Postopanje rdečih Vietnamcev z ameriškimi vojnimi ujetniki

II.

Postopanje z vojnimi ujetniki je bilo najslabše pri Vietkongu, pri gverili v Južnem Vietnamu. Ta je vlačila ujetnike s seboj in jih imela ponoči privezane in zaprte v nekake kurnike, da ne bi ušli. Mučenje je bilo tudi pri teh nekaj običajnega in vsakdanjega, pomanjanje hrane še večje kot v Severnem Vietnamu, ker često gverilci sami niso imeli dovolj hrane.

Ko so podpolk. Johna A. Dramesija vprašali, čemu ujetniki pripovedujejo o svojih mučenjih in o vseh grozotah, ki so jih prestali, je ta odgovoril: To vam da neko misel o tem, kaj smo preživljali v teh letih. Ljudje tu so kričali, da so Severni Vietnamci človeški in da je njihova stvar pravična. To kaže, kako človeški so bili in kako pravični so.

Vojni ujetniki so priznali, da je mučenje z oktobrom 1969 začelo močno padati in da ujetnikov niso več tako sili k izjavam. Hrana se je izboljšala in ujetniki so bili pre seljeni v večje skupine. Leta 1970 po neuspelem napadu na Son Tay ujetniško taborišče — Pentagon je sedaj priznal, da je bil ta napad pripravljen zato, ker so zvedeli, da ameriške ujetnike tam strašno mučijo in da nekateri zaradi tega umirajo — so večino vojnih ujetnikov preselili v osrednjo jeko v Hanoiu.

V začetku leta 1971 so bili ujetniki zmožni organizirati četrto zavezniško krilo ujenikov pod vodstvom polk. Flynnja in njegovega namestnika polk. Risenerja. Pod strogim vojaškim vodstvom in redom je postalo življenje vojnih ujetnikov znosnejše.

Ko so vsi drugi vojni ujetniki pripovedovali o mučenjih, telesnih in duševnih, je capt. Walter Wilber z Virginija Beach, aktivni mornariški letalec, ki je bil sestreljen junija 1968, izjavil na programu CBS-TV "Sixty Minutes" zadnjo nedeljo, da so Severni Vietnamci z njim postopali dobro in da se je sam prostovoljno odločil za propagandno izjavo, ki jo je nato oddal radio Hanoi in po njem tudi radio Moskva.

Priznal je, da so ga imeli zaprtega v "samici" 20 mesecev in da je v tej dolgi samoti začel razmišljati o vietnamski vojni, njenem ozadju, njeni moralni strani. Pri tem je prišel do zaključka, da je ta vojna "napaka" in je hotel "doprinesti nekaj k njenemu koncu". Temu naj bi služile njeve prostovoljne izjave. Dejal je, da je od mladega veren kristjan in da je celotno vprašanje s tega vidika presojal in prišel do svojih zaključkov. Govoril je odkrito in napravil vtič iskrenosti. Svojih stališč ni spremenil, ko je bil puščen na svobodo.

V svojih izjavah na televiziji je dejal, da so njemu slično stališče zavzeli tudi nekateri drugi, pa ga niso upali javno zagovarjati.

Več vojnih ujetnikov je izjavilo, da so obiskovalci, kot sta bila Ramsey Clark in Jane Fonda, v Hanoiu vojno podaljševali, ker so ustvarjali vtis, da bo moral predsednik Nixon kloniti pred pritskom javnega mnenja. Nekateri od njih so trdili, da so jih s silo gnali na razgovor s takimi obiskovalci. Če niso marali iti zlepa, so morali iti zgrda!

Jane Fonda je k temu priporočila enostavno, da vojni ujetniki "lažejo", ko govorijo o mučenjih. Njihov izgled kaže, da se jim ni godilo preslabo!

Na to priporočbo so vojni ujetniki odgovorili, da prepuščajo javnosti, naj presodi, kdo govoriti resnico in kdo laže!

