STEV. LXXIV — VOL. LXXIV

Južni Vietnam zavisi
od letalskih sil ZDA

V Hanoi niso računali, da bodo ZDA posegale v boj v takem obsegu z letalskimi in pomorskimi silami.

SAIGON, J. Viet — Strokovnjaka zunanjega odbora Senata ZDA sta vprašala ameriškega vojaškega strokovnjaka tu, kaj bi se zgodilo tekom letošnje komunistične ofenzive, če bi južnovietnamske oborožene sile ne imele ameriške letalske podpore. Častnik je bil kratak: Mi bi se v takem slučaju zdaj razgo- varjali kje drugje!

Položaj v pogledu južnovietnamskih rednih oboroženih sil se je nekaj izboljšal, toda te se vedno same niso kos rdečim. Njihova morala je nizka, podjetnost in borbena vna komaj prisotna. Ameriški vojaški svetovalci so boljše volje, kot so bili pred meseci, in upajo, da bodo v določenem času redne vojaške sile Južnega Vietnama le sposobne same braniti neodvisnost republike. Nihče od njih ne pove, kdaj naj bi se to zgodilo.

Ko so nekatere divizije tekom rdeče ofenzive popolnoma odpovedale in bile delno uničene, so se druge držale boljše, kot so pričakovali. Posebno uspešni so oddelki marinov in rangerjev. To so vztrajni in odločni borci, ki ne popuste radi. Dobro se je obnesla tudi 1. divizija, ki brani mesto Hue.

Ameriški strokovnjaki sodijo, da je gen. Giap ob začetku ofenzive bil prepričan, da Nixon ne bo upal vreči v boj tolikšne letalske in pomorske sile v volivnem letu. Odločen in obsežen nastop ameriškega letalstva je preprečil rdečo zmago in uničil načrte Hanoia. Morda je to le prineslo svoj delež k spremembi razpoloženja v Hanoi, na katero nekateri namigujejo.

London in Moskva
se sporazumela

LONDON, Vel. Brit. — Sovjetska zveza bo smela v bodoče imeti v Londonu največ 40 diplomatov namesto preko 100, kot jih je imela do lanske jeseni. Tedaj so Angliji izgnali skupno 105 članov sovjetskih uradnih predstavstev.

V okviru dogovora, ki sta ga sklenili sovjetska in britanska vlada o medsebojnih diplomatskih zastopstvih, bo imela Velika Britanija v Moskvi okoli 20 diplomatov, oziroma oseb z diplomatskimi izkaznicami.

Sen. E. Kennedy za mir

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, ki je po rodu Irec, je pozval svoje rojake na Irskem in Britance, naj s pogajenji iščejo rešitev svojim sporom, kajti to je edina stvar na pot.

Rdeči odklanjajo samo
premirje brez dogovora
o političnih vprašanjih

PARIZ, Fr. — Na včerajšnji seji konference v Parizu je zastopnica provizorične revolucionarne vlade Mrs. Binh odločno načrte Hanoia. Morda je to le prineslo svoj delež k spremembi razpoloženja v Hanoi, na katero nekateri namigujejo.

Ameriški zastopnik W. Porter je pozval rdečo stran k mirnemu razpravljanju predlogov obeh strani za končanje vojne.

Nobena stran ni omenila tajnega srečanja H. Kissingerja z Le Duc Tho-jem in Xuan Thuy-jem v sredo.

Rdeča stran je poskus razdeliti razgovore v vojaški in politični del zavrnila že preje, ker hoče rešitev celotnega vprašanja. Mrs. Binh je dejala, da bodo vse ostale točke maglo in brez težav rešene, kakor hitro bodo ZDA pristale na popoln umik iz Južnega Vietnama, na opustitev podpore predsed. Van Thieuju in vzpostavitev koalicijske vlade v Saigonu, v kateri naj bi bili zastopani poleg nevtralcev in predstavnikov sedanje vlade tudi rdeči.

