

Stari Coxey namerava izdajati v Massillonu svoje lastne bankovce

Massillon, Ohio, 30. decembra. Pred 37. leti je bil Jacob Coxey, priprost, povprečen Amerikaneec, brez dela, postopač, neznan osebja. Dela ni bilo, denarja ne. Pa je začel pridigati o "bondnem denarju." Ljudje so se mu smejali. Leta 1894 je vodil Coxey armado brezposelnih v Washington, da izsili podporo za brezposelne od vlade. Ljudje so mislili, da se mu meša. In leta 1914 je zopet pripeljal armado brezposelnih v Washington. Tedaj se je že postaral, postal je bolj resen. Letos je bil pa izvoljen za župana v Massillonu. V petek nastopi svoj urad. Včeraj je prišel na obisk v Cleveland, in tu je izdal načrt, kako bo pomagal brezposelnim v Massillonu. Dela ni, pravi, denarja ni, toda ljudje morajo živeti. Zato bo predlagal, da mestna zbornica odobri izdajo $200.000 bondov, in če jih odobri, tedaj bo že ljudstvo o tem glasovalo. In če mu ljudje potrdijo, tedaj bo dalo mesto Massillon tiskati za $200.000 mestnih bondov. Ti bondi bodo skoro enaki bankovcem, toda se ne smejo imenovati denar, pač pa bondi. 50.000 teh bondov bo tiskanih po $1.00 10.000 po $5.00 in 10.000 po $10.00. Mesto bi si sposodilo $200.000 na te bonde, ki so plačljivi v 25. letih, po $8.000.00 na leto. Obresti bi nosili eno desetino procenta, kar bi zneslo $200.00. Dasi to nikakor ni postaven denar, in brez veljave, pa bi vendar mesto dajalo te bonde brezposelnim, ali bi pa plačevalo delavce s temi bondi. Za bonde garantira mesto. Z bondi, ki jih doli delavce, se lahko plača grocerija, meso, plin, elektrika, mestni davki in blago, ki se kupi pri trgovcih v mestu. Izven mesta Massillon so bondi brez veljave. Mesto bo tudi posodilo te bonde brezposelnim za njih obljubo, da vrnejo denar, kadar bodo delali. Posoja se brez obresti. Vsako leto bo mesto plačevalo $8.000.00 na te bonde, in denar za to pride iz davkov. Računa se tudi, da bodo loveci za suvenirji pokupili mnogo tisoč dolarjev teh bondov za spomin, in bo s tem mesto naredilo profit, ker ti bondi ne bodo nikdar vrnjeni, dosti se jih bo pa zgubilo ali strgalo. Tako misli stari Coxey pomagati brezposelnim v svojem mestu. Napeto se pričakuje, kako se bo ta poskus obnesel.

Sleparski uradnik

Včeraj je bil aretiran glavni mestni nadzornik plumberskih del, Edward Benhoff, katerega so obdolžili, da se je dal podkupiti s tem, da je vzel $350.00, da preskrbi nekemu prositelju licenco za plumberja. Benhoff je bil zelo upliven v republikanskih krogih.

Poskusno glasovanje

Druge štetje glasov, ki ga je upeljal Plain Dealer, kaže, da ima Witt 65 glasov, Miller 60, Morgan 66, Walz 8 in Ford 6 glasov. Tudi to drugo štetje še ni značilno za splošni rezultat. Več glasov bo prešteto do sobote.

Pet žensk

Te dni enkrat se bo v uradu direktorja javne varnosti, Barrya, oglasilo "pet prominentnih žensk," ki bodo zahtevale od Barrya, da odpusti iz urada, kot se je sam izjavil, da bo, ako ga pet prominentnih državljanov k temu pozove.

Pri kotlu umorjen

V kleti stanovanja je 40 letni Tony Rinalo, 9715 Elizabeth Ave., mirno kuharil žganje, pa ga je dohitela usoda. Dva neznanca sta se priplazila skrijev k oknu v kleti, vsak oborožen s puško dvocevko. Oba sta pomerila v Rinalda pri kotlu, oba sta sprožila oba petelina pri puškah, in Rinaldo se je mrtev zgrudil z vso razbito glavo. Morilca sta takoj potem pobegnila in zavrgla puške v ozadju neke garaže. Policija je pa na sledu za morilci, katere išče med Italijani. Govori se, da je Rinalo kuharil žganje, ne da bi vprašal vodje butlegerjev.

Republikanci napadajo demokrate, ker hočejo obdavčiti bogatine

Washington, 30. decembra. Takoj potem, ko so demokrati dali v javnost svoj program glede bodočih davkov, in v katerem naznanjajo, da bodo bogatini nosili največje breme od teh davkov, so se pojavili zagovorniki predsednika Hooverja, ki očita, da "nameravajo demokrati bogatim puščati kri." Ogden Mills, podtajnik v zakladniškem oddelku vlade, je govoril za predsednika Hooverja in izjavil: "Demokrati so se spravili nad bogatine, ki že sedaj plačujejo ogromne večine davka. To nikakor ni pametna taktika in bo imela slabe posledice." Takoj nato so pa odgovorili demokrati, rekoč, da nikdar ne bodo glasovali, da obdavčijo človeka, ki zasluži komaj $1.000 na leto, da ne bodo upeljali davka, kot ga predlagajo republikanci, da se pobira davek od vstopnine društvenih prireditelj in gledališč, kar vse zadene priproste ljudi, Davek bodo iskali, kjer ga lahko dobijo.

So se zmenili

Mestna elektrarna je razpisala ponudbe za 6000 čevljev kablja. 9 kompanij je poslalo ponudbe, in vsaka je računala $6450.00. Očividno so bile kompanije zmenjene med seboj. Nadalje ponudba za 300 električnih obličnic. Tri kompanije so poslale ponudbe, in vsaka je za $8.685. Sedaj je mestna vlada ustavila vse skupaj, dokler ne preide, če so bile kompanije v resnici zmenjene med seboj, narkar bodo razpisane nove ponudbe.

