Korejcev le ne bodo vráčali v rdečo Korejo

Razgovori med Sev. Korejo in Japonsko o vrnitvi korejskih izseljencev so prekinjeni brez sporazuma.

LONDON, Vel. Brit. — Na Japonskem živi okoli 600,000 Korejcev, ki so povezani v svoji organizaciji. Ta je bolj levicaško usmerjena in kaže javno simpatije za rdečo vlado Sev. Koreje. Lani je ta organizacija zahtevala od japonske vlade, naj dovoli Korejecem vrtnitev v Sev. Korejo, kjer so jih obljudnjeni dosti boljši življenjski pogoji kot na Japonskem.

Japonska vlada v bistvu ni imela nič proti tej zahtevi, izjavila je, da hoče gledati le, da se bodo Korejci odločili za povratak res prostovoljno. Zato je predložila, naj se vsakdo prijavi Japonskemu rdečemu križu, nakar bo Mednarodni rdeči križ preiskal njihove prošnje in jamčil, da so se odločili res prostovoljno.

Sev. Koreja je prijavo pri Japonskem rdeču križu odklonila. Pogajanja so sedaj po 16 mesecih prekinjena in Sev. Koreja je izjavila, da se bodo nadaljevala lahko šele, kadar bodo Japonci svoje stališče spremenili.

Izgleda, da je na Japonie vplival v precejšnji meri strah, da bi jih Syngman Rhee, predsednik Južne Koreje, ki je odločen nasprotnik vračanja Korejcev v rdečo Sev. Korejo, črnil pred vso Azijo, da so s silo spravili sto in sto tisoč Korejcev pod komunistično oblast. Rhee je svoj čas grozil, da bo vsako vračanje Korejcev z Japonskega preprečil, če treba, s silo.

Kubanski Castro oklical novo vrsto demokracije: reprezentativno!

HAVANA, Cuba. — Fidel Castro je v enem izmed svojih govorov, ki navadno trajajo 5-6 ur in so pravo srajče gnezdo najrazličnejših idej, razlagal, da je Kubi potrebljana "reprezentativna demokracija" in ne navadna, kot jo mi razumem.

Castro hoče imeti "čisto demokracijo," ki nekaj predstavlja in ki se lahko uveljavlja tudi brez volitev. Pri tem se je skliceval na staro grško demokracijo, kjer so se državljanji zbirali na javnem trgu, tam debatirali in na mestu samem sklepalibrez vsega glasovanja.

Castro trdi, da narod lahko vladam sam sebe preko neprestavnega plebiscita in nekaj takega, ki se bilo zadnje jubilejne slovesnosti v Havani.

Razume se, da je Castro potem lahko izjavil, da na Kubi še ne bo nobenih volitev kakih 5-6 let. Preje je govoril samo o par letih. Castrova nazore o reprezentativni demokraciji so menda najbolj odobravale Kubanke.

Če se zgodi nesreča, vam ne more nihče pomagati, če se niste držali prometnih predpisov.

Dobiček jeklarske družbe postal politična zadeva

NEW YORK, N. J. — Naša največja jeklarska kompanija U. S. Steel Corp. je napravila tekom prvega pol leta skoraj $225,000,000 dobička! Unija je to priliko takoj porabila za ponovno zatrjevanje, da jeklarne lahko plačajo večje meze brez povisnega sedanjih cen. Zastopniki jeklarn so seveda proti in pravijo, da je bil sedanji dobiček dosežen samo z veliko proizvodnjo in da ga v drugem semestru radi strajka ne bo.

Predsednik družbe je dodal še značilno izjavo, da jeklarne ne bodo po štrajku povisile cen, ako se ne bodo pod "pritisom generalne uprave" morale odločiti za "prisiljen sporazum" v mezdih pogajanjih.

Unija vsemu temu oporeka in pravilno trdi, da je dobiček res posledica popolne izrabe zmogljivosti vseh jeklarn, da pa je dolžnost tovarniških uprav, da skrbijo za polno proizvodnjo, in ne morda jeklarske unije.

Demokratski voditelji v Kongresu so naravno takoj zagnali velik hrup in očitajo republikanski administraciji, da ne kaže nobene prave vnenje, da bi posegla v štrajk z učinkovitim ukrepom.

Kitajci najmočnejša sila

LONDON, Vel. Brit. — Ko je neki poslaneč angleške delavske stranke tekom svojega obiska na Kitajskem govoril o grozotah atomskih vojn, je dejal, da bi ta velika mesta, naj začno sama dobiti so mu poslušalci začeli skrbeti za svojo prehrano, ker jim komune ne bodo mogle dobiti planiranih količin. Obenem je policija prepovedala vsejovanje podeželja v mestu.

Anglež je začuden vprašal, kaj jim je pri tem tako smešnega. Dobil je odgovor: V atomski vojni bi uničen Zapad, ostalo bo pa še vedno nekaj sto milijonov Kitajcev, ki bodo s tem postali najmočnejša država na svetu.

Prepiri in pretepi na prijateljskem kongresu

Na mladinskem kongresu na Dunaju, ki so ga prip. avili komunisti, je prišlo do hudi pretegov in prepirov.

DUNAJ, Avstr. — Mladinski kongres se je začel v nedeljo. Tačaj je prišlo do hudi sporov med posameznimi skupinami in v skupinah samih, kjer so komunisti hoteli prevzeti popolno vodstvo. Zastopstvo iz Združenih držav se je razdelilo v dva dela. Manjša skupina je izbrala svojo delegacijo, ki jo je vodstvo kongresa priznalo, med tem ko je delegacija protikomunistične večine odionila.