Zgodbe o mučenjih vojnih ujetnikov Severnemu Vietnamu škodujejo in bodo močno vplivale na pripravljenost Kongresa in javnosti nuditi Severnemu Vietnamu podporo za gospodarsko obnovbo. Le kdo bi zagovarjal darove takim nasilnem in krutim sadistom? V Hanoiu so se tega zavedli in so izjavili koncem preteklega tedna, da so pripovedovanja ameriških vojnih ujetnikov o mučenjih v ujetništvu rdečih "izmišljotine" in "laži".

Poglejeno malo v to reč! Komunistični režim v Severnem Vietnamu je svoje pristaše sfantaziral, kot so storili komunisti drugod. Spomnimo se ravnanja z ujetniki v boljševiški revoluciji, spomnimo se na postopanje z ujetniki v španski državljanski vojni, spomnimo se na grozodestvo Staljinovih čistk in prisilnih taborišč... za vse grozote, mučenja in nasilja tam je prič in dokazov več kot dovolj!

Komur to ni dovolj in še rajše verjame Hanoiu kot našim vojakom ali Jane Fonda, naj se malo pozanima, kako je bilo v kmetijski revoluciji v Jugoslaviji tekom pretekle vojne. Strahote, ki si jih ne moremo misliti, mučenja in divjaštvo, ki ga ne bi nikdar nihče pribusal slovenskemu človeku in vendar se je vse to godilo. Pomislimo na slovensko narodno vojsko in njen mučenje v Teharjih in drugod ter rato njen množični pomor v Kočevskem Rogu in drugih moriščih! Vse to se je godilo v Sloveniji, vse to so delali slovenski komunistični podivnjaci nad svojimi lastnimi brati!

Amerikanci so Vietnancem tujci, sovražni tujci, ki so prišli uničevat komunistični red v Vietnam. Divjanje vietnamskih komunistov, sadistično mučenje ameriških vojnih ujetnikov je gledano od te strani jasno. Kdorkoli ima o komunizmu in njegovi surovi brezobzirnosti in divjaštvu le nekaj pojma, ne more dvomiti niti za trenutek o resničnosti tega, kar ameriški vojni ujetniki pripovedujejo.

Ne verjame ameriškim vojnim ujetnikom, ko pripovedujejo o mučenjih, le tisti, ki verjeti noče, ker hoče ohraniti svojo zvestobo Hanoiu in komunistični stvari.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

MISIJONSKA SRČANJA IN POMENKI

150. "KDO SI, GOSPOD?"

"Tako je silno kratko, vendar vsaj tri tedne. Prav lepa hvala BISTVENO vprašal Savel brez za vse. Pred kratkim se je od tu cvinkov, ko ga je na poti v Damask Bog vrgel s konja, ga udaril s slepoto in pustil brezmočnega v obcestnem jarku. Ni izgubljen vesed ob trdi preizkušnji. In Kristus sam mu je odgovoril: 'Jaz sem Jezus, ki ga ti prišle in sedaj jih pošiljajo na zaj, ker imajo rojstni list in državljanstvo Burme, da bodo nadaljevale Kongregacijo. Zgledujši si mislimo, da ni bilo lahko Savlu tam na tleh. Toda v svojem iskanju in vprašanju se je izrazil poniznega in resniciljubnega. Preprosto je priznal, da je njegov nasprotnik GO-SFCD. Ni se oziral, kaj bodo rekli njegovi. Čutil je božjo moč. Priznal jo je in preokrenil svoje mščenje, svoje govorjenje, svoje ravnjanje.

V današnjem svetu nam je nujno potreben DIALOG, direkti povogov. Jezus sam nam trajno samo domača Cerkev, in pravi, naj bomo jasni, odlöčni, to je prav. Mora pa ostati nekaj na bo vaš da, da in ne." Let sama, da se osvobodi tuje mentalitete in ustanovijo Cerkev, prilagojeno svojim kultiram. To bi bilo popolnoma nemogoče za vsakega tujca misijonarja. Gotovo bo to obogatilo vso Cerkev, misijonsko delo tujcev pa se bo spremeno naše clajšanje, ker bo bclj evangelijsko kot pa administrativno. Zankrat pozdrav v Kristusu."

