LETO LI.—VOL. LI.

VESTI IZ SLOVENIJE

SREDNJA VAS V BOHINJU
JE, kakor smo že poročali popolnoma pogorela. Kako je nastal požar, niso ugotovili. Veter je hitro raznesel plamene, tako, da niti živine niso mogli kmetje rešiti.

UMRLI SO: Ana Drobnič v Metliki, Ivan Zvab v Ljubljani, Franciska Skrabec, roj. Zadnikar v Črni vasi pri Ljubljani, Franc Jelovek na Vrhniki, Franciska Šircelj, roj. Dovgan, Ljubljana, Alojzij Kladnik v Stranjah pri Kamniku, Miha Zalokar v Mengšu, Fran Govekar v Ljubljani, Helena Rodič roj. Perne v Ljubljani, France Hudovernik v Mengšu, Tone Velkavrh na Vrhniki, Franc Prosenik v Trebnjem, Milan Stare v Koprivnici, Jaka Gornjanc v Ljubljani, Peter Satler v Ljubljani, Francka Burger v Dolu pri Ljubljani, Angela Milčinski v Ljubljani, Evgenij Ravnihar v Ljubljani, Jakob Petrovič odvetnik v Ljubljani, Franciška Rožič, rojena Milharčič v Ljubljani, Franc Toros v Ljubljani, Nežka Omahna v Domžalah, Kristina Geržina v Mariboru, Franc Prosenik v Trebnjem, Alojz Višnar v Celju, Janez Mivšek v Logatcu.

ARETACIJE. — "Pred kratkim so bile izvršene v Ljubljani ponovne aretacije predvsem pa na univerzi ter je bil aretiran tudi profesor Skrlah, ki je učil na tehnični fakulteti. Dalje je bil aretiran študent ekonomske fakultete Sinkovec, in študent Kranjec, ter še več "tovarišev". Aretirana sta bila na tehnični fakulteti, dva brata Zalarja, na medicinski Hojce, na slavistični Lapajne, na strojnem oddelku tehnične fakultete pa Muršec.

TITOVCI zahtevajo na Primorskem od družin, ki imajo 5 ha zemlje, da morajo oddati enega prašča. Ne vprašajo, ali ga imajo ali ne: oddati ga morajo!

VIPAJSKA, znana po svoji dobri kapljici, je danes brez vina. Pred tedni so ga ob pogrebu v Ajdovščini morali iti iskati eno uro daleč v stransko vas. Dobili so ga samo 1 liter.

PRIMORSKO so titovci v pomankanju že izenačili z ostalo Slovenijo. Ljudje nimajo čevljev in nosijo na vsaki nogi drugačen čevljev.

V TITOVINI dobijo ljudje na nakaznice: najprej blago za obleke, zatem, podlogo in nazadnje šele sukanec. Med nakupom teh vrst pa seveda preteče več mesecev.

Tri na dan

Pravijo, da se Tito močno jezi, ker boljševiki v Moskvi ne bodo poslali domov jugoslovanskih otrok, 63 po številu, ki pohajajo v boljševiške vojaške šole.

Kar bi mi radi vedeli je to, če so ruski boljševiki tistih 63 jugoslovanskih otrok skrivaj ugrabili, pa da jih zdaj nočejo vrniti, ali jih je Tito sam poslal k boljševikom v Moskvo, da se nauče vojskovanja.

Prav lahko je mogoče, da so tisti jugoslovanski "otroci" že toliko pri pameti, da se nočejo več vrniti v Titovino, ker vedo, kakšna muzika bo še tam.

DELAVCEM na Primorskem v zadnjem času titovci niso izplačali celih plač. Dobili so samo nekaj "na račun."

NA PRIMORSKEM smeje duhovniki poučevati verouk samo 45 minut tedensko za nižje razrede in prav toliko minut za tri višje razrede. Kateheta puštalno nadzoruje učiteljica-komunistka.

Vlada Kitajske gre v Chungking

Canton, Kitajska. — Narodna vlada Kitajske se seli v nekdanjo vojno prestolico Chungking. Tam je bila narodna vlada, ko so Japonci podjarmili severno in srednjo Kitajsko. Sedaj mora narodna vlada bežati pred navalom komunističnih čet. Konzulati zapadnih sil nameravajo v vsakem slučaju ostati v Cantonu.

Poročilo iz Jugoslavije

Ta narod je bil ogoljufan za svojo svobodo, pravi švicarski list

Švicarski listi objavljajo tole iz Jugoslavije. V tej deželi za železnim zastorom, kjer vlada prežlezna titovska disciplina, živi še vedno nad 15.000 nemških vojni ujetnikov. Prisilno so tam. Kljub vsem mednarodnim dogovorom in običajem jih jugoslovanska vada ne pusti domov.

Peštro je življenje vojnega ujetnika v tej balkanski deželi. Tisti, ki so prišli v Jugoslavijo v kazenskih bataljonih, so sedaj v protifašističnih odborih, nemški zdravniki morejo izvrševati prakso pod nadzorstvom, nemški časnikarji sede v uredništvih tistovskih časopisov, mnogi so celo res pristovoljno podpisali pogodbe da delajo kot maslinisti, monterji in industrijski strokovnjaki. Pogodbe jih vežejo za več let. Da celo v nekem ministrstvu je toliko nemških uslužbencev, da je postala nemščina drugi uradni jezik. V oddelku za električno energijo je toliko nemških uslužbencev, da tam dobiš in vojne ujetnike, in strokovnjake iz sovjetske cone Nemčije in iz Berlina. Tem je dobro. So pa tudi cele kolone prisilnih delavcev, bivših vojni ujetnikov iz nekdanjih taborišč: Belgrad, Bor, Zenica, Zrenjanin in Vrač v rudnikih in cestnih delih. Veliko, veliko jih je umrlo, preostali pa živijo v strašnih razmerah, v katerih morajo delati in živeti.

V zadnjem času vidimo v Jugoslaviji še novo vrsto "vojnih ujetnikov." To so taki bivši vojni ujetniki, ki so se na kak način zamerili OZNI in so obsojeni na kak desetino let prisilnega dela. Taki se zadnje čase morejo osvoboditi, če se zavežejo, da bodo v svobodi delali za OZNO. Če to store, jih celo domov puste v katerikoli del Nemčije. Specijalisti v raznih strokah lahko olajšajo svoje življenje v Jugoslaviji s tem da vstopijo v vojsko ali aviacijo. V ta namen ni treba drugega kot pokazati, da imo mož dobro voljo, da bo zvesto služil titovskemu režimu. Mora prestat skušnjo v šest tedenskem tečaju, kjer ga uče komunizma, Marksizma, Ljeningizma ter zgodovino jugoslovanskega osvobodilnega gibanja.

Kdorkoli danes pride iz Jugoslavije, ne zna pripovedovati samo o prelepi njenem sinjem nebu na Adriji, o njenih cipresnih gajih, o njenih dobrih ljudeh, ampak tudi o strašnem trpljenju, ki tam vlada za vse ljudi, posebno pa za nesrečne vojnne ujetnike. V Jugoslaviji ljudje dajejo nacistične metode vuhunjenja drug proti drugem, gestapovski metode mučeniškega zasliševanja in po izvedenja, ki sodi na podlagi tajnih ovadb in kliskarskih interesov, tam nikjer in nikoli nisi varen. Za nemške vojne in druge ujetnike so posebne špijanske službe, posebna OZNA, posebna sodišča in če je mogoče še hujše metode kot za druge ljudi. To je strašna dežela, ki jo je Bog blagoslovil z vsem dobrim, pa hudič sebi podjarmil, vse dobro zatri in zlo razkošatil. Ljudje so dobri. To so tisti ljudje, ki so se uprli nacističnemu navalu, se borili proti okupaciji, pa jim je usoda da iz tiranske sedanje gospodarje. Ti ljudje se še naprej bore za svoje osvobodjenje kolikor se morejo.

rejo. Ti ljudje so danes gostoljubni tudi napram vojnim ujetnikom, ki jih smatrajo za svoje sotrpine. Ta narod je bil ogoljufan v svoji borbi za svobodo. Zato se dobro razumejo preprosti ljudje v Jugoslaviji z vojnimi ujetniki. Oboji si žele svobode, oboji po njej hrepenijo in oboji nimajo nikake možnosti, da bi si jo osvojili, si k svobodi pomagali.

