Sovjetsko potniško nadzvočno letalo vodi

Sovjetsko nadzvočno potniško letalo TU-144 je doseglo pri preskusih že ponovno dvojno brzino zvoka v višini nad 55,000 čevljev.

CLEVELAND, O. — Ko se Kongres ZDA ne more odločiti za nadaljevanje gradnje nadzvočnega potniškega letala, imajo Sovjetska zveza, Francija in Britanija taka letala že zgrajena in jih preskušajo. Rusi so pri tem na celu, oni vodijo, kajti njihovo nadzvočno letalo Tupolev T-144 je že ponovno doseglo dvojno brzino zvoka pri poskušnih letih. Letelo je z brzino 1520 milij na uro v višini 55,663 čevljev.

Sovjetsko poročilo trdi, da letalo v redu deluje in da bodo preskuse nadaljevali. Računajo, da bo letalo v dveh letih že na razpolago za vključitev v redno razpolago za vključitev v redni potniški promet.

Tudi Francozi in Angleži, ki gradijo nadzvočno potniško letalo skupaj, imajo že vsak svoje Concord letalo sredи preskusov. Francozi, ki je v preskušanju že od leta 1969, je doseglo brzino 1366 milij v višini 52,000 čevljev, britansko pa je doseglo 1345 milij na uro v višini 51,000 čevljev. Obe letali delujeta v redu in preskuse z njima nadaljujejo. Skupno imajo Francozi in Angleži sedaj dve Concord letali v preskušanju, dve enaki in šest za reden potniški promet v gradnji. Te dni se francoski in britanski ministri razgovarajo o začetku gradnje še 4 letal za redni promet.

Sovjetsko in francosko-britansko nadzvočno letalo je razmerno majhno in strokovnjaki trdijo, da ne bo rentabilno. Ameriško, ki je še vedno v glavnem le na papirju, bo precej hitrejše in bo sprejelo lahko nekako dvojno število potnikov francosko-britanskega. Tako Sovjetska zveza kot Francija in Velika Britanija bi radi dobili kupce za svoje letalo, posebne ugodnosti ponuja kupcem zlasti Sovjetska zveza. Med njimi naj bi bila tudi pravica leta preko ozemja Sovjetske zvezde.

Potres na meji Peruja in Ekvadorja

QUITO, Ekv. — Močan potres je čutilo prebivalstvo mejnega področja Peruja in Ekvadorja v sredo zvečer. Kolikšna je škoda in števil žrtev, še ni znano. Prometne zveze s potresnim ozemljem so namreč zelo po manjkive.

Peru je v preteklem maju zadel hud potres, ki je zahteval okoli 70,000 mrtvih. Ves svet je hotel pomagat z zdravili in drugo oskrbo preživelim ponesrečencem.

Vedno večje zahteve

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil. — Ko so v letošnji pomladi ugrali naspromtniki vojaškega režima v Braziliji poslanika ZDA Elbricka, so zahtevali za njegovo izpustitev in osvoboditev 15 političnih jetnikov, za japonskega konzula, so zahtevali 5 političnih jetnikov, za zahodnemškega poslanika pa kar 40.

Ta teden so ugrabili švicarskega poslanika Bucherja in poročili, da ga bodo izpustili, če bo vlad Brazilije osvobodila 70 političnih jetnikov. Ta je na to pristala in čaka sedaj na imena teh, katerih izpustitev v grabitelji zahtevajo.

Irska je razburjena zaradi fajne zarote

Predsed. vlade Jack Lynch, ki je objavil pretekli teden izredno stanje zaradi odprtja zarote, noče o tej povedati nobenih podrobnosti.

DUBLIN, Ir. — Vlada Irske republike je pretekli teden objavilo izredno stanje in zagrozila s ponovnim odprtjem posebnih taborišč za skrajne in njihovo aretacijo in zaporom brez predhodne sodne razprave. Trdila je, da grozi republiki tajna vojaška zarota.

Izven parlamenta in v njem je pritisik vedno močnejši in glasnejši, naj vlada pove kaj več o tej zaroti. Predsednik Jack Lynch se temu upira, verjetno zaradi uspešnosti preiskave. V sredo je prišlo v parlament do hudega razburjanja, zbijanja po klopih in izključevanja 3 poslavcev delavske stranke od zasedanja parlamenta za 4 dni. Tudi včeraj ni bilo dosti boljše.

Znana britanska poslanka Bernadette Devlin, ki je sicer doma na Severnem Irskem, je prišla v Dublin in tu pozvala študente in druge demonstrante, naj proglose "razredni boj" proti vladni predsedniku J. Lynchu. Delavstvo je pozvala, naj zapusti tovarne, če bo vladu dejansko obnovila internacijska taborišča. "Ko bo prišlo arretiranje stopil skozi vrata takega taborišča, naj zadnji delavec zapusti tovarno," je dejala B. Devlin.

Na Kubi se vera krepi

MIAMI, Fla. — Na Kubi je v zadnjih letih število krstov in cerkvenih porok močno porastlo. Tudi obisk nedeljske maše ne prestane raste. Povečalo se je tudi število duhovniških in redovniških poklicev.

