NO. 34

Da se ne pozabi.

Vsi ljudje smo pozabljeni, eni bolj, drugi manj. Množičimamo trdno voljo in dober namen storiti to ali ono, pa ne storimo, iz enostavnega razloga, ker smo pozabili.

Gotovih rednih poslov, ki se ponavljajo dan za danem ali teden za tednom, se privadimo in jih ne pozabimo, kadar pride čas jih izvršiti. Poslov, od katerih smo odvisni za eksistenco ali z katerih si obetamo zabavo, tudi ne pozabimo zlepa. Drugače pa je z izrednimi posli, ki ne posegajo globoko v našo eksistenco, in s tistimi, ki se pojavljajo na redke čase.

Kdor vsak dan piše pisma, jih ne bo pozabil oddati na pošto, če prej ne, zvečer. Kdor pa le sem in tja napiše eno pismo, se mu lahko pripeti, da ga bo nosil v žepu en teden ali več, predno se bo domisil in ga vrgel v poštni nabiralnik. Podobnih primerov bi se dalo navesti stotine.

Neprilik, ki bi jih mogla povzročiti naša pozabljenost, se mnogokrat izognemo s tem, da si zapišemo kdaj imamo opraviti to ali ono. Tuintam si tudi kdo zaveže trak na prst ali napravi vozel na ruto. Zapisana beležka je seveda boljša od tega primitivnega opominjevalca, pod pogojem kajpak, da je ne pozabimo pravočasno prečitati. Zapisane beležke so najbolj učinkovite, če jih imamo na prostoru, kamor nam večkrat pade pogled. Mnogi imajo navado, da si to ali ono zabeležijo na stenski koledar. To je precej dober sistem, ker mine le malokateri dan, da ne bi pogledali na koledar. Pisec teh vrstic mora imeti gotove beležke na vidnem mestu pisalne mize, če hoče biti siguren, da jih bo vpošteval.

Opomini v časopisih včasi tudi precej zaležejo. Mi vsi bi marsikateri pozabili, če bi nas časopisje ne opozarjalo.

Čitanje časopisov je važen del ameriškega življenja, takoreč vsakdanja potreba. V splošnem smo ameriški Slovenci mnogo bolj navezani na časopisje kot so ali so vsaj bili naši bratje v starem kraju.

Marsikateri problem se med nami reši ali pospeši potom časopisa. Posebno naše podporne organizacije imajo v svojih glasilih najtesnejšo vez med članstvom in najboljše propagandno sredstvo. Res je, da poedini članek ali apel v največ slučajih malo izda, zato je treba to ali ono v rednih ali nerednih presledkih ponavljati. Saj imamo mnogo članov, ki so vneti za rast in napredek organizacije, pa je klub temu potreben, da se jih od časa do časa v glasilu opozori na kakšno aktivnost. Imajo dobro voljo in namen, samo pozabijo.

O našem mladinskem oddelku se je že večkrat pisalo tako od strani urednika, kot od strani glavnega odbornika in drugih članov. Kljub temu pa smatra urednik za umestno, da tem potom ponovno opozori društva J. S. K. Jednote in njene posamezne člane na veliko važnost tega oddelka. Le prerađo se namreč pozabi, kako dragoceno rezervo ima naša Jednota v mladinskem oddelku. Poročila iz glavnega urada kažejo, da dobimo zadnje čase večino novih članov za odrasli oddelk iz mladinskega oddelka. Ti člani so mlađi, kar je zelo velikega pomena, ker to zvišuje solventnost organizacije. Prestop iz mladinskega v odrasli oddelk je lahak in ne zahteva niti zdravniške preiskave, ako se član zavaruje za gotovo sveto smrtnine in bolniške podpore. Člana pridobiti na novo je mnogo težje, kot pa nagovoriti ga, da prestopi iz mladinskega v odrasli oddelk, ko doseže šestnajsto leto, kajti ti mladinski člani čutijo in se zavedajo, da že pripadajo organizaciji, da so že v naši hiši, samo v drugo sobo jim je treba stopiti.

Zato, bratje in sestre, da se ne pozabi, naj velja ta članek kot ponovni apel za vpisovanje otrok v naš mladinski oddelk. Pristopnina ni nobene, stroške zdravniškega pregleda do omejene višine plača Jednota, mesečni asesment znaša le 15c, pristopilo lahko otroci članov in nečlanov in otroki, ki je možno vpisati takoj po rojstvu, ali vsak čas pred šestnajstim letom. Visokost smrtnine se ravna po starosti otroka.

Kot je bilo že omenjeno, je članu mladinskega oddelka, ki dopolni 16. leto, zelo lahak prestop v odrasli oddelk. Poleg tega obstaja upanje, kot je omenil glavni tajnik v svojem pollettem poročilu, da bo v doglednem času mogoče dati nekaj kredita na račun vplačanega asesmenta tistem članom, ki bodo prestopili iz mladinskega v odrasli oddelk.

Na delo torej, bratje in sestre! Naš mladinski oddelk steje zdaj nekaj nad 7,000 članov, pa ni nobenega razloga, zakaj bi jih ne mogel štetи 14 tisoč!

Ali ste že kdaj povedali vašim priateljem, ki še niso člani J. S. K. Jednote, da je ta organizacija samo bratska podpora organizacija, ki ne vsljuje svojim članom nikakih verskih ali političnih nazorov, pa jih tudi ne bran? Ali ste jih povedali, da je J. S. K. Jednota nad stoprocentno solventna, da neprestano raste po članstvu in premoženju in da je vedno točna v svojih izplačilih?

