

predne zvezde utrajeni zaspim, v svoje mesto, v svoj mir, te hočem poljubiti še enkrat.

Kriz, naj bodo moja ustne s teboj zaznamovane, da samo o tebi govorim. Tisoč lepih, sladkih, milih besed ti hočem govoriti vsak dan, besed polnih ljubezni, vdanosti, ognja, — besed, ki jih nočem govoriti nobenemu drugemu, nego le tebi, tebi...

Kriz, naj bodo moja prsa s teboj zaznamovana! Na srcu te hočem nositi, ob vsakem u-tripu srca te hočem ljubiti, in iz mojih prsi boš čul sleherni moj dih kot vzdih ljubezni...

O zlati križ, ko prihaja skušnjava, kako ne bi misil nate... ko pride veselje, kako ne bi misil nate... ko pride bol, kako ne bi misil nate... Ce sem sam, če molim, če delam, če počivam, kako ne bi misil nate... Ko hodim trnjeva pota in bdim brez sna, kako ne bi misil nate...

O križ — povsod si mi pred očmi... če pogledam proti nebu, se mi blesti tam, kot spomin na sodnji dan. Če grem na polje, te srečavam ob cestah, ob potih, ob stezah naj-samotnih, kot najboljši kaže pot skoz dolino solz...

In ko se nagne solnce in pride življenja večer, tedaj me ne bo strah. Tebe, zlati mož križ, bom v roke vzel: na tebi visi moj Jezus, moj križani Jezus. O kako sladko je umirati s teboj. Križani moj... Križani, k tebi govorim, na tvoja prsa se spustim!...

Br. Gervazi: V BOŽJEM GROBU

Pozdravljeni mi svete skale, ki tvorite Gospodov grob! Kot žive priče ste ostale v spomin na Jezusov pokop.

Ve tudi priče ste vstajenja, največje zmage spomenik; dokaz posmrtnega življenja, ker vstal je moj Odrešenik.

Tu zarja sladkih upov sveti, v radosti duša se topi. — Zakaj ne smem jaz preživeti v tem svetem kraju svojih dni?

Zakaj jaz nisem luči ena, ki tukaj noč in dan gore; da božja rakev razsvetljena s tolažbo polni mi srce?

Kot luči žar bi tukaj vdano poljubil rakev noč in dan; sladost užival bi neznan, da vsak zavidal bi moj stan.

Pa luči ve le tu svetite, sladost še večjo jaz poznam: Saj ve le božji grob krasite, Boga pa v srcu jaz imam.

Velika noč leta 1930

Severno od Rdečega trga v Moskvi je bilo v široki ulici Iljinki veliko število boljševiških uradov, nekako središče boljševiške moći. Sredi boljševiških uradnih poslopij se je skrivala lepa cerkev svetega Nikolaja.

Cerkev sv. Nikolaja v Iljinku je v poltretjem letu že petkrat zgubila svoje duhovnike in cerkvene predstojnike, ki so junakovo padli na bojišču za sv. vero. A vselej so na mesto padlih junakov stopili novi junaki branitelji cerkve.

Prvi je na veliki petek leta 1928 padel v vsej Moskvi pri-ljubljeni duhovnik Val. Sventic-kij. Čez pol leta so boljševiki arretirali vse duhovnike te cerkve, a povrh še vse cerkveni pevski zbor in vrsto oseb cerkvenega odbora in vernikov. Verniki so dobili novega duhovnika iz druge župnije. Obenem se je nekoliko bogoslovno izobraženih mož dalo posvetiti za duhovnike. Verniki so sestavili nov cerkveni zbor, vrhu te ga pa na svoje stroške vzdrževali še 15 oseb v ječah in v izgibanju.

Novi župnik, oče Aleksander, je bil tako previden, da sploh ni pridigeval. A niti to ga ni rešilo. Čas dojet mesecov je bil na Soloveckih otokih. Za njim je nastopal še skromnejši in ponižnejši menih Maksim, na veliki petek 1930 se pa arstiral in v majnku je še umri na Soloveckih otokih. Za njim je nastopal izvršni mož, oče Izmael, ki je obenem izvrševal dvojno službo, namreč oficirsko službo v rdeči armadi in duhovniško službo v cerkvi sv. Niko-laja sredi glavnih boljševiških uredov.

Rdeči general—obenem duhovnik

Izobražen mlad mož. Dovršil je duhovno akademijo (bogoslovno fakulteto), a ostal v svetnem poklicu. Dosegel je visoko stopnjo v rdeči armadi. Svojega verskega prepršanja napisal. Več let je prihajal v cerkev kar v vojaški obliki. Ko je dosegel poveljniško stopnjo, ki odgovarja prejšnjemu generalskemu činu, je prihajal v svetnem površniku. Tajno je bil posvečen v duhovnika. Začuden verniki so nenačno opazili, da pri oltarju v svečeniški obliki služi pobožni general rdeče armade. To je bil oče Izmael, med verniki najpričutnejši duhovnik. Podnevi so ga večkrat srečali kot visokega oficirja v družbi najvišjih boljševiških uradnikov, pač ali pa v vladnem avtomobilu. Zvečer pa je v cerkvi molil večernice ali pa spovedoval svoje številne duhovne otroke.

Vsem je bilo jasno, da je združevanje tako različnih služb silno nevarna igra. Vsi so vedeli, da so njegovi dnevi šteči. Vendar je kot svečenik služil okoli devet mesecov. Leta 1913 je še z veliko pobožnostjo in gorenčnostjo vodil velikonočno službo božje v cerkvi sv. Nikolaja. To je bilo že preveč. O binkoštih so ga arretirali. Dolgo ni bilo nič slišati o njegovi usodi. Potem se je raznesla vest o njegovi smrti, a se službeno ni potrdila.