Nedeljsko pismo

Dragi prijatelj!

V zadnjih nedeljah sva politizirala, to se pravi, skušala sva dognati kakšna so pota in cilji naše katoliške politike, istočasno pa sva tudi ugotovila, da ima vsak katoličan, po naravnem pravu pravico in dolžnost politizirati. Pa dobro vem, da me boš vprašal: zakaj pa vendar ni na svetu tako, kot si zapisal? Veš zakaj? Zato ker se v svetu vedno ponavlja tista zgodba, ki jo bomo v nedeljo brali v evangeliju, zgodba o farizeju in cestinarju.

Saj slišimo leto za letom to zgodbo, pa menda vselej bolj v prazno izzveni, najbrž zato, ker ti beseda farizej in cestinar malo, ali pa nič ne pomeni. Ti bom skušal razložiti ti dve besedi, pa boš videl, kako aktualni sta za današnji dan, kakor tudi za leta nazaj.

Farizeji so bili politična stranka, ki je imela ob Jezusovem času precejšno moč. Dežela je bila okupirana od Rimljanov in to pa Palestincem usiljevali svoje nazore, kulturo, vzgojo, politično prepričanje itd. Narod je bil sila nezadovoljen. Farizeji kot dobri politiki, so hitro porabili to nezadovoljstvo ljudstva in se oklicali za varuhe nacionalnih pravic tega ljudstva, klicali boj proti okupatorju, zloabljali ljudska čustva in oznanjali Mesija — ki seveda nikakor ni bil po njihovem Kristus, ampak svetni vladar — ki bo strl rimsko oblast in ustanovil raj na zemlji. To je bil njihov politični program in na te limanice so ljudstvo lovili. V svojem privatnem življenju pa so bili farizeji največje ljudske propalice, brez vsakega značaja in morale, do dna pokvarjena judovska inteligenca, ki se je na zunaj zavzemala za največje verske, socialne in politične ideale, njihove duše pa so bile polne hinavščine, gnusobe, laži, zahrbtnosti, zlobe. Kristus jih najlepše označi: na zunaj pobeljeni grobovi, znotraj pa polni smradu in gnolobe. Vedno so hodili v tempelj molit, da bi jih videli ljudje, vso postavo so izvrševali, da ne bi morda kdo dvomil v njihovo pravovernost, toda le zato, da bi varali ljudi. (Misel mi uhaja na hinavsko igro naših komunistov Mikuža, Koebeke, Fajfarja, Bričleja itd.) Na drugi strani pa so do kosti odirali revne, vdove in sirote, pobirali denar v dobre namene, pa ga spravljali v svoj žep, pozivali ljudi k nacionalni in verski zavesti, sami pa vse to tepali. In na tako njihovo delovanje jim da Kristus spričevalo: "Gorje vam farizeji in pismouki, vi norci in slepci, gorje vam gadjja zalega, pobeljeni grobovi, vi precejate komarje pa požirate kamele." Kristus, vsevedni, ki je pretehtal zadnji kotic farizejskega srca, ni našel tam niti trohice pravičnosti.

Drugi pa so bili cestinarji, ki so pobirali davke za Rimljane. Domačini torej, ki so šli v službo k okupatorju. Ker pa jih za to delo ni nič plačal, zato so sami izterjevali toliko več davka na dovoljene in nedovoljene načine in tako bogato zaslužili. Jasn je, da niso bili pri ljudstvu priljubljeni.

Silno je zanimivo, da Kristus najde več pravičnosti pri cestinarju, ki se zaveda svoje krivde, kot pa pri ošabnem hinavskemu farizeju. "Oni je šel opravičen na svoj dom, ta pa ne."

Strahna je Kristusova obsodba nad farizeji in če bi Kristus šel danes spet čez svet, o ne samo enkrat, stokrat, tisočkrat bi moral zaklicati v svet: "Gorje!" Res, gorje hinavci, zapeljivci, ljudski zvodniki, lažniki, obrekovalci; gorje vam, ki ste s svojimi lažmi zapeljali na stotine milijonov ljudi; gorje, ki ste jih ogoljufali s svojo lažjo za vse človeške pravice, jim vzeli svobodo, čast, dostojanstvo, pravico do življenja; gorje vam, ki ste 300 milijonov človeštva zaprli v ječe smrti, bede, lakote, nagote in prisilnega dela; gorje vam, ki lažete vsemu svetu o svobodi, enakosti in pravici, pa poznate samo zakon sile, nož, pest in umor; gorje, ki se proglasate za zaščitnike vere, pa jo tepate kot gada; gorje vam, ki se proglasate pred svetom za zaščitnike ljudstva, pa ga pribijate na križ; gorje vam, ki valite krivdo umiranja človeštva na druge, sami pa farizejsko stojite sredi sveta in govorite: "Zahvalim te Gospod, da nismo taki kot drugi: tatovi, razbojniki, morilci, požigalci, zvodniki ljudstva, lažnjivci itd." Kristus jih je obsodil že pred tisočdevetsto leti: "Gorje vam, gadjja zalega!"

Drugi greh pa, ki ga Kristus tako strahovito prekolne na farizejih, je njihov napuh. In ta Kristusova kletev se uresničuje v vsej človeški zgodovini. Vedno velja pregovor starih: napuh hodi pred padcem. Pa je vseeno ali so to angeli v nebesih, ali Adam in Eva, ali Sodomljani, ali rimski cesarji, ali brezverci vseh vekov, ali politiki v sedanji ali polpretekli dobi. Kadarkoli je ustvarjeno bitje reklo: "Ne bom ti služil o Bog, jaz sam sebi zadostujem, jaz znam živeti in vladati brez Tebe, jaz znam svet urediti brez božjih postav!" vselej je ta beseda že pomenila konec in propad. In tako tudi danes govori človek, ki je komaj drobce božjega stvarstva, tako govori farizej današnjih dni.

Ali vidiš sedaj, prijatelj, kje so vzroki, da ni v svetu krščanske politike? Laž, hinavščina, prevara, zahrbtnost, škodoželjnost, neskončni človeški napuh in ošabnost, stremenje po posesti in oblasti, to so besede, s katerimi bi človek pisal zgodovino politike današnjih dni. Res, farizeji današnjih dni tirajo človeštvo v pogin. Vemo, da visi tudi nad njimi kletev Gospodova, vendar, kako dolgo še, vzdihujeva ti in jaz.

Moliva, da bi bili ti dnevi okrajšani.
Prisrčno Te pozdravlja
tvoj prijatelj.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

Na delo za Mohorjevo Družbo!

Naša stara znana Mohorjeva Družba v Celovcu nas kliče na pomoč! Gre se za njen obstanek. Peščica koroških Slovencev je ne more obdržati. Na Gorškem imajo svojo družbo. V Jugoslavijo ne more. Tam je samo še potrdila Mohorjeve družbe, ki dela ravno v nasprotno smer, kakor je delala prava Mohorjeva družba skozi desetletja.

Zato se celovška Mohorjeva Družba obrača na nas, ameriške Slovence, da jo podpremo. S tem, da postanemo njene udje, kakor so že mnogi bili ne še dolgo nazaj. Saj jej ne bomo zastopali pomagali: dobili bomo za en dolar dve lepi knjigi, znani Mohorjev koledar in Večernice. Kdor količjak čuti katoliško, in slovensko, naroči se na Mohorjevo Družbo.

