RAZNO IZ AMERIKE IN INOZEMSTVA

NATANČNO STEVILO glasov oddanih za razne predsedniške kandidate še zdaj ni znano. Zadnja poročila jih pripisujejo 28 milijonov Rooseveltu, 16 in pol milijona pa Landonu. Socialistični kandidat Thomas jih je dobil nekaj nad 100 tisoč, komunistični kandidat Browder okrog 60 tisoč, Coughlinov kandidat Lemke pa okrog 750 tisoč. Ena po grotov: Roosevelt je zasiguranih 523 elektoratnih glasov, Landonu pa 8. Kakšno bo razmerje strank v kongresu, tudi še natančno določeno; znan je le, da bodo imeli demokrati v obeh zbornicah veliko večino.

KONVENCIJA American Federation of Labor je bila otvorena v pondeljek 16. novembra v mestu Tampa, Florida. Konvencija bo najbrž zelo burna, ker se bo bavila z izključitvijo J. L. Lewisa in organizacij, ki so za njim. Committee for Industrial Organization, katerega vodja je Lewis, je postal na konvencijo pravnjega, da se pogaja z velikimi mogulji Ameriške delavske federacije. Sodi se, da bodo stari voditelji A. F. of L. v defenzivi.

DELAVSTVO, ki je pri zadnjih narodnih volitvah pokazalo veliko moč, bo morda ob prijih prihodnjih splošnih volitev leta 1940 nastopilo s svojo lastno delavsko ali farmersko-delavsko stranko. Ugiba se že danes, da utegne biti predsedniški kandidat nove stranke John L. Lewis, predsednik United Mine Workers in Committee for Industrial Organization.

SENATOR NYE namerava predložiti prihodnjemu zasedaju zveznega kongresa dva osnutka za amendinganje ustawe. En amendment naj bi določal, da se ta dežela ne more zaplesti v kako zunanjovo vojno, razen če bi bila napadena, dokler ni tega odobrilo ljudstvo s splošnim glasovanjem. Drugi amendment pa naj bi določal, da sme vlada v slučaju vojne mobilizirati nele vse za vojaško službo sposobne moške, ampak tudi tovarne in bogastva posameznikov. To bi po njegovem mnenju silno zmanjšalo nevarnost, da bi se ta dežela zapletla v kako vojno.

NEPRAVIČNA ODLOCBA OVRŽENA

Ali naj bodo inozemci, ki so radi nezaposlenosti bili prisiljeni sprejemati začasno javno podporo, izključeni od ameriškega državljanstva?

V krogih, neprijateljsko razpoloženiam napram inozemcem, se je večkrat naglašalo, da ne državljanji, ki nimajo dela, ne bi smeli dobivati javne podpore. Mnogi so šli še dalje in zagovarjali deportacijo takih inozemcev. Resnici na ljubo je treba tu omeniti, da kongres nikdar vzel resno v pretres nakačega predloga te vrste.

Vprašanje naturalizacije inozemcev, ki dobivajo relif, je nastalo meseca junija lanskega leta na federalnem sodišču v Louisiana. Sodnik je odklonil naturalizacijo takih inozemcev in ta dogodek je bil pozdravljen od vseh proti-inozemskih skupin širom dežele. Ali njihovo veselje ni trajalo dolgo. Razne državljanke organizacije, med njimi tudi Foreign Language Information Service, so takoj storile potreben korake, da se doseže ponovna obravnavi ali pa vloži priziv na višje sodišče. Dovoljena je bila ponovna obravnavi (rehearing) in prejšnja sodnikova odločba je bila ovržena. Na tak način je bila odstranjena sodnijska odločba, ki bi bila služila kot precedent proti naturalizaciji inozemcev na relativu.

Prvotna odločba je bila izrečena proti štirim inozemcem — dvema Italijanom, enemu Grku in enemu Nicaraguancu, ki so bili zaprosili za državljanstvo na federalnem sodišču za vzhodno okrožje v Louisiana. Federalni sodnik Wayne G. Borah je vodil zaslisanje. Razsodil je, da ti štirje prosilci so bili neoskrbljeni in zato "nesposobni, da bi financijalno podpirali vlado Zedinjenih držav"; da so v zadnjih petih letih prejemali od federalne in državne vlade direktno pomoč oziroma pomožno delo in da radi tega so bili "v bremu mesto v korist vlad". In da zato se ne more smatrati, da "so udani načelom konstitucije Zedinjenih držav in dobro razpoloženi napram dobremu redu in sreči Zedinjenih držav, kakor to zakon velja."

Zgradnja mosta preko San Franciske zaliva je prebivalstvo tamkajšnjih krajev sanjalo že skoro sto let. Toda šele leta 1929 je država California odobrila ustanovitev korporacije, ki naj bi s prodajo bondov zbrala za zgradbo potrebnih denarjev. Sledila je depresija in celo reje je zastala. Končno je federalna Rekonstrukcijska finančna korporacija posodila v to svrhu 70 milijonov dolarjev in z delom se je pričelo v poletju južnem 1933.

Zgradnja mosta je bila stala $77,200,000 in je zahtevala 24 človeških življenj. Porabilo se je 70,000 milij žice in 300,000 ton jekla. Most se dviga dovolj visoko, da bodo pod njim lahko plule največje ladje. Prvi del mosta sega od mesta San Francisco zaliva so začeli zgraditi leta 1934. Most je bil končan leta 1937 in delno uporabljen leta 1938.

Uživanje jajec ali jagod povzroči pri nekaterih alergičnih ljudeh kožne izpuščaje ali lise.

Bližina mačke ali dotik iste jima povzroča kihanje. V Brooklynu, N. Y., živi mlad fant, ki začne takoj kašljati in kihanati, če že značni zvečilni gum. On je občutljiv za "chicle," ki je ena izmed sestavin zvečilnega gumija.

Neki deklici v Chicagu takoj zatečejo oči, če poduhva križanemo. Ona je občutljiva za cvetni prah križanteme. Neki mož v Alabami se začne takoj daviti in kašljati, če skuša jesti paradižnik v kateri koli obliki.

Neka žena v St. Louisu dobi modre lise na koži, če uživa čebulo.

Spinača je do zadnjega časa uživala pretirano hvalo kot izredno zdravja zelenjava, posebno za otroke. Znanstveniki so pronašli, da marsikatera druga zelenjava in sadje vsebuje več zdravju koristnih snovi kot spinača. Poleg tega vsebuje spinača tudi neko kislino, ki neugodno vpliva na apnenaste snovi raznih živil, kar ni dobro za telo.

