VESTI IZ SLOVENIJE

V LJUBLJANI je v zadnjem mučenju. Času veliko pomanjkanje mleka.

PRIBEŽNIK iz Titovine v Italijo je sedanji položaj doma označil tako-le: Doma je položaj slej kot prej navidezno normalen. Sicer pa žive vsi v napetosti pričakovanju kakršnekoli spremembe. Tito se rešuje na vse mogoče načine, nima pa več popolne kontrole nad člani v svoji komunistični stranki. Zato so na dnevne redu tudi tako velike aretacije.

GOSPODARSKI položaj v Sloveniji je vedno slabši. En par dobrih čevljev v prosti prodaji stane že 5.000 dinarjev. Plače se pa gibljejo okoli 3.000 dinarjev.

ZLOGLASNI PRIGANJAC in ovaduh na 1. klasični gimnaziji v Ljubljani, Premrov, je izključen iz partije kot kominformovec. Premrov je dal zapreti nebroj pošteni dijakov klasične gimnazije.

GENERALNI DIREKTOR nove rudarske direkcije v Ljubljani, Ribič, ima kaj lahko službo: Ves dan se vozi z Buickom po vseh petih pisarnah direkcije, ki so razmetane na vseh koncih mesta. Pri tem ne pozablja ustavljati se pridno na gostilnah in v restoranih. Pravi, da za kaj drugega itak ni sposoben, saj je komaj pismen. Pri takih "ljudskih voditeljih" ni čudno, da so rudniki lani dosegli komaj polovico plana.

NA KONFERENCI v sekretariatu za gospodarsko koordinacijo je pomočnik poverjenika za lokalno gospodarstvo MLO v Ljubljani, Ster, izjavil: "Od republikanske planske komisije sem sprejel v šestih mesecih 3/4 kilograma obrazcev, če štejem vsak obrazec samo enkrat. Nesposobna komunistična birokracija je spremenila ves državni aparat v same obrazce in direktive, v katerih se nihče več ne spozna."

V PODZEMNIH CELICAH specialnih zaporov na Poljanškem nasipu je celica nasproti stopnišču, ki je l. 1945 služila kot zasilna celica, še danes oškropljena s krvjo, ki je tam ostala kot posledica strahovitih

Tri na dan
"Enako" se zdaj na vsa usta smeje, ker je bil poražen pri volitvah rojak John Rožanc, kateremu pravijo, da je bil kandidat našega lista.

Mi nismo nobena politična zgradba, ki bi razpisavala volitve, torej nimamo svojih kandidatov, česar "Enako" morda ne ve. Res je pa, da smo Johna Rožanca podprli v kampanji in se tega prav nič ne sramujemo. Nam se je zdel med vsemi najbolj zmožen za mestno zbornico.

Sicer ni pa nobena sramota, če je kdo poražen pri volitvah. Saj je bil pogorel nekoč celo Vatro Grill, urednik in "kapo" Enakopravnosti, ki je imel na razpologo vse, česar si le more želeči kak kandidat. In glejte in strmite: celo naš list je takrat Grilla podprl. Kar pogledajte v kratke liste. Pa so volivci oba lista in kandidatu Grilla takrat fige pokazali. — No, pa kaj zato!

Lobiisti
Lobiisti, to so taki, ki se poklicno bavijo s tem, da skušajo na vse mogoče načine vplivati na federalno zakonodajo in upravo v interesu posebnih skupin, ki jih zastopajo, so letos izdali posebno mnogo denarja. Menda v tako kratkem času niso še imeli toliko stroškov in nikoli še niso izdali tako velikih vsot, da bi dosegli vsaj nekaj uspeha. Največje izdatke so v take namene napravile tele. organizacije: Ameriška zdravniška zveza. Ta je izdala 500.000 dolarjev, da bi preprečila federalno zakonodajo o boljši zdravstveni službi. Odbor za ustavno vlogo je izdal $300.000, da je vodil opozicijo proti vsakemu zakonskemu navedenju, ki naj bi prinesel Ameriki napredek. Narodna Zveza Električnih družb je izdala $300.000, da bi preprečila zakone o razširjenju električnih mrež in za pospeševanje novih električnih naprav. Niso znani izdatki Trgovske zbornice in Ameriške industrijske zveze. Da je ta posel donosen kaže dejstvo, da je precej prejšnjih vladnih odvetnikov postalo lobiistov in tudi nekaj prejšnjih kongresnikov se je oprijelo tega posla. Plača in stroškovniki teh moči gredo v $100.000 dolarjev na leto, bolj mali dode pa po $50.000 letno.

Le mirni bodimo
Nekateri so bili iz političnih razlogov napadli našo komisijo za atomsko energijo. Preiskava in proročilo kaže, da so bili očitki neutemeljeni. V obeh smereh, tako glede proizvodnje atomskega orožja kakor tudi glede smotrne uporabe atomske energije za gospodarske, industrijske namene in za zdravstvo smo napravili velik napredek. Smo najnaprednejša zemlja v tem oziru. Preiskave se nadaljujejo po vseh naših laboratorijih. Nove stvari prihajajo na dan, nove uporabnosti atomske energije se odkrivajo. Gospodarstvo v teh velikih podjetjih je dobro in skrbno, za varnost in čuvanje tajnosti je odlično preskrbljeno. Ni treba imeti nikakega strahu. Amerika je v tem oziru daleč pred drugimi narodi in njeni znanstveni zakladi, ki so največji na svetu, so v zanesljivih rokah.

Bomba
Nikjer, v nobeni deželi in na nobenem mestu na svetu pa ni mogoče čuvati in ohraniti take stvari kot je produkcija atomske bombe v stalni tajnosti. Povsod so znanstveniki, ki z večjim ali manjšim uspehom odkrivajo take naravne skrivnosti. Dejstvo, da ima tudi Rusija sedaj atomsko bombo naj nam bo satrto za novo bodrilno, da je treba organizirati jamstvo trajnega miru med narodi. Papež Pij XII je pred več kot letom dni poveljeval vseh svet naj spremeni svoja strašna orožja, ki jih sedaj ima za uničevanje, v orodja za proizvodnjo in za povečanje mirnega blagostanja. Pri zvezi narodov bo sedaj gotovo več novih predlogov kako bi se organizirala mednarodna kontrola atomske energije oziroma produkcije atomskega orožja. Vsekakor pa je nujno, da če hočemo imeti sploh kako učinkovito mednarodno kontrolo, mora ta imeti

ZDRAVNIŠKI CENTER BO SLO- VESNO OTVORJEN

Cleveland, O. — Na 1465 E. 55. St. so zgradili krasno poslopje, ki se imenuje Newton D. Baker Health Center. Mesto bi zgradilo še tri podobne centre na drugih krajih Clevelanda. Prvo tako središče je to na 55. cesti, kjer dobe meščani iz te okolice razno postrežbo povsem brezplačno.

To poslopje bo slavnostno odprto v torek 18. oktobra ob 8. zvečer. Za to priložnost bo prišel Cleveland guverner Lausche, glasila, da so prihodnje volitve govoril bo tudi župan Burke in nekaj drugih.

To bo velika slovesnost z godbo in petjem. Bo res zelo lep program. Nobene vstopnine ne bo in vsak je prijazno vabljen. Ne pozabite: 18. oktobra ob 8. zvečer na 1465 E. 55. St.

Znižanje nemške marke

Bonn, Nemčija. — Po predlogu zaveznških strokovnjakov je zapadno-nemška vlada znižala vrednost zapadno-nemške zapadno-nemške marke od 30 centov na 23 centov.

pravico vstopa trdi v sovjetske delavnice in industrije. Mi ne moremo zaupati sovjetskimi voditelji. Mi moramo ostati mirni in močni. Alaska je od Sovjetske Rusije oddaljena 5.000 milj, kar je precej daleč, Sanduski in Cleveland, O. Mi Amerikanci moramo povečati našo čuječnost, moramo vzdržati našo nadmoč in prvenstvo, moramo biti najmočnejši v zraku, moramo biti prvi in največji v razvoju atomskega orožja pa ob enem neprestano delati za trajni mir.