Gibanje "nove levice" prihaja iz mode

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Gibanje "nove levice" s svojimi nagnjeni do anarhizma, nihilizma in terorizma je začelo zgubljati simpatije naše javnosti. To se je čutilo že spomadi, pa vendar vsi znaki tega pojava niso bili tako jasni in zanesljivi, da bi se dalo kaj takega prorokovati. Naša javnost je začela kritično gledati na počenjanje novih levicarjev že ob priliku zadnje demokratske konvencije, toda takrat je bil položaj še meglen, pojmi nejasni, optimistična vera v udarnost nove mladine velika. Vse to se je hitro spremenjalo v škodo "nove levice". Začelo je prevladovati mnenje, da pomeni vse skupaj le veliko mladostno zaletelost, ki so ji dale filozofije nekaterih ne ravno mladih varuhov tega gibanja tako obliko, da je svet pri vsem tem še zmeraj misil, da tiči v novem gibanju, Bog v kaj.

Najlepši zgled za tako stanje je dala zadnja "ustavodajna skupščina" Črnih panterjev v Philadelphiji. Ta struja spada med najmočnejše v novi levi, pa tudi med najudarnejše. Zgubila je svoj vpliv na univerzah in sličnih prosvetnih zavodih, glavnina njenega članstva se je premaknila v vrste brezposebne črnske mladine. Poskus s skupščino se je hitro spremenil v polomijo, ki jo je vodilo hotelo prikriti z izvajanjem železne discipline, kar se pa ni posrečilo. Ustavodavna debata se je spremenila v prazno politično govorjenje in s tem tudi končala.

Da je deloma prišlo do tega, je treba pripisati poletnemu sklepu novih levicarjev, ker gibanje ni imelo jasne in prepričljive skupne filozofije, so se v njem hitro pojavile struje, ki je vsaka vlekla na svojo stran. Po tej poti so zabredle tudi v politiko, v iskanje nove družbe v boju za rasno ravnopravnost, v udarno revolucionarnost, ki že v začetku ni imela nobenega upanja na praktičen uspeh. Tako je nova levica razpadla v frakcije, le redke med njimi so se mogle obdržati na odru javnega zanimanja. Med frakcijami pa ni nobenih pravil stikov, kaj šele sloge. Voditelji struj se obnašajo kot pravi diktatorji. Hočejo biti gospodarji v lastnem gibanju, zato pa trejo med seboj.

UNIJE ŽELEZNIČARJEV SO SINOCI ŠTRAJK KONČALE

štiri unije železničarjev, ki so v sredo zvečer proglašile štrajk in ga včeraj zjutraj eno minuto čez polnoč začele, so včeraj sprejeli odločitev Kongresa in štrajk končale, ko jim je zvezno sodišče zagrozilo s budimi denarnimi kaznimi. Promet je delno že stekel in upajo, da bo v par dneh že v običajnem redu.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — njihova pogajanja z unijami, pa splošni železnični štrajk, ki je se priznali tudi, da jim ne pregrabil prav v dobi pred božičem, ostane nič drugega, kot zakon izpolnit, če hočejo, da ga bodo izpolnjevali železničarji.

Nagli konec štrajka kaže, da je v naši deželi še dovolj smisla za red in zakonitost. Morda so v tem pogledu ugodno vplivale zadnje kongresne volitve. Vsak daljši železnični štrajk bi brez dvoma izgubil podporo javnosti, posebno pred prazniki, ko ljudje potujejo na vse strani, še več po posiljajo pakete in vse vrst druge pošiljke.

ZDA kršile mednarodna določila o beguncih

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Državno tajništvo je v svojem po

je zagrozilo njeneru predsedniku Dennisu z globo $200,000 za vsak dan nezakonitega štrajka.

Zvezni sodnik John H. Pratt je odločil, da se unije železničarjev upirajo sodišču, ki je že ob 3.17 včeraj zjutraj na temelju novega zakona prepovedalo štrajk. Tri unije so takoj štrajk preklicale, unija uradnikov pa je vstreljala do šestih zvečer, ko je predsednik C. L. Dennis končno klonil. Sodnik John H. Pratt je zagrozil, da bo unijo kaznal vsak dan z $200,000, dokler štrajka ne prekliče, zato pa je posadka njene ladje Sovjetovska Litva pobegla v mornarico.

KOTIČKOV STRIC OTROKOM

Miklavž je mimo. Vesel sem, da slišim, da je bil pri obeh slovenskih šolah lepo sprejet. V starih navadah je veliko lepega in daj Bog, da bi med nami še dolgo ostale. V teh starih navadah se tako lepo izraza duša slovenskega človeka.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Vem, da se boste začudili, ko bo to pismo kar iz Floride pri-mahalo. Jaz sem bil pred nekaj meseci tudi Clevelandčan in sem hodil v šolo pri Mariji Vne-bovzeti. Tako sem se vsaj nekaj slovenskega naučil in sem hvaljezen učiteljem, ki se trudijo, da se tudi tukaj rojeni otroci lahko slovensko naučijo. Veste, stric, ko brem Vaše odgovore, se mi res smilite, ker ste tako stari in morate čez zimo ostati kar v šendici. Rečem Vam, tukaj v Miami bi Vaše stare kosti lahko ogreli. Da ne bom predolg s svojim čekanjem, bom končal in če mi dovolite, Vam drži-kaj več povem o tej sončni Floridi. Lepo Vas pozdravljam in tudi vse svoje prijatelje, posebno pa vse pri slovenski šoli pri Mariji Vnebovzeti.

Franček Klement

Dragi Franček!