Ako nameravajo predsednik za jesen ali zimo poslati kakšno komisijo na Hrvaj in ce bi manjkalo aplikantov, se morda še jaz priglasim, kajti ohijske zime se že v načrtu bojim. Španci lahko neženirano pošiljajo v to delo v poljubni množini slike do vrata bose ženske, kajti te slike se nahajajo na španskih poštnih znakih, izdanih v spomin slovečega slikarja Goya. Slika te ženske, imenovana "Maia," se smatra za največji umetvor omenjenega španskega umetnikom. In kjer se nahaja na poštnih znakih, smatrali jo morajo tudi največji puritanci za moralno.

POPRAVEK K ZAPISNIKUKORENJEVE MISLI

(A. J. T.)

V zapisniku polletne seje glavnega odbora, ki se je vrnila meseca julija t. l. in ki je bil priobčen v Novi Dobi z dne 6. avgusta, nahaja se na 5. strani slednji odstavek:

Prošnja Williama Kuznika, člana društva št. 138, Export, Pa. Ta član je prestopil iz mladinskega v odrasli oddelk meseca februarja 1930. Še ko je bil v mladinskem oddelku ga je zadela v nogu paraliza, vsled cesar je bil dne 20. maja operiran. Dne 1. julija se je moral ponovno podvreči operacija. Njegov oče, Frank Kužnik, tajnik omenjenega društva, poroča, da jih je osem v družini, da mu je bolezen Viljema povzročila prečne stroške, katere mu je vsled zelo slabih delavskih razmer, ki vladajo v premogarskih naselbinah po Pensylvaniji, nemogoče pokriti. Prosi, da bi se mu naklonilo nekaj podpore iz skladu onemoglih, čemur se pridružuje tudi društveni odbor. Vaš odbor priporoča, da se prošnji ugodi ter da se sobratu Viljemu Kužniku načaka sveta 35 dolarjev iz onemoglega sklada.

Predlagano in podpirano, da se priporočilo sprejme. Sprejetoto.

Tiskarski skrat je v navedenem odstavku napravil napako v svoti, katera je bila od glavnega odbora nakazana bratu W. Kuzniku v podporo. Označena je svota 35 dolarjev, medtem, ko je glavni odbor v resnici odobril le svoto 25 dolarjev, kar izkazuje tudi originalni zapisnik. Prizadeti član naj izvleče ta popravek na znanje.

Anton J. Terbovec, urednik-upravnik Nove Dobe.

V obrambo lisice

Lisica zvitopreka uživa med ljudmi slab glas in ima med njimi malo prijateljev in zagovornikov. Med temi je znani francoski prijatelj živali živnosti, imenovan Maia, se smatra za največji umetvor omenjenega španskega umetnika Trotta, ki je v zadnjih stivilklih listih "La terre Vandouse" napisal lisici topel zagovor. Pravi, da lisica ni tako škodljiva, kakor trdijo neupočenici ljudje. Uničuje namreč poljske miši in hrošči v velikih množinah ter je zato zelo koristna žival. Včasi, seve, zavije vrat tudi kokoši, ki je tako neumna, da spi na prostem, mestno da bi se zatekla v kurnik. Protaki kokoši neumnosti kajpada ni leka in je lisica upravičena, da skrbti za red v tem pogledu. Vendar, pravi Trotter, se pa kokoši grozno maščujejo nad zvitoprekom. Z lisicijem krznom si ovijajo vratove in čim razkošnejša je kokoška tem dražjo kožuhovino hoče. Počasi ji več ne zadostuje navadna lisica, marveč kokoški že ni živeti brez krzna modre lisice, posamezne pa si žele le srebrne lisice. Trotter pa lojalno ugotavlja, da te kokoške, besne lisice sovačnice, ne spadajo v živalstvo in ne žive v kurnikih. Posebna njihova strast so razen kožuhovine tudi dragocen nakit, prstani in briljanti. Tako popisuje Trotter francoske kokoši. To velja tudi za ameriške "čikne."

V botaničnem vrtu sarajevskega muzeja stoji obelisk iz srednjega veka, ki je že ves okrušen, ker Bosanke, ki bi rad postale matere, krusili kosočke kamene od tega spomenika in jih nosijo domov. Kot poročajo starokrajski listi, drobe Bosanke te kosočke kamene v prahu, kateri pijejo na mleku, trdno prepirane, da bodo zanesile. Gosh, ali so te Bosanke še praznoverne in starokopitne. V Ameriki se prospektivne matere poslužujejo vse drugačnih sredstev. AJT.

NEW ERA SUPPLEMENT

Edited by Louis M. Kolar.

SPORTING BITS

Coming Athletic Board Conference

Five lodges have already submitted three nominees each for the coming S. S. C. U. athletic board conference to be held in Cleveland, O., on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 12 and 13. They were as follows: National Star Lodge, No. 213, of Conemaugh, Jefferson Collegians Lodge, No. 205, of Canonsburg, Pa.; George Washington Lodge, No. 180, and Collinwood Boosters, No. 188, both from Cleveland, O.; Illini Stars Lodge, No. 189, of Chicago, Ill., and Comrades Lodge, No. 193, of Waukegan, Ill.

The member shall be selected from the three nominees to represent that particular lodge active in athletics. As passed by the Supreme Board at its last semi-annual meeting held during the week of July 14th, at Ely, Minn., the athletic committee shall appoint the representative from the list of three.

