Current Thought.

DIRECT RELIEF APPLIED

A serious problem confronts our South Slavonic Catholic Union at the present time. That problem is to satisfy the many requests forwarded to the Supreme Office by members and lodges unable to meet the monthly assessments. Our Supreme Board has partly solved this perplexing obstacle in its decision to suspend the Sport Fund, transfer it to the Disability Fund, and use it to pay mortuary assessments in special cases. The money available for this purpose is limited, since only two cents a month are collected from each member. It is like satisfying the lion's appetite with small dainty dishes. However, our Supreme Board deserves credit for taking steps to alleviate the unfortunate condition existing among some of our members. What relief can be obtained in assisting members unable to meet the lodge dues is better than none at all. The highest governing body is up against a wall in applying direct relief for such emergencies since its duty is to execute By-Laws and Constitution, and not make them.

Local Lodges Should Assist Needy Members
The local lodges should take it upon themselves to give whatever assistance they can to the present exigency. Each lodge has a treasury for its own use. Funds are accumulated through various lodge activities such as holding dances, sponsoring dramas, to mention a few, the proceeds of which benefit the local branch. Why not transfer part of this treasury into a local relief fund to be used exclusively for members unable to meet the lodge dues?

But perhaps the lodge treasury is empty. Then it is up to the committees to arrange some kind of an activity that will bolster finances. Indoor activities are most popular at this time of the year, preferably dances. If none have been held as yet, then by all means the committee should get busy and plan such entertainment.

Members receiving financial assistance at the present time should consider such acts of kindness as loans, to be repaid when convenient.

In this way the local branches would co-operate with the Supreme Board in effecting direct relief. Where one would prove insufficient the other would fill the gap. Thus the unfortunate members would be amply provided for in this crisis.

Certainly this world-crisis will not last forever, despite the gloomy outlook for the immediate future. Upon looking back and delving into recent history one will find that such unemployment conditions follow a regular cycle, even as periods of prosperity. Let us look with optimistic eyes, and make the best of the situation.

But above all let us adhere strictly to one of the principles of our fraternal benefit Union—to assist our brothers and sisters in time of need.

GOLD

(By Christine Troya, Richmond, Cal.)

There is gold in the shimmering moonlight,
That falls softly over the sea.
There is gold in the heart of a poppy,
That dots the meadow and lea.

There is gold in the glow of a campfire,
'Neath starlit, evening skies.
There is gold in the mantle of autumn trees,
That sing sweet lullabies.

There is gold in the heart of a beautiful rose,
As it opens to greet the dawn.
There is gold in the glint of sunlight,
That touches me—then is gone.

There is gold in the western sunset,
As it paints the rainbow sky;
There is gold in the sunbeam's kisses,
As it kisses a butterfly.

Let the miser horde his money,
Let him store away his gold,
Let his face grow grim and hardened,
Let his miser heart grow cold.

Just give me the gold God scatters,
Over the hillside and over the sea.
For only God's gold can cheer one's heart,
And make Life a Melody.

A SUCCESSFUL LODGE

East Palestine, O.—A successful lodge is one which has grasped the thinking facilities of uninterested people and make them "stop, look and listen," is traveling the road of success paved with unlimited possibilities. The successful lodge has created an infectious spirit of fraternalism.

Wealth a Responsibility

When news of Thomas A. Edison's death filled the nation's headlines another important personage was given equal publicity in Cleveland, for Samuel Mather, philanthropist, passed away on the same day, Oct. 18.

Samuel Mather was best known in Cleveland. Where Edison contributed his inventive genius, Mather contributed money to charities, colleges and medical institutions. The Community Fund of Cleveland owes its success to a great extent to him, since he alone contributed a million and a half to it during his lifetime.

The Community Fund of Cleveland carries an annual campaign to help out the needy; a certain amount is set for a goal, perhaps five million dollars, sometimes more and sometimes less. Thus all the city charities receive a sum in proportion to their activities.

To the Community Fund the entire populace contributes, rich and poor, all according to their means.

