Kaj vse ljubezen stor.

Detroit, Mich., 1. avgusta. — Tukaj se je danes poročila 69 letna premožna Mrs. Mary A. Mayginnis s 23 letnim Ed. H. Cochranom. Srečna nevesta se je nedavno seznanila s svojim izvajencem, ko je bil poslovodja v njenem hotelu. Hudson, Wis., 29. julija. — Tukajšnje oblasti so danes aretirale 21 letnega William Krugerja, sina farmerja Otto C. Krugerja v Stanton, ker je dne 21. julija umoril svojega očeta, njegovo truplo pa zakopal v nek jarek. Zločinec je očetom že prisnal.

ZLOCIN NA VICU.

ZVERINSKO POČETJE SLOVENSKI FAŠISTOV.

Ljubljana, 4. julija. — Ko so ljude braji včeraj poročilo o nečutenem zločinu Orjunašev (slovenski fašistov) na Viču, so zmajevali z glavami. Slišali smo mnogo sodb, ali najznačilnejša se nam je zdela sledenja: Umor delavca Fakina je bil zverinski čin, toda vsaj en moment je, ki bi mogel težje tega zločina olajšati in to je okolnost, da se je izvršil v Trbovljah v času, ko je tekla malo prej že kri in je bilo razburjenje splošno. Na Viču pa so delavca brez vsakega predhodnega prepričanja mučili na tak način, kakor bi to prisojali samo še ljudozrcem v osrednji Afriki. — Značilna sodba!

Urednik Slovenca je obiskal danes mučenega delavca Rudolfa Juvana v bolnišnici, kamor so ga prepeljali snoti z resilnim vozom oneveščenega. Pri tem je bila njegova žena in njegov starije plavolasi otročički in par delavcev, ki so prišli obiskat svojega tovarša. Bil je zopet pri popolni zavesti. Ranjeno roko je imel v debelo naviti obvezni, in katere je morel le začrnel palec. Mož, ki izgleda star 30 do 35 let, ni prav nič tožil. Na vprašanje, če ga kaj boli, je dejal: "Malo že boli." Anton Grdina.

Najglobokejši premogovnik v Združenih državah.

Indianapolis, Ind. — Glasilo Premogarske zveze (United Mine Workers of America) poroča, da se nahaja v državi Illinois najglobokejši premogovnik težave; ta rov je globok 1004 čevljev. Največji bakreni rudnik je v Michiganu, last Calumet & Hecla družbe, ki je globok 5990 čevljev; najglobokejši rov v Združenih državah je pa v Zapadni Virginiji, 7579 čevljev; ta rov so izkopali pri iskanju naravnega plina.

mu pri operaciji odrezali, ker sta bila popolnoma zmečkana, le mezinec so mu prišli. Ko so orjunaški inkvizitorji navajnik odvili, se je onesvestil. Kako dolgo je bil v omedievici, ne ve, le to se spominja, da so mu dali vode, nato so ga odvedli še vedno z zavezanimi očmi. Suvali so ga pa ves čas, odkar so ga imeli zvezanega, in sicer v trebuhi; bruhal je kri.

Ko so mu odvezali oči in ga izpustili, so mu zagrozili, da ga takoj ustrelje, ako se ozre. Sel je kakih 150 korakov, nato pa se je usedel in pil vodo iz bašterja pod Rožnikom, nasproti strelišču. Sel je v Delavski dom, kjer so mu prinesli čašo vina, da se okrepiča, nakar se je zopet onesvestil. Onesveščenega so prepeljali v bolnico z resilnim vozom.

Na vprašanje, kako bo živel sedaj njegova družina, se je zamislil in molče pogledal na otročice. Zena je pa nežno pogladila najmlajšega plavolaska v pristavah: "Ta se je tako jokal, ko je slišal, kaj je z atom."

