Dasiravno je uniforma stala med desetimi podpisi šest podpisov članov društva Vitezov sv. Jurija, št. 3, ti so sledeči: Anton Nemanich, John N. Pazdertz, Jakob Bluth, Peter Rologna, Anton Škof in John Zupančič.

Predragi mi člani! To je zopet dokaz, kako so ti možje kot hrabri vitezi stali na straži, da se je ohranilo ter rastlo to, kar so oni s toliko težavo zasadili rijia Nemanich, hotre so bile gospe: Kristina Kren, Katari- na Klemenčič in J. Legan. Bo- tri so bili sobratje: Martin Konda, Andrew Kolman, Mati- ja Nemanich in George Rogina. Tovaršice so bile gdč. Marija Stanfel, Marija Klepec, Marija Metež in Marija Zupančič, to- in vrgojili. Ne samo mi, član- društva Vitezov sv. Jurija, pač pa celokupno članstvo naše, sedaj tako lepo napredajoče prve bratske organizacije K. S. K. Jednote moramo dati pri- znanje tem zaslужnim možem za njih vneto trudopolno delo- vanje.

Na posebni seji dne 24. maja, 1898 je društvo sklenilo, da se korporativno udeleži blagoslovljenja slovenske cerkve sv. Štefana v Chicagu na 12. junija, in sicer z godbo.

Društvo je z aktivnostmi vedno naprej, tako je prišlo do zaključka na seji dne 12. novembra 1898, da bi nam bila toliko za njih pomenljivem dnevu. Vršila se je velika parada, katere so se udeležila vsa društva iz Jolieta in bližnjih mest in potem pa veliki piknik na tedanjem Theilerjevem parku.

Društvo Vitezov sv. Jurija je vedno imelo pred seboj, da se združujejo Slovenci v naša podpora društva, tako tudi pod okrilje naše KSKJ. Ko se je ustanovilo društvo sv. Frančiška Saleškega, št. 29, je članstvo našega društva veliko prispomoglo k njih ustanovitvi in je, ker v tistem času lahko, njih veliko pristopilo tudi k temu društvu, katero se danes lahko ponaša s tako velikim številom članstva. PRVI LETNI IZLET OHIO

Ker je društvo vedno tudi moralno podpiralo svoje člane, ravno tako je skrbelo, da mora postati naša KSKJ močna in trdna organizacija, zato se je pričela agitacija za inkorporacijo naše dične K. S. K. Jednote. Dne 11. avgusta, 1897 je tedanji predsednik Anton Neumann sklical posebno seje v

Dragi bratje in sestre:

V imenu uradnikov in člansstva Ohio KSKJ Boosters vas prijazno vabim na prvi letni izlet, katerega priredimo v nedeljo, 20. julija v prijazni in gostoljubni naselbini v Girard, OI.

mamih skicar posebno sejo v ta namen, kjer se je sestavila velepomembna resolucija, katere tu prinašam:

"Ker se je KSKJ ustanovila v Joliet, Ill., od vseh slovenskih društev, je tudi glavna stvar in želja, da bi se tudi KSKJ v državi Illinois inkorporirala."

Na programu bodo dve žogometni igri med skupinami štirih naših krajevnih društev KSKJ v Ohio. Otrokom se bo delilo okrepčila brezplačno in tudi kako nagrada si lahko pridobijo, ker bodo na programu razne igre in dirke. Tudi za od-

Bila je pa pri tem neljuba zapreka, ker so zakoni države Illinois zahtevali, da mora biti 500 ali več članov za inkorporacijo Jednote. Društvo Vitezov sv. Jurija je sklenilo, da začne posebno agitacijo, da se Jednota inkorporira. Na tozahodnem pogled, da bi bila dovoljna številka članov, je bil zato uveden nov zakon, ki je počasi dosegal celo Ameriko.

zborovanja lokalnih zastopnikov slov. podp. organizacij, ki se je vršil 3. julija 1941 zvečer v uradu SDZ v Clevelandu za pomoč zatiranim v naši starji domovini

Brat John Gornik otvoril zborovanje ob osmih zvečer. V kratkem nagovoru pojasnil največim namen tega zborovanja. Za zapisnikarja je bil imenovan Frank A. Turek. Zapisnik nato prečita imena vseh zastopnikov, katerim se je poslalo povabila za nočnajši sestanek. Povabljeni so bili takor sledi: Za ABZ Janko N. Rogelj in Anton Terbovec; za KSKJ Dr. M. F. Oman, John Pezdirtz, Mary Hočevar in Ivan Zupan; za SDZ John Gornik, Frank Surtz, Joseph Okorn in Louis Rozman; za SNPZ Camillus Zarnik, Matt Petrovich, Frank Barbič in Milan Medvešek; za SSPZ Rudolf Lisch, William Candon, Frank Pucel in Vatro Grill; za ZSZ Frank Glach in Mrs. Johanna Mervar; za SZZ Alibina Novak, Frances Rupert, Mary Otoničar, Frances Ponikvar, Frances Sušel in Josephine Seely; za PS Josephine Zakrajšek in Vera Candon; za SMZ Charlie Benevol in August Svetek; uredniki Jaka Debevec, Frank A. Turek, Stanley Zupan, Anton Šabec, Rudolf Lokar in Stanley Pechaver.

