Velika črna maša za pobite Slovence

Zmagoslavna pot — — — Glejte kosti vstajajo v jami, da gredo na zmagoslavne vozove med prtrkajoče zvonove na svojo Triumfalno pot. Pospremimo jih s tankim posluhom.

Kontrola je ugotovila tudi to, da so udarniki zjutraj strumno prikorakali na delo, kjer so jih popisali. Nato so se pa porazgu- bili po sencah, gostinskih pod- jetjih in odšli tudi na kopanje. Zvečer so se zopet zbrali v tabo- rišču, če so vedeli, da bodo dobi- li pivo. Lista pravita, da ljub- ljanski "zabušanti" hodijo na delo samo zato, da pridejo do po- trdila o opravljenem delu.

Električarska unija v levičarskih rokah
New York. — V strokovni zvezi električarskega delavstva je pri zadnji konvenciji zmagala levičarska skupina. Novi odbor unije je takoj izjavil, da bo na- stopil proti politiki CIO. Takoj je tudi začel priprave za nekate- re stavke v električarski indu- striji. Posebno zahtevajo levi- čarji takojšnjo stavko v Gene- ral Electric in Westinghouse podjetjih.

Drugi primer "vzornega udar- niškega dela" navaja komuni- stični tisk iz Kočevja, kamor je pripeljal poseben vlak kosce na državna posestva. Na košnjo je odšel samo manjši del "koscev", drugi so jo pa kar mahili v hladne valove Rinže. Lista na- vajata, da se "pravi udarniki" pritožujejo, češ, da gre delo brez udarnikov bolje od rok.

Ponekod pa delajo tudi, kar tja v en dan. Tako so kopali dve leti teren za novo žel. progo okoli Rožnika, nato so pa na le- pem delo ustavili, češ, da bi bilo predrago.

V vrtincu valutnih sprememb
Washington. — Avstralija je devalvirala svoj funt napram dolarju na 2.24. Poljska je odlo- čila, da v bodoče stane angleški funt 1,017 zlotov. Doslej je bila cena za funt 1680 zlotov. Av- strijska vlada je odločila, da ostane razmerje avstrijskega šil- linga napram dolarju nespreme- njeno. Pakistanska vlada je sklenila, da ne zniža svoje valu- te napram dolarju in funtu. Irak je valuto znižal v soglasju z znižanjem angleškega funta.

Tiskarji v Cincinnati stavkajo
Cincinnati. — Trije dnevni li- sti, ki izhajajo v Cincinnati imajo spor s svojim tiskarskim delavstvom, ki zahteva po $96 na teden, dočim podjetja ponu- jajo $93. Stavci so stopili v stavko, lastniki pa bodo tudi med- tem časovno skušali liste izdajati na isti način kot so izhajali med stavko v Chicago.

Slovenski dom vabi na proslavo svoje 30-letnice

Naša narodna zgradba, Slo- venski dom na Holmes Ave. v Clevelandu, bo praznovala v nedeljo 30-letnico, odkar slu- ži narodu tako vneto in zvesto. Ta je bil eden prvih narodnih hramov, ki jih je postavil slo- venski dom na Holmes Ave. v Clevelandu. Pa je tudi eden izmed redkih, ki je ostal vse skozi narodova last in ne last kakšne rdeče klike.

V nedeljo popoldne ob treh bo pričel zanimivega variet- nega programa v dvorani. Bo nekaj slavnostnih govorov, pet- je, godba, umetni ples, nastop čarovnika ter dva kratka komi- čna prizora. Vodstvo progra- ma bo v spretnih rokah narod- nega delavca, Franka Matoha.

Po programu bo banket v zgornji dvorani, zatem pa ples v obeh dvoranah. Narod je pri- jazno vabljen, da z delničarji in direktorijem praznuje ta po- membni dan in naj se v velikem številu udeleži v nedeljo popo- dne in zvečer programa in ban- keta v Slovenskem domu na

Holmes Ave. Naj omenimo, da je direktorij izdal za to priliko krasno pro- gramno knjižico z zgodovino te narodne stavbe, slikami in opla- si. Največ se je trudil za knji- go vrli tajnik Frank Walter, kateremu je pomagala pri an- gleškem delu pridna hčerka Irene. Oba sta laiko ponosna na svoje delo.

Slovenski dom naj bo še dol- go res SLOVENSKI DOM za naš narod v novi domovini. Če- stitamo ob 30-letnici delničar- jem in direktorijem ter želimo največ uspeha.

Pozor, Pozor, poroča Collinwood

Nepričakovano je mojster naše polke Frank Jankovič v zadnjem hipu napovedal, da bo z vsem štabom svojih izvrstnih sodelavcev nastopil v nedeljo pri- pravljeno 30 letnico Slovenskega doma v Collinwoodu na Holmes

Ave. Preskrbite si vstopnice za večerni banket takoj, še danes.

Žene kandidirajo za predsednika USA

Washington. — Sena torka Margaret Chase je napovedala, da bo leta 1952 zmagala tista stranka, ki bo za predsednika ali podpredsednika določila kot kandidata kako žensko. Dosta- vila je seveda, da se ona ne bo borila, da bi sama kandidirala.

Premogariji zaprli sedem premogovnikov

Clarksburg, W. Va. — Pretep je nastal tu med množico premo- garjev, ki stavkajo in tistimi, ki so skušali obdržati rudnike v obratu. Kakih tisoč premogar- jev je vdrlo v sedem rudnikov in jih vse zaprlo. Policijske pa- trulje, ki so prišle v rudarsko okrožje, se niso spuščale v spor z nastopajočimi premogariji.

Nedeljsko pismo

Dragi prijatelji!

Poznaš tele verze?

"Dolgost življenja našega je kratka, kaj znanec že zasula je lopata, odprta noč in dan so groba vrata, al' dneva ne pove nobena pratka..."

Tale sonet mi je prišel na misel, ko sem bral v nedeljskem evangeliju žalostno zgodbo o mladeniču iz Najma. Uboga mati, sina edinca je imela, oče je že davno odšel v večnost in sedaj še sina izgubi. Kdo ji bo v oporo na stara leta, kdo ji bo preskrbel vsakdanji kos kruha? Pa njena neskončna vera v božje usmiljenje jo reši vseh teh skrbi, ena sama Jezusova beseda zadostuje in že stopi pred njo njen sin, poln zdravja in življenja.

Zgodba se sicer veselo konča, kljub temu pa vrže na naše življenje neko temno senco, ki bi jo lahko izrazil z besedo: danes meni, jutri tebi, ali: spominjaj se človeka, da si prah in da se v prah povrneš. Kakor je misel na smrt težka, tako je za vsakega izmed nas neizogibna. To dejstvo bi nam vsem sicer moralo biti zelo domače, saj je pravzaprav vse naše življenje zadnjih let bilo eno samo, nenehno srečavanje s smrtjo, ki je bila tako kruta in krvava. Po posebni božji previdnosti sva ji ušla ti in jaz in danes uživava mir brez bojazni in trepetja. In prav v tem mirnem življenju obstoja za naju nevarnost, da pozabiva na to, da se bodo morala že danes ali jutri iztekle tudi ure najinega življenja in kakor bo drevo padlo, tako bo bledelo.