TONOS SAN FRANCISCA

Mesto San Francisco se lahko imenuje metropola Pacifika. Dasi ni glavno niti največje mesto Californije, je vendar za zahodno obalo Zedinjenih držav nekaj sličnega kot je New York za vzhodno. Ogromni zaliv, nazvan San Francisco Bay, tvori najkrasnejše pristanišče, ki si ga mogoče misliti.

Dne 12. novembra letos je bil preko omenjenega zaliva formalno otvoren najdaljši most na svetu. Dolg je enajst in tri četrtine milje in je najdaljši most, ki se faktično spenja nad vodo. Daljši je Triborough most v New Yorku, ki je 14 milij dolg, toda dober del istega je zgrajen po suhem.

Most, ki je bil pretekli teden otvoren v San Franciscu, bo spajal omenjeno mesto z mestom Oaklandom in zaledjem. Mesto San Francisco je zgrajeno na polotoku in ga je mogoče dosegiti po suhem ledu juga. Od ostalih treh strani se pride tja le po vodi oziroma preko vode. Potniki, ki so doslej prihajali v San Francisco od severa ali od vzhoda, bodisi z vlaki ali z avtomobili, so moralni prepeljati preko zaliva s posebnimi prevozni parniki. Novozgrajeni most bo služil za vlake, cestno železnico, avtomobile in pešce. Pobiral se bo mostnina, da je vsaka oseba, vsako telo stroj zase. Da je ta trditev resnična, potrjujejo odlični znanstveniki. Telo vsakega človeka je sistem ali stroj zase, ki je v glavnem pač podoben sistemu drugih ljudi, toda ima nekaj čisto svojih posebnosti. Te posebnosti so včasih malenkostne, včasih pa zelo izrazite.

Zdravniška veda se zadnje čase mnogo bavi z nekim neredom v telesnem sistemu, ki ga nazivajo alergija (allergy). Alergični ljudje so občutljivi za gotovo hrano ali za razne druge predmete, s katerimi pridejo v dotik in ki jim povzročajo neprilike, medtem ko normalni ali nealergični ljudje ne poznajo teh neprilik. Marsikatero dobro in priznano zdravo hrano je alergične ljudi družljivo. Težka obdolžitev ali zlobno namigavanje?

Zadnji teden je imel dopis v Novi Dobi sobrat Martin Hudale, bivši delegat in točasni tajnik društva št. 31 v Bradocku, Pennsylvania.

V dopisu, ki se tiče gotovih rezolucij in za katere se trdi, da jih konvenčni odbor za rezolucije na konvenciji ni hotel prečitati, je rečeno, da je bilo sobratu Hudalemu pred odhodom iz Clevelandu povedano, da sta čitanje zadnjih rezolucij zabranila glavni predsednik in glavni tajnik.

Jaz odločno zanikam, da sem ali da sem hotel v kaki stvari vplivati na bodisi katerikoli konvenčni odbor, in, če mi kdo dokaže nesprotno, sem pripravljen od tajništva takoj resignirati.

S svojim "mi je bilo povedano" je sobrat Hudale dvignil težko obdolžitev napram meni in glavnemu predsedniku, in če mu je kaj do poštenja in pravice, tedaj se ne bo obotavljala cdkriti ime tistega, ki mu je to "povedalo." Jaz glavnega predsednika in zagovarjal ne bom, ker nimam dvoma o njegovi iskrenosti in poštenju in ker vem, da se zna sam zagovarjati, toda za svojo osebo bom zahteval, da se pride stvari do dna in da se patentirane lažnike kaznuje. Če je sobrat Hudale v resnici kaj takega slišal, je bila njegova dolžnost, da se o tem informira pri meni in glavnem predsedniku ali, kar bi bilo bolj umestno, pri članu odbora za rezolucije, ne pa takoj udariti na boben in direktno obdolžiti mene in sobrata Bartela. Jaz sem za svobodo tiska in proti vsaki cenzuri, sem pa tudi zato, da se objavi samo resnico in fakte, ne pa to, kar je kdo "slišal."

Obžalujem tudi, da sva z bratom glavnim predsednikom pri ureduku Nove Dobe tako slavo zapisana, da ni smatral vrednim sobrata Hudaleta na resnost njegove izjave opozoriti, zato se ne bom prav nič čudil, če nabi bodo nadaljni "sem-slišal-dopisi" še kaj bolj resnega dolžili.

Anton Zbasnik, glavni tajnik JSKJ.

PRIPOMBA UREDNIKA: Sobratu Zbasniku naj bo tem potom prijazno odgovorjeno, da so in morajo biti pri ureduku vsi člani enako "zapisani." V dotičnem dopisu sobrata Hudaleta ureduku ni videl izražene nikake direktnje obdolžitev, ampak le nekak dvom, kaj je resnice v tistem, kar je "slišal" od ene ali druge strani. Uredniku osebno o tem ni ničesar znanega in ni o tej zadevi ničesar "slišal" od katere koli strani.

Urednik ni smatral za umestno, da bi bil dotični dopis zadržal, saj so tisti, katere se v dopisu indirektno ali pogojno kritizira, zmožni na kritiko odgovoriti in jo članstvu predstaviti za neosnovano. Urednik je že včasih "slišal," da neopravljeno protežira člane glavnega odbora, in nima nikakega vzroka, da bi članstvo dajal povode za take kritike. Sploh pa je ureduku mnenja, da je za organizacijo najbolje, da se take zadeve takoj razčisti. Ako bi bil sobratu Hudaletu zadržal ali odklonil njev dopis, razvila bi se bila mogoče "šepetača kampa-nya," ki ne bi bila v korist niti sobrata Zbasniku niti organizaciji. Sobrat Zbasnik je imel vedaj priliko na omenjeno pogojno kritiko odgovoriti, in tem je, po mnenju ureduku, zadeva razčlena.

Vzvišen nad kritiko ali pogojno kritiko ni nihče, niti predsednik Roosevelt. Ako bi bila slična kritika ali pogojna jam v Barberton, kjer so mi iskreni prijatelji. Prav veseli me, da ima društvo dobre volne, da je tudi dobremo delo, da se ga posnema. Da ostanete vi člane in članice društva 44 prav tak, kakršne vas poznam, dobro in častno mesto zastopate med članstvom J. S. K. J.

DOPISI

Waukegan, Ill.

Dne 4. novembra ob dveh zjutraj je tukaj preminil pionir slovenske naselbine, po širni Ameriki med Slovenci znan ameriške Vrhnike, sedaj pokojni John Setnikar, v lepi in častljivi starosti 79 let. Bil je član JSKJ ter Samostojnega društva v tukajšnji naselbini. Obe društvi sta mož ob slovesu poklonili krasne vence ter vse potrebitno ukrenili, da je bila zadnja pot tega prvega Slovence v naši naselbini otožnoveničastna.

