Japonci so v taki poziciji, da lahko napadajo, kadar se jim

Predsednik Ameriške de-

podporo Mar. L. Sweeneyu

William Green, predsednik Ameriške delavske federacije, najstarejše delavske unije v Ameriki, je včeraj indorsiral kongresnika Martin L. Sweeney, ki kandidira za ponovno izvolitev v 20. okraju. Mr. Green je poslal tozadevno pismo iz Washingtona, v katerem izjav-lja, da priporoča delavcem, naj volijo za Mr. Sweeneya radi njegovega 100% rekorda z ozirom na glasovanje v korist delavstvu v kongresu.

Za Mr. Sweeneya se je izjavil včeraj tudi predsednik unije pismonoš, William Doherty iz Washingtona, ki se nahaja sedaj v Clevelandu. Doherty je izja-vil, da imajo poštni uslužbenci v Sweeneyu enega najboljših prijateljev v kongresu.

Udar zaveznikov na Nemčijo
se pričakuje v kratkem

Hitler baje ponuja premirje Rusiji na eni, Angliji in Ameriki pa na drugi strani, da bi tako raz-dvojil zavezniške.

London, 31. jul. — V strateških razgovorih, ki se vrše v Londonu med ameriški in angleškimi voditelji in ki se sedaj bližajo zaključku, je videti skorajšnja odločitev zavezničkov, da bo-do udarili na Nemčijo v zahodni Evropi, da bodo tako olajšali breme Rusiji.

Vsa znamenja kažejo, da je Rusija položila svoje karte na mizo in odločno povedala zave-znikom, da je napočil čas, ko morajo zaveznički udariti na evrop-ski kontinent, dokler Rusija ni porabila še vseh svojih rezerv.

Po pripravih ameriških in angleških čet na angleškem otočju se sodi, da bodo zaveznički udarili vsak čas. Zaveznički sami pri-znajo, da ne smejo več odlašati, ker postaja dobava potrebščin Rusiji preko Murmanska vsak dan težavnejša in pa ker se je bati, da bo Rusija kmalu izgu-bila svojo ofenzivno moč. To sta dva glavna faktorja, ki bosta prisilila zavezničke na aktivno pomoč Rusiji s tem, da bodo udarili na Nemčijo od zahodne stra-ni.

Tretji tudi važen faktor je tudi ta, ker Japonska zbira svo-je čete ob sibirski meji z očvidnim namenom, da bo udarila Rusiji za hrbet.

Od gotove strani se pa zatrju-je, da Nemčija zopet tiplje z mi-rovnimi predlogi in sicer na ta način, da bi razdvojila zavezni-
ke. Baje je ponudila premirje

Liga kulturnih vrtov bo namreč priredila vrsto nedeljskih prire-tam, kjer je postavljen oder za take prireditve. Po trati bo par-tisoč sedežev in za sedeže bo vstopnina 50 centov.

Odbor je sklenil, da bo na to prireditve povabil vse jugoslomati bo ta večer gost na tej prireditvi in bo dobila tudi prosto vstopnico. Na ta način bomo tudi imeli na rokah seznam vseh ter jih bomo imenovali "matere plavih zvezd."

Spodaj vidite kupon, katerega naj te matere izpolnijo in pri-

Zakaj nismo mi proti kongresniku Sweeneyu

V vsej zgodovini Clevelanda ni bilo še take politične bitke kot je letos v 20. kongresnem okraju, kjer so se združile vse politične sile, da porazijo pri primarnih volitvah kongresnika Sweeneya.

Tudi na naš časopis se pritiska od vseh strani, naj bi se izjavil proti Sweeneyu. Ne samo, da bi se nas nagovarjalo k temu, ampak se nam celo dobesedno GROZI z bojkotom in kaj še vsem.

Napram vsemu temu pa stoji naše uredništvo nepremično. Napram vsemu pritisku imamo mi samo eno izjavo in ta je: Mi ne bomo proti Sweeneyu!

Zakaj nismo proti Sweeneyu?

Dodajmo molčali, toda zdi se nam potrebno, da našim čitateljem to svoje stališče razjasnimo in potem naj javnost sodi, če imamo prav, da stojimo za svojo izjavo ko zid in da nas ne premakne niti grožnja, niti vabljenja obljuba.

Pred glavnimi volitvami prošlo leto, je bil naš urednik naprošen, naj gre do kongresnika Sweeneya, ki je bil v primarnih volitvah županski kandidat in je kot tak dobil nad 32,000 glasov, — ter da naj apelira nanj, da naj pride javno na dan za našega slovenskega kandidata Lauscheta.

Vsi veste, da nam je bilo mnogo na tem, da zmaga Frank Lausche z največjim številom glasov, kar jih je še v Clevelandu dobil kak županski kandidat. Vsi veste, kako smo delali za Lauschetovo izvolitev, ne samo mi, ampak lahko rečemo, da je v tem sodeloval vsak naš rojak in rojakinja.

In ker nam je bilo res za zmago sina slovenskega naroda, ki je prvič kandidiral za županski urad v milijonskem mestu Clevelandu, smo bili pripravljeni storiti vse, kar je le bilo v naši moči.

Zato se naš urednik ni prav nič obotavljal, ampak je šel pol ure zatem, ko je bil za to naprošen in to nujno naprošen, v urad kongresnika Sweeneya ter ga tam prosil, naj apelira na volivce, ki so v primarnih volitvah oddali glasove zanj, naj pri glavnih volitvah glasujejo za Lauscheta. Vedeli smo namreč, če bi bili šli Sweeneyevi glasovi za Blythina, bi Lausche ne bil nikdar izvoljen.

