"Vsi so se nato ameriški Slovenci vrnili v Ljubljano. Po sebi moramo poudariti, da je viško prebivalstvo, na čelu mu župan Petrovič, naše ameriške rokove prav prijazno sprejelo."

"Izjava predsednika KSKJ"

"Naš urednik je naprošil g. Frank Opeka, predsednika, naj kaj pove o svojih vtiših na poti. Ljubezni se je odzval tej želji, ter izjavil:

"Vožnja po morju je bila zelo lepa in Cunardova družba je storila vse, da napravi vožnjo še prijetnejšo. Od Chicaga pa do Ljubljane nas je spremjal neuromni Cunardov uradnik g. Krmpotić, ki je v zvezi z ostalimi uradniki Cunarda, posebno z g. Milavcem, vedno skrbel za našo udobnost na potu. Zahvaljujem se tudi Rafaelovi družbi, katere pozornost smo čuli, še preden smo stopili na evropska tla. Videli smo tudi Lisieux in vsakemu katoliškemu Slovencu priporočam, da na poti, če ima kolikaj prilike, poseti ta kraj. Zelo hvaležni smo delegaciji, ki nas je spremnila po celi poti. Vožnja je bila sicer naporna, toda v dobri družbi smo imeli prične opazovati lepoto Švicer in Tirovke."

"Naravnost presenečeni pa smo bili nad sprejemom v Ljubljani, ki nam je pokazal, kako smo še vedno v ozih zvezah s Slovenijo. Potom "Slovenca" poždravljamo vse naše rojake, sorodnike, prijatelje in znance v starem kraju, kakor tudi želim, da bi naše bivanje rodilo čim več uspehov, tako za nas, kakor za Vas in naše vesle: "rodno-slovensko zemljo poglibilo!"

Vabilo na piknik

Članom našega društva in vsemu cenjenemu občinstvu v Jolietu ter bližnji okolici naznamo, da je naše društvo preložilo datum in prostor svojega piknika in sicer za nedeljo, dne 26. julija. Določeno in tudi že naznanjeno je bilo da se ima vršiti piknik 12. julija v Rivals parku, zaradi previsoke najemnine za park in zaradi sedanjih slabih delavskih razmer je bilo na zadnji seji sklenjeno, da se vrši na piknik 26. julija v prostorih Gross Mc Gowan v Homewoodu.

Torej uljedno vabimo vse naše člane in članice ter druge rojake od blizu in daleč, da se udeležijo našega piknika goroznačeni dan. Gross Mc Gowan prostor je za tako prireditve zelo pripravljen in lep.

Kakor še vselej, tako bo tudi sedaj vse najboljše pripravljeno za lačne želodce in suha grla da bo vsak zadovoljen in vse bo po znižani ceni zaradi velike delavske depresije; vsakdo bo še lahko veselega in zadovoljnega sreca s tega piknika domov in nikomur ne bo žal kajti razvedrila bo za vse dosti na razpolago. Torej vam kličemo: Na veselo svidenje in dobro došli na našem pikniku dne 26. julija!

Odbor.

članom in članicam društva sv. Jožeta, št. 53, Waukegan, Ill.

Društveni letni piknik se bo vršil dne 26. julija v Mozina parku, in vsem članom in članicam je tem potom naznanjeno, da je bilo sklenjeno na zadnji mesečni seji, da naj se vsi člani udeležijo tega piknika. Ves dobreček te prireditve je namenjen v korist društvene blagajne. Ker mo sedaj dan oskrbnega holniškega oddelka, je tudi več potreben, da vsak prispeva po svoji moči, da ta piknik nekaj pomaga v finančnem oskrbi društva. Vsi člani se morajo javiti na prostoru, kjer se bo vršil piknik in vsak se morda posamezno priglasiti pri enem člani, kateri bo postavljen na prostoru. Oni člani, kateri se ne udeležijo tega piknika, bodo kaznovani po določbah društvenih pravil.

Pridimo skupaj na ta dan in zavabujmo se, kajti vse bo v dober namen. Za piti in jesti bo dovolj za vse, tudi zavabe ne bo manjkalo. S sobratskim pozdravom,
Joseph Zorc, tajnik.

Društvo Marije Pomagaj št. 78, Chicago, Ill.

Vse članice našega društva se uljedno opozarjajo na redno mesečno sejo, ki se bo vršila v četrtek, 16. julija, v cerkveni dvorani. Začetek ob pol osem uri zvečer. Pridite na sejo vse, kajti društvo plačuje dvorano za to, da enkrat na mesec razmotrivo na zadevah društva. Kar se sklene na seji, mora upoštevati odbor in ostale članice. Zatorej, udeležujte se društvenih sej in plačujte redno svoje prispevke. Ako Vam vsled nezaposelnosti to ni mogoče, pridite na sejo in povejte, nakar bo društvo priskočilo na pomoč, kot je bilo sklenjeno.

Zopet ponavljam: Ako se selite, naznanite takoj novi naslov.

Sosesterski pozdrav,
Julia Gottlieb, tajnica.