Pokojnik John Setnikar se je rodil leta 1857 v Dolu pri Borovnici. Kot vojak se je udeležil leta 1878 okupacije v Bosni, ter je zelo rad pripovedoval o dogodkih tistih časov. Ko so se pričeli odpravljati prvi Slovenci v daljno ter tujo deželo — v Ameriko — se je podal tudi Fecinar Janez na daljno leta 1888. V tuji, nepoznani deželi je prva leta mnogo prepotoval, ter ga je pot tudi prijel v mestu Waukegan, kjer tedaj ni bilo nobenega Slovencev. Večkrat mi je pripovedoval, da je tukaj takoj dobil delo, toda trda je bila za hrano ter stanovanje. Za hrano je bilo najtežje, ker je bil neveč angleškega jezika, radi tega si je kar na svoj način kupil klobuha ter mesa, da je imel za skromno kisilo, za večerje pa je šel na spalne v bližnje sosednje kmetije.

V znani depresiji leta 1893 je kopal znani jolietski kanal, ker obljudljeno mu je bilo to delo takoj, pod pogojem, da preje koga pobije. Po končani depresiji leta 1893 se je podal v državo Pensilvanijo. Naselil se je zelo časno v mestu Imperial ter pozneje v Pittsburghu, kjer je mnogo pretrpel v tamkajšnjih železničnih plavžih. Radi tega je bilo najtežje, ker je bil neveč angleškega jezika, radi tega si je kar na svoj način kupil klobuha ter mesa, da je imel za skromno kisilo, za večerje pa je bil preje koga pobije. CURRENT THOUGHT

We Can Be Proud

When you speak of the SSCU in your daily conversation, what thoughts do you associate with these four letters? Do you think of the SSCU just in terms of a fraternal benefit organization that issues death, sick, accident and indemnity, disability benefits to its members at a nominal cost, payable monthly?

Or does your mind picture an extraordinary fraternal benefit organization that, in addition to rendering protection to its members, also enjoys the top position among the Yugoslav fraternals?

We, the members of our SSCU, have every right to feel exceedingly proud of our Union, for during the year 1935 our organization led the way to an unusually fine record among the Yugoslav fraternals.

Let us review the record for 1935: Our Union enjoyed a solvency rating of 112.42 per cent, which is 12.42 per cent over the statutory requirements. This solvency rating definitely placed our SSCU on top among the national fraternals.

Its interest yield on investment was 5.27 per cent, the highest among of any Yugoslav fraternal.

Mortality rate was 82.51 per cent, considered a low figure comparison with other years.

Assets reached the two-million-dollar mark for the first time in the history of SSCU.

First Yugoslav fraternal to hold a national juvenile convention.

Realized a net membership gain of 1,437.

Although the year 1935 was a banner one for our organization, let us look back a few years further and review the sports program.

In 1929 our Union assumed the leadership in rendering assistance to lodges, when the sports fund, created at the 13th regular quadrennial convention, became operative. In 1930 the first athletic conference ever sponsored by a Yugoslav fraternal was called together, and consisted of English-speaking representatives from the states of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Minnesota. Purpose of the SSCU athletic conference, held in Cleveland, was to discuss and formulate plans for sport activities among our lodges.

Since then our Union has held basketball, tenpin and duckpin tournaments. And, incidentally, to add another star to "firsts" in 1935, the first national SSCU duckpin tournament was held in Pittsburgh.

In addition to its accomplishments, our Union is also known for its liberal policy. Modern trends gradually are woven into established practices. Our youth is given a voice in the management of the organization.

As a matter of fact, the senior members welcome with open arms feasible plans and ideas offered by the English-speaking members. To date it has not been so much a question of our youth being heard, as it is a problem to get our young men and women to express themselves.

From the foregoing it is evident that a new member joining our South Slavonic Catholic Union becomes a part of an organization that offers many advantages.

However, the outsider will never learn of the facts underlying our SSCU if our members choose to keep the Union's brilliant record a secret. It is up to us, particularly the English-speaking members, to inform the American-born youth of the facts and figures behind the structure of our organization.

Often we hear people refer to fraternal benefit insurance as "lodge insurance." This expression probably derived its origin at the time when individual lodges operated independently. All the assessments collected by the lodges in those days remained in the local treasury, and when benefits had to be paid out, the money was taken from the lodge treasury.

Today, there are still a few scattered independent lodges, and these are fast disappearing in mergers with national organizations. Although the lodge is affiliated with a national society, the term "lodge insurance" is still retained in the minds of some.

Comparison between the old order of lodge insurance and the new issued by our SSCU, a national fraternal union, would prove very interesting, especially in the light of the many added advantages carried by the latter.

Retribution

I think, if there be justice in the great, all-seeing plan, that some day one from up above will be sent to say to man: "For many years you ruled the earth as undisputed kings, but now the time has come for all the dumb, four-footed things, whatever you have done to them, in passion or in spite, the little helpless birds and beasts may do to you this night." At that the cages in the parks will burst their barred doors wide, and cruel keepers, lashed with whips, will find themselves inside.

Big, weary horses will lie in wagons strewn with hay, and let their drivers pull and groan throughout the endless day. All kittens will depart at once for creamy, warm resorts. While cruel mistress, left behind, may freeze as Puss dispairs, and even angels, looking down, may laugh a little, too. To watch the tricks the puppies make their cringing masters do. But never can this come to pass upon the earth, I know, no animal could bear to see a human suffer so.

Rudolph Perusek.

Interlodge League Dance

Nov. 25

Cleveland, O.—A record-breaking attendance is expected at the Free Dance sponsored by the Interlodge League at the Slovene National Home, 6417 St. Clair Ave., Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 25 (Wednesday evening).

The league is expecting a grand galaxy of its baseball, basketball and social followers. There are several reasons for this:

The dance is free to all Interlodge boosters. The only condition of admission is an Interlodge booster tag, which will be sold from 4 p.m. on the day of the dance, at the box office of the National Home. The price of the booster tag is only 10 cents.

Two popular Cleveland bands will play in the upper and lower halls of the Home. Johnny Pecon's Orchestra and Frankie Yankovich's unit have been booked to furnish rhythm.

Interlodge dances have been hailed as community reunions. The large attendance has been responsible for creating the fact that, if at no other affair, Slovenes, Serbs and Croats are certain to be at the Interlodge affairs.