When a lodge is active in athletics there is usually one standing member that takes special pains to give the team necessary publicity. In the past, it has been the policy of the athletic commissioner to correspond with such members, the officers of the lodge. A number of nominees submitted by various lodges have had a personal contact with the athletic commissioner.

In fact, lodges active in athletics from the States of Ohio and Illinois, have been visited at some time or other by the athletic commissioner, and long before this suggestion was made before the Supreme Board, the matter was given serious consideration.

Representatives of lodges active in athletics from the State of Pennsylvania have corresponded with the athletic commission for some time past, mainly on the matter of promoting athletics. Some of these lodges have maintained teams in the State of Pennsylvania, and, of course, will have representatives on the S. S. C. U. athletic board.

FORGOTTEN

Where are they now, those old-time friends,
Those friends of another day?
Those friends who lent us a helping hand
Before we drifted away.
Those friends who understood our hopes and dreams,
Who cheered us on and on.
Forgotten friends now—somewhere in the world—
Like the melody of an old sweet song.

Where are they now, those old, sweet dreams
We dreamed so long ago,
When there was faith and hope in our eager hearts?
But now they are forgotten and have faded away,
Those dreams of a bygone year.
Forgotten old friends—forgotten old dreams—
Said away with perhaps a tear.

Two S. S. C. U. members of Cleveland, O., were united in wedlock Saturday, Aug. 16, when Miss Rose Jaklich, member of lodge No. 137 joined the bands of matrimony with Mr. Frank Levstek, member of lodge No. 37.

A number of friends attended the shower given the bride last Thursday, Aug. 14, held at the Slovenian National Home. A large number of beautiful gifts were given the happy couple by their many admirers, as both are very popular among their set. Dancing followed and lasted until past midnight.

Congratulations is given the bridal couple.

George Washingtons to Hold Sports Dance

Proceeds to be Placed in Athletic Fund

George Washington, the first president of the United States, was known to be first in the hearts of his countrymen.

George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, of Cleveland, O., is going to be first among the SSCU lodges to sponsor a Sports Dance to be held on Saturday evening, Sept. 13, at Grdina's hall. The dance will cap the climax of the SSCU athletic board conference to be held on Sept. 12 and 13, at Cleveland, where representatives of various lodges, active in athletics, will meet to discuss various means and ways to improve the athletic department of our Union.

Proceeds of the dance will be used to promote athletic activities in the George Washington Lodge, money to be used to defray expenses for equipping the teams with uniforms and other incidental items. A girls and a boys basketball teams are planned for the coming season, and a girls baseball team for next year in addition to the boys baseball team.

George Washington Lodge will be the first group among the SSCU lodges to establish a sports fund, the money to be used to defray expenses incurred for promoting athletics ONLY. This is certainly a good idea and should be followed by other English-conducted lodges.

All lodges in Cleveland, O., and vicinity are cordially invited to attend this dance and help put this sport fund idea across.

Beat Spartans in 7th

Three home runs, two by Frank Hocevar and one by Lefty Merhar, made the seventh inning of the George Washington-Spartan tussle one that will be remembered by the G. W.'s and the Spartans.

Joe Jarc, manager of the Cherry Tree Choppers, called "Samson" Drobni to the mound, while Jarc covered right short. Samson, pitching his first game, did well for a beginner.

In the second inning Samson was touched for three runs and was called to play right short, and Joe Jarc himself pitched the G. W.'s to another victory.

The seventh inning may well be called as the "lucky seventh"; this was the climax of the great tussle. Here's what happened: F. Hocevar was the first batter and hit the first ball pitched for a clean four-bagger. Jim Marincic was second to follow and he walked. Pate flied out, and in the meantime Jim was not idle, as he kept advancing and finally scored on a wild pitch. Vesel walked. Frenchy Hren doubled, scoring Vesel. Lefty Merhar hit a four-bagger, scoring Hren ahead of him. Brezovar walked. Birchy Kromar doubled, scoring Brezovar. Jarc singled, scoring Birchy. F. Hocevar batted again in this inning and crashed another four-bagger, scoring Jarc ahead of him.

This game meant the world to the G. W.'s and their victory was well deserved. Up to the sixth inning it looked like a Spartan victory, but the tables were turned in favor of the G. W. lucky seventh. Every man did his best, collecting two hits or more each; Birchy got two doubles and one single.

BRIEFS

Collegians Win, 3 to 2

Have Scored 21 Victories, 9 Defeats and 1 Tie

Canonsburg, Pa.—Jefferson Collegians Lodge (No. 205, SSCU) baseball team took a mighty interesting game from the Venetia nine Friday, Aug. 8, by a score of 3 to 2. Elish was on the mound for the Collegians and allowed but three hits, fanning six batsmen. Vic "Little Poison" Horstman and brother Hen "Big Poison" took batting honors for the winners, the former getting a triple and the latter a two-bagger.

ANOTHER SLOVENIAN baseball player from Cleveland, O., has been sold to the American League. Frank Doljack, playing for Wheeling of the Mid-Atlantic League, has been purchased by the Detroit Tigers and will report at the close of the Mid-Atlantic season.

MISS ELLA PRISTOW, popular secretary of the National Star Lodge, No. 213, SSCU, of Conemaugh, Pa., dropped in the New Era office Monday, Aug. 18, while visiting Cleveland, O. She was accompanied by her father, Mr. Frank Pristow, and her two brothers Frank Jr., and Henry Pristow.

BOZIDAR JAKAC, the celebrated Slovenian artist, is making portraits of several prominent people of Washington, D. C., where he is residing at the present time. Recently Hon. R. McCullough, senator from Ohio had his portrait done by Jakac.

