Vance dobro opravil

Posebni pooblaščenec predsednika L. B. Johnsona je uspešno zaključil svoje poslanstvo pri vladi Južne Koreje.

SEOUL, J. Kor. — Zasega ameriške izvidniške ladje Pueblo je sprožila oster spor med Združenimi državami in Južno Korejo. Zasega ameriške ladje 23. januarja je prišla komaj nekaj dni potem, ko je skupina severnokorejskih gverilcev prodrla skozi demilitarizirano cono na jug do samega glavnega mesta z nalogo, da umori predsednika republike gen. Parka in njegovo vlado. Gverilce so prestregle policijske čete komaj dobre pol milje od predsednikove palače. Eden od njih, ki je bil ujet, je priznal, da je oficir redne severnovietnamske armade in da so bili to tudi ostali pripadniki skupine, ki je štela 32 mož.

Združene države so po zasegi ladje Pueblo poslale v bližino Severne Koreje močno pomorsko eskadro z letalonosilko Enterprise, in okoli 200 modernih letal na letališča Južne Koreje za slučaj, če bi prišlo do kakšne vojaške akcije. Težišče napora Washingtona je bilo na reševanju ladje Pueblo in njenega moštva. To ni bilo po volji Seoulu, ki je zahteval, da dobi prednost kršitev dolgoročne premirja, ki je bila posebej očitna z odkritjem in uničenjem gverilskih skupin, ki je imela nalogo umoriti predsednika republike. V Seoulu so se jezili, da so Združene države preveč popustljive in da se premoćne brigade za koristi in potrebe Južne Koreje. Vlada in parlament sta javno izrazila svoje nezadovoljstvo, študentje v Seoulu pa so vzporedno celo demonstracije.

Da pomiri Južno Korejo, je predsednik L. B. Johnson poslal tja svojega posebnega zastopnika C. Vancea, v predlog pomoči tujini Kongresu pa je dodal še 100 milijonov za vojaško pomoč v Južni Koreji. V Seoulu so namigavali, da utegnejo poklicati iz Vietnama okoli 50.000 korejskih vojakov, ki pomagajo tam v boju z rdečimi.

Južna Koreja zahteva, da vzdržujejo Združene države na njenih letališčih večje letalske sile kot v preteklosti, da bodo kos letalskim silam Severne Koreje. Prav tako hoče Seoulu, da ameriška vojna mornarica stalno vzdržuje močnejšo eskadro vojnih ladij v bližini njenih obal in obal Severne Koreje.

Cyrus R. Vance je svojo nalogo dobro končal. Skupno poročilo o razgovorih pravi, da je bil dosežen sporazum o naglih vzporejenih vojaških ukrepih Južne Koreje in ZDA v okviru njune vojaške pogodbe. Včeraj je vrnil v Washington in poročal o svojem uspehu predsedniku L. B. Johnsonu.

Ruski novinarji pognani iz Kenije

NAIROBI, Ken. — Kenijske oblasti so zaprle zastopstvo sovjetske tiskovne službe "Novosti" in zastopstvo Sovexport filma, ker so odkrile, da sta se obe zastopstvi ukvarjali s špijonažo in podtalnim delom proti obstoječim razmeram v Keniji.

Jomo Kenyatta, nekdanji vodnik gibanja "Mau-mau", ki je bil v preteklosti znan po svojih levičarskih nazorih, je po prevzemu oblasti v neodvisni Keniji postal eden najprej udarnejših in najodločnejših vodnikov v črni Afriki.

Čete nastopile s tanki proti študentom v San Domingu

SAN DOMINGO, Dom. rep. — Vlada je poslala 1500 jakov, da so s podporo 10 tankov zasedli univerzo, ko je prišlo do spopadov med policijo in študenti, v katerih je bil en študent ubit.

Študentje zahtevajo večje podpore in so jih skušali izsiliti z izgrediv in s štrajkom. Policija trdi, da sta bila dva policaja ranjena s strelji, kar pa vodniki študentov odločno zavračajo, češ da ni z njihove strani nihče streljal, ker tudi oni nihče imel strelnega orožja.

SIRIJSKA VLADA KROTI SVOJE OFICIRJE

DAMASK, Sir. — V nobejni ne odobravajo njene zunanje politike. To je začetek nove krize, ki se zanjo zelo zanima Moskva. Tudi Moskva je proti novi vojni z Izraelom. Zato je sirski vladi že parkrat kar javno povedala, naj ne misli na napad na Izrael, ampak na mir z Izraelom. Za vsak slučaj so poslali iz Moskve novega poslanca muslimana, ki naj primerno vpliva na sirsko vlado. Koalicija ruske diplomacije in domačega oficirskega zbora bi gotovo dosegla svoj cilj, ako bi bila sirska javnost vneta za mir. Pa ni in tega se sedanja vlada boji. Ima dosti političnih nasprotnikov, ki bi utegnili nahujskati ulico na demonstracije in izgrede kot so to že večkrat storili. Iz takih demonstracij se pa v Damasku praviloma rodi revolucija, zanjo pa najmanj mara sedanja vlada iz armade 108 oficirjev, ki

Izraelci in Jordanijci se včeraj hudo udarili

Včeraj je prišlo do hudega spopada med Izraelci in Jordanijci vzdolž reke Jordan. V boj so posegli tanki, topništvo in letala.

JERUZALEM, Izr. — Včeraj je prišlo do največjega spopada med Izraelom in Jordanijo od konca vojne v preteklem juniju. Po izraelskem poročilu je prišlo do streljanja, ko so izraelske mejne straže prestregle skupino arabskih gverilcev El Fatah in tri od gverilcev ubile. Jordanijci so začeli streljati preko Jordana, da bi krili gverilce. Spopad se je razširil in naglo so vanj od obeh strani posegli topovi. Ko jordanijci topovi le niso prenehali s streljanjem, so napadla njihove položaje izraelska letala.

Po osmih urah streljanja je Jordanija preko nadzornikov ZN zahtevala konec spopada. Do tega je tudi prišlo, nihče pa ne ve, kako dolgo bo pri tem ostalo. Izraelski obrambni minister Moshe Dayan je zaradi spopada ob Jordanu včeraj odložil svoj odhod na obisk v Združene države in si z načelnikom glavnega stana izraelskih oboroženih sil Bar-Levom ogledal položaj od blizu. Izjavil je, da bo treba Jordanijo "naučiti, da je premirje res premirje in da velja tako za Jordanijo kot za Izrael". Kakšno bo to "učenje" in kdaj ga do njega prišlo, ni Dayan nič rekel.

Združene države so komaj pred par dnevi objavile, da bodo znova začele pošiljati Jordaniji orožje in drugo vojaško opremo, kot so to delale pred arabsko-izraelsko vojno v preteklem juniju. Jordanija bi rada dobila iz Amerike Patton tanke, pa seveda tudi topništvo in letala, kar je izgubila v junijski vojni. Če se bo napetost ob Jordanu zadržala, je verjetno, da bo Washington pošiljanje orožja v Jordanijo zopet ustavil.

Ravensko orožarno bodo spravili v obrat?

RAVENNA, O. — Tukajšnja orožarna, kjer je bilo tekom druge svetovne vojne v raznih tovarnah na 22.000 alicah površine zaposlenih pri izdelovanju streliva preko 13.000 ljudi, pa vse od tedaj stoji, je na tem, da bo obnovila oni nihče imel strelnega orožja.

Ruska nola namiguje na novo blokado Berlina?

BERLIN, Nem. — Sovjetska zveza je poslala Združenim državam, Veliki Britaniji in Franciji note, v katerih opozarja na rastočo zahodnonemško "uradno prisotnost" v Berlinu, na vedno nove urade bonnske vade. Sviri, da bo na to odgovorila, ker tega ne more več trpeti. Po njenem je to v nasprotju z dogovorom štirih zasedbenih sil o položaju Berlina.

Note je podpisal v imenu Sovjetske zveze in jih poslal poslanikom zahodnih sil v Bonnu Pjotr Ambrassimov, sovjetski poslanik v Vzhodni Nemčiji. Zahodno Nemčijo dolži v notah "tvegane" in "izzivalne" politike. Da gre to komunistični Vzhodni Nemčiji na živce, je očitno in ta začne lahko delati sitnosti prometu med Zahodnim Berlinom in Zahodno Nemčijo.

Zahodne sile smatrajo za varnost prometa odgovorno Sovjetsko zvezo, ker Vzhodne Nemčije sploh ne priznavajo, drugo pa je seveda vprašanje Zahodne Nemčije in njenega prometa. Vsekakor so ruske note zahodnim silam verjetno bolj opomin, da imajo Rusi možnost delati sitnosti tudi v Evropi, če se jim bo to zdelo potrebno in koristno.

Letalske družbe govore o odpovedi poti na tuje

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Nekatere letalske družbe in potovalne pisarne se že pritožujejo nad odpovedmi potovanj v tujino. Nekatere skupine Američanov so pod vplivom predsednikovega poziva, naj ne hodijo na tuje, če ni res nujno, da ne bodo trošile tam dolarjev in tako povečavale primanjkljaja v zunanji plačilni bilanci dežele, odpovedale že naročena potovanja in rezervirana letala.

Lufthansa, zahodnonemška letalska družba, poroča, da so te odpovedi že presegle za letošnje poletje vsoto $600.000. Večje število odpovedi poletov skupin je bilo tudi pri Skandinavski letalski družbi. Brez dvoma je to tudi pri ostalih letalskih družbah, zlasti tujih, ker ljudje vedo, da denar za nakup letalskih listkov pri ameriških letalskih družbah ne gre v tujino, torej ne obremenjuje ameriške zunanje plačilne bilance.

Tudi potniške pisarne tožijo, da število prijav za potovanja v prekomorske dežele pada in da celo tisti, ki so se že prijavili, preudarjajo, če le ne bi potovanje odložili za dve leti, kot to prosi predsednik ZDA. Nekaj se jih je odločilo za to iz čisto domoljubnih nagibov, drugi pa zaradi nevarnosti posebnega davka za potovanja v tujino.

Taktično atomsko orožje za Vietnam?

WASHINGTON, D.C. — V vladnih krogih pretresajo nekateri misli o rabi atomskega orožja pri obrambi Khe Sanha kot skrajnega sredstva, če bi ne bilo druge rešitve za tamkajšnje postojanko marinov. Poučeni viri trdijo, da bo L. B. Johnson preje pustil postojanko pasti, kot pa jo braniti z atomskim orožjem, ker bi to potisnilo svet na rob atomskega spopada in uničenja.

