Ely, Minn., je bil parkrat v mestnem

odboru in član več enot.

Stari elyški pionir Frank Losar, kateremu manjka samo še štiri leta do

100. letja na bolniški postelji. V razgovoru z njim razvidno, da ima še do-ber posluh in spomin, dasiravno je docela slep. Radi vida mi je potožil, da pač lahko povsem razločuje dan od noči, ko ga čez dan sonce bolj greje, posebeno kjer je tu v Minnesoti še meseca junija bolj hladno vreme. Starček Lo-sar hrepeneče povprašuje o svojem sinu

če še živi nekje blizu Denverja, Colo.

Bil je pred nekaj leti prišel na Ely,

Minn., toda od tedaj se ni več vrnil in tudi ne pisal. 96-letni belodradi Losar

pozdravlja vse svoje znance, posebno

pa ameriške Ribničane, kajti Ribnico je zapustil pred 45 leti.

Matija Pogorelec.

Waukegan-North Chicago, Ill.—Pre-

krasni mesec maj je nas zapustil in se ne povrne do drugega leta naza. Res, najlepši je mesec maj. Vse zeleni, drevvesa cvetijo, ptički prepevajo že v zgodnjih jutranjih urah tako, da se res

vse veseli.

Da ne bodo cenjeni čitatelji Glasila mislili, da tukaj na naši ameriški Vr-hnikih v društvenem življenju spimo spa-nje pravičnega, naj omenim, da vsa na-ša društva lepo napredujejo, čeravno

so tako slabi časi, da bolj slabi ne mo-rejo biti.

Dne 10. junija je v bolnišnici sv.

Terezije za bolničarko (nurse) gradutrala Miss Jennie Petrovič, hči dobro poznane Petrovičeve družine, po domače Čovnarjeva, vased česar naši vnivrli slovenski bolničarki iskreno česti-tam, tako tudi njenim pomnim star-

šem. Druga je Miss Anna Pustaverh, ki je tudi sedaj graduirala za bolničarko v nekem zavodu v La Salle, Ill.

Navedenka je hči dobro poznane Pusta-verhove družine; tudi nji in njenim srečnim starišem moje iskrene čestitke.

Obe družine spadajo k naši K. S. K.

Jednoti; hčere spadajo k našemu dru-štvu sv. Ane št. 127, in to društvo se sedaj lahko ponaša ker ima v svoji sredini kar tri diplomirane bolničarke.

Vsem naše ponovne čestitke.

Moram pa tudi poročati žalostno novico, da je kruta smrt posegla s svojo koščeno roko v naše društvo sv. Ane

št. 127 in odvzela kar dve članice. Prva

je bila sestra Frances Mavtinger, stara

65 let, katero smo pokopali dne 19. maja; druga je bila pa sestra Mary Kozina, stara šele 29 let; pogreb se je vršil dne 29. maja. Zaprška neotolažljivega moža in tri otroke v starosti od

3 do 10 let. Neumiljena smrt! Kaj si storila, da si odvzela tem otrokom najlepši zaklad sveta. Pokojna Mary

Kozina je bila dobra krščanska žena

svojem možu in skrbna mati svojim otrokam. Da je bila v resnici priljubljena, se je pokazalo za časa ko je le-žala na mrtvaškem odru, da so jo hodili ljudje trumoma kropit ob blizu in daleč. To je tudi pričal njen veličasten pogreb.

Zahvaliti se moram članicam našega

društva, ker ste se v tako velikem številu udeležile obeh pogrebih in ker ste

čule ponoči pri pokopinah ob mrtva-škem odru in nosilkam krste; vsem naj bo še enkrat izrečena najlepša zahvala!