Zborovanja se je udeležilo 19 zastopnikov.

Janko N. Rogelj poroča iz seje centralnega odbora SS Jugoslovanskega pomožnega odbora, katere sta se udeležila z br. John Gornikom. Navzočim prepusti v odločitev, če naj se v Clevelandu organizira podobor za državo Ohio, ali pa samo za Cleveland in okolico. Kako hitro je organiziran lokalni odbor se mora takoj poslati imena istega centralnemu odboru, da bo takoj poslal čarter, brez katerega se ne sme vršiti nobenega zbiranja. Želi, da bi bili v tem odboru zastopniki vseh naših lokalnih podpornih organizacij in sicer od vsake podobe, ki jih bodo prispevali lastni rojaci.

Slovenska sekacija bo zbirala denar za naše rojake v Sloveniji, Hrvatje za svoje in Srbi pa zopet za svoje. Torej bo vsaka narodnost deležna podpore, ki jih bodo prispevali lastni rojaci.

John Gornik poroča, da smo Slovenci posebna sekcija Jugoslovanskega pomožnega odbora že dobili predpisano dovoljenje od države, s katerim nam je dovoljeno zbiranje prispevkov. Torej je ležeče samo na zastopnikih nočnajšega zborovanja kdaj in kako naj se prične z zbiranjem.

Pucelj je mnenja, da smo Slovenci precej nezaupljivi in, da bo vsak ki bo mislil kaj prispeti tudi hotel prej vedeti kdo in kaj bo dobil.

Janko N. Rogelj pojasni mnenje centralnega odbora in da se je nameravalo poslati pakete vojnim ujetnikom in nabran denar pa gre samo v dobrodelne namene ne v politične. Vsak lokalni odbor SS pa bo pošiljal svoje zbirke centralnemu uradu SS v Chicago. Centralni odbor tudi priporoča, da naj se organizirajo lokalni odbori in ne odbori posameznih organizacij. Če bi pa katera izmed organizacij hotela delovati sama zase, mora zato dobiti dovoljenje centralnega odbora. To pa zato, da bo vsaka goljufija ali kaj podobnega bilo izključeno.

Frank Barbič se strinja za skupno delovanje in to pa zato, ker so naši rojaki pri več podpornih organizacijah. Isteža mišljena je tudi Mrs. Mervar in misli, da bomo na ta način imeli več uspeha.

Joseph Okorn je mnenja, da naj bi se v Clevelandu organizirali podcentralo za državo Ohio in lokalni odbori v naselbinah pa naj bi sodelovali z nami. Treba bo organizirati take

DEKLAMACIJA PRED 45 LETI

Denver, Colo. — Cenjeni sobrat urednik! Naj mi bo dovoljeno napisati nastopno besem, katero sem deklamiral pred 45 leti kot učenka četrtega razreda šole v Suhorju pri Metliki. Tečaj smo imeli ondi za učitelja g. Frančiška Kendo, katerega imam še dobro v spominu, enako pa tudi ono pesem:

MRAVLJA S KOBILICO
V poletju skrbno se mrvavila močno za kruhket potila, na kupe nosila si hrano drobno.

Kobil'ca evrči, mar delat' ji ni; ob soncu vriskala, ni jenjati znala; le v petju živi.

Preglasno mrvavila povpraša drzna: "Kaj ti pa ne spravljaš, se le obotavljaš? Bo zima strašna!"

"Ti, 'Bela,' kaj veš, še tega na umeš: Ob Krešu gre peti, veselo živeti braniti ne smeš."

Narava zaspi, se sneg privali; kobilca pa strada, vsa bleda od glada boleha, medli.

Do mrvavje prišla, prav suha, tenka, prav milo prosila, pa nič nobila ozmerjana bla:

"Jaz vrednim delim, lenihu podim.
Po letu si pela,
sred' mojega dela,
pa pleši pozim!"

S pozdravom,
Ana Virant, rojena Južna, iz Dragomilje vasi, št. 17, 4725 Baldwin Court, Denver, Colorado.

O poteku 9. narodnega Eucharističnega kongresa

Leta od 22. do 26. junija se je vršil v St. Paul-Minneapolis, Minn. deveti narodni Eucharistični kongres; to je bilo v mestu, kjer je neki francoski misjonar ravno pred sto leti zgradil prvo leseno cerkvico, oziroma kapelo.