Do podobnega spora je prišlo v delegaciji Brazilije in Indije. Arabski zastopniki so se ponovno udarili z zastopniki iz Izraele.

Vodstvo kongresa, na katerega je prišlo skupno okoli 17,000 mladih ljudi z vsega sveta, je uvedlo strogo cenzuro in ne pušča časnikarjev svobodnega sveta na seje in zasedanja. Dunajšča časopisje kongres popolnoma bojkotira in ne poroča o njem nič.

To je doslej prvi rdeči mladinski kongres izven želesne zaves.

Nadškof Makarios in Grivas sta se sprla

Makarios hoče res neodvisen Ciper, Grivas pa še vedno misli na njegovo združitev z Grčijo.

NIKOSIA, Ciper. — Ciprski nadškof Makarios, ki vlada sedaj v Cipru z začasno vlado in pravljiva otok na popolno samosojnost, ki bo oklicana tekom prihodnjega leta, je hitro spoznal, kako težko je vladati v državi brez pravega naroda. Nadškof se drži znane pogodbe z Anglijo in hoče z Cipra napraviti državo, ki bo res neodvisna od Grčije.

Njegova politika ni našla pravega odmeva v Atenah. Tam ga napada mnogo grških politikov, med njimi tudi polkovnik Grivas, ki je z nadškofom vred z uspehom vodil državljanško vojno na Cipru.

Nadškof Makarios je Grivasu ostro odgovoril, naj pusti ciprsko politiko pri miru. Povod za spor je bilo namera nekaterih atenskih politikov, da ustanojivo na Cipru posebno stranko, ki naj bi bila v opoziciji s stranko nadškofa Makariosa.

Korak naprej, dva nazaj v komunistični Kitajski

HONG KONG. — Rdeča Kitajska je lani trdila, da je napravila "velik skok naprej" s svojimi komunami in vaškimi plavži za žezelo. Kmalu se je pokazalo, da obema načrtoma grozi polom. Sedaj ga je začelo priznavati že kitajsko komunistično časopisje samo.

Poroča, da je ustavilo pridobivanje železa v tisočih malih plavžih, ki so podobni našim poljskim opekarnam če, da so že začeli ves svet. Ob teh besedah so se mu poslušalci začeli skrbeti za svojo prehrano, ker jim komune ne bodo mogle dobiti planiranih količin.

Obenem je policija prepovedala vsejovanje podeželja v mestu. Kmetje so namreč trumoma bežali iz komun v mestu in se tam skušali skriniti in vstopiti v mestni proletariat.

VELIKA ŽEL. NESREČA: POT. VLAK SE JE IZTIRIL

Znani potniški vlak Chicago & North Western '400' se je iztiril na strmem bregu hriba v Wisconsinu, ko je vozil skozi dolg ovinek. Kljub temu, da je sedem voz butilo z železniškega tira, ni bilo nobenega mrtvega, ampak le 44 ranjenih. — Vzroka nesreče še ne vedo.

HUDSON, Wis. — Ko je včeraj zletelo sedem voz znotega potniškega vlaka "400" Chicago and North Western na dolgem ovinku nekega hriba, je izgledalo na prvi pogled, da utegne biti večje število mrtvih. Reševalci, ki so prišli na kraj nesreče z lestvami s poleg železnice le malo nižje ležecete, so našli le 44 ranjenih, ki so jih prepeljali v bolnišnico, med tem ko so večje število lažje ranjenih obvezali kar na mestu.

Nesreča bi bila brez dvoma veliko hujša, da se niso iztirjeni vozovi ustavili ob drevju tik nad zelo prometno avtocesto 12, ki teče tam vzporedno z železnico.

Na kraju nesreče se je zbral tolikšno število radovednežev, da so skoro zaprli pot reševalcem.

Nesreča se je zgodila popoldne ob 1:25. Iztirilo se je sedem voz, ki so v obliki velikega loka obvisele nad cesto. Strojevodja Herou iz Minneapolisa je dejal, da je čul tik pred nesrečo nekaj početi, da pa si ne more misliti, kaj naj bi nesrečo povzročilo.

MOSCVA, ZSSR. — Nekaj ameriških časnikarjev, ki so sedaj v Sibiriji, je odšlo v prestolico Zunanje Mongolske Ulan Bator, da obišejo Molotova, ki je tam za ruskega poslanika. Molotov je sicer časnikarje sprejel, toda bil je, kot je njegova navada, do njih zelo zaprt. Niso mogli od njega zvedeti kaj prida.

CASPIAN, ZSSR. — Nekaj časopisov trdi, da je Titov napor popolnoma v soglasju z njegovim preteklim delom med narodi Azije in Afrike, utegnil pa mu pristeti tudi kako omembu na prvih straneh svetovnega časopisa, od koder je njegovo ime nekam popolnoma izginilo.

Sen. Frank Lausche Eisenhowerjev izbor?

CLEVELAND, O. — Znani tedenik "Newsweek" poroča, da se trudi Tito, ko je spoznal, da je stal ob strani tako pri pogovorih v Ženevi kot tudi tekom obiskov visokih vladnih osebnosti iz Sovjetije v Ameriki in obratno, da bi ga povabil vladni afriški Gane in Gvineje na uradni obisk. Obe imenovani državi sta postali nezavisišči še pred kratkim. Ležita na zahodni obali Afrike ob Gvinejskem zalužu.