Politična gesla

Pred šestimi meseci so politični nasprotniki sedanje federalne vlade govorili o "Trumanovi depresiji". Kritiki so zahtevali naj predsednik daje ogromne pomoči in organizira javna dela, da bi se zmanjšala brezposelnost. Sedaj so opustili to krilatice in govorijo več o "Trumanovem statizmu." S tem hočejo reči, da Trumanova vlada vodi Ameriko v državno gospodarstvo oziroma v sistem, v katerem država upravlja nadzoruje vse. Pa vse skupaj ni nič drugega kot to da pač v političnih kampanjah slišimo vedno nove krilatice in nova gesla. Ljudje, ki sedaj govorijo o statizmu so pač isti, ki so govorili o "socializmu," ko je bilo treba za rešitev naših finančnih federalne garancije in isti ljudje, ki so proti vsaki socialni akciji federalne vlade agitirali, da so socialna vprašanja samo lokalnega značaja in naj se rešujejo le z lokalnimi ukrepi. Pozneje so isti ljudje proglasili socialno zavarovanje za državni socializem, sedaj pa govorijo o statizmu. Pravijo, da se sedaj zmanjšujejo ameriške svoboščine. Svoboda je zatrta v mnogih deželah v Evropi in Aziji, toda katere svoboščine smo izgubili v Ameriki? Ali ni ostala polna svoboda govora, polna svoboda zborovanja, polna svoboda vere? Prav gotovo imajo ameriški državljani vse svoboščine, ki so jih sploh kdaj imeli. Če sedaj k tem svoboščinam dodajamo še nekaj varnosti za slučaj starosti, nekaj ekonomske varnosti za drugega, slučajne oslabelosti, ali ni to samo razširjenje in utrjevanje svoboščin in svobode za vsakega? stavi.

Zborovanje A. F. of L.

Delavstvo naj živalno sodeluje v volitvah leta 1950.

St. Paul. — Tu zboruje Ameriška Federacija delavstva. Med slavnostnimi govorniki je bil tudi federalni tajnik za delo. Razvil je vladni program za zaščito dela in delavčevega življenja. Poleg socialnega programa in borbe za zboljšanje delavskega položaja je ta velika ameriška delavska zveza postavila za prihodnje leto tudi politični program. Mnogi govorniki so na v letu 1950 zelo važne za delavstvo, ki hoče zakonitim putem preko izvoljenih zastopnikov ljudstva dobiti najmodernejšo socialno in delavsko zaščitno zakonodajo. Konvencija je tudi izdala poziv in navodila za zbiranje volilnega sklada. Naročila je svojim podružnicam in včlanjenim unijam, da naj v volilnem boju najvažnejše delujejo za kandidate, ki so pokazali razumevanje za delavske interese in naj store, kar je v njihovi moči, da eliminirajo tiste, ki o opravičenih delavskih zahtevah niso hoteli slišati in so pri svojem javnem delu imeli pred očmi samo korist lastnikov in velikega kapitala.

Fakult izjavlja da je neodvisen

Kandidat za mestnega odbornika v 32. vardi, John A. Fakult, nas je poklical in izjavil, da on ne pripada nobeni stranki, da je popolnoma neodvisen, da tudi ne mara podpore od nobene političnih strank, ampak da računa na izvolitev samo na podporo svojih prijateljev.

Mi smo Fakultu v listu označili kot republikanca, ker ga je tako označil tudi ameriški dnevniki Plain Dealer in v Fakultovih kampanjskih kartah ni bilo ničesar tiskanega, kar bi nam dalo misel, da je neodvisen.

Rusija noče nadzorstva nad svojo proizvodnjo atomske energije

Lake Success. — Joseph Malik, sovjetski glavni delegat pri Zvezi Narodov je izjavil, da bo 11. oktobra predložil nov načrt za nadzorstvo na atomsko energijo. Dal pa je razumeti, da v tem načrtu ne bo nič bistvenega novega in bo Sovjetska Zveza vstrajala pri svojem stališču, da njene produkcije ne sme nadzorovati nobena mednarodna komisija.

Pametnemu človeku ne gre v glavo, kako je mogel kdo glasovati proti rapid transit, ko gre vendar za napredek mesta in ni ne stane.

Nedeljsko pismo

Dragi prijatelj!

Danes te pa kar naravnost tole vprašam: kaj misliš, ali nas Bog ljubi ali ne? Prav dobro namreč vem, da se je v tvoji duši že rodilo na stotine dvomov o tem, ko si premišljeval svoje bedno življenje zadnjih let. Domovino si izgubil in svoj lepi dom, poln ljubezni in domačnosti, pobiti so ti morda otroci, sadovi tvojega telesa, morda so raztepeni po svetu, da zanje niti ne veš, udarci, trpljenje, lakota, nagota so bili tvoji spremljevalci leta in leta in so morda še danes. In ko ob vsem tem pomisliš na Kristusovo besedo: da še las ne pade človeku iz glave brez božje volje, se resno vprašaš, kako je to mogoče, da mi Bog vse to iz ljubezni pošilja, kje so vendar kakšni dokazi, da me Bog resnično ljubi?

Res nam je Bog vzel domala vse materijalne dobrine, dobrine tega sveta, morda zato, ker je marsikdo tudi od nas gledal v njih zadnje cilje življenja, ali morda zato, da bi toliko jasnejše spoznali vrednost duhovnih dobrin, ki jih pač nihče vzeti ne more. Kakor je bilo hudo, moramo priznati, da je bila ta šola trpljenja za nas le neskončno velikega pomena, tako doma, kakor tudi v tujini so premnogi našli v trpljenju spet smisel življenja in prišli nazaj na pota Gospodova. Mar ni res tako?

Poleg tega je pa čisto napačno iskati dokaze božje ljubezni do nas zgolj v materijalnih dobrinah, tako delajo pogani, ki ne poznajo notranjih, duhovnih vrednot, mi jih bomo iskali drugje.

Prvi spomenik božje ljubezni do nas so betlehemske jaslice. Sin božji, postane človek za nas grešnike. Sin božji zapusti nebesa in si privzame podobo človeka, da bi nam preskrbel rešitev, zveličanje. Nam, ki ga dan za dnem žalimo, bčamo in pribijamo na križ. Pa pride Kristus med nas, da te svoje sovražnike reši! Vse žrtvuje za nas, svojo srečo, svoj prestol, nebesa, svoje življenje in kri žrtvuje za svoje sovražnike. Ali moreš prijatelj spoznati veličino te božje ljubezni do nas? Vem, da ne, saj trdi sv. Pavel, da ta ljubezen presega vse človeške pojme in da bomo porabili celo večnost, da jo bomo spoznavali, pa še ne spoznali.

Drugi spomenik svoje ljubezni do nas je Kristus postavil s svojim križem na Kalvariji. Neskončno svet in pravičen in nedolžen se pusti Sin Božji obsiditi na strašno smrt v zavesti, da samo nedolžna kri božjega Sina more oprati našo krivdo. Vse dopusti Kristus: z biči razmesarijo njegovo telo, globoko mu zarijejo trnje v glavo, križ, ki mnogo presega njegove telesne moči, mora vleči na Kalvarijo in nanj ga pribijejo. Pogledj, prijatelj, kako na široko so raztegnjene njegove roke, da bi nas v ljubezni objel, kako trdo so prikovane njegove noge, da bi nas počakal, kako globoko je sklonjena glava, da nas v ljubezni poljubi, kako na široko je odprta njegova sveta stran, iz katere teče kri v potokih, da opere našo krivdo. Tako se daje za nas na Kalvariji božja ljubezen. Prijatelj, kamen, mrzel kot led, bi moral biti v tvojem telesu namesto srca, da bi ob teh dokazih božje ljubezni do nas, še ostal trd in mrzel! Saj vse to je vendar Kristus zate storil, v Tvojo rešitev.

In še na en spomenik božje ljubezni bi te rad opozoril, to je naš tabernakelj. Zakaj je Kristus postavil ta zakrament, zakaj prebiva med nami noč in dan, zakaj tako tiho in potrpečljivo prenaša skrit v sveti hostiji vsa bogokletja in žalitve in preganjanja, zakaj se vsak dan znova daruje na naših oltarjih in se nam daje v jed v sv. obhajilu? Samo en odgovor ti morem povedati: ker nas Jezus neskončno ljubi. Kako dobro Jezus vidi vso našo bedo in trpljenje, vse naše preganjanje in zaničevanje, pa tudi vso našo slabost, omahljivost in nevarnost, ki nam v tujini prete, ves ta duh časa, ki išče v tem svetu svojih zadnjih ciljev. On dobro ve, da bi brez Njega že tisočkrat padli in se izgubili v teh divjih vrtincih življenja, zato pa je kot dobri pastir vedno med nami, vedno, čeprav zasramovan in preganjan, išče svoje izgubljene ovce, vedno znova nas vodi na kraj dobre paše. Prijatelj, če tole dejstvo resno premišliš, potem res ne vem, kje bi človek mogel najti še večji dokaz božje ljubezni do nas.

