CLEVELAND, OHIO, THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 17TH, 1936

LETO XXXIX. — VOL. XXXIX.

Predsednik Roosevelt je poklical eksekutivne uradnike zavarovalnih družb na zagovor. Ali so police brez veljave?

Washington, 16. septembra. Podpredsedniški kandidat republikanske stranke Fr. Knox se je nedavno tega izjavil v enem svojih političnih govorov, da police zavarovalnih družb in bančne vloge niso varne pod se danjo administracijo.

Za to svojo izjavu se bo moral milijonar zagovarjati. Ta izjava je prinesla prve iskre v predsedniški kampanjski borbi, ki znajo povzročiti ogromen plamen in poraziti republikansko stranko.

Predsednik Roosevelt je dal poklicati v Washington eksekutivne uradnike ameriških zavarovalnih družb, da pojasnijo javnosti, če je resnica, kar je trdil republikanski podpredsedniški kandidat.

Republikanski voditelji pa so tudi že spoznali, kako ogromno napako je naredil kandidat Fr. Knox. V vsej naglici hitijo za trjevati, da Knox ni misil v resnici tega, kar je govoril, pač pa je misil le, če nastane inflacija, da zavarovalniške police zavarovalnih družb ne bodo toliko vredne kot so danes.

Španija ostro napada Anglijo in Francijo

Madrid, 16. septembra. — Španska vlada se je včeraj brido pritožila napram Francije in Angliji radi njih "neutralnosti." Ta neutralnost obstaja v tem, da dobivajo uporniki silne zaloge streljiva za svoje armade. Španski zunanjini minister je tudi včeraj zahteval, da se vrneta francoski in angleški poslanik v Madrid. Radi nemirnega položaja v Španiji so namreč skoro vsi tujezemski poslaniki zapustili Madrid. Španska vlada zagovavlja, da se lahko pride v Madrid brez vsake nevarnosti, toda tujezemski poslaniki tega ne verujejo. Medtem pa Španija ostro protestira radi Francov, Angležev in Italijanov, ki na debelo pošiljajo orožje španskim upornikom, in deloma so francoski, angleški in laški državljanji in podaniki v vrstah upornikov. Španski zunanjini minister je izjavil, da so dosedaj lojalne čete dobole že 17 Francov, Italijanov in Nemcev, ki so se borili z uporniki. Španija je izjavila, da bo vso zadevo predložila Ligi narodov.

Rojakinja umrla

Po sedem mesečni bolezni je preminila včeraj Ana Gustinčič, rojena Segulin, v starosti 55 let. Doma je bila iz vasi Hotična na Primorskem, odkoder je prišla v Ameriko pred 25 leti. Bila je članica podružnice št. 47 SZZ. Poleg žaljučega soprog Franka, zapušča tri hčere: Jenne, Mary in Frances, sina Franca in Josepha, sestro Terezijo, poroč. Gundic, v starem kraju pa zapušča brata Franca in tetu, Terezijo Segulin. Pogreb ranjke se bo vršil v pondeljek zjutraj ob 8:30 iz hiše žalosti, 7520 Brancroft ave. pod vodstvom Louis L. Ferfolia. Naj je bo lahka ameriška zemlja, preostalim pa naše iskreno sožalje.

* Ameriški časopisi v Buffalo, N. Y., so podražili posamezne številke na 3 centa.

Paul Bartel predsednik J. S. K. J.

Anton Zbašnik soglasno izvoljen za tajnika

Izjava predsedniškega kandidata Knox-a je izvala silen furor med ameriškimi državljanji. Podobna je izjavi bivšega predsednika Hooverja, ki je l. 1932 obljubil dva piščanca in dva avtomobila sleheremu ameriškemu državljanu, in izjavil, da bo "trava rastla po mestnih ulicah, če Roosevelt izvoljen."

Nadalje je izjava Fr. Knox-a postavila republikansko stranko, zlasti pa ameriške zavarovalne družbe v skrajno slabo luč. Vsi eksekutivni uradniki zavarovalnih družb hitijo zatrjevati, da so njih kompanije v izredno si jajnem položaju in da se nikomur ni treba batiti, da ne bi dobil izplačane posmrtnine.

Predsednik Roosevelt je poklical eksekutivne uradnike zavarovalnih družb, ki se večinoma vsi republikanci, da povedo svoje mnenje o stanju svojih kompanij. To je imenitna poteka od strani predsednika Roosevelta, ki bo na ta način pobil nasprotnike z njih lastno izjavo. Bolj ugodne prilike Roosevelt ni mogel dobiti, da pobije trditve svojih nasprotnikov.

