SECOND CLASS POSTAGE PAID AT CLEVELAND, OHIO

83 No. 169 Friday, Sept. 1, 1972

Delavski dan 1973

Delavski dan je praznik dela in delavstva. V naši deželi je to izbralo za svoje praznovanje prvi ponedeljek v septembru, med tem ko smatrajo drugod po svetu pretežno za delavski praznik 1. maj, ki so ga za to določili začetniki in vodniki marksističnega socializma.

Ameriško delavstvo je organizirano na drugem temelju kot delavstvo drugod po svetu. Ne mera za politične stranke, politična vprašanja presoja s stališča svojih koristi in se tega stališča tudi podpira različne stranke in različne kandidate ob različnih volitvah. Smisel take politike delavskih unij je dobiti podpora za svoje predloge in zahteve v obeh glavnih strankah in med vsemi člani Kongresa, neoziraje se na njihovo strankarsko pripadnost.

Predsedniku F. D. Rooseveltu se je posrečilo do neke mere vključiti ali vsaj povezati delavske unije z demokratsko stranko, po njegovih smrti pa so se te tej začele zopet odmikati in izmikati, v kolikor niso videle v povezavi z njim svojo posebno korist. Najtesnejše in najdoslednejše je sodeloval z demokrati in podpiral demokratsko stranko v zadnjih letih pokojni vodnik Unije avtomobilskega delavstva Walter Reuther.

Glavni predsednik AFL-CIO George Meany je zadnji ponedeljek v Chicagu po seji izvršnega odbora AFL-CIO dejal časnikarjem, da ni bil nikdar "organizacijski demokrat", da ni bil nikdar "doma" v nobeni stranki, ampak samo v delavskem gibanju. S tem je dobro označil ne le svoje osebno, ampak tudi stališče delavskih unij v naši deželi.

Če primerjamo uspehe naših delavskih unij z delavskimi unijami drugod po svetu, lahko rečemo, da so naše unije kar lahko zadovoljne. Delavstvo v ZDA se je povzelo veliko dalj kot drugod po svetu, vključno v svobodni Evropi. Pri nas spada danes strokovno delavstvo v "srednjistan", po svojih plačah in dohodkih celo v neki meri v njegov "zgornji del". Ne smemo namreč pozabiti, da je precej unij, posebno v gradbeni stroki, katerih člani zaslužijo letno prav toliko kot ljudje z akademsko izobrazbo ali pa celo več! V mestu New Yorku ima odvaževalec in pospravljalci smeti v odpadkov večjo začetno plačo kot učitelj osnovne šole! Je še kje kaj takega na svetu?

Ročno delo uživa v naši deželi spoštovanje in večinoma prinaša tudi kar dostojne dohodke. Kongres je dvignil najnižjo dovoljeno urenno plačo na $2, ko je bila pred 20 leti le 50 centov. Res je dolar vreden precej manj, kot je bil pred 20 leti, pa vendar ne toliko manj. Življenska raven se je torej dvignila v znatni meri tudi na najnižji stopnji!

Delavski dan je v naši deželi tudi nekak konec poletja in počitnic. Otroci se po njem ali ponekod že tik pred njim vrnejo v šole. Zato je ta dan primeren, da razmislimo tudi kaj o šolanju svojih otrok, o vrednosti naših šol in o njihovem vzdrževanju.

Znanost stalno napreduje, napreduje potreba po znanju vseposod. Kdor ne gre s to potrebo, kdor se ne briga v zadostni meri za svojo vzgojo, za svoje šolanje, bo neopazno, pa naglo zaostal. Znanje je človeku že samo po sebi v zadovoljstvu, in večje kot kaj drugega, pa je prav tako tudi nujna potreba. Brez določenega znanja danes ni več mogoče dobiti dostojne službe, kjer bi se človek čutil varnega in preskrbljenega. Dostikrat je v tem pogledu koristnejše strokovno znanje, tudi znanje obrti, poznanje raznih strojev in upravljanja z njimi. Vsega tega se je mogoče naučiti v raznih strokovnih in tehničnih šolah in tečajih.