Naznanilo in vabilo društva Marije Pomagaj št. 79, Waukegan, Ill.

Redna mesečna seja našega društva se vrši v nedeljo, 19. julija ob devetih dopoldne. Na tej seji bodo prebrani polletni računi in imamo še več drugih važnih reči za ukrepitev; torej prosim vse članstvo, da se te važne seje udeleži v polnem številu.

Ravnino isto nedeljo popoldne pa bo imelo društvo svoj piknik in sicer na Wire Mill prostoru. Lahko se gotovo spominjate, da smo se na našem pikniku že vselej izvrstno zabavali; ravnino tako tudi letos ne bo manjkalo raznovrstne zabave. Za mladino bo na programu žogometna tekma med skupino igralcev našega društva in neko drugo skupino.

V prvi vrsti pričakujemo, da se tega piknika udeležijo vse naše člane in članice; res da so slabi časi, toda bilo bi lepo, da bi se vsaj enkrat vse skupaj zbrali in malo skupno poveseli. Ravnino tako uljedno vabilo tudi vse druge rojake in rojakinje, da pridejo na ta naš piknik in se poveselijo z nami.

Ignacij Grom, tajnik.

Društvo Marije Sedem Zalosti št. 81, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Tem potom se pozivlja članice imenovanega društva, da se v polnem številu udeležijo seje dne 19. julija točno ob 2. uri popoldne. Drage mi sestre! Ponovno ste naprošene, da se v polnem številu udeležite, da boste slišale o polletnem društvenem poslovanju in polletnem računu.

Obenem opominjam one članice, katere že več mesecev dolgujejo na asesmentu, da poravnajo svoj doig, drugače se bo žnimi postopalo po pravilih, kajti društvo ne more za toliko članic zalažati; društvo sicer zna, da so slabi časi, toda ne za vse. Kot tajnica društva sem že 83 let in tež zadevi. Kateri članice so že poprej vsak mesec redno plačevalne svoj asesment, toda ga zdaj ne morejo, iste so sedaj O. K., ker pridejo na sojo in se opravijo da tudi ne morejo plačati. Neče da bodo plačati, da jim bo pri tem prišlo mnogoč. Za te članice bi društvo le v bodoči plačevali asesment, ne pa za one, katerih se ne udeležujejo sej, niti pa ne pridejo opraviti; take si samo mislite: O, naj je čakajo ce hoteli. Drage mi sestre, tako ne more več dolgo biti dalje.

Valedi tega vas zopet prosim, da res ne morete plačati, pridite vsaj na sejo dne 19. julija in ne kajti jaz ne bom več k meni, kajti jaz ne bom več odgovorna za nobeno; katera se ne prijavi, vem, da bo suspendirana; tega si boste same skrivne, ne pa društvo in tako tudi ne društveni odbor. Ravnajte se torej po društvenih pravilih. Toliko do znanja in ravnanja.

S sestrskim pozdravom,

Vabilo na piknik

S tem naznanjam sklep društvene seje, da priredimo v nedeljo, dne 26. piknik. Ker bo piknik prirejen v korist društvene blagajne, ste vsi člani in članice uljedno prošeni in vabileni, da se istega gotovo udeležite. Za vse bo kar najbolje preskrbljeno. Za žene bo na razpolago fina pijača in za lažne pa na raznja pripravljena koštronova pečenka; tudi za plesažljive bo na razpolago najboljša godba, torej le pridimo vse! Zaeno so tudi vabileni vse prijatelje našega društva. Dobro došli dne 26. julija!

Ob enem opozarjam one člane, ki imate še za dobiti certifikate, bodisi za aktivni ali za mladinski oddelki, pridite po nje na prihodnjo sejo.

Ludvik Perusek, tajnik.

Društvo sv. Jožeta št. 148, Bridgeport, Conn.

Dragi mi bratje in sestre: Bliža se nam zopet tretja nedelja v mesecu, čas redne društvene seje na 19. julija. Ker je pa sedaj v poletni dobi težavno se deti v vroči zborovalni dvoran, zato se ne bo vršila redna ali prava seja, ampak pobirali bomo samo asement od 1. do 4. ure popoldne. To si dobro zapomnite. Zdaj lahko pošljete tudi svojo deco da plača asement.

Zaeno apeliram na vse dolžnike, ki so zaostali z asementom, da stvar uredite. Polletno poslovanje društva je minilo, in vsak dobro zna za svojo dolžnost, da mora biti vse poravnano. V prvi vrsti prosim vse, ki dolgujejo že daje časa asement za deco, da ga uredite; dobro veste, če ste zaostali že za 3 mesece ali več, da jih potem bolj težko poravnati dolg. Zavedati se morate tudi, da v takem slučaju niste opravljenci do bolniške podpore, ako nimate vse z društrom poravnano. Temu ne bom jaz krit, ampak sašlo.

Dalje naznanjam, da bo naše društvo tudi letos priredilo svoj piknik, kdaj ravno, tega pa še ne vem; se vam bo že na seji in v Glasilu naznanilo.

S sobratskim pozdravom,
Anton Kolar, tajnik.

