

GENERAL MOTORS JE MATI STAVKOLOMSKE ZVEZE

Uniško glasilo avtnih delavcev prinaša dokaze, ki pobijajo trditve korporacije, da nima nič opraviti s stavkolomsko organizacijo.

DETROIT. — Uradno glasilo avtnih delavcev (U. A. W.) je v izdaji od 19. jan. prineslo daljši članek, v katerem pobija trditve korp. General Motors, da nima nobenih zvez s Flintske zvezo (Flint Alliance) in njenim voditeljem George Boysenom in da je ta organizacija vzniknila iz delavstva samega; članek opira svojo trditve na sledeča dejstva:

Delovodje, supervizorji in zastopniki kompanijske unije so služili Boysenu pri raznašanju peticij za vrnitev na delo in kart "Flintske zveze," katere je Boysen potem, ko so njegovi kompanijski podrepani s grožnjami in strahovanjem prisilili delavce, da so jih podpisali, predložil governerju Murphyju. Zapisane izjave in druga dokumentarna dokazila so v rokah La Follettovega senatnega preiskovalnega odseka v Washingtonu.

Dasi nima Flintska zveza nobenih vidnih dohodkov, pa ima upoševane zelo drage agente, med katerimi je tudi Floyd Williamson od oglaševalne agencije Lawrence Witt, ki je bil poslan iz New Yorka, da vzdržuje časopisne zveze.

Seja te zveze dne 15. jan. se je vršila v dvorani I. M. A. (Industrial Mutual Ass'n), ki je znana kot kompanijsko podjetje, katero kontrolirajo kompanijski uradniki. Raba iste (Dalje na 2. str.)

Slovenski prostovoljec o borbi španskega ljudstva

Primorski rojak, ki se bori v mednarodni protifašistični brigadi proti Francovim, Mussolinijevim in Hitlerjevim fašistom, nam je pisal zanimivo pismo, katero spodaj v celoti objavljamo.

Centeni sodruzi:

Prejel sem vaše cenjeno pismo, ki je razveselilo ne samo mene, temveč vse slovenske antifašistične bojovnike v Španiji. Vašega cenjenega lista sicer še nisimo prejeli, upamo pa, da bo kmalu v naših rokah, za kar vam najlepša hvala v naprej.

Moj namen vsekakor ni bil, da se moje pismo prijateljici Lajojevi publicira, če pa je to storjeno in če to lahko posluži našemu skupnemu boju proti fašizmu, je prav, in mi, slovenski antifašisti bomo srečni in zadovoljni, če nas bo to zblizalo in pomagalo organizirati za nadaljnji boj. Mi mislimo, da so naši ožji stiki v tem zgodovinskem trenutku potrebni in zato bomo napravili s svoje strani vse potrebno, da bo korespondenca med nami in vami čim živahnjša. Ne samo posamezniki, temveč vsi slovenski bojovniki v Španiji, hočemo postati vaših dopisnikov — kakor, seveda, tudi drugih slovenskih protifašističnih listov v Ameriki.

Govoriti hočemo z vami brez posebnega časnikarskega stila, po domače, po sreju in duši. In seveda želimo z vaše strani ravirati zaradi ugrabitve nekega detroitskega trgovskega agenta, je včeraj priznal krivdo in bil obsojen v dosmrtno ječo.

Vi se v svojem pismu čudite, da prelivamo kri tudi mi Slo-

Stavkarji morajo vzdržati, pravi Lewis

Sloan je dobil, kar je iskal, pravi Lewis, in korporacija se bo še rada pogajala z unijo avtnih delavcev.

WASHINGTON. — Vzlic temu, da je Roosevelt včeraj pokaral predstavnike stavkujočih avtnih delavcev in korporacije General Motors zaradi javne besedne bitke, z obeh strani dalje prihajajo ostre izjave. Lewis pravi, da je Sloan dobil, kar je iskal in da se bo korporacija še rada pogajala z avtno unijo, do čim Sloan govori o "nelegalni okupaciji tovarn G. M." Sloan dolži Lewisa, da "hoče podvreči svoji volji vso avtno industrijo z nelegalnostjo in silo."

Dasi sta obe sporni stranki položili vprašanje rešitve avtne stavke naravnost na stopnice Bele hiše, pa predsednik Roosevelt doslej ni pokazal, da bi nameraval direktno posredovati. Njegova administracija pripravljala korake, da privede unijo in korporacijo skupaj, pa je predsednik samo dejal, da "mu ni nič več znanega kot drugim" in da "misli, da je v interesu miru, da se včasih bolj štedi v javnimi izjavami, pogovori in debelimi časopisnimi naslovi."

FARLEY PONOVRNO IMENOVAN

WASHINGTON. — Predsednik Roosevelt je včeraj ponovno imenoval za zveznega poštnega ravnatelja James A. Farleyja in senat je imenovanje takoj potrdil. Farley je sicer že ponovno izjavil, da se bo umaknil v pokoj, toda kaže, da se je zaenkrat še premislil.

MORILEC OBSOJEN

MONROE, Mich. — Alcide Benoit, ki je pred nekaj dnevi s kroglo iz samokresa umoril državnega policista R. F. Hambronda, ki je hotel Benoit aretirati zaradi ugrabitve nekega detroitskega trgovskega agenta, je včeraj priznal krivdo in bil obsojen v dosmrtno ječo.