Kadarkoli premišljamo o šolanju svojih otrok, moramo presoditi njihove sposobnosti, pa tudi njihovo veselje. Ne pozabimo, da ni vsak za študij na univerzi in da to tudi ni za vsakega potrebno. Ugotovili smo že, da je prenemški strokovni delavec danes enako dobro ali celo boljši plačan kot človek z visokošolsko izobrazbo. Ni še posebno dolgo tega, ko je bilo v zahodnih državah, posebno v Kaliforniji in Oregonu, na deset tisoč inženirjev in drugih ljudi z visokošolsko izobrazbo brez posla. Morda je prav v tem vzrok, da je naval na visoke šole popustil in je, kot poročajo, letos precej manj vpisanih, kot jih je bilo lani. Kljub vsemu je prav in modro, da pošljemo svojega otroka na visoko šolo, če je za to res sposoben in ima veselje do študija in takega poklica.

Naše šole, žal tudi katoliške, premalo vzgajajo in le preveč samo "učijo". Če otrok ne vzgajamo doma, če ne slišijo nikdar dobre besede v šoli in če jih ne pošiljamo v cerkev, bomo imeli izolane divjake, ki bodo v nesreči sebi, nam in vsej družbi. Vzgoja v poštenega človeka, v dobre državljanja je prva nalogă vsake šole! Še pred njo pa seveda našega staršev. Starši, ki to nalogo prepričajo šoli, hudo greše! Ne pozabimo, da tudi katoliška šola ne zmorcev, da moramo tudi njej pomagati, da moramo z njo sodelovati pri vzgajanju svojih otrok! Seveda jo moramo tudi primerno podpirati, da bo mogla obstojati in svoje devo vršiti.

Delavski dan je običajno pri nas tudi začetek volivne borbe, prav posebno velja to še za leta, ko volimo Kongres in predsednika ZDA. Letos je tako leto! Zato bomo naslednje tedne izpostavljeni v obilni meri volivni propagandi z vseh strani. Ne dajmo se mešati in še manj zmesati. Berimo, poslušajmo, glejmo, pa trezno presojajmo po svoji najboljši sposobnosti. Ne dajmo se "navdušiti" za kakovo stranko ali kandidate, ker bomo sicer izgubili stvarno in nepristransko sodbo ter ne bomo sposobni voliti 7. novembra po svoji pameti, ampak bomo volili po "pameti propagandistov".

moral za nje kak kvoder več plačati kakor drugje."

Drugi smo se spogledali in si mislili vsak pri sebi, mož ima skušnje, že ve, kaj govorí.

Zatem smo krenili s pogovori k drugim zadevam.

Nick se je malo pogladil lase, pogledal na nas in dejal:

"Kaj mislite, kaj bodo nam prinesle letošnje volitve? Se kaj zanimate za nje, čujete, kaj se vse objublja od strani kandidatov, da bodo naredili za nas in deželo?"

Tu se je pa Bara obrnila proti nam in se napol tiho posmehnila. Nato malo svetel pogled obrnila na Nicka in dejala: "Ali ste možički od danes ali od včeraj? Če ste od danes, bi vam prizanesla, če ste pa od včeraj, potem bi morali politične kandidate raznih strank bolje poznati, kakor jih. Na krožnikih ne bodo prinesli "pečenih golobov". Kar pa vam v svojih kampanjskih govorih objubljajo, to so pa takia politična "zelišča", ki radi priznajo. Ko smo bili na kakem pikniku ali veselici, smo peli, da se je okolina sv. Obiskovalkam je bilo v Clevelandu všeč

CLEVELAND, O. — Zadnjo nedeljo so se vrstile v Slovenijo Ivana Gliha, njena hčerka Elizabetha Kadunc in vnukinja Karla Kadunc. Ivana Gliha, roj. Jakšič, je doma v Žužemberku na Dolenjskem. Moža, enega sina in eno hčerko je izgubila v drugi svetovni vojni.

V Ameriko je prišla obiskat s svojo hčerjo in vnučino svoje sorodnike, oroke Antona Gliha z Bonna Avenue in druge, med njimi Terezijo Fink v Wiloughby Hills, Cleveland z okolicijo jim je zelo všeč, četudi je Karla, 19 let starca Ljubljančanka, trdila, da imajo doma v Sloveniji vse, kar je videla v Clevelandu. To se pravi vse, razen — izgredov in nemirov! Dejala le, da imajo tudi lastne hipije in jipije.

Zdravilni "rman" uspeva skoraj povsod

Rman je zdravilna rastlina, ki uspeva skoraj po vsej Evropi, pa tudi v Ameriki. Njeno zdravilno moč je poznal že stari Paracelsus.