Daj me vaše dolžnost, da se v imenu našega društva tudi zahvalim našim so-bratskim društvom sv. Jožefa št. 53 in

TRAGIČNA SMRT NADUČITELJA BENEDEKA

Ljubljana, 5. junija. —Nadučitelj Josipa Benedeka ni več med živimi. 4. junija je umrl nagle in nepričakovane smrti. Okrog 18. se je peljal z novim tramvajem do velesejma, tam je pa skočil z voza še predno se je ustavil. Nesreča je hotela, da je pri skoku odletel in padel. Poškodovan se je nekoliko na glavi in so ga morali prepe-ljati v bolnišnico. Sprva se je zdelo, da je poškodba neznatna. V bolnišnici se je Benedek počutil prav dobro in je hotel takoj domov. Nemudoma je pa omahnil in se zgrudil mrtev. Vse kaže, da ga je zadela kap.

Pokojni Josip Benedek je bil rojen leta 1848 v Mavčicah na Sorskem polju, v kraju pesnikov Simona in Janeza Jenka, s katerima se je dobro poznal, z Janezom je bil celo sošolec v Kranju. Po maturi na učiteljsko je bil imenovan na učiteljsko v Orehku na Krasu leta 1867, potem je pa služboval celih 45 let v Planini na Notranjskem.

Lani o Božiču je bilo poročano, da živi samo še zadnja trojka idrijskega učiteljskega, v prejšnjem stoletju tolikokrat imenovanega vzgojevališča, ki je dalo toliko slavni in zaslužnih mož, vzgojiteljev in prosvetnih delavcev. Med temi zaslužnimi možmi so bili tudi Ivan Gantar, ki je danes star 88 let in živi v Ljubljani, dalje 85-letni nadučitelj France Kavčič, ki živi v D. M. v Polju, tretji je pa bil pokojni Benedek.

Vsi trije hranijo velik kos šolske zgodovine, stare in tudi že nove šole, nje razvoja in napredka. Vsi trije so pričeli svojo učiteljsko kariero v konkordatski dobi, ko je bila šola podrejena cerkvi, prav za prav duhovščini v vsem. Tedaj, ko je veljal učitelj prej za zlo in breme kot za dobro in koristno in ko je videla večina predstojnikov v njem pravega slabega podložnika, so bile tudi častne izjeme med tedanjimi duhovniki, ki so visoko cenili šolo in v učitelju videli prosvetnega sebi enakega delavca in ne svojega hlabca. Redki so bili, bili so pa le.

Njih delo ni bilo le v šoli, med štirimi stenami. Gojili so poleg tega še z največjim veseljem sadjarstvo in vrtnarstvo, bili so neutrudljivi in požrtvovalni delavci pri raznih prosvetnih, dobroteljskih in nacijsko-narodnih delih. Bili so najmarljivejši orjači in sejalci med ljudstvom. Po svojem prepričanju vedno napredni, neomahljivi značaji v še tako hudih in težkih časih. In teh načel se drže še dandanes v svoji visoki starosti.

Pokojni Benedek si je dosti prizadeval v družbi našega rojaka Matije Pogorelca za Vilharjev spomenik, ki bo to polje odkrit v Planini na Notranjskem.

Velik požar v Mariboru. Dne 19. marca okoli 2. ure zjutraj so pasanti opazili, da se vali iz ostrišja hiše delikatesne trgovine in točilnice, last Fr. Marka na Meljski cesti gost, nevaren dim. Zaslislali so tudi značilno prasketanje ognja. S silo so vdrli v hišo in zbudili prebivalce hiše. Poklicali so tudi takoj mestne gasilce, ki so z dvema brizgalnima bili takoj na mestu. Z velikim trudom se je posrečilo gasilec, da so rešili ljudi in nekaj pohištva. Ko so požar pogasili, so našli na podstrešju 22-letnega brezposelnega natakarja Franja Krabonjo vsega obžganega. Takoj so ga odpeljali v mestno bolnišnico, kjer so ga operirali. Njegovo stanje je strašno. Vse telo je popolnoma ožgano in črno ter vse pokrito z mehurji od strašnih opeklin. Malo je upanja, da bo okrevl. Kako je požar nastal, se ni dalo ugotoviti. Škoda je velika.

