Amerika naj napravi "nove korake" za mir

Francoski zunanjii minister je v ZN dejal, da bodo morale Združene države napraviti še "nove korake", predno bo odprta pot k razgovoru o miru v Vietnamu.

ZDRUŽENI NARODI, N.Y.— Ko je imel zunanjii minister Francije Maurice Couve de Murville te dni svoj govor pred glavno skupščino, je razvijal francosko stališče o položaju v Vietnamu in o poti, ki naj vodi do končanja vojne tam. Po njegovem sedanji koraki in predlogi Združenih držav še niso zavoljivi, te bodo morale napraviti še nove, predno bodo razgovori mogoči. Kot De Gaulle tekom svojega obiska v Kambodži v znanem govoru o vietnamski vojni ni stavil nobenih zahtev do rdečih, ampak le do Združenih držav, tako je tudi njegov zunanjii minister pred ZN molčal o zahtevah do rdečih.

Zato je ameriški poslanik pri ZN Goldberg v kratkem govoru odgovoril Francozu, da so Združene države pripravljene proučiti vsak predlog poleg onega, ki so ga same stavile pretekli teden. Iskrenost njenega pa lahko komunistična stran vsak čas preskusi z dejanji.

V ameriškem državnem tajništvu misijo, da Severni Vietnam klub javni zavrnitvi ameriškega predloga tega le temeljito proučuje in utegne nanj še pozitivno odgovoriti, ko se mu bo za to čas zdel primeren. V zvezi s tem opozarjajo nekatere na pogoje za končanje vojne, ki jih je še pretekli mesec dal predsednik Osvobodilne fronte avstralskemu časniku in jih je hanoiski radio te dni dal v javnost. Med njimi ni zahteve po umiku ameriških čet kot pogoj za začetek razgovorov.

Brazilijska se pripravlja na volitve

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil. — Brazilijska se pripravlja na volitve. Ne morda na predsedniške, kajti zanje se nihče ne zanima. Volivni red je tak, da je edinem resnemu kandidatu generalu Silvu zmagal zagotovljena. Več zanimanja je pa za kongresne volitve, ki bodo 15. novembra.

Tam bo prišel glas navadnega voliveca kolikor toliko do veljave in ravno radi tega je režim zaskrbljen. Boji se, da bodo njegovi kandidati propadli v velikih mestih in industrijskih krajih. Zato je vlada začela obljubovati in napovedovati samo dobre stvari. 37,000 delavcev bo na primer tako srečnih, da bo dobilo nove hiše; hiš pa je potrebno o-koli 2,500,000 družin. Prosveni minister bi rad potolažil študente, pa nima sreče. Dijakom je obljubljena cela vrsta štipendij. Vlada pa nima poguma, da bi zaustavila draginjo. To pa volice jezi.

Vremenski prerok pravi:

Vecinoma oblačno in deževno. Najvišja temperatura 59.

Kitajski komunisti imajo jutri narodni praznik

PEIPING, Kit. — Kitajski komunisti bodo jutri praznovali 17. obletnico, odkar so na vlad. Za slavnosti so se temeljito pripravljali že nekaj dni. Ali bodo pokazali kaj novega, nihče ne ve. Sicer pa politični opazovalci niso toliko zainteresirani, ali bodo videli in slišali kaj novega, kot na vprašanju, kdo vse bo jutri dneva na vseh proslavah.

Režim bo lahko na svoj način brez besed na primer povedal, kakšno vlogo naj igrajo Rdeče garde. Povedal bo tudi lahko, kdo je pri njem padel v nemest. Taki nesrečni se ne bodo pokazali v javnosti. Obseg vojaške parade bo povedal, koliko sedaj pomeni kitajska rdeča armada v domači politiki. Napisi bodo povedali smer, v kateri bo režim hotel vzgajati delovne ljudi. Na tribunah za rdeče poslavje bo pa opazovalec lahko ugotovil, kdo je kaj, kdo se lahko vrti okoli vodilnih tovaršev, kdo se mora držati kar v ozadju.

Vse to so malenkosti, ki se zanje svobodni svet nima smisla, na Kitajskem pa pomenijo veliko, včasih tudi vse za tiste, ki so prizadeti.

Indijska kongresna stranka sestavila volivni oglas

ERNAKULAM, Ind. — Po-selbna komisija indijske kongresne stranke se je posvetovala in sestavila volivni proglast. Za Indijo je ta dogodek pomemben radi tega, ker je pokazal, da je stranka vkljub vsem notranjim trenjem še zmeraj kolikor toliko složna. Račun za letošnjo slogo so plačali strankini levičarji, ki jih vodi Krišna Menon. Pristali so namreč na zelo mile zahteve po nacionalizaciji in še te so zavili v besede, ki dovoljujejo več razlag. Najbolj živahn je bila debata o vprašanju, kako daleč naj gre nacionalizacija bank.

