Kampanja zmage zaključena

Kampanja zmage K. S. K. Jednote, ki se je pričela 1. aprila 1943 je bila 31. decembra 1943 zaključena.

Namen kampanje je bil, pridobiti kolikor mogoče novih članov in članice za mladinski oddelek.

Naša želja je bila vpisati za en milijon dolarjev nove zavarovalnine. Zaželjene vsote nismo sicer dosegli, vseeno smo pa z izidom kampanje lahko zadovoljni, kajti vpisalo se je lepo vsoto zavarovalnine $841,000.

Kampanja se je vrnila v oblike tekme med armadami in posamezniki divizijami ali društvi.

Prva armada ali armada generala Germa je odnesla zastavo zmage. Izmed divizij (društev) jih je sedem doseglo določeno kampanjsko kvoto.

Za vsako armado je bilo določene zavarovalnine $150,000. Prva armada je več kot kvoto dosegla, kajti vpisala je $169,500 zavarovalnine. Enako je z armado generala Zefrana; tudi njena armada je določeno kvoto dosegla in vpisala $157,000.

Ob zaključku kampanje so stale armade po sledenčem redu:

Armada	Poveljnik	Zavarovalnina
1. general John Germ.	John Germ.	$169,500
2. general John Zefran.	Zefran.	157,000
3. general Math Pavlakovich.	Pavlakovich.	149,500
7. general George Pavlakovich.	Pavlakovich.	135,000
6. generalka Mrs. Johanna Mohar.	Mohar.	96,250
4. general Joseph Lekšan.	Lekšan.	74,000
5. general Michael Cerkovnik.	Cerkovnik.	59,750
Skupaj.		$841,000

Armada	Divizija	Zavarovalnina
1. 7 Pueblo, Colo.	Pueblo, Colo.	$ 40,500
2. 163 Pittsburgh, Pa.	Pittsburgh, Pa.	35,500
3. 156 Chisholm, Minn.	Chisholm, Minn.	33,500
4. 81 Pittsburgh, Pa.	Pittsburgh, Pa.	33,000
5. 191 Cleveland, O.	Cleveland, O.	20,500
6. 226 Cleveland, O.	Cleveland, O.	16,000
7. 45 East Helena, Mont.	East Helena, Mont.	18,000
8. 206 South Chicago, Ill.	South Chicago, Ill.	17,000

Med divizijskimi zmagovalci so naslednji kapitani in kaptanke: John Germ, Matt Brozenich, Mrs. Mary Kosmerl, Mrs. Katherine Rogina, Mrs. Matilda Ropret, Miss Angela Mencin, Joseph M. Sasek in Miss Lena Mikán.

Kampanja zmage je doprinesla mladinskemu oddelku 1,208 novih članov in članic. Izmed teh jih je pristopilo 245 meseca decembra.

Značilno je to, da v zadnjih par tednih kampanje so bila gotova društva najbolj delavna.

General Germ, poveljnik prve armade in istočasno poveljnik sedme divizije je kar naenkrat poslal 22 prošenj novih kandidatov. V pismu, priloženo prošnjam, je brat Germ omenil tudi tole:

"Clanstvo je mogoče dobiti samo, ako gremo za njim. Od hiše do hiše je potreba iti, pa se jih dobi. Kakor sem priporočal v Glasilu celokupnemu čanstvu, sem ravno isto storil v praksi. Šel sem od hiše do hiše, pa se je dobito. Brat Joe Russ mi je tudi pomagal in tako sva dobila zaželeno kvoto."

Sobrat Matt Brozenich, kapitan 163. divizije je tik pred zaključkom kampanje vpisal $21,500 zavarovalnine in s tem dopolnil kvoto. Tudi kapitan Brozenich pravi, da se novo čanstvo še dobi, samo nekoliko dobre volje je treba.

Pri diviziji 81 se je odigralo nekaj zanimivega in mislim, da bo prav, če to tukaj pojasnim.