Z avtomobilom na Krašnji vrh. Kdor ne ve, kje je in v naslednjem kraju ta Krašnji vrh tam gori pod sv. Jero, temu se neveda to ne bo zdelo nič posebnega. Kogar pa je še pot zanesla tja gori v Radovico, v ta skrajni kotiček Bele Krajine, ta bo pa že vedel, da je to nekaj posebnega. Z avtomobilom se, a z avtomobilom gori čez tiste groblje in pragove in klanice, kamor se še z voljo komaj prazen koš pelje...? Pa se je le res zgodilo to dne 9. maja. Kar drlo je vse skupaj, mlado in staro, sam Bog ve, kje se je toliko ljudstva vzelo, ko je ropotalo, trobilo, vršalo tja gori v klanice in šlo je srečno, do cilja, brez neizgode. Bolj opasna je bila pot nazaj, pa tudi tedaj se je prav izteklo. Primeril se je le en neznaten defekt. Ni šlo za potrebo. Le za stavo je šlo in za čast Krašnjega vrha. Vozil je s Fordom g. Fister iz Metlike. Pa je bil avtomobil na Krašnjem vrhu.

Energičen tržaški škof. Katoliški škof mgr. Fogar je proglasil nad župnijo v Krkovcu interdikt in dal zapreti cerkev. Temere je povzel vsled tega, ker so fašistične oblasti do sedaj že izgnale tri slovenske župnike. Zadnjega župnika je odpoklical škof na zahtevo puljskega prefekta. Fašistične oblasti so zahtevale, da se iz cerkve odstrani slovenski jezik ter da se maše in pridige vrše v italijanskem jeziku. Škof je dovolil, da se v župniji uraduje v italijanskem jeziku. Fašisti so namreč s tem hoteli doseči, da slovenski jezik popolnoma iztrebijo. Sedaj pa se je škof zatekel k tej meri, dokler mu italijanske oblasti ne zagotovijo svobodne uporabe obeh jezikov v cerkvi v Krkovcu.

Žrtev podivjane živali. V bolnišnici v Murski Soboti je po hudih mukah zatisnil oči k smrti nemu spanju 32-letni mož Janez Herič iz Grlave, ki je postal žrtev podivjanega bika. Horičev sosed ima močnega bika (tehta okrog 800 kilogramov). Ker je bil precej divji, je bil vedno pri-vesan od dveh strani—z verigo in vrvo. V nedeljo 10. maja je bilo živinče prav posebno rasposajeno. Tako je poskakovalo in stresalo z glavo, da se je vrv pretrgala. Komaj je začutil bik, da je od ene strani prost, je še bolj zdivjal. Začel je rjuti in tako divje akakati, da se je bilo bati, da se tudi veriga utrga. Ropot je privabil v hlev sluškinjo, ki je bila sama doma. Kar streslo jo je, ko je zagledala podivjanega bika. Približati se mu ni upala, da bi ga privezala. Tekla je s sosedom, Heriču in povedala, kaj se v hlevu godi in ga je prosila, naj gre z njo, da bika priveže. Sosed ji je takoj sledil. Stopil je v hlev in se podal z vrvo v rokah k jaslom. Ko je bik zagledal tujega človeka je popolnoma zdivjal. Herič ga je poskušal pomiriti, a ko se mu to ni posrečilo, je stoji pri jaslom čakal ugodno priliko, da bi bika zadrnil vrv okrog rogov. To se mu je naposled posrečilo. Pri privezovanju pa je bil premalo oprezen. Bik se je hotel rešiti vrvi in tuja. Za korak je sto-pil nazaj, potem pa se je sagnil proti Heriču. Tadel ga je in ga s tako močjo pritnil k jaslom, da so revežu počila čreva. Glas o dogodku se je takoj raznesel. Prišli so sosede in so ranjenca spravili iz hleva. Pomagati mu niso mogli, radi tega so ga naložili na voz in ga pripeljali v bolnišnico, kjer pa ni bilo več pomoči zanj.