Urednik AD prof. Vinko Lipovec tehtno dodaja k našemu dijalogu o MSIP in delovanju celotne MZA, ko 28. marca odgovarja na več pisem in vprašanj, klub pomanjkanju časa, jasno in iskreno:

"Vaše pisanje ima dosti prijateljev, pa tudi več takih, ki se nad njim jeze. To je stara zgodba, ki jo poslušam že skozi 24 let... Nihče ne more vsem ustreči. Morda bi bilo zanimivejše, če bi bilo manj pridiganja in več pripovedovanja o razmerah v različnih misijonskih pokrajnah. Dobro je, da se pisev vpraša, ko piše: Bo li to koga res zanimal? Kako pisati, da bo potvredega čitalatelja bolj prijelj in pritegnilo k branju? So to težavne stvari, pa se jih moramo vedno lotevati, če hočemo ujeti. Ne maram učiti, le skušnja me je tako naučila in bi z njo rad dobri stvari pomagal. Vem, da tudi Vam ni lahko, tudi Vi imate dela v obilju. Morda ne bi bilo napak, če bi bili sestavki krajši. Kar je preko dve strani (z drugim presledkom) je za en sestavek preveč. Gre za skupno korist, pri skupnem naporu za dobri stvar! Jaz želim prav tako dober uspeh Vašemu delu kot AD sami; misijonstvo mi je ednakdaj blizu. S prisrčnim polemje, se bomo v MSIP vrnili v celoti k poročanju s terena in izmenjavo misijonskih metoda sodelovanja v zaledju vseh kontinentov. Sestra piše 20. marca, da mora za 14 dni povsem odpreči zaradi popolne izčrpanosti, po zdravniškem nasvetu. Po menjem nasvetu bodo njena nadaljnja RAZMIŠLJANJA KRAJŠA IN BOLJ PRAKTIČNA. Prejela je nedavno 4 sestavke AD MSIP skupaj in bila jih je, kot mi najrazličnejši iz vseh koncev pišejo, zelo vesela. Molimo, da ji Božig ublaži hude glavobole, za katere je že leta zdravijo, brez zadovoljnih. Je pa tudi res, da vsi zlepna ne, ko imamo često tako različne okuse, zanimanje in posebno — ideale. Sam se sodelujočimi v celotni MZA trudim, kar se da. Naj vas vse On vadi v potrpljenju!"

Pagloma bomo najbrže s skupnimi močmi in ob stalnem dialcu med nami našli najboljši način, da bo čim več bralcev zadoščljivih. Je pa tudi res, da vsi zlepna ne, ko imamo često tako različne okuse, zanimanje in posebno — ideale. Sam se sodelujočimi v celotni MZA trudim, kar se da. Naj vas vse On vadi v potrpljenju!"

Cestitamo sodelavk ge. Jožici Pastrana v Commack, N.Y., če že Bela nedelja, ki letos pada na 29. aprila. To je namreč dan, na katerega prirejajo Mladi harmonikarji svoj vsakoletni kon-naluč čimbolj podobna tudi v misijonski ljubezni!

Molimo za dušo pravkar umrela moža zveste clevelandske pionirke MZA Mary Štrancar. Naj mnoge mnoge žrtve v pred nepoznam dušam v misijonskih pogomaga njegovi duši.

Iz Indije je 25. februar pisal brat Ivan Germek, S.J., med drugim: "Jako me je razveselilo Vaše pismo in prisrčno se Vam zahvalim zarj in za Vaš priložen dar $20. Gospod Vam bo obilno poplačal za vse, kar naredite za nas misijonarje. G. W. se zahvalim v imenu vseh slovenskih misijonarjev. Kar pomagate meni, pomagate vsem in kadar ponomačate drugim, pomagate tudi meni, ker vsi delamo za isti cilj, to je to boljši svet Kristusu."

Prav pogosto v mislih grem nazaj v naš Temaj. Tam pod lipo, pred cerkvijo, vidim Vas dekle in dečke, meseca maja pri Šmarinicah. Tako lepo smo preveli, da je cerkev kar odmenila. Žal mi je za samostan, ker za mene je bil to drugi dom. Upam, da mi boste spet kaj pisala. Povejte mi prosim kaj o Vašem življenju, kako in kaj je tam v Vaši Ameriki. Sam sem tukaj edini Evropejec.

