Christmas Traditions in Bela Krajina

Christmas traditions in Bela Krajina were, above all else, spiritual and joyful. First and foremost was Advent, a time of great anticipation and preparation for the birth of the Savior. In those days Joseph and Mary went from Galilee by order of Caesar Augustus to enroll in Nazareth, but there was no room for them in the inn. To recall these events, family and friends, acting as pilgrims, would gather with ceremony at a different home each night for prayer, the rosary and singing. The nine day novena was an expression of goodwill and support among neighbors. The final joyful home gathering on Christmas Eve, culminated with the village lantern-lit procession to the church and the celebration of Midnight Mass.

During the week before Christmas, and particularly on Christmas Eve day every household, regardless of means was full of activity finalizing preparations for Christmas Day. The creation of the jaslice, or manger, was among the most important. Constructed from whatever materials were at hand, the jaslice was often set upon a shelf or special table top covered with hills made from dried moss, river beds of rocks and a small field of wheat. Fresh cut branches of fir or pine trees, or sometimes depending on the time, will or mood of the head of the house, even a small tree would crown the scene. Handmade ornaments, cookies and candies would adorn the branches; the latter serving as tasty treats for residents and visiting children. (The family cat would frequently be accused of many disappearing ornamentations.)

The kitchen table, is the heart of every Slovenian home. In Belo Krajina's traditions, once a year the table got special attention for Christmas. The rules of setting the table were unique! First wheat seeds were strewn (to represent hope that the earth would yield abundant food) and covered in the household's best tablecloth (health and joy in the coming year). The tablecloth was filled with meaning and symbolic objects for the family. First, came not one but three special loaves for Christmas Eve, an important unique Belokranjska

Christmas bread made by Nena Cerer

Christmas tradition. Around the bread, much like our Christmas presents of today, could be found all the hopes and dreams of the family: house key (for safety from thieves), money (for protection against shortage), holy water and incense and prayer book (used to bless the home), a candle (light for body and soul), tools used every day at work. All these were encircled by the large family rosary.

The breads were special, shared with family members for each of the Christmas Holydays. The first loaf, šarkelj, Christmas raisin bread, would be cut on Christmas Day. The second loaf, novoletnik, a nut roll potica, would be cut on New Year's Day. The third bread was božičnik. This one, using only flour and water, was specially decorated with at least, a likeness of Baby Jesus in a manger. Depending on the availability of time, means and talents of the baker, the Holy Family or even the entire nativity scene complete with farm animals and trees would be depicted! The božičnik would be cut on January 6, the Feast of the Three Kings. Again a morsel of the bread went to each family member, only this one was also shared with the livestock. The figurines as a special blessing were fed into the fire in the peč which provided warmth and food to the household.

These are just a few of the Belo Krajina traditions recalled this summer by some Cleveland's Belokranjski Klub members. The information was gathered at a meeting to plan a display for the October 22, 2006 Culture Days in celebration of St. Mary's Parish 100 Year Anniversary. We were happy to be part of Slovenia's Regions at St. Mary's Hall and share our Christmas table and jaslice. We hope we gave you some new ideas on how to make your holidays special. The Klub wishes you all of God's blessings for these Holydays in Advent and Christmas and the New Year. May they be filled with health and joy. Blagoslovljene Božične praznike in srečno Nove Leto!

Couple of Christmas Customs

by RUDY FLIS

Jim Debevec, our editor, asked about Christmas customs. With me a custom I have acquired in recent years, due to our Slovenian community, is "Sveta Noč." That is a CD sung by the Christmas Choir of St. Vitus Parish, in the Slovenian Church of St. Mary, Collinwood, a joint effort of two of our Slovenian parishes in Cleveland. I purchased my CD at St. Vitus rectory, and the CD has 18 songs listed on its jacket, with all of the words printed in Slovenian on the jacket. You can sing along.

Although a Christmas CD, it remains in the glove compartment of my car all year. During the hot summer, as I speed down the country roads of Ohio, past corn, wheat and cattle, with windows rolled up and my air-conditioning blasting away, this music is soothing and enjoyable, except when "Silent Night" starts to play. It is one of my favorite Christmas songs. Corn, wheat and heat just don't jive with that song, but is quickly fixed with a flick of the advance to the next song. Every problem has an answer, if you have an advance button.

Another Christmas custom in our house is "Christmas shopping." My wife Therese DOES, and I DON'T. About a week before Christmas, I start practicing saying, "Thank you," for the gifts I receive. But my biggest thank you is to my shopping spouse, who sets me adrift from this lousy chore of shopping for Christmas gifts. I don't see any of the gifts until Christmas. We have a happy marriage because of three words that I recognize: Therese is superior in "Cooking," "Baking," and "Shopping."

Our family custom is to spend Christmas Eve with our children and grandchildren, a true blessing from God. I pray your celebration will also be enjoyable and a true blessing to you. Please pray for our troops on Christmas Day, which can be lonely when away.

Merry Christmas to each of you, and a Happy and Blessed New Year.

Rev. Joe Cerne passes away

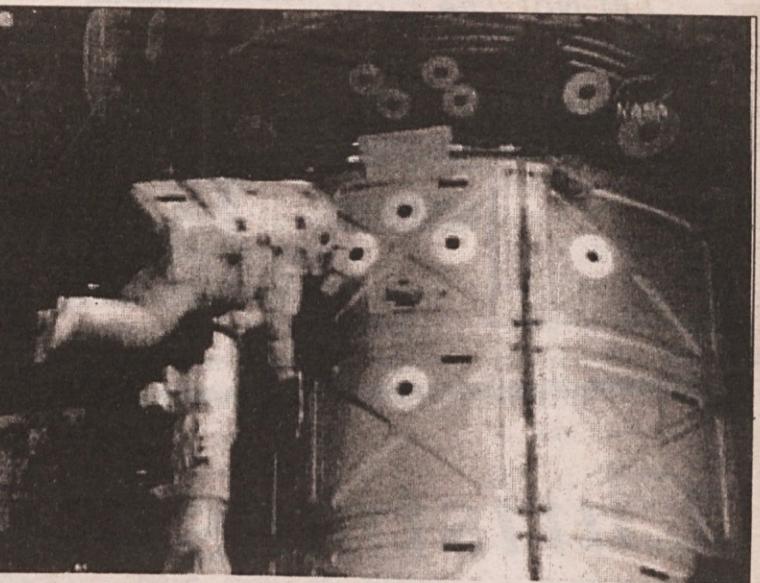

by Jim Debevec

Rev. Joseph Cerne, pastor of St. Peter Church in Ljubljana, was found dead in a hotel room in Los Angeles on Monday, Dec. 11 at 3:15 p.m.

Father Cerne was known to many Clevelanders when he was in residence in St. Mary's Church in the Collinwood section of Cleveland while he was a student at John Carroll University working on his Master's Degree.

Father Cerne was especially helpful during the Cleveland Bishop Baraga Labor Day weekend in 1998 and was one of the guiding members of the Cleveland Baraga Committee. At the time bishop (now Cardinal) Dr. France Rode made his first appearance in Cleveland and Father Cerne served as his chauffeur and helped coordinate his visit.

On a visit to the American Home during the planning stages of the Baraga festivities, Father Cerne came into the office and announced the engine of the old car he was using had broken. I told him to take my car and we would get a ride home from our Slovenian editor, Dr. Susel, then use our other car until Fr. Cerne could find a replacement.

In this image from NASA Television, flight engineer Sunita Williams is seen during a space walk Saturday, Dec. 16 to reconfigure the wiring on the International Space Station. Slovenian-American Sunita Williams joined an elite group of eight other female space-walkers.

that the entire engine had fallen out and was lying on the street. He was still a student, and helping out at the parish and needed a car for transportation. I told him to take my car and we would get a ride home from our Slovenian editor, Dr. Susel, then use our other car until Fr. Cerne could find a replacement.