Rev. Coughlin je dobil pol milijona dolarjev

Washington, 16. septembra. Kot poroča eksekutivni odbor Narodne unije za socialno pravico, je dobil Rev. Coughlin, ki je načelnik omenjene unije, nič manj kot pol milijona za svoje politične svrhe. Ta denar je bil prispevan od 1. januarja letos do 1. avgusta. Nadalje poroča isti eksekutivni odbor, da je Narodna unija za socialno pravico potrošila v istem času sotočno $473,000 v politične svrhe. Od tega denarja je dobil Rev. C. Coughlin $6700.00 za "potovanje stroške," dočim so doobili nekatere organizatorji iste unije po $20,000.

En tisoč dolarjev

Kdorkoli pride na Veliko jezersko razstavo v petek 17. septembra in bo imel pri sebi našagradno številko, dobi izplačanih v gotovini $1000.00. To je tako vse skladih Jednote.

Krasen govor je imel delegat Joe Rudolf ob št. 37 glede podpore ostarem članom Jednote. Konvencija je vzelna njegove besede v naznanje in sklenila, da glavni odbor to prinese članstvu na splošno glasovanje.

Sklenjeno je bilo, da konvencija zboruje v sredo ob 1.00 do 5.30 popoldne in potem zopet ob 6.30, dokler ni vse rešeno. Ob 12. uri opoldne je predsednik zaključil 15. sejo konvencije.

Po odmoru v sredo popoldne se je prečitala resolucija, ki daje priznanje federacijam za njih delovanje v napredku Jednote. Slišala se je tudi precej ostra opazka glede znaka J. S. K. Jednote, ki je edina Jednote, ki nima svojega znaka. Ta stvar se je prepustila glavnemu odboru.

Sklenjeno je bilo, da morajo člani plačevati za vse društvene prireditve, kakor društvo sklene. To je nekak izvadenen Jednotin asesment.

Prihodnja konvencija J. S. K. Jednote bo v Waukeganu. Mesto Waukegan je dobito 62 glasov, Pittsburgh 19, Milwaukee 44, Denver 5, Chisholm 17 in — Ljubljana en glas!

Vremenski preroki nam pričovedujejo, da smo imeli v torki najbolj vroč dan 15. septembra, kar jih pomni zgodovina mesta Cleveland. Toplomer je kazal nad 90 stopinj. V sredo se je po vreme nekoliko spremnilo in proti večeru se je precej ohladilo.

Konvencija je bila v sredo zjutraj otvorjena ob 8:10. Stavljena je bila resolucija, da se da odbor za pravila zaupnica.

Sprejeta je bila tudi resolucija glede organiziranja delavstva v močne skupine, kakor to deluje John L. Lewis, predsednik premogarske organizacije in se tako omogoči tisočerim članom Jednote boljše delavske in življenske razmere.

Na konvenciji navzoč delegat John Demšar iz Presto, Pa., je dobil žalostno sporočilo, da mu je včeraj hiša do tal pogorela. Konvencija obžaluje ta dogodek in v znak sočutja odglasujejo delegatje $100.00 podpore delegatemu Demšarju, kar je soglasno sprejet. Delegat Demšar se je jokal v znak hvaležnosti do Jednote.

Nadaljevalo se je s poročili odbora za pritožbe in prizive. Vsak delegat se je potegoval za svojega sobrata, in tako se je dežeta zopet zavlekla. Več delegatov je že prosilo, da se jih oprosti, ker se morajo vrniti na delo.

Konvencija je nadalje odglasovala sledče podpore in darila: Za Cankarjevo ustanovo $10, za Jugoslovanski kulturni vrt $25.00. Samostojnemu povešnemu zboru Zarja se da $5.00 za oglas v programno knjižico za opero. V koledar Ave Marija $5.00, v koledar Glas Naroda pa oglas za $60.00, celo stran. Cvetličar Slapnik, ki je dnevno pošiljal cvetlike na konvencijo, dobi darilo $15.00.

Glede Nardnega adresarija, katerega vodstvo zahteva 1c od vsakega člana Jednote, se zadeva prepusti glavnemu odboru.

Odbor za pritožbe in prizive je bil gotov in zbornica mu je dala popolno zaupnico. Na vstop so prišle razne resolucije, ki so bile vse rešene, kakor jih je mojstorsko priporočil odbor za resolucije. Sprejeto je bilo, da mora biti sleherni delegat predsednika Bartelja, 61 glasov za Rogelin in 15 glasov za Perdan, ena glasovnica je bila neveljavna.