Kot zastopnik sv. Očeta ali papežev legat je bil na tem kongresu kardinal Dennis Daugherty iz Philadelphije, Pa. Značilno je pri tem dejstvo, da je omenjeni kardinal v svojih mladih letih delal kot premožgar v nekem pennsylvanskem rovu.

Eucharistični kongres je za katoličane nekaj posebnega in v zvezi z lepimi ceremonijami. Zato je one dni despolno tjačaj okrog 200,000 vernikov iz vseh delov naših Združenih držav.

Ti romarji so despoli s svojimi avtomobili, potem so se pripravljali na 110 posebnih vlakih in tudi na izletniških parnikih.

Naravno, da so bili vsi hoteli obest mest zasedeni, poleg tega so udeleženci prenočevali tudi v 40,000 privatnih hišah. Ker se je tega kongresa udeležilo tudi izredno veliko število duhovščin, soje šentpavelski nadškof J. G. Murray dal postaviti 100 začasnih oltarjev v avditoriju vsakega mesta (St. Paul in Minneapolis), tako tudi toliko število na državnem prostoru za razstave.

Na tem prostoru je daroval papežev legat pontifikalno sv. mašo pri krasnem oltarju pod 53 čevljev širokim štildahinom. Vse dni je sonce zelo pripekalo, številne ambulance so pa skrbile, da se je nudilo prvo pomoč, ako je kdo onemogoč.

Zaključek kongresa se je vršil z veličastno procesijo s sv. Rešnjim Telesom, ki je trajala štiri ure. V isti je korsakalo 116 nadškofov in škofov, na tisoče duhovščine in redovnic, tako tudi na tisoče lajikov vernikov. Škoda, da je tudi to pritočno procesijo vjela ploha kakor veliko procesijo 28. mednarodnega Eucharističnega kongresa v Chicagu (Mundelein), Ill. leta 1926.

Med kongresom se je v 26 skupinah zborovali popoldne in zvečer, kjer so izbrani govorniki razlagali katoliške principe in današnji svetovni položaj. Jako pomemben govor je imel na enem izmed teh zborovanj škof Karl J. Alter iz Toledo, O., ko je omenil: "Stavke ali strški so povsem na mestu, toda samo tedaj, kjer se delavške razmere in pogoje krši in socialno pravico. Delodajalcem ne smejo nikakor braniti delavcem pravice do medsebojnega kolektivnega pogajanja."

Škof G. T. Bergen iz Des Moines, Ia., je dal v svojem govoru delodajalcem sledenje za stopiti: "Ce kdo dela v kaki tovarišnici celo vrsto let in sicer kot sužen dan za dnevom, ali naj bi se takemu ne dalo saj majhen delež tovarniškega profita."

Zadnji dan kongresa je papež Pij XII. istega po radio v angleščini pozdravil. Toda vsled slabe zvezre je bilo mogoče razumeti samo nekaj njegovih stavkov, na primer: "Valčnega paganismu teče dandanes bolj silno, takor val naše reke Mississippi." Papež nič omenil današnjih dveh velikih sovražnikov vere, Hitlerja in Stalina.

Vnedeljo zatem je pa sv. oče zopet po radio vsemu krščanskemu svetu govoril, da moramo dandanes trpeti toliko gorja in zla v zopetni vojni vsled tega, ker svet Bogu več ne zauva in ne živi po njegovih zakonih.

Ob koncu svojega govorja na omenjeni kongres je sv. oče podelil vsem navzočim vernikom in vsemu ameriškemu ljudstvu svoj apostolski blagovis.

Pri tem je bilo tudi važno, da je vse petje in glasbo na tem kongresu vodil naš slovenski rojek Rev. Francis Missia, ki je profesor na semenišču v St. Paul, Minn.

SPOMINI NA EVHARISTIC-NA KONGRESA

Zadnji sem poročal iz Michigana, zdaj pa nekaj o minulem devetem narodnem Eucharističnem kongresu minulega meseca v St. Paul-Minneapolis, Minn. Tam sem bil na ogledu, če bi bilo kaj prostora v kakem razstavnem oddelku spominskih stvari prvega že pokojnega duluthskega škoфа Most Rev. McGolricka. Ta sem imel vredno doživetje, da je zadostovalo načelo: Premožni naj iz usmiljenja pomagajo bednim in potrebnim. V drugi dobi, recimo v srednjem veku, današnjega velikanskega prepadu med bogatinami in siromaki in kapitalizmami ne bilo in vrhu tega je bilo število ubogih v primeri s premožnimi le neznavno, tudi tega je zadostovalo zgoraj omenjeno načelo.

Drugčna pa je stvar dandasnes. Namesto priljubljenega uravnovesenega blagostanja vseh je nastopal prepad med maloštvenimi bogatinami in nepregledno množico siromakov, katere je sodobni družabni red razdelil. Namesto žive vere in ljubezni je v praktičnem življenju stopila nevera in "sveti" egozem. Največja sprememba, ki je nastala v današnjem času in v kateri v srednjem veku niso mogli niti slutiti, obstoje glede pojma "potrebnih in ubogih."