V obeh ožirih je Mohorjeva Družba storila silno veliko dobrega med Slovenci, v katoliškem in slovenskem oziru. Na milijone dobrih knjig je šlo po Mohorjevi Družbi med slovenski narod in ga izobraževalo, versko, narodno, gospodarsko. In še ima Mohorjeva Družba velike naloge pred seboj. Ali naj jo pustimo, da propade? Menda ja ne. Naša krivda bi bila velika. Naročimo se na Mohorjevo Družbo!

Gotovo bo v vsaki večji slovenski naselbini kdo, ki bo pobiral naročnino. Če drugi ne, vaš župnik bo gotovo rad posredoval. Glavni zastopnik Mohorjeve Družbe v Ameriki pa je pater Odilo, znani misionar, kdo ga ne pozna? Če drugam ne morete, nanj pošljite naročnino, naslov je: Rev. Odilo Hajnshek, OFM., Holy Family Church, Willard, Wis.

Omenjam še to. Barbertaini župnik sem. Zato moram javno zavzeti stališče. Iz Barbertaina prihajajo nove knjizice. Odločilo sem proti temu. Njihova vsebina, ako primerana in še ne priobčena, bi bila prav lahko priobčena v kakem našem že obstoječem slovenskem katoliškem časopisu, v Ameriški Domovini, ali v Amerikanskem Slovincu, Glasilu velike katoliške Jednote, ali v Ave Mariji ali njenem koledarju. Katoliško časopisje v Ameriki je že dosti pisalo o slovenskih problemih, nevarnosti in pogubnosti komunizma, o razmerah v stari domovini, še predno so naši begunci prišli semkaj. In še vedno priobčena tozadevne članke. In bodo uredniki radi priobčili vsako novo, originalno misel. Tudi bi vsebino teh knjizic mnogo več ljudi bralo, ako bi bila priobčena v kakem že obstoječem časopisu, kakor pa v posebni brošuri.

Z izdajanjem novih knjizic in pošiljanjem med narod se pa dela samo nepotrebno konkurenco našim starim, že dolgo leta obstoječim katoliškim publikacijam. Naši ljudje ne bodo toliko, kakor so brali ljudje v starem kraju, poleg slovenskega čtiva boro tudi angleško. In če izdajo denar za eno, bodo odrekli podporo drugemu, ki je pa morda bolj potreben podpore.

Naši Slovenci - pionirji odmiramo, vsako leto nas je manj, torej tudi vsako leto manj naročnikov slovenskim časopisom. Nekaj si bodo opomogli sedaj z novodošliimi Slovenci, samo nekaj. Argentinski Slovenci hočejo imeti svoje časopise, in prav je tako in čas je, da tudi njim pomagamo. In Mohorjevi Družbi moramo pomagati, tej naši stari toliko zaslužni organizaciji. Z izdajanjem novih knjizic se pa samo slabi naše dosedanje katoliške publikacije, za katere je bilo dosti truda in znoja, da se jih je utrilo. In sedaj naj jih slabimo? — Zato sem odločno proti tem knjizicam, ki izhajajo in se jih še več obljublja iz Barbertaina.

Rev. Matt. A. Jager.

Pozdravljeni, dobrodošli, delegati in delegatnje Zap. Slov. Zveze!

Cleveland, O. — V ponedeljek 29. avgusta se prične v Slovenskem narodnem domu, 6417 St. Clair Ave., 13. redna konvencija Zaprane Slovanke Zveze, ki ima svoj sedež v Denverju, Colorado. To je prva konvencija te Zveze, ki jo odpravlja v Clevelandu, oziroma vzhodno od Chicago. Na konvencijo pridejo delegati, delegatnje in častni gostje iz raznih zapadnih držav Amerike, koder je največ društev SZS.

Ob tej priliki želim podati javnosti nekaj malega podatkov o tej dični bratski podporni organizaciji, o kateri se na vzhodu bolj malo sliši. Zaprana slovanška zveza je bila ustanovljena 5. julija 1908, leta v Denverju, Colorado, torej pred 41 leti in je najvišje solventna bratska podporna organizacija med vsemi slovenskimi sličnimi v Ameriki ter plačuje letno svojim članom dividende iz odvišnega smrtninskega sklada. Tekom svojega obstanka je imela organizacija za svoja glasila razne slovenske liste. Ko pa je prenehal leta 1946 izhajati v Chicago, Ill., Amerikanski Slovinc, ki je bil zadnje glasilo SZS, je organizacija pričela izdajati svoje lastno glasilo, mesečnik, Fraternal Voice, ki se tiska v Denverju, Colo., katerega urejujejo George J. Miroslavich, Anthony Jeršin in Joseph A. Tezak. V Clevelandu imamo sedaj dve društvu SZS in sicer dr. sv. Katarine šte. 29, ki zboruje v S. N. Domu na St. Clair Ave. in dr. Washington šte. 32, ki zboruje v SDD na Waterloo Rd.

Dvanajsta redna konvencija SZS se je vršila v prijazni zapadni slovenski naselbini, v Pueblo, Colorado, leta 1945, katere sem se tudi podpisani udeležil. Že zadnja konvencija bi se bila imela vršiti v Clevelandu, toda radi vojnih razmer tedaj ni bilo mogoče, ker so bile v veljavi omejitve potovanja in go bile železnice zaposlene z drugimi zadevami. Tedaj je delegacija odglasovala, da se vrši 13. redna konvencija v Clevelandu, Ohio.

Ne vem primernih besedi, s katerimi bi mogel pravilno in toplo pozdraviti in počastiti drage nam goste, brate in sestre, delegate in delegatnje 13. redne konvencije Zaprane slovanške zveze, ki se snidevate v nekaj dneh tukaj v največji ameriški slovenski metropoli, v slovenskem Clevelandu. Bodite nam iskreno pozdravljeni in klinam vam vsem: Dobrodošli! Želim in upam, da se boste med nami počutili kot doma ali še bolje in da boste odnesli s seboj prijetne spomine na slovenski Cleveland. Mogoče pričakujete kaj lepšega in boljšega, kot boste skušali in videli pri nas. Mi se bomo sicer vsi potrudili, da vam postrežemo kar je najbolje mogoče in vem da je naša velika slovenska naselbina tudi tega sposobna.

V Clevelandu in okolici imamo devet Narodnih domov, slovenske cerkve, slovenske banke, stotine raznih društev, in na stotine raznih slovenskih trgovin in gostiln. Izmed narodnih domov je največji Slovenski narodni dom, 6417 St. Clair Ave., kjer se bo naša konvencija vršila. Ta dom je last slovenskih društev in posameznih Slovincov. Kot sem že omenil, imamo tukaj mnogo slovenskih trgovin, kot tudi slovenske zdravniške in vsakovrstne druge profesionalce. Če boste nakupovali kakšno blago tukaj, pripravljamo, da greste v slovenske trgovine, ker slovenski trgovci tudi nam pomagajo na razne načine pri naših družtvih, z oglasi in drugače in tudi vem da boste povsod pošteno postreženi.

Več delegatov in gostov iz zapadnih držav še nikdar prej ni bilo v Clevelandu, bo to zanje prvi obisk Clevelanda. Vsem tem želim da bi odnesli prijetne spomine na našo metropolo ameriških Slovincov. Tukaj boste stanovali večinoma pri slovenskih družinah v okolici S. N. Doma, kjer se konvencija vrši, da ne bo treba daleč hoditi. Nekateri boste stanovali pri svojih sorodnikih ali ožjih prijateljih in boste povsod lepo in prijazno sprejeti. Saj smo Slovenci tudi povsod drugo lepo sprejeti pri svojih domačih, tako boste tudi vi tukaj. Sedaj še iščemo sobe za delegate in goste, jih še nimamo dovolj, vendar upamo, da jih bo dovolj do časa konvencije, ker dobri Slovenci nam vsepovsod gredo prijazno na roko in nam pomagajo in prijavljajo sobe za delegacijo SZS. Zato sem gotov da boste vsi zadovoljni, ko pridete v Cleveland. Zato vam kličem še enkrat: Dobrodošli delegati, delegatnje in častni gostje, prijatelji SZS! Na svidenje!