Sledila je nominacija za Jednotnega predsednika. Kandidiralo so: sedanja predsednik Bartelj, Janko Rogel in Rud. Perdan. Prvo glasovanje je izkazalo 69 glasov za sedanjega predsednika Bartelja, 61 glasov za Rogelin in 15 glasov za Perdan, ena glasovnica je bila neveljavna.

Vrsila se je ožja volitev med Bartelom in Rogeljem. Rezultat volitve je bil: Bartel 77, Rogel 71. Paul Bartel, iskreni predsednik Jugoslovanske Katoliške Jednote je bil torej ponovno izvoljen predsednikom Jednote za nadaljnja štiri leta. Brat Janko Rogel je bil prv, ki mu je čestital.

Za prvega podpredsednika J. S. K. Jednote je izvoljen Jos. Mantel, ki je dobil 85 glasov nasproti protikandidatu Virantu, ki je dobil 53 glasov. Enoglasno je bil izvoljen za drugega podpredsednika brat Paul Coblak, ki zastopa Mladinski oddelki pri Jednoti.

Bolj težavna je bila volitev tretjega podpredsednika Jednote. Kandidati so bili: Keržišnik, Okorn, Koren, Golob in Mihelich. Vrsila se je ožja volitev med Keržišnikovo in Okornom. Okorn je dobil 74 glasov, Mrs. Keržišnik pa 72 glasov. Za četrtega podpredsednika je bil izvoljen brat John Lunka, ki je dobil 76 glasov, sestra Keržišnik pa 67 glasov.

Nadalje je konvencija sprejela sklep, da se sestro Mary Konvenčnemu predsedniku Keržišniku enoglasno izvoli za

Anzelcu se podeli nagrada 25 dolarjev, kar je v resnici manenkostna svota. Vratar je dobil $50.00. Vsak podpredsednik konvencije je dobil po $15. Tajniku odbora za pravila Rogelu se podari $100.00, ostali člani članom za pravila pa po $15.00.

Konvencija je enoglasno izvolila sedanjega tajnika Antona Zbašnika za nadaljnja štiri leta. Imel ni nobene opozicije. Lepo je bilo videti, ko so vsi navzoči delegati akklamirali glavnemu tajniku Zbašniku, ter so s tem pokazali zaupanje, ki ga stavlja v njega.

Med tem je bilo prečitano pismo od Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, soproge predsednika Zedinjenih držav, ki se konvenciji v izredno iskrenih besedah zahvaljuje za poslano brzojavko. Mrs. Roosevelt je naslovila na konvencijo osebno pismo, katero je delegacija s hvaležnostjo sprejela.

Zadnji trenutek malo pred tretjo uro popoldne je bila slovenska banka The North American Bank obveščena, če bo lahko vnovčila čeke delegatov, ki so znašali do $20,000. Člani odbora za resolucije so doobili po $5.00 vsak. Predsednik odbora za pritožbe je dobil $25.00, ostali odborniki po $5.00.

Socialistična Francija se mora boriti s težki-mi striki

Se boril proti delavski postavi in sedaj je postal sam berač

Paris, 16. septembra. Francoski ministerski predsednik Leon Blum si obupno prizadeva, da prepreči splošni striki tekstilnih delavcev in delodajalcev. Konferenca se ima vršiti v mestu Lille, kjer je središče tekstilne industrije.

Lastniki tekstilnih tovaren nijkor nečejo pristati na arbitracijo, dočim na drugi strani grozijo delavski voditelji, da bodo organizirali 100,000 delavcev za boj, da pomagajo onim 35,000 tekstilnim delavcem ki so na štrajku.

Delavci zahtevajo 40 urni delovnik, toda delodajalci tega ne dopustijo, rekoč, da bo njihova industria uničena. V Lille so bile poslane močne policijske povzdružne, da preprečijo splošne sporade na cestah.

WHERE FRIENDLINESS INSURES SUCCESS

DEATH OF AN S. D. Z. HUSBAND

By M. F. Traven, Assistant Secretary

Rich or poor fat or thin, healthy or ill, some day we all must die, some soon, others later. We will be "laid out" in the front room of our home or in some funeral director's parlor. Our relatives, friends and neighbors will call to pay their respects and take their last leave. Now begins the misery for the widow.

With a very sad expression and an air of melancholy, our friends will take a last look at the deceased person. Since death is permanent, they do not linger long. They find their way to the sorrowing widow and bereaved family and express their regrets. First of all they will say that they are very sorry. (However, they are not half as sorry as they look or nearly as distressed as they would be if the deceased were a member of their own family.) Second, they tell the widow how natural her husband looks . . .