Special patron tickets which are necessary to purchase the booster tags are being distributed through merchants and English-conducted lodge secretaries. They may be procured for the asking at Blatnik's, 6304 St. Clair Ave.; Birk's, 6225 St. Clair Ave.; Makovec's, St. Clair National Home; Slovene Home, Holmes Ave.; Mandel's Drug Store, 15702 Waterloo Rd., and the Enakopravost, 6231 St. Clair Ave. They are going rapidly and the supply is limited to the capacity of the two halls, so it is advised that they be procured early.

Past Interlodge affairs bear witness to the fact that long before the event, tickets were as rare as Caesar's autograph. This is certain to happen for the Free Dance.

The George Washingtons and the Betsy Ross of the SSCU are active members of the Interlodge. The Betsy Ross played in the baseball circuit this summer and the George Washingtons are playing basketball in the league, which has games every Wednesday evening at the St. Clair Bathhouse.

Extra! Extra!

Mr. and Mrs. E. Palec of Gowanda, N. Y., announced the engagement of their daughter Edith to Frank Drobnić of Cleveland. The announcement was made at their home last Saturday, Nov. 14.

Both Edith and Frank are very well known to a host of SSCUers not only in their own home towns, but others as well, for both are very active in our Union and very popular.

According to reports, Frank has entered negotiations with the rail line officials with a view of obtaining a special tariff for his trips between Cleveland and Gowanda during the months that will elapse between now and spring, when he and Edith plan to get married. Congratulations!

BRIEFS

Station WJAY of Cleveland has discontinued the broadcast of nationality programs in the native tongues, but will continue with "Americanized" nationality shows, using its staff orchestra and all-English announcements. For this reason announcers of 14 foreign language shows affected by this change plan to circulate petitions among the foreign language colonies and enlist the aid of newspapers and lodges to raise enough money with which to start a fifth radio station. Two other sources also expect to make a plea before the Radio Commission for another station. Norman Siegel, Cleveland Press radio editor, is of the opinion that "in a cosmopolitan community such as we have in Cleveland there is a definite need for such (nationality programs) radio shows. If the door is closed to them, then a fifth radio station is an absolute necessity here."

Cleveland Community Fund campaign began its annual drive Monday, Nov. 16, and will continue to the 24th. Every year one hundred Fund welfare agencies unite their individual appeals for deserted and neglected children, the sick, injured, blind and crippled, the needy, the dependent aged, and the youth of Greater Cleveland. Thousands of individuals yearly receive health, happiness and hope from one or more of the Fund organizations. Campaign slogan for this year is: "The Fund Shines Through."

Fall Festival Dance sponsored by George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, Cleveland, O., will be held Saturday, Nov. 21, in the auditorium of the S. N. Home. Hal Zeiger and his melodious and rhythmic orchestra will provide excellent music for the occasion. At the disposal of the guests will also be the spacious barroom annex.

Wedding bells will ring for Bertha Prince and Sammy Richter on Nov. 28. The bridegroom-to-be is recording secretary of the Cleveland George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, and also plays on the lodge's basketball team. G. W. officers have been exceptionally susceptible to Dan Cupid this year and other years, for about two months ago Eddie Zgone, vice president, said I do to Josephine Kozel, the ceremony taking place on Sept. 5.

Cleveland Federal Theater is presenting for the final week the American premiere of "It Can't Happen Here," by Sinclair Lewis and John C. McFitt. The play has had a successful run in the Federal Theater at E. 9th St. and Prospect Ave. Also, it is being presented simultaneously by 25 Federal Theater companies in 20 cities.

Lodge No. 155, SSCU, of Blaine, O., will hold lodge flag unveiling exercises on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26, in Boisville Hall. Principal speaker will be Janko N. Rogelj, first supreme trustee, SSCU. Exercises will commence at 2 p.m. simist.

Ladies of the SSCU

Joliet, Ill.—Goblins and witches reigned supreme on Wednesday, Oct. 28, when Ladies of SSCU were the participants of a joyous Hallowe'en party, which was held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Jevitz, the club's hostess for the month of October.

Although there was no prize awarded, the girls were dressed in costumes that coincided greatly with the "spooky" season. The "fortune teller" was ever ready to predict some unforeseen sorrow or happiness in the future and added a mysterious effect to the night's happy occasion; while the "Dutch boy" and the "Japanese maid" portrayed traits and characteristics of the land their costumes suggested. A bit of "Scotch" descent displayed a touch of "Scotch" charm, while going to the other extreme we find a charming young Miss who, for the night, was enrolled in the character of Uncle Ezra. She carried a lighted candle and was dressed in woolen undies.

The hostess' house was in accordance with the season's colors and an air of mystery prevailed with goblins, ghosts and witches putting a finishing touch to the tragedy of the Hallowe'en spirit that existed.

The refreshments were also carried out in the Hallowe'en color scheme, with orange and black predominating.

There was a large variety of entertainment, with the Misses Lucille and Anne Jevitz and Mrs. Frances Vranichar as victors.

The honored guest was Miss Gertrude Jevitz, who is a graduate nurse of St. Anthony de Padua's Hospital in Chicago. Miss Jevitz was spending a few days at the home of her father in Joliet and was welcomed as a guest of the evening.

Nov. 19 will find the members gathered at the home of Mrs. Frances Vranichar, who will be the presiding hostess.

Lucille Kosick.

Doings in Center

Center, Pa.—Ramblers' Masquerade Dance ended nicely, with a record-breaking attendance. Out-of-town visitors and others who were with us will not be forgotten when they hold entertainment in the future. Here are the costume prize winners: Betty Mozina of Carbon; Mary Peternel, our former secretary, who is now in Washington, D. C.; Paul Oblock, newly elected second supreme vice president, SSCU, and Kalick.

On Friday evening, Nov. 20, there will be held a card party. Attractive prizes await the winners in the Slovene Hall of Center, Pa.

On Nov. 25 the Center Slovene Association will hold a dance at the Slovene Hall. The two Slovene Aces, Frank and Joe, who are being heard over Station WWSW, will provide the music. Also a nice big fat and juicy turkey will be given away.

G. W.'s Nov. 21 Fall Festival Dance Will Feature Hal Zeiger Orchestra

Cleveland, O.—When members of George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, decide to entertain, guests can feel assured that the entertainment provided for them will be the best obtainable for the occasion.

Next Saturday, Nov. 21, the G. W.'s are holding their Fall Festival Dance in the auditorium of the Slovene National Home. Officials of the lodge were fortunate in being able to secure the services of Hal Zeiger and his orchestra to provide music for the evening. This orchestra is well known throughout the city and their rhythm and well balanced instruments are a joy and delight.

Unusual Yugoslav Exhibit

Cleveland, O.—Mr. August Kollander, 6419 St. Clair Ave., graciously loaned the showcase exhibit now at St. Clair Branch Library.