"Predragi, Kristus je vstal!" Nov molk in še večja osuplost. Napsled mu je ženska konduktorka hladno in službeno odgovorila:

"No, državljan, pojdi, pojite naprej, ne motite reda!" Delavec se je stisnil v kot. — Pred naslednjo postajo je naglo vstal in šel. Pri vratih se je še enkrat obrnil in z bridkostjo v srcu glasno vzkliknil:

"Resnično je vstal, pravoslavni!"

Nov molk in še večja osuplost. Napsled mu je ženska konduktorka hladno in službeno odgovorila:

"No, državljan, pojdi, pojite naprej, ne motite reda!"

Delavec se je stisnil v kot. — Pred naslednjo postajo je naglo vstal in šel. Pri vratih se je še enkrat obrnil in z bridkostjo v srcu glasno vzkliknil:

"Resnično je vstal, pravoslavni!"

"Zastarelo, tovariš!" je zaklical za njim neki bas iz gručke komosomcev.

Razbit in učinil sem se vrnili domov. Za vedno se mi je v dušo vtilnil ta prizor v tramvaju. Spomnil sem se pesmi neznane-ga ruskega pesnika, ki lepo poje: "Bili smo tam. Njega so križali. Gledali smo od daleč v strahu, da ne bi koga iz nas spoznali kot Njegovega učenca." Tako poje pesnik, ki se skriva nekje v sovjetski Rusiji; njegove pesmi se v rokopisih širijo med verniki.

Taka je bila velika noč v Moskvi leta 1930.

Cerkev sv. Nikolaja v Iljinku je imela burno veliko noč. Na veliki petek je bil arretiran njen župnik Maksim. Veliki četrtek je bila zaprta sosednja cerkev Gruzinske Matere božje. Velički delen je bil arretiran oče Vasilij, župnik cerkve pri Petrovsko - Razumovski akademiji. — Vas je bilo vznemirjeno. Mnogi so plakali. Oče Izmail je postal miren; pomirjeval in tolažil je vernike.

V soboto ob enajstih ponocji se je začela velikonočna služba božja. Dvakrat so šli mimo cerkve brezbožniki z godbo in pi-janskimi klici. Med procesijo je cerkev pretresalo pokanje pekard, ki so jih metali komosomci, ko so šli v sprevod iz svojega zborališča nasproti cerkve. Težka bolest je stiskala srca vernikov. Oče Izmael je pel z veliko vnero in ginenjostjo. Ko je iz dna duše z veliko močjo zapel vzklik: "Kristus je vstal," so solze ginenja tekle po njegovih licih. Iz tisoč gril je zadonel odgovor: "Resnično je vstal."

Zgodnja jutranja maša se je izvršila z veliko slovesnostjo in ginenjostjo. Ob treh zjutraj so bili obredi končani.

To je edina noč v letu, ko vso noč vozi tramvaj. Po vseh gledališčih so brezplačne predstave, brezbožne prireditve in priprave za brezbožno maškerado. Po mestu vozijo tramvajski vozovi, prirejenci kot održi za brezbožne prireditve; na njih nastopajo brezbožniki, oblečeni v duhovniške cerkvene oblačila in v tej obliki gnušno predstavljajo pijačne pope. Razne bogoklestne lutke Kristusa, Matere božje l. dr. Za njimi godci, oblečeni v meničko obliko. Na Katarinskem trgu je veliko brezbožno zborovanje, potem sežiganje Je-susa Kristusa, razpel itd. Vse to se je vršilo ves čas velikonočne posebnih trgov čakajo. Na balnega bogoslužja, približno do keni, s katerimi je okrašeno treh zjutraj.

Po ulicah, ki jih razsvetljuje luč svetilk in mesečine, so videti vse barve mrtvaške. Varni množice, ki so že polni tege, kar bo prišlo, so bolj tiho ko sicer in slično romanju človeškega rodu, ki je smrt posvečen in večno nemire. Mno-ko tujev je tu. Vsi hoteli so prenapolnjeni. Na tribunah to se je vršilo ves čas velikonočne posebnih trgov čakajo. Na skoro sleherno okno, stojijo v "Kristus je vstal"—v tramvaju gneči in so neznansko radovedni, Vse to opisuje Mihail Artemjev, ki je to veliko not predaval v Moskvi. Ko so bili v nedeljo sijutri končani obredi. Vstajenja, se bile istočasno končane prebožne prireditve, da so se verniki in brezbožniki srečavali in na ulicah se je istočasno razhajali domov. Naj nadalje pri-poveduje sam M. Artemjev.

Množice so istočasno prihajale iz cerkva in od brezbožnih prireditiv. Srečala sta se dva nasprotna potoka. Eni so šli mimo in molče, drugi razbradano, s kričanjem in prepiranjem in krohotanjem. Nisem šel rad v razsvetljeni tramvaj. Na Rdečem trgu sem vstopil. Obenem je vstopila družba kričavih komosomcev. V vozu je bila mešana družba brezvercev in vernikov. Pozneje je vstopil starejši delavec, napol kmečko oblečen. Dvignil je zimsko kapo in glasno zaklical:

"Kristus je vstal, državljan!"

Vsi so se osupili ozrli vanj. A takoj so v zadregi pogledali v drugo stran. Vsak se je hal, da bi se njegovi pogled srečal s sedovim. Nihče se ni upal odgovoriti na velikonočni podzrav kakor je bilo prej običajno. Vsi so molčali. Tudi komosomska mladina je osupnjena umolknila.

Kmetski delavec je z nekolicino vznemirjenim glasom še enkrat:

"Predragi, Kristus je vstal!"

Nov molk in še večja osuplost. Napsled mu je ženska konduktorka hladno in službeno odgovorila:

"No, državljan, pojdi, pojite naprej, ne motite reda!"

Delavec se je stisnil v kot. — Pred naslednjo postajo je naglo vstal in šel. Pri vratih se je še enkrat obrnil in z bridkostjo v srcu glasno vzkliknil:

Razbit in učinil sem se vrnili domov. Za vedno se mi je v dušo vtilnil ta prizor v tramvaju.