Klub "Ljubljana" vabi

Euclid, O. — Sezona piknikov v prosti naravi se že bliža koncu. Zato se je pa naš klub "Ljubljana" odločil, da priredi še en zlet v tej sezoni in sicer v nedeljo 14. avgusta. Člani in članice kluba prav prijazno va-

ČE VERJAMETE AL PA NE

Vsi so prihajali, njega ni bilo ... tako bi bil lahko pel na vso moč tam pred mestnim ali občinskim javnim hlevom v Regini, kanadska provinca Saskatchewan, kamor sem nesel svoj kovčeg popolnoma brez vsakega vzroka in potrebe. Gor na mehki slamici ... sem se bil preoblekel in spravil za spomin mojega visokega obiska v senu vso spodnjo uniformo z vso živino, kar jo je bilo po šivih in kjer koli. Muzal sem se, kadar sem se spomnil, kaj sem spravljal tam v senu, in premišljal, da če sina ne hčere po meni ne bo v Kanadi, bo pa vsaj en pagat ostalo za spomin na slavnostni Menišiji. Rad bi bil zraven, ko bodo tisti "šac" tam gori v senu odkopali in ugrabili, kdo se je prišel sem gori prelevit.

Bil sem pripravljen za pogajanja, ako me bo kdo najel na žernado. Naj kar sami ponudijo, koliko plačajo, ki ne vem navade za take stvari v Kanadi. Na Menišiji bi si izgovoril najmanj dva para tmeplavcev, en firtih, en par cajhastih hlač, eno šestico od vsake prodane živine in ob koncu leta morda kakšno kronco. Tukaj pa še nisem vedel po čem jih najemajo. Zdelo se mi pa je, da bo nekaj ceneje, ker se skoro ponujam za delo. Če bi me prosili, bi lahko ceno navijal.

Mimo mene so hodili kanadski farmarji, glasno govorili in se prav toliko zmenili zame kot za zemljiške davke, za katere je treba človeka opomniti, da se jih spomni. Kaj vem, kaj so govorili med seboj. Precej podobni glasovi so bili pri Fricu v Cerknici na semanji dan. Računal sem, da so farmarji dobro opravili v mestu, ker so bili zadovoljni obratov in glasnih besede. Morda se nisem motil, če sem jih sam pri sebi obdolžil, da so jih en par stisnili v kakšnem kotu. Pozneje sem zvedel, da so prav tiste dni začeli voziti pšenico na kolodvor.

bijo svoje prijatelje in prijateljice, da pridete na ta piknik, ki se bo vršil na prijazni Zgoncevi farmi na Eddy Rd. v Wickliffe, O., da pridete vsi in da se skupno razveselimo v prijateljski družbi.

Ta farma je vsakemu že znana in kdor je bil že tam ve, da se počuti tam kot bi bil na oddihu kje v Kaliforniji.

Ker je našemu klubu Dom vedno pri srcu in gleda, da mu vedno prisloži na pomoč in še posebno sedaj, ko se pozidava, zato vabimo vse prijatelje kluba, da se gotovo odzovete našemu vabilu in pridete od blizu in daleč in da se skupno razveselimo kot pravi prijatelji in prijateljice. Za vaš poset se vam vsem že naprej zahvaljujemo. Torej, na svidenje v nedeljo 14. avgusta.

Geo. Nagode.

To se pravi, lanski pridelek. Vso zimo so žito varovali doma, šele na pomlad, ko je prišla prava cena, so jo vozili na postajo in tam so jo nasuli v vagone ter poslali po svetu. Takrat so farmarji vozili dan za dnem in navadno vsak z dvema ali več vozovi, da je spravil pšenico na trg, predno se je začelo poljsko delo koncem maja, ali v začetku junija. Vozili so pšenico v mesto in se nacejali. Saj je bilo denarja ko toče.

Ker se le nihče ni zmenil zame, me je začelo skrbeti, kaj bo če, se res ne bo nihče spotaknil vame. Tisti znanec mi je rekel, naj kar čakam, da me bo gotovo kdo opazil in vprašal, če hočem delo. Najbrže tukaj nimajo navade, da bi kdo hodil drugače podpirati hlev, kot če bi rad dobil delo na farmah.

Farmarji in njih hlapci so začeli že vlačiti konje iz hlevov in jih zapregati v prazne vozove. Kakor sem videl, so si bili farmarji in njih živina precej domači, ker pri marsikaterem vozu so se nosili vsenaokrog, predno je prišlo oje med dva konja. Včasih pa farmarji, ki konji so potem plačali za svojo razposajenost, ko so bili enkrat vpreženi pri ojesu, da je treščil voz izpred hleva in doli po cesti, da se je vse kadilo za njimi. Domislil sem se na Matijevega Gregorja iz Bezuljaka, kateremu so konji peljali, pa če so bili že napol pri konjaču. Gregor ni nikdar položil biča na konje, samo z voza je govoril konjčema neke hude besede, da sta bežala z vozom kar so ju noge nesle. Ampak, kakor sem opazoval ravnanje s konji v Kanadi, bi se Matijev Gregor lahko marsikaj naučil tukaj.

Iz takih misli me zdrami hripav glas, ki je nabijal po nemško: "Ali bi hotel iti morda delat na farme?"

Ker sem bil zelo izobražen človek sem vstal s kovčega, ker je tudi tujec stal pred menoj in ni kazalo, da bi mu sede odgovarjal. Kaj se ve, če ni kdaj slišal o kakšni maniri. Po zunanosti sodeč mi ta človek ni bil prav nič všeč. Bil je nekaj več kot srednjih let, skoro divjega obraza in oblastnega nastopa. Poznalo se mu je, da je pil. Koliko ga je predihal, nisem mogel vedeti, ampak kolikor ga je, ga je še dokaj dobro nosil. Širok obraz je kazal, da je poljskega rodu. Raje bi videl, da bi me bil kdo drugi vprašal. Ozrl sem se okrog, da bi videl, če me ne bi hotel morda kateri drugi za svojega in šele, ko sem videl, da res ni nobene druge ponudbe za mojo delovno silo, sem počasi odgovoril:

"Magari!"

"Dobro! Z menoj greš lahko. Moj hlapec bo kmalu zapregel oba para konj. Tistale dva vozova sta moja. Vrzi kovčeg na voz in čakajta, da pridem nazaj. Pri meni boš imel dobro: dela bo dosti, pa tudi za jesti dosti. Imel boš vse prosto in en dolar na dan."

Obrnil se je in šel, najbrže je bil še jezen. Nič me ni vprašal, če sem zadovoljen s ponudbo. Računal sem na prste: en dolar na dan, če bo plačal tudi nedeljo, bo to 30 dolarjev na mesec. Za en dolar je 4 krone v Ljubljani, torej bom služil 150 krono na mesec. Če bi za vse kupil žemelj, bi jih bilo že precej en kup. No, zabogatil pri tem človeku ravno ne bom, ampak nekaj bo pa že, vsaj za prvo silo.

Torej par ur potem, ko sem se pripeljal v Regino, sem bil že v službi. Ne verjamem, da bi kateri mojih znancev z ladje tako hitro napredoval v Kanadi. Ej, smo že zakej, mi Meniševci.