Poroča se mi, da se je vrnila 19. decembra seja tega društva. Pri dotedeni seji se je govorilo, da ta divizija potrebuje samo še $1,500 zavarovalnine za dopolnitve kvote. Pozneje pa se je pronašlo, da je do kvote manjkal še $13,000 zavarovalnine. Miss Frances Lokar, predsednica, in Mrs. Katherine Rogina, kapitanka, sta šle takoj na delo. Sobrat John Rogina, soprog kapitank je bil kot navadno tudi pri tej priliki svojim lepim avtomobilom pripravljen, da pomaga. Rečeno, storjeno! V teku deset dni so te pridne Jednotarice vpisale $16,000 zavarovalnine in tako ne samo dopolnile, pač pa kvoto tudi prekoračile. Iz tega se vidi, da kjer je želja in dobra volja, se da marsikaj dosegne.

Kot sem rekel, kampanja je zaključena in z izidom iste smo lahko zadovoljni, kajti $841,000 je lepa vsota in 1,208 novih mladih članov in članic je tudi lepo število.

Naj bo na tem mestu izrečena najlepša hvala vsem generalom, generalkam, kapitanom in kapitankam, kakor tudi vsem posameznemu članu in članici, ki je že na en ali drugi način prispomogel do tako lepega kampanjskega rezultata.

Vsem skupaj najlepša hvala in javna pohvala!

JOSIP ZALAR, glavni tajnik.

Naznanihlo in vabilo
Naznana se vsem članom in članicam, da je bil na zadnji glavni letni seji izvoljen za leto 1944 celokupni stari odbor, prosim vas torej, da blagovite lo vpoštovati.

Nadalje se vam naznana, da je bilo na imenovani seji tudi sklenjeno, da bo društvo priredilo veselico, od katere preostanek se bo hranil, da se bo nekaj naredilo za naše članovejake, kadar se bodo vrnili domov. Veselica se vrši 5. februarja zvečer v farni dvorani na Hopocan Ave.

Dragi mi sobratje in sestre! Jaz ne mislim, da vas je treba tudi za to prireditev še posebej nagovarjati, da se iste udeležite, jaz mislim, da ga ni med vami, da se ne bi te prireditve udeležil, saj gre samo za vaše sinove ali sinove vaših sobratov. Da, za naše fante gre, kateri krvavijo na bojnem polju. Zekaj? Mar sam za sebe? Ne, krvavijo pač za nas vse, za boljši obstojo celokupne človeške družbe! Pridite torej, bratje in sestre, na to prireditev; tudi oddaljeni, ne imate izgovora, pridite vsi, da nam bo mogoče kolikor več skupaj zbrati in da nam bo lažje lepše počastiti te naše fante, kadar se bodo po zmagah našega orožja vrnila na svoje domove.

Bratje in sestre! Vedno, kadar društvo kaj priredi, se vas vabi na prireditev, a koliko se vas pa udeleži? Navadno so vedno eni in isti, eni in isti se morajo vedno žrtvovati za vse. Upam pa, da bo za to prireditve izjemna; upam, da bo vsak izmed vas imel toliko zavednosti, da

ZUPAN ZAGAR

Povest iz prve svetovne vojne

Spisal Slavko Slavec

"No, drži se!" Sklonil se je do njenih kolen, stopil z njo na brano in jo dvignil k odprtini.

"Se malo," se je usločila nad njim.

Podložil je rame pod njo, da jo laže pahne navgor. Krilo se ji je zmečalo in malo zdrsnilo.

"Presnetna deklina," je polglasno zaškrтал z brado.

"Hvala, gospod župan. Močni ste," je zapelo zunaj in Matilda je izginila.

Zagar je skočil tudi sam iz jame. Ženino pismo ga je skelelo v nedrigh, očitki so se mu iz njega kakor trni zabadali v srce.

"Ni čudno," je mrmljal, "ni čudno, če se vojaki obešajo na najo."

Tisti večer je župan podpisal listek za Matildino in Mico in poslal oba na Matildin dom. Po večerji je vzel z omare enega izmed treh svežnjev pisem in listal nekaj časa po teh prvih pričah ljubezni, ki ga je pozneje združila z materjo njegovih otrok. Nato je še enkrat prebral zadnje ženino pismo. Razgrnjal ga je predse in poiskal bel list, da napise županji odgovor.