Iz urada tajnice društva sv. Marije Magdalene št. 162, Cleveland, O.

S tem uljedno naznanjam članicam našega društva, da sem se te dni preselila v naš novo dom na 21241 Miller Ave., v Euclidu, oziroma v Novi Ljubljani; moja nova telefonska številka je sedaj KENmore 0728 W. V vseh važnih društvenih zadevah izvolite torej v bodoči vpoštevati gornji naslov; pisma naslavljajte: M. H. 21241 Miller Ave., Cleveland, O.

P. S. Izrežite na naslov, ker vam bo večkrat prav prišel.

Društvo sv. Marije Pomagaj št. 144, Waukegan, Ill.

S tem uljedno naznanjam vsem članicam in jih pričim, da bi se v polnem številu udeležile prihodnje mesečne seje, ker imajo na isti za reči nobavno čas. Na tej seji bo tudi predčitati četrtletni račun, da boste znale kako društvo obstoje.

Prav lepo vas zopet prosim, da pridejte v velikem številu na to sejo in ne bojte se vročine; skušate bomo; da seja ne bo trajala predlgo.

Vabilo na sejo

Tem potom uljedno prosim in vabim vse člane ter članice našega društva na redno sejo, vrščo se v četrtek zvečer dne 16. julija, ker bo na tej seji več važnih stvari za reči.

Ker se ob nedeljah članstvo jako slabu udeležuje sej, je bilo na zadnji glavni seji sklenjeno, da se iste vrše čez teden in sicer vsak tretji četrtek v mesecu, kar že velja več mesecev. Torej pridite za gotovo vse na sejo dne 16. julija!

Društvo sv. Kristine št. 219, Euclid, O.

S tem opozarjam članstvo, da se bolj redno udeležuje društvene seje, ki se vrše samo enkrat v mesecu. Zalostno se mi vidi, še tako mlado društvo, paže po dobrih par letih vlada takva malomarnost glede obiskovanja sej kot bi morale biti; še celo od strani odbornikov; ne vem kje in kaj je vzrok; tega si sploh ne morem tolmačiti. Na seji pridejo na dnevnih red raznini dopisi ali predlogi, in samo par oseb ne more storiti tega, kar bi se lahko izvajalo ob večji udeležbi. Torej veže dolžnost vsakega, da se gotovo udeleži vsaj vsake četrtletne seje, kjer se čitajo računi, da vsakdo lahko ve kako društvo obstoji.

Dalje vam poročam sklep zadnje seje, da priredej naše društvo na Martinovo nedeljo malo igričo, po igri bo pa pravljeno vredno. To si dobro zapomnite. Zdaj lahko pošljete tudi vse druge rojake in rojakinje, da pridejo na naš piknik in se poveselijo z nami.

Prav veselih novic ni tukaj v naši naselbini, ker je kruta smrt pogosto na svojem delu. Tako je ta bela žena te dni obiskala pri naši jaka znani in ugledni družini Žužek ter si izbrala za žrtev njih najstarejšega sina Johna v njegovi najlepši mladenički dobi, star 18 let.

Rančki je bil več let član mladinskega oddelka našega društva sv. Jeronima, št. 153, dve leti nazaj je pa prestolil v aktivni oddelki in je bil vedno zvest, vnet in agilen delavec za naše društvo ter Jednoto. O tem sem se jaz sam prepričal. Ko sem bil na neki svatbi v njegovem društvi in več njegovih prijateljev in prijateljic, se je tako zavzemal, da se mora nekaj ukreniti za mlado članstvo našega društva, da bo isto napredovalo v duhu časa in mladine; zaeno je priporočal več reklame za privabitev novih članov.

Zalbože, da se mu je naenkrat vse drugačje spremeno. Zbolel je namreč nanagloma in čez mesec dni zatem se je moral podvreči operaciji, ki je bila zanj usodna, da je na operaciji mizi za vedno zaspal v Gospodu.

Ko smo to novico čuli, sploh nismo mogli verjeti, da bi smrt ugrabil tako čvrstega in močnega mladeniča, kot je bil pokojnik John Žužek, in to tako naglo! Imela ga bomo pa za vedno v prijaznem spominu.

Kako je bil pokojnik v resnicu popularen v tej naselbini, se je javno pokazalo za časa njegovega pogrebne. Iste se je udeležilo tudi mnogo članov in članic našega društva. O, kako težko je bilo trajno slovo ob njegovem odprttem grobu!

Dragi in nepozabni nam John! Veliko prekmalu si nas za vedno zapustil, sledje volji Vsemogočnega. Edina zavest nas pa tolaži, da se enkrat zopet skupaj

ČUDARJIVI SPOMIN
(Spisel Jos. Kostanjevec.)

"Ne morda najmanj mojemu pokojnemu predniku, gospodar, in ne morda najmanj razen njega predniku sedanjega gospoda učitelja, na katerih svetli spomin izpijmo to kupico," je dejal župnik skromno ter dvignil svojo časo.

