Zveličar je vstal

Zapoj aleluja, veselo srce,
Zaveličar je ljudstva odrešil teme.
Glej, v sončni svetlobi iz groba je vstal
In strašne je srmti kraljestvo konča.

»On vstal je«, povedal je angel ženam:
To priča vsem straža, bežeča od tam.
O sladka novica, naš Jezus živi,
Saj groba teminca odprta stoji.

Je sužnost končana, odrešen je svet.
Nebesa, hozana, odprta so spet.
Iz groba popeljal vse zveste bo v raj,
V neskončno veselje in večni sijaj.

BISHOP OF HAMILTON 2015 Easter Message

Dear friends in Christ:

At the beginning of our 40 day Lenten journey, we were marked with ashes in the Sign of the Cross — a stark reminder that we are going to die, all of us, sooner or later. Now, at the Easter celebrations, those ashes are washed away when we are "soaked" with the same Easter water with which The Elect are baptized! Death no longer has a claim on us. We know that God has the last word — and God's word for us is the same as His word for Jesus, who was crucified, died and laid in the tomb. LIVE! And so we do; WE LIVE — IN HIM!

WE LIVE! WE LIVE IN HIM! And that is what we celebrate this Easter and every Easter! It why we "pull out all the stops" — the Easter fire, the huge Easter candle (Christ our light!), the many Scripture readings that point us to LIFE, the Easter water (Baptism — new life), the incense, the bells, the flowers — all of our senses are inundated because this message is so very important! BECAUSE HE LIVES — WE LIVE! WE LIVE FULLY NOW, and we enjoy the blessed promise that WE WILL LIVE ETERNALLY WITH HIM THEN! This is the hope that keeps us focused every day.

So, how do we choose to live? Like Him, we choose to live for others; that is the ideal toward which we strive each day, every day, one day at a time! It is what our Lenten discipline has helped us practice. It is expressed in the many small sacrifices we accepted, culminating, perhaps, in our Share Lent offering which supports the unknown poor in faraway places, waiting, longing for, our solidarity and support!

Together now, united in Him, we set out on 50 days of joyous Easter celebration — celebrating LIFE and self-giving LOVE. During these days, our FAITH in Jesus Christ can deepen, our HOPE in the fullness of life with Him can become ever more convinced, and our LOVE for one another, especially those in particular need, can increase!

Happy Easter

KRIZMENA MAŠA v Hamiltonski KATEDRALI-BAZLIKI KRISTUSA KRALJA Ponedeljek, 30. marec 2015

V večini kanadskih škofij je krizmena maša ali v ponedeljek ali v torek v velikem tednu. Razlog so velike razdalje in na veliki četrtek bi bilo za mnoge duhovnike težko priti nazaj do večerne maše.

Že ob štirih popoldne smo se duhovniki, bogoslovci in stalni doakoni zbrali na večerji skupaj s škofi. Letos nas je bilo kar 204, kar je največja številka zadnjih let.

Ob sedmih zvečer pa se je začela slovesna sveta maša. Kdorkoli je bil - in katedrala je bila polna - je lahko doživel lepoto liturgije. Ob sodelovanju mešanega zbora, orgel in orkestra. Usklajenost programa, lepo pripravljena liturgija je vsem pomagala, da smo res doživeli skupnost - občestvo. Po končani sveti maši smo duhovniki vzeli sveta olja vsi pa so bili povabljeni v dvorano pod cerkvijo na okrepčilo ob kavi, čaju in pecivu.

CVETNA NEDELJA PRI SAVI IN PRI TRIGLAVU

V nedeljo smo se zbrali za sveto mašo pri društvu Sava v Breslavu pri društvu Triglav v Tondonu. Kljub letošnji hladni pomladi je mnogim uspelo narediti lepe butarice in ohraniti slovensko tradicijo. Bralci so sodelovali tudi pri barnju trpljenja našega Gospoda Jezusa Kristusa. Po maši pa smo se na obeh krajih zbrali še h kosilu (pri Savi) ali prigrizku, ki so ga pripravile dobre gospodinje. Hvala vsem za sodelovanje.