No dead man or woman looks natural! And if people would realize what they are saying these words would never be spoken. The person is laid out wearing perhaps a new suit with no back, and he certainly has no use for pockets. The body is filled with formaldehyde and the bereaved family is told the person "looks natural!" In other words they are trying to tell the unhappy widow that her husband looks now as he always looked, that he has been dead for a long time and now they finally decided to put him away!

In trying to alleviate the widow's suffering, she is given a lot of talk about how some neighbor's friend or relative died. For instance, the story of how a brother-in-law was killed by a speeding automobile and his body was scattered from breakfast to hell, having to be picked up in a bushel basket. This is supposed to make the poor widow feel better or happy in that she could consider herself lucky because her husband died all in one piece.

Then the question is brought up, "Is there anything I can do?" making the impression that they are willing to help. The widow knows the answer she would receive and says, "No, thank you." It would be very embarrassing if she would say, "Yes, I am very glad you mentioned it. I need $100.00." Just imagine the red face on the person making the offer!

Now the SDZ lodge secretary enters the picture. The deceased had taken out a life insurance policy with the SDZ five or six years prior to his death. Perhaps the secretary had to make many calls to collect the assessment, perhaps he had the deceased sign a note and had his assessment paid from his reserve, and perhaps the secretary even helped and paid his dues for two or three months. He hears that the man died and calls to see the bereaved family.

He does not tell the widow that her husband "looks natural" and he does not ask if there is anything he can do. He tells the widow that if she will give him the deceased member's policy and have the doctor and undertaker fill out the necessary papers, he will bring her a check for the amount mentioned on the policy, less any loans the SDZ may have had made him. At this time the widow finds out what it is to be a member of a fraternal organization. The organization has been a friend of the family—and still is a friend!

WHAT IS THE JUNIOR LEAGUE?

By Rudy Lokar, Vice Prexy of League

It has been quite a while since I have written for the SDZ News so here I am again in a mood to write. My subject will be the SDZ Junior League.

Many months ago this writer attended a Junior League meeting for the first time. To be more precise, it was the first meeting called to revive the Junior League of old that had enjoyed a great success in the past. A good turnout for this meeting just spurred it on, and meeting after meeting saw a bigger and better attendance. Not one of these did I miss because I enjoyed every one better than the previous one.

After meetings there were refreshments. Big things were planned. The first was a Rube Dance and Social at the Slovene Home on Holmes Ave. Tho not financially successful, it was that much more successful socially. Next was the SDZ Amateur Night at the Slovenian National Home on St. Clair Ave., another feather in the caps of the Junior Leaguers. Following this was the Debut Dance held at the Slovene Home in Newburg and on the heels of this success was the first SDZ Bowling Tournament that had a record-breaking entry list. Then came the SDZ Baseball League, which is in its final stretch with two great teams fighting for the SDZ pennant, namely the Clairwoods and the Cleveland Slovenes. The championship may be decided this coming Sunday at Gordon Park. The other teams that entered the League were the Cleveland Workers, Modern Crusaders and the Eastern Stars. The latter will also play preliminary to the SDZ championship versus the Buckeyes for the SDZ consolation trophy. On August 2 of this year the Junior League sponsored an Olympiad at Pintar's Grove with great success, playing hosts to thousands of guests. The highlight of this meet was the first 12-mile marathon run ever held by a fraternal group. As most of you know, the happy winner was Bill Vicic of the Modern Crusaders. There were other highlights and many records were broken, in fact too many to mention. And the SDZ Junior League again cut another notch on its gun. On the heels of this the League celebrated at the Great Lakes Exposition in the Slovenska Gostilna of the Streets of the World. These are the main events sponsored by this group so far.

Getting near conclusion, I wish to answer the question: What is the Junior League? The Junior League is a group of young people, who are members of various SDZ lodges that meet at the Supreme Office the first Monday of every month. They discuss different activities and other business that will benefit the Junior League and the SDZ. In this way members from different lodges get acquainted and better understand the SDZ, the organization that is benefiting them now and that will benefit them later. The League is just one mammoth family.

LORAIN BUCKS REACH FINALS

Blasting out a total of thirteen hits which were good for 26 bases and 12 runs, the Buckeyes eliminated the Modern Crusaders from further play in the consolation cup series.

The Buckeyes pounded hurler Schimpf for seven runs in five innings then made five more runs off Glavic who finished the game. Twist Zaletel of the Bucks held the Crusaders at bay and was the master throughout the game, holding the Crusaders to six hits and three runs.

