LETO XXXIX. — VOL. XXXIX.

Zanimive vesti iz življenja ameriških Slovencev

Pri delu v jeklarski tovarni v Pueblo, Colo., se je smrtno posrečil rojak Jakob Henigsman, star 61 let in doma iz Semiča v Beli Krajini. Prišel je v dotik z močnim električnim tokom, ki ga je na mestu ubil. Pokojni je delal v pueblskih tovarnah 36 let in je bil tako aktiven pri društvi. Zapusča tri sinove in dve hčeri.

V Johnstownu, Pa., je predkratki umrl rojak John Škof, star 75 let in doma iz Martinjaka pri Rakeku. V Ameriki je bil 35 let. Zapusča pet otrok.

V Rockingham, Pa., je umrl rojak Martin Zalar, po domače Šuštarjev, star 60 let in doma iz Unca pri Rakeku. V Ameriki je bil 32 let in zapusča tu ženo in 6 otrok.

V Forest City, Pa., je naglooma umrl rojak John Kotar star 72 let.

Mrs. Marie Prisland, glavna predsednica Slovenske Ženske Zveze, je bila te dni imenovana od Rooseveltovga kampanjskega odbora za podpredsednico slovenskega oddelka, ki vodi po vseh državah kampanjo za ponovno izvolitev Roosevelta.

Franz Barbic iz Clevelandja je zapisal v "Prosjeti," da je bil Louis J. Pirce na banketu, ki je bil prirejen v počast delegacije J. S. K. Jednote v Clevelandu. Resnic na ljubo naj povemo, da g. Pirce ni bilo na banketu, ker je imel tedaj dovolj opravila s časopisom. Zakaj Barbic nameoma laže, nam je neumevno.

Iz javne tržnice

V Cleveland je začelo prihajati ohjisko grozje, ki je letos izredno sladko. Jabolka prihajajo bolj redko. Zaboj jabolk iz Washingtona se je včeraj prodaja na debelo po $3.00, dočim je bušel domaćih jabolk na javnem trgu $1.65. Vse to so cene na debelo. Solate prihaja tako malo v Cleveland, dasi je vpraševanje po njej obilno. Breske in melone so skoro zginile iz trga. V obilici pa prihajajo česplje. Cena jajcem se je nekoliko podražila. Cena grozdu na javni tržnici je bila včeraj do 55 centov pol bušla, računajoc po kakovosti grozda. To pomeni, da bo cena toni grozdu nekako $44.00 do $46.00.

Konec konvencije

Danes bodo zaključeni poslednji posli American Legion in stotisočeri gosti, ki se dospeli za konvencijo v Cleveland, se bodo začeli seliti iz mesta. Za načelnika American Legion je bil izvoljen odvetnik Colmery iz Topeka, Kans. Na konvenciji je včeraj govoril Wm. Green, predsednik American Federation of Labor, ki je pozival American Legion, da se bori, da se Amerika ne bi vtikalna v neznošne evropske razmere.

Jugoslovanski dinar

Cena jugoslovanskemu dinarju se je znižala nekoliko. Banke posiljajo 1,000 dinarjev za $22.05. K temu je seveda potreben pristeti še poštino in druge stroške, ki so združene s posiljatvijo. Pred dobrim mesecem je bila cena dinarja $23.00 za 1,000 dinarjev.

Asessment

Podružnica št. 14 S. ž. Z. bo nocoj pobirala društveni asesment v navadnih prostorih.

To je konvencija!

Cleveland si je deloma oholil nervozne možgane, katere mu je pozročila konvencija American Legion. Deloma so Legionarji še v Clevelandu, toda so se precej pomirili po ogromni paradi, ki so jo imeli v tork ves dan in vso noč. Nezaslišano je, kaj se je vse godilo po ulicah v teh dnevh. Če bi se tako obnašali delegati kakake naše organizacije, bi bili že zdavnaj prijeti in zaprti. Legionarji so bili zlasti letos izredno razposajeni, ko so dobili dva tisoč in dvesto milijonov dolarjev bonusa klub protestu predsednika Roosevelt.