Sveti oči, ki so v katerih se zrcali luč sveče, da je videti, da bi zarele kravne kaplje iz teh našemljenih obrazov. Njih noge drsajo v leseni coklih; časi so obute v lakaste šolne z zlatimi in srebrnimi zaponkami. Oboje vpliva enako razdražljivo: lesene cokle radi šklopantja; lakasti šolni radi nemirnega migotanja luči, ki po-drijeva z njih.

Nato sledi banderonosec; vi-joličasto, črno ali zeleno bandero in strahotno velikim križem zaplapola v ozračju. Spremljajo ga trobentaci. Njih trobente so iz lesketajočega se srebra. Žametast obesek z zlatim našitkom ponihava od njih. Spremljajo nosači križev in vsi so strašno okomatani, vsi tako po-dravljajo. Tako tisto je vse, da je slišati praskanje sveč.

Iz zlatega mrča cerkvenega czadja prihajajo vojaki v noši rimskih centurijev; prihajata z grbom okrašeni Veliki brat v predstojnikom bratovščine; prihajajo duhovniki v črnih, z zlatom pretkanih ornatih; prihajajo ministranti s kadilcami.

NAJBOLJ PRIMERNI PIRUHI

Ko se obhaja dva največja praznika v cerkvenem letu, Božič in Veliko noč, je med vsemi civiliziranimi narodi širok sveta navada in običaj, dajati in medsebojno menjati primerne darila v znamenje spoštovanja, ljubezni in naklonjenosti. Tako želimo našim dragim sorodnikom, prijateljem in znancem za Veliko noč mnogo lepih piruhov, ki naj jih tudi spominjajo na važnost in pomen tega velikega praznika.

Nas, sinov in hčera, bratov in sester naše podporne matere Jednote, je tudi sveta dolžnost spomniti se naše matere s kakim velikonočnim darilom ali piruhi, posebno še v sedanjem kampanji. Ko boste dragi nam člani in članice prihodnjo velikonočno nedeljo obiskali svoje sorodnike, prijatelje in znance, jim voščili vesele praznike, spomnite se pri tem še naše Jednote. Vprašajte Vaše drage, če so že kje zavarovani? Priporočite jim našo podporno organizacijo, mater in začetnico vseh drugih slovenskih podpornih organizacij v Ameriki. Svetujte jim, naj stopijo pod njeno zastavo, ki ponosno vira širom držav že 42. leto. Razložite jim razne udobnosti in številne vrste zavarovanja, tako tudi različne podpore. Povejte jim, da je naša K. S. K. Jednota od svojega postanka izplačala že približno šest milijonov dolarjev skupnih podprt. Razložite jim geslo naše Jednote: Vse za vero, dom in narod! Osobito jim priporočajte naj vpišejo svojo mladino in zavarujejo pri nas.

S pridobivanjem novega članstva za Jednoto, boste s tem naši podporni materi naklonili najlepše, najbolj pomembne in najbolj primerne piruhe; take vrste darilo vas ne bo veljalo nič; bo pa velike vrednosti za Jednoto in za vse zavarovanje. Prišel bo slučaj, ko se bodo ti novi člani in članice z veseljem spominjali letošnje Velike noči, ko ste jih pridobili v naše vrste; blagrovali bodo vas in našo podporno mater, ko bodo v slučaju neprilik ali kake nesreče prejeli dobrodošlo jih podporo.

Pri vsem tem še vpoštevajte dejstvo, da to vaše dobro delo ne bo zastonj, kajti tekmo te nove kampanje so razpisane za pridobivanje novih članov tudi lepe denarne nagrade. V teh, še vedno slabih časih je vsak lahko zaslужen dolarček dobrodošel!

Delavske razmere do lanske Velike noči so se že znatno zboljšale, osotio po nekaterih mestih in naselbinah. Na podlagi novega ogromnega vladinega relifnega načrta smemo po zatrdirju našega velikega predsednika Roosevelta z gotovostjo pričakovati, da bo že tekom nekaj mesecev depresiji za vedno odzvnilo. Čeravno Vaš sorodnik, sosed ali prijatelj še sedaj res ne more pristopiti k naši Jednoti vsled slabih razmer, pa ga pa z pristop zopet opomniti kasneje.

K sklepu Vas ponovno prosimo, da v resnici vpoštevate najlepše in najbolj primerne letošnje piruhe.

RAZNE ZANIMIVOSTI

Najkrajšo angleško pesem s samo dvema besedama, nanašajočo se na depresijo je zložil kapitan Waller, v Hixton, Wis. Naslov iste je "Broke," besedilo pa: "You, too?" (Ti tudi?)

V tipičnem ameriškem mestu redno čita 87% vseh družin kakšen časopis; 47% jih lastuje hiše; 49% avtomobile; 51% ima doma telefone; 15% ima električne ledene in 41% pa hranične uloge.

Uradni pečat newyorské škofije "Diocesis Neo-Eboraciensis" je posnet po imenu škofije York na Angleškem. Neo-pomeni novi (New), deblo drugačna imena je pa "Ebor," kar znači slonokost, za ravno isto besedo ali ime se je pa rabilo v saksonščini ime "York."

Cudne vrste procesija je v navadi že več stoletij na binčko nedeljo v trgu Echternach, Luksemburška, Nemčija. Ta dan se podajo verniki v romarsko cerkev sv. Williborda v narodni nošti in vsi v mešanih parih, toda ne korakajo, ampak piešijo na način da nadajo 3 korake naprej, 3 nazaj.

Najbolj deževna pokrajina na svetu je Assam, Indija. Ondje tekom leta padlo dežja v kolici 67 cm.

Središče živcev pri osmeronožcu (octopus) je v očeh, zato Havajčani pri lovu te grozne morske živali skušajo razbiti ali prodreti oko, nakar žival pogine.

