

Gipska kriza pojema, toda le zelo počasi

NIKOZIJA, Cipr. — Politični opazovalci mislijo, da je glavna nevarnost za novo vojno med ciprskimi Grki in Turki že minula. Prišli pa na to ne upa nihče. Se zmeraj je namreč lahko mogoče, da bi turški zanesenjaki začeli izzivati svoje vročerkve grške nasprotnike, ki bi zopet napadli turške vasi kot so jih zadnjič. Po Nikoziji krožijo najrazličnejši sluhi, ki plašijo ljudi. Ameriško poslanstvo skuša ohraniti hladno kri. Svetuje našim državljanom, naj ostanejo na svojih mestih in se ne vda- jajo paniki. Morajo pa vsak trenutek biti pripravljeni, da do- bijo poziv, da naj se takoj u- maknejo na mesta, ki jim bodo naznačena. Med tem je turška vlada že povedala svoje zahteve v posebni noti grški vladi. Za- hteva: odpoklic generala Griva- sa, ki je zakrivil sedanje nemi- re (Grčija je generala že od- poklicala); dalje odpoklic grških čet, kar jih je več, kot bi jih smelo biti po sporazumu o pre- mirju; jamstvo, da turška manj- šina ne bo več morala biti v strahu pred grško večino; po- vrnitev škode turškim prebiva- cem na Cipru, ki so jo utrpeli pri zadnjih nemirih.

Diplomatski krogi v Nikoziji upajo, da se bo v vseh teh toč- kah dal doseči kompromis, ako ne bo med tem prišlo do novih provokacij.

Dansko princso da, danskega blaga pa ne

ATENE, Grčija. — Takrat, ko se je mladi grški kralj ho- dil ženit na danski kraljevski dvor, sta bili obe deželi, ženi- nova in nevestina kar zado- voljni. Ženitev je vtisnila svoj pečat pristrskih simpatij vsem odnosom med Dansko in Grško, materialnim in duhov- nim. Danes je pa to drugače. Na Danskem imajo namreč socialistično vladno, ki je pre- cej odkrito pevedala, da ji grška revolucija od 21. aprila ni prav nič všeč in da ne ma- ra za novo grško diktaturo. To so ji pa grški vojaški dik- tatorji hudo zamerili in svojo jezo stresajo na vse mogoče načine. Najprvo so kralju "od- svetovali", da bi dovolil svoji ženi, da bi hodila na Dansko na obisk k svojim staršem in sorodnikom. Če jih hoče vide- ti, se mora podati na pot v Rim ali kam drugam v Evropi, kjer se lahko sreča z njimi.

Sedaj je grška vlada izja- vila, da ne mara za danskega poslanika. Danska vlada ga je radi tega odpoklicala domov. Ta teden je grška vlada še prepovedala uvoz vsega dan- skega blaga. Blagovni promet med obema državama ni ve- lik, zato je treba smatrati ko- rak grške vlade samo kot iz- raz jeze, ker je z vsemi temi ukrepi danska vlada pač po- vedala, kaj misli o grški dik- taturi. Grška diktatura ni s ta- kimi potezami ravno dvignila svojega slovesa.

Naš boj v Vietnamu ne bo trajal v nedogled

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Vr- hovni poveljnik naših sil v Viet- namu general Westmoreland je zopet nastopil, da pred civilno javnostjo brani naše vojne ope- racije v Vietnamu. V govoru pred člani National Press Club je pobijal zlasti neutemeljene trditve, da bo šlo naše bojevanje tam brez konca, v nedogled. Da- si ni nič skrival dejstev, ki so težka, je general vendar izrazil upanje, da bo po dveh letih pri- šel na obzorje začetek konca. Takrat bo južno-vietnamska vojska sposobna, da bo postopoma prevzela več in več boje- vanja in varnostnega dela sama in se bo ameriški del naloge za- čel manjšati. Seveda, je rekel general, bo pa "pospravljanje" trajalo nekaj let. Sedanje stanje je general opisal kot zelo zado- voljiv uspeh obrambe neodvis- nosti Vietnama, ki jasno kaže, da komunistični vdor ne more uspeti.

Guatemala se zopet zvija v tipičnih političnih krčih

GVATEMALA CITY, Gvat. — O gvatemalski politiki ne bi pisali, ako ne bi bila vzro- ec za politiko v večini držav Latinske Amerike. Kar se godi tam, se godi v sploš- nem tudi drugod v Latinski Ameriki, le malenkosti so drugačne, t.j. prilagojene lo- kalnim razmeram.

V Gvatemali še niso poza- bili rdečega režima predsed- nika Arbenza, ki je padel l. 1954. Menda je Arbenzu po- magala do padca tudi naša CIA. Za rdečim režimom je pa prišla na vrsto cela veriga desničarskih diktatur, ki se je pretrgala šele lani. V lan- skem poletju je bil namreč iz- voljen pri rednih volitvah za predsednika levičarsko us- merjeni gvatemalski politik Mendez Montenegro.

Ze ob nastopu je rekel, da smatra za svoje glavno nalo- go, da konča prikrito držav- ljansko vojno med javno u- pravo in gverilci, ki jih seve- da podpira kubanski Castro. Takoj po prevzemu oblasti je

Tudi republikanci se pripravljajo na leto 1968

GETTYSBURGH, Pa. — Biv- ši predsednik Eisenhower je pretekli teden odpotoval v Kali- fornijo na zimске počitnice. Iz previdnosti je dal še preje kon- trolirati svoje zdravje v glavni washingtonski bolnici. Kot do- ber gospodar je pa poklical k sebi tudi vse tiste republikance, ki res delajo in ne samo govo- rijo, da se pogovori z njimi o pripravah za predsedniške volit- ve v l. 1968. Delovna ekipa re- publikanske stranke je pod vod- stvom znanega republikanca Blissa, ki je tudi šel v Gettys- burgh. Tam so na seji ugotovili, da je uradniški zbor republikan- ske stranke že izdelal kar 22 poročil o važnih političnih za- devah, ki bodo gotovo prišle v debate pri prihodnji volivni kampanji. Bliss je pa dodal, da delo na zbiranju gradiva za vo- litve še ni končano in da ga bo pospešil, ker bi rad videl, da ga stranka dobi v roke že v zgodnji pomladi.

Izrael in Jordan se še bojujeta

TEL-AVIV, Izr. — Ob reki Jordan so že nekaj dni trajajoči boji. Bolj resni so, kot običajne praske in streljanje v obe smeri, ki je prišlo v navado. Celo jordanski tanki in izraelski voj- ni avijoni so posegli v boj. No- bena stran ne pove čemu so tu boji nastali in ne kdo je začel. Na splošno obojujeta drug dru- gega. Jordanski in sirjski listi trdijo, da so začeli streljati Iz- raelci, da bi s tem odgovorili na neka rušenja in napade arabskih gverilcev v področju, ki ga u- pravlja izraelsko vojaštvo. Izrael je objavil, da so Arabci začeli streljati na njihovo opazovalno postajo.

Povišanje social security v odboru senata sprejeto

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Fi- nančni odbor senata je odglo- sal predloge in dopolnila k na- črtu za zboljšanje dajatev po zakonu o Social Security. Na- črt bo takoj predložen senatni zbornici. Odbor je sprejel pred- log administracije naj povišanje dajatev znaša 15% in da naj bo najnižja mesečna pomoč $70.

Zanimiva izredna odškodninska zahteva

KINSHASHA, Kongo — Že 12. novembra je seja Organiza- cije afriške edinstnosti zahtevala, naj "nekdo" trpi za posledici- ce upornih najemnikov. Takrat so mislili, da je to navaden "na- čelen sklep". Ne misli pa tako kongoška vlada, ki je sedaj za- htevala, da ji povrnejo škodo, ki so jo naredili najemniki, vse tiste države, ki so najemniki njihovi državljeni. Vseh najem- nikov, kar jih je odšlo iz Konga v sosedno Rwando, je 123. Naj- več med njimi je Belgijcev, Francozov in Italijanov. Belgi- ja, Francija in Italija bi potem- takem morale plačati na "mili- jone dolarjev" za škodo, ki so jo najemniki napravili samo v kon- goškem mestu Bukawi. Seveda ne bo nobeni med temi državami padlo v glavo, da plača od- škodnino. Zahteva bo pa ven- darle lahko imela posledice: za- vlekle bo repatrijacio najem- nikov, ki sedaj čakajo v Rwandi na povratek v Evropo.

Zmage z 10 glasovi so huda stvar

CLEVELAND, O. — To dobro ve naš demokratski mestni svet- nik Armstrong. V usodni volivni noči je volivna komisija našela le 47 glasov večine zanj proti tekmeu Franklin. Zato je Fran- klin zahteval ponovno štetje glasov in pri tem bi bil skoraj zmagal. Štetje glasov je namre- č odkril napake samo v Armstrongovo škodo. Napake so bile tri in so dale Franklinu no- vih 37 glasov, torej le 10 prema- lo za zmago. Armstrong je po koncu štetja glasov rekel, da v vsej volivni kampanji ni bil ni- koli tako razburjen kot pri po- novnem štetju glasov. Zadeve pa še ni konec. Volivna komi- sija je namreč pozvala uradnike na treh voliščih, kjer so bile na- pake odkrite, naj razložijo, ka- ko je moglo priti do napačnega štetja v volivni noči.