Prav je, prijatelj, da pogledava še drugo stran. Ko sva spoznala vsaj v malem neskončno božjo ljubezen do nas bi bilo nujno, da bi tudi midva Bogu to ljubezen vračala, ga tudi midva ljubila z vso močjo, z vso dušo, z vsem svojim mišljenjem. Toda, ali tudi delava tako? Blagor Ti, če je tako! Toda le preveč se mi zdi, da je mnogokrat drugače. O, vem, tudi midva postaviva mnogokrat na dan na tehtnico Kristusa in vso njegovo ljubezen do nas in na drugo stran svetno dobrino, strast, užitek, greh. In večkrat zmagaja, na žalost, ta stran. — O, bodiva si odkrita in priznavja, da velik, del človeštva danes sploh ne računa več resno z Bogom in je prepričan, da do Boga nimamo nobenih obveznosti, da mu ni treba izkazovati nobene ljubezni, nobene pokornosti. In če Bog te nezveste ovce svoje paše udari, kaznuje, pošlje krvave vojske, lakoto, smrt in nas po tej poti opominja, da je On gospodar sveta, tedaj seveda zopet bruhaj iz nas kletev in vpitje, kako trd je do nas, kako nas tepe in kaznuje. Seveda se pa nemo vprašati, kaj če ni veliko krivde na nas samih. Istočasno pa zahtevamo od njega vso pomoč, rešitev in varstvo.

Zato, prijatelj, bova danes tudi midva naredila bilanco nad svojo preteklostjo in spoznala v kakšnem razmerju je božja ljubezen do mene in moja do Boga. Pa če bo kaj napak v najinem življenju, bova z vso ljubeznijo šla h Kristusu nazaj. Saj samo od njega smeva pričakovati rešitev, varstva in miru.

Newburške novice

Ali ni res, da se vsi bojimo vojne? Katoličani molimo: "Kuge, lakote in vojske, reši nas, o Gospod." Vsaka naslednja vojna je bolj strašna. Nikdar ni bilo toliko grozote, strahote in uničevanja, kot ga je napravila zadnja vojna. Pa če pride do tretje svetovne vojne, bo ta še strašnejša, ker so sredstva vsak dan strašnejša in nikdar niso bila tako temeljito uničevalna, kot so pripravljena za bodočo, če pride do spopada med narodi.

In vendar je v naših močeh se te strahote izogniti. Mati božja je razodela v Fatimi sredstvo, po katerem bi mogli, ne samo vojno preprečiti, marveč tudi svet, zlasti oni del, ki najbolj ogroža mir med narodi, spreobrniti k pravi pameti in miroljubnem, Bogu dopadljivemu življenju. Ali veste, kaj je to sredstvo? TO JE ROŽNI VENEC. Dokler narod Boga ne priznava in ga tako popolno prezirajo, da se na shodih združenih narodov, Boga niti imenovati ne sme, toliko časa tudi pravega stalnega miru ne bo. Morivno orodje, bombe in plini nam ne bodo prinesli miru pa magari če založimo vse prostore z njimi. Pravi mir nam bo prinesla zavest, da je nad nami Gospod, kateremu smo odgovorni, posamezniki in narodi za vsak čin, ki ga izvršimo. Le če bomo vpoštevali besede Njega, ki je rekel: "Svoj mir vam dam, ne kakor ga daje svet, kaj jaz vam dam. Vaše srce naj se ne boji in ne straši... le tedaj bo mir." Molimo torej rožni venec in na priprošnjo naše nebeske Matere se bodo srca narodov obrnila zopet k Bogu in imeli bomo mir in varnost pred vojno.

Kdo pravi, da ni pekla? Na Norveškem je vas, ki se imenuje "Hell." In tam blizu Borovnice v Jugoslaviji je pa "Pekel." Kar tiho bodite.

Pred nekaj leti je Bog hotel imeti še enega angelčka v nebesih. In ko se je oziral sem in tja po svetu, je zazrl malo hčerko John Winterjeve družine. Zelo radi je niso dali, ker je bila to edina deklica med večimi fantki v družini. Pa kaj so hoteli? Bog jo je enostavno vzel k sebi. Razume se, da so tekle solze. Težko so jo pozabili, ali prav za prav pozabiti je niso mogli. Prosili so druge hčerke, pa niso bili uslišani, mesto hčerke jim je Bog poslal dva paglavčka, Klifora in Gregorčka. Šele letos, prav pred kratkem, so prešli zaželjeni dragoceni dar. Katherine Mary ji je ime in vesela v hiši John Winterjeve družine ni konca ne kraja.

Poleg omenjene sta bila krščena tudi Patrick Thomas Nolan in John Joseph Jaković. Naj bi bili vsi v veliko veselje staršem, Bogu in ljudem.

Kdor hoče videti zelo krasno igro, naj gre gledat "Our Lady of Fatima," ki jo bodo igrali v St. John's College auditoriju v petek, soboto in nedeljo večer. V soboto in nedeljo popoldne bodo tudi igrali.

Kako vztrajni klečepalci so komunisti, je vidno iz sledečega dogodka:

V Pragi na Češkem je bil krasen dan. Sonce je sijalo ljubko na zemljo in ljudje so hoteli sem in tja po opravkih. Med njimi se prikaže tudi predsednik, komunist Gottwald z razpeto marelo. Ljudje ga začudeno gledajo. Končno se ga je drznil njegov pri-

Nežika Krese je zadnje soboto pred sv. mašo podala svojo roko Frank Letwinovicu v zakon. Naj jih spremlja božji blagoslov.

V ponedeljek odideta prevz. škof Dr. Gregorij Rožman in Father Slapšak proti južni Ameriki, v Argentino, Chile, Equador in Brazilijo, kjer bodo obiskali Prezvišeni razne slovenske naselbine svojih ljudi. Želimo jima srečno pot in vesel povratek.

Nekdo pravi: "Najsrečnejši ljudje niso tisti, ki se najglasnejše krohotajo. Prava sreča je mirna in tiha, predvsem pa sramežljiva." Mi bi temu dodali, prava sreča tudi na plesu in zabavi ne kriči in ne cvili, kot bi ji kdo po kurjih očesih skakal. Razuzdanost je to, ki se kaže v novodobnem cviljenju na plesih.

Mary Helen Mirtel, hčerka Martina in Helene Mirtel, se je poročila zadnjo soboto z Edward Snacky. Nevesta je imela toliko spremstvo, no da, tudi ženin, da jih je bila cela procesija. Vse se je vršilo slovesno in pravilno krščansko. Ženin in nevesta sta si prisegel večno zvestobo. Vršla se je peta sv. maša, pri kateri so vsi v spremstvu, kakor tudi oče in mati neveste, prejeli sv. obhajilo. G. Ivan Zorman jima je zapel tisto: "Kršćanski ženin in nevesta, srečni novi par, peljala vaj' ljubezen zvesta, je danes pred oltar." Pa ne samo to, tudi naslednje je zložil:

Prišel je parček iz cerkve—prej fant, dekle, zdaj mož in žena.

Pri mizi svatje že sede, na krožniku kokoš pečena.

Razlega se prešeren smeh, živahna, topla govorica; živ ogenj v mladih je očeh: mladostnih dni pravica.

Nevestica pa obmolči, zamisljena oči obrača. Kaj v srcu se ji godi? Ni mar ji jed in ne pijača.

Vesel, a bled je njen obraz, li v srečo se je zamaknila? O mladih upov zlati čas—to vse ljubezen je storila!

Rokopis gospoda pevca ohranim jaz, da se ne zgubi.

Ne pozabite na naš bazar: 18., 19. in 20. novembra. $500 v gotovini bomo oddali na 5 krasnih velikih drugih nagrad. Kdor bo srečen (deset ljudi bo dobilo) on bo srečen zares. 100 puranov poleg zgorej omenjenih nagrad bodo ljudje odnesli domov.

Kako vztrajni klečepalci so komunisti, je vidno iz sledečega dogodka:

V Pragi na Češkem je bil krasen dan. Sonce je sijalo ljubko na zemljo in ljudje so hoteli sem in tja po opravkih. Med njimi se prikaže tudi predsednik, komunist Gottwald z razpeto marelo. Ljudje ga začudeno gledajo. Končno se ga je drznil njegov prijatelj vprašati: "Marelo, pa danes, ko je tako krasen dan?" "Kaj ne veš," je dejal Gottwald, "da dež pada v Moskvi?"

Velika žalost je zadela vsem poznano družino, ko jim je smrt vzela očeta oziroma soproga John Štrekala. Sicer so otroci že odrasli iz otroških let, a vendar oče je le oče in kadar ga izgubimo, takrat šele spoznamo koliko je bilo odvisno od njega. Oče skrbi za kruh, za obleko in za streho svojih. Dokler je živ, dokler gre vse lepo naprej in je družina preskrbljena, ne vidimo koliko ga je to stalo truda in skrbi. Šele tedaj, ko se njegova bremena zvrnejo na naša ramena sprevidimo, da ni bilo tako lahko kot se nam je zdelo in to zato, ker dobri oče vzame vse to kot dolžnost, nekaj kar njemu spada in se ne pritožuje. Tak je bil tudi John Štrekal. Delal je in se trudil pa malo govoril, četudi ga je vsa ta skrb globoko upogajala.