Odkar sem zapustil leta 1927 Evropo, sem prav redko imel priliko srečati rojaka ali govoriti naš materinski jezik. Vsega skupaj ne morem reči, da je bilo več kot štiri ure. Torej, upam, da mi boste oprostila, kar zadeva mojo slovenčino. Prav govorim molim za Vas in brata Janeza Grčenca. Prosim Vaše molitve, Vaš brat v Kristusu, Ivan Germek-Hadasov." MOLIMO IN DARUJMO ZA VSE IN POSAMEZNE NAŠE PIONIRJE IN MISIJONARKE! Postni čas nam nudi posebno priliko za večje in bolj zasluzne žrtve...

V postnem času smo, prosim, dajmo se spomniti vseh rajnkih in bolnih sobratov v svojih mlinih. S tem najbolj izpričamo svojo duhovno govezanost z njimi. Kdor le more, naj tudi bolne obiše. Hudo je, ko človeka bolezni priveže na postelj. To priljnost porabim tudi za te, da se zahvalim vsem, ki so obiskali bolne člane. Koncert
Mladih harmonikarjev

CLEVELAND, O. — Samo še dve ali tri vaje bodo imeli in bo že Bela nedelja, ki letos pada na 29. aprila. To je namreč dan, na katerega prirejajo Mladi harmonikarji svoj vsakoletni koncert v šolski dvorani pri Sv. Vidu.

O letošnjem sporednu koncertu boste brali v kratkem, za danes smo vas hoteli le opozoriti na dejstvo, da čas žezi in da se Be- stopstvu v 33 vendar je mestni zastopnik stalno pred čim volicev, jih zato lahko tudi u- spečno vadi politično, prosvetno in kulturno, pri zmanjšanju števila mestnih zastopnikov na 15, bi volivci tega le redko videli, že manj pa mogli računati na njegovo vodstvo, naglo in učinkovito pomoč v potrebi.

Na vzpenjaci

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Švicarskih gorah je ponekod železniška proga speljana po podzemju strmega hriba in je cloveka kar groza gledati skozi okno vozečega vlaka. Med potniki, ki so imeli krasen užitek ob tej vožnji, je nekoč sedela tudi neravnena dama, ki se je tresla od strahu. Ko pride sprevidnik preglodovat vozne karte, ga zaskrbljeno vpraša:

Ob 50-letnici položitve vogelnega kamna SND na Si. Clair Avenue v Clevelandu

Cleveland, O. — Slovenski narodni dom na St. Clairju v Clevelandu je vsekakor ponos vseh clevelandskih Slovencev, saj je ta Dom največji Slovenski narodni dom v Ameriki in bi se tako zgradbo in dvorano moglo ponašati tudi vsako večje mesto v Sloveniji.

Slovenci v Clevelandu so kmalu po naselitvi začeli razmišljati o svojem lastnem Slovenskem domu v Clevelandu. O tej ideji so se že razgovarjali leta 1903, vendar do formalnega sklepa o postavitev doma je prišlo še 22. aprila 1914.

Začele so se nabirke in ni šlo vse gladko. To dobo priprav za postavitev Slovenskega narodnega doma bi bilo treba posebej preštudirati in opisati, saj je trajala celih 9 let. Mnogi slovenski pionirji iz te dobe še živijo in marsikateri bi lahko še pomagal z dragocenimi podatki.

Spomladi leta 1923 se je Slovencem v Clevelandu po dolgem času in napornem delu le uresničila zamisel za postavitev Slovenskega narodnega doma v Clevelandu.

Na dan 15. aprila 1923 — torej pred 50 leti — so v sredini slovenske naselbine na St. Clairju v Clevelandu položili vogelni kamen in pričelo se je z gradnjo slovenske narodne stavbe. Za to slovensost vlaganja vogelnega kamna v sredini ameriške slovenske metropole je bila prirejena velikanska slovenska narodna manifestacija, katere se je udeležilo več tisoč Slovencev iz Clevelandu in okolice. V paradi na St. Clairju je bilo zastopanih 122 raznih društev s 34 zastavami, parado so vodile tri slovenske godbe. Veličasten spored je navdušil vse Slovence. Ob tej prilikti je dr. Jakob Seliškar, predsednik slovenske banke v Clevelandu, izročil v imenu slovenske banke dar $500 za Slovenski narodni dom.