Later Fr. Cerne transferred to St. Rose parish on the west side of Cleveland. At his graduation and farewell party, during his sermon, he thanked Madeline and myself for helping him out during his emergency. We were quite surprised and proud of his nice remembrance.

Father Cerne loved to travel and led a group of Clevelanders to the Holy Land and various other places. During his travels he visited Australia, and even spent a two week vacation as a chaplain on a U.S. aircraft carrier thanks to help from Admiral Ron Zlatoper.

There are not many Slovenian communities in the U.S. and the world that Fr. Cerne did not visit and make friends.

May he rest in peace.

CHRISTMAS 2006

A TIME OF HOPE - AMERICAN STYLE

Yours truly was all set to write about his best Christmas long time ago, when a strange e-mail message from a distant acquaintance arrived in the evening of December 9, 2006. Subject line read as follows: "Wounded Cop on ABC Sunday Night", followed by a comment... "Below is article about what looks like must-see TV". The story was one that has sadly been repeated too many times on American TV and written about in newspapers: "There are moments...when the very best of mankind comes into sudden, violent conflict with its very worst." The article narrated a sad story of a female Los Angeles police officer who was shot in the process of making an arrest and was paralyzed from the chest down. But this story was different...just in time for Christmas. ABC on their weekly show, Extreme Makeover-Home Edition, was to feature the work of 1500 volunteers who worked around the clock to build a house for this wounded policewoman. In a span of seven days, during October, 2006, volunteers demolished her family's house and built a new home suitable for her rehabilitation, so she could continue to be a wife, sharing her home with a loving husband who was also a police officer, as well as being a caring mother to their 20-month-old daughter. You could not watch the show with dry eyes. It was a true story and it bolstered my belief that good will triumph over evil and miracles do happen. Despite all the low-life reality shows, despite all the bad news, there are still good people that make good things happen. It was comforting to hear both the victim as well as her husband repeatedly saying "oh my God, I can't believe this", as they saw the beauty created by caring people. The miracle of Christmas and the hope that Christmas brings to those that believe, were captured on TV and undoubtedly changed many viewer's lives as a result. A Merry Christmas and Vesel Božič to all the readers of American Home!

Bishop Visits St. Vitus Church

Cleveland Bishop Richard Lennon has informed St. Vitus parish that he would like to visit them on Saturday, Dec. 23 at the 4:00 p.m. Vigil Mass. The bishop will be the principal celebrant and homilist at the Mass.

The bishop realizes he has given the parish short notice of his visit, therefore, there will not be a formal reception of Bishop Lennon in the hall as is the custom, but he would like to meet parishioners upon leaving the church.

All parishioners and members of the various parish clubs are asked to attend this Mass and meet Bishop Richard Lennon.

Joze in Marinka Lah

Hi, ho, hi, ho, it's off to Phil Hrvatin's house we go.

Christmas – that magic blanket that wraps itself about us, that something so intangible that it is like a fragrance. It may weave a spell of nostalgia. Christmas may be a day of feasting, or of prayer, but always it will be a day of remembrance – a day in which we think of everything we have ever loved. –Phil Hrvatin

Mlakar Walks Down Memory Lane

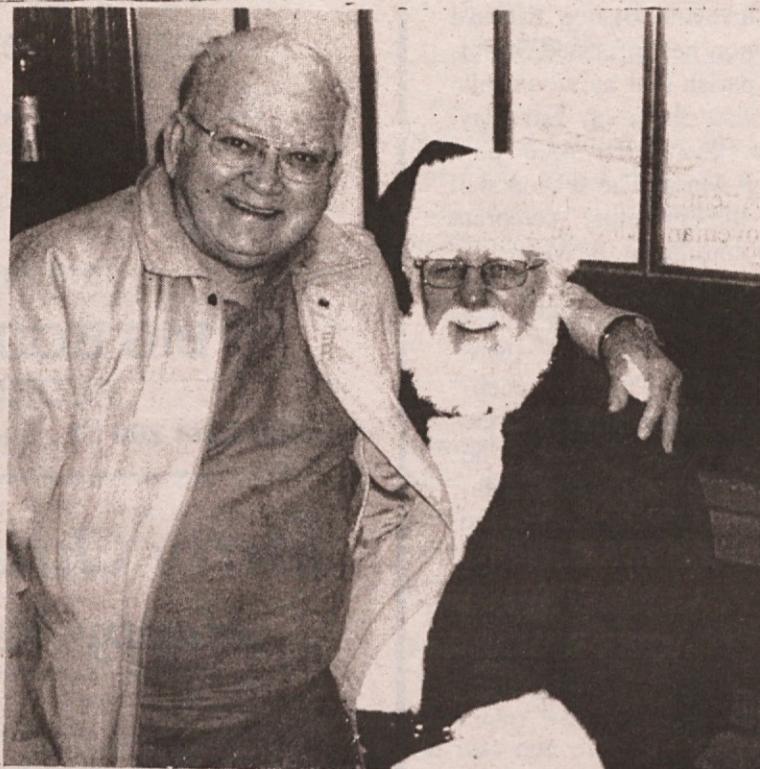

by RAY MLAKAR

Well, I am back for the time being and needless to say missed all of you. Before I go on, I want to thank Connie Ohman and her mom for remembering me in their prayers at church as well as the Cashen family in North Madison, and the many other American Home readers. It goes without saying that prayers can do wonders. Won't cover all the medical problems I have been having, but it seems every time I see the doctor, it is something new and Ray is always first in line to catch it.

My family kept saying, "Get out and go someplace; try to forget your problems." But at times it is easier said than done, for it seems that pain follows you everywhere. But I did take their advice and went to the KSKJ Hay Ride at Mapleside Farms on the 24th of September and had a great time. I really think it will be my last time on a hay wagon unless they build an escalator for old dudes like me. Got my fill of hot dogs, cider and marshmallows for this was one outing that Ray was not watching his sugar intake. Knowing Ray, he never watches any kind of intake.

Then on Saturday, 30 Sept., got a formal invite to attend Joe Snyder's Birthday Bash which was held at their place in Sagamore Hills, and they also invited my sister Eleanor to come. I really have to admire the Snyder family for a lot of the sons and daughters all live next to one another, and their daughter Josette had recently bought a farm a few doors away from Mom and Dad. The so-called birthday party or Western Hoe Down as they called it, was held at the barn. I was really in western country there. Joe Snyder was telling me how the grandkids were working on the barn all week, hosing it down and needless to say, the place was spotless. It goes without saying that the grandchildren are kids that folks can only dream about having, for they go all-out to make everyone is comfortable. One thing I got to admit those grandkids and their parents can really do western dancing and I t' ought I was at the "Grand Olde Opry."

The main course was furnished by Joe and Josie Snyder which was Good Old Slovenian Smoked Sausage and breaded boneless chicken. All guests brought side dishes which were in abundance. If George W. Bush could have eaten there, he would never have to have another meal at the White House. They had wheel barrels full of ice loaded with pop and beer.

I decided to leave at 4:30 p.m., for it is quite a drive from Parma Heights to Sagamore Hills, and then I also had to drop my sister off in Walton Hills, for I don't like driving in the dark since I don't have my new glasses yet and my seeing-eye dog was not with me. Too bad "Happy Harry," my Carin Terrier was not there for with all that food, especially since it did not come from Purina Co. bag, he would think he had died and gone to doggie heaven.

Joe Snyder was hoping we would have stayed longer for he had a three piece country western band coming to play in the Big Barn. Gosh, how I wish I could have stayed for next to Slovenian polka music, country western is my next favorite, but then all good things have to come to an end.