Tedaj so pod to besedo umetvali ljudi, ki so bodisi po lastni ali tuji krvidi prišli v nesrečo in bili potrebni podpori. Izvrstno je bilo, da se približa razgovor z gospodom duhovnim vodjem našega kongresa, to da prav dobrohotnost Boga samega bljubljiva objema najnižje in to, da je resnico in dejanjem potrdil Kristus Gospod, ki je za blagor ljudi "ubog postal, ko je bil bogat." (2 Kor. 8, 9) In čeprav je bil Sin božji in Bog sam je vendar hotel veljati in smatrati biti za tesarjevega sinu, in se tudi ni branil velik del svojega življenja preživeti v obrtniškem delu. "Ali ni to tesar, sin Marijin?" (Mr. 6, 3) Kateri opazujejo božjo modrost tega zgleda, bodo lažje razumeli, da sta pravo dostojanstvo in odličnost človeka odvisna od nrawnosti, to je od čednosti. Čednost pa je skupna dedičina ljudi in enako doseglijava najnižjim in najvišjim, bogatinom in proletarcem. Nič drugega ne bo doseglo plačila vsečne blaženosti, kakor čednost in zaslujenje. Da, zdi se celo, da je dobrohotnost Boga samega bljubljiva naklonjena bednim, blagor namreč kliče Jezus Kristus nad uboge (Mt. 5, 3), zelo ljubezni vabi in se katerikoli so utrujeni in žalostri, da bi jih tolažili. (Mt. 11, 28), s posebno ljubezni objema najnižje in tiste, ki jih muči krivica. Spoznanje teh okolnosti lahko zatajite prevzetnega duha premožnih, in ga dvigne tistim, ki jim je vsled bede upadel. Tako se manjša razlika, po kateri teži napuh, in ne bo težko doseči, da si naziranjem obeh razredov prijateljsko podasta desnici in se zedinita.

SOCIALIZMA

DELAVSKA OKROŽNICA LEONA XIII.

DR. P. ANGELIK TOMINEC O. P. M.

Dvoje je treba imeti pred očmi posebno dandasnes, kadar koli se govoril o miloščini. Stevilo teh, ki potrebujejo podporo, je tako ogromno, da miloščina nikakor ne more kriti potreb. Dalje je pa dejstvo, da so običajno tisti, ki imajo obilno premoženje, trdega srca in zelo podvrgnjeni lakomnosti, tako da bi vse breme padlo zopet na najbednejše.

V prvi dobi krščanstva, ko Kristusova načela radi malega števila kristjanov še niso imela in tudi niso mogla imeti vpliva na gospodarsko življenje ter je vladala med kristjani živa vera in ljubezen, je zadostovalo načelo: Premožni naj iz usmiljenja pomagajo bednim in potrebnim. V drugi dobi, recimo v srednjem veku, današnjega velikanskega prepadu med bogatinami in siromaki in kapitalizmami ne bilo in vrhu tega je bilo število ubogih v primeri s premožnimi le neznavno, tudi tega je zadostovalo zgoraj omenjeno načelo.

Josip Stare:

LISJAKOVA HČI POVEST

"Tista, ki ima mnogo sorodnikov, ima dovolj posla, dokler jih vse obhodi. Druga si poišče priateljice, ali pa jih povabi k sebi, da skupaj kramljajo, ali da gredo skupaj na izprehod, ali da si sicer krajjo čas."

"To bi že bilo; ali zame ni. Saj veste, ne oče, ne moj mož nista nikdar občevala z nikom; mati mi je umrla; drugega rodu v Ljubljani nimamo; in jaz sirota nimam niti dobre priateljice, zakaj v Loki so bile same Rečanke in Tržačanke; ostala mi ni nobena, da bi se v Ljubljani družila z njo. Ali je še katera tako sama in zapuščena kakor sem jaz?"

"Kaj bi ne bila," jo tolazi teta, "in še takšnih je dosti, katere imajo dosti znank, toda se jih ogibljejo in so rajši same."

"Rajši same?" se začudi Klotilda, "tega, ne umejem."

"I no, popolnoma same tudi niso," popravi Brigitia in se humodružno nasmeje, "družijo se rajši z moškimi in ne marajo, da bi jih motile tovarišice, ali da bi jim morda celo izneverile njih kavalirje."

"Družijo se z moškimi," ponavlja nedolžna Klotilda sama v sebi in se zamisli. Potem pogleda teto in jo radovedno vpraša:

"Kaj pa so to, kavalirji?"