Nič ne pomaga, prijatelji, najina usoda po grehu v raju je: prah si in v prah se povrneš. Komaj se ti odpre ob rojstvu oko in se zastremiš v čudesa božje narave, že ti nevidna božja poslanka smrt dahne v uho: tudi tebe bom pokosila, tudi ti boš šel z menoj. Nihče od nas ne bo pomiloščen, niti bogastvo, niti kupi premoženja, ne cvetoča mladost, niti lepota, ne čast, ne slava, ne podkupovanje, ne protekcija, nobena stvar nas smrti ne reši.

"Nas smrti ne obvarje koža gladka, od nje nas ne odkupijo kupi zlata, ne odpodi od nas življenja tata, veselji smeh, ne pevcev pesem sladka..." zapoje spet pesnik.

Temu dejstvu torej se je nemogoče izogniti. Zato obstoja samo še eno vprašanje: kakšna bo smrt za naju?

Dvojni obraz ima smrt: za nekatere je smrt nekaj strašnega, obupnega, saj jim prinaša večno prokletstvo, za druge spet je smrt samo rešiteljica, saj z njo se izpolnijo vse nade in hrepenenja življenja.

Nekaj strašnega mora biti ločitev od življenja za one, katerim je bilo geslo življenja: življenje je uživanje. Kot mlad duhovnik sem doživel tole: Pozno v noč me pokličejo k umirajoči bolnici. Žalostna je bila zgodba njenega življenja. Komaj 16 let ji je bilo ko sta ji umrla oče in mati Dekle, mlado in lepo, si je zahotelo življenja, prostega in veselega, pa je odšla v mesto, kjer se je prodala cesti in grehu. Vedno globlje je gazila v grehu in močvirju in plačilo je bilo, strašna bolezen, gnila je ob živem telesu. Odšla je v bolnico, pa pomoči ni bilo. Tisti večer jo pripeljejo domov, umret. Poznala sva se v življenju, zato se je hotela posloviti od mene. Pogled nanjo je bil obupen. Njena, nekoč tako cvetoča lica, so bila vsa polna ran, oči, nekoč tako bistre in polne življenja, zalite z gnojem, njene roke ena sama rana, prsti so ji že odpadali, pogled nanjo je bil pogled na utelešen greh. — "Predno odidem v večno prokletstvo," mi pravi, "sem hotela se govoriti s teboj. Bom čisto kratka. Ti sočkrat sem že proklamala življenje v teh svojih poslednjih urah, tebi pa zaupam moj testament. V času, ko sem jaz služila grehu, si ti postal duhovnik. Mlad si še, Bog ve, kje te bod ovdela pota življenja. Učil boš mladino, jo svaril in vodil na pravo pot. Povej vsem, kam je mene pripeljal greh, kako nečistniki umirajo. To je moj testament. Sedaj pa pojdi, končala sem."

Pa nisem šel, dolga je bila povest njenega življenja, pa je bila končana z lepo spovedjo. Ta duša je bila moj najlepši duhovniški dar.

Kako strašna mora biti smrt za tistega, ki vse svoje življenje služi le temu svetu, grabi skupaj premoženje, denar, kupe zlata, ob smrti pa bo njegov edini prostor sedem ped: dolga jama in še ta tako ozka in tesna in v njej bo segnil in strohnol.

To je en obraz smrti. Na drugi strani pa je smrt za premnože dan največje sreče, da rešitve iz doline solz v pokrajine večne sreče in veselja.

Bil sem pri smrti stare ženice, pa mi takole pravi: "Gospod, neskončno sem srečna to uro. Vse življenje sem iskala Jezusa, to uro ga bom našla in se za večno združila z njim." In po teh besedah je z nasmehom na obrazu umrla.

Bil sem ob smrti mladega dekleta, komaj dvajset mladi je doživela, pa ji je zahrbtna bolezen pretrgala nit življenja. Čisto oslabela izgovori svoje zadnje besede: "Gospod, zavriskala bi to uro, če bi mogla, saj sem vse življenje hranila božjo podobo v svoji duši in moje čisto in neoskrunjeno telo bom to uro izročila Bogu." Pa je zatisnila svoje oči.

Bil sem pri smrti mladega fanta, ki so ga komunisti ustrelili. Njegova zadnja beseda je bila: "Bogu in narodu sem služil! Zmagal sem!" In zgrudil se je pod krogljo brata morilca.

Poglej, prijatelji, tako umira pravični.

To je dvojni obraz smrti. Prijatelj moj dragi, ali misliš kdaj v tujini na to? Ali te je morda življenje potegnilo v svoje valove? O, tudi v tujini velja za nas beseda: kakršno življenje, takšna smrt. In da bo dan smrti tudi zate srečen: spominjaj se poslednjih reči, pa vekomaj ne boš grešil. S pristranim pozdravom

Tvoj prijatelj.

Newburške novice

Ali ste slišali kaj je rekel neki moški v soboto večer na radio, ko ga je spraševal oddajalec glede požara na ladiji "NORONIC"? Mož, ki je govoril, je bil eden izmed onih, ki so bili zajeti v goreči ladiji. Vsepoposod ožen, tako da je že mislil, da se ne bo mogel rešiti. "Kaj si pa takrat mislil," je spraševal radio oddajalec, "ko si mislil, da je smrt neizogibna?"

"Na misel mi je prišlo, da sem celo svoje življenje verovaval v Boga, molil in redno hodil v cerkev," je dejal oni potnik, "in zato se nisem preveč bal umreti."

Z veliko težavo sta se on in njegova žena končno rešila po stopnicah, na katerih so gasilci za silo ožen ugasili.

Torej, ni se preveč bal... In zakaj se ni bal? Prišlo mu je na misel, da je v življenju Boga priznaval in mu služil po svoji moči. To je samo en zgled izmed milijonov, ki nam kaže, kako "treba živeti," da bo naša smrt lahka.

In kadar se kdo baha pred teboj, kot se nekatere bahajo, češ ne molim in v cerkev ne hodim, pa mi nič ne manjka, mu ti odgovori:

"Ti siromak, počakaj, boš videl kako zelo ti bo enkrat manjkal tega, kar sedaj zanemarjaš, namreč božje milosti, dobrih del iz ljubezni do Boga storjenih, pred vsem, pa večnega zveličanja." Niti smeti od tega s čemer se zdaj ponašaš in bahaš, ne boš vzel seboj. "Ako hočeš iti v večno življenje, splojuj zapovedi." Pa ne samo par, vseh deset, tudi tretjo, ki ti velja ob nedeljah Boga častiti. Pravi berač boš stopil pred Boga. Pa šele, da ti bo manjkalo!

Slapšakov France mi je poslal razglednico s Triglavom pa tudi nekaj cvetov planink. France pravi, da je od takrat, ko smo se skupaj plazili proti vrhu tega velikana, zdaj prvič zopet enkrat na vrhu. Da sem jaz v njegovih letih, bi jo tudi še mahnil na vrh.