Dva dni sem takoj pokonci hodil, kakor da sem ravno leskovo šiblo požrl. Pismo iz Floride. Jih ni veliko, da bi pošto od tam dobili. Hudo sem vesel, fant, da si mi pisal, in tako lepo po slovensko. Naj Ti ne bo žal, da si v slovensko šolo hodil. Ponosen sem nate. Ko bi imel kakšno stvar, ki se sama pelje in pot pozna, bi se pripeljal tja doli. Pod kakšno palmo bi sedla, roke pod glavo in jaz bi v toplem pesku te-le moje razškatljane kosti ogrel. Ti ne veš, trga me, boli in ko se zjutraj dvignem s pograda, sem tako trd, da je strah. Let mojega beganja po svetu je veliko. Morda pa Ti kdaj prideš sem na obisk? Lepo Te pozdravljam in le še kaj mi piši.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Mi praznjujemo Zahvalni dan, ker imamo veliko, za kar moramo biti hvaležni. Otroci se moramo zahvaliti za starše, za brate in sestre. Brez mame in atabi ne mogli živeti. Ker brez hrane ne moremo živeti, mama in atata delata, da jo kupita. Kakoste pa Vi praznovali Zahvalni dan? Naša družina je šla k masi, potem smo šli k prijateljem na kiosko. Bilo je lepo, ker smo imeli vsega in ker smo bili sku-paj. Kmalu bo božič. Do takrat pa zgrom in lep pozdrav.

Stefan Režonja

Dragi Štefan!

Lepa je misel Zahvalnega dneva — zahvaliti se Bogu za vse, kar imamo. Toliko je ljudi na svetu, ki skoraj nič nimajo in se tudi za tisto malo zahvaljujejo Bogu. Mi se mnogokrat še za obilje ne znamo. Poglej, če Bog vzame moč rokam, kaj moreš storiti? Velik je svet in bogat, toda koliko jih je, ki od lakote umirajo. Zapomni si: ni večjega greha na svetu kakor obrniti oči od siromosti in mu ne pomagati, če bi mu lahko. Misli vedno na Zahvalni dan na vse, ki so v potrebi, na vse, ki trpijo, na vse, ki jim je življenje trnjeva pot. In si zapomni, da je tudi skrbna, ljubeča beseda lep.

Nemirni 8. december v Rimu

RIM, It. — V Italiji je 8. decembar zapovedan praznik. Srednje javne pozornosti se ta dan premakne na Piazza di Spagna, kjer stoji znameniti spomenik Hvala Ti za pisemce. Lepo je napisano. Imeli ste na obisku sv. Miklavža in sem ga videl. In tudi dar sem dobil, majhen daljnogled, ker Miklavž dobro ve, da imam slabo kuko in da mi tista reč zna prav priti. Bratca imaš, ki je tu rojen in angleško ne zna. Jaz tudi ne. Sem prestar, da bi se še kaj učil. Potrpljenja se zdaj učim, pa mi tudi ne gre nič izpod rok. Ko je človek res star, le po zemlji gleda. Vesel sem, da hodiš v slovensko šolo. Pozdravi mi tudi sestrico, ki hodi v vrtec, pa tudi bratca, ki se gorovjenja še uči. Dobro se imej in prisrečen pozdrav.

Tako, dragi moji, pri koncu sem. Pridni bodite, da bo božič lep, tako naglo se bliža.

Z najlepšimi pozdravi

vaš Kotičkov stric

Zanimiv zakon

MONTPELIER, Ver. — Neki starci zakon v državi Vermont je zahteval, da so morali železničarji na vlakih ob nedeljah brati potnikom določena poglavja z Sv. pisma.

Brezmadežnemu spočetju. Zadnja leta romana tja tudi papež Pavel VI. Tega romanu tudi letos ni opustil; bil je obdan z močno policijsko stražo, ki ni hotela dati prilike za poskus atentata ali demonstracije.

Rimski levicaři so namreč protestirali proti znanemu procesu proti Baskom v Burgosu v Španiji. Demonstracije so se vrstile pred poslopjem španskega poslaništva pri Vatikanu, ki se slučajno nahaja tudi na Piazzi di Spagna.

Zavezniki predložili izmenjavo ujetnikov

ZDA in Južni Vietnam so predložili rdečim v Parizu izmenjavo v ojnih ujetnikov in dnevne razgovore o tem.

PARIZ, Fr. — Združene države so včeraj skupno z vladom Južnega Vietnamu predložile rdečim zastopnikom na konferenci o Vietnamu izmenjavo vojnih ujetnikov. Ponujajo Hanoju vrnitev vseh ujetih severovietnamskih vojakov v zameno za ujete južnovenamske in ameriške vojake. Predlog sta stavila ameriški glavni zastopnik poslanik D. Bruce in glavni zastopnik Saigona Pham Daang Lam.

David Bruce je omenil predlog predsednika Nixon-a od 7. oktobra in dodal, da je sedanji čas posebno primeren za izpuštievanje ujetnikov. "Naša stran je pripravljena sestati se z vami dnevno začenši z jutrišnjim dnem z namenom, da bi bil v tem vprašanju dosežen čim prejšnji uspeh," je dejal Bruce.

Zavezniška stran je predložila vrnitev vseh severovietnamskih vojnih ujetnikov, ne pa izpuštievanje političnih jetnikov v Južnem Vietnamu. Zavezniški imajo preko 30,000 rdečih vojnih ujetnikov, med tem kdo je imajo rdeči le nekaj tisoč zavezniških, vendar so rdeči vedno odklani izmenjavo. Doslej sploh še niso nikdar priznali, da bi bile kake redne severovietnamske vojaške enote v Južnem Vietnamu. Predno bi bilo v tujino tudi kemikalije in stroje. Vse to je pripravilo Zvezno banko, da je značilno obrestno mero posameznim bankam na 6%. To je bilo v letosnjem letu že tretje znižanje obrestne mere. Tudi na domačem trgu izdelki nameče ne greve več tako naglo izpod rok kot v preteklosti. Ljudje so postali pri nakupih bolj zadržani in previdni.