Suočite in srd se istočasno vzbudita v človeku, ki je priča takih prizorov. Naš urednik se je poslovil: "Z Bogom," sta mu dejala skoro istočasno ranjene in njegova žena, segla v roko, otročički pa so zaupljivo zrli v neznanega gospoda in s pogledom spremigli do vrata. Zrte zločinskega divjanja sta mu je zmečkalo. Dva so

Društvena naznanila

Iz urada tajnika društva sv. Vida, št. 25, Cleveland, O.

Se nikdar nismo imeli na kakki društveni seji tako zanimiv slučaj, kakor se je to vršil minuli seji dne 3. avgusta. Tadan je pristopilo deset članov ene in late družine v naše društvo, in sicer je to vrla družina sobrata Frank Stefančiča. V odrastek oddelek je pristopil on, njegova žena Ivana, en sin, Frank, ml., dve hčeri, Stanislava in Mary; v mlašinski oddelek pa pet otrok v razni starosti. V resnici posnemanja vreden slučaj. Vsa čast Stefančičevi družini! Who is next?

Tadan je tudi pristopil v društvo Rudolf Cerkvenik, st. in dva njegova mlada sina; sedaj je vsa Cerkvenika družina pri naši Jednoti in sicer dva v odrastlem oddelku, trije pa v mlašinskem. Živel!

Na označeni seji je bilo sklenjeno, da pošije naše društvo enega zastopnika na slavnost razvijanja nove zastave društva sv. Evstahija. Dalje je bilo sklenjeno, da se korporativno vdeležijo dne 10. avgusta (prihodnjo nedeljo) veliki cerkevne slavnosti v Newburgu. Zbirali se bomo točno ob 2. uri popoldne na E. 80th St. in Union Ave., odkoder odkorakamo na določeno mesto. Člani, prinesite regalije s seboj. Oni, ki še niste vajeni v Newburgu, vzemite E. 55th St. kar do Union Ave., tam pa transfer za Union Ave. do E. 80th St.

Na poziv glavnega urada K. S. K. Jednote je naše društvo darovalo iz svoje blagajne znesek $10 za bedne in prizadete Lorainčane. Da bi pač našemu društvu sledila še ostala društva širom Zedinjenih držav! Kdor izmed naših članov hoče kaj prispeti za Lorain, naj se zglaši pri meni.

Bratje in sestre! Ker je do konca tekočega leta pristopnila za odrastle v društvo prosta, agitirajte in delujte za povečanje števila članov. Naše društvo sv. Vida je sedaj drugo po velikosti krajevnih društev. Ako bo šlo tako uspešno dalje, bomo do Božiča morda lahko prvi? Dal Bog! Dalje omenjam, da je tudi pristopnila za mlašinski oddelek prosta, tako da ni treba prvi mesec nicesar plačati. Poslužite se torej te lepe prilike!

Joliet, Ill., 17. julija, 1924.

BOGUMIL GORENJKO:
MATERINA POVEST.

Stara je že povest,
vendar vedno nova;
pravili so mi jo mati
v lepih mladih dneh:

V boju je moral fantič mlad
daleč v kraje tuje,
da za vero, da za dom,
da za carja se vojskuje.

Mamica jokala je:
težko bilo je, hudo je
v boju poslati v tuji kraj
drago dete svoje.

Pa obesila za vrat
srebrno mu je svetinja, da peljala Mati bi
sveta ga v tujino:

"To edini moj spomin
za te je, o dete";
to pozdrav je moj edin:
Matere ne zabi svete!"

In na vojsko šel je sin —
toda glejte čudo:
koliko jih je s krvjo
napojilo tujo grudo!

Ali njega strel zadel
v sveto je svetinja,
in vesel se vrnil je
k majki v domovino.

POLDRUGI MARTIN.

Na to roko, na ono plat leži vas, tam je živila žena, ki je imela edinega sina, Martina po imenu. In je bila slepa od same ljubezni in je mislila in govorila: "Moj sin, ta ima glavo na pravem toporišču, ta je pametn skoraj za dva, za poldruga pa gotovo." Pa so mu ljudje obesili ime "Poldrugugi Martin" in se ga je im-prijelo.