"Toda nobena reč pod božjim solcem, naj se nam vidi še tako lepa in dobra, ni popolna."

je nadaljeval župnik. "Tako je tudi pri mojih župljanih nekaj, česar ne vidim rad pri njih in kar bi rad iztrbil s korenino. Ali vsi poizkusili so zaman, ne gre in ne gre. Lažinapredek in kar je z njim v zvezi, je preko- račil zidove mest in šopiri se že po trgi. Obljubila se zlata doba, doba lahkega dela in večje- ga uživanja, doba enakopravnosti in bratstva vseh slojev, do- ba veseljačenja. Ta napredrek prihaja tudi v vasi in zaselja, leže iz doline više in v bo- jim se, da ne bo prizanesel niti Crni. In ravno bahavost bo na- šim Črjanom pokvarila vid, da ne bodo vedeli razločevati med dobrim in slabim. Zato je dolž- nosť nas vseh, da se borimo proti takšnemu lažinapredku vsi, kolikor nas je človekoljubov in rodoljubov, ramo ob rami in z- zdrženimi močmi. Izobražen mož ste, gospod Jelenko, ne dvo- mím, da me razumete. Ne bo- rim se proti pravemu napredku, ne, gotovo ne. Pravi napredrek je od Boga in v čast Bogu, lju- dem v olajšavo njihovega bed- nega stanja, njihovega truda in trpljenja in v dosegove večjega blagostanja, pravi napredrek ima- men, storiti človeka kolikor močne popolnega in plemenite- ga, vseled tega tudi popolno in plemenito delo njegovih rok in v tej populnosti in plemenitosti tudi srečnega. Takšnega na- predka se veselim, takšnega na- predka želim vsemu človeštvu, ga želim zlasti svojim župlji- nom in vsemu narodu slovenske- mu. Ako bi imel pa priti v dru- gačni oblik, tedaj naj ostanejo moji ljudi Črnci rajši takšni, kakor so bili do sedaj in nik- dar ne bodo vedeli, kaj je hu- do..."

Mnogo se je še govorilo tisti večer in le prenglo je potekel čas. Župnik je dal poklicati mo- jega novega hišnega gospodarja Poljanca in ta me je spremil domov, ko sem se pozno v noči poslovil od obeh tako častitljivih novih tovarishev.

II.

Solnce je že posijalo čez goz- dove in Črna se je kopala v pr- vih njegovih žarkih, ko sem se drugega dne zbudil. Spal sem trdno in dobro, čvrst in okrepljen sem skočil s postelje. Moja sobica je imela okno na vrt,

ROYAL WELCOME EXTENDED AS KSKJ EXCURSIONISTS VISIT JUGOSLAVIA

Raphael Committee Meets Berengaria at Sea. Tourists Visit Shrine of Little Flower, St. Theresa, Jesenice and Ljubljana Extends Welcome. Visit Grave of Rev. F. S. Suterse.

By O. P. Correspondent

Ljubljana, Jugoslavia.—The group of KSKJ excursionists to Europe was tendered a warm welcome June 27th, as the Berengaria neared Cherbourg.

Exceeding all expectation the KSKJ members numbering about 80 were initiated into a round of welcomes when the liner was at sea plowing its way to Cherbourg. S. S. Lothringia, bearing a committee from the Raphael Society extended the first welcome and escorted the Berengaria to port.

The group then proceeded to Liseux, France, the site of the shrine of Little Theresa. Rev. John Plevnik, supreme spiritual director of the KSKJ, and member of the excursion party officiated at a mass read at the shrine chapel. A committee then escorted the tourists to the birthplace of the saint. The travelers then set out for Paris where they were met by a group of Jugoslav students. A reception in honor of the travelers followed at the La Fayette hotel.

The journey across France, Switzerland and Austria proved interesting to the visitors for the scenic beauty of that part of Europe is known to the world.

The itinerant welcomes were climaxed June 29th when the excursionists arrived in Ljubljana following a royal welcome at Jesenice, a town on the border of Jugoslavia. A local band, the mayor and city officials, school children, various societies and citizens welcomed the visitors as they entered Jesenice enroute to Ljubljana. During a brief stopover the ladies of Jesenice were hosts at a lunch given in honor of the travelers. Msgr. Michael Opeka, brother of Supreme President Frank Opeka met the party at this town and accompanied it to Ljubljana, the point of destination.

Thousands waited at the Ljubljana terminal as the excursion party arrived one hour late. The visitors were then given a welcome with pomp and glory.

Drs. Dolsak and Karlin welcomed the visitors in the name of Dravsko banovina. The welcoming delegation included about 25 societies headed by the band Zarja and the singing society Ljubljana. Several hundred scouts were on hand and maintained order.

The group was officially welcomed by Dr. Dolsak for the government and by Vice Mayor Professor Jarc for the city. Mr. Novak, president of the Mayors' Alliance welcomed the group in the name of that organization. The Catholic Trade Union extended its welcome through Dr. Joseph Lovrencic. Speaking in English, Mrs. Fanny Copeland, professor of English at the University of Ljubljana and a contributor to Our Page, welcomed the group. Other dignitaries were included in the program of welcome.