"Draga, predraga moja!" je začel. "Berem twoje zadnje vrstice in obenem tudi tiste, ki si mi jih pisala pred pet in dva desetimi leti. Tvoje srce je še zmerom dekliško in mledo, kakor je bilo takrat. Bolj nego nevarnost me muči to, da ne morem biti pri tebi. Nevarnosti ni do zdaj nobene. Ko včasih poka, me jama na dvorišču dobro varuje. Da bi se le vse srečno končalo. Kdaj vas bom vse zopet —."

Preden je mogel zapisati "vi-del," ga je iz veže zmotil zategnjen, piskutav, raztrgan glas. Zagariju se je zdelo, da je Tinkatonka.

"Kaj že zopet iše?" je nevoljno vstal in stopil na prag.

Res, pred seboj je zagledal nešrečnega hromca, ki je v slabotni luči petrolejke zvijal spačeni obraz in momljil:

"U-e! U-e!"

Zagar si je to razlagal: "Čuj-te! Čujte!"

"Ali si lačen?" je vprašal: "Pri vojakih nisi nicesar dobil?" Zagari je vedel, da lazi Tinkatonka okrog vojaških kuhinj, kjer dobi več in boljših jedi nego pri vaščanah.

"In ti vse to tako dobro veš?" je podvomil oče.

"Vem," se je razvnel Ivan. "Pravica mora zmagati in bo zmagala. Trdno upam, da se to zgodi že v tej vojni. Vsi jih moramo po svojih močeh pomagati, da zmaga — vi tukaj, jaz tam!" Gledal je proti zapadu, kakor da vidi belih sten ozke shrambe, kakor da mu oko blodi po širnih solnčnih ravninah tamdaleč, dalet, kamor je pred par urami zatonilo sonce.

"Oče, čujte," je tedaj zašepalo tiko za njim.

Zagar je osupnil in se naglo obrnil. Pred njim je stal Tinkatonka ravno, brez bergle in brez spačenega obraza.

"A-a?" je zazidal Zagari preplašeno, kakor da ne ve, ali bedi ali se mu sanja.

"Da," se je nasmehnil Tinkatonka. "Čudeži se gode. Kruljavi hodijo in mutasti govore."

Ta glas ni bil več hreščič in raztrgan in Zagariju ni bil neznan. Ta glas je bil — Ivanov. Zagari je bolj in bolj strmel, beseda pa ni mogel spraviti iz sebe.

"Kako — kako?" je zajecjal končno.

"Tako," se je nasmehnil obraz pred njim. Izpod Tinkatonke čepice je gledalo Ivanovo lice. "Vojna ima čudne uganke. Nič kar tako ne strmit. Pred vami stoji vaš pravi Ivan."

"Dezerter?" je šinilo županu v misel in besed.

"Borilec za domovino," je povabil mladenič. "Sediva, oče. Pa tukaj, ne tam v sobi, kamor se vidi z dvorišča. Malo prigrizka bi mi teknilo. Vojaki mi niso res nicesar dali. Ni bilo časa, da bi bil pri njih postopal."

Zagarijeve roke so otipale hleb

Tinkatonka spat, tega siromaka ukrali in ga . . ."

"Pa saj je bil še danes pri meni. Kruha sem mu dal in ga polebil v barake."

"Hvala za kruh," se je nasmejnil sin. "Res ste ga dali, pa ne pravemu beraču, temveč — temmule," je pokazal nase. "Pravi Tinkatonka ima zdaj novo bergen in boljšo obleko in mu ni treba več prosjeti. V begunškem taborišču na oni straniku hajo tudi zanj. Da ste ga videli, kaj je natezal ustne v smehu, ko sem stopil v njegovi opravi in z njegovo bergen preden, da se naučim tudi njegove hoje in njegovega pačenja . . ."

"Vem. Padel bi v službi pravice. Vaši pomisleni me ne plasijo. Nisem sam. Na stotine, na tisoče nas je. Kar se je primerilo Tinkatonki, zadene lahko vsa-

"Moj sin — ogleduh?" se je namudnil oče.

"Zaničujte moj posel, kolikor vam drago, jaz vem, da je potreb.