A boy doll dressed in native Yugoslav costume was brought by Mr. Kollander, less than a month ago, from Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia. The doll, a woodenware which comes from Sodažica, Slovenia, was given to him from two friends.

In 1928 crossing from Yugoslavia to the United States, Mr. Kollander had the pleasure of meeting for the first time the young lady who painted the woodenware for him during the summer of 1936, at home in her native land.

Candy boxes, butter plates, salt and pepper containers, odd plates, toys to gladden a little girl's heart, clay whistles, topped by a hand-painted water bottle, are all gaily painted in warm colors and interesting designs, floral and figurative.

"V Spomin" (Slovene for "in remembrance") painted on the woodenware charges one to recall the background from which these objects came.

At present new buildings and roads mark a Yugoslav slight economic swing upward. Apartment houses are built with balconies from which flower boxes trail green leaves and gay flowers, says Mr. Kollander. Modernistic furniture shows more true beauty in Europe than we have seen, fine woods are used in a neo-classic style. It would seem that the European love for warmth and grace has challenged us in modern architecture and art.

Ely, Minn.—November meeting of the Hawkeyes, subsidiary club of Lodge No. 200, SSCU, falls on Friday, Nov. 20. Meeting will start promptly at 7:15 p.m. Basketball will be the main topic of discussion, and whether or not a team shall be entered in the league.

Hawkeyes will sponsor a dance after the meeting, and music will be furnished by the Wizard of the Accordion, Frank Kramar. We expect a big crowd (since it is pay day, ha! ha!) and dancing will begin promptly at 9.

Reminiscence

On a typical Pennsylvania night The Center Ramblers decided to frolic; Though we were packed quite tight, I'm sure no one felt melancholic.

'Twas All Hallowe'en, The witches were reigning; 'Til midnight they did not leave, Even though it was raining.

Guests and members there were many, Each one clad in raiment rare; Each one's disposition, yes, was sunny, Each one of happiness contributed a share.

The hours like short minutes appeared to be, With greatest haste they seemed to flee. Alack and alas! came the realization,

The hour for departure crept on without consideration. Mary Anne Peternal, No. 221, SSCU.

Let's Go Deer Hunting

WITH LITTLE STAN

Ely, Minn.—"Be kind to the dumb animals." That slogan will be completely forgotten this Sunday, when thousands of sportsmen from all parts of the Northwest will be primed for the big kill. It will mark the opening of the 10-day deer hunting season in Minnesota—and, mind you, Little Stan does not mean dear hunting.

Dressed in bright colored heavy wool shirts, red caps, khaki breeches, heavy waterproof boots, and heavily armed, the hunters come into this little city, by car, train, bus and plane, all eager to be the first on the scene of the annual "sporting war." You see many dashing into the hardware stores to purchase their license and cartridges. Then they fill the grocery store, where they buy their "grub." Their cars loaded to capacity, the hunters are off. By the way, Little Stan quite forgot—but the hunters all took several cases of firewater with them—you know, to get kinda warmed up on those cold mornings. Heh!

But away they go! Although it is still three days before the shooting begins, Little Stan can take you on an imaginary trip through the Stoney River district where the center of the big drive is concentrated.

First, we'll have to get equipped. Into a clothing store goes Little Stan. Out he comes a changed man! And what a target he will make for the many blind hunters! For a moment you pass your hand in front of your eyes—just to clear away the glare of colors!

There he stands, a bright red hunting cap on his head, a big heavy red woolen shirt on his manly shoulders, bright red and white pants, and they aren't ladies' sneakers either! Big, heavy, high-topped boots with big hobnails on the soles, and topped off with a big, heavy, red mackinaw.

Then, into a hardware store. Out he comes, carrying a shooting iron which more than resembles a cannon. Into a grocery store—supplies. Other things, and the outfit is complete. Now, let's see, is there anything that he has forgotten? He reaches up about three feet and scratches his beak! By George, yes! He hasn't got a car!—or rather, like they say in Cleveland, a machine! What to do? No Austin! Ah, an idea!

He goes to a garage with a fantastic view in his mind that he was going to buy a machine. The dealer was very anxious to sell the car, so he asked Little Stan to take it out for a trial spin. The car problem was solved!

A gang piles in, as the city band plays, "A-hunting we will go!" With a couple of put-puts, and a hi-de-ho, the car snorts its way into the deer country. Mile after mile rolls by, as Little Stan steps on the gas and passes car after car.

Coming into the beautiful Stoney River country, now shrouded in slushy snow. Deer hunters really cussed the weather, as a warm sun melted the recent snowfalls, making travel difficult. But the gang didn't mind that, they were goin' a-huntin'! The car turns off the main highway, into the wilds of Stoney River. Three miles in and the gang sights the camp which will serve as headquarters for a couple of days. Night is slowly falling as supplies are carried in, and preparations to spend the first night in camp begin!

Soon a nice, warm fire is crackling in the stove. Nice, warm heat fills the cabin camp.

Stan stood up dejectedly, he heard the sound of a shot and loud snorts. Still kicking himself in the rear, he was startled by the sound of crashing underbrush! Snorting and stamping his feet weakly, the big buck staggered into the clearing and fell dead, almost at the feet of Little Stan! Immediately, Little Stan pinned his license on the animal and took possession, because it was nine points of the law! In the meantime the drivers came up, and Little Stan, almost by mistake, took a shot at the boys, thinking that they were deer, but he forgot the gun wasn't loaded! The gang clattered up to Stan and showered compliments on his wonderful marksmanship. Proudly Little Stan posed as they snapped pictures. Everybody smiling, the gang started for camp, smacking their lips at the thought of the delicious steaks they would have.

Out of nowhere there appeared a big, powerful looking bruiser. "Didja see anything of a big buck?" he asked gruffly. Then he saw it. Little Stan's face looked exactly like his red shirt and pants—guilty. The gang looked on in surprise as the bruiser repossessed his kill. That night everything was quiet! Little Stan was in the dog house . . . all because he forgot to buy the shells . . . the bullets! He knew he had forgotten to buy something!

The next day Little Stan came back to town . . . truly a sorrowful figure. He laid his flashy hunting outfit aside, and he awoke earlier, to prepare the morning chuck.

First on the menu are sour-dough pancakes. Made from dough so hard and old, that even the cook was afraid of it. Then came the coffee, so black and strong, that if it had feet, it would get up and walk out. Even at that it cast the shadow from the opening rays of the dawn all over the camp. The gang gulped the food, and squirmed like Pop-Eye!

Strength and pep filled the strong, healthy bodies, and with a couple of roars, they went out to begin the hunt! First, however, plans were carefully laid. Three of the gang would go north to drive Little Stan and the other fellow would be situated behind some high rock, ready to pick off any big buck driven toward them. Plans carefully completed, the party starts into the wild country. Already at that early hour, the forest resounded with the shrilling whine of bullets—it looked like another revolution, or rather it sounded like one!