The Community Fund was started after the World War, and has continued annually ever since. Not once has it failed to reach its quota.

But to get back to Samuel Mather. To various branches of Western Reserve University Mr. Mather donated more than $8,000,000. He was the foremost benefactor of Lakeside Hospital. The extent of generosity included a score of other institutions not known to the general public.

Mr. Mather also found time to take part in the direction of many of the institutions which were objects of his philanthropy. His contribution to them was made in personal service as well as money.

As the Cleveland Press pointed out so strongly: "Samuel Mather's strength was built on character, and his character had strong foundation in ancestral tradition. His was a great family in the early history of America. In his own person, Samuel Mather upheld the simplicity, the dignity and earnestness of the tradition in which he was born."

"To Samuel Mather the possession of wealth did not mean the opportunity for indulgence; to him it was primarily a responsibility. He did not seek honors or privileges or extravagant pleasures; he assumed duties."

Here is one person that did not fit at all with the "idle rich." Samuel Mather was 80 years of age at the time of his death. But his age did not interfere with his charitable work. During the 1930 campaign it looked as if the Community Fund was going to fall short of its goal for the first time, he contributed an extra $125,000 to make it succeed.

SINCERE REGRETS

Whatever advantages the newspaper field has to offer the editors is offset, somewhat, by the fact that practically all of their work is published, and whatever omissions and errors are made appear in print.

In the Nov. 4, 1931, issue of New Era an article appeared headed "Highlights Present at Zbasnik's Farewell Banquet." Unfortunately, one of the principal speakers was omitted in the person of Bro. John Furar, president of Pittsburgher Lodge, No. 196, SSCU, of Pitts-

BRIEFS

Community Fund of Cleveland, O., was launched Monday, Nov. 16, with $5,650,000 set as the goal.

Prizes of $2 will be awarded for each new adult member brought in and $1 for each new juvenile member, plus the banquet which is to be given at the end of the year by the team having brought in the fewest number of members.

Socials for lodge members in good standing only are held on Sunday afternoons at our lodge meeting place, starting Nov. 15, at 1 p. m. Card parties, chess, checkers, dancing, etc., will be in progress each Sunday. Come around and get in practice for the tournaments to be staged soon.

Socials are held every Tuesday, but refreshments will be handed out every second Tuesday.

The Indians started their basketball season right by defeating the Commonwealth Edison team by a score of 16 to 8. So far Hellwig seems to be the shining star; let's hope that he can keep it up. Incidentally, it might be worth knowing that the Indians are entered in the Chicago American basketball tournament.

Dancers are born and not made, why look at Steve Gotz. A week ago he couldn't dance a step and now he can. What's more, he seems to be keeping pace with Flayheart.

Two young ladies came up to our president and treasurer and offered to aid them with the refreshments for one of our socials. The president nearly collapsed, and Otto wonders if the girls knew what they were doing. Well, anyway, it surely was nice of the girls to help the boys out and we hope they keep it up.

Our first autumn hike this year will be held on Sunday, Nov. 29. All those going are to congregate at our lodge meeting place. Our destination will be Palos Hills. Automobiles will be left behind. A hike of this kind will be the first the lodge has ever taken. Car fare and lunch is all you need to bring.

Well, girls, you almost had powder and rouge free of charge. Let's see, what will we buy next? How about the Wrigley Building? Oh, well, we all have our moments.

The dance is over. Now the task of beautifying our meeting place is before us. And are we going to do it? Watch us!

I'm still waiting to see Bud kiss Otto.

Leo W. Moore, Sec'y.

Or Stuff Cracks

A group of reporters were chipping about the war between newspapers and radio. There was some apprehension over radio's alleged entry into the scoopie field.

"Radio," flipped one scribe, "never will replace the newspaper. You can't wrap up lunch in a radio."

burgh, Pa.

In fact Bro. Furar represented the English-conducted Lodge Pittsburgher, and spoke in behalf of the lodge. It is sincerely regretted that so important a speaker was overlooked.