"Iskati je treba pri navadnem!" Tako je pred nekaj stoleti rekel srednjeveški zdravnik in naravoslovec Paracelsus. Ima redko, katera rastlina ima v sebi takole zdravilnih moči kot navadni rman (Achillea millefolium). Da ga Slovenci že dolgo poznamo, dokazuje že to, da je med ljudmi ohranilo kar 46 ljudskih imen za to preprosto in skromno zelišče.

Rman je razširjen po vsej Evropi tja do severnega polarnega pasu. Najdemo ga na travnikih, mehji, pašnikih, po sončnatih posekah, po poteh in njivah. Vsekakor ta rastlina ni občutljiva, samo na prevlačnih tleh pa vseeno ne uspeva. Zelišče zacheče cveteti v začetku junija in bo cvetelo vse do prvih jesenskih slan. Nabiramo ga skozi dobra dva meseca — do konca avgusta.

Zanimivo je, koliko zdravilnih snovi se je znašlo v eni sami cvetoči rastlini: ahilein, eterico olje z azulenom (olja je največ v cvetovih, manj pa v listih), v olju so še oljna in linolenska kislina, cerilni alkohol in ceročinska kislina. Ostale sestavine so še: asparagin, beljakovine, inulin, gumi, fitosterin, fosfati, nitriti, organske kisline, stearin, smola, nazadnje pa velja omeniti še vitamin C.

Od zdravilnih delov porezemo nadzemne dele cvetoče rastline od tega pa osmukamo liste ter cvete; za čaj pa lahko nabremo samo cvetove. Rman sušimo le v senci. Rman učinkuje na celo vrsto notranjih organov: črevesje, želodec, jetra, žolč, ledvica, krvna obtočila in dihal. Pri zunanjih uporabi pa se obnese rmanov prevretek za zdravljenje ran, obkladi dobró denejno razpokanim rokom pa ranjenim bradavicam doječih mater. Živčne ljudi krepijo hladne kopeli iz prevretega rmana; toplim kopelim pa dodamo kamilice, če si hočemo zmanjšati bolečine v živčih (nevralgije).

To zdravilno zelišče je zelo pporočljivo pri črevesnih in želodčnih bolezni ali vnetjih: pri pomanjkanju apetita, naranjanju, črevesnih ali želodčnih krčih, pri vnetjih debelega črevesa ter želodčne sluznice.

Tako zdravilen vpliv na prebavila pa povečuje še druga rmanova moč: pospeševanje krnega obtoka. Prav tako izboljšuje in čisti kri (to zmanjšuje revmatične tegobe), pri začet-

Špageti se bodo vrnili na Kitajsko

RIM, It. — Na italijanskem trgovinskem velesejmu, ki ga bodo odprli 10. oktobra, bodo razstavili kot posebnost tudi velik stroj za izdelavo špagetov.

Špagete, ki so znani kot italijanska narodna jed, naj bi bil odkril znani Marco Polo na Kitajskem pred 700 leti in jih tam prinesel v Italijo, kjer so se skozi stoletja razširili in udomačili, med tem pa so prešli z jedilnika na Kitajskem.

Vsekakor zanimiv in prijateljski razgovor med — zavezniki.

Wankel motor v Vegi

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Po letini seji direktorjev GMC je načelnik R. C. Gerstenberg dejal, da bo GMC že čez dve leti nudila pri Vega avtomobilih na izbirski Wankel motor, ki je znan po tem, da ima manj delov in da tudi manj osnesaže zrak. Motor je izdelan na načelu vrtenja in ne na načelu batov, kot so običajni avtomobilski motorji.

Vega avtomobile gradi GMC v Lordstownu v Ohiju in so najmanjši avtomobili vrste Chevrolet. Nove motorje bo v začetku gradila Hydra-Matic Division v Ypsilantiju v Michiganu.

Slabo oskrbovana letala

BEIRUT, Lib. — Egiptski letalci, ki so nastanjeni na oporiščih v bližini Damaska v Siriji, so se pritožili domov, da je vzdrževanje sirijskih letal preporavnin preslabo ter da zato s temi letali ne bodo leteli.