V podobnem kočljivem polo- žaju je tudi mestni svetnik Thompson. Zmagal je le z 38 glasovi, zato je njegov nasprot- nik Pilch zahteval ponovno šte- tje. Volivna komisija je zahtevi ugodila. Rezultat ponovnega šte- tja še ni bil objavljen do pre- tekle srede.

Naser govoril TRDO, TRDOTA LE ZA JAVNOST?

Predsednik Združene arabske republike (Egipta) Abdel Gamal Naser je včeraj v govoru pred parlamentom zavrnil v Varnostnem svetu sprejeto resolucijo o ureditvi spora na Sred- njem vzhodu kot "nezadostno" in "nejasno". O njej bo razpravljaj arabski "vrh".

KAIRO, ZAR. — Predsednik republike Gamal Abdel Naser je včeraj pred parlamentom pozval vodnike arabskih držav na posvet o britski resoluciji, ki jo je preteklo sredo soglasno sprejel Varnostni svet Združenih narodov kot osnovo za ureditev spora na Srednjem vzhodu. Resolucija zahteva umik izraelskih čet z osvojenega arabskega o- zemlja, končanje vojne stanja med arabskimi državami in Izraelom in svobodno plovo skozi sueški prekop in A- kabski zaliv. Naser je v dve uri in pol dolgem govoru za- trjeval, da izraelski umik z osvojenega arabskega ozemlja ne more biti predmet razgovorov in izjavil, da bo za vsako ceno preprečil plovo izraelskih ladij skozi sueški prekop. Tako stališče, v kolikor ni namenjeno le arabski javnosti, onemogoča vsake stvarne razgovore med Izraelom in Arabci za "končanje posledic" junijske 6-dnevne vojne.

Večina zahodnih opazovalcev je prepričana, da Naserjev govor ni treba razumeti dobe- sedno, ker da je namenjen v prvi vrsti arabski javnosti, ki se kar ne more sprijazniti s stvarnostjo in dejanskim razmerjem sil. Ta- ko je Naser tudi govoril o no- vem vojaškem merjenju sil z Iz- raelom, ki pa si ga bodo morali Arabci sami izbrati in ne biti potisnjeni vanj, kot naj bi bilo to v preteklem juniju. Naser je trdil, da je egiptovska armada sedaj močnejša, kot je bila pred vojno z Izraelom, četudi je v tej vojni izgubila 80% svoje opreme. Priznal pa je, da kljub temu še ni sposobna za nov vo-jni spopad, če naj bi bil ta uspe- šen.

Jasnejše in odločnejše od Na- serja je obsodil in zavrnil brit- sko resolucijo, sprejeto v Var- nostnem svetu, predsednik Sirije Atasi. Z njo naj bi po Atasijevi izjavi Varnostni svet ZN "na- gradil Izrael za njegov napad na Arabce".

Izraelski zunanji minister Abba Eban je v kratki izjavi k več- rajšnjemu Naserjevemu govoru v parlamentu dejal, da jemlje Izrael ta govor dobesedno, ker da ga drugače jemati in razu- meti ne more. Govor naj bi bil očiten dokaz, da Arabci še vedno niso voljni začeti neposredne razgovore z Izraelom in nočejo še vedno temu priznati pravice,

ANKARA, Tur. — Posebni od- poslanec predsednika ZDA Cyrus Vance se je včeraj raz- govarjal tu z vodniki Turčije, pa nato odletel naglo še v Atene, da prepreči vojaški spopad med Turčijo in Grčijo zaradi Cipra. Zdi se, da je ne- varnost takega spopada vsaj za- časno prešla. Prizivno sodišče je potrdilo odločitev okrajnega sodišča in volitve, ki jih je to odredilo v vodstvu srbske pravoslavne cerkvene občine v Clevelandu. Pri teh volitvah je, kot znano, zmagala skupina, ki je nasprot- na povezavi srbske pravoslavne cerkve v ZDA z vodstvom srbs- ke pravoslavne cerkve v Beo- gradu, ker da je ta "pod nadzorom" jugoslovanskega komu- nističnega režima. Angleški funt in Amerika Angleški funt je zdrknil v 31 letih na polovico svoje devizne vrednosti. Pred 31 leti je bilo treba za funt plačati 486 centov, danes le 240 centov. Zadnje rezvrednotenje je znašalo komaj dobrih 14%, toda je prišlo precej nepričakovano. Odkar je bil namreč funt zadnjič razvrednoten, je preteklo 18 let. V tej dobi je bil funt že večkrat na robu svoje stalne vrednosti, pa se je zmeraj izmazal. Vsi smo mislili, da se bo tudi sedaj, pa smo se motili. Motili so se tudi naši gospodarski krogi, ker so šarili z usodo našega gospodarstva, kakor da mu ne more groziti nobena nevarnost. Pa smo se morali preko noči prebuditi in postati — pametni!

Naše federalne banke so namreč brez omahovanja dvignile osnovno obrestno mero za pol odstotka na 4.5%. V normalnih časih bi to sprožilo divjo debato, danes pa temu nihče ne ugovarja. Ravno narobe: ako bo v Angliji veljala obrestna mera 8%, bo začel kapital bežati iz New Yorka v London, ker so obresti boljše. Tega pa pri naši stalno prenapeti plačilni bilanci ne bi mogli na dolgo prenašati. Morali bomo zopet zvišati obrestno mero, ako hočemo obvarovati naš kapitalni trg pred zmedo.

Ravno tako so naši politiki naenkrat začutili potrebo, da v Kongresu znova zahtevajo obravnavati vprašanje večjih davkov. Ta hitrica je ob enem priznanje, da smo do sedaj postopali napačno. Povišanje davkov bi morali uveljaviti že pred par leti.

Oba ta dva slučaja pa nas znova opozarjata, da nam je padec funta živo predočil, da napačno postopamo z našimi javnimi proračuni in z našo plačilno bilanco. Kamorkoli pogledamo, vidimo same primanjkljaje, ki so posebno nevarni v federalnem proračunu. Tam bo deficit znašal letos okoli $35 bilijonov, tako misli sam predsednik Johnson. In ta deficit bi radi pokrili z davki povečanimi le za $6-9 bilijonov! To je otročarija, ki si jo pa upamo priznati šele sedaj po padcu funta. Naše časopise je namreč takoj začelo govoriti o tem, da so za uravnotežen federalni proračun potrebne še druge žrtve. Spoznanje je torej tu, ali bo obveljalo, bomo pa šele videli. Smo se namreč navadili, da preveč površno gospodarimo. To se pravi, da več trošimo kot proizvedimo.

Dočim jje zadeva s primanjkljaji v javnih proračunih lahko razumljiva, jo je težje razumeti v plačilni bilanci, ki nam pravi, da ne bi smeli pošiljati na tuje več denarja kot ga od tam dobimo. V resnici je pa ravno narobe. Aktivni smo samo v zunanji trgovini; tam več izvažamo kot uvažamo. Povsod drugod smo pa pasivni: več pošiljamo denarja na tuje kot ga od tam dobimo. V tujini plačujemo stroške za vojskovanje, za podpiranje tujih držav, za turistične izdatke, povrhu pa pošiljamo tja še na bilijone dolarjev za investicijske namene. Od tam bi pa morali dobiti obresti od naših naložb, kar bi moralo nanesti skoraj toliko, kolikor imamo izdatkov za vojskovanje na tujem in za podpiranje tujine, pa ne dobimo nečesar, kajti ves ameriški denar, kar ga letno zaslužimo, gre v nove investicije. Zato je pa naša plačilna bilanca vsako leto pasivna najmanj za par bilijonov dolarjev.

Vse to bi moralo roditi pomanjkanje kapitala v naši deželi; pa ga ne. Zakaj? Postali smo edina mednarodna hranilnica, ki kaj velja. Vanjo pošilja ves svet svoje prihranke v dolarjih. Kar dolarjev potrošimo v tujini, se vračajo k nam nazaj v obliki hranilnih vlog, investicijskih naložb, tekočih računov v naših bankah itd. Poleg tega kupuje tujina še naše delnice in bonde in nam daje zato naše dolarje, ki jih je prislužila ali privarčevala.

Tako smo v srečnem položaju, da nam doteka tem več dolarjev, čim več jih potrošimo na najrazličnejše načine v tujini. Priznati moramo, da se stalno oglašajo svarila, da tako gospodarstvo ni dobro, da bo moralo roditi preje ali pozneje krize in težave, toda vse skupaj nič ne zaleže. Pohlep po zaslužku zamegli vsako trezno presojo in vse ozire na naše narodne interese.

Nihče se na primer ne zmeni, ko smo dejansko ostali brez zlata, pa mu obenem diktiramo ceno $35 za unčo. To je samoprevara. Smo tako zelo zadolženi v zlatu, da bi nam ga hitro zmanjkalo, ako bi hoteli naši upniki po svetu preko svojih narodnih bank imeti od nas zlato v zameno za njihove vloge in dobroimetja. Vbili smo si v blavo, da do tega ne more priti. Kot da bi svet ne poznal gospodarskih kriz kot je bila tista po I. 1929!

Na polju mednarodnih financ nismo torej na trdnem. Edina naša opora je naš monopol: smo najbogatejša dežela in naš dolar bo zmeraj nekaj vreden, ali je vezan na zlato ali ne. Ako bi imeli tekmovalko v tej ali drugi deželi, bi nam življenje hitro povedalo, da smo preveliki optimisti.