Zmagalo je stališče, ki ga je zagovarjala predsednica ministrskega sveta Mrs. Gandhi. Volivni proglast je bil potem soglasno odobren.

Mrs. Gandhi se pa pripravlja na pot v Jugoslavijo. Bo tam 21. oktobra skupaj z egipovskim Nasnjem. Tito je že proglašil sestanek te trojce za "srečanje na vrhovih". Da bi srečanje imelo mednaroden pomen, ne bi mogli pričakovati.

Westmoreland predložil ogolitev neutralne cone

DA NANG, J. Viet. — Vrhovni poveljnik ameriških oboroženih sil v Južnem Vietnamu gen. Westmoreland je na predlog posljalstva marinov, ki varujejo severni del Južnega Vietnamu pred rdečimi, zaprosil predsednika za dovoljenje za ogolitev vsega drevja in drugega rastlinja v neutralnem pasu, ki loči Južni in Severni Vietnam.

Gostoto drevje dbasežnega gozdnega predela nudi rdečim, ki prehajajo preko neutralnega področja iz Severnega Vietnam-a v Južnega, odlično kritje pred ameriškimi letali. Ogolitev področja bo omogočala nje-govo stalno nadziranje iz zraka.

Južnoveitnamska ustavodajna skupščina začela zborovati

SAIGON, J. Viet. — Začetkom tedna so se zopet odpravili v palači Narodne skupščine, da najde pot vanjo 117 poslancev, ki so bili izvoljeni, da sestavijo in izglasujejo novo ustavo. Prvi sestanek ni bil ravno vreč slovesen, mnogo poslancev je bilo namreč nezadovoljni, ker niso dobili nobenega pismenega povabila. Pozive so samo slišali na radiu ali pa brali v časopisih. Vendar se najstarejšemu poslancu 68-letnemu Luongu ni bilo treba batiti za sklepčnost; njegov tajnik 25-letni poslanec jo je kot začasni tajnik lahko hitro ugotovil. Predsednik republike Van Thieu s svojim nagovorom tudi ni razburjal duhov.

Skupščina mora sedaj izbrati predsedstvo in tajništvo, kar ne bo lahek posel. Pri tem je treba vpoštovati vietnamsko navado, da se nikomur ne sme nikam muditi. Povrhu ni v skupščini nobene stranke, ki bi predlagala

Stroški zdravljenja v bolnicah bodo rastli

Napovedujejo, da se bodo do leta 1970 podvojili.

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Strokovnjaki se bojijo, da bodo stroški za zdravljenje v bolnicah narasti do konca prihodnjega leta za 10 do 30%, do l. 1970 se bodo pa dvignili za 100%. To bo seveda postavilo na glavo vse vrste bolniškega zavarovanja, tudi federalnega.

Nastopila bo huda kriza, ki bi se mogliogniti samo takrat, ako bi sedaj začeli delati načrte, kako reorganizirati naše bolnice. Res je, da bo precej viših stroškov odpadlo na večje plačo osobju, ki je zaposleno v bolnicah in ki povprečno ni takdo dobranočan kot na drugih področjih, toda to ni vse. Hudo znamenjena je tudi organizacija zdravljenja, ker je vsaka bolnica postalne neke vrste omnibus, ki mora biti pripravljen, da zdravi vse mogoče bolezni.

Nekateri strokovnjaki misijo, da bomo morali preiti na specijalizacijo bolnic, obenem pa tudi na integracijo. Temeljito bo treba tudi preštudirati sedanji način bolniškega poslovanja, ki je že precej zastarel. Počemu je na primer treba imeti kar tri kategorije bolniških sob? Počemu še ni nobenega načrtnega izbiranja prostorov za nove bolnice?

Par dni preje se je tja obrnil Kongo z obožbo Portugalske, češ da podpira Combeja pri njegovih zaroti.

Pribitri integracija šol?

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Vodnik demokratske večine v senatu Mansfield iz Montane je dejal, da bo stroški za federalno bolniško zavarovanje kalkulirani preoptimistično in da se bo moralno zavarovanje bo-riti s primanjkljaji. Kdo naj jih plača, ali bolniki ali zavarovalnice?

Kongres se bo verjetno moral pečati s tem kočljivim vprašanjem še pred l. 1970.

Kdaj bo kriza nastopila, se ne

da prorokovati. Verjetno bo pa

dan povod začelo, da bo stroški za

da se bo moralno zavarovanje bo-

OTROŠKI KOTIČEK

Najprvo lep pozdrav vsem, mladim in starim otrokom, od mene in mucka, od krizantem, pelargonij, od rožmarina in roženkavta na mojem vrtiču. Potem pa Bogu hvala, da moje stare kosti še pokonci drži in mucka tudi, čeprav je ves kilav. Zares sem že mislil, da bi staro pero v staro šaro zagnal, stegnil svoja kopeta po pogradu in rekel amen. Pa mi je gospod od Domovine prinesel pisma starih žen, ki vprašujejo, če letos ne bo "Kotička". Mladost so obujale ob njem. In se mi je inak storilo. Že poleti nekoč (ravno na počitnicah sem bil takrat), se mi je z lepim pisemcem zahvalila za Kotiček Mrs. Prislandova. Se lepo zahvalim in za pesmico tudi.