Poldrugi Martin je dorasel pod vrh pa je bila nedelja in je šla mati v cerkev in predno je še pravila: "Sinek Martinek, jaz grem k sveti maši, ti pa le-po čuvaj hišo in ko bo čas, zabeli zelje, da ga bova jedla, ko pridem domov."

Mati k maši, Poldrugi Martin pa pod streho, tam je v di-mu visela sianina. Ročno je je-snel in je hitel in rezal, da je vso sianino zrezal na drobne ko-
se. Zrezano je dal v pehar in jo nesel na zelinik in jo preudarno in pravico razdelil po zelnatih glavah, na vsako glavo en kos.

Mati pride domov in vpraša:
"Sinek Martinek, ali si zabelel zelje?"

Poldrugi Martin: "Sem ga."

Mati vzame zelje iz peči in ga strese v skledo, pa vidi, da ni zabljeno. Začudi se in vpraša: "Sinek Martinek, kje si zabelel in kako?"

Pa ji je tekel kazat na zelinik, kje je zabela, pa je bilo že
prepozno, ker je baš odletela.

Zadnja kavka z zadnjim kosom v kljunu. Kaj sta hotela — južinala sta nezabeljeno zelje.

Drugo nedeljo je mati pri-stavila juho in predno je šla v cerkev, je naročila sinu: "Si-nek Martinek, jaz grem v cerkev,

Mati v cerkev, Poldrugi Martin pa je doma stražil juho.
Prične juha kipeti in Poldrugi
Martin v dir in po mater. Pa je butnil v cerkvene duri in zosom in z roko hkrati in se s praga zadrl proti oltaru: "Ma-

Mati je bilo sram, pa ko je domov prišla, ga je lepo podu-čila: "Sinek Martinek, ti bi moral nalaho priti k mene in mi tiso povedati na uho! Ni treba, da koj vsa fara izve, kaj je pri nas v loncu."

Tretjo nedeljo je pristavila
krompir in je rekla: "Sinek Martinek, zdaj grem v cerkev;
če bo kipelo, nič ne de, ni treba hoditi pome, le da mi paži na ogenj."

Mati v cerkev, Poldrugi Martin pa je varoval dom. Sedel je v kuhinji in gledal v živi plamen pa je zmajal glavo in re-kel: "Kako naj pazim na o-genj, ko mi spak šviga v dimnik. Najbolj bo varno, v posteljo ga dam in ga dobro ode-nam: tam mi ne bo 'uhajal.'"

Storil je tako in lepo čedno
znosil goreča polena v posteljo.
Pa že predno jih je odel, se je vnula slama in vsa hiša je bila
v ognju.

"Na!" je reklo, "hiša gori, pa
bodo še šlape zgorele materi, če jih koj ne spravijo v kraj."

Hitro je stopil v cerkev, tih-o se je preril skozi ljudi in do matere in ji zašepetal na uho:
"Mati, šlape vam bodo zgorele."

Mati ga ni razumela, pa so še drugi ljudje kričali: "Gori, gori!" in ko je prihital domov,
je našla le še pogorišče.

Zdaj sta bila brez strehe in mati je rekla: "Sinek Martinek, idi okoli dobrih ljudi, vse
kar ti dado, nama pride prav!"
Speklia mu je pogačo in šel je prezgodaj.

"Dobra bo," je reklo Poldrugugi Martin, "koj jo nesem materi."

Pred njim je s parom konj
sosed peljal slamo pa si je mis-lil Poldrugi Martin: "Kaj bi peš pod iglo, konja ji bosta lažje kos kakor jaz!" Pa je jeteknil v slamo.

Pride do doma, rad bi vzel
iglo iz slame, pa je ni več na-šel; privekal je k materi. Ma-ti ga je potolažila in podučila:
"Drugi te kaj takega dobila, da si ne morelo dobiti?"