V Zahodni Nemčiji pride še vedno 6 delovnih mest na enega delavca, ki posel išče, toda delavske unije svare, da bo brezposelnost v prihodnjem letu večja. Napovedujejo, da se bo od sedanjih 100,000 dvignila do sreda prihodnjega leta na pol milijona ali 2% celotne delovne sile.

Zanimivosti poročil NBC o kongresnih volitvah

WASHINGTON, D.C. — NBC je obdelala zadnje kongresne volitve v obširni razpravi, ki najdemo v nej tudi nekaj zanimivih podatkov. Poročilo trdi, da se je demokratska stranka povprečno dobro odrezala pri volitvah, saj je vsak njen kandidat dobil povprečno 3% več glasov kot 1. 1968.

Da se to ni čutilo na prirastku demokratskih kongresnikov, je treba pripisati dejstvu, da je republikanska stranka skrbela, da so se njeni kandidati dobro izkazali v okrajih, kjer so upali na zmago, slabš pa tam, kjer republikanci nimajo kaj prida pristašev. Zato imajo demokrati le 9 kongresnikov več, imeti bi jih pa morali okoli 15.

Poročilo NBC odkriva tudi, kako so volile narodnostne skupine. Poročilo trdi na primer, da je senator R. Taft zmagal v o-hajski državi le s pomočjo glasov na rodnostranski skupini. V Clevelandu je na primer R. Taft dobil 41% vseh demokratov italijanskega porekla. Podrobne analize volitev v 14. in 15. vardi odkrivajo, da bi bil demokrat H. Metzenbaum zmagal, ako bi res vsi demokratje glasovali za ranj. Narodnostne skupine so bile jezik na politični tehnici tudi v drugih državah, posebno na severu in vzhodu naše dežele.

Glavna volivna gesla so bila za demokrate draginja in gospodarske težave, za republikance pa mir in zakonitost.

UPSON

ALEXANDRE DUMAS:

Grof Monte Cristo

Napoleon pozneje, ko se mu je rodil sin. Moj hitri odhod, katerega vzrok ni bil znan nikomur, je vzbudil znova njihove sumnje, in ko sem se hotel v Piombino vkrcati, so me zaprili.

"Zdaj," nadaljuje Faria, ožira se na Dantesa s skoro očetovsko ljubezništvo, "prijetelj, zdaj veste toliko kakor jaz. Če ubeživa skupaj, je polovica mojega zaklada vaša; če umrjem tukaj in ubežite vi sami, je vaš ves zaklad."

"Toda," vpraša Dantes pomicljaje, "ali ni na celiem svetu nikogar, ki bi imel do zaklada več pravice kakor midva?"

"Ne, ne, bodite brez skrbi, rodbina je izumrla popolnoma. Poleg tega me je napravil zadnji grof Spada za svojega dediča; podarivši mi znameniti breviarij, mi je podaril tudi to, kar je bilo v njem. Ne, ne, ne bojte se! Če dobiva zaklad v roke, ga vživava lahko z mirno vestjo."

"In pravite, da znaša ta zaklad..."

"Dva milijona rimskega srebrnikov, kar je približno trinajst milijonov našega denarja."

"Nemogoče!" vsklikne Dantes, ves iz sebe vsled tako velike svote.

"Nemogoče, in zakaj nemogoče?" odvrne starec. "Rodbina Spada je bila jedna najstarejših in najpremožnejših rodbin petnajstega stoletja. Razun tega se v onem času, ko sta bili trgovina in industrija popolnoma zanemarjeni, ni dogajalo redko, da so si nakopili ljudje dragocenostij. Še zdaj živijo rimske rodbine, ki umirajo lakote, ki imajo kot majorat milijone v demantih in dragih kamenih, katerih ne smejo načeti."

Edmondu se zdi, da sanja; misli mu omahujejo med neverjetnostjo in veseljem.

"Tako dolgo vam nisem omenil ničesar o tem," nadaljuje Faria, "prvič zato, da sem vas spoznal, in drugič, da sem vas presenetil. Če bi bila ubežala, predno sem zbolel, bi vas bil povedel naravnost na Monte-Cristo; zdaj," pristavi z vzdihom, "morate vi povesti tjakaj mene. No, Dantes, vi se mi niti ne zahvalite?"

"Ta zaklad je vaš, pravi Dantes, "in sicer samo vaš, in jaz nimam nikake pravice do njega; saj nisem vaš sorodnik."

"Vi ste moj sin, Dantes!" reče starec. "Vi ste otrok mojega jetništva. Moj stan me je obsojal k nezakonskemu življenu, a Bog mi je poslal vas, da potolaži moja, ki ne more postati oče, in jetnika, ki ne more dočeti prostosti."

In Faria iztegne svojo zdravo roko proti mlademu možu, ki pade jokajo na njegove prsi.

XIX.

Faria umrije.