Načrti za zgradbo Slovenskega narodnega doma v Clevelandu so bili že narejeni. Izdal jih je rojak Math Stankovich, ki je potem tudi nadziral gradnjo te stavbe. Takrat so preračunali, da bo gradnja Slovenskega narodnega doma stala približno $200,000 in da bo stavba in prostori odgovarjala vsem takratnim gradbenim predpisom in tudi za kulturne in druge prreditve. Stroški so menda pozneje narasli na $300,000.

Skoraj točno po enem letu od polaganja vogelnega kamna 15. aprila 1923 je bil Slovenski narodni dom v Clevelandu zgrajen in 1. marca 1924 so že slovesno odprli vrata Slovenskega narodnega doma na St. Clairju clevelandskim in ameriškim Slovencem za narodno in kulturno delovanje, ki je v zadnjih 50 letih — torej ob zlatem jubileju — gotovo v izredno čast vsem Slovencem v Ameriki.

Letos, 15. aprila, ko je 50-letnica polaganja vogelnega kamna za Slovenski narodni dom v Clevelandu, in prihodnje leto do 1. marca, ko bo 50-letnica dograditve Slovenskega narodnega doma, bi bilo prav, da se v tem času zborejo vsi dosegljivi podatki o kulturnem in narodnem delu pod streho Slovenskega narodnega doma v Clevelandu, kar bi bilo ob njegovem zlatem jubileju v častno priznanje Slovencem v Clevelandu.

Huda žeja gozdov

Ena sama bukev potrebuje na dan 100 litrov, breza pa celo do 150 litrov talne vode in sončnica 1 liter.

Skoraj neverjeten je podatek, da ena sama sončnica poskrbi iz zemlje vsak dan liter vode, njeni žeji pa še ni konec: nekaj vode potrebuje še za obnovo cešic, za tvorbo semen in cvetov.

Voda je za večino rastlin pogoj za normalno rast; posebno težko se z njo oskrbijo poleti, ko tla pokajo zaradi suše. Delovanje naravnih "črpalk" mora biti zlasti poleti intenzivno, posebno pri drevesih, ki potrebujajo velikanske količine talne vlage. 30 metrov visoka smreka mora črpati vodo iz globine, ki ustreza višini večnadstropne hiše. Seveda so med drevesnimi vrstami tudi takšne, ki so "varčnejše" in porabo vode precej omejijo.

Med bolj "žejnimi" drevesama vsekakor šteje bukev, ki si mora vsak dan načrpati sto litrov vode, breza pa je potrebuje celo 150 litrov. Iz teh podatkov je kaj lahko izračunati, da popije ena sama večja bukev poleti tudi 10,000 litrov vode. Večje počedeno področje pa je izska iz tudi do 7 milijonov litrov v enem samem poletju.

OTROCI SONCA

VI.

Mlinar Jane je bil zopet pisan. Sedel je v mlinu v polici, kjer mu je gorel ogenj. Mrmral je motne besede, obraz se mu je pačil; včasih je mož presunljivo zavpil in šel z očmi od stop do četrtega kama, od sijalnikov do mehov, kamor je prasiла momka. Potem mu je nihala glava, kakor gnana od čudnega krča; iztegoval je roko predse, kakor bi nečesa iskal, grabil s prsti, kakor da nekaj duši. Potem je legel ob ognju in spel nekaj minut. Zopet se je dvignil in zatulil divje in dolgo. Šum kamnov in vode je dušil njegov klic, njegev strahotne besede:

"Mir daj! Za kolesa se ne obešaj, črni duh, peklenski. Mir! mir, mir!"

Posluhnih je pod kamne in spet besnel; vzdignil je roke in križal privid pred seboj:

"Kakor kamen leži na dnu in se ne gani! In oči zapri in ne išči! Nihče te ni pahnil dol. Sam si zdrsnil pod kolesa. Ne obešaj se nanje, zlodej malič, hudič!"