Žrtve prometnih nesreč

Smrt je včeraj zahtevala nadaljne tri smrtne žrtve prometnih nesreč, tako, da imamo na letošnji listi smrtnih prometnih žrtev v Clevelandu že dvajset imen. Včeraj so podlegli zadoblenim poškodbam Sophia Palusis, stara 38 let, ki je bila povožena, ko je šla preko ulice; 45 letni Carl Haynes, ki ga je povozil neki tovorni avto; in 66letna Augusta Kluth, ki je bila povožena, ko je šla preko ceste, ko je prometna luč kazala rdeče.

Most na Main Ave.

Okrajni komisariji so v četrtek dobili od notranjega tajnika Ickesa sporočilo, da je predsednik Roosevelt odobril prošnjo, da se da iz zvezne blagajne $2.475.000 za zgraditev mostu preko reke Cuyahoga, ki bo vezal Main ave. in ki bo stal pet in pol milijona dolarjev. Zvezna pomoč bo prišla iz sklada za javna dela (PWA). Komisar Joseph F. Gorman je dejal, da se bo začelo s pripravami za konstrukcijo mostu, čim dobi iz Washingtona pismeno obvestilo, da je stvar urejena.

Oblačilna unija pomaga stavkarjem

Unija oblačilnih delavcev (International Ladies Garment Workers) je sklenila prispevati pet sto dolarjev za pomoč stavkujočim delavcem pri Fisher Body in jim obenem nuditi vso moralno oporo.

Shod avtnih delavcev

Jutri zvečer ob osmih se bo vršil masni shod avtnih delavcev v mestnem auditoriju, ki ga sklicuje avtni svet 3. okrožja U. A. W. Nastopili bodo odlični unijski govorniki, ki bodo poglobljeno zahtevali stavkujočih avtnih delavcev in kako se razvija boj pri General Motors. Vsi dobrodošli!

Boj avtnih delavcev v Clevelandu

Uradna poročila in obvestila iz urada slovenske sekcije stavkovnega odbora.

Finančna struktura in kdo odloča pri G. M.

Zanimiva je finančna struktura General Motor Corp. in kako manjšina diktira in izkorišča večino. Pri G. M. je 350.000 lastnikov (katere se imenuje delodajalce), ki lastujejo navadne in prednostne delnice korporacije, in 81 odstotkov, to je 283.500 od teh lastnikov delnic je, ki posedujejo po 50 ali manj delnic in kateri nimajo nobene besede pri upravi svojega podjetja. Dobijo le slučajno dividende in vsako leto bilančno poročilo o stanju korporacije in v slučaju, da je kakšna reformistična predloga za ljudske interese predložena v zveznem kongresu, opozorijo na nevarnost — katera v resnici grozi manjšini, ne pa večini, to se pravi: po čelu gladiti, po temenu tepsti. Ti mali delničarji so radi ali neradi, brezpravni lastniki svojega lastnega podjetja in manjšina jih izrablja za svoje interese. Sedaj nastane vprašanje, kakšno stališče zavzemajo ti ljudje napram obstoječemu industrijskemu sporu, kolektivnemu pogajanju in glede delitve dobička. Gotova stvar je, da ti ne nosijo odgovornosti radi uprave in delitve dobička in najbrž, če bi imeli ti mali delničarji besedo pri tem vprašanju, se ne bi branili odgovorne delavske unije in kolektivnega pogajanja z delavci, ker ti imajo sličenega "trota" nad seboj kot navadni delavec.

Sedaj si oglejmo pa "manjšino," to je 66.500 velikih delničarjev ki so: razni investitorji in magnatje, kateri so obogatili na račun delavca in majhnega delničarja. Slednjih je zelo majhno število, računa se jih le par sto pri G. M. in ti ljudje ne čakajo dividend — oni si nakažejo prej svoje mastne plače in nato še razne "bonuse" in seveda če še kaj ostane, dobijo tudi dividende. Pri tem je dobro, da se seznanimo kakšne plače dobiva "priviligrirana družina" G. M. korporacije, na primer: Predsednik A. P. Sloan, Jr., prejel za leto 1936 plače in bonusa (brez dividend) $374.505, kar znese za vsako uro $187.25, $1.498.02 na dan in $7.490.10 na (Dalje na 2. str.)

Lewis je tudi poudaril, da dejanski ni zahteval od predsednika Roosevelta, da se oddolži delavcem za pomoč pri volitvah ter intervenira v stavki pri General Motors. "Mogoče pa je, da verjamemo, da bo predsednik nazadnje storil, kar bo potrebno," je dejal. "Mi zaupamo vanj in smo to že pokazali."

Sloan pa vztraja, da se korporacija ne more pogajati z unijo, dokler ne odidejo stavkarji iz njenih tovarn, katere so okupirali. Lewis odgovarja, da delavci niso neumni, da bi se odrekli temu orožju, ker je korporacija že zadnjič pokazala, da njena beseda ni dosti vredna in da samo čaka prilike, da delavce grdo izigra.

V Toledu se medtem nadaljuje pogajanja med unijskimi in kompanijskimi predstavniki za poravnavo pettedesete stavke v steklarski tovarni Libby-Owens-Ford, v katero je zapletenih 7.100 delavcev.

Slovenski radio

Jutri bo pel na slovenskem programu na postaji WCAR od 9 do 9:30 zjutraj Louis Grđina. Zapel bo "Pred durmi," "Pastirček" in "Zmeraj vesel." Igrala bo godba Louisa Tribarja.