CASPIAN, ZSSR. — Nekaj časopisov trdi, da je Titov napor popolnoma v soglasju z njegovim preteklim delom med narodi Azije in Afrike, utegnil pa mu pristeti tudi kako omembu na prvih straneh svetovnega časopisa, od koder je njegovo ime nekam popolnoma izginilo.

Sen. Frank Lausche Eisenhowerjev izbor?

CLEVELAND, O. — Poročevalci tukajšnjega dnevnika Plain Dealer poroča iz Washingtona, da bi predsednik Eisenhower izbral za demokratskega predsedniškega kandidata, če bi imel seveda pri tem kako besedo, — sen. Franka Lauscheta, o katerem ima menda izredno visoko mnenje.

V Washingtonu pričakujejo navključen sprejem Nixon na Poljskem

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Vodniki zunanje politike Združenih držav so se odločili za Nixonov obisk na Poljskem največ zaradi tega, ker so prepričani, da bo od strani ljudstva nad vse navdušeno sprejet, vsekakor veliko bolj kot Hruščev, ki je bil tam pred dvema tednoma.

Richard Nixon bo prišel v poljsko prestolnico Varšavo v nedeljo, 2. avgusta, si ogledal še nekaterje druge kraje, pa se načelo sledi pred tem načelo pri pogovorih na Št. Jurija pod Kumom, čestitamo; želimo da bi slavljenec dočakal še sprejetje vseh krovov v Ljubljani.

Novo bojno sredstvo

EDGEWOOD, Md. — Armada je baje nedavno preskusila na prostovoljcih novo kemično sredstvo za vojno. Vojaki, ki so prišli pod vpliv tega sredstva, so postali popolnoma brezbrizni in se niso več brigali za svoje predpostavljene.

Parlament naravno ni ugovarjal zakonskim predlogom in reformam niti z eno besedo. Par strokovnih pripomb je padlo in to je bilo tudi vse.

Slovenski dan

Kakor lani, tako tudi letos dramatsko društvo Lilija s pomočjo drugih društev priredi na farmi sv. Jožefa Slovenski dan. Pokrovitelj tega dneva je prevzeteni škof dr. Gregorij Rožman.

Slovenski dan je lepa zamisel. Prirediteli so si ga zmisili tako, da bi se čisti dobiček razdelil v dva lepa namešča: v korist slovenskega semenišča, ki leži na ramah škofa dr. Gregorija Rožmana in v korist slovenski mladini na Koroškem.

Kakor na videz namena nimata nobene zveze, sta močno povezana, če ju pogledamo od blizu. Slovensko semenišče v Argentini goji veselo upe za prihodnjost. Tu nastaja nov krog slovenske duhovščine, pred katero bo veliko problemov, obem pa bo to kraj, od koder bo mogoče dobiti slovenske duhovnike za kraje, ki bodo slovenskega duhovnika potrebovali. Slovenski izseljeni so raztreseni povsod in nekdo bo prišel čas, ko bodo stari duhovniki gledali za mladimi močmi, da za njimi prevzamejo delo, ki so ga oni pionirsko začeli in dolga leta vodili.

In korist slovenske mladine na Koroškem. Vem, da se mnogokrat zgodi, da gledamo na koroški problem postrani, da se nam ne misli na Koroško vzdigne ta in oni spomin. Toda vedno je treba ločiti osebne zadeve, ki so bile mogoče kdaj boleče, od splošnih in narodnih. In kar pri Slovenskem dnevu eno in drugo povezuje, je ravno oseba velikega pokrovitelja dr. Gregorija Rožmana. Mož, v katerega gledamo, ki nam je bil vrhovna duhovna avtoriteta doma in nam je še na tujem, ta mož je bil rojen na zemlji, ki nam je dala mnogo velikih mož, da omenim samo nekatere: Ehrlich, Majarja, Podgorca in še mnoge, katerih imena so zapisana v zgodovino slovenskega naroda. Iz koroške zemlje je izšel tudi naš škof, tam mu je tekla zibel.

Zato pravim, namena Slovenskega dneva sta povezana. S tem, da podpremo svojo kri na Koroškem, se zahvaljujemo na svoj način zemlji, ki nam je dala škofa, ki ima danes na skribi slovensko semenišče v Argentini.

Mnogim stvarem smo se v novem življenu že odmaknili. Počasi, včasih vedoma, včasih nevede porivamo v kot svoje narodne probleme, zgubljamo odnose do vsega, kar nam je bilo nekdaj kot delček osebnosti in počasi postajamo svetovljanski v slabem pomenu besede. Vse, kar je našega, je manj vredno in misliti na dom je vredno zapisati kvečjemu v spominski album nekomu, ki nas pač zato prosi. Resno misliti na kaj več je brez pomena in ovira samo naše ljudi, da ne morejo prav ujeti ritem novega sveta.

Nekam zviška gledamo na preteklost, kakor da nas je sram, da v svoji majhnosti nismo mogli več narediti. Grehe, ki smo jih naredili kot celota, napravimo samo enim. Naj nosijo nekateri. Dobro razdelimo na posameznike. Jemljemo za merilo velike narode in na taisto kopito nategujemo vse. Ni prave zrelosti, imamo pa čudovito zmožnost najmanjše probleme postaviti tako, da lahko govorimo o njih mesec in mesec, vedno z neko ostjo. Veliko je vprašanje, koliko s tem slovenski skupnosti koristimo.