"Ukazovati ti ne morem. Svetujem pa ti lahko. Tvoja zvijača mi ni všeč. Ali ne moreš do stojnejše služiti pravici. Če te ujamejo, te ustrelje . . ."

"Vem. Padel bi v službi pravice. Vaši pomisleni me ne plasijo. Nisem sam. Na stotine, na tisoče nas je. Kar se je primerilo Tinkatonki, zadene lahko vsakega človeka na tej strani bojne fronte od najvišjega poveljnika do poslednjega župana, do zadnje mreži.

"Pretrivaš," je pomilovalno skomignil žagar.

"Ne, oče. Moji tovariši so presegli vse cesarske dežele s svojimi mrežami. V njih caplja vsa armada, vsa uprava. Naši uspehi so neizbežni. Prodrali bomo počasi, a gotovo. Kmalu se o no-benem človeku na tej strani ne bo več vedelo, ali je zares on, ali ne tiči kdo drugi v njegovi zunanjosti podoblik."

"Pa tudi cesarski imajo na oni strani take mreže."

"Imajo jih, pa ne toliko. Mi jih poznamo."

"Ali pa si le domišljujete, da jih poznate. Kjer se ljudje lovijo s takimi zviačami, niti lovec ne ve, ali je že lovec, ali ni morda že divjadiča, ki o prvi priliki obtiči v zanki. Zato mi ta vost posel ni všeč."

"Tudi jaz bi rajšči stal na oni strani in fronti. A človek se mora žrtvovati, ne more si izbrati službe. Sicer pa je prav tako častno za domovino streljati kakor iskati topovom najboljše smotre, da streli ne bodo zaman. Višje koristi zahtevajo tak posel od mene. Preprtičam sem, da se z mojimi podatki posreči prebiti fronto z manjšimi človeškimi žrtvami nego brez njih."

"Sin, odpovje se temu poslu, materi in meni na ljubo. Poglej —."

Oče je vstal, prinesel iz druge sobe ženino pismo in prebral si nekaj odstavkov, zlasti vrsti, ki so govoril o Ivanu.

"Pusti te nevarne poti! Bodи vojak, če hočeš, a ne zapletaj se v te čudne mreže," je prošil oče.

Ivan se je zamislil. Zaželet si je malo papirja in odložil gnjat in nož. Pri omari stoeje je napisal na list:

"Draga mati! Doma sem pri očetu na kratkem dopustu. Žal mi je, da ne morem tudi do vas. Ne bodite v skrbih ne za očeta ne zame. Godi se nama dobro. Upam, da se bo vse srečno končalo. Iskreno Vas pozdravlja Vaš sin Ivan."

"Denite to v svoje pismo, ko odgovorite materi," je ponudil očetu zganjeni list. "Še boljše bi bilo, če ji moj list sami izročite, ko prideš do nje. Pisma pregledejo; moje vrstice bi lahko kje obtičale."

"Torej —?" Očetove oči so prosile, naj sin usliši prejšnjo prošnjo.

"To ni mogoče," je odločno odkimal Ivan. "Zavezal sem se. Dane besede ne prelomim."

"The Spirit of a Rejuvenated KSKJ"

REMEMBER THE BOYS IN SERVICE
They Are Counting On You!

VICTORY CAMPAIGN NETS UNION $841,000.00

GENERAL JOHN GERM, TOPS FIELD, GEN. JOHN ZEFAN VICTOR, TOO

The KSKJ Victory Drive for new juvenile members netted the organization $841,000.00 in new insurance written, according to the official results published in this week's Slovenian section by Supreme Secretary Zalar. (Page 2.)

The campaign which ran from April 1, 1943, through Dec. 31, 1943, had a goal of one million dollars in new insurance, but the result, although short of the aim, is a commendable figure, according to the officials.

Outstanding performance was registered by Prexy Germ, general of the First Army, whose cohorts signed up $169,500 in new insurance as compared to his goal of $150,000. General John Zefan, vice president, also led his Second Army to victory by writing $157,000 in new insurance. A mere $500 in new insurance prevented General Math Pavlakovich, whose army signed $149,500, from scoring victory.

General George Pavlakovich registered $135,000, General Johanna Mohar, $96,250, General Joseph Leksan, $74,000, General Michael Cerkovnik, $50,750.