Premetena Brigitia se nekoliko ustavlja in se na videz zagneda v pletilo, potem pa vendarle začne:

"Kaj so kavalirji, vprašaš? Kako naj ti rečem? Ljudje sodojo o njih različno. Kdor vidi vse črno, česar ni vajen v preprostem in dolgočasem življenu, temu so kavalirji grozne pošasti, v katerih tiči sam hubec. V resnicu pa utegnjejo biti prav nedolžna bitja. Kavalirje namreč navadno zovemo olikanje gospode, ki se uglašeno vedejo, lično oblačijo in se na vso moč trudijo, da bi se prikuplili kaki gospesi ali gospodični. Zato odlikujejo dotično gospo, kadarkoli jo morejo; hodijo radi mimo njenega stanovanja in se ozirajo po njenih oknih; izkušajo, da jo spomena srečavajo in ljubezni pozdravljajo. Prva skrb pa jim je, da se seznanijo z gospo na plesu ali pri drugi priliki in da jo potem spremljajo in kratkočasijo na izprehodih in drugih potih, da ne hodi sama in da ji ni dolgčas. Kaj je slabega na tem, res ne bi vedela reči. Pravi kavalir tudi brani svojo izvoljenko nasprotnikov, zlasti lažnih obrekovcev, in bi šel z orojem nanje."

Klotilda posluša in strmi uprtih oči. To so ji do cela nove stvari, o katerih nikdar niti sanjala ni v samostanu in na očetovem domu. Ali še ji ni vse jasno, zato vpraša:

"Kaj pa je zakonskim ženam treba kavalirjev, saj imajo svoje može?"

"Res, da jih imajo; ali mož ne utegne vedno kratkočasito svoje žene; hoditi mora po svojih opravkih, časih celo na pot, in dalj časa ga ni domov. Kdo bi tedaj zameril samotni ženi, ako se v tem nekoliko pomeni s kom drugim! Sicer pa ni, da bi moralna imeti vsaka žena svojega kavalirja. Imajo jih le one, ki se rade kratkočasijo in veselje življenga, katerih možje pa ne menijo za to."

S takšnimi pogovori je Klotilda hitro potekal čas in je prosila teto, naj južina ž njo. Slastna kava, kakršno je znala skuhati le star Lisjakova kuharica, je razvezala Brigitu jezik še bolj. Pravila je svoji nečakinji o javnih veselicah, o gledališču in o plesih; povedala, katero gospo najbolj slove po Ljubljani zaradi svoje lepoljudje rekli, ki so me predvčerjanim videli na pogrebu, ako bi me danes že srečavali na izprehodu?"

"Kaj bi ljudje rekli!" vzklikne Brigitia in se zasmaje na veseglas. "Kaj bi ljudje rekli!"

PARISHIONERS, FRIENDS JOIN WITH REV. M. SLAJE IN CELEBRATING PASTOR'S 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Lorain, O.—Lorain has seen from Cleveland, Collinwood silver jubilee celebrations of all kinds, but July 13 marked the first and only extraordinary 25th Jubilee celebration—that of a priest.

Rev. Milan Slaje

With a festivity that will be remembered for many years, Lorain's Slovenians paid tribute to their beloved pastor, Rev. Milan Slaje. Born Sept. 15, 1891, Rev. Slaje completed his schooling in Celje and Maribor, being ordained July 2, 1916, and said his first Mass the following July 9. During the next 25 years, Father Slaje untiringly performed his duty as a servant of the Lord. After serving as chaplain in the World War, he came to America in 1922 as assistant pastor at St. Mary's in Collinwood. In 1934 Rev. Slaje came to Lorain to a parish whose parishioners look upon him as a leader and spiritual father.

Escorted from the parish house by the Boy and Girl Scouts, the school children, the Sodality girls and the drill team members, Rev. Slaje entered the church. Assisted by Rev. Ludwig Virant, as deacon, and Brother Sebastian Soklich, Lorain's young seminarian, as sub-deacon, the jubilarian offered his Silver Jubilee Mass of thanksgiving on a flower banked altar and in presence of a capacity crowd. Preceding the Mass, a golden chalice, the gift from his parishioners, was presented the Rev. Slaje. Rev. Vitus Hribar delivered the congratulatory Slovenian sermon.

A capacity crowd again filled the church at the Solemn Benediction at six o'clock in the evening. With church services over, the celebration moved to the Slovenian Home where a banquet was held in the jubilarian's honor.

Heading the publicity committee, he really "told the world" about the gathering that made KSKJ sports history. At present Mr. Terselich, now Pvt. Anthony J. Terselich, is stationed at Co. B—40th A. R. (M), Camp Polk, Louisiana.

The other sports booster, at present Pvt. Edward Bogolin, 52nd Inf. Tng. Baon., Co. B, Camp Wolters, Texas, was one of the top bowlers in the Steves pin league.

Both young men will be missed in the Steves' sports setup.

Waukegan, Ill.—The annual St. Mary's, No. 79, picnic will be in the form of a celebration. The cause of the celebration is the fact that the St. Mary's lodge has reached the 300 mark in its membership drive.