Tako v božjem imenu spet pričenjam vrstice, ki so v prvi vrsti namenjene otrokom slovenskih šol, ki se brez šol po raznih krajih od mame in ata besedo govoriti uče in vsem velikim otrokom, ki so šole že zdavnaj odbrenkali, pa si včasih zaželete slišati otroško govorico. Na vse zadnje — vsi bomo do smrtne ure ostali otroci, mar ne? Saj se pameten človek do zadnje ure uči.

Vse kaže, da bo letos zgodnjega zima. smo imeli že nekaj prav grdih jesenskih dni, tako, da sva z muckom kar v šendi čepela in kukala skozi okno. Škornje sem že privlek na dan. Otrdeli so bili čez poletje in sem jih s samom namazal, da se omehčajo in da bodo držala čobodo, ko bo med dežjem sneg pricel kacati. Pregledal sem tudi suknjo. Malo so jo molji načeli, pa ne prehudo. Revmatizem me je čez poletje malce popustil, bojim se le, ko se spet oglasi. Oči mi seveda ne neso daleč. Pa nazadnje je tako: od blizu vidim. Vse rožice na vrtičku si vsak dan ogledam. Da bi pa po dečelčah gledal, kakor mlađi ljudje dela, sem pa prestar.

Mucek je pred dobrim mesecem spet sklenil zapustiti to bedno mačje življenje, pa se je premislil. Vesarij je in vešaril po šendi, jed mu ni dišala, pa se je le izlatal. Na prevkato bi mi bilo hudo, če bi zašel. Saj, skoraj ne vem, kaj naj bi sam počel v šendi.

Vem pa, da se leta mojega potovanja bližajo koncu. To vidi, čeprav hudo slabo vidim. Neki dan, neko uro me Gospod Bog pokliče tako, kakor je v stari pesmi zapisano: Stric, na rajtengo. Porečem z bogom šendici in porečem z bogom mucku, udarim križ na čelo, na brado in prsa kakor se krščanskemu človeku spodobi in pojdem. In se nič ne bojim. Včasih se mi celo veselo vidi, če pomislim, da najdem tam svoje stare prijatelje. S fratom Humilijem, s katerim sva bila skupaj v bojih s polenarji na Monte Cuco, si kar milim, da ne bova nehal obnavljati spominov. Potlej se spominim na Fajdelnovno Katro s Primskovega. Včasih sem jo na eno oko rad pogledal. Zdaj bo tega že kakšnih šestdeset let. Tristo judov, tedaj sem bil fant. Če sem zvečer stopil na vas in je luna fantičke nosila, samo prvo

Bankeli postali v New Yorku visoka politika

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Pravzaprav so to bili že od nekdaj, saj so dali priliko, da se gostje posmenijo ne samo o vremenu in družabnih škandalih, ampak tudi o kočljivih političnih vprašanjih. Novo podobo so pa dobili letos poleti.

Zgodilo se je namreč, da je savdski kralj Fejsal v juniju javno trdil, da je vsak prijatelj izraelskih države sovražnik savdske dežele. Njujorski Judje so takoj protestirali in tako preplašili njujorskike politike, da so se izogibali stikom s Fejsalom. Guverner Rockefeller se ni hotel sestati z njim, župan Lindsay je pa odpovedal večerjo v čast savdskemu kralju.

Užaljen pa ni bil samo kralj Fejsal, ampak vsi Arabci. To so pokazali preteki teden. Kar 12 glavnih arabskih delegatov pri ZN je odklonilo povabilo župana Linsayja na večerjo, ki jo je priredil za vodilne delegate ZN. Obenem so agitirali med muslimanskimi delegacijami, naj se tudi one ne udeležijo večerje. Pri tem niso imeli uspeha. Ker delegacije ZN ne živijo zmeraj v slogi med seboj, bodo banketi kmalu zamrli, ako bodo diplomati posnemali Arabce.

Moskva in Washington izmenjavata podatke o vremenu

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Med našo deželo in Rusijo se vlečajo pogajanja o sodelovanju pri vremenskih napovedih že od takrat, ko je Amerika poslala prvega vremenskega satelita v vesolje. Seveda ga je poslala tudi Rusija. Pogajanja so se zmeraj zatikalna in ni kazalo, da bi rodila uspeh.