Nečastno za Cleveland

V Clevelandu je zadnje čase relativno po številu prebivalstva več umorov kot pa v New Yorku ali v razpitem Chicagu. Profesor Barnhart iz Southern univerze je izračunal, da je glede umorov Cleveland na 30. mestu izmed 147 ameriških mest, Chicago na 40. mestu in New York na 70. V Zedinjenih državah se prijeti 19 krat več umorov kot n. pr. v Angliji. Vsega skupaj je bilo lansko leto v Ameriki nad 12.000 umorov.

Vrana vrani

Julius Finkle, brat councilmana Hermana Finkle, ki je nadzornik cest, je bil od velike porote obtožen, da vleče dobičke od hazardiranja. Sedaj pa je mestna vlada izjavila, da je Julius Finkle nedolžen kot novorojenec in mi vsi to trdno verujemo.

Klub društev S. N. Doma v Clevelandu praznuje nočjo Silvestrov večer

Brez dvoma je Klub društev Slovenskega Narodnega Doma največji agitator in delavec za prosep krasnega S. N. Doma v Clevelandu. Številni zastopniki slovenskih društev delujejo skozi celo leto neumorno in požrtvovalno in zbirajo skupaj cente in dolarje, da vodijo lahko razne aktivnosti, ki se razširjajo pod okriljem tega Kluba v raznih panogah v javnosti. Koliko prosvetnega dela med narodom vodi ta Klub, in bi moral že raditega dobiti vso naklonjenost od strani občinstva! Mladinska šola, umetniška šola, predavanja in drugo. Poleg tega pa v materialnem oziru je doslej prinesel in nabral nad $100.000 k obstoju našega Doma, in bi brez teh aktivnosti podjetje S. N. Doma ne bi moglo obstati. Pomagajte vsi skupaj do večjega uspeha. Vic Svete bo s svojo godbo razveseljeval plesalce v gornji dvorani, v spodnji dvorani bodo pa doneli zvoki poznane in priljubljene Louis Spehkevega orkestra. Postrežba v jedi in pijači bo prvovrstna in poceni. Ples do 1. ure jutraj. Ob polnoči boste videli živo sliko, ko se poslavlja staro leto od novega. Vstopnina je samo 50 centov. Prav prijazno ste vabljeni vsi skupaj, ker se gre za prekoristno narodno zadevo.

Boj proti davici

Zdravstveni oddelk mesta Cleveland se bo trudil v prihodnjem letu, da popolnoma iztrebi davico v Clevelandu. Še v letu 1927 je bilo v Clevelandu 2872 slučajev davice, izmed teh 191 smrtnih. V letu 1930 smo imeli pa le 303 slučajev, in le tri smrtni, a za prihodnje leto jih bodo skušali popolnoma iztrebiti.

Mestni deficit

Za prihodnje leto grozi mestu Cleveland deficit v znesku $2.000.000. Plače mestnih uslužbencev se bodo morale precej znižati, ako ne bo državna postavodajka sklicana k izvanrednemu zasedanju, ki naj odobri postavdo, da sme mesto Cleveland izdati za dva milijona dolarjev bondov.

Prihranjen denar

Prosekural Ray T. Miller je protistral včeraj izplačilo $24.000, za Freshwater Construction Co. kot dodatno plačilo za tlakanje cest. Komisariji so izplačilo že odobrili, ko je prosekural Ray T. Miller stopil vmes in prepovedal plačilo.

Novoletno voščilo

"Ameriška Domovina" se ob koncu leta zahvaljuje vsem svojim naročnikom, ki so tudi v teh težkih časih redno plačevali naročnino, zahvaljuje se zlasti stoterim novim naročnikom, ki so se naročili na dnevnik tekom letošnjega leta. Nadalje gre naša iskrena zahvala slovenskim trgovcem, ki so tekom leta oglaševali svojo trgovino v našem časopisu. Neprestano smo skušali vplivati na naš narod, da kupuje vedno in redno pri naših domačih trgovcih. Iskrena zahvala tudi našim slovenskim in hrvatskim društvom, ki so tekom leta v tako obilni meri oglaševala svoje prireditve in naročila tiskovine v naši tiskarni. Vsemu članstvu Slovenske Dobrodelne Zveze, vsem našim naročnikom, trgovcem in delavcem, vsem Slovincem in Slovenkam in bratom Hrvatom ob koncu leta še enkrat iskreno zahvala za odkrito željo, da bi se splošne nade in upi na boljše čase v letu 1932, kar gotovo vsakdo hrepeneče pričakuje.

Državno priznanje

Bančni oddelk države Ohio je te dni razdelil nekaterim zaslužnim in močnim bankam več denarja v hranitev, kateri denar je pod kontrolo bančnega oddelka države Ohio. Med temi bankami je odlikovana tudi naša slovenska The North American Trust banka, v kateri je država Ohio ta teden vložila $100.000. Banka plačuje državi samo procent in pol obresti od vloge. To je nov dokaz zaupanja v našo močno slovensko banko, ki je bila pri zadnjem pregledu o strani državnih nadzornikov imenovana na častnem mestu kot dokaz, kako se mora voditi velik bančni zavod.

Hoover namerava upeljati velike spremembe pri vladi radi ekonomije

Washington, 30. decembra. Preds. Hoover je poslal kongresu načrt, da se temeljito spremeni načrt zveznega poslovanja v raznih oddelkih vlade, da se združi več uradov v enega in se na ta način prihrani denar. Do tega je prišel Hoover, ko so demokrati pritiskali že od začetka zasedanja kongresa na predsednika. Hoover predlaga: konsolidacija vseh stavnih zveznih uradov v en urad. Skupno vodstvo vseh trgovskih prekomorskih družb. Konsolidacija vseh zveznih vzgojnih zavodov. Združitev vseh uradov javnega zdravja. Nad sto milijonov dolarjev bi se letno prihranilo s konsolidacijo teh uradov. Kongres bo tozadevno v kratkem sklepal.

Sitni kolektorji

V trgovine kot v privatne hiše zahajajo vsakovrstni kolektorji za misijone in sirotišnice, ki so večinoma sleparji. Zato bo mesto naredilo postavdo, glasom katere bo moral vsak kolektor imeti licenco, izdano od mesta. Naš nasvet je, da sploh nikomur ne dajte ničesar, kot priznanim društvenim zastopnikom naših društev ali onim, ki so v našem časopisu priporočeni.