Taka je življenska naloga očeta, taka je bila tudi naloga pokojnega John Štrekala. Naj mu Bog zdaj poplača vse trud in skrbi, ki jih je doprinesel kot dobri oče družine, ki ni bila majhna. Naj počiva v miru.

V nedeljo teden, 16. oktobra, je pričetek naše 40 urne pobožnosti. Tridnevno češčenje Jezusa v Presveti Euharistiji. Kdor je vreden, da se imenuje katoličan, ne bo pustil teh dni mimo, brez da se večkrat pokloni Kralju nebes in zemlje in očisti svojo dušo v dobro opravljeni spovedi ter prejme sv. obhajilo.

Delavka v Titovem "raju"

(Velenje)

Ivanka je dopolnila dvajseto leto. Majhna je in slabotna ter bi ji nihče toliko ne prisodil. Na obrazu se ji pozna bolehnost, tako da revica po mnenju pametnega človeka ni za težko delo. Titovci pa ne poznajo usmiljenja ter nimajo sočutja do ubogih trpinov. Dekle je morala na delo v Velenje k rudniku, kjer so ji dali lopato kakor kakemu težaku. Ves dan je morala lačna in v hudi poletni vročini nakladati in premetavati gra-moz, pesek in druge odpadke. Pa še hitro se je bilo treba gibati, češ, naj se utrdi in navadi. Ubožica je omagovala, pred očmi se ji je temnilo, dokler se ni zrušila in omedlela. Ko se je zavedla, je šla k zdravniku in dobila potrdilo, da ni sposobna za naporno delo. Tiranom se je pobesil nos, toda že drugi dan so ji odkazali v tovarni lažje opravilo. Doma ni smela ostati, zakaj domačija nič ne pomeni, veljavno ima samo le delovna frontna brigada. Kmet ne sme imeti ne hlapca ne deklet, marveč le take moči, ki niso sposobne za javno delo. Mati je obvezana delati za državo dnevno 4 ure, otroke pa oskrbujejo tačas otroške jasli. Vse

ČE VERJAMETE AL PA NE

Tako sem postal stavbinski delavec v Kanadi. Računal sem, da če bom priden me bodo radi imeli. Postal bom polir in potem bom lahko začel na svoje, kar pač bom. Krampa in lopate nisem več dobil v roke, kvečjem morda da sem gredeč kaj malega odmetal. Kakor takrat, ko me je boss poslal po apno na kolodvor. Še tisto moram povedati.

druge ženske brez otrok pa morajo garati slednji dan po 8 ur, ali 48 na teden.

Ivanka je zdaj zaposlena v tovarni od sedmih zjutraj do dveh popoldne. Ko pride domov, poruži skromno kosilo—brez zabele. S čim pa naj zabele, ako nima masti in olja ni nikjer dobiti. Da bi si privoščila zelenjave—kumar ali solate—o tem ni govora, ker še nima kravjega želodca. Za približek jo o prostem času naženejo na udarništvo — nalagat deske na vagonce. Za večerjo jo čaka kosček koruznega kruha; hvala Bogu, da imamo vsaj še sadje, ki je letos prav obilno obrodilo. Belega kruha ne bomo jedli, ker moramo oddati vso pšenico, ponekod še več kot so jo pridelali.

Rojaki! Za take "dobrete" bi se Vi v svobodni Ameriki, kaj neda, lepo zahvalili. One, ki se pri Vas ogrevajo za komunizem in zagovarjajo Titovino, pa pozivamo, naj blagovolijo z nami zamenjati. — Vas pozdravlja: Fantič z zelenega Štajerja.

Strojepisne med seboj

"Erna, povej, ali je bil tvoj šef že kdaj nesramen s teboj?" "Menda! Ravno včeraj. Ti pride v sobo in reče: 'Tako, gospodična, zdaj bo treba pa prijeto tačas otroške jasli. Vse Nekemu vozniku je rekel, naj vzame svoj voz in mene, da bova vozila živo apno iz železniškega voza na postaji in sem k zgradbi. Kaj vem, odkje so ga dobili še neugašenega. Rad sem skočil na voz, ker sem zračunal, da bo lahko delo z vozom na železniško postajo in nazaj ves dan. Tistih par kep apna se bo hitro naložilo.

Pripeljala sva na postajo in železniški uradnik nam je pokazal železniški voz, ki je stal na stranskem tiru poln apna. Voznik je zapeljal voz tik vagona, odprla sva vrata in voznik me je počastil s tem, da mi je milostno dovolil, naj grem jaz v vagon in mečem z lopato apno na voz. Pa bom, sem rekel in skočil v vagon. Pa sem bil prav tako naglo tudi zunaj. Kot bi me ustrelil iz topa, tako naglo sem bil iz vagona. Kaj me je povrglo ven, se bo vesoljni svet vprašal. Tisti, ki ste že kdaj videli in otipali neugašeno apno, boste že vedeli, kaj je to, namreč vroče, skoro kot bi se človek vsedel na razbeljeno peč ob živem apnu. V vagonu je bila taka vročina, da bi me bilo skoro zadušilo. Z voznikom sva uganila v toliko, da sva odprla vrata tudi na drugi strani, da je prepil nekoliko odzvel vročega zraka iz vagona.

Tisto delo, ki sem se ga tako veselil, kako da bom ob njem lepo lenaril ves dan, se mi je pokrotivilo, da sem se potil, kot bi oblečen skočil v potok. Po par lopat sem naglo zajel in vrgel na voz, pa zopet skočil iz vagona, da sem prišel k sapi. K sreči je bil moj voznik razsoden človek, da me ni priganjal k delu. Mu tudi pomagalo ne bi, če bi me, ker bi mu z elegantnim poklonom izročil lopato ter mu dal v zaščito vse apno. Dobro sem se oddahnil samo tedaj, kadar sva peljala apno k naši zgradbi, kjer so ga metali v široko jamo in gasili. Tako delo sem videl na Menisiji, pa samo videl, kako so vozili apno od apence, ki so jo zgradili kje blizu gozda v gmajni. Morala sta biti vsaj dva, da sta nosila kamenje na kup, okrog katerega je bilo spleteno ogrodje iz šib, da je apnenca izgledala kot velik spleten koš. Ko je bila dograjena, so pod njo zakurili in potem je gorle ogenj po več dni, da se je kamenje lepo skuhalo. Obdržalo je prvotno obliko in šele, kadar si ga dal v vodo, ali vodo nanj, je zavrelo in se skuhalo, da je bilo za malto zidarjem. Vsaka hiša je imela gotovo kje blizu hiše jamo, z deskami krito, v njej pa gašeno apno za eventualno rabo.

Človek se mora vsemu privaditi in tudi mene ni bilo konec v tistem vagonu, polnem apna. To je bilo pa tudi eno najtežjih del pri tistem poslopu. Polir je vedno gledal, da mi je dal kaj lažjega. Poslopje je raslo, vsak dan ga je bilo več.

Pa smo menda preveč hiteli, ali kali, kajti nekega popoldne se je ena izmed sten kar na vsem lepem podrla. Ravno popoldne, ko smo sedeli pri svojem kosilu, raztreseni tu in tam. Vse štiri stene so bile že vili iz betona in z zemljo zasuli ob krajih. Zjutraj je eden izmed inženirjev ukazal delavcem, da so napeljali vodo v napeljavno zemljo, da se bo menda bolj utrdila ob steni. Voda je pa težka in je začela odpirati steno in jo zrinila, da je z velikim truščem zagrmela po izkopani kleti. K sreči ni bilo nobenega delavca takrat tam. Odpeljali smo razbiti beton in začeli zopet vse od kraja. Bili smo hvaležni iznajdljivi usodi, ki nam je podaljšala zaposlitev za precej časa, ker treba je bilo najprej zgraditi leseno ogrodje in potem vliiti novo steno.

Govorili so, da bo stavba pred zimo pod streho. No, jaz je nisem čakal, ampak sem jo poprej popihal na jug, kakor ptice selivke, kadar jim koledar pove, da se bliža zima.

JETNIK V GORAH MESECA

Bridges — Anžič

Veje završijo in se razgrnejo in Roger zakriči od strahu, vrže puško proč ter se obrne in zbeži na življenje in smrt. V naslednjem hipu trešči prav na mesto, kjer je trenutek prej stal Roger, neka silna pošast.

Bart se najprej domisli, da je to orjaški kosmat človek, in šine mu skozi možgane, kar so nosači govorili o "hudičih, ki bivajo na drevesih". Ko pa se pošast pobere in po vseh štirih z nekakšnim neokrenim galopom odhiti za Rogerjem, jo Bart takoj spozna. To je vendar gorila, največja in najsilnejša opica, pa tudi najbolj nevarna, če jo dražijo!