Bivemo videli, kako smo jo furali na farne in kako se mi je godilo tam.

V samotah pragozda

S. Scoville ml. — Pavel Holeček

Breg je bil komaj nekaj metrov nato je iztrgal Roka mešancu širok in nad njim se je dvigala petnajst merov visoka stena; dve vreči moke skozi odprte duče skalovje se je vila precej strma staza, ki se ji je poznalo, da je še nedavno nekdo hodil po njej. Tik pred dečkoma je ležala štirioglasta skala, visoka kakor hiša. Rok je nezaupljivo motril steno in vlekel sapo skozi nos, a Vilče se je skrbno razgledoval po jezeru in se spominjal nekkih starih povesti.

"Ali veš, Rok, kje sva?" je vprašal tovariša.

"Kraj mi ni všeč," odvrne Rok, "hudoben čar." Govorila sta zamolklo, dasi ni bilo nikogar ne videti ne slišati.

"Pri, začaranem jezeru sva," začne Vilče. "Pred davnim časom ga je odkril star traper. Zanj petdeset let so ga pa skoro čisto pozabili."

Opazno sta se pomaknila nekaj korakov naprej, da sta prišla do skale. Nad vso okolico je vladala gluha tišina, da ju je skoro jela obhajati groza. Ko pa sta zavila okoli ogla, jima je udarilo na uho ono žalostno tuljenje, ki ga je bil Vilče slišal ponoči.

Pred njima je stala nizka, na skalo naslonjena kočja; poleg nje je rohnelo troje velikanskih črnih psov in vlekle za verigo, da se je stresalo drevo, za čigar deblo so bili priklenjeni. Za psi se je nahajala čudna priprava, ki se je končevala v dolgo, mnogokrat zavito cev. Vilče je spoznal v njej prav preprosto zgrajen prekapni kotel in se zdajci spomnil, da so doma večkrat pripovedovali o tolpi razbojnikov in tihotapev, ki se skrivajo nekje na moji in ki jih ameriške in kanadske oblasti brez uspeha zasledujejo.

Ko se je Vilče čez nekaj minut spet zavedel, je opazil Roka, ki se je plašno nagibal čez enjen. Usnjenega mošnjaka z biserom ni bilo več. Dawson mu ga je bil odtrgal z vratu in vteknil v žep, preden je mogel kateri njegovih tovarišev to opaziti. Tolpa se je razkropila na vse strani, hote se prepričati, ali ni še kdo v bližini; zato sta ostala dečka dobro minuto sama. Rok je še utegnil Vilčetu prišepniti: "Ne govori! Naredi se mutastega! Sicer ne dobimo kladare!" ko so planili zločinci spet v kočjo. "Nikogar več ni in tudi sledov ni videti," je govoril Dawson pajdašema in se pemi od jezice. "Kdo sta?" se je zadržal na ujetnika. "Kako sta prišla semkaj?"

Oba sta se spomnila dogovora s kraljem gozdov, da izgubita obljubljeni nagrado, ako v teku meseca s kom spregovorita, in sta molčala, kakor da imata zavezane jezike. Stresla sta z glavo, upirala oči venomer v moze, a nista miti črnih. Ko se jima je pa velik grozde blizal, je prišla Vilčetu dobra misel. Jel je mahati s rokami okoli sebe, jih nato dvignil proti nebu, pokazal najprej nase in potem na tovariša. To Vilčetu čudno vedenje in njun molk je dečkoma rešilo življenje. Mešane in Indijane sta bila prazno-verna; ni jima maralo v glavo, kako sta prišla dva naga dečka, ki nista znala govoriti, semkaj v divji gozd, ako nista padla z neba, in zato sta menila, da morajo imeti nadnaravne sile svoje roke vmes. Dawson seveda ni bil tako lahkoveren in si je stvar drugače razlagal. Slišala sta, ko je onima dvema pravil, da sta dečka najbrž umobolna, da sta uskočila iz blaznice ter zbežala v gozd. Zato je najpametnejše, da vzamejo oba s seboj in ju v bližini človeških bivaljših izpuste, kjer ju ljudje hitro najdejo; drugače so tu di oni v nevarnosti, da jih zasledijo, ako bi se onadva predelgo ne vrnila in bi ju daleč naokoli iskali. Naposled pa sta morda celo ogleduha kanadske jezdne policije.

"Ne vem, ali me smrkvca nimata za norca," se je zdril nanju, ko ju je nehal opazovati. "Za vsak slučaj vaju pa dobro povežemo, dokler si nismo na jasnem. Če bi se pokazalo —, in seget si je z roko počasi in pomembno na grlo. Vilče se je s silo obvladal, da ni zaprepal od zroze, ko je zrl velikano v okrutne oči. Rok pa je bil, kakor vedno, popolnoma hladnokrvnen.

Nato so zvezali dečkoma roke in noge z močnimi jermeni in ju vrgli v kot na kup listja. Dawson je pa šel pred kočjo krmilit pse, ki se jim ni smel, kakor je bilo videti, nihče drugi približati.

Beg
Mlada jetnika sta ležala vse popoldne molče v koči. Ko je napočil veter, so zunaj zakurili majhen ogenj; močje so posejali okrog njega in kuhali večerjo. Za dečka se dolgo ni nihče zmenil. Ko pa so ostali po večerjali, se je pojavil poleg njiju Indijanec in ogledoval precej dolgo Rokov obraz. Nazadnje se je doteknil z roko dečkovih štrlečih ličnic in žimastih, črnih las.

"Tudi ti rdečkožec," je začel šepetati.

Dve leti je že minilo, kar zapustil naš si dom, dve leti že pod gomilo spavaš oče in soprog.

Toda v naših srcih globin tvoj spomin živi ljubeč, k tebi romajo spomini, kjer ni tuge ne nesreč.

S cvetjem grob ti okrasili bomo v trajni tvoj spomin, rože s solzami zalili naših srečnih bolečin.

Sence naj ne trato sije, kjer počivaš, dragi ti, duša pa naj raj uživa, tam v srečni večnosti.

Jedva da je nekaj suhljatega grmovja škropilo dolino z zelenimi lisami. Troje veterinih mlinov je iztezalo koščene roke. A nad zmešnjavo reimskih streh potapljačih se med vrhovi divjih kostanjev, se je risala v modrem zraku orjaška ladja katedrale, vzlic razdalji še vedno velikanska poleg nizkih hiš. In šolski spomnini, zgodovinske lekcije, naučene na pamet in v zadregi ponavljane pred učiteljem, so se vračale njegovemu duhu: maziljenje naših kraljev, sveta ampola, kralj Clovis, Jeanne d'Arc in vsa stava stare Francoske.

Nato, ko se je Maurica iznova lotila misel na cesarja živčnega v tej skromni in tako tajnostno zaprti hišici, je uprl pogled na veliko žolto steno in čital tam v svoje presenečenje v ogromnih, z ogljem začetih črkah: "Živel Napoleon!" — a poleg tega napisal nerodne umazanosti, pretirane do nezmišlja. Dež je bil opral črke, napis je bil očitno že starodaven; kako čudno se je postavljalo ta krik nekdanjega bojnega navdušenja na tem zidovju ki je nedvomno pozdravljalo strica zavojevalca, ne pa nečaka! In že se je vračali v spomnih vsa njegova mladost in prepevala svoje bajke; spominjal se je časov, ko je še tam doli v Chene-Populeux-u iz izbelke poslušal istorije deda, vojaka Velike armade. Mati mu je bila mrtva, oče pa je moral v banke-rotu slave, ki je po padcu cesarstva zadel tudi sina junakovega, nastopiti službo davkarja; in stari oče je z neznanjo pokojnino živel pri njem, ponizan do skromnosti te uradniške domačije, z edino tolažbo, da je pripovedoval o svojih vojnah dvojčkom-vnučkom, dečku in deklici enako plavih las, ki jima je nekoliko nadomeščal mater. Jemal si je Henrieto na levo, Maurica na desno koleno, in po celo uro sta poslušala njegove homerske pripovedi o bitkah.