INDIAN SHORTS

Indians Start Membership Drive

Chicago, Ill.—On Sunday, Nov. 22, at 1 p.m., is the official starting time for the membership drive of Indian Lodge, No. 220, SSCU. President Albert Spolar will put the names of all the lodge members into a hat, and pick them out one by one, putting the first name he picks out on one side, the second on the other side, etc., until all members are on one side or the other. This membership drive is to consist of two teams, both competing against each other.

Prizes of $2 will be awarded for each new adult member brought in and $1 for each new juvenile member, plus the banquet which is to be given at the end of the year by the team having brought in the fewest number of members.

Socials for lodge members in good standing only are held on Sunday afternoons at our lodge meeting place, starting Nov. 15, at 1 p. m. Card parties, chess, checkers, dancing, etc., will be in progress each Sunday. Come around and get in practice for the tournaments to be staged soon.

SSCU Teams Meet

Next Sunday, Nov. 22 will find the Flagmakers battling it out with the George Washington in the A League. Many a thrill will be on tap for both teams will be putting their best, and should show which club has the strongest team lined up in the SSCU combines of Cleveland. In the B League the Betsy Ross will meet the Cherry Tree Choppers.

SPORT FUND SUSPENDED TEMPORARILY

ONLY A TEMPORARY MEASURE—to be resumed in the near future, has the administration of the Sport Fund been suspended, to be used in applying direct relief to needy members unable to meet their lodge dues.

Thus, the younger members and others interested in athletic activities promoted by individual lodges of our Union, can feel rest assured that the execution of the Sport Fund will be effected again, when conditions warrant it.

The Sport Fund has not been abolished, but merely transferred to the Disability Fund. In due time it will be returned to the original status.

Then our lodges will have access to the Sport Fund again. Financial assistance will be given local branches organizing and sponsoring SSCU lodge teams in various lines of sports, as provided for in our By-Laws and Constitution.

Our members should not labor under any disillusions, to the effect that, perhaps, our SSCU has forsaken its interest in athletic activities among the lodges. Rather, it is its sincere desire to see sports continued, even though such a drastic step was necessary.

Continue to organize athletic teams that represent your lodge and our SSCU. Perhaps the bowling and basketball teams will not have entire new outfits during this season because of insufficient funds. But like all organizations, in this period of depression, our lodges should curtail excessive expenses, and get along with less money, insofar as athletics are concerned.

When we consider how much benefit will be bestowed upon some unfortunate member of many years standing, in the application of the Sport Fund, we realize how selfish it would have been for us, the younger members of our Union, to carry on the sport program. How would you like to face the problem of being expelled from the Union for non-payment of dues, after you had diligently paid lodge assessments over a period of years? Not because you forgot to meet the dues, but because you had no money to pay the monthly assessments, on account of unemployment.

This is precisely the problem faced by many of our needy members applying for relief. They do not wish to be expelled, or withdrawn voluntarily from an organization they helped build, nourish and bring it to a high pinnacle of glory, that our South Slavonic Catholic Union has attained.

We should feel elated at the opportunity, we, the younger members have, that of sacrificing the national SSCU sport program for the present time, and instead, help out those in need, some of whom have laid the foundation of our grand South Slavonic Catholic Union.

I. L. League Results

Cleveland, O.—Our SSCU entries in the Inter-Lodge league did not fare so well last Sunday, Nov. 15, with the exception of Betsy Ross, who stepped into first place by taking three games from the Pioneers.

Clipping the maples for a 2813 series the Flagmakers continued to surprise the circuit. Anchor man, Baraga, proved to be an essential cog in his team victory, blasting the lumber for 652 on tallies of 229, 203 and 225; thus, the mighty 652 series placed Baraga third in the individual high three standing.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE?

Why not get in it? Start Now—it's not to late. There would be nothing to it, if each member would approach a few of his friends, or relatives, and after explaining what we are, and what we have, ask him to join the South Slavonic Catholic Union, picturing to him the social, the sick and death benefit, the athletics and sports, especially bowling which is now in season.