John Fortuna and Leonard Potochnik of Rock Springs, Wyo., both suffered injuries as a result of an accident that occurred when Fortuna, riding on the running board of his car, was struck by Potochnik driving in the opposite direction.

Thursday evening, Aug. 28, the municipal playgrounds of Cleveland, O., are giving their annual demonstration program at Brookside stadium, and will include a combination of the many phases of playground activities scheduled every day on the city playgrounds.

Mention is made of the S. S. C. U. athletic board conference to be held in Cleveland, O., during Sept. 12 and 13. Any suggestions should be given to the representatives of various lodges. They can also be mailed to the New Era office, 6117 St. Clair Ave., in care of Louis M. Kolar, athletic commissioner.

Foilower Warns Coolinwood Boosters

Krall-Laurich and team in general, be on the lookout for the Foilower. He is going to invade Collinwood and drink up all your turpentine; he's on a rampage for turp and the lady friends. Lock up your cellars. Lefty will be the Foilower's assistant. Is this O. K.?

She: No, darling, but I've been married.

Keep your courage, pals, each and every member of the George Washington Lodge is for you. Can you lose? NO!!! Your pluckiness is our courage.

Current Thought.

DELEGATES SHOULD BE PREPARED

All Forms of Athletic Activities to be Discussed

Representatives of various lodges coming to Cleveland, O., on Sept. 12 and 13 to attend the S. S. C. U. athletic board conference should come with plenty of ideas on improving the athletic department of our Union. The matter should be given close study and debated upon so that it will be in good form when ready to be presented at the conference.

Members of various lodges, and especially those that are athletically inclined should offer their representative ideas. Their viewpoint should be earnestly solicited. If necessary the representative should make a note of the suggestions offered him, and present them at the conference.

Here are some of the things that will come up for discussion. Is it possible to form a league of S. S. C. U. lodges in your vicinity so that a regular schedule can be formed for the year 1931? This league can include baseball both indoor and hard ball, bowling and basketball. If the cities or towns having S. S. C. U. lodges are too far distant, what arrangements can be made towards promoting a regular schedule between the two teams? In general how can we promote inter-lodge activities between S. S. C. U. lodges all over the country.

What sports should be recognized by our Union in addition to the ones already listed on the "Rules and regulations governing administration of the athletic department of the S. S. C. U."? Are we to have a bowling tournament? A basketball tournament?

Of course, the girls will be given plenty of serious consideration. The fair sex should voice their opinions and suggest ideas to the representatives of the lodge, and in that way be included in the general program undertaken by the athletic board. Formation of girls' teams should be encouraged considering the fact that girls can participate in practically all of the sports undertaken by the boys.

Every opportunity should be taken to boost the local lodge and the S. S. C. U. Sports is one of the best means to stimulate interest in lodge activities and create a whole-hearted spirit among the members. Incidentally, it offers one of the best means to induce outsiders to become members.

Comrades Trim Lake Forest Nine, 7 to 5

Capt. Palucius Stars

Waukegan, Ill.—Comrades Lodge baseball team (No. 6, SSCU) is on a warpath. Their victory over the Urbans on Aug. 3 indicated things as such, because by the time the dust settled down the Alloys were on the long end of a 21-to-8 score.

Three runs were scored in the first inning by the Alloys, followed by four more in the second inning. From then on they were leading continuously. Batting stars for the winners were as follows: Santa, F. Whiteman, Horkary, Jackopin and Vidrick. Home runs were made by Vidrick, F. Whiteman, Santa, Hobkary and H. Whiteman. Jinx Jacopin pitched a fine game after two weeks' lay-off because of an infected hand.

In winning Sunday's game, the Alloys have made their winning streak to six games. Games would like to be booked with any Class A, B or C team of Cleveland, games to be played either in Lorain or Cleveland. Manager can get in touch with me by writing or calling the following:

A series of "Sidewalks of the Comrades Lodge" will appear in this medium in the near future. The submitter of this article somehow ran out of ideas, and as a consequence, the author will somewhat "shadow" the victims (members) in order to obtain the much needed "dope." So beware, Comrades, watch your step.

Present Mock Wedding

A number of "Basketeers" and members of the Arrowhead basketball teams, including a few elder people surprised Mrs. Pauline Stark at a pleasant shower party, held at the Community Center at Ely, Minn.

Miss Molly Zgongc of the Arrowhead and Miss Mary Jerich of the Basketeers staged a mock wedding. Of course, there were no males present, so Ann Tisovich performed as the groom selecting Miss Frances Pengal as the bride. Miss Zgongc was the minister and the ceremony proceeded in the presence of the guests. Josephine Slogar played the wedding march.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful gown tremendously popular during the year 1900. Plenty of lace and large pearl buttons were in evidence. Her veil was made from an old curtain hung down a little below the waist. She carried a beautiful bouquet of spinach and head lettuce. (Our Editor is a lover of flowers and would surely enjoy seeing such a bouquet). The bouquet was tied with streamers of suspenders; where they were obtained we do not know. She wore shoes that belonged to somebody's grandmother and were a perfect match for the dress. Miss Tisovich, as the groom, provided plenty of amusement for the guests.

"Tom Thumb's wedding" could not even begin to compare with the mock ceremony performed by us. After the bride and groom were made one, a fine lunch was served in the dining room. Plenty of fun was had and everybody enjoyed the ceremony.