HUNDREDS BID FAREWELL AS KSKJ MEMBERS LEAVE ON EXCURSION TRIP

Drs. Kolombatovich and Pavlich, Yugoslav Officials Join Party in Farewell Sendoff; Four Supreme Officers Travel With Tourists; Excursion Party Given Farewell at Cleveland

By Q. P. Correspondent

Hundreds of friends and relatives met Thursday evening at the Chicago La Salle St. Station to bid a bon voyage to the KSKJ members, participants in the first KSKJ excursion to Europe.

Among the notables present to wish the travelers a pleasant trip were: Dr. George Kolombatovich, royal consul general of Yugoslavia; Dr. Ante Pavlich, vice consul of Yugoslavia; Mr. John Jerich, editor of the Amerikanski Slovenec; Mr. Charles Gorup, the Reverend Murn, Arze and Butala, Messrs. J. Perko, A. Hrasar, Mike and John Opekca (sons of the supreme president of the KSKJ), John Palandich, Mrs. Jean Tezak and Mr. Frank G. Gospodarich, member of the KSKJ Supreme Board.

Honorable mention goes to the famous Cunard Line because of its geniality in conducting the tour for the KSKJ. Mr. John Kampotich, well-known official of the Cunard Line, will travel with the tourists in order to assure that each traveler will be given individual assistance and guidance.

Through the courtesy of the Cunard Line's band was engaged to play stirring numbers for the travelers just before their departure from the La Salle St. Station. Then followed a battery of cameras as the excursionists were escorted by a host of red-caps loaded down with luggage.

Amid shouts of "Goodby" and "Bon voyage," handkerchiefs waved fervently only to be brought in repose as the observation car draped with a large electric sign bearing the inscription "KSKJ First Excursion to Europe, on S. S. Berengaria of the Cunard Line," faded in the distance.

The excursion train stopped in Cleveland, where a group of KSKJ people boarded it to join the party. Over a hundred Clevelanders welcomed the travelers and gave to them the second farewell that sent them light-hearted to New York, where they embarked on the S. S. Berengaria. The steamship hoisted anchor at midnight Saturday and the KSKJers are now well on their way to their native land.

The excursion party includes the following supreme officers: Mr. Frank Opekca, supreme president; Mr. John Germ, vice president; the Rev. John Plevnik, spiritual director of the KSKJ and spiritual guide during the excursion; and Mr. Joseph Zalar, supreme secretary.

The others participating are: Miss J. Marion Zalar, Joliet, Ill.; John Butala, Joliet, Ill.; the Rev. Everybody is going out Rivals way June 28. Why? St. Joseph's Lodge No. 2, Joliet, Ill., has everything in readiness for a grand and glorious picnic that it will manage on that day on the picnic grounds of Rivals Park.

The features for the afternoon include a baseball game between the Joliet KSKJ and the Orioles. Both teams rate highly in Joliet circles, so an interesting tussle is promised.

No picnic would be a picnic if the refreshments were forgotten. But not the committee has taken every precaution and informs that refreshments will be aplenty—and refreshing.

A peppy band will supply the music for dance lovers. Forget the date and you will miss a grand time.

AFTER-MEETING FROLICKING

A novel and interesting feature has been enthusiastically introduced into the period directly following the monthly meetings of the St. Stephen's Young Ladies' Sodality.

Next Friday, June 26, every young lady of the parish who has completed the elementary grades is invited to attend the evening devotions at 7:30 o'clock with the members of the Sodality. A short and snappy meeting will follow, and last, but not least, the frolic. The nature of this novel frolic will not be disclosed. However, a gay and merry time is assured all.

Frolic Leaders.

PICNIC NEXT SUNDAY

Logan's farm in Springfield, Ill., has been chosen as the site for St. Barbara's No. 74 picnic to be held Sunday, June 28. The merry time will commence at 1 p. m. Members on the traveling list who are unable to attend will be obliged to pay 50c to the treasury, according to the ruling of the lodge.

Committee.