I might add that Josie Kmet, our KSKJ Secretary, was there and congratulations are in order for her, for she finally got her "New Addition," a new kitten, a six-week-old that is always curled up on her lap or her mom's lap. No one knows the love of a pet until they have one.

Well, time I start to bring this column to an end or it might end up like a book, but before I sign off, time for Ray's joke of the season or so-called "Come Back" joke. Anyway, this woman, middle age, a young widow at that, and just turning 50, and she went to the hospital for more or less exploratory surgery to insure she was doing well on the inside. The doc operated and as she was coming out of anesthesia, the doctor looked at her and said, "Ann, everything on the inside is great; took out a few small gall stones, but that was it." He said, "Ann you have the inside of an 18-year-old, and I estimate that you should be around for another 50 years." Ann was delighted. She said, "Doc, in that case, put me back under with a lipo suction, get rid of all the fat, do a firm tummy tuck and also do a complete face lift, get rid of all the wrinkles, give me back my eye brows again and remove all the gray hair and replace them with new dark hair implants." The doctor went ahead and did everything.

Ann left the hospital and walking across the street she was hit by a car and struck dead. Appearing before God, she said, "How could you let me die when I was only 50 years old?"

God said, "Oh, is that you,, Ann? Sorry, I didn't recognize you."

Well, with that, in closing, May the Good Lord Bless and Watch over all of you and remember to kneel down and thank the Good Lord for yesterday and today, for tomorrow is not promised.

St. Vitus Church - Cerkev Sv. Vida

Dear Parishioners:

The beginning of our redemption from sin and death, Christmas Day, is only a few days hence. The entire Advent Season speaks of God's unrelenting love for each and every person, and of His persistent invitation to each man and woman to accept the ultimate gift, the gift of Love itself. Christmas Day is for this reason a day of giving and receiving, and a day of gratitude for all Christians, who in faith understand the tremendous gift God has bestowed on the world in the birth of His Son, Jesus Christ.

Since God has given His very dearest gift to us, are we prepared to do what we can and must do in order to receive this great gift on Christmas Day?

It is our prayer that the light of Christ's presence within you will bring peace and happiness to you and your loved ones during this Holy Season and every day of the coming year 2007. May it also bring peace among the nations of the world and a loving remembrance of our men and women serving in the armed forces abroad.

Dragi Farani,

Začetki našega odrešenja, prazniki Gospodovega rojstva, so pred vrti. Adventni čas nas opozarja na izredno božjo ljubezen do slehernega človeka in njegovem nenehnem pozivu vsem ljudem, naj sprejmejo ta največji dar Njegove ljubezni - Ljubezen samo. Božični prazniki so prav zaradi tega prazniki darovanja in prejemanja ter hvaležnosti za vse kristjane, ki v veri dojemajo ta izredni dar, katerega je Bog svetu podelil z rojstvom svojega Sina Jezusa Kristusa.

Ker nam je Bog podelil ta predragoceni dar, ali smo pripravljeni sprejeti Ga na Sveti dan, kakor zaslubi?

Zelimo in molimo, da bi luč Kristusove navzočnosti v vas prinašala vam in vsem vašim dragim mir in srečo v tem svetem času in vsak dan v prihodnjem letu 2007.

JEAN KURILICH

Jean Kurilich, nee Petric, passed away on Nov. 20, 2006 at Kaiser Hospital in Fontana, California.

She was born in Hudjonec in Slovenia on Dec. 27, 1916. In 1937 she was able to join her mother Frances and siblings Frances Kovacic, John Petric, and Joseph Petric, all residing in Cleveland, Ohio with their families. Her father, John, died in World War I.

In 1941 she married Sam Kurilich in St. Vitus Church. Because of an Ameriška Domovina ad for stone masons needed at Kaiser Steel in Fontana, California, her life changed dramatically. While still in Cleveland, Sam was hired in 1951. They left Cleveland with their two young children, Victor and Frances.

The decades that followed were filled with activity: tending to family, home, and garden; working to build the KSKJ Hall, and baking strudels that became so well known in the area that people, including Fontana's first mayor, personally requested them. She was also very active in the Slovenian Women's Union.

November 15 was Sam and Jean's 65th Wedding Anniversary. The night before, however, she became quite ill and did not recover. She leaves her husband Sam, daughter Frances, and son-in-law Dick Reichelderfer. Her son Victor died in 1971. While her older siblings have passed away, two of their spouses remain: Mrs. John (Mary) Petric and Mrs. Joseph (Mamie) Petric. Although living at a distance, Jean's nieces and nephews and their families have always been close to her. Annie Zerbian of New York; John Petric, Jr. (deceased), Cooky (Mary Joyce) Buchanan, Barbara Kuzma, Tim Petric, Veronica Petric, and Rudy Petric; Joseph Petric, Jr., Jerry Petric, and Michele Pizada.

Viewing and rosary were held at Ingold Chapel in Fontana. On Nov. 27 Mass was held at St. George's Catholic church followed by interment at Green Acres Memorial Park in Bloomington. Family and friends gathered at Spires Restaurant in Fontana afterward to celebrate this very special woman's life.

FRANCES J. KIKEL

Frances J. Kikel (nee Spek), age 92.

Dear wife of Charles (deceased); loving mother of Kenneth (Barbara), Kathleen, Linda and James (Debbie); grandmother of Jeffery Kikel; sister of Louis and Frank (both deceased).

Friends were received at Zele Funeral Home, 452 E. 152 St., Friday, Dec. 15 from 2-4 and 6-8 p.m., where services were held on Saturday, Dec. 16 at 9 a.m. and at St. Vitus Church at 10 a.m. Interment All Souls Cemetery.

Donations to a charity of your choice in her memory would be deeply appreciated by the family.

JANE J. STINCIC

Jane L. Stincic, age 78.

Beloved wife of the late George J.; loving mother of Keith (Darlene), Dale (Mona), and Claudia (Dale) Klisuric; sister of Donald Kingsmill.

Family suggests contributions to St. Jude Children's Hospital, P.O. Box 2132, Memphis, TN 38101-2132.

Funeral services at the funeral home was on Thursday, Dec. 14 at 10 a.m. Interment in All Souls Cemetery. Friends called at the Brickman-DiDonato Funeral Home, 21900 Euclid Ave. from 3-7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 13.

FRANK MIHELIN

Frank Mihelin, age 87, former owner of Mihelin Travel Service on St. Clair.

Beloved husband of Martha (nee Vranesic) (deceased); dear father of Neda (deceased), Christine Mihelin-Kos (Marin) and Edward (Nancy); grandfather of Marin, Neven, Erica, Alina, Clarissa and Mark.

Friends were received at Schulte & Mahon-Murphy Funeral Home from 4-8 on Sunday, Dec. 17.

Funeral Mass was on Monday, Dec. 18 at 9:30 a.m. at St. Gregory the Great Church in South Euclid. Interment in All Souls Cemetery.

Contributions appreciated to Hospice of the Western Reserve, 300 E. 185 St., Cleveland, OH 44119, the Slovene Home for the Aged, 18621 Neff Road, Cleveland, OH 44119, or a charity of your choice.

Arrangements by Golub Funeral Home (216) 391-0357.

Small World

Editor,

Not too long ago I stopped at my mailbox, just before heading to Florida for a long weekend. The current edition of the American Home had just arrived. I figured to take it along on the trip and read it later when I had more time. That evening I began reading the edition that contained the article about the former St. Vitus teacher Sister Merita and two of her favorite students.

Turns out that Sister Merita lives in Dunedin, Florida and her church is only a hop, skip and jump from my place. I figured to give her a call and a heads up on the nice article.