Kar naenkrat so pa Rusi zazeli 18. avgusta pošiljati dnevno fotografiranje oblakov in vremenske zemljevidne brez vsakega uvida. Naše vremenske opazovalnice so takoj storile isto in tako je izmenjanje podatkov postal kar živahnino. Moskva pošilja dnevno 6-8 fotografij in vremenskih kart, dobi jih pa od nas, kolikor jih Amerika naredi. Iz podatkov sta pa izključeni ozemlji naše dežele in Rusije. Rusi ne dajejo svojih, naše vremenske postaje pa tudi držijo podatke o našem nebu kar za sebe. Ruski podatki so tehnično na višini. Izvirajo največ od ruskega satelita Cosmos 122; naše podatke pa daje satelit Essa I.

Naši vremenski strokovnjaki se trudijo, da bi obseg izmenjanja več povečali.

— Število tovornjakov v Ameriki se je od leta 1939 podvojilo.

DEDIŠČINA GOZDA

Miza v dnevnih izbi je bila lepo pokrita; odvetnik je bil ljubezni mož, ki je vedel marsikaj povedati iz mesta in daljnih dežel. Dečka sta z napetostjo poslušala njegove zgodbe, dih iz sveta pa je osvežil tudi Adelajdo. Obenem pa se je rahlo vznešljena vpraševala, kaj je pač utegnilo napotiti zaposlenega moža na takoj dolgo pot.

Adelajda in odvetnik sta sedela v pisarni. Dala mu je pristnosti kozarec vina, pipi in tobaka, kakor se spodobi in kmalu je spremno napeljal pogovor na skrb, ki ga je napotila na dolgo pot.

Pri svojem zadnjem obisku v mestu je bil pri njem Dag in — prinesel je s seboj vsa zadolžna pisma južnih občin. Povedal, da se jim odreka in zahteval, da se njih odpoved pravomočno zabeleži in pripravi v podpis; potem naj bi jih on, odvetnik, dostavil ljudem. S tem bi bili črtani vsi njihovi dolgovji. Se vedno ima dovolj zase in za svojo rodbino, ni torej razloga, da bi druge s temi listinami obteževal.

Odvetniku se še ni pripetilo, da bi kdo tako nesmiselno odvrgel tako ogromne vsote. Zaradi tega je rekel Dag, da izgotovitev njegovega naročila ni tako enostavna in naj počaka s podpisom, dokler ne pride prihodnjič v mesto. To pa je storil zato, da bi si Dag vso stvar lahko še enkrat v miru premisli, potem pa se je vse zgodilo čisto drugče. Počakal je, da je poteklo pol leta, ker je ni hotel takoj po nesreči s tem nadlegovati. Zdaj pa je tu; in Adelajda se mu bo gotovo izkazala hvaležno, ker je rešil tako veliko premoženje njej in otrokom.

Previdno ji je dal razumeti, da ve o nezgodi njenega moža v gorah in da je bil od takrat Dag včasih malo čudaški. Priporamil pa je tudi, da se vse velike rodine uničujejo na ta način, da končno nekdo zapravi, kar je drugi spravil na kup. Marsikaj dobrega ve o očetu Dagu; bil je razgledan in previden mož in hudo bi bilo, če bi se njegovo življensko delo na ta način uničilo.

Adelajda sprva ni vedela, kaj naj bi si o vsem tem mislila. Stvar z listinami si je lahko pojasnila že iz njegovega čudnega vedenja v zadnjem času. Toda vse, je rekel odvetnik, je bilo tako preprosto in jasno, in v svoji notranosti tudi ona ni razumela, kako more nekdo zavreči tako velike vrednote. Že dovolj težko je razumela, da je land po teto Eleonoro.

Ko je odvetnik prišel v dnevno sobo k zajtrku, se je pripeljala teta Eleonora. Zadnje čase jo je bolela noge in hodila je ob palici.

"Tu sem," je rekla. "Trudim se, da bi umrla, pa se mi ne posreči. Boš že še moral potreti kako leto."

Adelajda se je smejala njeni prisiljeni šali, in sedla k začaku. Potem je prosila Adelajdo odvetnika, če bi hotel za nekaj trenutkov oditi v vežo, če da se mora o nečem pomeniti s teto Eleonoro.

Gori v svoji sobi ji je potem Adelajda povedala vso zgodbo in jo prisila, naj ji pove svoje mnenje.

"Dobro pazi na papirje in reci zakotnemu odvetniku, naj se čim prej pobere," je jasno odločila teta.

"Da, ali..." je rekla Adelajda. "Tu ni nikakega ali, če hočeš imeti v grobu mir," jo je ostro prekinila teta. "Najprej odpravi tega možaka tu spodaj, potem pa se bova še pomeniti o zadevi."

Adelajda je šla v vežo in poslala odvetnika stran; zaenkrat bo obdržala papirje in si stvar razmislila.

Šele ko je teta Eleonora slišala, da je voz oddržal, je prisepala iz sobe po stopnicah navzdol in odšla v pisarno. Tam je sedla na stol in čakala.