DECIDE POST-SEASON CHAMP

A post-season bowling match between the East and Middlewest was run off Saturday, June 13. "Doc" Oman, Rudy Rudman, bolstered up by Frank Opekca, formed a delegation representing the East, while Frank Jerina, Joseph Zorc and Math Slana upheld the name of the Middlewest. The final score is not ready for publication, for the bookkeepers have not compiled the total number of pins that were collected, but total or no total, the Middlewest has the championship post-season KSKJ bowling title. A return match is to be run off in the East some day.

UP against the rail and no sawdust under me. I dropped my hanky and it flip-flopped down to the briny deep—the wide, wide ocean. I was on a pond float and I wasn't alone. Thousands of handkerchiefs waved on the shore as the liner lurched, gave a few voluminous toots and finally took on a swanlike glide with several thousand miles looking ahead of it.

I was alone. There was no one to bid me farewell. No embraces, no handshakes and no foolish tears. I paced up and down the starboard and felt like a loose bolt in a gear machine. Yet I marveled in the solitude. Imagine dry land, New York, its whirl, humdrum of cobbled streets, screech of limited electric trolleys rounding curves, Broadway's lights—hurrying left all behind and a few days of salty atmosphere and quietude before me.

There is a spell of magic about the mighty deep and one need not be a radio announcer to discern it. There is such a thing as formality on an ocean liner, but fish will be fish and they must be fed—and they are not particular as to who feeds them. I was reluctant to feed the gilled gliders because—well, I remember when I was a kid I tried to do a good turn to Nellie, our pet goldfish, and I learned that paprika will make them turn bottom side up and float.

SHAMPOO AND SINGE

By GEE DEE

This is the first of a series on a dream (a trip to Europe) that has never been realized for me, so dear reader if you want a bird's-eye view of what heavy dumpings will do to the imagination, read on. I have writer's license No. 00317 allowing me to include errors, such as calling the port-side, the other side of the bar; steward, the waiter etc. The series will include a visit to European countries, if my imagination does not get the best of me.

Two days out beyond the Sahara limit, lemons had their play. It was not a case of reach for a life saver, but bite into a lemon. Magic! To think that people who hate garlic would eat lemons—rind and all. One fellow in particular, the one who posed for that "avoiding shadow" ad, with a face like a full moon and a triple chin, was a pretty sight as he gnawed on California's favorite fruit.

KSKJ TRINITY KNIGHTS HOSTS IN GALA AFFAIR

Brooklynites Entertain Members and Friends with Swanky Bill

By Brooklyn Knight

The first and proper thing to do is to announce that the "Brooklyn Broadcaster" is no longer in existence. That is, columnistically speaking. The fact is he didn't lay down on the job as we Brooklynites would say in our own lingo, but being that he is such a vigorous and progressive young man with the affairs of the Knights of Trinity that he is simply tied up hand and foot. In fact the knots are too tight for him to continue the activities for the Glasilo. So he has asked me to take hold of the reins, to continue where he left off and give you the highlights of the Knights' activities.

My dear folks, here I go in true cyclonic fashion.

The Knights of Trinity, whose Society is only in its infancy, are progressing wonderfully, better yet, marvelously, climbing up those crucial rungs of the ladder to victory and success. On Sunday the 14th of June we had our first racket, as you have probably seen advertised in the Glasilo by the Brooklyn Broadcaster.

It was a Chinese night held at the Savoy, Chinese-American restaurant at Wychoff and Myrtle Avenues, Brooklyn.

The affair started at 7 p. m. and ended at 3 in the morning. We certainly must have plenty of friends and backers, for we had close to 150 people answering our invitations. The tickets sold at $1.50, which I consider plenty to put aside for a good time in these hard days of depression. Nevertheless, the people simply knew that a jolly good time awaited them and they certainly knew their onions, for an excellent time was had by all.

Chinese and American meals were served, and WHAT MEALS, um, yum! Why did June the 14th have to pass over our heads so fast?

While the happy gathering was partaking of this excellent meal the Knights of Trinity sprang a surprise by offering a splendid collection of entertainment. The master of ceremonies took off his part in a big way by cracking jokes and at the same time imitating various other performers. The whole entertainment was received with a great applause.