Padec funta bi rodil vse mogoče posledice po vsem svetu. Napačno bi bilo, ako bi se že danes vdajali upanju, da nas nobena teh posledic ne bo zadela, vsaj posredno, ako ne neposredno. Tudi po I. 1929 se je evropska kriza kar sama posebi privlačila v Ameriko. Nekatere posledice te krize čutimo še danes. Zato je treba, da se pripravimo na nevarnosti, ki jih danes še ne vidimo. Zato je treba napraviti red v naših javnih proračunih in v naši plačilni bilanci. Ako tega ne storimo, nas lahko spravi v krizo marsikaj, za kar se danes niti ne zmenimo.

Naj bo padec funta povod, da začnemo misliti tudi na to. Če bi bili mislili že preje, nam ne bi bilo treba tako zdihovati nad inflacijo in draginjo, kot opravičeno zdihujemo v naših dnevih.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

Nismo tako majhni!

CLEVELAND, O. — V svojem članku "ZGODOVINSKI DAN", ki je bil objavljen v "Ameriški Domovini" štev. 207 od 27. oktobra 1967, sem zapisal, da je bil za nas Slovence 22. oktober 1967 velik zgodovinski dan, ker je bil ta dan "canon misae" prvič v zgodovini izgovorjen tudi v slovensščini.

Teden dni kasneje pa smo Slovenci doživeli drug velik dogodek: izšla je zanimiva knjiga slovenskega znanstvenika, zgodovinarja in profesorja dr. Jožeta Felicianja. Knjiga je izšla v angleščini in ima naslov: "THE GENESIS OF THE CONTRACTUAL THEORY AND THE INSTANTATION OF THE DUKES OF CARINTHIA." V slovensščini bi ji lahko dali naslov: "Izvor pogodbenega načela in ustoličenje karantanskih knezov." Družba sv. Mohorja v Celovcu je knjigo natisnila. Izšla je v samozaložbi avtorja.

Za kaj gre?

Da bomo lahko spoznali važnost te knjige, odgovorimo naj prej na vprašanje, za kaj gre? Gre za sledeče: doslej smo smatrali, da je oče celotne izjave o "ameriški neodvisnosti", — ki so jo izdali leta 1776 v Združenih Državah Amerike, — Thomas Jefferson, ki je izjavo pripravil in da je "čelotna izjava izključno njegova zamisel. Toda dr. Jože Felicianj je dognal, da je Thomas Jefferson, — predno je sestavil besedilo izjave o neodvisnosti stal pred vprašanjem: ali ima samo ljudstvo dolžnosti napram vladarju, — ali pa ima morda tudi vladar obveznosti do ljudstva, ki mu vlada?

Odgovor na to vprašanje je Thomas Jefferson dobil v literaturi, ki mu je bila takrat pač na razpolago. Pregledoval je knjige svoje bogate knjižnice in našel knjigo pod naslovom "LES SIX LIVRES DE LA REPUBLIQUE" francoskega pisatelja Jean-a Bodina, ki jo je izdal leta 1576 v Parizu.

V osmem poglavju prve knjige o republiki je Bodin, kot sam trdi, prvi definiral pojem suverenosti, razvil teorijo o prenosu suverenosti od ljudstva na vladarja, in med dokazi za tak orenos navedel tudi zgodbo o ustoličenju koroških vojvod.

Sele, ko je Thomas Jefferson videl, — na podlagi Bodinovih navedb, da je neki narod od svojega vladarja, — predno mu je izročil oblast, — zahteval prisego, da bo izpolnjeval svoje dolžnosti do ljudstva, je dokončno sestavil izjavo neodvisnosti, ki so jo potem ameriški poslanci prebrali v kongresu 4. julija 1776 in odpovedali angleškemu kralju pokorščino, ker ni izpolnjeval svojih vladarskih dolžnosti do ljudstva.

Kaj je ugotovil dr. Felicianj?

Namen dr. Felicianja je bil ugotoviti vpliv, ki sta ga imela zgodba o ustoličenju koroških vojvod in pa Bodinova knjiga o republiki na razvoj pogodbenega načela, na katero so se sklicevali očetje ameriške neodvisnosti. Še posebej pa se je zanimal za vpliv, ki sta ga imela zgodba o ustoličenju in pa Bodinova knjiga na Thomasa Jeffersona in njegov osnutek Ameriške izjave neodvisnosti.

Thomas Jefferson je imel v

svoji knjižnici Bodinovo knjigo iz leta 1580 (prva izdaja knjige je izšla 1576). Iz te knjige je Thomas Jefferson povzel moralne argumente v prilog ameriške revolucije. To je poglavje, v katerem Bodin govori o vladarjevi tiraniji, na straneh 289 in 290 te Bodinove knjige o republiki.

To je ugotovil prof. Felicianj. Iz iste knjige pa je Jefferson tudi zvedel za ustoličenje koroških vojvod. V tej zgodbi je Jefferson očitno videl potrdilo in enega izmed dokazov za resničnost pogodbenega načela med ljudstvom in vladarjem, na katero se je skliceval v svojem osnutku Ameriške izjave neodvisnosti. Pomen in vpliv, ki ga je imela zgodba o ustoličenju koroških vojvod na Thomasa Jeffersona, je nedvomno zato še tem večji, ker se nahaja v isti knjigi, iz katere je Jefferson povzel moralne razloge v prilog ameriške revolucije. Dr. Jože Felicianj je vse te trditve tudi dokazal.

Dokazi zbrani v posebni knjigi

Dr. Jože Felicianj je vse zbrane dokaze izdal v posebni knjigi, ki smo jo zgoraj omenili.

Poglejmo, kako dr. Felicianj dokazuje zvezo med Bodinovo knjigo, Thomasom Jeffersonom in izjavo Ameriške neodvisnosti. Na strani 129. Bodinove knjige, kjer Bodin govori o ustoličenju koroških vojvod, je Jefferson ob strani podčrtaval tekst, pod tekstom pa je Jeffersonova — začetna črka "T".

Na strani 289 in 290. vidimo Jeffersonovo označko ob strani teksta, pod tekstom pa je Jeffersonova začetnica "J". — Jefferson je imel namreč navado, da je na tiskovnih polah poleg "i" pristavil svoj "J"; poleg "i" še svoj "T", tako, da je imel skupaj začetni črki T J, to je Thomas Jefferson.

V dr. Felicianjovi knjigi so vse te strani Bodinove knjige v faksimilu. Da so pisane začetne črke ob besedilu Bodinove knjige res od Thomasa Jeffersona potrjuje še posebej urad kongresne knjižnice-Library of Congress — Personal Communication. Izvirno pismo hrani dr. Felicianj.

Pomen knjige za Slovence

Slovenci smo majhen narod. Kot taki se pač težko uveljavljamo v velikem svetu. Pa tudi majhnemu narodu je dana možnost, če jo zna izrabiti, da svet postane pozoren tudi nanj. Pomislimo samo, kako so Irce pokristjanili pol Evrope in skoro vso sev. Ameriko; ali kako je mali izraelski narod letošnjo pomlad nagnal svoje sovražnike Arabce, ki so mu hoteli vzeti svobodo.

Pod težo dokazov bodo morali ameriški in svetovni zgodovinarji in politiki priznati vpliv ustoličenja koroških vojvod na ameriško izjavo o neodvisnosti. S tem bodo pa postavili slovensko ime s sredo svoje zgodovine. Gotovo bodo slovenski zgodovinarji doma in po svetu, kakor tudi slovenski študenti, zlasti v domovini, s ponosom študirali izsledke svojega rojaka, pa četrta se bodo morda nekateri malo kisló držali, ker je dr. Jože Felicianj slovenski ideološki emigrant in ne kak "slavni" partijec.

Kaj pa mi?!

Pravkar izdana knjiga in dognanja, ki jih objavlja prof. dr. Jože Felicianj so njegovo delo. K njegovemu popolnemu uspehu pa so pripomogli tudi tisti, ki so omogočili izdajo knjige. To sta zlasti dramatsko društvo "Lilija" in pa Stajerski klub, ki sta doumela važnost izdaje te knjige in sta izdajo podprla. Omogočenje izdaje tako pomembnega dela dokazuje veliko zrelost tistih, ki obe organizaciji vodijo.

Seveda pa naše delo z izdajo knjige še ni končano. Sedaj bi morali prirediti v čast dr. Felicianju banket in zbrana sredstva na njem porabiti za odkup knjige in jo razposlati važnim osebnostim zlasti v ZDA. Bo kdo sedaj kaj takega organiziral? Morda? Kdo?!

Knjiga je izšla v prav majhni nakladi. Ko bo ta razprodana, je ne bo več dobiti. Knjiga bo na razpolago v nedeljo 26. novembra popoldne pri "Lilijini" igri v SND na Holmes Ave. Cena je $5.-. Knjiga je za marsikoga prav lepo božično darilo.

Svojemu rojaku dr. Jožetu Felicianju smo dolžni za njegovo znanstveno delo in trud zahvalno in hvaležnost. In končno! Naše iskrene čestitke, gospod dr. Felicianj!