Medtem ko je Adelajda sedla za pisalno mizo, jo je vprašajoče pogledala: "Kaj naj torej storim?"

"Zbudi se," ji je odvrnila stroga teta Eleonora; "in prični razumevati moža, s katerim si imela otroke. Odprti tam prvi papir in piši, kakor ti bom narekovala: Po volji svojega moža, Daga Bjorndala, je plačana.... in pripisi vsoto in svoje ime."

Adelajda, je motrila obraz svoje tete, ki je bil zdaj čisto naguban, in njene srebrne sive lase. Kaj je še mislila tako jasno kot prej? Ali pa je bila tudi na znotraj tako siva kakor na zunaj?

"Ali si gotova, da Dag..." je pričela.

"Da," je ostro odvrnila teta. "Saj nisem ne slepa in ne gluha.

Vem, kaj je hotel. Bjorndal in Borgland sta brez dolga — to veš sama. In ali veš, kaj to pomeni v času, ko so drugi zadolženi preko ušes? Obe kmetiji bosta nekoč dedovala njegova sinova in če se bosta dobro razvijala in bosta pridna, kakor je upal, ne bosta potrebovala več. Če pa se bosta izrodila, potem jima ne bodo pomagale ne obresti in ne zadolžne listine. Najtežja umetnost v življenju je, premagati svojo lakomnost. Stari se je boril z njo, mladi pa je prišel dlje."

Teta Leonora se je le s težavo dvignila ob svoji palici. Pri vstajanju jo je zbolela noge. Njene besede so zvenele suho: "Pa ti pride iz mesta in hoče govoriti o Dagovem razumu... Če je denar veliki zakon življenja, potem Dag seveda ni bil pri pravi pameti; če pa se živiljenjska zavoda glasi, da mora imeti človek živo srce, potem je bil Dag pametnejši od vseh, kar sem jih kdaj srečala v življenju."

Teta je odšla — Adelajda pa je pisala.

Sem od gora je divjal jesenski vihar, toda gozdovi so ga ujeli. Mogočno in močno je šumelo okoli hiš in visoko nad naseljeno — tja ven v svet...

Corn Flake Topping

Curried Cauliflower—Budget Dish

Prosaic cauliflower can be an exciting company vegetable. When having a celebration dinner built around baked ham or chicken, prepare a casserole of cauliflowerets sauced with a tomato curry mixture. Before baking, sprinkle butter and curry seasoned corn flakes around edge of the dish. Cereals such as corn flakes are excellent for ingredient use in recipes because they are inexpensive, convenient, add flavor and texture. The curry powder and crisp cereal step up the somewhat bland flavor of this plentiful fall vegetable.

Curried Cauliflower, Corn Flake Topping

6 cups raw cauliflowerets,	1 tablespoon flour about 1½ pounds	1 can (8 ounce) tomato
Boiling water	sauce
½ teaspoon salt	1 tablespoon lemon juice
½ cup chopped onion	½ teaspoons curry powder,
3 tablespoons butter or	or to taste
margarine	1½ cups corn flakes, crushed slightly

Cook cauliflower pieces until almost tender (about 8 minutes) in a small amount of boiling salted water. Drain. Spread in a shallow 1½ quart baking dish. Sauté onion until soft, in 2 tablespoons of butter or margarine. Blend in flour. Add tomato sauce, lemon juice, and 1 teaspoon curry powder; cook until thickened. Pour over cauliflower. Melt remaining 1 tablespoon butter or margarine. Stir in corn flakes and remaining ½ teaspoon curry powder. Sprinkle around edges of casserole. Heat in a moderate oven (375°F.) 12 to 15 minutes. Yield: 6 servings.

The man argued that his scale had been checked before coming to the store and he had been told it was accurate. He won the argument and was charged for the weights his scale recorded.

Attack Pattern of Sharks
Set For Education TV

Out of two-hundred-and-fifty species of shark lurking in all the earth's waters except the Antarctic, some thirty-five are man-eaters. It is the knowledge of this which has prompted the first of eight science specials for adults filmed by Prism Productions — "Attack Pattern of Sharks." The half-hour color program — "Attack Pattern of Sharks" will be telecast on National Educational Television during 1966, under the cover-all title of "Experiment."

The special will follow Dr. Perry Gilbert's activities as he experiments with 350 lb. sharks — caught by fishing crews, using quarter-inch steel hooks baited with three to four pounds of meat, in the waters between Bimini, British West Indies and Miami. Dr. Gilbert is chairman of the Shark Research Panel and professor of zoology at Cornell University.

While Dr. Gilbert will tell his own story, Don Herbert — television's "Mr. Wizard" for fourteen years and science author of two books — will both appear in and narrate "Attack Pattern of Sharks".

The Prism Productions crew probably Dr. Gilbert's work at Cornell and in Bimini. When Dr. Gilbert was lowered into a pool of man-eating sharks in a small wire cage, Don Herbert went down with him, carrying a camera.