Long story short, I gave her the article and then discovered she also taught at Elyria St. Mary's where my wife attended school. Small world and thanks to the A.H. for the fine article.

John Žakelj Sends Greetings

Editor,

Although it usually takes a couple of weeks for the American Home to get to Minnesota, I still enjoy reading it. During the past year, it's been very interesting to read the personal and family stories of so many other readers. I hope my father's work had something to do with getting others interested in writing about their own families. Those stories are great treasures and it's wonderful that you've helped so many people preserve those treasures.

Thanks again for publishing the Ameriška Domovina. We wish you the best for Christmas and in the coming year.

Sincerely,
--John Žakelj

Good Wishes

Editor,

When our copy of the American Home is delivered, it is the first piece of mail that we read and on the few weeks a year that it is not, it is really missed, but we thank you for all the other weeks a year that it is published.

Many good wishes to all of you for a very Merry Christmas along with the very healthiest of New Years.

Suni Williams: 3rd Slovenian Astronaut

by Prof. Edward Gobetz, Ph.D.

Astronaut Suni, or Sunita, Williams is the third known Slovenian American astronaut and the first Slovenian woman astronaut. She follows the great scientific adventure of her Slovenian predecessors, Dr. Ronald Sega and Dr. Jerry Linenger. Have you noticed the gender parallel with our currently serving Slovenian U.S. Senators, Tom Harkin and George Voinovich and the recently elected woman senator Amy Klobuchar?

Have you also noticed the very appropriate remarks by Dr. Rudolph Susel, the Slovenian editor of Ameriška Domovina, following the publication of my article on Amy? As he underscored, after January 3, 2007, three percent of U.S. senators of (partly) Slovenian ancestry will serve in the U.S. Senate, while the proportion of Slovenians in the U.S. population of about 300 million is much smaller. Indeed, according to our calculations, Americans of Slovenian descent represent slightly less than two-tenths of one percent! Continue the parallel with about 100 seasoned American astronauts and you can see how surprisingly well we are represented also among the U.S. space elite.

The astronaut Suni (her family and friends call her Sunny) is an exceptional, unusual lady, now 41 years young. Even her family origin is somewhat unusual. While she hails from Euclid, Ohio, she spent most of her youth in Massachusetts. Her mother, Bonnie Zalokar, a health professional, married Dr. Deepak Pandya, a prominent Indian immigrant researcher and professor at Harvard and Boston universities. The family lived in Needham, a small town not far from Boston and Harvard. Now, should we research people just by their last names (even if we forget that Resniks are also found among the Polish, Jews and numerous Koreans are Norwegian), how could anyone make even a wild guess on the basis of Suni's maiden surname. Pandya, or of her last name by marriage, Williams, that she could be of Slovenian descent?

This is where Sveti Miklavz, or the good old St. Nick, helped us out. It was on his feast day, December 6th, 2006 that Jenny May's most interesting article became the front page news in The News Herald, a daily newspaper published in Mentor, Ohio. Jenny reported that Suni is a member of the crew of seven astronauts, waiting to enter space on the space shuttle Discovery. But here is the news of vital importance to Slovenians: "Williams' aunt, Mary Ann Zalokar Okicki of Mentor, has created a care package for Williams that includes letters, smoked sausage from Azman Meats in Euclid, and Euclid Beach popcorn balls."

Now continue to read most carefully, "We are of Slovenian background and so we thought she would like that... They allowed the families to put together packages for the crew. We are pretty sure it's a surprise and they will open them around Christmas," states Mrs. Okicki, a most interesting lady who also told me that her sister Bonnie and niece Suni had already visited Slovenia (as did Mrs. Okicki herself) and of course, they also like Azman's "kranjske klobase." Indeed, both parents of Bonnie are Slovenian Americans. The Zalokar and Okicki families love their Slovenian heritage and music and were quite in the Slovenian community. Thanks to Mrs. Okicki, who has a degree in education from St. John's College in Cleveland and is known for her wit and humor and thanks to Jenny May of The News Herald. Suni has now become a celebrity also among Slovenians in America, as well as in Slovenia and other countries where Slovenians have settled.

Many Slovenians are, of course, aware that other symbols of Slovenian identity had also been in orbit. As reported in the Slovenian translation of Dr. Linenger's fascinating book V vesolju (Off the Planet), published in 2002 by the Družina Publishers in Ljubljana, Dr. Linenger invited the writer of this article to send him she studied and worked even harder and was accepted into the NASA training program in 1998. Like her two Slovenian predecessors, she trained in both the United States and in Russia where she also mastered the Russian language.

As a member of STS-116 crew of seven astronauts, she started, on December 9, 2006, her long trip from the Kennedy Space Center in Florida to the International Space Station – the most ambitious space project operated by USA, Russia, Canada, Brazil, Japan, and 11 nations of the European Union. The Space Station, four times the size of Mir, is a project in the making, by now about 60% complete. Of the entire Discovery crew only Suni will remain on the Space Station for the extended period of six months.

As a flight engineer she will first work with the Discovery crew on replacing the solar energy panels and the rewiring of the entire electrical system, and walk in space, an extremely complex and demanding task. Subsequently, she will also be working as a science officer of the station where she will be responsible for testing the blood, as well as bone density of all three space station crew members, and analyzing the influence of physical exercise and nutrition on reducing the inevitably diminishing bone density due to long-term weightlessness in space.

The spirit of Christmas fulfills the greatest hunger of mankind. –Ray Mlakar

How Sweet It Is at Rezonja Winery

SONOMA, CALIF. -- Merry Christmas from Rezonja Wine Cellars.

Another season has passed. The vines are resting for the winter, but not before they produced an abundance of very flavorful - amazingly sweet grapes for the 2006 harvest.

This year I made Merlot - Dry Rosé. It will be much lighter than red Merlot as the grapes were harvested at only 22 brix (sugar level). The yield was three tons - much less than my Cabernet Sauvignon production. I hope to have it available by the first of the year.

On the other spectrum of "sweetness" or "brix," we purposely left some Merlot grapes (again about three tons) to hang on the vines thru the end of October to force the sugars to go to stratospheric levels. Why? To make a late harvest wine: Merlot Port. Both of these ventures are new experiences this year and I hope with proficient results.

Of course my big production is Cabernet Sauvignon. We harvested two days in a row. - the Mexican crew, family and friends - we literally picked the fruit from the vines and into the crusher / dis-stemer and to the fermentation tanks - each batch within 20 minutes. You can not get any fresher than that. We had grapes everywhere - what a sweet life.

I am proud to say that my 2003 Cabernet Sauvignon took a Bronze medal at the Sonoma Harvest Fair this year. It's very rewarding to have your work appreciated by others.

With the grapes gone, the vineyard becomes noticeably quieter. A sigh of relief is almost heard. And the tired bones and sore muscles can take a break - a very SHORT break.

I wish everyone a blessed and peace filled Christmas season. I look forward to any e-mails:

stevovino@comcast.net.

Please also check out my website www.rwc.com. I can ship my wine directly to your home, so if you would like to stock up for the holidays - please let me know. I can also accept fax orders 707-431-1449.

"The kiss of sun for pardon, the song of the birds for mirth; one is closer to God in a vineyard, than anywhere else on earth."

Želim vam vsem Blagoslovjen Božič ter zdravje, srečo in veselje v novem letu 2007.

Palčinka Breakfast

The St. Mary Slovenian School will host a palčinka breakfast on Sunday, January 7 from 8:30 to 12 noon at the parish center.

The egg, sausage and crepe breakfast is $7 for adults and $4 for children.

The event is a fundraiser for the school's upcoming trip to Slovenia.