Following the official welcome the excursionists proceeded to St. Nicholas cathedral where Rev. Dr. Klinar, resident pastor greeted the group and where the Rev. J. Plevnik officiated at services. Msgr. Preml, noted composer was at the console of the organ and Dr. Kimec directed the choir for the services.

After mass, Rev. John Plevnik, Frank Opeka and Joseph Zalar, representing the tourists, were received by Dr. Gregorij Rošman, bishop of Ljubljana. Greetings being extended, the excursionists escorted by a band proceeded to Hotel Miklitch for dinner.

The speakers' program included Dr. Dolsak, representing Dravsko banovina; Professor Jarc, speaking for the city; Msgr. Dr. Mihael Opeka

Outdoor Life

This is the kind of weather that makes one who is inclined to outdoor life feel that to be indoors is one of the rankest injustices of life. After a day in the office, shop or home, how pleasant it is to get out into the open, sit beneath the open sky and enjoy a meal cooked over an open wood fire. The smell of wood naturally pervades the food, but that is the flavor the outdoor enthusiasts require. A few mosquitoes might be bothersome, but one used to being in the open pays little attention to them. There is some intangible something that makes a person love the outdoor life. Possibly a trait we inherit from our forefathers. If more persons would try this mode of recreation it is safe to say it would soon be hard to find an isolated spot for one to enjoy an outing of a similar nature.

Sport Boosters Note!

KSKJ members interested in the progress of the Union's athletic program may be informed by writing to John A. Churnovich, chairman of the KSKJ Athletic Board, 904 N. Hickory St., Joliet, Ill.

and Rev. F. S. Finzgar, noted author. The welcome was extended by Rev. Plevnik, Mr. Zalar and Mr. Opeka.

Telegrams of greeting were sent to Pope Pius XI, King Alexander and President Hoover.

With the program of reception completed, the tourists dispersed and journeyed to various parts of Jugoslavia to visit relatives and friends.

BACH SPEAKS TO PIT BOOSTERS

Former Teammate of Famous Notre Dame Team Inspires Pittsburgh KSKJers

By F. J. SUMIC

Pittsburgh, Pa.—The second meeting of the Pittsburgh KSKJ Booster Club was indeed eventful, especially the entertainment program which included several distinguished guests.

Mr. Joseph Bach, assistant football coach at Duquesne University and former teammate of the renowned "four horsemen," was the principal speaker. He stressed the qualities and attributes of Knute Rockne. It was difficult for Mr. Bach to speak of Rockne without restraining a tear drop. Mr. Bach gave us an idea of organizing our Booster club to resemble the system employed by the athletic clubs at Notre Dame. He gave us one principle to be governed by: "One for all and all for one."

In conclusion he promised us all a complimentary pass to one of Duquesne's night football games next autumn.

The delightful entertainment program included five-year-old Ukelele Ike, young Joe Negri, a radio star who pleased us with his strumming and singing. John and Frances Balkovec, Booster members gave us several well selected pieces and their rendition was even more pleasing since they are our own brother and sister members. A little songbird, Charles Cascadden entertained with several popular numbers. He also sang in a duet with our little hero, Joseph Negri.

The business session proceeded quietly, but it was found that the members did not respond so faithfully. The attendance numbered only 70. It was stressed that each and everyone get busy and make the Booster Club a vital factor in KSKJ circles. The newly organized club, they pointed out, is not an independent subsidiary and there are no fees for admission or initiation. Membership is open to all KSKJ members of Pittsburgh. The club was organized mainly to promote a loyal interest in the KSKJ, among the KSKJ members, and our American friends.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, July 23d. Don't forget and invite your KSKJ acquaintances. An entertaining program will be given before the business session.

Wedding of Two Years Ago Made Public

The marriage of Louis Gregorich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gregorich Sr. of La Salle, to Miss Jeanne Brovelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Brovelli, Kenosha Ave., Oglesby, which took place on Sept. 20, 1929, was announced to their friends this week.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Theodore Wujek, pastor of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Oglesby.

During the two years the ceremony has been kept secret, numerous rumors were circulated that the couple had been married, but were never confirmed or denied by either party.

A boy's character is revealed by the manner in which he uses his spare moments.

A COUNTRY OF THE FUTURE

A talk by Dr. Julius Klein, assistant secretary of commerce, delivered over the coast-to-coast network of the Columbia Broadcasting System from Chicago, Ill., Sunday, June 7:

We have been hearing much of late as to the possibility of foreign trade as an aid in our business predicament. Now, foreign trade means markets—people—places everywhere, not simply the countries whose names are familiar to all of us. In fact, there were many American firms last year who did well because they went out after the less known markets. And so I thought we might take such a country for today's talk—a country of the future, the near future.

To those of us who feel that our New World has had a monopoly of pioneering in a "land of opportunity" a visit to the kingdom of Jugoslavia would cause something of a surprise. It is a Balkan state, to be sure, whose people have had a long, picturesque, often turbulent history until the great climax of July, 1914, when Austrian artillery, attacking Belgrade, the present capital of the kingdom, fired the first shot of the World War.