Tam je naš urednik rekel kongresniku Sweeneyu pod priči: "Ako se Vi izjavite za Lauscheta, Vam obljubujem kot mož, da drugo leto (1942) ne bomo proti Vam, ko boste in če boste kandidirali za ponovno izvolitev!"

Kaj je storil kongresnik Sweeney? Napisal je izjavo, katero nam je dal prečitati na licu mesta in katero je poslal vsem trem ameriškim lokalnim časopisom in ki so jo tudi objavili. V tej izjavi je kongresnik Sweeney apeliral na vse svoje pristaše, naj oddajo pri volitvah svoje glasove za Lauscheta.

Pa ne samo to! Kongresnik Sweeney nam je obljubil, da bo prišel pred volitvami iz Washingtona in da bo tukaj osebno agitiral za Lauscheta zlasti v irskih varšah. To je Mr. Sweeney tudi storil. Dospel je iz Washingtona in agitiral za Lauscheta ne med Slovenci, ne na shodu v SND, ne na slovenski radio uri, ampak je agitiral tam, kjer je Lausche najbolj potreboval glasove: po zahodni strani mesta.

Torej je, kot vidite, kongresnik Sweeney držal svojo besedo.

In kaj naj pa storimo sedaj mi, naše uredništvo? Ali naj gremo in požremo svojo častno besedo? Ali naj postanemo figa-mož? Ali naj bo razglašen vaš časopis, Ameriška Domovina, kot list brez značaja, ki obrača svoje izjave po vetru in ki pri vsaki priliki nese svojo častno besedo? Koliko bi bila potem še vredna naša beseda? Koliko bi se mogel še kdo zanesiti na naše besede, na naše pisanje?

Pri tem je treba upoštevati to, da je bil naš urednik naprošen, naj gre h kongresniku Sweeneyu. Ko je govoril za našega kandidata, ni to storil iz svojega nagiba, iz lastne volje, ampak zato, ker je bil k temu naprošen, če ne rečemo — prisiljen.

Kaj bi mislili o našem moštvu tudi tisti, ki si danes na vse kriplje prizadevajo, da bi mi prelomili svojo dano besedo? Trenutno bi bili seveda veseli in slavo bi nam peli, toda ko bi bile volitve končane, bi se s studom obrnili od nas. Mi bi bili poznani kot veterinarski časopis, naš urednik bi bil razglašen kot figa-mož.

Kongresnik Sweeney ni od tistega časa, to je od lanskim županskih volitev, storil ničesar, kar bi nas upravičevalo prelomiti svojo besedo. Zato smo se namenili, da ostanemo trdni, da bomo držali svojo besedo in obljubo kot možje, ne glede na to, kako se bo radi tega vsulo kamenje na nas. Boljše je nositi posledice, kot pa pirovati zmago kot mož brez časti.

Naš namen ni bil tega povedati javnosti, ker smo mislili, da ne bo potrebno in ker se nismo hoteli bahati s kakimi slavnimi čini navzlic vsemu pritisku od vseh strani. Toda zadnje čase se je položaj spremenil tako, da se nam je zdelo potrebno pojasniti svoje stališče in pa vzrok tega našega stališča v političnem boju v 20. kongresnem okraju.

Vzpričo vse tega, vprašamo javnost: ali dela naše uredništvo prav, če se je namenilo ostati mož-beseda? Kdo si upa vreči prvi kamen na nas?

Da, tudi v politiki mora biti človek pošten in mož-beseda. Mi, kot majhen slovenski časopis v ogromni Ameriki, nimamo nič drugega kot svoje poštenje. Znali smo si ga ohraniti do zdaj in znali si ga bomo ohranili tudi v bodoče. To je vse naše premoženje! Naj nam reče kdo kar hoče, enega nam ne more reči: da smo pri Ameriški Domovini ljudje, na katerih besedo se človek ne more zanesiti. Največji biser naših slovenskih dedov je bil: da so bili mož-beseda in če ne drugega, vsaj to hočemo ohraniti tudi pri Ameriški Domovini, pa če se ves svet radi tega postavi na glavo.

H koncu še tole! Povedali smo, da smo bili naprošeni iti do kongresnika Sweeneya in tam delati obljube v prid Lauschetove zmage. Zaenkrat še ne povemo, kdo nas je poslal. Toda če se nas bo skušalo pritisniti ob zid, bomo povedali pa še tisto. Pripravljeni smo biti klavna žrtev, toda vsaka stvar ima svoje meje.

Pribijemo tudi to, da taki politični boji, kot so zdaj v 20. kongresnem okraju, prav nič ne pomagajo k edinstvu, katerega ameriški narod prav v tej uri težke preizkušnje tako silno potrebuje. S političnimi boji ne bomo gradili tankov, ne letal. Kdor ni zanesljiv, naj se ga dene za omrežje. Drugi bi morali pa vsi kot en mož pljuniti v roke in delati za zmago Združenih narodov. V tej kritični uri so medsebojni boji in prostaško zmerjanje samo ovira do zmage.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

Kratek dopis iz New Yorka

Vse prijatelje in znanke iskreno pozdravljam in sicer že malo pozno, toda vendar priskrbeli hvala vsem za darila in voščila ob mojem odhodu iz Clevelanda. Da bi imenovala vse posameznike, bi zelo preveč prostora, torej naj omenim le "Cvet Harmonettes" in društvo Beacons. Hvala dekletom, ki so mi priredile odhodnico. Torej prav iskrena hvala vsem skupaj, ne bom vas pozabila!

Hvala Jakatu, namreč uredništvu Ameriške Domovine, ki mi dnevno pošilja list. Resnica je, da sem list zelo pogrešala in sem vesela, da ga zopet prejemam. Torej tudi vam hvala!