Joys & Blessings

Thanks to Ani and Helen Hočevar of Willoughby Hills for the $20.00 Christmas donation in memory of John Hočevar. On a beautiful card, they wrote by hand, "Dear friends at Ameriška Domovina. With Christmas almost here we recall once again the many joys and blessings God has given so generously.

"We consider the Slovenian paper and all the work you put into this effort one of those 'Joys and Blessings.' We look forward to each and every paper to bring good news, great articles and listings of upcoming events. Most of all, it helps us to keep in touch with our rich Slovenian heritage, culture and (in my mother's case) beloved homeland. Thank you for your continued work and loyalty to such a worthwhile 'gift' to our Slovenian community. Best wishes to all of you for a Blessed and Joy-filled Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New year. (signed) Ani and Helen Hočevar."

In Memory

Thanks to Jacquelyn Delost of Wickliffe, Ohio who renewed her subscription and added a $40.00 donation in memory of Joseph and Margaret Delost (father and mother), and Tony and Mary Delost (uncle and aunt).

Advantages of Being Over 65

Kidnappers are not very interested in you.

You have a party and the neighbors don't even know.

In a hostage situation you are likely to be released first.

You quit trying to hold your stomach in, no matter who walks into the room.

No one expects you to run into a burning building.

You sing along with the elevator music.

People call at 10 a.m. and ask, "Did I wake you?"

Your investment in health insurance is finally beginning to pay off.

There is nothing left to learn the hard way.

Things you buy now won't wear out.

You can eat dinner at 4 p.m.

You enjoy hearing about other people's operations.

Your secrets are safe with your friends because they can't remember them either.

Thanks to Emma Pogacar for this bit of humor.

American Home benefactor will again pay $15.00 toward any NEW subscription. The American Home will add $5.00, and the new reader need only contribute $15.00.

The campaign is limited to the first 30 respondents. So far, 26 new readers signed up. Campaign ends on Dec. 30.

Send $15.00 for every new subscription to American Home, 6117 St. Clair Ave., Cleveland, OH 44103-1627. Remember subscriptions make wonderful Christmas gifts. The recipient will recall your generosity all year through each time the American Home arrives in their mailbox.

An American Home gift subscription is also a good way to perpetuate your wonderful Slovenian heritage. There are many Slovenian-Americans who have no knowledge of their Slovenian roots. The American Home is an excellent way to transmit that information.

Be sure to include the recipient's name and address.

Concert of Sacred Songs

The St. Vitus Christmas Choir will perform its annual "Concert of Sacred Songs" on Saturday, Dec. 30 in St. Vitus Church, 6019 Lausche Avenue, Cleveland at 5:30 p.m., which follows the 4 p.m. Mass.

The choir consists of nearly 60 singers who are able to sing in multiple languages of English, Slovenian, Latin, and Italian.

The St. Vitus Christmas Choir is under the direction of John Sršen. Accompanying the choir will be string musicians (violin, viola, and cello) as well as the organist who will play the church's historic Holtkamp organ.

The St. Vitus Christmas Choir has been presenting the "Concert of Sacred Songs" for more than 25 years. Compositions such as "Hallelujah Chorus," "And The Glory," and "Glory to God," "Ave Maria," "Božji Nam je Rojen Sin" (Born Unto Us Is His Son) (composed by Ivan Zupan, "Polnočni Zvon" (The Midnight Bell) (composed by Fr. Bricelj) are some of the more familiar songs that have been performed in past concerts.

The concert is free with free-will offering. A social will follow the concert in the parish auditorium. Light food and refreshments will be provided as well as secured parking.

St. Vitus church is located one block of East 61st Street and St. Clair Avenue and is easily acceptable off E. 55th exit of I-90.

A professional recording by the St. Vitus Christmas Choir is available in cassette or CD formats. It is titled "Sveta Noč," (Holy Night). Interested persons may contact Mrs. JoAnne Celestina at (216) 486-1973 or mail $10 (cassette) or $15 (CD) to J. Celestina, 2010 E. 233 St., Euclid, OH 44117.

MORNING NEWSPAPER

– Vesti iz Slovenije –

Duhovnik Jože Černe nenadno umrl v Los Angelesu – Nekaj časa služil v Clevelandu – Vse podrobnosti ob tem poročanju še niso na razpolago

Msgr. Franci Petrič, odgovorni urednik tedenika Družina v Ljubljani in hkrati naš dober znanec, nam je v e-mailu potrdil, da je duhovnik g. Jože Černe mrtev. G. Černe, ki je služil nekaj časa v Clevelandu, je imel številne prijatelje in znance v tem mestu, v zadnjem času, po vrnitvi v Slovenijo, pa je bil župnik pri Sv. Petru v Ljubljani. Rad je potoval in je tudi vodil več skupin na potovanja, tudi v Svetlo deželo.

Kakor nam je potrdil msgr. Petrič, je bil g. Černe najden 11. decembra popoldne ob 3.15 v svoji hotelski sobi v mestu Los Angeles, to ko je v sobo prišla soberica. Pisal je, da truplo ni kazalo znakov nasilja – g. Černe naj bi bil star le 42 let –, da pa v Ljubljani še čakajo na policijsko poročilo oziroma na izid obdukcije iz Los Angelesa. Ko bo izšla naslednja AD 4. januarja 2007, upamo in pričakujemo, da bo mogoče posredovati več konkretnejših podatkov.

Torontski nadškof kardinal Alojzij Ambrožič baje gre v pokoj

Kmalu pred zaključitvijo redakcije smo dobili telefonski klic od s. Elizabete iz severne Minnesota, ki je aktivna pri Baragovi zadevi, da je papež Benedikt XVI. sprejel prošnjo torontskega nadškofa kardinala Alojzija Ambrožiča za upokojitev. Kardinal Ambrožič bo prihodnji mesec imel svoj 77. rojstni dan, tako da je po pravilih že pred skoro dvema letoma podal obvezno prošnjo za upokojitev takratnemu papežu Janezu Pavlu II. Po veljavnih pravilih bo mogel kardinal Ambrožič ostati kot eden volivcev novega papeža – če bi do te potrebe prišlo – še tri leta, torej do svojega 80. rojstnega dne.

Drugi kardinal slovenskega rodu, bivši ljubljanski nadškof in metropolit dr. Franc Rode, ki sedaj služi na izredno visokem mestu v Vatikanu, ima 73 let, rojen je bil septembra 1934.

Dokončna potrditev o upokojitvi kardinala Ambrožiča bo tudi morala čakati na našo naslednjo številko, kajti je bilo treba redakcijo zaključiti za natis in dostavo te številke že pred božičem, to posebej zaradi težav, ki jih je za mnoge naše naročnike utrpela naša prejšnja številka. Na pošti so se izgovarjali zaradi preobilice paketov in druge pošte in premalo uslužencev v tej božični sezoni.

Po burni razpravi v Državnem zboru Janez Drobnič (NSi) razrešen

Premier Janez Janša je uspel v svoji odločitvi za zamenjavo svojega ministra za delo, družino in socialne zadeve, to kljub temu, da Drobnič ni hotel odstopiti. Zadeva je prišla pred Državni zbor in je nastala burna razprava, izid pa je bil pričakovani: Drobničev razrešitev je podprlo kar 59 poslancev, za njega je glasovalo le 7.

Zadnja stvar za Janšo je bila Drobničeva početje v zvezi s strategijo za povečanje rodnosti. V svojem nastopu je Janša rekel, da "čeprav je minister vedel, da se je koalicija na začetku mandata dogovorila, da se te teme ne dotika," jo je Drobnič samovoljno dal v javnost kot projekt svojega ministrstva in tako tudi vlade. To je pa bilo nedopustno za vlado in za Janšo.