Komična zadeva

21. decembra je bil detektivski saržent Smetana suspendiran iz policijske službe, ker je stavil pri konjskih dirkah. Civilna komisija je pa odredila, da mora policijski načelnik zopet sprejeti Smetana v službo. Nad mestni župan Burton pa tega neče storiti. Smetana bo sicer vlekli plačo $225.00 na mesec, toda delal ne bo nič, ker ga ne marajo pri policiji.

Med Francijo in Anglijo se kuje nova zveza glede bankrota Evrope

London, 30. decembra. Angleški ministerski predsednik MacDonald je povabil svojega francoskega kolega Lavalja na tajno konferenco v London. Francoški uradni krogi sedaj to povabijo zanikujejo. Konferenca bi se morala vršiti radi mednarodnih dolgov in financ. Zanimanje je izzvalo velik odpor v Angliji, ker je resnica, da se kuje med Francijo in Anglijo nov blok proti Zedinjenim državam glede njih stališča o vojni odškodnini in mednarodnih dolgov. Konferenco narodov glede mednarodnih dolgov se bo vršila v Haagu, in MacDonald kot Laval se hočeta prej zediniti za skupni nastop proti Ameriki. Dasi Laval zanika tak sestanek, pa so celo v Ameriki trdno prepričani, da obstoji tajna obljuba za sestanek. Amerika skrbno sledi tej najnovejši zaroti.

Srečni ljudje

V Clevelandu se nahaja en del mesta, kjer ne čutijo brezposelnosti in kjer se življenje vrši kot običajno, ne da bi vedeli, kaj je depresija. Ta okraj se nahaja med Euclid, Crawford in Hugh Ave. med 105. in 83. cesto. V tem okraju je nekoliko 9000 ljudi, in 97 procentov teh je zaposlenih, kot kaže statistika števnege urada. Srečni ljudje!

ROMAN

si ter si drgnil ob njih dlani.

Kar McPhillip zakolne in poskoči na noge. Stal je in gledal kakor v sanjah nekaj trenutkov na mizo. Gypo je opazoval njegov obraz, in male, čopaste obrvi so mu drgetale. Obenem si je z nohtom levega paca trebil zobe. Nazadnje je McPhillip globoko potegnil sapo skozi zobe, da je zašumelo, kot da sesa led.

"Dobro," je rekel z očmi še vedno uprtimi v mizo. "Moj stari je zdaj doma, kaj ne?"

"Doma," je rekel Gypo. "Včeraj sem ga videl. Bil je po poslih pri jezeru, pa je že štirinajst dni nazaj. Mislim, da dela pri neki novi hiši zunaj v Rathminesu."

"Dobro," je rekel zopet McPhillip. "Nato je dvignil oči, pogledal divje Gypa ter se čudno nasmehnil. "Se bova že še videla, Gypo, če me ne ujamejo polipi."

Ko je govoril, je bilo, kot da na nekaj misli. Lice mu je drhtelo in temnelo. Nato je stresel z rameni ter se odkrito zasmel. Dvakrat je pokimal ter se obrnil. Urno je odkorakal iz sobe.

Gypo je dolgo nepremično gledal za njim. Zobe si je že otrebil. Samo strmel je v vrata, skozi katera je izginil McPhillip. Polagoma se mu je glava napolnila s sumnjami. Čelo se mu je zgubalo. Telo mu je postalo nemirno. Naposled je skočil na noge. Pobral je krožnik, vilice in nož ter sol. Stopil je v vežo ter spraval vse v omaro, kakršne je vodstvo omislilo za goste.

Omaro ni bila Gypova. Ni je imel, ker je gostoval samo od prilike do prilike, odkar ni imel rednega zasluzka, da bi bil mogel plačevati posteljo na teden. Omaro je bila nekega kočijaža, Gypovega znanca. Gypo je videl, kako je možak spravljal svoj obed za drugi dan v predal ter odšel, ne da bi bil zaklenil. Gypo je vedel, da moža ne bo do desetih zvečer nazaj. In tako si je vzel njegov obed.

Postavil je stvari v omaro in mirne duše odšel. Sedel je v kot na klop v eni od alkov. Pobrskal je po žepih in izbrskal nekaj ogorkov od cigaret. Skrbno jih je razvil ter zbral ves tobak na dlani desne roke. Nato je prosil starca, ki je sedel poleg njega, naj mu da papirček. Starac ga ni imel in mu je povedal to z razdraženo kletvijo. Gypo je namršil čelo ter posmrtnel, kakor bi starca ovohaval. Nato se je obrnil na mladega moža, ki je šel mimo. Mlad mož se je ustavil ter mu godrnjalje dal papirček. Gypo ga je molče vzel, nobile ni rekel, še pokimal ni v zahvalo. Zvil si je cigareto in jo prižgal ob plinu. Nato je zopet sedel, prekrizal noge, prepustil ude mehko in začel kaditi.

Ušesa kakor da je napenjal nekam v daljavo, ko je ležal ohlapno zleknjen na sedežu v somračni veži.

Prvo minuto je s slastjo užival tobakov duh in okus. Ni mislil niti na to, da nima postelje za noč, niti na srečanje z McPhillipom. Nato so se mu polagoma zaorale brazde v čelo. Male, čopaste obrvi so se mu jele krčiti. Kadar je vlekli iz cigarete, mu je pregrnil obraz svetel sijaj in nabrekli na obrazu so se mu svetlo in gladko napenjale. Začel se je na sedežu premikati. Najprej je preložil nogo z noge, nato jih je zopet prekrizal. Z desno roko se je jel tapljati po kolenu. Vzdihnil je. Cigareta mu je dogorevala, a ni zapazil, dokler ga ni spekla v ustnice. Tedaj si jo je izprhnil iz ust na prsi in poskočil na noge.