Mesto New York se mi že malo bolj dopade kot se mi je prve par dni, a vseeno je še Cleveland na prvem mestu. Pridobila sem si že več prijateljev in prijateljic, o katerih bom pisala kaj več prihodnjic. O službi naj omenim le to, da se mi silno dopade. Delo je zelo zanimivo in ga z veseljem opravljam.

Sledeča zgodba ni za "Če verjamete al' pa ne," ampak prava resnica. Nekdaj odlični, vodilen Clevelandčan se je podal v — na počitnice. V New York je na pisal prijatelju, naj mu pošlje 100 razglednih dopisnic, da jih bo podpisal in naslovil prijateljem v Cleveland, potem vrnil nazaj v New York, da jih prijatelj odda na pošto. Ne vem, če mu je prijatelj poslal dopisnice ali ne, vendar med tem časom je drugi iskren prijatelj Clevelandčana v časopisih poročal, da je Mr. — odšel na odhiti v —. Tako da, ako je razposlal dopisnice ali ne, Clevelandčane ni goljufal. Torej kaj je rezultat te komplicacije, izračunajte sami. Jaz bom pa že osebno vprašala dotičnega Clevelandčana za vzrok ob priliki svidenja. Te fakte sem prejela od zelo zanesljive osebe in sem gotova, da je resnica.

Pozdrav,

Anne Traven.

Od izleta do pogreba

New York, N. Y.—Neznosna newyorška vročina me je napotila, da sem se podala 18. julija v prijazno letovišče "Twin Lake," Milford, Pa., k gospej Helen Corel iz Brooklyna, ki je do stranske nesreče, ki jo je zadela, tam obratovala turistovsko podjetje.

Pozno zvečer sem dospela na določeno mesto v družbi njene sestre Frances, kjer nas je gospa Corel prav prijazno sprejela. Po veselem sprejemu nam je razkazala poslopje, ki ga ima v najemu, katero pa je bolj podobno lepi vili kot pa navadni stanovanjski hiši.

Ko smo dospeli na "porč," nam je predstavila veselo družbo letoviščarjev, med katerimi je bil tudi njen najmlajši sin in ljubljenec Louis, ki je vso družbo zabaval s svojim prirojenim humorjem. Louis se je baš tisti čas nahajal pri svoji ljubljeni materi na počitnicah. Z vso družbo smo si bili kar hitro domači, da je izgledalo kot da smo ena sama velika družina.

Zabavali smo se pozno v noč in kar žal nam je bilo, da nas je bila utrujenost pričela priganjati k počitku. Bilo je že po polnoči, ko sem se odpravila v svojo sobo. Slišala pa sem še vedno glasen in priskrbeli smeh ostalih, katerega je največ povzročal mladi, šale vedno poln Louis Corel.

Sveži gorski zrak je tako vplival name, da sem se naslednjega jutra zbudila iz prijetnega spanja, ko je bilo sonce že precej visoko, a kljub temu nisem bila zadnja. Po dobrem zajtrku sem si ogledala krasno okolico, katero veže, kakor veriga, gorski venec. Pogled na to krasno okolico in pa veselo ptičje petje mi je privabilo solze v oči, posebno ob misli, kako nam poteka življenje na newyorškem cestnem pločniku.

Usoda pa je hotela, da moram tukaj prekiniti veseli dopis in preiti na najbolj grozen dogodek, kar sem jih še kedaj doživela, na kruto družinsko nesrečo, ki se je dogodila po kosilu, pri katerem smo bili še vsi na višku najboljšega razpoloženja. To se je zgodilo tako nenadoma in nepričakovano, da mi kar ni bilo mogoče verjeti, če bi ne bila resnica, da je mladi in veseli Louis Corel — mrtev.

Krog tretje ure popoldne se je mladina podala na bližnje jezero, da si ohladi vroče ude in da duška razposajeni mladosti ter zadosti željam po vodi z veslanjem čolna. Med tem, ko se je družba posedla na obrežje, da si malo odpočije in pa tudi zato, da odneha dež, ki je bil začel močno padati, se je mladi Louis, kateremu je Bog odmeril 21 let življenja, podal s čolnom sam na jezero. Ni se dosti oddaljil od obrežja.

Poln življenja se je, usedel na konec čolna in se z nogami dotikal vode, kakor bi hotel pokazati prijateljem, kako mu to dobro de. Naenkrat pa, kakor na povelje kakšne višje sile in pred očmi svojih prijateljev se je zvrtočil v vodo, iz katere se živ ni več pokazal. Navzočim ni uspelo rešiti ga, videli so par vodnih mehurčkov, ki so izplahnil življenje pokojnega Lojzeta.

Kako je ta strašna novica vplivala na ubogo mater, gospo Heleno Corel, na sestro Helen in na brata Jerryja ter na njegovo ženo Frances in v splošnem na ostale goste, ki so to videli, si lahko predstavljamo vsak sam, ki še nosi v sebi čut ljubezni do svojega.

Kot priča te strašne tragedije, je, ne morem naprej s pisanjem, ker tukaj se je iz započeta veselja pričel mrtvaški spreved, ki se je končal v četrtek, dne 23. julija, na pokopališču Svete Trojice.

Prizadeta mati in ostali naj se tolažijo z mislijo, da ravno v tem času tisoče in tisoče materam poka srce žalosti nad nesrečno usodo svojih sinov, kamor jih peha greh močnejših. Rada bi vam pomagala, če bi mi bilo to mogoče; vem pa, da tukaj ni tolažilne besede v pomoč, zato pa vas prosim, da vzamete v naznanje le moje globoko sožalje. Vaša

Tessie Kovach,

Bivši koncilman Kennick je za Sweeneya

Podpisani William J. Kennick, bivši koncilman 23. varde in eden izmed vodilnih demokratov v 23. vardi, izjavlja svojo podporo kongresniku Martin L. Sweeneyu za ponovno izvolitev v prihodnjih primarnih volitvah.