RDEČI V HUE SE ŠE DRŽE

Včeraj so letala in ladijski topovi obdelovali stari del nekdanjega cesarskega mesta Hue, kjer so se utrdili ostanki rdečih in se obupno bore. Ameriški marini in elitni oddelki južnovietnamske vojske pritiskajo od vseh strani, toda rdeči se še vedno drže. Računajo, da jih je v močno porušeni delu starega mesta še okoli 800. — Pri Khe Sanhu le obstreljevanje. — Letalski napadi na Severni Vietnam.

SAIGON, J. Viet. — Rdeči so odkriti. Rdeči se zakopavajo zavzeli mesto Hue, nekdanjo prestolico anamskih cesarjev, pod katere je spadal ves sedanji Vietnam, z nenadnim napadom ob budističnem novem letu Tet v dobrih dveh urah. Od tedaj vihira na jezo ameriških in južnovietnamskih čet na nekdanji cesarski palači rdeča zastava. Ameriškim marinom se je posrečilo zasesti južni, novi del mesta, med tem ko se rdeči v starem delu mesta, katerega večji del je za starim dvojnimi po 12 čevljev debelim zidom, vstrajno upirajo pritisku elitnih južnovietnamskih čet, ki so se jim pridružili v začetku tega tedna še ameriški marini.

Ameriške vojaške oblasti so hotele staro mesto, najvažnejši kulturni in zgodovinski spomenik Vietnama, ohraniti za vsekoren, če bi le bilo mogoče. Ko so se rdeči utrdili v njegovih zidovih, ni preostalo južnovietnamskim silam nič drugega, kot da uporabijo proti njim vsa razpoložljiva sredstva. Utrjene rdeče položaje v Citadeli so napadli včeraj z letali, tankovskimi in ladijskimi topovi. Skozi predele v obzidju Citadele so nato ameriški marini od ene strani, južno, vietnamski pa od druge pritiskali na rdeče. Posrečilo se jim je v bojih od zidu do zidu, od zgradbe do zgradbe prodreti le okoli 200 jardov globoko. Čaka jih je okoli 500 jardov boja skozi razvaline, v katerih je utrjenih okoli 800 vojakov severnovietnamskega bataljona.

Okoli Khe Sanha le obstreljevanje

Rdeči se izogibajo vsakega neposrednega napada s pehoto na položaje ameriških marinov v Khe Sanhu in okoli njega. Obstreljujejo jih je s topovi in z metalci min in z raketami, kar imajo vse dobro skrito in v varni razdalji. Topovi in metalci min izstrele le nekaj granat in min, nato pa jih naglo preneso, da jih ameriške sile ne bi mogle

Letalski napadi na Severni Vietnam

Ameriške letalske sile so teku zadnjih dni napadle letališča in druge vojaške naprave Severnega Vietnama in ponovno hudo bombardirale važne vojaške cilje na področju Hanoi-Haifong, ki je bilo od 4. januarja po posebnem predsednikovem ukazom izvzeto od letalskih napadov. Obnova napadov na to področje je dokaz, da so v Washingtonu trenutno opustili vsako upanje na začetek razgovorov o premirju, oziroma končanju vojne.

Sredi tedna so ameriška letala sestrelila dve MIG-17 letali nad področjem Hanoi-Haifong. Kitajci pa so sestrelili ameriško vojaško letalo, ki je po nesreči na poletu s Filipinov v Vietnam zašlo v preveliko bližino kitajskega otoka Hajnan na vzhodni strani Tonkinskega zaliva. Kitajska je seveda protestirala nad ameriškim "izzivanjem".

Tujski promet je v Italiji lani porastel

RIM, It. — Tujski promet je v Italiji lani v primeri z letom 1966 porastel za 2,8%, kot trdi državni urad za pospeševanje tega prometa. Italijo je obiskalo lani skupno 27,5 milijonov tujcev. Med njimi je bil velik odstotek Amerikancev. Ti utegnejo letos v večji meri izostati, če bo uveden za potovanja v tujino posebni davek.

Francija je iztisnila diplomate iz Gabona?

PARIZ, Fr. — Bivša francoska afriška kolonija Gabon je sedaj samostojna republika, toda še zmeraj močno pod francoskim vplivom, kar so morali sedaj znova ugotoviti naši diplomatje. Francija daje namreč koloniji še zmeraj letno do $20 milijonov podpore in skrbno pazi, da v Gabonu ne pada francoski kulturni vpliv. To je moral sedaj skušati ameriški mirovni zbor. Se je tam udeleževal na kulturnem polju že od l. 1962 in ni imel pri tem posebnih težav prav do zadnjih časov.

Letošnjo zimo je umrl predsednik Mba, ki so ga l. 1964 hoteli zarotniki spoditi z oblasti. Rešili so ga francoski padalci. To je seveda predsednika in podpredsednika Bonga še bolj navezalo na Pariz. Bonga je prevzel predsedniške poase in takoj pokazal, da ni tako odporen proti francoskemu vplivu kot njegov prednik Mba. Komaj je prevzel oblast, že je odpovedal vse pogodbe z našim mirovnim zborom in odredil, da morajo člani zbora — 62 po številu — na hitro ročno odpotovati iz Gabona domov.

Voditelji našega mirovnega zbora mislijo, da je francoska vlada pritiskala na Gabon, naj ustavi ameriško kulturno delovanje. Francija se pač boji, da bi ameriški kulturni vpliv mogel škodovati francoskemu. Strah ima pa tudi globlje korenine. Francija dobiva iz Gabona uran, ki ga potrebuje za proizvodnjo svojega atomskega streliva. Od tam dobiva tudi mangan in les.

Mangan kupuje med drugimi tudi ameriška U.S. Steel. Kaj ko bi Amerikancem padlo v glavo in bi začeli kupovati tudi uran? To bo najbrže med glavnimi v zroki, zakaj bi Francija rada zavarovala svoje nekdanjo kolonijo pred ameriškim vplivom. Za Francoze seveda to ni noben "neokolonijalizem", čeprav je na las podoben ameriškem, kjer koli na svetu.

Iz Clevelanda in okolice

Nemška javnost se ne zanima za Babi jar!

DARMSTADT, Zah. Nem. — Babi jar je gotovo najbolj znana soteska v Rusiji, se nahaja blizu Kijeva in v njej je bilo v pičlih 36 urah postreljanih okoli 30.000 kijevskih Judov. Zgodilo se je to leta 1941 v septembru. Ta zločin že dolgo mori Nemčijo, že okoli 20 sodnih obravnav je preiskovalo zločine SS-ovcev, ki so odgovorni za ta streljanja v masah.

Sedaj se vrši proces proti 11 bivšim SS-ovcem, ki ne tajijo, da so bili takrat v Kijevu in imeli posla s streljanjem, toda vsak med njimi je že našel svoj izgovor, da omili svojo odgovornost.

To je razumljivo. Ni pa razumljivo, da je občinstvo na obravnavi bilo zastopano po štirih radovednejših, dočim se javnost za proces sploh ni zanimala.

Kardinal Lercaro odšel v pokoj

RIM, It. — Sv. oče je odobril odstop kardinala Lercara, nadškofa v Bologni. Lercaro spada gotovo med najbolj zanimive italijanske kardinale, saj so njegovi nazori o potrebi odločne socialne politike bili sporno jabolko v vsej italijanski javnosti.

Imel je v lastnih vrstah dosti somišljenikov, pa tudi dosti kritikov. To ga je nagnilo, da je proslil že 1. januarja 1967 za pokoj, pa sv. Stolica ni bila s tem zadovoljna. Šele sedaj mu je bila prošnja uslišana. Iz Rima je Lercaro dobil tudi od sv. očeta prav toplo poslovilno pismo. Bolezen in leta so ga prisilila k demisijs, zunanemu pritisku se še ne bi bil vdal.

Povprečno gre tekom enega leta vsak osmi prebivalec ZDA enkrat v bolnico.

Po čistki v Havani

Po vseh latinskoameriških državah so zunanja ministrstva začela razglabljati o pomenu, ki ga bo na nadaljnji komunistični razvoj na ameriškem kontinentu imelo nedavno zasedanje kubanskega CKKP, na katerem je Castro počistil kubansko KP prosovjetskih elementov.

Strokovnjaki prihajajo do zaključka, da se bo znova poživila gverilska dejavnost v Latinski Ameriki in da morajo zato posamezne vlade biti budne za ta slučaj. Vsekakor stopa spet v ospredje nujnost vseameriške obrambe proti komunističnim poskusom, vodenim iz Havane, pa tudi iz Moskve in Pekinga, za razbitje vseameriške enotnosti gledanja na komunistično nevarnost.

Z doslej najdaljšim Castrovim govorom, ki je trajal dvanajst ur, se je svetu odkrila skrivnost, v katero se je zavilo zasedanje Centralnega komiteja kubanske KP: kubanski zunanje-politični obrat proč od Moskve bo pomenil novo vrsto problemov za latinskoameriški kontinent; Kuba se je znova odločila za napadale akcije po vzorcu kitajskega komunizma in se vedno bolj oddaljuje od trenutne moskovske linije mirne koeksistence v Latinski Ameriki.

Zasedanje kubanskega CKKP je na videz izgledalo kot politični udar, s katerim sta brata Castro pomedla zadnje sledove sovjetskega vpliva na kubansko zunanjo politiko, ki so bili zlasti učinkoviti po krizi z raketami leta 1962. Da je bilo ostražje v Havani natrpano z ugibanji vseh vrst, dokazujejo poročila nekaterih časopisnih agencij o morebitnem odstopu Castra z vodilnega položaja na Kubi. Ta ugibanja se niso izkazala za opta na poznanje razmer na Kubi, odn. v Castrovi vladi, kajti zgodilo se je ravno obratno: Castro je iz zasedanja CKKP izšel močnejši, kakor je bil pred njim, ter je sprožil čistko v kubanski partiji proti prosovjetskim elementom, ki pa so bili sojeni in obsojeni po sovjetskem načinu kot antipartiji in izdajalci revolucije.

Vprašanje sovjetskega finančnega vzdrževanja Castrove vlade, ki je do nedavnega predstavljalo en milijon dolarjev dnevno, ki so iz Moskve neprestano dotekali v Havano, ostaja za mnoge opazovalce odprto. Nekateri menijo, da Moskva ne bo užaljena odpovedala nadaljnjega financiranja kubanskega komunizma, četudi bi v bližnji bodočnosti doživela še večja ponižanja v Havani, kakor jih je doslej. Moskva si ne more privoščiti, da bi prepustila komunistično postojanko na Kubi, pred vrati ZDA in obeh ameriških kontinentov, bodisi Washingtonu bodisi Pekingu. Kajti nobenega dvoma ni, da bi komunistična Kuba brez sovjetskega financiranja ne mogla dolgo vzdržati pritiska ameriškega dolarja ali pa pekinškega jena, ki sta oba pripravljena vsak trenutek vskočiti v praznino, ki bi nastala s sovjetskim umikom.

