A Cure for Political Problem

by JOE GLINSEK

Nobel economic icon, libertarian/market force advocate Milton Friedman, beat the actuarial average by over 20 years.

He opined that a Republican congress and a Democratic president was the best recipe for fiscally responsible government – cited Clinton's 'budget surplus' as an example. Conceded that the real reason was gridlock, which stalled spending.

If gridlock is the answer, maybe we should just make the already ridiculously short congressional "sessions" even shorter. Say, two weeks. Fourteen consecutive days of actual 12 hour sessions, hammering out issues. (They love that phrase.) They can eat Danish, drink coffee, and pee in a cup. Save the taxpayers tons of money – expenses of traveling back and forth to their home districts, eliminating junkets and Washington housing and accepting bribes from lobbyists. We'd foot the bill to take over a big hotel in the off-season, say March, and house the entire Congress in one place. They could conduct their business in the hotel's facilities. Sell the present buildings to Disney. What a great tourist attraction – Disney, D.C. Maybe they'd even eliminate either Daylight Savings Time, or Standard Time and stick with one or the other instead of vacillating in the spring and fall. (Compromising satisfies no one.)

They could move the Hall of Presidents there, and add the Hall of Congress – fill it with animated Congressmen selected from two centuries' best – maybe two or three dozen.

Absence diminishes small loves and increases great ones, as the wind blows out the candle and blows up the bonfires.

–Bob Mills

Traditional Slovenian Potica (nut roll)

Potica is a traditional Slovenian festive cake that has become famous around the world.

Poticas are baked in special cake tins, traditionally made of very ornate terracotta that are now often used as decorations. These tins are usually round, with a tube in the middle.

Baked poticas are mostly round, ring shaped cakes. There are at least 50 different kinds of poticas, differing in fillings.

At first, fillings consisted of walnuts, hazelnuts, honey, mint, curd, cream, cracklings, bacon or dried fruits. In the past, sugar was usually not added because it was scarce.

Today, poticas are often made with cocoa, chocolate or carob fillings. The dough is made of wheat flour with yeast used as leaven. It is rolled out flat, spread with the filling, rolled up and placed in the tin.

Stopped by a Cop

by Rudy Flis

An item in the daily newspaper caused me to remember an incident which occurred in early 1958, about the end of March. My wife, Therese, and I were on our way back home from Bergs, a store with baby stuff. Pulling off Lake Shore Blvd. onto E. 9th Street, I was stopped by the police. They had me get in their cruiser and informed me I was driving with one headlight, and then asked me for my driver's license, and I gave it to them.

"Do you have another license, Rudolph?" And I asked the officer, "Why would I have two licenses?" His answer, "Because this one expired six weeks ago." They gave me a ticket and told me I would have to be in court next week.

I told the officer I was working 12 hour days next week and I would have to take off work. Is there any way I could pay the fine without going to court. He told me if I fixed my headlight, got a new license and then went by this little brick building across the street from the courthouse and have my light checked out and a signed receipt and with that and my new license, sit in the courtroom until the judge is finished, and then approach the judge and explain to him my predicament. If that doesn't work, you have to be in court.

Everything the officer advised me to do, I did, and was sitting in the courtroom that next morning. Man was I nervous as I walked up to the judge, who had to be anxious to get out of the courtroom and start his weekend. He patiently listened as I told my dumb story. When I finished, he asked me about my headlight and my license, at which time I handed them to an officer who gave them to the judge. I knew I had to pay a fine, but if I didn't miss any work I'd be happy.

I forgot the exact words of the kind judge, but he sent me home, no fine and no court appearance. He was the Honorable Judge Thomas James Parrino, whose death notice was in the paper last week. May the soul of this kind judge rest in peace.

But there is a sad ending to the story. The officer who was so kind to give me advice, lost his life in the line of duty within a few months of my meeting him. May his soul rest in peace and may God watch over all of our safety forces.

MERRY DECEMBER

Wonderful December in Picturesque Ljubljana

by Anja Lorenzetti

The jingling of bells, snow, the smell of baking... children laughing and happy faces. How beautiful Ljubljana is at this time of year. Every year, when once again it smells of winter and the happy festive season that is approaching becomes alive. A large number of visitors from home and abroad come to admire this decorated city, adorned by over 46 kilometers of fairy lights silhouetting the outlines of some of the more important buildings in Slovenia's capital city.

The New Year's decorations in Ljubljana are becoming a genuine tourist attraction, and the city gets more and more beautiful every year. Last year the decorations were designed by architect Karin Košak and the artist Zmago Modic, who ensured that visitors to the beautiful city of Ljubljana gazed in wonder at the decorations and lights.

For a number of years now, Ljubljana has been recognized for its 'galaxies,' which have become an essential element of the decorations. These groups of large white spheres are situated in various locations around the city and are truly unique.

Of all the numerous decorated trees across the entire city, the most notable is the Christmas Tree in Prešeren Square (Prešernov trg), decorated by around 27,000 white fairy lights which, strung together, would reach a length of approximately 4,500 meters.

The magnificent tree stands in front of the statue of the Slovenian poet France Prešeren.

The day of the turning on the Christmas lights is also the first day of the Christmas Fair on the Cankar Embankment. Numerous Slovenian craftsmen, artists and others use the attractive, festively decorated stalls to present and sell their wares. The curious will find plenty of hand-made products to inspect and admire.

Every year I find presents here for my family, since the products for sale are truly wonderful and special. Along the length of the embankment a number of stalls sell mulled wine and culinary specialties.

The festive atmosphere and music make the fair an ideal gathering place for friends to toast the new year and the old. There is always plenty of laughter. This time of year fills me with such happiness that my soul is filled with laughter and everything seems especially beautiful.

Children and adults alike look forward most of all to seeing Grandfather Frost, who will come to Zvezda Park every day between 26 and 30 December with his escort of elves, the Good Fairy, deer, and so on.

The opening ceremonies is supplemented by the Good Fairy, who grants the little wishes of all who visit her in front of the Town Hall.

This and that from Emilee

by EMILEE JENKO

Hi everyone. It's a beautiful morning as I type this article; the sun is shining and the breeze is so balmy. Take advantage of this warm weather. It can't last. The white stuff is coming.

The AMLA 50-year member affair was very nice. Chatted with a number of friends. Out of six honorees of St. Anne's #4, two made the scene. Ivanka Stupica and Lou Zigmund. Each received a box of candy from the staff of #4. The music was by the International Sound Machine by Fred Ziwich. Enjoyed by all. The program was short and sweet.

December birthday celebrants: Dawn, my son's fiancé, my grade school chum Bea Tanko. Have a great day, Bea. Rosemary Reiger, Fran Gazvoda, Angelique Skorich Pastva, and Danny Reiger. (Jan. 1st). Many happy returns to Pauline Burya, Jan. 5th. Barb Knezevic.

Give the St. Vitus Food Bank volunteers a big hand. They do a tremendous job each month: Dan Reiger, Lil Kryzwicki, Florence Jaksic, Josie Manfreda, Ann Grigonis, Bernie Sajovec, Sister Mary Avsec, and Mario Pericic.

Get well wishes to Evelyn Buncic (had surgery), Alice Azman also had by-pass surgery. Keep Ed Arhar and Gwen Slapnik Washington in your thoughts and prayers. They are convalescing, but need all our prayers for a speedy recovery.

Birthday wishes on Thanksgiving: Stefanie Segulin. Also belated wishes to Jim and June Slapnik, Juliette Slapnik who resides at the St. Vitus Village. Many more years of happiness is wished by friends of the SHA who surprised her and feted her with a cake made by Sophie Mazi for all Juliette's friends to enjoy.

Happy special birthday wishes to Michael Polensek, Councilman, from all your constituents.

All his listeners thank Denny Bucar for taking over Nov. 19 Sunday morning program on WELW 1330 AM for brother Dale. You did a great job. Everyone enjoyed it.

The other day I stopped into Shelli's coffee shop and would you believe who I bumped into. It was Rocco Pollutro (ex-Chief of Police of Cleveland). He chatted for about two hours, very nostalgic. Had lunch and then we left to go our separate ways. It was so nice to remember old times and friends. We sure did a lot of reminiscing.

Condolences to the family of Fran Forsythe. She was very active with the St. Clair Pensioners and many other fraternal lodges. Rest in peace, Fran. Keep her in your prayers.

Long time friend Frank Tanko passed away this past month. He will be missed by relatives and friends. God be with you.

AMLA's Christmas party for the children will take place on Dec. 10th at SNH. See you there. I'll be with the cookie brigade.

SWU #50 Xmas Party was Dec. 3 at Tizzano's Party Center on East 260 St.

Dec. 1st Bishop Pevec hosted at Borromeo Seminary St. Nicholas Night. Glasbena Matica sang at the Mass and reception afterwards.

CWV Post 1655 will be celebrating their Christmas holiday at the Croatian Center on Sunday, Dec. 17th. It'll be fun. It was a blast last year. Hope we can duplicate it.

A few highlights and quips from the Awards Show #19 Polka. The Next Generation. Two very important presenters were Bob Feller and Bob Dolgan, recently retired after 45 years as sports writer with the Plain Dealer. "Everyone knows Bob Feller." Ed Ostry, an honoree, was called by Ed Kenik, an "Adopted Slovenian." Christine Hibbs, honoree, said you can't be a good vocalist without a foundation and that foundation is a terrific orchestra, "The Wojtilas."