Videti je neokretna, a vkljub temu mnogo urnejša od Rogerja, in Bart uvidi, da more Rogerju rešiti življenje samo na ta način, ako gorilo ubije.

Ni pa še dvignil orožja do ramena, že spozna, da je bil v naglici pograbil Fortyevo dvocevko namesto svoje puške. Če bi pa srteljal z zrnjem, s kakršnim je bila nabasana, bi s tem orjaško žival prav toliko ustavil, kakor z grahamom, ki ga iztreliš iz bezgove puške.

22. Forty tolnači čustva. Bart je imel dve sekundi časa, da premisli, kaj mu je storiti. Pa že od teh ni porabil več ko eno. Vrže puško proč, plane naravnost k Rogerju, ga zgrabi okoli pasu ter se zavrti z njim preko visokega brega naravnost v reko.

Roger ni imel niti toliko časa, da bi zakričal, in že so se mu nad glavo zgrnile vode. Vo-da je bila jako mrzla in okoli šest čevljev globoka in oba sta skupaj prišla na dno.

Roger Bartu niti videl ni in je mislil, da ga je popadla gorila. Blazen od strahu in napol utopljen se je tako besno otepal, da ga Bart ni mogel več držati. Bil je torej prisiljen, da ga izpusti, in oba sta spet prišla na površino.

Bartova prva misel, ko je glavo pomolil iz vode, je bila, kje je gorila. Pa zver ni bilo videti nikjer. Ko se tako ozira navzgor, mu pa naenkrat neka pest priloži na lice strahovit udarec in Roger besno zakriči: "Jaz te bom že naučil, kako treba z menoj ravnati!"

Bart je bil tako presenečen, da ni mogel storiti drugega, ko jo odkuriti in če mogoče, se toliko umakniti, da ga zbesneli Roger ne doseže še enkrat; toda Roger je plaval za njim. V obraz je bil bled od togote in oči so se mu grozeče bliskale.

Kar naenkrat pa zagrmí gorí na bregu strel, ki mu je sledilo tako pošastno rjovenje, da je celo Roger obstal, kot bi trenil, se ujel za korenino, ki je molela iz brega, na njej obvisel in težko sodel.

"Kaj to pomeni?" reče Roger, komaj dihaše.

Bart pa ne odgovori. Bil je preveč jezen in razdražen. Hitro plava proti koncu tolmuna in se previdno splazi do roba brega ter se ozre naokoli. Prva stvar, ki jo zagleda, je bila gorila, ki se je zvijala v bolečinah na tleh.

Nato pa zapazi, da od tabora sem nekdo teče. Bil je Murdoch s puško v roki. Z enim samim strelom konča gorilo muke; nato pa uzre Barta, stopi z velikimi koraki k njemu in mu pomoli roko.

"Kje je Norcross?" vpraša nato. "Pa kaj je s tvojim licem? Saj krvaviš!"

"To sem prejel za plačilo, ko sem ga reševal!" pravi Bart je-zno.

Murdoch pazljivo pogleda Barta, kajti ni ga še videl tako razdraženega.

"Kaj se je zgodilo?" ga vpraša in Bart mu vse pove.

Murdoch se ujezi. "To je pa že od sile, kar ta fantalin počenja," reče nato.

"Toda ne brigaj se zanj, Bart. Rajši mi povej, kako si pokončal gorilo."

"Jaz sam ne vem," pravi Bart. "Mislim sem, da ste jo Vi ustrelili."

Murdoch stopi k mrtvi zveri in začne debelo gledati.

"Sama se je ustrelila," reče nato.

"Sama se ustrelila!" ponovi Bart strme.

"Da. Pobralla je puško, ker je bila edini predmet, ki si je lahko nad njim ohladila svojo jezo, in jo začela zvijati; slučajno pa je sprožila petelina in — no, saj sam lahko vidiš!"

Bart pobere puško in vidi, da sta obe močni jekleni cevi zverženi kakor dva odčepača. To je gorila storila, še preden je pritisnila na petelina; zato je seveda moralo obe cevi razgnati to je ubogo gorilo ubilo.

Bart je kar zijal od začudenja.

"Ali je gorila to storila?" se oglašuje Roger z nenavadno skromnostjo. Zlezel je iz reke in vse je curljalo od njega, ko je stopil k ostlim dvema.

Murdoch se obrne k njemu. "Da," mu reče očitačno. "In prav to bi bila storila z Vami, Norcross, ako bi Bart ne imel sreče in dosti hitrosti, da je naredil, kar je naredil. V zahvalo pa ste ga usekali po licu! Sramovati bi se morali sami pred seboj!"

"Jaz — jaz nisem vedel, za kaj gre," ječlja Roger. "Prav žal mi je."

"Vam tudi ima biti za kaj!" piha Murdoch. "Pojdiva, Bart. Moraš se preobleči in poučiti kakih deset zrn kinina po taki kopeli."

Da so gorilo ubili, to je na nosače napravilo sila mogočen vtis. Vsi so šli mrtvo pošast gledat in so pri svojem ognju vso noč le o tem kramljali.

"Bart, dal si jim novega brezmejnega poguma," reče Murdoch. "Teh velikih opic se namreč bolj bojijo ko levov ali še celo bolj ko leopardov in že s tem, da si eno ubil, si jim izkazal velikanško dobroto. Ne res, Forty?"

"To res, bas," pravi veliki zamorec. "Oni misli, to srečo spremenit."

In videti je bilo, da je res tako, kajti naslednji dan so prišli na odprto pokrajino, porastlo s trdo travo in zaplatami grmičja; kar naenkrat pa se Aruki, ki je hodil spredaj, ustavi in pokaže na sledove.

"Mboga!" reče hlastno. (Dalje prihodnjič).

POSLOVENIL VLAD, LEVSTIK

Ničesar ni bilo več; vedel je samo, da mora 5. armadni zbor taboriti tam pod obzidjem, in da 1. zbor razteza od Garenskega gozda, do vasi Moncele, dočim 12. zbor na drugi strani mesta drži Bazeilles; in vse je spalo, počasi uripanje je drhtelo od prvih do zadnjih šatorov nad miljo daleč iz temne sence. Tam onostran pa je ležalo drugo nezna- no nekaj, čigar glasovi so tudi časih prihajali k njemu, tako daljni, tako rahli, da bi jih bil lahko smatral za golo šumenje lastnih ušes: izgubljeni galop jezdecev, oslabljeno drdranje topov, pred vsem pa težki korak vojakov, reka črnih mravelj na višinah, ta naplav, to obkoljevanje, ki ga niti noč ni mogla prekiniti. In tam spodaj, al ni bilo še vedno naglih ognjev, ki so ugašali, razkropljenih glasov, ki so se dvigali v krikih, ali ni bilo razkočnega strahu, ki je navdajal to poslednjo noč v grozopolnem pričakovanju dneva?

Maurice je s trepetajočimi prsti prijel za Jeanovo roko, šele nato je pomirjen zaspal. In v daljavi je stražil samo še sedanski zvonic odkoder so padale ure, druga za drugo.

DRUGI DEL.

V mali, temni sobici v Bazeilles-u je nenaden stresljaj prebudil Weiss, da je planil iz postelje. Priluhnil je: to je bil top. Tipaje z roko je moral prižgati svečo, da pogleda, koliko je čas. Ura je bila štiri, jedva da se je delal dan. Naglo je vzel svoj ščipalnik ter preletel s pogledom veliko cesto — Douzy-sko cesto, ki gre posredi vasi toda polnila jo je nekakšna gosta megla prahu, ni bilo razločiti. Takrat je šel v drugo sobo, odkoder se je okno odpiralo na travnike, proti Meusi; in tam je zapazil, da se dvigajo iz reke jutranje megle ter potapljaajo vse obzore. Topovi so zdaj krepkeje pogramevali tam doli za meglenim zastorom, onstran reke. Naenkrat jim je odgovorila francoska baterija, tako bližnja in s takim treskom, da so se stresli zidovi male hišice.

Wiessova hiša je bila pri sredi Bazeilles-a, na desni, preden prideš do trga pred cerkvijo; pročelje je stopalo nekoliko nazaj in gledalo na cesto — eno samo nadstropje s tremi okni, nad njim pa postrešje; a zadaj se je obešal proti travnikom dokaj prostran vrt, odkoder se je videla neizmerna panorama gričevja, od Remilly-a tja do Frenois-a. In Weiss, v svoji gorečnosti novega gospodarja, je bil legel šele okrog dveh zjutraj, prej pa je zakopal v kletki vsa živila ter po najboljši bistroumnosti zavaroval pohištvo s tem, da je zadelal okna z žimnicami. Srd ga je grabil ob misli, da utegnejo priti Prusi in opleniti to hišo, katere si je tako želel in jo tako težko pridobil, pa še tako malo užil.