On account of the great crowd that was there the card games could not be played, so we had the master of ceremonies draw for all the prizes. The door prize was a genuine Chinese tea set.

Our president, Mr. Fred Arko, was called upon to step to the center of the dance floor to say a few words. He certainly made a fine job of that, although his face was a trifle redder than usual. He made all of us Knights feel that we have a real and worthy president.

Don't forget the next racket we run. Keep up with the Glasilo and you can't help but see the ad on Our Page.

TEAMS POUND PILL AS BASEBALL TAKES LIMELIGHT IN KSKJ CIRCLES

Lodge Teams Finally Play off Games as Rain and Inclement Weather Take Holiday. Teams of North and Far West Swing Into Action. Deadline Date Extended for Baseball Reports

ST. JOE'S WIN OPENING GAME

The opening game of the Midwest KSKJ Baseball League between the Chicago and Waukegan teams turned out a win for the Waukegan boys. The game was a hard fought tussle throughout and was featured by several individual performances that netted a victory for the home team. The Chicagoans displayed brilliant fielding and only lost out in the ninth inning when their great rally was broken up by the Waukeganites, leaving the final score 8 to 7 in favor of the Waukegan team.

The fielding and hitting of Lefty Artac was the feature performance of the game. Young Chamernik made several long running catches in right field that kept the Chicagoans from scoring on several occasions. Jerry Drobnic took care of Jim Moore's receiving department and showed up in great form by receiving Pustaver's deliveries in fine style. Basco of Chicago pitched a great game, going the full nine innings. The failure of his teammates to tighten up in pinches kept the boys from bringing home the bacon.

Reporters Note!

The baseball season is on and Our Page is desirous of reporting the outcome of all KSKJ games.

Due to the fact that the majority of games are played on Sunday and it is impossible to meet the usual deadline, Our Page will concede by extending the deadline to 9 a. m. Monday morning for baseball scores only. This accommodation will be granted only to reporters who notify Our Page in advance that scores will be forwarded.

It is advised that the home team do the reporting. Scores and a summary of the game, including the features, if any, should be forwarded by special delivery immediately after the game. For a general report a night letter telegram will serve the purpose. Address communications to Our Page, 6117 St. Clair Ave., Cleveland, O.

Ramblers Lose

The La Veta ball team defeated the Red Ramblers of Pueblo at the La Veta Field Sunday, June 14, by a score of 4 to 3, in 11 innings. A large crowd gathered to see the pitchers' battle between Sloan of the Ramblers and Madle of La Veta, both formerly with the Pueblo Western League aggregation. Both pitchers hurled effectively and consistently and were well supported by their teams.

Red Miklich hit a long triple to center field in the sixth with two mates on ahead to tie the score at 3-all. Four scoreless innings followed. With two out in the last of the eleventh and V. Ferrero perched on third base, Bonifilio came through with a timely single to win the interesting game.

Both teams played fine ball throughout. O'Rourke caught Madle's slants and Kocman wore the mask for the Ramblers.

Juniors in Tilt

Waukegan KSKJ Juniors played hosts to Chicago KSKJ Juniors Sunday, June 14, and defeated the Windy City boys, 6 to 5, by breaking the tie in the fifth frame. Chicago made a last minute spurt, but the tally did not make any advantage.

Sedej and Drasler featured with the bat for the Waukeganites, while Bezovsek, Grill and Bogolin were the luminaries for Chicago.

The Waukegan Juniors, under the tutorage of Al Grosche, baseball coach of the Waukegan High School, are entered in the Waukegan Twilight League and perform every Tuesday and Thursday evening.

South Chicago Trips Joliet

Taking a three-run lead in the first frame, the South Chicago St. Florians, with Benkovic on the mound, tallied five more to win from Joliet, 8 to 4, in a Midwest KSKJ League game played June 14 at Joliet.

Benkovic, youthful Booster, made a creditable showing in whiffing 11 batters and allowing seven hits. Willis' fielding was outstanding in the outer gardens.