Veliko je stvari, ki jih slovenska emigracija nikoli ne bo rešila, ker jih ne more. Ne zavoljo tega, ker bi ne imela zmožnih ljudi. Ima jih pri tem in onem gibantu. Rešiti jih ne more zavoljo tega, ker so bistva doma, na rodni zemlji. Mi todel moremo samo sklepali, moremo sejati svoje misli na njive, ki jih samo v duhu gledamo. Prav zavoljo tega bi moralo biti več strpnosti in več mirnega gledanja.

Slovenski dan bi moral biti vsakoletni praznik v tem smislu. Da bi se vsi sešli, da bi bil to dan — Treuga Dei — je bil v zgodovini, ko se niti dva sovražnika nista smela postati, kaj šele dva brata po krvi. Imej svoje mnenje, pravico imati te, toda bodo strpeni do misli svojega soseda. Tudi ta je človek, tudi ta je mnogo žrtvoval za stvar, ki si jo nemara v tisti dobi ti z njim zagovarjal.

Večina emigracij je jalovih, ker mislijo, da so vse zjeli z veliko žlico in da imajo veliko poslanstvo do doma in grude, pa pozabljojo, da se vsako leto čezdalje bolj odmikajo od zemlje in da je čas sam mnogo stvari že tako spremenil, da so mnoge besede, ki jih danes naše časopisje še pogreva, že zdavnaj odvečne. Toda navajeni smo tako in pri marsikom je samo še to, kar ga na dom veže.

Mi časa nikoli več ne bomo ujeli. Naši zamahi so prekratki in premalo preračunani. Lovimo veter v vreče po svoji krvidi.

Veliko pa je stvari, ki jih imamo pred nosom. Majhne so, res, naravnost malenkostne ob velikih načrilih. Toda to je tudi edino, ob katerih bi naša emigracija še lahko veliko storila. Ko bi se bolj brigali za slovensko vzgojo mladine, ki jo imamo, ko bi se bolj brigali za potrebe naših delcev emigracije po drugih celinah, ko bi se bolj brigali za slovenski tisk in za slovenske knjige, bi opravili veliko večje delo kakor z mnogimi kregi, v katerih razvijamo visoke misli, pa taisiti hip pozabljam, da je za nas starejše v bodočnosti, morda že zelo blizu, meter in pol dolga jama in nekaj ilovnate zemlje in da bomo svoje načrte dali v roke svojih otrok, na katere smo v čudovitem kregu pozabili. Le kaj bodo naši otroci s temi načrti, če jim nismo znali niti narodnega čuta pošteno vzgojiti?

Slovenski dan naj bi bil dan v tem smislu. Da se najdemo v preprostosti brez vsé zle misli. Da bi s svojo udeležbo podprli dve, na videz majhne stvari, ki pa sta obe globoko slovenski in obe res naši. Na ta način bi moralno podprli delo svojega škofa in delo tistih, ki na svojih rodnih tleh branijo slovenske pravice do šole in jezika.

Ceprav na videz majhna namena sta oba za nas velikega pomena in če bo Slovenski dan uspel, se bomo vsi lahko zavedali, da smo sredi raznih trenj in kregov vendar še toliko zmožni, da za svojo kri še lahko veliko naredimo.

Nedelja, 2. avgusta, je Slovenski dan na farmi društva Sv. Jožefa. Pokažimo s svojo udeležbo, da razumemo tudi majhne probleme in da jih znamo rešiti z dobro voljo!

Karel Mauser.

ve knjige, Ali je tako skop, ali tako malomaren, ali pa je kaj drugega narobe z njim.

Vsek naročnik Mohorjevih knjig je podprt velike misli: apostolata katoliškega tiska. Z narodnino prinašaš kamenje in opeko za solidno zgradbo kraljestva Kristusovega med našim narodom. Naj nas nasprotviki, organizirani brezbojni v tem oziru ne osramote, ko s tako silo in s tako vztrajnostjo delajo v apostolatu za satanovo zmago.

Stari naročniki! Ostanite zvesti starji Mohorjevi družbi, ki so se od nje naši starci očetje in stare materje učili brati. Pričarajte si nazaj one lepe družinske večere, ki ste jih včasih doživljali ob branju Mohorjevih knjig. O dragoceni spomini slovenske družinske tradicije! Vaši otroci vam bodo hvaležni, če te večere obnovite ob Mohorjevih knjig.

Novi naročniki! Joj, koliko bivaš lahko bilo! Ravno ste ustavnivali mlado družino. Na stežaj naj bodo vrata odprta dobri slovenski verski knjigi. Samo se ozrite, mladi možje in mlade žene, po predalih ameriških časopisov, revij in publikacij: koliko javnega pohujšanja pod geslom napačno umevane svobode, ki bo vaše otroke vodila v pripeljala v najstrašnejšo sužnost. Slovenska verska knjiga, ki jo bo otrok videl na mizi ali v omari, bo povedala veliko otrokom o pravilnem nazoriranju staršev.