Novice od zbora Triglav

CLEVELAND, O. — Podpisana poročevalka povskega zbora Triglav vedno poudarjam v svojih dopisih, kako zelo manjka našemu zboru moških glasov. Tisti, ki moje dopise berete, se boste tega gotovo spomnili.

Prijetno sem bila presenečena, ko sem prejela pismo rojaka iz Kanade, polno zanimanja za naše lepó slovensko petje in razumevanja o pomanjkanju pevskih moči. Nekateri bi se celo radi za stalno preselili v Cleveland in se pridružili zboru, da bi ta lahko še dolgo obstajal.

Iz tega se vidi, da Ameriška Domovina potuje po vsem svetu in da naše dopise čitajo Slovenci vsepovsod.

V nedeljo, 11. novembra, se je nad petdeset rojakov in rojakin iz zahodne strani našega mesta udeležilo proslave 5-letnice obstoja Kluba slovenskih upokojencev v Newburgu. Prireditelj slavnostnega banketa so se zelo postavili. Postrežba članic našega kluba, ki so še kar čvrste, je bila res neprekosljiva in nadvse prijazna. Za ples pa nam je čudovito lepo igrata Zabek orkester. Saj se tudi upokojenci radi zavrtimo in pridružimo mladim parčkom. Ko boste dosegli 65 let, ne boste radi samo pri peči sedeli, vsaj tako piše kolonist Thomas Collins v Plain Dealerju. Jaz vedno rada pogledam njegovo kolono. Ta večer sem v Newburgu spoznala tudi hčerke g. Goriška iz Richmond Rd. Večkrat sem že slišala njegovo ime, in kako zelo je naklonjen upokojencem. Zal se osebno zaradi bolezni ne more udeleževati naših prireditev, ki pa so na splošno vedno dobro obiskane, ne glede na to, v katerem domu se vrše. Dokler bo složno, prijazno, medsebojno sodelovanje, bo res lepo hoditi na seje, izlete, prireditve.

Zelo pomemben je bil izlet upokojencev v Washington, D. C., posebno za tiste, ki preje še niso imeli prilike si ogledati to res krasno mesto naše prestolice in tudi zadnje počivališče našega nepozabnega pokojnega predsednika Johna F. Kennedyja.

V Washingtonu smo veliko videli. Ogledali smo si veličastno cerkev Marijinega Spočetja, v kateri želijo Slovenci kupiti "Slovensko kapelo", za katero se prispevki že zbirajo. Lepo bi se prispevki že zbirajo. Lepo bi bilo, če bi se sleherni rojak odzval prošnji vsaj z malim darom. To bo v ponos našim potomcem, ko nas več ne bo. Ker sem si cerkev sama ogledala, zato se z zamislilo strinjam.

Bliža se mesec december, mesec društvenih letnih sej, ko se bodo zbirali odborniki. Ni mi prav, da na teh sejah navzoči vedno silijo in pritiskajo na ene in iste uradnike. Mnenja sem, da bi morali tudi mlajši prijeti za delo, vsaj tisti, ki so sposobni in malo zamenjati stare, dolgoletne odbornike. Vsak naj malo poskusi in doprinese v splošno, narodno korist.

Ni več dolgo do sv. Miklavža. Želim, da bi nam vsem prinesel tako željeni mir, ljubezen in medsebojno razumevanje.

Naše drage pevce pa pozivam, hodite redno k vjam, kajti, čas teče in nič ne reče.

Anne Jesenko

Priznanje in zahvala

CLEVELAND, O. — Zadnje čase z velikim veseljem čitam potopis g. Ernesta Terpina, ki izhaja v Ameriški Domovini pod zaglavjem "Veličastno romanje po Evropi". Ne morem se naučiti, kako zanimivo g. Terpin opisuje potovanje, zgodovinske kraje in dogodke po širni Evropi. Mnenja sem, da bi moral postati pravi, poklicni pisatelj, in mu toplo priporočam, da bi izdal knjigo o tem, katero bi rojaki gotovo radi kupovali. Vsekakor se mu želim na tem mestu najlepše zahvaliti za ves trud, ki ga ima s pisanjem. Upam, da nas bo tudi v bodoče razveseljeval s svojimi lepimi članki! Rojaki Vam bomo za to zelo hvaležni, g. Terpin!

Ko sem že pri pisanju, h kateremu se sedaj res težko pripravim, naj mi bo dovoljeno, da se prav toplo zahvalim vsem, ki so meni in moji ženi v najini boleznih toliko dobrega storili. Veliko hvalo smo dolžni Mrs. Rose Blaz, ki naju je vozila v bolnico in nazaj. Prav lepa hvala Mrs. Angeli Stračar, ki nama je prinašala hrano na dom, ko si jo nisva mogla sama pripraviti. Tako lepo je skrbela za naju. Prisrčno zahvalo izrekava tudi Mrs. Theresi Jerič, ki nama je tudi prinesla dobre okusne žužke, kar bolniku res najbolj prija.

Iskrena hvala vsem za toliko lepih kart. Resničen je pogovor, da prijatelja spoznaš v nesreči. In midva z ženo sva v najini boleznih videla, da imava mnogo prijateljev. Vse, ki ste se naju spomnili, bova ohranila v hvaležnem spominu. Posebno lepa hvala pa velja tistim, ki so za naju molili. Seveda sva dolžna največjo zahvalo Bogu, ki je uslišal Vaše prošnje in nama dovolil še nekaj časa živeti med Vami.

Res še nisem pri popolnem zdravlju, toda upam na zdravnikovo in božjo pomoč, da bi me bolezen popolnoma zapustila, da bom lahko napisal še kak članek za naš priljubljeni list Ameriška Domovina, katerega vsi radi čitamo.

Vsem prijateljem in znancem želim dobrega zdravlja, ki je res naše največje bogastvo, in prijetnega zadovoljstva. Saj, če smo zdravi, smo tudi zadovoljni, nasmejani in srečni! Vsem najine iskrene pozdrave!

Slovenski športni klub Kegljaški količek

Če sodimo po kegljaških rezultatih zadnje nedelje in po vremenjskih napovedih v severnih krajih, je smučarska sezona že tu. Zdi se, da je večina fantov bila v mislih na belih, s snegom pokritih kričih. Ali pa so metali kepe v kegle namesto krogel? Drugače, sploh ne moremo razložiti, kako da fant, ki ima povprečnost 155, podere le 97 kegljev. Kajne, Jože? Charles Lončar in Jože Delchin sta se pa izredno dobro izkazala. Lončar z 218, Delchin pa z 214 igro. Tone Škerlj je podrl, kar petkrat zaporedoma "v se" — "strajk" v 184 igri. Margit je podrla v zadnji igri 43 kegljev nad svojo povprečnost, Terry Kokalj pa 40.

Vsem, ki Vam je dobro šlo, želim: Kar tako naprej. Drugi naj pa po Zahvalnem Dnevu spet znova začno lepo napredovati.

Anglija obnavlja zvezo s Kairom

LONDON, Anglija — Potrpežljivost angleške diplomacije je zopet zmagala. Egiptovski diktator Nasser je pristal na obnovo diplomatske zveze z Londonom, ki jo je pretrgal pred 23 meseci. Novi angleški poslanik v Kairu bo sir Beely; Nasser pa svojega poslanika še ni imenoval. Angleški poslanik bo uradno prišel v Kairo sredi decembra.

Med tem se je pa tudi naša administracija odločila, da zopet dovolji našim državljanom potovanje v Egipt. Potovanje je bilo prepovedano ob začetku zadnje izraelsko-arabske vojne. Uradno bo ta odlok objavljen te dni.

Kadar si urejamo stanovanje

Sodobno stanovanje je svetlo, zračno enostavno. Pri urejanju stanovanja nikar ne postavljajte velikih kosov pohištva v sredo sobe in izogibajte se takozvanih mrtvih kotov, delov sobe, kakor ne moremo. Pravilo sodobno urejenega doma je: čimveč prostora in zraka. Od vrat do oken moramo imeti prost prehod.

Tudi luč znatno pripomore, da se zdi stanovanje večje. Namesto obsežnega lestenca pod stropom raje osvetlimo posamezne kote, na primer ob kavču, ob pisalni mizi, ob knjižni omari.

Oken in vrat, ki so tem manjša, v čim starejših hišah stanujemo, res ne moremo razširiti, pomagamo pa si lahko s širšimi zavesami, ki zakrivajo tudi del okenskega zidu. Okna se bodo zdela večja.

S spretno kombinacijo barv in luči lahko prijetno spremenimo tudi temne stanovanjske prostore. Najprimernejše barve za to so bela, rumenkasta, rahlo porumeljena in pastelno zelena. Pohištvo v majhnih stanovanjih naj bo izključno svetle barve, zidovi tudi čim svetlejši in gladki. Modre barve se izogibajmo, četudi smo tako srečni, da imamo veliko stanovanje, ker morda barva dela vtis hladnosti in zatemnjuje ves stanovanjski prostor.

OTROŠKI KOTICEK

Mesec november gre h koncu. Na zadnji dan v mesecu je moj birmanski boter imel svoj god. Ožbovčev Andrej. Je že dolgo tega, kar je umrl in Bog mu daj v miru počivati. Hočem Vam povedati, dragi otroci, da se v tem mesecu, ko se spominjamo mrtvih, spomnite tudi mrtvih otrov in botric, krstnih in birmanskih pa tudi vseh predstojnikov. Navadno se teh malokdaj spominjamo pa je lepo in prav, če se jih. Nekaj pisemc sem dobil, da natančno povem-šest. Pa je petek hitro naokoli.