I read the sport commissioner's article in the last edition of the New Era inducing other S. S. C. U. lodges of Ely, Minn., and vicinity to organize girls' teams. At the last convention of the S. S. C. U., when the idea of athletics was brought up, it was decided that Ely, Minn., and Cleveland, O., could organize and maintain as many teams as there are lodges. Let us go ahead and see what we can do about having some games.

Sidewalks of the Comrades Lodge

Frank Zupec, a resident of North Chicago, Ill., is employed at the Waukegan-North Chicago C-operative Co. (Slovenian Grocery and Meat Market). Frankie is also a member of the Comrades' highly touted baseball team.

Frankie "Zhoops" is a prominent figure; in fact, he needs very little introduction. He is well known in and around pool rooms, roadhouses, "soft" drink parlors, etc. Mr. Zupec is a politician, in other words, he is a speaker, and how that boy can talk! He was the first Comrade to enter the Hall of Fame. That was a year ago when Frank made that educational speech before a large audience, entitled: "Let's get a quart of port wine."

Bro. Zupec is strictly against alcoholism (exceeding 100 proof). However, he is in favor of good "moonshine," "dandelion wine" and "home brew." (Watch this column—You may be next.)

Sports Feature Picnic

Bowling may be out of season for a number of people, with the hot sun beating down upon us poor mortals. Nevertheless, it did not prevent Lodges No. 66 and No. 70 to engage in a friendly tussle, the former being the victor by a score of 2477 to 2188. Strohen of Lodge Zvon (No. 70) of Chicago, Ill., was high bowler, with a 200 score for the first game, while Horwath was high for Joliet with 194.

But this was just part of the program sponsored by the SS. Peter and Paul Lodge (No. 66) of Joliet, Ill., in its annual picnic held July 27 at Rivals Park. A baseball game was played between the Waysiders A. C. and N. E. A. C. in the afternoon, score being 12 to 5 in favor of the N. E. A. C. Rogell, Gregory and Briese were the heavy hitters for the Nays.

The picnic turned out satisfactory, considering the poor working conditions and the general depression. Dance music, furnished by Zlogar's Band, could be heard all over the picnic grounds due to the extension radio hookup that carried the music. Dancing was going on from 3 p. m. until midnight, the band being featured in the beautifully decorated pavilion.

In the morning a horseshoe pitching contest took place, and at 2:30 p. m. a tug-o-war was

Trim Firemen, 11 to 9Kaires and McKinney Clout Homers

Waukegan, Ill.—Comrades Lodge baseball team won its seventh consecutive game Sunday, Aug. 3, by defeating the strong Firemen Baseball Club at Crystal Lake, Ill., by a 11-to-9 count.

Firemen led in the third inning by a 3-to-1 count, but B. Kaires, Comrades' slugger, pulled out a circuit clout with one on to tie the score 3-all.

Earl McKinney came through with what proved to be the most timely hits of the day. The locals were trailing by a 4-to-3 count in the fourth; Charley (Lefty) Bick came to bat and singled to left, "Biff" Korenin forced Bick at second, McKinney then tripled to deep center, scoring Korenin.

When the Comrade boys came to bat in the ninth inning the score was again tied, 9 to 9. Bick, the first man at bat, tripled to left center, "Biff" Korenin fanned, Larry Petrovic, on an attempted bunt, popped up to the catcher. Two outs. McKinney then hit a home run, his second hit of the day, down the right field foul line. The home team failed to score in their half of the ninth.

In the sixth inning, with two men on base, Louis (Hack) Rode made a brilliant one-hand running catch in deep right field to retire the side.

Score by innings:

The Follower

Sometime ago the Follower expressed himself and also made it known to a group of the G. W.'s "African golf fans" that he would like to organize a militia of our baseball and basketball teams, the latter being called "better halves." If a George Washington militia was to be organized, the Follower had better take pity on Birch, Jarc, Bzil, Marinic, Merhar and Samson. Why, the boys would die of heart trouble because they are afraid of the "better halves."

Last night the follower had a funny dream and related it to a number of people on the Public Square.

Here's his tale: "I was riding a mule, thinking it was a horse. I wondered why the long-eared fool was so slow. I got off the darn thing and whipped it, but to no avail. After whipping the dear little creature, I turned my back for a moment, when, bang, the darn fool imbedded his two hoofs deep into my carcass. It wouldn't have been so bad, but the beast of burden knocked me right at the feet of Julia Bouha, Rose Celesnik, Christina Brezovar and Augusta Terbovec, much to their delight. Never, never in my life did I feel so cheap. And to think I let a lazy mule knock me for a row of tin shacks."

This was his dream, and really think, you girls, would show some sympathy for the poor boy and not laugh. By the way, girls, what is the Follower's name? I know him by looks, but not his name. The Follower says to remember the G. W.'s Sports Dance to be held Saturday evening, Sept. 13, at Grdina's Hall.

Frank (Lefty) Jaklich, George Washingtons, SSCU.

Picnic Service At Disposal

Many clubs and fraternal organizations of Cleveland do not realize that the Cleveland Division of Recreation maintains a service that will help to make their picnics and outings more successful.

Altho the service has been in operation for several years, first at the Recreation Council and later at Room 6, City Hall, Cleveland, O., many people are just finding out about it, John H. Gourley, city recreation commissioner, says.

The service does not cost the city anything and it is self-supporting, the organizations being glad to pay a nominal fee for the special service which cannot be obtained anywhere else.

The service carries a large amount of picnic material, balls, bats, horseshoes, stakes, ropes and apparatus for many games, which it loans out. In addition, it has a staff of experienced playleaders and sports directors, who will go to your picnic and see that there is fun going on every minute.