Gen. Abrams ni imel
nič zraven

SAIGON, J. Viet. — Preiskovalec Senata ZDA Labere Garcia je dejal, da je preiskava doglala, da gen. Abrams ni imel nobene zveze z letalskimi napadi na Severni Vietnam lani in v začetku letošnjega leta, ki jih je na svojo roko odredil tedanji poveljnik 7. letalskih sil ZDA gen. J. D. Lavelle.

Ta izjava naj bi bila dokaz, da gen. Abrams ne bo imel nobenih težav pri zasliševanju pred Senatom, predno ga bo ta potrdil za novega načelnika glavnega stana armade ZDA.

Zadnje vesti

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Senat je včeraj izglasoval demokratiški predlog za povišanje minimalne urne plače na $2.20. Ker je v Domu odobreni predlog različen, bo morala konferenca obeh domov doseči sporazum, predno bo nova najnižja plača z zakonom določena. Poskus republikancev ohraniti najnižnjo urno plačo do $2 ni uspel.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Obrambni tajnik M. Laird je dejal, da ni nobenih znakov, da bi iz Egipta odšli tudi ruski piloti in strokovnjaki pri protiletalskih raketah in radarju. Po njegovem naj bi odšli le vojaški "svetovalci". Poročilo načelnika glavnega stana egiptskih oboroženih sil gen. Sadeka predsedniku Sadatu, objavljeno v Kairu, trdi, da so egiptске oborožene sile prevzele vse naprave in orodje, ki so ga imeli doslej v rabi in oskrbi Rusi.

MADRID, Šp. — Na progi Madrid-Sevilla sta trčila danes dva osebna vlaka, pri čemer je bilo vsaj 18 oseb mrtvih, še več pa ranjenih.

REJKJAVIK, Island. — Včerajšnjo partijo šaha v boju za svetovno prvenstvo je dobil B. Fischer, ki je s tem stanje izenačil na 2.5:2.5 točkam. Naslednjo partijo bosta Spassky in Fischer igrala v nedeljo.

ZDRUŽENI NARODI, N.Y. — Gvineja, Somalija, Sudan in Jugoslavija so predložile, naj Varnostni svet ZN pozove Izrael, da bo "brez odlašanja" vrnil 6 sirskih in libanonskih častnikov, ki jih je ujel tekom svojega vpada v Libanon 21. junija letos.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Zunanje-politični odbor Senata je včeraj soglasno odobril dogovora med ZDA in ZSSR o omejitvi obrambe pred medcelinskimi raketami in o omejitvi ofenzivnih medcelinskih raket. Državni tajnik W. P. Rogers je pozval Kongres, naj oba dogovora potrdi do 18. avgusta, predno bo odšel na počitnice za čas republikanske narodne konvencije, da bodo mogle ZDA razgovore z ZSSR nadaljevati.

SAIGON, J. Viet. — Rdeči se še vedno drže v Quang Tri mestu, četudi pritiskajo vladne sile vanj od treh strani. Vladne sile so začele novo ofenzivo v Binh Dinh pokrajini in zavzele brez večjega odpora dve okrožni mesti.

Finska vlada odstopila

HELSINKI, Fin. — Socialdemokratska vlada, ki nima večine v parlamentu, je odstopila z izjavo, da ne more podpisati sporazuma z Evropsko gospodarsko skupnostjo, ki ga je dogovorila.

Predsednik vlade Rafael Paasio je dejal predsedniku republike Urhu Kekkonenu, da more sporazum podpisati samo vlada, ki ima za seboj večino parlamenta.

JUGOSLOVANSKI REŽIM JE V SKRBEH
ZARADI NARAŠČANJA NACIONALIZMA

Poskus hrvaških nacionalističnih izseljencev začeti v Jugoslaviji gverilski boj proti režimu in Jugoslaviji za neodvisno Hrvaško je pripravil komunistično vodstvo do odločnejših ukrepov.