Dragi Koticikov stric!

Ni dolgo, kar sem čitala v Ameriški domovini, da Vam prijatelj prav radi podare mucka kakršnega si boste sami izbrali, da Vam nadomesti Vašega, ki je poginil. Počiva — gotovo je bil star. Pa sem mislila, če ste prezrli tiste vrstice, da Vas spominim. Prav podobnega prejšnjemu bi Vam ne svetovala, ker bi Vas preveč spominjal na prejšnjega. Vzemite takega, da Vam bo krajšal dolge jesenske in zimske večere. Povabim Vas, da pridete kaj k nam in če morete hoditi ob palici, Vas bom spremlila in Vam pomagala nositi mucka. Zato Vam pošljem svoj naslov.

Lepo Vas pozdravlja

Marjetka Kristanc,
6711 Schaefer Ave.,
Cleveland, Ohio 44103.

Draga Marjetka!

O, punčka, nisem spregledal tisto o mucku. Solzo sem utrlil, ko sem bral, da mi dobri ljudje ponujajo mucka, toda starega moje staro srce ne pozabilo. Nekoč one se od časa do časa pri tepe v mojo šendico, nalijem mu mleka, popije, me pogleda in gre. Mislim ostati sam v svoji prašji, prestar sem, da bi na novo kakšnega mucka deval v red. Sem pa strašno vesel, da si mi dala nasvet in posebno vesel, da si me povabila v vas. Naslov imam. Če se ne motim, bo to tista hiša, ki ima za božič vedno lepe jaslce. Morda bodo tudi letos. Nič ne rečem, da nekoč ne pridem, le to se bojim, da bi se tako starega bradača ustrašila. Tega ne bi rad. Veš, tako navdjan sem in neroden, da okoli mladih punč zgrabim besedo. Naslov si pa denem na stran. Včasih samota kliče po prijateljih in kaj je lepšega kakor imeti tako mladega prijateljčka kakor si Ti. Bog s Teboj, dekletce! In lepote Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Koticikov stric!

Jaz rad igram zogo. Vsak dan grem k mojim sorodnikom in se igram. Imam dosti naloge. To moram narediti najprej. Igram tudi harmoniko vsak dan. Tudi učiti se moram in brati kakšno knjigo. Ko se naučim in še kaj preberem, potem šele smem gledati televizijo ali se igrati z bratom in sestro.

Lepo Te pozdravlja

Tomaž Štepec

Dragi Tomaž!

Vem, da se rad igraš, toda je prav, da najprvo vse znaš za šolo. V življenju ni veliko ljudi, ki bi živeli od žoge. Je več takih, ki žive od znanja. In tega boš dobil z učenjem. Vedno je prijetno misliti, da si izpolnil svojo dolžnost. Po izpolnjeni dolžnosti je tudi igranje bolj sladko. Torej, dragi Tomaž, nič se ne ženi, če imaš tak dnevni red. Nekoč mu boš hvaležen. Priden ostani, Miklavž je blizu. Lepo Te pozdravljam.

jih močeh pomagati. Lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Koticikov stric!

Danes Vam bom napisal nekaj besedi o mojem kužku. Je majhen in čisto črn. Najrajše je solato in vse, kar je sladko. Ko pridem domov iz šole, me že čaka pri vratih, da bi se z njim igral. Tudi o Vaši mucki sem slišal, da Vas je za vedno zapustila. Gotovo Vam je zdaj težko, ko ste sami v šendici.

Lepo Vas pozdravlja

Joško Suhadolnik

Dragi Joško!

Čuden je tisti Tvoj kužek, če je solato. Jih ne poznam veliko. Vem, da žival rada je travo, če je v želodcu kaj narobe. Verjamem pa, da imaš mnogo veselja z njim. Kužek je zvesta žival. Tudi o mojem mucku si slišal. Zašel je, da. Vsaka reč ima svoj konec že v začetku. Takšno je pač življenje. V šendici se pozna, da ga ni več. Včasih se je igral z mojo kamižolo, s štebali, zdaj sem pa tako sam, da me je včasih kar strah. Dobro se imejta oba s kužkom in oba lepo pozdravljam.

Če zdaj prestejete pisemca mi ni več ostalo. Glejte torej, da se poštar spet kmalu oglasi. Ostani mi zdravi, ne letajte okrog na pol opravljeni, vreme je strupeno. Pride prehlad, mame morajo letati okoli postelj in še skrbi so.

Lepo Vas pozdravlja

Vaš stari Koticikov stric

of your Society. The Year 1966 was an exciting and beneficial year for your Society and its members. The following progress report is a clear indication that we are moving ahead with vigor and determination.

Hočiminhova delegacija bila 3 tedne v Moskvi

MOSKVA, Rus. — Ker Hočiminh ni mogel sam priti na jubilejne slovesnosti za oktober-sko revolucijo v Moskvo, je poslal tja močno delegacijo pod vodstvom glavnega tajnika Le Duana in vojnega ministra Giapa. Delegacija je bila v Moskvi cele tri tedne. Kaj je tam delala, je zavito v temo. Niti dan njenega odhoda ni bil takoj javljen. Zvedeli so zanj šele potem, ko je bila na potu v Irsk. Molk ima verjetno drug razlog, nego navadno mislimo. Moskva ni hotela, da Peiping zve, kaj je razgovarjala z vietnamskimi komunisti. Ako bi Kitajci vedeli, bi lahko po svoje spreminjali svoje načrte o podpiranju vietnamskega vojskovanja. Tega pa nočeta ne Hanoi ne Moskva.

Rotijin Blaže

(Spisal Pavel Perko.)

Potem pa so ga ponesle sanje kakor na perotih na Zirovski vrh — tja gori, kjer se na Posečnikovih svislih ziblje pajčevina med ožganimi tramovi; tja gori, kjer se bleskeče drevesno perje ob mesečnih nočeh; tja gori, kjer žive ljudje življenje lepo in mirno, še vse lepše in mirnejše nego tu spodaj.

Ne bom vam pravil dalje; ako bi vas zanimal še konec, prosim pojdite in govorite z Blažetom samim. On še živi — in rad vam bo povedal svojo povest od konca do kraja.

O, Blaže še živi, dasi je minilo od teh dogodkov, ki sem vam jih pripovedoval, nič manj ko trideset let.

Vrh Zirovskega vrha dobite Blažeta še vedno. Če vas bo kdaj pot pripeljala na Zirovski vrh, le pojdite tam mimo Posečnika in stavim, da boste naleteli na Blažeta. V bregu nad potjo bo stal in pasel sedem ovac: tri bele in štiri črne — in ko boste šli mimo, se bo obrnil in čudeč se gledal za vami, kakor bi hotel vprašati: "Kako da vas je pot zanesla sem gori?" In tedaj vam svetujem, da se ustavite pri njem ter ga nagovorite.

"No, ali pasete?" tako ga vprašajte.

In odgovoril vam bo takoj in z največjim veseljem: "Pasem, pasem! Tri bele pasem in štiri črne."

In potem sem prepričan, da vam ne bo zmanjkalo pogovora. Blaže bo govoril rad in o vsem. Ne bo dolgo, ko bo začel govoriti tudi o sebi. Pripovedoval vam bo na dolgo in široko svojo povest in povedal približno vse to in tako, kakor sem vam povedal jaz, samo da še bolje. In ko bo končal tam, kjer sem končal jaz, potem ga izprašajte še dalje;

"Kaj pa sedaj?" — tako mu recite — "ali vas še kdaj zamika v dolino?"

"Kaj vam vse ne pride na mar?" tako vam bo odgovoril in vas pogledal z začudenjem; "ali ne vidite, da imam svojo družnico tukaj: tri bele in štiri črne? Ali bi jih mogel pustiti kar tako? In dolina —? Ali se ne vidi dolina najlepše raz Zirovski vrh? Rečem vam: vse lepše kot od blizu! O, rad gledam tja doli, a le od daleč; v dolino me ne mika... Pač! V nedeljo grem k maši in pred mašo se rad ustavim pri družbi tam pod kostanjem. Zakaj ne — saj so dolinci tudi ljudje in ne sovražim jih! A vendar — po pravici povem — kadar mine maša, tedaj že zopet rad pohitim sem gori proti Zirovskemu vrhu. Res, tako je!" "Ali ste bili od tistega časa vedno pri Posečniku?" "Vedno. Kaj sem hotel drugače! Sprva sem služil za malega hlapca, potem za velikega. In ko je Posečnik umrl in se je dekle omožilo, sem bil še vedno za hlapca."

"In sedaj?" "Sedaj sem sam svoj. Pred leti mi je umrla mati in mi zapustila bajto v grapi in pa nekaj denarja. Bajto sem prodal; kaj bi počenjal tam doli? Za denar pa sem si kupil kot pri Posečniku in pa to-le družinico sem si napravil: tri bele in štiri črne. Pasem in pa v dolino gledam, kadar je vreme jasno. Kadar je pa megleno, tedaj sedim v izbi in si preganjam dolgčas s harmoniko, ki sem jo bil ono leto naročil z Dunaja."

"Torej Rotija je umrla?" "Umrla."