Da ne pozabite: V soboto predno greste spat, potisnite uro za eno uro nazaj, na primer, ko to ura deset zvečer, jo potisnite nazaj na devet. Drugo jutro je potem zopet vse po starem, sv. maše in drugo vse v navadnem času.

Štirje pari so v shoto zavešali po morju zakonskega življenja. William Debelak je vzel Frances Kosmač. Robert McArdle se je poročil z Eleanor Draganič. George Vlna je postal soprog Julije Rus. Henry Perk pa se je dal zvezati z Mary Zupan. Naj jih spremilja božji blagoslov in vse Njegovе milosti skozi celo življenje.

Komunizem je ateizem. Zato je sv. Oče proglasil, da tisti ki prihajajo. In kako lepo se vsi obnašate! Pred cerkvijo sv. Vida vas vidim ob nedeljah, kako se tam lepo zbirate, da malo pokramljate.

Le tako naprej, katoliški moške in fantje, žene in dekleta. Držite se vedno tistega, kar ste s seboj prinesli in česar so vas stari naučili. Dosti nas je prišlo pred leti sem prav s takimi zlatimi nauki. Nekateri smo nauke obdržali in jih potem oddali naprej svojim otrokom, mnogi so se pa preobedili in pozabili na Boga in pošteno življenje. Odpadli so in pozabljeni so...

V vas pa trdno zaupamo, da da se ne boste izneverili svojim katoliškim načelom. Zato vas bo tudi Bog blagoslovil in nagradil. Bodite močni, bodite vztrajni, ostanite dobri, verni Slovenci.

In še nekaj! Kadar boste v stanu, da si kupite nekaj za varovalnice, pristopite k društvu, ki spada pod okrilje Kranjsko slovensko katoliške jednote. Jaz sem tajnica društva, ki nosi lepo ime Kristusa Kralja, ima številko 226 in spada h KSKJ. To društvo je bilo agilno tudi na kulturnem polju, dvakrat, to je 1930 in 1931 je vzporedno igrlo "Pasijon". Poznani Louis Oblak, ki prodaja fino pohištvo na 6612 St. Clair Ave. je igral vlogo Kristusa. Društvo je pa ustanovil poznani Jože Grdina, zastopnik Ameriške Domovine, ki je ustanovil že več katoliških društev. K temu društvu lahko pristopi vsa vaša družina. Kadar boste hoteli kaj več zvedeti o tem društvu, se oglasite pri meni in sicer lahko vsak večer, ali pa po 10 maši vsako nedeljo. Moj naslov je:

Dobrodošli, rojaki!

Cleveland, O. — Ze dolgo se pripravljam, da bi vam napisala nekaj besed v pozdrav, vam novim naseljencem. Lepo število vas je prišlo že sem in še

ČE VERJAMETE AL PA NE

Tam na neskončni kandski preriji sem začel z posojilnim društvom, ki bi se lahko nazvalo tudi bančno podjetje na nekoli-ko slabih nogah. Napačno je bilo pričeto, zato tudi ni bilo uspeha. Kapital se je namreč posodilo, skoro ves kapital, na brezobrestno posojilo in brez porokov, zato se je takoj ob rojstvu tisto posojilno društvo trudno nagnilo in zaspalo kar tam v travji. Prav za prav bi moral kdo tam postaviti spomenik največjemu tepcu na svetu, ki je prišel nalašč tje v Kanado z Menišije, da je posodil skoro zadnji vinar čisto tujemu človeku za na vse večne čase, amen. Začel je razmetavati denar še predno je kak cent zaslužil. Kako naj tak človek pride kam naprej, vas vprašam. Da, uganili ste — nikamor.

Naj bo o tistem bankirstvu, ali kar je že bilo, nekaj bolj dolocno povedanega vsem za zgled in svarilo, kako je treba postopati, da pride človek ob vse, pa ki skoro nič nima.

Tako se je primerilo, da sva se s hlapcem vsedla v travo, da si oddahneva, ko sva ugotovila, da se gospodar ne peha za nama, da bi nama dal kaj otipljivega za na pot v mesto. Oba sva se nehote vsedla tako, da sva imela obraze obrnjene nazaj proti hiši, pred katero sva obrsala prah s svojih čevljev. Bolj varna sva se počutila tako. Potem je pa začel hlapec govoriti, kako da bo v mestu prijetno, kjer se dela le nekaj ur, potem je pa človek sam svoj gospod. Na farmah moraš pa garati od jutra do večera, dan za dnem, teden za tednom, ne vidiš drugih ljudi kot konje, krave in prašiče, pa še ti nisi ljudje, ako človek natančno premisli. Zaslužiš kak dolar na dan, pa še za tistega se moraš nositi z gospodarjem, ako bi rad dobil svoje, kar ti gre. V mestu dobiš pa plačilo vsako soboto in ga lahko vsega prineseš domov, ali pa ne, kakor te je volja in kakor je goba v grlu.

Rad sem poslušal take besede. On že ve, saj je že dolgo v teh krajih. Predno sem ga pa vprašal, kje se bo dobilo delo, me je prehitel on in rekel, da ni utegnili čakati, da bi mu gospodar odšel, kar je imel zasluženega in zdaj nima, da bi plačal železnico do Regine. Saj ni dosti, par dolarjev bo in morda bi mu jaz posodil za par dni. Ako mu to dobroto storim, bo šel z menoj v mesto, mi tam vse razkaza in mi pomagal v tem in onem. Kakopak!

V žepu sem imel še kakšnih osem dolarjev. To je bilo vse moje premoženje premoženje poleg kovčeka. Kaj sem hotel, kot da sem s kislim obrazom segel v žep in mu "posodil" dva dolarja. Natančno dva. To je bilo na prvi ponedeljek v mesecu juniju 1913, okrog desetih dopoldne. Ne bom pozabil, ker je bilo prvič v življenju, da sem komu posodil denar. Poprej nikoli, ker ga nisem imel. Dva dolarja kapitala, in če računam po 6% obresti, kar je popolnoma poštena mera, pa še obresti od obresti, ako seštejem imam nekeje v Kanadi lepe denarje pri nekom spravljenju. Ko bi le vedel, kje je tisti človek in kako mu je ime. Kaj se ve, saj tudi on morda išče mene, da bi mu vrnil. Naj me le, dokler je še živ. Z onega sveta naj me pa nikar ne hodi motiti zastran tistih dveh dolarjev, sem jih že zbrisal. Da ne bo, kakor je bilo s tistim tam na Menišiji, ki je v življenju rad prestavljal mejnike, pa nikoli v svoji škodo. Le pa ven je rlinil z njimi. Saj ni mislil nič hudega, ampak je pač tako haneslo in ostalo. Primerilo se je pa, da je umrl, pa je pred smrtjo čisto pozabil na tiste mejnike, da bi jih prestavil na staro mesto. So mu pa ukazali, da je moral nazaj in sprati zadevo v red. Pa kam bo z mejniki ponoči, vas vprašam. Vsako noč je matalil tam po senogetih in košeninah, prenašal mejnike, pa iskal, kam bi jih zasadil, da bi bilo zopet prav. Ni mu šlo gladko, pa je stokal in jamral: "Joh, joh, kam naj denem, le kam naj denem?"