CLEVELAND, O. — Sodelavec NYT R. H. Anderson je sporočil svojemu listu iz Beograda v začetku tedna, da je nastop skupine hrvaških nacionalistov, ki so prišli iz Avstralije preko Avstrije v Jugoslavijo in hoteli začeti v Bosni gverilski boj za neodvisno Hrvaško vzbudil komunistično vodstvo Jugoslavije v taki meri, da je na posebnem zasedanju prezidija Zveze komunistov Jugoslavije razpravljalo o položaju in sprejelo nove ukrepe za boj proti rastočemu nacionalizmu v posameznih republikah.

V prvi vrsti bodo skušali uporabiti dobro besedo in svarila, če pa ta ne bo zalegla, bodo uporabili tudi ostrejša ukrepe. Posebno obširno kampanjo proti nacionalizmu bodo izvedli na Hrvaškem, v Srbiji, pa tudi v Makedoniji in na Kosovu, kjer so se odnosi med Srbi in Albanci hudo zategnili.

Partijski vodniki svarijo, da porast nacionalizma, ki povzroča spore med posameznimi narodi Jugoslavije, spravlja v resno nevarnost pridobitve zadnjih desetletij, pa tudi decentralizacijo javne uprave in gospodarstva.

Na Hrvaškem je bil proces proti vodnikom vseučiliščnikov preložen v začetku julija na začetek avgusta. Ljudi prijemajo in sodijo zaradi prepevanja hrvaških nacionalističnih pesmi, srbskega odvetnika so obsodili, ker je pisal nacionalistične sestavke, igralca košarke Zvonimira Petricevica so obsodili na eno leto zapora, ker je imel zveze s hrvaškimi izseljenci v Ohlu v ZDA. V Makedoniji je sodišče odredilo uničenje gramofonskih plošč, ki so slavile dva bolgarska nogometaša kot Makedonca.

Teroristična skupina

V to napeto vzdušje nacionalnih napetosti je butnila vest o poskusu hrvaških izseljencev organizirati oborožen upor v sami Jugoslaviji. Tanjug je o tem poročal 2. julija letos: Zvezno tajništvo za notranje zadeve je objavilo, da je prišla te dni v deželo ilegalno ustaško-fašistična skupina teroristov med katerimi so tudi nekateri kriminalci.

V našo deželo so prišli iz nekaterih zahodno-evropskih in prekomorskih držav. Pripadniki teroristične skupine so prišli na področje zahodne Bosne. Prebivalstvo področja, na katerem se je skupina pojavila, se je dejavno zavzelo in nudilo dragoceno podporo javnim organom pri uničevanju teroristov. V prvem stiku z organi varnosti in enotami krajevnih obrambe je bila teroristična skupina razbita in večinoma uničena. Organi varnosti so na sledi ostankov razbite skupine.

Časnikar R. H. Anderson poroča, da ostanke te skupine po dveh tednih od omenjene objave še vedno love. Skupina naj bi prišla iz Avstralije v Avstrijo, od tam pa preko meje v Jugoslavijo, kjer je ustavila nekega voznika s tovornim avtomobilom in ga prisilila, da jo odpeljal v Bugojno, severozahodno od Sarajeva. V skupini naj bi bilo 20 do 30 mladih ljudi oboroženih s puškami in revolverji ter opremljeni s kratkovalovnim radijskim oddajnikom.

Vzcnik tovornjaka je sporočil oblastem, kaj se mu je zgodilo in te so obklopile področje, da bi pripadniki zaleje žive. Pri tem je prišlo do boja, v katerem je bil kapetan varnostnih sil ubit.

En častnik in 9 vojakov
mrtvih v spopadu

Znani tednik "Time" poroča v svoji zadnji številki pod naslovom "Bitka v Bosni", da je bil v spopadu varnostnih sil in vojaštva s teroristično skupino kakih 50 članov, ki je prešla mejo iz Avstrije v Jugoslavijo 26. junija in se v ukradenem tovornjaku podjeteja za prodajo mineralne vode prepeljala 375 milj daleč v Bosno, ubit en častnik in 9 vojakov. Od teroristov naj bi bilo en ducat mrtvih, en ducat pa ranjenih, med tem ko jih je polovica ušla v gore.