"Kaj pa France?" "France —. Hm! Tinačeva

Marica ga ni hotela. Dirjal je menda za njo po vsej Ameriki in tako zapravil denar, kar ga je imel. Potem pa pravijo, da še dostojne službe ni mogel dobiti. Moral se je udinjati v rudnike, kakor kdo drug. Domov ni pisal nič; mislili smo, da je že davno mrtev. A ono leto, ko je nastala v Ameriki tista velika stavka, smo zvedeli, da on vodi stavko in da ga zato zasledujejo, in pa da je v nevarnosti za življenje. Po tistem pa nismo čuli o njem nič več."

Tako vam bo pripovedoval Rotijin Blaže in rad bo govoril. Vprašajte ga, kar ga hočete, na vse vam bo odgovarjal. Samo o Francetu, vam svetujem, ga ne izprašujte veliko; zakaj o bratu Francetu Blaže še vedno ne govori rad.

KONEC.

Poravnava s krznarji ravnatelja živalskega vrta

Poravnaj se spor med združenjem nemških krznarjev in ravnateljem frankfurtskega živalskega vrta prof. Bernhardom Grzimekom. Na višjem dežel-nem sodišču sta se naravoslovec Grzimek in predsednik združenja Walter Wurker sporazumela, da se bosta skupno zavzemala za uvedbo humanih metod pri lovu na mlade tjunle v Kanadi.

Zapisnik o poravnavi spora vsebuje predlog, naj strokovna komisija ugotovi, ali in v kakšnem obsegu je lov na tjunle v Kanadi mogoče označiti kot mučenje živali. Marca prihodnje leto naj bi poteval po kanadskih lovskih revirjih veterinar, specialist za živalsko patologijo. Krznarsko združenje bo prispevalo v ta namen 10.000 mark.

Dalje je rečeno v zapisniku, da nemško združenje krznarjev ne sodeluje neposredno pri pridobivanju tjunle iz kožuho in da torej ni odgovorno za more-nima namena škodovati krznar-jem, pridržal pa si je pravico. Grzimek je izjavil, da nikakor da bo tudi v prihodnje nastopal proti nehumanemu pobijanju živali.

V eni svojih televizijskih oddaj bo Grzimek sporočil javnosti, da ne nasprotuje "načinu lova na odrasle tjunle" in tudi ne "rabi in nošenju takšnih kožuho".

Do spora je prišlo v letošnjem maju, ko je Grzimek v oddaji prosil gledalke, naj ne kupuje-jo krznarjev iz tjunle, ki so jo pojmovali kot poziv na bojkot in vložilo tožbo, ki jo je dvakrat obravnavalo deželno sodišče.

Brunch With A French Flair

Add a touch of France to your next brunch with Quiche (pronounced "keesch") Lorraine, a French inspired, open-faced, main-dish pie.

The classic French recipe for Quiche Lorraine called for a round shell of puff or pastry filled with eggs, cream and bacon or smoked ham bits.

The variation of Quiche Lorraine suggested below provides a zesty balance of sausage or bacon, cheese and eggs accented with onion and nutmeg. The ingredients can be quickly processed with the aid of an electric blender.

|---|---|
| 1 lb. pork sausage meat, crisply fried and crumbled, or | 1/2 lb. Swiss cheese, cubed |
| 3/4 lb. sliced bacon crisply fried and crumbled | 1 tablespoon flour |
| 1 medium onion, cut in eighths | 4 eggs |
| 2 tablespoons meat drippings | 1-1/2 cups light cream or evaporated milk |
| | 1/2 teaspoon salt |
| | 1/4 teaspoon pepper |
| | 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg |

Goodwill-Boy Scout "Good Turn Day" Scheduled For Dec. 2nd

The Greater Cleveland Council of Boy Scouts of America will sponsor its 35th Good Turn Day for benefit of the physically, mentally and socially handicapped men and women of Goodwill Industries on Saturday, December 2nd.

As in years past, thousands of uniformed Scouts will visit area homes gathering and transporting clothing and toys to over 100 collection centers made possible by the courtesy of area churches, fire stations and other community buildings. The annual event helps provide materials to keep Goodwill's clients at work during the winter months when donations of usable discards diminish because of bad weather.

Area residents are reminded that Scouts will be looking for a scarf or handkerchief tied to the front doorknob as an indication that they should stop for donations. One week prior to Good Turn, uniformed Scouts will deliver handy Goodwill Bags and fact sheets to residents which explain the purpose of Good Turn Day. On the day of collection, Scouts, in full uniform, will retrace their steps and the annual project begins.

Larger items such as furniture, tables, etc. can be picked up by special Goodwill trucks if a call is made to the plant at 431-8300.

Goodwill, a non-profit organization, serves over 250 handicapped clients daily. The vocational rehabilitation agency provides on-the-job training as well as the services of professionally trained social workers, training-evaluating directors and vocational guidance counselors.

Society Corporation Declares Dividends

Directors of Society Corporation at a meeting here declared a semi-annual dividend of $2 per share on the $4 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, Series A, and a semi-annual dividend of 70 cents per Common Share, both payable Dec. 15 to shareholders of record Nov. 24. Mervin B. France, president, announced.

He also commented that total dividends per common share declared in 1967 to $1.40, a 16% per cent increase from the $1.20 paid in 1966, and that the total 1967 dividend on the preferred stock amounted to $4.

France told directors that as of October 31, total resources of Society Corporation and its affiliated banks exceeded $771 million, an all-time high.

He added, "this amount reflects an increase of approximately $120 million from a year ago. Of this increase, $64 million is represented by the Springfield Bank joining the Society Corporation."

Society Corporation is a registered bank holding company. Its affiliates are Society National Bank of Cleveland; The Springfield Bank, Springfield, Ohio; The Fremont Savings Bank, Fremont, Ohio; and The Western Reserve Bank of Lake County, Painesville, Ohio.

Raffles - Lotteries

The Ohio constitution forbids lotteries. The statutes spell out the tests for determining a lottery — a consideration must be given (i.e. a ticket purchased), a prize is to be awarded, and the winning of the prize must be determined by chance.

State law also provides that no person "shall write, print, or publish an account of a lottery or scheme of chance, by whatever name, style, or title... or the price of a ticket, or showing where a ticket may be or has been obtained, or giving publicity to such lottery or scheme of chance."

Penalty for conviction is a fine of not more than $500, or up to six months in jail, or both. Violators can be prosecuted in each county where such publication is circulated.

Southern California Teams

May Collide in Miami Bowl

San Diego, Calif.—Nobody around the San Diego Chargers even dares whisper the phrase, "Super Bowl," but this team could be a party to it and so could the Los Angeles Rams.

Here is irony: Two clubs from Southern California colliding in football's most heralded game in Miami, Fla. The Orange Bowl is this season's Super Bowl site.

The Rams thumped the Chargers during the pre-season, 50-7, but San Diego has come on strongly and there are those who inquire of Sid Gillman how he thinks his team would do now against Los Angeles.

"The Rams?" wonders Sid. "I wouldn't know. I have forgotten there was such a team as the Rams."

Yankees Failed to Receive Single Vote for First Time
Boston, Mass. — How Mighty Mickey and the Yankees have fallen!

For the first time since the Baseball Writers' Association of America began casting votes for the Most Valuable Player in 1931, not a single Yankee received a mention this year.

That includes the great Mantle, who like Willie Mays in the National League balloting, drew a complete blank.

Never before, since the time he broke in back in 1952, had Mantle played a full season without being mentioned somewhere from first to tenth on at least one ballot.

Along with Yogi Berra, Jimmie Foxx and Joe DiMaggio, Mickey was a three-time winner, having taken the award in 1956, 1957 and 1962.

Scare for Bills' Back

New York, N.Y. — While nearly 63,000 fans watched in a terrible stillness, Buffalo fullback Jack Spikes lay on the ground, his arms and legs thrashing in rigid convulsions. Knocked unconscious, he had swallowed his tongue. Dr. Joseph Godfrey of the Bills acted quickly, straightening out the tongue so life-saving air could get to his lungs. Two days later, Spikes walked out of the hospital, apparently completely recovered and looking forward to the next Sunday's game.

Providence Only 'Loner'

In American Hockey League
Rochester, N.Y. — The American Hockey League is operating this year with only one independent team, the Providence Reds.

Buffalo has signed a new working agreement with the New York Rangers, Rochester is still tied with Toronto, Cleveland works with Montreal, Quebec is owned by the new Philadelphia Flyers, Springfield was purchased by Jack Kent Cooke for the Los Angeles Kings and Baltimore has a new agreement with the Pittsburgh Penguins.

State Flag Manual Now Available

A newly-revised edition of the state flag manual was released by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown.

The new 12-page booklet, which is an expansion of the folder previously offered by the Secretary of State's office, highlights the history of the Ohio burgee, as the State flag is technically known, as well as illustrations and text on proper display of the Stars and Stripes. It also includes a brief resume on each of the state's emblems.

"Our Flags, as the new manual is titled, is the most comprehensive publication of its kind ever issued by this office," Secretary Brown said. He added that it had been in the preparation stage since last May. The booklet will be distributed, by request, to school children, civic groups and individual citizens. Write to: Ted W. Brown, Secretary of State, Columbus, Ohio 43216.