It was difficult to find a rock big enough to hide behind. Little Stan wasn't so small, you know! But finally a small mountain was located and the proper position was taken.

Eyes alert and senses keen, Little Stan was ready to pop off any big buck that came in sight. Instinctively he ducked as a bullet whined past his ears, later the sound of the shot followed. It wasn't safe for the white people anymore! Perhaps the marksman mistook Little Stan for an Indian!

A sound of crashing brush, and almost twenty feet away, a big buck, the biggest he had ever seen (it was the first he had seen) stepped into a clearing, majestically waving his antlers! Nerves steady, Little Stan aimed, pressed the trigger, and bang! the deer went down for the count! Ah, it's all a mistake, there wasn't any bullets in the gun! Little Stan knew that he had forgotten something! Sensing the danger the big buck lifted his white tail in the wind, and dashed away! Seconds later, as Little

Cleveland Bowling

Walter Guzik Hits 256 and V. Drobnic 262

Cleveland, O.—Keglers in the Cleveland SSCU Bowling League were given a real treat by two of their steady performers. First Walter Guzik, ace bowler of the Happy-Go-Luckies, broke the season's high with 256. But not for long, as Vic Drobnic (brother of "Samson") came through with a 262 in the last game, and incidentally the only one which the Pathfinders were able to take away from the Pittsburghers. Arrayed against the Paths were such brilliant bowlers as A. Perdan with 218, F. Yankovich with 202 and M. Krall with 201, all of the Pitt combination.

Happy-Go-Luckies took two from the Indians, while the Arrowheads, a ladies' quintet, dropped three games to the Cardinals, the last by a mere margin of 16 pins; Colorado Sunshines took all three from the National Stars.

Last Sunday marked the end of the league's first round. The team standings are as follows:

Pittsburghers	15	6
Pathfinders	14	7
Colorado Sunshines	13	8
Happy-Go-Luckies	12	9
Cardinals	10	11

Women in Jobs

Personal appearance—dress, hair, hands, behavior and posture—is of vital importance to the woman who wants to make her own way in the world. This is the prime conclusion of a survey made public recently by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women.

The survey, as explained by Dr. Iva Lowther Peters, head of the federation's committee on the employability of women, was aimed at finding out things that contribute to the success of a feminine careerist. More than 200 business and professional women aided the study.

Findings:

Age is no alibi for the woman who has failed to make good, in either large city or small. More than half the successful careerists questioned were over 40 years old.

Dress is important in keeping, as well as in obtaining, a position.

Good speech is essential. Many women have found it profitable to take training from a voice specialist.

Beauty treatments are worthwhile. A neat, well-groomed appearance is of greater value because it creates a good impression.

In general, more permanent waves, more dignified dress, quieter colors and modern but tasteful styles are recommended as helpful hints to the young girl seeking a job or to the adult woman anxious to hold on to the one she has.

Salvaged Hearts?

By Rudolph E. Perusek, Lodge No. 2

Ely, Minn.—For members of fraternal organizations—to say nothing of practically everyone else—the problem of child welfare still awaits a deep contemplation. Anyone trying to think this problem through is certain to find it necessary to consider his own philosophy of life, his own definition of good and evil.

Congress (68th) by a vote of 297 to 69 in the House and 61 to 23 in the Senate adopted a joint resolution—the proposed constitutional amendment. This amendment is not a law, but an enabling act, giving Congress the power to pass child labor legislation. It is now before the states for ratification. Twelve states have yet to ratify the amendment.

One of our biggest drawbacks are our child labor laws. They are, if anything, scarce and extremely inadequate. You know as well as I, maybe better, that when a child enters employment between the ages of 10 and 18, which is being done even in dangerous occupations, is deprived of an education, that his physical development is retarded, and that his opportunities for recreation are taken away.

In recent years rapid strides have been taken to check child labor, but if anyone were to ask for my opinion I would say that we haven't reached the 50-yard line. Why, in a country as civilized as the United States we have 667,118 child workers, that is, according to 1930 census figures. Of course, this figure was slashed considerably by the Blue Eagle, but when the United States Supreme Court put the Blue Eagle on the sideline it shot right up again.

It is evident that there are too many plutocrats. Not enough philanthropists. What we need is more liberalism. By liberalism I mean this, all of this, and nothing but this, "a belief in human personality and a conviction that the source of all progress is in individual energy. It involves, therefore, the readiness of the state for the purpose of creating the conditions within which individual energy can thrive. Its aim is compatible with a enlarging of the functions of the state."

Blood and Battle Field

A World War Chronicle

BY IVAN MATIĆ

From the Slovenia by

VALENTINE OREHEK

(Continuation)

His claws reach into everything. Nothing is so trivial but that he smell it out and rant over. At all hours, day and night, he keeps valiantly awake to torment the death-weary men laboring on the roads. To the pitiable overladen carriers he is an obdurate and tireless tyrant, menacing and swift to punish. If perchance he spies an unfortunate stealing a moment's rest he is upon him with all fours before the poor wretch even knows what is happening. He then weights the staggering brute with an inhuman load of timber and starts him off on a wild goose chase clear to the top of Smohor or Lemež. Here the miserable wretch must report to the respective commander there so that the bearing out of his penalty is verified. This done he must repeat the journey back.

It is not an exaggeration to say that men actually cringe and squirm under this bully's terror rule. Tortured to the quick, it sometimes happens that a man falls unconscious under the dreadful load and then the beast rampant in the adjutant comes out in all its extravagance, "Ho-ho-ho, it's war, my boys. Men and animals must work for their keep, otherwise they'll break out into a stink. After the war—if it ever ends in your lifetime—you'll find plenty of rest! Ha-ha-ha-ha!"

The stores of blankets and uniforms are under his personal supervision and without his sanction even old and ragged remnants cannot be obtained. Men in tatters approach and beg him for clothes and bedding, "Gospod nadporočnik, our clothes are torn to bits and our bedding is full of lice."

"Fools! do you think I'm to waste uniforms on the likes of you? For your loafing you're fixed even too well. As for parades—there aren't any. If your things are torn mend them when you're through with your work. You've got enough time on your hands to do a hundred and one things. If your bedding is dirty and lousy as you say, then, damn you, boil it! There's plenty of snow and wood! Now, you stinking carrion, out of my sight and hearing, otherwise I'll pack each one of you over Bogatin!"