V zvezi s poostrojitvijo gverilske dejavnosti po Latinski Ameriki so mnogi opazovalci po uničenju Che Guevare v Boliviji menili, da je direktnemu kubanskemu vmešavanju v notranje zadeve latinskoameriških držav odzvonilo za daljšo dobo, če že ne za vedno. Castrova Havana da se je sprijaznila z dejstvom silovitega poraza na vojaškem področju komunistične aktivnosti in da jo bo zaenkrat zato črtala s svojega programa. K temu mnenju so se nagibali tudi vsled znane sovjetske politike koeksistence v Latinski Ameriki, ker trenutno Moskvi gospodarsko bolj koristijo stabilni, čeprav desničarski režimi, kakor pa gospodarsko vedno oslABLJENE levičarske ali celo komunistične vlade.

Toda po Castrovem napadu na sovjetsko politiko koeksistence, v katerem je Moskvi očital, da s svojo politiko sklepanja trgovskih pogodb z desničarskimi vladami pomaga vzdrževati desničarske, protikomunistične režime na oblasti, postaja resnično povsem drugačna.

Če bodo iz Havane poveljali prevratne akcije v Latinski Ameriki, jim bo, kakor se zdi, trenutni politični položaj latinskoameriškega kontinenta nudil najugodnejšo priliko.

Na drugi strani tudi ni mogoče izolirati nove smeri kubanske zunanje politike od splošnega poslabšanja svetovnega položaja, ki so ga povzročili komunisti na Koreji ter v zadnjih dneh vietnamski komunistični partizani.

Ker so ZDA že dalj časa, odslej naprej pa bodo še bolj, zapletene v kritični razvoj položaja na Daljnem vzhodu, so latinskoameriške države v zadevi obrambe proti komunistični prevratnosti na ameriškem kontinentu vedno bolj prepuščene same sebi. Ta osamljenost je bilo vsekakor zdravilna v bolivijskem slučaju, ko je bil vsled tega značaj protikomunističnih akcij prilagojen in izveden bolivijskim razmeram primerno in zato hitro uspešen. To lahko velja v enaki meri za katerokoli latinskoameriško državo, ni pa s tem rečeno, da skupna protikomunistična politika ameriških držav ni nujna. Proti havanskim prevratnim načrtom, ki se nanašajo na celoten ameriški kontent, je potrebna tudi enotna protiakcija. Ta je možna in uspešna le v dobro vodeni Medameriški obrambni organizaciji.

Havana se dejavnosti take organizacije najbolj boji, pa naj kubanski vladi načeljuje sedaj Castro, v bodoče pa katerikoli drug komunistični aktivist. Paraliziranje prevratnih načrtov s Kube je v polni meri možno le v skupnem nastopanju ameriških držav proti zlim nameram mednarodnega komunizma.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

Narodna nedelja zbira in povezuje srenjo

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Včeraj, 11. januarja, je bila za nas, njujorške Slovence, druga narodna nedelja v novem letu 1963. Father Rihard jo je prvo nedeljo v mesecu oznanil in hkrati povedal, da bo na narodno nedeljo blagoslovil slovensko zastavo, ki jo bo v cerkev prinesla mladina njujorške sobotne slovenske šole.

Priti v slovensko cerkev na "Osmo" je zmeraj zvezan z malo osebnostno žrtvijo za vse Slovence, ki ne žive v njeni okolici. In teh je zdaj že bore malo. Vendar slovensko cerkevico so naši ljudje tamkaj postavili pred več kot pedesetimi leti. Cerkev je ves ta čas obstala, čeprav se je praznila zlasti v zadnjih letih. Ona ne more iti za ljudmi, ki se umikajo v mestna področja — ali celo izven — kjer se jim zdi bivanje prijetnejše. Tako smo njujorški Slovenci razpršeni, da nas ni kot narodno skupino niti ker opaziti v tem velikem mestu. Cerkev sv. Cirila na Osmi pa nas kliče: Pridite k meni, ker iz vas sem — za vas nastala, živela in zaradi vas bi rada še dolgo obstala!

Včeraj je bilo lepo in čisto jutro. Toda veter je vlekel, kot da bi hotel ujeti vseмирsko ladjo. Živo srebro se ni hotelo dvigati. Mraz ga je tiščal v spodnje stopinje. Ko sem se pripravljala za pohod "proti Osmi", sem mislila: Zakaj je mraz tako neusmiljeno pritisnil ravno danes, ko je za našo srenjo narodna nedelja. Saj skorajda ne bo nihče prišel. Kvečjemu 15 ali 20 nas bo sedelo v cerkvi. In celo morda onih ne bo, ki bi morali prinesiti narodno zastavo! Versko dolžnost danes moram opraviti in zaradi mraza ne bom zavrgel narodne dolžnosti, ki me vabi in kliče!

Verjetno je imel podobne misli še marsikateri srenjčan, ko se je odločil, da gre na pot. In zares veliko se nas je odločilo. Veliko je bilo mladih in dosti nas je bilo starejših. Cerkevico našo smo včeraj pa kar čedno pседili.

Mladi in starejši smo se veselili obrazov pozdravljali v blagodejnem presenečenju. Dobro jutro brat, dobro jutro sestra — tudi ti si v mrzlem jutru prišel!

In ravno mrzlo jutro je nam vsem povedalo, da nam mladi kažejo pot življenja. Mladost se mraza ne straši, ker njene odločnosti, pogum in bistrina preženo stiske mraza, omahljivosti in nejasnosti. Z mladimi so starši šli na pot. Njim smo se pridružili mnogi srenjčani, ki nimamo svojih družin. V cerkvi nas je bilo 76 in še pevci na koru.

Ko sem spet zrl v naš srenjski obraz, sem bil vesel, ker sem v njem našel po razsežnosti naše župnije ljudi z vseh področij — pa tudi rodovi so imeli za stopnike. Videl sem ljudi iz neposredne cerkvene okolice, iz spodnjega in gornjega dela mesta, iz Astorije, Woodside-a, Jamaica, Ridgewooda, East New Yorka. Vseh ne morem imenoma navesti. Vendar dve rodovini bi rad imenoval, ker sta opravili več žrtvovanja kot mnogi od nas. Danilo Kranjc je svojo družino pripeljal iz New Providence v New Jersey in prav tako Andrej Remec s Pucevo mamo in Helko. Iz Astorije Babnikovi, iz Ridgewooda Gromovi, Klezino-vi in Jenkovi, iz East New Yorka Ravnkarjevi, iz Woodside-a Ludvik Tomazic s svojimi.

Solarji so se zbrali v dvorani. Ko bo naslednja narodna nedelja 10. marca, bi vse starše prosili, da bi svoje otroke pripeljali v dvorano in da bodo potem skupno s temi, ki obiskujejo sobotno šolo prišli v cerkev z narodno zastavo, ki jo je včeraj župnik blagoslovil. Tako bodo vsi naši mladi srenjčani sedeli skupaj v prvih klopih!

Včeraj, ko je župnik prišel z ministrantom (eden učenec šole Janezek Ravnkar) do krstnega kamna zadaj cerkve, so učenci vstopili. Peter Jenko v narodni noši je na lepem drogu dvignil slovensko zastavo. Ob strani sta ga spremljali v narodni noši Francka in Marija Babnik. Učenci so šli naprej, z njimi župnik Father Richard z ministrantom in potem trije v narodnih nošah z zastavo. Ob vznemirjenju oltarja se je župnik obrnil. Peter je postavil zastavo v stol. In vsi trije so stali ob njej, ko jo je Father Richard blagoslovil.

Vse dejanje je bilo preprosto, iskreno in veličastno. Ta skromnost pa dobiva večji pomen, kadar pomislimo, da so nam mlade roke, mlada srca in mlade duše prinesle v slovensko cerkev sv. Cirila narodno zastavo, ki je naš skupni simbol. Naše skupno znamenje, ki "am zdaj cerkevico dela še bolj domačo, ker tega simbola nima nobena druga cerkev v New Yorku in njegovem okolju.

In menda je bila ravno misel na ta simbol v mrzlem včerajšnjem jutru sila, ki nas je pripeljala v domačo cerkev! V nobeni drugi cerkvi ne slišite v domočem jeziku molitve in pesmi. Nikjer drugod ne morijo za našo koncilsko misel bratstva, nikjer drugod ne molijo za srečo slovenskega naroda, nikjer drugod ne molijo za življenje naše srenje. Nikjer drugod se ne počutimo doma pri svojih. In ves smisel naše narodne nedelje je: Veseliti se tistega prijetnega občutja, ki ga dobiš, ko prideš domov — v domačo hišo, in mi imamo tudi domačo božjo hišo — ko se srečaš z domačini! Narodna nedelja naj pomeni za nas, njujorške srenjčane, takšno srečavanje, ker se drugače poredko videmo. Naši mladinci pa bomo dali občutek te skupnosti, ljubezen do jezika in molitve, kar jih bo potem ohranjalo našemu narodu.

Včerašnja nedelja je dokazala, da hočemo z mladno vred graditi dediščino, ki bo prehajala še v mnoge rodove za nami. Včeraj smo vsi nosili domov lepo občutje. Gospod Ludvik Burgar starejši mi je odhajajo iz cerkve dejal: "Lepo je bilo. Dosti nas je bilo. In to moramo držati naprej!"

Tone Jenko, ko je popisoval Baragovo polo, je župniku govoril: "Trikrat sem že bil v cerkvi na narodni nedeljo, pa še nikdar toliko ljudi kot danes in v takem mrazu."

Ko sem zvečer poklical Tončka Krek, mi je dejala: "Lepo je bilo in dosti nas je bilo. Zjutraj, ko sem šla na postajo se mi je ker zanohtalo". In vendar ji ni bilo žal.

Mladi so nam pot pokazali. Na tej poti pa bodo poslušali tudi nas in opazovali nas bodo. Dokaj posrečena je bila župnikova pridiga, ko je govoril o otroški radovednosti in je ob začetku dejal: "Otroci gledajo z odprtimi očmi in poslušajo z odprtimi ušesi..."

Torej nas bodo tudi poslušali in nas ogledovali v našem ravnanju! Narodna nedelja naj daje našim mladim naš zglede, ona naj jim daje versko in narodno radovednost in v domačem hramu naj si to radovednost utešijo do globokega spoznanja, ki jih bo potem vodilo skozi življenje v lastni presoji.

To naše združevanje naj bo naše narodno življenje na tujem. In po vsaki narodni združitvi v cerkvi sv. Cirila, bomo odhajali domov veseli in zadovoljni, kot smo včeraj odšli vsak na svoj dom.

Na družabni večer SPB!