Gre za egiptsko MIG letalo, za katerih vzdrževanje so odgovorni sirijski vojaški mehaniki. Sirija in Egipt sta povezana v Arabski federaciji za skupni bojni proti Izraelu. Egiptski letalci podpirajo svoje stališče z nekaj nesrečami, ki so se zgodile. Siriji odgovarjajo, da nesreč ni slika kriva slabu vzdrževana letala, ampak slab egiptski letalci.

ČRNA ŽENA

ZGODOVINSKA POVEST

Nad tilnikom se ji je lesketal v laseh zlata iglica s svetlimi dragulji. Njene nežne, črne roke so oklepale križevo deblo, svojo ogljenočrno glavo pa je burno pritiskala ob noge Križanega. Celo telo ji je podrhtevalo v nekem notranjem, krčevitem trepetu. Anželu je zagomezelo mrzlo po hrbitu, odskočil je korak nazaj, pod nogami mu je zaškrtal droben kamenček. Prikazen je preplašena šimla kvišku, se ozrla proti mlademu kmetu ter mu pogledala naravnost v oči. Mož je videl pred seboj črno, zamorsko obliče, na katerem so bile začrtane nežne, nenavadno pravilne poteze. Tudi njene oči so bile ogljenočrne, toda iz njih je žarel čuden zelenkast ogenj kakor žari ponči iz mačjih oči. Okoli črnega vrata je nosila žena blestečo zaponko, ki je bila okolinokoli drobno posuta z biseri in dragimi kameni.

"Križ božji!" je viknil kmet napol v omedljevici.

Prikazen je dvignila svoje črne roke proti nebnu in jih sklenila, kakor bi hotela moliti. Teden se je kmet ojunačil in vpravšal:

"Kdo si in kaj hočeš tod?"

Črna žena je položila kazalec na ustnice, kakor bi hotela reči, da ne sme govoriti, in je iztegnila obe roki od sebe ter jezno nagubančila čelo, naj mož naglo odide. Ali ta se ni ganil z mesta. Zato se je prikazen obrnila in stopala počasi po skalnati stezici proti "Slepemu Bogu". Anželj je pričakoval, da se bo vsaj enkrat še ozrla nazaj, toda žena je korakala mirno svojo pot ter slednjič izginila v neprodirni temini za pečevjem.

Tedaj je zdiral Anželj v velikih skokih po holmu navzgor. Sele ko je dospel vrh senožeti, je nekoliko obstal ter se oddahnil. Pred seboj je videl brdsko vasico in svojo domačijo, pa je rajši krenil na levo in ubral korake proti prijazni, skoro novi hišici, ki je čepela tuk goščave. To je bil dom mladega Bregarja, ki je že poldrugega leta živel z njegovim najmlajšim sesstro v srečnem zakonu. Anželj je trkal na vežna vrata, na okna in šele čez dokaj časa so prišli domači odpirat pozemu gosuto.

"Bog daj, Tine!" ga je sprejela sestra na pragu, "kaj pa tako hropeš? Ali se je zgodila nesreča?"

"Nesreča ne," je javknil brat in stopil v sobo, "ampak črno ženo sem videl."

"Sveta nebesa! Kje pa?" je kriknil Bregarica.

"Doli pri znamenju ob potoku, ravnokar prihajam z Bleščadom."

"Si menda že zopet pri Mihorku malo globlje pogledal v kozares," se je pošalil Bregar.

"France," se je postavil Anželj, "verjemi mi, trezen sem kakor bukov štor! Kar sém videl na lastne oči, tega mi ne boš utajil."

"I kakšna pa je bila, no?" ga je vprašal svak in se še bolj nagajivo zasmjal.

Zdaj je pričel Anželj na dolgo in široko pripovedovati, kako je srečal nočno prikazen, ter jo je popisal do pičice ravno tako, kakor jo je videl, ko je molila pod križem. Bregarju je polagoma izginil smehljaj z ustnic.

Ceškača je prikazen resnej:

"Jaz ne verujem v duhove in strahove! Če je dober duh, ne hodi strašit na ta svet, če je pa zel ali ludoven, pa ne sme priti."

"Kako si čuden, France," ga je opomnila žena, "saj je lahko kaka duša iz vic, ki prosi pomoci!"

"Ali pa napoveduje veliko nesrečo, da bi se ji izognili," je pristavil brat. "Veš, kako se gledamo z graščakom."