Pa se je primerilo, da jo je nek noč sekal proti domu Matijeve Gregor, ki se ga je bil pri žumru v Cerknici dobro navlekel, da je bil pri moči, pogumu in besedi, kakor se rado zgo-di ob taki priliki. Samega hudobca bi prijel za rožičke, če bi se mu prikazal. In se primeri, da se je Gregor blizal svoji vasi ravno, ko je mejaš stokal tam pri ozarrah in iskal, kam bi prestavil mejnik, da bi popravil krivico in bi tako smel v zapeček, če že ne čisto na gorko tam gor saj veste. In stokal je zraven, kakor je vsak večer: "Joh, joh, kam naj denem, le kam naj denem?"

Ta pritožba, ali prošnja, ali kar bi naj že bilo, je segla tudi do ušes Matijeve Gregorja, ki je prisluhnil, čeprav sliši in ko je ugotovil da je prav zastopil, se je na ves glas zasmel in zavpil tje v temo: "Štrama! Kaj se boš onjavil, kam bi del. Tje deni, kjer si vzel, da bo gmah."

Matijev Gregor menda ni vedel, da je s tem onega rešil trpljenja, ker ljudje so pravili, da ga ni bilo po tisti noči nikoli več nazaj, menda je samo to čakal, da bi mu kdo rekel, kam naj prestavi mejnik.

Tistega jaz ne maram, da bi kdo kolovratil notri s Kanade za menoj in mi ponujal tista dva dolarja.

JETNIK V GORAH MESECA

Bridges — Anžić

Postavili so le en šator. Tu je Bart dobil Rogerja, ki se je zleknil na svoje ležišče in jedel velike, zrele banane. Izpod čela se je ozrl na Barta in razdraženo rekel: "Danes ne grem prav nikamor naprej, nikar ne misli."

Bartu se je videlo, da je v skrbeh, ko je rekel: "Ne bo nam treba iti dalje, toda skrbijo me fantje, ki mislijo, da je ta kraj začaran, in se bojim, da je ne bi popihali."

"Bedaki!" odvrne Roger zaničljivo.

"Slabo bi bilo za nas vse, ako to storijo," pravi zopet Bart prijazno. "Toda če bi pa bil ti voljan, prevzeti stražo, da nanje popaziš, pa sem prepričan, da bo vse prav."

"Na to se lahko zaneses," se pobaha Roger. "Kdaj pa bi moral stati na straži?"

"Nekaj ur od polnoči dalje," odvrne Bart.

Roger je bil vidno presenečen in zadirčno reče: "Sredi noči! Zakaj pa ne bi mogel tega posla opraviti Forty?"

"Zato, ker ga ne bo tu," pojasnjuje Bart. "On, očka in jaz pojdemo v dolino po gospoda Murdocha. Potrebujemo torej tebe, da prevzameš poveljstvo, dokler bomo mi odsotni."

Roger vrže banano proč in se sunkoma usede. "Kaj? Mene pustiti tukaj samega, vi pa bi radi odšli, da vas zgrabijo ti isti zamorci tam doli?"

"Saj ne boš sam. Imel boš fantje pri sebi. Če bi se nam kaj pripetilo, pa to ne bo zadelo tebe."

"Prav tako," gode Roger. "Zamorci bodo prišli sem gor in nas vse zajeli!"

Bart se zasmeje. "Prav nobeden izmed Kasorovih vojakov se ne upa priti sem gor, kajti vsi so prepričani, da na grebenu straši. Torej boš popolnoma varen. Zato bodi pameten, Roger, in pomagaj nam!"

Roger gubanči čelo. Bart se že prestraši, da ne bo hotel pomagati, pa naenkrat ga Roger pogleda in osorno reče: "Oj rajti! Pa naj bo!"

15. Alarm sredi noči.

Noč je bila ledeno mrzla in mrtvaško tiha, ko so se dolženi štirje odpravili na pot v predor. Gospod Bryson je prižgal luč in zdaj so zagledali na eni strani predora v steni vdolbino, v njej pa stopnice, ki so peljale navzdol. V svetlobi bakle so se spustili nanje, dokler jim ni v obraz dehnal hladni zrak in jih opozoril, naj luč ugasnejo.

Kmalu so dospeli na ozko stezo, ki je bila vsekana v živo skalo; nad njimi in nad brezdanjimi črnimi globinami so migljale hladne zvezde. Daleč tam dobi v temini je žarelo nekaj rdečih točk: kadeci se ostanke ognjev, kjer so si bili vaščani skuhal večerjo.

NEWBURŠKE NOVICE

Pomislil malo, predno zdrevisi v prepad. Jezus je rekel: "Kdor ni zmenoj, je zoper mene." Kdor sovraži cerkev in papeža, je tudi božji sovražnik, pa naj se še tako hlina, da veruje v Boga. "Kdor vas zaničuje, mene zaničuje." Hudič tudi veruje. Kaj mu pa to koristi, ko pa zapovedi božjih ne spoľnuje? Komunisti preganjajo in sovražijo vse, kar je božjega in svetega. Kdor torej z njimi drži, se z njimi druži, zavziva njihovo duševni strup, se sam sebe brezpogojno izključi iz Cerkev, ki je edina zveljavna pot v srečno večnost. Če tak človek, potem umrje v tistem stanu, je večno pogubljen.

Naši šolarji so zopet pričeli s pevskimi vajami. G. Ivan Zorman bo zopet vodil te pevce in jih učil obenem petja in slovenske ščine. Želimo mu polno vrečo potrpežljivosti pa uspeha.

V času preobrata smo. Človek ne ve več, ali bo govoril slovensko, angleško ali pa kako tako mešanico, kot se večkrat sliši. pol slovensko pol angleško. Za nas je to mučno, ker bi človek rad ustregel vsem, pa ne more. Pri maši ob nedeljah, zlasti ob desetih, je dve tretjini mladine, en tretjino starih. Navada je bila, da smo rabili slovenski jezik, pa prihajajo zdaj pritožbe, češ zakaj slovensko, ko pa je dve tretjini takih, ki malo slovensko razumejo, ali pa sploh nič. Menda bomo morali mešati, enkrat slovensko, enkrat pa angleško. Poleg tega da tretji in četrti rod ne razume več slovensko, postaja naša fara čim dalje bolj pomešana z drugimi narodnostmi. Ali res vse mine?

16., 17., 18. prihodnjega meseca bomo imeli 40 urno pobožnost. To je največji praznik cellega leta. Bodite pripravljeni na to.

"Tako. Zdaj vam bom pa pokazal, kaj vse tale "vacuum cleaner" zamore," je dejal ponosno agent, ko je natresel pepela iz peči po preprogi. "Kje pa je switch?"

"Kakšen switch," je nevolno dejala gospodinja. "Mi nimamo električne napeljave v hiši."

Baje je tisti salesman dolgo praskal z metlo in krtačo, predno je očistil preprogo.

"Na poti k uspehu je vse polno žensk, ki svoje može porivajo."