CLEVELAND, O. — Samo še nekaj let morda in iz slovenske emigracije bo odšlo tisto, kar jo je dolga leta odlikovalo pred mnogimi drugimi: trdnost. Mislim na trdnost z ozirom na spremembe v okolju in v mišljenju, ki so takšne, da človek brez trdnih temeljev zavoljo mnogih prerokov prične dvomiti v preteklost in vrednost trpljenja v njej. Ena velikih napak, ki se ji nismo znali ogniti in je peljala v to, je bila komodnost in dobro življenje. Druga, nič manjša razglašena v slovenski emigraciji. Tretja, navidez majhna: pomanjkanje družabnosti, tiste družabnosti namreč, ki bi ne zbirala ljudi samo k veselju, temveč bi imela v sebi tudi občutje, da spadamo skupaj, ker nam je bilo v preteklosti skupno tudi trpljenje in krizi. Družabni večeri, ki bi to obnovili so zavoljo tega velikega pomena in vredni, da bi jih gojili.

V soboto, 17. februarja, zvečer ga priredi v Baragovem domu Društvo slovenskih protikomunističnih borcev v Clevelandu. Ne gre samo za prispevek organizaciji, katere član ali prijatelj si. Gre pred vsem za to, da se občutje, da spadamo skupaj, obnovi, da se obnovi misel na tisto, kar nas je družilo nekoč in kar naj bi nas združevalo posebnost danes, ko se svet potaplja v indiferentizem, ki naj konča vsako premočnost v načelih.

Prav zavoljo tega bi bilo lepo, da bi vsak, ki more priti, prišel — posedel urico, se razgovoril in odšel domov z zavestjo, da spadamo skupaj, da nismo samo posamezniki, temveč iz posameznikov zgrajena celota, ki ima skupen cilj.

Pokažimo, da to čutimo!

Predpusine novice iz Collinwooda

CLEVELAND, O. — Ker ni dolgo več do pusta, treba bo odpreti široko usta. Lilija veliko igri nam je podala. Za pusta nekaj novega, friča krača — bomo se smejali. Saj danes vse narobe gre, nihče ne ve, kaj pride še!

Da ohranimo stare šege, bomo šli v soboto, 24. februarja v Slovenski dom na Holmes Avenue. Lilija priredi maškarnado na gradno veselico. Vsako leto je velik odziv maškark. Kot sem slišal od strani, se tudi letos nekaj takega pripravlja. Pripravljalni odbor se trudi za čim lepši uspeh.

Vse maškare bi rad opozoril, da je za nje vhod na zadnji strani dvorane spodaj.

Vsem drugim pa: Pridite, ne bo vam žal! Ob dobri kapljici in v veseli družbi bomo vsi vsaj za malo časa pozabili svoje skrbi. Veseli Slovenci bodo skrbeli za poskočne polke, za spremembo pa tudi rumba bumba. Tudi ča-ča-ča ne bo manjkalo! Na svidenje!

Kot čisto zlato

Ljubka in nežna Amerikanka, 19-letna Peggy Fleming, študentka Colorado College, je dosegla na letošnji zimski olimpijadi v Grenoblu v drsanju tak rekord, da so ga strokovnjaki ocenili za čisto zlato.

Njeno prizadevanje v tem lepem športu, njena vstrajnost in vzdržnost, njeno veščanje, ki znaša 20,000 ur v dobi desetih let, je bilo pretekli teden bogato poplačano, ko je lepa Peggy stopila na oder zmagovalcev, da sprejme ob igranju ameriške himne in ob razobešenju ameriške in olimpijske zastave zlato medaljo, verjetno edino, ki jo bo Amerika na sedanji zimski olimpijadi dobila.

"Tega čudovitega občutka ne morejo biti deležni niti najbogatější ljudje", je vsa ginjena dejala mlada športnica, zmagovalka, ki je bila po dveh dneh napetega nastopanja pred devetimi sodniki daleč pred drugimi tekmovalkami. "Storila sem vse, kar sem mogla, dejansko sem prekosila samo sebe!"

Ob glasbi Čajkovskega, oblečena v nežno modro-zeleno, je mlada umetnica izvajala svoje vzpone in zavoje tako dovršeno, da si je osvojila ne samo srca vseh gledalcev, pač pa dosegla skupno tudi 1.970 točk, 88 več kot druga najboljša tekmovalka Gaby Seyfert iz Vzhodne Nemčije.

Peggy je živela pred leti v Clevelandu na vzhodni strani mesta.

V senatu bo le prišlo do glasovanja o davčni nakladi

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Republikanski senator Williams iz Delaware je napovedal, da bo predložil k zakonskemu predlogu za podaljšanje posebnega prometnega davka na telefon in avtomobile dopolnilo o davčni nakladi, 8% za korporacije, 6% za posameznike. Predstaviški dom bo predlog o podaljšanju davka na avtomobile in telefon odobril po vsem sodeč še pred koncem marca in ga poslal v obravnavo senatu.

Domov odbor za pota in načine še vedno zavrača razpravo o davčni nakladi, ki jo je predložila vlada. Trdijo, da kong. W. Mills ne mara začeti razprave o predlogu, ker je prepričan, da za enkrat zanj še nima večine.

Usmilimo se tega našega novega rodu, ki nima sreče, da bi raste v svoji domovini. Posvetimo mu vsaj malo časa v pogovorih, ob knjigah, pospremito ga k slovenskemu šolskemu pouku. PRVA POMOČ

I. Krvavitev. — Potrebna je takojšnja pomoč. Če brizga svetlordeča kri v sunkih iz rane, lahko nastopi že v nekaj minutah smrt. Kri priteka iz srca, iz arterije, zato takoj pritiskajte med mestom krvavitve in srcem. Na istem mestu močno prevežite. Pritisk ali preveza ne sme trajati nepretrgoma več kot dve uri.

Če kri teče enakomerno in je temnordeče barve, gre za krvavitev iz vene. Dvigniti poskodovani ud, položiti preko rane sterilno gazo ali sveže preliskan robec in krepko zavestil povoj, tako da pritiska, mara krvavečo žilo.

Ponesrečenec naj leži popolnoma mirno. Daj mu nizko vzglavje, ogrevaj ga, daj mu možno kavo in pokliči zdravnika.

Praske in majhne rane. — Iztrijani kri, da odplavi nevarno nesnago. Če je v rani mnogo nesnage, jo previdno očisti s sterilno gazo, namočeno v 2% jodovoj tinkturi. Očisti in razkuži tudi okolico rane. Ko se jod posuši, pokrij rano s sterilno gazo in povij.

Večje in zelo onesnažene rane. — Previdno očisti okolico rane, jo pokrij s sterilno gazo in obveži. Obodne rane s trdnimi žilami so posebno nevarne. Rana komaj krvavi in zato nevarna nesnaga ostane v njej. Če je tuje telo v rani, ga previdno izvleci, potem pa čimprej k zdravniku, ker je navadno potrebna injekcija seruma proti tetanusu.

Zlom kosti. — Ne poskušaj sam s silo uravnati sklepov ali kosti! Pripravi opornico za ud, ud mehko obloži z vato ali čisto krpo, položi nanj opornico, da sega preko sosednjih dveh sklepov in jo na ud priveži. Nato pokliči zdravnika ali bolnišnico.

Zvin in izpah. — Ne uravnaj sam izpahnjene sklepe. V položaju, ki povzroča najmanj bolečin, ga namesti na opornico. Na oteklo mesto položi hladne obkladke.

Opekline. — Le majhno opekline lahko mažeš z vazelinom. Po novejših zdravniških dogovorih jo lahko blažiš z mrzlo vodo. Pri večjih opeklinah zavaruj poskodovano mesto s sterilno gazo in spravi po nesrečenca k zdravniku. Ne prebada! mehurjev.

Sončne opekline. — Olajšamo jih z obkladki iz raztopljene kuhinjske soli, z mazanjem s smetano ali stepenim beljakom.

OTROŠKI

Zdajle, ko tole pišem, sneg hudo kosmata. Če bo šel takole cel dan, se zjutraj moja šendica ne bo videla iz kupa. Tako neznansko slabe volje sem, da kar po malem robantom. Od enega okna do drugega postopam in gledam skozenj. Sneg pa kar naprej svojo pot. Pri teh letih imam že tako dovolj skrbi in zdaj še ta sneg. O Svečnici sem že vihal brke in brado in malo sam na soncu. Figo, oboje sem pokopal pod sneg, ki mi je zasul tulipane in hijacinte.

Pisma, ki sem jih dobil. me tudi niso spravila v dobro voljo. Jemnasta, kaj o boleznih pišete, ko samo še gledam, kje se ta pošajna pokaže? Kaj vselega bi mi pisali, ko so že dnevi tako pristujeni. Toda zdaj je, kar je. Nimam drugega na razpolago. Poskušajte drugo pot, dragi otroci kaj vselega, kaj takega, da se moja starost razvedri.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!
V resnici nisem nikdar bolan, pa sem le moral v bolnico. Ko sem bil star tri leta in pol, sem pojedel nekaj aspirinov. Ker bi morda od tega lahko umrl, je mama poklicala policijo. Res so prišli in me odpeljali v bolnico. Tam so mi dali nekaj popiti, da sem bruhal. Nekaj časa sem ostal tam, potem sem pa šel lahko domov. Dolgo časa sem se bal, kadar sem slišal policijsko sireno. Mislim, da grede spet po mene.

Te lepo pozdravlja
Tomaž Štepec.

Dragi Tomaž!

Vidiš, fantiček, preden človek kaj poje, je dobro, da prej pogleda. Menda nisi bil tako strano lačen, da si se kar aspirinov lotil. Ko sem bil toliko star kot ti, se meni to nikoli ni zgodilo. Ker aspirina pri hiši nismo imeli. Če smo bili otroci bolni, so mati stopili v svojo lekarno. Brinjevo olje je bilo, če nas je kakalo po trebuhu, suhe borovnice, če nas je gnalo, bezeg, če smo kašljali — največkrat so pa mami vse nas mazali z leskovim oljem. Tega zadnjega je bilo težko prenašati, toda meni so ga delili domala vsak dan. Morda sem zavoljo tega dočkal takšna leta. Vesel sem, da si se oglašil in lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!
Ko sem bila šest ali sedem let stara, sem dobila norice. Bilo je v poletju. Moje prijateljice so me prišle obiskat. Gledala sem kako so se drugi otroci igrali. Morala sem jemati zdravila. Zdelo se mi je, da sem jih morala vzeti vsako minuto. Mama mi je včasih pomerila vročino. Zjutraj sem lahko stala pri vratih in opazovala prijateljice. Kmalu sem se pozdravila. Kako pa kaj Vi?

Le po Te pozdravlja Tvoja
Sonja Lekan

Draga Sonja!