CVETNA NEDELJA V ŽUPNIJI SV. GREGORIJA VELIKEGA

Cvetna nedelja je bila letos precej zgodnja, zima pa pozna, tako, da letos plesna skupina Venec ni mogla narediti butaric. Kljub temu je gospa Olga, ki vloži vedno veliko dela, da je naša cerkev kar najlepše okrašena, v svoji iznajdljivosti našla dovolj različnega zelenja, da je lepo okrasila cerkev.

Že ob 9:15 zjutraj smo se zbrali v zgornji dvorani, kjer smo imeli blagoslov zelenja. Potem smo se v procesiji podali v našo cerkev in tam nadaljevali s sveto mašo. Pevci so obogatili bogoslužje z ubranim petjem. Bralci so sodelovali pri branju božje besede in po vlogar smo prebrali pasion. Pri enajsti maši je bil blagoslov zelenja pred cerkvijo, sveto mašo pa je vodil Fr. Frank Kelly. - Hvala vsem sodelavcem, ki so pomagajo pri čiščenju, krašenju, pripravljanju vsega potrebnega, da bogoslužje poteka zbrano in praznično.

Tukaj imate zapisnik od lanskega občnega zbora, da se boste lažje spomnili o čem smo govorili. Preberite si!

St. Gregory the Great Slovenian Parish

Minutes of the Občni zbor – February 16th. 2014

Members Present: Father Drago Gačnik, Milan Ferletič, Tony Horvat, Jožica Vegelj, Heidi Novak, Jenny Antolin, Jerry Ponikvar, Karl Ferko, Sonya Podrebarac

56 parishioners were in attendance.

1. Welcome: The meeting opened at 3:00pm. Milan welcomed all parishioners and reminded everyone of the contribution of former priests and parishioners to the success of the parish. A moment of silence was observed in their honour. Father Drago said the opening prayer.

2. Acceptance of proposed agenda. Karl Ferko, proposed and Vera Gonza seconded the acceptance. All in favour

3. Minutes of Občni Zbor, Feb 24th, 2013. Minutes were available prior to the meeting for review. Karl Ferko proposed and Jenny Antolin seconded the acceptance of the minutes. All in favour.

4. Committee reports:

a. Liturgični Odsek: Sonya outlined the composition of the group, described their planning for major liturgical celebrations and provided parish statistics of 9 Christenings, 19 funerals, 4 First Holy Communion recipients and 2 wedding. Sonya concluded by encouraging all members to consider offering their special talents and time to serving in weekly masses.

b. Slomškovo Oltarno Društvo: 53 members Jožica provided a brief history of the society and mentioned 73 members joined the Altar Society to date; however only 14 members are able to assist with regular cleaning of the church. She explained that the group has a bond of friendship and all members are ready to help in any way they can. Jožica closed with words of encouragement to the younger parishioners in the hope that they would continue the work of the society.

c. Katoliška Ženska Zveza: 98 members. Heidi reported on all areas of parish involvement, including the annual bazaar, Our Lady of God Counsel Mass, support for First Communion and Confirmation candidates, pilgrimages to Marmora and Baraga, sponsorship of Guadeloupe, Mass of Remembrance, visiting sick and elderly members. She noted that in 2013 members provided funeral honour guards for Gospa Grebenc. 5 new members join our CWL family bringing our current membership to a total of 98 members. Heidi also provided a list of donations including $6,376.00 to St. Gregory's.

d. Catholic Girl's Club: 19 members. Jessica Novak and Leah Skerl provided an encouraging report about the increase in membership and the activities enjoyed by the group. They stated that from its foundation in November 2009 the group has grown from the three founding members to a group of nineteen girls between the ages of ten and sixteen. Their main focus is to assist children locally, nationally and internationally. In 2013, they were able to assist multiple groups. Money raised from the spaghetti dinner went to the Emergency Community Assistance Program for the Hamilton Red Cross Branch. The Girl's Club assisted with the CWL bazaar by working the children's centre. In the fall the girls also made rosary bracelets and since October is breast cancer awareness month $250 was donated to Breast Cancer Research. At the end of the year they collected toys and donated them to City Kidz. The report concluded with thanks to Father Drago, parents and parishioners for all the support they receive. Jessica and Leah encouraged all present to speak to children/grandchildren about joining the group.