Sophie Zalokar, daughter of Ray Zalokar, was beautifully dressed in a gold frock and is quite a performer. She also was a presenter. Good job, Sophie. Fred Gregorich was hep and great and a polished performer. His cheese and crackers is a #1 hit.

Al (Big Al) Pestotnik honoree, compared the Polka Award extravaganza of today to the "Rich and Famous" TV show on Saturday evening. Sure says something, eh, Al? Gary Rhamy, an honoree, had a mustache when he appeared on a video show at the affair and had cut it off when he received his award. He quoted Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Go thru the brush to get to the picnic."

Jackie Zorc, long-time polka entertainer, couldn't make the affair, but sent congratulations. A resident of the Slovene Home for the Aged, he is a perky 98 years young. Zivio.

Best Song: Green Valley by Dave Skrajner was so intoxicating, the lyrics and the yodeling. Absolutely goose bumpy.

Accordion virtuoso personified was Don Lipovac. He surely can tickle the ivories. One of the Grkman family had their great grandson perform with the band on the button box, 4-year-old Benjamin. The "Next Generation." He already knew all the body language. The Grkman had a senior partner (their father) with them on the bandstand, -- 4 generations. They thanked everyone for the award. You really had to be at the affair to get the true feeling of the honorees and the audience. They were multo, multo gracious.

More get well wishes: Ann Kern (resident of St. Vitus Village), Lil Ribarich (knee surgery), Frank Kuhel, Joanne Olaskar, and Bill Young.

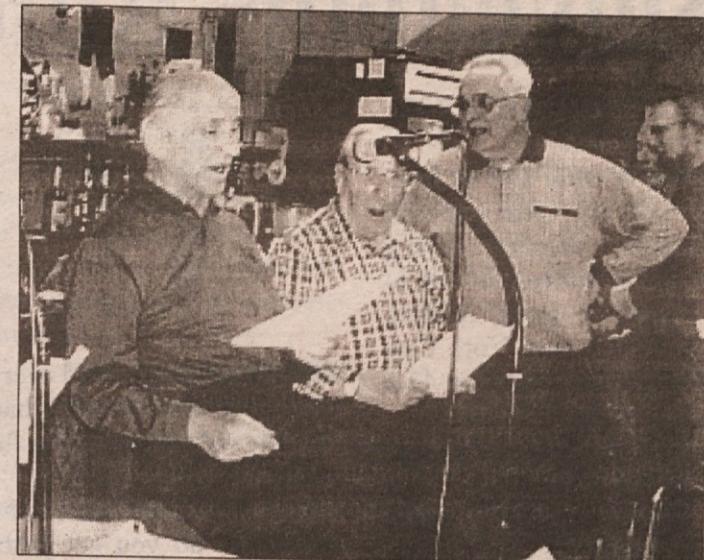

More belated birthday wishes: Sylvia Plymesser, Mary Turk, Paul Raster, Albina Kostensek, Juliette Slapnik, Gene Drobnić, residing in Cape Coral, Fl., and Jo Stinziano. The above are all loyal members of St. Clair Pensioners.

Fantje na Vasi and the Kres Dancers were the top notch entertainment at the SNH Brunch. Food was tasty, prepared by the board and plenty of it. A group from Canada also enjoyed the day. They were here for the weekend enjoying the polka festivities at the Marriott Hotel in downtown Cleveland. Glad you were aboard.

I will leave you with this thought since it is the time for all good friends to be together: A friend is someone who knows the song in your heart and can sing it back to you when you have forgotten the words.

Christmas in Euclid Concert

The second annual interdenominational event of the Euclid, Ohio church community will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 13, at 7 p.m., in Saint Christine Church, 840 E. 222 St. (216) 261-1410. Free admission.

Singing Along at the weekly Waterloo Friday Fish Fry on Oct. 27 (Halloween Party) are Eddie Kenik, Adolph Kocin, and John Kozlevchar.

Singers Helen Kozlevchar and Dorothy Spendal use the song sheets supplied by Matt Zabukevec.

Slovenians Run in New York Marathon

by KATARINA TEPEŠH

NEW YORK CITY, Nov. 5 — Every year several Slovenians compete among the 38,368 runners in one of the world's great running races in the New York City Marathon 26.2 miles or 42.2 kilometers route.

SIMON PREMOZE, age 33, living in California, ran the fastest marathon among Slovenians with official time of 3 hours, 10 minutes and 45 seconds.

MARTIN SALA, age 29, second fastest runner at 3:48:34.

MATIJA GREGORIC, age 30, third fastest runner 4:05:59.

TATJANA KUHAR AVDICAUSEVIC, age 31, fastest Slovenian woman 4:09:45.

UROS KLJUCAR, age 28, ran 4:19:53.

Among native New Yorkers, our American Slovenian VIKTORIA KAMIN, age 34 completed the 26.2 mile marathon with an official time of 4:45:02. She agreed to an interview.

Katarina — Congratulations, Viki. This was your 4th marathon in a row, an amazing achievement. It takes hard work, dedication and commitment. What continues to motivate you?

Viki — It's a goal that I set for myself and want to accomplish. It's a great feeling to cross the finish line.

K — After the 2005 marathon did you take a long break? Or did you never stop training?

V — After the 2005 marathon I did take a little break. When I started working out again I added other activities besides running.

K — What is your typical day? Do you prefer to run in the morning, before going to work or in the evening?

V — I usually run after work or weekend mornings.

K — Are you a member of the New York Road Runners club? Do you tend to run with a group or solo?

V — I've been a member of the New York Road Runners Club for more than three years. Most of the time, I run with my friend who just ran her 11th marathon. We motivate each other when we don't want to run. The NYRR Club has races throughout the year in Central Park that we participate in.

K — Do you ever get a common cold? Do you take vitamins and get a flu shot?

V — Your immune system drops when you are training for a marathon, so I try to stay healthy by eating right and getting plenty of rest. I take magnesium, calcium and a multivitamin every day. I'll get a tiny cold every once in a while. I never had the flu and I do not get a flu shot.

K — The night before the marathon, do you eat pasta and a piece of protein, as recommended? Did you join the complimentary Barilla Marathon Eve Dinner?

V — That's exactly what I ate, pasta with marinara sauce and grilled chicken. I did not go to the pasta party at Tavern on the Green, it's too crowded.

K — Did you watch the spectacular fireworks?

V — I didn't watch the fireworks this year, but I have in the past.

K — What do you feel and think while running the 42.2 kilometers marathon? Do you pay a lot of attention to the miles? Do you try to amuse yourself knowing it is a long way? What or who inspires you?

V — You have to think of everything but how your body is feeling. I focus on the crowds, the bands and my friends and family waiting for me. I do pay attention to the miles; it makes it a lot easier when you know you are halfway done or you only have 4 miles left. My family and friends are the ones who inspire me. They give me the encouragement to know I can do this.

K — After the marathon, do you soak in the tub? Stretch and keep legs elevated?

V — I stretch, use ice and take lots of Advil. Monday afternoon I got a massage.

K — Your family is obviously very proud of you.

V — My mom was at the halfway point in Queens and in Central Park. My brother Ivan, sister-in-law and twin nieces were on First Avenue. I had friends in Brooklyn and all along First and Fifth Avenues. My sister Bernadette called me before the race for inspiration and afterwards to congratulate me.

K — Does your family boost your energy by offering you crackers, pretzels, trail mix, orange slices or gels?

V — I ask them to bring pretzels and bananas. I carry energy gels and salt packs with me.

K — Do you take a day off after the marathon?

V — Yes, I always take the day off from work. I work for a financial planning firm, Financial Asset Management Corp., located in Manhattan. My co-workers are very supportive and extremely understanding during my training.

K — Last year you ran for charity. How about this year?

V — I didn't run for charity this year, but I supported my friend who always runs for Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center.

K — Do you speak Slovenian?

V — I don't speak Slovenian, but understand some of it. My parents try to speak to me in Slovenian and I'll answer them in English.

K — Local press is showing cancer survivor and seven-time Tour de France champion Lance Armstrong practice running in groups? Have you seen him or run alongside him?

V — Unfortunately, I have not seen Lance running. The group he runs with is probably through his sponsor Nike.

Marathon facts:

A record 38,368 runners started the race. Because 93,000 applicants exceeded the number of spaces available, the organizers were not able to accept all applicants. A processing fee of $9.00 is required for all. The majority of U.S. entrants including athletes with disabilities, were selected in a random lottery drawing on June 7. Most international entrants come through tour operators. An entry fee for U.S. residents is $107.00, while non-U.S. residents pay $164.00.

Oldest female entrant was 87; Oldest male 88; Male to female ratio: 66% men — 34% women; 40% were first-time marathoners.

To avoid shortcuts via the subway, a chip is a mandatory scoring device for all entrants. Crossing the finish line in Central Park is one of the great thrills of a lifetime for the runner, while a volunteer immediately and carefully cuts the plastic tie holding the scoring chip to the participant's shoelace.

611 port-a-potties were in place during the race with more than 1.5 million cups of water and Gatorade passed out along the route.

It takes thousands of volunteers to make the race happen. All volunteers receive a souvenir t-shirt and poncho while assisting at aid stations, handing out water, blanket distribution to finishers, directing marathoners to buses that take them to the start, assist with family reunion, ferry loading, hospitality, interpreting, and assisting as needed to keep the event flowing smoothly.

All About Judge Don J. Svet

Don J. Svet's story is not a straight line. Instead it is one of circles and fortuitous conjunctions. A man seemingly at the right place at the right time, he has created his good fortune through hard work and determination.