Dzaj, ko je mogel ta zaklad, o katerem je razmišljal abbe že toliko, zagotoviti srečo človeku, katerega je ljubil res očetovsko, je imelo to bogastvo v Farijevih očeh še enkrat toliko vrednost. Vsak dan je govoril o svoti tega zaklada ter pripovedoval Dantesu, koliko dobrega lahko iz-jih podelili vi, so resnični, in vsi vladarji sveta mi jih me morejo vzeti, če bi bil tudi vsak posamezni izmed njih Cesare Borghia.

Tako sta živelata sotrina, če ne srečne, pa vsaj ne dolgočasne dneve in ure, ki so bile polne duševnega dela. Faria, ki je moral tako dolga leta molčati o zakludu, je govoril zdaj o njem pri vsaki priliki. Njegova desna stran je ostala kroma, kakor je prerokoval, in tako je izgubil upanje, da bi prišel zaklad kdaj v njegove roke; toda vedno je sanjal o oproščenju ali begu svojega mladega tovariša ter vžival v duhu z njim sladost prostosti. Boječ se, da bi se važna listina na kak način ne izgubila, je prisilil Dantesa, da se je naučil na pamet, tako da jo je znal povedati besedo za od druge odprtine.

Tako so minevale ure, dasi ne hitro, pa vendar znosno. Faria je bil, dasi telesno pohablen za vedno, na duhu zopet čil in zdrav ter je učil svojega prijatelja razun imenovanih jezikov in ved umetnost jetnikovo narediti potom vstrajnosti in potrežljivosti iz ničesar nekaj. Faria je pozabil pri tem na svojo starost, Dantes na svojo preteklost, ki je izginil skoro popolnoma iz njegovega spomina in je živel v njem le še kakor v temni noči. Tako sta živelata dva človeka, ki se ničesar ne bojita, a tudi mnogo ne upata, izročivši se rokam usode. Toda ta navidezni mir ni bil popoln. V srcu starčevem in mladincičevem so divjadi viharji, katere sta zakrivala drug družemu, in kadar je bil vsak sam v svoji ječi, se jima je izvil iz prsi mnog vzdihljaj.

Naznanilo in Zahvala

Z globoko žalostjo v naših srceh javljamo, da je po dolgem bolehanju umrl naš ljubljeni soprogi, oče, stari in prastari oče, last in brat,

ANTON NOVAK

Previden s sv. zakramenti je zatisnil svoje trudne oči dne 15. novembra 1970. leta.

Rojen je bil 17. maja 1889 v vasi Kamni vrh, fara Ambrus na Dolenjskem, odkoder je prišel v Ameriko prvič leta 1907 in drugič leta 1927.

Pokojni je bil član društva Blejsko jezero št. 27 ADZ, društva Najs. Imena in Marijine legije pri fari Marije Vnebovzetje ter Kluba vpopkovencev na Waterloo Rd.

Pogreb se je vršil 18. novembra 1970 iz pogrebne zavoda Jos. Žele in sinovi v cerkev Marije Vnebovzetje, kjer je Father Victor Tome daroval sv. mašo zadušnico. — Potem pa smo truplo pokojnika prepeljali na pokopališče Kalvarija in ga tam položili v družinsko grobnico v večnemu počitku.

S tem se iskreno zahvalimo Father Victor Tomu za molitev sv. rožnega venca na angleškem jeziku v pogrebnu zavodu, za darovanovo sv. mašo zadušnico in lep nosilovni govor ob krsti pokojnega v cerkvi Marije Vnebovzetje ter za spremstvo na pokopališče. — Father Paul Krajinšček za česte obiske pokojnika med njegovim bolezni in za podelitev sv. zakramentov, ter za molitev sv. rožnega venca v slovenščini v pogrebnu zavodu. ČC. gg.: kanoniku Raymond Hobartu, misijonarju Francis Reboli, Anthony Reboli ter Jožetu Vargi se topo zahvalimo za udeležbo pri sv. maši zadušnici; Father Francis Reboli (misijonarju) pa še za spremstvo pokojnega na pokopališče.

Organist pri fari Marije Vnebovzetje g. Martin Rakar spremlja našo topo zahvalo za lepe zlostinke, ki jih je pel med sv. mašo zadušnico pokojnemu v slovo.

Srčna hvala vsem, ki so oder pokojnika položili tako lepe vence eftetja in mu s tem izkazali svojo ljubezen in spoštovanje. Vsem, ki so darovali za sv. mašo in za razne dobrodelne namene. — Toplo se zahvalimo našim dragim sosedom iz okolice Nottingham Rd. in našim bivšim sosedom iz Collinwooda za njih davorve.

Hvala vsem, ki so pokojnega prisli kropiti in molit ob njegovi krsti v pogrebnu zavodu.

Dragi mož, oče, stari in prastari oče, last in brat, počivaj v miru v ameriški zemlji in lahka naj Ti bo gruda njena!

Mi vti se Te bomo vedno spominjali z ljubeznijo in hvaležnostjo v naših mislih in molitvah!

MORNING NEWSPAPER

Treasured Tradition: Apple Pie

Pie is a favorite dessert for festive holiday entertaining. —And what could be more popular than all-American apple pie? This spicy, fragrant fruit pie also has a special secret—the crust is made with convenient pie crust mix. But you can't keep that tender, flaky pastry a secret for long, so be prepared to share the recipe with guests.

Happy Holiday Apple Pie

Makes 8 servings

Crust:
One 10-oz. pkg. Flako Pie Crust Mix
4 tablespoons cold water
Apple Filling:
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons cornstarch
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
5 cups pared and sliced cooking apples
½ cup cream

Heat oven to hot (425°F.). For crust, empty contents of package into bowl. Sprinkle water by tablespoons over mix; stir with fork until just dampened. Form into ball. (If too dry, add a little more water.)