KARAVANA PREBRISANIH – Pred nedavnim je na povabilo evropskega komisarja za pravosodje, svobodo in varnost obiskala Bruselj Karavana t. i. "izbrisanih". Gre za tiste prebivalce Slovenije, ki se ob osamosvojitvi države niso hoteli dokončno opredeliti za slovenske državljanje in so tako ostala brez tega državljanstva – zdaj bi pa prav radi postali oziroma bili smatrani za državljanje. Zdaj se ti nezadovoljnježni sklicujejo na Evropsko unijo in druge mednarodne ustanove, ki se brigajo za človečanske pravice itd. Na fotografiji so širje teh, drugi z leve je Aleksander Todorovič, ki naj bi bil eden glavnih predstavnikov te skupine. Ta je na gornji tiskovni konferenci povedal, da so v Bruslju naleteli na ugodno razpoloženje in da jim je celo bilo obljudljeno, da če zadeva v Sloveniji ne bo razrešena pravilno, njih bruseljski poslušalci bodo interverirali pri ustreznih institucijah Evropske unije, da Slovenija ne bo smela predsedovati EU v prvi polovici leta 2008. Dejstvo, da ima Slovenija trenutno težave tudi s svojo romsko skupnostjo, je "izbrisanim" prineslo le nekaj več pozornosti.

Škof Lennon pri sv. Vidu—

Novi clevelandski škof Richard Lennon bo imel svoj prvi pastoralni obisk pri sv. Vidu to soboto, 23. dec., pri sv. maši ob 4h pop. Škof želi, da bo obisk skromen, želi pa tudi osebni pogovor z župnikom in srečanje z verniki takoj po sv. maši. Farani in drugi rojaki vabljeni k udeležbi.

Prihodnjič v letu 2007—

To je zadnja številka AD v letošnjem letu, naslednja številka bo izšla v četrtek, 4. januarja, s katero bomo tudi začeli naše 109. leto.

Zajtrk s palačinkami—

Gotovo imate že koledarje za leto 2007. Zaznamujte nedeljo, 7. januarja, za zajtrk s palačinkami, ki ga bo imela Slovenska šola pri Mariji Vnebovzetji v novi dvorani med 8.30 in 12. opoldne. Vsi lepo vabljeni!

Podpora dobrotnikov AD—

Frances Kurilich Reichelderfer iz Los Angelesa je poklonila $300, to v spomin njene mati, Jean Kurilich. Klub upokojencev Slovenske pristave je podaril $50. Belokranjski klub je daroval $100. Isto vsoto je podaril naš priatelj John Dejak. Oltarno društvo fare sv. Vida je poklonilo $70. St. Vitus Alumni klub je daroval $50. Slovenska šola pri sv. Vidu je nam poslala $100. Ga. Mary Urbanic iz Euclida je podarila $50. Jože in Flora Jenko iz Euclida sta darovala $20, v spomin njunih staršev. Ga. Susan Giagzoglou iz Willoughbyja, O. je darovala $50, v imenu njenega očeta Naceta Omahen. Julka Zalar z Richmond Hts., O., je darovala $20, v spomin na moža Franka. Amalija Gregorc, tudi z Richmond Hts., je prav tako darovala $20. Najlepša hvala vsem!

Bog nam pošilja Odrešenika

O božiču se vsako leto spominjamo in v veri doživljamo zgodovinski dogodek, ko se je večna Beseda učlo-večila. Bog je tako ljubil svet, da je prišel med nas, človeka je povezal s Stvarnikom in zemljo z nebesi. Gospodar vsega je prišel k nam kot Odrešenik in nam je prinesel mir, srečo, luč, svobodo, spravo in ljubezen, zato nas vstopni spev pri polnočnici vabi k veselju: "Veselimo se vsi v Gospodu. Nocoj se nam je rodil Zveličar, z njim prihaja pravi mir na svet." Vendar pa mi doživljamo božič v drugačnih razmerah. V naši bližini in po nekaterih krajih sveta divja vojna, v mnoga srca sta se naselila strah in nemir, med ljudmi je veliko nasprotovanja, sumničenja, nerazumevanja, laži in žal tudi sovraštva; nekateri se prepričajo črnogledosti, ravnodušju in celo obupu. Kljub temu, da doživljamo takšne čase, se moramo zavedati, da je Kristus naš edini Odrešenik.

Ce bi bolj potrebovali vednost, bi nam Bog poslal vzgojitelja, ce bi bolj potrebovali denar, bi nam poslal bogataša, ce bi bolj potrebovali napredek, bi nam poslal znanstvenika, a ker najbolj potrebujemo odpuščanja, nam je poslal Odrešenika.

Da bo zavladal mir na zemlji in med narodi, moramo najprej priti do miru z Bogom. Kdor se ne zmeni za Boga in ne išče luči v njegovih zapovedih in v božji besedi, kdor sam sebi postavlja življenjske zakone, prinaša nemir vase in v medčloveške odnose. Prav gotovo je greh najgloblji vzrok različnih nemirov, sporov in vojn. Kristus nam je prinesel in s svojim odrešenjem zaslužil spravo in mir. spravo z Bogom, s seboj in s sočlovekom. Pri spravi pa mora človek tudi sam sodelovati. Žal je med ljudmi prav danes premalo pripravljenosti za sodelovanje z Bogom.

Pri svojem odrešenjskem delu se je Kristus zavzemal za uboge in nebogljene, za grešne, bolne in trpeče, za begunce in preganjane, prav posebno skrb in ljubezen pa je posvečal otrokom. K nam je prišel v podobi otroka. Govoril je: "Kdor sprejme katerega izmed takih otrok v mojem imenu, mene sprejme" (Mr 9,37). Kjer ni spoštovanja in ljubezni do otrok, do življenja, tam ni božiča. Otroci so sreča, bogastvo in božji dar staršem, narodu in Cerkvi. Za svojo vzgojo in rast potrebujejo zavetje, človeško toplino in gotovost. Imeti otroka, imeti več otrok pomeni pogosto socialno nazadovanje, neredko celo posmehovanje. Ta napačna in protizivljenjska miselnost se kaže prav v posebno velikem številu splavov. Žalujemo za žrtvami, ki so padle v vojni, ne žalujemo pa za nedolžnimi, nerojenimi otroki, ki so dan za dnem žrtve človekove stiske, sebičnosti in nespoštovanja svetosti življenja.

Kristjani smo poklicani, da se po Jezusovem zgledu in z njegovo pomočjo postavimo po robu takemu protizivljenjskemu razpoloženju z odločitvijo za življenje.

Novorojeni Odrešenik je Emanuel – Bog z nami. To je za nas veliko upanje.

Voščim v imenu slovenskih škofov blagoslovjen božič in v Bogu srečno novo leto.

ROJAKI IN ROJAKINJE V KANADI

piše ANICA RESNIK

NAŠE ŽIVLJENJE ...

TORONTO, Kanada – V oktobru po Zahvalni nedelji in tradicionalnih vinskih trgovah na naših letoviščih se narava odene v jesensko lepoto. Hladni vetrovi osipajo listje z drevesnih vej, po vrtovih zadnje cvetje umira in vrtnice otrešajo svoje dišeče šopke. Po hišah že bolj skrbno zapiramo okna, poiščemo jopice in dolge rokave... Vsak dan sonce pozneje vzhaja in nas zvečer zgodaj zapušča.

Takrat se naše družabno življenje nadaljuje v dvoranah in društvenih prostorih z novimi programi in prireditvami.

Letos 14. oktobra je to sezono začel odbor starostnega doma Lipa z banketom v dvorani Brezmadežne. Denarna sredstva so vedno potrebna za vzdrževanje te važne in potrebne slovenske ustanove, da si ohrani dobro ime za svoje karitativno delo.