His parents, Slovenian immigrants, most influenced the course of his life. Without formal education themselves, they advised their three children to get an education. Each followed this advice, and Don Svet's brother, John, has a degree in chemistry and owns a ceramics factory in California. His sister, Nancy Burnett, has a Ph.D. in education and is on the board of regents for Gonzaga University in Spokane, Washington. Don J. Svet himself is a United States magistrate judge for the District of New Mexico.

Svet was raised in Camden-on-Gauley, West Virginia. He was an All State basketball and football player in high school, and after service in the U.S. Marine Corps, he was recruited by Coach Don Gibson to play basketball at New Mexico Highlands. After two quarters, he married Norma Ordóñez from Las Vegas and joined the police force in Albuquerque.

An officer from 1959 to 1963, he was promoted to sergeant of police and served the City of Albuquerque in this position from 1963-1966. During this tenure, he met Attorney Pete Domenici, who many years later, as United States Senator, recommended Svet's appointment as United States Attorney for the District of New Mexico.

But before this circle could be complete, Svet came back to Highlands to finish his education. He completed his bachelor's degree in political science and history in 1968. A serious student, he was consistently on the Dean's List and was a member of Pi Gamma Mu Honor Society. He continued to earn high marks at law school at the University of New Mexico, receiving his juris doctorate in 1971. Svet was a member of the Order of Coif, a legal honor society based on superior academic achievement.

From here, Svet's career path took him back to work for the City of Albuquerque, where he served as assistant city attorney, working with prosecutions. Svet then was appointed assistant United States Attorney for the Criminal Division of the District of New Mexico and promoted to First Assistant in 1981. He served as Interim United States Attorney for several months during that tenure, and in 1991, he was appointed by President George Bush to be the U.S. Attorney for New Mexico. His appointment was confirmed by the U.S. Senate.

In 1993, he was appointed U.S. Magistrate Judge for an eight-year term. He is one of eight U.S. magistrate judges in New Mexico. Civil cases are his primary responsibility.

While he has held several positions that were the result of political appointments, Don Svet has never been active in politics. It is this objectivity which may have made him the best choice for U.S. attorney and magistrate judge. Judge Svet has the perspective of 31 years of public service within different areas of law enforcement and the justice system. He continues to like his job and to believe in serving the citizens of New Mexico.

Don and Norma Svet have two children whose chosen careers reflect on their parents' influence as well as their own abilities. Donna Svet Miller is a lawyer and assistant U.S. attorney in El Paso, Texas. Lt. Col. Frank J. Svet serves in the U.S. Marine Corps in Washington, D.C.

Norma Ordóñez Svet received her bachelor's degree from Highlands in 1968. She was a U.S. probation officer until her retirement in 1995.

The Sverts have made frequent trips to Slovenia, one of the former republics of Yugoslavia, where Don's parents were raised. This determination to hold on to the old brings another circle of the Sverts' lives into the round.

Because of his service to New Mexico and the pride he brings to his alma mater, New Mexico Highlands University is happy to recognize Don J. Svet as a Distinguished Alumnus.

In 2001 Svet was appointed to another eight-year-term as United States Magistrate Judge. He has since retired and now serves on recall duty, carrying out the same duties, with a more relaxed work load.

Congratulations!

Questions and Answers to Bob Dolgan, author of 'America's Polka King':

Q: You've been a sportswriter for most of your career. How did you come to write a book about a polka musician?

A: I co-wrote Frank Yankovic's autobiography in 1977. Yankovic was a real character – the greatest, most successful musician in polka history. You could walk down the street and ask people about famous polka musicians and the only one they really know is Frankie Yankovic, especially in Cleveland. It seems like everyone knows who he is. I felt that his story should be told by somebody who remembers it. I'm Slovenian. I grew up with Slovenian polkas, listening to Frank Yankovic's polka.

Q: Why did Yankovic become such a big star?

A: Because, besides his great showmanship, he traveled all over the country. Most polka musicians were basically local, although they might take small side trips. Yankovic was on the road 325 days a year. He played all the way from New York City to Hollywood.

Q: What set him apart from other polka musicians of his day?

A: You couldn't mistake his sound. If you heard it, you knew it was his band. For one thing, he never used a saxophone; he preferred a solovox. It kind of had a sound like a piano and an organ. That gave him a distinctive sound. He always hired the best musicians. Also his singing was excellent.

Q: Why is Yankovic called "America's Polka King?"

A: He won that title in a contest in Milwaukee in 1948. That was the same year that his first million-seller, "Just Because," came out. The top recording companies like Columbia, RCA, and Capitol had this polka contest in Milwaukee in a big auditorium with their top bands playing. Frank won the award by a vote of 8-1. He won it three years straight. That was at the peak of the polka craze. He was the only man to win that award before it was discontinued. (Smaller recording companies were getting in on the act, and the bigger recording companies didn't want to take a chance on having one of the nobodies beating their band out, so they ended the contest.)

Q: Is there anything about Yankovic's life story that will interest readers who are not polka fans?

A: Frank was a unique character; one of the most unusual I've ever known – and I covered sports for about 50 years. His life was as hectic as any rock star. His family had a lot of problems. He had problems with his musicians. He always wanted to be number one: if one of his musicians got to be too popular, he didn't like it. He was also a kleptomaniac. He was married three times and had 10 children. His first wife deserted him after 28 years because he was never home. The cops didn't know where she was; he didn't know where she was. For a while he was suspected of murdering her.

Q: How did growing up in Cleveland influence Yankovic's music and career?

A: Cleveland was called the polka capital because of all the Slovenian and Polish bands here. It was a very musical society. Yankovic and Pecon and Johnny Vadnal and Kenny Bass all lived within a mile of each other and all knew each other. They all got jobs with national recording companies.

Q: Did Yankovic make a lot of money in his heyday? Was he a good businessman?

A: He made a lot and he blew a lot. In 1949, when he had his second million-seller, "Blue Skirt Waltz," he grossed about $160,000. That was in a time when the average working man might have been making three or four thousand dollars a year. Back in the 1950s the going rate for a polka band was about $200 a job; he was charging $500. Unfortunately, he was a sucker for con men.

Q: How is this book different from Yankovic's autobiography, which you co-wrote with him in 1977?

A: In that book Frank was telling his story. This time, I'm telling the story.

Slovenia: a top 10 destination

by Tom Passavant

What are the next hot places in the world of travel? Well, Slovenia is ranked in there as number 9.

Slovenia:

If you want to drive Slovenians crazy, just confuse them with Slovaks. So let's be clear: The country we've come to praise here is Slovenia, a New Jersey-size nation that touches the Adriatic. It's the most prosperous of the former Yugoslav republics, and a member of NATO and the European Union.

Slovenia is ready for its touristic close-up. With a population of two million, its strong economy and stable democracy make it a comfortable place to visit. The mountainous scenery and close-to-the-land locals seem imported from a distant era of travel. Think of it as an amalgam of the pastoral parts of Switzerland, Germany, and Italy, with lower prices and fewer tourists.

"Slovenia will be a revelation," says Chris Mark of Butterfield & Robinson, an upscale tour company, citing its picturesque castles, friendly people and excellent wine and food.

Most visitors begin in either Trieste, Italy, which abuts Slovenia's 29-mile Adriatic coastline, or in the capital of Ljubljana. The most popular destinations are in the western half of the country. The northwest, for example, harbors some of the most pristine forests and mountains in Europe, with terrific hiking and rafting and the famously picturesque Lake Bled.

Straddling the Italian border, the Brda region is fast becoming a popular wine country destination. The food, meanwhile, shows equally strong Italian and Germanic influences: Risotto and gnocchi share billing with strudel and dumplings.

Slovenia's top hotels, like the Grand Hotel Toplice (hotel-toplice.com; from $162) on Lake Bled, have decidedly old-fashioned Mitteleuropa air, and farm stays are very popular (just-slovenia.co.uk).

Alabama, KY Pilgrimage Correction

I loved the story of the "Spiritual Journey to Alabama and Kentucky" in a recent issue of American Home newspaper. Sophie wrote what I try to convey to people on a pilgrimage. I could feel myself on the journey again and for anyone who has never been there, the feeling becomes almost real.

However, the Tour Leader Kathy Bowers is with The Catholic Tour Company/Pilgrim Tours (216) 751-8301, NOT with Regina Co.

I have been going to Alabama for 10 years and this is an annual pilgrimage. So I will, with the Grace of God, be going again next fall.

St. Vitus Altar Society Christmas Party

Christmas is coming all too soon. Parties are already being planned (often two or more on the same day). It can be difficult to choose which event to attend.

The St. Vitus Altar and Rosary Society is hoping all of its members attend their annual Christmas luncheon. It will be held on Sunday, Dec. 10 in the St. Vitus auditorium immediately after the 10:30 a.m. Mass.

It is the one time of year when all members, no matter how active in the organization, can gather together for some friendship and hospitality. Its president, Mrs.

Ivanka Matić, is constantly on the look out for more members. She knows the importance of bringing in new faces to the organization in order to keep it alive and vibrant.

Each Christmas both old and new members come together to renew their commitment to such an admirable organization. Won't you please make an effort to come and share this time together? Members are asked to bring an appetizer or dessert for the potluck luncheon. Also, don't forget to bring a nicely wrapped gift for the raffle.

Everyone is cordially invited to

San Francisco Celebrates Annual 'Martinovanje'

SAN FRANCISCO, CA -- This year the Martinovanje celebration took place the first weekend in November. For this occasion we invited Father Peter Lah, S.J., now Professor of Communication at St. Louis University, to be the principal celebrant.