Umirl se je, pa je začel znova iskati. Zdaj je iskal pijače, jo posrkal do zadnje kaplje. Nato se je nekam stresnil. Obraz se mu je razvlekel v groznotem nasmehu. Stopil je k vhodu, oprezoval. Potem je zlezel na streho in gledal pod jez. Potem je zdrknil nazaj v mlin in odmaknil desko na ilovnatki klopi, kamor je polagal mehove, dvignil zamazano mrljško štolo, hropl in se krohotal:

"Ta ga bo ubila, ta ga bo—"

Senca je zakrila vhod. Koširjev stric Feliče je stopil v mlin s svojim mirnim, bebastim nasmehom. Mlinar Jane ga je opazil. Oči so se mu zaiskrile, a ugasnile takoj. Zopet se je spasil v nasmehu. S trdo roko je potegnil strica Feliksa k sebi in govoril skrivnostno:

"Imam kruha, imam! Pa zdaj ne bova jedla."

Potisnil je strica na glico in živo skočil iz mлина. Stric Feliks je mirno gledal, kako so zastali vsi širje kamni obenem in še stope. Čuti je bilo, kako je zunaj voda pljusknila drugam, temno, scela v zeleno globočino. V mlinu je bilo vse mirno. Teden se je vrnil mlinar, položil je bobnel kakor strašne orgle svojo silno pesem. Voda je bila glinasto bela. Nekje v gorah je bila nevihta z bliskom, gromom in nalivi.

"Poj, hudič, poj!" je zaklical tedaj mlinar in sunil revnega strica na streho proti slemenu. Sam je začel tuliti motne latinske izraze:

"Libera, sempiterna, saccula, saecula!" (osvobodi, večna, veke, veke.)

In spet je klical stricu Feliku:

"Poj!"

Stric Feliče je pogledal z blodnimi, nemirnimi očmi pod se; zdrknil je na kolena, dvignil stejenico in zamahnil nad jez. In prav kakor mlinar je pel, ne da bi vedel, kaj govori. Njegov glas je bil plah, kakor da stote otrok, ki se boji. Govoril je zadnji potomec nekdaj slavne, plemenite in bogate rodovine, kakor je znal zmedeno iz otroških let, ko je služil pri maši:

"Suscipiat dominus Deus... totiusque Ecclesiae suae sanctae..." (Naj sprejme Gospod Bog... in vse svoje svete Cerkve.)

"Saecula, saecula, amen!" je vpil mlinar in vihtel črepinjo.

Vonj oljčnih vejc je padal in legal nizko nad razpenjeno vodo, ki ga je iz hladne rezkoški odbijala.

"Ponovi!" je kriknil mlinar, "ponovi odroki!"

Toda stric Feliče ni več vedel, kaj naj ponovi, in je trudoma buljil mlinarju v lice.

"Ponovi!" je zavpil mlinar in drugo in besno dvignil črepinjo.

Tokrat je bilo čuti, kako je nekda zavpil čisto bližu. Močna dekliška roka je potegnila Feliksa raz streho k sebi. Srdito mu je snela zamazano mrljško štolo

We've come a long way, baby

Denver, Colo. — Hear ye, hear ye! I have finally arrived in the modern world. A few weeks ago I received a letter addressed to "Ms." Birsa. Yes, ma'am, we've come a long way, baby. Now we have earned the privilege of addressing each other with an expression formerly reserved for hillbillies and illiterates.

It seems to me that this appellation is used by those pitiful females who are either ashamed of their husbands or ashamed of themselves because they do not have a husband. Personally, I like my "Mrs." It was hard enough to get, and I'm proud of what I caught.

When we look beyond the superficial nonsense of the worn-out "women's lib" movement, we can see that there is really some good in it, for both men and women. If such stereotypes as the stupid, frowzy "dingbat" female and the strong, intelligent, hard-working male are eliminated from our thinking, it will have accomplished a positive goal.

Why should everyday, mundane tasks be classified as "man's" and "woman's" work? Should my husband be ashamed of himself because he knows how to cook and press his own pants? Is it some kind of detraction from my womanhood because I keep the prettiest lawn in the neighborhood?

Does a woman really do her husband and family a favor by deliberately remaining ignorant of the world around her? Certainly not! The woman who reads and develops some hobby or skill has a great deal of personal wealth to share with her loved ones. A man who is sure of himself at work and at home need not feel that his masculinity is threatened by a woman who tries to improve herself.