10. To encourage the parents to make a daily spiritual sacrifice and a monthly reception of Holy Communion in a body.

11. To operate a parish office for the parents.

12. To extend to the parents the privilege of donating any sum, no matter how small, to the Vincentian treasury, but remembering that the St. Vincent de Paul Conference does its work gratis.

The 200 St. Ignatius men now in service are probably the largest single group from anywhere in the diocese of Cleveland, the Vincentian conference believes. The parish is also one of the largest in the state, with 3,700 families, or about 10,000 persons.

Until then, fraternally yours,
Booster Secretary,

Mary E. Polutnik.

THE THREE VIRTUES

I know of gracious ladies three Their names, Faith, Hope and Charity.

Each one to us a gift is giving To make our lives more worthwhile living.

The first is Faith, her work is done

When she instills within each one

Faith in ourselves, Faith in our nation,

Faith in the God of all creation.

It has been wisely said, "Without Hope man's as good as dead."

Thou seem to be at the end of your "rope,"

You can still hang on if you don't lose Hope.

Charity is a friend indeed, A helping hand in time of need.

Without her sweet and kindly touch,

Our lives would not amount to much.

"COACH" PROPERNICK, POPULAR ATHLETIC LEADER, KILLED IN CRASH

Waukegan, Ill.—Friends and relatives were shocked when they heard of the sudden death of Frank J. "Coach" Propernick, 37, well known Slovenian of Aurora. He was a member of St. John the Baptist Society, No. 11.

Frank, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Propernick Sr., one of the earliest Slovenian settlers in Aurora, met instant death early Saturday morning, June 28, coming home from a softball game at DeKalb, Ill. Two other ballplayers riding with him were injured, while four persons in the other car in the crash all met instant death also. The accident, termed "the worst tragedy in the history of Kane County," occurred at the juncture of the Kaneville-Batavia concrete highway.

"Coach" Propernick was business manager of the local Phoenix club's softball team and an auditor for the sales tax division of the state department of finance. He was more than a citizen; a personality, a leader. He was an idea, an inspiration, almost a legend among Aurora's youth. Handicapped from birth by a physical disability that made it impossible for him to engage in the athletic games of his fellows, he never was a "coach" in the sense the term is generally used and understood. But his living moments were spent in organizing, directing, and inspiring others to co-operative athletic success. In this community, whether it may have been on the baseball sandlots, on the softball diamonds, on people of Aurora knew him as one whose sage advice was sought on civic, financial, and political matters. "Coach" was wise beyond his years, tireless in his energy, breath-taking in his ideas and inspiration.

"He is gone, but his spirit lingers on . . ."

Funeral services were held July 1st at St. Joseph's Church and burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Propernick Sr., three brothers, August A. of Bridgeport, Conn., John P., Jr. and Tony of Aurora; and two sisters, Mrs. John Whyte and Mrs. Emil Schiller. August C. Verbic.

Cleveland, O.—Twenty Club, which has won praise as five years in the service of God, one of the best choruses that and parishioners! That was have been trained not only in Slovenian circles but city-wide as well.

Never neglecting his religious duties and obligations, Father Jager, nevertheless, felt that the younger elements in particular should be given every opportunity to develop culturally. Encouraged by the pastor, the energetic assistant constantly scouted the young talent of the parish and thru the various groups succeeded in developing that talent of the younger people of the parish.

He was the spiritual director of the Married Ladies Sodality which endeared him to the older people. At the same time his remarkable and spirited sermons in church won praise particularly from his older parishioners.

Pastor in Barberville
His transfer to Barberville came as a shock to St. Vitus parishioners and the continued visits of Clevelanders to his Barberville church testifies well enough to his popularity. The same enthusiasm which he had in Cleveland immediately became evident in Barberville. A process of organization and reorganization of all church societies and lodges was soon in full swing, and before long the young as well as the old people responded nobly. Plans for a new church had been under consideration for some time, so

FRATERNALISM OUR DEFENSE

By Foster F. Farrell

The prevailing thought in the minds of the people of our country today is centered around one word—"Defense." To the eight million members comprising the Fraternal Benefit System "Defense" is not new, as they were inspired to become Fraternalists because of a desire to safeguard their homes in their beloved country, which in many cases is not the land of their birth, but of their own choosing.

Members of Fraternal Benefit Societies, banded together as they are for mutual protection, have already taken advantage of the opportunity to be of assistance in the defense program of our country. Many societies are active in Red Cross work, others have given liberally of their means to alleviate suffering in stricken countries, while still others have sent abroad ambulances and medical supplies. One of the societies brought over a number of children from devastated areas and installed them in one of the most pleasant children's homes it has ever been my pleasure to visit. These citations are but a few of the activities of the Fraternal Benefit Societies at the present time.