Bolezen, tudi če so koj samo norice, je huda stvar. Mamo skrbi, ata skrbi, nas pa prikrajša za marsikaj lepega. Pa je že tako, da Bog, ki daje sonce in dež, daje tudi zdravje in bolezen. Človek mora oboje vzeti kot božji dar. Mnogo je ljudi, ki so bolni celo življenje. Vidiš, punčka, meni se zdi, da je mnogo lepega na tem svetu zato, ker ti otroci s svojim trpljenjem za druge ljudi prosijo. Pomisli včasih na to. Človek, ki na prvi pogled nič ne more, ki je videti v nadlego sebi in drugim, ima pred dobrim Bogom veliko besedo. Jaz po starem. V šendici čepim in odganjam zimo. Saj veš, pri tej starosti imam vse pripravljeno: štebele se svetijo, kanižola je pripravljena, polhovke pa s seboj ne bom vzel, ker je pred Boga treba priti razoglavl. Pridna bodi in se še kaj oglasi.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Ko sem bila stara šest let, sem bila bolna. Mama me je peljala k zdravniku. Pregledal me je in ugotovil, da moram v bolnico na operacijo za mandeljne. V bolnici sem bila dva dni in pol. Zelo sem bila vesela, ko me je oče prišel iskat in me peljal domov. Katero od hudih boleznih ste pa Vi imeli?

Le po Te pozdravlja

Anica Erdani.

Draga Anica!

Bolnico si torej videla od znotraj. Prostor velikega trpljenja je pa sem v svojih mladih letih slišal stare ljudi reči: Kdor ne zna moliti, naj gre na vojsko ali v bolnico. Ko človek gleda bedo drugih ljudi, vidi, kako srečen je sam. Hudih boleznih sem imel nekoč precej. Enkrat me je smrt že držala za goltanec in še danes ne vem, kako sem ubežal. Po milosti mislim. Kaj pa Tvoj stari ata? Fantička poznam — precej mlajši je od mene, sva se pa v mladih letih, ko sva še

“Lep je naš Viet-Nam, ko...”

Misijonar Andrej Majcen s svojimi novinci in seministi. — Bog ve, kako je zdaj z njimi?

PATERSON, N.J. — Samo dve leti je bil misijonar Majcen v Hong Kongu in spet je moral nazaj v Viet-Nam. Predstojniki so uvideli, da brez njega tam ne pojde, zato so ga poslali tja kot provincijalnega delegata in ravnatelja. Z vso vmo se je zopet lotil dela. V Go Vapu pri Saigonu je položil temelje novi strokovni šoli, ki je danes najboljša, kar jih je v Viet-Namu.

Nobeno misijonsko delo ni trajnega uspeha, če ni domačega duhovniškega naraščanja, zato se je misijonar Majcen zavzel za vzgojo domačih duhovnikov in redovnikov. V Thu Ducu poleg Saigona je ustanovil malo seminarije. Počasi je ostalo delo prepustil drugim sobratom, da se je sam posvetil izključno le duhovniški in redovniški vzgoji. V tej službi je še danes, le da je l. 1962 novicijat preselil v Tram Hanh ne daleč od letoviškega mesta Da-Lata. Ta postojanka stoji 330 km severno od Saigona, kakih 1000 metrov nad morjem. Podnebje je torej prav prijetno in pokrajina prijazna. Ko bi le vojske ne bilo! Do pred kratkim tam okrog še ni prišlo do velikih bojev, vendar pa je postojanka v stalni nevarnosti. Takole je pisal pred dvema letoma:

Imel sem hudo vročino in mama je dajala zdravila. Ker vročina ni odnehala, je klicala zdravnika. Zdravnik me je poslal takoj v bolnico. Tam sem dobival zdravila. Bilo nas je osem otrok v sobi. Dolgčas nam je bilo le po mamah. Tudi hrane nismo imeli radi. Zelo sem bil vesel, ko mi je zdravnik rek, da smem domov. Zelo sem bil srečen, ko sem bil spet doma.

Lepo Te pozdravlja

George Matič.

Dragi Jurij!

Jaz kar po kranjsko zapišem. Vidiš, bolezen Ti je pokazala, da je doma najlepše, čeprav nima včasih misli, da ni. Poznaš tisti pregovor: Če človek tudi svet obteče, najboljši kruh doma se peče. Včasih je treba za tako spoznanje nekaj šole. Ti si jo imel. Vedno glej, da boš dom, svoje starše rad imel in po svojih močeh za hišo naredil, kar boš mogel. Privezanost na dom je lepa čednost. Škoda, da otroci na to tako malo mislijo. Priden ostani, Jur, in lepo Te pozdravljam.

Končati moram in v trdnem upanju, da mi kdo napiše še kaj drugega, ne samo o boleznih. Vas vse tople pozdravlja

Vaš Kotičkov stric

Kljub vojni je misijonsko delo v Viet-Namu vsaj do pred kratkim še kar lepo napredovalo. Še komaj tri leta je tega, ko je misijonar Majcen pisal: “Na praznik Marijinega Ožneva, to je vso gorsko vas. Tri leta so se učili krščanskega nauka in tudi krstne obrede smo izvršili v več stopnjah. Najprej izganjanje hudega duha, kakor ga predpisuje obrednik. Še prej pa so katehumi znesli skupaj vse vražarske predmete in jih javno zažgali, nato pa izgnali čarovnika iz vasi. Druga stopnja je bila, da so izpovedali vero, imeli izpit iz katekizma in javno odgovorili na vprašanja po obredniku. Končno smo jih slovesno krstili. Krščevalo nas je več duhovnikov skupaj s škofom. Človeka taki obredi kar prevzamejo. Velika tolažba in vzpodbuda so za misijonarja.

Škof me je prosil, naj bi se bolj posvetil tem hribovskim narodom, pa več že kar ne morem. Svojih semeniščnikov ne smem zanemarjati. Lep je naš Viet-Nam! Ko bi le imeli mir! Koliko dobrega bi se dalo še storiti.”

Na žalost so komunisti pri zadnji ofenzivi mesto Dalat zavzeli, šest misijonarjev pobili in še več odpeljali neznankam. Bog ve, kaj se je zgodilo z Majcenovo postojanko v bližnjem Tram Hanhu. Dal Bog, da bi tudi tokrat veljalo, kakor je misijonar Majcen nekoč pisal: “Saj smo vsi vedno v božjih rokah. V teh 30 letih, kar sem v misijonih, je bilo že večkrat zares hudo, a še vselej se je srečno izteklo. Ljubi Bog nas preizkuša, a nas ne zapusti nikoli.”

Gorečega misijonarja Majcena posebno zdaj zelo priporočam v molitev in, če le mogoče, v denarno pomoč. Ni dolgo, ko se je sam obrnil na nekatere slovenske duhovnike tod s prošnjo za maše, ker njegova misijonska postojanka komaj shaja.

Kdor bi mu želel pomagati, lahko dar odda g. Slapšaku pri Sv. Vidu v Clevelandu, ki je misijonarja Majcena pred leti obiskal v Viet-Namu, ali ga pa pošlje patru Wolbangu, s katerim sta svoja skupna misijonarila na Kitajskem in bila izgnana od tam. Njegov naslov je:

Upam, da jim to ne bo uspelo. Vsekakor pa je položaj resen. Podnevi so gospodarji držav i. ponoči rdeči. Če se bo poslabšalo, bomo morali zopet bežati, pa kam?”

Mi, ki smo doživeli komunistično revolucijo v domači deželi, si znamo predstavljati, kako nevarno je živeti na ozemlju, kjer se z nočjo gospodar menja.

Posebna zvezna sila
za krotitev izgrediv?

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Posebna komisija 11 članov, ki jo je imenoval predsednik L.B. Johnson lani 29. julija, da preišče vzroke in ozadje črnških nemirov in izgrediv v ameriških mestih, je prišla do zaključka, da se Narodna garda lani pri krotitvi teh izgrediv ni obnesla. Komisija bo zato nemara predložila predsedniku v svojem poročilu ustanovitve posebne zvezne sile, ki naj bi bila za te naloge izveščana in na razpolago.

Komisija bo svoje delo končala in predložila predsedniku svoje poročilo s 1. marcem. Njen predsednik je demokratski guverner Illinois, njen podpredsednik pa republikanski župan New Yorka Lindsay.

Stassenov recept za konec vojne v Vietnamu

CLEVELAND, O. — Večni republikanski predsedniški kandidat Harold Stassen je izjavil na svoji tiskovni konferenci v Washingtonu, da je najboljše sredstvo za končanje vojskovanja v Vietnamu v republikanski rokah. Republikanci naj postavijo za predsedniškega kandidata pristaša ki bi veljal za zagovornika takojšnjega miru.

Kot napravi Stassenova ideja na pogled vtis zabavnosti, je vendarle nekaj resnice na njej. Ako bi republikanci postavili za kandidata politika, ki bo zagovarjal vojno do častnega konca, potem sodijo vsi politični opazovalci, da se Amerika utegne še leta vojskovati v Vietnamu, kajti tudi na demokratski strani ne bo noben kandidat tvegala stališča, da naj bi naša dežela kapitulirala.

Sicer pa hoče Stassen tudi letos kandidirati za predsednika. Tega ne taji, toda tudi ne trdi, da bi ga republikanska konvencija postavila za kandidata.

Rusija gradi tretjo helikoptersko letalonosilko

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Rusija ima že dve letalonosilki izključno za helikoptere. Na njih ne morejo pristajati lovci in bombniki, posebno pa ne jet letala. Sedaj gradijo v Nikolaevsku pri Odesi še tretjo. Njena prostornina bo nekako 23.000 - 25.000 ton, na njej bo prostora za 35-40 helikopterjev. Letalonosilko ravno sedaj dokončujejo, mislijo, da bo letos poleti že lahko začela s preskušnjo v črnem morju.

Amerika ima 8 takih letalonosilk, so povprečno iste velikosti kor ruske. Dve sta v Vietnamu, tri na Pacifiku, tri pa v sestavi šestega brodnjstva v Sredozemlju.

Predsedniški avtomobil prišel v zasebne roke

PORTMOUHT, O. — Predsedniški avtomobil, znan pod imenom Queen Mary, ima za seboj lepo zgodovino. Že pod Eisenhowerjem ga je vzela v najem federalna administracija in ga priredila za vožnje predsednikov. Temu cilju je služil pod Eisenhowerjem, Kennedyjem in Johnsonom. Ni bil pa edini avtomobil, ki je prevažal predsednika. V znani tragediji v Dallasu, kjer je bil ubit predsednik Kennedy, je bil na primer drugi avtomobil v predsedniškem sprevodu.