e. Kulturno Društvo

- Slovenska Šola: 43 students registered. Sandy outlined the goals of the school staffed by Darlene Kobe, Lori Mramor and Sandy Allen. She also noted the involvement of Father Drago celebrating Mass with the students and preparing them for performances at Miklavž and Materinski Dan. The major event in 2013 was a 2-week excursion to Slovenia in July. 17 students and 12 adults, including teachers, parents and chaperones went on the trip. The excursion began in Prekmurje and then progressed throughout Slovenia for the following 2 weeks, hitting all major points of interest, and ended at the Adriatic Coast. We had a final Mass at Rakovnik with Fr. Drago to close the excursion. Sandy thanked the parents of students for bringing their children to the Saturday classes and for instilling into the children a love for their Slovenian heritage.

-Pevski Zbori: Frank spoke about the ongoing commitment of St. Gregory's choir groups Majolka, mixed choir, women's choir and English Choir. They enhance many cultural celebrations and add to the beauty of the Mass.

-Plesni Skupini: Soca -16 children registered. Jenny noted that the energy for this folklore group is high with many past members interested in having their children part of this cultural organization. However, we are finding many children are part of other groups outside of the Slovenian community, predominantly sporting teams and their focus is on those activities. SOCA is trying to stay alive as much as possible, but without a steady commitment and a driving focus that a group like this is as important for the children and partly this community, this group will not be able sustain itself. The children did not give any dance performances in 2013; however they will try and get together in late March to hopefully put something together for Slovenian Day here at St. Gregory's.

-Day Camp: 50 participants. Heidi reported another successful week long Day camp.

Children enjoyed an ice cream truck, hot dog day, buckets of water fun. Special events and guest visits were organized each day, however, this year we had two spectacular events. One was a carnival style day – with a fabulous bouncy castle, a cotton candy machine and mini Olympic games. This year, we had goats, baby cows, chickens, geese, ferrets, and even a Kangaroo visit us. Our volunteers did a great job again at making this summer camp a success. We had many graduated campers help out, and we were especially happy to see some grandchildren of long time parishioners come and volunteer. It is important to remember – without our volunteers, there is no way that we could run this week of fun for our kids.

Heidi thanked the various societies who together with Slovenian Credit Union provided financial support. She noted that the number of participants indicates a strong Slovenian community. Plans are being made to hold the 14th Annual Day Camp this summer.

f. Društvo Sv. Jožefa: 146 paid members. Jerry reported that the society met monthly with Active Management to discuss matters relating to the villa. An increase was noted in the number of Slovenian residents. He reported on the society's social events, weekly bingo and excursion to Octoberfest.

He outlined participation in the Slovenski Dan celebrations, and in the bocce league. Contributions from the society were made to visiting priests from Slovenia, St. Gregory's Summer Camp, Slovenian Scholarship Foundation and the Bishop Baragea Foundation. Jerry noted the loss of long standing members, Ivan Obal, Joze Yeric, Janez Hočevnar, Ludvik Hull, Stefan Prsa, Ethel Simončič, Ivan Simončič and Tony DiTomassi during the year. He thanked the executive and board members for their support and encouraged younger parishioners to become members.

g. Gospodarsko Poročilo: Mirko outlined in detail the regular monthly, quarterly and annual maintenance completed. Much of this work is required to keep our facilities safe and sound. Major work completed were, the AC unit in the lower hall was replaced, the lower hall was painted, installation of new LED lights around the perimeter in the lower hall and new wall mount lights installed.

h. Slovenian Scholarship Foundation: Karl spoke about the two events the host, a dinner dance in October and the upcoming golf tournament in May. The foundation has awarded over $100,000 in scholarships and bursaries to Slovenian youth attending university and college. It is only through the support of the community that we can continue this mission.

Posters were available as a reminder. He encouraged parishioners to support the events, as this was a means of generating funds for the scholarships to be awarded.

Following the reading of reports, Milan thanked all societies and parishioners for their help.

h. Finančno Poročilo: prepared by Teresa Farbotko and read by Karl Ferko:

Following the presentation of the financial report, Milan asked if there were any questions. No questions were asked. _____ moved and _____ seconded a motion to approve the financial statement. All were in favour.