Nevertheless, since 1918, the year of the voluntary union with Serbia of Montenegro and the Southern Slav provinces of the old Austro-Hungarian empire, the history of the nation has been one of phenomenal progress in the pursuit of peace, comparable to that of one of the economically "new" parts of the world. In fact, as you walk through the streets of Belgrade you are apt to be reminded of some hustling American city—new buildings going up everywhere, streets torn up, sidewalks being laid, real estate subdivisions in the suburbs—in a word, a vigorously thriving city, very different from anything that we are accustomed to associate with staid old Europe. Do not think for a moment that it is "just one more of those quaint little story-book kingdoms"—not at all. It is bigger than Indiana and Illinois combined or the whole of New England plus New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland—quite a sizable area right across the Adriatic from Italy. And its 13 millions would just about equal the population of New England plus New Jersey and Maryland. And the striking thing is its amazing diversity—plenty of castles, lots of mountains and fertile valleys, abundant forests and minerals. Diversity of resources is what counts in these days; it is the overspecialized areas that are in trouble mostly.

If Americans contribute in some part to the development of these many latent possibilities in Jugoslavia they will be repaying a real debt, for the members of the South Slavic race (Jugoslavia, by the way, means Southern Slavia) have played no small part in our own country. The members of this race in the United States today, including their American-born children, number about 750,000. In California they have especially prosperous colonies, with many of their members in high standing business and professional life. Coming from a land where mining has been carried on for some two thousand years, it is natural that many of them should be found in the coal districts of Pennsylvania and West Virginia, in the iron mines of northern Michigan and Minnesota, in fact, almost everywhere in this country where minerals are found. Industrial activity is comparatively new to them, but their adaptability is proven by the number of skilled workmen they have contributed to our American factories. It was stated at the Paris Peace Conference that "the work of skilled Slovenian mechanics in the factories of Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland and Pittsburgh contributed toward the winning of the war just as much as an army of 25,000 fully equipped soldiers." And these men came from a land whose activities even today are 85 per cent agricultural and pastoral!

Of course, with that long, picturesque coast along the Adriatic, they have also been great fishermen and seafaring folk. In fact, in North Carolina the town of Croatian recalls the group of shipwrecked Croatian sailors who founded it in 1800.

The cultural and scientific achievements of brilliant Jugoslavs in the United States have been especially impressive. There is Nikola Tesla, inventor of many electrical devices of primary importance, and Prof. Michael Pupin of Columbia University, whose invention of the relaying system made possible long-distance telephony. The only man in the American army in France in the great war who received two Congressional Medals of Honor (our highest decoration for valor) was Capt. Louis Cukela, a native of the city of Split, Jugoslavia's principal seaport.

The place of Jugoslav-Americans in banking and commerce is also an important one, in almost every section of our country; they were among the founders of the fruit-growing industries of California. It is natural, perhaps, for them to feel especially at home in that state, for the first Jugoslavs of whose presence in America we have record were missionaries who went to California from Mexico in the 17th Century. In 1730 one of them, Ferdinand Kenchak, made one of the first detailed maps of southern California. In the early 19th Century five Jugoslav bishops worked in frontier settlements of our Northwest, the most famous being Bishop Baraga.

Here is an interesting contact between the two countries: Roger Boskovic, a Jugoslav scientist, was a great friend in London of Benjamin Franklin, when he represented us there. He influenced certain of our great American's scientific conceptions, and is further declared on good authority to have been the man to have suggested the surveying of the Mason and Dixon line!

Since the war the bonds of sympathy between the United States and Jugoslavia have been closer than ever. A Carnegie library has been opened in Belgrade. American authors have long been read there, especially Emerson, Whitman, Poe and Mark Twain.

The Rockefeller Foundation enables young men from Jugoslavia to enter American schools and invites eminent Jugoslav physicians to this country, besides actively co-operating in public health work. The Jugoslav Society of New York has also done much to promote good will between the two peoples. Arrangements recently have been made for a group of American professors to make a first-hand study of Jugoslav conditions.

There have been no less than nine American loans to Jugoslavia since 1922, and the total new capital obtained in that way was $55,000,000, chiefly for railroad construction and port facilities. So you see, we have been playing our part in the material upbuilding of that vigorous young nation.

New York, N. Y.—The small monoplane, "Winnie Mae," mistress of the air lanes of the world, roared out of a ruddy western haze at 200 miles an hour on the night of July 1st, and completed at Roosevelt Field the swiftest circling of the earth in the history of man. At 8:47 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time—exactly 8 days, 15 hours, 51 minutes and 10 seconds after Wiley Post, one-eyed Oklahoma pilot, and Navigator Harold Gatty took off from the historic field on their flight around the globe, the gallant pair brought their ship down to a perfect three-point landing. They had trimmed 12 days and 15 hours from the record of the Graf Zeppelin. During their four days, ten hours and eight minutes of actual flying time, their 425 horsepower Pratt and Whitney motor had shot their trim ship along the airlanes at an average speed, estimated by Gatty, of more than 150 miles an hour. Of all the receptions to air heroes at Roosevelt Field, none have been as frantic as last night's demonstration.