Vse mirno na zapadu . . .

Mestni policijski prosekutor Frey se je včeraj oprostil mestnemu sodniku Josephu Silbertu, ki mu je nato odpustil kazen zaradi omalovaževanja sodišča, ki je znašala $25 in stroške. Frey je Silbertu sta si "skočila v lase" 26. dec., ko je sodnik skušal dognati, koliko resnice je bilo v navedbi, da se je potlačilo neki slučaj kršitve prometnih postav.

Zabavni večer

Nocoj se vrši zabavni večer mladinskega kluba št. 27 v starijem poslopju S. N. Doma. Vsi tisti, ki se zanimajo za napredek mladine, obiščite njih zabavo, da jim daste več veselje za njih aktivnost na političnem polju v prid delavnega ljudstva.

Delniška seja

Jutri popoldne ob dveh se bo vršila delniška seja Ameriško jugoslovanske tiskovne družbe (Enakopravnost) v Delavskem domu na Waterloo rd. Delničarji so vabljene, da se udeležijo.

Povodenj zaliva ohajska mesta in vasi

V Portsmouthu so morali zapreti kurilni plin, Cincinnatiju pa grozi ustavitve električne sile. Nad 40 tisoč cincinnatskih prebivalcev je moralo bežati pred povodnijo. Materijalna škoda gre v težke milijone.

Povodenj je udarila dvanaest držav in pognala iz njihovih domov že nad sto in štirideset tisoč ljudi.

CINCINNATI, O. — Neprestano naraščajoče vodovje reke Ohio je danes zjutraj ob dveh doseglo višino 72,3 čevljev in mesto je v nevarnosti, da mu bo ustavljena radi povodnji električna sila. Voda je zalila nižje ležeče mestne in predmestne dele in računa se, da je moralo bežati že nad 40 tisoč ljudi pred povodnijo. Mestno občinsko letališče je tudi pod vodo. Uprava mestnega vodovoda je sinoči svetovala Cincinnatčanom, da se založijo s pitno vodo za slučaj, da bi povodenj ustavila obratovanje vodovodnih naprav. Povodenj je tu napravila že več kot pet milijonov dolarjev materialne škode. Šolska uprava je sinoči odredila, da se zapre vse šole v mestu in predmestjih. Telefonska zveza z mnogimi kraji je pretrgana. Tudi ulična železnica je morala omejiti promet. Cincinnati še ne pomeni take povodnji.

Včeraj je pristisnilo mrzlejšje vreme s sodro in snegom, kar je naravno še poslabšalo položaj ljudi, ki jih je povodenj pognala iz njihovih domov, vendar pa so mraza veselji, ker upajo, da bo ustavil nadaljno naraščanje pobešne reke. Neki begunec iz Lawrenceburga je povedal, da je pobešnela reka pogoltnila najmanj osem prebivalcev tega mesta, dočim se jih 50 pogreša. Lawrenceburg je popolnoma odrezan od sveta.

PORTSMOUTH, O. — Ko so pred leti tu zgradili 62 čevljev visok in tri milje dolg obrambni nasip ob reki Ohio, so mislili, da so mesto zavarovali pred povodnijo. Toda danes stoji povodenj dva čevlja nad nasipom in trgovski del mesta je pod vodo. Deset tisoč izmed 43 tisoč prebivalcev tega mesta je že moralo zapustiti svoje domove ali pa jih bodo morali zapustiti v najkrajšem času. Reševalno delo otežkoča pomanjkanje čolnov in 250 tesarjev, uposlenih pri WPA, je včeraj začelo graditi zasilne čolne, da se bo moglo rešiti družine, ki jim je povodenj odrezala pot na varno. Župan Frank Sheehan vodi reševalna dela iz prvega nadstropja mestne hiše, kajti pritičje je že zalila voda. Najslabše pa je bilo, da so morali sinoči zapreti kurilni plin, ker je obstajala bojazen, da utegne voda poškodovati glavne plinske cevi, kar bi lahko privedlo do katastrofalnih eksplozij.

Mnogo ljudi je ujetih v svojih domovih, ki jih obdaja blatna voda, ker so se zanašali na obrambni nasip, da jih bo obvaroval povodnji, vsled česar se niso pravočasno umaknili. Reka Ohio je sinoči narasla na 64 čevljev in višek še zmerom ni bil dosežen.

CHICAGO. — Silna povodenj, ki tepe Srednji Zapad, je prizadela dvanaest držav in pognala v beg najmanj 140 tisoč ljudi. Državni miličniki, reliefni delavci in pomožne agencije so bile povsod mobilizirane, da nudijo pomoč žrtvam elementarne katastrofe. Predsednik Roosevelt je naročil svojemu kabinetu, da kooperira z Rdečim križem in nudi vso pomoč, kjerkoli je potrebna. Predsednik je zapovedal vsem državnim agencijam, da priskočijo na pomoč kjerkoli se jo bo rabilo. Mraz je v mnogih krajih še povečal trpljenje beguncev.

V Pittsburghu je kalno vodovje zalilo trgovski del mesta, takozvani "zlati trikot" in prebivalci se bojijo nove katastrofe. V Louisvillu, O., je polovico mesta pod vodo. Iz Frankforta je povodenj pognala 1500 družin. V New Richmondu, O., je 2000 ljudi brez strehe. V Irontonu, O., je voda poplavlila trgovski del in 400 prebivalcev je moralo bežati. Prizadeta so dalje ohajska mesta Gallipolis, Pomeroy, Martins Ferry, Steubenville, East Liverpool, Logan, Athens in mnogo manjših mest in vasi. V Wheelingu, W. Va., beži pred povodnijo 20 tisoč ljudi. V južnem delu države Indiana je moralo zbežati pred povodnijo okrog 40 tisoč ljudi.