73% vseh zločinov v Ameriki izvršijo osebe v starosti 18 do 35 let.

Od leta 1917 do 1923 so lovci v Alaski postrellili okrog 150 ton teže ameriških orlov.

Težko je najti slovenskega človeka, v katerem bi se bil najplemenitejši idealizem tako visoko povzpel in dosegel toliko čuda, kakor jih je v Baragi.

Zapustil je trebansko gradiščino, zapustil nevesto, odrekel se topolini družinskega življenja in je postal najprej duhovnik v domovini, kateri je z živo in s tiskano besedo sledi versko mrzle janzenistovsko-jezinske dobe podajal Kristusovo miselnost in milost, potem pa je v ponošeni obliki v zadnjem razredu potniške jadrnice odšel v Ameriko in Indijancem okoli treh velikih jezer ob meji Kanade postal misijonar, narodni probuditelj, zavetnik in oče. V vsem severnem ozemlju Združenih držav ga takrat ni bilo bolj spoštovanega

Sloven FR. J. MILOVŠNIK

"Tega se nikar ne boj!" toljal jih. "Samo nikomur ne pravi o tem! Saj več, kakšni so ljudje. Ako to zvedo, prizadevali si bodo na vse pretege, da naju spravijo narazen. Govorili bodo pred tabo čez mene, in pred menoj čez te iz same nevoščljivosti. Tudi zaradi hčere mi je ljubše, če ne zve še nekaj časa nič o tem. Najboljši je torej, da se delava, kakor bi se med nama ne bilo niti dogodilo, in kakor da sva si še vedno tako tuja, kakor sva si bila doslej. pride že čas, ko se nama ne bo več treba zatajevati pred ljudmi. Seveda, govoril bi pač rad sem in tja s teboj. Kaj praviš, kje bi se včasi lahko sešla?"

"Oh, snideva se lahko večkrat!" odvrne Jera. "Na polju bom imela zdaj najmanj vsak drugi dan opraviti. Če hočeš, pa me počakaj včasi tukaj kje."

"Dobro! Samo glej, da se boš že bolj v mraku vračala. Pričakoval te bom zmirom v takem času, ko bom upal, da greš že proti domu. Toda zdaj se morava ločiti. Saj je itak čudno, da naju še nikd zapazili. Lahko noč torej! Mislim, da se v kratkem zopet vidiva!"

"Le kmalu pridi!" odgovori Jera, in nato se razideta.

"Eno najlepših iznajdb hudičevih je obrekovanje." S temi na pol glasno izgovorjenimi besedami je prestopil Grčar prav svoje hiše, ko se je hotel nekega večera zopet sniti z Jero. Hudobni naklepki, ki jih je snoval v svoji glavi zoper pismočno in njegovo ženo, so dozorevali bolj in bolj, in ta dan je že videl, pri čem mu bo pomagala Jera. Odločil se je bil za to, da napravi pred vsem razpor med pismočno in Rozo. Računal je pri tem kako dobro. Ako se mu ta nakana posreči, izpolnilo se je njegovo prorokovanje, katero je bil izrek na dan njune poroke, ko je namreč rekel, da se bosta pismočna in njegova žena kmalu lasala. Ob enem bi se na ta način maščeval obema, naposled pa še dosegel to, da bi se pismočna ne poganjala še nadalje za Rozino premoženje. Misli je: "Ako mu primrzm ženo, primrzm mu tudi to, kar je njen." Sicer pa je bil namejen, razvojiti ju tako temeljito, da bi ne enemu, ne drugemu ne bilo več hodilo na misel, boriti se zoper njega. Otravnati in zagreniti jima je hotel življenje tako, da bi zgubila vse veselje do njega; a to se je dalo doseči le z obrekovanjem. Pri obrekovanju pa mu je moral pomagati Jera.

Bilo je nekega torka večera, ko je šel Grčar s tem namenom v srcu iskat Jero. Pripravljalo se je sicer k dežu, in pretila je nevihta; toda Grčar je tako hrepelen po izvršitvi svojega naklepa, da se ni dal ostrasti. Šel je iz hiše, akoravno mu je hči prigovarjala, da naj ostane doma. Toda on ni šel po navadni poti, ampak po neki stranski stezi, kjer se mu ni bilo treba bati, da bi ga kdo srečal. To vreme mu je bilo celo po godu, ker je upal, da bo zaradi preteče nevihto malo ljudi zunaj. Tega se je sploh najbolj bal, da bi ga kdo z Jero skupaj ne zatolil, a ta večer si je kaj takega tem manj želel, ker je hotel prvič stopiti z Jero v ozjo zvezzo in ji hotel razdeti del svojega načrta.

Bil se je vlegel že mrak na zemljo, in ker je bilo nebo zavezljeno s črnomišnimi oblaki, bilo je še bolj temno, kakor bi bilo sicer. Tudi Jeri so doma prigovarjali, da naj ne gre na polje, ker se zdaj in zdaj vsuje tel doseči.

"Kaj? To pripoveduje o meji pismočno?" zatogoti se Jera. "To in še veliko drugega!" potrdi Grčar. "Jaz sem na lastna ušesa slišal, kako te je obiral. Kako neprijetno mi je bilo poslušati take stvari o svoji prihodnji ženi, lahko si misliš."

"Oh, jaz mu jih povem!" vzlikne Jera. "Se nocoju mu povem take, da jih bo pomnil nekaj časa!"

"Tisto ni nič!" ugovarja Grčar.

"Ce ga ozmerjaš, snejal se ti bo in te opravil le še hujše. Prijeti ga je treba družeč! Tudi tisti njegovi ošabni ženi bi se spodobil, da se ji prisrežejo nekolični peroti.