Svet se je spravil na pot pa
dobi pri kmetu plužno železo.
Poldrugi Martin, bistra glava,
ki je pozabil materinih besedi,
vtikal si je tekel dar za klobuk,

pa mu je plužno železo padlo
iz rok in na nogo in mu skoraj odsekalo peto. S krvavimi sto-

The Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Mother of God we half thy Heart,
Throned in the azure skies
While far and wide within its charm
The whole creation lies.
Fr. Faber.

The Month of August is devoted to the Sacred Heart of Mary. The prophecy of holy Simeon "A sword shall pierce thy soul," was fulfilled when Mary stood at the foot of the Cross, the "Sorrowful Mother." As she gazed at her beloved Son, His sacred Hands and Feet pierced with the cruel nails, and fastened to the Cross pangs of sorrow passed through maternal heart.

Mary knew the mission of her Divine Son. Yes, she knew it at the Annunciation. Simeon's prophecy impressed this mission still more. During the thirty-three years Calvary and the Crucifixion were constantly before her. We can behold her with a mother's care fondly kissing and caressing the Hands and Feet of her Son. Throughout her life Mary's heart was pierced, but she suffered with Jesus and for us. She well merits our love and gratitude.

The heart of a mother is always filled with love. A mother will joyfully give all, even life, for her child. The love of Mary was mingled and united with the love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Today the Heart of Mary in Heaven is filled with the same maternal love.

On August 15th we commemorate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into heaven. This is the greatest of all the festivals which the Church celebrates in her honor. On this day we honor her happy death which after that of her Divine Son was, above all, the most holy and the most precious in the sight of the Lord.

In heaven she is elevated above angels and archangels with a special claim to our homages and ardently desires to promote our real interests. Let us therefore rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast in honor of the blessed Virgin Mary, for whose assumption the angels rejoice and join in praising the Son of God.

A LITTLE PASTIME.

To go through a certain orchard it is necessary to pass through three gates. Go in and pick up a certain number of apples and put them into your sack. When going out leave at the first gate one-half of the apples you have picked and one half of an apple more. At the second gate leave one-half of your remaining apples and one-half of an apple more. At the third gate leave one-half of your remaining apples and one-half of an apple more, and keep the one that is left. How is this done? How many apples did you pick up before going out? Note: No apple is to be cut in half.

Answer to the above problem is 15.

WORDS OF WISE MEN.

Cheerfulness has been called the bright weather of the heart.

We can do more good by being good than in any other way.

The wisest man is generally he who thinks himself the least so.

A good name keeps its lustre in the dark.

Willie was near the end of his reading lesson when he came upon a word he could not pronounce. The teacher said it was barque (bark). Willie looked at the class and smiled.

"Barque," said the teacher harshly.

Willie replied: "Bow, Wow!"

IMPORTANT ADDRESS.

At the 30. anniversary celebration of our Fraternal Union, given by the societies at Cleveland, O., on June 15, 1924 our Supreme Medical Examiner, Dr. Jos. V. Grahek of Pittsburgh, Pa., delivered to the Juvenile members, present at Grdina's Hall the following address:

Mr. Chairman, Brother members of the Supreme Board, and Members of the K. S. K. Juvenile Order of the K. S. K. Jednote.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I made a special effort to be with you today. I am not sorry that I did. In the opening exercises you brought to me the emblem of one of the most necessary things for our future existence as an order, and that is the flag of liberty, our own red, white and blue. It stood and waved higher than the tricolor of the land of our fathers, because it had in the past acted as our protector and savior when we most needed such protection and assistance. While we remain loyal to our flag, love it, respect it, and that, which it represents, we need not fear that our liberties shall be curtailed.