The crowd brushed the police aside, and the police retaliated by using the nightstick and motorcycle charges, under the scores of which went down with all manner of bruises. A movie operator all but walked into the plane's propeller. Cheers, fist fights, the sudden soft puffing of flashlights, and blinding glare of motion picture flares mingled indiscriminately in the bedlam—which formed the background of the happy "landing," the end of the fastest and longest journey that two men have ever taken since the world began.

There were probably 10,000 persons inside the field at the moment, and 50,000 outside the enclosure. The instant the plane touched the ground, heading toward the southwest wind, attendants rushed and police deserted their posts at the gates to rush toward the field for a better view, and the massed throngs poured into the field. In the melee that followed, scores of persons were knocked down, bruised by charging police motorcycles. The Nassau police finally organized and plunged madly against the wall of humanity, battering and striking spectators, reporters, cameramen and movie-operators alike. In the heat of the argument one citizen struck a cop in the eye. A moment later he was carried out unconscious. When the field had finally taken on a semblance of sanity, the plane was rolled into the hangar and Post and Gatty were smuggled through the crowd. Both fliers were nervously shaken.

Once the fliers were safe in the Ritz Carlton Hotel they spoke to Mayor Walker over the phone and accepted an invitation to have breakfast with President Hoover at the White House Monday morning. Despite the frantic efforts at speed, their stops ate up half the time they were away. At Harbor Grace, the end of their first jump, the fliers paused only long enough for gas. They repeated this procedure, taking an additional few minutes to eat a bite, at Chester, England. They stopped only long enough for a seventh inning stretch, gasoline and navigation data, at Hanover, Germany; Irkutsk, Siberia! Solomon, Alaska; and Cleveland the final stopping place.

And today the two gallant fliers received a most appealing and worthy parade up to City Hall, which excelled the demonstrations given to Lindbergh and Byrd. Millions of people were standing on all sides of the streets and the telephone books were torn into small bits of paper and thrown down on the gallant fliers to show what New York thinks of two of its most gallant and brave sons. Then they had luncheon at the Ritz Carlton and dinner at the New York Athletic Club. By the way Mr. Wiley Post had two tickets to the Schmeling-Stribling fight that Stribling gave to him.

THAT PROMISE
By The Whittler

(Concluded)

"Say, Clara, I've bought two tickets to your parents' home with a stop-over at Winbloom."

"Why, Dick, I thought you never did like stop-overs."

"I don't, but I've some business to settle there."

"Oh, that's all right."

As the train was nearing Winbloom, Richard became noticeably nervous.

"Why, what's the trouble Dicky? Are you sick?"

"No. Just anxious to get this deal over."

"Is it a big deal?"

"You bet. Wiping the sweat off his brow.) If I put this one over, we'll be on easy street for the rest of our lives."

The train stopped. The couple got off and went to a nearby hotel, which Dick thought would be safest and most comfortable for his darling wife. Then he set out on his mission.

"Well," he mused. "While I'm here, I may as well drop in on my friend, Postmaster Jackson."

"Why, hello, Dick, ol' boy," greeted Jackson, as he saw Richard entering. "What's come over you? You must have found your fountain of youth."

"That's it," replied Richard. "But—

"No buts," interrupted Jackson. "Your Leona got married two weeks ago, and that's the end of her."

"Hot dogs," exclaimed Richard. "That's just what I've been wishing to hear."

"Say, where is your angel?"

"Right over at the Apollo. Come and see her."

Jackson donned a hat and coat and left the office in charge of the assistants.

"Jack, my friend, don't ever mention anything about that love affair to her."

"Not I, you can be sure. I'll be as close as a clam."

"Why, if it isn't the same ol' angel that left this burg some twelve years ago."

"Glad to see me, are you Jack?"

"You bet your life I am. Say, Dick, it surely was a good thing that you kept on searching for her."

"Am I glad?" echoed Richard. "You bet I am. Thanks to you, Jack, for encouraging me."

"Where are you two lovebirds going now?" asked Jackson.

"To Clara's new home, in Brightville. A grand house, right next to her parents."

"Won't mother and dad be glad to see us together," beamed Clara gleefully.

"You bet," returned Richard. "And won't Saint Anthony just be tickled to see us at his shrine in Padua this summer!"

Strange people.—The woman who frequently dines at the McAlpin who asks for a white-haired waiter or blonde waiter, with an explanation that it is the only way she can tell waiters apart.

The man who complained to one of the hotel managers recently because the cats whining outside at night bothered him. He turned out to be a fearless wild animal hunter who frequently has slept in a blanket within a stone's throw of a leopard or tiger.

The bald headed man who inquired of the nightclub head-waiter when the girl revue started and, when told, said he would come back when it was over because he hated to watch their silly antics.

The English woman traveler at a certain hotel in Manhattan who recently was carrying her own pillow on a round-the-world trip.

The recent guests at the Prince George Hotel who refused to take any other room in the house but 511, although it is not the best, because numerology said it was their lucky number.