He also provided a report of the event for the Internet, a copy of which was forwarded to the Slovenian section of this newspaper earlier this month. I am now providing a slightly modified translation of a portion of this report.

"The feast of St. Martin for the Slovenians may be more identified with wine than holiness," Father Lah told the parishioners at the Mass, and he continued, with the assertion that, the Slovenians of California have been showing for a number of years that happy greetings and healthy religiousness are not mutually exclusive.

The Martinovanje celebration started with a Mass, continued late into the night in the Church of Nativity Hall. The fact that holiness did not suffer on account of the wine was demonstrated the next morning when the parish community again gather in even larger numbers for the Sunday worship.

Our Martinovanje event was first organized in San Francisco about 10 years ago by Martinal Sepaher, a Bela Krajina native, who has remained its driving force over the years. It has become one of the most popular annual events for the Slovenian community and their friends. This year Mija and France Rode coordinated the event, and they received a great deal of help especially from Frances Chilcoat, Stanka Pecavar, Kati Pecavar, Mira Palihich, and Diane Fabian Brahney, with the help of many others.

The gourmet feast also included a succulent roasted pig on a spit prepared, as usual, by Franci Pecavar, Tony Lukezic, and Martin Bajuk. We all enjoyed the good California wine donated by Franci Pecavar from his personal wine cellar.

The younger Pecavars, Frank and John, worked at the bar and made sure there was enough for everyone. The ladies of the parish provided many homemade delicacies including the inevitable and inimitable potica and apple strudel.

The evening concluded with the happy sound of accordions playing our favorite Slovenian songs. We hope to be able to continue this yearly tradition.

The Various World Gift Bearers

The gift bearers of Christmas have different names, depending on which countries they serve:

Vassilis -- He is none other than St. Basil. His feast day is Dec. 31 which is Greece's primary Christmas celebration. It is observed by the blessing and sprinkling of water.

Babushka -- This Russia phenomenon looks like a witch carrying an old broom, but looks aren't everything. Too busy to accompany the Magi to Bethlehem, she forever searches for the Christ Child, leaving gifts for sleeping children.

Christ Child -- The Baby Jesus can sometimes deliver his own gifts to children. This was the favorite gift-giver of Martin Luther. Also Christkind (Austria, Belgium), Christkindl (Germany), El Nino Jesus (Columbia, Costa Rica); Le Petit Jesus (France); Menino Jesus de Natal (Portugal), Babbo Natal (Italy), Jezisek (Czech Republic); Jouluvana (Estonia); and Jezussek (Slovenia).

Father Christmas -- England, Australia, New Zealand, Switzerland. -- A merry old soul, he wears a crown of Christmas greens and carries bowl of wassail. In Switzerland, his wife, Lucy, accompanies him. Also -- Dad Noel Bonhomme Noel (France); Papia Noel (Brazil, Peru, Spain); Kaledu Senis (Lithuania).

Gwaizor -- Poland, Sweden. -- The "Star Man" is a religious figure, sometimes the parish priest in disguise, who is accompanied by his many helpers -- "Star Boys."

Grandfather Frost -- Russia, Bulgaria, Slovenia, Serbia, Croatia. -- This secularized St. Nicholas dresses in blue and white and is accompanied by his granddaughter Snow Maiden.

Pere Fouettard (The Bogeyman). He is a murderous butcher and downright evil. His life-long penance is to follow St. Nicholas as his servant. Be very afraid.

Saint Lucy -- Sweden,

Sicily. -- Lucy, whose name is similar to the Latin word for "light" was an early Christian martyr in Sicily. She is called "Queen of Light." She is greatly honored in Sweden on her feast day, Dec. 13. The oldest girl in the family dresses as the "Lucy Bride" in a white robe and a candle crown as she and her younger siblings serve their parents breakfast in bed. Her feast day is also called "Little Yule." The Pulitzer Prize winners are announced on this day.

Saint Nicholas (Dec. 6). Belgium, Germany. Fourth century bishop of Myra in Asia Minor (Turkey), he became renowned for his charity and kindness. He is patron of children. His relics were stolen from Myra and are now in Barre, Italy. Also known in Slovenia as Sveti Miklavž.

Santa Claus -- United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Scotland. This man needs no introduction.

Sion Corn -- Wales "Chimney John." His name says it all.

Tolerating Slovenian Christmas Rush

There were times when our mothers baked the Christmas potica in secret, and we asked only for what we needed. Now there are times when we proudly display full carts of things we don't need. Perhaps we are unconsciously compensating for that very time when we were not allowed to celebrate Christmas publicly. Are the times coming when our children won't have anything to wish for because we parents will buy them everything. Christmas is the time to think where consumption is leading us. In Slovenia, for quite some time now, too.

Iva is a vivacious lady in her late 50s. She often thinks aloud how children used to look forward to Christmas and New Year's holidays with great enthusiasm. And not for nice presents that some got under the Christmas tree, but because of people's warm feelings, the calmer pace of life and because their parents had more time for them.

"On Christmas Eve it started with the baking of potica, setting up the Christmas tree upon which we children, when we were big enough, were allowed to hang glass 'bunkice' (glass balls). Every year mother used to wrap them in tissue paper and saved them in white cardboard boxes. Every decoration had its own carefully chosen spot."

This lady is now concerned because of the wild pace dictated by everyday life, and wants her children and future grandchildren to know what deep family relations mean. A few times a year on holidays, like this one, they get the opportunity to strengthen them. "It's not presents that make our youngsters happy, but the sincere attention we dedicate to them. Just look what happens to all those piles of toys they get for birthdays and on other occasions. Plastic things cannot and must not replace parents love."

I'm really starting to think about all that plastic junk we save for our little ones in various boxes and have decided to research how they used to celebrate Christmas, so I can fill up those gaps and find the authenticity that is being overtaken by this artificial euphoria. Because as Vida Žabot, the great master of life once said, "Happiness is not euphoria." Who does not want to be happy? Especially at Christmas time.

Advent Wreaths

Although it is true that Easter is the oldest and biggest Christian holiday, Christmas is the most popular holiday among Slovenian people. Through long centuries it picked up a varied palette of customs and beliefs we can now barely recognize under the weight of commercialism.

Every first Advent Sunday in the old Slovenian house Mrs. Iva organizes a guided weaving of the Advent wreaths. The house is in the same condition as it once was. She wants to enliven the Slovenian cultural heritage because she doesn't want us to buy those plastic wreaths which are sold in supermarkets, but to have the opportunity to feel how pleasant it is to create something by your own imagination and how happy and calm life can be with candies and a cup of good herb tea.

However, in spite of all the good intentions Mrs. Iva undoubtedly has, there are many kinds of people on earth who take advantage of store-offered Christmas decorations.

A priest in Slovenia has this to offer. "Christmas has always been a holiday when people are supposed to calm down, take a deep look at ourselves, ask forgiveness for our sins."

Slovenians also call Christmas 'kolednjak,' Christmas month, 'the great božičnik' (božič - Christmas) and 'vanahtnik,' which originates in the German word 'Weihnacht' meaning Christmas." I thought there was not much interest among those present, so the young priest quickly said something about symbols that accompany this holiday: the Christmas tree or the New Year's tree, as we used to call it in socialist times, about God's tree that symbolizes good will and joy. And about the mistletoe that is the symbol of immortality and life essence. Then Jesus simply disappeared to who knows where, being replaced by commercialism."

It occurred to me that the history of public celebration of Christmas in Slovenia is not very long. After we had attained independence from the socialist chains in 1991, we started to decorate our living environment with colored and sometimes bought decorations.

For many years our mothers secretly baked potica. Decorated trees were hidden inside our living rooms and they had lights on that were almost forbidden.

The socialist countries were permitted to have "Grandfather Frost" who brought presents for the New Year, but not for Christmas. He had a sled, just like Santa Claus and harnessed reindeer. But he was not wearing a red fur coat and a hat with a white tassel, but a gray-brown coat and a kind of Cossack hat. In Slovenia he exchanged the hat for a traditional cap made of dormouse skin and he had Slovenian popular ornaments sewn into his coat. He can still be seen, but the kind-hearted Santa Claus dressed in red is already becoming more popular. Eventually Grandfather Frost will become history.

Pavle's Traditional Crib

I visited Pavle from Adergas, near Cerknje. For decades he has been making a huge Christmas crib that has not been seen in Slovenian houses for a long time. He has been searching for clay figures in old Slovenian houses and he finds them and puts them into the crib.

He prepares it for more than a month before they are ready for visitors and then he proudly shows them and talks about them to anyone who wants to go back into history for a moment. "Oh, we are used to various types of cribs in Slovenia, but there are more figures in mine than in any others."

Pavle showed the birth of Jesus Christ in a masterly way. I read in the book written by Janez Bogataj that the Christmas crib is quite a recent feature. "The first crib in Portugal was soon followed by one in Slovenia in 1644 in St. Jacob's Church in Ljubljana. Unfortunately, the figurines were not saved. Families began making Christmas cribs in their homes from the 18th to 19th centuries. In this short time Slovenians created a real treasury of cribs, masterpieces that Pavle displays.

Wild Hunt

Pavle would not be Pavle if he did not scare a bit the children who visit him. The run-up to Christmas is also the time when other supernatural forces try to influence us are unleashed. He can scare grownups as well as children and make the hair on their head stand up.