Lastniki hotelov pripravljajo o razbitem pohištву, lastniki trgovin o razbitih šipah, ceste v dolejnem delu mesta so kot po strašnem karnevalu na debelo posute s papirjem in nesnago, pijanih ljudi v vsem svojim življenju niste videli toliko kot te dni, ženske so bile napadane, ulične kare ustavljeni, avtomobilom preprenačena vožnja. Marsikdo je hitel k smrtni postelji svojega sodnika, prijatelja, pa ni mogel 24 ur blizu. Well, pravijo Legionarji, enkrat na leto moramo imeti "fun," in ameriška demokracija pač vse prenese, četudi pri tem silno trpi!

V letu 1940 bodo zadne narodne volitve, pravi Coughlin

Berlin, 24. septembra. — Po Nemčiji se je raznesel glas, da se namerava sedanji nemški diktator Hitler odpovedati svojemu uradu, ki je uradno znan kot kancler nemške republike. Hitler bi še ostal kot vodja nacističke stranke. Za naslednika Hitlerju omenjajo dobro poučeni krog ministra propagande, Goeringa, katerega bi tudi Hitler priporočil. Hitler je baje zadnje čase postal skrajno neroven in baje ni več zmožen voditi posle nemške republike. V Nemčiji prevladuje zadnje čase silna napetost, zlasti, ko je Hitler v preteklih dneh izjavil, da mora biti sleherni zmožni Nemec mobiliziran in pripravljen za vojno.

Diktator Hitler se nameava odpovedati?

Berlin, 24. septembra. — Po Nemčiji se je raznesel glas, da se namerava sedanji nemški diktator Hitler odpovedati svojemu uradu, ki je uradno znan kot kancler nemške republike. Roosevelt se namerava podati na potovanje po Ameriki začetkom oktobra.

Železniški bondi

Iz borznega trga v New Yorku se poroča, da so cene bondom in delnicam ameriških železnic te-kom zadnjih dñih precej dvignile.

Promet po ameriških železnicah se je visoko dvignil, odkar je administracija v Washingtonu odredila, da se mora znizati prevozna cena po ameriških železnicah.

Prvič v zgodovini so se izjavili zamorci za demokrata!

New York, 23. septembra. V Madison Square Garden se je včeraj včila ogromna manifestacija ameriških zamorcev. Nad 40,000 jih je bilo navzočih. Zborovanje se je enoglasno izjavilo za socialni program, kakor ga priporoča predsednik Roosevelt ameriškemu narodu.

Zamorci so bili do sedaj do-sledno pristaši republikancev.

Toda odkar je Roosevelt prevzel administracijo, so dognali, kako silne reforme je predsednik do-segel, ki so zlasti tudi za zamorcevogromnega pomena.

Zamorci voditelji v vseh državah nujno pozivajo zamorce, da volijo letos demokratskega predsedniškega kandidata, rekoč, da so dolga leta živeli in strada-li pri odkljuban republikancev, ki se niso nikdar izpolnile.

Glavni govornik na shodu za-morcev je bil Donald Richberg, bivši načelnik NRA organizaci-je, ki je povedal, da pravi podpirateli fašizmu in diktatorstva

v Ameriki so člani Liberty lige in republikanci. Ako pridejo do vlade, tedaj bo Amerika v krat-

8-centna vožnja se vpelje v Clevelandu? Gov. Landon obljubuje farmerjem zlato bodočnost

Cleveland. — Uradniki mestne vlade v Clevelandu se bodo danes posvetovali z direktorji družbe cestne železnice, da doženejo, kako visoka naj bo vožnina po uličnih karah v Clevelandu za bodoč. Družba cestne železnice je izjavila, da bo odpravila

v tem mestu in obljubil farmarjem zlate čase, ako bodo izvolili njega za predsednika.

Landon je povedal zbranim

farmarjem, da bo administracija pod njegovim vodstvom pla-čevala farmerjem v gotovini za ves primanjkljaj, ki ga imajo na farmah in bo tudi skrbel, da bo farmarske družine dobro preskrbljene v slučaju potrebe.

Pred štirinajstimi dnevi je gov. Landon osto napadal v in-dustrijskem mestu Bostonu predsednika Roosevelt, ker je

Roosevelt pomagal farmerjem.

Sedaj pa je Landon sam priznal, da farmarji potrebujejo pomoč

in je sledil predsednik Roosevelt glede pomoči farmerjem.

Farmarji, ki so poslušali govor gov. Landona, so bili razoča-rani, ko je Landon priporočal podporo v gotovini za farmerje, dočim je v svojem govoru julija meseca ostro nastopil proti tak podpori.