The victorious divisions were captained by John Germ, Matt Brozenich, Mrs. Mary Kosmerl, Mrs. Katherine Rogina, Mrs. Matilda Ropret, Miss Angela Mencin, Joseph M. Sasek, and Miss Lena Mikan.

The Union enlisted 1,208 new juvenile members, of which 245 were admitted in the month of December. It is apparent that some lodges were active during the last few weeks of the drive.

General Germ of the First Army forwarded 22 applications at one time. Prexy Germ who made repeated appeals to the membership for co-operation in a recent announcement said, "Prospects are still available, and we can sign them up, but we must go after them. I recommended such procedure in the Glasilo, and followed my own recommendation. I went from house to house, as did Bro. Russ who aided me, and we were successful."

Bro. Matt Brozenich, Captain No. 163, forwarded $21,500 in the closing weeks of the campaign. He also said that new members were available, but it required good will and effort on the part of the membership.

Perhaps the outstanding strategy was carried through by Division 81 of Pittsburgh. At the Dec. 19 meeting of the lodge a survey revealed that the society needed but $1,500 in new insurance to attain its quota. A re-check later showed that $13,000 was needed to bring the lodge in the victory column. Miss Frances Lokar, president, and Mrs. Katherine Rogina, captain, aided by her husband Mr. John Rogina, went to work and in a period of 10 days signed up $16,000 in new insurance and not only attained quota, but surpassed it. Another indication of "Where there is a will, there is a way!"

Supreme Secretary Zalar in making the announcement says: "Many thanks to all the generals, captains, and all individual members who in any way aided in attaining the commendable result."

JOLIET GIRLS' SCORES DROP

Joliet, Ill. — It was a poor night for the KSKJ Girl's Activity Club last Thursday as far as bowling scores were concerned. I guess it was just one of those off days.

Claire Carpenter was the top bowler with a 407 series. Dolores Klobuchar hit two nice games which brought her series up to a 373. Dolores Chanski hit two low games but her 154 in the second game gave her a series of 362.

Theresa Ambrose started off by scoring a 136, but she just couldn't get going in the two final games. Helen Metesh increased her scores each game for a 303-series. Betty McCarthy was just three pins behind her with a 300 series. Irene Felix was going good her first two games but her low final game dropped her series considerably.

The high game of the night, 154, was scored by Dolores Chanski and Claire Carpenter.

CHI STEVES IN EDGE-WIN MOOD

Chicago, Ill. — Last week's session in the Steves bowling loop was another one of those edge-win matches. ## HOW CHRISTIAN IS YOUR FAMILY?

Rev. B. Dworshak, OSB

Without the family the human race would not go on. Without the family the nation could not exist. Without the family the mystical body would not be perpetuated. The family is the cell from which society is built. The well-being of an organism depends on the health of the cells which go to make it up. The well-being of society (the state, the mystical body) depends on the healthy condition of family life.

There is need not only of families but of good families. Mother Church holds up as our model today the Holy Family. The Holy Family gives us the pattern of specifically domestic virtues. First and foremost there is CHARITY.

No mother ever loved son more tenderly than Mary loved Jesus. No father ever watched over his household more faithfully than did the carpenter Joseph. No son ever showed more devotion to parents than did Jesus. Just as charity is the earmark of the Christian, so also it is the distinctive trait of the Christian family.

This Charity shows itself in the interest which the family members take in one another. They share one another's joys, sorrows, successes. There is elbow-rubbing in the normal family. Where there are differences of temperament we can expect some friction. But this friction is reduced to a minimum by the oil of charity and patience (epistle).

"Bear with one another and forgive one another. . . Above all things have charity, which is the bond of perfection." The genuineness of the love of family members for one another shows itself in their willingness to make sacrifices for each other.

One of the indirect blessings coming from war is that it is teaching people to value properly things which they had undervalued—among them family life. If those who have been cut off from families by the call to service begin to realize what a fine thing family life is, they are learning a valuable lesson.

It is consoling in times like these, when family members are separated by great distances, to realize that in one sense they are very close. The folks at home can be said to be "with their boys" in a very real sense. This means more than that they are merely "with them in thought."