Pavle, who is still standing beside his extraordinary Christmas crib, looks at my four-year-old son with a voice that scares even me. "With a great noise, a crowd of mysterious creatures was running through the mountain forests. The creatures had, as stories in Trenta said, horses' hooves. According to a tale from Gorenjska, the 'divja jaga' was a great pack of dogs that runs in one direction. A limping man with an ax in his hand is running after them and he holds sway and tells them whom they should run after and tear apart. Anyone who hides himself from the dogs is beaten by the man with the ax."

The story of the 'divja jaga' is a bit scary for the older folks, too, but luckily nothing happens to the people who cross themselves, offer regrets for misdeeds, and steps aside, Pavle says to comfort us. They say the creatures are most dangerous during the 12 nights between Christmas and Epiphany. And luckily, the 12 nights are quickly over and the world is back to normal once again.

Shopping Rather than Creating

Giving Christmas presents is quite a recent custom that appeared among Slovenians more than 50 years ago. The pre-Christmas spending spree has been an interesting feature in Slovenia and it starts at the beginning of December, store clerks in the biggest shopping center in Ljubljana told me.

"Mum, will Santa Claus bring me a robot?" my son asks me when we join the maddening crowd. I see how happy he is among the glittering lights. He notices Santa Claus with reindeer, which he recognizes from the cartoon. Beside him there is a huge heap of toys and he says he needs all of them. Luckily he does not have a mommy or daddy who complies with all his wishes. Trolleys filled with shoppers pass by. They are so determined in their mission, you cannot clearly see their faces. People do not look into your eyes, only the tired shop assistants smile at the customers with artificial smiles. You can see that the crowd this afternoon has no contact with the present. It is as if they are all absorbed in the future and probably everything they have to do before Christmas.

Then, when Christmas Eve comes, entire families will gather, nonetheless, in the scented living rooms and together with the youngest, wait for the unwrapping of presents. We will take pleasure in a few moments of happiness in the eyes of our youngest ones, when they will tear the paper from the elegantly wrapped presents and in one another, when we will try to find out whether we positively surprised our nearest and dearest ones, or not.

Christmas is celebrated in Slovenia the same as everywhere else.

St. Mary's Celebrates Centennial

On Sunday, Nov. 5, 2006 St. Mary of the Assumption parish, 15519 Holmes Avenue in the Collinwood section of Cleveland, observed its 100th anniversary with a solemn Mass celebrated by four bishops and a dozen priests at 11 a.m. in a standing-room full church. The beautiful singing was accompanied by talented musicians. After Mass a banquet, under the culinary supervision of Julia Zalar and her crew, served a sold-out crowd of 530 persons. The parish is under the capable direction of pastor, Rev. John Kumse. Councilman (and parishioner) Mike Polensek surprised Father Kumse by having a street in the vicinity renamed to "John Kumse Way." At the banquet, Master of Ceremonies Felix Gaser kept the program going interspersed with his bits of humor. It was a beautiful day, well planned and orchestrated by talented parishioners befitting a superb Slovenian parish. -JVD.

Book About Slovenian Refugees

by FELIX GASER

Probably you have heard about a very interesting book written by John Corsellis. The title is SLOVENIA 1945. In it he describes the time at the end of the Second World War.

With thousands of refugees from Slovenia and other parts of Yugoslavia fleeing the communist terror, they went to Austria and Italy. The returning of Dombračni under the pretext of sending them to Italy from Austria. Instead, they were sent back to Tito's army which massacred them. Live witnesses describe these horrendous acts of merciless hatred and vengeance.

How the British occupying forces in Austria tried to force the rest of the refugees to return back to Slovenia. It tells of the hardship they suffered in DP camps and how they survived all that. And finally, how they established themselves in the countries to which they emigrated.

It is a book well written and easy to read and makes an excellent gift.

OLD QUIZ: Queen of England's Rolls Royce weighs two tons, how many pounds does it weigh?

ANSWER: The British ton is 2240 pounds (the long ton), which is very close to a metric tonne, whereas the ton generally used in the United States is the "short ton" of 2000 pounds. Therefore the answer is 4,480 pounds (using the long ton). A trick question as Rudy Sterk surmised.

Congratulations to Stan Zakelj of Broadview Heights, Ohio who was the only person to submit the correct answer.

Romi v Sloveniji zopet težava

V zadnjem mesecu in več je romska skupnost v Sloveniji in njen status v družbi predmet žgočih razprav, to ne le v državi, marveč tudi v okviru Evropske unije. V središču pozornosti je usoda romske družine Strojan iz Ambrusa, vendar gre za razpravljanje o položaju skupnosti kot celoti. Tako je Janševa vlada pripravila oz. obravnavala predlog krovnega zakona o romski skupnosti, ki naj bi uredil razmerje te skupnosti do državnih organov. Stališče do te problematike je zavzela Komisija Pravičnosti in mir pri Slovenski škofovski konferenci, problematiko pa uporablja kot sredstvo proti vladni opoziciji.

Premier Janez Janša zahteval odstop ministra za delo, družino in socialne zadeve Janeza Drobniča Predsednik vlade Janez Janša je ministru Drobniču proti koncu novembra predlagal, da zaradi nedoseganja pričakovanih delovnih rezultatov odstopi s funkcije minister. Dva dni prej je bil Janez Janša opravil pogovor z Drobničem, kjer je izpostavil, da skupna ocena njegovega dela ni pozitivna. Minister Janezovega predloga ni sprejel, Janez je načelo predsedniku Državnega zbora Francetu Cukatiju predlagal, da državni zbor Drobniča razreši. Drobnič pripada stranki NSi.

Pred nedavnim je Drobničeve ministrstvo pripravilo strategijo za dvig rodnosti. Ta strategija je dvignila veliko prahu, še posebej ostra so bila nasprotovanja predlogu o plačljivosti splava. Nasprotniki splava se pa sprašujejo zakaj, po sedaj veljavni zakono-daji, morajo plačevati za splave. Ta denar, ki ga morajo plačevati zaradi davkov, in naj gre za socialno, gre kljub temu za umor nerojenih otrok. Opozicijske stranke, ki zagovarjajo pravico do splava, so skočili na predlog oz. strategijo za napade na vlado.

Ministru za finance dr. Andreju Bajuku prestižna nagrada za evropski dosežek leta Konec novembra je evropski tednik European Voice razglasil slovenskega finančnega ministra dr. Andreja Bajuka za prejemnika nagrade za "Dosežek leta" v Evropi in to zaradi uspešnega pripravljanja Slovenije na prevzem evra, do katerega bo prišlo s 1. januarjem 2007. Ob prevzemu nagrade na slavnostni večerji v Bruslju je Bajuk dejal: "Nagrada je kompliment in priznanje celotni Sloveniji. Kar smo dosegli, je izjemno. To ni dosežek posameznika, to je dosežek vsega naroda."

Nova varuhinja človekovih pravic

Predsednik republike Janez Drnovšek je proti koncu novembra državnemu zboru predlagal, da za novo varuhinjo človekovih pravic izvoli psihiatrinjo Zdenko Čebašek Travnik, pomočnico strokovnega direktorja za izobraževalno dejavnost na Psihatrični kliniki v Ljubljani. V parlamentarnih strankah so billi nad predlogom večinoma presenečeni, vsaj v prvih reakcijah so imenovanje podprtli stranki SLS in DeSUS.

Maistrove nagrade – Ob dnevu Rudolfa Maistra, ki bo 23. decembra, bodo spominska priznanja prejeli upokojeni nadškof dr. Alojzij Šuštar, France Bučar in Lojze Penič.

SLOVENSKI MOST NA SREDNJI VZHOD – Predsednik slovenske vlade Janez Janša je od 11. do 15. novembra vodil močno delegacijo na uradni obisk Savdske Arabije in Kuvejta. V delegaciji so bili minister za zunanje zadeve Dimitrij Rupel, minister za gospodarstvo Andrej Vizjak in za zdravstvo Andrej Brčan ter Karel Erjavec, minister za obrambo. Glavna namena obiska sta bila poglobitev zdaj skromnega gospodarskega sodelovanja z obema državama in okrepitev političnega dialoga z njima, še posebej v luči predsedovanja Slovenije Evropski uniji v prvi polovici leta 2008. Med obiskom je Janša opravil krajši obisk v Irak – spremljala sta ga Rupel in Erjavec – in se srečal z nekaterimi visokimi iraškimi predstavniki (tudi s premierjem Nurijem al Malikijem), in širimi inštruktorji Slovenske vojske, ki v oporišču Al Rustamija sodelujejo pri urjenju iraških varnostnih sil. Pozornost v Sloveniji je dvignilo tudi dejstvo, da se je prvič udeležila uradna vladnega obiska v tujini tudi Janševa izbranka, to je pa mlada zdravnica iz Velenja, Urška Bačovnik. Na fotografiji je spodaj levo, ob slovenskem premierju.

Praznovanje stoletnice župnije Marije Vnebovzete v Clevelandu

V nedeljo, 5. novembra, je župnija Marija Vnebovzeta
v Clevelandu obhajala sto let obstoja

Ulica ob cerkvi se imenuje po župniku Janezu Kumšetu

msgr. FRANCI PETRIČ
DRUŽINA, Ljubljana
19. novembra 2006

Cleveland je še vedno tudi slovensko mesto. To se je potrdilo prvo novembrsko nedeljo pri slovensem bogoslužju v župniji Marije Vnebovzete v Collinwoodu na vzhodni strani dvomilijonskega Cleveland, kjer se je zbrala velika množica naših rojakov z vseh strani mesta in države Ohio k lepemu praznovanju.