Govor gov. Landona je bil ponovno ponesrečen in farmerji, ki so poslušali govorja iz

Kansasa, so v glavnih majah, ko so odhajali iz zborovanja. Kot

v skoro vseh slučajih, je tudi ta govor gov. Landona povzročil neprizeten vtis na poslušalce.

Morski jastreb

PREVEL — A. Š.

"Medtem pa," je rekel Master Godolphin porogljivo, "ali ne bi hoteli na meni izpolnit svojih groženj?"

"Na vas?" je zategnil Sir Oliver. "Jaz nisem noben morilec paglavcev, dečko moj. Poleg tega pa ste vi brat vaše sestre, zato mi ni na tem, da bi se pomnoževal zapreke, ki so že itak na moji poti." Nato pa je izpremenil svoj ton ter se sklonil preko mize. "Torej, na dan besedo, Peter! Kaj je na dnu vsega tega? Ali ne moreva izzravnati takih razlik, kakšne mislite da obstojajo? Na dan ž njimi? To ni Sir Johnova zadaja. On pri tem ne pride v poštev. Ampak vi — z vami je drugače. Vi ste njen brat. Torej na dan s stvarjo! Bodiva odkrita in prijateljska."

"Prijateljska?" je zarežal Peter. "Glede prijateljstva sta nam že očeta dala tozadeven zgled."

"Ali naj naju briga to, kar sta delala najina očeta? Toličko večja sramota za nju, ki sta bila soseda, pa nista mogla biti prijatelja. Ali naj tudi mi slediva temu zgledu?"

"Pa menda vendar ne boste trdili, da je bila krivda na strani mojega očeta!" je vzkliknil oni razdraženo.

"Jaz ne trdim nicesar, dečko. Pravim samo, sramoto za obo!"

"Strela!" je zaklel Master Peter. "Ali boste mrtve obrekovali?"

"Ako je tako, tedaj obrekujem obo. Toda tega ne delam. Storil nisem nicesar drugega kot to, da sem obsodil napako, katero bi morala obo priznati, če se spet vrnila v življenje."

"Potemtakem, gospod, prihranite oobsodo za svojega lastnega očeta, s katerim ni mogel nihče, ki je kaj držal na svojo čast, živeti v miru . . ."

"Počasi, počasi, gospod . . ."

"Nobene potrebe ni, da bi me o pominjali k počanosti. Ralph Tressilian, vaš oče, je bil sramota za to okolico. Ni je vasi med tem krajem in Trurom, ali med tem krajem in Helstonom, kjer ne bi mrgolelo ljudi z velikimi nosovi, kakšen je vaš, ki so živ spomin na vašega razuzdanega očeta."

Oči Sira Oliverja so se zožile; nasmehnili se je. "Glejte, čudim se, kako ste prišli do svojega lastnega nosu?"

Master Godolphin je šinil kvišku, njegov stol pa je zaropotil za njim na tla. "Sir," je zagrmil, "vi želite spomin moje matere!"

Sir Oliver se je zasmehal. "Ne tajim . . . Morda nisem baš preskop z besedami, to pa zato, da vam vrnem poklone, ki jih delate vi spominu moje očeta."

Master Godolphin ga je za hip motril s taho jezo, nato pa se je sklonil naprej, vzdignil roko s palico ter udaril ž njo Sir Oliverja preko rame.

Nato se je obrnil ter kakor pav oholo odkorakal proti vratom. Na pol poti pa se je ustavil.

"Pričakujem vaših prijateljev in dolžine vašega meča," je dejal.

Sir Oliver se je spet zasmehal. "Menda si ne bom delal truda, da bi jih pošiljal," je odgovoril.

Master Godolphin ga je presenečeno pogledal:— "Kako? Tak vi ste pripravljeni kar tako spraviti ta udarec?"