Slovan Concert

The time has rolled around again for SLOVAN's Fall concert, which will be held on Dec. 3rd, at the Slovenian Society Home on Reher Ave., in Euclid, Ohio. Our all men's chorus will have an excellent program of old and new songs sung by our chorus, octet, quartet and duet, under the very able direction of Mr. Frank Vauter.

The ever popular Johnny Pecon's orchestra will play for your dancing pleasure after the concert and should make the older folks, as well as the young ones, happy.

Our good Slovenian cooks will serve a delicious supper right after the concert. We hope all our old friends and many new ones will come to our concert and help make this a real enjoyable affair for everyone.

Tickets can be obtained from our SLOVAN members, at the Club room on Reher Ave., and also at the door.

Let's get into the holiday season spirit by starting the month of December with this happy affair.

From the Indian Teepee

The Cleveland Indians have a total of 20 players in their system who hail from the State of Ohio — six of them from the Greater Cleveland area, three from Lorain, and one from Medina. Local sandlot graduates are: pitchers Jim Rittwage (Portland) from Bedford; Joe Maji (Rock Hill) from Maple Hts.; Dave Singerman (Pawtucket) from Lyndhurst; infielder Gary Orion (Pawtucket) from North Olmsted; catcher Ollie Coffee (Reno) from Cleveland and first baseman Jim Yacknow (Rock Hill) from Cleveland. Pitcher Danny McDivitt (Rock Hill) is from Medina... The Lorain trio is comprised of pitchers Steve Bailey (Cleveland roster); Don Abraham (Pawtucket) and Ernie Majors. Bailey and Abraham came from the same high school — Lorain High. Bailey is a 1960 graduate while Abraham received his diploma in 1964. Majors graduated last spring from Admiral King—Bailey, incidentally, is working during the off season as a supervisor in the Lorain County Detention Home.

Catcher Joe Azcue and pitcher John O'Donoghue, who lived only a few blocks apart during the season in Brookpark, Ohio, make their winter homes a few miles from each other — Azcue in Overland Park, Kansas and O'Donoghue in Independence, Missouri. Duke Sims is managing a Mr. T Stereo Tape branch store in the Cleveland area. Also in town during the winter months is Vern Fuller, who is studying hotel and restaurant management in the Stouffer chain.

Bruce Egan, Tribe's sales and advertising man, celebrated a birthday Nov. 22. Don Demeter, still on the Tribe roster, is busy making speeches for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes — The Indians registered one of their better extra inning showings in recent years last season when they posted a 16-9 mark in overtime sessions. Infielder Gary Sprague, who played in Reno last season but is currently on the Tribe roster, is majoring in Criminology at Florida State University. Gabe Paul, back in the office after a week's fishing in Florida, bagged a shark that battled him for 35 minutes. The fish won't be an office trophy.

The Tribe's radio and TV voices are busily engaged on the banquet trail. Bob Neal and Jimmy Dudley, and Herb Score and Harry Jones, combined, have more than 60 speaking engagements slated before Christmas. The Indians' trainer, Wally Bock, was married last Thursday and his Best Man was former Indian ace, Bob Feller.

CONSUMER PROTECTION FARCE

There's little question that the free market system in the United States is threatened with virtual obliteration under an impending deluge of consumer protection laws and regulations. As Miss Sylvia Porter, the financial columnist, writes: "The sheer volume of consumer protection proposals is beginning to repel even the most ardent consumer protectionists..." There is equally small doubt that many people look at this threat to the free market with an attitude of "so what." As consumers, they may find one day to their sorrow that such an attitude has exacted an intolerably high price in terms of the goods and services of the mass-production, mass-distribution system that we now take for granted.

Excessive policing of the free market and excessive restrictions on such things as promotion, advertising, packaging, labeling and other merchandising practices inexorably curb consumer free choice and cripple the competitive, distributive processes.

Miss Porter suggests that business itself can do much to defeat the "burgeoning bureaucracy" of consumer protection by taking the lead in adopting reasonable and tasteful advertising policies, making certain that products placed on the market are as claimed and by aggressively fighting the unscrupulous fringes that hurt an industry's name. It should be added, however, that one of the first prerequisites of preserving the free market system in the United States is broad consumer understanding of its role as a protector of our economic liberties and as the source of high living standards. Without that understanding, we are fair game for the consumer protectionists and regulators irrespective of the quality of industry performance.

Boy Scouts Take Elderly To Church

Two Scouts of Troop 250 are planning a community welfare project for the benefit of elderly people of St. Vitus Parish. Scouts Don and Ron Snyder are heading up this project as a part of their Eagle Scout requirements. It was designed in order to give older people who ordinarily would not attend Sunday Mass due to physical disabilities an opportunity to go. The date was Sunday, November 12, 1967. Arrangements were made for these people to be picked up by car and transported to church for the 5 o'clock Mass. Following Mass, a little snack was served for these four people in the St. Vitus School Room. They were later returned home by car. The planning and arrangements for this project were made with the assistance of Scoutmaster Felix A. Danton and St. Vitus Rectory.

This program will continue whenever an opportunity will be offered. So if you know of any older people who would like to come to church but can't get transportation, call the Scouts.

Assessment Collection

The secretary of Mary Magdalene Society No. 162 KSKJ will collect assessments Friday, November 24th from 5:30 to 8 p.m. in St. Vitus School.

Important Meeting

SMZ No. 5 will hold its regular monthly meeting Sunday, Nov. 26 at 2 p.m., at the Slovenian Home on Holmes Avenue.

More and more supermarkets now are giving the consumer the chance to see all sides of pre-packaged meat before she buys. Stores are switching to new clear plastic meat trays, developed by Monsanto Company. With the clear trays there's no place to hide a big bone or a lot of fat. Marbling, grain, color and moistness are quickly visible. Meat is freezer ready without re-wrapping. The package does not become soggy. The neat, clean package can be reused to store left-overs in the freezer.

MEAT MAKES THE MENU

New York, N.Y. (ED) — About a third of the average family food budget is paid out for a single item — meat. Yet this is the commodity that baffles many a housewife more than any other. Faced with a vast array of pre-packaged meats and poultry, she must make difficult decisions.

The supermarket shopper can expect to find wide swings in prices from week to week. She will see unfamiliar names for cuts, with confusion compounded when these vary from one part of the country to another. What's more, there are few brand labels on which to lean. She can seldom zip by the meat display and quickly scoop up a package and toss it into her cart, as she does with many other purchases, knowing it will be the same as it was the last time and the time before.

Research has shown that a well-run meat department is often the deciding factor when a woman settles on one market as her regular stopping place. Since there's so much more to meat than is readily apparent, it's easy to see why housewives are sometimes confused.

Fortunately, there are guideposts to help the housewife get the most meat for her money — meat that's nutritious, delicious, easy to prepare. And award-winning, when the family says, "That was good!"

Here are some Rules for the Roast:

(1) It's good to know that in general, all meat is equally nutritious. In the case of beef, stew meat gives as much to the family in food value as steak. The key to have in mind is not necessarily to buy the best you can afford, but to think in terms of good eating and nutrition at a reasonable price. Meat and poultry and fish — plus milk and cheese — are the leading sources of protein. You may cut down on the price you pay for protein, but never skimp on the amount. Protein is essential to growth, and the body never stops needing it.

(2) Don't judge price per pound, but price per serving. If a somewhat more expensive cut has no bone or waste, it may be a better buy. A rule of thumb is that a pound of boneless meat serves four; while in the case of meat with the bone in, a pound serves two.

(3) Buy store specials. There's a difference between meat on sales and "sales" in many other types of articles. Meat on sale isn't out-of-season or shopworn! A meat special is put on either to attract shoppers or because there is a temporary high supply. Sometimes a supermarket chain is able to buy a huge quantity and pass the savings on to customers. This can be a field day for the housewife; the store gains, too, because attractive meat brings in other business.

(4) Stock up when meat and poultry are reduced in price, if you have freezer space. You may either freeze uncooked meat or cook for two meals at once and freeze half of it. Don't refreeze fresh meat once it has been defrosted. After it has been cooked, however, it can be frozen in its new form. Meat does not have seasons in the same sense that strawberries or peaches do, but there are times when supplies are plentiful, and that's when to stock up.

(5) Watch for U.S. Government grades and for federal and state inspection stamps. The top grade of beef is "Prime" and the majority of this goes to hotels and restaurants. "Choice" is next and is the grade which most homemakers find excellent eating. In decreasing order, the next grades are "Good," "Standard" and "Commercial." It isn't easy to judge the quality of meat in pieces the size most consumers purchase. This makes it especially important to watch for government grades, which are found on beef, veal and lamb. Meat of mature sheep must be labeled "mutton."

Look also for "bloom," as the butcher calls it. To the housewife this means meat or chicken that appears fresh and tender — moist, rich-looking, without discoloration, bruises or spots.

(6) Consider how much waste is wrapped up with any piece of meat you buy. Transparent plastic meat trays that let you see the bottom as well as the top are a great help. They are an indication, too, of a conscientious meat manager who wants his customers to know what they are buying. Good market management is an unseen benefit, but most housewives can recognize it in meat that is kept properly cold, in workrooms and cutting tools that are spotlessly clean and in display cabinets continually polished to make certain that cuts aren't piled too high and that there are no torn and leaking packages.

(7) Select the meat that's right for the recipe you're using. If you plan on long, slow cooking, as in pot roast or goulash, buy a cheaper cut. Many gourmets think that filet mignon has less flavor than sirloin steak. And steak they rate below cheaper cuts that have been skillfully cooked and seasoned. The same can be said of various types of hamburger — ground chuck has more fat than ground round, but it's often more palatable.