Yes, I know that there is such a problem as job discrimination against women. As you read before, this school district chose to hire me for a position in which I was totally unqualified rather than allow me to teach band, for which I had over four years' extensive preparation. This kind of thing happens to many women all too often. Too many "strong" men who are weaklings on the inside are afraid that a woman's professional success might detract from their prestige.

Nevertheless, we women must share the blame for our difficulties in finding good jobs. For too long, too many of us have chosen not to prepare ourselves well for earning a living, leading almost all employers to expect very little of us. Many women will never have to support themselves, but such attitudes do a great deal of harm to the woman who sincerely wants to prepare for and excel in a career.

If I had my way, every woman would acquire some practical, marketable skill — teaching, medicine, photography, office work, or anything else she liked — before she married. Not only would she be a better woman for having learned a skill, she would also be prepared to support her family in the event her husband were unable to do so. And that's what is most important.

I NOTICED SOME SKULDUGGERY GOING ON

Having this job as a reporter for this great newspaper, The American Home, I was invited to the Governor's party in Columbus, honoring the 170 years of progress for the State of Ohio, and I was amazed at the many, many ethnic people that were there.

I ran into some of the Slovenian leaders from our community — Mr. Tony Petkovsek, our famous radio personality, Mr. and Mrs. Susnik, Senator Anthony Novak and wife, and from Barberton, Mr. Vincent Lanter.

All of us were wined and dined, and when I say wined — I mean wined, because we were drinking Ohio wine. I was rather perturbed, and I told Mrs. Gilligan (governor's wife) that we should have had some Kielbase or Slovenian Sausage from our famous St. Clair butchers. She apologized and told me that next year, when again the Governor's ethnic friends will be there, the meal will be there, and she concluded in saying, that whoever will be my representative next year will be able to enjoy that meal. (Was she telling me something?)

The Governor was highly elated that so many of his ethnic friends could come down to celebrate. In fact, I noticed some skulduggery going on. Mayor Ralph Perk sent his people there to see how many ethnic people were attending.

The Governor spoke of our founding fathers, and is really, really excited about past Ohio, and the future of Ohio, and he admitted that if it was not for the ethnic groups in the State, Ohio would not advance as it has. He was proud of what the Slovenians, the Poles, Czech, Slovaks, and Russians, etc. have done since they left Europe. He also spoke about Ohio's contributions in the field of automobiles, aviation, communications, education, health, lighting, political, labor and sports, and the people who helped make Ohio great were people of the Slavic background.

The Governor was hoping that all of us will be committed and make Ohio one step ahead of the other 49 states.

I was really enthused with the Governor's outlook, and I hope that all of us can make his dream come true.

THEY SELL THE SLAVIC VOTE

The word "equality" is the meaning of being equal, or the state of equal. Equal in manner or measure, in uniform or degree.

For decades party politicians have been preaching the word equal or equality, but history tells me they do not mean it.

For centuries the non-whites have been begging for equality, today they have to demand it.

If there was any equality for the oppressed and persecuted Slavic minority, then why have not more been employed by the governments, local and state.

Why are not more represented in government, especially in the democratic form, as the Slavic peoples have always supported the democratic party.

In 1972 the Cuyahoga County Democratic Party endorsed 24 candidates, 15 from the popularity nationality, 9 from all others, including non-whites.

Is that the democratic term of equality? Popularity not ability. Less any equality!

Without an alliance with the Slavic minority, the Democratic Party or the government cannot be successful, this was the downfall in old Austria, where the Slavic minority was neglected.

If the Democrats are for honesty in government, they should clean out those who live off the fruits of labor.

Today the minority endorsed representatives are used as yes men. They sell the Slavic vote to obtain a job for their friend, some politicians even use the Anglo-Saxon minority to promote their political diatribe. At least when the Anglo-Saxons were running America, it was progressing, today both party politicians are ruining America instead of running it.

W. S. Tyler Inc.

W. S. Tyler, Incorporated, a subsidiary of Combustion Engineering Inc. began operations in 1872. The company was founded and known as "The Cleveland Wire Works" by Washington S. Tyler, a young man of 37.