POLOM

POSLOVENIL VLAD, LEVSTIK

Pravili so jim, da ni du zabili v glavo, da polomijo ostalo ničesar več, ker so osem in štirideset ur hodili vojaki skozi trg; toda oni so našli vzlic vsemu še vedno kaj, očitno skrivne zaloge, tako so si v sr-mare oplenjene in kleti izpraznjene. Pri doktorju — ni si mogoče misliti česa takšnega — sem zalotila debelega človeka, ki je pogoltnil vse mlo. Najbolj pa so postojali po kleteh. Odzgoraj smo jih slišali tuliti kakor živine, loviti steklenice ter izbijati čepce iz sodov, da se je vino razlivalo s šumenjem vodnjakov. Nato so prihajali nazaj, z rdečimi rokami, ker so brodirali po razlitem vinu. In, vidite, kaj se zgodi, kadar ljudje tako podivajo: Gospod Delic je zamen hotel ubraniti nekemu vojaku, da ne bi izpil litra z opijevim sirupom, ki ga je bil iztaknil pri njem. Ob tej uri je nesrečnik gotovo mrtev, takšne muke je trpel, ko sem odhajala.

Silen trepet jo je zagrabil; zakrila si je oči z obema rokama, da ne vidi ničesar več. "Ne, ne! Preveč sem videla, to me duši!"

Stari Fouchard, ki je še zmlor nemirno hodil semintja, se je bil približal in je poslušal, stoječ pri oknu; vest o plenitvi ga je navdajala s skrbjo: saj je bil vendar slišal praviti, da Prusi plačujejo vse; ali so zdaj še oni pričeli krasti? Tudi Maurice in Jean sta se razburila nad temi podrobnostmi o početju sovražnika, ki ga je dekle pravkar videlo, dočim ga armada že ves ta mesec, odkar se bijo, ni še srečala; Honore pa, zamišljen in bolešno skrivnen ust, je motril le njo in mislil na nekdanjo nesrečo, ki jih je ločila.

Ta trenotek pa so se odprla vrata srednje sobe in vstopil je mali Charlot; gotovo je bil slišal materin glas. Pritekel je v srajčki, da jo poljubi. Bil je rožnih lic, plavalas in modrook, zelo močan in z belo, kodrasto grivo.

Ko ga je Silvina tako nenadoma spet zagledala, je vzdrltela, kakor presenečena od slike, ki jo je vzbudil v nji. Ali ga ni več spoznala, tega oboževanega otroka, da je zrla nanj tako preplašeno, kakor na vtelešeno prikazen svojih sanj?

"Ubogi moj mali!" In goreče ga je stisnila v svoje naročje in na vrat, dočim je Honore smrtnobled opazoval nenavadno sličnost Charlotovo z Golijatom; to je bila ista široka, plavalas glava, in vsa germanska pasma se je izražala v svežem, smehljajočem, zdravem otroškem obrazu. Sin Prusa, Prus, kakor so ga imenovali šaljivci v Remilly-u! In njegova francoska mati ga stiska tu na svoje srce, čeprav je še vsa preplašena in še vsa kravi nad žalo-igro invazije!

"Ubogi moj mali, bodi previden, idi zopet spat! ... Spančakaj, ubogi moj mali!"

Odnosla ga je. Ko se je nato vrnila iz sosednje sobe, ni več jokala; zopet je bili našla svoj mirni, poslušni, pogumni obraz.

Honore je z drhtečim glasom prekinil molčanje:

"A Prusi?"

"Ah, da, Prusi ... Ej, ti so polomili vse, vse so oplenili, pojedli in popili. Kradli so tudi perilo, servijete, rjuhe in celo zastore, ki so jih trgali na dolge kose, da si obvežejo noge. Videla sem takšne, ki so jim bile noge ena sama rana, toliko so morali marširati. Pred doktorjevo hišo, ob jarku, je bila četa, ki si je sezuvala čevlje in ovijala pete s čipkastimi ženskim srajcami, očitno ukradenimi gospe Lefevre, lepi tovarnarjevi ženi. — Do pozne noči je trajala plenitev. Hiše niso imele več vrat, in skozi zijoe odprtine pritličja so se videle v notrajnosti razvaline pohištva — takšno opustošenje,

SLOVENIAN
MORNING NEWSPAPER

This and That from Washington

By Congressman Frances P. Bolton

AFTER the close study made by the Subcommittee of the Committee on Foreign Affairs on National and International Movements over a two year period, it is natural that I find myself constantly on the alert for evidence of current activities in this general field. One of the most constructive pieces of work over on this side of the Atlantic has been all too little mentioned in the United States—the work of especially qualified members of both our A. F. of L. and C. I. O. who, like the late Matthew Wohl, should have the earnest thanks of all the free people of the world.

You will have read of the formative meeting of the anti-communistic international labor group this month. Let me give you some thing of the viewpoint of Mr. Irving Brown (A. F. of L.) as written up recently in one of the most responsible of the French newspapers "Le Figaro." It seems that he has returned from a trip to the Far East where he made a study of the labor movement in that area. Called by many "the businessman of organized labor" he was recently interviewed by one of the most able of Paris newspapermen, and suggested to this reporter that anyone familiar with Valtin's "Without Frontiers or Country" will understand what it is that can be expected from the Komintern.

Mr. Brown is quoted as follows: "A heavy offensive is being prepared for the autumn beginning in September. Centered around a maritime union strike in France, Italy and England it will be extended even as far as the Orient if the initial strikes are successful. In such a case a major coup will be directed against the whole European Recovery Program. The Communist unions have founded an international maritime secretariat located in Marseilles. Behind the strawman at its head are two members of the Komintern. In Italy a certain DeStefano directs the movement who worked long for Mussolini, but now takes his orders from the Kremlin."

Continuing, Mr. Brown reminded his interviewer "not to forget that it is in the ports and on the ships that are found the most active and most dynamic elements of Communism."

THE objectives of the new international labor organization, which is based upon aggressive anti-communist determinations, are given in the "Figaro" as having received unanimous approbation. They are as follows:

1. Objectives: Raise the standard of living, organization and unification of the economy.
 2. Fight against forced labor. "It is impossible to have permanent peace when a system of government is founded upon forced labor."
 3. Defense of Democracy against totalitarian aggression whether direct or indirect, and consequent help given to systems of collective security.
 4. Regional organization: Europe, Latin America, Asia, Middle East and North Africa.
 5. Equal representation among large and small organizations to prevent domination by large unions in order to guarantee free labor organization.
- Asked about personnel of command, Mr. Brown made it very clear that the Secretary General should be a European with a central office in one of the smaller countries such as perhaps Belgium.

WITH government representatives meeting in Strasbourg discussing common problems towards an ever increasingly close cooperation which may well lead to the elimination of tariff and fiscal barriers, it is interesting that A. F. of L.'s very effective representative, Irving Brown, says that if there is to be a successful free labor movement there must be economic union in Europe.

The Floridian Club

The September Meeting of "The Floridian Club" of Greater Cleveland was held Sunday, Sept. 18th 1949, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Drenik, Ridge Rd., Wickliffe, Ohio. A short business meeting was held after which the balance of the day and evening were devoted to entertainment.