(Dalje prihodnjič)

To pot je bil tudi Ola Vatre z njimi. Bila je zadnja vožnja, ki so jo napravili. Eno vožnjo si je kljub vsemu privoščil. Nekoliko je bil pač popival, ali prešpal se je takoj prvi dan na povratku. Zdal se mu je kar zadelo, da bo še veselo. Gazil je okrog posnagu do pasu in mikalo ga je, da bi pel. Sicer tudi drugi niso vzdihovali, saj so bili Per Foll in Simen učitelj Jo kot ribiči na Lofth žez marsikak zimski dan iz hiše. Da bi vzdihovali? Ne. Vendar peti je nekaj drugega. Če se ne ganejo odtod, jih bo zametlo. Tako vreme lahko traja tedne in tedne. Voli so omagali in legli pred sani. Kaj takega bi se jim lahko pripetilo tudi doma v gorah, si je mislil Simen. Vendar tam so bile skalnate votline in drevesa, kamor se je dalo zateči, in samo nekoliko ur do ljudi.

Ne, mirno stati ni bilo pametno. V mestu so si bili kupili nekaj lopat za delo na polju. Ola je pograbil eno izmed njih, zagazil v sneg in pričel kopati. Drugi so storili kakor on. Nastala je odprtina, če bi se le volili hoteli ganiti. A vse pripravljanje in grožnje niso nič pomagale. Pretepanje z vajeti ni nič pomagalo. Tedaj je izvlekel Anders šop sena iz vreče za krmo, ki so jo vzeli zaradi varnosti s seboj, stopil pred vole in jih vabil k sebi. Nazadnje sta se prva dva dvignila in iztegnila gobec. Drugi so jima sledili, zganili so se. Anders je hodil ritensko pred njimi. Voli so šli za njim. Da, da, zdaj so se vendar spet gibali. Če bi le vedeli, kam se obrniti. Možejo se kopali, metje jim je slepil oči, vendar niso odnehali. Šlo je dalje. Če bi le imeli kompas. Ali kako dolgo bodo vzdržali tako živinsko delo. Metlo in metlo je neprestano.

Zmenjali so se. Fanta iz Skarreta sta zgrabila za lopate, da ne bo nihče prišel domov in dejal, da se nista vedla kakor odrasla. Ure so potekale. Če drugega ne, vsaj naprej je šlo in ne nazaj. Stegnilo se je kakor v rogu, a niso smeli odnehati. Kadar Ola ni bil na vrsti, se je postavil s hrbtom proti metezu in pel:

Hej, ko v mestu bi imel dekle.
Hej holadrija, hej holadra.

Ampak proti jutru so bili vsi izčrpani od mraza in snega in napora. Koliko seznjev so se pač prekopali dalje? In kam?

To pot pa jim je vendarle šlo po sreči. Čez dan se je zjasnilo. Ljudje in živali so postali pogumnejši. A še venomer so se morali na dolge proge kopati dalje. Dobro, da so imeli živeža, ki jim je vsekakor še zadostoval za ta dan. Drugo noč pa so prezebali huje, kakor na vseh vožnjah po Lofth, kar so se jih spominjali. In ko so se končno pretolkli do ljudi, so bili ljudje in živali bolj mrtvi kakor živi.

Učitelj Jo je zares začel s šolo. Ko je bil poslednjič v mestu, je kupil z lastnim denarjem globus in zemljevid. Njegova kočica se je napolnila z otroki. Mnogi izmed novih naseljencev so imeli otroke. Ponosen je bil ti stari dan, ko sta poslala Irec in Nemec svoje malčke k njemu. Jezik je bil norveški, njihovi otroci so se morali sprijazniti s tem, da so sprejemali prvo modrost v norveškem jeziku.

AMERICAN HOME JUNIOR

RAY JAY tells you about "Resolutions Made Easy."

Ray J. Grdina Says

Years ago Dr. Coue came to this country and astounded the populace with a new style of philosophy. Of course, you all remember his "Day by day, I'm getting better and better." It was the rage at the time and had all of us going around mumbling to ourselves. Personally, we really don't know how well it worked out in practice, lacking enough persistence to keep it up for any great length of time. However, there wasn't anything wrong in the idea. In some ways it reminds one of resolutions. Which brings us right down to New Year's Day, tomorrow—the open season for resolutions.

Now to our limited knowledge, there is only thing wrong with New Year's resolutions and that's the length of time for which they are made. Three hundred, sixty-five days is a mighty long time to keep oneself within certain self-imposed limitations, it represents a physical and mental strain. And strains, gentle reader, are hard on resolutions—oh, ever so hard.

So now as a result of many sleepless nights and a miniature brain-storm this scrivener conceived the idea (yes, even would-be columnists of supplements some times have ideas) of combining New Year's resolutions with the Coue "day by day" system. Under this new plan, resolutions are to be made for one day only, thereby eliminating the strain, but still accomplishing the same purpose. The catch in the policy, however, is that the resolutions must be renewed each day to become effective.

Going still further, we have adopted the slogan, "Resolutions on the Installment Plan. Make 'em a Better Man," or as one confidante advised, "Resolutions Made Easy," to advertise our system.

Seriously though, we wish all of you who are contemplating on making resolutions for the coming year, would give this plan a trial. We feel confident it will work out to the best of expectations, and as we mentioned before, do away with the attending strain and still keep resolutions intact.

Don't forget, "A Resolution a Day, Makes Work Like Play."

MEMORY TEST:—Or how old are you? Remember when your folks let you stay up and welcome in the New Year for the first time? . . . And you contributed your share to the general din and excitement, by holding a ringing alarm clock out of the window, and shouting at the top of your voice? . . . What a big kick you got out of it? . . . How proud you were, and thought life was really worth living after all? . . . Even if you did have to go to bed at ten minutes after twelve?

The Juniorite staff continues to grow and we now proudly announce the addition of a new member. The latest to enter the fold is a young medic out of St. Louis (Mo) way. Here's hoping his contributions and tips are as good as those our Chicago group sends us. Incidentally the Windy City club is also medically inclined.

1932 IS LEAP YEAR AND WILL BRING SPECIAL PRIVILEGES FOR THE LADIES—AND HERE'S WHY

By DR. JAMES W. MALLY

1932 will be with us shortly, and if you haven't looked at your new calendar yet, you may not have noticed that February has 29 days instead of the customary 28. That 29th day is an extra one, which makes the year a "Leap Year."