About thirty years ago, the parents of some of us met, and planted a tree, the K. S. K. J. that has borne good fruit ever since. The fruit of that tree has been very sweet, because it came when most needed, either to help bury our dead, or to relieve the sick, when in need. At first, this tree gave fruit in the form of a death benefit only. The members who organized the order, received no benefits themselves, but had provided for you and me. Later, benefits in the shape of operation fees were added and still later, sick and disability benefits, also as fruit of that tree. Primarily, therefore, this tree was planted for the ones, whom the charter-members loved best. The fruit has been partaken by many, in money, amounting to millions of dollars in benefits.

Like every other tree, this one, the K. S. K. J. must have new soil, so that it may thrive and continue to bear fruit. This new soil must come from the young blood of the Slovanes. In them lies the future of this, and every other Slovenian order. The greater the amount of new soil and the more new blood, the more prolific shall the tree become. Therefore, it behoves us to work with that end in view. Every Slovenian young child should be a member of this order. Do not wait until tomorrow to join, because tomorrow may never come. Join the ranks now. Not only will the young man or woman be protecting him or herself, by being a member, but they will be helping their fathers and mothers to a more positive assurance that this order will remain on a solvent basis. If you are the beneficiary of your parents, you will be helping yourself. Therefore, attend the next meeting of the lodge, and file your application for membership. If you can afford to carry more than one policy, do so. While saving your money is a good plan, bear in mind that it is just as safe in a good fraternal order. The returns from the society may even be greater than those you would collect from the banks in the same period paying a like amount of assessment. If you pay ten assessments at the rate of $2 per month, you would have paid into the society $20. In case of death, your beneficiaries would receive a $1000. On the other hand, if you had that money in the bank, your beneficiaries would receive the $20 plus the interest, which would not amount to over $2, or, all told, they would receive

$30, a return of $22 as compared with a $1000.

The K. S. K. J. offers you several policies. You may take out a straight life policy, or you may take a twenty-year payment policy. You have your choice. In addition, the K. S. K. J. allows operation fees as high as $100. There is also another feature, in that you may insure yourself against sickness and accidents. In fact, every phase of insurance is covered by this order. The fact, that it is your organization, is also one of importance. You are part-owner of its resources, you are represented in the making of its by-laws. You have a vote in deciding who shall guide your order. What more can you expect?

Since you have everything that any insurance company can offer, is there any logical reason why you should not be a member of the K. S. K. J.? Join today. Fall into the ranks. Follow in your father's footsteps. If he was good enough to provide for you, you should do the same, and provide for him, if anything should happen to you. The rates are low, the returns large. While you may never demand a cent from the sick benefit fund, while you may never have to submit to an operation, nevertheless, you will be protected. But die we must. This is positive. And then the death benefit must be paid. Death may come tomorrow, or it may come 25 years from now. We do not know when. We have no mortgage on life. So let us lighten the burden of those, whom we must leave behind.

Provide for respectable burial and a check from the K. S. K. Jednota for your loved ones who will mourn your loss. Since the Juvenile order of the K. S. K. J. is your order, work for your own interest by submitting at least one new application for membership at your next meeting. Let us hope that your shall be the largest Juvenile order in the K. S. K. Jednota.

I thank you!

Dr. J. V. Grahek.

The Vatican Choir under the directorship of Msgr. Antonio Rella which made a coast to coast tour last Fall was composed of fifty-four singers, and their ages ranged from ten to seventy years. The two youngest members of the Choir were Ugo Bartoletti, twelve year old soprano, and Felix Alinario, ten year old contralto.

When there is a quake in any part of the world—and there is a quake of some sort every two hours and twenty-seven minutes—Father Francis A. Tondorf, director of the Seismological Observatory of Georgetown University, is usually first with the information. He told the Associated Press of the Tokio disaster long before the news arrived from any other source.

A teacher in a school in the suburbs had been training her pupils in anticipation of a visit from the school director. At last he came, and the classes were called out to show their attainments.

The arithmetic class was the first called, and in order to make a good impression the teacher put the first question to Johnny Smith, the star pupil.

"Johnny, if coal is selling at $11 a ton, and you pay the coal dealer $44, how many tons of coal will he bring you?"