"Time" piše, da je skupina teroristov upala na podporo prebivalstva, ki pa jo ni dobila. To je bilo do nje brezbrizno ali celo sovražno. Oblasti so bile za prepaščene, pravi "Time", ko so spoznale, da so bili teroristi sami mladi ljudje, ki so odšli v tujino komaj pred enim ali dvema letoma. Doslej so namreč zmeraj trdile, da podpirajo Ustaše samo pripadniki starejšega rodu, tu pa so bili fantje stari do skoraj izključno izpod 25 let.

Ni izključeno, da je jugoslovanska tajna policija, ki ji je uspelo uriniti svoje agente med emigrantske skupine, sama privabila hrvaške teroriste prav v tem času v Jugoslavijo, trdi "Time". Ta vpad naj bi bil dokaz in podpora obtožnici proti skupini zagrebških visokošolcev, proti katerim se je imela prav tedaj začeti sodna razprava v Zagrebu.

Časopisje napada Avstralijo,
Švedsko in Zah. Nemčijo

Po spopadu s skupino hrvaških nacionalistov, ki je vpadla preko meje in prišla v Bosno, je režimsko časopisje začelo ostro napadati tuje države, ki dopuščajo delovanje hrvaških in srbskih emigrantov na svojih tleh. Posebno ostro je bilo proti Avstraliji, Švedski in Zahodni Nemčiji.

"Nedeljne Novosti" so pisale, da kuje zarote proti režimu v tujini okoli 15.000 Hrvatov in Srbov. Od časa do časa napadejo ti emigranti jugoslov. zastopstva v tujini, pa pošiljajo svoje agente tudi v samo Jugoslavijo. To se dogaja največ v poletju, ko je čas največjega tujskega prometa in pregled na mejah manj strog.

Četudi povzročajo emigranti jugoslovanskemu režimu precejšnitosti, je vendar glavna težava doma, pravi Anderson. To je nacionalizem narodov Jugoslavije, njihovi različni jeziki, preteklost, kultura in vera.

Težave povečuje neednina med samimi komunisti tako v pogledu Marksove ideologije kot v praktičnem vodstvu dežele in njenih republik.

Na zasedanju prezidija Centralnega komiteta Zveze komunistov pretekli teden je bil nacionalizem izrečno obsojen kot zbirališče vseh nasprotnikov režima od buržoaznih reakcionarjev, birokratičnih nacionalistov, separatistov in do graditeljev imperija v Srbiji. Prezidij je posvetil posebno pažnjo ožvljanju nacionalizma v Srbiji, poročja sodelavec NYT.

Val vročine v Evropi

LONDON, Vel. Brit. — Nizki zračni pritisk nad Islandijo je odprl pot vročemu zraku iz Sredozemskega področja in s področja Kaspijskega jezera na sever in hudi vročinski val je zajel vso srednjo in severno Rusijo, pa segel tudi preko Danske v Skandinavijo.

Severno od tečajnika, kjer sonce poleti nikdar ne zaide, se je dvignila temperatura na preko 90 F. Vročina na Norveškem je povečala nevarnost gozdnih požarov severno od tečajnika.

V Frankfurtu ob Meni na Nemškem so zaradi vročine 4 osebe umrle, v Muenchenu jih je moralo zaradi sončarice 120 v bolnišnice.

Starim ljudem na Danskem svetujejo zdravstvene oblasti naj ostajajo v senci, starše pa svare, naj ne puščajo majhnih otrok v avtomobilih, ki so na soncu.

Anglija ima megleno, vlažno vreme z neurji, na Francoskem je prišlo v nekaterih krajih zahodno od Pariza zaradi številnih plah do manjših poplav.

Nixon bo predložen za
Nobelovo mirovno nagrado

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Vodnik republikancev v Senatu Hugh Scott je dejal, da bo predsednik ZDA predložen za Nobelovo mirovno nagrado zaradi svojega napora za pomiritev v Ljudsko republiko Kitajsko in s Sovjetsko zvezo.

Doslej sta dobila Nobelovo mirovno nagrado ameriška predsednika T. Roosevelt, ki je posredoval med Rusi in Japonci leta 1904-5, in W. Wilson, ki je hotel s svojimi predlogi za Društvo narodov zavarovati svet pred novo vojno ob koncu prve svetovne vojne.