"Attack Pattern of Sharks" will be the first Prism Productions special to be televised on N.E.T., under the cover-all title of "Experiment."

The series has been underwritten by matching grants from the National Science Foundation and the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation.

"Attack Pattern of Sharks," first in the "Experiment" series of programs to be televised on N.E.T. during 1966-67, will be televised in Cleveland on WVIZ N.E.T. station during the week of Oct. 9.

School Savings Bonds

Program

Postmaster Nelson E. Sundermeier has been commended by William H. Neal, National Director of the U.S. Savings Bond Division, for his leadership and service to the Treasury Department's School Savings Program.

In a letter to the postmaster, Mr. Neal said, "The mission of school savings is in many ways more important today than at any time since the end of World War II.

Today's young people, growing up in a world whose troubles admit to no easy solutions, need grounding in the simple truths of their American heritage as preparation for the challenges they face. The lesson of thrift is important in itself; but it becomes even more so when it also involves the investment of dimes and quarters, often saved as a sacrifice, in the future of our country through savings stamps and bonds."

School savings, which operates in many Greater Cleveland schools, is a part of the nationwide savings bonds program. Mr. Neal told the postmaster that "The good service you render plays a major part in its success." Savings stamps in five denominations, from 10 cents to $5, are on sale at all times at the post office and on stamp day in schools.

Mr. Sundermeier commented that "The sale of savings stamps to the public — especially to young people through the school savings program — is a service we are proud to offer. I know of no finer way to build for a better tomorrow than by training our youth in the sound American heritage of thrift."

Glasbena Matica's Tour Of Slovenia

Cleveland, O. — When the K.L.M. Elektra landed at Brnik airport on June 8, 1966, thirty Glasbena Matica members were prepared for ten concerts in Slovenia.

Host Slovenska Izseljenska Matica of Ljubljana greeted the singing entourage. Two new Muchen buses transferred the group and its accompanying passengers to Hotel Turist where Glasbena Matica of Ljubljana greeted its American counterpart. Simultaneously, the Ljubljana singers said good-bye to the Americans for the next morning they embarked on a concert tour to Poland.

First, anniversary memorial services for Glasbena Matica's former director Anton Schubel were held at his birthplace Rođice, Domžale the next morning. Townspeople, relatives, students dressed in Slovenian costumes attended and the children's chorus of Vencela Perka sang. As Glasbena Matica presented a profile plaque honoring Schubel's twenty-five years as director, president John Perencevic stated, "seventeen concerts, seventeen opera performances, thirteen operas, two operettas, two Slovenian contatas and one Slovenian oratorio were performed under Schubel's baton."

The singers were then driven to the neighboring church where Schubel at the age of six made his first vocal appearance. The church today stands as a museum featuring baroque styles and frescoes painted by Franc Jelovšek of Mengš.

By late afternoon, townspeople and children awaited Glasbena Matica as it arrived in Trbovlje. In front of Delavski Dom auditorium, two choral groups and the local firemen's band greeted the guests and directress Valentina Fillinger. A tour of the Trbovlje museum, cemetery grounds and a visit to the mayor in his office preceded the evening concert. One half hour before curtain time the chorus met its piano accompanist Lojze Lebič. While the stage and acoustical settings were being adjusted, the chorus rehearsed. Hurriedly the singers dressed into their formal stage attire and ten minutes later a capacity crowd enthusiastically greeted the performers. The long ovations thrilled the grateful singers as the audience cheered "come again."

Thermal spring resort "Medijiske Toplice" in Izlake lodged the singers as they dined, swam and slept in the highlands.

Pilgrimage shrine Brezje was Glasbena Matica's first stop the next morning. Luncheon at Lake Bled's Grand Hotel Toplice and room assignments preceded the trip to the ironworks town of Jesenice. Once again the local firemen's band greeted the singers. Welcoming addresses in front of the Tone Cufar Theatre in Jesenice were extended by the country cultural committee.

A tour through the structural ion museum emphasized Jesenice's pride in its historic, award-winning invention applied to ferro-manganese. By nightfall, an attentive audience applauded Glasbena Matica and directress Valentina Fillinger.

Steep inclines into snow-covered Vršič pass and downgrade through the Trenta Valley passing poet Simon Gregorčič's town of Kobarid, the Transturist bus carried its passengers into Nova Gorica and Gledališka Dvorana.

Ivan Zorman's composition "Tam pri Šoči" was adapted for this audience although newly constructed Nova Gorica boasts of almost invisible Yugoslav-Italian boundaries. Silently the city yearns for a new theatre.

Sunday, June 12, 1966 Glasbena Matica received a grand welcome by the Trieste Slovians. Partridge and tart wines were served before the singers entered the luxurious Slovenski Kulturni Dom auditorium. A gold-plate panel above the huge stage projected the acoustics into the plush seats and carpeted walls and floors. The main entrance ceiling suspends a huge crystal chandelier symbolizing American Slovenian contributions to the Italian-Yugoslav government appropriations.