In the dim, long, long ago, scientists experienced grave difficulties in trying to make the calendar and solar years agree. Finally, after years of hemming and hawing and hawing and hemming, they decided to tack on an extra day every fourth year. That's how "Leap Years" came into existence. Since then, however, these extra-long years have become significant of special privileges for ladies. But the scientists didn't have anything to do with that; it was the work of a son of the old sod—an Irishman, if there ever was one.

Now one of these aforementioned favors for females enjoyed during the Leap Years is that they may propose to their light of loves without fear of losing any of their proverbial dignity. Claudia de Lys in her "How the World Works," discloses the probable inception of the custom.

It apparently originated with St. Patrick who was upstirring had broken out in her nursery, the ladies claiming the right of "dopping the question." This, of course, was quite a strange thing for nuns to do. But the world always was and always will be full of strange things—that's what makes life interesting.

St. Patrick (that kind hearted old gentleman), however, was willing to concede them this right every seven years. But St. Bridget would have none of this.

With a disappointment bordering on fear she cried St. Patrick's neck. "Arrah, Patrick, jewel, I don't go back to the girls with such a proposal. Make it one year in four."

And St. Patrick replied, "Bridget, aushla, squeeze me that away again, na! I'll give ye Leap Year, the longest of the lot."

MILLER BOOSTER PINS NOW READY FOR SUPPORTERS

HEADQUARTERS BUSY

President Frank J. Lausche Invites All Youth of Community to Join Club

A strong spirit of unity and cooperation is very much in evidence in the 23rd Ward Miller-for-Mayor headquarters.

Under the able leadership of Mr. Frank J. Lausche, well known local attorney, the club is rapidly developing into a smooth, well-organized machine, whose work will be very much in evidence at the coming primary elections.

Headquarters located in Gornik's building fairly buzz every evening with concentrated activity on the part of all organization workers, whose sole purpose is to put over the election of Ray T. Miller. An able body of prominent men of the community are behind this movement and they are striving hard to reach their goal.

The organization appeals particularly to the young folks to join their club. "There is still plenty of room for workers," stated Mr. Lausche when interviewed. He also gave as his opinion that only hard work and concentrated effort would put Miller across to victory.

Campaign buttons are now available at headquarters, and are to be given to all who call for them. For this purpose headquarters are open every evening until 9 o'clock.

Primary elections take place on Tuesday, Jan. 12.

LOCAL COUPLE TO BE WED IN EVELETH, MINN.

Announcement is made of a New Year wedding, wherein a local young couple will journey to Eveleth, Minn., for their nuptial ceremonies.

Miss Marie Ribol, 1084 E. 67th St. and Mr. Vincent Luke, 1351 E. Boulevard, are the lucky couple who are to be united in marriage at Holy Trinity Church of Eveleth, Minn., at 3 p. m. tomorrow.

Eveleth is the home of the bride's parents.

Crack heard during the past year goes to Charlie Bauman, fraternity brother at Dayton, O. Charlie, a high pressure salesman, is now plugging men's wear, besides studying law. His line is the Hart, Schaffner and Marx, and as he explains it, "Bart makes 'em. Schaffner sells 'em, and marks buy 'em."

JUNIORITES: "Honest, Really, Truly," lat's tune destined for great popularity. Fred Keating's canary vanish—and he does it right under your very nose. . . . the new Colona portable typewriters—if you are on the market for one. . . . Bert Wheeler, the smart cracking, cigar smoking philom punster. . . . And another song rising to great favor—"Concentratin' on You."

And on the next rainy afternoon get out pencil and paper and see if you can arrange the figures 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and as many 0's as you care to use, into a number which will NOT be divisible by three. When you've figured it out, send in your number and we'll show you where you are wrong. No fractions allowed, though, and you must use all the figures and each only once. Give up?

And from the bureau of useless facts and figures we learn that "Henry" snappy drum beater with Manny Lander's crch, carries no less than $3,500 worth of traps. On well, you DON'T have to believe it! Henry was formerly with Joe Smith. Remember? And from another report we see where there are more automobiles than telephones in this country. You don't have to believe that either, but we did see it with our own eyes. Tsk! Tsk! But do figure it out?

AND SO BACK TO WORK.

St. Bridget, upon this, popped the question to St. Patrick, himself, who, of course, could not marry; so he patched up the difficulty with a kiss and a silk gown.

Good old St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland and the bonnie lassies!

So, girls, when your taking advantage of your privilege this coming year, just remember you owe it all to the scientists and St. Patrick—but mostly St. Patrick.

Well, folks, here we are, at the turning point of another year, and it's the open season of making prophecies, resolutions etc. Your guess is as good as ours, so here goes for a little peek to the future.

JANUARY

New Year's Day. Exactly seven million, nine hundred and eighty-eight thousand, seven hundred and two (7,988,702) headaches, and about the same number of resolutions to cut it out forever. In the neighborhood of present rumors will circulate to the exact opening date of the new St. Vitus' Church. Hundreds of parties celebrating the short pre-Lenten season. Toward the end of the month, several million resolutions will have been happily broken.

FEBRUARY

American Home benefit show attracts record breaking crowd. Experts prophecy the end of the depression. New soup kitchens begin throughout the States. Pre-Lenten parties continued to be the rage. With the coming of Lent, concerts, plays etc. take their place. Cleveland elects new mayor, a composite of Miller, Morgan, Witt and Waltz. All new year resolutions by now are happily forgotten.

NEW YEAR'S DANCE OF UNITED LODGES AT HOME TONIGHT

The United Lodges of the Slovenian National Home will again hold their annual New Year's Eve dance at the St. Clair Ave. Home.

Victor Svete's new orchestra will furnish the music in the upper hall, while Spehek's quartet will entertain in the lower hall. Dancing will last until 1 a. m. A scene depicting the entry of the New Year and the departure of the old, will take place at midnight.

Admission will be 50 cents, and all proceeds go toward the National Home fund.