Sedaj ga je kupil zastopnik GM in ga misli porabiti za sprevede, manifestacije in specializirane avtomobilske razstave. Prodajna cena ni bila objavljena.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle:

IZGUBLJENI SVET

(THE LOST WORLD)

Nenadoma sem začul nekaj, kar me je spomnilo na odsotne tovariše. V tišem, jasnem jutranjem zraku daleč se je razlegal sluh, oster pok težke puške. Obstal sem in je poslušati, a ničesar ni bilo več čuti. Za trenutek me je prestrašila misel, da jih je morebiti zadela kaka nenadna nesreča, a potem sem si vse pojasnil bolj naravno in enostavno. Saj se je že zdanilo. Ni dvoma, da so opazili mojo odsotnost. Mislili so najbrž, da sem zašel v gozdu in oddali strel, da mi pokažejo smer proti taborišču. Sklenili smo sicer, da na noben način ne bomo streljali, a so naredili najbrž izjemo, ker so mislili, da sem v nevarnosti. Moral sem torej, kolikor se je dalo pritisniti, da jih čimprej pomirim.

Vendar sem bil tako utrujen in izmučen, da nisem bil v stanju napredovati tako hitro, kakor bi si želel; slednjič pa sem le prišel v poznane kraje. Na levo je ležalo pterodaktilsko močvirje, spredaj pa je bila iguandonska poljana. Še trenutek, pa sem stopil med zadnje drevje, ki me je delilo od Utrdbe Challenger. Veselo sem zavriskal, da potolažim čimprej svoje tovariše. Toda nihče ni odgovoril na moj pozdrav. Srce mi je pričelo nemirno utripati pri tem zlovesčem molku. Pospešil sem korak in potem stekel. Taborišče je zrastle pred menoj, kakor sem ga zapustil, samo vrata so bila odprta. Planil sem vanj. V mrzli jutranji luči sem zagledal strašno sliko. Vse naše zaloge so bile v divjem neredu razmetane po tleh, moji tovariši so izginili, in poleg s pepelom prevlečenega ugačajočega ognja se je razlivala sredi orumenele trave strašna krvava mlaka.

Ta nepričakovani udarec me je tako zmedel, da se mi je najbrž skoro zmešalo. Spominjam se zdaj samo nejasno, kakor slabih sanj, da sem blodil ves obupan po gozdu okoli praznega taborišča in divje klical svoje tovariše, a iz molčeče teme ni bilo nobenega odgovora. Grozna misel, da jih morebiti nikoli več ne bom videl, da sem ostal sam brez vsake možnosti, se povrniti nazaj v svet, da bom najbrž končal življenje in umrl v tej pošastni deželi, mi je vzela razum. Ruvati sem si hotel v tem obupu lase in se s pestmi tolči po glavi. Šele zdaj sem razumel, kako nprastveno oporo so mi nudili moji prijatelji, Challengerjeva vedra samozavest in Roxtonova oblastna, šaljiva hladnokrvnost. Brez njih sem bil kakor slaboten in neboljen, v temi tavajoč otrok. Nisem vedel, kam se naj obrnem in kaj naj počnem.

Dokaj časa sem sedel popolnoma omamljen, potem pa sem pričel ugibati, kaka nenadna neprilika je mogla zadeti moje tovariše. Po strašanskem neredu v taborišču se je dalo sklepati o nenadnem napadu, in oni sproženi strel je kazal potem nedvomno čas, kdaj se je to dogodilo. To, da je padel samo en strel, pa je govorilo, da se je morala odločiti borba v enem trenutku. Puške so še vedno ležale po tleh in z zatvora ene — bila je lord Johnova — je štrlela izstreljena stročnica. Po Challengerjevi in Summerleejevi odeji, ki sta ležali poleg ognja, je bilo videti, da sta v tem času še spala. Zaboji s strelivom in živili so bili križem razmetani po taborišču, kakor tudi naši nesrečni fotografski aparati in skladi s ploščami, vendar pa ni ničesar manjkalo. Zato pa je izginila vsa hrana, katero smo že imeli na prostem in katere — kolikor sem se spominjal — je bilo prav veliko. Torej so naskočile taborišče živali, ne pa ljudje, zakaj ti bi seveda pograbili in odnesli vse, kar bi našli.

Ce pa so to bile živali ali samo ena strahovita žival, kaj se je potem zgodilo z mojimi sopotniki? Divja zver bi jih nedvomno raztrgala in pustila ležati njih ostanke. Res je lahko pričala ta grozna krvava mlaka samo o nekem nasilstvu. Pošast nalik oni, ki me je preganjala ponoči, bi lahko tudi kam odnesla žrtev kakor mačka miško. V tem slučaju sta morebiti planila preostala dva in jo zasledovala. A vzela bi nedvomno potem s seboj svoji puški. Čim bolj sem napenjal svoje utrujene in zmedene možgane, tem manj sem si mogel vse zadostno pojasniti. Preiskal sem ves gozd naokrog, a nisem našel nobenih sledov, ki bi mi lahko pomagali dospeti do kateregakoli za k l jučka. Slednjič sem še zašel in samo srečna slučajnost me je pripeljala po enournem tavanju zopet v taborišče.

Nenadno pa me je prešinila misel, ki mi je vsaj malo olajšala srce. Nisem bil popolnoma osamljen na svetu. Spodaj ob vznožju skalovja je čakal zvesti Zambo, ki sem ga mogel vedno lahko poklicati. Stopil sem torej k robu planote in pogledal navzdol. Res, čepel je v odeje zavrt ob ognju v svojem malem taborišču. A na moje začudenje je sedel poleg njega še drug mož. Za trenutek mi je zavrisnalo srce od veselja, ker sem si domišljeval, da se je morebiti posrečilo enemu izmed mojih tovarišev se rešiti na ono stran. A razočaral sem se, ko sem pogledal zopet. Vzhajajoče sonce je možu posijalo na polt, in se je rdečasto zasvetilo. Bil je Indijanec. Glasno sem zaklical in pričel mahati z žepnim robcem. Zambo je takoj pogledal gori, mi pomahal z roko in se prišel vzpenjati na vrh skale. Kmalu je že stal na vrhu meni nasproti pa z globoko žalostjo poslušal zgodbo, ki sem mu jo povedal.

“Vrag jih je odnesel, massa “Greste v vražjo deželo, pa vas Malone, kaj pa,” je rekel. vse pobere. Pustite si svetovati,

Let's Talk Turkey 'Bout Stuffings

Only the turkey's traditional, not the work, with this stuffing from the Borden Kitchen, made with instant whipped potatoes.

Colonial Potato Stuffing
(Makes 8 cups stuffing; enough for a 12-16 pound turkey*)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 2 cups water | 1 cup finely chopped celery |
| 1 cup cold homogenized milk | 3 eggs, beaten |
| 1 (8-1/4-oz.) package Borden's Instant Whipped Potatoes | 2 tablespoons instant minced onions |
| 3 cups toasted bread cubes | 2 tablespoons dehydrated parsley flakes |
| 2 tart apples, cored and finely chopped | 2 teaspoons salt |
| | 2 teaspoons poultry seasoning |

In a large saucepan, bring water to a boil. Remove from heat and immediately add cold milk. Add potato flakes; stir gently until all flakes are moistened. (Mixture will be dry.) Turn potatoes into a large mixing bowl. Add remaining ingredients; mix well. Stuff neck and body cavities of uncooked turkey loosely with stuffing. (Stuffing will expand during roasting.) Pull neck skin back over stuffing; secure with a skewer or poultry pin to back of turkey. Close body cavity over stuffing by inserting skewers and lacing with string or by sewing with heavy thread. Tie legs and tail close together. Tuck wings under, against back of bird. Place remaining stuffing in a small, covered baking dish. Bake with turkey during the last 30 minutes. Place turkey, breast side up, on a wire rack in an uncovered roasting pan. Brush with melted butter. Roast in a slow (325°F.) oven, 20 minutes per pound (about 3 hours 30 minutes to 4 hours), or until thigh joint moves easily when end of leg is grasped.

*Allow 1/2 cup of stuffing per pound of turkey when preparing a bird of different weight.

Dark Plans Low-Key Training Camp In First Season As Tribe Pilot
Cleveland, O. — It may come as a surprise to some of the Indians, but Alvin Dark, their new manager, plans to operate a low-key spring training camp.

Dark says he expects criticism of his training camp and that some will think it's too lax. Players will report on the field at 11 a.m., instead of the customary 9 a.m. starting time. Workouts may last only a couple of hours at the start.

The Tribe skipper says he does not believe in intrasquad games and will ask the players to get into shape slowly. "I don't want a n y muscle pulls. I just want slow, steady progress," he said.

Every Win Over Ten Means Soda for Al

Seattle, Wash. — If his Seattle Sonics start winning consistently, watch Coach Al Bianchi's weight go up.

At the start of the National Basketball Association season, George N. Meyers, sports editor of The Seattle Times, half in jest, wrote he would buy Bianchi a cigar for every victory over ten scored by the expansion team.

Bianchi does not smoke cigars, so ice cream sodas were substituted. By Feb. 6, Al had surrounded seven of the calorific concoctions.

Cincy Fans Turn Out To Meet the Bengals

Cincinnati, O. — Cincinnati fans generated plenty of enthusiasm in their first public response to the football Bengals. An overflow crowd of 1,050 turned out for the Bengals' get-acquainted luncheon, Feb. 5 in the Roof Garden of the Sheraton Gibson Hotel. Another 350 ticket orders had to be turned back.

Three Bengal players were on hand for the affair — John Stofa, the quarterback acquired from the Miami Dolphins; All-America center Bob Johnson of Tennessee, the club's No. 1 college draft choice, and tiny Monk Williams, the 155-pound seatback drafted from Arkansas A. & M. All three spoke briefly.

Coach General-Manager Paul Brown gave a progress report on the American Football League's newest team.

"Everything is going according to plan," Brown told the group. "Deep inside, I think we may do better this first season than I'm willing to admit."

Other dignitaries present included U. S. Senator Frank Lausche of Ohio and Gov. James Rhodes.

Phil Nice Guy But Not Softie

Green Bay, Wis. — The players always addressed Phil Bengtson by his first name when he was their defensive coach. They'll probably keep calling him Phil now that he's succeeded Vince Lombardi as head coach of the Packers.

"I really don't think Coach Bengtson will mind," said defensive end Lionel Aldridge, "as long as he gets the kind of performance from us that he expects."

Performance is something Bengtson almost always got as coach of the NFL's most consistently stingy defense.

"As long as you work for Phil and produce, there are no problems," said Aldridge. "However, this man is no softie. He can get tough when he has to, or when he wants to. He can really get tough. Phil gets the respect he demands."

Federation of Slovenian Homes

On Sunday, March 17th, the greater Cleveland Federation of Slovenian Homes is presenting its annual "Man of the Year" Award Dinner, at the Euclid Slovenian Home, honoring Senator Frank Lausche as our "Slovenian Man of the Year." His selection was based on many factors including his reaching the highest office ever held by a person of Slovenian descent. In addition to being the Senior Senator from the State of Ohio, Senator Lausche is a respected statesman, a vivid proponent of the Slovenian people, culture and language. He is also an affluent speaker, as attested by his fine address at the Federation Picnic, last July 4th.