While it rained a good part of the day, activities were in no way retarded, as the events of the day were carried on under the shelter of the portico of the mansion house. Thereafter a fine buffet lunch was served in the main dining room, and we extend our grateful thanks to our hosts Mr. and Mrs. John Drenik, also the committee who helped in the preparation of such a fine feast. The members serving on this committee were: Mrs. Albert Glicker, Mrs. Frank Glinsek, Mrs. Joseph Koman, and Mrs. Alice Lazar.

This will go down in our memories as another red letter day of the organization. The following attended: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Birk, Miss Carolyn Buidan, Mr. and Mrs. John Bukovnik, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Demshar, Mrs. A. Filipic, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Glicker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glinsek, Mrs. Bertha Gregorich, Mrs. Bertha Cernigoy, Mr. Matt J. Grdin, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kozan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kramer, Mrs. Alice Lazar, Mr. and Mrs. James Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. William Sallie, Mr. Joseph Kuncic, Mrs. John Ferretti, Mr. Frank Race, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stachek, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Skobe, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zakrajsek, Mrs. Frank Zakrajsek, Mr. and Mrs. John Mihelich.

Turn Clock Back an Hour

Sunday morning at 2 o'clock we regain the hour that we lost in April. Don't forget to turn your clock back an hour when you go to bed Saturday night. Of course, if you want to stay up till 2 a. m. for the Great Event to celebrate it properly — well, have a good time!

Chapter Nine . . . The Misadventures Of Isabel

For some reason or other, we got to bed that night after a minimum of talking. I think that climb to the top of the Washington monument as well as the walk around Annapolis had really tired all of us. Still, it was nearly midnight before we finally made it.

The next morning, Friday, we were supposed to visit the Capitol, the Library of Congress and the Smithsonian Institute. Well, that was fine with us, so after breakfast, we got into our little busses and off we went.

Freddy was in very good spirits, tho he was surprised over the fact that he had three new "daughters" since the previous day, for there were twenty-six now instead of twenty-three. He counted us twice, then said, "Did you newcomers tell the other bus driver?"

"No," came the chorus. "Then I'll have to," he said, and went down the steps of the bus as the other driver came up to ask if Freddy had three extra girls that were missing from the other bus.

"Yep, I heard Freddy say thru the open window. 'I guess they want to stay with us. The bus isn't crowded, so it's OK.'"

That took care of that, so off we went. We pulled up in front of the Capitol, and were to wait out side to have a picture of the group taken before we explored the inside of it. While I was fussing with my Kodak Duaflex, trying to figure out from what angle the Capitol was most photogenic, and debating whether I should leave the flashholder on, without a bulb, or make someone hold it, Gloria suddenly said, "I wonder if Freddy'd pose for a picture with me."

I snapped my shutter in surprise, and as a result, got a bad snapshot of the Capitol that I hadn't intended to take.

When I fully recovered, I said, "Go ask him, if he'll do it, I'll take the picture."

"Sure, highland," Gloria replied. "Come with me. I'm scared to ask him."

"Oh, for pity's sake!" I exclaimed, but I went up to the man, told him Gloria wanted to take a picture with him and would he please pose with her.

"Sure," he said, and promptly put one arm around Gloria, and smiled in my direction. I adjusted my view finder, waited till Gloria stopped giggling and snapped the picture. "Thanks," said Freddy. "I was glad to do it."

When Freddy was out of earshot, I threatened her, "Wait till Bill sees that picture!"

"I won't show it to him," was the prompt rejoinder. By this time the professional photographer arrived, and so we all got a nice group picture to pose for the picture that was to include all of us. The forty-nine of us were nicely settled when the photographer asked if (Continued on Page 6.)

NO EQUALITY UNDER THE LAW

Thurman Arnold, who gained a national reputation as a "trust-buster" during the Roosevelt Administrations, has urged Congress to bring labor unions under the Federal anti-trust laws. His testimony was given before a Senate Committee which is investigating monopolistic labor practices, with particular reference to the coal industry and John L. Lewis' imposition of a three-day work week for the miners.

Mr. Arnold told the committee that the three-day week was initiated to create a coal scarcity and thus place the union in a favorable position for "the next strike." He cited a list of what he believes to be illegitimate labor practices, and said that "the most dangerous of all" is the use of union power to fix prices and limit production.

Mr. Arnold is not alone in these views. Senator Robertson, who heads the investigating committee, described the imposition of the short work-week as "a bold, overt act to control production and prices." In an editorial dealing with the problem, the New York Sun said that "our present lawmakers have been remiss in failing to make labor as well as management equal under laws against action in restraint of trade." And John D. Battle of the National Coal Association went straight to the heart of the matter when he said, "If the power rests with the union to decide how many days an industry . . . can use its facilities to produce, then we have reached that stage where all of us understand that we live and function at the discretion of the labor unions and that there is no equality under the law."

We learned long ago that industrial and financial monopolies had to be outlawed if the free enterprise system was to survive. Now it is labor monopolies, with their callous disregard of the public interest, that menace our free institutions.

ST. VITUS MOTHERS CLUB

A big turn in the event thanks to March and Russ we now have a beautiful bed spread to offer you. This spread was donated by March and Russ, 6108 St. Clair Ave. and incidentally the store has been redecorated, and a soft home-like atmosphere has been accomplished.

Other awards will be the home-made cakes that the mothers will bake, so you can readily see that it will be worth your while to come to our Benefit . . . on Wed. 23 of September in the church basement.

With the proceeds we hope to help pay some of the expense that occurred in purchasing the new school desks that the children will soon enjoy. Just a reminder that the Red Cross will open a class on home nursing and other subjects of interest to you. The date will be set in the near future.

All types of needles are being sold at the cool weather prices. The different arts, Mrs. Tomo sewing at March and Russ, Mrs. Foye working on the afghan, Mrs. Urbas knitting boys' sweaters, Mrs. Grdina making girls' sweaters, Mrs. Falek working on rosaries, Mrs. Cirkic is always busy at her sewing. The mothers club also has quite a number of members who are very good bowlers.

We'll be seeing you at the Benefit.

THANK YOU
Mary Kostansek and Josephine Strumble want to thank everyone who gave material and remnants or helped in any way make "Our Lady's Birthday Party" a success. Orchids to Mary and Jo, too.

THE JUNIOR SODALITY
My scribbling pencil has taken quite a vacation. I think it's more than a month since the American Home readers have heard any news from our quarters.

Our latest exploits (to start off correctly . . .) were a birthday party at Farmdale, a picnic at Fell Lake and a bike hike, which sorry to say, was enjoyed by ONLY THREE persons. Margie Per, Gerry Hrovat and Jeanie Lavrich were the only gals energetic enough to pump their bikes all the way to Euclid Creek Reservation and back.

The party at Farmdale was most entertaining for all of us. Arlene Kopic made a big hit with the little girls with her rendition of "Baby, It's Cold Outside . . ." Each "orphan" who was celebrating a birthday received a cake, a corsage and a gift. We soda lists left a happy state of affairs behind us as we left the orphanage.