Časi so se strinjali drug z drugim ter izgubljali meje; zdelo se je, da se je vse zgodilo zunaj zgodovinskih dob, med strašnim spopadom vseh narodov; Angleži, Avstrijci, Prusi in Rusi, vsi so šli mimo, po vrsti in vsi naenkrat, kakor so jih pač hipno družile zveze, in ne da bi bilo vselej mogoče povedati, kako da so bili ti hitreje poraženi nego oni. Naposled pa so bili vsi pobiti, njih poraz je bil nizogiben že naprej, pod navalom junaštva in veleumja, ki je pometalo armade kako slamo. Takrat je bil Marengo, vzorna bitka na planem, s svojimi obširnimi, umno razvitimi črtami, s svojim umikanjem, brezhibnim kakor na šahovi deski, po bataljonih, ki so mirno molčali v sovražnem ognju; bitka, obdana z legendami, ob treh izgubljenih, ob šestih dobljenih, kjer je tistih osemsto grenadirjev konzulove garde razbilo naval vse avstrijske konjenice, in kjer je prišel Desaix, da prelije svojo kri ter izpremeni pričenjajoči se poraz v zmago nesmrtnih slave. Bil je Austerlitz s svojim krasnim solncem slave v zimski megli, Austerlitz, ki se je pričel z zavzetjem Praterske planote in se končal s tistim strašnim udrtjem zamrzlih ribnjakov, kjer je cel ruski armadni zbor, ljudje in živali, med groznim pokanjem izginil pod ledom, dočim je bežanski Napoleon, ki je videl seveda vse naprej, z dežjem krogel naglo dovršil poraz. Bil je Jena, grob pruske moči; najprej ogenj strelcev v oktoberski megli, nestrpnost Ney-a, ki je pretila spraviti vse v nevarnost, nato Augereau-a prihod na bojišče, ki ga je rešil; silni sunek, ki je s svojo močjo odnesel vso sovražno armado, naposled pa zmešnjava, strah in brezglavi beg tiste vse preveč hvaljene konjenice, ki so jo želi naši huzarji kakor zrel oves, pokrivaje romantično dolino s pokosenimi ljudmi in konji. In Eylau, tisti strahoviti, med vsemi najbolj krvavi Eylau, klavnica, kjer so se kupčila grozno razmesarjena trupla, in ki je bila še pod sneženo burjo rdeča od krvi, s svojim puščobnim, herojskim pokopališčem, odmevajočim od uničevalnega naskoka osemdesetih škadronov Muratovih, ki so prodrli rusko armado in pri tem pokrili zemljo s tako gosto liško; strašen bližnji boj, zmeborili s trdovratno hrabrostjo; zavojevani v navalu z golim orožjem, napadi ponavljajoči se brez preneha, kjer se je bil boj za sleherno ped zemlje; pri tem — zagrizena hrabrost ruske garde, sprico katere so le besni konjski napadi Murata,

MORNING NEWSPAPER

This and That from Washington

By Congressman Frances P. Bolton

Mrs. Bolton

WITH a "civil rights" bill in the offing it is interesting to note some of the steps that have been taken in recent years toward this end in a number of states: New Jersey's new constitution contains broad civil rights provisions. New Mexico, Oregon, Rhode Island and Washington have adopted new FEPC laws. Texas has a new anti-lynching law. Wisconsin and New York did away with segregation in their national guards and New Jersey and Connecticut eliminated segregation in public places. The Secretary of Defense ordered the three services to eliminate discrimination and segregation.

THE Atlantic Pact has been ratified by eight of the twelve signers: Belgium, Canada, England, Norway, Luxembourg, Iceland, France and the United States. The lower houses of Italy and the Netherlands have ratified and upper house action is pending. Portugal is expected to ratify shortly. Denmark needs no ratification. The Treaty will not go into effect until ratified by the Netherlands, the only remaining country where ratification is specifically required by the Treaty.

THE Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House has begun hearings on the Military Assistance Program presented by the President.

To do too much too soon might well be as destructive as doing too little too late. Certainly no action can be taken without very accurate data and very certain proof of need and of many other pertinent matters.

At the moment there is strong feeling that a rather nominal amount of assistance be given for say six months while countries agree upon plans for mutual defense against aggression. Such action on our part could well prove to be a strong stimulant for closer cooperation leading to European federation, which in its turn should be a factor that of itself would lead to peace.

A general debate in the House on the Pace Bill, the so-called Brannan farm program, which included the Gore Amendment, was unusually interesting and held a very large portion of the membership on the floor. This Gore Amendment merely continues present farm policies for another year.

There were some moments of hot argument which brought out basic attitudes as well as pertinent facts. Perhaps the man who touched fundamentals the most grippingly was Jim Wadsworth (he is a farmer), who said:

"The most precious thing in the possession of the farmer is his liberty. Seldom . . . do you find a man going into farming to make a great fortune . . . very few great fortunes are made in Agriculture . . . Why do men cling to that avocation? Why do they work 60 hours a week and more if they happen to be dairy farmers? Because they like to plan their own lives. You cannot close down a farm the way you can a factory. The man who does the planning is a man who must be free, and his most precious possession is his liberty."

Ranger Battalions Survivors To Hold Reunion

The Ranger Battalion Association will hold its first national reunion in Cleveland, Aug. 12-14, it was announced here today by Lieut. Col. Claude P. Rowan, unit director of the organized reserve corps.

A thousand veterans of the six Ranger Battalions that fought in the European and Pacific Theatres of Operation in World War II will meet for the first time since the end of hostilities. Headquarters for the Association will be Hotel Cleveland.

Survivors of the Ranger Battalions are the men who exposed themselves to danger, in more actions, with higher casualties, and perhaps with greater fierceness of spirit, than any other American Army unit, Colonel Rowan said.

The original members of the First, Third and Fourth Ranger Battalions assembled first in June, 1942, and were volunteers from U. S. troops then in the British Isles. It boasted two professional boxers, a lion tamer, a longshoreman, a church deacon, a jazz trumpeter, a radio crooner, treasurer of a burlesque theatre, a sheriff, an insurance salesman, an oil field "roughneck" from Texas, and a Red Indian named Sampson P. Onesunk.

This force was chosen from among the finest physical specimens in the American Army and from its most colorful. A handful of Rangers saw action at Dieppe and others in Tunisia, Naples and Germany. In the Pacific, Rangers landed in the Philippines three days before our armies and at dusk on Jan. 30 the Sixth Ranger Battalion poured through the main gate of the Japanese prisoner-of-war camp at Cabanatuan. The Rangers had fought their way 25 miles thru the Japanese lines to rescue the pitiful few heroes of Bataan and Corregidor who were still alive.

Convention registration will be Friday, Aug. 12, with an evening program of combat films which will include "The True Glory," "Eve of Battle," and "San Pietro," furnished by the organized reserve corps in Cleveland. A banquet on Saturday evening will highlight the day's events with Brig. Gen. Robert W. Chamberlain, a Cleveland reservist and 83d Infantry Division Artillery Commander, as guest of honor.

Heading the local committee for the national convention of the Ranger Battalion is Andrew L. Stockmaster, 512 E. 114th St., Cleveland, (O.).

Wedding Bells

St. Christine's Church in Euclid was the scene of the wedding of Miss Sally Ann Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Nelson Reynolds, 1760 Belvoir Blvd., South Euclid, and Mr. Edward F. Posch, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Posch, 940 E. 222nd St., Euclid. Rev. Raymond Dubois officiated at the double ring ceremony on Saturday afternoon, July 30th.