Along with Senator Lausche, each of the nine Slovenian Homes comprising the Federation, will honor an individual instrumental to the success of their prospective home. They are as follows:

- Denison — Anton Gustincic
- Euclid — Ed Leskovec
- Holmes Ave. — Ed Grosel
- Maple Heights — Fred Phillips
- Newburg — Alice Arko
- Prince Ave. — Gaspar Segulin
- St. Clair — John Centa
- Waterloo — Frank Mihelic
- West Park — Anne Kosak

The program will feature a short recital by various singing groups including a quartet from Glasbenica Matica headed by Ed Kenik. Master of Ceremonies, Chas. Ipavec promises the entire program will not exceed one hour.

Dancing to the music of the Pecan-Trebar Orchestra will follow in the main auditorium and the Eddie Behner Trio will entertain in the lower hall.

Tickets for the dinner, in the main auditorium are completely sold out and there are only a few tickets remaining for the lower hall at $3 each. Tickets are available for the dance only at $1.00 each. We encourage anyone who cannot attend the dinner, to come and enjoy the gala dance, which will begin at 7 p.m.

Engineers Week Held Here February 18-24

"Engineering... Design for World Health" is the theme of National Engineers Week being held Feb. 18 thru 24 here and around the nation. Three Greater Cleveland area chapters of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers are the local sponsors.

Highpoint of the week will be the presentation by the local society of its annual "Engineer of the Year" award to George F. Evans, head of Evans & Associates, consulting engineers here. The award will be made by John R. Wolfs, Commissioner of Engineering, City of Cleveland, and president of the Cleveland Chapter of the Professional Engineers, at a luncheon, Feb. 20 at the Cleveland Engineering Center, 3100 Chester Avenue.

During the seven-day observation which has been officially recognized by Ohio Governor James A. Rhodes in a state proclamation, local engineers will speak at various service club meetings and schools in the Greater Cleveland community.

National Engineers Week is sponsored yearly by the National Society of Professional Engineers to point up to the public the important contributions engineers make today in scores of fields ranging from public health to industry.

The time of George Washington's birthday is traditionally selected for the Week since Washington himself was a notable civil and military engineer.

St. Ann's No. 150 KSKJ will hold its regular monthly meeting Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Slov. Nat'l. Home on E. 80 St.

Slovenian Chapel Campaign

The Committee for a Slovenian Chapel met last Monday evening to hear a report concerning the signing of an agreement with the director of the Immaculate Conception Shrine in Washington, D.C. At the same time the down payment was made for the Slovenian Chapel to grace the "Memorial Hall" of the shrine. Work will start at once on the design of the chapel, which will be in the hands of Franc Gorshe and Simon Kregar. These two Slovenian artists will work directly with the architects of the shrine. Final decisions in all matters will be determined by the shrine architects.

At the meeting, Joseph Nemanich, president of the committee expressed satisfaction with the progress of the campaign. He stressed that more individual contributions were now needed, even though a lodge or society had voted a donation. Even more pressing was contributions from communities outside the ones already organized, such as Chicago, Washington, and New York City. In particular, Slovenians in outlying communities who have been interested in the past for advancing the Slovenian cause, should try to organize chapters to collect funds and create interest in their own communities for the Slovenian chapel in Washington. This chapel is a national venture, involving all Slovenes and Slovenian Americans. It is intended as a lasting testimonial to the Slovenians in the old country and to the Slovenian pioneers during the past century who helped to make America great.

It is hoped that dedicated Slovenians with a love for the mother country and for their Slovenian parents and Slovenian culture will respond to this appeal. Such communities as San Francisco, Pueblo, and Toronto, as well as Slovenian residents of such states as Texas, Minnesota, Wyoming, and Michigan, are requested to begin action which will bring the national shrine and the Slovenian chapel to the attention of isolated Slovenians. Full information, along with brochures and literature will be supplied by contacting the secretary, Frank Turek. Undoubtedly, anyone who has visited the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. will already be an enthusiastic supporter of the Slovenian chapel.

Donations are still being accepted and checks should be made payable to: Slovenian Chapel Fund. Mail should be sent to Mr. Frank Turek, Secretary, 986 Bryn Mawr Avenue, Wickliffe, Ohio 44092. Birth

A baby girl was born to Staff Sgt. Robert Ready and his wife Diane on January 24th in Killen, Texas, where the father is stationed at Ft. Hood, Texas. They named her Paula Renee. This event makes Laddie Pujzdar and his wife Rose of 1238 E. 169 St. grandparents for the first time. Congratulations to all!

Henry, answering the phone: "I don't know, call the weather bureau."

"Who was that?" asked his wife.

"Oh, some fellow asking if the coat was clear."

QUALITIES OF SURVIVAL

Ever since the advent of "modern merchandising" and the entrance of chain stores into the retail distribution field, concern has been expressed over the ultimate fate of the independent merchant. It is true that high volume sales at minimum prices as pioneered and practiced by the chain stores is the backbone of the nation's mass-distribution system. It is also true that both chain and independent stores continue to prosper.

One of the most thoughtful commentaries on the current position of the independent merchant was contained in a release from the National Retail Merchants Association. It pointed out that negative ideas seemed to dominate thinking about smaller independent stores; that it is harder today for independents to succeed; that competition is stiffer; that costs of doing business are greater and profit margins are smaller, etc. Actually, the opportunities for the good independent retailer are greater than ever before. Modern techniques in retail management and operations are more readily available to smaller retailers. New markets are opening up into which smaller retailers can move and specialize.

The greatest strength of the independent merchant lies now, as in the past, in the development of a store personality, and in personalized service. Our retailing system needs the independent merchant just as it needs the chain store. And because of the unique services which it can render to customers, the independent store will continue to prosper on its own merits.

TRUTH-IN-LENDING BILL. The House has passed and returned to the Senate a greatly strengthened truth-in-lending bill (S.5). When it was reported out of the House Banking and Currency Committee, the bill contained a provision requiring that full disclosure be made in credit advertising, a new title restricting wage garnishment and a title establishing a National Commission on Consumer Finance. On the House floor, the legislation was strengthened further by amendments requiring that revolving charge accounts and loans of less than $10 carry full annual rate disclosure (the Committee bill had exempted loans with finance charges of less than $10 a year). Another amendment sponsored by Republicans puts the teeth of Federal enforcement behind State laws prohibiting loan-sharking, or lending at illegally high interest rates by making violations of State usury laws a Federal offense.

Under the truth-in-lending bill, lending institutions and sellers will be required to disclose in easily understandable and uniform terms what the cost of credit will be in a particular transaction. This will enable the borrower and consumer to compare and shop for credit which is most economical without having to decipher complex or incomplete statements of credit cost. These disclosures requirements will extend to credit advertising as well as to specific credit transactions, to further facilitate a situation where the consumer can select his creditor or lender with his eyes wide open, and with a full understanding of the transaction he is about to enter. In addition, the several factors included in total financing charges are subject to disclosure requirements — for example, where credit life insurance is mandatory, this fact, plus a detailing of its costs, must be disclosed to the borrower.

The anti-loan sharking provision is among the most important in the legislation. It hits hardest at organized crime, which derives a large income each year from such operations. I voted for the truth-in-lending bill and it passed 382 to 4. The anti-loan sharking amendment, which received my vote and support, was adopted by a record vote of 383

At The 100th Anniversary Of Bishop Baraga's Death

The Age of Romanticism produced among the Slovenians two outstanding religious personalities both of them representatives of serene and joyful Christianity of the Romantic era: Frederick Baraga and Anton Martin Slomšek.

Frederick Baraga was born in 1797 at Mala Vas in Slovenia into a family belonging to the landed gentry. Two years later his father sold the castle, Mala Vas, and purchased another one at Trebnje where Frederick Baraga spent his youth. He lost his mother when he was only eleven years old. His father died in 1812. He began his studies in Ljubljana where he had Valentin Vodnik among his professors. Baraga was an accomplished linguist. Next to Slovenian, German, and the classical languages he studied French, English, Italian, and Spanish. He was also interested in painting. In 1816 he entered the University of Vienna to study law. He was graduated from the same university in 1820. While a student in Vienna, Frederick Baraga belonged to the circle of Clemens Hofbauer, a representative of the serene and joyful Christianity of the Age of Romanticism. In the same circle, too, was the future cardinal of Vienna, Joseph Rauscher. Baraga, however, was never to practice law. After having finished his legal studies, he began to study theology in the seminary of Ljubljana and was ordained a priest on September 21, 1822. As a representative of the serene and cheerful Christianity, Baraga provoked the resistance of the Jansenist clergy especially strong in the diocese of Ljubljana. In spite of his love for the Slovenian people, Baraga finally decided to leave his native land in order to do missionary work among the American Indians.

JOBS AND HOUSING. — On two issues of great importance and priority, Jobs and Housing for those in urban low-income areas, Republican Members of Congress have offered legislation suggestions that would go far in helping to solve these problems. The Human Investment Act (my bill is H.R. 4583) would encourage private business both large and small to invest in upgrading job skills by providing a tax credit to an employer for employees training expenses. It would link private enterprise efforts with those being made by Federal and State governments in this important area. Its major premise is that private business over the years has learned how to obtain the most results per training dollar and should be encouraged to expand its training programs to meet the national need.

The National Home Ownership Foundation Act (my bill is H.R. 8827), designed to offer lower income citizens an opportunity to own a home, was introduced last year by more than 140 Republican Members of the House and Senate. This would create a Board, composed of top figures from all fields of American life, to raise mortgage money thru the sale of Federal bonds at competitive private capital market rates. This money would be made available, through non-profit neighborhood corporations, to lower income citizens unable to afford conventional mortgage financing.

The major provisions of this Act have been incorporated in an Omnibus Housing Act by the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, and it is hoped that favorable action will be taken in this session.

THE PRESIDENT'S REQUEST FOR MORE F.B.I. AGENTS. President Johnson's State of the Union request for 100 additional F.B.I. special agents actually represents a regression in the "war against crime". 100 new agents would be a 1.4% increase compared to a 1967 new special agents were added; in 1966, 100; and in 1967, 106. Isn't it ironic that the President chose to highlight what is normally a routine request in the State of the Union message?