SANTA CLAUS LATE FOR SODALITY HOP, BUT ALL ENDS WELL

Perhaps the primary reason for the success of the St. Vitus' Young Ladies Sodality Christmas Party, held Tuesday evening, was the elaborate and unique decorations.

The entire gymnasium, which was the gaily scene, was transformed into an icicle den. The countless yards of furled, white streamers suspended in beam fashion from the ceiling, continued a distance from the walls and formed realistic icicle hangings. Approximately 150 rolls of crepe paper were used in creating the effect.

A flirtatious snow man and a scintillating Christmas tree against a background of winter scenery made the very attractive stage setting.

Santa Claus, though somewhat tardy, received a joyous welcome when he arrived with his bag of gifts. A program of carols, games and dancing to the musical accompaniment of Master Germ followed.

On the committee for the affair were Jane Intihar, Eleanor Karlinger, Jeanne Blatnik, Mary Zakrsek, Francis Debevec and Theresa Gorenec.

Miss Leona Lach and Joseph Blatnik were surprised with a pre-nuptial party which was given in their honor, Saturday night, at the J. D. N. hall, West Park.

Fifty couples were present at the affair and Jackie Zorc and his ensemble furnished the music.

Miss Lach and Mr. Blatnik will be married at 9 o'clock at the Church of the Annunciation this coming Saturday.

SINGERS TO DANCE

Serenaders Glee Club of Newburg Holding Frolic at National Home

The well known and popular Serenaders Glee Club will hold a dance at the Slovenian National Home, E. 80th St., Saturday, Jan. 23.

The Serenaders extend a cordial invitation to all their followers and friends to attend the affair and promise them an exceptionally good time, as has been the rule at all their previous affairs.

A popular orchestra will furnish the dance music and admission will be 35 cents.

will NOT be divisible by three. When you've figured it out, send in your number and we'll show you where you are wrong. No fractions allowed, though, and you must use all the figures and each only once. Give up?

AND SO BACK TO WORK.

St. Bridget, upon this, popped the question to St. Patrick, himself, who, of course, could not marry; so he patched up the difficulty with a kiss and a silk gown.

Good old St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland and the bonnie lassies!

So, girls, when your taking advantage of your privilege this coming year, just remember you owe it all to the scientists and St. Patrick—but mostly St. Patrick.

Well, folks, here we are, at the turning point of another year, and it's the open season of making prophecies, resolutions etc. Your guess is as good as ours, so here goes for a little peek to the future.

JANUARY

New Year's Day. Exactly seven million, nine hundred and eighty-eight thousand, seven hundred and two (7,988,702) headaches, and about the same number of resolutions to cut it out forever. In the neighborhood of present rumors will circulate to the exact opening date of the new St. Vitus' Church. Hundreds of parties celebrating the short pre-Lenten season. Toward the end of the month, several million resolutions will have been happily broken.

FEBRUARY

American Home benefit show attracts record breaking crowd. Experts prophecy the end of the depression. New soup kitchens begin throughout the States. Pre-Lenten parties continued to be the rage. With the coming of Lent, concerts, plays etc. take their place. Cleveland elects new mayor, a composite of Miller, Morgan, Witt and Waltz. All new year resolutions by now are happily forgotten.

Happy New Year!

We took the H from Happiness. And the A from Advancement. Then we added the two P's Of Prosperity and Prudence And tacked on the Y.

A principal part of Youth. From all that's Nice. We drafted a great big N. All of the Earthly joys Helped contribute our E. And the W out of Wisdom Matched things to a tee.

We changed Yearnings to earnings By simply stealing the Y. An E and A we borrowed From friends, Exel and Ace-high And the R was really Robbery. As we took it from Renown.

Now put them all together. They spell HAPPY NEW YEAR Words that mean "For you — The best in 1932!"

WELFARE CLUB HAS SELLOUT FOR NEW YEAR EVE PARTY

In a few hours the Slovenian community will re-echo and vibrate with the festivity and detonation of the New Year gaiety.

Everybody will be out on the good-time parade, but in all probability, house parties will attract the largest crowds. The reason is, of course, obvious.

However, the most pretentious and largest public event will be the Community Welfare Club banquet at Mervar's hall. The reservation limit has been exhausted and there is no doubt, but that many prospective guests will be disappointed.

The younger groups are expected to divide their celebration between local dance halls, and the theaters, and the night clubs will not reap their usual rich harvest of merry-makers.

WHAT does the new year hold in store for the members of the four local leagues presently in action—the Interlodge A and B bowling leagues and the Interfrat and Interlodge basketball circuits?

The Interfrat loop presents six girl teams, two of which will fight it out in a post-season series of three games, with the team taking two of the three tilts getting the 1931-32 championship. As far as we can see only three of the six clubs are given a chance of finishing in the playoffs, with the Silver Masks as top favorites and the defending champions, the Sokols, and the Grdina KSKJ Flashes battling for the other position. The two teams having the best percentages after the regular season play are selected to meet for the championship.

For some reason or other, the Masks outfit, which we figure the best in the league, can't seem to down Dame Rumor, who insistently has them breaking up. We, for one, hope the girls stick together and finish out the season at least.

All Strong Here
On the other hand, the boys, basketball group of eight teams, manifests a vast contrast in that not one of the teams could be called decidedly weak. As yet, some of the fives have played but two games, so it is mighty hard to judge just who's who. Previous indications, however, lead us to believe the Spartans, Pioneers, Comrades, Loyalties, and George Washingtons have the upper hand. Then, again, who is brave enough to say the Clairwoods, Progressives and Betsy Ross are not in the running? Any one of this trio is apt to bowl over a favorite at any time, which, of course, adds more sauce to the pudding. There you have the boys' basketball situation for the next three months.

Bowling Races Close
The Interlodge A bowling championship for the 1931-32 campaign can best be prognosticated by putting six slips of paper bearing the names of the Spartans, K. S. K. J.'s, George Washingtons, Slovenian Young Men, Betsy Ross Flagmakers and the Sokols in a hat. Then shake well and, blindfolded, draw your own winner. Your guess is as good as the next one. Yes, that's the kind of a torrid race it is.