Zabava za Tonete

Progressivne Slovenke, krožek št. 3 v Euclidu bodo priredile drevi v Društvenem domu na Recher ave. veliko predpustno nasip ob reki Ohio, so mislili, da so mesto zavarovali pred povodnijo. Toda danes stoji povodenj dva čevlja nad nasipom in trgovski del mesta je pod vodo. Deset tisoč izmed 43 tisoč prebivalcev tega mesta je že moralo zapustiti svoje domove ali pa jih bodo morali zapustiti v najkrajšem času. Reševalno delo otežkoča pomanjkanje čolnov in 250 tesarjev, uposlenih pri WPA, je včeraj začelo graditi zasilne čolne, da se bo moglo rešiti družine, ki jim je povodenj odrezala pot na varno. # Carica Katarina

Zgodovinski roman

— Odsla bom čez te hribe. Na oni strani je neka majhna gostilnica, kjer sem pustila svojo potovalno kočijo.

Nadejam se, da bom v štirih urah prispela tja, potem pa bom takoj nadaljevala pot!

Tega vam ne morem dovoliti, moja velika carica!

Oprostite, da se vam upam zoperstavljati!

Cemu ponoči čez hrib?

Ne, velika carica, to ne sme biti vaša želja!

Rotim vas, Veličanstvo, odnehajte od svojega sklepa, kajti če bi šli peš čez goro, bi se utegnili zgoditi, da bi jutri zalovagnila vsa Rusija za svojo ljubljeno vladarico.

Česa se bojite, opat Kalip-to?

Kaj se mi more v gorovju pripetiti?

Peš sem prišla čez te klance in razpoke v samostan in se mi ni ničesar pripetilo, zakaj se ne bi mogla tudi tako vrniti?

Ko ste šli k nam, je bil dan, Veličanstvo, — odvrne opat Kalipto. — Sicer je bilo tudi to nevarno početje, vendar je bilo vsaj podnevi. Bog vas je ščitil, toda sedaj ni tako . . .

Ščitil me bo tudi sedaj!

Ne bo vas, ker ga drugič izkušate!

Kaj pa se mi vendar more pripetiti v gorovju? — vzkligne Katarina. — Saj vidite, da sem si izbrala redovniško obleko, narod pa povsod spoštuje pobožne brate!

Narod spoštuje redovniško obleko, to je resnica, kajti trpisti so dobri in pobožni ljudje, — odvrne Kalipto.

Toda gorovje je strašno, — nadaljuje predstojnik samostana in se ves stres. — Lahko bi zgrešili pravo pot, poleg tega pa je vsak korak nevaren. Povsod zijajo globoki prepadi.

Bah, saj sveti luna!

Ozek mostiček bi se lahko zrušil pod vašimi nogami, če pa strmoglavite v globino, ni za vas rešitve, Veličanstvo!

Vsi mostički so bili celi, ko sem šla sem!

Ne bojim se toliko narave, — nadaljuje opat Kalipto. — Narava je blaga in dobra, toda ljudje — ljudje so strašni!

Saj v vsem gorovju ni žive duše, — reče carica. — Med petjo nisem nikogar srečala!

Takrat je bil dan, — odvrne opat Kalipto. — Ponoči pa se pečjavljajo vsi demoni pekla!

Ko ležim mrak na zemljo, se začno v človeških dušah zbuhati hudobne misli!

Ponoči pride razbojnik iz svoje jame in krvoločno preži na svojo žrtev, da bi jo ubil in oropal.

Gigan hodi po gozdu in po mračnih samotnih poteh, da bi našel kakšen plen.

Kaznjenc, ki je ušel iz Sibirije, se skriva po gozdovih, potepuh čaka v zasedi na bogataša.

Razen razbojnikov, ciganov in pobežlih kaznjencev pa se skriva v Rusiji po gorovju vse polno drugih sumljivih ljudi! In še en sovražnik se skriva po gorah . . .

— Kako se imenuje ta sovražnik?

— Volk in medved!

Carica se zamisli.

Premišljevala je o opatovih besedah.

Čez nekaj trenutkov pa je kljubovalno dvignila svojo glavo, se samozavestno vzravnala in rekla staremu opatu:

— Carica ne opušta svojega sklepa! Mar naj bi bežala pred volkovi in medved? Ali naj bi se bala gorskih potepuhov?

Oče Kalipto, — in njen glas je zvenel glasno in dostojanstveno, — premagala sem že marsikatero zver v človeku, ukročila sem že marsikatero žival v človeški podobi, — ne bojim se bogih živali v gozdu in gorovju!

Opat dvigne obupno roke.

— Ali želi moja carica zares oditi sredi noči iz tega samostana? Mar hoče zares oditi čez goro peš in sama?

— Da, pri tem ostanem in vas prosim, da mi odprete vrata samostana, — reče Katarina odločno.

— Dovolite mi samo še eno besedo, zadnjo, če že mora biti!

Jutro ni več daleč, dovolite mi torej, Veličanstvo, da vam dam na razpolago majhno trojko, ki vas bo hitro odpeljala čez gorovje!