Sir Oliver je skomignil z rameni. "Nihče ga ni videl," je je to njegovo lastno ozemlje in da je le njegov lasten dobrbit in dobrbit njegove družine tisti, katerega tako zalo pospešuje. Po srečem naključju sva se srečala v Londonu, ko je prišel Sir John baš zaradi te zadeve na dvor. Vidite, naključje je pa hoče, da imam tudi jaz svoje interese v Truru in Penarrou; toda, ker nisem kakor je Sir John, sem toliko pošten, da to javno povem. Ako bi se imela pojavitaka kaka porast okoli Smithicka, se bo pojavila zradi njegovega boljšega položaja, iz česar sledi, da bosta trpela kraja Truro in Penryn, kar pa mi je prav tako malo všeč, kakor bi bila obratna stvar njemu. In to sem Siru Johnu tudi povedal, kakor sem povedal tudi kraljici v obliki protipeticije." Skomignil je z rameni. "Trenutek je bil preveč ugoden zame. Jaz sem bil namreč eden izmed onih pomorščakov, ki so premagali doble nepremagljivo mornarico španskega kralja Filipa. Zato se moje peticije ni moglo odkriti. Sir John pa je moral oditi domov praznih rok. Ali se torej čude, če me sovraži? Ko ga poznam tak, kakor ga, ali se je čuditi, če me imenuje pirata in še slabšči? Naravno je, če želi omalovažiti moja dejanja na visokem morju, ali če želi ista prikazati v napačni lumi, ker so mi pa prav ta dejanja stekla moč, s katero mi je bilo omogočeno okrniti njegov dobiček? On si je izbral orožje obrekovanja in natolcevanja, da mi ž njim škoduje, toda takega orožja se jaz ne poslužujem, zato ga bom lepega dne zadel s svojim lastnim orožjem. Če mi ne verjamete, kar pravim, tedaj pojrite z menoj in bodite priča pogovoru, ki ga bom imel s tem malopridnežem."

"Vi pozabljajte," je rekel Master Godolphin, "da imam tudi jaz svoje interese v sosesčini Smithicka in da tudi mojim interesom škodujete."

"Ha, ha!" se je zasmel Sir Oliver. "Torej končno prihaja vendar na dan resnice, ki je vzrok, da se mi očita moja izprijeno Tressilijansko kri in moje piratsko življenje! Zdaj sele vidi, kakšen bedak sem bil, ko sem mislil, da mislite resno in da ste poštenjak." Njegov glas se je dvignil, njegova gornja ustna je pričela podrhtavati od jeze in gneva. "Prisegam vam, da ne bi bil niti besedice izgubil z vami, če bi bil samo slutil, da ste tko zloben in malenkosten človek!"

"Te besede . . ." je pričel Master Godolphin ter se pričel oholo vzravnati.

". . . so mnogo manj, kakršne ste si zasluzili," ga je presekal kratko Sir Oliver, nato pa zaklical: "Nick!"

"Za te besede mi boste dajali odgovor," je rekel obiskovalec.

"Dajem vam ga zdaj," je rekel Sir Oliver suho. "Priti sem in me trapiti z grehi mojega očeta ter s starimi spori, ki so vladali med njim in vašim ocetom, zmerjati me s piratom ter mi očitati načine mojega življenja ter prikazovati vse to kot razloge, da nisem vreden, da bi poročil vašo sestro, dočim je na dnu vaše resnične sovražnosti par umazanih funтов šterlingov dobička na leto, to je nesramnost najnižje vrste. Zato — v božjem imenu, pojrite!"

V tem trenutku je vstopil Nick.

"Slišali boste še o meni, Sir Oliver," je dejal oni jezno. "Za svoje besede mi boste dajali račun!"

"Jaz se ne bojujem s . . . polehlepožni!" je useljal Sir Oliver.

"Mar se držnete mene imenovati polehlepožna?"

Drugo poglavje

Ko je njegov obiskovalec odšel, se je Sir Oliver spet zbral in pomiril. Ko pa je potem v mirovru spet začel premišljevati svoj položaj, ga je znova popadla jeza, ki mu je naslikala poleg resničnih zaprek, katere

ver. "Prišel je, da mi pove nekatere stvari, toda v zameno je tudi nekatere stvari od mene slišal."

"Ha! Srečal sem ga v bližini vhoda v park, pa je bil gluh za moj pozdrav. To ti je presneto nataknjen in svojeglaven mladič."

"Ali si ti sodnik ljudi, Lionel?" Sir Oliver je vstal, ko si je bil obul škrnjne. "Namenjen sem v Arwenack, kjer bom izmenjal s Sirom Johnom pozdrav ali dva."

"Njegove tesno stisnjene ustne ter njegovo resolutno zadržanje je dalo njegovim besedam toliko pomena, da ga je Lionel prepelašen prijet za roko: "Pa ne boš . . . ne boš . . . ?"

