem, fall — not spring — is the best time to plant a new lawn. That's when there's enough warmth for seed germination, root growth is heaviest, and most important, cooling temperatures keep weeds to a minimum.

Your timetable for a lush new lawn next spring starts in early to mid-fall. When you prepare the soil, fertilize and seed.

To prepare the soil for seeding, first loosen it with a power rototiller, garden tractor or by hand spading. You can rent a power rototiller or garden tractor by the hour or by the day very economically from most garden supply stores. Either of these tools speeds up soil loosening immeasurably. Finish this process by leveling off the soil and raking out all stones and debris.

Then, till the soil to a one-inch depth. Take care to avoid turning up subsoil and burying good topsoil. Tilling is best done by hand with a heavy hoe or rake, although there are power tools on the market that will do the job.

At this point add lime and fertilizer — preferably a plant food high in nitrogen content — to the soil to neutralize and rid it of any impurities that might interfere with the growing seeds. If you use, a spreader, it will distribute the lime and fertilizer evenly.

With these steps behind you, you're ready to sow your new lawn. Selecting the right kind of seed is one of the most important steps towards establishing a beautiful, thick lawn. Avoid "bargain"-priced seed. It often contains impurities and a high percentage of miscellaneous grasses and weeds.

For homeowners in bluegrass areas, pure Merion Kentucky Bluegrass, or mixtures with 40 percent or more, are best. This strain has long been preferred for many of the nation's parks, airports, athletic fields and golf courses, as well as thousands of home lawns.

A particular advantage of Merion seed is that one pound contains up to 2,500,000 seeds. Because a reduced quantity of the small-sized seed is required for a given area, it's best to use a spreader that can be adjusted to drop seed evenly at the desired rate. A general rule of thumb is to use one pound of seed to 750 square feet of soil. If you sow by hand, divide the seed into two parts and sow half in one direction, and the other half at right angles to the first direction.

Some homeowners use the professional method of speeding up germination — soaking the seed in water before it's sown — to establish quicker stands of grass. Here's how it's done: put the seed loosely in a cloth bag and soak overnight. Then with the seed still in the bag, wash with a spray until the water runs clean. This soaking process gets rid of the inhibiting acids that slow germination. Drain and spread seed out in a thin layer on a sheet or flat board in the sun until dry enough to sow — usually two or three hours.

After sowing, the seed should be raked lightly into the soil or top-dressed with one-eighth of an inch of peat, sand or topsoil mix. The soil should then be firmed with a light roller. Do not use a heavy roller because it will pack the soil too tightly. Mulching with straw, peat or vermiculite is helpful in retaining moisture which is important at this stage.

Germination occurs and the first seedlings break surface within 8 to 30 days, depending upon your soil and whether or not you pre-soaked the seed. It's important to water frequently throughout this time. Once established, however, a Merion lawn thrives best when it is watered at infrequent intervals, and then only when needed.

Hold off your fall mowing until the grass is more than 1½ inches high. Then mow regularly and often to speed up spreading action and thickening of the turf.

A little extra patience and care during the first month after planting will pay big dividends. There may be a few weeds that pop up but do not spray with a chemical weed killer; you may damage the new seed. Should any bare spots develop in the lawn, reseed them regardless of the season. Reseeding will help prevent crabgrass and other weeds from gaining a foothold.

During the cold winter months, the lawn goes into a dormancy period. Nature takes over with its own special care, and the home owner simply waits until the onset of warm spring weather, when the growth starts again, before continuing his work.

Spring rains and the run-off from winter snows may provide enough water in early spring for your new lawn. If not, however, simply water when needed. Wait until the grass is a couple of inches high before mowing the first time, and then it can be kept closely trimmed; Merion flourishes even under a ¾ inch to an inch mowing because of its dense low, growth, and deep and fast-spreading root system which readily form new thick top growth.

Once the new lawn is well-established, just remember to mow regularly, fertilize three times a year with a preparation high in nitrogen, water sparingly, and it will soon be coming up a velvety carpet of green.

PICTURE OF A MAN WHO GETS A KICK OUT OF LIFE

He's getting a bit rusty, but he can still tell his son a thing or two about football — a lesson in sportsmanship and a lesson in just plain fun.

He wants the boy to have all the good things in life.

Although as breadwinner he is able to provide these now, he knows that some time in the future they may have to be provided by life insurance. That's why he's a Sun Life policyholder. Are you?