Najnovjejsi naseljenici! Saj kar hrepene, da bi vam kdo prisnel slovensko knjigo, da boste imeli kaj brati, ko tako radi bretete. Sezite vendar po Mohorjevih knjigah. Tu ne gre za načrno, ko je dva dolarja tako smereno nizka cena za štiri slovenske knjige. Tu gre za to: Ali smo verni Slovenci ali nismo!

Poverjeniki! Nekateri ste sporocili, da ste že pred meseci zaključili pobiranje naročnine in ste že vsé poslali v Celovec. Prav, da ste poslali, ni pa prav, da ste tako hitro "zaključili". Še pobirajte, še pošljite. Petkrat je boljše poslati, kot samo enkrat!

Vsi pošteni Slovenci! Srečate znacna na cesti: Vprašajte ga: Ali si naročen na Mohorjevih knjig? Vzemi naročnino pa jo izroči na pravem mestu!

Pridete v večjo družbo: Rad bi vam nekaj povedal, recite: Ste že naročili vsi Mohorjevih knjige? Kar zdaj je lahko naročite! Če je več ljudi skupaj, gre se boljše od rok. In če eden naročil, bo naročil tudi drugi.

Na mesečni seji društva ste, zakaj ne bi nekdo vstal in priporočil naročitev Mohorjevih knjig? Tudi na pikniku je priljubljeni kaj vamen, za katerega so vam bile poslane! Če ste vi že knjige prej naročili, dajte pismo in kuvertko takemu, ki za njega veste, da še ni naročen. Moramo biti malo bolj praktični!

Vsi in vsak na delo za naročitev Mohorjevih knjig!

P. Odilo OFM.

Oni, ki ste dobili pisma in povratne kuverte: Kam ste založili te kuverte? Ste jih kar založili? Menda ja ne! Mohorjevih družba ima s tem stroške. Skoraj tri tisoč pisem in kuvert je bilo razposlanih po Združenih državah in po Kanadi. Pomislite, koliko dela, koliko stroškov za tiskovine, za znamke! Pošljite vendar one kuverte in uporabite jih v amen, za katerega so vam bile poslane! Če ste vi že knjige prej naročili, dajte pismo in kuvertko takemu, ki za njega veste, da še ni naročen. Moramo biti malo bolj praktični!

Vsi in vsak na delo za naročitev Mohorjevih knjig!

Dr. Val. Meršol:

O slatkorni bolezni

V Ameriki se vrste leta za letom pregledi večjega števila prebivalstva, da bi zdravnik odkrili pravočasno nove primere slatkorni bolnih, zlasti v večjih mestih.

Ugotovljeno je, da v Združenih državah in v Kanadi boleha vsaj 2 milijona ljudi v razni starosti in obeh spolov na tej bolezni.

Kakšni znaki sejavljajo na začetku bolezni? Navadno nastopajo najprej večja žeja, kot navadno; oseba, ki je prej zaužila primeroma malo hrane na dan, poje sedaj precej več, pa je kljub temu vedno lačna; izloča več seča ali urin; pri vsej obilici zavojne hrane izgublja na teži, hitro se utrudni, po koži jo srbi.

Slatkorno bolni imajo v seču slatkorn, katerega pri zdravilih osebah tam ne najdemo. Kolikina slatkorja v krvi je višja kot pri zdravih.

Zakaj obolimo na slatkorni bolezni? Radi nezadostnega delovanja trebušne slinavke ali pankreas, pa tudi iz drugih razlogov.

Kako dolgo traja ta bolezen? Pri nekaterih osebah samo nekaj tednov ali mesecev, pri večini pa več let ali skozi cela desetletja.

Zdravljenje. Pri vsakem bolniku se navadno začne s tem, da mu zdravnik omeji uživanje hrane, ki vsebuje slatkor ali škrob, zniža pa mu tudi količino beljakovin kakor tudi maščob. Pri marsikaterem bolniku ta omejitev zadošča za znižanje slatkorja v krvi in da izgine v seču.

Pri težje bolnih je potrebno znižati količino slatkorja v krvi in njegovo izginjanje v seču, in sicer s pomočjo insulina. Pri zdravilih telo proizvaja v pankreasu zadostno količino tega hormona in ga na potrebo vbrizgal.

Na kaj je potrebno paziti pri slatkornih bolnih?

Diabetiki imajo večkrat slab krvni obtok, pogosto imajo infekcijska vnetja, ki se slabajo celijo.

Posebno je potrebno paziti na bolnikove noge. Noge naj bodo vedno čiste, treba je menjati vsak dan nogavice, noge naj bodo vsele in suhe. Nohte na nogah naj poreže vedno zdravnik.

Slatkorni bolni naj ne kopljajo v vroči vodi, naj ne uporabljajo za male rane joda ali karbolne kislino, ne električnih blazin.

Nositi mora prijazne čevlje, da ne ranijo kožo; nogavice morajo biti cele in naj se precej tesno prilegajo. Bolnik naj ne hodi bos, naj si sam ne zdravi kurjih očes, naj ne odpira žuljnih mehurjev.

Slatkorni bolni mora večino madihiti vsaj enkrat na teden k zdravniku, dokler on ne odredi drugače.

Kdor ne želi dobiti slatkorne bolezni, naj predvsem je le malo slatkih jedil in pijač, tudi sadje mora omejiti.

ZGODOVINSKA POVEST

Čez nekaj dnj je kralj predložil svoj načrt v presojo svojemu tajnemu svetu. Ker je imel prvi glas v tem svetu kraljevi duhovnik, spoznali so Kolumbov načrt za fantastičen in neizvedljiv. S tem sklepem je bila nepreklicljivo rešena Kolumbova usoda na Portugalskem.