"Da, bom." In v ljubezni, kakor da mu hoče pregnati strah iz srca, je Sir Oliver potrepljal bratca po ramenu: "Sir John," je pojasnil, "vse preveč govori. To je njegova navada, katero pa mislim danes popraviti. Sel bom ter ga naučil kreposti molka."

"Potemtakem bodo sitnosti, Oliver."

Naznanilo

POTNIKOM NA ULIČNI ŽELEZNICI

in publiki v splošnem

V NEDELJO 4. OKTOBRA bo voznina pri tej družbi po ceni C, sekcije za voznino od Tayler pogodbe: 8 centov v gotovini, 7 tiketov za 50 centov, 1 cent za transfer. (Izven mesta voznina: 10 centov v gotovini, 6 tiketov za 50 centov).

To pomeni znižanje v voznini za gotovino in za tikete.

Tudi pomeni odvzem passov in drugih posebnih voznin.

Ta premembra je bila potrebna vsled serij dogedkov, nad katerimi družba nima kontrole. Navedli jih bomo brez komentarja, verujoč, da bodo fakta govorila zanje.

V pondeljek 14. septembra je odsek za pogajanje dal našim voznikom, operatorjem busov in drugim delavcem na uro, zvišano plačo 6 centov na uro, začenši s 1. majem 1936 in začenši s 1. majem 1937 enotdenške počitnice s plačo. Posledica tega smo dolžni uslužbencem približno $240,000 v plačah za nazaj. Stroški letnih plač so se zvišali za približno $650,000.

Pod pogodbo z mestom Clevelandom, je samo en prostor, ckdoder more priti zvišanje — zabojček za voznino. Potniki na ulični železnici in nikdo drugi plačajo mezde, vsled uvedbe postrežbe, kot stane. Ker je večina odbora za pogajanje določila plače in v nekaterih slučajih preko preddepresijsko višino, se ne morejo izogniti preddepresijske cene. Mi ne moremo nadaljevati teh izjemnih cen, ki so olajšale posledice depresije tisočem našim odjemalcem, da smo dali postrežbo, povprečno, za manj kot stane.

Zato smo s pismom, datiranim 18. septembra 1936, pripričili mestni zbornici, da sprejme zasilno predlogo, ki bi nam dovolila voznino po A pogodbi: 10 centov v gotovini, 6 tiketov za 50 centov, 1 cent za transfer. Ta cena bi pomenila obdržanje sedanje voznite v gotovini in včnzine v tiketih, ter ukinjenje posebnih cen. Po našem mnenju nam nobena druga voznina ne bo omogočila povisanje plač, obenem pa plačevanje davkov in drugih stroškov.

Mestna zbornica je v pondeljek večer, 21. septembra odklonila to predlogo. Vsled tega nam ne preostaja drugega kot izdati obvestilo, kot zahteva pogodba, da nameravamo opustiti sedanje cene voznini in se vrniti k ceni C. (Sedanja lestvica voznine je izven lestvice cen, ter je bila sklenjena med mestom in družbo ter podvržena desetdnevnom nazivu od te ali one stranke.

Nam je žal, da moramo opustiti tedenske passe in posebno voznino, ki je tako ogromno koristila mnogim potnikom. Upamo pa, da bo izginila depresija, da bo postala izguba lažja.

SUCCESSM. C. GLEE CLUB
HUGE SUCCESS

In their initial appearance before the public the Modern Crusaders Glee Club received a mighty applause and many compliments. They sang two numbers before a large appreciative audience last Sunday afternoon at the concert sponsored by the Slovenian Home Directors' Board on Waterloo Rd.

Mr. Seme, director of Jadran singing society, complimented the Modern Crusaders on their achievement. Louis Pecjak and many other singing notables also expressed their good opinions and the majority of them said they really were surprised upon the fine work.

This Glee Club was organized by two very capable and foresighted young men. They are Jack Nagel, director of the club, and our secretary, Martin Valetich.

This group of singers is setting a fine example of what Slovenian young ladies and men really can do. It is composed of a good clean-cut crew whose ages range from 18 to 25. The group enjoys working hard to be a successful club and this will be proven to a greater extent when they will stage a concert and dance in celebrating the lodge's 9th anniversary on January 24th.

SUCCESSCLAIRWOODS WIN; TAKE TITLE*LUCKY STARS' INITIAL DANCE*LORAIN BUCKS GAIN SDZ CONSOLATION CHAMPIONSHIP

Twist Zaletal shaded Rudy Lokar in a pitchers' battle last Sunday to enable his team, the Buckeyes, to win the SDZ Consolation Championship.