Divide into 2 parts, one slightly larger. Roll out large part on lightly floured board or canvas to form a 13-inch circle. Fit loosely into 9-inch pie plate. Trim.

For apple filling, combine sugar, salt, cornstarch and spices; toss with sliced apples, mixing well. Add cream; mix well. Pour apple filling into pie crust. Roll out remaining dough to form 12-inch circle. Place crust over filling. Prick crust with fork for steam to escape. Trim; turn edges under; flute. Bake in pre-heated oven (425°F.) 45 to 50 minutes. Cool.

ED TURK SPEAKS ON LOSS OF ST. FRANCIS CHURCH

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following is the talk given by Edmund J. Turk, councilman from the 23rd Ward at Cleveland City Council Meeting on Monday, December 7, 1970:

Last Wednesday morning, within the community I represent, the people suffered a great loss — the loss of St. Francis Church and School — A loss not monetary in a sense but a loss of a revered institution — A loss not of a monument, but a loss of a house of God — A loss not measured in the loss of lives but a loss measured in life in a community. It was a loss that brought tears to the eyes of the people who saw a symbol of what life was all about disintegrate and vanish in useless, wasted and deplorable flames.

To this end, my comments are directed — to speak of the sadness of the great loss to the people of this community and to remind all of us, the Bishop and the clergy, the parishioners, the people who use this great facility, the people in the political and civic life, of the responsibilities that are imposed upon us to seek the solutions to the causes and problems that caused this great loss and think in terms of rebuilding, and providing the necessary facilities to continue on with all of the programs that were shamefully brought to an end.

St. Francis was a progressive church, one that fostered and promulgated meetings that were evolutionary in nature as opposed to the revolutionary flames that brought it to an end.

It was here that one of the first diocesan headstart programs was instituted — there were other programs and meetings in this great church — meetings not only for the enhancement of the spiritual needs of a community, but meetings to further humanize and develop the brotherhood of man.

The Bishop did not lose a church, the pastor did not lose a church. The people who need nearby greasy spoon reading "Lam Stew," he called the misspelling the proprietor's attention. Next week the professor noticed another sign in the same restaurant. It announced the day's special: "Clamb Chowder."

★ Harrodsburg, Ky.—The thieves who broke into the Reynolds and Yocom market at Salvisa, near here, came up with a unique way of avoiding the burglar alarm — they stole it. — Sheriff's deputy Miller B. Dean reported the alarm was among the loot taken from the store, which also included a number of pocket knives, watches, flashlights, cartridges and shells and an undetermined amount of cash.

★ Rome — Three thieves stole an 882-pound safe from a Rome office hoping to find payroll envelopes, unaware that the safe held only six cents.

★ Seattle, Wash. — The 5th graders at University Heights School bring bottle caps to class daily. A checker checks them in and adds the daily count to the over-all total. Their goal: one million. "This is a fun way for the children to grasp the meaning of a number as vast as one million," Mrs. Barbara Smith, the teacher, explained. "While the primary purpose is mathematical, there is a secondary bonus."

★ Nevada City, Calif. — The fire lookout station atop Banner Mountain 5 miles east of here boasts California's first "Women's Liberation" fire lookout crew. Coeds Betty Jean Edwards and Jamie Emerson have provided 12-hour daily, 7-day-a-week fire watching service for the past two fire seasons. Banner Mountain is one of the three lookout points in a preserve of 450,000 acres. Do they get lonely atop the 60-feet steel observation tower? Not really. Passing planes often buzz the tower and deer and coyotes show their faces at dawn or twilight, they report.

★ On Saturday, December 12th at the Cleveland Health Museum, 8911 Euclid Ave., guest speaker James Wilburn will speak on "Air Pollution Control." On Sunday, Dec. 13th, the guest speaker will be Mrs. Richard Feiber of the Air Conservation Committee. A film — The Runaround — will be shown both days following the speeches. Programs begin at 2:30 p.m. Admission: Adults 50 cents, students 6-19, 25 cents, children under 6, free.

★ Columbus, O. — Gov. James A. Rhodes' directive to department heads to quit ordering stationery or other supplies that would be outdated when they leave office Jan. 11 apparently did not filter down to the Department of Public Works. The department this week released ment personnel and their telephone extensions. Most of them will leave January 11 when Governor-elect John J. Gilligan takes over.

"Be a friend - then a host"

Hey Buddy — Are you really a GOOD GUY... A Real friend? Yeah, you! Great! Spirits are high, and so are some of the guests! That's not so good! What about when Tipsy Charley or Sleepy Edna get clobbered driving home! Some kind of friend you turned out to be!

What can you do if they want to drink?

ChristMas Cards Help Retarded Children

In 1965, a group of very concerned parents — each with a mentally retarded child — got together. They founded Help for Retarded Children Inc., parent group for a home for mentally handicapped children that they named "Help Home."

The Home, 130th and Euclid, will be two years old in February. Twelve children, from 2 to 8, live at the Home where they are taught the very basics of life — how to talk, to eat properly, and get along with others.

Among the projects sponsored by the group is the sale of Christmas cards, which can be ordered by calling 761-6529. Suggested donation is 20 cents per

The trouble never came.

When the Ravenna Grand Jury indicted the "Kent 25" in mid-October, the tension on the Kent campus increased. However, the trouble that could've materialized never did. Instead a peaceful rally was held and efforts to help those indicted became the campus' main concern.