Sebahar swung the bat heavy for the Boosters, connecting thrice in five attempts, one of which was a three-base hit. Blazovich of Joliet shared hitting honors for the day with two double clouts in his three-out-of-five tally.

Chisholm Chalks Win

Aurora seemed to have the edge over the invading Chisholm team, because of its victories over Hibbing and Eveleth. Chisholm had beaten Hibbing by a decisive score, but had been soundly trounced by Eveleth. However, the Chisholm Kay Jays had a reversal of form and came back to defeat the league-leading Aurorans by a score of 17 to 12.

After getting off to a slow start, the Chisholmites hit their stride and, scoring nine runs in a hectic fourth inning, got a lead which the hometowners were unable to overcome.

Frank Melichel started for Chisholm and pitched good ball for six innings. He was replaced by Gazvoda, who pitched airtight ball for the remainder of the game. Aurora used three pitchers in an attempt to stem the flow of runs, but Chisholm found little difficulty in solving their offerings.

Eveleth downed the plucky Hibbing team Sunday by a score of 9 to 5. The two teams meet again this Sunday at Eveleth, while Aurora travels to Chisholm.

All of the teams still have a chance to win the championship, and if they continue playing the brand of ball they have to date, some close games may be expected.

BUNCO PARTY IN CHICAGO

On next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock the members of St. Stephen's Parish, Chicago, are to show their appreciation to the School Sisters of St. Francis of Lemont, Ill., for the many years of fruitful work in the parish school by putting on a grand bunco party, the proceeds of which shall be given to the Sisters to go into the fund for their new building in Lemont. The success of this affair does not depend upon the efforts of one particular society or club, but upon the combined efforts of each and every individual of the parish, either by offering help or by purchasing an admission ticket. This thoughtfulness on the part of the members of St. Stephen's Parish indicates of what sterling characteristics the average Chicagoan is made up of, for in gratitude to the good Sisters for their many years of hard work in the classroom they show their appreciation in a concrete manner. And it is at this present moment "that a friend in need is a friend indeed," for the Sisters' temporary building in Lemont is filled to overflowing and the Sisters are living under the greatest of difficulties. In their desperation the good Sisters have turned from one hope to another seeking financial aid, which is imperative in the construction of a modern structure, but on all sides they have met with rebuffs and tales of the depression. And so the situation has really become desperate and the Sisters are bound to appeal to those whom they serve in parishes. A new convent in Lemont MUST be built regardless of the work and the sacrifices involved, and let us here in St. Stephen's make this great task lighter for the Sisters by making a grand success of this bunco party. You, young ladies and gentlemen, who have received your elementary education at the hands of these good Sisters, now show your appreciation to them by attending this bunco party and inducing your friends to attend also. In helping along the cause of the good Sisters you are rendering them thanks for the many wholesome lessons they have taught you in your school days and at the same time you mark yourself as a true Catholic lady and gentleman. In addition to the bunco party, with its enjoyment and beautiful gifts, you might, if you wish, "trip the light fantastic" to the soothing and appealing strains of Johnny's (Hochevar) Dance Merri-makers, which all Slovenian Chicagoans recognize as THE orchestra. So remember the time—Tuesday, June 30, 8 p. m. (daylight time)—the place—St. Stephen's school hall—proceeds—Franciscan Sisters' new convent in Lemont.

Pittsburgh Note!

Every English-speaking member of the KSKJ in Pittsburgh and vicinity should be present at the second gathering of the K. S. K. J. Boosters' Club, to be held on Thursday evening, June 25.

The entertainment that the committee and our honorary president, Mr. F. J. Lokar, have secured will more than please everyone present. Through the efforts of Mr. Rudman, a member of the Supreme Board and also a Booster, Mr. Joseph Bach, assistant football coach at Duquesne University, has been engaged as the principal speaker.

So, dear readers, don't forget the heavy date that you have on Thursday evening, June 25, at the Slovenian Auditorium, 57th and Butler Streets, Pittsburgh.

John Golobic, Secretary Pittsburgh Boosters' Club.