Addressing the crowd, Dr. Robert Hlavaty, president of the Trieste Cultural Committee spoke, "we can't measure our distances by kilometers or miles but by blood and brotherly sentiments."

Valentina Fillinger drew warm ovations as announcer Stane Češarek recognized her skillful interpretation of Slovenian music.

Following the dinner at the academic student's hall, the trained voices of "Jacobus Galillus" chorus honored the guests. Strong Slav emphasis dominated the Slovenian choral music under Ubald Vrabec's direction.

Architecturally ancient Koper was Glasbena Matica's next stop. The tiny, balcony tiered theatre gave the singers a new dimension in performance. Today, the singers acknowledge the simplicity and ease with which they could project themselves to every listener.

A three-day rest preceded Glasbena Matica's second half of the concert tour. Health resort Rogaška Slatina greeted Glasbena Matica on June 17, 1966. Vacationers and local people filled the Grand Ballroom of Zdraviliški Dom.

Early the next morning the chorus headed for the city of Murska Sobota located near the Hungarian and Austrian borders. Cultural society "Svoboda" and its affiliate welcomed the singers to the Park auditorium. During the midday the singers visited a provincial museum and attended a picnic where babushka-clad peasant women baked and presented "pogače" to the chorus.

"Prekmurje", the region of hops, vineyards, large farmlands and storks nestled alongside TV antennas introduced itself to Glasbena Matica as they made their way to Ptuj and overnight to the 15th century Castle Borl. In front of Delavski Dom in Kidričev, the Ptuj male singers welcomed the Americans minutes before curtain time. A crowded hall once again accepted the chorus with long ovations and cheers.

Monday morning, June 20, 1966, winery Kmetijski Kombinat Ptuj toasted Glasbena Matica. Samplings of Renski and Laški Rizling, Muškatni Silvana and Muškat Otonel gaily spurred the singers into the vineyards of Slovenske Gorice, Ormož and Jeruzalem, to the velvet-soft waters of mineral spring resort Smarjetske Toplice. Refreshed and rested, the chorus was ready for the concert in Novo Mesto the next evening.

Dr. Danilo Švara, music director from Trieste, accompanied Glasbena Matica in Dvorana Prosvetnega Doma while the tourist society of Novo Mesto greeted the singers.

Glamorously lighted courtyard of Ljubljana's Križanke outdoor theatre welcomed concert-goers to Glasbena Matica's final concert the evening of June 22, 1966. Theatre management "Festival" assured the singers the canvass roof and street enclosures would completely silence the theatre area.

When the last performance of Slovenian folklore, American hymns and songs, opera excerpts, negro spirituals and songs honoring Anton Schubel's memory ended, Valentina Fillinger took her bows as an accomplished directress realizing Schubel's desires. As bouquets of red carnations were accepted by the soloists and chorus, a young singer cried, "will our people at home believe us?"

Euclid Slovenian Home News

Euclid, O. — Our United Culture Groups — Zarja, Slovan, Circle No. 2 Junior Chorus, Nasa Zvezda Dramatic Society, and the Slovenian Euclid Barbershop — say Thanks to all of you who attended their United Program on September 18th, and heartily welcomes you to attend their individual programs, dates of which are listed elsewhere in this article.

Everyone at our Home was grieved at the untimely death of Frank Urbancic. To his widow and daughter we express deepest sympathies from all of us.

Recently read with interest the article in the St.Clair-Superior News which covered their August Award Winner, Mr. John Drenik. Mr. Drenik for many years was active at our Home, and still comes in whenever he is "home" here in Euclid. It's nice to see "Birchle" Kromar around again after a long recuperation from illness. He can't play balina now, but he is the best coach the players have, and he is anxious to get back onto the alleys. Joe Kusar is up and about, although he can still work only a partial shift.

I dropped in at Holmes Slovenian Home the other day and chatted with my friends and their new Manager, Tony Bokal and his wife. Tony is operating like an old pro behind the bar. Also visited East 80th Slovenian Home and saw their beautiful new bowling alleys. They have a right to be proud of them. Incidentally the Federation of Slovenian Homes is planning on holding a picnic sometime next summer. This picnic should get many Slovians together for a good time.

Now that our Euclid halls are fully air-conditioned and partially redecorated, we hope to draw back to our halls those Slovenian groups who have been holding their affairs at places other than our National Homes. Have heard of air-conditioning and other improvements at several of the other National Homes so we encourage All Slovenians to contact their favorite Slovenian Home for details for banquets, dances and other affairs.

The Board of Directors at our Home has reviewed the rental rates for the halls, and has included weather conditioning in the rental rate. The increases were very nominal. At our Euclid Home we are doing all we can to draw to our Home the younger Slovanes who have not patronized or made use of our facilities. We do hope to see more of them in the future at affairs held at the Home. Coming events are as follows:

October 16th — Progressive Slovene Women of America No. 3, 30th Anniversary Program, Dinner, and Dance.