Kot veste, sem jaz kandidiral proti Mr. Sweeneyu v demokratijskih primarnih volitvah pred dvema letoma in vendar se čutim dolžnega, da tem potom iz-

Prva strelska tekma, ki se je vršila na strelišču Rainbow Hunting kluba je za nami. Pričakovalo se je, da bo bolj zanimiva in hujša (bolj vroča) za posost Zvezine zastave, kakor je bilo razvidno iz poročil posameznih klubov pred tekmo v našem glasilu.

Iz tega sem sklepal, da bo barbertonskemu klub šla letos bolj trda za zmago in da se bodo morali vendarle ukloniti in izročiti zastavo in zmago nasprotniku.

Zopet pa se je pokazalo, da kjer so fantje vztrajni in poslušni svojemu vodji, je tam tudi red in kjer je red, je disciplina in kjer je ta, tam je tudi napredek zagotovljen. Zato pa je na tem mestu moje skromno mnenje in priporočilo ostalim klubom, da si tudi oni nekaj teh lastnosti, kot jih imajo Barbertončani, osvojijo za v bodoče, ker bi jim ob tekmah kaj prav prišlo.

Tekmo je vodil naš glavni predsednik Joseph Lekšan, pod čigar vodstvom se mora tudi vse izvršiti tako, kot je program začetan in tako je tudi prav. Točnost povsod!

Klubi so nastopili kot sledi:

1) Rainbow Hunting klub:
J. Zaje	14
J. Fortuna	19

javljam, da je Mr. Sweeney vedno zvesto zastopal mišljenje naroda v njegovem okraju. Glasoval je za napoved vojne proti osiškim silam in je od tega časa vneto podpiral ves vojni napor.

Kar se tiče glasovanja senatorjev in kongresnikov pred napadom na pristanišče Pearl, bi morali pomniti to, da se je nahajala naša dežela takrat v drugačnem položaju, da je imela popolnoma drugačen izgled, ko je sam predsednik Roosevelt obljubil, da ameriški vojniki ne bodo poslani v tujezemske dežele. V podobnem slučaju so imeli naši kongresniki popolno svobodo, da so izrazili mišljenje naroda v njih okrajih.

Kongresnik Sweeney je dal brez dvoma pogumno in sijajno postrežbo ljudem v 20. okraju, zato je upravičen do njih polne podpore. Takih neustrašenih mož potrebujemo v kongresu, ki se ne boje povedati svojega mnenja in mnenja svojih volivcev. Kimavcey v kongresu ne mara, hočemo pa odločnih mož.

Zato na 11. avgusta, pri primarnih volitvah, volite vsi državljani in državljanke 20. okraja za MARTIN L. SWEENEY-a.

Wm. J. Kennick.

Euclid Rifle klub je dosegel 160 točk.

Kot je razvidno iz gornjih rezultatov, ostane še vedno zmagovalce Slovenski lovski klub Barberton.

S tem pa še ni rečeno, da ostane imenovani klub zmagovalce za to sezono. Vršila se bo še ena in odločilna tekma na strelišču Slovenskega lovškega kluba Barberton in sicer 30. avgusta v Rittman, Ohio, in tam se bo pa odločilo, kar bo?

Z lovskim pozdravom,

Kako je Michelangelo pesnikoval

V knjižnici Huntington v San Marinu v Kaliforniji so našli kes papirja z Michelangelovimi risbami in pesniškimi osnutki, ki jih je objavil list "The Art Bulletin." Pesniški osnutek Michelangela vsebuje 14 vrstic, iz katerih naj bi bil nastal sonet, ki pa očitno ni bil dokončan, ker ne poznamo nobene Michelangelove pesnitve te vrste. Toda osnutek je jako poučen zato, ker nam pokaže način, kako je pesnikoval Michelangelo in sicer drugače, kot so to delali pesniki njegove dobe. Michelangelo je, kakor je razvidno z lista, napisal verz za verzom, kakor domislil, ne da bi bili verz z drugim v pravilni zvezi, je šele potem pravilno sestavil. S tem pa je Michelangelo prav obratno kot njegov pesnik, ki so si najprej ustvarili temeljno duhovno zamisel, šele potem dali pesniško obliko. Michelangelov način pesništva je nekoliko podoben našem, vendar na drugačen način.

Obлека iz pasje

Na Japonskem, kjer je kakor drugod nadomestno volno, so si izmislili, da dala v ta namen poročila pasja dlaka. Ena izmed japonskih markij Hučusike je iz več dlake izdelala blago, ki le težko razlikovati od volne. Pri tem je vseeno izvirala dlaka od živih pasov. Blago iz "pasje" je za 20 do 30 odstotkov, še nego iz ovčje volne.

Pri županu so se pogovarjali o Matičkovih dveh letih. "Da, oba sem dobro prebrl, rekel oče župan. "Eden premeten in velik lažnjak. Prihranil si ni niti fideles, nes nima nič. Obratno njegov brat že od mladih leten in šparoven in vendar, šal, je nedavno tega pustil vdovi blizu $50,000. "Aha," se vtakne županja, "pa ti ne vnapaj, Ongava Mica mi je rekel, le pripovedovala, da je firigani lahkoživček po vo svojega brata."