Ursic and Dusa led the batting onslaught with three hits apiece with Balant and Zaletel slamming out homers and for the Crusaders Benny Nosan getting two hits and two trips to the plate.

The Buckeyes will now play the Eastern Stars next Sunday in the finals for the consolation championship and the winner of this game will receive the SDZ consolation cup trophy.

SDZ Guard Takes Third Prize in Drill Meet

Last night the SDZ Guards won third prize in a drill contest sponsored by the Collinwood Merchants. Thousands of people witnessed the wonderful performance of our SDZ Blue-Coats.

The SDZ Honor Guards, who were organized by Mrs. Albina Novak several years ago, is a group of 17 young ladies from various SDZ lodges.

Our congratulations to them, and may many victories be theirs.

All that is required of you to be a member of this group is that you are a member of the SDZ. You may voice your opinions as you wish and partake in open discussion. Votes on motions, etc. are made by the four representatives of lodges that attend. This does not bar a member from being elected to any offices at the December election meetings. So if you wish to be a member of the SDZ Junior League just attend the next meeting and register with the secretary, who in turn will put your name on the mailing list. Let's have a nice representation of new members at a special meeting Sept. 21.

A PEN PORTRAIT OF FRANK J. LAUSCHE

American-Slovene Jurist

By Anthony J. Klanclar

Judge Frank J. Lausche

Madison elementary schools. His preparatory training he got at Central Institute.

Born and raised in the heart of the Slovenian colony around E. 62d St. and St. Clair Ave., he spent his youth among the boys of other Slovenian immigrants who settled in Cleveland, the second largest Slovenian metropolis in the world, the first being Ljubljana in Yugoslavia. He early showed great prowess as a ball player, at one time playing with the old Stinchcomb Engineers and the champion White Autos. He is still a great sportsman, holding the unofficial record for third baseman for having once accepted 15 chances, two put-outs, and one error in a single game.

To understand Judge Lausche's development as a jurist we must know that his father, Louis Lausche, was one of the pioneer Slovenians in Cleveland. Coming to this city from Kočevje, now in Yugoslavia then in Austria, about 48 years ago, he established himself in our community as interpreter. During all that time he helped to naturalize thousands of Slovenians. It was his habit to open every conversation with the query, "Have you taken out your citizenship papers yet?" After he died, in 1907, Mrs. Lausche took over his work.

When Frank J. Lausche saw the light of day on Nov. 14, 1895, his destiny was set. If anyone was ever born a democrat, it was young Frank Lausche. His ancestors, especially on the side of his mother, who was born in Dvorska vas in Lower Carniola, the birthplace of Slovenia's greatest statesmen, were of peasant stock, sons of the soil, who lived and died for Slovenian liberty through the centuries.

When the Slovenians began to migrate into America about the middle of the last century, Frances Milavec and Louis Lausche also came to America, the land of opportunity, married, and made their home in Cleveland. Frank J. was the third of eight children in the Lausche family.

Young Lausche showed early promise of the things that he was to achieve as judge on the municipal bench. The Sisters of St. Vitus' Grammar School still remember him as a brilliant student. Later he also attended St. Francis' and East

That fine Glee Club was organized last spring and has been working hard all summer in order to make a good showing this fall and winter. Our biggest aim is to make a lot of people sorry that they have not joined the club. All SDZ members were asked to come and sing with us, but many turned away saying, "I can't sing."

Why of course you can't sing unless you try. In behalf of our fine Glee Club I say again,

BRODNIK HURLS TWO HITTER; NO. 40 SEEN AS CHAMPIONS

Clairwoods took the first fielding support. The fielding gem of the game was made by Frankie Hocevar who made a one-handed catch of a hump-backed liner with his back to the plate to rob Brancelj of at least a double.

Frank "Bull" Klaus yielded seven hits and struck out eight men but the young and inexperienced Slovenes failed to give Bull the necessary support to win, ragged fielding causing his downfall.

The Clairwoods started the scoring in the third inning making a run without a hit, Brodnik reaching first base on an error and then crossing the plate when Susel made a two-base muff of Frank Zust's fly.

In the fifth Frank Zust tripled to knock in Brodnik who had singled to score the second run.

In the sixth with one out F. Zupancic walked and then scored when Novak was put out trying to stretch his single into a double.

In the ninth J. Zupancic walked and then produced the final run on J. Hostnik's error of F. Zupancic's easy fly.

The Clairwoods now hold an edge of one game in this championship series but the Slovenes will be out to shoot the works in next Sunday's game to try to even things up. A slim crowd witnessed last Sunday's encounter which was played in dull weather.