Our second excursion to Fell Lake was another grand day, altho secretly I MUST confess the picnic out at Zerman's farm was more enjoyable. I like the wide open spaces! Nature girl, you know! We missed Anne Winter and some of the other Senior Sodality, who, the last time helped us have such a gay, hilarious time. (Yep, they surely know how to "let their hair down" right along with us!) Fathers Baraga and Ruppard did attend our Fell Lake outing, though, and their presence made up for the lack of any others. We wish to thank both of them for being so generous in "paying our way" individually into the park. We swam, (even tho the water was icy and cold) . . . played baseball, tennis, games . . . had a wicker roast, and to top it all off, when the clouds burst wide open we became drenched. But who cared!

Since Father Ruppard, our "unofficial, adopted" assistant director (of fun, anyway) could not return at the close of day to transport home the group of members he had driven out, some of us had to seek public transportation, bus and street-car. It is reported from a veritable source that a white blanket, with four bumps, that might be distinguished as heads were seen moving along Public Square amidst the pouring rain at about 8:15 o'clock that evening. "Nuff said!"

We Junior Sodality all wish to extend our heartfelt sympathy and condolence to Anne Winter, whose father passed away recently. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Amen.

The SHADOW

STRAIGHT FROM WASHINGTON

By STEPHEN M. YOUNG
Ohio
Congressman-at-Large

Washington. — John Q. Public will have his taxes reduced in 1950. You can feel certain that excise taxes will be reduced. If you are a stockholder, there is a possibility you may get a break on dividends. Corporation earnings are now taxed and also the dividends paid to stockholders. Complaint is made that this is double taxation. Most of us do not worry about that form of tax. Corporation tax rates generally will not be reduced. Personal taxes may be cut some. Every citizen will benefit if and when obnoxious taxes against transportation, telegrams, jewelry, photographic equipment and supplies, communications, leather goods, furs, cosmetics, etc. are repealed.

TWO PARTY SYSTEM

Sometimes it seems there are three political parties in Congress and that the two party system is out of the window. The first example was in the Senate, where Dixiecrats, reactionary Southern Democrats opposing President Truman's policies, combining with Republicans, succeeded in blocking Civil Rights legislation and gave President Truman his first legislative defeat in the present Congress. This coalition voted to strengthen filibustering rather than to strengthen means of closing debate. Then in the House of Representatives most Republicans and many Dixiecrats voted against the Administration low-cost housing and slum clearance measure. Both Civil Rights and low-cost housing had been specifically endorsed at the 1948 Republican National Convention. A few Republican leaders like Senator Morse of Oregon, a liberal, seek to persuade voters that the Republican Party is becoming progressive. Yet, here are two concrete examples of short-sighted partisan opposition to progressive Democratic programs even though those very programs were endorsed in the 1948 Republican National Platform.

DO-NOTHING COMMITTEE

So far this year, the Un-American Activities Committee of the House of Representatives has done nothing except spend taxpayer's money. To date, this Committee has investigated some small fry but nothing has come of their investigations. There may be an effort to dissolve this Committee next January. At that time, the Committee Chairman, Wood (D), Georgia, will seek an additional appropriation. There will be strong Congressional opposition to any further appropriations. It is important to save taxpayer's money. Based on its do-nothing record to date, the Un-American Activities Committee does not deserve continuation at taxpayer's expense. It is America's inactive committee.

OUR INDIANA NEIGHBOR

United States Senator Homer E. Capehart, (R), Indiana, in a Senate speech, said that $3,250 annual income is too much for our citizens. He denounced "selfish spenders," "misguided politicians" who, "by their extravagance, are bankrupting this nation." The same Senator Capehart in 1946 voted to kill price controls and, of course, the cost of living went sky-high. Senator Capehart is one of the Senators who will run for reelection next year. He concluded his speech with these words, which may be prophetic, "I see my time is up."

STRENGTHENING FAMILY LIFE

Passage in the House of Representatives of the new Minimum Wage Bill, increasing the utterly inadequate and obsolete minimum wage of forty cents per hour to seventy-cents per hour, was an outstanding victory for the Truman Administration; also an outstanding victory for our American people. The truth is that sixteen dollars per week was an outrageous wage for any worker. Increasing the minimum wage by passage of the Administration Bill helps low-paid workers in America; it helps unorganized workers everywhere. Furthermore, it does away with insecurity by giving minimum security to low-paid workers and thereby strengthens family life in America.

DIFFICULT NATIONAL PROBLEM

There is a saying "The English always muddle through." England has been living beyond its means. Britain is spending more than she earns. Too many Englishmen are bookmakers, race horse touts and are making a living by their wits instead of by hard work. They should be reminded of that old saying, "He who does not work, neither shall he eat." Now additional loans from this nation are sought. This puts John Q. Citizen of the U.S. right in the middle of Britain's money woes. No help from us and we may be cut off from some overseas markets for our farmers and manufacturers. Substantial help from us so sorely needed by Britain might mean fresh competition for the U.S. plants. Also, it takes our money which should be saved or could be spent here and sends it abroad.

Texas comprises one-twelfth the entire area of the U. S.

Rapid Transit to Improve Cleveland

Because Cleveland has natural ravines traversing the city from east to west, its citizens have an opportunity of buying a rapid transit line at a bargain basement price along with complete modernization of the entire transportation system.

No other city in the nation has such a favorable approach to rapid transit as does Cleveland inasmuch as railroad engineers of almost three decades ago were far-sighted enough to foresee the ultimate necessity for speedy mass transportation and did something about it.

They provided the necessary rights-of-way east and west of the Cleveland Union Terminal property for a rapid transit along the Nickel Plate rights-of-way and up to the facilities of the Union Terminal. They spent nearly $18,000,000 on it up to now.

Due to their far-sightedness Cleveland can purchase a rapid transit line today for $16,000,000 whereas a similar line, though shorter, is costing the City of Toronto $51,000,000 and another in San Francisco is being projected at a cost of $100,000,000.

The cost of this rapid transit line will be $16,000,000. The modernization program contemplated by the CTS will cost $6,200,000. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation has agreed to loan the CTS the necessary $22,200,000.

However the RFC has requested that the city create a five-man board to minister the affairs of CTS instead of the existing three-man board and has asked that the scope of the five-man board be slightly enlarged. The RFC believes this will be beneficial to the CTS.

In order to make this change it is necessary to change the City charter. This can be done only by a majority vote of the citizens of Cleveland. Therefore city council has submitted this change to the voters at the primary on October 4, 1949. It is known as the TRANSIT CHARTER AMENDMENT.

The RFC loan will not cost taxpayers of Cleveland one cent for it will be backed entirely by fare box revenue bonds and payments of principal and interest will come from fare box revenues.

At the present time the CTS debt service for payment of existing obligation and their interest requires approximately $2,400,000 annually. These obligations will be entirely paid off before it would be necessary to begin payments on the RFC $22,200,000 loan. And the payments which then will begin will on the RFC loan cost the CTS approximately $1,100,000 less than the debt service in effect today.

Establishment of the rapid transit line and modernization program will take numerous vehicles off city's street and is looked upon as the most important step taken in many years toward solving the city's traffic congestion problems.