J. E. Middagh, East High School physical trainer, is in charge of the service. He is assisted by Frank J. Bush, principal of Detroit Junior High School K. L. Folger, Roosevelt Junior High, Euclid; J. W. Pendleton, formerly of Detroit Junior High; R. D. Templeman and Gordon Zellers, layers; Ernest Werdel, Rawlings Junior High; David Hicks, assistant recreation commissioner, Lakewood; Margaret Mooney, playleader, Cleveland Heights; Julius Kemeny, general supervisor of recreation; William Friedel, playground magician; Karl Bauer, playground supervisor, and Clifford Solinger, formerly of Empire Junior High.

Summer Boarder: "But why are those trees bending over so far?"

Farmer: You'd be bending over, too, Miss, if you were as full of green apples as those trees are.

Attend Joint PicnicLose Close Game, 5 to 4

Conemaugh, Pa.—Members of National Star Lodge (No. 213, SSCU) should make a special effort to come to the joint picnic next Sunday, Aug. 24, at Bon Air, Pa., situated just above Franklin, Pa. This is the first combined picnic of the National Star and Friendly City (SNPJ) lodges.

Plenty of amusements, sports, etc., are scheduled on the program. To make the evening program more attractive, dancing will go on at the Slovenian Home at Bon Air, and picnickers will have the privilege of attending both affairs. Lou Kopler and his accordion, with Joe Korber and his banjo, will furnish all the sweetest and latest melodies to accompany the dancers. Again we want to remind you that the picnic will take place in the afternoon and the dance in the evening.

Athletic Board Conference

Several articles have appeared by Bro. Kolar, editor of the New Era Supplement, commenting on the athletic situation of the South Slavonic Catholic Union. His suggestion for promoting athletics among S. S. C. U. lodges, by holding an athletic board conference, is very good, as this will bring members of various cities in closer contact and better understanding. Sports will undoubtedly boost the lodge activities as well as provide a form of clean entertainment. Thanks to Bro. Kolar for bringing the subject up, and here's hoping sincerely that the conference brings about the desired end.

Lose Close Game

National Star baseball team lost a close game to the Highland Eagles at Highland Park, by a score of 5 to 4. Errors and the bad condition of the playing ground contributed heavily toward the defeat. L. Kopler, J. Thomas and Steve Troyan did the heavy work for the losers, while O'Donnell and Evans performed for the winners. It is up to the National Star to show their true fighting spirit by forgetting the close defeat and go out for more victories.

Let's one and all attend our meetings regularly. Don't let the warm weather or any dates prevent you from attending. If he or she (that keeps you away) does not belong to the lodge then bring her or him to the lodge meetings. Presto! We will have more members added to our lodge. Even though the working conditions are not promising at the present time, still we should do our best and campaign for new members.

Jos. Kopler, Pres.

Takes Second Honors

During the meet, held at Brookside Park stadium on July 20, John Marincek, leader of the Slovenian Sokols, won second honors in individual performance. Considering that there were 180 entries, including the Polish and Czech Sokols and German Turners, we must say that this is some feat especially when one considers that only the best of each group participated.

Indian

The fact that an Indian belongs to a tribe does not deprive him of the privilege of voting provided he is qualified under the laws of the state in which he lives.

92,655. This is 8,000 more attendance than was handled up to the same time last year. Sometimes as many as a dozen picnics are conducted the same day by this unique public service, for which there is much demand.

VILEMIR

POVEST IZZA TURSKIH BOJEV

(Nadalevanje)

Vsak dan so hitele drobne noge na visoki stolp, golobje oko je gledalo željno v sivo daljo . . . Včasih je začrnelo na beli cesti—srce je zatrepetalo. Pa jezdila le družba oboroženih trgovcev zraven svojih voz . . . Včasih se je vzdignil prah na cesti—pa so priopotali le težki vozovi z vinom. Voznik je stopal prešerno, pokal objestno z bičem. Vino je bilo goriškega grofa—vozniku ni bilo treba plačati davčine, ne batí se napadov, štitil ga je goriški lev, vžgan v plat velikih sodov . . . Včasih se je ustavil trgovec v taboru. Razstavljen je svoje blage pod široko lipo, na okrogli mizi in klopi, po pisanem travniku. Hitelo je k njemu staro in mlado, iz grada in tabora. Razkazoval je blago, hvalil in pravil čudne novice o turških ropih, beneških bojih na morju, o velikanskih galejah, o junakih—a je molčal o junaku vseh junakov . . . Strica ni bilo.

Včasih je prijezdil goriški kapetan Febo della Torre. Prepričal se je, če je vse v redu ob dolgi odsotnosti gradnikovi, in če je devica Romana dobro zavarovana. Ker nemirni so bili časi, Turci si je iskal pota v deželo. Benečan je vznemirjal obrežja, po gozdih so stanovale razbojniške trume, plemenitaši so vojevali krvave praske med seboj. Pa Turci ni še vedel za skriti grad, in, če so se tudi preganjali plemenitaši med seboj, si požigali in podirali gradove, nežna deklica je lahko živelala brez vse skrb in samotnem gradu.

Bolj kot pas zidu jo je ščitila slava stričevega imena in zvestoba plemstva. Najboljši meči dežele so bili pripravljeni v njeno obrambo. Vendar je stala vsak dan na stolpu, vzdihala in se ozirala po stricu, čigar srce je bilo tako plemenito, čigar usoda pa tako tožna. Kako radab bi mu iztirala žalost z otočnega čela—pa ona ni bila mož—ni mogla sprati madeža z imena Vladimirovič—ni mogla po svetu, za materjo, za osvetlo . . .