To vem, da se doma dostikrat norčujeta iz naju. On ji pripoveduje, kako je tebe speljal na led, ona pa se baha, kako je mente zavrnila, ko sem jo snubil. Pa naj bi se doma že smejevala čez naju, samo to me jezi, da kaj takega še okrog raznašata. Vsak dan moram kaj novega slišati. Zdi se mi, da nimata drugega opravka, nego vleči tebe pa mene čez zobe. No, pa seveda, predobro se jima godi! Vsa srečna sta! Jaz sem vedno mislil, da njun zakonski mir ne bo trajal dolgo. Pa sem se motil, že vidim. Pismočna mora imeti lep zasluzek, da tako dobro živijo. Roza je taka, kakor kakšna gospa. Ne da bi Boga hvalila za to, pa še smesi svojo nekdano tovaršico pred ljudmi. Kaj ni bila ravno tako dekla, kakor ti? Zdaj se pa drži, kakor bi se bila od nekdaj samo po pernicah valjala! Ne, Jera, tega ne smeva dopustiti, da bi šlo to tako naprej. Jaz mislim, da bi bilo dobro, da se nekajko maščujeva."

"Kako pa se naj maščujeva?" vpraša Jera, vsa razgreta vsled Grčjevih besed.

"Vse pojde," odvrne Grčar,

"ako sva pametna in mi hočeš ti pomagati!"

"Ljudje pravijo, da bi ga bila ti rada vzel. Ali je res?"

Jera zardi, toda Grčar teži ne mogel opaziti, ker je bilo že preveč temno.

"Kdo pravi to?" vpraša ne-

NAJVEČJI PARNIK SVETA

Francoska parobrodna črta dela velike priprave za sprejem največjega parnika sveta "Normandie," ki bo napravil prvo plovitev 29. maja. Ta dan odpluje iz Havra in dospe v New York 3. junija. Na tisoče ljudi bo gledalo, ko bo priplul ta ogromni parnik v pristanišče. New York je sezidal za ta parnik nov pomol št. 88, ker so sedanji vsi premajhni zanj.

Iz New Yorka odpluje Normandie 7. junija opoldne in potem 22. junija, 10. in 31. julija. Čez morje bo prišel prej kot v petih dneh.

Potniki bodo dobili najboljšo postrežbo. Za slovenske potnike je izbran Mr. Ivan Vrhovsek

kot glavni strežnik v 3. razredu. On bo gledal na to, da bodo potniki z vsem najboljšo postreženi in da bodo imeli zelo udobno vožnjo. Pričakuje se, da bo na Normandie največja grupa Slovencev, ki bodo potovali le-tos v staro domovino.

"Kako bi ne hotela," pripomni Jera. "Sovražim ju oba." Grčar je bil jako zadovoljen s tem odgovorom.

BARAGITES' ENTHUSIASM MOUNTS AS MIDWEST PIN MEET NEARS; KSKJ BOWLERS TO USE 28 ALLEYS

Bowling Entry Deadline April 20; Ask Guests, Bowlers to Make Reservations Early

Milwaukee, Wis.—Those two great days, May 4 and 5, Midwest tourney days, are almost here, and the fever of excitement is mounting steadily among the Baragites.

Plans for all the events are coming along in fine shape and we are all eagerly waiting for those two days to come, so that the Knights and Ladies of Baraga will be able to play the part of perfect hosts for this, our first tournament and "junior convention."

Attention, team captains! Have you sent in your bowling entries? The deadline for these entries is April 20, so get your teams all organized and come to Milwaukee. The alleys at the Plankinton Arcade are in tip-top shape, and since there are 28 drives, you can readily see that we can accommodate a good number of teams without undue delay.

We wish to invite you non-bowlers from other cities, too. The Arcade can seat a great number of spectators very comfortably without crowding, so come down and watch your favorite bowlers knock down a lot of wood. We would like to hear plenty of cheering for the bowlers on those two days, so come to Milwaukee and bring the family with you!

The trophy for the winning team has been selected at one of the leading jewelry establishments in Milwaukee, and it is a beauty! The fortunate winner of this trophy will be proud to exhibit it at their club room and it is a beautiful piece of art that will enhance the appearance of any room. It is eye-catching and entirely different from the usual run of awards. Tourney Booster is of the opinion that this should be an added inducement to all bowlers.

Just a few words with regard to hotel accommodations and rates. The Plankinton Hotel, official headquarters for the tourney, and located in the heart of the Milwaukee downtown district, is at 611 N. Plankinton Ave. Rates are from $2.50 up. A double room (with bath, of course) is from $3.50 up. If four or more bowlers decide to bunk (if such a thing is possible when a gang of fellows get together) in one room, the price will be $1.50 apiece, so, the more, the merrier. Most of you know what fun can be had at a hotel after dancing is all finished, and those of you that will go to the hotel to SLEEP will no doubt take a floor on which there won't be much commotion. Oh, yes, Tourney Booster has memories of previous tournaments and this is the "Voice of Experience" talking.

All those individuals that do not wish to stay at the hotel kindly get in touch with George M. Kotze just as soon as possible. All housing arrangements will be made by his staff, so we ask you out-of-towners to co-operate with us. We hope to see all of you at both of our dances and at the bowling alleys and hope that there will be no private parties at taverns, etc., on those nights.

How many dance tickets have been sold? If you Baragites are running short of tickets—get more of them from Jack Jenich, as he has charge of them. Don't forget that each Baraga member must buy one ticket for either dance. With the very excellent music of Alvin Kelbe at South Side Turn Hall on Saturday, May 4, and

Scores Strike While Sitting

There should have been a special prize for the West Park booster who made a strike while sitting down. It all happened at the scene of the recent Eastern pin tourney, when the said booster sat on the display window edge and leaned back. The tenpins, there to attract customers, toppled over.

Officials of the meet did not enter the score, because it happened at 12:30 a. m. Sunday, when the first round was already complete.