The Eastern Stars defeated the Bucks once before and seemed headed for another victory over them until the fatal 7th inning arrived when the Bucks pushed over three big runs which were enough to clinch the game for them.

Zaletal hurled excellent ball, giving up eight scattered hits and striking out nine batsmen.

Rubber arm Lokar, after a long rest from pitching duties, also pitched good ball but had the misfortune of allowing three of the 10 hits to come in the seventh inning plus an error which eventually cost him the game.

Jacopin and Vic Balant led at the mace for the Buckeyes, the former getting three singles and the latter making two doubles in two trips to the plate.

Zamen with two single and Anzlovar with a single and a long home run were the leading hitsmiths for the Eastern Stars.

A PEN PORTRAIT OFFRANK J. LAUSCHE*American-Slovene Jurist

By Anthony J. Klancar

Judge Frank J. Lausche

(Continued from last issue) This year, in 1936, Judge Lausche will again don his cap and gown and teach a course in equity at John Marshall School of Law, one of the finest schools of its kind in the United States. John Marshall's has been the training school of 90 per cent of our Slovene attorneys. Since its establishment in 1916, John Marshall's has graduated more than 10 Slovene Bachelors of Law, and its most distinguished son is Judge Frank J. Lausche.

Judge David C. Meck, dean of the school, has this to say about Judge Lausche as a professor of law: "From the very beginning of his teaching, he showed a peculiar aptitude for teaching from the viewpoint of the student. That is why he always got co-operation from his students and received such good work from them." There is no doubt in the minds of his fellow jurists that Judge Lausche has a natural aptitude, a fine feeling, for law.

Soon after young Lausche began to practice law, he associated himself with the firm of Locher, Green and Woods, whose head was the late United States Senator Cyrus Locher. Locher was his political mentor and guide. This kindly old man was the one great influence in his life, with the exception of his mother, and the Judge maintains a deep respect for him. In 1922 he became junior partner in the firm and remained with it till he was appointed to the office of Judge of the Municipal Court in 1932.

The year 1932 brought a great change in Judge Frank J. Lausche's legal fortunes. This year he backed Ray T. Miller for mayor, and when Miller was elected he was offered the posts of secretary to the mayor, of Safety Director, and of Utilities Director, all of which he declined, preferring to remain a lawyer. A few days before Christmas he also Democratic ward leader). Like most young lawyers just out of school, he had ambitions about becoming a state representative, and in 1922 he ran on the Democratic ticket for that office. He was, however, defeated in the Republican landslide. Two years later he ran for State Senator and met with the same fate. After this slide, in which the whole Democratic ticket went down in defeat, he turned his whole attention to law.

During the next few years he specialized in trial work and made a name for himself as the best trial lawyer in the City of Cleveland. He refused several offers, made by large corporations in Cleveland who wished to secure his valuable services. His work consisted mainly in trying the appropriation cases of the Cleveland Metropolitan Park System.

On May 17, 1928, he married Jane Sheal, the daughter of a prominent Cleveland businessman. Before that time, Mrs. Lausche was an artist with a studio in the downtown art colony. Deeply interested in her husband's career, she has been his silent partner in many of his political campaigns. Her interest in the Slovenes has led her to take up the serious study of the Slovene language.

Clairwood BulletinCongratulations!

Congratulations, boys! Clairwood's baseball team wins the SDZ Indoor Baseball Championship by edging out No. 14, 11 to 10. No. 14 put up a very hard fight but just not good enough. Come to Clairwood's next meeting and help celebrate the victory.

New Members

Emeric Podpadec, 1426 East 40th St., brother of Olga and Florence Podpadec, our dancing twins, who by the way visited us last meeting, has become a Clairwood member.

Another new member is Thelma Zupancic who is no stranger to Clairwood affairs.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zupancic, good Clairwoodites.

Sick Members

Frances Bogolin is now recuperating at home where she is reported getting along very well. Friends may visit her at 6617 Bonna Avenue.

Disappointment

If Joe Yaklich, 6712 Bliss Ave., had attended the last meeting, he would have been richer by TWO DOLLARS. His name was called for Bank Nite. Next month the fund will be raised to THREE DOLLARS. Avoid a disappointment — attend the Clairwood meeting.