1. in 2. novembra smo v naših cerkvah praznovali dan Vseh svetih in Vernih duš, obiskali grobove svojih dragih na torontskih pokopališčih, molili za njihov večni mir in prižigali svečo ob šopku svežih krizantem.

Angleška in ameriška tradicija praznovanja svetih – Halloween – odriva krščanski pomen teh dni, prav tako asimilacija in pluralna družba.

5. novembra je Klub starejših žena (Senior's Club) v Domu Lipa priredil vsakoletni bazar, z lepim uspehom. S prodajo čez leto izdelanih ročnih del, peciva, darov in srečk za žrebanje so za Dom Lipa zbrane in darovale $11,000, v tej vsoči je všetih $800 od delne prodaje zbirke foto-grafskih slik, ki jo je pokojni Zvone Hrastnik podaril Domu Lipa.

Isto nedeljsko popoldne smo hiteli v dvorano Brezmadežne na dobrodelni koncert – Talent Show – v pomoč Viktorijinem skladu (Victoria Fund), ki finančno pomaga slovenskim družinam telesno in duševno prizadetih otrok za kritje priporočkov in dodatne terapije, ki jih OWIP in druge agencije ne krijejo.

Ta akcija obstaja že več let. Uspeh je odvisen od radodarnosti plemenitih src.

V prostorni dvorani je skoraj zmanjkalno sedežev. Poslušali smo glasbenike: pianiste Brian Gracie, Tanya Krošel, Andy Pahulje, Yiena Tchernij, harmonikarje Vida Godina, Lydia Huber, Daniel Pezdič, Martin Pušič, Janez Smrekar, duet Matija Lebar in Erik Marinko, ki so nastopili solo ali spremljali pevce in plesalke.

Po kanadski himni in slovenski Zdravici je solistka Ani Sluga začela program s priljubljeno pesmijo ABBA skupine "I Have a Dream". Program so izpolnile pevke solistke Kristina Križan, Millie Muhič, Margaret Adamič, solist Danilo Vovk, plesalke (balet, jazz) Sara Hull, Diana Končan, Mackenzie Smrekar, pevska skupina Novi rod, družina Končan. Mehko odrsko osvetljavo je ustvaril Marjan Resnik. Program sta vodila Jožko Ovčjak in Rosie Stodulski.

Vsi ti mladi umetniki in umetnice v družbi po-sebne gostinje operne pevke Margarete Adamič so se predstavili s klasično, ljudsko in moderno glasbo, pesmijo in plesom, kar že dolgo ali morda nikdar nismo še občudovali na naših odrih.

Hvala gospa Mileni Soršak in njenim sodelavcem – Danilo in Helena Volk, Ani Sluga, Martin Pušič – ki so s tem koncertom po dolgem času v naši skupnosti spet zbrali in dali mladim talentom priljubljeno nastopa, obenem pa dokazali, da moremo dosegati velike uspehe s skupnim delom in idealizmom. Naj ta nova oblika kulturnega ustvarjanja postane nova tradicija na naših odrih!

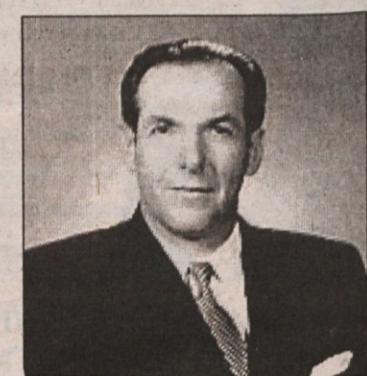

12. novembra je vokalna skupina Plamen pripravila koncert za svoje petnajstletnico v dvorani Brezmadežne, katerega je posebni gost iz Slovenije Mito Trefalt s svojim komičnim nastopom v vlogi Košnikovega ata še bolj poživel.

V programu beremo: "...leta 1991 so se štiri mlade Slovenke srečale z znano slovensko pevko Marijo Ahačič Pollak z namenom, da ustanovijo dekliško pevsko skupino. Ime Plamen naj pomeni njihovo ljubezen do slovenske kulture in pesmi, ki naj se z njihovim delom ohranja v novih rođavilih v Kanadi. Danes šteje skupina deset pevk, ki so večina že poročene

Slovesnost v spomin na primorske padalce

"Takih domoljubov nisem srečal po vsem svetu"

Škrbina — Pred slovensko ploščo na Faknovi domačiji v Škrbini je bila 10. novembra tradicionalna svečanost v spomin na primorske padalce, ki so jih Britanci med drugo svetovno vojno iz Afrike poslali kot radiotelegrafiste in diverzante za sovražnikove linije na slovensko ozemlje. Tu so se skoraj vsi pridružili partizanom, a jih je Ozna v svoji revolucionarni logiki kmalu prišela med sovražne agente in jih več tudi likvidirala.

Na slovesnosti v Škrbini, pred katero je vojaški duhovnik Milan Pregelj v domači cerkvi daroval sveto mašo za vse umrle za domovino, se je v sončnem, a mrzlem doppnevnu zbral veliko ljudi, pa tudi uglednih gostov, med katerimi so bili tudi ameriški, britanski in nizozemski veleposlanik. V oči je bodla še popolna odsotnost predstnikov slovenske države, če izvzamemo vojaško častno stražo.

Na zadnjih volitvah potrjeni komenski župan Uroš Slamič se je v uvodnem nagovoru poklonil mladim fantom, za katerimi se je v času slepe ideologije izgubila vsaka sled. Še vedno ni odgovora na vprašanje, zakaj so morali umreti in kje so pokopani, je ponudil Slamič.

Ne gre za iskanje krivcev, gre za izraz zahvale, ki smo ga dolžni ljudem, ki so svoje domoljubje plačali z najvišjo ceno. Treba je gojiti željo po resnici, tovrstne svečanosti morajo zveneti tudi kot poziv, da pomaga mojci na dan, je sklenil razmišljjanje žu-pan.

Eden izmed treh še živilih padalcev, Ciril Kobal, je opozoril na izredni mladostni žar domoljubja, ki je mlade iz Afrike gnal domov v boj za svobodo, tedanje oblasti pa so jih sprejeli z nezaupanjem.

Kobal je nato v grobni tišini prisotnih navedel podatke o padlih in izgnulih, ob koncu pa je spomnil na pozornost, ki jo je do padalcev izkazala država, ko je predsednik Kučan leta 1999 podelil vsem padalcem častni znak Republike Slovenije.

Predstavnik vodstva borčevske organizacije, nekdanji veleposlanik v Rimu Marko Kosin, je oživil spomin na čase, ko so se Primorci plebiscitarno odločali za boj proti okupatorju. Kritično pa je pripomnil, da bi ob pojavu padalcev in prekomorcev ne smeli ožiti spomin le na krivične smrti nekaterih.

Nikdar ne pozabimo na žrtev teh soborcev, ki so postavili tudi temeljni kamn za današnjo neodvisnost Slovenije, je v slovenščini in zelo dobro izgovorjavo podčrtal v svojem pozdravu ameriški veleposlanik Thomas Robertson.

Prav tako v zavidljivi slovenščini je pozdravil britanski veleposlanik Tim Simmons, ki je spomnil na uspešno sodelovanje med Veliko Britanijo in Slovenci v boju proti nacizmu, poleg tega pa je ponosno dejal, da je udeležba pri proslavi v Škrbini na seznamu uradnih letnih obveznosti britanskega veleposlanštva.

V Trstu živeči upokojeni angleški častnik in časnikar ter glavni pobudnik slovesnosti v Škrbini John Earle je v govoru — spet v lepi slovenščini — z občudovanjem priovedoval o padalcih in o tistih časih, ko se je slovenski narod uprl nacizmu.