When professor Glenn Frank was arrested for speaking out against the Grand Jury report, there could have been more trouble. Instead the students rallied to his side and eventually the ban which prohibited anyone from criticizing the report was lifted.

It became obvious that the students didn't want any trouble. Nobody wanted a repeat of last May.

Tuesday night Gov. elect

John Gilligan spoke at Kent.

He promised that as long as he is the governor, another May 4 could never happen again.

The fall quarter at Kent was a success. Hopefully, with the help of Gilligan and all of Ohio, peace will always be successful

This Christmas— Wrap Her In Terry

A sure-to-please gift for any woman on your shopping list—whether she's liberated or still enthralled—is a robe.

This year wrap her to the ankles in a luxurious cotton terry robe elegant enough to double as a hostess gown.

Once limited to bath or beachwear, terry robes have now entered the realm of high fashion to play dual roles as hostess gowns, loungewear, and dramatic patio outfits.

One reason for terry's ascent up the fashion ladder, reports the National Cotton Council, is that improved dyeing and printing methods have been developed to suit the fabric's loopy pile.

As a result, terry is turning up in brilliant colorings and exotic prints that make it a natural for its more luxurious role.

In addition, terry can be sculptured into rich jacquard designs or knitted into plush velvets that are smooth and velvety to the touch.

Aside from its new-found elegance and high styling, terry has its practical side, too. It's washable, requires no ironing, and gets softer and more luxurious feeling the longer it's worn.

REGAL—Plush cotton terry in a sculptured jacquard weave creates a dramatic Empire-style robe. Elegant enough to double as a hostess gown, it's by Robes of California.

SOFT TOUCH—Cotton terry with loops sheared for a velvety touch shapes an elegant wrap in a vivid butterfly print. The reverse side of the Robes of California design is in uncut terry.

LUXURIOUS—Patchwork and border prints are combined for a colorful effect in this cotton terry hostess dress. Styled with a zipper-front and wide collar, the belted design is by Robes of California.

CURT FLOOD TO LEAVE DENMARK

Curt Flood, baseball's controversial center fielder who was traded by the Phillies to the Senators, hints he will temporarily abandon his plans to live in Copenhagen, Denmark, where he was in self-exile for a year.

"It's impractical," he says. "Maybe I'll go back there some day after my baseball days are over. I first went to Denmark in 1968 after I played with the Cardinals in Japan. I was on a world tour and stopped in Copenhagen. I fell in love with the city and decided to make it my home. But right now I'd better stick to where my living is—baseball."

Ah, Slovenia! What a beautiful sight she is, how good the people, how delicious the food and drink! I saw this beloved land of my grandparents for the first time between September 11 and 25, when I went with my husband's aunt Mrs. Frances Chepilo, who has been in the United States over 50 years, and who wanted to see her relatives again, and our two daughters Margie (5½ years) and Leona (then 18 months). Husband Silvan was left behind to care for his job, the house, and to worry about us. Though, as you can see, my responsibilities were great, I had a great time, and want to share some of my observations and experiences with you.

First of all, the contrast between old and new is much more apparent than here. Picture, for example, a large electrically-powered cement mixer being brought to a new home-site on an ox-drawn cart.

Many people still do their washing by hand, though automatic washers and modern detergents are becoming more and more abundant. Disposable paper diapers are readily available anywhere in Slovenia. And to think that I carried eight packages of them with me!

It is quite a surprise to go into a drug store and find that all they sell is medicine. No motor oil, liquor, toys, clothing—just medicine!

Only two things disturbed me: tourist "traps" and the drivers. When you go to a "tourist" area (trap), notably Lake Bled, speak English or German instead of Slovenian. When they hear Slovenian, their attitude turns to, "Oh, he's just a Slovene—he can wait." But when they hear English or German, they smell money, and you'll get good service even if you don't spend much.

DRIVING in Slovenia is designed for the fearless and spotless of soul. The automobile is still such a novelty that each driver thinks he owns the road. It takes very little imagination to envision the problems such an attitude can create. But Slovenian drivers are tame compared to the Italians.

I have read several attempts at humorous description of the Italian driver, most recently in the September 1970 issue of Reader's Digest. These would be funny if they were not so tragically true. These guys are absolutely insane on Slovenia's roads. They will pass a long line of cars and trucks anywhere, but a sharp blind curve is the favorite. The tragedy is that this insanity results in many dead and injured Slovenians. Add to the hazards an abundance of bicycle riders and ox or horse-drawn wagons, and you can have a real problem. Passing a road-hogging drunk on a bicycle is no easy task, and it gave me my first real scare. But, as I learned to anticipate the hazards and stay out of the way of the "nuts", driving in Slovenia actually became a pleasure—the best way to go anywhere I wanted to, independent of somebody else's tastes and schedules.

It is virtually impossible to get lost in Slovenia, for the road signs are excellent and well-placed. Good road maps of the country are available in any bookstore. Obtaining city road maps (Ljubljana and Maribor) is something else. Gasoline stations don't have them, and don't count on getting one you can really use from Kompas. In Ljubljana, try the store "Mladinska Knjiga", or better yet, have a friend or relative get one for you beforehand.

The address of each residence (number and name of the street) is placed on each building—a red sign with white lettering—making it easy to find anyone you want. How many times in the United States have you searched for a non-existent street sign, and then, having finally found the right street, looked in vain for the house number, either obscure or missing altogether?