Richard M. Nixon je izjavil ob nastopu svoje službe, da hoče končati oborožena soočenja velikih sil in jih nadomestiti s pogajenji. Kljub vsem naporom mu doslej ni uspelo končati vojskovanja v Vietnamu.

Sudan bo obnovil
stike z ZDA

KARTUM, Sud. — Sudan je lani prekinil diplomatske odnose s Sovjetsko zvezo in pogljal njene zastopnike iz dežele, ko je bilo očitno, da so ti sodelavci pri poskusu vreči sedanji režim gen. Nimerija.

Ta je postopno izboljšal stike z arabskimi državami, ki so usmerjene bolj na konservativno stran, pa tudi z državami Afrike. Približal se je znova tudi zahodnim silam in sedaj je na tem, da obnovi redne diplomatske stike z ZDA, ki jih je prekinil junija 1967 ob izbruhu vojne med Izraelom in Egiptom.

IVAN PREGELJ:

Magister Anton

ZGODOVINSKI ROMAN

Na svojih potih po Italiji je bil čul o tem Petrovem nasledniku premnogo mično zgodbo.

Kakor da mu škof bere iz misli, je dejal žalostno:

"Ljudje tega stoletja ga seveda smešijo, da je bil požrtnik in sirov. Vem, čebularja ga imenujejo. A jaz in očetje Ignacijevi vemo tudi drugače... Da ga je Bog izbral, in Bog je moder in dober."

Obrnil se je nato naravnost k magistru in rekel:

"Dobiš pisma za Rim in formatam, potrdilo, da sem te posvetil. Pripravi se, da odides lahko takoj na pot."

Se enkrat je segel po pismu, ki ga je bil prejel iz Rima. Obliče se mu je vnelo v novi žalosti.

Nejevoljno je vzkliknil.

"To pa je delo hudičovo. Kako da sem skoraj prežrl?"

Stegnil je roko z listom proti magistru in velel:

"Beri!"

Magister je iskal v pismu in našel. Zbledel je kot krpa. Oče rektor Fruzij je v pripisu sporočil škofu iz kolegija, da se mu je eden med gojenci zmlichil in izgubil:

"Eden Tvojih, Prečastiti, Bog ga privedi spet na pravo pot, eden Tvojih najmlajših in najdarovitejših, in me le to tolaži, da ne po lastni, temveč po tui krivdi, po želji telesnega njegovega očeta, ki naj mu zato sodi večni Sodnik."

Gojenec, ki se je bil pohujšal, je bil — PAVLE SKALEC...

Za kratko trenutje je vstalo magistru v spomin videnje, ki ga je imel, ko je stal v mesečni noči pod Stanjelom in se mu je zdelo, da gleda strašni grozoti v obraz, nekakšni zblodi, veliki Zver, ki je zevala na pogolt. Obličje tajnostne Grozote se je ta trenutke magistru pred duhom preodelo v poteze, ki jih je ljubil in se jih obenem bal. Bilo je lice, spačeno po obrazu mladega Pavleta Skalca. Bilo je lice odpadlega diakona Jurija Stradijota: lepo, blede in strastno obličje z gorečimi, presunljivimi očmi in mehko črno brado. Magister si je preočil predikanta, kot ga je bil videl zadnjikrat. Spomnil se je bil njegove besede, s katero je bil v krčevitem sovraštvu priznal, da je oče Pavletu in da hoče sina zase.

"Sin pogubljenja!" se je vnel magister v nepojmljivem srdu in sovraštvu. "Tisto uro že je spočel, to kar je zdaj storil." Pa je to bridko občutje ugasnilo. Nekaj neskončno nedoumnega in skrivnostno velikega se je hotelo razodeti magistru pred duhom. Strmel je naravnost predse. Na steni tam je visela slika, predočujoča Dobrega pastirja z izgubljeno ovco na rok. Magister se je zagledal v sliko kakor v čudežno razodetje. Potem je trenutno razumel in vedel vse, planil kvišku in zaklical:

"Prezvišeni! Ne morem Vam dlje služiti!"