Suhaški pridigar, spreobrniti ta grešni pa pijančke, je prišel in se ustavil pri moški imel pred seboj velik va. Suhač je začel ti o velikem zlu, ki jo pijska človeštvu in kel:

"Poglejte, moj dobri zlijete tisti kozarec, vam dam en dolar." Mož nekaj časa zre na tem se pa obrne k suhaču: "Skoro, da imate bo, ubogal vas bom, sem strašno žejen, krole: dajte mi samo in jaz bom zliil pol proč."

NE ZASTONJ, POSTENO!

V teh časih nihče ne besedi "zastonj" v o besedi "zastonj" pred den, se mora zanj v naš dom "zastonj." Vse ima toda ta cena je nizka, kot jo moremo da lahko izhajamo. Prepričani smo, ljudji rada plača za pravo vrednost.

ZAKLAD V SREBRNEM JEZERU

MAJ: Dobra doba, Bill! Kdo pa je z vami? Najbrž poglavarjevi bojevniki —?

"Da!" si je oddihoval Bill. "Koliko?"

"Štiri." "Samo štiri —? Imata torej tudi nekaj praznih konj?"

"Da." "Pa tudi beli so v vašem spremstvu?"

"Da. Stric Gunstick in neki angleški lord."

"Lord —? V imenitni družbi potujete —"

Pojdite po tovariše!"

Bill je pokorno pohlital. Pa le do pol poti je šel pa zaklical: "Stric, le kar dalje! Prijatelje smo našli, Old Firehand in toto Droll —! Le brž sem!"

Rafterji so vstali, da pozdravijo nove prijatelje. Družba je prišla okoli grča.

Kako so se čudili, ko so zagledali slovitega westmana, poglavarja Osagov pa nezvestnega na tleh. Kar razumeti niso mogli položaja. Razjahali so, Osagi so od daleč stali in spoštljivo gledali slavnega lovca, stric Gunstick je stal, kot da je pogoltnil fiziološko in menda iskal primerne verzije, lord pa je odpiral oči in se bližal s počasnimi koraki, pa vlekel obraz v take neumne gube, da bi se nad njim in nad njegovim, na eno strani otkolem nosu človek najrajši na glas nasmejal.

Old Firehand je seveda koj razumel, koga ima pred seboj. Podal je Angležu roko in dejal prijazno:

"Welcome, mylord! Vidim, da ste bili v Orientu —. V Mezopotamiji, v Indiji, morebiti tudi v Afriki —"

Anglež je še huje odpiral oči. "Vidite —?"

"Na tem vsaj, ker imata na nosu alepsko bulo."

Kdor je toliko potoval in po takih krajih, se bo pač tudi znal uživati v naše razmere na divjem zapadu, čeprav —"

Umolknil je in pogled mu je šinil po Angleževi opremi in obstal na kuhalnem orodju, ki ga je nosil na hrbtu.

Prav tedaj se je zavedel poglavar. Odprl je oči, šel globoko po sapo, planil na noge, zgrabil za nos in zamahnil, — pa zagledal orjaškega lovca.

Roka mu je obvisela v zraku, veselo iznenaden je vzkliknil: "Old Firehand —! Si bil ti tisti, ki me je prijel —?"

"Da. Tema je bila pa nisem spoznal svojega rdečega brata —"

Zadovoljen je dejal Osag. "Dobro solnce se bo spet smel vrtniti v svoj wigwam, ne bo osramočen, ne bodo kazale za njim swagwe in pravile, da se je dal premagati brez brambor. Ni sramotno, če kdo podleže slavnemu belemu lovcu."

Moj bel brat je namenjen na Buttlerjevo farmo?"

"Da. Kdo je pravil?"

"Beli so govorili o tem, ki jim pravite trampci."

Old Firehand je dvignil obrvi. "Trampci —? Si se srečal z njimi?"

"Da. Prijeli so me, pa sem jim ušel."

Dobro je, da pojde, moj bel brat na Buttlerjevo farmo! Kajti —"

"Le počasi! Zaenkrat še ne pojdem na farmo, v Osaški kot sem namenjen, nato pa pojdem k Buttlerju."

"Po kaj pojde Old Firehand v Osaški kot?"

"Belokožica iščem, ki mu pravijo cornel Brinkley, in njegove ljudi, trampe. Najbrž si se s tistimi srečal."

"Da."

Ali nima tisti Brinkley rdečih las?"

"Da. Si ga videl?"

Petelin

Moja teta Babeta, ki je za nedeljo pričakovala, da pride njena sinah na kosilo, je sklenila, da bo za juho žrtvovala svojega starega petelina.

Dala je žita v peharček, stopila je na kup gnoja in je klicala: "Pi, pi, pi, pi..." Kokoši so pritekale in za njimi se je pojavil častitljivo stopajoči petelin z rdečim grebenom in brado. Teta Babeta ga je ujela. Potem je vzela iz miznice svoj najmanjši nožek za lupljenje krompirja in ga je spotoma nabrusila ob kamniti stopnici. Medtem ko je tiščala petelina med kolena, je iskala na njegovem vratu tisto mesto, kjer bi ga prerežala. Vendar tega ni mogla storiti. Na daleč je zadegala petelina proč, ki je odfrfotal kričeč na dvorišče. Nič več se ni tresel in bil preplašen, marveč je bil ves divji in zmešan. Ves brež uma je tekal po malem dvorišču sem in tja.

A teta Babeta se je ojunčila. In kmalu zatem, z velikimi naočniki na nosu, se je v nogavicah, držec leseno coklo v rokah, splazila k petelinu in ga tako udarila po glavi, da je teletnil brez glasu na tla.