Events over the past few years have been so far reaching as to cause concern to all of us. The war raging across the sea has been productive of a serious cause for concern in this country. We know that war activities of any magnitude in any part of the world affects us morally and economically. Every home, every factory, every farm and every life in this country has been touched indirectly, and although we are not actually participating in this dreadful conflict, we have felt the weight of its pressure, and as the days go by we will come to realize it more clearly. We must all join in an effort to establish a national defense so strong that no nation will dare to attack us. To preserve our liberties and make our defense secure, we must set ourselves to this important task. Now is the time for the serious study of our responsibilities—a time for us to keep in mind that we are all Americans and only by working together and facing the true facts and acting fearlessly with the full knowledge of these facts can we fulfill our obligation as citizens of this great nation. We have an opportunity to prove to the world that the Fraternal Benefit System is big enough and strong enough to meet any challenge.

The conditions confronting us today are a challenge requiring constant vigilance and the Fraternal Benefit Societies are equipped to answer that challenge in promoting sane thinking, and personal thrift in the form of the purchase of life insurance for future protection, which is of the utmost concern in the minds of our citizenry today.

Before us lies a great task and united as we are in the bonds of Fraternalism we will be prepared to meet it!—The Fraternal Monitor.

GREEK MYTHS

PAN (Faunus). A carefree deity, Pan was the god of shepherds and their flocks, of woods and fields. He loved nothing better than to lead the wood-nymphs in gay dances. It is disturbing to note, then, that to this playful divinity was ascribed the power of causing sudden unaccountable fear and from him, in fact, we get our word "panic."

Pan was fond of music and there is a tender Grecian myth that explains the reason. One day Pan saw and fell hopelessly in love with a certain nymph named Syrinx, but she ran from him. He pursued her to the bank of a river where she called for help to the water-nymphs. They heeded her cries for, as Pan embraced what he thought was the form of the lovely nymph, he found that he held only a tuft of reeds. He sighed and the air he breathed through the reeds emitted a sad, sweet melody. Charmed and delighted with this music, the god took the reeds and, placing unequal lengths together, made an instrument which he called the syrinx. "Thus, then, at least," he said, "you shall be mine."

HERMES (Mercury). If Homer is to be believed, Hermes was an infant prodigy most extraordinary. "At dawn he was born," says the Greek poet, "by noon he was playing the lyre (which he had in the meantime invented!) and that evening he stole the cattle of Apollo (his stepbrother)." Hermes was the son and messenger of Zeus. Although running errands for his father, and often for other deities, kept Mercury rather occupied, he somehow found time also to be the god of luck, commerce, eloquence, science, gymnastics and skill and dexterity in general.

An energetic, willing young man, Mercury is often represented as the patron spirit of young men.

HERO AND LEANDER. The tragic romance of Hero and Leander is a favorite theme of poets. Leander, a youth who lived on the Asiatic side of the Hellespont (the ancient name of the Dardanelles), fell in love with Hero, a priestess of Venus who dwelt on the European side of the strait. Every night he swam the Hellespont to visit her. One night when the sea was rough and his strength failed, he was drowned. Hero, heart-broken, cast herself into the sea and perished.

Leander's feat of swimming the treacherous Hellespont was itself considered fabulous and impossible until Lord Byron, the impulsive English poet, did so as an experiment.

HEPHAESTUS (Vulcan).

The forge of Vulcan, god of fire and maker of thunderbolts for Jove, was volcanic (that word is fittingly derived from his name) Mount Etna in Sicily. Although lame from babyhood on—the surprisingly mild result of falling out of heaven and landing on an island—Vulcan was indispensable to his fellow deities and perhaps the most versatile of them. Celestial craftsman, he erected brass houses for the gods, made for them golden shoes that permitted them to walk on air and water, built their chariots, fashioned brazen shoes for the horses that whirled them thru the air and over the surface of the sea, forged their impenetrable armor and wrought statues and furniture that moved of themselves. Probably his greatest act was in connection with the nativity of Minerva, goddess of wisdom. She sprang forth completely armed, as you may recall, from the head of Zeus. That was the work of Vulcan—he did it with one stroke of a sledge-hammer!

ZEUS (Jupiter, Jove). At last, but far from least, we come to Zeus, chief god of gods and father of men in Greek mythology. He, himself, of course had a beginning. Cronos (Saturn) was his father, Ops (Rhea) his mother. His parents were of the race of Titans, who were the children of Earth and Heaven, which sprang from Chaos. Chaos, it seems, was a shapeless dead-weight mass of something or other containing, however, the seeds of things.

Jupiter was quite a busy deity. The other gods and goddesses were forever getting into quarrels among themselves and with mortals; Jupiter had to play the various roles of peacemaker, judge and stern executioner. His wife, Juno, took over those duties whenever he erred!

Despite the miraculous powers ascribed to them, Greek gods were considered to be quite human—and Jove, the supreme deity, was perhaps meant to symbolize the supreme human being. For we all—at one time or another—help others in trouble and need help ourselves.

that when the new pastor came, definite steps were taken and it is hoped that ground for the new structure will be broken this year yet. The insatiable spirit for missionary zeal in Father Jager has enlivened the Sacred Heart parish until it is bursting with activity.