Škof je ostrmel, a vprašal navidezno mirno in dostojanstveno:

"Da mi nočeš več služiti? Ali sem te prav umel?"

Magister se je zgrudil vladiki pred noge. S solzami v očeh, jecljaje in neurejeno trgajoč iz sebe besede, je izpovedoval, kakor je bil pravkar čudežno spregledal in spoznal:

"Prečastiti," je govoril, "ta slika na steni... spregovorila je. O ovci in o pastirju, ki je vse druge pustil pa šel za izgubljenjo... Otok Pavle, mojega rodu je... Mater nesrečno so mu zaveli. Zdaj zalezujejo še njeno dete. Pogubili ga bodo... Zato ne morem več služiti, ne utegnem. Prezvišeni, zaradi Gospoda Izveličarja, pri opravičenju svoje duše, prosim, dajte mi, naj grem..."

Vse bolj osuplo je poslušal škof. Zdajci se je nagnil nad klečočega, ga prijel in dvignil. Z medlim nasmehom je vprašal:

"Vstani in povej določno, česa želiš!"

"Gospodu svojemu nebeškemu hočem biti podoben," je rekel magister. "Poklical me je. Za ovco Njegovo izgubljeno naj grem!"

Škofu se je lice prečudno razjasnilo in raznežilo. Dvignil je roko za blagoslov in dejal slovesno:

"Za ovco izgubljeno, da jo otmeš... Hodi z Bogom, moj sin!" — — —

Magister je zopet zdrknil na kolena. Poljubil je škofu roko in rob obleke.

"Duhovni si," je govoril škof, "vso pravico si dobil, da bo odvezano, kar boš odvezal, in pridržano, kar boš pridržal. Pojdeš na pot. Preden greš, svojo prvo daritev boš služil..."

Pa je utihnil. Brezmejna lepota se je namreč zdajci razlila magistru čez obraz.

"Prezvišeni," je dejal, "če smem, če grešno ni! Zato da bi ovco resnično našel... Svojo žrtev vem Gospodu... Odložil bom do dopolnjenega pota svojo prvo mašo..."

HEADACHES, DIZZY SPELLS COULD MEAN SERIOUS TROUBLE

Headaches, dizzy spells, shortness of breath, flashes in front of the eyes, and that tired feeling, are symptoms commonly associated with high blood pressure, notes the American Heart Association, Northeast Ohio Chapter.

But, many people feel "safe" because they have none of these signs.

Often high blood pressure produces no symptoms at all, and only your doctor can determine if you have high blood pressure.

An estimated 21 million Americans suffer from High blood pressure which is also known as "hypertension." Studies show that one in every 10 Americans has high blood pressure and about half of all hypertensives are undetected. If hypertension does go untreated, it can speed hardening of the arteries and lead to heart attack and stroke.

Therefore, it is vital that every person get a regular physical check-up from his doctor.

He should seek medical advice at once if hypertension is suspected. Only your doctor can determine if you actually have the disease. Only he can decide what the proper treatment is. Don't let self-diagnosis and self-treatment lead to tragedy, the Heart Association cautions.

If you do have high blood pressure, the chances are good that with today's new drugs, many of which were unknown before the mid-1950's, your doctor can control your blood pressure. Other treatments include a change in diet or medical counseling. The ability to treat high blood pressure successfully is considered one of the major lifesaving victories of modern medicine.

Research scientists, many of whom are supported by public funds contributed to the Heart Association, are constantly at work to uncover the source of this disease and even better methods of treatment. Possible causes of high blood pressure now under study include body chemistry, emotions, and heredity.

Paul A. Corey

— Denis, Janet and David.

He was born in Youngstown, Ohio in 1926, the son of Phillip and Effie Corey. On his first birthday, Corey fell victim to the epidemic of polio and was totally paralyzed on his entire left side. At the age of three, his mother died and his father took him to Canton, Ohio to live with his uncle Joseph and Aunt Bessie Coury.