A s ceste ga je zaklical glas: "Ohe, Weiss, poslušajte!" Spodaj je našel gospoda Delaherche, ki je tudi hotel spat v svoji barvarnici, veliki opečni zgradbi, tiščeci se Weissove hiše. Delavci, kajpada, so bili vsi zbežali skozi gozdove v Belgijo, in kot varuhinja tovarne je ostala le vratarica, zidarjeva vdova, Francoise Quittard po imenu. Tudi ona, ki se je tresla in je bila vsa prepadena, bi bila rada šla za drugimi, da ni imela svojega dečka, malega Charlesa, desetletnega fantička, ki je bil tako težko bolan za legarjem, da ga ni bilo mogoče spraviti od tod.

"Veste kaj," je ponovil Delaherche, "čujte, lepo se začinja... Najpametnejše bi bilo, da se takoj vrneva v Sedan."

Weiss je bil z gotovostjo obljubil ženi, da odide iz Bazeilles-a, če pride resna nevarnost, in je imel tudi trden namen držati svojo obljubo. Toda to je bil šele topniški boj na veliki razdalji, nekoliko negotov ob tem meglenem jutranjem polumraku.

"Počakajva, kaj hudiča," je odgovoril, "saj se nama ne muje tako strašno."

Sicer pa je bila Delahercheva radovednost tako živahna, tako razburjena, da je postal pri tem ves hraber. Priprave za obrambo so ga tako zanimalo, da niti ni zatislil očesa. General Lebrun, poveljnik 12. armadnega zbora, je bil prejel vest, da ga z rano zoro napadejo, in je porabil noč, da se utrdi v Bazeilles-u, čigar zavzetje je imel po svojem pove-lju za vsako ceno preprečiti. Barikade so zapirale vozno cesto in ulice, vsaka hiša je imela posadko nekolicin mož, vsaka uličica, vsak vrt je bil izpremenjen v trdnjavo. In že od trete ure, v črni noči, so bile čete, zbujene brez najmanjšega šuma, na svojih bojnih postojjankah, s sveže namazanimi chasapotkami in s predpisanimi devetdesetimi patronami v torbi. Zato tudi prvi strel sovražnih topov ni presenetil nikogar, in francoske baterije, ki so se bile postavile zadaj, med Balanom in Bazeilles-om, so takoj pričele odgovarjati streljanju, da pokažejo, da so tu, in so na slepo srečo streljale v meglo.

"Ali veste," je povzel Delaherche, "da bodo barvarnice sedito branili? ... Cel oddelek imam, pridite si pogledat."

Zares je bilo tam postavljenih nekaj nad štirideset mož mornariške pehote, na čelu jim poročnik, visok, plavalas, še zelo mlad človek z odločnim, trmastim obrazom. Že so se bili nje-govi ljudje polastili poslopja; nekateri so rezali strelnice v naoknice, ki so se v prvem nadstropju odpirale na cesto, a drugi so izsekavali nizki zid okrog dvorišča, ki je gledal na travnike za poslopjem.

Sredi tega dvorišča sta Delaherche in Weiss našla poročnika, ki je ogledaval naokrog in se trudil razbrati daljo v jutranji megli.

"Prokleta megla," je zamrmral. "Tipaje se vendar ne moremo biti."

Nato, po premolku, je nadaljeval brez pravega prehoda.

"Kakšnega dne pa smo prav-zaprav danes?"

"Petek je," de Weiss.

Adria's Concert

Now that Summer has left us with her sports and other outdoor activities, Autumn has again shown her brilliant array of colors. She has arrived with her arms laden with gifts, some of which are wrapped in musical notes and tied with silver strings of music.

These she has been preparing for many months, filling the barrels with songs and voices, both individual and by groups.

These she will open, each on its designated date, for the enrichment of our lives.

One such package, labeled "Adria", she will open Sunday, October 9th at 4:00 o'clock in the Slovenian Home on Holmes Ave.

From this music box she will present us with lovely songs including solos, trios, quartets, choral singing, and several songs by the men's chorus, "Slovan".

Autumn's last musical gift for the day will be Johnny Vadal's rhythmic dancing tunes, starting at 8 p. m. Autumn's kindness to us will continue to grow only if we appreciate her gifts. So let us accept them by being on hand October 9th.

There are other fall festivals to be sure. The season is full of them just now. But make no mistake the only one with that little something extra is the YE OLDE FALL FESTIVAL of the St. Vitus Holy Name Society.

To refresh your memory the traditional Fall Festival includes an evening of dancing to the pleasing notes of the Glavic Orchestra, an old fashioned klobasnik and zelje dinner to tickle your palates, and a floor show for your entertainment. Try to beat that combination! And all included in your price of admission.

Tickets will go on sale this week. Get yours from any member after your Mass on Sunday. Tickets will also be on sale at the door. However we strongly urge that you get your ticket early for the event of the year.

Thirty-seven days to go! Only five more weeks. SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1949 IS THE DAY.

ST. VITUS AUDITORIUM GIVEN A CLEANING

Last Tuesday evening on the call of Magr. Ponikvar, our pastor, the following Juniors gave the auditorium floor a once over with the scrubbing brush. Jim Glavich, Joe Bokar, Bob Jara, John Bors, Frank Tusek, John Ceren, Mooney Slogar, Don Mulec and Frank Kluacik. Their fine work is to be praised for the place looks much more lively with clean waxen floors. Probably the gang should be given the first privilege to use the place. It might be a good idea to hold a "Teen's Blow Out" soon. What do you say?

C.Y.O. FOOTBALL TEAM

Although the boys were defeated last Sunday by St. Charles, past City Wide Champions, the score was not too discouraging, St. Charles 15, St. Vitus 6.

This Sunday we will play our neighborhood rivals, Immaculate Conception at 1 p. m. Place, Thomas Edison Field, E. 71st and Lexington Ave.

Better cheering section still needed, even though it has been improved from the first Sunday showing. Will you be there? Send the kids to root for the kids.

Idea From Dream Provides Profit

San Diego, Cal. — Paul C. Wells, a San Diego painter, dreamed of an idea to take the rattle out of windows and to eliminate sash cords and weights. He tried out his dream-idea and it worked.

Now Wells has sold more than 8,000 of the gimmicks.

The apparatus is nothing more than a pair of spring steel goose-necks tipped with rollers. They are screwed to the sides of the window frame and permit the window to be stopped at any point.

This and That from Washington

By Congressman Frances P. Bolton

PARIS—France is essentially an agricultural country and her people understand the land and their need to make it produce. At the moment such things as high taxes, payments to the state for welfare, etc., are making it exceedingly difficult for the men of the larger farms to increase their production inasmuch as that means hiring more men to do the work.

These men are not easy to find as so many work at government jobs and expect higher pay than the farmer can afford with the taxes he now has to pay.

In the wheat areas where both American and French tractors are being used the results have been quite extraordinary and this year's harvest has exceeded last year's in both wheat and barley. But the truly terrible drought which ruined practically the entire potato crop, and did great damage to the beets, will have to be faced. The beets are not only food for the animals but constitute a large part of the French sugar supply.

Recent rains give sense that not only the present beet crop but the winter wheat planting will be beyond earlier hopes.

The French farmer begins to see a very real practicality in mechanization, but he has his troubles. If he buys a French tractor, shall we say, he must pay for it in francs, and the cost is high. Then when he needs spare parts he must get them from the original factory as there is no "General Motors" production that makes parts interchangeable. This is a practical, down to earth change that the French industries could well recognize as one of the ways to more production both of machines and food. There are indications that the idea has begun to take hold.

I have been exceedingly interested to find the French with whom I have discussed the European situation and both the near and distant future are largely inclined to "consider France very definitely an important food raising area and would like to see the government take all possible steps to encourage the agricultural life of the country."

THERE is less excitement here in Paris over the devaluation of the pound and the consequent lowering of the other currencies, including the franc, than one might expect. "Adjustments will have to be made" seems to express much of the attitude one encounters. I have found no one as yet who is looking on it as anything but a limited action with no promise of permanent good. Some, who believe in less rather than more controls, feel that even though this undertaking marks a definite alleviation of some of the immediate problems, nevertheless it would have been a moment to remove the pegs entirely and let the pound find its real level rather than to have another false valuation, decided upon behind closed doors. Others express the view that, inasmuch as the whole currency problem is basic to European recovery, it was unfortunate that Great Britain acted without the closest consultation with the European countries. No one is prophesying as to results.

THIS will reach you while I am at sea. It will be good to be back again, fit for the work that lies ahead, and far better equipped to work for America as a responsible world power than when I came over. So much lies in our hands—we need all the information we can have! Even that will seem insufficient as a basis for the broad understanding and sound judgment we must have in the coming months.

ITS CLOSER THAN YOU THINK

Only five more weeks. Thirty-seven days to be exact.