"Ne bodita vendar," ju je zavrnil Bregar; "ta strah je iz mesa in krvi. Strahovi ne nosijo zlata, in draguljev ter ne pretakajo solza. Noben duh se ne prestraši, če mu stopiš iznenaša za hrbet. In če hoče s pota, mu ni treba bežati in se skrivati za skalami, ampak lahko na licu mesta izgine."

Prerekali so se dolgo časa semintja in končno je Bregar dejal:

"Kako da nisi šel k njej ter jo zagrabil? Saj včasih nisi bil taka tapca! Na ta način bi se bil prav lahko prepričal, kaj je bilo tisto strašilo!"

"Svak, tudi ti bi si ne bil upal, če bi bil na mojem mestu."

"Jaz? Bi videl, kako naglo bi se pobotala s tvojo prikaznijo! Človek, ki ima mirno vest in krepke roke, se ne sme ustranski.

Kako se more ukazati otroku naj ne raste?

Se ne more

In ne more se ukazati družini z malimi dohodki naj opusti trud za izboljšanja položaja.

Vendar si nekateri predstavljajo da je to mogoče.

Pravijo, naprimer:
da ni potrebe po zboljšanju obratov večje električne sile.

da ta moč popolnoma zadostuje.
da ni potrebe elektrostatičnih naprav za čiščenje zraka in vode.
da ni potrebe pomnožiti produkcijo in s tem ustvariti prilike za mlade ki iščejo zaposlitev.

da ni potrebe zboljšati stanje delavcev
v tovarnah, v uradih, v trgovinah, bolnišnicah, v šolah.

Dobro vemo, da to ni resnica. Ne smemo preprečiti rast ljudem.

kostanjevimi lasmi, ki so se pa na sencih začeli že nekoliko beliti. Po pravici bi jih seveda še si rešil življenga, da ga niso oteli mimoidiči popotniki in mu skrbno stregli. Rana na plečih se mu je zelo počasi celila in zato je izstopil iz najemniške cete. Kupil si je s podarjenim denarjem na meji precej obširno posestvo, a ker pri njem ni imel sreče, ga je kmalu zopet prodal in domotožje ga je slednjic privедel zopet nazaj domov na Kranjsko. Doma so mu medtem pomrli vsi najbljžji sorodniki; zato je hodil nekaj časa ves potrit in žalosten semtretja in se ni mogel umiriti. Pogost si ga lahko videl v cerkvi, kjer je po konci kleče pobožno molil. Pozneje je začel zahajati na Brda, in vselej, kadar je prišel tjakaj, se je ustavil nekoliko pri vratih Anželjeve hiše.

Bregar je bil pravzaprav doma iz Radovljice. Komaj je stopil v mladeničko dobo, ga je gnala neka notranja sila po svetu, tako da mu doma ni bilo več strpeti. Stopil je torej kot najemnik v četo, ki je šla v boj zoper turške pesjane in z njim prišel na južno štajersko mejo. O naporih, ki jih je moral prenašati in o nevarnostih, v katerih je živel tam doli, pozneje ni rad pripovedoval. Pač je povedal, in to večkrat, da se je boril v marsikam vročem spopadu s Turki in da je nekoč v najhujši borbi rešil življenga svojemu poveljniku Krištofu, radovljškemu graščaku. Ta mu je zato hrabro delo podaril kot placi veliko vsoto denarja. Poz-

GEORGE McGOVERN DUMPS ETHNIC VOTERS

Democratic presidential candidate Sen. George S. McGovern seems to have dropped his pitch for the ethnic vote. This idea was brought to light in an article published in the Cleveland Press on Thursday, Aug. 24 by Scripps-Howard writer Ted Knap.

The story read:

"Sen. George S. McGovern has made considerable progress toward eliminating his chances in ethnically oriented Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Illinois."

The probable Republicanization of these three states—and perhaps also Wisconsin, Michigan and New York—is attributable in part to the South Dakotan's failure to understand and practice ethnic politics.

ONE OF THE FIRST ACTS of McGovern's hand-picked Democratic national chairman, Mrs. Jean Westwood of Utah, was to abolish the party's Nationalities Division, established in 1932. The outgoing national chairman, Lawrence F. O'Brien, was appalled.

Andrew Valuchek, veteran head of that division, received distress calls from representatives of Czech, German, Italian and Polish organizations and newspapers.