"I can just barely recall Aunt Bessie — who was a little bit of a thing — lugging me on Canton's inter-city streetcars three times a week to get therapy treatments," he said.

"I spent only three of my eight years in elementary school in an actual school building and had to rely on tutors," Corey

A determined man with the time to laugh with a friend or co-worker, Paul A. Corey is director of the Ohio Department of State Personnel.

He is the son of a Lebanese immigrant who waged his personal battle against crippling polio and ethnic discrimination to become one of the most respected members of the Gilligan Administration.

He married a Slovenian gal the former Marie Cercek, and they have three children said. He went to high school in Wheeling, W. Va. and lived with his uncle, the Rev. Paul Abraham Corey, for whom the director was named. "It was the tradition in our family that the first born son would become a priest. My grandfather, great-grandfather and great-great-grandfather were also priests and my cousin Paul E. Coury is a priest in Waterville, Me."

The Director explained that many Lebanese are of the Maronite Rite in communion with the church in Rome, and their clergy are permitted to marry.

"Like the old foreign families, we were large and we all stuck together," Director Corey noted.

A tall man with silver sideburns, Corey has almost completely recovered from his bout with polio but walks with a slight limp. Framed in his office are three metal pins which were recently removed from his foot during the time of the battle with the Federal Pay Board to win pay increases for state employees — keeping a promise made by the Governor during his campaign.

"My handicap was a blessing in disguise," he said, "I was the first one in my family to go to college. Since I had polio, I had to use my head."

Corey worked at a soda fountain, and on a factory assembly-line, and as a factory timekeeper to put himself through Notre Dame University. After graduation, he approached the Cleveland Board of Education for a teaching position.

"They didn't want to hire me because I was a cripple and when they did, they assigned me to the toughest school in Cleveland where all the behavior problems were sent from schools throughout the city," Corey explained.

"I was angry enough with them to show them that I was going to be the best doggone teacher they ever had."

SUPPORT ETHNIC PEOPLE — GO TO ST. CLAIR FESTIVAL

rope, its traditions, customs and habits.

Being an annual event, I urge the local residents and businesses to continue to take interest and support it.

Remember, every performance sponsored by local groups helps promote our ethnic identity by uniting ourselves in community and Nationality entertainment. By supporting our neighborhood business establishments, we can and will be successful in maintaining our proud ethnic heritage.

Little Europe Festival is scheduled for July 29 and 30, mostly at the St. Clair Slovenian Home. The Pecon-Trebar Orchestra will supply the musical entertainment for the event to help make it the largest attraction of the year.

Let's show our appreciation to the above named promoters and extend our complete confidence in their ability by promoting and attending St. Clair's Little Europe Festival.

Little Europe Festival, which is annually sponsored by the St. Clair Business Assn., and Perry Home Assn., merits recognition as one of the best events of the year.

This year event will be held Saturday, July 29, and Sunday, July 30. (See particulars elsewhere in this paper.)

Among the active persons who are promoting the identity of the citizens and businesses of the St. Clair Ave. community are the following who deserve honorable mention, Dr. Anthony Barbas, who has tremendously contributed to make life more pleasant in the St. Clair community, and make it a better place to live and work.

Julia Pirc, editor of New Era, Dick Mott, Mgr. Central Nat. Bank, No. American office, Genevieve (Jaksic) Drobnic, Mike Reman, Ulrich Lube, Helen Balutis, Star Majer and many others. All are deserving and merit recognition in promoting Little Eu-

ALICE MARTIN GETS PRESS WRITEUP

Cleveland Press columnist Dick Feagler wrote a column on Tuesday, July 11 about Dr. Alice Martin, a Sen. McGovern delegate from Ohio's 22nd District.

She is the daughter of Frank Opaskar, 614 Hippodrome Blvd., Cleveland and residence in Shaker Heights.

Feagler says: "In the old days a Cuyahoga County delegate came from a lot of hard work and hustle and party hacking and smoke-filled rooms and doorbell ringing and other such manifestations of the Democratic process.