Yes, that is correct because I am marking the days off on my calendar and you would be too if you were going to the YE OLDE FALL FESTIVAL of the St. Vitus Holy Name Society. The day is Sunday, November 13, 1949.

There are other fall festivals to be sure. The season is full of them just now. But make no mistake the only one with that little something extra is the YE OLDE FALL FESTIVAL of the St. Vitus Holy Name Society.

To refresh your memory the traditional Fall Festival includes an evening of dancing to the pleasing notes of the Glavic Orchestra, an old fashioned klobasnik and zelje dinner to tickle your palates, and a floor show for your entertainment. Try to beat that combination! And all included in your price of admission.

Tickets will go on sale this week. Get yours from any member after your Mass on Sunday. Tickets will also be on sale at the door. However we strongly urge that you get your ticket early for the event of the year.

Thirty-seven days to go! Only five more weeks. SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1949 IS THE DAY.

ST. VITUS AUDITORIUM GIVEN A CLEANING

Last Tuesday evening on the call of Magr. Ponikvar, our pastor, the following Juniors gave the auditorium floor a once over with the scrubbing brush. Jim Glavich, Joe Bokar, Bob Jara, John Bors, Frank Tusek, John Ceren, Mooney Slogar, Don Mulec and Frank Kluacik. Their fine work is to be praised for the place looks much more lively with clean waxen floors. Probably the gang should be given the first privilege to use the place. It might be a good idea to hold a "Teen's Blow Out" soon. What do you say?

C.Y.O. FOOTBALL TEAM

Although the boys were defeated last Sunday by St. Charles, past City Wide Champions, the score was not too discouraging, St. Charles 15, St. Vitus 6.

This Sunday we will play our neighborhood rivals, Immaculate Conception at 1 p. m. Place, Thomas Edison Field, E. 71st and Lexington Ave.

Better cheering section still needed, even though it has been improved from the first Sunday showing. Will you be there? Send the kids to root for the kids.

Home on Vacation

Miss Caroline Modic came from California for a 3-week vacation to her mother and brothers at St. Clair Ave. and E. 62nd St.

The Rush's On

Rochester, Ind. — Is appendicitis catching? Looks that way to the Wm. Belcher household on a farm west of here. Richard Belcher, 15, has just returned to his home after an emergency appendectomy performed in Woodlawn Hospital. He was the third member of the family to undergo an appendectomy in six weeks in the same hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Belcher were stricken before their son.

St. Vitus Men's League

After dropping the first game to the Cimperman Market five by two pins, the Malenick Bros. entry came back with a 931 game and 2850 series to take the last two games, three points and the league lead after the second night of bowling. Most of the punch in the Malenick bowling came from Vic Melie who blasted out games of 216 and 248 to give him a 611 three game total. Vic was helped along by Frank Usnik 302, 510 and Leo Kodramas 507. Ray Mestak was the only Marketeer to get into the 500 column with his 508 series.

The Kollander Agency five-came up with two wins against the Zalokar Confectionery team but could only take two points as the Confectionery team took the total pins point. The Kollander team which is one point away from first place was led by Vic Lunder and his 481 series. John Zorich paced the Zalokar team to two points with his 490 three game total.

Norwood Applance climbed into a tie for second place with a three point win over the Clover Dairy team. John Novak 522 and Stan Merhar 516 of the Applance five were too much for the Dairy men who were led by John Lach who had a 516 series.

Although the Jimmy Slapnik Florist team took the last two games the Charles and Olga Slapnik team took the total pins point and is also tied for second place. John Figurski helped the Charles & Olga team to a big first game advantage with his 534 series while Carl Kukuksa 214, 538 couldn't get enough help from his mates to take the total pins point.

The Mar-Ket Coal five pulled the only clean sweep of the night and it was registered against the Norwood Men's Shop team. Rudy Massera set a torrid pace for the Coalmen with his 235, 615 series and also getting help from Joe Marinko 208, 507, Willie KoKvack and Joe Sever tried to wake up the Mens Shop squad with 525 and 519 respectively. The Mens Shop team has yet to gain their first win.

The Yale Flower Shop entry led by Tony Cvefler and his 528 series took three points from the Brodnick Brothers entry in their match. Matt Milina and Lou Godec came up with 506 and 505 series but could not make up the blind the team was forced to carry.

Although the scores show that the boys greatly improved over the first week, the league bowling is still not up to par but some high games should be entered into the record books in the near future. Some of the teams are having a tough time getting started but once the majesty of the bowlers find their range of the alleys, the competition will reach the same peak it has attained in past seasons.

STRAIGHT FROM WASHINGTON

By STEPHEN M. YOUNG
Ohio
Congressman-at-Large

Washington. — Congressmen are determined to find out why commodity prices have dropped twenty percent and food prices only three per cent. Furthermore, they propose to do something about this. Housewives know there is too much spread between cattle on the hoof and beef on the table.

With corn selling at $1.26 a bushel housewives can well wonder why they are compelled to pay nineteen cents a box for corn flakes. If you figure that out it amounts to $13.00 a bushel.

COURT PACKING (?)
The United States Supreme Court is likely to be enlarged by Act of Congress. Deaths of Justices Frank Murphy and Wiley Rutledge at comparatively early ages have spotlighted the tremendous burden of work for the "nine old men." Thousands of cases from lower courts must be studied. Most of these cases are not admitted into the court for argument, but the research involved is tremendous. If Congress increases the number to eleven or thirteen, President Truman will undoubtedly appoint Republican and Democratic Justices. Judge Florence E. Allen, U. S. Circuit Judge of the Sixth Judicial Court of Appeals, would probably be one of those selected. She would grace the Supreme Bench.

ISOLATIONISTS STILL
It took seven months, but the Senate finally did it! The last Congress restricted reciprocal trade. President Truman urged this Congress to extend Reciprocal Trade Agreements and wipe out the restrictions imposed. The Senate, after long debate, passed the bill by vote of sixty-two to nineteen. Senators Bricker and Taft opposed reciprocal trade extension. This is another Administration victory. The United States has now signed thirty-three agreements with other nations lowering tariff rates on more than fifty thousand items. This Congress has reversed the backward trend of the last Congress. Citizens generally will remember that the promotion of tariff of 1930 destroyed our international trade. International trade is not a one-way road. We cannot sell surplus products of American farms and factories abroad unless we import some goods from other nations. Reciprocal trade and lowering tariff barriers generally will reduce the cost of living. The American consumer won a victory when the Senate finally passed this bill. Cordell Hull, a great Secretary of State, is the father of the reciprocal trade idea. The Reciprocal Trade Act is the keystone of our bipartisan foreign economic policy.

WOMAN VICE PRESIDENT (?)
They say, "He is afflicted with Potomac fever," when a defeated Congressman seeks a government position or opens up a Washington law office. "Bitten by the Presidential bug," is another expression. Apparently, Margaret Chase Smith, Republican United States Senator from Maine, and a very good Senator by the way, is bitten with the Vice Presidential bug. She is being currently mentioned as possible G.O.P. Vice Presidential nominee in 1952. "The lady is not saying 'no'." Probably some of these days there will be a woman President of the United States. Were the Democrats to seek Presidential timber, leaders need search no further than in New York and Ohio. They would find Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, probably the world's foremost woman, and Judge Florence E. Allen, the world's foremost woman jurist. Some folks may think the Federal Government may need a good housecleaning and that's a job for a woman. One woman said, "It is the men who got the world in a mess and maybe it needs a woman to get it out." However, a discontended Maine farmer gave Senator Smith a setback. He wrote, "You are giving us a fine example of what to expect from a woman President—exactly nothing!"

AMERICAN MINISTER PERLE
Capital newspapers are featuring Washington hostess Perle Mesta, now United States Minister to the picture-postcard grand duchy of Luxembourg. For three days this wealthy, social-minded, well-compressed widow took lessons on the proper manner to curtsy to Grand Duchess Charlotte. When she was letter-perfect in bending the knees and dropping the body, United States Minister Mesta donned a high-necked, long-sleeved violet presentation gown, and confident in her knowledge of protocol of a diplomatic presentation, made her curtsy, which the Grand Duchess graciously acknowledged. Following that Minister Mesta left her visiting card at the homes of legislative leaders of this miniature nation and afterward she threw a party.

"Silly?" You said it, sister.

The Bells of St. Mary's

St. Mary's P.T.A. held their first meeting of the new semester on Sept. 8th at 8:00 p. m. It was wonderful to see all those dear faces again. All the regular members were there, plus a few new ones, who have joined our group. To our new members, we, the regular members would like to extend our warmest welcome.

At our first meeting, we really accomplished many things. First there was the discussion concerning the program for the coming year. We sure have an interesting one this year. All the members will receive a program through the mail so that you can see for yourself just what the activities will be.

Our membership drive is on now, and any day this week your child will bring home a slip of paper for you to read. It will tell you how to join the P.T.A. or if you would like more information, you may contact Mrs. Chas. Laurich at 722 E. 155 St. or call LI-4305.