Prostorna cerkev, ki ima kar osemsto sedežev, je bila napolnjena do zadnjega mesta in bo besedah gostiteljev je bilo na slovesnosti več kot tisoč naših ljudi. Na praznični pogostitvi po maši pa so pripravili tudi kosilo za več kot petsto gostov.

Medtem ko v Evropi, ki se ponaša s tisoč in več let starimi izročili, sto let neke skupnosti ni posebno velik dogodek, je v Združenih državah taka obletnica pomemben dosežek.

Cleveland, ki je nedavno praznoval šele dvesto let obstoja, se je s Slovenci veselil tokrat sto let druge naše slovenske župnije. (Ur. AD: Že leta 1901 je bila ustanovljena slovenska župnija sv. Lovrenča.) Prva in največja pri Sv. Vidu je praznovala stoletnico leta 1993.

Ta druga, nekoliko manjša, a nič manj pomembna, pri Mariji Vne-bovzeti, pa je že od lanskega novembra obhajala posebno jubilejno leto.

To se je zaključilo s slovesno mašo 5. novembra. Na slavolok pred cerkvijo so zato zapisali vodilo: "K Bogu z vero pod Marijinim varstvom", ki naj bi odseval preteklost in vodil v prihodnost.

Somaševanje je vodil clevelandski pomožni škof Roger Gries, ob njem pa so bili škofje Metod Pirih iz Kopra, upokojeni clevelandski škof Anthony Pilla in rojak Edward Pevec ter mnogo duhovnikov - prijateljev že župnije.

Maša je bila dvojezična in je odsevala pestro življenje župnije, kar se je videlo po različnih sodelujočih. Štiridesetlanskemu župnijskemu zboru, ki je prepeval latinske, angleške in slovenske pesmi, se je pridružil tudi generalni konzul RS dr. Zvone Žigon.

Vernike sta v pridigi nagovorila oba škofa: Pirih in Gries. Škof Pirih je spomnil na poslanstvo, ki ga je imela (in ga še vedno ima) ta župnija v življenju slovenske skupnosti v Clevelandu. Na verskem, kulturnem in narodnostnem področju je dajala oporo našim ljudem, ki so prišli iz domovine s trebuhom za kruhom, jih navdihovala, da so lahko v polnosti delali in ustvarjali. Poučil je, kako pomembno je, da je Bog del našega življenja: "Če Bog vstopi v naše življenje, vse postane lepše, bogatejše, dobri smisel in je posvečeno!"

Clevelandski pomožni škof Gries pa je v angleški pridigi pohvalil naše rojake: "Imate čudovito cerkev, dosegli ste velike stvari, postavili številne zgradbe, ki pomagajo, da ohranjate versko, narodno in kulturno izročilo. To je podoba vaše skupnosti. Vi ste živa Cerkev! Vse, kar je bilo do zdaj narejenega, naj bo za prihodnost župnije. Praznujemo sicer preteklost, a z zaupanjem gledamo v prihodnost."

Dveurna slovesnost v praznično okrašeni cerkvi s pisano množico narodnih noš se je končala z zahvalno pesmijo in čestitkami za uspešnih naslednjih sto let.

Na akademiji in kosilu, ki je sledilo po maši v moderni novo zgrajeni dvorani pri cerkvi, pa so sledile čestitke uglednih gostov in prijateljev župnije.

Dr. Žigon je izročil posebno priznanje Urada RS za Slovence po svetu. Mestni svetnik Mike Polenšek, Slovenec po rodu, pa je poskrbel za posebno veselje in veliko priznanje možu, ki je zaslužen, da je župnija Marije Vnebovzete dočakala in tako slovensko praznovala ta jubilej.

Prebral je sklep Clevelandskega mestnega sveta, da se ulica ob cerkvi Marije Vnebovzete v Collinwoodu imenuje po sedanjem župniku Janezu Kumšetu. Ta že dvajset let deluje v župniji.

Izhaja iz slovensko-slovaške družine in se je šele kot kaplan pri Sv. Vidu navdušil tudi za učenje slovenščine, danes pa redno slovensko mašuje ter je pomemben dejavnik v delovanju slovenske skupnosti.

To izjemno priznanje župniku Kumšetu je tudi najboljši dokaz, kaj vse duhovniki naredijo za narodni in verski obstoja naših župnij v svetu. Ulica pa bo prihodnjih sto let govorila o možu, ki se je zapisal slovenskim ljudem z vsem srcem.

Izpod zvona župnije Marije Vnebovzete

CLEVELAND, O. - V sklopu stoletnice naše župnije Marije Vnebovzete, je bilo veliko pisanja in lepih nedelj. Ena lepa je bila tudi nedelja, 22. oktobra: Po Sloveniji brez potnega lista.

Po deseti sv. maši smo odšli v župnijsko dvorano, kjer smo se privoščili zelo različno kosilo. Na dolgem listu je bilo napisano veliko domačih dobrot, katere si izbral, naročil in si privoščil. Po kosilu si opazil razne stojnice malo oddaljene od kuhinje. Na vidnem mestu si videl ime pokrajine v Sloveniji. Na stojnici je bilo veliko različnega blaga, kar so včasih naši predniki delali v tisti okolici. Še razno pecivo si lahko pokusil, kar je bilo izredno za tisti kraj.

Na razpolago so bili listi napolnjeni s slovenskim besedilom na eni strani in v angleščini na hrbtni strani. Zelo zanimivo delo o vsaki pokrajini, kar je pripravil dr. Edi Gobec. Iskrena vam hvala, g. profesor!

Vsem vam, ki ste se trudili, da ste vse pripravili, prav iskren Bog povrni! Bilo je veliko dela, a je bil uspeh, ljudje so bili zelo zadovoljni.

Na petek, 3. novembra, je zbor "Urban" iz Mariabora imel prav lep koncert v naši cerkvi. Hvala pevcem!

V nedeljo, 5. novembra, je bilo lepo jutro, ko so se množice zbirale k cerkvi Marije Vnebovzete.

Tudi narodne noše so se zbrale v kar lepem številu. Iz Lovšetovega atrija se je razvila procesija k glavnemu vhodu v cerkev, ki je bila že polna vernikov. Pomožni clevelandski škof Roger Gries je z drugimi škofi in duhovniki vodil k zahvalni sv. maši.

Z lepim sodelovanjem smo se spominjali težkega začetka te naše župnije, navdajala nas je hvaljenost za vse storjeno v teh sto letih. Maša s štirimi škofovi in 13 duhovniki je bila zares iskrena zahvala za vse milosti in blagoslove, prejete v teh letih. Tudi mogočno petje našega zbara je pomagalo k duhovni zahvali.

Po maši smo se podali v župnijsko dvorano na banket. Presenetila nas je lepo okrašena dvorana in darilo na krožnikih v spomin na stoletnico. Kosilo je pripravila naša skrbna Julka s svojimi pomožnicami. Vsi so bili zadovoljni z duhovnim in materialnim dnevom.

Na drugo nedeljo v novembra smo se članice Oltarnega društva zbrale k molitveni uri in nato k molitvi za vse naše pokojne članice, ki so v zadnjem letu odšle v večnost. Odšlo je deset članic, lepo število. Bog jim daj uživati večno veselje.

Po molitvah smo šle v Slovensko sobo, da smo nekaj težav rešili. Sklenjeno je bilo, da bomo sprejeli nove članice na prvo nedeljo v januarju.

Srečanje Društva za slovenske študije v Washingtonu

Društvo za slovenske študije je imelo vrsto srečanj na pravkar končanem 38. zborovanju združenja American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies (AAASS), ki je od 16. do 19. novembra potekalo v Washingtonu, D.C. Ob zaključku prvega dneva zasedanj (razpravljalci so o slovenski zunanjosti politiki in slovenski politiki med obema vojnoma) je slovenski veleposlanik Samuel Žbogar sodelujoče pogostil na sprejemu.

Naslednje tri dni so nastopajoči razpravljalci o nacionalizmu v jugovzhodni Evropi, slovenski literarni zgodovini, spominu na komunizem v sedanji Sloveniji, jezikoslovju, družbenih nasprotijh v Sloveniji, prvi svetovni vojni, zgodovinskih učbenikih v slovenskih šolah in podjetništvu v Sloveniji. Med temami v poročilih o tekočih raziskavah so bili tonemi v slovenskem knjižnem jeziku (Peter Jurgec, ZRC SAZU), antisemitizem (Gregor Kranjc, Univ. of Toronto) in "izbrisani" v Sloveniji (Hassid Laurent, Univ. v Parizu).

Avtorji treh prispevkov o podjetništvu so razpravljali o možnih razlogih za uspeh direktorjev v nekaterih podjetjih v letih 1960-91 (Jože Prinčič, Inštitut za novejšo zgodovino), o današnjih slovenskih podjetnicah (Lydia Mihelič Pulsipher, Univ. of Tennessee) in o tem, kakšno podobo imajo slovenski menedžerji o sebi, kar je Jurij Fikfak (ZRC SAZU) raziskal s pomočjo obširnih intervjujev.

Gospodarstvo in politika sta bili temeljni vprašanji med obema vojnoma, kar sta pokazala Žarko Lazarović in Jure Prelovšek (Inštitut za novejšo zgodovino v Ljubljani) v razpravi o slovenskih liberalnih mislečih tistega časa. Kristin Leigh (UCLA) je analizirala naravo nacionalizma v Sloveniji. Najvidnejši diskutanti so bili Peter Vodopivec, vodilni raziskovalec slovenske zgodovine 20. stoletja, Jera Vodušek-Starič, direktorka Inštituta za novejšo zgodovino, in Carole Rogelj, profesorica v pokolu z univerze Ohio State.