In a large auditorium a number of men have gathered to stare agog at what they contributed their share to create. An adjutant hurries up to them, "Our! get out, you loafers! Do you think for a second that we built this for the likes of you? The pick and shovel for you, my dears!" then to a flunkie, "Please show these bums out!"

The men celebrate Christmas Eve with work, for all the companies have been turned out to labor on an extension of redoubts. An icy wind scuds down upon the half-clad men and flings itself again in howling sweeps to the distant summits. Above Lake

With the Center Ramblers

Center, Pa.—Ramblers' Fall Dance held on Hallowe'en turned out to be a huge success. I think that everyone had a good time. To all our guests, especially those from out-of-town, and to the committee for their splendid work in decorating the hall, we say: "Thanks." Let us hope that the boys from Claridge got home all right, including Whitie.

Annual Meeting

Members, remember to come to the annual meeting which will take place on Sunday, Dec. 6, starting at 1 p. m. Election of officers will take place and other important business transacted. And besides you may be the fortunate one to be given special consideration. Come to the meeting and find out.

Slovene Play

Permit me to solve your Thanksgiving entertainment. On Nov. 26, starting at 3 p. m., Dramatic Club Carnation of Export will present a play in Slovene in the Slovene Hall of Universal. Old and young alike will get a lot of pleasure in viewing the performance of "Mlinar in njegova hči." Dancing will follow the play, and here again more entertainment awaits you.

on the inadequacy of the state laws, mothers' pensions, child labor with regard to homes, farms and industrial accidents, but I have already used up the space allotted me. However, I will ask just one more question. In the name of justice, good health and decency, shall we have child labor or shall we have child growth?

Krn a snow ledge high on the mountain walls tears away and glissades swiftly like a juggernaut of doom it buries eleven men. A shrieking blast whips over the snowy grave whistling a lonely requiem, a song of deliverance and peace, a song of the night so long ago when a little Child was born.

The men and animals concerned with the task of carrying provisions to the lines suffer most, for they are up and going at all hours of the day and night. They make continuous journeys from Bohinj to Mojstrovo, places ten miles apart, and this regardless of personal or weather conditions. The hardships these men endure are those of the beast of burden and cannot be visualized by comfortable people. With heavy loads of provisions strapped to their backs they stagger along paths never intended for man, along shelves inches wide between themselves and destruction.

Keeping the wires in repair and working shape often proves beyond us linemen. Drifts and other contingencies destroy our work of days in as many minutes. The officers, though, with the exception of the scorned kadeti, are exempt from all work. They lounge about and frivol their time away without a thought to what the men are suffering. Their interest is wholly confined to gaming and rewarming the incidents of their last leave of absence. For them war never assumes its cruel side. Even though the nation is depleted and in want, these rascals are always well provided. They feast on the most diverse varieties of food and drink, roister in Bachanalian orgies while slaughter is rampant about them. They are like vampires sucking the life-blood of victimized thousands.

Lepin is termed a village . . . in reality it is nothing more than a clearing that boasts three rude tumble-down shacks. Our men are detailed here and almost over night fetching viandas supplanted the miserable hovels. It is arranged that the Red Cross maintain a station here and that it will contain a provision center from which food and clothing will radiate out to the fighting men. It is here where I am given an opportunity to watch the method of cattle-slaughter. The butcher in this instance is a florid personage, a plump, meaty man in his thirties. To him there is nothing suggestive of the mundane in his duties. In his sight they

tako mi je bilo povedano. Na

Ko smo dospele nazaj v Rosk

Ely, Minn.
Naj nekoliko opisem moj ne-
davni obisk v Rock Springsu,
Wyo. — Pred 36 leti smo poto-vali v Ameriko, in sicer na Ely, Minn., člani dveh Seliškarjevih
družin, namreč Tonetove in Jo-žetove. Preko morja smo se vo-zili s francoskim parnikom, na
katerem smo kmalu dobili dosti družbe, tudi slovenske. Seveda smo se začeli povpraševati odked in kam.

Pri tisti priliki sem se sezna-nila s sedanjo Mrs. Mary Keržišnik in sedanjo Mrs. L. Tau-cher. Prva je potovala k svojem očetu, druga pa k svojemu zaročencu. Mrs. Keržišnik je bila takrat 14-letna boječa dekle, ki se mi je kar smilila. Ni veliko govorila, samo plaho je gledala z njenimi velikimi vi-njevimi očmi. Meni se je takoj zelo priljubila.

Ko smo prišli v New York,
smo se razšli na razne kraje,
da nismo vedeli drugi za dru-
ščega. Borili smo se vsaki na
svoj način za eksistenco in po-
lagoma smo drug drugega po-
zabili. Ko je pred leti prišel na
Ely pokojni Joseph Pishler in
nekoliko za njim tudi njegova
družina, jih je čez nekaj časa
prišla obiskati tudi Mrs. Keržišnik, ki je sestra Mrs. Pishler.

Ta slednja je bila dobro znana
z Jožeto Seliškarja, družino,
ker je bil pokojni Pishler nekaj
časa tam na hrani in stanovanju.
Sicer pa, kdo ni poznal Se-
liškarjevega "boardinghouse"!
Ko je prišla Mrs. Keržišnik na
Ely na obisk, je seveda takoj
vprašala za Seliškarjeve. Kma-
lu smo se sešli in vsi smo imeli
od veselega svidenja solzne oči.
Žal, da nam je bil njen obisk
dost prekratek. Pozneje je
prišla kot delegatinja na 13.
decembra konvencijo, ki se je vršila
v Ely, in se enkrat na ža-
lostno pot, ko je preminil njen
svak Pishler.

Sedaj je pa že leto dni, od-
kar je zapustila mesto Ely tudi
Mrs. Pishler in se je podala v
Rock Spring k sestri. Bilo mi
je zelo dolgočas po nji, saj smo
si bile sosedne in zelo dobre pri-
jateljice. Tako sem se namenila,
da posetim Rock Springs.
Ko sem dospela v Rock Springs,
Mrs. Keržišnik ni bilo doma,
ker se ni bila še vrnila s kon-
vencije v Clevelandu. Zato sem
se najprej ustavila pri njeni se-
stri Mrs. Pishler, ki je bila zelo
iznenadena in vesela.

Vsem skupaj najlepša hvala
za vso prijaznost in povabim
vse, da me pridejo kdaj obiskat

od potovanja, se je začelo spra-
ševanje o tem in onem. Razu-
me se, da smo si imeli zelo
mnogo povedati. Po enem tednu
se je vrnila domov Mrs. Keržišnik in je bila seveda zelo iz-
nenadena, ko me je našla tam.
Se bolj pa sem bila iznenadena
jaz, ko sem videla njen lepi
dom. Mrs. Keržišnik, ki je vdo-
va že 15 let, vodi s svojimi otro-
ki lep hotel. Srečna je, ker ima
tako pridne in prijazne otroke,
katere vse spoštuje. Razume
se, da sem bila nad vse gosta-
ljubno in prihodno sprejeta. Ču-
dili so se, da sem se pri moji
starosti podala na tako dolgo
pot.