— Ko je izvedel kralj, kako je rešil tajni svet, je zaklical:

— Žal mi je za Kolumba! Pa se ničesar storiti ne da, treba je izbiti to misel iz glave! Najboljšo sredstvo za to je delo, torej na delo . . .

— Lotil se je zopet pregledovanja tekočih del. Posrečilo se mu pa ni, da bi pregral misli svoje, vedno mu je prihajalo na misel Kolumbovo ime in njegov vabljeni načrt.

— Ta neumnost mi ne gre iz glave, zamrimal je, porinil od sebe papirje in jeli premišljevati.

Nakrat je vystal in udaril na kovinsko pločo.

— Pošljite takoj — rekel je vstopišemu pažetu — po škofa cestskoga, takoj ga vzprejem.

Paže se je spoštljivo poklonil

— No, dobro, jeden teden še počakam. Ce pa ta čas Monika ne pritrdi, teda kraljevi birci.

— Sv. Marija! Ti spraviš mene še na vešala s tvojim jezikom, Jože! — rekel je prestrašeno gospodar.

— Vzprejmeš li moj pogoj? — je mirno vprašal mornar.

— Da, da — zaklinjam se pri vseh hudičih v peku! — odgovoril je prestrašeni gospodar. — Samo tako ne kriči. Kdo ve, če ni koga blizu . . .

— Dobro, počakam, če pa . . .

— No, obrni se, pojdi k nam.

— Ne, za danes je zadosti, pojdem . . .

Mornar je obrnil hrbet in odšel opotekajoč se. Gospodar je jeden trenot počakal, potem je pa zagorjan neke divje kletvine in vrnil se v svojo hišo.

— Zaklinjam se pri sv. Lernardu! to je prevelika neumnost! — godernal je mladi človek, ki je poslušal ves razgovor. Kaj se neki snuje?! Treba je temu narediti konec! Češ jeden teden biti mora Monika daleč

Pas!

Bil je vroč in soparen poleten večer. Gosta megla je še bolj zgoščevala temo in zavijala v prezračno zagrinjalo portugalsko prestolnico. Mimo nje, so v megli smukale temne postave, katerih se je pa skrbno ogibal stiskajoč se k umazanim vlažnim hišam. Previdno pomikajoč se dalje korak za korakom je prišel naposled do gostilnice.

Third League Is Sure:

A third major baseball league was formed Monday, July 27th, to operate in 1961 with five founding cities—New York, Houston, Toronto, Denver and Minneapolis-St. Paul. William Shea, chairman of Mayor Robert Wagner's New York baseball committee, announced the founding of the circuit to be known as the Continental League. He said there will be a minimum of eight cities in the league which will play a 154-game schedule. He listed 11 additional cities that had expressed interest. Each founding city put up $50,000. Houston had tried to buy four different big league franchises, offering six million dollars for Cleveland, but finally settled on the third league idea.

"HOW SOUND IS A DOLLAR?"

We've all heard the old expression, "As sound as a dollar." However, as a leaflet issued by the Manufacturers Trust Company of New York points out, few of us have asked, "How sound is a dollar?" And the answer, obviously enough, is that the dollar is as sound as our national economy.

So the booklet observes "Our national economy is sound. But there is no assurance that it will remain that way unless we think and act to make it so. A nation, like a person, must 'live within its means,' or it will soon be in trouble."

There is endless discussion about the federal budget—whether it will be balanced, unbalanced, or whatever. No doubt a great many people think this is a matter far removed from their own milieu, and a problem which can be left to the people in high office whose duty it is to deal with great affairs. But the truth is that the federal budget is of the most direct personal interest to everyone in this country. Deficit spending—which follows unbalanced budgets—is the primary cause of inflation. So deficit spending—the failure of the nation to live within its means—reduces the value of every dollar you earn, and erodes your life insurance, your retirement pension, and all other savings.

The government is a reflection of the desires of the people. If the people want and demand economical government—government living within its means—and make their wishes known, they will get it. If they want spendthrift government, and a further degraded money, they will get that. These are the only choices. The political spenders will destroy the dollar unless stopped by the voters.

Be A Prudent Picnic Packer

"Outings" to the country, beach parties, picnicking at the metropolitan parks—these are all sure signs that summer is approaching. With summer family activities comes the question, "How can we maintain the health and safety of our families while we are having fun?"

While the family is out, the safety of each member will be of vital concern to you. The more obvious safety measures—care in handling fire, protection against sunburn, water safety, plant poisoning, proper handling of knives, will be foremost in your mind. Just as important for the well-being of your family is safety in the picnic basket.

You will, of course, include the basic food groups:
—lean meat, fish, poultry, eggs
—milk and milk products
—fruit and vegetables
—bread and cereals

THEN store these foods carefully and safely:
—keep hands, foods, containers clean
—select food carefully
—wash raw fruits and vegetables thoroughly
—refrigerate perishable foods continuously.

Whirling Joe

"I've come to join my husband," said Mrs. Smith, arriving at the Golden Gates.

"Delighted to meet you," replied the keeper. "What was your husband's name?"

"Joseph Smith."

"I'm afraid that will not be sufficient for us to identify him. You see, we have quite a lot of Smiths up here. Are there any other means by which I can identify him?"