On October 22, the P.T.A. will hold a Card Party in the Church basement. The Chairman for the affair will be Mrs. James Fasciano and Mrs. August Lapuh. Tickets may be obtained from them or any other P.T.A. member. There will be refreshments and very nice awards. Come on down and spend an evening among friends. You won't be sorry!

The Catholic Parent-Teachers League held their monthly meeting and tea in honor of Dr. Clarence E. Elwell's elevation to the ranks of Rt. Rev. Msgr. on Thurs., Sept. 29th at St. Wendelin's parish hall. Officers and delegates of different units attended the affair. Msgr. Elwell was presented with a purse from the C.P.T. League.

Our next meeting will be held on Thursday, Oct. 13th at 8:00 p. m. in the Study Club Room. Let's see a lot of new members there. You won't be sorry ladies! I'll be seeing you.

Junior Sodality Scribbles—

Is there a doctor in the house? If not I'll settle for some "Tums". Our new Socialists happen to be victims of Alice Grosel. She surprised us at the last meeting by announcing that there would be refreshments served right after the meeting. Of course, no one knew that she had baked the cake and had made the cocoa (without sugar). The girls ate in order to be polite but O - H, what results. Well, they all lived and are now — I'll finish next week. MOM, get the TUMS — hurry!

Chapter Ten— The Misadventures of Isabel

This column may come in a bit late, but if it does, please take my word for it, the delay was unavoidable.

I did leave off with our going to Arlington Cemetery, didn't I? Well, we loaded off onto the buses, and off we went across the Arlington Memorial Bridge, which is indeed a lovely creation, since it is all white, and spans the beautiful "blue" Potomac, whose brownish-gray color makes a very effective background.

We wended our way thru the long twisting drives that curl around the entire Cemetery. There were small patches of ground that were set off for special graves, and they were marked with the usual type of grave-stones that you see in ordinary cemeteries. However, and this is part of the beauty of the Cemetery, for the most part, the large tracts of green lawn were covered with small oblong stones; the regulation markers of the United States. They were in pattern so that no matter how you looked at them, they were always in a perfectly straight row.

Freddy was hurrying us thru so that we'd get to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in time for the changing of the guard. The guard is on duty every hour of the day and night, and during the day is changed every hour, during the night every two hours.

We were warned not to get into the way of the guard as he marched back and forth before the tomb. If someone gets in the way, he may not step aside, but must push the person out of his way. If necessary, with his bayonet, and keep marching in the same path.

We made it just about three minutes before the time for the changing of the guard. It was almost three, and already there were crowds of people on the steps of the marble amphitheatre in front of the Tomb, from where the changing of the guard is best seen. We joined the crowds, and waited.

At precisely three, a sergeant and the new guard came marching out from behind the trees off to our right. Both guards presented arms, and then the sergeant marched off the old guard, and the new guard took his place, and began the same steady pace.

The Tomb is white marble, and on one side is a figure of Peace with Victory as symbolized by two Greek figures carved out of the marble front. The end that faces the amphitheatre, there is the following inscription: "Here rests in honored glory, an American soldier, known but to God."

From the Tomb, we walked over to the Custis-Lee mansion. It's a large looking house on the outside, but inside the rooms are much too ornate, and to my notions, too small. The bedrooms are large enough to contain only a bed and dresser. There isn't any space for walking around the room. You can barely get from one side of the bed to the other without rolling across the bed. The ornate decorations are beautiful, but there are too many for them to be appreciated in one quick trip through.

We walked out of the house and over to the slave quarters, which Sister told us were supposed to be pretty good as far as slave quarters go. But there was nothing good about them. They were only barns with a few pieces of wooden furniture in them, and in some cases with only a table, a chair or two, and some wooden boards with a few dirty blankets. The stables for the animals were better kept.

The grounds are lovely, and the smell of fresh grass mingled with the smell of the Potomac River, a clean smell of fresh water, and a clean smell of fresh grass. The breeze was delightful, as we walked into the groves and woods. The sunshine was brilliant, and even hot, but the woods were gloriously cool and fresh.

As we came down the small hill, we saw the whole city of Washington out in the distance, and the Potomac. The view can also be seen from the steps of the amphitheatre. The Washington Monument stands up tall and proud in the distance, and the Capitol is a hazy white dome.

Freddy piled us back onto the buses, after we had admired the view, and then we headed for Mount Vernon, which was several miles away.

We drove up to Mount Vernon just in time. The gates close at five, and it was four before we got there, so we had just an hour to get thru. Freddy had supplied us with post card folders, stamped on the bus. These were to be mailed at Mt. Vernon, which has the only plantation post office left in the United States.

The grounds at Mt. Vernon are large and beautiful, but the mansion itself is too small for my tastes. The rooms are beautifully decorated, of course, but they are overdone, as was the style of the time, and so the beauties of the individual pieces cannot be appreciated, as there is no time.

The trip back I shall have to tell you about next time, and I shall also tell you of the very exciting evening we had!!!!

In haste, and with love,
ISABEL

ST. VITUS POST CATHOLIC WAR VETS

St. Vitus Post 1655, Catholic War Veterans, will hold their regular monthly meeting on TUESDAY, Oct. 11th, at 8:00 p. m., in the post club room at St. Vitus School.

Annual election of officers will take place at this time, so it is important that each and every member is present. One way of being certain you have the officers you think best fitted for the job is being there to elect them.

We have been assigned our official post number (1655) and County Commander Pinon will make a formal presentation of the charter at some future date.

With the official charter in our possession and the post club room just about completed, St. Vitus Post 1655, CWV, will be ready for a successful future.

Membership is still open, so when you come to the meeting on Tuesday, bring along a fellow veteran you know should be with us.

BLOCK ROSARY
Will be held at the home of Rose Cimperman, 1115 Norwood Road, next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

BAKE SALE
At St. Vitus School in the basement Sodality Room, Sun., Oct. 9, 1949 after 7:00 o'clock Mass.

THE JUNIOR SODALITY

A short time ago sixteen Junior Sodality members, in the steps of Notre Dame Academy to commence what is known as the happiest time of your life — a high school career. Yes, a new and startlingly different life began for us on Sept. 8th (appropriately enough, the Blessed Virgin's birthday!) — for this was our first day of high school classes!

Gradually, however, from under the fog of confusion, mad rushing about and dashing from place to place, we finally became orientated and actually considered it fun. (Not the homework, of course!) But it really is fun — in spite of the fact that they term us "little green freshmen".

Our first accomplishment reads thus: Six of our girls responded for try-outs for the Dramatic Club and as a result Madeleine Ordina, Polly Poklar, Carol Pink, Margaret O'Donnell, Lillian Zupancic and Mary Arko are about to display their histrionic talents on the Notre Dame Stage.

Then there is bowling every Friday. It might be mentioned here that the first time we bowled, most of our girls averaged 80 or above, (excepting yours truly, who humbly admits a lowly score of 58!!!!) Note to the Editor: Kindly print the foregoing figures very small and very faintly! Thanks!

We are also anticipating horse-back riding, hay-rides in October, skating and tobogganing later in the season (if it snows???) etc., etc.

All in all, high school life is swell!

Ice Capades of 1950 Keeps the Flag High

Ice Capades opened its bulging frigidaire for the 10th time at Cleveland Arena Thursday, Sept. 29th and out came another dazzling Ice Capades. It is a sumptuous show that more than maintains the very special standards of this winter wonderland.

You can stop at practically any point of the program and something good is there. There's the heat wave that JUNGLE JIVE works up... Let-tengarver, the skating craftsman of uncommon skill... and the funny team of Jackson and Lyman stops the show cold on the ice.

Don't overlook the spectacular still skating of Charlie Slagle either; or the striking startle, Miss Helen Davidson; nor the amazing muscular things of Jackson and Nelson. All of these and many others keep Ice Capades well stocked with all that it is humanly possible to do.

On its 10th Birthday, Ice Capades of 1950 at the Arena Sept. 29th thru Oct. 16th is Greater than Ever!

TAINT LEGAL... but neither is any of the football tomfoolery of those little guys who get the big laughs. They are Tuffy and Gil McKellen, a new act of ICE CAPADES... and one of the 20 acts featured in ICE CAPADES OF 1950.

"Give me a pound of those grapes. My husband is fond of them. Do you know if they have been sprayed with any kind of poison?"
"No, ma'am; you'll have to get that at the drug store."

Betty: "Did you hear about the man who sat up all night trying to figure out where the sun went when it went down?"
Olive: "No, what happened?"
Betty: "It finally dawned on him."

DO YOU GET VITAMINS?

Of course you do. Everybody does! Couldn't live if they didn't. The question is, do you get ENOUGH? A great many people do not, and as a result feel low and tired.