Na ta način boste hitro prispeli do gostilne, kjer vas čaka kočija in spremstvo.

Tako vam bo potovanje bolj varno in veliko hitrejše, moje velika carica!

— Koliko časa potrebujejo vaši ljudje za vprego trojke?

— Samo nekaj trenutkov!

To ne traja dolgo, ker se moramo prenogokrat že po nekaterih trenutkih odpeljati iz samostana, ko so prišli po nas, kadar moramo nesti na primer kakšnemu bolniku poslednja tolažila.

Trojka je torej vedno pripravljena.

— Dobro torej, — odvrne carica Katarina, — sprejemem vaš predlog, toda hitite!

Opat Kalipto je odhitel, da bi izvršil Katarinin nalog.

Katarina pa je zaklicala za njim:

— Počakajte! Samo trenutek počakajte še! Koga mi boste dali kot kočijaža? Hočem, da se pelje z menoj samo en človek!

— Vašemu Veličanstvu bom dal odločnega in neustrašenega redovnika za kočijaža, — odvrne predstojnik samostana, ko je nekaj trenutkov premišljeval.

— Spremljal vas bo brat Ignotus!

— Ignotus? — vzkligne carica Katarina. — To je latinsko ime in pomeni neznanca. Ali ste to izbrali nalašč radi mene ali pa se zares tako imenuje?

Oče Kalipto ni namenoma hotel odgovoriti na to vprašanje, temveč je odhitel iz svoje celice.

Carica Katarina je izbrala ta čas, vrгла je s sebe redovniško obleko in oblekla svoja ženska oblačila, katere je našla v nezaklenjeni predstojnikovi omari.

Ko je bila oblečena, se je vrnil predstojnik samostana in javil, da je trojka pripravljena.

— Danes sem storil nekaj, kar se še ni zgodilo, odkar stoji ta naš samostan, — je pripovedoval opat Kalipto, ko je šel s carico Katarino po stopnicah navzdol.

— In sicer? — vpraša Katarina.

— Bratu Ignotusu sem dal iz naše zaloge dve puški, ki sta vedno pripravljene v obrambo, če bi kedaj kdo napadel naš samostan.

Dovolil sem mu tudi streljanje, če bi bilo to potrebno.

Nadejam se, da to ne bo potrebno in da boš, moja velika carica, najpozneje čez tri ure v majhni gostilnici na oni strani tega gorovja.

Vendar pa previdnost ne škoduje.

Sedaj pa zbogom, Veličanstvo dovolite mi, da vam v znamenje mojega spoštovanja poljubim rob vaše obleke!

— Ne delajte tega, častiti oče, — odvrne Katarina, — poljubite me na čelo in me blagoslovite!

Opat poljubi njeno belo čelo.

Slovenski prostovoljec o borbi španskega ljudstva

(Dolje s 1. str.)

venci, na kastiljskih bojnih poljih. "Kdo bi si mislil — pravite — da bo tudi naše rojake zaneslo v Španijo, na branik svobode španskega ljudstva in demokracije? In še celo več vas je tam!"

Nič čudnega in nič slučajnega ni v tem, dragi rojaki anti-fašisti, da smo mi danes tukaj v tem vročem boju. Ne samo za svobodo španskega ljudstva in njegovo svobodo se mi danes tu bijemo. Mi smo prihitali na to bojno polje v trdnem prepričanju, da je svoboda španskega delavnega ljudstva nedeljiv del svobode delavnega ljudstva vsega sveta, da je svoboda po fašizmu zatiranega španskega naroda, sveta stvar vsega delavnega ljudstva na vsem svetu in vseh resničnih demokratičnih elementov. Španski fašizem danes ni osamljen; on je samo nizerna ekspozitura fašizma v svetovnem merilu. Zmaga Frankova in Španiji je bila Mussolinijeva, bi bila Hitlerjeva zmaga, bi bila zmaga vseh reakcionarnih, vseh fašističnih sil v svetovnem merilu — in bi to bil obenem poraz vsega delavnega ljudstva na vsej zemlji in vseh zatiranih narodov.

Mi, ki smo morali zapustiti svojo deželo, svoje domače kraje, ter oditi v široki nepoznani svet s trebuchom za kruhom, čutimo najbolj, čutimo na svoji koži, da to ni slučaj. Mi smo morali v tuji svet, ker smo zatirano delovno ljudstvo, zatiran proletarijat in zatiran in razkosan narod. Nič manj ko 250.000, nič manj ko 1—7 vseh naroda slovenskega nas je raztresenih po vsem širokem svetu. Srbski, italijanski in avstrijski fašizem je tisti, ki nas drži danes razdeljene, ki nas odganja od naših tal, ki nas preganja kot delovno ljudstvo in kot narod. Nobenega upanja na svobodo ne more bistavimo v najkrajšem času svojo slovensko kompanijo. — Sporazum s komando internacionalnih brigad je že sklenjen. S srbskimi, bolgarskimi in hrvaškimi sodrugami smo ustanovili "Balkanski odbor", ki bo organiziral balkanski bataljon, v katerem bo ena srbska, ena bolgarska, ena hrvaška in ena slovenska kompanija. Združili bomo vse, kar imamo v Španiji in novi naši bojevniki so že na potu.