"Well, before he died he told me that if I ever kissed another man he would turn in his grave."

"Oh, I know the chap. Up here we call him Whirling Joe!"

Reporting from Washington

FRANCES P. BOLTON • Congressman, 22nd District, Ohio

THE MARINES CERTAINLY LANDED! What a treat for Cleveland to have the Navy and Marines in port! Could anything have made us realize more vividly that we are no longer an inland city—that we have become an international port? It has been growing on us that ships from many nations bring us their wares. How many flags is it that our fine Customs Collector, Albin Cermak, reports are docking daily? But to have one of our greatest cruisers, the Macon, come quietly in and actually tie up at our dock is exciting. And ours is the only dock on the Great Lakes where that is possible!

Operation Inland Sea is a truly exciting business and we can all be grateful to the Navy for its imagination and its far-reaching capabilities. And what a show the Marines gave us! We Clevelanders have certainly been given a shot in the arm. Are we going to bestir ourselves, take up the challenge, and build the docks and warehouses, etc., etc., that we need almost at once if we are to become the best harbor with the greatest capacity on the Great Lakes?

CLEVELAND HARBOR

Down here in Washington we are doing our best to see that the national part of it is being secured. H. R. 7634, the Omnibus Rivers and Harbors bill we passed last week authorized (among other things) additional Cleveland harbor improvements to the tune of $2,436,000. These will deepen the lower end of the Cuyahoga River and a portion of the outer harbor to permit the loading of larger vessels to the full draft of 25.5 feet which will be possible in the Great Lakes connecting channels project now under construction. But there is another $2,869,500 that Clevelanders must make possible for easements, rights of way necessary for construction, strengthening bulkheads, and all such and sundry. How about it, shall we do it?

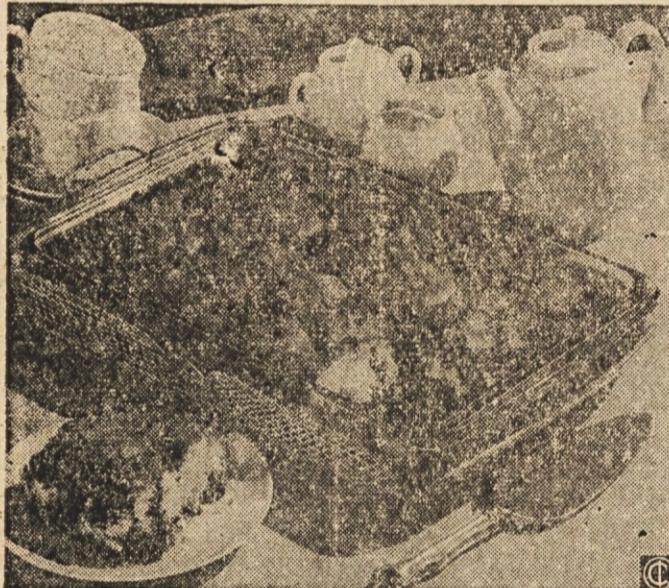

"Air Over Land Is Yours"

This is the title of a very interesting article that appears in "Ownership," publication of Starnes Publishing Co., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, which states: "Do you know that you own the air over your land except only for its use for air travel above? In rare cases, your air rights could have salable or rental value, depending on the location. It may be a parking lot or a low business building next door to a tall building that needs to insure light and air. It may be a strategic location (atop a building) for a billboard or lighted sign. In the most spectacular sense, it may be railroad property in the heart of a large city, desirable for larger buildings. You may not realize it, but the Wladorf-Astoria and Biltmore hotels and the Graybar Building in New York City, the Cleveland Hotel and the Highest Department store in Cleveland, and the Merchandise Mart, the Chicago Daily News, and the Prudential Building in Chicago are all examples of structures built over railroad tracks through the purchase of air rights." The CAC Building is also involved in air rights.

"How does a real estate appraiser figure the value of air rights in such large projects? He determines first of all the value of the land and subtracts from that the extra costs and disadvantages (such as lack of basement space) in building above the viaduct level. The result is the

Cereal Flake Blueberry Kuchen

Versatile Cereal Flake Blueberry Kuchen is that "something special" that turns an ordinary meal into an occasion. Juicy blueberries (fresh, frozen, or canned), crisp corn flakes, brown sugar, cinnamon, nuts, and butter are laced through speedy white cake mix to quickly make a kuchen that has a superb taste, but is not too sweet.

From morn to midnight, Cereal Flake Kuchen seems to "fill the bill" for a special treat. Serve it for breakfast, morning coffee luncheon, or outdoor barbecue dessert, or evening refreshments. This generous recipe is bound to win the approval of busy homemakers, for cereal flake kuchen can be served hot from the oven cold, or frozen for future use. Men enjoy this kuchen because it is not too fussy or too sweet and goes so well with coffee.

The pleasing texture and flavor of this kuchen is in part due to the use of the crushed corn flakes. Breakfast cereal, when used as an ingredient, adds protein, valuable B vitamins, essential minerals, and food energy.

Sprinkle 1 1/4 cups of crumb mix evenly over bottom of greased and floured oblong baking pan (13 x 9 1/2 x 2 inches). Spread batter evenly over crumbs. air rights value — generally about 80% of the total land value. Air rights for such buildings also include the deed to the spots of land needed for the foundation. For example, the Prudential bought title to approximately 250 round caisson-lots in which the steel stumps descend 100 feet to bedrock. The deed to these rights consist of 85 pages, and the plat record is 3 feet high and 16 feet long."