In the lower Interlodge division the race is not quite as complicated, as two teams are outstanding, with one other squad crowding on the heels of these two. The leading pair are the Clairwoods and Svetek Strugglers, with the Rossmen doing the crowding. However, the Clairwoods apparently have the edge in this race.

So, looking them over, we see a knock-down drag-out, fight-to-the-finish race in every one of the four neighborhood loops, which is just as we like it and should make the new year a happy one for all our local sport addicts—and a tough one on the scribes.

STUDIOS WIN AGAIN

Bukovniks Wallop Gay Sports, 61 to 7, at Woodland Bathhouse Tuesday

Sammy Zamec's Bukovnik Studios, contenders for the Munny Class C crown, rang up their fifth straight win last Tuesday night at the Woodland Bathhouse, overwhelming the Gay Sports by a 61 to 7 score.

Frank Zakrajsek led the scoring barrage with 18 points. Ed Zalecel and Butch Fisher came next with nine markers apiece.

FORMER STAR SUCCUMBS

Tom Gallo, Former AAA Star, Passes Away Suddenly at Home

Tom Gallo, who will be remembered by the old-timers of the neighborhood for his proficient playing back in the good old days, on AAA teams, passed away suddenly at his home last week. Burial took place Wednesday.

The deceased is a brother of Charles Gallo, another well-known ball player and present deputy sheriff.

SAYS SPARTANS 6 ON INTERLODGE RIVALS BY WIN

Score Whitewash Victory Over Clairwoods as Others Win Only Two

KOGOGY GETS BIG 687

Betsy Ross Flagmakers Roll 1077 to Tie For Year's Three-Game High

The Spartans are slowly pulling away from the other teams in the Interlodge A loop, and today stand three full games ahead of the second place KSKJ's, the largest lead any team has had this year. Incidentally, the Spartans were the only aggregate capable of winning all three games last Sunday, while the other four matches were ending up two-to-one.

The chief reason for this was Billy Heccevar's high 621 series, his second good score in the last two weeks. Billy, it appears, has hit his stride as he doled off 227, 159 and 235 to set the pace for the league leaders as they downed the Clairwoods. In the second game both fives hit 891, but the Spartans did better in the roll-off, so the tilt will be recorded as a win for them. Charlie Wohlgenuth

"JOHN GILBERT"

If Joe Kogogy fools you as a "John Gilbert," it will be because he has had one of his suits cleaned and pressed at the Collinswood Dry Cleaners. It was Joe's 250 which won him the weekly prize.

mangled the woods for a 611 mark, while Julius Bokar's 595 proved the losers' best effort. This latter mark was also tied by anchor man Johnny Milavec.

Kogogy Hits 637
It took Joe Kogogy to affirm our statement of last week that every Sunday a new star crops up to capture the day's glory. Joe doled off a high 687 count which enabled the Spartans to take two from the Collinswood Boosters. Joe opened hostilities with a big 259 and followed this with a 194 and 234, for a total which gave him third place in the individual three-high standings. His mark was over 100 pins better than any of his mates, therefore holding the spotlight all by himself.

The consistent Kay Jays, rolled a high 2901 to twice fell Betsy Ross as a new sort of record was established when three of the victors bowled a 595 total. Mihelcic, F. Stepic and Tony Grdina were the victorious trio. Skufka led both sides with his 623, as Jimmy Stepic threatened the honor with 617. A 1077 by the Flagmakers, earned them a triple tie with the Spartans and Young Men for team honors and gave them their only win. In losing two, the Rossmen tallied 2920 to top the day's scoring.

Choppers Cap Two
Running true to form the George Washingtons-SYMC clash proved the best match of the day, with the former outfit winning two of the three tilts on three 800 scores. The Young Men were forced to hit 1037 to avoid a whitewash in the skirmish. The best scores were Kramer's 639, Peck's 630, Milavec's 615 and Prosek's 598. The defending champs tallied 2867 and the Young Men 2830 pins.

In the remaining contests the Comrades tossed the Pioneers for a two-game loss, as Rudy Turk collected 626 mapsles to show the way for the winners.

SOKOLS, FLASHES TO BATTLE FOR SECOND

The feature tilt on next Wednesday's Interfrat program is the Sokol-K. S. K. J. Flashes affair. With the Silver Masks almost certain of a place in the playoff series, the other position is left to one of these two teams, therefore much will depend on the outcome of this game.

The Flashes have one of the best defenses in the loop and may upset the defending champions, although the Sokols will enter the fray favorites, due to their vastly superior offensive power.

Complete schedule:
G. T. V. vs. St. Clair Bathhouse Guards (boys), 6 p. m.
Comrades vs. Progressives, 6:45.
Silver Masks vs. George Washingtons, 7:30.
Sokols vs. Grdina KSKJ Flashes, 8:15.

GETTING POPULAR

Ernie Maddock Making Hit With Wrestling Fans; Services in Demand

Ernie Maddock, Cleveland's wrestling deputy sheriff, is putting on display some high-class refereeing at the Equestrium and Public Hall these days. Immensely popular with both the grapple and customers, his impartiality and conscientiousness is fast winning him the reputation of being the outstanding official of this locality. Rumor further has it that his services are now in demand in Columbus, Dayton, Chicago and points west.

Last Tuesday night he refereed Walter Taylor's card at the Equestrium, handling all the bouts in his usual capable style. In the headliner Gentle John Kilonis threw Ray Carpenter with a flying mare. Sailor Billings and Jack Le Drew exchanged 15 minutes to a draw. Fred Moran tossed Frank Wolf, while Mustafa Pasha downed Bill Hassen. As a result of his victory, Moran meets Joe Banaski next week.

1931 SPORT EVENTS

By EDDIE SIMMS, Junior Sports Editor

IT'S customary at this time of the year to give the American Home Junior readers a resume of the sport happenings throughout the year now ending and record the achievements of the athletic champions of 1931.

If you'll follow us closely, we will try to take the list in something of a chronological order and briefly discuss the past year's highlights.

First in order come the Sokols, two-time Interfrat basketball champions, who came back in fine style to capture the 1930-31 crown from the fighting Silver Masks. The fans will readily recall the Gymnasts' defeat in the first of the three-game series and their fine comeback in the next two battles to successfully defend the crown acquired in the lassie loop's first season.