Ali boste vi, ameriški delavci in kmetje, pregnani s svoje slovenske zemlje, na naši strani? Ali nas bodo spremljale vse vaše misli, vsa vaša sreča v našem trdem boju za svobodo španskega ljudstva, za svobodo vseh delovnih ljudstev na zemlji in za svobodo slovenskega delavnega ljudstva, slovenskega zatiranega in razkovanega naroda? Ali boste vsi, vsi na naši strani? To je danes naša vprašanje.

To je danes potrebno za našo sveto stvar!

Meni osebno je znano, da imate v Ameriki dosti raznih organizacij, raznih stranic in frakcij, da se čisto zelo ostro med seboj napadate. Jaz ne mislim, da je to velik greh. Samo v političnem boju se klešejo jasni politični pojmi. Ta boj ne more v delavskem razredu nikoli zamreti, dokler delavski razred popolnoma ne premaga buržoazijo. Dokler bo človeška družba razdeljena v razrede, bo delavski razred pod različnimi vplivi in od tod boj v njegovih vrstah, odtod raznoglasja. Razna mnenja v političnih problemih za sedaj med nami ostanejo.

Toda danes ima vse delavstvo, vse delovno ljudstvo, ves resnično demokratičen svet samo eno nalogo: Premagati fašizem!

Na tem vprašanju se morate združiti vsi delavci, socialisti, komunisti, narodni, katoliški delavci, in vsi resnično demokratični elementi. Ustvariti treba mogočno ljudsko fronto vsega slovenskega delavnega ljudstva v Ameriki, ki nas bo obkroževalo, čutilo in se borilo z nami. Mi imamo že ranjene in mrtve junake slovenskega delavnega ljudstva. Slovensko delovno ljudstvo bodi v tem velikem zgodovinskem boju za svojo svobodo in svojo demokracijo z nami.

Vsi enak korak!

Dol fašizem!

Tako mislimo danes mi slovenski bojevniki na španskih bojnih poljih. In mi ne pripadamo samo eni stranki. Tu smo komunisti, socialisti in delavci, ki ne pripadajo nobeni stranki.

Vsi enak korak! Vsi proti fašistični reakciji!

Srčno pozdravlja vse protifašiste Vaš

Gustinčič

Nation's Leading Football Stars Are Starcevic, Basrak, Croats

Two of the country's outstanding football players during the past season are Croats. On the lips of every gridiron fan, over the radio, on sports pages and on All-American selections—always mention was made of Max Starcevic, guard of the Washington University and Mike Basrak, center and captain of the Duquesne gridders.

Named on nearly every All-American football team selected this year, Max John Starcevic ranks as one of the finest guards in University of Washington football history.

Coach Jim Phelan calls him "just about the best running guard I've ever coached" and that includes a seven year reign at Purdue University where Phelan produced many outstanding players and at Washington where star guards have not exactly been sparse.

When Max first began high school football in Duluth, Minn. his home town, his father was set against the husky youngster playing football, as he thought it too rough. Today, Max can look back at the 1936 season and remember the seeming paradox existing in the statements of rival coaches that he is the toughest, most aggressive guard on the coast.

Max is only 5 feet 10 inches tall but packs between 190 and 200 pounds on his compact frame.

His most noteworthy achievements were the four goal-line stands he made against Oregon, USC., Stanford and U.C.L.A. in which he held them for no gain over his position from the five-yard line. Against U.S.C. he time and again drove down field, eluded the secondary, and smeared the safety men, Davie Davis and Amby Schindler for no gain.

Mike Basrak has offers to play with five pro clubs. He was selected on the All-American Board's first team. In playing condition Mike weighs 210 pounds and when not in strict training scales the numbers to 225. His opponents saw him a towering six foot three, rangy, iron man. He has played every minute of this year, except in his final game, the last two minutes against Marquette.

A truly iron man, he says he's never been tired in a game. He's been hurt only once, and then more shaken up than anything else. That happened in the battle against Rice at Houston, Tex., last year. In the second period, Duquesne punted and Mike went down the field and met McAuley, the Rice back, returning the ball, head on. They hit so hard that the sound echoed over the field and both reeled back, stunned. The shoulders on which Mike had made the tackle went numb.

The two players glared at each other, surprised that they were still alive. Mike debated the advisability of asking for time out and then decided:

"I'll be darned if I'll take time out. If the other bird wants it let him ask for it."

Evidently McAuley was made of the same stern stuff, for he moved back to his position ready to resume play when he suddenly collapsed and his team had to call for a delay.

Basrak hails from Bellaire, Ohio. His father succumbed to pneumonia in March during the floods, and his older brother Roger, who played football with John Carroll two years ago, died a week later of the same ailment.

Both Starcevic and Basrak are members of the Croatian Fraternal Union.

Socas, Buckeyes Pull Upsets in Wins Over Spartans And George Washingtons

Serbians 25; Pioneers 9
Socas 31; Spartans 27
Buckeyes 40; Geo. Wash. 14

Socas and Spartans furnished the best game of Wednesday's Inter-Lodge basketball card at the St. Clair Bath House, Socas winning 31 to 27. Perhaps the sudden change of the Socas fortune may be credited to their center, Koss, who for two games before couldn't score more than a point. He came through with 12 points, eight of them in the first half which did much to keep the team in the running, as the Spartans scored 16 in that period. Wick, Lunder and Jurca were the big scorers for the Spartans. The score was 27 all as the game had a few minutes to live, but two baskets in rapid order spelled sorrow for the Spartan fort.