He has stayed on at the Democratic National Committee and says the division may be re-established, but some damage has already been done.

The Nationalities Division and its 23 subdivisions from Armenian to Yugoslav, was the communications link between the Democratic National Committee and many of the 34 million "ethnic" Americans, arranging for speakers at their meetings and conventions, getting the Democratic message into their newspapers, and communicating directly by mail.

Laszlo C. Pasztor, Valuchek's Republican counterpart, said he was "saddened to read" of

Sen. George McGovern

Mrs. Westwood's action, but added that it "gives us an opening" to traditionally Democratic groups.

The GOP is expanding its nationalities staff and activities for the campaign.

It was not lost on the Polish community that Aloysius Mezewski, Chicago, current president of the Polish National Alliance, supports Nixon...

It was not lost on the Italian community that Philadelphia Mayor Frank Rizzo, a Democrat, is actively supporting Nixon and opposing McGovern. Valuchek said that hurts more than Cleveland's Czech Mayor Ralph Perk's being for Nixon, because Perk is a Republican.

It was not lost on the Romanian community that a group of their fellow Romanians visited the White House and said they were switching from Democrat to Republican in the 1972 presidential election.

It is of interest not just to Greeks that Vice President Spiro T. Agnew is the son of a Greek immigrant. "We ethnic Americans," Agnew says in speeches.

THE ETHNIC VOTE has been the infantry of Democratic victories for 40 years. Democrats lost only when much of it went to Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956, or when some of it went to George C. Wallace or stayed home in 1968. It was the decisive element in John F. Kennedy's victory in 1969.

No question about it — Nixon is making substantial gains among European and Spanish-speaking nationality groups. It shows up in his 11% gain among Catholics, among whom he now leads McGovern by 56 to 37% in the Gallup Poll. It shows up in the Gallup report that Nixon also leads among manual workers, 56 to 37%, and even among union families.

DON'T BE A CAD, HELP KEEP THE COD!

The following statement was sent by the Cleveland Coordinating Committee for Cod, Inc. They are trying to save a submarine for Cleveland. The government wants to scrap the boat.

"We in Greater Cleveland have a wonderful opportunity to acquire at nominal expense an historic asset, the World War II submarine U.S.S. COD (SS224), now docked at our lakefront just east of Ninth Street. It could be the central attraction in a park-museum to be located in the same general area, and made available to school children and to all others for the many years of the future.

COD may well become a point of national interest, the largest modern warship ever raised entirely out of water for the purpose. She is longer than a football field (311'9"), 40 feet at highest fixed point, and weighs 1,500 tons without ballast and fuel!

As a fighting ship her record is impressive. During seven wartime patrols in the Pacific, COD sunk and damaged 50 times her own weight — and the figure does not include weight and value of enemy cargos thus destroyed.

As a continuing source of civic pride and cultural advancement COD may double the effect of her distinguished record.

To support this area endeavor members of the Cleveland Coordinating Committee for Cod, Inc., are addressing individuals and groups of all kinds soliciting financial support. We need financial assistance now if we are to save COD before the Navy is forced to scrap her as obsolete.

Gifts and pledges in any amount are most urgently needed. Pledges in excess of $25 may be made payable over a period of 2 years. We welcome the opportunity to address your group, and we welcome requests for additional information. CCCC is certified by IRS as nonprofit organization under section 501 (c) (3). Please address: Cleveland Coordinating Committee for Cod, Inc., Room 222, 4500 Euclid Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44103. Telephone 932-7522 or 371-9569.

Clear the house — here come the grandkids

When the happy news arrives that the grandchildren are coming for a Labor Day visit, grandmother's thoughts turn to groceries and grandfather's to putting a swing on a tree in the backyard.

Much as good food and outdoor fun may contribute to the children's joy and health, there are some other preparations that need urgent attention. Grandma and grandpa may be out of practice in the safe handling of children because they have lived in a childless house for so long that it has become organized for the convenience and safety of the older adult, not the child.

Grandpa's razor lies, week in and week out, on the low table alongside of the bathroom lavatory. Grandma's after-meal medicines are on a handy window ledge near the kitchen sink.

The garage contains an assortment of garden tools, many of them sharp-edged, pointed or heavy. In the basement, the power saw is plugged in, ready to hum into action.

Under the kitchen sink is a collection of cleaning aids — ammonia, bleach, drain cleaner and other potent threats to curious youngsters.