Thus the parishioners assembled in Sacred Heart Church on the morning of July 6 to be present at the solemn High Mass which Father Jager offered to commemorate his 25 years in the vineyard of God. Assistants at the Mass were: Rev. Louis Baznik of St. Lawrence's Church and Rev. Rudolph Praznik of Alliance, O. Msgr. Vitus Hribar, pastor of St. Mary Church, Collinwood, delivered the sermon in Slovenian, while Rev. Baznik spoke in American. Rev. Milan Slavje of Lorain, O., and Rev. Joseph Celesnik of St. Mary's Church in Collinwood were also present.

A dinner given in honor of the celebrant by the parishioners was very well attended, including Cleveland guests Mrs. Pauline Stampfel, Mr. John Potokar and son John, Mr. Frank Jaksic, and Mr. James Debevec. Toastmaster was Joseph Lekian.—American Home.

HOME, SWEET HOME

It was in 1852 that an American, sojourning in Tunis, Algeria, passed away. His few friends and acquaintances carried his mortal remains without the little city and buried them in the sands of the desert.

Many years later a United States battleship sailed under orders of the State and Navy departments to the port. American sailors went ashore, and with tender hands bore the remains aboard the battleship. The flag was lowered to half-mast, and the boat set sail for the port of New York.

The flags of all ships in the harbor were at half-mast when the boat arrived, and there was solemn stillness when it anchored. The casket, draped with the American flag and attended by a special guard of honor, was placed aboard a special train for the city of Washington. The train had all people all along the way stood the trappings of mourning, and with bared heads as it passed. The flags on all the government buildings in the nation's capital were at half-mast, and all the government offices were closed.

The flag-draped casket was borne down that historic Pennsylvania Avenue in a procession made up of government dignitaries, high officials and executives in state affairs, the President and his Cabinet, the Justices of the Supreme Court —all to pay their profound respects. Thousands and tens of thousands of citizens and school children with bared heads lined the avenue as the procession, led by John Philip Sousa's band, with muffled drums, bore the remains of that American citizen to the final resting place in his native soil.

Such was the homage of the American people, not to a fallen army hero, nor to a high naval officer, nor to a great explorer—but it was the sincere expression of a grateful people to the man who had caught the great vision of the American people, the man who had written "Home, Sweet Home," John Howard Payne, he died at the age of 60 years. —Sunshine Magazine.

CHEAPER TO DIE, EH?

A live man pays 25 cents for a shave; a dead man $5 to $10.

A woolen overcoat costs $35 to $50; a wooden one $250.00 plus.

A taxi trip to the theatre and back costs $2; a hearse ride to the cemetery costs $10 to $25.

The good wife will lecture about your bad points for nix; the preacher expects $10 or more to lecture about your fine points.

So stay alive and save money; unless you have sufficient life insurance to afford the luxury of dying.—Selected.

FAMOUS OHIO BATTLEFIELDS

The Hero of Vincennes Defeats Ohio Indians

THE BATTLE OF PIQUA—1780

"Let them come near enough so that we may singe their eyebrows," was the command that passed from one buckskin-clad frontiersman to another as they waited for the last desperate charge of the Shawnees to regain the Indian village of Piqua. The riflemen waited. The Indians advanced. Muskets crashed. Those Indians who were able, fled, and the Battle of Piqua was ended with the capture of Fort Sackville at Vincennes, Ind., only to find Ohio threatened by the English and their Indian allies. Swift raids were being carried out against the outlying settlements as the British tried to strengthen their hold on the all-important lands between Lake Erie and the Ohio.

Hastily perfecting his plans, Clark started north from the Ohio to invade the Indian territory. Each man carried his own supplies—meal and jerked buffalo or venison—and traveled through the dense forests and up the streams on foot, on horseback, or by birch bark canoe.

Up the Little Miami, past Fort Ancient, the 900 men (a large army for a forest campaign) preceded by vigilant scouts, forced their way through thick forests. Old Chillicothe (now Oldtown, south of Springfield) was deserted. The Indians were concentrated at some other point. Village and crops were destroyed. Guided by Simon Kenton, famous Indian fighter, Clark continued his march to Piqua, a village on the west bank of the Mad River. There he found the Indians assembled in large numbers. The town was surrounded. A brass six-pounder captured from the British at Fort Sackville was brought to bear on the newly erected stockade, shattering the walls. Driven from shelter, the Indians advanced on Clark's lines. "Hold your fire," was the command. As the Indians approached, a sharp, deadly volley threw them into panic and defeat.

Clark's success, a surprise to the British, helped to counteract their elation over the English victories in the Carolinas and Georgia, and left the Indians too busy repairing the damage to try further raids against the colonists.

ington's is defeated by Indians.