Smela je le čakati in koprneti. A čakala in koprnila je zaman. Dnevi so tekli in njene oči so se naveličale strmeti v sivo daljo, njene noge utrudile hiteti po stopnicah, krvave sence so jo motile v spanju, njena molitev je veljala mrtvimi . . . Nežno bitje v valoviti, s cvetjem positi beli bosanski nosi je postajalo boljši drobno . . . Žalost se je vtisnila krog mehkih ust, hrepenenje gledalo iz globokih oči . . . Biseri so kapljali iz očes, živobojni, svileni trakovi v bujnih, po ramah do roba krila visečih svetlih pletenicah so se povesili.

Zaman je bilo laskanje njenih mladih dvorjanic, ljubkih hčerk oskrbnika Pera, Rože in Naste, zaman prizadevanje oskrbnikove žene rahločutne, lepe Nute. Romana jih je objemala, se smejava z njimi, jim pela divne pesni daljnih logov . . . Vendar jih je ostala njena duša tuja. Nuta je čutila, da zveni pikrost v srebrnem smehu kneginjice, slutila, da je tajna žalost na dnu veselih besedi. Njena bol je bil—njen oče!

Dolžnost otrokova je, da ljubi, spoštuje očeta in moli zanj. Ona bi ga klela, klela iz vse duše . . . kriv je materine, stričeve in njene nesreče. Vzel ji je mater, brata, hotel umoriti strica . . . Pogazil je križ, odpadnik, za časno dobro . . .

Bil je človek v gradu, kateremu je odkrivala vse tajne srca—samo te ne . . . Kako naj pravi blagemu Grku Zenonu, kako se bori njena duša s kletvijo, kendar hoče moliti za očeta! Ne, mož je ne bi razumel . . . Sin Carigrada je ubežal iz njega, ko je padel križ s cerkev sv. Zofije. Zivel je na dvoru Katarine. Po padcu Bosne je hodil od grada do grada in si služil kruh s poučevanjem. Stric je našel nekdanjega znanca iz boljših časov in ga povabil k sebi. Rad je delil Grk zaklade svoje učenosti z malo dekllico in se divil poletu njenih misli. Večkrat sta pozabljala v globljena v nedosežno lepoto starih klasicov čas in njega muke. Pesnik, slikar, alkemist in zdravnik je bil Zenon. Pa prišlo je in Zenon je pozabil pero in čopič, pustil posodice in ponvice, in stal dolge ure na stolpu. Gledal je divje gorovje in hrepenel po zlatostrešnem Carigradu. Poosobljena elegija je bil takrat. Dolg, črn talar mu je oviral sloko, suho telo, črna kapa mu je pokrivala duhovito čelo. Prsti so gladili rjavo, do pasu segajoči brado, dobroščeno oko se je vlažilo . . . Tako sta stala mnogokrat v nenavzočnosti strica na stolpu, gledala, mislila in molčala. Če je izpregorovil Zenon, kakor zbudivši se iz sanj, počasi in mehko o domovini, ona bogve da ga ni poslušala. Njene misli so hitele za tistim, ki se je boril, iskal in vračal le redko v trdn grad . . . Zvesto je prizigala svetilnico pred sliko svete Matere, prosila in čakala. Včasih je prekipeala bol, slovanska duša jo je zaupala goslim. Mili glasovi so tožili vetrovom in cvetlicam: Da je padla tako zgodaj slana na cvetje njenega življenja, da je izgubila rodni dom, da ječi sveta zemlja domovinska v sužnosti . . . Da je otemnela slava njenega imena, da mora zaničevati lastnega očeta . . . Da mora samevati deklica v gradu, ko bi hodila tudi ona, potomka junakov, na pohode, na iskanje . . . Vse to je tožila strunam—glasovi so hiteli skozi okno v hribe—od tam je zavel vetrč, prinašal tolažbo: Prostost se bo vrnila domovini, še se bo klanjala Bosna križu, še našla mati, še povrnila sreča detinskih dni . . . Romana! Trinajst let je že preteklo, kar samuješ v Rihenberku. Strica ni. Kaj upaš, čakaš? Čas je, da odložiš zeleni venec, že ti je poklonil marsikak vitez meč in ime, a ti misliš le na tisto daljno, morda na veke izgubljeno, ne poznaš druge ljubezni kakor mater in strica . . . za junaka, ki nosi tri globoke srčne rane, tri svete prisege.

Solnce je zahajalo za rihenberške holme. V zadnjih žarkih, v divni lepoti je zasijala vipavska dolina. Vasi in griči v naročju gor so zardele od radošči. Iz dola je prihajalo žvenkljanje krovjnih zvonov, pastirjeva pesem je spremilah zahajajoče solnce. Z dvorišča je prihajalo govorjenje tlačanov in hlapcev ropotanja, topotanje konj, ki jih je gonil konjar na Branico. Zrak se je napolnil s sladkim duhom, s tajnim miron. Mrak je prihajal, ura, ko pospeši trudni popotnik korake, da pride v varno zavetje rodne hiše, čas, ko zapuščajo zveri in roparji svoje brloge, ko se plazijo zli besi po gorah . . .

Zopet ni strica . . . Že nekaj tednov ga čaka oskrbnik s "pravdo," tlačani in vitezi poprašujejo po njem. Ali je padel pod krivo sabljo? ali se ne vrne nikoli več . . . Pa bi prišel vsaj zvesti Tone, mladi Vukić. Ali so poginili vsi? V črno se bo zavila in podala na pot. Jokajoč bo iskala po vseh stezah in cestah žar črnih oči, sladki stričev nasmej . . .