George Washingtons were no class for the steadily improving SDZ Buckeyes and lost 40 to 14. Richter and Hafner with two goals and Dobrie with one were the only ones who could do anything for the SSCU cause. The Buckeyes had Ursic with 14 points, Balant and Carek with 8 apiece and Ivancic with four.

Serbians drubbed the day-lights out of the weak CFU Pioneers, 25 to 9. Pavlovic and Yurk with four apiece were the only Pioneer scorers, with the exception of E. Strainic who sank a foul in the second half, the only point the Pioneers scored.

St. Josephs and Clairwoods drew a bye. The idleness of the St. Josephs gave the Serbs an opportunity to crawl into first place.

Booster Suggests Inter-Lodge Culture Dramatic Talents Of Young Members

Dear Editor:
A most remarkable event, one which presages a new era in the cultural life of the younger Yugoslavs of Cleveland, has occurred in our community during the past two weeks. I refer to the phenomenal success of the Inter-Lodge League dance at the Slovene National Home on January 9. Who would have thought that this organization, during its comparatively brief existence, had gained such a following as to jam the largest local auditorium for a dance celebrating the achievements of several individuals in the field of sports. Does it not seem reasonable to imagine that if the Inter-Lodge League were to expand its influence into some other field of leisure time activity it would, with the intelligent guidance it has exercised in its present endeavours, gain still more prestige, still more influence, and become a still greater benefactor of the younger set in our community?

It is common knowledge that there are a considerable number of young people in the various lodges, which comprise the membership of the Inter-Lodge League, who are talented in yet other ways than those of sports. The recent organization of a dramatic club by the CFU Pioneers attests to that. There have been other clubs and groups during the past several years which have shown signs of interest in dramatics and who have, for one reason or another, been dormant in their activity. Why could not these groups be awakened to a renewed interest in the promotion of these activities and some kind of an organization set up within the framework of the parent organization. The Inter-Lodge League, to combine them? Would it not be feasible for the various lodges to form dramatic clubs, to hold rehearsals in their own club rooms, and then to have a play tournament or a joint public performance? It does not seem unreasonable.

Some such program would be a distinctive contribution to the cultural life of our community, would give a greater number of the younger people who have taken an interest in cultural activities in high schools and clubs an outlet for their creative energies, and would make the Inter-Lodge League a still finer expression of community idealism.

Sincerely yours,
John J. Alich

Lorain Vesna Club

The Semi-Formal Dance which was given by the Vesna Club of Lorain, Ohio, on January 2 was a complete success. We wish to take this opportunity of thanking everyone who took part in making it such an enjoyable evening and also all those out of town folks who attended.

January 28th marks the first dance of 1937 which the Club is sponsoring. It is going to be a "Snowball Dance"—a feature which everyone will enjoy. The dance is to be held at the Slovene Auditorium with Cal's Band on hand for your enjoyment. Admission is 30c. The committee on arrangements is: Frank Ambrozic, William Eisenhardt, Frank Janezic, Vida Kumse, Ann Tomazine.

The next meeting of the Club will be held on Monday, February 1, with Jennie Primozic, chairman in charge of entertainment after the business meeting. —Martha Kumse.

Wins Legion Medal

Mary Benesovsky, 448 East 157 street, 15-year-old Collinwood High pupil this week was presented with a gold medal by New York Central Post 999 of the American Legion for her "scholarship, leadership, service, character and courage". Born in that part of Slovenia which is now under Italy, she was unable to speak English when she came here seven years ago.

Utopians Pre-Lenten Dance

Three cheers to the Utopians' lads and lassies for the wonderful progress on their ninth anniversary dance. They certainly have the club spirit. Everyone is doing their utmost to make this gala affair a sensational hit, one that will not be so easy to forget. With the great assistance of Henry Zorman, Ann Krebic and a clever committee to again awaken an interest in social life, we sincerely hope to make this dance a success.

This pre-lenten dance will be held on January 30, at the Workmen's Home, Waterloo road. Johnny Pecon and the boys will furnish music. Admission will be 30 cents.

Clevelanders Lose

Cleveland Pathfinders of the Cleveland SSCU Bowling League traveled to Gowanda, N. Y., Sunday to engage in a bowling match with the Gowanda Pathfinders. They lost 2449 to 2384. Krall, Palcic, Koren, Molk and Drobnic bowled for the Clevelanders.

Governor Lauds Serb

Sam Ketchman, Serbian youth of Battle Creek, Mich., was proclaimed the most valuable of 13 senior football players on the Michigan State team. Governor Fitzgerald of Michigan presented him with a gold watch at a banquet.

Tinker Club Has Produced Records

The former Tinker Club out of which came two championship baseball teams has certainly something about which it may boast. The team played in Class C in 1935 under the banner of the Bukovnik Antoinette Studios and that year won the Class C championship and took first honors in every department of play, such as hits, runs, stolen bases, etc. The following year the same club went into Class B, backed by Bill Lipman of Bills Clothes. The team won the Class B championship. It will not be able to carry on, however, because the team has been broken up.

Six players from the team are signed with major league clubs. Rudy Virant is signed by the Boston Red Sox, a pitcher who played with Tarboro N. C. last year. Johnny Gruđen, also signed by the Boston Red Sox, is a catcher. Mel Reibe, second baseman, Adolph Jalen, first baseman and Red Wohlge-muth, pitcher, have signed with the Cleveland Indians. Bob Blaney, pitcher and outfielder has signed with the New York Yankees.