"Three," was the prompt reply from Johnny.

The teacher, much embarrassed, said: "Why, Johnny, that isn't right."

"Oh, I know it isn't, but they do it, Miss."

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE COUNSELS BOYS TO REVERENCE

Declares respect for nature, law and God is basis of our institutions.

Washington, July 26.—President Coolidge, speaking by telephone last night from the White House to a dinner given on board the Leviathan for the fifty-three Boy Scouts who will sail on the liner today for Copenhagen to represent this country in the international scout field meets, declared that the fundamentals of American institutions were reverence for nature, reverence for law and reverence for God.

These three things, the President said, also are the fundamental teachings of the Boy Scouts, and he himself had learned them in his boyhood on the farm.

Text of the President's speech.

The President's address was as follows:

"Delegates of the Boy Scouts of America: You are sailing tomorrow to represent your organization at an international gathering of the Boy Scouts to be held at Copenhagen. As Honorary President of your body, I desire to give you a word of farewell and to express my hope that you may have a pleasant and successful journey which will be productive of much good to yourselves and your associates.

"There was no Boy Scout organization in my boyhood; but every boy who has the privilege of growing up on a farm learns instinctively the three fundamentals of scouting.

The first is a reverence for nature. Boys should never lose their love of the fields and the streams, the mountains and the plains, the open places and the forests. That love will be a priceless possession as your years lengthen out.

The second is an instructive myth about the giant Antaeus. Whenever, in a contest, he was thrown down, he drew fresh strength from his mother, the earth, and so was thought invincible. But Hercules lifted him away from the earth and so destroyed him. There is new life in the soil for every man. There is healing in the trees for tired minds, and for our overburdened spirits there is strength in the hills, if only we will lift up our eyes. Remember that nature is your great restorer.

The second is a reverence for law. I remember the town meetings of my boyhood, when the citizens of our little town met to levy taxes on themselves and to choose from their own number those who should be their officers. There is something in every such meeting, in election, that approaches very near to the sublime.

I am thrilled at the thought of my audience tonight, for I never address boys without thinking that among them may be a boy who will sit in this White House. Somewhere there are boys who will be Presidents of our railroads, presidents of colleges, of banks, owners of splendid farms and useful industries, members of congress, representatives of our people in foreign lands.

The Heritage of the American boy.

That is the heritage of the American boy. It was an act of magnificent courage when our ancestors set up a nation wherein any boy may aspire to anything. That great achievement was not wrought without blood and sacrifice. Make firm your resolution to carry on nobly that has been so nobly begun.

Let this nation, under your guidance, be a finer nation. Resolve that the sacrifices by which your great opportunities have been purchased will be matched by a sacrifice, on your part, that will give your children a better chance.

The third is a reverence for God. It is hard to see how a great man can be an atheist. Without the sustaining influence of faith in a divine power we could have little faith in ourselves. We need to feel that behind us is not achieve; skeptics do not contribute; cynics do not create.

Faith is the great motive power, and no man realizes his full possibilities unless he has the deep conviction that life is eternally important, and that his work, well done, is a part of an unending plan.

These are not only some of the fundamentals of the teachings of the Boy Scouts, they are the fundamentals of our American institutions.

If you will take them with you, if you will be living examples of them abroad, you will make a great contribution toward a better understanding of our own country, and receive in return a better understanding of other countries, for you will find in foreign lands to a very large extent exactly what you carry there yourselves.

I trust that you can show to your foreign associates in the great Scout movement that you have a deep reverence for the truth, and are determined to live by it; that you wish to protect and cherish your own country and contribute to the well-being right-thinking and true-living of the whole world."

As clear as if he was present.

The president's remarks occupied about fifteen minutes and were received in amplifiers in the great dining hall of the steamship. The voice of the president sounded as clear as if he had been on board the vessel, and it created a profound impression among the Boy Scouts and the guests, numbering about 250.