LA SALLE GIRLS SPILL 2020 TO TRIP WAUKEGAN

La Salle, Ill.—The La Salle bowling boosters traveled to Waukegan Sunday, April 7, to match their strength with the St. Anne aggregation from that town. Despite Edith Ogrin's beautiful 201 singleton, the Waukegan ladies had to take the short end of a 2020 to 1995 count, a margin of 25 pins. The La Salle girls had high single game also, a 728 count.

It is planned to have a return game with Waukegan in La Sale on Sunday, April 28, at the K. C. Bowling Alleys.

The La Salle girls who made the trip thank the Waukegan ladies for the wonderful hospitality tendered them while in their town. They especially wish to thank Miss Edith Ogrin and Mrs. Frances Tezak for the delicious meals served them. The people who made the trip were Mrs. Anton Horzen, Misses Josephine Horzen, Frances Jancer, Mary Sever, Theresa Woodshank and Ann Pelko.

THANK YOU

Cleveland, O.—The Ohio KSKJ Booster Club recently sponsored its first Eastern KSKJ bowling tournament, which in every sense of the word turned out to be a success.

That it was a success the club owes an expression of gratitude to the teams and individuals participating, to our KSKJ friends from Pittsburgh and Joliet, to Anthony J. Grdina, chairman, and his bowling and banquet committees, to the supreme officers in attendance:

Joseph Zalar, supreme secretary; Matt Pavlakovich, second vice president; Mrs. Mary Hochevar, auditor; Frank Lokar, trustee; Rudolph Rudman, finance officer; Dr. M. F. Oman, medical examiner;

Ivan Zupan, editor of Glasilo; Frank Banich, athletic commissioner; to those who sent messages of greetings: the Rev. J. Plevnik, supreme spiritual director; Frank Opeka, supreme president; Pauline Treven, member Athletic Board; Midwest KSKJ Bowling Association, Frank Kosmach, secretary; Canonsburg Boosters and Brooklyn Trinity Knights; to Slapnik Bros., florists; to Mrs. Josephine Lausche-Welf and Miss Mary Udovich, and Dr. William Lausche, to Miss Perko and Miss Komater, to the Amerika Domovina for publishing the schedule, and to all who manifested an interest.

The success of the tournament lies not in the fact that so many champions were decided, but in the fact that there was a display of KSKJ spirit, a feeling of fraternal oneness. The Ohio KSKJ Booster Club feels satisfied that the KSKJ spirit is alive in the East and will do all in its power to keep it thriving.

Ohio KSKJ Booster Club,
Stanley P. Zupan, Sec'y.

Couldn't Keep Them Away

Sore thumbs, sore feet, no, not even the German measles kept the active boosters away from the Eastern pin meet.

A snoopy O. P. reporter learned that one of the bowlers actually had the measles, and it is far from being a joke.

The name of the person who was dotted on the day of the tourney will remain a secret, because, if revealed, some of the bowlers may begin to imagine they will get them.

There were two M. D.'s and two D. D.'s in the meet, but they were there to bowl. So was the person with the measles.

West Allis Society Bills Card Party, Dance

West Allis, Wis.—Members of St. Joseph's Society, No. 103, are hereby cordially invited to attend the card party and dance, first after Easter, to be given April 24 at Frank Kralj's Hall. Come one and come all, and do not forget to bring along your friends and neighbors, for proceeds are intended for the society's treasury. On the other hand, the bigger the treasury, more help can be rendered to needy members. Admission is only a trifling sum of 25 cents per person. Card party commences at 7:30 p. m.

Won't you do something for your lodge?

Sister lodges are also cordially invited. Tickets can be obtained from Secretary Louis Sekula at any time.

SOMEPIN' 'BOUT THE TOURNEY

by Special Reporter

The East got a good taste of bowling tournies. Twenty-two hours of pin crashing over eight alleys. A goodly crowd was there, though the meet was staged at the Clair-Doan Alleys, contrary to the announcement in Our Page.

Our hats off to the ladies—and a bow, too! The girls came across with nine teams. They did a lot of practicing before the meet. One bowler aisled the mineralite for 22 games Friday—which, when one comes right down to it, is more than many a bowler would do.

Sportsmanship, too! The peppy Frank Habich, president of St. Vitus, bowed his first game in the tourney—as did Mrs. Hochevar, supreme officer. Then there was Ray J. Grdina, also a novice, not to mention a list of players who were initiated. In general, it was an amateur affair. In fact, when one made two strikes in a row, there was talk of "ringers."

The supreme officers' team revealed two lefties on the squad—Doc Oman and George Panchar. Both had hooks on the ball, but for some reason or other they didn't hook right at all times.

Stan Zupan was anchor man on the St. Joes' Prominent, and he sure held the team down. No kidding, he actually had a sore foot. Now that he's initiated, the next pin meet he enters will find him with a bandage on his finger—an alibi that always works.

Then there is the champ! All set and raring to enter the Midwest meet, with eyes on the kibitzer prize. They call him the G. B. bowler. Bowls with either hand and wonders why they have the aisle stretching down, when it is so easy to send them down the grooves.

The busiest man—and a blue ribbon to him—was Tony Grdina, the big gun behind the tourney. The smile was a guarantee that he was pleased with the tourney.

Rudy Rudman of Pittsburgh was there. Perhaps these sidelights would be complete by merely stating, "The meet was a success; Rudy was there." Sure, his stogie, rather another stogie, was there, too.

Frank Lokar of Pittsburgh stormed the Lake Erie city with his Pitt boosters. With him came that big smile and an invite to the Pitt duckpin meet.

Says he, "We'll furnish the ducks! So come to our tourney."

Joey Grdina and Lou Slapnik, perhaps the shortest of all bowlers, made up the ace doubles team. They proved that it is not speed or power—but in knowing how to do it. Al Safovec, singles champ, was another shorty. A big tourney of little men.