Potem je vzela iz peči posodo in si je zunaj na vrtu poskalo prostorček, da ne bi ponesnažila pravkar poribane sobe. Najprej je skrbno populila nežni puh, ki je pokrival petelina, težje je šlo s perjem na hrbtu in pri tem si je morala osliniti palec. Za perje na perutnicah pa je morala vzeti obe roki na pomoč.

Medtem ko je skubla, je bila žalostna, ker njen petelin ni nič več živel, pa tudi vesela, ker je bil tako lepo mesnat in so bila bedra debela ko pest otroka.

Zvečerilo se je, a teta Babeta ni poletila nikoli prižgala svetilke. Zato je dala petelina na polico, da bi ga zjutraj zarana, še pred mašo, do kraja oskubla.

Nato je stresla z obleke še nekaj perja, izmotala petelinove noge iz gub obleke, si pogrepla kavo, jo popila in šla spat.

Drugo jutro je vstala teta Babeta, ko se je komaj zdanilo, postlala si je posteljo in odšla nizdol po stopnicah. Vzela je nekaj trščic, da bi zakurila v štedilniku, a tedajci je na ves glas kriknila.

V peharju je ždela čudovita, majhna žival rumenosinje kože, vsa gola, brez perja ali dlake, kosti so ji štrlele kvišku, zadek je bil piščast, a vrat dolg in zviti. Teta pa je zagledala tudi živoročco, nazobčano čepico in zlato blesteče se oči, ki jih je bila brez dvoma že nekeje videla. Dvignila je roke in jih sklenila nad glavo.

Saj to je bil njen stari slabo ubiti, oskubljeni petelin! Živel je še in je ponoči skočil s police v pehar, da bi se ogrel! Teti še na mar ni prišlo, da bi ga ovičala pri življenju. Saj ga je bila hotela le jesti, a trpeti ne sme na noben način! Zdaj je bil petelin tak revež, da ga je brž zavila v ruto in jo zavežala v pentljo prav nad zadkom. Nato mu je dala vode in piče, kolikor je hotel, in ga je negovala v toplem kotu pri ognjišču kakor bolnika. V tem strašnem stanju ga ni nikomur pokazala, še kokošim ne.

Ko se je poletje približalo koncu, se je njegovo telo pokrilo s tankim puhom in petelin se je mogel spet pokazati na dvorišču. Brez perja v repu, a ves vder in poln življenja, je kikirikal, kolikor je le mogel.

A tisto nedeljo je bila dala teta svoji sinahi samo govejo juho za kosilo.

Svetovno zgodovino so prespali

Nemajhno presenečenje je doživela posadka francoskega ribiškega parnika "Immaculate Conception", ko se je lanko leto po deset mesečni odsotnosti vrnila v domače pristanišče St. Malo in so jo tam sprejeli nemški uradniki. Ladja je bila zapustila domače pristanišče St. Malo v marcu 1940, tri mesece pred nemško-francoskem premirjem, da bi ob Novi Fundlandiji lovila polenovke. Od tistega časa je bila njena posadka brez vsake vesti iz domovine, ker ni imela na krovu nobenega radijskega sprejemnega aparata. Na poti domov so francoski ribiči srečavali britske vojne ladje in konvoje ter so jih vsakokrat pristržno pozdravljali. Niti od daleč niso slutili, da Angleži francoske ladje v tistem času love. Toda za staro ribiško "skrinjo" se ni nihče zmenil.

rain. Something I haven't seen before. Our latrines are in a different building and it will be some experience when winter sets in for us to go to another building for our baths. Although this is not a place of beauty, we must take in the fact that this is a new camp. All in all it is a nice camp and a little more of heaven here than it was at Keesler Field.

For the first three weeks here we didn't do much in the way of work, as the place was not prepared and ready to do any work. So much of our time was spent in writing letters, eating and sleeping. At intervals we did some detail work as K. P., working at the woodpile and also in the warehouse. So in the meantime we were waiting to be assigned to work.

This base will do the job to teach air mechanics for our army air force. As this is an Air Mechanics school. The students go to school and there are two shifts. One being from 6 a. m. to 2 p. m. and the other from 2 to 10 p. m.

So far we are getting swell treatment. We do not have any order as yet for lights out. Lately we were issued passes to leave camp to go to town. During week days we are allowed to stay out until midnight and on Saturdays until 2 a. m. At first we didn't have any time limit until the school started.

Bus fare to town from inside the air base is 15 cents one way or 25 cents round trip. The distance from the camp to town is about eight miles.

At this point I will stop and I hope you have enjoyed reading the article as I have been writing it for you.

More news later, so until then loads of luck and the best of health to you all.

Preparations for the annual picnic have accelerated to top speed this past week. Entertainment, refreshments, good comradeship are in order, and as a grand finale—$1,000 in War Bonds.

The program being arranged will include a girls' baseball game and a band concert.

Tomorrow afternoon all of Collinwood will gather at the church grounds for a grand homecoming and also to witness the wholesale "give-away" of $1,000, already invested for you in the best security that Uncle Sam has to offer.

In one of the most exciting and thrilling games of the season, St. Mary's boys came through with a 10-9 victory over the Black Forest Beers last Sunday.

St. Mary's was behind 9-4 in the 7th inning through some ingenious playing by the infield, but St. Mary's, known for its "never-say-die" spirit came through like a tornado to score two runs in the eighth inning and four more in the ninth to win the game. AJ Russ relieved Marvin Rossa in the seventh inning and was the winning pitcher.

The Shadow

Baseball News

Hello, there, baseball fans! The baseball season has been in activity for the past three months, but the Shadow who is always on the go for more gossip let the baseball news slip right through its fingers. That there is baseball in our midst is no unknown fact as we have had three teams competing for a trophy in three divisions. It is really surprising that so many fellows are playing ball this season as most of us that used to play are in the army or working in a defense plant. But as you all know already, Newburgh never sleeps on a job (with the possible exception of the Shadow) so the younger fellows taking the places of the elders made teams that are of as high caliber as we used to have.