Socas Annual Dance

SDZ Socas, members of the Inter-Lodge, are holding their annual Pre-Lenten Dance Saturday, January 30 at the Sachsenheim hall, 7001 Denison avenue. This should be the biggest Socas dance, if advance ticket sales mean anything; already more tickets are sold than the complete sales for any other dance.

We assure all a grand evening and what more can one expect with the music of Frank Mates, Cleveland's most versatile orchestra, in the upper hall and Eddie Simms and his orchestra in the lower hall. There will be the bar room for refreshments, and delicious sandwiches. The lodge invites fellow Inter-Lodge teams to the gala party. Admission is 30 cents.

Strivers Officers

Strivers, CFU English-conducted lodge of Collinwood elected Joseph H. Sanders, president; Joseph Potocnik, vice-president; Helen Tumbry, recording secretary; Anna Novosel, financial secretary; Caroline Petric, treasurer; Peter Mitrovic, Helen Petric and Emma Golubic, trustees.

Sub Branch Carnival

The English Section of branch 27 of the JSF is holding a January Carnival tonight in Room 1 of the old building of the St. Clair National Home. A short program has been arranged. Refreshments will be served. Frank Barbic will furnish the music. Donation is 10 cents.

East High Graduates

East High School mid-year graduates to receive diplomas January 26 include Mary Bogadek, Josephine Florjancic, Louis Babich, John Drear, William Hovevar, Elizabeth Srensek, Bertha and Mary Tomich, Mary Ujeic, and Joseph Matjasic.

SDZ Crusaders Have Concert Tomorrow

The long heralded and anxiously awaited for event is here at last. The Modern Crusaders Glee Club, directed by Jack Nagel, is holding its initial concert at the Workmen's Home, Waterloo road tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. The concert will mark the ninth anniversary of the SDZ lodge.

A varied program will be presented. Three clubs, Slovan, Jadran and Adrija will make guest appearances at the concert. The Vadnal Trio will also perform. The Modern Crusaders will be in the spotlight with their singers whose ages range from 20 to 30.

There will be dancing in both halls after the concert. Jack Nagel's and Jackie Zorc's orchestras will furnish music. General admission is 50 cents. Reserved seats are $1. To date 130 reserved seats have been sold. Anyone desiring tickets can get them at Jephson's Drug Store, East 156 street and Waterloo road.

Hippler Guard Bride

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given Sunday by Fay Bohinc in honor of Mrs. Frank Benjamin the former Louise Colman, at the New China. The table was arranged by the hostess. The center piece was a shower of pink roses. To further carry out the decorative scheme the guest of honor was presented with a shower corsage of pink roses.

The guests were the Misses Rose Mitchell, Josephine Ryavec, Amelia Tursik, Josephine Tomsic, Valerie Turek, Justine Tomaric, Mrs. Fanny Lahowe and Mrs. Celia Jacklitz, all members of the Hippler Guards. Cards were played after the luncheon.

Latin Star

Frank Klaus, neighborhood boy, is doing much to make the Cathedral Latin basketball quintet a threat in scholastic ranks. Only a sophomore, he is the varsity center. He was also center on the school's city championship football team.

Speaks At Commencement

Rose Penko, Collinwood senior who will graduate this month, will be one of the speakers on the school's commencement program, January 28 at the school auditorium. She will speak on "America's Opportunity". August Modic will sing a solo during the program.

Shirley Temple, Fan Of Zagreb Musician

A boy in Zagreb is the proud possessor of a mouth organ given him by Shirley Temple. The eleven-year-old lad, Henry Braicov claims the distinction that Shirley is one of his "fans," instead of he being hers. Henry has just returned from the States where his parents had emigrated. He was playing at a concert in New York a while ago and it was his good fortune that in the audience was Shirley Temple. She was so impressed by his playing that she sent him an expensive mouth organ. He wrote Shirley a long letter of thanks.

The younger people are behind the Fisher Body strike! Proof of this was seen in the many contributions to the strike fund credited to the younger element. Among organizations who gave were the Inter-Lodge League, Strugglers, SNPJ and Betsy Ross, SSCU.

Attempts To Unite Socials For Party

The idea to weld all the social clubs in Slovene neighborhoods to stage a united party is being actively pursued by Eddie Seitz, president of the Twelve Spades. The idea was mentioned in Gay Way last week.

While Eddie already has contacted several presidents of clubs, all of whom are enthusiastic over the idea, he reports that there are many he cannot reach. He asks that all presidents get in touch with him at his residence, 1043 East 169 street.

Plan Convention At SNPJ Fed Meet

Plans for the SNPJ convention to be held in Cleveland in May will be made at the annual meeting of the Cleveland SNPJ Federation, tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. at the St. Clair National Home. Lodge representatives should attend. Committees for the convention, as well as the managing board of the Federation, will be elected. This notice should be taken as official, as no individual notices were sent out. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

Notice is also given lodges and clubs not to plan affairs on May 16 when the Federation celebrates its 10th anniversary and on May 23 when the English-conducted lodges hold their convention dance.

The SNPJ convention starts at the St. Clair National Home, May 17.

Loyalites' Dance

The SNPJ Loyalites announce that extensive plans are under way for their Mid-Winter Dance to be given Saturday, Feb. 13 at Slovene Home, Holmes avenue. Invitations are selling rapidly at 25 cents. A member of the Loyalites, Frank Yankovich and his orchestra, have been engaged to furnish music.

A list of valuable door prizes will appear in later editions of the "Enakopravnost."