DOPISI

(Nadalevanje iz 5. strani) stopnikov, ki se bodo udeleževali sej.

Da je takoj v začetku obstajala želja za splošno sodelovanje vseh društva JSKJ v tem okrožju, se je pokazalo s tem, da so se na prvem sestanku pač sestavila in sprejela pravila, toda določilo se je, da se jih obdobi šele na prihodnjem sestanku, na katerem upamo, da bo na vsočih več društvenih zastopnikov. Istotako se ni volil stalni, ampak samo začasni odbor. S tem so ustavnitelji pokazali, da priznavajo enakopravnost vsem društvom in da želijo sodelovanja vseh.

Vsa cenjena društva J. S. K. Jednote, ki niso preveč oddajena od Pittsburgha, so vladljeno vabljeni, da stopijo v Zvezo, ker v slogi je moč in so pogoj za napreddek. Na svidenje 2. novembra v Slovenskem Domu v Pittsburghu!

GLASOVI Z RODNE GRUDE

(Nadalevanje s prve strani) v Itri in na Goriškem okoli 600,000 Slovencev, ki so jih odvezli vse kulturne pravice. Njihove so zaprite, listi ustavljeni, konfiscirani kulturni fondi, društva razpuščena, njihovi učitevji in duhovniki se nahajajo v ječah. Na kratko, z njimi se potopata kakor s sužnji, na način, ki po vsem svetu v 20. stoletju nima primera. Zakaj se potem Italijani razburjajo? Ali morda zato, ker hodijo naši Sokoli v Jugoslavijo, v jugoslovenski Dubrovnik, v jugoslovenski Split. Da, pravijo "Narodni listy," toda šli bodo tja žopet, kadarkoli bo to potrebno. Mi bomo šli k svojim v svobodne domove, na slovansko zemljo, na jugoslovenski Jadran. Nikogar se ni treba tam batiti, zaključuje članek, razen morda nočnega srečanja s kakim "Francescom Morosinijem."

Zastrupljenje dveh otrok z žganjem. V Čurugu pri Novem Sadu je bil nedavno velik letni sejem. Seljak Milenko Perič je z nekaterimi prijatelji šel tja, da nakupi nekoliko potrebsčin za hišo. Dvoje svojih otrok je puštil doma in jih zaklenil v stanovanju. Ko sta otroka pregledovala neko omara, sta našla steklenico žganja in začela pititi. Pila sta, dokler se nista pijana zgrudila na tla. Ko se je oče vrnril s sejma, je našel otroka negibna. Občinski zdravnik je ugotovil, da je petletna deklica že umrla zaradi zastrupljenja z alkoholom, šestletni deček pa se še bori s smrtnjo.

Kakor se poroča iz Aleksandrije, so na svojem sredozemskem potovanju tri jugoslovenske vojne ladje, podmornici ravnati po poštnem pečatu. Na ta način ne bo prišlo do nesporazumov in pritožb, da je kateri bo prebral podpore.

Priporočam nadalje, da pripreljo člani na prihodnjo in na sledenje seje kaj novih kandidatov, da bo naše društvo koncem leta deležno vsaj ene nagrade, ki so razpisane v našem glasilu.

Z bratskim pozdravom,

Vincenc Resnik, tajnik.

La Salle, Ill.

Časi, v katerih se nahajamo zdaj, so tako kritični, in baš zdaj bi se moral biti zanimati za podporni društva. Da je problem tajništva pri društvih, kjer člani ne plačujejo redno svojih asesmentov, tako težak, to vsak dobro ve. Zadnje mesec se pri našem društvu "Danica," št. 124 JSKJ, pogosto dogaja, da člani kar enostavno izstanejo z asesmentom, ne da bi tajništvo obvestili, zakaj ne plačajo.

Na zadnji redni seji društva Danica se je o tem razmotrivalo in sklenjeno je bilo, da če član ali članica ne more pravčasno plačati svojega asesmenta enkrat, naj pride do tajnika oziroma tajnice in pove vzrok.

Tisti, ki dolgujejo pa že za več mesecov asesment, naj pridejo na prihodnjo sejo in naj navedejo vzroke.

Kdor ne bo vpošteval gospodarskega društva, da ne bo enostavno suspendiran.

Ni namreč lepo, da morajo lojalni člani iz svojih žepov začakladi asesment za tiste člane, ki nimajo toliko poguma, da bi prišli na sejo in se opravičili. Čim več skupnega sodelovanja bo pri društvu, tem več napredka za društvo in Jendot.

S sestrskim pozdravom,

Milka Vogrich,

tajnica društva Danica, št. 124 JSKJ.

"Hrabri" in "Nebojša" ter matična ladja "Svitica," prispele dne v egiptovsko pristanišče v Aleksandriji. Ker so bile to prve jugoslovenske vojne ladje v Egiptu, je jugoslovenska kolonija z veseljem pozdravila njihov prihod. Tamkajšnje časopisje je posetilo jugoslovenske vojne mornarice posvetilo simpatične članke in objavilo tudi sliko komandanta eskadre kapetana bojnega broda Janka Kršnjavega. Jugoslovenski poslanik Dučić je na čast eskadri přivedl článku, itotako tudi jugoslovenski konzul v Aleksandriji dr. Mušič. Po tridnevem bivanju je eskadra zapustila Aleksandriju ter odtipla v Beirut, ki je druga etapa njene potovanja.