Mitja Velikonja (Univ. v Ljubljani) in Nina Vodopivec (Institutum Studiorum Humanitatis, Ljubljana) sta poročala o raziskavah nostalgie za nekaterimi elementi bivše socialistične Slovenije. Velikonja je svoje poročilo dokumentirala z raziskavo javnega mnenja, ki je pokazala, da večina Slovencev ne želi politične ureditve izpred leta 1991, podprt pa ga je tudi z dokazi iz popularne umetnosti in trgovine. Vodopivec je svoje zaključke utemeljila na raziskavi v tekstilni tovarni. Prispevek Gregorja Tomca (Univ. v Ljubljani) je obravnaval razočaranje nekaterih vodilnih izobražencev med razvojem in smerjo slovenske politike po osamosvojitvi, za katero so si prizadevali vsa 80. leta.

Prvič so se konference AAASS udeležili sodelavci sekcijs za literarne vede ZRC SAZU (Marko Juvan in Alenka Koron). Juvan in Koron sta prispevala glavnino gradiva za novo literarno zgodovino, ki jo je Lena Lenček (Reed College) prevedla v angleščino. V isti sekcijsi je Timothy Pogačar (Bowling Green State Univ.) nastopil s predavanjem o zgodovinskih predstavah slovenske literature. V sekcijsi o nacionalizmu v jugozahodni Evropi pa je Michael Biggins (Univ. of Washington) govoril o Almutu Vladimira Bartola, romanu, ki je bil deležen posebne pozornosti po dogodkih 11. septembra, ki naj bi jih po mnenju nekaterih odslikaval:

Na rednem občnem zboru Društva za slovenske študije so veleposlanik Žbogar in generalna konzula Alenka Suhadolnik (New York) in Zvone Žigon (Cleveland) opisali živahno aktivnost svojih uradov, ki naj bi promovirala slovensko kulturo v ZDA. Navzoči so slišali tudi poročilo Štefana Kapscha (Reed College) o pripravah za bodoči center za slovenske študije v ZDA. Občni zbor je vodil odhajajoči predsednik Društva Metod Milač. Urednik revije Slovene Studies, Timothy Pogačar je razglasil letošnjega dobitnika nagrade Rade Lenčka za podiplomske študente—Gregorja Kranjca. Tema Kranjčeve zmagovite razprave je slovenski film in 2. svetovna vojna.

Slovenija je bila najbolje zastopana evropska država (zborovanja AAASS se udeleži več tisoč ljudi). Pre-

Kovanje slovenskih evrokovancev

Trst – V kovnici denarja Mint of Finland (na Finskem) bodo kmalu končali kovanje slovenskih evrokovancev, ki bo vseh skoraj 300 milijonov.

Tako bodo imele centralna in poslovne banke dovolj časa, da bodo kovance poslale po vsej državi.

Vsi kovanci bodo tehrali kar 1465 ton in neki časnikar je zapisal, da bi jih v Slovenijo lahko pripeljali kar z letalom. Raimo Makkonen, predsednik in izvršni direktor omenjene finske kovnice denarja, je povedal, "da so zelo veliko kovancev že poslali v Slovenijo".

Poudaril je tudi, da je za kovnico kovanje slovenskih evrokovanec zapleteno in pomembno opravilo. "To ni lahek projekt, saj je bil ves dizajn nov. Celotna prva stran kovancev, ki je sicer skupna vsem kovancem v EU, je bila za Slovenijo popolnoma prenovljena, saj ste prva država, ki uporablja to novo skupno podobo evropskih kovancev. To je bila težka naloga. Novo prednjo podobo kovancev so morali osvojiti še v petnajstih drugih kovnicah denarja in ponekod so imeli pri tem težave."

Avgusta prihodnjega leta bo naš klub obhajal 20-letnico obstoja. To je kar lepa doba. Hvaležni smo Bogu in Pristavski Mariji na Orlovem vrhu za tako uspešna leta.

Naš klub ima danes 198 članov. Na žalost pa jih je v teh letih umrlo kar 82. Lepo se od naših pokojnih članov poslovimo v pogrebnih zavodih, kjer za vsakega člena zmolimo rožni venec in se v velikem številu udeležimo pogrebne sv. maše.

Vsako leto smo organizirali po dva izleta in to v Washington, D.C., Milwaukee, Kanado, Barago ve dneve v Torontu, Marquette, in kraje v Niagara in Windsor, Amish deželo.

Vsako leto imamo uspešen piknik in koline na Pristavi. Enkrat na me-sec pa sestanek za vse člane poleti na Pristavi, pozimi pa v Slovenskem domu. Dobiček na pikniku darujemo Pristavi. Veliko od dobica na kolih pa darujemo za dobre namene.

Nekaj lepega so tudi naše božičnice. Držimo se lepih starih običajev, kot kropljenje in kajenje ob jaslicah in dobrega kosiла.

V torek, 12. decembra, bomo imeli letos božičnico v novi dvorani pri Mariji Vnebovzeti. Začetek ob 1.30 pop. Letos nam bo naš član Ivan Hauptman pripravil lep program, pravo presenečenje. Kosilo, katerega bo pripravila naša članica Julka Zalar, bo tudi izvrstno—in ga bodo deležni tudi naši bolniki, kajti kosilo in tudi božično rožo jim bomo ponesli na dom.

Ker nam ostane nekaj denarja od naših kolin, je kosilo za vse člane brezplačno in to v zahvalo njim, ko skozi celo leto pomagajo na Pristavi.

Bog daj nam, tukaj v Ameriki, naši novi domovini, in vsem Slovencem po svetu in v Sloveniji—blagoslovjen Božič in srečno novo leto!

*Odprta noč in dan so groba vrata,

Stan Simrayh

15. oktober 1931 – 27. september 2006

Dne 27. septembra 2006 nas je za vedno zapustil naš dragi mož, oče in stari oče Stan Simrayh, po kruti in kratki bolezni. Nismo pričakovali, da bo tako hitro umrl. Gospodar življenja ga je poklical in odšel je. Pogrešan od nas vseh in to nepopisno. Najbolj ga bodo pogrešali vnuki, saj je živel zanje. Pomenili so mu vse. Najmlajši vnuk je prosil mamico, da mu kupi zdravniški aparat, da bo zbudil starega ata, ki aja.

Stan je veliko delal za slovensko skupnost v Chicagu. Bil je član Slovensko Ameriškega radio kluba, takoj od začetka, ko je prišel v Ameriko. Devet let je bil predsednik radio kluba in je vodil slovensko radijsko oddajo v Chicagu. Bil je član Slovenskega kulturnega centra in zastopal je tudi slovensko versko središče na čikaški nadškofiji. Večkrat je organiziral mesečno kulturno uro v slovenskem domu ter pisal kratke igrice za različne nastope. Skrbel je za lurško votilino pri Mariji Pomagaj v Lemontu. Nikdar ni odrekel, če ga je kdo prosil za kakšno pomoč.

Žena Mihaela in vsa moja družina, izrekamo vsem in vsakemu posebej, našo globoko zahvalo za vso vašo izkazano dobrotljivost. Zahvala vsem, ki ste ga obiskovali v bolnici. Še posebej zahvala p. Metodu, ki ga je večkrat obiskal. Hvala vsem, ki ste ga prišli kropit. Zelo hvalični smo vsem, ki ste se udeležili pogreba. Iskrena zahvala patrom franciškanom, ki so somaševali pri pogrebski maši: p. Metodu, p. Vendelinu, p. Atanaziju, diakonu Janezu Vidmarju; ministrantom: Christian Razpotnik, Stanči Simrayh, Damijan Simrayh; vnukinjam Moniki Razpotnik in Lidiji Simrayh za branje beril; pevskemu zboru pod vodstvom Mojce Magayne Anaya za prekrasno petje; solistom: svakinji Fridi Arko za sočutno zapeto pesem Ave Marija, svaku Janezu Arku za lepo zapeto 'Amazing Grace'; hčerki Magdi Razpotnik, ki je na zelo lep način opisala njegovo življenje. Po končani sveti maši mu je sin Herman zapel ob spremljavi našega zeta Maksa 'Sem fantič z zelenega Štajerja', zelo lepo slovo. Iskrena zahvala nosilcem krste: Heerman, Stanček in Niko Simrayh, Jože in Joži Razpotnik, Maks Petrovič in Vinko Zajec.

Prisrčna zahvala vsem, ki ste darovali za svete maše, za prekrasno cvetje. Dobil je več kot štirideset cvetličnih stojal; vsem, ki ste ga spremili na pokopališče Resurrection. Vsem in vsakemu posebej iskrena hvala.

Po pogrebu smo se zbrali v Slovenskem kulturnem centru. Gospa Fani Fritz je pripravila odlično kosilo. Pomagali so ji Slavica Sovan in njena družina, Ljuba Novak z družino ter družina Magajne. Bog vam povrni za vse. Iskrena hvala vsem gospem, ki so darovali pecivo. "Bog lonaj". Lepa zahvala pogrebnemu zavodu Žefran za vso oskrbo.

Nepozabna Bela Krajina

Nadaljujemo z opisom slovenskih pokrajin, pripravljenim za program o Sloveniji 22. oktobra 2006 pri Mariji Vnebovzeti v Clevelandu. Danes je na vrsti predstavitev nekaj važnih značilnosti Bele Krajine.