So while the Shadow is taking his daily nap, I'll jot down a few lines about them so as to keep you up to date.

C. Y. O.

The St. Lawrence team in this organization has just completed its schedule which started in early May. The outcome is that they won the C. Y. O.

championship. This team was under the supervision of our beloved assistant pastor Rev. Al Baznik and may I say now that if it weren't for his efforts combined with cooperation of the boys this team would never have gotten that high. Many thanks, Father.

Jacko A. C.

The boys of high school age have an Athletic Club named Jacko. They formed a Class E team, have finished their first half play-offs. They captured the East Side Championship which enables them to qualify for the District Cup later in the season. This team, headed by Bill Zagar, has all new players and its performance is good for the experience they only have. To date they have won four and lost two. More about their players in the future. The second-half championship begins this Sunday.

Laurentians

Now to the senior circuit where high school students are competing in Class D. At the present they are leading the league. This team consists of well experienced ball players. They have Joe Zupancic as their manager and catcher. Joe is one of the greatest hustlers on the team. In the pitching department they have Frank Turk and Bill Kociancic. Frank is known far and wide as the Cleveland Press gives him Honorable Mention week after week because he does such a splendid job in hurling. Bill is a speed-ball pitcher that has a little wildness but to date he has pitched well. At first base, the slugging Frankie Kuhel is placed there. His hits in the pinch have won many a ball game. At second base William Chesnik and John Skerl take turns as both are well qualified fielders. At shortstop, Bill Derigo cannot be surpassed and at third base the ever popular Billy Turk is stationed. Bill is one of the smartest and fastest ball players around the third base sack. The outfield is patrolled by such home run hitters as Chuck Yancher, Ray Blatnik and Joe Kastelic. Lou Kaplan does utility work. To date they have won five and lost two.

One team that they like to beat is Dudley Blossoms, sponsored by Mihic Cafe. They lost the first game with them, 5-3, but when they played them the second time they beat those St. Clair "bums" 7-1 which incidentally was a three-hitter for Frank Turk and 13 strike-outs for him. The attendance is fair but it could be improved a lot. One fan that has everybody on his toes throughout the game is Jack Bokar. If we had more like him, this team would never falter and with him around, it won't. They will play this Sunday again, but the schedule was not ready in time for this writing as to when and where. Look in the newspapers or ask any of the players.

Others

We also have ball players from former years playing in higher classes:

Joe Ozimak is catching the fly ball in center field for the Holy Family team in Class C. His potential batting power is playing its share.

Frank Jeric and Max Aynik are playing with Bartuneks in Class A. They also are mainstays.

Jim Russ is pitching for Abel Body in Class B. They won the first half championship. So let us all go out and root for these boys if time permits in the future.

Oh, but look, the Shadow is getting up, so I better hurry off before I get caught with my fingers in his column. So until next week, this is your friendly reporter saying, So Long.

NEWS FROM OUR BOYS IN THE ARMY

July 26, 1942

Dear Editor:

Again a soldier of the U. S. Army Air Force reports on Army life.

Hoping that these brief articles interest you all. So I am trying to give a vivid picture of this new life.

Continuing my experience which last was written about Keesler Field, Miss.

As was said in the last article, I have been transferred from Keesler Field on June 21 and arrived at Lincoln Air Base on June 23 after a 50-hour trip on a Pullman.

As I arrived at the station in the heart of Lincoln, I was fascinated by the glimpse of Lincoln. As you probably know much cannot be seen from a railroad yard. But from what I have seen, something inside told me I would like the city. This city is the capitol of Nebraska and the state capitol building was the first to be focused on my eyes. Also stopped by the side of the stadium of the University of Nebraska. Then seeing some other large buildings told me that this was a fairly large city.

After that short stop we again started on our last and short journey to the base.

As the train reached the gate of the base, all sorts of thoughts ran through my mind. Questions of every kind go through a person's mind on trips like these.

As the train came to a stop, it was drizzling and we unloaded our tired bodies at the unloading platform near the warehouse. Here we were greeted by officers and non-coms who were ready to take us to our location. We were put into small groups and taken to our barracks. As it was getting dark, we set up our new beds and lined up for our bedding. When we received them, we made up our beds and retired wondering what the morrow would have in store for us.

Our first day, we found out that we were quarantined for five days for reasons that if anyone contracted any disease on the trip here and also that we would be around if any information was needed.

This is just a baby camp, started only in May and you should see how fast it is being put together. The barracks are completed and work is still going on the hangars, sports arena, theatres and chapels. Before long the camp should be finished and it should be done before winter comes in for the year. Leveling of the ground and the making of roads are also in process.

The camp at present holds about 5,500 men and will hold 16,000 when completed. There are 28 men to a barrack. The barracks are one story, built from the ground. We have two coal stoves in each barrack, so we will have to go back to the old days of firing the coal stoves.

We haven't any windows of glass but instead we have screens processed in some manner to stop the wind, dust and

WEDDING BELLS

Today, August 1st, at 10:00 a. m., St. Vitus Church, will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Francka Zakrajsek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zakrajsek, funeral director, at 6016 St. Clair Ave., and Mr. Louis Arko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arko of 981 Addison Rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Zallnick of 1058 E. 72 St., announce the marriage of their son, Anthony, to Miss Helen Kitchell. The wedding will be today at 11:00 a. m. at St. Vitus Church. Relatives and friends are invited to attend the mass. Good luck to both couples!

Moonlight Ride tonight!