Miss Reynolds was given in marriage by her father, who is the former mayor of South Euclid.

Miss Sally Jane Fahey was maid of honor and Mr. Frederick Thomas served as best man. Ushers were the groom's brother, Mr. Jack Posch and a fraternity brother, Mr. Louis Monahan.

The couple left on their honeymoon for Canada, Northern Michigan, and Wisconsin. Miss Reynolds will complete her studies at Flora Stone Mather College. Mr. Posch was graduated from the University of Wisconsin, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now employed in the research laboratory at Thompson Aircraft.

Anthony Somrak of 1210 E. 169 St. and Ann Ile of 1074 Addison Road, were united in marriage in a beautiful ceremony at St. Vitus Church on July 30th. The bride wore white satin and lace, carried a white prayer book, topped with a large white orchid. Her two attendants appeared in orchid sheer and lace and two small flower girls were in aqua. A reception followed in the evening at Slovenian Hall on Holmes Ave. for 350 guests.

The bride and groom left for a two-week trip to Washington, D. C. and New York City where they will witness and participate in two radio and television shows. When they return, they will reside in their newly-purchased home at 4401 Elmwood Ave., So. Euclid, O.

Ivy Silences 115-Year-Old Bell

Hamilton, Ont. — Hamilton's oldest bell, at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, has not been rung since 1933. The bell, 115 years old, is almost covered by ivy that has nearly blanketed the bell. The bell first was rung in 1839 when it was bought by the congregation of the Church of Scotland.

Twenty years later the congregation built a stone church and the bell was moved. On the 100th anniversary of the Church of Scotland here, the bell was tolled once again. It has hung silent since.

A SPIDER IN THE PAPER

Many years ago Mark Twain was editor of a small-town newspaper. A reader wrote in saying that he had found a spider in his paper, and wanted to know if that was an omen of good or bad luck. Mark Twain answered: "Finding a spider in your newspaper is neither good or bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

Retailing has come a long way since those days, and the art of advertising has undergone great development. And advertising, by stores or any other kind of business, is a typical outgrowth of the competitive system. It is the best possible means of reaching the people who want goods and services, of urging the merits of one brand as against another, and of encouraging the consumer to go to some particular retail outlet. That it benefits the consumer goes without saying. No storekeeper could long charge an excessive price with competitors offering in print the same or an equivalent product at a lower price. And deceptive advertising always defeats its own purpose. The wise merchant advertises aggressively, but he bases his story on appeal, not fiction.

The growth of the chain systems did much to encourage retail advertising. The chains advertised their merits in the search for trade—and the independents did the same thing in order to hold and to expand their own business. This was good for all concerned — consumers, stores, and newspapers.

Salesmanship is a driving force in keeping the American economy running. Advertising is the heart of it.

ST. VITUS MOTHERS CLUB
We wish to welcome the Sisters of St. Vitus, who are with us. As we renew our friendship and understanding through the coming school year, we will again continue to enjoy complete cooperation together.

On our membership list there are a few mothers whom we haven't seen for some time. We urge you to come to our meetings, and in the future if you do not receive a card we assume you do not wish to be a member. Hoping you reconsider.

Mrs. Smithko joined the Mothers' Club. — We say "hello."

Improvements have been made about the school and the grounds. The results do show up and to those responsible, please know it is appreciated. On Wednesday, September 28th, we will hold a social in the church basement.

Lenny Kure came through with his first hit of the season starting off a rally for St. Vitus. George Varrek smashed two homers, one a drive over the left fielder's head. He also came thru with a single. This game was sort of a repetition of the Huck Finn game except that St. Vitus got their runs by hits not walks. There was a (Continued on Page 6.)

STRAIGHT FROM WASHINGTON

By STEPHEN M. YOUNG
Ohio
Congressman-at-Large

Washington. — The U. S. Senate, by a vote of 83 to 13, ratified the North Atlantic Pact, linking 12 nations in an all for one treaty against Soviet Communist aggression. Senator Taft voted and spoke against it. Evidently, by a 6 to 1 ratio Senators were convinced that isolationism is no longer tenable but must give way to international order and a world community. Ratification of this North Atlantic Treaty gives continued assurance of American aid to governments of Europe against any Soviet Union attempt to disturb their national integrity and subvert their free institutions. Ratification of this treaty was the most important legislation to be considered in Washington this year.

THEY WANT OUR GOLD
French officials came forward with a bright (?) idea for Uncle Sam. It is that we revalue gold from $35 to $55 per ounce. Doing so would give the United States Treasury a profit of 14 billion dollars! Then, of course, they want our government to "redistribute" some of the gold hoard we have. Yes, you guessed it. They want us to "loan" them some billions of gold. Then they would pay for our goods with some of our gold and we would re-bury it at Fort Knox until some other foreign official came along and wanted more of the same—a sort of merry-go-round perpetual motion picture.

BAILEY'S CLAIM
Congress debated whether to authorize payment of $3,024 to Stoker John Bailey of the British Navy. This fly-specked claim bill has been before Congress for ten years. It was finally defeated by roll call vote 167 to 143. Stoker Bailey of the HMS ORION in a Seattle bar was assaulted by John Ittner of the United States Navy, also.

off duty. It was not much of a brawl, Stoker Bailey and another English sailor were with two American girls, Norma and Rose, whose last names are unknown to posterity. Apparently Ittner was displeased over losing his girl, Norma. He picked up a beer glass, broke it, and struck Bailey in the face with a piece of glass. Unfortunately, Bailey later lost an eye. Ittner was tried before a Navy Summary Court and acquitted. Congressmen opposing the bill claimed there was no legal nor equitable ground compelling our Government to pay. "This was just a brawl between two sailors. When a sailor goes out with a woman on foreign soil, he is courting danger," said one. An accountant could readily determine that in man hours, etc., it cost our Government many times $3,024 simply debating and defeating this bill. It took almost half a day for Congressmen to refuse to give away $3,024. The taxpayers won, and lost. Also Bailey's date with Norma proved costly to him.

KEEP 'EM DOWN ON THE FARM
It is almost certain that the bill to expand Rural Electrification, now pending in the Senate, will soon become a law. It authorizes the Rural Electrification Administration to make loans at two per cent interest for the expansion and improvement of rural telephone service under the same terms and conditions which REA has employed in making loans for rural electrification. At the present time only about 42 per cent of the farms in the United States have telephones. Only a patient, tolerant and understanding class of people such as farmers would have put up for so long without a modern convenience like the telephone. Many farm children, after going to high school and college, are unwilling to come back home and live under outmoded conditions. According to a recent survey only one of about 40 farmers was under 25 years of age. The trend of young people away from the farms is unhealthy. People living in rural areas, many in sparsely settled sections, are entitled to adequate telephone service for business and family use.

SOVIET HEADACHE TO TAXPAYERS
Senators Flanders (R. Vermont), said "Because of Russia, America's budget is unbalanced." He charges that Soviet Union officials have set out to ruin the United States economically by threatening aggressive warfare. "Budgetary ambush," he terms it and says at this moment Soviet threats determine our policy not only in the foreign field but in the economic field. The truth is our vast expenditures, totalling sixteen billion dollars this year for our armed services and most of the six billion dollars for European aid, have been necessary because of threats from the Soviet Union.