Potem pa me je Mrs. Keržišnik vzela v roke in me vozila po vseh znamenitih prostorih. Peljala me je v lepo mesto Salt Lake City, kjer sem si ogledala
muzej, krematorij in druge
znamenitosti glavnega mesta
države Utah. Videla sem tudi mormonski tabernakelj, ki je znamenitost svoje vrste, in kjer je enkrat naš pevec Šubelj za-pel tudi našo "Po jezeru"; vsaj
tako mi je bilo povedano. Na
poti sem videla tudi takozvanoto
"Hudičeve drčo," kjer se je menda rogač po strmi skalni
drči drsal, pa se ni ubil; je baješe vedno med nami. Zelenja se pa poti ni dosti video, večinoma pokriva pustinje tisti tipični
sivi divji pelin.

Ko smo dospele nazaj v Rosk
Springs, smo začele obiskovati
njenje sorodnike in prijatelje.
Sestala sem se tudi z Mrs. Sta-
lik. Nisem mislila, da jo bom tukaj našla. Z omenjeno svase namreč skupaj vračali z obi-ška v stari domovini. Kamor-koli sva prišla, povsod sva bili prihodno in gostoljubno spreje-
ti. Nič ni bilo treba misliti na restavracije in sem prav po ce-ni živila. Hvala vsem!

Ko smo prišli v New York,
smo se razšli na razne kraje,
da nismo vedeli drugi za dru-
ščega. Borili smo se vsaki na
svoj način za eksistenco in po-
lagoma smo drug drugega po-
zabili. Ko je pred leti prišel na
Ely pokojni Joseph Pishler in
nekoliko za njim tudi njegova
družina, jih je čez nekaj časa
prišla obiskati tudi Mrs. Ker-
žišnik, ki je sestra Mrs. Pishler.

Ta slednja je bila dobro znana
z Jožeto Seliškarja, družino,
ker je bil pokojni Pishler nekaj
časa tam na hrani in stanovanju.
Sicer pa, kdo ni poznal Se-
liškarjevega "boardinghouse"!
Ko je prišla Mrs. Keržišnik na
Ely na obisk, je seveda takoj
vprašala za Seliškarjeve. Kma-
lu smo se sešli in vsi smo imeli
od veselega svidenja solzne oči.
Žal, da nam je bil njen obisk
dost prekratek. Pozneje je
prišla kot delegatinja na 13.
decembra konvencijo, ki se je vršila
v Ely, in se enkrat na ža-
lostno pot, ko je preminil njen
svak Pishler.

Sedaj je pa že leto dni, od-
kar je zapustila mesto Ely tudi
Mrs. Pishler in se je podala v
Rock Spring k sestri. Bilo mi
je zelo dolgočas po nji, saj smo
si bile sosedne in zelo dobre pri-
jateljice. Tako sem se namenila,
da posetim Rock Springs.
Ko sem dospela v Rock Springs,
Mrs. Keržišnik ni bilo doma,
ker se ni bila še vrnila s kon-
vencije v Clevelandu. Zato sem
se najprej ustavila pri njeni se-
stri Mrs. Pishler, ki je bila zelo
iznenadena in vesela.

Vsem skupaj najlepša hvala
za vso prijaznost in povabim
vse, da me pridejo kdaj obiskat

od potovanja, se je začelo spra-
ševanje o tem in onem. Razu-
me se, da smo si imeli zelo
mnogo povedati. Po enem tednu
se je vrnila domov Mrs. Ker-
žišnik in je bila seveda zelo iz-
nenadena, ko me je našla tam.
Se bolj pa sem bila iznenadena
jaz, ko sem videla njen lepi
dom. Mrs. Keržišnik, ki je vdo-
va že 15 let, vodi s svojimi otro-
ki lep hotel. Srečna je, ker ima
tako pridne in prijazne otroke,
katere vse spoštuje. Razume
se, da sem bila nad vse gosta-
ljubno in prihodno sprejeta. Ču-
dili so se, da sem se pri moji
starosti podala na tako dolgo
pot.

Potem pa me je Mrs. Keržiš-

Ko sem se nekoliko odpočila

sem kaj v Minnesota v lepem poletnem času. Naša jezera in naši gozdovi z zelenimi smre-kami in belimi brezami so takraj prava krasota.

Izpolniti dolžnost je mnogo-krat potrebno, četudi prvi za-zadnjim. Vabiti na veselico še ni prepozno, dasi je takoreč že na potu. Tem potom se torej vabi cenjeno občinstvo iz Brooklyn in New Yorka na ve-selico društva sv. Petra, št. 50

JSKJ, ki se bo vršila v Slovenskem

domu v Centru.

Upam, da bodo plesalci zelo

zadovoljni z njima.

Vstopnina bo malenkostna,

samo 25 centov za obočinstvo.

Na vabiči je vseč.

no odplule na jug, kakor go-spoda, ki gre lahko na zimo v Florido ali Californijo, toda
one, ki se ne selijo, ampak ostajajo leto in dan pri nas, so revice. Vse zgubane posedajo okoli človeških bivališč in iščejo zavetja in hrane.

Dne 8. novembra se je z radio oddajne postaje v Hibbingu spet začel oddajati jugoslovanski program. Pri tej priliki je Miss Olga Praznik prvič na radio pella v slovenščino prestavljeno ameriško himno.

Posebnih novic nimam poro-čati od tu, razen, da imamo vreme nenavadno lepo. Sedaj ko so volitve končane, je vse nekako potihnilo. Poraženi kandidati potihom lamentirajo in nekateri prerokujejo, da zajdaj bo Ameriko gotovo vrag potencialno popoldne. Torej, ne zamudimo te lepe privedite!

Veselica društva sv. Martina,
št. 44 JSKJ, ki se je vršila na
večer 7. novembra, je prav lepo uspešna. To je znak, da depresija ponehuje in da se bližajo
boljši časi.

Prav lepa hvala dramskemu
društvu Slovenija in pevskemu
zboru Javornik za lepe slovenske pesmi. Kakor je bilo vide-ti, bilo je občinstvo prav zadovoljno z igro in petjem. Lepa zahvala naj bo izrečena režiserji Mrs. Antoniji Može in osebam, ki so nastopale v igri.
Mnogo so se trudili, in to popolnoma brezplačno, samo da
bi mi imeli večji uspeh.

Prav lepa hval