Bowling Season

Ray Breskvar announces a bowling meeting on Sept. 27, 2 p.m., at Pozelnik's. All interested should attend this meeting. Teams will be organized, ready to start bowling in earnest the first week in October. Some advance bowling news—Ray Breskvar, in the first practice game of the season, bowled 203, 208 and 226. A good start, Ray, and keep it up!

Question

I wonder what's keeping Frank Surtz from attending Clairwood meetings. He has not attended one for the last eight or nine months. How about it, Frank? Don't you think it time to make another appearance?

was appointed by Governor George White to the office of judge in the municipal court of Cleveland, which was left vacant by the election of Arthur H. Day to the Common Pleas Court, an office for which he is running this year.

He took office on January 3, 1933 amid the rejoicing of the whole Slovenian colony. It was the first time in the history of the Slovenes in America that a Slovene was appointed to such an important post. For the Slovenes this meant political recognition at last, a place in the sun of American politics. "Long live Judge Lausche. He has fulfilled the dream of two generations of American Slovenes!" were the cries that one heard at all Slovene gatherings.

LOU ZUST PITCHING HERO; GAME A HUGE SLUGFEST

In a huge slugfest the Clairwoods outslugged the Cleveland Slovenes to take the second straight game in the championship series and with it the coveted SDZ Trophy, symbol of supremacy in SDZ baseball.

A large number of spectators saw 28 hits socked all over the park, Clairwoods getting 17 of them.

Both pitchers were ineffective, especially Frank Klaus who usually is a reliable pitcher. He was belted for 17 safeties. Brodnik was also hit hard, giving up 11 hits besides issuing 9 passes, many of the walks being converted into runs.

The Slovenes started the game by scoring three runs in the first inning and then saw visions of a third game in the SDZ playoffs but were rudely disappointed when Clairwoods batted six runs across in a wild third inning which was maximized by a homer by Lou Novak.

Clairwoods had two more big innings, getting two runs in the fifth and three in the seventh to make all of their 11 runs.

Meanwhile the Slovenes kept pecking away on Brodnik getting a run in the fourth, fifth and seventh innings. In the eighth inning J. Hostnik led off for the Slovenes and fanned, Vessel then singled and Brodnik then proceeded to load up the sacks on walks to Lenarsic, S. Hostnik and Glavan to force in one run. Vidmar then stepped up to the plate and socked out a double to right to drive in three more runs, making the score 11 to 10.

Manager Lou Novak then jerked Brodnik out of the box and replaced him with Lou Zust. With the tieing and winning run of the bases Zust forced Koncan to pop weakly to Novak to retire the side. In the ninth Zust retired the Slovenes in one, two, three order.

Everybody in the Clairwood lineup except the pitcher made at least one hit with Lou Novak and diminutive F. Hocevar getting three hits each.

Vidmar led the Slovenes' bombardment getting four hits in five trips to the plate including a homer and a double.

Each member of the Clairwood team will receive an in-

Vital News

Miss Frances Gramc of No. 6 will on October 24 parade down the middle aisle of St. Christine's with Mr. Frank Perko for the final "I do's." Our heartiest congratulations to both.

This and That months in which he showed the astonished bar ass'n and his detractors, that the Democratic leader from the 23rd ward made a better judge than some of the veteran judges already on the bench for several years. The bar, the newspapers, and the whole community hailed him as the finest judge to be ever appointed by a governor.

If you are craving for a good old-fashioned, merry time, (and who isn't, with these cool evenings already at our heels), come to the Twilight Ballroom, 6025 St. Clair Ave., on Thursday evening, October 22 and make yourself at home with the Lucky Stars, who, incidentally, will be staging their first dance since their organization on March 13th, of this year.

We considered ourselves lucky because we gathered for our first meeting on Friday the 13th, which explains the reason why we are called Lucky Stars. Now that we have plans under way for this initial affair, we would enjoy having all our SDZ fellow members as our guests for this evening to help make this belief in luck become a realization.

According to reports, the committee in charge is taking great care in making the plans complete and to perfection.

Every guest at this gala celebration will receive a souvenir, such as will add much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Music will be furnished by Johnny Pecon's orchestra, and square dancing will be a special feature, so all you barn dance lovers, come up, take your gal, dance round and round, change your partners, etc. Of course, popular music will be in order too, for the modern steppers. A cake dance will be held at the close of the evening, the winner of which shall be presented with the cake.