Kratka pavza 10 minutes

5. New Business and Miscellaneous:

Nomination of new Parish Council Members. – Heidi Novak nominated Sidonnia Poppa and Jenny Antolin nominated Matej Glavac who both agreed to stand as candidates. Both candidates accepted.

_____ motioned and _____ seconded a motion to approve the two new council members. All were in favour.

Miscellaneous comments re: volunteers and the need to have younger families involved

It was brought up that we need to reach out to our younger families/parishioners and have them engaged. Many of the parishioners stated that it is nice to see younger faces on Church Council. Jenny Antolin said that our parishioners need to reach out to their families and encourage them to participate. If we don't have additional help we will burn out the members we have.

Marianne Skerl spoke about how we need to work on this engagement and advised that she was willing to work with the Church council on a plan. It's not only about engaging volunteers but ensuring they are appreciated.

6. Pastor's Address: Father Drago spoke about changes occurring in the parish, the tremendous amount of detail involved with the renovation project from both the financial and construction perspectives, and shared a report, read by Pamela, and prepared by Joe Prsa, which highlighted all the details.

7. Closing Prayer and Meeting Adjournment: The meeting concluded at 5:20pm with a prayer by Father Drago.

8. Refreshments and light snack.

EASTER SUNDAY

Response: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

First Reading Acts 10:34. 37-43

Peter proclaims the death of Jesus as a prelude to the resurrection.

Second Reading Colossians 3:1-4

We are now living a new life because of the resurrection of Jesus.

or 1 Corinthians 5:6-8

Through the sacrificial death of Jesus on the cross, we have become new dough, the "unleavened bread of sincerity and truth".

Gospel John 20:1-9

Mary Magdalene, the first witness to the resurrection, found it hard to convince the apostles. It was only when Peter and John saw the empty tomb for themselves that they believed her words.

"They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'"

Illustration

Eva Schloss knew her future stepsister, Anne Frank, before the teenage girl died in Auschwitz concentration camp. As children, the two girls played together. After the war, Eva's mother married Anne's widowed father, Otto Frank. Both families had lost treasured family members in the Holocaust, like so many other Jewish families in that dark period of human history.

During a radio interview years later, Eva, a former concert pianist, explained how, on Saturday nights before their arrest, the whole family would lie on the floor, in the dark, listening to the exquisite music of Schubert's "Trout" Quintet as their “preparation for sleep”. In decades to come, this music, and the memory of those unforgettable evenings, would still bring her joy. Despite having lost so much, she explained that what she would like to pass on to the world was the message enshrined in Louis Armstrong’s song “What a Wonderful World”. Instead of learning bitterness, Eva had learned to appreciate life and its immeasurable capacity for all that is good. In seeing the horrors of the death camps, she saw life and learned to value things that perhaps would remain unnoticed by those who had not faced the ultimate in human brutality. She finished her radio interview by repeatedly saying, “It’s a wonderful world!”

Gospel Teaching

Mary Magdalene believed that she had lost everything when Jesus died. John’s Gospel tells us that, when Jesus died on Calvary, Mary Magdalene stood at the foot of the cross with Mary, the mother of Jesus, and John, the beloved disciple, as the dying Jesus entrusted his mother and John to each other. She witnessed at first hand the brutal death on the cross of one that she loved so much.

We do not know why it was that Mary Magdalene went to the tomb alone on Easter Sunday morning. Was it that she and the other women had agreed to meet there? Was it that she wanted to be alone for a while? Did she, perhaps, want to spare Jesus’ mother the agony of seeing her son’s body before it was completely prepared for burial? On the day of his death, those preparations had been interrupted by the onset of the sabbath.

Mary’s journey was solitary but also risky. Guards protected the tomb lest any of Jesus’ disciples tried to remove his body. They were rough men; and she was a solitary woman. The soldiers might or might not allow her access. In those days, as now, in so many places, a woman had little status. Mary Magdalene was the first witness of the resurrection. Yet her unexpected news, so beyond the imagining of any of the apostles, had less credibility in the society of her day precisely because it was reported by a woman. Peter and John wanted to verify her story for themselves. It was only when they entered the tomb of Jesus that they realised the truth of the resurrection.