Immediately following his speech the boys gave three cheers for the president, led by Scout McRay of Fort Wayne, Ind., their cheer leader. They also dispatched a telegram for the president at the White House, expressing deep appreciation of his message, and pledging that they would keep in mind and practice the principles he so ably set before them.

The Danish Minister, Constantin Brum, sent a message to the farewell dinner from Bar Harbor, Me., saying that a warm welcome was assured the United States scouts in Copenhagen.

Mortimer L. Schiff, international commissioner, presided, and among the other speakers were Captain Herbert Hartley of the Leviathan, Dr. John H. Finley and Will Rogers, who kept the scouts and guests in a roar of laughter with his description of the recent Democratic convention.

Urged to be "fine fellows."

Colin H. Livingston of Washington, D. C., president of the Boy Scouts, told the scouts in his address to leave the impression in Europe that Americans are fine fellows, "and never if we can help it, will we have any quarrel with them."

James E. West, chief scout executive, spoke of the interest which the jamboree, which is to begin on Aug. 16, had awakened, and hoped that the people of this country would be stimulated to greater effort for the boyhood of the nation, which, he stated, was allowed to stumble into citizenship, handicapped and unprepared for the tremendous responsibilities of later life.

Attention was drawn during the dinner to Eagle Scout Thomas Frazier of Honolulu, Hawaii, who missed his boat, and who was brought to Vancouver in a British battleship in time to sail today.

Ralph Hubbard has trained part of the delegation to do Indian dances, which will be included in the exhibition abroad.

WHAT THE ALTAR BOY SHOULD REMEMBER.

Nothing can be small or unimportant which is connected with a dignity the angels covet.

The first requisite is punctuality. Who would keep royalty waiting his own convenience.

When one is invited to a dinner party, he dresses, not to gratify his own vanity, but to honor his host.

You recall the fate of one who neglected to clothe himself in the wedding garment. There should be no carelessness or untidiness in the person of the King's page.

Every article worn by the priest when saying mass has a deep religious significance; so, too, have the garments of the server a special meaning, and are to be treated with the reverent care due to sacred things. Punctually and proper attire are only the preparation for public worship — which consists outwardly of adorning and supplicating words placed upon the lips by Holy Church herself.

All this, the altar boy, in his conspicuous place in the sanctuary, should consider, and remember especially when making the response in the mass.

So great is the care of Holy Church to treat the Word, when He becomes flesh and dwells among us, with proper deference that she has set apart a language for this purpose.

In the house of God our mother tongue is forgotten, and the noble Latin language is used.

All this, the altar boy, in his conspicuous place in the sanctuary, should consider, and remember especially when making the response in the mass.

Respect for a superior can be shown in no way so manifestly as in the tone and manner of our address. We strive to speak deliberately, grammatically, distinctly. With an equal one may use contractions and colloquialisms; but when God is publicly addressed in the language, He Himself has chosen, each word should be perfectly enunciated, dropping from the lips like beads of gold.

Surely this was one of the ways in which St. John Berchmanns performed his duties perfectly. No unbecoming word we know, was ever spoken by him. Words have wings, and once they are free, like wild birds, can never be recalled.

"Set a' watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a door round about my lips," was the prayer of quick-tempered King David, and might well be the prayer for each of us, but most especially of him who serves the priest at the altar and whose lips utter sacred words.

—The Catholic Observer.

Grant us strength to breathe that prayer —

Hail Mary, full of grace.

—The Missionary.

Brain Teasers

The fox, the Goose and the Corn.

A man having a fox, a goose and a basket of corn, came to a river and found that the boat would only carry him and one of his charges across. He is, of course, in a quandary, for if he should leave the fox and goose together, the fox would eat the goose, and if he left the goose and the corn together, the goose would eat the corn. How did he get them across the river?

A Financial Problem.

If Thomas had seven cents more than he has and Henry six cents less, they together would have ten cents. How much has each?

Height of Men.

If a man six feet tall weighs 216 pounds, how much should a man of similar proportions five feet tall weigh?