He came from a Connecticut family that moved to the Western Territory. But he returned to Connecticut to broaden his education and stayed on in Hartford to work in a dry goods store.

Because of poor health and driving ambition, he soon returned to Northeastern Ohio. He was interested in working with wire for some time, and the Cleveland Rolling Mills then the largest producer of steel wire, was near by.

Mr. Tyler built a 40 by 75 foot frame plant on the site of the present Cleveland Plant and went into business with 11 employees.

At that time wire weaving was done by hand on wooden looms. This was no easy job, and the hardest part was crimping.

Even Mr. Tyler came out of his office when it was his turn at the crank.

In 1876 production began of Four Drinier wires, or broadloom weaving, a type of brass wire cloth used in paper making and a very important part of the business today.

By 1878 the list of industrial products had grown to include brass and copper wire cloth, galvanized netting, wire lathing, and extra heavy steel coal screens which separated different grades of coal. Also offered were hundreds of consumer items, dandy rolls (a roller which impresses a watermark to paper), railroad spark arrestors, bunker netting, hanging baskets from $2.40 a dozen, to deluxe 16-inch design for $6 each. Everything from barbed wire and cheese "safes" to better mouse traps.

W. S. Tyler entered the elevator field. The elevator was demonstrated in 1854 at New York's Crystal Palace exposition.

W. S. Tyler began setting up a shop outside Cleveland. Elevators began to be taken seriously. Steel construction and the elevator opened up the sky to builders. Tyler had an early start in the elevator field due to experience in the wire mesh and other wire products. In those days elevator cars looked like cages. There was great demand for the founder's wire meshings, but this was not the final answer for the cars.

Facilities were installed by Mr. Tyler for the production of ribbon and basket weaves, and strap metals of brass, bronze, iron and highly decorative castings.

In the early 1890's wrought iron metal had about taken the place of woven wire mesh in elevator car construction. Wrought metal ornamentation reached its peak by the middle of the decade. One of the important developments was Metylwood, a bonding of wood veneers to steel. It was very useful in car and entrance doors. Another Tyler innovation was removable wainscot panels. W. S. Tyler began the business of metals.

constructing complete cars and entrances.

Tyler continued expanding and entered into manufacture of other ornamental products, including all sorts of architectural components, such as bank teller enclosures, stair railings, gates, lamps, building entrances, signs and grills.

Many of these ornamental products created and produced in the Tyler plant have become a respected part of American Art and Craftsmanship. The real growth of the organization began in 1878 with the introduction of power looms in place of hand work. The first permanent building was erected that year and served as Company Headquarters until 1914 when the present office building was constructed.

One significant by-product of the power loom was an improved type of wire cloth, known as Tyler double crimped. A new type of screen was developed in 1907 bringing to the plant worldwide business. This was known as Ton-Cap. (Tonnage Capacity). With one innovation leading to another TY ROD was introduced, which goes much further than TonCap increasing the slot length to obtain even greater screening capacity.

The last of the heavy duty screens was developed to assure longer life in screens of large open areas. This was known as TY-Loy which makes it ideal for resisting vibration and abrasion, containing qualities enabling a relatively light wire to give equal or greater life than comparable screens of heavier metals.

Today, more than ever, there is a need for realistic nutritional information to help guide Americans in their daily food choices. The urgency for people to utilize the information is even more pressing. Man cannot live on potato chips alone... or soft drinks, or candy... yet, too many of us skimp on nutrition and fill up with one-dimensional meals.

So serious is the problem that in February, 1968, the Secretary of Agriculture summed it up by saying: "We must conclude that many Americans are making a poor choice-nutritionally of our food abundance, and that to a large extent income does not determine a good nutrition...

...There is need for better nutrition information to help guide people in decision making."

Acting on the concern of the Food Retailer's Panel of the White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health, Food Council of America is reactivated. This umbrella organization of food industry trade associations has begun to mobilize the industry into a nationwide voluntary Nutritional Awareness Campaign. The council is acting on evidence that even those people who have sufficient money to spend on food give little attention to healthy buying. We have become a nation with very poor eating habits.