Say, If you tell him all about these things—you will have him asking you to let him join at once. Try it Brothers and Sisters and surprise yourself with the results. Our slogan is, "EVERY MEMBER GET A MEMBER" for our society. Stick with us, and make this slogan come true.

NEWS OF JOLIET

J. L. Jevitz Jr. Organizes Bowling League

Joliet, Ill.—On the evening of Armistice Day, the JSKJ No. 66 bowlers made their weekly out-of-town trip. On this particular occasion they went to find out just how strong this Lemont team was. Well, folks, they found that their opponents were some 62 points better on this particular evening. Our bowling still is not up to par. A few of the boys, as you see, are still below their regular average.

The high honors of the evening were captured by Captain Frank Ramutta, who had an average of 203. And just a step behind was John Horwath, holding second with a 200 average.

Respective Duties

East Palestine, O.—Every good citizen knows what his country demands of him, as one of its inhabitants. He must respect it, defend it, and sacrifice for it. Often the sacrifice is the gift of his life for his country. He must help it that in turn he may be helped.

Every good lodge member knows that his lodge demands the performances of some specific duties by him. He must have faith in it, respect it, and protect it. And above all, he must be a good press agent. Those who fulfill their duties are rewarded; those who do not are just some more parasites looking for something upon which they may fatten themselves.

J. J. Golicic, No. 41, SSCU.

Illini Stars Hold Dance November 25

Chicago, Ill.—The roll call of the Illini Stars, No. 211, SSCU, is getting a little longer every month. Last month two girls became members of our lodge, and we hope our members will continue the good work and bring more new faces at the next meeting.

Don't forget our second annual fall dance, members and friends. It will be held on Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 25, at Berger's Hall, 2657 S. Lawndale Ave.

Free favors, a torrid orchestra and good refreshments sounds pretty inviting, doesn't it?

We hope everyone will remember the date and be there. You'll not regret it. Why miss a wonderful time, when the price of a ticket will be only a quarter? See you at the dance. J. J. Tabor Jr., Pres.

Judge: Do you still deny the accusation when three persons have testified that they saw you steal?

Defendant: What are three persons? There are millions who did not see me

Jacobsen: Dot Cohen fellow had a fire day after he started in pizziness. Goldstein: Oi, oi, beginner's luck!

"The Redheaded Stepchild" was a first-class play that we all enjoyed seeing. It was a very good and well acted drama. Therefore, the SS. Peter and Paul Lodge takes this opportunity to congratulate St. Anne's drill team for the wonderful entertainment that they put on last Sunday evening.

The bowling team was present at the play in a body. Captain Ramutta of the team took a leading part. The boys enjoyed the evening very much (and especially "Lucia's admirer").

Brother and sister members, my time and gossip has come to an end for the time being. I hope the "News of Joliet" pleases the readers as much as it pleases me to write it. If you have any comments, or news which eludes my ear, they will be gladly accepted by Joseph Kozlevcar Jr., No. 66, SSCU.

THE SSCU AND ILLINI STARS

Chicago, Ill.—Any organization is as worthy as the motive which inspires it. The Illini Stars is a subordinate lodge of the SSCU and was created to give protection, help, social and athletic contacts and inspiration to its members. The motive is purely altruistic and wholly unselfish.

The primary purpose of human life is the attainment of happiness. Dependence, want and insecurity are not conducive to happiness. Fraternal protection helps to conquer the enemies of progress—poverty and misery, especially when caused through sickness, disease, accident or death. As a Chinese proverb says, "The greatest conqueror is he who overcomes the enemy without a blow."

In the work of fraternalism the South Slavonic Catholic Union and the Illini Stars develop in the heart of their members a spirit of self-respect, give a feeling of immeasurable satisfaction, stabilize the income of their members when the earnings of their members are cut off by sickness, accident or death. This Union follows a basic law—the law of service, of human helpfulness. It is always ready to extend its helping hand to anyone who joins its vast host of noble brethren.