The prize for meekness goes to Frank Ramutta of Joliet. To him also went the all-events prize. As for popularity, it is doubtful if anyone had as many well-wishes as he did as he went into his third set. Everyone was pulling for Frank and hoping he would connect for the all-events ribbon. He did.

The Gardenia boys, Hank and Frank (it rhymes) from Chicago bowed in the two-on-a-team events. Ask the boys for their scores, or their alibis.

Nottingham threw a surprise by ante-ing their entry with a ladies' team. What's more, they added color to the gallery with all their fair boosters.

So did Mary Magdalenes and the Lorain girls. Isn't it surprising how much interest there is in bowling? Yeah! Which by the way may have had something to do with some of the punk scores tallied by some of the collar-ads, who by their presence also proved that the KSKJ has them, too.

Undoubtedly one of the most active sport boosters in the KSKJ, Joseph Zalar, supreme secretary, drove in with two teams. Without him, the meet would have lacked that all-necessary KSKJ flavor. He did well, too, in rolling the first ball of the Sunday squads, when he mowed the maples down for a perfect strike. Frank Banich, athletic commissioner, officially opened the

PITT DUCKPIN VICE PREXY MEET SEEN AS GREAT EVENT IN EAST

Pittsburgh, Pa.—The Eastern Vice Presidential Bowling Tournament promises to be one of the greatest spectacles of KSKJ enthusiasm ever to be contemplated for the benefit of the Eastern KSKJ membership. According to reports received by the committee in charge, Jays from every nook and corner will be represented.

One of the predominant features of the tournament, which is expected to give it the largest boost, will no doubt be the three classes for men and two for women. The committee has found that by this means every contestant will be made to feel he is in the game and not only filling in for sportsmanship's sake. There will be the regular, senior and rookie or novice classes for men; for women, the regular and rookie or novice classes. The reason for this unconventional type or mode of perpetrating this "vice prexy go" of ours follows from the reason given above it so many "once in a great while" bowlers would be kept from participating through their own shyness in displaying their lack of ability as bowlers. A "60" to them in the rookie or novice class would be an achievement, whereas in the regular class it would be a cause for chagrin.

In entering teams in the above classes it will be all left to the sportsmanship of those in charge of entering their respective teams. As a bit of conciliatory advice, the regular class is to include teams which consist of bowlers who know how to keep score; the senior class is to include teams composed of older men; the rookie or novice class are teams of bowlers contestants not being very proficient at the sport, but who at the same time desire to be in the fray. There will be prizes and medals for each class.

Send in your entry blanks as soon as you get yourself or your group organized.

Pittsburgh is waiting with open arms to give you the time of your lives.

F. J. Sumic.

ship toward one another. This was received with very hearty applause.

On Tuesday evening, March 2, the Knights with their wives and girl friends enjoyed a very happy evening at a social held at Bro. Grilz's vacant store. The day before the event some of the boys spent many hours decorating the place, and from remarks passed the night of the social, it seems their work was greatly appreciated.

Beer, sandwiches and dancing was greatly enjoyed by all. The new idea proposed by the boys to revive attendance at the meetings is already bearing fruit and proving successful, judging from the attendance at the last few meetings. Each member who wishes to partake donates 25 cents toward the buying of beer and sandwiches after the meeting, and this is greatly enjoyed amid songs, stories and jokes. At the last so-called beer racket a home talent amateur night was introduced by yours truly, who acted as the master of ceremonies. This event was one that won't be so easily forgotten.

Each member had to sing a solo or recite or tell jokes, and you can easily picture what a time we had.

When Bro. Bandi was called upon to do his bit he surprised everyone with a little speech, edy, "The Ghost of Jerry Bundler," to be presented some merit and praising them for time in May.

MIDWEST CIRCUIT SETS CONFAB FOR APRIL 28

Expect Newcomers in Baseball League

Departing from the customary procedure of holding the annual meeting of the Midwest KSKJ Baseball Association on the same Sunday as the bowling tourney, the officers and directors of the league will convene Sunday, April 28, in Chicago at St. Stephen's Church hall, Lincoln and Cermak Rd. The scheduled time of meeting has been set for 3 p. m.

This year the Midwest circuit will open its eighth active campaign to determine the contender for the national KSKJ baseball title. The St. Florian Boosters of South Chicago, defending national champions, will find the competition keener than in previous seasons. Various Kay Jay teams which have consistently competed in the circuit have undergone considerable revamping and promise the league leaders a hot race for title honors.

The league has already received notice that the St. Michaels, No. 152, of South Chicago will enter a team in this summer's campaign. It is expected that the St. Stephens and St. Aloysius of Chicago will be again represented. Other teams that will renew their quest for a Midwest title are the Baragas of Milwaukee, St. Joes of Waukegan and the Joliet KSKJ Boosters.

Directors and representatives of new teams are to be reminded that no entries will be accepted after April 28. Owing to the fact that the meeting this year is being held at a late date, schedule arrangements and other important items will be settled at this time. Deadline for the 15-player roster is May 15. This year, policy numbers of eligible players must be noted on the rosters.

All officers and directors are urged to be present at this forthcoming meeting. Election of new officers will be a very important item.

Edward F. Kompare, President Midwest KSKJ Baseball Association.

'BOUT THE TOURNEY

(Continued from Page 7) meet, but failed to strike. According to the rule book "For official openers," only one ball is allowed. But Frank opened a tourney that turned out to be a success of which the Ohio KSKJ Booster Club may be proud.

Beaney Modic, Marty Sveti and Gredence, the barber, saw most of the tourney most of the time, for they held the official score books.

Messages of greetings and well-wishes came from the Rev. Fr. Plevnik, supreme spiritual director; Frank Opeka, supreme president; Frank Kosmach, secretary of the Midwest KSKJ Bowling Association; Pauline Treven, member KSKJ Athletic Board; Canonsburg Boosters, and the Brooklyn Trinity Knights.