While on the subject of Interfrat basketball, we wish to remind the readers of our foul shooting queen, Dorothy Nichols of the Silver Masks, who won her title from a field of sixteen of the best charity tossers in the league, as some 250 fans flocked to the Willson Junior Hi gym to witness the spectacle sponsored by the American Home Junior.

Then, too, the honors bestowed upon "Jo" Laurich, Flash star, and Mary "Whitey" Doljack, St. Ann, luminary, who finished the season tied with scoring honors while leading the league in this department, and being selected by the American Home Junior readers as the most valuable players of the circuit.

Bowling Champs
PASSING on to bowling, we gaze into the crystal and see good old George Washington crowned as the 1930-31 31-king champion of the Interlodge loop. Only after a terrific struggle did the Washingtons wrest the title from the Spartans and S. Y. M. C., who were hot favorites to cop. The Tree Choppers also reached the finals in the national S. S. C. U. race, but lost out for the title.

In the Norwood Home League, the only alley in the city owned and operated by a Slovenian, Joe Pozelnik, the Gornik Habs came through for the third successive season, being champs in 1928-29, 1929-30 and finally 1930-31. Individual bowling honors for the year went to Charles Lausche and "Lindy" Konik. Lausche copped the city's individual crown in the annual tournament, while Konik's 800 series stands as the all-time Interlodge mark.

Before leaving the local winter sport circle, we take time out to commendate diminutive Steve Bernardi, Western Reserve basketball and football star, and Marge Slagar, who won the 300 mark on the hitting list.

Jumping into the big leagues, there is Joe Kuhel and Frank Doljack, both local Slovenian lads, who made good on the sandlots and are presently tied up with the Washington Senators and the Detroit Tigers, respectively.

When Joe Judge, Senator first sacker, hurt his knee, Kuhel was placed at that position and filled it quite satisfactorily. At the writing Joe is rated as one of the league's best fielders and is sure to be in there when the gong sounds for the 1932 campaign.

Frank, however, was not quite so fortunate, and after a month or so with the Bengals was optionally released to Reading. Before the season was over he was recalled and again cavorted in the outer pasture at the end of the season. It was a pleasure to watch him send one of Wes Ferrell's last ones into the left field bleachers two days before the close of the season. It was one of the longest drives ever made at League Park. Frank also has been retained by the Detroit club for the coming year.

The Socking Simms
AND now we come to the Simms brothers, Frankie and Eddie, who need no introduction. Frankie was an in-and-out until he went to the coast, where he slapped two heavies silly in jig time. Immediately he was recalled to his native haunts for Ed Bang's News Christmas Fund card to meet the tough Ernie Schaaf, one of the country's leading heavyweights. That he was technically kayoed in the fourth round is history, but he lost no prestige, as Schaaf looked the part of a real champion in this encounter. Frankie has returned to the coast and expects a shot at Max Baer before 1932 is very far gone.

In the meantime Eddie has been going great guns in and around town, having won six out of seven fights since he turned pro. His last four were by the kayo route and now he's in line for some good matches, meeting Jack Pallat, two-time national amateur heavy champ, at the Equestrium tomorrow night.

We can't close this revue without some mention of Ernie Maddock's debut into the wrestling game as an official. Ernie has long been affiliated with the world's best waterweights, but was forced into retirement due to injuries. There is still a possibility of a comeback with the advent of 1932 we hope to see him in action again.

And that, folks, is just about your whole dying year in a nutshell. It packed plenty of sport thrills for all of us. It saw local representatives rise to great heights to come through with flying colors, and it will undoubtedly go down in our history as the banner year for Slovenian sport addicts. Will 1932 compare with it? Here's hopin'!

C'mon 1932!

GREEN CABMEN WHIP NORWOODS IN TRAVELING

Upsetting the maples for a hefty 3117 total, the Green Cabs, led by Charlie J. Lausche and George Hovanec, again thoroughly whipped Joe Pozelnik's Norwood Recreations in a News Traveling League brawl last Sunday on the former's lanes.

Hovanec shellacked the sticks for a sizzling 695 series on 204, 214 and 267 chapters. Lausche counted 663 on 194, 214 and 255 installments.

Frankie Udovic with a 603 series led the locals futile drive to revenge the two-game setback they received from the Cabmen last week.

Other bright efforts unearthed in the tussle were Brandt's 202, Gresch's 238 and 205, Leskovec's 206 and Allich's 210.

To complete the evenings bombardment the Cabs easily copped the doubles events from the Norwoods, crashing out a terrific 1371 total, while their opponents were marking up 1069. Hovanec was the big noise in this event chalking up a tremendous 711 as his partner Charlie Lausche came through with a big 650. Udovic did best for the locals with 559.

AND now we come to the Simms brothers, Frankie and Eddie, who need no introduction. Frankie was an in-and-out until he went to the coast, where he slapped two heavies silly in jig time. Immediately he was recalled to his native haunts for Ed Bang's News Christmas Fund card to meet the tough Ernie Schaaf, one of the country's leading heavyweights. That he was technically kayoed in the fourth round is history, but he lost no prestige, as Schaaf looked the part of a real champion in this encounter. Frankie has returned to the coast and expects a shot at Max Baer before 1932 is very far gone.

In the meantime Eddie has been going great guns in and around town, having won six out of seven fights since he turned pro. His last four were by the kayo route and now he's in line for some good matches, meeting Jack Pallat, two-time national amateur heavy champ, at the Equestrium tomorrow night.

We can't close this revue without some mention of Ernie Maddock's debut into the wrestling game as an official. Ernie has long been affiliated with the world's best waterweights, but was forced into retirement due to injuries. There is still a possibility of a comeback with the advent of 1932 we hope to see him in action again.

And that, folks, is just about your whole dying year in a nutshell. It packed plenty of sport thrills for all of us. It saw local representatives rise to great heights to come through with flying colors, and it will undoubtedly go down in our history as the banner year for Slovenian sport addicts. Will 1932 compare with it? Here's hopin'!