(8) Hamburger deserves a paragraph by itself, because it's America's single most popular meat buy. On real budget days or when unexpected company turns up, know how to stretch a pound of chopped meat by making it into a sauce for spaghetti or combining it with other tasty ingredients into a meat loaf. Spark hamburger with various seasonings and additions such as tomato juice or bouillon and experiment with toppings like cheese or salad dressing.

(9) Be versatile. Try less familiar meats on your family. Beef liver, per serving, is frequently the most economical meat buy on the market. Both veal and lamb appear relatively infrequently on our tables. Try them — at least once.

Play favorites! Have a collection of meat recipes to turn to when you feel stumped for ideas. Some, perhaps, that are family favorites, a few quick dishes, some low cost

S. 2388 — ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY ACT AMENDMENTS.

The "greatest deliberative body in the world" spent nearly two weeks on S. 2388, Economic Opportunity Act Amendments, then set aside its "deliberativeness" by bringing up some 19 amendments, many having serious consequences, in an hour and a half at the end! Final passage came literally at the 11th hour — 11 P.M. on Wednesday, November 15. The bill passed finally by the House authorizes $1.6 billion. The Senate bill, passed previously, authorizes $2.2 billion, therefore the final compromise will be a figure somewhere between.

The "Poverty War" was launched hurriedly just prior to the 1964 Presidential election. In the first year, $800 million was authorized, the second year $1.5 billion and last year approximately $1.6 billion. When the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964 was before the 88th Congress, I expressed strong reservations about the manner in which the effort to assist the poor and underprivileged was being launched. While the desire was strong to do something constructive in addition to that which was already being accomplished through programs authorized under the Manpower Training and Development Act and the Vocational Education Act, the Anti-Poverty Program was open to many questions. Specifics were lacking. A sense of direction did not accompany the sense of purpose. Rather than such a massive undertaking rife with uncertainty, I preferred the "seed money" approach to establish pilot programs. Try a Headstart project! Underwrite a Community Action effort! Establish a Job Corps Center! By so doing, the wrinkle could be ironed out along the way. Unfortunately, this view did not prevail. As a result there has been great waste. Mistakes were made, not on a modest scale, but in grand fashion and the misfortunes of the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) are well known.

Now, some three years later, much has been learned at great cost. We know that the individual programs are important. Headstart, Work Experience, Upward Bound, Community Action, legal services, the Neighborhood Youth Corps, the Job Corps and others are successful if they have proper leadership. Leadership is the key and there is no better example than the Cleveland Women's Job Corps Center which Dr. Zelma George has turned into a model program.

As reported from the House Committee on Education and Labor, S. 2388 authorized a total of $2.06 million. A recommitment motion offered by my Ohio colleague, Honorable William Ayres, reduced this total to $1.6 billion. I voted for this recommitment motion because there was general agreement that the cut would be limited to an amount approximating the level of expenditures for the current fiscal year. It was a figure that would assure the continuation of the currently existing programs. Furthermore, knowing that the Senate wants an even larger amount next year, it is a foregone conclusion that the amount finally arrived at will be in excess of what was spent this year.

meals — and, of course, something extra special for company. In the back of your favorite cook book, jot down how much meat is needed to serve how many, and note what other foods rounded out the menus at your most successful parties.

As you shop, allow for that "planned impulse". If an especially good price or delicious cooking cut is offered change your supper menu. Or buy ahead for your freezer.

(10) Learn to handle meat well after you get it home. If it's to be cooked within a day or two, store it in the coldest part of your refrigerator, preferably loosely wrapped. Chopped meat should be used up more quickly than meat in a solid piece. If meat or poultry is to go in the freezer, be sure the wrapping is airtight. The newest meat trays are made of clear plastic and are most satisfactory for home-freezing because frozen meat does not stick to them. Write the data on the package and plan to use it while it's still at its peak of flavor. Beef and lamb in a solid piece, such as a roast or steak, will keep a year. So will a whole chicken or turkey. If meat is cut up or chopped, plan to cook it within six months. Frozen pork should be used in two months.

We Americans love to eat. Meal-times, when the family gathers at the table, are to all of us a symbol of closeness and loving ties. We use food as a celebration — a birthday cake, for example. We have our traditional foods such as cranberries at Thanksgiving and cookies at Christmas. We always offer food of some kind to guests.

Day in and day out, however, the "meat" of the menu is meat. It's the greatest satisfaction to the mother to serve... to the family to enjoy. Since meat makes the menu, it pays to learn how to buy it wisely and well.

The recommitment motion prevailed by a vote of 221 to 190.

Then voted for the bill on final passage. It passed by a vote of 283-129. As I said in my speech during general debate: "For 1967 we are asked for $2.06 billion. I am not

New Practical Nursing Course Offered By Cleveland Schools

Classes to help make practical nurses eligible for certification by the State of Ohio will begin the week of November 27. The Cleveland Board of Education will sponsor these classes at two locations. The East Side class will be held at Collinwood Evening School, 15210 St. Clair Ave., on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30. The West Side class is scheduled for Monday and Wednesday evenings at John Marshall Adult Center, 3952 West 140 Street, from 6:30 to 9:30. Additional classes will be organized as needed, day or evening.

The Preparatory Course for Unlicensed Practical Nurses is designed to prepare unlicensed practical nurses to pass the Ohio examination for practical nurses. The course will consist of three 80-hour units, a total of 240 hours. The registration fee for each unit is $30.00, which includes the cost of textbooks.

Class registration is limited to 20 students per class. Students may pre-register with the Division of Adult Education, Cleveland Board of Education, 1380 East Sixth St., Cleveland, Ohio 44114. Registration blanks are available at the above address, or may be obtained by telephoning the Division office at 579-0600.

There are no requirements for enrolling in the course. However, the State examination will be open only to unlicensed practical nurses who have worked in Ohio as practical nurses for more than two years immediately preceding the date of application and have their applications signed by either two doctors, two registered nurses, or one doctor and one registered nurse.

Miss Lillian Wagner, Coordinator of the Practical Nurse Training for the Cleveland Public Schools, is serving as Consultant to assist in the establishment of the course. The Cleveland Public Schools have, for many years, operated a Practical Nursing Course and have compiled an enviable record of a high percentage of graduates successfully passing the State examination.

After April 1, 1971, under the provisions of the newly amended Ohio Nursing Practical Act, any person who engages in the practice of practical nursing for compensation in Ohio must hold a current practical nurse license.

The law provides a three-year waiver period, during which unlicensed persons who have been practicing as practical nurses may qualify for licensure. The deadline for filing an application is December 31, 1970.

All applicants are required to pass the licensing examination for practical nurses in order to become licensed. The requirement of grahere in this well to say we must give so huge a sum — certainly not before every effort has been made to cut down and do a better job. We should be able to do much more and do better with less. I am here to say that I cannot live with myself if we stop the doing".

The legislation which finally passed is far from perfect and we can only hope that the House-Senate Conferences will bring back a better bill. Of course, the actual funds for the various programs will be provided in a separate bill from the Appropriations Committee, which is yet to come.

TURKEYS ARE GOING TO PIECES

Turkeys are going to pieces! And what a wonderful thing to happen. Because more turkey halves and quarters will be available this month, according to USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service, small families can choose the economical cut they like best. Frozen packaged turkey parts add the convenience of thawing a single portion at a time. And this way, every child can have a drumstick, too!

Perfect, uniform slices everywhere for hot, savory turkey sandwiches cut from turkey rolls, small chunks of tender meat easily deboned from wings for exotic fricassees, and delicious salads... white meat for everyone from packaged breasts. The advantages of turkey parts increase the more you use them! What's even better... no leftovers!

Here's an idea using turkey parts — a real piece de resistance! Sweet and Sour: Cut 3½ to 4 lbs. of turkey wings apart at joints to make flat pieces. Coat them with ½ cup seasoned flour and brown on all sides in hot shortening in a large skillet or Dutch Oven. Add one chopped medium onion and saute a few minutes. Then add 1½ cups water, ¾ cups catsup, ½ cup cider vinegar, one tablespoon honey, ½ teaspoon cinnamon. Bring to a full boil; cover and reduce heat. Then simmer 1½ hours or until fork-tender. Serves 6 to 8. Note: You may substitute thighs or drumsticks, if desired. Cut thighs into two pieces; slash drumsticks 3 or 4 times in line with the bone before cooking.

O. J. THE "TODAY" JUICE

Frozen concentrated orange juice is so convenient that it has become a symbol of the busy

American way of life.

Whether you drink the orange juice for its vitamin content, or use it to give flavor to other foods, this is the time to go heavy on the abundant supplies of this frozen juice. The U. S. Department of Agriculture lists frozen orange juice as one of our plentiful foods this month.

Hot breads are a taste sensation when you use orange juice to glorify quick and easy packaged, prebaked or ready to bake rolls, biscuits, or muffins. They are a perfect accompaniment for meals.

Orange glaze biscuits are good with crispy fried chicken. Brown sugar is dissolved in undiluted orange juice and then spooned over the hot biscuits. They're popped back into the oven for about four minutes until glazed. Orange honey muffins are made by spreading English muffins with a butter, orange juice and honey spread.