If we were to go out and buy orchids for all the people that deserved them, Slapnik would do a good business. Several of them would go to Lawrence Leskovec, president of St. Joseph's. Though not a bowler himself, he backed a team of his boys. It was a pleasure to watch the young fellows.

There was no "lost and found" department at the alleys. If there was perhaps Mary Rode, captain of one of the Magdalene teams, would have found her girls.

St. Anne's to Present Two Comedies, Dance

Waukegan, Ill.—Everything is in readiness for the delightfully entertaining program to be presented by the St. Anne's Society, No. 127, Easter Sunday at the Mother of God Auditorium. The Slovenian two-act comedy has been the cause of a good deal of comment during the past few weeks of rehearsal and is sure to prove the hit of the evening.

The English one-act comedy, "Right About Faces," the second part of the program, has also been reported a huge success during rehearsals and should be good for a good many laughs. The interest centers around a "beauty shop" which caters "especially to the older women, who wish to restore some of the natural beauty they possessed in their youth."

A fine performance is promised and assured and all members are invited to attend, as well as everyone else. Dancing will follow, with Dick Ames and his Ambassadors furnishing the music.

JOLIET PREPS FOR MIDWEST BOWLING MEET

Joliet, Ill.—There is much activity on the local alleys as the Joliet Boosters are preparing for the big tourney to be held in Milwaukee May 4 and 5. According to reports, there will be a large number of Jolietters at the meet.

To what extent preparations are being made can be deduced from the fact that some of the bowlers have purchased a new ball, the so-called "powerhouse ball," good for strike every time, if it is wheeled down right.

Many entries in all classes are expected from the local squads. Apparently Joliet will be out for a bid in sharing some of the honors.

The local bowling league will soon ring down the curtain for the current season. In order to keep in trim, matches have been arranged for both the men and women teams.

Members are urged to attend the meeting April 29, at which time plans will be made for the trip to Milwaukee.

KSKJ Member Soloist In "Bohemian Girl" Booked by Lorain Group

Lorain, O.—Mary Polutnik, president of Immaculate Conception Society, No. 85, has been assigned one of the soloist parts for the light opera, "The Bohemian Girl," to be presented in the high school auditorium April 23 and 24 by the Lorain Musical Arts Society, under the direction of Handel Wadsworth of Cleveland.

Arline, leading feminine role, will be sung by Rose Mackert on the opening night, April 23, and by Maureen Decker on the second night, April 24.

For three parts the same soloists will be retained both nights. Norman Park will take the role of Thaddeus, Urlin Sergeant of Devilshoof, and Mary Polutnik of Buda.

The opera is the most famous light opera ever written in English and will be presented with a chorus of 60, a ballet of 16, and an orchestra of 35.

The group will broadcast excerpts from "The Bohemian Girl" April 17, 10:30 to 11 p. m., over WHK, Cleveland.

STRIKES -- SPARES and RAILROADS

By Mary E. Polutnik

Lorain, O.—The bowlers of the Lodge Mary Magdalene of Cleveland certainly stood out during the tournament, with every member wearing a pretty pink carnation. To see so many.

Certainly found the young ladies from Joliet to be a very congenial and pleasant sort.

They certainly have a nice bowler in the person of Genevieve Benedict. She sure can send that ball down the alley. No wonder her co-workers in the office of the Northern Illinois Cereal Co. presented her with a little package and told her not to open it until she came to the alleys. Genevieve didn't think of it until she was busily sending the balls down the alley in the second game on Sunday morning against the girls of the Immaculate Conception Society of Lorain. She then quickly opened the package and found an empty typewriter ribbon box filled with 500 common pins and a little note saying, "Hoping you will get as many pins." Very clever indeed!

Did you notice the mother and daughter team in the doubles? In case you didn't, and probably didn't know from where they hailed, let me tell you that they were Mrs. Anna and Helen Urbas, respectively, both members of the Immaculate Conception Lodge of Lorain, O.

There were certainly quite a number of sisters on the various teams, here are just a few:

Florence and Genevieve Benedict, Joliet, Ill.

Mary and Helen Polutnik, Lorain, O.

Joan and Alice Sveti, Lorain, O.

Carrie Jacopine and Jennie Cerne, Lorain, O.

Frances and Antonia Medved, Cleveland, O.

Vera cast Vam, Mrs. Helena Mally! Mrs. Mally is a good sport all the way around. Although over 60 years of age, she considered herself young enough to come out and bowl, and she did her very best.

Congratulations to the young women of the SS. Cyril and Methodius' Society, No. 101, of Lorain, O., for knocking down so many pins and thereby walking off with the lovely trophy. They certainly had one great bowler in the person of their captain, Carrie Jacopine, who carried off all the prizes in all the various events for the women.

Mike Cerne and Stanley Zupan, together with the bowling committee, comprised of Anthony J. Grdina Jr., Ludwig Vidrick and Rose Chapic, deserve credit for everything they did to make this first bowling tournament here in the East the success that it was. They worked hard and can feel gratified that their efforts were not in vain.

Many thanks to the members of Mary Magdalenes for the nice banquet that was served to all keglers and their friends following the tournament. We certainly enjoyed it.

As a final word, here's hoping that this was just the first of many more tournaments to be held here in the East.

Mary E. Polutnik.

EDITOR'S NOTE

The official scores of the Eastern KSKJ bowling tourney have been compiled, and we regret lack of space prohibits publication of them in this issue.

GAMAJE ONCE-OVERS ALLEYS

Milwaukee, Wis.—I just arrived at the Arcade. I am getting the low-down of the place. I made several inquiries as to the shape of the alleys and gutters and they tell me they are all new alleys. They came with the building, and will be in A-1 shape. They will be highly polished and new gutters put in. We have a special nine-pin alley for the kibitzer league.

By the way, before we forget, how would you like to win a new pair of holes for your bowling ball or raffle on a