He arrived in the United States on December 31, 1830. A few weeks later he reported to Bishop Fenwick in Cincinnati. In the spring of the same year he began his work among the American Indians, among whom he was to spend the remainder of his life, altogether thirty-seven years. Frederick Baraga devoted his life and energies to two Indian tribes, the Ottawas and the Chippewas. During this time, Baraga visited Europe and Slovenia twice. He returned to Europe for the first time in 1836 to implore help and support for his missions. One of the sermons delivered on this occasion by Baraga inspired a young student, Ignatius Knoblehar, who later became second pro-vicear for Central Africa. This is the Knoblehar whom Jules Verne listed among famous explorers in one of his novels. November 1, 1853, Baraga was consecrated bishop and appointed vicar apostolic of Upper Michigan. At the same time he also administered those territories of the neighboring dioceses, both American and Canadian, which were still inhabited by the Indians. This included practically all the shores of Lake Superior, at that time still largely inhabited by the Indians. After his consecration he returned to Europe and to his native Slovenia for the second and last time in his life. The purpose of his visit was to win new missionaries to work in Upper Michigan. He was successful. A number of priests both from his native land as well as from elsewhere followed him to the shores of Lake Superior. In Vienna he was present at the wedding of the young emperor, Francis Joseph, and Elizabeth of Bavaria, performed by Cardinal Rauscher, who once belonged to the circle of Clemens Hofbauer. He returned to his Indians in 1854 and died fourteen years later on January 19, 1863 at Marquette, in America.

Though primarily religiously motivated, Baraga was, nevertheless, a child of the Age of Romanticism. He began to write while still in his native land. His literary activities, however, were mostly limited to religious literature. In America, among the Indians, his interests were broadened so as to include the Indians, their life, customs, and especially the Indian languages. During the winter of 1835-36, which was long and severe, he prepared six books for publication: three in Indian languages, one in Slovenian, and another in German which he also translated into French. Though no one can deny his religious motivation, Baraga was a true child of the Romantic era in his love of nature, his interest in the life and customs of the American Indians, and particularly in his desire to learn and to preserve their languages.

Baraga's literary activity was considerable. He wrote in Slovenian, German, French, and two Indian languages — the Ottawa and the Ojibwe-Chippewa. He began to write in Slovenian and continued to write in the same language even while working among the American Indians. In Slovenian he published several prayer books and meditations. He published in German, Slovenian, and French, a history and description of the character, custom, and the life of the American Indians: Abrege de l'Histoire des Indiens de l'Amerique Septentrionale. Most remarkable, however, are his works written in Ottawa and Ojibwe Indian. He published a prayer book in Ottawa, Ottawa Anamie Masinaigan. He published the same work in 1837 in Paris in the language of the Ojibwe Indian, Ojibwe Anamie Masinaigan. This was the first work written in Ojibwe Indian. In both Ottawa and Ojibwe he published a life of Christ, Jesus Obimadisinvin Oma Aking. Both of these works were published in Paris. In 1843 he published two works in Ojibwe, a book of Sunday Gospels and Epistles: Gete Dibadimowim, and a book of sermons, Katolik Gakikve-Masinaigan. Both of these works were published in Ljubljana, Slovenia.

He crowned his life work with the publication in 1853 of a grammar and a dictionary of the Ojibwe language. Baraga worked on the dictionary for twenty years. It was finished January 4, 1853 and contained thirty thousand Indian words. It consists of two parts: Ojibwe-English, and English-Ojibwe. It was printed in Cincinnati the same year, 1853: A Dictionary of the Ojibwe Language Explained in English.

Ojibwe Indian will soon be a dead language. The memory of this Indian nation, however, will go on living in the works composed in their language by Frederick Baraga. The memory of his beloved Indians will go on living in his prayer books, hymnals, gospels, and sermons, and particularly in his grammar and dictionary of the Ojibwe language. They were composed on long wintry nights and in the heat of the summer days with loving care for his forgotten Indians by a Slovenian missionary, Frederick Baraga.

Soccer News

The Cleveland Stokers soccer club completed negotiations with the Philadelphia Spartans for 11 players including Argentine National star, Ruben Navarro, who was chosen Most Valuable Player in the National Professional Soccer League last summer.

General Manager Marsh Samuel revealed that discussions had been going on with Philadelphia president John Rooney since the Spartans surrendered their franchise two weeks ago.

"This transfer will guarantee the Stokers a strong entry in the new, combined North American Soccer League," said Samuel. "After all, the Spartans won or drew 10 of their last 12 games last summer and would have won the eastern division championship under conventional soccer scoring rules."

"In Navarro we're getting the finest soccer player in North America and, in the others, we're getting a solid nucleus around which to build."

"Philadelphia owner John Rooney wanted to keep his players intact if possible, and we wanted to take advantage of their experience as a team so it was just a matter of working out details."

Navarro who came to Cleveland for the announcement was an overwhelming choice for Most Valuable in the NPSL last summer. One source indicated unofficially that he was named on 48 of the first 50 ballots opened in the poll conducted among league players.

Playing at center-halfback, Navarro's aggressive moves anchored the Philadelphia defense which was considered one of the strongest in the league. He quickly became a favorite of fans in Philadelphia as well as in other league cities because of his exciting style.

Navarro played 13 years for the major league Independiente team of Argentina and earned the nickname "Hacha" (hatchet man) for his consistent ability to break up offensive bursts by opponents.

After Coach John Szep resigned from the Spartans' leadership, Navarro took over coaching duties while continuing to play on the field. Under his direction, the Spartans won or drew 8 of its last 10 games.

Also joining the Stokers from Philadelphia are:

Jose Kuzman, 29, a Hungarian who will fill an inside or outside forward spot. He has been a professional 13 years, playing for Besiktas of Turkey before coming to the Spartans. He has also played for Real Betis of Spain and Vienna Sports Club in Austria. (5-10, 190).

Tibor Szalay, 29, a Hungarian forward who has played soccer professionally for 10 years. Last season he scored 8 goals and had six assists for Philadelphia. He was with Besiktas of Turkey for one year; six years in Spain with Seville and Barcelona; and two years with Football Club Austria. (5-7, 160).

Dietrich Albrecht, 27, is German-born. He came to this country when seven years old. He was the speediest man on the Spartans at his outside-right position. He has also played with Blauweissgottsche and the New York Hungarians. (6-3, 165).

John Borodjak, 28, was named to the second team NPSL All-Stars at fullback. He formerly played with Newark Sitch, Philadelphia Ukrainian Nationals, San Lorenzo and River Plate of Argentina. (5-8, 155).

John Best, a 27-year-old fullback or halfback who played four years with his hometown Liverpool team in the English first division; also played for Tranmere Rovers and Stockport County teams in England. (5-11, 175).

Orlando Garro, 29, played forward and finished high among NPSL scorers last season with 12 goals.

He has played five years with Platense and two years with Independiente in his native Argentina. He was chosen in 1963 as a member of the National B team against Uruguay. (5-9, 165).

Peter Short, a 23-year-old forward from Liverpool. He has played two years with the Wolverhampton Wanderers, two years with Bangor City in Wales and a year with the Toronto Falcons. (6-1, 175).

Hector Zerillo, 26, is an eight-year pro who last played with Independiente of Argentina. He was born in Argentina and plays halfback or fullback. (6-1, 180).

Philip Tinney, a 23-year-old Scot, who played outside left for Philadelphia. He has played for Liverpool, Dundee in Scotland, and the Dutch team Heracles. He captained the Scottish youth eleven in 1960. (5-9, 165).

Roy Turner, 23, an English fullback who joined the Spartans in the last six weeks of last season after starting with Toronto. He has also played with Newark Sitch. (5-10, 170).

Ohio Presidential Primaries

There is a great deal of interest in presidential primaries. This may be a good time, therefore, to compare the Ohio system with the presidential primaries of other states.

First, briefly to review the Ohio method, you will remember that the Ohio Constitution provides that candidates for delegates and alternates to the national conventions of the parties shall be elected directly by the people at the party primaries in May. Each candidate for delegate or alternate must state his first and second choice for President, with the written consent of those choices; and the names of the people he designates as choices are printed on the ballot with his name. Thus, the people vote for candidates for delegate and alternate, knowing the presidential candidates those candidates for delegate and alternate favor. In some years there have been hard-fought contests between slates of delegates, but in 1964 both parties put on the ballot only candidates who specified favorite sons as their choices. When the delegates arrive at the conventions, they are under a moral obligation to support the people they specified as choices.

In a few states there is a more direct presidential primary. In New Hampshire, for example, the people could vote directly for the candidate for President that they preferred. They had also to vote for delegates; but they did give a direct, preferential vote for candidates for President. The vote only indicates a preference, of course; and the real election is of the delegates. The elected delegates are again only under a moral obligation to, at the convention, vote for the candidate who won the preference vote.

Wisconsin has an open primary. That is, the voter receives the ballots of both the Republican and Democratic parties; and he can vote in either party's primary. This results in much cross-voting, which confuses the issues voted on in the primary. Often, for example, a voter will vote in the primary of the party opposite to his own and vote for the weakest candidate, hoping to see a weak candidate nominated to oppose his own party. A few other states, including California, once used this open primary system; but all except Wisconsin became dissatisfied with it and dropped it in favor of the Ohio type of primary.

In some states the people do not vote in any presidential primary at all. Delegates there are selected by party conventions or caucuses. This system was once used in Ohio, but in 1912 the Constitution of Ohio was amended to establish our present system.

"Were you born in a log cabin?" the candidate was asked.
"No," he replied, "but my family moved into one as soon as they could afford it."

Goodwill Announces 1967 Service Figures

Goodwill Industries of Cleveland provided training and paid employment to 552 physically handicapped, mentally retarded, emotionally disturbed clients and older persons in 1967, it was revealed by Rudolph Stefanko, Executive Director of the agency.

"Sixty-nine of our handicapped clients were prepared for and eventually secured employment in competitive industry after completing formal evaluation and training provided by our Goodwill case-management team," he said.

The team, comprised of professional staff members, includes the services of a rehabilitation director, social worker, vocational counselor, and evaluation-training specialist.

Opportunity wages earned by the vocational rehabilitation agency's clients totaled $498,421. Clients trained in such areas as upholstery, furniture repair, radio/television repair, textiles and shoe repair.

Goodwill, a non-profit organization, is sustained through the agency's solicitation of usable discarded items which are restored to new status by the handicapped. Funds received through the resale of these items are returned to the clients in the form of paychecks.

"Residents of this area have been especially generous in 1967 with donations of vitally needed furniture and clothing to keep our clients busy," said Mr. Stefanko. "Our clients depend upon the generosity of the community in providing the raw materials necessary for their training and employment."

Counseling interviews, one of the principal tools of the rehabilitation process, were at an all-time high for the agency. They numbered 2,948.

Goodwill celebrates its 50th Anniversary year in 1968, and the agency will begin construction of an entirely new facility in late autumn. This new facility will enable Goodwill to serve more than 500 handicapped clients daily, double its present capacity.

The proposed building, to be erected on the grounds of the old Majestic Hotel 2291 East 55th St., will be the result of a fund-raising campaign. The amount necessary for both new equipment and the building itself: $1,175,000.