Books On Slovenians, Slovenia Make Excellent Christmas Presents

Washington, D.C. — Before Christmas we have always a problem how to select presents for our dear relatives and friends. The best suited Christmas present is undoubtedly a good book. The book accompanies us in gay and sad days, it gives us consolation and encouragement, new ideas and new knowledge. It teaches us about the past, about the life of our ancestors and their achievements as well as about their unfulfilled desires.

When selecting books for Christmas presents, especially for our younger generation of Slovenian extraction, one cannot forget the books published in the series "Studia Slovenica." These books published in English about Slovenians are the best suited presents for our children, grandchildren and other relatives who would like to know more about their ancestors and our pioneers in the great new homeland. These books will give them also much background for term papers and dissertations in colleges and universities if they would like to tackle new problems and blaze their intellectual trail into less known regions.

We have the following books available:

Jezerik, Maksimiljan: "Frederick Baraga: a portrait of the first Bishop of Marquette based on the archives of the Congregation de Propaganda Fide." The book describes the life and labor of the great American-Slovenian missionary and his work in the Great Lakes region. This book should be on the shelf of every family interested in the Slovenian contribution to American civilization and history. The price of the book is $4.00 for a paperback issue and $5.50 for a hardcover issue.

Alexander, Paul B.: "Land Utilization of the Karst Region of Zgornja Pivka, Slovenia." The book takes us to the Karst Region of Slovenia and its difficult utilization of the land. It is of special interest to those who are interested in the area between St. Peter na Krasu and Ilirska Bistrica. The price of the book is $4.50.

Hočvar, Toussaint: "The Structure of the Slovenian Economy". It is the only book of its kind ever written, since there is no other monograph of the history of Slovenian economy available. An excellent book fully documented is available for the price of $5.00 ($7.00 for hardcover issue).

The late Slovenian scholar Dr. Aloysius L. Kuhar left at his death various scholarly writings of which so far two have been published. They are: "The Conversion of the Slovenes and the German-Slav Ethnic Boundary in the Eastern Alps" and "Slovene Medieval History: Selected Studies." The first one is available in a reprint edition for the price of $6.00, and the second one for the price of $3.00 (hardcover $4.00). These books should be of special interest to those who would like to know how the Slovenes accepted Christianity 1200 years ago.

Barker, Thomas M.: "The Slovenes of Carinthia: a National Minority Problem" is a book about the Slovenes in Carinthia and about Carinthia—the cradle of Slovenian history. Its author is an American scholar who heard for the first time about the Slovenes while studying in Vienna. He collected an abundance of documents for the study of the Slovenes in Carinthia. The book is available for the price of $5.00.

Arnez, John A.: "Slovenia in European Affairs" is a book about the position of the Slovenes in Europe and still available for the price of $4.00. The same author also wrote a book in Slovenian under the title "Slovenci v New Yorku" describing the history of the Slovenians in New York City. It contains a summary in English and an introduction by the former governor Frank J. Lausche. The book is available for the price of $3.50 and should be of interest to anyone who desires to read about the activities of Slovenes in New York.

All these books are available by mail order from: Studia Slovenica, P.O. Box 4531, Washington, D.C. 20017.

All the works for the publication and distribution of these books is being done without any monetary reward for the sole purpose to inform the American public about the Slovenians and their civilization. Studia Slovenica has prepared several manuscripts which cannot be published because of a lack of financial resources since no organization has been supporting the publication of scholarly works about Slovenia. Any order will help us to continue the publication of books and will contribute to the dissemination of knowledge about Slovenia. And first of all, any book will make its proud owner just a little bit happier in his knowledge that his ancestors have contributed tremendously to the benefits of mankind.

To all our friends and customers, a Blessed Christmas and a Happy New Year wish from Studia Slovenica.

Auto Club Safety Director Retiring; Helped City's Nationality Groups

The efforts of Mrs. Gnau, the Nationalities Services Center, Sanford Herman of the Foreign Language Newspaper Service, officials and others were finally successful earlier this year when the Ohio Legislature passed a law permitting such examinations.

Nationally known in the traffic safety and driver education fields, Mrs. Gnau joined the Auto Club staff in 1937 to organize the AAA Driving School. It was the first such school in Ohio.

For several years in the late 1950's the Auto Club under Mrs. Gnau's direction conducted driver training classes in Hungarian, Polish, German, Spanish and Slovenian. Both instruction manuals and Ohio traffic laws were translated and bilingual instructors secured.

Mrs. Gnau is listed in Who's Who of American Women and in Who's Who of the Mid-West. She will also be listed in the next edition of Who's Who in America.

No. Shore Sav. and Loan Constructing New Bldg.

No. Chicago, Ill. — North Shore Savings and Loan Association has announced its fourth and most comprehensive building program in the institution's 50-year history.

Mayors Leo Kukla and Robert Sabonjian and Chairman of Lake County Board of Supervisors August Cepon initiated groundbreaking ceremonies for the modern two-story building of brick and glass, encompassing 30,000 square feet. Ceremonies were held Friday, October 30, 1970 at the construction site located at Eighth and Lewis Avenues, Waukegan, with local dignitaries in attendance.

In his remarks at the ground breaking, William C. Ivantic, president of the association, said the structure will provide new services and accommodations for customers, including parking facilities for 100 cars.

The firm's present facility designed for a $25 million institution has become inadequate for the current $34 million association. The new building is planned for convenient economical operation through the 1980's. Past rapid growth and anticipated acceleration in