He mention Dr. Martin came from Hawaii where she had spent two months studying the effects in inbreeding upon a tribe of isolated islanders who are members of an obscure ritualistic religious sect.

"Besides which, one must add irrelevantly but not irreverently, she looks great in a bikini."

She said she would rather not divulge the name of the obscure religious sect for fear they might be subjected to more pressure than they presently suffer.

Dr. Martin, speaking in Miami, said, "I don't really think of myself as in politics. I think of myself as someone concerned with the issues. The only way to settle some of these issues is politically."

She mentioned she was excited about being at her first convention.

Her husband, Donald, an attorney, flew down to join her in Miami. They have full time residence in Shaker Heights, Ohio and have two children.

Feagler, the reporter, ended his article by noting Mrs. Martin feels quite at home at the convention.

"After all, in her case, it was just a question of leaving one inbred, obscure, isolated, ritualistic sect in favor of another."

MOST FOOD FINDS ITS WAY SAFELY TO YOU!

"It tastes good until you find out what's in it." That's a common lament registered by consumers after trying a different product and then reading the ingredients.

"After all, disodium guanylate certainly can't be good for me, can it?"

No one can guarantee that a food is going to suit your fancy, but there are agencies that make sure that food products are wholesome and free of any harmful additives. The best known of these is the Food and Drug Administration.

However, the U.S. Department of Agriculture, through its Consumer and Marketing Service, has its own food inspection system as well, right in processing plants. Here is where USDA implements not only its own meat and poultry quality standards but those of the FDA as well.

In all states where the product is shipped across state lines, C&MS inspectors make in-the-processing plant checks for meat and poultry wholesomeness.

To eliminate doubt about product ingredients meeting specifications, the inspector is required to send routine samples of ingredients to one of the seven meat and poultry inspection laboratories closest to his plant.

After arriving at the lab, close chemical analyses are made of the samples to confirm or deny the inspector's suspicions.

Let's say an inspector in the Chicago region feels that there is a harmful amount of chemical residue left in the product from a preserving process. Sodium nitrate is used to keep bacteria out of ham and give it characteristic color.

"Fine, except when the chemical exceeds a maximum tolerance of 200 parts per million," says Wertice Smith, assistant Chemist in Charge of the Chicago Meat Inspection Lab.

"Violation of tolerance limits on added substances like water or salt brings on a series of 5 further checks of that lot of hams in the plant. If there is a consistent violation in the new samples, the product cannot be shipped out for public consumption until the problem is rectified by the plant."

Other residues in the ham may be revealed by the additional lab analyses which show that they could come from oil in processing machines, coloring from paper the product is wrapped in, detergents used for hand washing by product handlers and others might create problems in the final product.

Because of this, the inspector is required to turn in for analysis any new material found in the processing.

If a ham is canned, there can be only 8 per cent added substance after processing. Then the product must still be labeled "HAM, WITH NATURAL JUICES." If water content is between 8 and 10 per cent it must be labeled HAM-WATER ADDED — WITH NATURAL JUICES.

A fresh ham cannot contain any added water. If it contains from 1 to 10 per cent water, it must be labeled "HAM-WATER ADDED." Labels declaring "IMITATION HAM" must be affixed to that product when the water percentage is over 10 per cent.

Inspecting the plant must keep an eye out to see that the product is truthfully labeled. USDA chemists also routinely check to see if the label does indeed state what is contained in the product.

Now suppose that the same meat processing plant also markets a ham salad and a ham spread. Restrictions are placed here as well on the amount of ham required in each product. There must be at least 50 per cent ham in the spread.

In all products, regulations call for an ingredient breakdown of the product to determine what its contents really is. Preservatives of extenders (such as cereal products, non-fat dry milk, soy flour) can be detected, as well as amounts of cooked ham, seasonings, spices, vegetables, flavoring, coloring, or any other ingredient. If there is a strong suspicion that a processor is not abiding to meat content or has inserted new additives not recorded on the package label, analysis of the sample can be made in a day. As soon as the inspector has the results relayed to him he can order that all of the tainted meat product be retained at the plant.