There may be more problems. A shallow pond in the backyard can drown a toddler — the records show that drownings in water less than a foot deep are very common.

The patio fireplace may be great for a marshmallow and weiner roast while the kids are there, but the fire-starter fluid always kept on the shelf just inside the garage door had better be put away for the duration.

Almost certainly the old folks haven't paid much attention to the hazards that might abound in their neighbor's yards, including swimming pools. But they must pay attention now, because curious children with new territory to explore are not concerned with property boundary lines.

When the children do arrive, remember that no preparations, however thorough they may be, can substitute for the watchfulness and care you owe them.

Your grandchildren are beautiful, bright and beloved.

It is your job to return them to their parents unharmed — it is to be hoped — a little wiser in the ways of living safely.

FATE OF 'LOST HORIZON' WILL FIND FUTURE OF BIG MOVIES

"Lost Horizon" stars Liv Ullman (left) and Peter Finch (right). Director is Englishman Charles Jarrott (center) who hopes the movie-going audience will leave the theater feeling happy.

by DICK KLEINER
HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—"Lost Horizon" has finished shooting and Hollywood has its well-manicured fingers crossed.

If it goes, if it makes piles of money and wins awards, maybe then the big picture will come back.

There are thousands of people in Hollywood rooting for its success. One of the biggest rooters, of course, is the director Charles Jarrott. This was his first Hollywood experience and he loved every minute of it.

HE'S AN ENGLISHMAN, who started out as an actor, went to Canada on a tour, married a Canadian actress and stayed. He became a director on Canadian television.

He went back to England, as a TV director still, and there did a TV movie which eventually played here — "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," with Jack Palance. That was so well received in England that he was tapped to do his first feature.

It was the impressive "Anne of the Thousand Days" and he followed that up with "Mary, Queen of Scots," another big and gaudy historical drama. Those were his only two features. They were enough to make Ross Hunter want him to direct "Lost Horizon."

"WHEN ROSS approached me about the picture," Jarrott says,

18th District Report Ohio House of Representatives

EDWARD M. RYDER

IDEA OF CENTRAL CONTROL OF OUR SCHOOL SYSTEM IS RIDICULOUS AND PREPOSTEROUS

At a debate on taxes and education held at Temple Ner Tamid in Euclid last Friday, Aug. 25, I blasted a proposal suggested by my opponent in the race for State Representative of the 18th District.

I was amazed to hear Tim McCormack suggest that local school districts be abolished and the state take over the financing and administration of all education in Ohio.

His proposal would change the well-financed, superior schools we have in the 18th District into watered down, mediocre schools which exist in other parts of Ohio.

This idea of central control of our school system is a preposterous and ridiculous idea which is repugnant to me and to the people of the 18th District.

It reminds me of George Orwell's "1984" with "Big Brother" running our local school system.

I will oppose any attempt to weaken our local school system, whether by central control or other means. This is just another attempt by my opponent to take control from the people of the 18th District.

Law and the layman

People like you get entangled in the law every day. But how much does the average citizen need to know about the law?

"Enough to protect your flanks and stay out of trouble," says Howard L. Oleck, Professor of Law at Cleveland State University.

He and nine other legal experts, all CSU faculty members, will teach "Law For the Layman" this fall.

"Every situation doesn't justify calling an attorney," says Oleck, "but you ought to know when you are being taken advantage of, or when you risk breaking the law."

All ten lessons cost $90. Call 687-2144 for more details.

MODERATION IS THE KEY FOR LABOR DAY ACTIVITIES WARNS AMERICAN HEART PHYSICIANS

With everyone's life-style still outdoors for the Labor Day weekend, the American Heart Assn., Northeast Ohio Chapter, urges all sun-lovers to protect their hearts during the warm weather activities.

A careful program of exercise can strengthen the heart muscle and improve blood circulation. But improper exercise could put a dangerous strain on the heart.

During the weekend, baseball, tennis, swimming and running become inviting, but in exercise, moderation is the key.

Don't overexert yourself. Be particularly careful if you are a middle-aged man, overweight, and have a sedentary job. Scoring a home run in a father-son baseball game could mean a victory for your team. But, if you feel totally weak and out-of-breath as a result, you are defeating your own heart.

Do not exercise if you have a minor illness, an infection or are under any stress or emotional turmoil.

