Ko sta strela že zamrila v gorovju, je žena zares planila iz hiše. In kaj je storila? Oba je z viška premotriala, namignila malemu hlapčku, ki je bil že pritekel s polja in dostojovalno povedala:

"Lej, Pepe, zdaj se pa lahko vidiva vzameva!"

Sveda sta oba "mrliča" kaj živa skočila na noge. Zgodba molči o tem, kaj je gospodar naredil s ženo in hlapčičem...

Cleveland Graphite Bronze Co. have been taken over by the Government and are again operating almost normally.

It is said, that sometime after elections, when the votes will be in the bag, the taxpayer will be the victim, because Congressmen will ask $15,000 and Cabinet officials will ask $20,000 per year, — a raise of "only" $5,000 per year.

The City Transit System threw a bomb when it announced the intention of eliminating three major bus lines, effective Sept. 16, namely:

The Heights Express Line, operating between Public Square and Taylor and Cedar Rds.; Lake Shore Blvd. Express, operating between Public Square and E. 185 St. and Lake Shore Blvd.; and Euclid Ave. — E. 105 St. — Shaker Square line running from E. 105 St. and Euclid Ave. to E. 130 St. and Buckeye Rd.; Councilman J. On Sept. 8th, Mary Troha of 19707 Arrowhead Ave., entered the Sisters' Convent at Villa Angela. We wish her success in her arduous vocation which she has chosen.

The latest report on the bus situation in Cleveland is that the City Transit System has decided to continue operation of the three bus lines, in the hope that the Office of Defense and War Production Board can supply needed repair parts.

The strike at the local Cleveland Graphite Bronze Co. plants was caused by the discharge of Elmer Torok for breaking a 75-cent lock on his locker. With the plants in charge of the Government now, Matthew Smith, secretary of the independent Mechanics' Educational Society of America claims that the union "won a great victory."

Anton Ausec of 6706 Bonita Ave., has received his citizenship papers. He will avail himself of the privilege of voting for the first time by voting for Frank J. Lausche for governor. Congratulations to our new citizen!

Out of Dark Africa

Du Chaillu, the African traveler, while in an African village resting after a long journey, was considered a spirit by the old men of the tribe, and they desired that he should remain with them. Early one morning he was surprised to see between six and seven hundred young women of the tribe march up and form a circle around him. An old man, who acted as spokesman, stated that as they wished to have him stay with them, they had brought their young women to him so that he might choose a wife.

Du Chaillu was cornered, but declined, saying that as he was a good spirit he did not wish to make all the others unhappy by choosing only one.

At this the old men withdrew for consultation. Soon the spokesman appeared and said: "You have spoken truly, good spirit. If you took one the rest would be unhappy. Take them all!"

That night Du Chaillu silently stole away.

Army Jeeps Get Stoves

Toledo, O. — The G. I. Joe whose favorite comment on the "Jeep" is "It can do everything but cook" — will be interested to know that the versatile scout car now has its own "stove."

However, although the soldiers might consider it a step in the right direction, the gasoline stove has not been installed for them to practice their culinary arts; it's to enable the Jeep engine to start immediately at temperatures as low as 60 degrees below zero.

Daylight, and they discovered the cause of their argument—a bear had dug a hole at the front, and pulled, so that he might choose a wife.

With regards to you and all friends of mine, I am,