Chapter Six . . . The Misadventures Of Isabel
We managed to get up the next morning even after Gloria's song and dance routine that kept us awake until nearly two A. M. How we managed, I don't know, and how we got through the rest of the day, I also do not know. But we did it, somehow.
We were up at six, and in the lobby at six-thirty. It was at this time that we found one of our number missing. After we had inquired among all the girls, and could not locate the missing member, we asked Sister Agatha.
"Katherine has the measles," Sister told us.
"The measles!" I was flabbergasted.
"Yes," said Sister. "She and Sister Kate will have to go home."
"Well, if that doesn't beat all!" said Gloria. "I got my finger smashed, we got locked out of the room, and now someone gets the measles."
"Yes," said Sister. "Sister Violet was up nearly all night with her, and Sister Kate has been in Washington several times before, so she volunteered to fly home with Catherine."
"Too bad Catherine'll miss the sights."
"She's been in Washington before, so it won't matter so much." And Sister Agatha went off to count the girls.
Sister Violet and Sister Dolores came down a few minutes later, and you could tell that Sister Violet had been up all night. She looked as if she could certainly use some sleep.
Sister Kate was down already, and she led the way to the Church, which was a few blocks away.
It was St. Patrick's Cathedral that we went to, since that was the closest to the hotel. It's a nice place, except that there's a few odd things, that we weren't quite used to, and that we didn't expect. For one thing, the first bench is down below the level of the sanctuary, and if you want to step up to the Communion rail, first you go up that step right in front of the first pew, then you go across that aisle, and then up the step to the Rail. They don't have those here, so we all kept stumbling over that first step.

The altars are set way back in the dim recesses of the front of the church, and you can't see them very well until they turn all the lights on. Also, the altars are divided by walls and arches, so that if you sit right in front of the Blessed Virgin Altar, you can't see the Main Altar, and that is just a trifle inconvenient. I know. I tried it.

After Mass, we went to breakfast, and if nothing else, the food was good. I don't remember what we had, but the rolls they served were delicious. In fact, I had five of them with butter. I never tasted such good rolls!

As soon as breakfast was over, we got ready to load up onto the buses, which were to take us to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, which is where they make postage stamps, government bonds, and forms, and that is beautiful stuff—money. The trouble is they don't hand out samples, and we didn't get close enough to help ourselves.

The bus driver was a very nice fellow. We were lucky, for we got the same driver all three days. His name was "Freddy," but you can call me Fred for short. He also told us that we had to come back to the same bus, and that if they passed out any samples at the Bureau of Printing and Engraving that we were supposed to split with the bus driver. We hooted at that idea.

He was a medium sized fellow, with dark hair and a mustache. I would say he was about thirty or thirty-five. Perhaps a little older. His eyes were clear blue gray, and he had a charming smile, and a great deal of courtesy. He would stand and help us onto the bus, and also when we got off, he'd jump off first, and take our arms as we got off.

Some of his jokes were a trifle corny and apparently Cleveland gets the jokes before Washington, because we'd heard most of his "new ones."
We went through the Bureau, and enjoyed seeing the money printed, and counted. It counted seventeen times, I believe, before it leaves the place. They print about thirty-five million dollars a day, and they burn just as much. There is a small building alongside the Bureau, where they burn all that lovely green stuff. However, if they didn't burn as much as they print, there would be a surplus of worthless paper money. And you know that money is useless unless it's backed by silver or gold.

When we got finished there, they let us out and I took some pictures. You are not allowed to take any pictures inside, in fact they make you check your camera. The reason, of course, is that counterfeiters might get in and take pictures of the money, from which they could engrave plates to print paper money with. They might also take pictures of the processes, in order to attempt duplicating them, and that, of course, is not allowed. So we checked our cameras, and had to be satisfied with pictures of the building.

But I've run out of space again, and I still didn't tell you how we cured Gloria of talking at night. Well, that will have to wait.

Love,

ISABEL.

This and That from Washington

By Congressman Frances P. Bolton

It was an amazement to many thoughtful people here in Washington to have the President in one of his recent talks criticize those who seek economy in government, a group whom he said are about 75 per cent of the members of his own party in Congress who appreciate as he apparently does not that extravagance in government is one of the burdens the taxpayer is carrying today.

Mrs. Bolton

This cannot be laid entirely at the doors of Congress. True, Congress does make laws and appropriate funds. But the Congress does not administer—this is the function and the responsibility of the Executive Department. Congress can and constantly does study and investigate the use made of the funds appropriated, but it has now power to force a proper use. The most important study made has been that of the Hoover Commission. This was done with a view to greater efficiency of administration and consequent saving. Something like 30 per cent of the suggestions made by this Commission require no legislation to put them into effect, they could be set in motion tomorrow by the Chief Executive, part of whose job it is to administer.

It is estimated that if all the Commission's recommendations were adopted the taxpayer load would be reduced by "about $4,000,000,000 a year" which means about $12.00 per family. It is even suggested that a strenuous effort on the part of the Administration might even increase the saving by another billion!

The President—even though he was elected by a minority of the voters—is still the President, elected by the people to the greatest administrative job in the world. He is responsible to all the people for an efficient and economic job. They have every right to protest an extravagant inefficiency.

ent squandering of billions of their tax money. Until the Hoover Commission reported there were no facts upon which the people could protest. Now there are—and protests to the Executive would seem to be very much in order.

CONGRESS in the meanwhile has attempted to assume its part of the responsibility under the Hoover Report by passing H.R. 5632 which sets up machinery to modernize the accounting system of the Department of Defense, as well as making other efficiency retrenchment in line with the Hoover Report which should net a legitimate savings of one and one-half billions without impairing the Services.

THE new State of Israel has been granted recognition by 56 States, 46 of which are members of the United Nations. Of these, 40 are de jure, 16 are de facto. The next step, of course, is representation. Twenty-two nations have sent their representatives to Israel and twenty-eight representatives have been sent by Israel to other capitals.

BY all the rules of common sense and business ethics no Administrative Department Head should even suggest such a dangerous step as a return to deficit financing when it has been clearly shown that huge sums can be saved by efficient management without interfering with the work needing to be done. Once upon a time all the little men got together over "taxation without representation"—all the little men and little women can still get together and insist that their tax moneys must be made to do the work intended and not wasted by extravagance, inefficiency and bad management. Some have already protested valiantly to Senate and House Committees. Perhaps it is time their voices were heard in the White House where their Chief Executive has his desk.

In his Farewell Address, George Washington said: "As a very important source of strength and security, cherish public credit. One method of preserving it is to use it as sparingly as possible."

Ohio Wants a Street

And Washington May Name One for "Beautiful River" Now

Washington. — Ohio, the only state which doesn't have a Washington Avenue named in its honor, finally can hold a ray of hope that something will be done about it.

The National Capital Park and Planning Commission said it has taken under "favorable advisement" an appeal that Riverside Drive be renamed Ohio Drive.

Representative Thomas A. Jenkins, Republican of Ohio, who has fought in vain for years to have some important street named for his state, said the beautiful Riverside Drive, thru a park from the Lincoln Memorial to the 14th Street Bridge, would be a fitting selection.

Ohio, he explained to the commission, is an Indian word meaning "beautiful river."

"Mary, aren't you getting too big to play with the boys?"
"No, Mother, the bigger I get the better I like them."

A Boy And His Dog

As a father, I'm found of kid stories, such as this one about a boy of 8 who had a dog, Laddie, whom he loved very much.

The other day, when the boy came home from progressive school, his mother said:

"Darling, I've sad news. I want you to be brave. Laddie has been run over and killed."

To mama's surprise, nothing happened (says Joseph Brown, writer, who told me the story). The boy moped a little. Later, he walked into the yard, saw the dead dog, and began walling and hollering.

"What's the matter?" cried his mother. "I told you Laddie was run over and killed; didn't I?"
"Laddie?" the boy moaned. "I thought you said 'Daddy.'"

Cheap; Dull, Too

Charleston, Ill. — The boys at Eastern State College find dating an inexpensive pastime. A survey by the Eastern State News showed that 77 per cent of the coeds expect their fellows to spend no more than $2 on a date. And the other 23 per cent figure that $1 is enough for an evening's fun. The survey also revealed that 51 per cent of the boys felt they are entitled to a good night kiss on their first date. But only 31 per cent of the girls co-operate.