Those of strong and living faith know that no stretch of land or water is so vast as to cut us off entirely from our loved ones. Are we not all members of Christ's body? Moreover, we are in contact with them in a real and effectual way through prayer. Our prayers, we know, will always reach them, help them, strengthen them.

Your answer to the following questions will help you gauge just how Christian your family is: (1) Is there a crucifix in your home? Does it hang in a prominent place? (2) Is your home furnished with pictures of Our Lord and of the saints? (3) Do you eat together? Do you know each other? Do you know what it

MEMBERS MUST ATTEND

Enonclaw, Wash. — At the recent meeting of Jesus Good Shepherd Society, No. 32, it was ruled that members must attend meetings every three months. Those who will not comply with the request will be subject to a fine of 25 cents.

It was also ruled at the meeting that every member of the Adult Department shall contribute 25 cents to the lodge treasury in the month of February in order to forestall any deficit in the fund for operating expenses.

Mary R. Chacata, sec'y.

JESUIT WARNS AGAINST FALSE PHILOSOPHIES

Akron, O. — Deeply tinged with materialism, the false philosophical theories prevalent in this country would kill our democracy and freedom, if put into practice, the Rev. William J. Murphy, S. J., of John Carroll University, told 250 men of the Holy Name Society at the annual Communion breakfast recently.

Mary R. Chacata, sec'y.

Father Murphy quoted from Jean Jacques Maritain's recent book in which he blamed "the fall of France largely upon her political demoralization. He says the French people became skeptical of all politics. And it is hoped that all members will attend them regularly.

It was decided that our lodge would not sponsor any dances or other affairs for the entire year of 1944, but instead each and every member in the active adult department should pay $1.00 to our treasury for expenses which occur during the year. The only ones who will not be assessed this amount are those in the armed service. To date we have 22 members serving Uncle Sam.

You know as well as I that at a dance one always spends more than a dollar. Therefore, it always happens that the same members are doing the work. In this way by each donating towards the treasury we are all equal. I hope there will be no criticisms.

I also wish to remind members that whenever you receive a card requesting you to visit a sick member, please do so. This is very important and is our duty as a member. After such visits are made, a report by you is essential at the following meeting.

May I also take this opportunity to thank our auditing committee, Mrs. Lucille Kozluch, Mrs. Anna Lucas, and Mrs. Steffy Vodicka, who have been checking over the books so diligently.

Thanks also to our two good workers visiting the sick, Mrs. Theresa Krapsha and Mrs. Mary Bothe.

We also wish our sick members a speedy recovery. Please don't forget our meeting Feb. 6 at 2 p. m.

Mary Petrich, sec'y.

EXPLAINS PAY-AS-YOU-GO

Cleveland, O.—Collector Thos. M. Carey today explained that under the pay-as-you-go system all current tax payments through withholding from wages or by means of payments "on Declaration of Estimated Tax" are only approximate.

It is necessary Collector Carey stated to file a return to disclose the exact amount of each person's tax liability and to determine whether or not he has underpaid or overpaid his taxes. In instances where the current tax payments were less than the tax payable for 1943, remittances of the difference will be necessary at the time of filing the return as this amount cannot be paid in installments.

Taxpayers having refunds must understand that no refund can be made until the comparison of withholding tax and two payments of 1942 with the 1943 return has been made by the March and June of 1943, they Bureau.

WHEN A MAN IS EDUCATED

When he can look out upon the universe, now lucid and lovely, now dark and terrible, with a sense of his own littleness in the great scheme of things, and yet have faith and courage.

When he knows how to make friends and keep them, and above all when he can keep friends with himself.

When he loves flowers, can hunt the birds without a gun, and feel the stir of a forgotten joy in the laugh of a child.

When star-crowned trees and the glint of sunlight on flowing waters subdue him like the memory of one much loved and long dead.

When he can be happy alone, and high-minded amid the meaner drudgeries of life.

When he can look into a wayside puddle and see something besides mud, and into the face of the most forlorn mortal and see something beyond sin.

When he knows how to live, how to love, how to hope, how to pray — glad to live, and not afraid to die, in his hands a sword for evil, and in his heart a bit of song.—"Daily Chronicle," Spokane, Wash.