Lincoln Posed For Only One Sculptor

NO SIGNS OF ADJOURNMENT Normally by mid-July Congress is stirring with activity in an effort to complete its business and build a reasonable legislative record. This year, however, the pace has not accelerated significantly, and as yet there is no sign of adjournment. Whether this will be a "Won't Do" Congress remains to be seen, but in spite of bursts of activity at times, the record thus far is not impressive. Considerably less work has been accomplished in the 86th Congress than in the predecessor 85th Congress. At this time last year 161 public bills and 117 private bills had been enacted into law. However, out of 11,678 bills and resolutions introduced this year, action has been completed on only 75 public bills and 35 private bills. A good many of these are of a routine housekeeping nature, necessary to carry on the daily functions of government.

A quick glance at the "Congressional Box Score" shows that the following are the only major bills which have been enacted into law: the regular departmental appropriation bills (only three remaining unconsidered), Extension of Federal Aid to Airports Act, Hawaiian Statehood, Extension of the Draft, Taxation of Life Insurance Companies, Extension of existing corporate and certain excise taxes and Debt Limit Increase.

While Ohio cannot match the number of sites in Kentucky, where Lincoln was born, nor in Illinois, where he lived and practiced law most of his life, Ohio has several localities associated with Lincoln and several unusual monuments to him.

Most unique is the marble bust that stands by the entrance to the Senate Chamber in the State House at Columbus. This bust, by T. D. Jones of Columbus, is the only sculpture for which Lincoln actually posed. This nationally famous sculptor spent several weeks in Springfield, Ill., in 1861 where the president-elect gave him an hour's sitting each day. Many Lincoln scholars journey to Columbus today especially to see this bust.

Cleveland, standing in front of the School Administration Building is a famous statue of Lincoln, portrayed as the sculptor imagined he might look when he delivered the Gettysburg Address. The sculptor was Polish-born Max Kalish, whose early studies were in the Cleveland School of Art. A major portion of the fund for the statue came from pennies contributed by Cleveland school children. It was unveiled on Lincoln's birthday in 1932.

Lincoln visited Columbus on two occasions. September 16, 1859, he made a political speech on the east terrace of the State House, and there is a plaque there to commemorate the event.

Cincinnati has a fine statue of Lincoln by George Grey Barnard which was a matter of great controversy in 1917 when it was new. It has since been accepted as an uncommonly searching portrait of the overburdened wartime president. The statue, which stands in Lytle Park, few blocks east of Fountain Square, was a gift to the city by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phelps Taft. Replicas of it are in Manchester, England, and Louisville, Kentucky.

Lincoln-minded motorists in Ohio can find many places associated with the great man — towns through which his special train passed on its way to Washington, towns through which the funeral train passed and paused while Ohio and the nation mourned. Except for Civil War memorials, however, which include Lincoln's name or figure, these are the chief monuments in Ohio to one of the greatest men of all time.

Poor Sneling

"Good heavens! How terrible!" cried the professor as he finished reading the note left behind by his daughter who had run away.

"Wh, whatever's the matter, dear?" asked the wife.

The professor handed her the letter.

"So she's eloped with that railroader," was the wife's calm comment. "Well, I can't say it's a complete surprise."

"But she's spelled 'eloped' with two 'l's!"

Journey's End

Two women who were maneuvering their car into a tight parking space gave up after a valiant struggle when the driver shut off the motor and said to her companion:

"This is close enough. We can walk to the curb from here."

Sunburn: Some Light on the Subject

Finding your place in the sun this summer can mean the difference between a healthy glow and a blistering sunburn. Tanning can be a tonic for the conscientious sunbather. Most important of the sun's effects is the vitamin D which the ultraviolet rays generate in your body. Other health and pleasure benefits from basking in the sun are indirect by-products: relaxation, a sense of well-being.

4.—Protective preparations should be used until the skin is tanned, after they have been tested in small amounts for allergic reactions. Oils, unguents or salves containing calamine, titanium oxide, or zinc oxide help to bar the passage of the sun's rays.

5.—Keep your hair covered while sun-bathing to avoid discoloration, brittleness and loss of oils which can make the hair unmanageable for months.

6.—Protect your eyes with cotton pads when lying in the sun. Sunglasses, although they may reduce brilliant visible rays of sunlight, will not always filter out invisible rays. Exposure to excessive ultraviolet rays can produce eye irritations (conjunctivitis) and burns.

7.—Areas of the body which have been covered should be exposed for TEN MINUTES or less the first day, with gradual increases after that. Don't try to lose your city pallor in one day: ALWAYS EXPOSE YOUR SKIN FOR BRIEF PERIODS OF TIME until you build up an effective immunity.

and after 2 p.m.

2.—Watch out for "skyshine." Ultraviolet rays can cut through the clouds and fog and cause sunburn even when the sun is behind the clouds.

3.—When the sun's rays are reflected by water, sand or snow, the risk of burning increases. "Beach burn" cooks many a bathing beauty.

A Necessity

Johnny was the center of an admiring crowd after he had rescued a playmate from an icy pond.

"You splendid lad," exclaimed one woman. "Tell us how you came to be so brave and save your friend."

"I had to," said Johnny. "He was wearing my skates!"

Why Should She

Marie: "I don't think much of your fiance."

Betty: "I don't want you to."