Gradili so družbo mire, ki smo jo sicer pri nas dosegli, marsikje v svetu pa še ne, se je zamislil Earle in dodal, da so padalci svetel zgled idealizma in poštenosti, ki sta lahko še danes v poduk.

"Takih domoljubov nisem srečal po vsem svetu," je svoj krajši pozdrav končal nekdanji član ameriške misije v Sloveniji Bob Plan, ki tudi živi v Trstu.

Že dan pred slovesnostjo v Škrbini je bilo v Kulturnem domu v Komnu javno srečanje z nekdanjim padalcem in partizanom Stanislavom Simčičem, ki je avgusta, za svojo 90-letnico, v samozaložbi izdal knjigo spominov Mojih 90 let.

O avtorju in knjigi sta spregovorila župan Uroš Slamič in časnikar Ivo Jevnikar, sam jubilant pa je z zavidljivo dobrim spominom in živahnostjo lepemu številu udeležencev obnovil svojo življensko pot in junaško ter tragično zgodbo padalcev.

V ljubeč spomin in zahvalo

Užaloščeni, a vdani v božjo voljo, naznanjam, da nas je 13. septembra 2006 nenadoma zapustila naša ljuba mama, stara in prastara mama

Agnes (Neža) Jerin

Pokojna je bila rojena 17. aprila 1911 v vasi Golice Zgornji Tuhinj. V Ameriko je prišla leta 1949.

Pogreb je bil iz Želetovega pogrebnega zavoda v soboto, 16. septembra, v cerkev Marije Vnebovzete, nato s pokopom na pokopališču Vernih duš na Chardonu, Ohio.

Iskreno se zahvaljujemo častitemu g. John Kumšetu za molitve rožnega venca skupno s članicami Oltarnega društva, za obred v pogrebnem zavodu, za sv. mašo in ganljiv nagovor v cerkvi ter za spremstvo in molitve na pokopališču. Enaka hvala gre prisotnim duhovnikom č. gg. J. Božnar in V. Cimperman.

Topla zahvala Anici Nemeč za molitve v imenu društva Sv. Jožefa št. 169 KSKJ. Prav prisrčna hvala osebju Želetovega pogrebnega zavoda za vso naklonjenost in tako sočutno vodstvo pogreba ob tej težki uri.

Zelo smo hvaležni cerkvenemu zboru in gostom, ki so se mu pridružili, za tako ubranbo petje med sv. mašo. Posebna hvala pevkam ob krsti na pokopališču za tako ganljivo pesem.

Iz srca smo hvaležni vsem, ki so se prišli posloviti od pokojne v tako lepem številu, za velikodušne darove za sv. maše in vse dobre namene, za izraze sožalja in za lepo cvetje; za udeležbo pri sv. maši in spremstvo naše drage prav do groba. Bov Vam vsem obilno poplačaj za vse. Toplo zahvalo naj prejme Ameriške Domovina za objavo smrti. Hvaležni smo tudi Radijski družini in Tone Ovseniku za objavo in žalostnike na svojih oddajah.

Posebna hvala Milki, Mari in Anici in vsem strežnicam za okusno pripravljeno kosilo in hitro postrežbo. Hvala pa tudi vsem za toliko dobrega peciva. Naj Vam ljubi Bog povrne.

Poslali smo vsem zahvalne kartice, če je pa kdo po pomoti ni prejel, pa prav njemu velja za naša zahvala.

Ljuba mama, stara mama in prastara mama, naj Ti bo lahka ameriška zemlja. Duša Tvoja naj v nebesih raj uživa in Ti prosi za nas, da se nekoč združimo v nebesih.

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1597. Zopet je sestra smrt prišla na obisk ...

k misijonom in odpeljala velikega dobrotnika v večnost. Leta 1967. sta prišla iz Argentine Frank in Jelka Kuhel, ki sta se hitro vključila v misionsko delo, saj sta že tam pomagala vedno, kadar je bila potreba.

Tu sta pomagala pri kosilu in na pikniku, že pri pripravi in pri pospravi. Zadnja leta sta se pa počasi odmikala, ker nista več zmogla. Frank je še v avgustu slavil 95-letnico življenja, a je bilo že težko in vsak dan težje. Veliko bolečin je moral prenašati in končno ga je Nebeški Oče poklical in mu bo najboljši plačnik za vse delo, ki ga je naredil v Njegovo slavo.

Frank, hvala Ti za vse delo, za vse skrbi, za vso dobroto!

Misionarka s. Bogdana Kavčič, ki deluje v afriškem Burundiju, je prav lepo opisala dva obiska v Misijonskih Obzorjih, ki sta vredna, da jih malo obnovim. Prvi obisk je bil g. Kerin in spremjevalka Barbara. S. Bogdana ju je pobrala na letališču v Kigaliju in so se s taksijem odpeljali v mesto Rizo, kjer deluje s. Bogdana. Z njima je imela tri slovenske sv. maše, kar je bilo zelo vesela.

Druž obisk je bil parni pozneje in se je ustavil koprski škof Metod Pirih ter delegacija iz Slovenije.

Med temi je bil g. Danilo Lisjak, novinar Peter, ki je ravno tisti dan praznoval 33. rojstni dan, snemalec Jože, in g. Ma-tja iz koprskega Karita-

Prva njihova pot je bila v kapelico, kjer so imeli sv. mašo z škofov, katera je bila darovana za g. Česnika, ki je pred eno uro odšel h Gospodu.

Čeprav je misel na smrt trpeča, je s. Bogdana z velikim veseljem prepevala "Veš, o Marija, moje veselje," nato je škof začel "K Tebi želim, moj Bog," kar je ta želja vedno večja in resnična.

Ko po obisku sestra moli v kapeli, čuti, da so še vedno navzoči njih glasovi, tako, da ji je kar toplo pri srcu. Zahvaljuje se vsem, posebno pa še g. škofu, da jim je posvetil toliko časa.

Piše, da med počitnicami imajo vedno kaj lepega. Tako so imeli tudi novo mašo domačina, pri kateri je sodelovala vsa župnija. Vse je bilo okrašeno, v mizarski dežavnici so imeli gostijo za goste. Na gostijo so povabili tudi stare ženice, ki skoraj vsak dan beračijo, a zadnji mesec so ustanovile društvo in zdaj hodijo k bogatašem na delo, da si kaj zaslžijo, prihranek pa prinesejo k sestrám spraviti.

Sestre so jim govorile, da ni prav, da cele dneve poležavajo in beračijo in si same nič ne prislužijo. A ko je bilo darovanje za novomašnika, so tudi one v procesiji s kuverto v roki prišle k darovanju. To je bil dar uboge vdove.

Sestre so se tudi oblekle po afriško in v plesu prinesle svoj dar novomašniku: novo mašno knjigo za vsak dan in nedelje, ter kelih, ki so ga žirovske žene, klekljnice, naredile. Melodije, da bi v plesu šle do novomašnika, niso slišale, ker so bili tako vsi navdušeni, da so se tako oblekle. Še enkrat hvala vsem za vse, tako je pisala s. Bogdana.

Naša božičnica bo na drugo nedeljo v januarju, ko bo med nami g. Jože Božnar, ki nam bo opisal njegovo pot k Sv. Jakobu v Compostelo, Španijo, kamor bo drugo leto vodil skupino na novo romanje.

Lepo ste vsi prijatelji misijonov vabljeni na nedeljo, 14. januarja, ob drugi uri pop. na to predavanje, ki bo v Slovenski sobi v naši novi župnijski dvorani. Verjetno bo to zelo zanimivo, saj