The lights in front of police-stations are green because it is acknowledged universally as the sign of safety on land and sea.

Newton Lumberjacks Crush Nuckolls Packers

Pueblo, Colo.: The Newton Lumberjacks carried a big punch in their bats Sunday, July 5, at the Eiler Stadium before a large crowd.

Joseph "Muss" Mikatich, star southpaw chucker, kept the Packers from doing much hitting, with the result that the Lumberjacks overwhelmed the Packers, 11 to 3. Mikatich had his fast hook ball working fine, relieving 17 of the Packers via the strikeout route, and allowing only 7 hits. The Lumberjacks put the game away in the fifth inning when they scored five runs on four hits, a walk and an error. "Laird" Popovich did the heavy stick work for the Lumberjacks, getting a double and two triples in three times at bat. The sensational fielding of "Shorty" Kochan and Tony Wodishek featured the game. The Lumberjacks will play the Royal Giants, a fast colored team, Aug. 2 at the Eiler Stadium.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Chisholm, Minn.

Dear Editor: In a recent issue of Our Page you published a letter signed by a "Real Slovenec." For the latter's information and for those who are of his opinion, kindly publish the following:

Slovenian ideals and culture are indescribable. Only a person who has Slovenian blood in his veins can comprehend them. It is a known fact that the culture and ideals possessed by the Jugoslavs are in their safekeeping and sacred, following centuries of conflict to preserve them.

It may be true that a continuous talk that Slovenes should be proud of their nationality may be harmful to the group and may have the negative reaction of instilling in them an inferior feeling. It may also lead to super-nationalism which has the same effect as saturated sectism and intolerance. However, although I may say that I read profusely and have many contacts with Slovenian people, I have not as yet heard or noticed anyone tell the younger generation to be proud of its nationality.

A real Slovene, although he is naturally proud of his heritage, is humble and will not humiliate himself by stooping to brag. It should be the aim of every Slovene to learn his mother tongue, and cherish the ideals of his parents, for if the customs of our forefathers have weathered the storm for centuries they are sound and will survive despite any modernism. Think it over "Real Slovenec."

Dear Editor: Where is the Our Page of old? Where are all the personal items that made the page so popular? Don't you think that your new policy is losing readers for you?

Personally I believe that the material published in the page at the present time is too "deep" and too heavy for the average reader. There are too many stories and not enough wit and light reading. In all, to be frank, one would think that you are publishing a section for a group of old timers whose only wish is philosophy, poetry etc. Why not give us a break by giving us what we want? I am sure that a great number of your readers are in sympathy with my thoughts. Hoping that you will oblige if possible.

Dear Editor: * KSKJ baseball used to be the talk of summer. Is there any such think now? What happened to the athletic board that was to be elected after the last convention? Is there a board? If so, what is it doing or what does it intend to do? If they are doing something it is the duty of Our Page to publish the news; if there isn't any board it is high time that one be appointed or elected; if there is a board and it is asleep then someone should take some of

SAYS MISS WISE:—

One of the biggest things I have learned in business, which is one of the controlling policies of my life, is this: The moment that you find out that you can do a certain thing in one way, and that this one way is sure a way to success along your particular line, and is sure to be of approval by all, then turn around and start to devise some other way. Arrange your work so that no set of circumstances can leave you helpless. I am certain that we would have fewer failures in this world, if people would learn that more than one road leads to success.

When you remember that an hour's extra sleep at night may turn the scales in an emergency the firecrackers that were left over the Fourth and set them under it. My gosh! To think that the KSKJ at one time had one of the best fraternal baseball organizations (financed by individual lodges), and at present it is about six feet under the ground even though it is said that we have an athletic fund. Don't you think it is time to wake up?

ALL IN A KNIGHT

By Brooklyn Knight

It's about 6 p. m. on a second Tuesday of the month. The Knights of Trinity are coming home from their respective occupations, ring the bell, enter the house, throw their hats on a rack, bed or chair. "Hello Folks, tough day today. Darn hot isn't it?" Then, they probably gaze about the domicile and finally rest their eyes on a postcard from the secretary. "Well, I guess I don't have to wonder what I'll do tonight."

Supper is ready, they sit down at the table, dig into the chow, probably strukle, žgance, kranjske klobase and kislo zelje and what not. Seven p. m. is here. "Well, have to go, got to be there at 7:30. So long, folks."

One after the other they gather in front of the American Slovenian Auditorium until a certain member arrives then they enter the meeting place. "What do you think of the Schmeling-Stribling fight? Wasn't it a wow? The Robins are certainly getting there. And how! Aw, the Cardinals will cop. You're full of boloney. Watch the Robins." Finally, the president arrives. I think he's trying to imitate Jimmie Walker, always late.

"All right boys, we're all here, let's go."

Prayer opens the meeting. The officers are seated around the table. The president looks serious, in fact, I think it's the only time that guy can be serious.

The first order of business will be the roll-call. All present, that's fine. The next order of business will be the reading of the minutes. Very good. Motion has been made that the minutes be accepted as