The last reminder on the Orels Moonlight Ride tonight. Everyone is invited to attend. The ride will take place on the D and C steamer "Eastern States." The boat leaves from the foot of East 9th St. at 9 p. m. sharp! It is a good policy to be down about a half hour early to secure good deck seats. Take the St. Clair car to East 9th Street and walk north to the D and C pier.

If anyone cares to come to St. Vitus School there will be a group leaving from that point about 8 p. m. The admission is one dollar tax included so for a good time we'll see you and you and maybe even you tonight.

Tony Mervar R. I. P.

The Orels deeply regret the passing of one of their oldest and best members, Tony Mervar, and express their sincerest sympathy to Miss Justine Mervar, his sister, sole survivor in the tragic events which killed her father and mother in an automobile accident in Kansas, and saw Tony pine away after he heard of the tragedy.

Tony was the last of the old Orel members. He had been a member of this organization for the past 12 years. Whenever we needed his help, he was there. Many of the Orel Turkey-Give-Aways were more successful through his untiring efforts.

The old-timers will miss you a great deal, Tony, but we, the newer Orels shall try to follow your example and become true and faithful Orel for years to come.

ST. MARY'S NEWS

When St. Mary's meets Mt. Carmel, there is always a battle. Last week Mt. Carmel won, 8 to 9, and just as we had the game in our hands. Right up to the 6th inning we were in there, leading. But, came the final score, we were the losers. Coach Johnny felt very bad. However, we will not let him down when we come to the first play-off game next Wednesday, August 5, 7:00 p. m. on St. Mary's grounds. Mt. Carmel will be our opponent. For real excitement, we recommend you to see this game, for if we lose we are out—out for the rest of the season. If we win, we play St. Christine's next.

At the church picnic (on our own grounds) next Sunday, Aug. 2nd, St. Christine's will play an exhibition game at 3 o'clock. St. Mary's will be wearing their new uniforms for the first time.

Scarcely a month goes by that some member does not come in displaying an engagement ring. At the last meeting Anne Grill was the center of attention with a very lovely ring. Congratulations, Ann!

ST. CHRISTINE NEWS

Well, well, what do you know or maybe I'm supposed to tell you that. Here it goes:

Baseball:

Victory, victory is their cry. Whose? Why, St. Christine's, of course. Last Monday our girls battled with Mt. Carmel (and I do mean "battled," ask the spectators and St. Mary's) and captured a 12-9 victory. The winning pitcher was Anna Hochevar. It sure was something to see when Mt. Carmel lost. There really was a battle, after all it was just a game played in clean fun, but I guess they don't believe in clean fun, or so it seems, because they sure showed it. After the game Mt. Carmel wanted to really fight, but our girls showed them up then and they'll do it in the finals too. For more information ask Martha Golarin (Shorty) and Eleanor Pierce (Percy). Sunday, tomorrow, picnic. They have invited us to mark the day for St. Mary's play a game there. So let's all come out and see the Slovenes really go to town. See you all Sunday.

We'd like to thank the girls from St. Mary's who came and cheered for us at our game Monday.

Sodality:

Just a reminder to inform the young ladies that tomorrow is first Sunday. Remember 9:45 Mass, and wear your uniforms.

This 'n' That:

Wedding bells will soon be ringing for Mary Zdesar and Ruth Hirsch. I wish you the best of luck, success and happiness. Remember the slogan, girls, "Don't keep those rolling pins flying." Get your supply now, while they last.

I wonder what happened to Ralph Hirsch's ring?

Who is this Sammy, Dorothy Papesh is always talking of?

The Woldman Appliance outfit won a game. This team is made up of the boys in the neighborhood. Captain is Bill Switaj. Ed Posch pitched.

Who does Esther Nagode have her eye on now? It could not be Harry Knaus, could it?

That's all for now folks and remember in order to Keep 'Em Flying, we've got to do our share and buy those bonds and stamps. So long all you guys and gals.

Engagements

Mr. Frank Zorich of 1121 Addison Road, announces the engagement of his daughter, Ann to Mr. William Petrovich of Chisholm, Minn.

NORWOOD LIBRARY NEWS

One of the best, and by far the most enjoyable stories about themselves for young people is the popular love-story, Seventeenth Summer, by Maureen Daly. In many ways, this book is comparable to that all-time favorite Seventeen, by Booth Tarkington. Seventeenth Summer will be better liked by the teens themselves because it is written from their side of things, not from the grown-up's better-sense side, as the humorous Seventeen was written.

This is the story of young love—the first and real love of a young girl in her seventeenth summer, and a boy from a local high school football team. It was written by a young girl, herself not much older than the heroine of the story. It is filled with the joys and fears and the incredible enchantment of youth seeing itself clearly, without affectation or guile or pretense.

A beautiful tale, written to be enjoyed by young and old, all who know youth and have themselves experienced it. Any parent, or teacher, or the person of high-school or college age who reads it will find that a truer or more charming picture of first love was never written.

In her seventeenth summer, the young and unspoiled heroine of the story, who washes dishes, dusts, gardens, and does all the small and ordinary things that all girls do, suddenly has her first date. The boy and girl enjoy each other's company in doing all the innocent things that modern youth of good upbringing and family are accustomed to fill their time with. And they fall in love.

The fact that this crowning of their lovely courtship that ends with the summer, and with their going away to college, is only the smooth ending of a smooth tale about any boy and girl. Your neighborhood library has a copy of this national favorite for you to read. Don't miss it.

Need we recommend it to you further by stating that it is, most deservedly, the first prize winner of the Intercollegiate Literature Fellowship? If you are young, or young enough to remember your own youth, or enjoy the youth of others, read, this summer, Seventeenth Summer by Maureen Daly.