WILLOUGHBY HILLS, OHIO — Bela Krajina je poleg Prekmurja in Koroške najmanjša slovenska pokrajina Republike Slovenije. Leži na skrajnem jugu Slovenije, kjer jo na zahodu in severu obkroža Dolenjska, na jugu in jugovzhodu pa Hrvaška.

Bele narodne noše, ki so jih pridne Belokranjice ali Belokranjke spretno sešile iz doma izdelanega lanenega platna, so dale tem gričastim in hribovitim krajem in dolinskim kotlinam ob Kolpi ime Bela Krajina.

Osrednja predstavitev večjih slovenskih mest, kot nam jo za leto 2005 nudi Statistični urad Republike Slovenije, se omeji še na Črnomelj (18.575) in Metlico (8.425). A to številčno majhnost več kot odtehta folklorno in zgodovinsko bogastvo te čudovite deželice na obronkih po Trdini ovekovečenih Gorjancev in v tesnih kotlinskih dolinah, kjer so strnjena manjša gručasta naselja. Kljub revščini, ki je pognala toliko domačinov na tuje, zlasti v Ameriko, so to kraji marljivih in sposobnih ljudi.

Tako npr. James Cow v letu 2000 navaja Angleža Simona Clementsa, ki je leta 1715 obiskal Metlico in potem pisal o "čudovito obdelanih vinogradih in veliki marljivosti prebivalcev, ki daleč prekaša z bogatimi polji obdarjene Madžare."

Zgodovinski viri že v letu 1228 omenjajo "regio quae Metlica dicitur," torej slovensko ime Metlika, ne nemškega Mottling, kot so ga skozi stoletja vsiljevali nemško govoreči ponemčevalci.

Bela Krajina je bila med leti 1408 in 1579 še prav posebno izpostavljena turškim roverskim napadom. Črnomelj, ki ga je leta 1165 začel graditi Oton Kraški in je dobil "mestne pravice" leta 1407, je bil v 16. stoletju sedež obrambnih vojaških posadk. Čeprav so ga Turki kar devetnajstkrat oblegali, ga niso mogli nikdar zavzeti. Valvasor v dragoceni knjigi Topographia Ducatus Carniolae modernae (1679) in drugod objavlja risbe več belokranjskih gradov, z nemškimi in slovenskimi imeni, kot so Krupa, Smuk, Črnomelj, Pungart, Gradac, Turn in Vinica. V gradovih se je pred Turki branila gosposka, preprosto ljudstvo pa prenekokrat v cerkvah, obdanih z obrambnimi zidovi in jarki. General Ivan Lenkovič je leta 1557 pri Podbrezju zgradil močne utrdbе na bregovih reke Kolpe. To je bil tudi čas, ko so se naselili v teh krajih uskoki, v glavnem iz Like, katerih potomci še danes živijo v vaseh Bojanci, Marindol in Milici.

Kot drugod v Sloveniji, so se skušali tudi v teh krajih otresti izkorisčanja tuje gospiske; tako je posebno znan kmečki upor v okolici Metlike iz leta 1748.

Od nekdaj je v Beli Krajini od Metlike do semiških hribov in še dalje slovelo dobro razvito vinogradništvo z odličnimi vini, med njimi nr. metliška črnina. Poleg poljedelstva, živinoreje, sadjarstva in razvitih domačih obrti, kot preje in izdelovanja platna, so se vrstili razni poskusi gospodarskega razvoja. Tako so na Kanižarici pri Črnomlju l. 1857 odprli rudnik premoga, v bližini pa pozneje še opekarno. Med 1851 in 1883 je v kraju Gradač delovala livarna, leta 1920 pa je manjšo livarno v Črnomlju zgradil tudi Janez Doltar, povratnik iz Amerike. V letu 1929 so v Metliki ustanovili vinsko zadružo. Pozneje se je vse bolj razvijala tudi tekstilna, živilska, kovinska in lesna industrija.

Zlasti skozi 19. stoletje pa majhna deželica ob Kolpi ni mogla prehraniti vsega svojega prebivalstva in so se domačini v velikem številu izseljevali, največ v Ameriko. Tako so marsikje bili prav Belokranjci med prvimi slovenskimi priseljenci. Vertinovi iz Doblič so postali uspešni veletrgovci, John Vertin pa je leta 1844 postal tretji škof v škofiji Marquette, ki jo je ustanovil slavni dolenski misijonar Friderik Baraga, pred izselitvijo tudi kaplan v Metliki. (Zgledne clevelandske Belokranjke so poskrbele, da so danes kopije Baragovega križevega pota iz Metlike še ena dragocenost več na Slovenski pristavi v Harpersfieldu-Genevi, Ohio.) Tudi Ivan Stariha iz Sadinje vasi je bil v letih 1902-1907 ameriški škof v škofiji Lead v Južni Dakoti. Do raziskovanj spodaj podpisane je bil v Sloveniji povsem neznan eden pomembnih pionirjev ameriškega letalstva Maks Stupar (1885-1944), priseljenc iz Metlike, ki so ga ameriški viri napačno predstavljali kot Avstrijec iz kraja Mottling (sic). Podobno smo odkrili in leta 1981 tudi v knjigah objavili, da izhaja iz Gribelj v Beli Krajini Totterjev rod, ki je dal Ameriki slovitega zdravnika in raziskovalca dr. John Totterja in filmsko zvezdo Audrey Totter. Le-ta je vkljub slavi ostala solidna žena in mati in smo lahko nanjo še posebno ponosni.

Seveda se je marsikak Belokranjčan lepo uveljavil tudi v rodni Sloveniji, kot npr. kipar Alojz Gangl (1859-1935) in pisatelj Engelbert Gangl (1873-1950), oba iz Metlike. Sam vrh v slovenski in tudi v svetovni književnosti pa je dosegel Oton Župančič (1878-1949), domačin iz Vinice, ki je poleg Gorenjca Frančeta Prešerja največji slovenski pesnik, izredno plodovit prevajalec (v slovenščino je v 15 knjigah prepešnil Shakespearja). Prevajal je tudi mojstrovine iz več drugih jezikov in sam bil preveden v številne jezike. Nič čudnega, da je v Beli Krajini poleg bogatega osrednjega muzeja v Metliki tudi Župančičeva zbirk v Vinici in več drugih bogatih zbirk, izredne arheološke izkopanine pa je odkupila celo slovita ameriška univerza Harvard.

Poseben sloves uživa Bela Krajina kot dežela najbolj bogate folklore v Sloveniji. Poleg drugih glasbil so še tu udomačila preprosta doma izdelana lončena "gudala", zraven značilnega petja pa slovio zlasti belokranjski plesi, med njimi samo tu udomačeno kolo.

Belokranjski pesnik Oton Župančič je napisal tudi sledeče stihe:

*Kuj me življenje, kuj!
Če sem kremen, se raziskrim,
če jeklo, bom pel,
če steklo — naj se zdrobim.*

Njegovi belokranjski rojaki so se v zgodovini in kulturi izkazali kot kremen in jeklo.

Odbori, upravnik in uslužbenci želijo vsem članom, njihovim družinam in vsej slovenski skupnosti, da bi bili božični prazniki napolnjeni z dobroto in da bi bilo leto 2006 blagoslovljeno.

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1596. Dobili smo sporočilo, da je v Milwaukee,

Wisconsin, umrla zelo zavzeta za misijonsko delo ga. Marija Coffelt. Leto za letom je pripravljala skupaj s člani Triglavskega parka piknika v pomoč misijonarjem in za nove bogoslovce. V decembru je z gošdinjami pripravila prodajo peciva tudi v ta namen. Že več njenih sodelavk in sodelavcev je odšlo v večna bivališča, zdaj pa je Bog Marijo rešil velikega trpljenja in jo sprejel med ostale. Naj ji Vsemogočni povrne vse žrtve, katerih ni bilo malo v njenem življenju, in jo nagradi z nebeskim veseljem, to ji vsi želimo. Draža Mici, tako so jo doma klicali, hvala Ti za vse delo v pomoč misijonom iz ljubezni do bližnjega. Bog Ti poplačaj!

Iz Maribora se je oglasil novi rektor bogoslovja dr. Stanislav Slatinek, ki je pisal Rudiju Knezu naslednje vrstice:

"Dragi gospod Rudi! Iz vsega srca se zahvaljujem za veliko in plemenito del, ki ga opravlja Misijonska Znamkarska Akcija, ko podpirate tudi bogoslovje v Mariboru in naše bogoslovce. Bog povrni za plemenite darove, s katerimi dobrotniki podpirajo naše bogoslovce."

G. dr. Marjan Turnšek, ki je zdaj škof v Murski Soboti, mi je veliko pripovedoval o dobrotnikih. Sedaj, ko sem nasledil kot rektor v bogoslovju, si zelo želim, da smo še naprej povezani in ostanemo prijatelji. Plemenito delo je spoštovanja vredno. Prosim, podpirajte nas še naprej, tako bogoslovje kot tudi bogoslovce. Za dobrotnike vedno v kapeli skupaj molimo, kot novi rektor pa bom za vse vas ob petkih daroval sveto mašo."

Dobrotniku bogoslovja in dobrotnikom treh bogoslovcev se lepo zahvaljujem. Dva bogoslovca sta letos postala diakona in bosta drugo leto duhovnika. V bogoslovju je trenutno 29 bogoslovcev. Pozdravite vse dobrotnike in ostanimo skupaj!

Z veliko hvaležnostjo vas prijateljsko pozdravljam.

S spoštovanjem, dr. Stanislav Slatinek."

Naj bo skreben adventni čas in lep pozdrav od vseh in...