Oct. 23 — Club Ljubljana 37th Anniversary Dinner and Dance.

Oct. 30th — Zarja Concert (Their 50th Anniversary)

Nov. 13 — Circle No. 2 Junior Chorus Concert.

Dec. 4th — Slovan Concert.

Dec. 31st — Gala New Year's Eve Party, Orchestras in both halls, and also in Club Room.

Jan. 22nd — Nasa Zvezda (Our Star) Dramatic Society.

All Slovans and friends are invited. Tickets can be purchased at our Club Room or from members of the particular group approximately one month before the affair.

Many people either do not have a will, or else it is not up to date with their latest thinking as to what should be done with their estate at the time they will decease. If you are not up to date, it is wise to see your attorney as soon as possible to review your circumstances with him, and to make out or revise your will.

Suggestions for every weekend: Treat the family to delicious fish fries in our Club Room every Friday. The Ladies Auxiliary regret that due to the economic squeeze and the recent raise in price of fish it was necessary to increase the price of the dinners moderately.

Their fish fries are still the best buy in town. If you haven't been here lately, the ladies invite you. On Saturday nights the Club Room always has music to make an entertaining evening for the members.

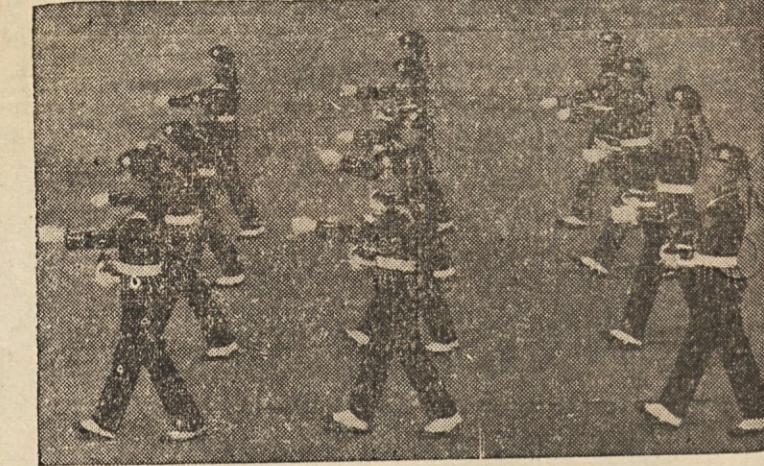

Na Svidjenje,

Al Sajevic

Cathedral Latin Holds Dance

Royal Highland Fusiliers In Gala Show

One of the most stirring musical spectacles of the day will come to the Cleveland Arena, 3700 Euclid Avenue or Sunday, October 9th at 3:00 p.m. when the Royal Highland Fusiliers, nearly 150 strong, arrive here during their tour of North America. The crack British regimental outfit, with its massed pipes and drums, its kilted highland dancers and its specially trained team of gymnasts is appearing under the auspices of the Cleveland Opera Association.

The Fusiliers, one of the most famous Scottish regiments, has a distinguished military history going back to the seventeenth century. For sheer showmanship, versatility and musical skill it is regarded by experts as unsurpassed among British marching units. It stands directly in the great tradition of the Black Watch, the Scots Guards and the other great military attractions which have been brought to the United States.

The Royal Highland Fusiliers also add several exciting features of their own. Their daredevil gymnasts, forming flying patterns as they leap over eight-foot-high obstacles provide a contrast to an uproarious drill routine illustrating the ancient battle between sergeant and rookie as it existed in the days of Wellington.

Tickets are available through the Cleveland Opera Association 2816 Euclid Avenue, Burrows Ticket Office, 419 Euclid Avenue, and the Higbee Company where they may be charged to your account. CH 4646, Ext. 2310.

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYMENT. The Joint Committee on Reduction of Non-essential Federal Expenditures has issued a report on the status of Federal employment for the 1966 fiscal year and the month of July 1966. Here's what it shows: Executive agencies at the end of July employed 2,785,129 persons. This was an increase of 47,082 over June, reflecting to some extent student summer programs run by the various Federal agencies. In addition to the employees in the U.S., some 128,512 foreign nationals are employed by our government outside the United States.

The cost of the Federal payroll totaled $18,706,000,000 for fiscal 1966. This was up $1,487,000,000 over fiscal 1965 and was an all-time high. The figures show that since President Eisenhower left office the cost of Government has skyrocketed. In 1960, the Federal payroll was $12,637,000,000. In 1966, it was $18,706,000,000 — an increase of nearly 50 percent. During the same period the population of the U.S. rose from 180 million to 195 million — an increase of about 8.8 percent. Thus, the cost of the Federal Government is increasing six times as fast as the population.