In addition the modernization program will aid further in this respect in that it will eventually take street car tracks from all but three street car lines in the city. Trackless trolleys and busses with curb loading will further traffic lanes and thus provide a faster, smoother flow of traffic throughout the city.

New Constitution
India's new constitution will be adopted Oct. 2, 1949, the birthday of Mahatma Gandhi.

VOTE "YES"—TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4

No one turns down a valuable gift. A rapid transit system as proposed for Cleveland and subject to voter approval on October 4 will be a veritable gift for several reasons. One is that the City can have this 13-mile rapid transit route from Windermere station on the East Side to West 117th Street on the West Side for the bargain price of $16,000,000.

Toronto, Canada, is paying $51,000,000 for an even shorter rapid transit route for which ground was broken this month. San Francisco is trying to get rapid transit and may have to pay $100,000,000.

But the real gift to Cleveland in the near future will be the $10,000,000 in paychecks that will come to Cleveland workers during the two-year period of the system's construction.

We only need look at the report of Morse W. Rew, superintendent of engineering for the CTS, to see what approval on October 4 will mean for Cleveland workers.

Mr. Rew says: "The labor cost for the proposed system will be, directly, $9,440,000, and materials will cost $6,560,000. In this estimate the cost of property, a relatively small amount that must be obtained to supplement the existing right-of-way, and to provide for stations and other installations, is included in the materials budget. However, it must be remembered that there is a large expenditure for labor on the project in the production by Clevelanders of the necessary materials, much of which will be bought here.

"An estimate of average daily laborers, total cost of labor and man hours of labor in skilled and unskilled categories to be employed directly on the system's construction is as follows:

	Number	Man Hours	Cost
Skilled labor	210	1,056,000	$3,280,000
Unskilled labor	660	3,300,000	6,160,000

"It must be repeated that this is the estimated average of daily laborers. There will be times during construction when at least twice as many workers as estimated in the foregoing total will be required and will be getting pay checks.

"So in the two years that will be needed to complete the rapid transit system, more than $10,000,000 will go to labor here for a project that actually will pay for itself out of fare box revenue."

Granting that a pay check is a return for an investment of time, the fact still remains that, when both the prosperity of Cleveland workers and the pay-as-it-goes nature of the system is considered, rapid transit will be a gift.

You are urged to vote "yes" for the transit charter amendment on October 4.

THE MISADVENTURES OF ISABEL

The Sisters would go onto the ends of the last line. There were only two Sisters by now, for Sister Kate had gone home with the "measles," and Sister Dolores had twisted her ankle the night before, and had decided to spend this day in bed.

But the two who were with us refused to pose, so we got the representative of the railroad on one end, and the other end would have to stay empty, the photo guessed. Then Gloria and I had a brilliant idea. Freddy was standing just out of the way of the camera, but we pulled him in next to me at our end of the back row. So there he is grinning at the camera! My mother and dad had been teasing me for weeks because he's standing next to me!

Well, after that mess was over we went inside the Capitol and were separated into smaller groups to be taken around by the guides. We saw the House and Senate chambers, but neither of them were busy. A flag flies outside on the wing of the building in which the room is located if the House is in session; same with the Senate. We had noticed from the outside that there were no flags, so we didn't expect anything but empty rooms.

The ceilings of the chamber are very high, but there are wooden scaffolds supporting them, for they are in very bad condition and might even fall were it not for the supports.

I wasn't too much impressed by the rooms. They are really small, or so it seemed to me, for all the business that goes on in them, and the guide admitted that when a joint session of Congress is held in the House Chamber, it does get very crowded.

The visitors' galleries each seat one thousand people, both in the House and in the Senate.

There were many paintings on the walls in the corridors and on the marble steps. We stopped to admire them and the guide willingly explained who had painted them and what occasion they commemorated. We also went into many different rooms in the part of the Capitol that is open to visitors.

There is a small hallway up on the second floor that has a "Private" sign on it and we were told that perhaps Harry was at work back there; the guide couldn't say for sure.

I remember clearly only one room in the mess of them that we saw, and that one was the Whispering Room. It was once used as a Chamber of Congress, back in the days around the Civil War. The story of it goes thus:

One of the famous statesmen of the day, (I believe it was Daniel Webster, but I'm not sure) seemed to have some sort of spy system of his own, for his rivals in the Chamber never seemed to be able to carry any of their plots against him into effect. He always seemed to know of them and was prepared for them. His rivals racked their brains, but never discovered his source of information, until one day one of them happened to sit in his chair. From that spot in the room, he discovered, he could hear people on the opposite of the room, even though they were apparently out of ear-shot. He found that any sound, however slight, made in any other part of the room, could be heard distinctly at that spot. Mr. Webster, had apparently known of the "echo" for some time, and that is how he had always known what his rivals were planning to do to defeat his measures.

The Capitol left me a distinct over all impression of over-decoration. I dare say it really is not overdecorated, but we saw so much and in such a hurry that it seemed that way to me. I suppose it seemed overdone to me even more especially since I like plainness in architecture and furniture, and the Capitol is by no means plain.

But that is enough for now. I'll take you thru the Library of Congress next week, and we'll have to fly thru the Smithsonian, so that we can get out to Arlington Cemetery, and the Curtis Lee Mansion and Mount Vernon.

Love, ISABEL

P. S. We'll also be at the Lincoln Memorial, which is the most beautiful place in Washington, or at least, so I think!

POLITICAL ADVERTISING
CANDIDATE MULL OF 32nd WARD OPPOSES RENT CONTROL

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Voter of the 32. Ward:

In the five weeks of the campaign I shall state my position on subjects which will demonstrate my capacity to give you effective representation as your councilman.

My first subject is rent control. I have gone on record as being opposed to rent control. (Plain Dealer 25. Aug. 1949).

Congress declared cities that wish, may decontrol rents through their council and mayor with the approval of the Governor.

It is high time such action is taken in Cleveland. Whatever shortages still exist are not real. They are due to wastage of space, by tenants who have been frozen into cheap rental property, and have no incentive to occupy smaller quarters, and to the withdrawal of thousands of rental properties from the market. Control is directly responsible for both conditions.

Cities and States Decontrol

The war is long over and it's time to start a chain reaction toward complete decontrol. Already Texas, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Alabama have decided to end this legal confiscation of private property. Dallas, Boise, Little Rock, Spokane and Knoxville have also decontrolled rent. Cleveland should be next.

Cost 17 Million

When that day comes that much advertised shortage will automatically end. Single people and childless couples will have to give up the space or pay the going rate. Owners will place rental property on the market again, and of course, the bureaucrats (whose entire work is minding someone else's business) are against the removal. Seventeen million dollars will be spent this year and more to come to pay their wages.

European Experience

Europe has had it for thirty years and it has resulted in a complete absence of new building, a continuous black market and out right deterioration of property — inside and out. If this is the philosophy which holds that it is perfectly O. K. to occupy property you do not own at another's expense then the Kremlin will be pleased.

By voting for me you will demonstrate that Americans are proud of their "I pay my own way" reputation. You will call halt to this creeping Socialism which will strangle us all, tenant and home owner alike.

In 1865 Lincoln said:
"Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built."

Very truly yours,