Also, avoid hot showers after exercising. Follow your exercises with a restful "cooling down" period. Both exercising and hot water expand the blood vessels, forcing the heart to pump more blood. After exercising, the blood vessels should begin to return to normal.

Then take a lukewarm shower.

Letters From Readers Agree With Me

Yes we can be proud of our Slovenian ancestral heritage which includes a wonderful past and people who deserve recognition. I will help get that out so they will not be forgotten.

AMONG many of the honorees should be poet-composer Ivan Zorman, Louis Belle, Anton Schubel, Dr. William Lausche, and many others. In song culture, we should not forget George Malovrh, Josephine Lausche Welf, Mary Udovic, Vinko Kenik, Mary Hafner, Jernej Vrhovc, Annette Grdina, Frank Plut, etc.

In the medical field we must not forget the contributions of Drs. Frank J. Kern and Dr. James J. Seliskar, both active fraternalists. Other fraternalists to be remembered are Anton Grdina, John Gornik, Mike Jalo-vec, Anton Kausek, John Zulich, Anton Ostir, Frank Zorich, Monsignor Joseph Buh, Rev. Frank Sustersich, Joseph Stukel, Ivan Pakiz, John Oberstar, Joseph Zalar, John Germ, Mike Wardjan, Joseph Panian, Matt Brunske, Steve Stanfell, and many others. These people contributed more than they ever received recognition for, never did they commit any acts of being subversive or advocate the overthrow of the American Government.

JAKA DEBEVEC AND LOUIS J. PIRC should be remembered for their contribution as editor and manager of the paper American Home and more so for their teaching of American citizenship for the immigrants to become good citizens of their adopted country—America.

Will Audiences Find 'Lost Horizon'?

It is all in good—excellent—taste, with a great cast, a lovely score by Burt Bacharach and Hal David and sets and costumes like Hollywood's most luxurious days.

He's still the film buff and turned around to gawk at John Wayne in the Warner Bros. commissary. When Wayne found out who he was, he gawked right back.

While most of "Lost Horizon" was shot at the Warner Bros. lot (now called The Burbank Studio since WB and Columbia merged facilities), the company did go on location, to Mt. Hood in Oregon, for the snow scenes. "We shot 11,000 feet up," Jarrott says. "We had to walk the last 2,000 feet. It was providential—I had given up smoking 18 months before, so I was able to make the climb. Of course, the day after we finished there, I started smoking again."

He hopes "Lost Horizon" will work but his fondest hope is that the audience leaves the theater, after seeing it, "feeling good, perhaps even uplifted."

"I'm very tired of those movies," he says "where you come out of the theater feeling like you've been beaten."

Auditor's Report

GEORGE VOINOVICH

OTHER SOLDIERS RELIEF VENDORS WILL BE CHARGED WITH THE WORST TYPE OF FRAUD

After months of investigation, heavy research and dozens of reports, my office as part of the Prosecutor's presentation to the Grand Jury, has submitted our findings on fraudulent Soldier Relief Commission orders.

Now that indictments have been handed down I would like to report that this is just a start.

There will be other vendors charged with accepting rent orders on properties they neither own nor control as landlords.

There will be other vendors charged with participating in a "discount" operation involving all types of relief orders.

For example, I recently ordered a voucher for $1200 to be held without payment. This individual turned in 21 rent orders at one crack, claiming that he was entitled to payment. Our investigation disclosed the following:

1. Not one of the 21 recipients listed on the orders can be verified to have been a tenant at the addresses shown.

2. Bona fide landlords at the addresses tell us that they never received the orders for rent payments.

In the face of all the publicity that has been given to activities of this sort I CANNOT understand how phony vendors can continue to go their merry way. My office will continue to turn these cases over to the Prosecutor.

Tax dollars will be protected and deserving welfare recipients will not suffer because vultures attempt to funnel off funds that should go to the elderly, dependent children and families experiencing difficult times.

Since these flagrant abuses of relief payments came under scrutiny by my office, we have piled up more than 2500 man hours, have written 165 pages of reports and made hundreds of contacts in pinning down fraudulent relief orders that date back to 1968.

We have accomplished this with no increase in our budget and we were successful in kicking off the investigation that ultimately was joined by the Prosecutor's Office, the County Welfare Department, State Examiners and the Cleveland Police Department.