Application

Jesus allowed women to be the heralds of the good news of the resurrection. Eva Schloss, an Auschwitz survivor, could proclaim that “It’s a wonderful world” in spite of all she had seen and experienced. Mary Magdalene, an eyewitness to the horrors of Jesus’ sufferings and death, also helped in his removal from the cross and the preparation of his body for burial. She witnessed his death but was considered less trustworthy when she tried to tell the apostles of the empty tomb. How did she feel when Peter and John ran to see the truth for themselves? What was her reaction when they returned to the Upper Room to report that the situation was exactly as she had said?

Eva Schloss discovered the meaning and beauty of life through the appalling suffering of Auschwitz. So too, Mary Magdalene and the apostles found that the death of Jesus would transform their own lives. Eva Schloss and Mary Magdalene both testified to a reality that others would find hard to believe. The resurrection is something far beyond normal expectations. Yet it is also an everyday event. We all know someone who has risen above hardship. Perhaps resurrection is part of my own life. Just as Calvary made Easter Sunday possible, so life’s challenges can be the doorway to new hope and meaning. Easter Sunday, the day of resurrection, happens every day if we have the open eyes and heart to see it. Happy Easter!

DUHOVNA OBNOVA

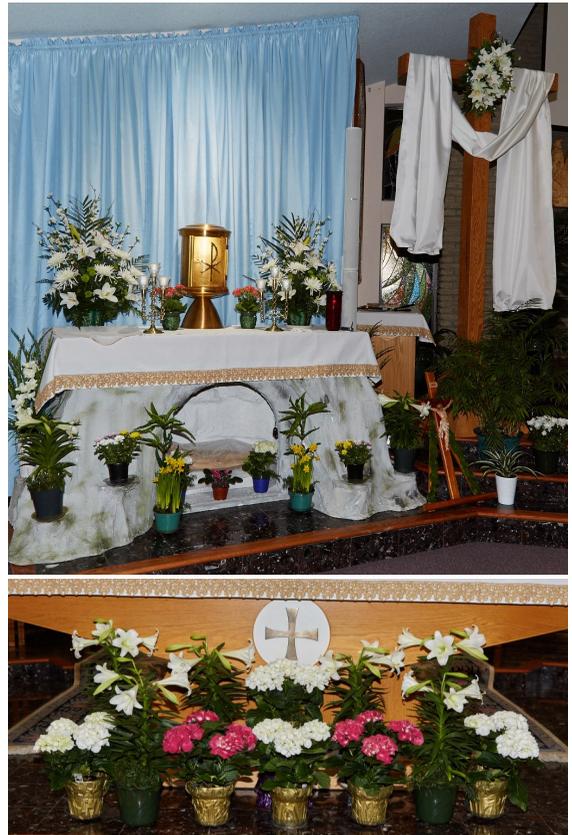

Pred cvetno nedeljo smo imeli duhovno obnovo in pripravo na Veliko noč. Letos sta nam za spovedovanje pomagali naši sosede, duhovniki lazaristi iz Toronta. V četrtek sta bila za spoved g. Ivan Plazar in g. Jakob Barle. Gospod Jakob je nato tudi vodil sveto mašo in nas spodbudil z duhovnim nagovorom. V petek zvečer pa je prišel g. Antonio Burja in je spovedoval, nato pa še vodil sveto mašo in med mašo v homiliji nadrobil veliko spodbudnih misli za osebno pripravo na veliko noč. - Hvala vsem, ki so pripomogli, da smo imeli priložnost za to bogato pripravo.

POKOJNI

V Sloveniji je umrl Štefan Stanko, brat naše faranke Olge Hanc. Na dan njegovega pogreba, t.j. V torek 31. marca, smo v naši cerkvi darovali sveto mašo, za pokoj njegove duše.

V Sloveniji je umrla tudi Anica Lovšin. Zadnjo bomo sveto mašo darovali v torek zvečer, 7 aprila.

Iskreno sožalje vsem sorodnikom ob izgubi najbližjih.
